Jimmy Takter diagnosed with spinal cord tumor

Doctors don't believe the tumor is cancerous, but the Hall of Fame trainer said he is in a lot of pain and is hoping to have the tumor removed this week by a world-renowned specialist at New York University.

by Dave Briggs

Dave Landry

Jimmy Takter said, "It's a very complicated spot where the tumor is located because it's right in the spine, inside the spinal cord."

Not one to be a big worrier, Takter said the tumor certainly has made him anxious. "I'm a little bit worried, of course, about a surgery like this because you don't know, you might wake up and can't move your feet."

Hall of Fame trainer Jimmy Takter will be in Delaware, OH on Tuesday to accept his induction into the Little Brown Jug Wall of Fame, but he's hoping before the week is out that he will be on the operating table to have a tumor removed from his spinal cord.

"I don't want to be away too long (in Ohio)," Takter said Saturday. "I want to get this s - - - out of me. I don't want to walk around with this thing anymore."

The Jug Wall of Fame will be the third Hall of Fame honor for Takter in a year filled with triumphs, travel and this one major tribulation since he officially retired from running his own stable in December of 2018.

In February, while visiting New Zealand and Australia with his wife Christina, Jimmy's neck began to bother him.

"It was very minor. I'm used to pain, but gradually it got worse and worse," Jimmy said.

Other than the news of the tumor, Takter said it's been a wonderful year since he stopped running his own stable. He and Christina have traveled Down Under and to Sweden and Jimmy was inducted in three Halls of Fame.

On Sept. 5 at the Red Mile in Lexington, Jimmy drove three times, including piloting his former pupil Don't Let'em to a second-place finish in a Kentucky Sires Stakes (KYSS) race for his daughter, Don't Let'em's new trainer Nancy Johansson.

Jimmy said when he got off the race bike his neck was so painful he booked off a drive he had later in the night. He said he hasn't sat behind a horse in the 10 days since.

"The last month, it's been so painful it's ridiculous," Jimmy said.

Before another week was out, Jimmy was seen twice by a specialist at New York University (NYU). On Thursday (Sept. 12) he had his third MRI – this one a special 3D scan designed to help his surgeon plan for the operation.

"It's a very complicated spot where the tumor is located because it's right in the spine, inside the spinal cord. So, it's a very complicated surgery to get around because you've got to go through the spinal cord and it could have complications out of the surgery," Jimmy said.

"The problem is, if the tumor and spinal cord have grown together, like if the nerves come through the tumor, then it's a big problem because then they can't take it out. Then they've got to shrink it somehow, with either chemo or radiation. It could be cancer, but most likely it's not, they say. It's very unlikely cancer in that area... I've had two doctors look at it – one in Philadelphia and this one (at NYU). Both were in agreement, they say it's very, very unlikely that it's cancerous."

Not one to be a big worrier, Jimmy said the tumor certainly has made him anxious.

"I'm a little bit worried, of course, about a surgery like this because you don't know, you might wake up and can't move your feet. That's not that fun," he said, "or, maybe you won't feel 100 per cent down there and then you've got to do physical therapy to get the feet working... Even a successful surgery can leave some nerve damage."

Coupled with a difficulty sleeping, Jimmy said the tumor is also starting to impact his mental health.

"Last night, I slept until 1 o'clock and then I was up until 4 and I slept until 7:30 this morning," he said. "I get better during the day when I get going a little bit, but as soon as you lie down or relax, you stiffen up everything down through your shoulders and I can't move, basically. But after I get going, I get better."

"It gets on you after a while... With a lack of sleep and everything, you become very down... Hopefully they can get it done ASAP. I'm going to get the call, hopefully Monday, and get a meeting and they will take it out next week, hopefully."

Jimmy said his doctor is one of the most skilled surgeons in the world at the procedure, which, "makes you actually feel a lot better going into it. It's not something that you want to have somebody who doesn't have the credentials. You don't want to have a maiden guy, there."

Working with horses may have put some wear and tear on his neck. Jimmy did have back surgery a few years ago, but doctors believe the tumor is unrelated to his career.

"Things like that can pop up and, they say it could've been there for years," Jimmy said. "I feel like the tumor must've been growing because it put pressure on all the nerves and there's so many nerves up there."

While waiting for surgery, Jimmy said he's looking forward to Tuesday's induction to the Little Brown Jug Wall of Fame. In July, he was inducted into the Hall of Fame at the Nordic Trot Museum in his native Sweden. In August, he was enshrined in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame. The long-time New Jersey resident was inducted into the (U.S.) Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2012.

Jimmy said the Little Brown Jug is one of his favorite harness racing events.

"You feel a little bit like you're going back in time when you had a lot of people going to races," Jimmy said of the atmosphere in Delaware, OH. "We used to have it when we went out to DuQuoin and Springfield, but (the Jug) is a little more intense with more people."

"You go to a racetrack here, now, and it's more about the gambler. There, it's about the horse racing and that's what makes the Jug, to me, so special."

Apart from his health challenge, Jimmy said it's been a tremendous 10 months since he stopped operating his own stable.

"Christina and I, we did a lot this winter. We were in New Zealand and Australia, then California. We spent all of June in Sweden, and that was wonderful," Jimmy said. "I haven't spent more than four days in Sweden in over 37 years. We drove about 2,000 miles in Sweden and met all our friends. We spent a couple of days with Per Eriksson and another couple of days with a good friend of mine in northern Sweden. That was a lot of fun. We spent time with Christina's sister and my family in Malmo. It was great. Sweden is beautiful in June."

Back at home in New Jersey, Jimmy – who dispenses daily inspirational quotes and messages via text to friends and family – said he started getting used to a slower pace.

"This morning for example, it's a beautiful morning and we'll sit outside and have a couple cups of coffee, I'll do my quote – that's a different pressure – and then I'll go down to the barn for a little bit and just make sure that everything looks good, because no one is here in New Jersey right now because they are in Canada or Kentucky. There's maybe 15 horses total in the barn right now, because both (trainer) Per (Engblom) and Nancy are in Canada or Kentucky."

Given what he knows now, Jimmy said he's thankful he took the time to enjoy life with Christina.

"Besides (the tumor), life is great," he said. "If you ask me if I regret slacking off, I don't."

Ohio Select Sale topper Lightning Rocks was bought by Burke Racing for $100,000.

Ohio Select Sale maintains robust bidding and buying

by Chris Tully, for the Ohio Harness Horse Breeders

A capacity crowd filled the sales arena at the Brave Horse Show Park on Friday (Sept. 13) to select and purchase 243 Ohio-bred yearlings at the Ohio Select Sale for a gross of $4,953,000 producing an average sale price of $20,383.

Sunny skies and a pleasant breeze allowed consignors to showcase their trotters and pacers to an eager group that recognizes the strength and excellent opportunities inherent in the Buckeye state harness racing program.

Once again, Jeff and Senena Esty's Spring Haven Farm sold the sale topper. Hip 105, Lightning Rocks, was a gorgeous Pet Rock half-brother to Love Me Some Lou p,2,1:50.4f ($216,452) that was hammered down to Burke Racing of Fredericktown, PA for $100,000.

"He is a fabulous colt, very well-bred with impeccable conformation," noted Senena Esty following the auction.

A pacing filly by McArdle topped that division with an $84,000 purchase price. Cory Deyermant of Dorset, OH was the successful bidder of Hip 63, Rose Run Wasaki, a half-sister to Rose Run Uptowngal p,3,1:51.3f-'19 ($193,949).

