Holding on

Desperate Man's popular all-Canadian victory in the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup resonates with the eternal harness racing themes of hope, small-town families and the ability of a single great horse to be the ultimate equalizer. But to John and Kathy Cecchin, it's about holding on to those things to which they hold dear.

by Dave Briggs

Dave Landry

Three days after winning the $1 million Pepsi North America Cup in 1:49.3, Desperate Man and his trainer and co-owner Kathy Cecchin posed at the family farm in Arthur, ON.

At the Cecchin family's farm in tiny Arthur, ON they hold onto things — like that old tractor named Abner, that old trotter named Emmitt and John's beloved "company truck" his daughter Nikki Davies says isn't worth $500.

"I heard him say he might have to put some wood on instead of bumpers," Davies said, "because the bumpers had fallen off. I said, 'Are you kidding me?'"

Last Friday, John was delighted to use the company truck to deliver the family's star pacer Desperate Man to Woodbine Mohawk Park's retention barn for the Pepsi North America Cup. He left the farm in plenty of time to account for the possibility of the truck breaking down along the way, which Davies said

"We are just on standby to pick him up when that thing breaks down," Davies said, laughing.

As fate would have it — and, make no mistake, fate plays a major role in this story — the trip turned out to be as perfect and uneventful as the one Trevor Henry carved out a little more than 24 hours later in the $1 million final that delivered a mild 7-1 upset victory in Canada's biggest harness race (replay here).

Though, having the company truck at the track did pose another problem in the aftermath of a surreal evening for the Cecchin, Davies and Henry families.

When John went to take the Pepsi North America Cup trophy to his truck, Megan Walker, Woodbine's senior manager of standardbred racing operations, suggested he make sure to lock the doors, to which John replied, "I don't think it locks. One window doesn't work."

The $500,000 cheque that comes with that trophy has little bearing on whether John Cecchin will get a new truck anytime soon.

Half-ownership in Desperate Man was a wedding gift for Nikki and Paul Davies and a memory they will long share with their son, Deacon.

Kathy said her husband John “is so much more deserving of” the credit for Desperate Man’s success.

“He could’ve bought a new truck at any time,” said his wife, Kathy Cecchin, Desperate Man’s trainer and co-owner. “He’s very stubborn.”

Truth is, John Cecchin is also sentimental. The truck used to belong to his dear friend and employer, trainer Mark Austin. John was Austin’s second trainer when Austin died at the age of 54 in September of 2014, a little more than a year after Austin’s pupil Fool Me Once won an elimination of the 2013 North America Cup and finished fourth in the final won by Captaintreacherous.

“Fool Me Once was the last horse that any of us were associated with that raced in the North America Cup,” Kathy said. “John just thought the world of Mark and when (Desperate Man) crossed the finish line and Nikki and I were just screaming and hugging each other, (Austin’s daughter) Paige was the first person there. As soon as we saw Paige, we just started to cry.”

There are hundreds of interconnected little pieces from there to here in Desperate Man’s story — most speak of the sport’s dominant themes of families and hope and the ability of a single great horse to be the ultimate equalizer, no matter what an auction says he’s worth and regardless of how many horses you have in the barn.

Long before Paul and Nikki Davies were a couple, Paul got his very first pari-mutuel driving win piloting Thinga Me Bob N to victory at Hanover Raceway for Kathy Cecchin in 2009.

"They put him down just to give him a shot in his first year driving," said Nikki, whose first job as a caretaker, apart from working for her parents, came at age 14 working for Trevor and Shannon Henry, who now train at the Cecchins' farm.

That John and Kathy even looked at Desperate Man is because Paul and Nikki own Outlawgrabbingears, an Alberta horse with career earnings of some $250,000 that they share with Deborah Pinel.

It was Paul that bought Outlawgrabbingears for $22,500 from the pacer's breeder, Connie Kolthammer.

"I was at the track the day that Connie Kolthammer that bred him and raised him brought him in to train. I saw (Outlawgrabbingears) training and I went up and offered her some money and we made a deal and bought him that day. That led down the line to (Desperate Man)," Paul said. "The mother of Outlawgrabbingears (Grand Slam Woman) and the mother of Desperate Man (Dreamlands Latte) are full sisters. Kathy found (Desperate Man) and she pursued it and got him and we were just lucky enough to be involved."

By now you may know that Desperate Man, bred by Winbak Farms, was a $20,000 yearling purchase at the 2019 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. You likely also know he was a wedding gift from Kathy and John to Nikki and Paul. John and Kathy gave

The Pepsi North America Cup winner's circle was a maelstrom of emotions (from left): Nikki Davies, Kathy Cecchin and Desperate Man.

Nikki and Paul a choice between half-ownership in the Ontario-sired son of Shadow Play or a down payment for a house.

"There was never a thought the other way," Nikki said of their choice. "Paul and I got married in Vegas, so it was an affordable wedding. Mom and dad actually bought the dinner and we booked the whole buffet. I said, 'That's lots, mom. That's a great wedding present.' I know those aren't cheap. I said, 'You don't have to do anything. We'll buy our share (in Desperate Man).' They insisted and it was a super generous gift and I can't believe it all worked out the way it did.

"Mom always says, 'You could've got half of nothing. You just got lucky.'"

Truth is, they all know they got lucky and plan to appreciate every second of their good fortune — welcoming photographers and reporters and TV crews to their farm with open arms.

"There will never be another horse like him for us and we know that," Kathy said.

The Cecchins have been around the game long enough to have some highs and some devastating lows. Austin's death is a low point, of course, but so was the early hours of April 2, 1992 when 69 horses died when a fire gutted Barn 3 in the Mohawk backstretch. John Cecchin lost his stable that night.

"They've had a lot of heartache," Henry said. "Those are all things that happen in life, right? This time something good happened." Leave it to Slick to turn this, the wildest of dreams, into a reality.

It wasn't long after Desperate Man stepped off the truck from the Lexington sale that the pacer earned his nickname.

"As a yearling, it was a joke because he was anything but slick," Kathy said. "He was a great big horse and he fumbled around. You'd jog him and he would barely get off the walk."

One thing Desperate Man has in his favour – beyond being a son of Shadow Play – is perfect conformation. He wears very little equipment.

"He has a beautiful conformation. You cannot fault him," Kathy said. "He's just the easiest horse ever. You can't imagine that he's as good as he is because he's completely without drama. I laugh that we did geld him. I think that he would be a handful if he was still a stud because he's a good feeling horse – he always feels saucy – so I just think that he might have been a problem."

Instead, Desperate Man is so chill he's barely awake – which is often the sign of a great horse.

"He's a cool horse and he has a great personality," Nikki said. "He's basically asleep before he goes out onto the track. I've never been in the paddock with him before. I usually just play owner and mom does all that, but he was actually sleeping (before the NA Cup). I said, 'Should we be worried?' and she said, 'No, this is him.'"

It's pretty amazing for a horse that spent the entire winter confined to his stall.

Despite posting a solid 3-1-1 record and earnings of $162,747 in six rookie starts in 2020 that included three Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Series victories, the Cecchins discovered at the end of his season that Desperate Man had a P1 stress fracture he likely raced with in his last two starts.

The options were surgery or stall rest.

