Closing thoughts on the Yonkers International, and looking ahead to the Jug

Nijinsky defeating stablemate Legendary Hanover again – this time in the Simcoe – should make things interesting in Delaware, OH.

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

There has been an abundance of stakes races going back to last Thursday's (Sept. 5) Pennsylvania Sire Stakes finals for 2-year-olds through Monday's (Sept. 9) PASS finals for 3-year-olds, with no shortage of action whatsoever in that five-day span across a multitude of other tracks and states. The most high-profile race was of course the $1 million Yonkers International Trot, but other races conducted over the same period will help shape upcoming races, most notably the Little Brown Jug which is suddenly just eight days away.

Starting with Saturday's Yonkers International Trot, I was out to lunch (both literally and ironically) early in the afternoon, totally unaware that the International came early in the day in race 5. I saw a social media post that stated horses were out on the track for the International and assumed it meant they were warming up for later, but lo and behold it was already nearing post-time.

I assume the earlier post time at 2 p.m. ET was to accommodate a simulcast of the race to Europe. France and Italy are six hours ahead, making the race an 8 p.m. start in those countries. I don't have a particular issue with the start time (what's the difference between 2 or 4 p.m.?), but if the time is going to be structured to presumably maximize international viewing, why not at least have the wagering pools co-mingled with the international money? This way, instead of having a win pool of $31,000 and an exacta pool of $41,000, those pools could have been in the hundreds of thousands.

Another potential area to reconsider for next year was choice of saddlecloth colors. This looks like the first year that Yonkers elected to go with all horses having the exact same yellow color saddlecloth; again, presumably, to conduct the race in a European manner. It doesn't work here as most people who watch Yonkers, or any North American track, are accustomed to the traditional color system to identify horses. If you didn't have the announcer volume up, it was impossible to distinguish between horses and the graphics didn't keep up well either.

The idea for the International is a good one but racing on the Yonkers half-mile makes it increasingly more difficult to attract top overseas talent. There's just so much that can go wrong related purely to post position and racing luck. It's a lot asking horses to be parked around six turns in the extended race when in normal races there, the turns are so disadvantages that no one moves until after the third one of four. Could a "Yonkers International Trot at The Meadowlands" ever be a thing?

Right from the start to the end, the race went about the only way that it could, with Jiggy Jog 5 dominating on the front and a razor sharp Periculum doing all he could do from the second-tier post to close for second. Fortunately for me, last week's column about the international stars lacking proved correct for a change, with five out of the six invaders finishing sixth through 10th.

Switching gears and looking ahead to next week's Little Brown Jug, top contenders were all in action this past weekend. Most notably, the two highest-rated Jug eligibles – Anthony Beaton trainees Nijinsky and Legendary Hanover, who went head-to-head in Saturday's Simcoe Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Just as he did at that track in the North America Cup, Nijinsky was able to spring the minor upset over the 1-5 backed Legendary Hanover. Having brushed to the lead first before yielding, Nijinsky tracked every move of his stablemate past the three-quarters time of 1:21.2 and went by confidently to win by over a length in a time of 1:48.4. Maybe because Nijinsky has raced in Canada all year except for his Meadowlands Pace races he seems a tad overlooked here in U.S. circles, but he deserves a ton of respect having only been once beaten this year, with that being a runner-up finish in the Meadowlands Pace. He's quietly built an impressive resume and post-position notwithstanding he will be the favorite heading into Delaware, OH, next week, with Legendary Hanover still being right there too.

Captain Albano had been one of the higher-rated Jug contenders and still is, but it'll be interesting to see how he rebounds from his $252,000 PASS final on Monday at Pocono. Following wins in the Adios and Hempt, he made a completely unforeseen break around the final turn after being used throughout in a race where the fractions were :25.4, :54.2 and 1:22.1. Fellow Jug-eligible horse Gem Quality was in the pocket at the time, but he was tired by the time the stretch arrived from the earlier fractions and faded.

Not to be lost in that race was the performance of the longshot winner Sweet Beach Life. He was in the midst of a monster middle move from way out of it and was still grinding when the favorite broke, but I'm not certain that he wasn't going to go by anyway. In retrospect, he's had poor posts in almost all of his stakes tries since July and shouldn't have been entirely dismissed as he was, especially with Matt Kakaley driving for Travis Alexander. He's Jug eligible and I'd imagine he'll be there on the heels of the sharp Pocono win. Alexander has another Jug possibility as well in Howlenth hills, who again with Kakaley, had little problem overcoming post 8 at Yonkers Saturday in his $225,000 NYSS final. The barn is firing on all cylinders, and even Huntingforchrome could be included in the mix too.

Elsewhere as far as notable Jug-eligibles, Captain Luke jogged at The Red Mile on Monday in 1:49.1 against a small field of undermatched horses. Captain's Quarters qualified at Woodbine Mohawk Park last Friday to a near 10-length score in 1:50.4. It seems like ages ago when Clever Cody was one of the top North America Cup contenders, but he came through with a nice post-9 score a few days ago at Scioto in an OHSS leg and we'll see if he gives the Jug a shot.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Having 'Hope' is healing Mollie McGeoch

by Chris Lomon

Hope, Mollie McGeoch discovered, can be a truly extraordinary thing.

As she got closer to the stall, a range of emotions flowed through the young woman in the wheelchair.

"I thought I was done with horses," McGeoch said. "I honestly believed that."

And then something most unexpected happened when the bay mare known as Dont U Wanna Stay locked eyes with her.

"The first time I went to the barn to see her, I was still in the chair and wearing a big brace," McGeoch said. "She put her head in my lap, and I just held her and patted her all over. I knew right then and there I wasn't done with horses."

DIAMOND CREEK

Not by a longshot.