Consignor Archie Yoder of Rose Run Farm said, "Buyers were willing to pay top dollar for good horses, and I am really excited for the people that bought them."

Ohio Harness Horse Breeders president Randy Haines echoed those remarks and was very pleased with Ohio benchmark event, "If you had what the buyers wanted, they were here to buy."

Three fillies and a colt all shared top billing for the highest priced trotters in the sale as they all fetched $60,000 respectively. The highest priced colt was Hip 85, Declared Lawful, a Full Count half-brother to Lawmaker 3,1:53.3 ($328,115) consigned by Marvin Raber Farm and purchased by Miles Woolam of Brookfield, OH. Full Count sired five yearlings in the sale which averaged $44,400.

Two fillies from the third crop of Uncle Peter also brought $60,000: Hip 135, Miss Meringue was consigned by Mitch and Laura Nault's LMN Bred Stables, Inc. and purchased by Anthony MacDonald's The Stable.ca, Guelph, Ontario, Canada; and Hip 207, Aunt Lil, consigned by Double Spring Farm, Agent and taken home by Burke Racing. Uncle Peter had 36 yearlings represented in the sale and averaged just shy of $20,000.

Yearlings from the first crop of Racing Hill were also well received and brought some new faces to the sale as his trainer Tony Alagna was on hand to inspect and ultimately purchase one of the Ohio-bred pacers.

All told, 35 youngsters by the Breeders Crown winner averaged $24,143, with the highest priced colt being purchased by Brian Brown of Ostranger, OH for $54,000. Hip 94, Roczen, was just the second foal from the good racemare Rockratese p,4,1:52.1f ($217,733) and was consigned by Hickory Lane Farm, home of Racing Hill.

Kevin Greenfield, owner of Hickory Lane Farm opined, "You never know how first crop sires will produce, but overall the way people bid on them told me that they wanted them and hope that they succeed."

Established Ohio sire Yankee Cruiser topped the average for pacers with 11 offerings at $32,727 per horse. Midland Acres president Dr. John Mossbarger, who stands the horse and had 45 yearlings sold at the sale, said, "We thought we had a very good sale. It was a very solid sale with a lot of active bidding. We were very pleased with our whole consignment, led in part by the strength of the Pet Rock and Yankee Cruiser yearlings. We are very thankful to all of the bidders and buyers that helped us have another successful auction."

Feliciano tops in Paris

by Thomas Hedlund

The $223,000 Prix de l'Etoile for 3-, 4- and 5-year-olds at Vincennes in Paris ended with an upset winner in Feliciano (Ready Cash), driven by David Thomain.

The Prix de l'Etoile is a special race where the 3-year-olds start from a distance of 2,150 meters which is 50 meters ahead of the older trotters and it was 3-year-old Green Grass (Bold Eagle) who was eager in front during the race's first 1,175 meters.

Philippe Allaire-trained Feliciano waited calmly in fifth and David Thomain pulled the horse for position second over with a half-mile to go. The serious attack came with 300 meters to go and Feliciano captured the trophy in a splendid mile rate of 1:53 over 1.3 miles.

Falcao de Laurma finished strongly for second place and Estola earned the bronze medal.

In the $223,000 Prix de Normandie monté race (racing under saddle) for 5-year-olds, Etoile de Bruyere (Kenor de Cosse) won for jockey Adrien Lamy after a perfect trip in second over. The mile rate was 1:58.1 over 1.9 miles.

Lionel tries again

Norwegian trotter Lionel was close to the victory in last year's International Trot at Yonkers. Second to Cruzado dela Noche, Lionel showed that he likes the conditions in New York and owner/trainer Göran Antonsen plans to make the trip overseas once again, according to Norwegian media tgn.no.

These horses are set for the race at Yonkers on Oct. 12:

Lionel – Norway

Guardian Angel As – USA

Slide So Easy – Denmark

Bahia Quesnot – France

Zacon Gio – Italy

Atlanta – USA

Marion Marauder – USA

Sobel Conway – Finland

Uza Josselyn – Switzerland

Fredericton Raceway in New Brunswick in 2015.

Strong support for lone live card at 132-year-old Fredericton Raceway

by Melissa Keith

Last Sunday (Sept.8), Fredericton Raceway returned to action for the first time since a matinee card on 1 in September of 2017. Don't expect more live racing there this Sunday, or for the remainder of 2019, but don't count them out for next season and beyond.

Moncton, NB horseman Jeff Lewis helped make last weekend's eight pari-mutuel races a reality. One of numerous owners from across the Maritimes who responded to the call for entries, he drove his own pacer Emperor to a 2:02.1h victory in race 4. Lewis is secretary/treasurer of the New Brunswick Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association (NBSBOA), which participated in talks to help address an ongoing stalemate preventing greater utilization of the 132-year-old track.

In order to facilitate the downtown half-mile's only live card of 2019, "There were several meetings between the New Brunswick Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association and HRNB (Horse Racing New Brunswick) and the NBSBOA Fredericton chapter," Lewis told HRU. "It started probably back in April."

Long-term property operator Fredericton Exhibition Ltd. and HRNB were embroiled in a financial dispute which peaked in May 2016.

"The Exhibition Association and HRNB kind of had a falling out a couple of years ago there, over the lease. Unfortunately, the horse racing game took a hit in Fredericton," said Lewis. There were just three 2016 race dates; VLT-equipped simulcast venue Winner's Lounge was forced to shutter its trackside location at the end of the year.

New Brunswick

The City of Fredericton owns the Exhibition Grounds where the track is located. In 2017, it began the process of pushing the New Brunswick Provincial Exhibition toward permanent relocation, so as to open up the site for residential development. The Exhibition took the matter to court late last year, but subsequently dropped its legal case and agreed to collaborate on what appears to be an impending and radical repurposing of the 31-acre property.

It would not be the track's first compulsory relocation, if it happens: "Harness racing has a history dating back to the 1820s. It has been in three locations in Fredericton," local Horsemen's Association president Charlie Miles informed local media.

Lewis said he remains cautiously optimistic that the picturesque oval can keep racing. "I think that was the hope: to have one card this year, and maybe if everything went good and we were able to, maybe have two or three next year, and build on that... I think it's important to keep every track going that we can. Once you lose a track, it's very hard to get it back. Moncton is a perfect example of that, and Halifax another example."

Fredericton Raceway was spared the wrath of Hurricane Dorian, which hammered other parts of the region and led to full-card cancellations at Charlottetown, Summerside, and Inverness. "The track was in really good shape. I think the rain the night before might have even helped it," said Lewis. The $3,500 Jennie and Joe Chippin Memorial was the fastest race of the day: Woodmere Ideal Art, owned by Ultimate Stable of Greater Lakeburn, NB, opened up by 12 lengths for hometown driver Todd Trites. The Sifroi Melanson trainee crossed the wire all alone in 1:56.

Patrons wagered $6,384 on the card, on track. "It was a good crowd — I'd say there were 400 or 500 people there. They were lined up right along the fence there pretty good," said Lewis. "I would say it was a success, from my standpoint, anyway. It was nice to get back there. I always enjoy racing in Fredericton."

That enjoyment, though widely shared, has not shored up certitude about the historic raceway's future. "This year is a special year, because it's coming back after having some issues and some decline of the races in all of the province," Exhibition executive director Mike Vokey told local media, hinting at relocation but also survival. "There's talk it will be the last race. Well, maybe it's the last race; maybe it's the first race of a new generation of harness racing."