"I did feel terrible for him because he never got to get turned out. He stood in the stall for the entire winter," Kathy said. "I did not want to do surgery on him. We could've done the surgery and they would've put screws in it and I just didn't want to. I just wanted to stand him and let it heal. It did heal beautifully, so it was lucky."

A lockdown of racing due to the COVID-19 pandemic proved to be another stroke of luck for Desperate Man's camp. The lockdown forced the Woodbine Entertainment Group (WEG) to move the North America Cup from its usual slot in June to Sept. 11.

"We would not even have been in it if it went in June," Kathy said. "He wasn't good in June. We thought he was racing okay, but he wasn't going to take on Perfect String. Perfect Sting was on fire."

As it turns out, Perfect Sting was the horse Desperate Man's connections were most concerned about as the NA Cup field turned for home.

The consensus from the experts is that Trevor Henry gave Desperate Man a perfect trip.

"That was the only trip that he could've beat them with," Kathy said. "Trevor just said, 'It was all or nothing.' He had to get away closer to the front. If he had got away eighth or ninth it would have been too much to overcome."

Desperate Man doesn't have the greatest gate speed and Henry said the horse is "kind of goofy and shy" behind the wings.

"The other night, he got away a lot better and, of course, that's what helped him. Those races you've got to be in position," Henry said.

Ultimately, that was the winning move.

He got away fifth while Kathy was still hiding in his paddock stall, refusing to watch. Race favorite Bulldog Hanover took a commanding lead to the quarter and half-mile half stations. By the time Kathy finally peeked at a monitor, her concern was the slow fractions of :27.3 and :55.1.

"But I still felt that (Desperate Man) was going to get money and then I could see that he had power. When they were coming off the last turn, he was wanting out and you could see that he had his head turned," Kathy said.

By the top of the stretch, Desperate Man was third behind Bulldog Hanover (driven by Jody Jamieson) and Perfect Sting (David Miller).

"When we came off the turn, I noticed Dave asked his horse to pace on and then Jody asked his," Henry said. "Jody had no pop. I knew I was probably going to beat Bulldog, but I wasn't sure that I was going to beat Perfect Sting. He's a tough horse to get around and he's an awful good horse. He did all the work and I just happened to pick him off."

Apart from being a North America Cup-winning trainer – the fifth time in the last seven editions the race has been won by a female conditioner – Kathy Cecchin is also a leading breeder of German Shepherds.

Dave Landry

The Cecchin family can't bear to part with their old tractor named Abner nor the "company truck" John inherited from his late friend Mark Austin.

"When (Henry) flipped (Desperate Man) off cover, I think everybody just cheered as loud as we could and hoped he got there and he did. We couldn't have asked for a better drive. Trevor did a great job," Nikki said.

Despite it being his first NA Cup win, Henry deflected all praise.

"It just worked out," he said. "Sometimes it works and sometimes it doesn't. That time was the perfect time to have it work."

As he crossed the finish line three-quarters of a length ahead of Perfect Sting, Henry felt the pressure lift from his body.

"It was a long week leading up to it, because it's all you think about," Henry said. "You don't want to screw up because you feel bad if you do. It's not as bad if it's people you don't know – you feel bad, of course, but it's not the same. I've got to see them the next day.

"We've just been great friends for years. When I decided to go on my own, I came (to the Cecchins' farm) and they gave me stalls. We've owned horses together and we've had luck and they are just great people. They are very humble people."

Small towns have a way of molding people differently. Kathy comes from one of the smallest.

The granddaughter of a prairie horseman, Kathy was born and raised in Welwyn, SK, a town of 78 people near the border with Manitoba.

Saturday, it seemed as if everyone in town was watching as the race unfolded on national television.

"My brother said his phone rang off the hook... My mom is 87 and people her age were screaming at their TVs. I just never thought of that. I was just so focused on the horse and trying to survive up to the race that I just wasn't thinking about the bigger picture."

Arthur, ON, located about an hour north of Mohawk, has a population of about 2,500. On Saturday night it seemed as if half of the town jammed itself into the winner's circle.

"I just could not believe how many people there were," Kathy said. "When they said, 'Take him to the back, I was, like, 'How am I going to take him through there?'

"The best part, the funny part, is that every single person bet him. It must've only been our people. My brother said, 'I made $1,300.' My nephew made $1,000. My other nephew made $1,000. I think (our son) Jay made $1,500. Nikki, who never bets, she bet $50 to win on him.”

Beyond those that cashed tickets, there’s no doubt it was a popular victory thanks to the beloved underdog or “little guy” narrative. But most of all, this one resonated not because of their size in the industry, but more because the winners are lovely, hardworking souls big on humility and long on perspective.

Anyone that knows them knows it is a team effort. Those that have never heard of the Cecchins likely “never will again,” Kathy joked.

Still, despite getting a kick out of the fact Desperate Man is the third straight NA Cup winner and fifth in the last seven to be trained by a woman, Kathy just laughs.

“That’s too cool, but I certainly wouldn’t put myself on the same level as Casie (Coleman-Herlihy) or Nancy (Takter),” Kathy said.

In truth, she said she feels uneasy getting most of the credit simply for being listed as the horse’s trainer.

“(Desperate Man is) my only horse. John has three and then I just have him. He’s about all I can handle,” she said. “John entered him to baby race and he put me down as trainer. I said, ‘You didn’t have to do that. I don’t need to be the trainer.’ I am a glorified groom and John is a wonderful horseman. He said, ‘No, he’s your horse and you’re the trainer.’ We do everything together. John goes all the miles with him because he’s so lazy. I could never get him to go. He’d be going miles in three minutes if it was me.

“I think John is so much more deserving of it, really. I do wish it was John’s name instead of mine,” Kathy said.

For his part, John diverts the credit to Desperate Man, Nikki said.

“Dad says the same thing all the time, ‘He’s so smart. He’s smarter than we are.’ That’s the main thing he says about him,” Nikki said. “Dad would never talk about himself. Even the night of, I was with dad loading up the equipment on the trailer and everyone was congratulating us and dad was just saying, ‘Sometimes you get lucky.’ He never takes any credit for the hard work that he puts in or anything like that,” Nikki said. “He’s a really patient horsemen, so it’s nice to see it all happen for him, too. He deserves that.”

Still, Kathy was instrumental in the triumph. For one, she wasn’t about to leave her only trainee alone overnight — especially a horse that sometimes gets cast in his stall.

Friday was her birthday. She spent it sleeping in her van outside the retention barn after receiving permission to do so from Woodbine officials.

“I thought if he were to get cast it would take us over an hour to get there, so I slept in the parking lot,” she said.

That it was a less-than-stellar birthday didn’t bother her. Her father died on her birthday in 1994 and, ever since, it’s not been much cause for celebration. That her birthday falls four days before the anniversary of Austin’s death doesn’t make it any better.

Thankfully, Friday night was uneventful and positively peaceful. The next night was pandemonium, leaving Kathy and Nikki positively gobsmacked as first-timers winning a million-dollar race. "There was so much that we didn't know was going to happen. Everybody was so emotional," Kathy said.

"How this all happened, I still can't process it all," Nikki said.

"I just kept thinking, 'Oh my God, he did it. He did it.' I just kept saying to him in the winner's circle, 'This is all you, big guy. This is all for you,'" Kathy said.

Desperate Man simply took it all in as the maelstrom swirled around him.