A few months earlier, McGeoch, born in Saint Georges, DE, and now calls Church Hill, MD, home, never would have entertained the thought.

In fact, she would have bristled at the very idea.

And for good reason.

"I was in a serious accident with my riding horse in March," she said. "It was a 3-year-old who I just bought. I had taken her for a trail ride when I went to get her, and she was fine.

"I found out later on that she had come from a very bad situation. She was okay at first and then just flipped a switch. A week later, she was completely different. She was terrified of everything in an empty arena. The next thing I know, one day, she reared up and backwards."

"I shattered pretty much everything from my knee down on my leg," she said. "I had two surgeries, and I was in shock trauma going on a little more than two weeks. My surgeons weren't 100 per cent sure how my procedures were going to pan out. As of right now, I am not planning on having any more surgeries."

She knows the outcome could have been far worse.

"I find it very surreal because there was a point where I thought I was never going to walk again," she said. "It kind of flashes back. One wrong move and it could have killed me. She landed right on top of me and if it were a couple of inches difference, it could have ended way differently."

The horse community, including many from Ocean Downs, and others outside of the harness racing world, reached out to McGeoch as soon as news of the accident made its way through the backstretch.

She is grateful for the outpouring of support.

"I have a great support system, who have been with me through everything," she said. "I would not have been able to do it without them. It has been hard, but things are getting better."

Finding her way back to horses has been a complicated journey.

The accident prompted McGeoch to contemplate her future with them.

"I started riding when I was 2 and it grew from there," she said. "I rode a horse once and I knew what I wanted to do. That comes through my mom, who rode horses her whole life. She got me my first horse.

"This accident made me rethink everything. I had fallen a lot before, but never to this extent. I was a little wary of horses after it happened."

But then, in her words, a miracle happened.

It started through someone in her inner circle.

“When I started working as a groom for trainer Eddie Dennis three years ago, I met [trainer/owner] John Dixon, who became my adopted grandfather,” McGeoch said. “We have become very close. He bought a horse for us, something for the two of us to look forward to.”

Dixon found the horse, Dont U Wanna Stay, through onGait, the first online selling and auction website dedicated to the standardbred industry.

The price was right, but most importantly for Dixon, it was a way to help his “granddaughter” heal.

“She had never been on a half-mile track before, so we didn’t know what to expect,” McGeoch said. “Between the time of my surgery and this horse – I call her ‘Hope’ because that is what she gives me every single day – I was very down and didn’t have much to look forward to. But now I did.”

Two weeks after a May 14 qualifier at Rosecroft Raceway, the 4-year-old daughter of Stay Hungry went postward at Ocean Downs in the 11th race, a dash that had drawn eight hopefuls.

Sent on her way at 5-1, fourth choice on the tote board, Dont U Wanna Stay, with Russell Foster in the race bike, won by a length in 1:57.1.

One week later, again at Ocean Downs, the Hanover Shoe Farms-bred miss was back in the winner’s circle after a six-length romp in a career-best 1:56.

“She treated us so well with so many great races over the summer,” McGeoch said. “Everybody will tell me that she did it for me.”

McGeoch did something because of Don’t U Wanna Stay.

“I am working towards my trainer’s license – I passed the written test and will take the practical part of the trainer’s license soon — because of her,” McGeoch said. “I thought being a groom would be enough for me. When this life-changing situation happened, I realized I wanted to step up and do more.

“In the short term, I want to get my full trainer’s license, keep racing Hope and get another horse. Down the line, I would love to have a small stable for myself and do what I love every day.”

In between her studies, McGeoch does physical therapy twice a week.

The setbacks she faced early on in her road to recovery have lessened over time.

Her love for horses has grown exponentially since the accident.

“I am working hard to get back,” she said. “I have tried not to let it get to me as it once did. I still have bad days, but I realize there is a light at the end of the tunnel.”

The brightest being Dont U Wanna Stay.

“If it wasn’t for my horse or my support group, I would still be lying in bed, and not wanting to get better,” she said.

McGeoch doesn’t have to worry about either going away any time soon.

It is one of several thoughts that occupy her mind when she is at the racetrack each morning.

Not as a spectator, but as a horsewoman.

“I can jog Hope now,” McGeoch said. “She takes care of me, and I take care of her. She is the best racehorse I ever could have. Six months ago, I never could have been here. I am very lucky that I am feeling the way I am.

“I have learned not to take anything for granted after what happened. It was very traumatic. I never thought I would be able to walk around the barn, let alone get behind a horse in a jog cart.”

The tears she once cried have been replaced by a smile she felt at times would never return.

McGeoch, who also endured the heartbreak of losing her childhood horse this January, often finds herself thinking about the first time she met Dont U Wanna Stay.

“I thought I was done with horses,” McGeoch said. “When I saw this horse, I knew she was the one. We were the first and only bidder on her. It started from there. It’s been a miracle.”

Accompanied by determination, resolve, and, of course, a lot of hope.

“It has been a very rough year, but it’s turning out to be one of my favorite ones,” she said.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

T C I first male trotter to be PASS repeater

by PHHA / Pocono

Curtis Salonick

T C I became the first male trotter in the 31-year history of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes to win his divisional Championship at ages 2 and 3, purposefully marching to the front, in front of the stands, and then maintaining his lead to the wire in the finale, like the other Championships for 3-year-olds this day at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania worth $252,000.

David Miller, the only doubling driver in the PASS Championships this year, sat outside mid-pack early with the Cantab Hall colt, then rushed up to challenge leader Blackhawk Hanover past a :27.3 quarter. He made the lead under the wire the first time, reached the half in :57.2 and the three-quarters in 1:24.4, then appeared to draw off at will late in 1:53, finishing three lengths to the good of Usain Hanover, who photoed Blackhawk Zette for second.