Live races resume at the province's most active pari-mutuel track, Exhibition Park Raceway in St. John, on Sept. 21.

Tim Tetrick's incredible 2012 season revisited

by Bob Heyden

With Tim Tetrick's Hall of Fame call just around the corner, it seemed appropriate to revisit his incredible 2012 season.

That year, Tetrick drove the winners of seven year-end titles. No one before, or since, has ever had more than four in any single season. He also swept the Horse of the Year, Pacer of the Year and Trotter of the Year awards that year, meaning horses he drove won 10 Dan Patch Awards in all.

Tetrick's champions that year were:

3YOFP — American Jewel; Older Mare Pace — Anndrovette;
3YOCP — Heston Blue Chip; 3YOFT — Check Me Out; 3YOCT
— Market Share; 2YOCP — Captaintreacherous; Older Male
Trotter — Chapter Seven; Pacer of the Year —
Captaintreacherous; Trotter of the Year — Chapter Seven;
Horse of the Year — Chapter Seven.

Tetrick drove all three of the top vote-getters for the Horse of the Year in 2012 — Chapter Seven 84 votes; Market Share (41) and Captaintreacherous (6).

Tetrick set another all-time record as the regular driver on four millionaires in a single season:

Heston Blue Chip — $1,030,008 18 14-1-1

American Jewel — $1,163,449 16 9-4-2

Chapter Seven — $1,023,025 10-8-2-0

Market Share — $2,001 million 20 10-5-3

The combined record for these four millionaire performers of 2012 was:

64 41-10-6 $5,217,887.

Tetrick's sixth straight money title came in 2012, thanks to a $18,529,676 season. This came on the heels of:

2007 — $18,350,047

2008 — $19,752,066

2009 — $16,269,672

2010 — $16,485,409

2011 — $15,850,537

Dave Landry

Tim Tetrick had an outstanding year in 2012.

Note: at age 31, this was Tetrick's sixth driving title. He'd make it seven in a row in 2013. By that same age, John Campbell had 4 national money titles (1979, 1980, 1983, 1986) and Billy Haughton had three (1952, 1953, 1954).

Prior to 2007 when Tim made his move to the Meadowlands/Grand Circuit full time, he was 259th on the all-time win list with 2,550 and 119th on the earnings list with $19,414,878.

The gap in 2012 back to the second leading driver in earnings was $4,785,631. Tetrick led with $18,529,676 and Yannick Gingras was second with $13,744,045. That gap was the second biggest from first to second in standardbred history. Tim also owns the largest margin. In 2007, he drove the winners of $18,350,047. Ron Pierce was second with $13,367,824. The margin was $4,982,223.

Tetrick is closing fast on Pierce for the #3 spot all-time on the earnings list. Tetrick might surpass Pierce in 2019 on Breeders Crown night. In 2018, Tetrick joined the $200 million club on Breeders Crown night.

Dip Me Hanover powered to a 1:55.2 victory in Saturday evening's $405,000 Peaceful Way Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Linda Toscano trainee and driver David Miller angled out from third on the final turn and wore down rival Hello Tomorrow in the stretch to capture the rich event for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

"Coming first up on Hello Tomorrow that was a big challenge and she stood up to it there," said Miller following Dip Me Hanover's victory. "They had her really sharp and she just raced great."

Ontario

Hello Tomorrow left quickly from an outside post-nine and cleared to the lead shortly after hitting the opening-quarter in :28.2. Elimination winners Panem and Dip Me Hanover sat second and third throughout, as the leader reached the middle-half stations in :57.4 and 1:26.2.

Dip Me Hanover slid out from third to attack first-up heading to three-quarters and sat just under two-lengths from the lead turning for home.

The stretch drive saw Hello Tomorrow battle tough in an

A $52,000 Harrisburg yearling purchase, Dip Me Hanover now sports a record of two wins and $237,016 earned in eight starts for owners Camelot Stable Inc, Dreamville Stable and Randi Farms LLC. The daughter of Donato Hanover—Dancing For Money) had entered last week's elimination as a maiden.

"She was a little high strung, so we spent a lot of time kind of getting her quiet and taking her back," said Toscano. "She's been just waiting for a good post and it came along last week and David (Miller) took it from there."

A $2 win ticket on the Toscano trained Dip Me Hanover returned $4.90.

Hp Royal Theo (Louis Philippe Roy) won the $370,000 William Wellwood Memorial in a career-best 1:54.2.

Hp Royal Theo captures Wellwood Memorial

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Hp Royal Theo came off the final turn three-wide and stormed by rivals to win the $370,000 William Wellwood Memorial for 2-year-old trotters on Saturday evening at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Ben Baillargeon trained Hp Royal Theo and driver Louis Philippe Roy flipped the script after a narrow loss in last week's elimination to defeat elimination winner Capricornus by a length and three-quarters in a career-best 1:54.2.

The opening quarter of the race saw fireworks with several leavers, including Port Perry and Beyond Kronos from near the outside of the gate. Beyond Kronos claimed the top spot at an opening quarter of :27.2, while Port Perry sat second with elimination winner Back Of The Neck right behind and Nylander left parked.

Beyond Kronos led the field up to the half in :56.1. Hp Royal Theo moved out from mid-pack to sit second-over behind

Ontario

Nylander, while Capricornus sat on the eventual winner's back.

The third-station was reached in 1:25.2 with Beyond Kronos creating separation to lead by two lengths. Nylander began to fade approaching three-quarters, forcing Roy to go three-wide with Hp Royal Theo.

In the stretch, Hp Royal Theo found his best stride and muscled by rivals with a :28.2 last-quarter for the victory. Capricornus couldn't track down his rival and finished second. Back Of The Neck was third, while Port Perry was fourth. Beyond Kronos dropped back to finish sixth.

"He's a freak, I call him the freak," said Baillargeon of Hp Royal Theo. "He doesn't mind fighting. His first qualifier he went :28 the first-quarter and :28 the last-quarter, the speed was always there we just had to manage him. Now he's controlled it and we're going to try to keep it that way."

A son of Royalty For Life—Mikas Mazurka, Hp Royal Theo was bred by Claude Hamel, who shares ownership of the gelding with Michel Damphousse. The rookie moved into the barn of trainer Baillargeon following his qualifying debut with original trainer Jean Tourigny.

"Jean Tourigny did all the ground work and after that we had to work out a few quirks he had," said Baillargeon, who also gave credit to his trotter's drivers. "He was a little aggressive, but between Sylvain (Filion) and Louis (Roy) we got it done and now we have a great horse."

Hp Royal Theo is now two for six with $227,600 earned and returned $15.40 to win.

Green Manalishi S and Tetrick victorious in Canadian Trotting Classic

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Green Manalishi S and driver Tim Tetrick went to the front and never looked back to capture the $605,000 Canadian Trotting Classic on Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Marcus Melander trainee held off a late push from Pilot Discretion to win Woodbine's marquee event for 3-year-old trotters by half a length in 1:52.4. Tetrick becomes the winningest driver in the history of the Canadian Trotting Classic with now four titles to his name.

"That's a big honor," said Tetrick of claiming the Canadian Trotting Classic wins record. "It just kind of fell into place and worked out really good."

Ontario

Tetrick's previous three victories in the Canadian Trotting Classic came with Crystal Fashion (2018), Bar Hopping (2016) and Market Share (2012).

