The 25th anniversary of Jet Laag's world record mile at the home of the Jug

A quarter-century ago, the gray son of Laag put up an incredible 1:49 world record mile in Delaware, Ohio for Linda Toscano.

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

On Jug Day, Sept. 19, 1999, Jet Laag, a 6-year-old son of Laag trained by Linda Toscano for Ira Schwartz, Alan Minkoff and the Zooming By Stable, scorched his way around Delaware's half-miler in 1:49 winning the Senior Jug by 12 lengths. That was two-fifths faster than Stand Forever (1996) and three fifths over Jenna's Beach Boy's 1:49.3 that same year. Jet Laag's mile was the fastest on a half-miler in harness racing history.

Since it was less than four months to the end of the 20th century, the top four, and eight of the top nine, of the entire century were taken in Delaware, OH. Only a 1:50.4 by Silver Almahurst at Yonkers in 1993 prevented a clean sweep.

Linda Toscano was, is, shall we say fond of Jet Laag.

"What a cool horse to be around," Toscano said. "Eleven-thousand-dollar yearling. I broke him, and at 2 he just couldn't get it together. He needed time, and at 3, he was as slick-gaited as you can get. Fun, fun horse. I remember the year before [1998] when we drew post 8 at Delaware in the Hi Ho Silverheel's year. I told my owners it probably didn't make a lot of sense going. We scratched him.

"In 1999, the Blissful Hall Jug year, I was able to get Luc Ouellette to come and drive him. I absolutely knew he could do something crazy good over this track. Was I thinking world records or anything? No. When he won, Dave Miller's mom was asking me in the ride over to the winner's circle why I was so emotional. I was so happy for [Jet Laag] – now I knew he'd have a home forever – somebody would want him. I was always so worried about him because I cared that much about him. I am forever thankful to David James in Australia. Jet Laag's 31 now and I still get Christmas cards!"

Tell us about your Hall of Fame induction night.

"I was holding it together pretty well and all of a sudden, Janet [Terhune] walks over to me with roses and says, 'These are from Jet Laag.' I lost it."

Maybe the most interesting part of the Jet Laag anniversary is that he rolled back four days later, Sept. 23, and posted a six-length victory in 1:50.1; the fourth fastest half-mile victory ever. In just four days, the first and fourth fastest ever.

"The Magical Mike was four days later," Toscano said. "He was up to it. He wasn't the only one racing in both [Spy Hard was third in both], but he handled it."

So, you just might have thought that 2023 was more or less Toscano's shining Jug Day/Week moment. A stand-alone kinda thing. But, she did win the Jug and Juliette in 2023 with anything but 'figure' horses.

"I'd have to say the two biggest career moments for me – standout moments – would be the 2012 Hambletonian and last year's Jug week," Toscano said.

Fractions for Jet Laag in his epic score were :26.2, :54.2 1:21.3 and 1:49 flat. House Of Fun was second and Spy Hard (Riyadh's full brother) was third. The purse was $38,000 for the Senior Jug and $50,000 for the Magical Mike. Jet Laag was out of a Big Towner mare, Truancy.

Toscano was first licensed in 1975 and scored her very first divisional title with a trotting mare named Giant Mermaid in 1995.

"In 1999, the Blissful Hall Jug year, I was able to get Luc Ouellette to come and drive [Jet Laag]. I absolutely knew he could do something crazy good over this track [in Delaware, OH]. Was I thinking world records or anything? No."

~ Linda Toscano

"But the one that might have put me on the map was Lifelong Victory," Toscano said. "Stanley Dancer wanted me to train her as he was cutting back. I remember the day Stanley sent Paul Reid over to tell me that I was 'called into the office.' Stanley had everything laid out in front, all vet records, bills, you name it, right on the table. I'll never forget him wanting me to do well with the mare."

Toscano is the last trainer to go 1-2 in the Horse of the Year balloting. In 2012, she had Chapter Seven over Market Share. Market Share remains the last trotter to post a $2 million single season.

Dandy's Mercy hopes to be a homebred delight in today's Jugette

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Fred Brown

Dandy's Mercy (Braxten Boyd) winning at Tioga Downs. The filly will be driven by Scott Zeron in today's Jugette.

If coming up with a horse like Dandy's Mercy was akin to catching lightning in a bottle, it's because the flash has extended to the filly's performance on the racetrack.