A record money winner at 2 with overall earnings of over $1.2M in earnings, T C I led the Sire Stakes in prelim points and took his Championship. This season, he won both of his Sires prelim appearances, then came back to win the big money as a big favorite for trainer Ron Burke and Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, Hatfield Stables, and Knox Services Inc.

His division's consolation race, like the others worth $50,000, was won authoritatively by the Father Patrick gelding Memorynimagination, taking a new mark of 1:55 for driver Anthony MacDonald, trainer Tim Twaddle, and the partnership of Thestable Memrynimaginatn and Hutchison Harness LLC.

Miller's other Sire Stakes Championship came behind Elista Hanover, with the International Moni miss coming back to the track where she started her 10-race win streak earlier this year and making the most of her return with a 1:52.3 win for trainer Annie Stoebe, co-owner with R. Lynn and Philomena Curry.

Tim Tetrick did his best to put favored Elista Hanover in a bad spot, making a sweeping move with second choice Paulina Hanover after contested fractions of :26.4 and :56 to be surging to the lead at the 1:24.1 three-quarters. The pair cleared to the rail and tried to open some distance on "Elista," who was racing on their bumper, but that filly rode her cover much of the way around the dying one-wide and two-wide tiers and had a clear path in the lane, from which she worked by for a half-length triumph, adding the Championship to her prelim points leadership.

This group's consolation saw the driver (Braxten Boyd) and trainer (Don Wiest) with the biggest age disparity around (Boyd is 24; Wiest will be 94 on Oct. 1) again team successfully with the Andover Hall filly Tuis Angel, here in 1:54.3 for the ownership of trainer Wiest, his son David, Pamela Kimmel, and James Rappold.

male of either gait to be a divisional point leader and then a Championship winner at both 2 and 3. Last year's Dan Patch winner looked to be authoring such a script, brushing after a :25.4 quarter to the lead before the half of :54.2.

But meanwhile, Pocono's leading driver Matt Kakaley came streaking uncovered from seventh with the Sweet Lou gelding Sweet Beach Life, with no one pulling out in front of him, to be head bobbing for second at a 1:22.1 three-quarters and still advancing. Captain Albano still looked in good position approaching mid-turn, but then, with $252,000 up for grabs, he picked a bad day to do something he had not done in 19 previous career starts – he made a break. Sweet Beach Life zoomed by and kept on going, winning by five sweet lengths in a lifetime best 1:50 for trainer Travis Alexander and A Sweet Beach Life Stable.

The collective stunned silence soon turned to cries of surprise after the prices were posted. Sweet Beach Life: $101.00, $76.80, $76.60; Rush In (who like Captain Albano was undefeated in three PASS prelims but was let go at 84-1): $280.80 and $169.00; third place Solid Character: $29.60. the group's consolation for driver Tim Tetrick, trainer Brett Pelling, and owners David McDuffee, Rojan Stables, and Pelling Racing LLC.

My Girl EJ, another offspring of Sweet Lou and right at the top level of her pacing filly class through her brief racing career, bounced back from a second in last year's PASS Championship with a 1:49.2 victory, starting trainer Ron Burke on a consecutive double that was completed by T C I. The powerful filly also raised her lifetime earnings to $1,039,560 for Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver BrusceMI LLC, Ron Burke (as an owner), and Elizabeth Novak.

Dexter Dunn kept My Girl EJ in third behind pacesetter Dandy's Mercy and pocket sitter Sweet Gal behind early splits of :26.4 and :54.3, then moved to challenge late on the backstretch, before the 1:21.1 three quarters split. With the leader holding firmly and the 2-holer threatening in the Pocono Pike, the favored winner had to be good, and she showed her class late to win by a length over Dandy's Mercy, with Sweet Gal just another neck back in third.

This group's consolation winner was also sired by Sweet Lou: 1-5 favorite Sarasota Hanover moved early to the top and won as expected, pacing in 1:50.4 for driver Scott

PA STALLION SERIES FINALS SET RECORDS

On Sunday afternoon (Sept. 8), Harrah's Philadelphia hosted the $320,000 Pennsylvania Stallion Series Championships for all eight stakes divisions, separated by age/sex, and gait. Each group of Pennsylvania-sired horses went for $40,000 in their respective Championship.

The 2-year-old Championships are grouped together first, followed by the report on the 3-year-olds.

2-YEAR-OLD STALLION SERIES CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Bettor's Wish—Tug River Princess ridgling Twisted Destiny became the fastest winner of a freshman Championship in the 15-year history of the Stallion Series, stopping the clock in 1:51 to reduce the 2019 standard of Lake Charles by three-fifths-of-a-second. This contest was more in the style of the racing at bigger tracks, which often becomes “last one to the top wins,” and indeed Twisted Destiny didn't claim the front from I'm The One until the second turn, then withstood that one's stretch charge by three-quarters-of-a-length for driver Matt Kakaley while taking a new mark.

For many in the ownership of the winner – Let It Ride Stables Inc., Odds On Racing, Alberg Racing, and Enviro Stables LTD – and for newly-elected Hall of Famer/trainer Chris Ryder, the new record holder (the only non-favored freshman to win) must feel even more rewarding because of their participation in the ownership of the sire.

The filly pace showed the desire of the successful Gigglingonthebeach, a daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Always Giggling, because she surrendered the lead to a brusher late on the backstretch, backed out and then wide on the far turn to go around a new challenger, and still get up for a 1:52.1 victory (her slowest victory in her three-win brief career), with Stevie Hanover a head behind the winner and a head ahead of Pilar Hanover. George Napolitano, Jr. steered the winner skillfully for trainer Juan Cano and Hot Lead Farm.