"I kept saying to Nikki, 'He's the only one that is acting like he's been here before,'" Kathy said, laughing. "The rest of us were complete lunatics and he was just standing there. He never moved or whipped his head around."

So what will they do with the money?

Likely not a lot, as you might expect. Kathy and John are made of earth and salt, after all. Perhaps the best thing that will come from it is it will likely keep them in the horse business a little longer.

"Everybody knows that he's the only horse that my mom looks after," Nikki said. "For a while it didn't look like they were even going to have any more horses. She also breeds dogs, so that was her main thing."

Kathy breeds world class German Shepherds. Naturally, the night after winning the North America Cup – as if the weekend wasn't eventful enough – a litter of seven puppies arrived.

"I was, like, 'Sure, why not, let's do that,'" Kathy said.

Life, as yet, seems shockingly normal for the Cecchins in the aftermath of a million-dollar victory.

"John keeps saying, 'When the cheque comes, it'll sink in.' Maybe, because I can't imagine a cheque with that kind of number on it. I can't even really get in my head what that would look like," Kathy said.

Nikki and Paul hope to take a trip – maybe back to Vegas. They might invest in some fencing for the farm.

Kathy said she finally might be convinced to buy a new tractor. Though, she wouldn't think of getting rid of Abner.

"I heard the murmuring around here yesterday that if anything is going to get bought, it's going to be a tractor," Kathy said. "We have a really old tractor... Its name is Abner. We can't get rid of Abner. John said, 'You don't have to get rid of Abner, but we can get a new tractor.' We've had Abner since we've moved here and we've been out here since 2002. Abner is part of the family."

Just like Kathy's 23-year-old trotter Emmitt, who is living out his days at the farm in glorious retirement.

"Emmitt was not the fastest son of Armbro Agile. He was a $5,000 yearling and made $288,000. Again, in the theme of 'We keep things,' Emmitt is retired and lives the life of luxury...

We have a big pond in the centre of our racetrack and we call it Lake Emmitt. Emmitt paid for everything."

You can bet Desperate Man will pay for some more, but it likely won't be a new truck.

"I was laughing when I was loading (Desperate Man). I said to my dad, 'Your million-dollar horse and your $500 truck,'" Nikki said.

But that shouldn't be the takeaway.

In an industry where millionaires buy the best horses and top trainers condition barns full of talented youngsters, this story – as positively, delightfully, improbable as it is – provides hope to all the rest.

"John said when we were driving home, 'People like us can never win a race like this because you always have to sell the horse,'" Kathy said. "When somebody comes with the money, you've got to take the money. Last year, we did get some very generous offers and I said, 'I don't want to sell him.' He was never bought to be sold, but I said to Nikki and Paul, 'If it will change your guys' life, then we will sell him.' They said, 'Nope.' They didn't want to sell him and we were just going to race him," Kathy said.

Proving holding on to the things you love can sometimes transcend sentiment to provide the thrill of a lifetime.

Scott Zeron warming up Pocahontas for the Peaceful Way

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Scott Banitt's passion for Minnesota runs deep

by Chris Lomon

Scott Banitt has a modest stable to go along with a modest demeanor. His contributions to Minnesota standardbred racing, however, are quite the opposite.

For the man born and raised in Cannon Falls, MN, horse racing has always been, and will always be, a big part of his life.

Banitt had first developed an interest in racing through familial ties, namely, his uncle and grandfather, who had strong ties to the sport.

He bought his first racehorse in the mid 1990s, a pacer who didn't exactly put money in the bank or Banitt's name on the local horse racing map.

What the experience did do, however, was fuel a passion for the industry, one that remains just as strong to this day.

"I grew up with racing. My grandpa lived in Cannon Falls, so we always went to the fair races around here in Minnesota. My uncle, Ronald Banks, he raced down in Chicago – Sportsman Park, Hawthorne, Maywood Park – and had a real love for it. So, I was around racing a lot, especially at the fairgrounds. In 1996, I bought my first horse, a 3-year-old Radiant Ruler colt I bought from Danny Shetler. That was my first one. He didn't turn out to be anything special, but I ended up buying in half on a horse with my uncle. It was probably my best and fastest horse. Her name was Bee Jay's Hit. She was fun to be around."

She was also quite impressive.

In 184 starts, the daughter of Hit The Bid fashioned a record of 23-22-30 and earned just over $85,000. The mare earned her 1:56.2 speed badge at Maywood Park on June 26, 2000.

There was also Carlees Conquest, a baby daughter of Arts Conquest. The bay mare recorded 17 wins, 23 seconds and 13 thirds from 166 career dashes.

"I bought her in Chicago and raced her there. At one point, she won three in a row at Hawthorne. I've kept her as a broodmare. She was in the first-ever race at Running Aces and finished second. On that day, (former Minnesota Twins manager) Tom Kelly, who owns standardbreds, handed out the winning blanket. Carlees Conquest has definitely been a highlight for me."

These days, Banitt, who works full-time for UPS, runs a small stable out of Running Aces. He owns a few broodmares with his son, who found a stallion in Ohio to pair with their broodmare band.

That horse, Fancy Schmansy, was no stranger to success on the racetrack, competing in the 2002 Little Brown Jug, and going on to post 35 wins and earnings in excess of $231,000.

"We own him and stand him. He's had three Minnesota state champions, so he's done quite well for us. I think our top year is 2016 when we bred 23 mares. For Minnesota, that's pretty darn good. Those are the highlights from the breeding part."

Now, some 25 years after owning his first horse, Banitt is still very much a part of the Minnesota standardbred scene, as an owner, breeder, charter, and board member of Minnesota Harness Racing, Inc.

The association, established in 1951, represents all of the drivers, trainers, owners, and grooms who work in the Minnesota Standardbred industry, while also promoting and protecting the welfare of the horses and horsepeople.

All of the roles he carries speak to a deep devotion to racing in the Gopher State.

"I'm not a big-time major stakes winner, but I love the game. I've also enjoyed my time on the board. I've had two tenures. In Minnesota, there are not a huge number of harness racing people involved in the sport. I made the decision to go on the board, and I'm glad I did. We have a good working relationship with Running Aces, and we also manage the fairs here in Minnesota. We try to make things accommodating for all horsepeople.

"There will always be struggles, as it is with racing anywhere. The pandemic obviously threw a big wrench into things and hit our entire industry hard. With no fans and all of the other issues COVID caused, 2020 was just a very difficult year for people inside and outside of racing."

Despite the hurdles horse racing faces, both short and long term, Banitt does see reason to be optimistic about the future of the sport.

"I do see optimism. We've had our best month at Running Aces, in the card room, this July. So, when you look at something like that, it does make you think positively. And then you look at the Minnesota breeding program. Our numbers are going up, which is also encouraging. There are lot of very good incentives and bonuses for Minnesota-bred horses. Horsepeople here, they are hardworking and dedicated. They are very hands-on. They are busy all day long."

Banitt included.

Although he'll calling it a career at UPS next May, a job he's held for 30-plus years, he won't be calling it a day with horse racing.

Horses like Chip Talks, a son of Money Talks, bred Daniel Girod (IN), give him plenty of motivation to stay in the game.