Green Manalishi S, who went off as the 6-5 favourite, shot to the top from post-four and led the field by the opening-quarter in :27.2. After an easy :29 second-quarter, Tetrick ramped up the tempo with the son of Muscle Hill—Naga Morich to trot a :27.3 third-quarter.

Swandre The Giant raced in the two-hole, but made a break going to three-quarters. Hambletonian winner Forbidden Trade moved out from third entering the final turn and was nearly four lengths behind Green Manalishi S turning for home. Goodtimes winner Pilot Discretion followed the moves of Forbidden Trade to sit third at the three-quarter pole.

In the stretch, Green Manalishi S had close to three-lengths on his rivals with an eighth of a mile to go. The push to the finish line saw the lead shrink with Pilot Discretion closing in, ultimately coming up half a length short.

"I wanted to get out of there and either sit really close or go ahead and cut it, but I didn't want to have to work too hard to do it," said Tetrick of his strategy. "I wanted him to feel really brave going down the backside and I went a little faster in the third-quarter to get a little separation on them and down by the wire it was getting close, but my horse held on good and he never wins by too many."

Forbidden Trade finished third, but was placed back to fifth for causing interference in deep stretch to Only For Justice. Smart As Hill was moved up from fourth to third, while Only For Justice entered the Superfecta going from fifth to fourth. Owned by Courant Inc, Green Manalishi S improved to four-for-four in starts at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The Melander trainee becomes the first horse since Father Patrick in 2014 to win the Wellwood Memorial and Canadian Trotting Classic in consecutive seasons.

"This horse has kind of been in the shadow of Greenshoe and Gimpanzee," said Tetrick of Green Manalishi S status among Melander's stable stars. "He's done really well and he's made money and won an elimination of the Hambletonian. He's a very qualified horse."

Green Manalishi S is now five for nine this season with $688,226 earned. The Canadian Trotting Classic victory is the

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Evident Beauty overcame a post-10 starting spot to score a 9-1 upset victory in Saturday night's Elegatimage at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Richard 'Nifty' Norman and capitalized off a great steer from driver David Miller to rally from third-over at the head of the lane for a 1:53 victory in the $376,000 event for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

"I thought I better got forward with her some and it actually worked out great," said Miller. "They were working pretty hard up front and I felt pretty good in the last turn."

Evident Beauty got away seventh, while an early lead shuffle settled with The Ice Dutchess leading the field up to the half in :55.3. When Dovescry came first up on the far turn, providing cover for Only Take Cash and Evident Beauty.

The three-quarter time popped up 1:24.1 with The Ice Dutchess surrendering the lead to the outside pressure.

When Dovescry moved to the lead momentarily, but Only Take Cash muscled by her with victory in her sights. However, Evident Beauty was full of the most trot and powered by on the far outside for a half-length victory. Only Take Cash was second, while When Dovescry was third and Princess Deo fourth.

Evident Beauty made a costly break in last week's Simcoe Stakes and entered the Elegatimage with miscues in two of her last four starts. Miller noted a solution the connections came up with that may have played a role in the victory.

Dave Landry

Evident Beauty (David Miller) came out of the 10-hole to post a 9-1 upset in the $376,000 Elegatimage final Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The mile was timed in 1:53.

"We really can't figure out why she's doing that, but we watched her Hambletonian Oaks replay and last week's and every time I pull the ear plugs she takes off running," said Miller. "Tonight they didn't put a string on there."

A daughter of Trixton—Struck By Lindy, Evident Beauty improved to six for 11 on the season with her ninth career victory. She now has $753,463 earned for owners Mel Hartman, Little E LLC and R A W Equine Inc.

Evident Beauty paid $21.40 to win.

After pacing side by side for about an eighth of a mile, Zero Tolerance just pulled away with a two-length lead and hit the wire a wrapped-up winner over Brooklyn Lilacs (Joe Bongiorno) by 1-¾ lengths in 1:54.4.

“She followed some good early fractions and came home real well,” said her trainer Joe Holloway. “She’ll be going to Lexington next and then to the Breeders Crown.”

Driver - Jim Morrill Jr.

Owner - Barabara Boese, James Boese and Richard Banca

Trainer - Richard Banca

Breeder - Blue Chip Bloodstock

Time - 1:56.4

Mutuel - $4.50

Quincy Blue Chip (Jim Morrill Jr.) took no prisoners and went right to the front. With Blue Ribbon Gal (Brian Sears) and Sweet Chapter (Matt Kakaley) making breaks in the first turn, Sensibility (Scott Zeron) who also left, easily grabbed a two-hole trip behind the favorite. Morrill backed the half down to 1:00 and forced Stella Jane (Corey Callahan) and Winndevie (Jason Bartlett) to come in the outer flow to chase.

Quincy Blue Chip hit the gas on the second circuit, smoking a :28.1 third quarter that thwarted the outside attackers short-lived challenge. Morrill then let his filly have her head around the last turn and into the lane and she trotted home without issue ahead of a fast-closing Winndevie (Jason Bartlett) in 1:56.4.

“I got to the half in a real soft fraction and then let her trot home all by herself,” said Morrill. “She does it all by herself; she’s a real nice filly.”

Driver - Scott Zeron

Owner - Richard Silverman, Mary Kinsey Arnold, Edward Mcenery and Michael Gluckman

Trainer - Richard Silverman

Breeder - Steve Jones

Time - 1:54.2

Mutuel - $7.50

The Fun Marshall (Scott Zeron) was automatically in front off the pylons as no one else left in the race. She got to the quarter in :27.4 and the half in :58.1. There, Cash Roll (Andy Miller) started to pursue from the outside with Merga Hanover (Matt Kakaley) on her back.

The group sped up the backside in :28 flat when Kakaley made a bold move and tipped Merga Hanover three-deep going into the last turn. With the pace still stiff around the final bend, Merga Hanover's bid failed and The Fun Marshall began to extend her lead as they came to the wire where she won by five in a new lifetime mark of 1:54.2.

"We took our time with her all year and she really developed, and the rail helped tonight," said Zeron. "I've never had her on the front before and when that horse tipped three-deep she just opened up. She paced as fast as she could down the lane."

Driver - Brian Sears

Owner - Courant Inc. and S R F Stable

Trainer - Marcus Melander

Breeder - Order By Stable

Time - 1:56.2

Mutuel - $2.10

Gimpanzee (Brian Sears) was all business and left nothing to chance from the start. He went right to the front and did things at his own discretion. With no one making any moves behind him, Sears cut very soft fractions of :29 and :59.1 before speeding it up a bit to 1:28.1 in the third panel.

Winnerup (Trond Smedshammer) who had moved from the back of the pack, made his way to second and got as close as Sears wheel. But the party was over from there as Gimpanzee stretched out and flew home in :28.1 to win by two-lengths in 1:56.2.

Driver - Matt Kakaley

Owner - Ray Schnittker, Nolamaura Racing and Thomas Spatorico

Trainer - Ray Schnittker

Breeder - Steve Jones

Time - 1:54

Mutuel - $2.10

Hickfromfrenchlick (Matt Kakaley) had post one but let Artie's Ideal (Marcus Miller) take the lead off the gate. That courtesy was short-lived as Kakaley pulled Hickfromfrenchlick back out and retook the front at the quarter in :28. They got to the half when Buddy Hill (Tyler Buter) came calling from fourth and challenged the leader.