The two trotting winners shared many similar points: both were undefeated in three Stallion Series preliminaries, and both posted identical 1:57 times after setting most or all of the pace. The Bar Hopping—Chelseas A Winner gelding Hey Porter had the biggest victory margin of the day, four lengths, in winning for driver Tyler Buter, trainer Tony Alagna, and owner Steve Stewart.

The Greenshoe—Firm To Stay miss Saints Preserve Us has known nothing but Stallion Series action to date and thus is perfect after four career races, winning by a half-length over Pink Whiskey for driver Tim Tetrick, trainer Jim Campbell, and Runthetable Stables.

A second alteration in the Stallion Series annals came courtesy of the trotting filly Happy Chopper, who was a pocket record in going by leader Dubai by a head in 1:53.3, a clocking reducing the previous mark of 1:54.2 shared by Choose Happy and Jezzys Legacy while also posting her career best. The daughter of Father Patrick was driven by David Miller for trainer Mark Harder, who also is a co-owner with Dean Lockhart and Deena Rachel Frost.

Father Patrick also sired the Stallion Series Champion sophomore trotting male – and driver Tim Tetrick won his second StS Championship of the day – when Activation caught pacesetter Green Pastures by a head while earning a new speed badge of 1:54.2. Trainer Melanie O'Donnell also owns the winning gelding with Corey Hendricks and Andy Rickert.

Joe Bongiorno joined Tetrick as a stakes doubler by sweeping the 3-year-old pacing Championships. The filly Pressure Cooker, a 10-1 shot, found a stretch seam and burst through for Bongiorno for a 1:52.2 victory, a half-length better than Staying With Emily. Trained by Linda Toscano (who also trained Pressure Cooker's sire, Heston Blue Chip), the winner also gave Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Odds On Racing, co-owners of Pressure Cooker with Mac Nichol, the distinction of being part of the many stakes doublers on the day.

The Stay Hungry gelding, De La Hoya Hanover has now won twice since being acquired by Jennifer Bongiorno Stable LLC, Robert Weinstein, and Barbara Bongiorno Stable LLC, and the bettors are beginning to catch on. De La Hoya Hanover returned $82.50 when she won for her new connections and was 12-1 on the morning line here, but the possessor of a new 1:51.4 mark after a big move on the far turn paid only $7.40 here for trainer/driver Bongiorno.

Saints Preserve Us, Twisted Destiny, and Happy Chopper were the leading prelim point winners to follow up with a Championship victory. Twisted Destiny was only the second winner from his sector to also be a No. 1 in prelim points over 15 years.

Harrah's Philly is currently racing three days a week: on Thursday and Friday at 12:25 p.m., and on Sunday at 12:40 p.m. The next card is a "Trottin' Thursday" program with a $14,000 fast-class feature. Free Philly programs are or will be available at www.phha.org.

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

On Monday (Sept. 9), Overpayment sprung the upset at odds of 45-1 to win the $35,000 third leg of the Kentucky Sire Stakes for 4-year-old male pacers by a head. Railee Something outlasted Canterbury Hanover by a neck to score as the heavy favorite in the Kentucky Sire Stakes for 4-year-old female trotters at The Red Mile.

Bestfriend Volo (Marvin Luna) was widely backed by the public to collect his fourth-consecutive victory and fifth from his last six starts, but a miscue behind the gate opened the door for an upset in this event.

Overpayment (Trevor Smith) went straight to the top from post position 7 to set the first split of :28.3. That's when second selection Drink Up Drink Up (Andy Miller) overtook his rival with a half-mile in :55.4 and three-quarters in 1:24.2. Overpayment was perfectly placed in second as Bestfriend Volo was last until the three-quarter pole prior to moving into sixth.

Turning for home, Drink Up Drink Up began to tire as Overpayment was loaded with pace. Bestfriend Volo, however, was far from done. The gelded son of Walner was third at the top of the stretch and was gaining on Overpayment with every stride. Despite a ferocious final panel that was nearly a full second swifter than the victor, Bestfriend Volo fell a head short. Drink Up Drink Up held for third in the 1:52.3 mile.

A son of Nuncio—Two Zuzim, Overpayment entered this race off a fifth-place finish in the second leg of this series behind Bestfriend Volo, but had captured two of his last three starts.

Trained by Jeff Smith, Overpayment is now 46 11-8-8 for his career and has earned $153,074. He just established his lifetime mark of 1:51.4 on Aug. 2 at Eldorado Scioto Downs.

The gelding was bred by Russell Williams and is a half-brother to Yucatan Party Man (Credit Winner, $293,392). He was a $10,000 yearling at the 2021 Standardbred Horse Sale and was purchased privately last June from Stephen Palermo by Bet The House LLC.

Overpayment provided $93.78 to his supporters.

Railee Something (Tyler Smith) fended off the advance of Canterbury Hanover (Tony Hall) to notch her second-consecutive win and fourth in her last five starts in 1:53. Dellarose (Luna) was third.

The daughter of International Moni—Railee Priti wanted to be on the engine right from the beginning of the mile. Railee Something set fractions of :28.1, :56.2 and 1:24.4 with Canterbury Hanover right behind her in second. When Hall pulled his mare from the pocket in the drive to the line, Railee Something had enough left to deny her rival a trip to the winner's circle.

Trained by Roger Cullipher, the mare was bred and is owned by Ronald Mersky. The Pennsylvania champion was third in the $600,000 Breeders Crown for her age, sex and gait last year and has competed with the best in her division. Railee Something was actually the favorite in last year's $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks.

The mare increased her bankroll to $840,436 and her resume now stands at 40 16-13-4.

Railee Something offered $2.10 at the windows.

The Red Mile is gearing up for the eight $400,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series finals on Sunday (Sept. 15) with a first post of 5:05 p.m.