"I had a 2- and 3-year-old, and I ended up selling them. Right now, I only have a 2-year-old trotter, Chip Talks. My wife (Rebecca) and I bought him at the yearling sale. We breed pacers, so we thought we would try something different. He went for $3,000, so we bought him. He finished second in the Minnesota-bred 2-year-old trot, which was great. We're very happy with him. He's smaller, but he's got a little bit of an attitude. I left him with (trainer) Dave Ginter because I wanted the horse to stay at the track. I stable at Cannon Falls, but with this horse, I wanted him to be able to jog every day at the track. It's a good place for him to be."

Banitt has passed along his love for racing to others, including a family member.

"We also have another one that we're training for my nephew (Jack Banitt). He bought a $4,000 claimer, called Crusin For You. It's the first horse he ever bought. So, we have a new guy in the business. His first start, he finished second, and just finished third – and he's also won a few – so he's doing okay with the first horse he's ever had."

He won't have to look very far for an ideal role model.

Perhaps one day, Banitt will share the words with his nephew that perfectly sum up his love for Minnesota racing.

"It's hard work and there are always ups and downs, but when you see your horse cross the line first, it's one of the greatest feelings you can have."

Family affair in Norway

by Thomas Hedlund

Geir Vegard Gundersen dominates Norwegian harness racing when it comes to classic stakes races and during the past weekend, Geir and his son Magnus Teien claimed two Derby races in Oslo.

The $175,000 Kriteriet and $175,000 Kriteriet for fillies for 3-year-olds and $330,000 Derby and $300,000 Derby for mares were held at Bjerke racetrack and for the fourth year in a row (six total wins), Geir Vegard Gundersen collected the biggest trophy in the Derby.

The Derby itself became a splendid success for the Gundersen stable since Magnus Teien disarmed his father – Geir sat in front with first choice Cicero T.G. (Kadabra) – after a perfect pocket trip with Kraesj (Brilliantissime). Magnus Teien Gundersen lifted his horse to attack at mid-stretch when outside trotter Falcon Eye ran out of power and the double success for the Gundersen stable was a fact.

Kraesj won in a mile rate 1:58.4 over 1.6 miles in the Sunday's (Sep. 12) Derby. On Saturday's (Sep. 11) race card, The Derby for mares was held and even then the victory landed in Gundersen's hands. Magnus Teien Gundersen drove Global Bred To Win (Bold Eagle) and opted a position outside of leader Jolene B.R. (Muscle Hill) and Global Bred To Win fought strongly and got control of the race at the top of the stretch. The 4-year-old Muscle Hill mare flew to safe win in mile rate 1:58.3 over 1.3 miles and she has now 12 wins out of 15 attempts in her career.

Trainer Geir Vegard Gundersen operates a quite small stable on his farm outside of Oslo and it's fair to call his business a family affair where his wife and two sons are included to a very high degree.

"We have some 25 horses at the farm and to be honest I wouldn't mind reducing that number to 17-18 horses. The whole family takes part of the successes and I'm very happy that we can win races like the Derby," said Geir Vegard Gundersen to HRU.

Gundersen himself was one of the most hired catch drivers in Norway for almost 20 years, even if he always has had 10-12 horses as a trainer and it's clear that he has reached new levels since he got down in numbers of drives.

Leif Norberg / ALN

Geir Vegard Gundersen with his son Magnus Teien were successful in Norway and claimed two Derby races in Oslo during this past weekend.

The $175,000 Kriteriet for 3-year-olds saw a winner in Stian Eilefsen trained I.D.Exceptional (El Diablo B.R.) paired with Ole Johan Östre. The duo took a safe wire to wire win in mile rate 1:59.4 over 1.3 miles and trainer Eilefsen was a happy man after the race.

"This is a dream for me. The biggest thing to win for me isn't Elitloppet, but the Derby or Kriteriet in Norway", said Eilefsen.

In $175,000 Kriteriestoet for 3-year-old fillies Bo Westergaard trained Thai Brooklyn (Broadway Hall) sprinted to victory after an outside trip where the attack was set in before the last turn. Thai Brooklyn disarmed leader Readyforwine over the stretch and flew to outstanding win. This was her 11th victory in 13 starts and apprentice driver Nicklas Korfitsen sat in the bike.

Cleangame back as a winner

Jean-Michel Bazire trained Cleangame (Ouragan de Celland), by some fans considered the best trotting gelding in Europe, made his second start in more than a year when $200,000 Prix d'Été was held at Vincennes in Paris on Saturday (Sep. 11) afternoon and Bazire himself was obviously very pleased with his horse's performance as the duo hit the wire as winners in mile rate 1:55.2 over 1.6 miles.

Cleangame came to the lead with 1,900 meters to go and had stablemate Davidson du Pont chasing behind him and another stable mate, Dorgos de Guez in second over. This trio seized the top places in the race and winner Cleangame will most certainly continue his winning track as he's now back for real after a year with injuries.

Stuart McCormick/HRV

The talented and injury-plagued Ride High.

Despite injury-plagued career, Ride High heralded, by some, as one of the best to ever race

by Adam Hamilton

He is the flawed genius of Down Under pacing and he's tantalisingly close to his last shot at making a serious splash on the racetrack.

His name is Ride High and injuries have restricted the rising 7-year-old stallion to just 18 starts, of which he's won 16 and shown genuinely freakish talent.

This time last year, the giant son of Art Major sat parked-out for the entire 1,650m trip on a cold winter night and seemed to cruise to the line in a scorching 1:49 mile rate at Bendigo.

"Imagine if he'd been in front, on the marker pegs, which time he'd have run that night," part-owner and breeder Peter Gleeson said. "When he's right, there simply isn't a horse in this part of the world who would live with him."

But the "when he's right" part is the key because Ride High's injury history makes him a day-to-day proposition.

The doubters say he's destined to fall into the "what might have been" bucket.

Leviathan studmaster and breeder Alan Galloway, of Alabar Farms, tried to buy a share in Ride High for two years and finally succeeded soon after that Bendigo win last year... only to have the pacer sidelined again soon after with issues in both front suspensory ligaments.

"I've been all around the world and seen the best of the best, most of them in the flesh, and this horse is next level," Galloway said. "He's the best I've seen, anywhere, and that includes horses like Niatross and Nihilator.

"The way he gets over the ground so easily and the times he runs without being asked... he's just amazing."

Yes, I know there will be lots of you in the U.S. scoffing at Galloway's comments, but few Down Under command as much respect and have so much experience watching and attending the world's biggest races.

Galloway largely bought into Ride High for breeding purposes so Ride High will mix his comeback campaign with breeding duties at Alabar. Already at this early stage of the Aussie breeding season, he has over 60 bookings.

"He gets to stay at home (with trainers Clayton Tonkin and Emma Stewart) and is collected from three times a week," Gleeson said. "It's not ideal, but getting him back to the races was far from certain so we didn't want to miss another breeding season with him."

This is a big week for Ride High. The "collecting" started and he is set to trial (go the qualifiers) any day now. He hasn't been seen publicly since going amiss in a race at Melton on Oct. 3, last year.

"We know this is the last roll of the dice with him. Our lease to race him runs out next August, but we can't keep trying to get him back. Either he stands up this time, or we retire him," Gleeson said.

"I've been in this game 54 years and he's the horse I've dreamed of getting... I just hope he gets the chance to show it."

Tonkin and Stewart, Australia's most dominant stable, recently built a lavish rehab and pre-training facility at their property outside Melbourne and credit it with getting Ride High so close to a racing return.