Hickfromfrenchlick and Buddy Hill battled side by side up the backstretch to the three-quarters and around the last turn. But as game as Buddy Hill was, Hickfromfrenchlick was just better. He pulled away in the lane and won by 1-1/4 lengths in 1:54.

"He's a real good colt. He was sore last year and came back good this year," said trainer Ray Schnittker. "He was real good tonight."

In Batavia Downs signature event, the $50,000 Robert J. Kane Invitational pace, Dorsoduro Hanover (Matt Kakaley) got away fifth while Our Max Factor N (Jason Bartlett) took the field to the half in :57. Southwind Amazon (Jim Morrill Jr.) came first-up and drew even with Our Max Factor N and it became a match race for a while from there.

The pair paced furiously in a quick :27.3 third panel and continued the battle into the final turn. When it looked like one of them would win, Kakaley shook Dorsoduro Hanover loose at the head of the stretch, tipped three-deep entering the lane and made up three lengths in the final eighth to win by a head in 1:52.2.

"He went a real game mile and closed well off the slow fractions up front," said Kakaley.

The millionaire son of Somebeachsomewhere-Deer Valley Miss scored his 15th lifetime win and added to his earnings total that now sits at $1,449,151. Dorsoduro Hanover ($4.30) is owned by Burke Racing, J & T Silva, Purnel & Libby and Weaver Brusceci. Ron Burke trains the winner.

Creative tournaments for patrons: involve bettors in special events with rewards to increase business, part one

by Frank CotoLO

In last month's AA (full story here) we suggested some ideas to use with the "all-harness-racing-is-local" approach to attract bettors. The ideas imagined concentrated on overnight races, with suggestions about designing conditioned races by using the track's current equine residents.

Creating a distinct atmosphere with familiar horses should prompt more wagering from a track's regular patrons, as well as WOM (word of mouth) may attract new on-site patrons who could become regulars.

And, there are follow-through add-ons to the "all-harness-racing-is-local" approach because the unique races produced could offer a kit-and-caboodle of wagers. The point being that no racing event should be a "spectator" event. All races should have either pari-mutuel wagering or a promotional-gimmick to involve the public.

Never forget your audience consists of bettors and they come to the track to make wagers and these days they can stay home to wager or make bets with mobile devices. The longer you keep their attention, the more they will bet.

Adding wagering options to pari-mutuel races is simply good for a track's business. This was, after all, the motivation that created single- and multi-race exotic wagering. Decades ago, someone at some track was given to a simple yet brilliant idea—expand the betting menu because the win-place-show choices were tiresome. Perhaps they were not, in reality, but creating more pools for wagers along with the win-place-show choices could never hurt. After all, pari-mutuel betting does not work like casino (house) or bookie wagering. As it turned out, of course, more betting options available in various races just made bettors wager more money.

Let's look now, though, at a "special" racing event that tracks promote strongly though it never offers anything special to bettors. It fits perfectly, too, as another way to take advantage of the "all-harness-racing-is-local" atmosphere.

Often, tracks hold driver "championships," in which drivers earn points by racing well in specific races over a period of programs, and after a declared number of races, the champion is the driver with the most accumulated points.

It is a wonderful routine for the drivers involved. They deserve the extra boost in exposure, but moreover, in this context, they get a chance to generate extra income for themselves (there are always cash prizes) while doing the job that rewards their performances proportionately, anyway (their fee for driving, usually a better income when they produce horses qualifying for any amount of purse monies).

What is all well and good for the drivers in such a contest is entirely independent from the essential value a track offers with a pari-mutuel race, no less any special event: to provoke more wagering from the public.

Sure, the races involved in a drivers' championship are available for wagering and bettors go about their business playing as they do on any race.

Something is wrong, though. Why is the track promoting the drivers championship races as if there is an audience for them?

I have never seen a shred of evidence relating to how driver-championship races provoke more wagering than non-driver championship races. Nor have I ever been in the presence of harness fans and/or bettors that became excited, delighted or incited about wagering more money on races that are part of driver championship matches.

It does not get much clearer.

The betting public simply does not care.

Still, tracks continue to hold and promote driver championships as if they have loyal audiences that go out of their way to watch, no less follow the standings, with rapt attention and then bet the living daylight out of them.

How do track administrations ignore the fact that the public, even if they have favorite local drivers, simply does not care, and for a reason that should be, especially to track administrations, crystal clear?

Track administrations should be shaken. They need to wake up to see the chance they are missing to develop a scheme to make a drivers championship include the betting public. Isn't it obvious why? All right, if it is such a mystery, let me write it out for you: so the races assigned to the event are available to generate enough interest for the public to benefit from them.

Possible solutions deserve alternative actions.

As a long-term investment (because drivers championships take a while), any track could allow the betting public to participate in the special races beyond treating them as they treat all the other races on the programs.

It is not a mighty feat and it may be simpler than my suggestions. Whatever the extra work (a few people already on the payroll should be available to do a few extra things), those few extra things could help handle and business, online or on site, in general. In the second part of this episode, I will offer a plan and how the plan could spin off into other business-generating promotions.

Bahia Quesnot bound for Yonkers International Trot

By Brandon Valvo for the SOA of NY
(with additional reporting by Romain Porée)

Junior Guelpa has traveled New York City in the past, but his next trip to the Big Apple will be nothing like his previous visits. The French trainer and driver will bring trotting mare Bahia Quesnot across the Atlantic to compete in the Yonkers International Trot. The $1 million stakes, slated for Saturday, Oct. 12, will be Guelpa's first time competing in the United States.

"I want to see the Statue of Liberty again," Guelpa said with a laugh last Saturday (Sept. 7) at Hippodrome de Vincennes. "No, seriously, it's a privilege to be able to participate in such a big race in the United States.

"I have never had a chance to drive there and I do not know Yonkers, but I went to the United States and to New York City on holidays, to take some rest. There, it will not be the same. But I can't wait."

Guelpa's excitement about the trip ahead was bolstered by Bahia Quesnot's second-place finish in the Group 2 European Trotting Masters Series Final. Guelpa sent the 8-year-old straight to the lead at the start of the 2,700-meter stakes, beating Bold Eagle and Queer Fish to the top as the field exited the chute and joined the big track at the Paris racecourse.

Racing into the stretch the first time, Bold Eagle and Björn Goop glided up on the outside and took the lead, crossing over to the pylons in front of Bahia Quesnot. However, Mindyourvalue W.F. and Bel Avis ranged up on the outside and peeled away in a speed duel. Soon, Bahia Quesnot found herself four back along the pylons and pinned in.

Racing up the backstretch, Bahia Quesnot kept her nose pressed to Goop's helmet and raced just to Propulsion's inside. When the Swedish star tipped three-wide nearing the final turn, Guelpa yanked on the right line and slid out, looking to keep Bold Eagle jailed. However, as Queer Fish back peddled on the rim, Guelpa dove back to the pylons.

With Queer Fish fading, Bold Eagle slid out and Bahia Quesnot followed the champion's move. Guelpa angled Bahia Quesnot four-wide into the lane outside of Propulsion and for the first time in the race, the driver became animated. He leaned forward in the bike, prodding and swiping at his mare with the whip in his right hand and hitting the sulky shaft.

While rival Cleangame made a break in the final 200 meters, Propulsion inherited the lead, but Bahia Quesnot kept coming as her driver kept asking. Although Propulsion's nose hit the finish first, Bahia Quesnot was just a head behind. She trotted out past the post well ahead of the field.