Dandy's Mercy, the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the first of today's (Sept. 18) two eliminations of the $310,000 Jugette for 3-year-old female pacers at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in central Ohio, has finished worse than second only twice in 18 career races, winning nine.

The homebred filly wasn't originally eligible to the Jugette, so her connections made the $15,000 supplemental payment to get into the race.

Scott Zeron, who last year won both the Jugette and companion Little Brown Jug, will drive Dandy's Mercy for trainer John Butenschoen and owners Hart Walker, Dandy Farms Racing, FT Racing Stable, and Doug Overhiser. She will leave from post 3 in a field of six. The top-four finishers from each $25,000 elimination will return later in the day for the $260,000 Jugette final.

The 22-race card will begin at 11 a.m. (EDT). The Jugette elims are races 18 and 19, with the final concluding the day.

Dandy's Mercy heads to the Jugette off a second-place finish behind My Girl EJ in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes championship Sept. 9 at Mohegan Pennsylvania's Pocono Downs. My Girl EJ is the 7-5 morning-line favorite in the second Jugette elimination and will have Dexter Dunn in the sulky for trainer Ron Burke.

"It's exciting," said Jeff Davis, an Illinois resident who races under Dandy Farms Racing and was among the breeders of Dandy's Mercy, with FT Racing Stable – the nom de course of Frank Tatulli, who Davis first met at the 2012 U.S. Trotting Association Driving School – and Walker. "It's my first time I'm going to be there [in Delaware]. I've said I didn't want to go unless I had something in it. Now, here I am."

Dandy's Mercy is a daughter of Captain Crunch out of Illinois-bred Grand Circuit winner Pardon, who was retired in 2014. She was purchased by Davis and his partners in November 2019. Her five foals born prior to Dandy's Mercy combined to win five races, a total Dandy's Mercy nearly equaled as a 2-year-old when she posted four victories and three seconds in seven starts. She earned $29,049.

"Last year, we took care of her, raced her very lightly, not against a ton of hard competition," Davis said. "We just wanted her to learn."

Dandy's Mercy was lightly staked on the Grand Circuit this year.

"Hart Walker trained her down," Davis said. "He's been steadfast in saying she was a different kind of horse. He knew from the beginning. Even though he loved her and thought she was great and had a different kind of engine, we were like, is it lightning in a bottle or is it not? So, we didn't stake her to everything.

"Last year, we didn't stake her to the Breeders Crown. At 2, it didn't make sense. She's the exception, not the rule with this broodmare at this point. This year at staking time, we went through it and thought we did a good enough mix without being too overzealous."

This year, with the exception of two starts in the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes series, Dandy's Mercy made the majority of her first seven appearances in conditioned races. Then came a second-place finish in a PASS division at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows in Zeron's first drive behind the filly, followed by a 1:49.3 triumph in the $125,000 consolation division of the James M. Lynch Memorial at Pocono. Only 10 sophomore filly pacers in North America have posted a faster win time this season.

After her second-place finish in the PASS championship, Zeron suggested putting Dandy's Mercy in the Jugette since she had limited stakes opportunities ahead.

"All the owners had a conversation," Davis said. "We're not going to do it for the Breeders Crown, so this would be the one shot to do something. And here we are."

"[Dandy's Mercy] hasn't raced on a half, but if she can get to the lead and gets around those corners, she's going to be tough. Scotty has really gotten the speed out of her. She's been push-button; she's gone to the front, she's come from behind, and she's got a wicked third quarter. She's just been strong."

In addition to Dandy's Mercy, the first Jugette elimination includes multiple Grand Circuit winner Caviart Belle, the 3-1 second choice from the stable of Nancy Takter, and 2023 O'Brien Award winner Pass Line, who is 7-2, from the stable of Ron Burke.

Takter won the 2022 Jugette with Treacherous Dragon. Burke owns the record for Jugette victories by a trainer, with four. His most recent came in 2021 with Scarlett Hanover.

The 5-2 second choice behind My Girl EJ in the second elim is Odds On Platinum, who counts the Lynch Memorial main event among her five wins this year for trainer Dr. Ian Moore.