"He wouldn't have got here without it, no question," Tonkin said. "He's very close now. There's been times when we've almost given up, but the last few scans have been fantastic. Imagine how we felt last time when the vet said he thought we'd brought the wrong horse in because the legs looked so good."

The Group 1 Victoria Cup (one of Australia's big five open-class races) looks too soon on Oct. 9, but Ride High is on target to be back racing around then.

So, what's Gleeson's wish-list?

"I'm reluctant to answer that because every day matters with him given his injury history," he said. "But, if we can keep him sound, and the signs are good, then giving him the chance to show what he can do against the best in the biggest races is the goal.

"The Hunter Cup (February 5) and Miracle Mile (March 5) are the big ones.

"Clayton has always said we won't see the absolute best of him until he's in the top races, following the speed and unleashing late.

"I'm sure he's a 1:46 horse... maybe he'll prove it in Miracle Mile time."

Goshen Yearling Sale posts record numbers across the board

It was a record day for the Goshen Yearling Sale on Monday (Sept. 13) as a crowd of nearly 1,500 who attended in person were joined by many more bidding online to collectively drive sales averages up in every category. At the end of the day, all sale numbers were the highest ever realized in Middletown, NY since the inception of the GYS.

A total of 122 yearlings changed hands, generating sales in excess of $2.1 million. That is a 24 per cent increase over the previous sales record of $1.6 million set in 2019. The overall average individual sale price was $17,284, which is 14 per cent higher than the previous 2019 record. By category, 32 pacing colts averaged $19,723 each, 42 pacing fillies averaged $15,414 each, 18 trotting colts averaged $17,167 each and 23 trotting fillies averaged $13,821 each.

Cameo Hills Farm had a big day as a breeder, but also as an agent as they managed the sale topper (Hip #114) Malta Magic (Huntsville—JK Black Beauty). The pacing filly was purchased for $67,000 by Hunter Oakes of Wilkes Barre, PA.

Cameo Hills also bred the next two highest priced yearlings in pacing colt (Hip #79) Bet On Buter (Huntsville—Billmar Scooter) who was purchased by Rocknroll Stable of Shorewood, IL and pacing filly (Hip #112) Back To Hicksville (Huntsville—I Am A Snob) who went home with Brian Doyle of Dundas, ON. Each sold for $62,000.

Cameo Hills was once again the top consignor of the sale, selling 16 yearlings from their farm for a total of $603,008 (an average of $37,688) and another 20 yearlings as an agent for $419,500 (an average of $20,975).

Leatherstocking Equine had the second highest average sale price of $17,357 for their seven yearling consignment led by their top seller, trotting colt (Hip #32) Spending Crazy (Crazy Wow-Seven Eleven) who went to Joseph Hess of New Milford, New Jersey for $30,000.

Winbak Farms sent 42 yearlings to the sale arena and yielded $481,110 in sales (an average of $11,455). Their top price-getters were trotting colt (Hip #84) Night Star (Met's Hall-Celestial Angel) who was purchased by Douglas Overhiser of Shorewood, Illinois for $32,000 and pacing colt (Hip #76) Solar Bolt (Bolt The Duer—Beach Bonnet) who sold for $28,000 to David Hamm of Dagsboro, DE.

"It was great to get back to a normal sale after last year and I think everyone felt the same way. Everything ran very smoothly without any problems and the live and remote bidders came out in force and the numbers clearly reflected that," said Mark Ford. "This sale just keeps getting better each year and that's because of all our great consignors and customers. We are already planning for the 2022 edition of this sale to be even bigger and better."

Dribbling Bi springs 13-1 upset in Meadows Keystone Classic

Dribbling Bi followed the cover of heavy favorite Parola Hanover, then blew by him in the lane to pull off a 13-1 upset in Tuesday's (Sept. 14) $62,750 Keystone Classic for freshman colt and gelding trotters at The Meadows.

Parola Hanover was hammered down to even money but suffered a demanding trip — out the entire first quarter and then first up. Dribbling Bi and trainer/driver Jeff Gregory took maximum advantage by riding the favorite's bumper and defeating him by 1-1/4 lengths in 1:58.3. Big Ben Hanover earned show.

"It worked out like a dream to have us towed into the race," Gregory said. "We benefited from a real good trip, but my horse beat the favorite. He deserved the win. We go to the Liberty Bell next, then maybe Lexington. We're on the fence about that. We'll see next week."

$66,900 Keystone Classic — 2-Year-Old Filly Pace

Entering the day, Lyons Serenity had won five of six starts lifetime — including the PA Stallion Series championship — while Somesweetsomewhere was winless in five outings. Their careers seemed to be heading in different directions, yet each captured a division of Tuesday's co-feature.

Lyons Serenity triumphed as easily as expected, quarter-poling to the top for Tim Tetrack and scoring in 1:52.4. Yes And Yes was second, 1-1/4 lengths back, with Aintthesamewithoutu third.

Jim King, Jr., who conditions the daughter of Sweet Lou—Southwind Serenity for Three Lyons racing, indicated he doesn't regret keeping Lyons Serenity in the stallion series rather than the richer sires stakes but may look to move her up.

"I think it's been a lot better for her," King said. "We haven't stretched her out, although she's had to race pretty much on the front end all the time. She gets on the front and waits on horses, then takes off again. She's eligible to a couple big races, including the Breeders Crown. That's a large step, and it's yet to be seen whether she can go with them."

Somesweetsomewhere's 0-5 record was somewhat deceptive, as she was competitive in sires stakes and finished a closing third in the $253,000 final. But she again was facing Pennsylvania's champion, Captain Cowgirl, who was sent off at 1-9. Even winning driver Corey Callahan thought he would grab the early lead, then chase Captain Cowgirl around the track.

That all changed when Captain Cowgirl made an early break, the first such miscue of her career.

"My intention was to follow the 1-9 shot around," Callahan said. "When I went by the board going to the half, I was looking for her. I'm like, 'Where's she at?' So I kept coasting and figured we were good from there. I felt pretty confident in her."

Somesweetsomewhere prevailed in 1:53.4, 1-1/4 lengths better than Galleria Hanover. No Foolin completed the ticket. Linda Toscano trains the winner for Purple Haze Stables and Conrad Zurich.

Mike Wilder collected three wins on the 13-race card.

Live racing at The Meadows continues today (Sept. 15) when the program features a pair of Keystone Classics for 2-year-olds: a $77,100 stake for filly trotters and a $63,750 event for colt and gelding pacers. The program also offers a $1,965.10 carryover in the Pick 5 (race 8). First post is 12:45 p.m.

Philip Antonacci third in first Graded stake

Philip Antonacci-trained FAUCI finished a strong closing third to just miss in the $600,000 Grade 2 Franklin Simpson Stake at Kentucky Downs on Saturday (Sept. 11). It was the first Graded stakes event for the thoroughbred trainer who is youngest son of well-known standardbred breeder and owner Frank "The Elder" Antonacci.

Philip will be attending the marathon Keeneland September Yearling Sale the next 10 days shopping for future stakes stars.