"Fantastic," Guelpa exclaimed after the race. "Once again, she was great. She was the fastest horse in the race over three sections so it's fantastic. She recovered so easily too. I turned around after the post, I went back to the clubhouse and by the time she headed to the stables, she was breathing normally. She's amazing."

By multiple Group 1 winner Scipion du Goutier out of the Install mare Queen Ines, Bahia Quesnot was bred by Alain Léon Lefebvre and is owned by Tahar Ait-Hamouda. Bahia Quesnot began her career in Cédric Herserant's stable, winning six races including the Group 3 Grand National du Trot in 2016. However, after a 35-race losing streak, the mare found her way to Guelpa.

"I had befriended her owner during a trip to Norway, where we each had a horse to run. We met there and got along pretty well," Guelpa said. "A few years later, the mare needed a change of scenery. That's when she was sent to me."

Bahia Quesnot made her first start for Guelpa in the Group 3 Grand Prix de Noel at Cagnes-sur-Mer on Dec. 23, 2018. She won at first asking with her new conditioner in the sulky.

Brandon Valvo

Bahia Quesnot scoring down before her Elitloppet elimination in May.

"I knew she was already very good because she had achieved great performances. At work, she quickly became very good too," Guelpa said. "She won straight out at Cagnes-sur-Mer. She's not that good in the winter, but I was lucky that she's still improving."

"She has got her ways; she is a lady you know," Guelpa said. "But she is kind and endearing. The people who care for her are in love with her. My sister Paola and Christophe Ceccareli take care of her on a daily basis."

Although Bahia Quesnot finished ninth second time out for Guelpa in the Prix Ourasi at Cagnes-sur-Mer January 3, Guelpa entered the mare back in the Group 2 Grand Prix de Belgique at Vincennes 10 days later. She finished second in the "B" race, punching her ticket to the Grand Prix d'Amérique in the process.

Bahia Quesnot finished 10th in France's biggest trotting race and after thirds in Group 1 company in the Grand Criterium de Vitesse Nice-Matin and Olympiatravet and a win in a Gold Division leg this spring, took a shot in the Elitloppet. Although she finished sixth in her Elitloppet elimination and didn't advance to the final, Guelpa, who has 239 training victories since launching his career in 2012, was thankful to compete on such big stages.

"It is fantastic to already have a horse of her class in your stable for a little trainer like me," he said. "It's a privilege. She has allowed me to take part in the most beautiful races."

Since the Elitloppet, Bahia Quesnot has been the runner up in five grouped stakes: the Oslo Grand Prix, the Grand Prix de la Ville de Cagnes-sur-Mer, the Prix Maharajah, the Grand Prix du Département des Alpes-Maritimes, and the European Trotting Masters Final. Although her earnings swelled to 878,346€ from 84 starts, making her the richest horse Guelpa has trained, the defeats can be disappointing.

"It's frustrating, that's for sure. But you know, the most important thing is that she continues to progress and repeat her best form," Guelpa said. "I would prefer to be second six times rather than win once and not see her again. Sometimes, she didn't miss by much, like the last time in Vincennes."

International Trot. After she endured long land-based travel across Europe, Guelpa is confident about the trans-Atlantic flight. He is also confident about Bahia Quesnot adapting to the half-mile track at Yonkers based on her performance on the five-eighths ovals in Sweden.

"The trip does not worry me because it will take less time to go to the United States than to go to Sweden. To race in Scandinavia, she had to stand 26 hours in a truck," Guelpa said. "(The half-mile track) will not be a problem because she has shown that she is able to cope in Sweden. In addition, (the race) will be over a mile-and-a-quarter, so it will be perfect for her."

Once extended an official invitation by the race office, Bahia Quesnot will join defending Yonkers International Trot winner and Swedish representative Cruzado Dela Noche and Hambletonian winner Atlanta, who will race for the United States, as confirmed starters for the storied stakes. The remaining invitees will be announced over the coming weeks.

Both Atlanta and Bahia Quesnot will vie to become the ninth mare to win the International. Bahia Quesnot looks to join 13 previous French winners of the International.

"It's a great opportunity, a challenge and a reward," Guelpa said. "There are many ways to look at things, but one thing is certain: it's fantastic, especially since I just settled with my horses on the training center of Grosbois to try to improve my career again and this race could also help me to reach new heights."

The $1 million Yonkers International Trot is slated for Saturday, Oct. 12 at Yonkers Raceway. The card will also feature a pair of $250,000 invitationals, the Harry Harvey Trot and Dan Rooney Pace.

Dam Family Game #1

Win a $2,000 yearling credit from Diamond Creek Farms.

by Trey Nosrac

Some of you love a challenge, a mystery, an enigma, or a problem. You may listen to Will Shortz, the Puzzle Master, on public radio. You may tackle the New York Times Crossword Puzzle each Sunday in ink. You may struggle with cryptograms. Should you be a puzzler, and especially if you are in the market for a nice yearling this fall, here is a contest you may wish to try.

The Lexington Select Sale Catalog lists the hip numbers of 769 yearlings heading for public auction between Oct. 1 and 5. One of these yearlings in this catalog will be the answer to this challenge.

Why try? If you solve the riddle and email your name before midnight Sept, 22, you will be eligible for a $2,000 credit on any Diamond Creek yearling you sign the sales ticket for, not to mention that by sending in your correct answer, you will document that you are pretty “dam” smart.

It is possible that not a single person will solve the puzzle. It is possible that 100 people will solve the puzzle. This will not be easy. In fact, unless you are a pedigree maven or a puzzle master, the over/under of predicted successful answers is three. We shall see.

For a few samples of how the game is played, you can find practice games here.

For those who attempted to solve practice puzzle B, the answers you were looking for are:

1. Furyk (2nd dam)
2. Deadliest Catch (1st dam)
3. HIP number 673, Uncle AJ

Enough warm-ups. Let the real Dam Family game(s) begin!

Contest # 1

1. What is this? Passage 4 remains unsolved.

2. All three below share the same title: ____ _ ____

Interactive Mixed Reality TV Show (2017)

Video Game (1993)

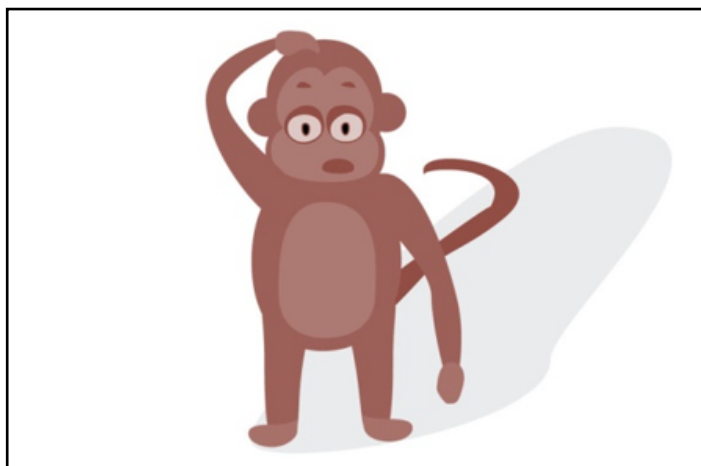

Movie (2018 Indie Film)

3. What is the HIP _____

What is the name of the yearling in the 2019 Lexington Catalog _____

Should you solve this puzzle, simply email the correct answer and your name to shaun@diamondcreekfarm.com
Answers will be revealed and explained next week.