On Sunday (Sept. 8) For July collected his third triumph in his last four trips to the post at The Red Mile in the $30,000 fourth leg of the Kentucky Commonwealth Series for sophomore male trotters.

The two $80,000 fourth legs of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series and a $30,000 Commonwealth Series were conducted as non-wagering events on an earlier card. The victors were Hambletonian champion and Dan Patch

For July (Mattias Melander) bested Bright Star (Scott Zeron) and favored Skydiver (Gingras) to win his second consecutive race in Lexington in 1:53.1.

The son of Greenshoe–Clarabelle left from post position 3 in the field of seven in an action-packed contest. For July was sixth for the first half-mile as Sforza (Dexter Dunn) carved out the first split in :28.3. That's when Bargain (Andrew McCarthy) took his turn on the front and established the next fractions of :56.4. and 1:25.2.

The two early leaders earlier efforts began to take a toll and Skydiver assumed command rolling into the stretch but For July used an explosive last quarter kick of :26.4 to hit the wire in front of his rivals. The colt's final quarter panel was nearly two seconds faster than Bright Star's trip down the stretch.

Trained by Lucas Wallin, For July improved his record to 13 6-0-3. He is 10 5-0-2 in 2024 and has banked $81,229. He came into this race off setting his lifetime best in the third leg of this series on Aug. 25 of 1:52.

For July is the fourth foal out of his dam and is a half-sibling to world champion Cuatro De Julio (Trixtion, $879,061).

Bred by D Farm, For July was a $360,000 purchase at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. The colt has changed hands on several occasions but has been owned by Harbor Racing Stable, his breeder and Order By Stable AB since June of this year.

For July paid his supporters $9.84 at the windows as the public's second choice.

Vekna, Sweet Harmony three-peat in Buckeye Stallion Series

by Ashley Dailey / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

MGM Northfield Park hosted four $20,000 divisions for the fourth leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 2-year-old colt trotters on Sunday evening (Sept. 8) with two victors, Vekna and Sweet Harmony scoring their third series win of the season.

Vekna took the second division in 1:59.2. Guided by trainer Kayne Kauffman, the gelded son of Enterprise settled in fourth as the opening quarter came in :28.3. Vekna followed cover as the field passed the half in an even 1:00. Kauffman urged the 2-5 favorite three-wide while heading to three quarters in 1:29.3. Stride-for-stride with the leader around the final turn, Vekna shifted gears down the stretch to win by three lengths.

Cowboy Poker (Austin Hanners) held on for second with Silverton (Hunter Myers) in third.

Vekna has won five of six lifetime starts. After missing the first leg of the Buckeye Stallion Series, Vekna has notched victories in the three most recent legs. The gelding has earned $41,122 for owner Natalie Kauffman and was bred by Spring Haven Farm.

Sweet Harmony and Ronnie Gillespie won the third division in 1:58.2. Despite leaving from the sixth post position, Sweet Harmony swiftly left the gate to grab the lead. The Uncle Peter gelding set the opening fractions in :29. and :59.2. Rose Run Atm (Aaron Merriman) challenged for the front first-up and passed the three-quarter-mile marker in 1:27.4. Still on the inside, 2-5 favorite Sweet Harmony fought back in the final turn to win with a length to spare.

Mister Squeeze (Hanners) finished second and Rose Run Atm was third.

Gillespie conditions Sweet Harmony for owner Anthony Miller. With $43,598 in the bank, Sweet Harmony has won eight of 12 lifetime starts. The gelding secured victories in the first, third, and now fourth series legs. He was bred by Steiner Stock Farm.

The first division was taken by Letsgotoparis in 2:00.4. Merriman and Letsgotoparis found the perfect pocket trip behind even-money favorite Seven Lick Tom (Chris Lems). Letsgotoparis (9-5) stayed patient through fractions of :29.4, 1:00.3, and 1:30.1, before pulling to the outside at the top of the stretch and digging in every step of the way to the wire. The son of Mister Anson secured his victory in the final stride.

Seven Lick Tom was second while Naabaahii (Kauffman) finished third.

Although Letsgotoparis has won half of his eight lifetime starts, the victory marks the first series win for the colt. Trained by Edward Miller, Letsgotoparis has earned $24,867. Miller co-owns alongside Ashley Dunn. Adrian Hochstetler bred Letsgotoparis.

Despite an early miscue behind the gate, Full Moon Howl won the final division in 1:59.2. The gelded son of Full Count was on a break leaving the gate but quickly got back on stride. Driven by Gillespie, the gelding raced from the middle of the pack as the opening quarter passed in :28.4. Feeling confident, Full Moon Howl flushed cover passing the :59.1 half-mile marker. Down the backside, 2-1 Full Moon Howl pulled three-wide and marched past the leaders at the 1:29.1 three-quarter pole. Opening up by three lengths, Full Moon Howl scored in a new lifetime mark.

Flying Tom (Greg Grismore) finished second with Rockers Legend (Justin Irvine) third.

Full Moon Howl has hit the board in 11 of 13 tries this season, earning $36,220. It was Full Moon Howl's first Buckeye Stallion Series victory. Jessica Smith trains and co-owns the trotter alongside her daughter Madisyn Smith. Full Moon Howl was bred by Andrew Kauffman.

Buckeye Stallion Series action continues with sophomore trotters on Sunday (Sept. 15) at the Delaware County Fair.

OHIO SIRES STAKES AT SCIOTO DOWNS

Eight divisions of the Ohio Sires Stakes were part of the Ewart/Hill undercard on Saturday (Sept. 7).

Trainer Ron Burke's duo of Swingtown and Rick Wink each took their division of the $65,000 2-year-old colt pace in 1:51.4 to stay undefeated in their fledgling careers.