Selfie Queen, The Mighty Hill tabbed to use EquineX slots in Mohawk Million

EquineX North America Corp is pleased to announce that SELFIE QUEEN (Muscle Hill–Lady Lakewood) $76,250 1:51.2M, has been selected to race in the EquineX filly slot in the Mohawk Million. Selfie Queen is owned by David Anderson, John Fielding and Robert Leblanc and trained by Nancy Takter. THE MIGHTY HILL (What the Hill–Maxine the Mighty) $213,485 1:55.4 H has been selected to race in EquineX's colt slot. The Mighty Hill is owned by Chris Beaver, Donald Robinson & VIP Stable and is trained by Chris Beaver.

On Feb. 15, 2021, EquineX announced that it had purchased two slots for the Sept. 25, $1 million (CDN) race for 2-year-old trotters to be held at Mohawk Park Racetrack near Toronto. A three-person selection committee was established to choose the filly and colt who represented the best chance to win this race at the time of selection. Dave Briggs (HRU), Derick Giwner (DRF) and Bob Heyden made up the three-person selection committee. The top-five performing fillies and colts that the

Armstead Cole delivers in must-win situation in Elora

Grand River Raceway hosted the regular season finale for the 2-year-old trotting colts on Monday (Sept. 13) and Armstead Cole delivered the win he needed to land a berth in the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots Semi-Final.

"I wasn't coming into it brimming with confidence, because it's a new track for him and for him, half-mile I wasn't worried about that, but new places are different, so I didn't know how he'd behave," said trainer Chantel Mitchell. "He actually lost a shoe warming up because he was running away from tractors doing some silly thing, but we got the shoe, we got it back on, and it worked out."

Starting from Post 3 in the first $21,800 division, driver Randy Waples dropped Armstead Cole into fourth as favorite Renegade Gypsy hustled out to a :28.1 opening quarter. Armstead Cole continued to sit mid-pack through the :58.3 half and then slipped out to challenge the pacesetter heading for the 1:28.3 three-quarters. Matching strides with Renegade Gypsy as they turned for home, Armstead Cole hit a bigger gear in the stretch and trotted away to a one and one-half length win in 1:58.1. Renegade Gypsy settled for second and CM Savewill GL finished third.

The win was the first of the season for the Johnny William son, who did not make his racing debut until Aug. 10. Taught his early lessons at co-owner James "Donnie" Armitage's Dunrobin, ON farm, Armstead Cole was jittery by nature and unused to training with other horses, so the transition to Mitchell's barn was a slow one.

"He really was only a couple training trips away from being ready to qualify, but he was so scared of other horses that if he saw one he would go one direction, and you didn't know which direction it was going to be, and he didn't care if there was anything in his way, he was just going," said Waterdown, ON resident Mitchell of the trotter's early summer arrival. "So we had to take an extra two months just to desensitize him and get him used to training with horses, and being surrounded by horses, and passed, and all that."

Armstead Cole now has five starts under his belt and, with Monday's win and a third-place result in the Sept. 6 Grassroots event at Woodbine Mohawk Park, he finishes the regular season in eleventh spot in the standings, making a leap up from thirty-fourth. With the top 20 finish, his delighted owners Armitage, Grant Watson of Ottawa, John Bruno of Newmarket and Sheryl McDiarmid of Greely, ON can now look forward to cheering him on in the Sept. 30 Grassroots Semi-Final.

HP Maestro got his first Ontario Sires Stakes win in the second $22,150 division, which boosted him into second spot in the standings with 100 points. The Il Sogno Dream son logged a pair of seconds in his other two Grassroots appearances, on July 15 and Sept. 6 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and also posted a second and a sixth in the Gold Series.

"He's very handy, I think he's more of a Grassroots horse," said trainer Ben Baillargeon of Guelph, ON. "He's got the Semi-Final, and if he makes the final that would be great. I think he's going to be a nice three-year-old."

In rein to Sylvain Filion, HP Maestro fired to the front from Post 3 and controlled the tempo through fractions of :28.2, :58.2 and 1:28.4 before pulling away to a two and three-quarter length win in a personal best 1:58.3. Favorite Sea Can was second and Evil Guy rounded out the top three.

"The little guy, he came to play tonight, he was good," said Baillargeon, who trains the Il Sogno Dream son for owner/breeder Claude Hamel of Ayer's Cliff, QC. "His biggest asset, he's very handy. He can leave off the gate real good, and he can sit in the hole, and he can position himself. You can put him in the race every week. And he's all trot."

HP Maestro, Armstead Cole and the other members of the top 20 will compete in a pair of Semi-Finals at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Sept. 30, with the top five finishers from each Semi-Final advancing to the Oct. 9 Grassroots Championships at the Campbellville oval.

Trio of fillies earn their first Grassroots win at Mohawk Park

The race for a berth in the 2-year-old trotting filly Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots post season remains wide open as three new faces graced the winner's circle at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Monday, (Sept. 13).

Both Needa Little Magic and Lovin Julie took advantage of a move from the Gold to the Grassroots level to secure their first Ontario Sires Stakes win, while Moneyworth continued her steady improvement with a nose victory in the third $22,150 division.

Starting from Post 8 in the opening split, driver Doug McNair put Needa Little Magic on the front before the :58.1 half, rang up a :58.1 three-quarters and then battled down the stretch to a neck victory in 1:57.2. Favorite Portofino settled for second and early pacesetter Angelonia finished third. (replay here: Needa Little Magic)

"She's been nice all year. Something was obviously bothering her last start (Aug. 26), but she rebounded tonight," said McNair, who drove Needa Little Magic to her first lifetime win for his father Gregg McNair of Guelph, ON. The elder McNair bred, owns and trains the daughter of Kadabra and Luck Is All Ineed, who had posted a trio of third-place finishes in Gold Series action before trailing home seventh in her Aug. 26 Champlain Stakes division at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The McNairs now face a decision heading into the final regular season event. With 36 points, Needa Little Magic sits sixth in the Gold Series standings, while her 50 Grassroots points put her in a five-way tie for 12th spot. The top 10 point earners advance to the Oct. 16 Gold Series Super Final, while the top 20 point earners will compete in the Sept. 30 Grassroots Semi-Finals. To compete in the Semi-Final Needa Little Magic will have to start in the final Grassroots Leg at Flamboro Downs on Sept. 21. If McNair opts for a return to the Gold Series in hopes of a Super Final berth, the filly will make her next start at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Oct. 4.

Lovin Julie faces the same potential dilemma, but the decision will probably be easier for trainer Tony O'Sullivan of Cambridge, ON and owners Andy Miller Stable Inc. of Millstone Township, NJ, Carol Huffman of Sigourney, IA and Louis Willinger of Louisville, KY. The Muscle Mass filly currently sits eleventh in the Gold Series standings with 22 points earned through one third, one fourth and one seventh, while her 50 Grassroots points have her tied with Needa Little Magic for twelfth.

Also like Needa Little Magic, Lovin Julie left well from Post 6 and was in command before the 1:00 half. Driver Louis-Philippe Roy guided her to a 1:29.4 three-quarters and then opened up a two and three-quarter length margin on the field on the way to a 1:58.4 victory. Ladies First and Classic Magic followed the fan favorite across the wire. (replay here: Lovin Julie)

"She's all business, like an old horse, and she was feeling strong under the wire," said Roy, who also drove the filly to a win in an Aug. 10 overnight event at Woodbine Mohawk Park. "She makes my job easy."