Century Farroh prevails in fifth straight Gold test

His rivals took a run at him on Friday night, but 3-year-old pacing colt Century Farroh proved up to the challenge and wrapped up the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series regular season with a perfect record of five wins in five starts.

Bronx Seelster pressed Century Farroh through Woodbine Mohawk Park's opening turn, challenging the division leader for the early lead, but Century Farroh refused to cede his Post 1 advantage and led the field of seven to a :27 opening quarter. After allowing Century Farroh to cruise to a :55.3 half, Stag Party mounted a serious challenge heading for the 1:23 three-quarters and the colts turned for home neck-and-neck. However, driver Sylvain Filion simply asked Century Farroh for another gear and the fan favourite pulled away to a three-quarter length victory in 1:50. Bronx Seelster closed to be second and Stag Party finished third.

"I was very impressed with Casie's (Coleman) horse tonight (Stag Party). He took a run at him, and kept going too, and so did Bronx Seelster in the first turn and in the stretch, but he's just a very determined animal. He fights them off," said Century Farroh's trainer Dr. Ian Moore. "I hope we can get one more. That's the one that really counts, the Super Final."

Cambridge, ON resident Moore trains Century Farroh for Ratchford Stables NS of North Sydney, NS. Trainer and owner now face the task of mapping out the colt's schedule leading up to the $225,000 Gold Series Super Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday, Oct. 12.

"There's probably only going to be one race, I would say, in the four weeks," said Moore. "It could be next week (Sept. 20) in Hoosier in the Jennas Beach Boy or it would probably have to be an overnight here. You have to supplement him to Hoosier, so we might, and then he won't race until the Super Final. He's been off before and he seems to do well on it. He had almost two weeks here too."

The $150,000 Jennas Beach Boy at Harrah's Hoosier Park in Indiana requires a $12,500 (U.S.) supplement to make Century Farroh eligible. The same situation exists for the Breeders Crown in late October at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the Matron Pace and Progress Pace in late November at Dover Downs should Moore and the Ratchfords choose to extend the Mach Three colt's season beyond the Super Final.

"At this point in time with any horse really it's week-to-week basically, when you get near the end of the season. I mean he started training back in late January I believe, early February, so it's been a long old road," said Moore. "Mr. Ratchford has already stated – he's had numerous offers again recently and also stallion offers too – he's already stated that he wants to race him as a 4-year-old, so if he does then you've got to take care of them a little bit. So it will be week-to-week and we'll keep going until he shows signs that he's had enough. Good horses always show you that. Shadow Play told me when it was time to stop with him and this guy will too."

Shadow Play would earn a total of $1.5 million in his racing career, retiring to stallion duty in 2009 after his 4-year-old season. The horse is just one of several notable pacers that have resided in the Moore stable in the last two decades and while Century Farroh has not had the same stakes opportunities as some of his predecessors the trainer still ranks him among the top performers.

"He's a horse that loves his work, he loves his business, and he's a very, very determined animal," said Moore. "I've had the good fortune of being associated with a lot of good horses over the last 15 years I've been doing this and he's right up there with all of them, that's for sure."

Following in the footsteps of their older peers, the 2-year-old pacing colts will wrap up their Grassroots season at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Monday, Sept. 16, competing in Races 3, 4, 7 and 9 on the program, which gets underway at 7:10 pm.

Sophomore pacing colts and geldings were back in the spotlight and, as predicted, turned in ultra-competitive stakes performances on Friday, Sept. 13 at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino. The evening featured two $49,000 divisions in leg seven of eight for the division as the horses prepare for the upcoming Stakes Super Finals next month. Each division produced slight upsets with victories from Shamwow and Tellmeaboutit.

In division one, Shamwow turned in a gritty performance to get the victory over rival Rockie Got Framed. After finishing second to Rockie Got Framed in his last two starts, Shamwow was able to turn the tables and stop the timer in 1:50, just a tick off his lifetime best, for trainer Melissa Essig.

When the wings of the gate opened, Rockie Got Framed with Ricky Macomber Jr. quickly grabbed the lead, as they were looking their third consecutive stakes win. Alwaysasweetvictory with Todd Warren settled in second while Shamwow with LeWayne Miller waited patiently in third, poised to attack through the opening quarter in :27:0. At the half in :55:3, Miller guided Shamwow to the outside and urged him to the front to grab the lead from Rockie Got Framed who was content to sit in the pocket.

Ima Real Ladys Man with Michael Oosting began pressuring the leader at the third quarter in 1:23:4 and was able to stick a nose in front as the field turned for home. The top trio matched strides in the stretch and it appeared to be anyone's race. Using a :26.1 final quarter, Shamwow fought back gamely to stick a nose in front and reach the wire first, followed by Rockie Got Framed in second and Shamwow in third. Shamwow paid $5.20 to win at the betting windows.

"I knew I wanted to be forwardly placed," driver LeWayne Miller noted in the winner's circle. "We've been trying to teach him how to race and that was a big mile tonight by him. He raced really strong."

Shamwow, the son of Always A Virgin—Bolero, has won five of eight lifetime starts and has yet to finish worse than second in his young career. Unraced as a 2-year-old, Shamwow now sports a lifetime bankroll of $96,875 for owner, breeder Cornerstone Stock Farm.

Not to be outdone, division two was the fastest division of the night as Tellmeaboutit with Michael Oosting found the winner's circle after a sizzling 1:48:4 effort. The 1:48.4 time was a new lifetime best for sophomore colt and just one-fifth of a second off of the current track record for 3-year-old pacing geldings.

Pure Rock with Rick Plano used their customary front-running tactics to grab the lead from the coveted post five. Jagger Rocks with Sam Widger followed in second while Tellmeabout waited patiently in third. The field remained in straight formation through an opening split of :25:4, but just before the half Jagger Rocks was given the green light and grabbed the front position at the half in a snappy :53:2.

Tellmeaboutit began his attack on the leader when Oosting moved him second-over and he was able to take the lead just before the third quarter in 1:21:4. Tellmeaboutit used the long quarter-mile stretch to bolster his lead on the field, and ultimately crossed the wire three lengths to the good. Little Rocket Man with Trace Tetrick rallied from well back for second while Ollie's Ztam with Ricky Macomber Jr. dug in for third. Tellmeaboutit paid $8.20 to win for his betting backers.

"I've always known he's a nice colt," trainer Alvin Miller revealed after the victory. "We're just trying to keep everything together. He's got a little bit of an ornery streak in him. I always knew he could go that fast, just wasn't sure how far."

Tellmeaboutit is the son of Tellitlikeitis—Portia Blue Chip and has now won nine of 23 lifetime starts. Bred by Lavon Miller, he now boasts a lifetime bankroll of $186,930 for owners Twila Harts and Alvin Miller.

Hall of Famers John Campbell and Foiled Again open Shenandoah Downs fall season

Timothy Betts' Some Fancy Beach stole the show with a dominating 13 1/2 length win Friday in Woodstock, VA as Shenandoah Downs opened its fourth pari-mutuel harness meet. The 3-year-old Somebeachsomewhere filly powered to a five-length margin on top at three-quarters, opened up by nine at the head of the stretch then crossed handily in 1:56.1. Overlooked at 12-1, driver Jeremy Indof guided the upset victor to her third lifetime triumph in 23 starts.