Swingtown (Chris Page) got away fourth as Fabio Hanover (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) took the field to the :27 opening quarter but by the three-eighths pole Downbythewater (Chris Lems) had taken over the lead. By the :55.1 half, Swingtown was first up and took over by the 1:23 third quarter. Page had Swingtown under a hand drive, with the ear plugs still in, going under the Sugar Instead (Miller) won the lone 3-year-old filly trot in 1:56. Legacy Affair (Wrenn, Jr.) took the lead by the :28 opening quarter but Sugar Instead was quick to challenge from post 9 to take over the lead, tripping the beam in :56.4 and 1:27. Createaqueen (Dan Noble) was second over going down the backside and tipped three-wide around the last turn to finish second just a neck back; Legacy Affair was third.

Sugar Instead, by Volstead out of the Windsong's Legacy mare Sugar Pop, is owned by Joyce McClelland and Larry Wills. The Virgil Morgan, Jr. trainee now has $656,019 earned in 20 lifetime starts with 16 wins; she is a perfect nine-for-nine this season.

The heavy 1-9 favorite Seaside Diva (Page) took the first 3-year-old filly pace division in 1:50.4. Page took Seaside Diva off the gate and sat fourth in the early going, as Calypso Pearl (Noble) hit the opening quarter in :26.2. Paris's Dragon won by a half-length over Rose Run Zane; Gansbaai (Michael Whelan) was third.

Paris's Dragon, by Fear The Dragon out of the Pet Rock mare Lima Ooh La La, is owned by breeder Dennis Owens and Norman Rae Racing. The Christi Noble trainee now has $296,267 earned in 23 lifetime starts with nine wins.

The 2024 Scioto Downs meet goes through Saturday (Sept. 14). Post time for the Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday cards, will be 5:45 p.m., with the Friday card starting at 6:45 p.m. to help accommodate horsemen attending the Ohio Selected Yearling Sale.

Chapter Seven colt tops Goshen Yearling Sale

The Goshen Yearling Sale was held on Monday (Sept. 9) in the sales arena at the Mark Ford Training Center and a total of 82 yearlings changed hands, generating sales of $1,202,120, with the overall individual average sale price of $14,660 being achieved.

By category, 22 pacing colts averaged $12,545 each, 28 pacing fillies averaged $15,750 each, 13 trotting colts averaged $19,423 each and 19 trotting fillies averaged $12,242.

Cameo Hills Farm once again had a big afternoon as they sold the sale topper (Hip #50) Oppenheimer (Chapter Seven—Bambino Supreme). The trotting colt was purchased for $57,000 by Ray Schnittker of Middletown, NY.

The second highest priced horse was also a trotting colt, (Hip #49) Acoustic Blue Chip (Devious Man—Tangible Blue Chip) who was consigned by Blue Chip Farm (Agt.) and sold to Jared Bako of Wallkill, NY for $54,000.

A pair of pacing fillies brought the next highest bids and they sold for $50,000 each.

Say Goodnight (Hip #27, Papi Rob Hanover—One Last Kiss) was consigned by Cameo Hills Farm and Tin Roof Rusted (Hip #41, Huntsville—Shepulledthegoalie) who was consigned by Leatherstocking Equine (Agt.) were both sold to David Hamm of Dagsboro, DE.

The top selling pacing colt was (Hip #69) Aggieville (Huntsville—Certified Ideal) who was consigned by Cameo Hills Farm (Agt.) and sold to Exceed Stable for $40,000.

And the highest price paid for a trotting filly was $35,000 for (Hip #86) Field Unit (The Veteran—Fractured Dream) paid by David Hamm to Leatherstocking Equine.

Cameo Hills was once again the top consignor of the sale, selling a total of 42 yearlings from their farm and as an agent, for a total of $620,700 (an average of $14,778). Second was Leatherstocking Equine, whose combined 10 horse consignment brought a total of $227,000 for an average of $22,700.

“We want to thank everyone who attended our sale, and a special thanks to everyone who inspected and bid on our yearlings,” said Mark Ford. “We wish you the best of racing luck with your new purchases. We would also like to thank all our consignors who made this sale such a big success and our auctioneers and staff, whose hard work is the reason we are able to do this each year. We look forward to doing it again next year.”

Nijinsky, Pass Line pop in Simcoe Stakes

Both second choices in the betting, Nijinsky and Pass Line each sprung mild surprises in their respective Simcoe Stakes divisions on Saturday night (Sept. 7) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Pepsi North America Cup champ Nijinsky remained unbeaten this season on Canadian soil with a 1:48.4 victory in the $167,000 Simcoe 3-Year-Old Pace over his stablemate, 1-5 favorite Legendary Hanover.

Nijinsky muscled off the gate alongside Calicojack Hanover, but settled for a spot in third as Calicojack Hanover marched forward to lead into a :27 first quarter. Driver Louis-Philippe Roy stayed put with Nijinsky until hearing footsteps coming to a :54.2 half. With a rush, Nijinsky grabbed the lead before those footsteps of Legendary Hanover loomed nearer to the top.

Roy obliged to let Legendary Hanover take the lead into the final turn and stayed engaged from the 2-hole coming to three-quarters in 1:21.2. But Nijinsky bullheadedly steamed ahead and overhauled Legendary Hanover in the final eighth to pull away to a 1½-length win. Cupid Shuffle gave chase in third and Calicojack Hanover settled for fourth.

“I couldn’t really ask for a better trip for my horse,” Roy said after the race. “Like I’ve always said, he’s handy and can do any kind of trip. Tonight was the best we could’ve hoped for.

“He has such a huge heart and that’s probably what made the difference tonight. In the last turn, he almost feels like he struggles following Legendary Hanover. Legendary’s a big horse, strong and very gifted, [but] Nijinsky just doesn’t want to get beat. You make sure you have him a target and he’ll for sure give you more than 100 per cent of an effort.”