Moneyworth jumped from 31st to sixth with her victory in the last division. The Encore daughter was seventh in her Grassroots debut at Georgian Downs on Aug. 3 and fourth in the Aug. 15 event at Hanover Raceway for a total point tally of 60.

"Her nickname was 'Slow and Steady' because she would just grind away and never really impressed me, but didn't disappoint me," said trainer Paul Reid, who also sent out daughters of Encore in the first two divisions. "The other two had quicker speed and just trained much better all winter, and she just kind of plugged away and got ready a little later. She was a couple weeks behind all the time, now she's got the win on her card and the other two didn't get cheques. Better to be slow and steady sometimes."

In rein to Scott Young, Moneyworth got away last in the field of nine from Post 8 and watched from the back of the pack as favorite Clockwork Orange trotted to a :28.4 quarter and :59.2 half. By the 1:29.3 three-quarters Moneyworth had advanced to fifth and a strong closing kick saw her get a nose in front at the 1:58.4 finish. Complete Life also closed well for second, leaving Clockwork Orange to settle for third. (replay here: Moneyworth)

"To come from as far back as she did, I was really happy with her," said Reid, who trains Moneyworth for Brian Kleinberg of Madison, NJ. "We needed one of the three to step up, and she did."

Moneyworth will be headed to Flamboro Downs on Sept. 21 for the last Grassroots Leg and then hopes to return to Woodbine Mohawk Park for the Semi-Final on Sept. 30. The top five finishers from each Semi-Final will compete in the Grassroots Championship at the Campbellville oval on Oct. 9.

Complete results from Monday's races are available here and replays can be viewed on Woodbine Mohawk Park's YouTube channel.

OSRC position on shipping horses via cargo containers

The Ohio State Racing Commission (OSRC) considers the safety of horses that race and train at Ohio racetracks its top priority. The Commission has serious concerns about the conditions that exist, and care provided to, horses that are shipped via cargo containers.

These conditions represent a significant risk to their health and welfare and as such, the OSRC believes this form of horse transportation is inhumane.

The OSRC is urging, in the strongest terms possible, that all tracks and training facilities within the state take immediate steps to ensure that horses are protected from this practice.

LPR puts on a show on Super Sunday at H3R

It was a beautiful sunny afternoon at the Hippodrome 3R Sunday (Sept. 12) for the $470,000 Super Sunday finals of both the Breeders Trophy Series for 3-year-olds and the Future Stars Series for the 2-year-olds.

The rich race card and sunny weather also brought out the biggest crowd to the races since COVID-19 closed off spectators coming to the track in 2020.

And driver Louis-Philippe Roy put on a show for the race fans as he won five of the eight Quebec-Bred finals.

$60,000 3YO Filly Trot Final

X O X O had been perfect in the Breeders Trophy Series until today's final.

Last year's champion, Mag N Lady (Samuel Fillion) shot out to the early lead with X O X O (Jerome Lombart) also leaving and grabbing the two-hole spot, but on the turn X O X O went off-stride, leaving Mag N Lady all alone to the first quarter in :29.2.

Race favorite Elegance Duharas (Louis-Philippe Roy) took the two-hole spot and followed Mag N Lady to the half mile in 1:01.1 and then the three-quarters in 1:31.2 with Mag N Lady holding a two-length advantage.

Then as those two came down the stretch, Mag N Lady began to tire and Elegance Duharas under a drive by Roy, was able to catch Mag N Lady before the wire to win by a half-length in 2:02. Tuscans Beauty (Stephane Brosseau) was third.

A filly sired by Muscle Mass, Elegance Duharas posted her second win of the season for trainer Denis Gueriel and paid $3.50 to win. She is bred and owned by Haras De L Estrie, Inc. of Dunham.

$60,000 3YO Colt Trot Final

Both the race favorite, Emotions Riches (Stephan Gendron) and Hall Win (Louis-Philippe Roy) left sharply for the lead with Emotions Riches maintaining control of the lead to a quick opening quarter of :27.3.

They pulled away from the field as Emotions Riches led to the half mile in :59.1. Then before the three-quarters in 1:29.3, Roy pulled from the pocket and sent Hall Win after Emotions Riches and those two went head and head around the final turn and down the stretch until Hall Win wore the leader down and won by one length in 2:01. Wishful Glide was third.

Hall Win ($5.90) notched his sixth win of the year for trainer Kevin Maguire. The colt by Angus Hall was bred and is owned by the Maguire Stable of Sainte-Marie.

$60,000 3YO Filly Pace Final

Louis-Philippe Roy and Got Sexy Scars ($3.00) was first on the lead with Platine Alpha (Pascal Berube) to the first quarter in :27.3 and was immediately challenged on the outside by Celia Bayama (Sylvain Filion), who was the 2020 Quebec-Bred Champion.

Filion and Celia Bayama pressed Roy and Got Sexy Scars to the half mile in :56.1 and stayed strong on the outside as they passed the three-quarters in 1:25.3.

Then in the stretch, Got Sexy Scars continued to hold off Celia Bayama, winning by one and one-quarter lengths in 1:57. Platine Alpha was third.

Sired by Sportswriter, it was the third win this season for Got Sexy Scars. She is trained by Richard Morea and was bred and is owned by Bruno Lepage of Beauharnois.

$60,000 3YO Colt Pace Final

In a wild half mile start to the race, Cadillac Bayama ($3.80) and driver Sylvain Filion crushed the field and set a track and stakes record with a six and one-half length romp in 1:52.3.

The race started off with YS Do It Right (Louis-Philippe Roy) going to the quick lead by the first quarter in :26.4. Then right before the half mile in :55, Colonel Bayama (Justin Filion) came first-over with Cadillac Bayama following the live cover, but that was not good enough for Sylvain Filion and he took Cadillac Bayama three-wide around the turn, clearing to the lead by the backstretch.

From there Cadillac Bayama tore away from the field, leading by five lengths at the three-quarters in 1:22.4 before sailing home an easy winner by six lengths. The Light Speed (Guy Gagnon) was second with Chantee (Stephane Gendron) third.

The time surpassed the previous track record time of 1:52.4 set by Ashleys Best in 2019 and the Quebec-Bred stakes record of Du DorOrleans of 1:52.4 in 2013.

It was a lifetime mark for Cadillac Bayama and the third win this year for the Sunshine Beach colt. He is trained by Yves Filion, whose Bayama Farms of Saint-Andre-D'Argenteuil, owns and bred him.

$50,000 2YO Filly Trot Final

With the 4/5 race favorite HP Felicity (Sylvain Filion) going off-stride trying for the early lead, the lead belonged to Stella Alpha ($6.30) and driver Pascal Berube, who sped to the opening quarter in :29.2 with Cleveland Moneyka (Stephane Brosseau) sitting second, four lengths behind Stella Alpha. The rest of the six horses in the race made breaks and were out of the hunt.

Stella Alpha maintained her lead through fractions of 1:00.3 and 1:31.1 before pulling away from Cleveland Moneyka to win in a romp by seven and three-quarter lengths in 2:01. Cleveland Moneyka was second with Lune Duhas (Louis-Philippe Roy) third.

It was a lifetime mark and a stakes record for the daughter of Royalty For Life and her fourth win this year. She is trained by Sylvain Tremblay and was bred and is owned by his Alpha Stable of Metabetchouan.