BRUSH AND CRUSH

with DEAN TOWERS

There's a time when purse subsidies become undeniably ineffective

Sooner or later, the sport of horse racing needs to have a serious discussion about how purse money is distributed.

by Dean Towers

Last week the Kentucky Downs all-turf thoroughbred meet concluded. With historical racing machine revenue and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund supplying most of the prize money, a record $37.3 million was distributed in purses over 76 races, for a per-race average of $490,000.

Remarkably, 15 stakes races with purses of $1,000,000 or more were run over the very short meet.

If an influx in capital is not growing a customer base and bringing in more revenue, a business won't do it. If an injection of capital doesn't grow gross sales of whatever it is you're selling with your supply chain, a business won't do it... In horse racing, neither of those criteria have been met for years, yet we seem to give it all one big continual green light and pretend there's nothing wrong.

In 2024, the [Kentucky Downs thoroughbred] meet generated about $18 million in revenue, while they spent $37.3 million. Injecting $25 million into a business and not increasing the supply of horses, while getting back only $6 million more in revenue doesn't make a whole lot of sense to regular, every day business people. But strangely, reading the headlines, it seems to be a reason to celebrate.

This is something to celebrate, correct? If we put our business person hat on, perhaps there's more to it.

In 2020, purses at Kentucky Downs totalled about $12.2 million, and they attracted large fields of 9.98 per race. The handle of about $60 million was about five times the purse.

In 2024, purses skyrocketed to the aforementioned $37.3 million and they did attract a few more horses (an average field size of 10.89 per race) but frankly, it was nothing to write home about. Meanwhile, handle rose as well, to about $90 million, but one dollar in purses only generated $2.43 of handle; a number which should set off serious alarm bells.

From a revenue perspective (at 20 per cent takeout) the meet generated about $12 million in 2020 while spending about $12 million.

In 2024, the meet generated about $18 million in revenue, while they spent $37.3 million.

The obvious retort is that increased purses don't just go up in smoke, they are distributed to owners, and that's true.

But in this case – with 15 $1 million races – they're going to a very few already well-capitalized people. This buttresses the high-end yearling and breeding market, yes, but mid-market and small markets are left with scraps (and the business is left with an overall falling foal crop).

We see this phenomenon playing out in harness racing as well; in Kentucky certainly, but even elsewhere. The high-end stakes purses are all churning lots and lots of cash to many of the usual trainers and owners (and God bless 'em, they invest right back into the market with partnerships on a $700,000 yearling). But what's everyone else left with?

I believe that sooner or later the horse racing business needs to take a professional, detailed, analytical, business-focused look at purse subsidies. And in my view, each and every time, at least these two criteria need to be met to ensure this money is spent in the most optimal fashion.

1. Does the money appreciably grow handle? When handle grows, the business grows, and the proceeds are distributed more evenly.

2. Will the money, distributed in the proposed way, grow the foal crop?

If an influx in capital is not growing a customer base and bringing in more revenue, a business won't do it. If an injection of capital doesn't grow gross sales of whatever it is you're selling with your supply chain, a business won't do it.

In each of those cases any business will adjust, pivot and do something else.

In horse racing, neither of those criteria have been met for years, yet we seem to give it all one big continual green light and pretend there's nothing wrong.

I think we can all agree that the way the industry distributes purse money can't go on in this way forever. I'd suggest the time has come to not just pay lip service to these important discussions.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Captain Ravishing starting to look like his old self

The 5-year-old could add to an incredible Victoria Cup in October.

by Adam Hamilton

The second coming of Captain Ravishing looks exciting. It is 18 months since the powerful son of Captainteacherous was the talk of Down Under racing.

Heading into the Group 1 Chariots Of Fire at Menangle on Feb. 18, last year, Captain Ravishing was in the midst of a rampage.

The then 4-year-old had won seven of his past eight starts, including the Group 1 Breeders Crown 3YO final by almost 30 meters and the Group 2 4YO Bonanza by almost as far.

He oozed good looks, talent, presence and charisma.

Then it all went wrong.

A shock defeat in that Chariots Of Fire – second to Catch A Wave after leading – was followed by an even more concerning seventh (of just eight starters) in the Group 1 Miracle Mile, also won by Catch A Wave.

The bubble had burst. The long-time favorite for last year's inaugural $2.1 million TAB Eureka had lost much of his gloss.