Anthony Beaton trains Nijinsky, a colt by Bettors Delight, for owners West Wins Stable, John Fielding and Mark Dumain.

“It’s hard not to get anxious every time these two race,” Beaton said. “It’s been a special summer for us, all summer really. We just didn’t want to see them beat one another up... finish one-two, preferably. I thought Legendary raced good, obviously Nijinsky got a great trip, and they both raced great to the wire. They’ll both, I’m sure, come out of it good and we’ll be onto the next event.”

Beaton indicated that the next start may be the Little Brown Jug in Delaware, OH, on Sept. 19.

In his career, Nijinsky has won 10 times from 20 starts. He’s now amassed $1,197,582 and returned $7.70 to win.

An aggressive backstretch brush by Doug McNair with Pass Line proved the winning move in the $152,000 Simcoe Stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies as she held off all comers in a 1:51.2 mile.

“There wasn’t a lot of speed early, so I made my mind up to rush her down the backside [and] it worked out good,” McNair said after the race. “I think she had a little pop to her. She hasn’t been that good on the front yet this year, so I didn’t want to pop the plugs and open up a couple and then have her come to a stop on me. I just kept her going, crossed our fingers and she got lucky.”

McNair’s move came after a :28.2 first quarter to disrupt even-money favorite Odds On Platinum’s dawdle on the lead. Pass Line overtook Odds On Platinum before a :56.3 half and McNair kept her strong as Stonebridge Halo mounted a first-over challenge to three-quarters in 1:24. Pass Line held her ground all through the lane as Odds On Platinum bobbed in and out for racetrack, finding room only late to take second by a length. Coco Jojo roared down the center of the track for third and Stonebridge Halo faded to fourth.

“I wish both fillies were here tonight,” said trainer Dave Menary, who had to scratch likely favorite Its A Love Thing due to sickness. “But Pass Line picked up the slack and we’re happy to be holding the trophy. Tonight was a good confidence builder. I’ll talk to Ronnie [Burke] and the connections – I think they’re contemplating the Jugette with her, but I’ll leave that up to him and whatever it takes, we’ll get it done.”

Pass Line races for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brusceci LLC, Frank Baldachino and Rich Lombardo Racing LLC. The daughter of All Bets Off won just for the second time this season and for the 12th time in 25 starts lifetime, good for $929,696 in earnings. She paid $5.10 to win.

Ohio Selected Jug Sale key to success in the Buckeye State

The Ohio Selected Jug Yearling Sale is this Friday (Sept. 13) at the Pickaway Ag Center, Circleville, OH, which means that the focus of many of the Buckeye state's standardbred owners and trainers has turned to a search for the next champion harness horse.

There are 277 yearlings cataloged, and the auction will get underway at 10 a.m. on Sept. 13 with a special Show Day on Thursday (Sept. 12). As always, the sales company and breeders will provide complimentary food and refreshments from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Thursday, while prospective purchasers peruse the expansive offerings.

While the Ohio Super Night is still a month away, six of the eight divisions of the Ohio Sire Stakes are led by Ohio Selected Jug Sale alumnus. It's easy to see why the astute horse people in Ohio make this sale their primary marketplace for future achievement.

Tennessee Tom 3,1:53f-'24 ($456,350), is a mountainous success story, having won his $300,000 freshmen final last season for trainer Ron Burke. This year at 3, he is well on his way to sophomore honors as he has captured four Ohio Sire Stakes events. The leading conditioner selected the son of Long Tom from this sale two years ago, paying just $26,000 for the half-million-dollar earner. Dublin Valley Farm, agent, will offer Hip #55, who is an Uncle Peter half-sister to this Ohio 2-year-old Trotting Colt of the Year in 2023.

Clever Cody p,3,1:50.1f-'24 ($546,332) also calls the Ohio Selected Jug sale his alma mater, having been purchased by Dr. Ian Moore, et al, for $24,000. He is currently the leading point earner in the glamour boys division, and was consigned and sold by Marvin Raber Farm.

And success does not stop with the sophomores, as this year's freshmen crop is chock full of Ohio Selected Jug Sale graduates.

Spring Haven Farm consigned and sold the leading OHSS point earning 2-year-old pacing colt Rick Wink 2,1:51.4h-'24 ($171,700) who is undefeated in six starts this season.

Another streaking star is Swingtown p,2,1:50.4f-'24 ($207,850) who won the Next Generation and four legs of the Ohio Sire Stakes. Steiner Stock Farm will offer Hip #96, a Downbytheseaside full sister to Swingtown, who is also a three-quarter or half-sister to Captain Barbossa p,4,1:47.1 ($644,389) and Whichwaytothebeach p,1:48.4-'24 ($816,624).

On the freshmen trotting side of the ledger Lt Loverboy 2,1:56.1f-'24 ($105,230) is the leading point earner for the boys. He was bred, raised and sold by Midland Acres, who will offer Hip #222, his Ready For Moni half-brother.

Trotting distaffs are also well-represented in the 2-year-old division, with both top point earners claiming this sale as their rite of passage.

Mocha Hill 2,1:55.1f-'24 ($148,917) was consigned and sold by Winterwood Farm, Agent; and Rose Run Allison 2,1:55.1f-'24 ($140,667) who hails from the Rose Run Farm nursery, and will sell Hip #105, her Triumphant Caviar half-sister.

All the best Ohio-based stallions are represented at the sale, including (4 or more): Bit Of A Legend N (4), Catch The Fire (27), Creatine (10), Dancin Yankee (4), Downbytheseaside (25), Enterprise (5), Fear The Dragon (5), In Range (25), Lather Up (11), Long Tom (16), Marseille (4), Racing Hill (6), Ready For Moni (23), Summa Cum Laude (53), Triumphant Caviar (5), Uncle Peter (10), Volstead (4), Western Fame (4), and What The Hill (22).