The former stakes record was 2:01.1, co-held by Meganou in 2014 and Claudi P V in 2018.

$50,000 2YO Colt Trot Final

Royalty Beer ($2.10) made it a clean sweep of the Future Stars Series, winning all three preliminary rounds and was much the best in the final.

Leaving from post five, driver Louis-Philippe Roy sent Royalty Beer to the lead and was up by seven lengths by the opening quarter mile in :30.2. Roy then backed down the pace, going to the half mile in 1:03.1. Kenogami Rebel (Stephane Brosseau) closed up the gap to be second, but in the backstretch Cleveland Massimo (Samuel Fillion) came first-over and dropped into second place behind his stablemate at the three-quarters in 1:34.1.

From there Royalty Beer breezed home to win by one and three-quarter lengths over Cleveland Massimo with Sammy Justice (Pascal Berube) grabbing third money.

It was the fourth straight win for Royalty Beer. The gelded son of Royalty For Life is trained by Jean Francois Maguire, who also bred him and co-owns with Jean Maguire of Sainte-Marie.

$50,000 2YO Filly Pace Final

Sunjet Ray ($2.10) and driver Louis-Philippe Roy were the overwhelming 1/9 favorite and raced like it. Leaving hard at the start, Sunjet Ray was up by six lengths by the opening quarter in :27.4. They backed it down to the half mile in :58.4 as HP Mary Sunshine (Pascal Berube) took the pocket trip.

In the backstretch D Gs Shallow (Jonathan Lachance) came first-over and pressed Sunjet Ray to the three-quarters in 1:29.1.

Coming down the stretch Sunjet Ray was able to hold off D Gs Shallow to win by one length in 2:00.2 with HP Mary Sunshine third.

It was a lifetime mark and the third win of the year for Sunjet

Ray. The Sunshine Beach filly is trained by Francis Richard and is co-owned with Guillaume Desrochers, Dr. John Bradbury and Charles Marquis.

$50,000 2YO Colt Pace Final

HP Momentum ($5.20) picked the perfect time to win for the first time in his young career.

Leaving from post six for driver Sylvain Filion, HP Momentum was stretched out to the opening quarter mile in :28.3 by Aladdin Du Lac (Louis-Philippe Roy). HP Momentum then led the field past the half mile in :58.2 as Kaporal (Stephane Gendron) came first-over with Y S Mathis Bro (Jonathan Lachance) following second-over.

In the backstretch, Lachance took Y S Mathis three-wide and pushed the leader to the three-quarters in 1:27.4 but was unable to clear so they raced three-wide around the final turn.

In the stretch HP Momentum kicked in another gear and pulled away to win by two lengths in 1:57.3. Y S Mathis Bro was a game second place finisher with Aladid Du Lac third.

It was the maiden victory for HP Momentum in his eighth lifetime start. The gelded son of Control The Moment is trained by Jean Tourigny, who co-owns with Claude Hamel with Gestion Belanger. Hamel bred the colt with Celine Paquin.

$10,000 Invitational Pace

Former Quebec-Bred champion Eclat De Rire ($3.40) and driver Stephane Gendron were able to lead from start to finish with a 1:55.1 three-quarter length triumph over a very determined and first-over effort by D Gs De Vito (Jonathan Lachance), who is also a former Quebec champion. Dreydl Hanover (Pascal Berube) was third.

It was the third win of the season for Eclat De Rire, a four-year-old gelded son of Leader Bayama, trained by Maxime Velaye for breeder/owner Guy Corbeil of Mirabel.

$10,000 Invitational Trot

Four-time Quebec-bred champion, Capteur De Reve ($3.60), was at his best. Handicapped with the far outside post eight, driver Stephane Gendron sent the seven-year-old Muscle Mass gelding out to the lead and they never looked back.

Cutting fractions of :28, :59.2 and 1:28.3, Capteur De Reve put away the first-over challenge from Magic Night (Samuel Fillion) and pulled away in the stretch to win by three and one-quarter lengths in 1:58.4. Magic Night was second with former Quebec-Bred champion Babidibou (Sylvain Filion) third.

It was the third straight win and fifth victory of the season for Capteur De Reve, who is trained by Maxime Velaye and was bred and is owned by the Provoquante Stable of Mirabel.

Track Notes: Following up on LPR's five wins was Stephane Gendron with three wins and Sylvain Filion with two wins. Maxime Velaye led all trainers with three winners from his stable. Live racing resumes at H3R next Sunday (Sept. 19) with first race post time at 12:10 pm.

Blue Diamond Eyes blazes in last Championship prelim

Ron Burke pupil Blue Diamond Eyes returned to The Red Mile with fury on Sunday (Sept. 12), scoring a 1:47.2 victory by open lengths in the single $40,000 Kentucky Championship Series division for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

Driver Yannick Gingras sent Blue Diamond Eyes for the front heading to a :26.1 first quarter and cleared control as the field rolled into the backstretch. The daughter of Captaintreacherous carried her speed to a :53.2 half and around the final turn to click three-quarters in 1:20.4. She then accelerated off the corner and opened three lengths on pocket-sitter High Minded, who gave futile pursuit as Thebeachiscalling made slight gains first over. Blue Diamond Eyes continued to expand her lead to the finish, crossing the beam 7-1/4 lengths ahead of Thebeachiscalling in second. So Irresistible overtook High Minded late to claim third.

Owned by Thomas and Scott Dillon, Blue Diamond Eyes won her fourth race from 12 starts this season and her ninth from 25 overall, earning $864,914. She paid $2.80 to win.

Goldie's Legacy grabbed command from pylon-starter Komodo Beach around the first turn and kept the favorite at bay in the lone $40,000 Kentucky Championship Series split for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings, winning in 1:50.4.

Also driven by Yannick Gingras, Goldie's Legacy took the front into the backstretch off a :27.2 first quarter and snagged a breather to a :57.1 half. Gradually upping the tempo into the final turn to trip three-quarters in 1:25.3, Goldie's Legacy had the momentum for the stretch sprint home to pace a :25.1 final quarter and slide 2-3/4 lengths ahead of Komodo Beach to the finish. Mad Man Hill rallied to take third from Exploit in a photo.

Co-owned by trainer Jeff Cullipher with Pollack Racing LLC, Goldie's Legacy won his sixth race from 18 starts this season and his eighth from 28 overall, earning $146,985. The Always A Virgin gelding returned $5.20 to win.

Four More Years ($5.20) won the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Division for sophomore pacing colts and geldings with a backstretch brush to the top in progress to a 1:49.3 victory. Dexter Dunn sat in the sulky for trainer Nancy Takter.

In Lou Of Money ($4.20) delivered as the favorite with a coast-to-coast score in the $20,000 Kentucky Commonwealth split for sophomore pacing fillies. Todd McCarthy steered the Robert Cleary trainee to a 1:49.4 victory under minimal pressure.

Point totals for both the Kentucky Championship and Kentucky Commonwealth Series are available at the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission website.

Sunday's Kentucky Championship divisions were the last of the series, which will go to final on Sunday (Sept. 19) with eight $250,000 contests for each division of developing standard-bred on a day worth over $2 million in purses. The Kentucky Commonwealth Series finals follow the Championship card, with eight $50,000 events going on Monday (Sept. 20). First-race post time each race day at The Red Mile is 1 p.m. (EDT).