A change of stable followed. Owner Hass Taiba opted to take Captain Ravishing off champion trainers Emma Stewart and Clayton Tonkin and return him to his brother, Ahmed Taiba, who had prepared him for two wins from five starts as a 2-year-old.

In a daring move, largely necessitated by some niggling injury issues, Captain Ravishing did not race in the six months between that Miracle Mile flop and the TAB Eureka.

It was a mighty effort to finish third to Encipher in the Eureka, but Hass conceded it “took plenty out of him.”

Fans hoped it was a sign he was back, but defeats (both second placings) in the Yarra Valley Cup and Breeders Crown 4YO final (again behind Catch A Wave) saw his stocks plummet again and Captain Ravishing head back to the spelling paddock.

Out of sight, out of mind.

While Captain Ravishing was out recovering from some more “niggling issues,” Leap To Fame quickly replaced him as Down Under's buzz horse with wins in mega races like the Inter Dominion, Hunter Cup, Miracle Mile and Blacks A Fake.

Even Catch A Wave added another three Group 1 wins.

They are all the same vintage.

What a crop it was.

Many felt we may have seen the last of Captain Ravishing, but Hass knew it was time to go back to the drawing board and start again.

He also opted for another training change, from Ahmed to his other brother, Freddy.

Fittingly, Captain Ravishing's first public return was in a trial against his arch-rival, Catch A Wave.

Like so many of their races, he finished second, but it felt like a win to Freddy Taiba.

“Knowing where he was at for that first trial, we were thrilled he hit the line so well,” Freddy said. “He looked as good on the line as Catch A Wave did and he was wound-up.”

Catch A Wave then posted the eighth Group 1 win of his career just a few weeks later in the Len Smith Mile at Menangle on Sept. 7.

Three days after that, Captain Ravishing had his second trial and showed glimpses of his golden best, winning easily and posting some brisk sectional times.

Now it was time for a race, which Freddy settled on for just three days later at Melton.

The sceptics were still plentiful, but Freddy was so happy with Captain Ravishing he dared to make a bold pre-race statement.

“I’ll be disappointed if he doesn’t just gap them,” he said.

That’s just what Captain Ravishing did, winning by almost 11 meters in a sparkling 1:52.5 mile – just 0.6 outside the track record – around the Geelong track, which is nowhere near as slick as some of the fastest tracks Down Under.

The excitement was there. Just watching the ping when new driver David Miles asked Captain Ravishing to sprint three-wide from midfield with half-a-lap to go was brilliant.

Sure, it wasn’t a strong field, but it was an ideal return.

And it was enough for Freddy to switch plans and aim towards Down Under’s next major open-class race, the time-honored $300,000 Group 1 Victoria Cup at Melton on Oct. 12.

“He’s come through that win so well, we’d be crazy not to have a crack at it being in our own backyard,” he said.

His next and only other lead-up race will be the $50,000 Smoken Up Sprint at Melton on Oct. 5.

His main rival in that race? You guessed it, Catch A Wave.

Captain Ravishing will bring a real X-factor to what shapes up as an already super-strong Victoria Cup.

Leap To Fame is heading down. He’s set to resume from a break at Albion Park on Saturday (Sept. 28).

Catch A Wave, who raced a close second last year, will be there trying to go one better.

Then you’ve got the likes of Auckland Cup winner Better Eclipse and as many as three of four starters from the powerhouse Jason Grimson barn.

Grimson surprised by saying his reigning NZ Cup hero Swayzee could pivot and tackle the Victoria Cup, a race he previously said wasn’t on the agenda,

“He’s returning at Parkes on Friday [Sept. 20],” Grimson said. “If he goes well there, I could look towards the Victoria Cup with him.”

We’ve had some terrific open-class races this year, but if they all turn up at Melton on Oct. 12, this Victoria Cup could be the best of the lot.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

New stars born in Paris

by Thomas Hedlund

Vincennes' Saturday (Sept. 14) race card with the Criterium for 3-, 4- and 5-year-olds ended with some spectacular performances and upsets.

In the $335,000 Criterium des 4 ans, the victory went to Keep Going (Follow You), driven by Eric Raffin. Keep Going had to race on favorite Koctel du Dain's outside, but that was nothing that bothered Keep Going and the upset was a fact when Matthieu Mottier's trotter disarmed the leading favorite in the stretch.

Koctel du Dain was second and Ksar third when winner Keep Going noted a mile rate of 1:56.3 over 1.7 miles.