Ohio Selected Jug Sale individuals with Grand Circuit pedigree highlights include:

Hip #8, What The Hill full brother to world champion The Mighty Hill 4,1:51.4f ($451,055), consigned by Dublin Valley Farm, agent.

Hip #20, Fear The Dragon half-sister to world champion Rose Run Zane p,3,1:50.4f-'24 ($273,120), consigned by Rose Run Farm.

The 2024 Neville Award to Herve Filion

Herve Filion, the Hall of Fame driver and two-time winner of the Little Brown Jug, will be honored as the 2024 Joseph Neville Memorial Award recipient by the Little Brown Jug and the Delaware County Fair.

Filion, a native of Angers, QC, started driving standardbreds at the age of 12 and won his first race at the age of 13. He would conclude his career in 2012 with 15,179 wins and $88.4 million in earnings.

He won two Little Brown Jug titles. In 1971, Filion guided Nansemond to an upset victory over the heavily-favored Albatross in an epic, three-heat battle. In 1979, Hot Hitter and Filion enjoyed an easier day, winning in straight heats.

Filion, who won the inaugural World Driving Championship in 1970, was North America's leading driver 16 times, earning his first title in 1968 and final dash crown in 1990. He topped the purse standings seven times. He was voted the Harness Tracks of America's Driver of the Year a record 10 times.

Filion was the youngest person ever elected to harness racing's Living Hall of Fame in Goshen, NY and Canada's Horse Racing Hall of Fame.

Herve Filion passed away on June 22, 2017 at the age of 77.

Boxer Seelster strong in Champlain Stakes

Scott McEneny pupil Boxer Seelster had a successful tune-up ahead of the Metro Pace eliminations when delivering as the 6-5 choice in his $82,643 division of the Champlain Stakes on Saturday night (Sept. 7) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

After getting nailed from a front-stepping effort last Saturday in an OSS Gold division, driver Trevor Henry gave Boxer Seelster a methodical steer into contention. Henry secured a second-over tow after a :56.1 half that became a third-over seat as 6-5 second choice Century Lucifer popped the pocket to challenge pacesetter Mad River. With a five-length deficit off three-quarters in 1:25, Henry fed Boxer Seelster racetrack and swallowed his foes into the last eighth to grab a three-quarter-length win in 1:52.2. Twin B Courageous, at 65-1, rallied for second while Century Lucifer settled for third.

"He's getting racey; he's getting aggressive, which is good in a way," Henry said after the race. "But he's fit and coming into [the Metro Pace] at the right time. I think he's as good as any of them."

By McEneny graduates Bettors Delight and dam Big Thong, Boxer Seelster collected his third victory from six starts. He's now banked $196,822 for owners Scott McEneny, Aristi Varsakis, Martwest Racing LP and Cantucky Farm Inc. He paid $4.50 to win.

Sterling Choice won leading nearly every step in the $81,642 other division of the Champlain for pacing 2-year-olds. Driver James MacDonald motored the roan son of Betterthancheddar out of post 6 and carved a sensible clip of :27.1, :55.2 and 1:23.3 wrapped to a bow in 1:52.1 after rebuffing a pocket pounce by Ayeaye Captain Deo. D A Love Boat stormed from last to grab second while Ayeaye Captain Deo levelled off for third.

"He's been close all year, just knocking on the door," MacDonald said. "Blake [MacIntosh] mentioned he'd love to see me try him on the front. I thought when the half came up maybe I overdid it a bit. He looked like he was beat, and it takes a pretty stubborn horse to come back on and do that."

MacIntosh trains and co-owns Sterling Choice, a maiden no more in start eight and an earner of $166,892, with Ozzie MacKay, Tammy Lynn MacKay and Gilles Landry. He paid $4.20 to win.

In the $83,622 first Champlain division for 2-year-old pacing fillies, Nice Buns upended 1-2 favorite Perfectly Chic with a final-stride blow to a head win.

Driver James MacDonald worked the trail with Nice Buns behind Perfectly Chic, who cut a tempo of :28, :57.1 and 1:26.1 while seeming poised to sprint away into the stretch. However, the Tony Beaton-trained daughter of Sweet Lou had room to angle three wide off the pylons, gather her feet and soar forward for a narrow win in 1:53.3. Perfectly Chic settled for second while Papis Opinion, making a first-over move around the final turn, faded but held third.

"I didn't think she was going to get there," MacDonald said. "When you back out like that, you lose momentum. I just didn't know what my filly was capable of, but it was nice to see what she could do off a helmet. I'm really proud of her tonight."

Nice Buns races for owners Casie Coleman and Dumain Haven Farm LLC and is eligible for the She's A Great Lady. She won her second race from three starts, has now earned $49,811 and paid $5.70 to win.

Cant See Me never felt a worry in a thievery mile to take the $83,623 other division of the Champlain for freshman pacing fillies.

With no enthusiasm going forward, driver Bob McClure inherited the top seat with Cant See Me in a :29.1 crawl to the first quarter. The accelerator only started pushing after a :58.1 half, but the soft speed only sealed the back-half sprint for Cant See Me. She clicked past three-quarters in 1:26.2 and scampered away to a 2¾-length win in 1:53.1 with pocket-chaser Bonhomie Hanover left in second. Au Jus Hanover sat a ground-saving trip to take third.

"You usually don't get that lucky in a race like that going for that kind of money," trainer Mark Steacy said. "That sets us up really well for next week."

Bound for the She's A Great Lady eliminations next Saturday, Cant See Me has now won three races from five tries and earned $106,312 for owner Hudson Standardbred Stable Inc. She paid $7.60 to win.