Driver Chris Shaw reached the winner's circle four times Friday aboard Keystone Stevie, Triple T Swinger, Alexis May Hanover and Marvalous Song. Trainer Jason Shaw had a trio of wins with his brother's last two and Cream Puff Diddy.

Another highlight of opening day was an appearance by two Hall of Famers — driver John Campbell and legendary horse Foiled Again. Both held a meet and greet with fans, then, after the seventh race, Campbell put on his racing colors and got in the sulky for the first time since his 2017 retirement. He led Foiled Again, now retired, in a lap around the track.

The Shenandoah Downs meet continues every Friday at 3:30 p.m. and Saturday at 2 p.m. until October 13. The track is located at Exit 283 off I-81, halfway between Winchester and Harrisonburg. The races are streamed live at shenandoahdowns.com. Wagering is available at the track and at Colonial Downs OTBs at Breakers Sports Grille, Ponies and Pints, Buckets Bar & Grill, The Windmill OTB Sports Grill and at Rosie's in New Kent.

Odds On Osiris romps in track record performance at Hoosier

Heavy rains and a sloppy track would not deter freshman pacing colt Odds On Osiris who became Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino's newest track record holder after an impressive, open length 1:50.3 score in the co-featured event of the evening, the $69,000 Indiana Sires Stakes for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings, on Thursday, Sept. 12. With Peter Wrenn in the bike, Odds On Osiris re-established the track record for 2-year-old pacing geldings by a fifth of a second over a sloppy rated track and extended his win streak to four in the process.

Leaving from post eight, Odds On Osiris left just enough to get a spot along the rail in fourth. Stellar BB and Ronnie Gillespie were the first to get a call through the opening panel in :26.3 before yielding the lead to Always And Again and Trace Tetrick just before the half in :55.1.

When the field reached the three-quarters in 1:23.4, Odds On Osiris had ranged up and was ready to strike from first-over. Turning for home, Wrenn asked his mount for more and Odds On Osiris found another gear. Utilizing a :26.3 final panel, Odds On Osiris finished seven lengths to the good under a hand drive. Straight Up Cool and Mike Oosting along with Francis Underwood and Sam Widger rallied well late to get up for second and third, respectively. As the heavy 1-2 favorite, Odds On Osiris returned $3.00 at the betting windows.

"To be honest, I haven't really figured him all the way out," Wrenn said in the winner's circle. "I don't know how he races best just yet. At this point, he's still very green. I don't think he knows how he likes to race best. He just never gets tired, let's hope he never figures out how to get tired."

Trained by Melanie Wrenn, the gelded son of Rockin Image—Antigua Hanover recorded his fourth lifetime victory from six trips behind the starting gate. Odds On Osiris was a winner in the 2019 Fox Stake and has now bankrolled $123,395 for Odds On Racing.

In the second division of the stakes action, Clever Character extended a win streak of his own to three after a 1:53 score. With regular pilot Dale Hiteman in the sulky, Clever Character utilized a second-over trip and a :26.3 closing kick to get the win by a head over Northern Cadillac and Trace Tetrick. Sawyer's Desire and Ricky Macomber Jr. also paced strong to the wire to round out the trifecta. As the 1-2 favorite, Clever Character returned $3.00 at the betting windows.

Trained and owned by Timothy Smith, Clever Character has now won five of seven lifetime starts and has yet to finish worse than second in his young career. The gelded son of Tellitlikeitis—Ruby Delight now sports a lifetime bankroll of $129,375.

Why our horses are getting faster

In response to Ron Gurfein's column (full column here).

Ronnie, I'm afraid I have to disagree with your reasoning RE: our records keep dropping and the thoroughbreds are static.

All of the chemical performance enhancers our trainers can use are equally available to thoroughbred trainers. It would be naïve to think we use them and they don't.

The real reason lies in the fact that the thoroughbred breed is probably 100 years older than the standardbred breed, and at a certain point in time, any equine breed will hit a plateau and level off.

At some point, probably 100 years from now, maybe a little less, our breed will be fully developed and it will level off. At that point, our speed records will be static, just as the thoroughbred records are today. Until then, our trotters and pacers will continue going faster and faster. Some of them may be helped along chemically, but the main reason is simply nature.

- Alan Leavitt / Lexington, KY

Retiring horses early will be the death of our sport

After hearing the news this week that Greenshoe will be retired at the end of the season I can't help but think that this is very very bad for the sport of harness racing. What is a sport without stars?

This happens so often in racing, both harness and thoroughbred racing. It seems to me that what both types of racing have become nothing but breeding shows. The actual racing is a distant second.

Every year there are big races, the Hambletonian, the Meadowlands Pace, etc. Someone has to win them. Does that mean that that horse was a great horse? A great horse or a star is a horse that races over the years and wins.

Forgive me a moment if I bring in a baseball analogy. Pete Alonso of the Mets is a rookie and is doing extremely well in his first season in the major leagues. Is Pete Alonso a baseball great? Should he be immediately enshrined in the Baseball Hall of Fame? He will have to perform at this level for years to come to be even considered as a Hall of Famer.

If he was a harness horse, he would be retired at the end of the season and sent off to make babies. How does this benefit the sport? Hopefully for years to come fans will go out to the ball park to watch and cheer Pete on. People go the ball park to see the great players and great pitching duels. deGrom Vs Kershaw for example. That's something to see.

Where is this excitement in harness racing? Last week at Scioto Downs in Ohio there was a tremendous night of harness racing. All stakes races and two super big races. Atlanta and McWicked, both stars, won the two big races, both by a whisker or less. How McWicked won was truly amazing.

Who was there to watch and bet? The betting pool looked like the take at the local Church Bingo night. Harness racing only exists today based on casino money. I have been saying for years that this is going to be the death of the sport. The casino operators have been forced to have racing if they want to get the casino action. What happens, and it is happening now, when the casino operators go to the state and say, "Listen we have been running the racing for years and it loses money, we give you, the state, millions each year. We do not want to have racing." What is the state eventually going to say? Look what's happening at Monticello in NY.

What brings fans out to the track or makes him bet on his home computer or go to a local OTB? I can say this, it's not to see the sons and daughters of the latest hot stallion. I look at the form or a race and see five horses by the same stallion. One is 4-5 and the another is 25-1. Huh? Both had the same father, so it's the mother.

Many years ago, they bred Secretariat to Krissy Evert (the horse, not the tennis player) both were their sex's Triple Crown winners, so they named the colt "Six Crowns." The horse couldn't put one foot in front of the other.

My favorite horse of the last few years was Captaintreacherous. After a brilliant 2- and 3-year-old season he had a poor 4-year-old season. He was retired and is off to make 150 or so offspring a year, each selling for big shekles. How many will be equal to pop? How many will be champs or end up in a 4K claiming race?

Where are the stars, where is the action? What does the sport do to generate interest? Too much racing? Too many tracks? No handle? I see pictures posted on Facebook showing great drivers and great horses of the past. The grandstands were full of people. What happened?

Whatever it was, or is, breeding is not the cure, it's the illness. All sports need stars and without them there is no sport. Breed all you want, breed horses that always have injuries, keep breeding them and selling them for big bucks. Boast horses' race history so you can send him off as champs. When there's no racetracks to race at and no interest in the sport are you going to bring back the horse drawn carriage?

That's my 2 cents. That and $2.75 will get you one ride on the NYC Subway.