Raffin was also successful in the $335,000 Criterium des 3 ans as he drove Robert Jocelyn's Lovino Bello (Village Mystic) to victory. Lovino Bello got the advantage over leader Lotta Bourbon and held favorite Lombok Jiel behind him in the finish. It was a mile rate of 1:57.3 over 1.6 miles for the winner.

Jushua Tree was the favorite when the 5-year-olds battled in the $335,000 Criterium des 5 ans, but Jean-Michel Bazire's top trotter had to capitulate to Josh Power (Offshore Dream) and Sebastien Ernault. Ernault served his horse a perfect second over trip, covered by Jushua Tree who was settled outside of leader Justin Bold. In the last turn, racing room appeared for Josh Power and in mid-stretch it was clear that Ernault would win the prestigious race. Josh Power won the Criterium des 4 ans last year and he has belonged in the top of the strong J-crop in France for a long time, but Jushua Tree has been named as the foremost horse among the 5-year-olds. And Jushua Tree's runner up performance was a high graded one, being three wide for a mile, first over thereafter and beaten by a horse who saved ground during the race. Just Love You finished third behind the top duo and Josh Power won in a strong mile rate of 1:55.3 over 3,000 meters.

BIG NAMES BATTLE IN BELGIUM

Kentucky SIRE STAKES REPORT

Dame Good Time denies Karl his second Kentucky Championship at The Red Mile

by Kimberly French for The Red Mile

On Sunday (Sept. 15), Dame Good Time made the most of his opportunity to defeat Hambletonian victor, Karl, by a neck in a lifetime best of 1:50.2 in the $400,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes Series Championship final for 3-year-old male trotters. There were, however, nine other horses who collected their trophies including two $100,000 Kentucky Commonwealth Series victors.

DAME GOOD TIME REBUFFS KARL, DATE NIGHT HANOVER REPEATS

Dame Good Time (Scott Zeron) employed an inside journey to hand Hambletonian winner Karl (Yannick Gingras) his first loss in his last six starts by a neck in 1:50.2. Hung Over (Dexter Dunn) was third.

Dame Good Time left from post position 5 in the field of seven while Karl commenced his mile from post 7. Dame Good Time went straight to the lead off the gate to trot in :27.3 with Karl in third.

Karl and Gingras decided it was time to go after that first split and took command with a half-mile in a sprightly :54.1, relegating Dame Good Time to the pocket. Secret Agent Man (Andy Miller) came up from fourth to push Dame Good Time back to a stalking third through three-quarters in 1:23.1.

Secret Agent Man, however, broke stride entering the stretch and opened the door for Dame Good Time to proceed on the inside and hit the wire in front.

Trained by Travis Alexander, Dame Good Time is a son of Chapter Seven—Dame Du Lac. It was his fourth win of the season and a new lifetime best for the gelding.

Dame Good Time captured the $300,000 Zweig Memorial Trot on the Fourth of July and is owned as well as bred by John Cummings, who resides in Lexington.

The gelding is now 19 5-2-3 and has earned $565,916.

Dame Good Time paid $37.56 to win.

Favored Date Night Hanover (Dunn) is a dual Kentucky champion after besting Allegiant (Zeron) in 1:50.2, a new lifetime best, in the event for sophomore filly trotters. Woman Of Passion (Todd McCarthy) was third.

Leaving from post position 4 in the field of eight, the daughter of Chapter Seven—Don't Wait Up was fifth the first quarter-mile behind Allegiant (Zeron) through a fraction of :27. But Dunn gave his charge some rein and Date Night Hanover relished the cue.

The filly went to the lead and set a split of :55 for the half-mile and another of 1:23.3 for three-quarters.

Allegiant and Woman Of Passion were game but Date Night Hanover was just too good.

Trained by Marcus Melander, Date Night Hanover is owned by Jeffrey Snyder and ONDA Racing Stables.

The filly was bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and has earned $731,109 from 24 starts.

Date Night Hanover topped the first session of the 2022 Standardbred Horse Sale with a tag of $600,000.

She provided $4.16 to win to her supporters as the favorite.

Capytreach paid $11.26 to win as the third choice in the wagering.

BIG SHOES REBOUNDS

Big Shoes (Gingras) won his third race from his last five starts in a lifetime best of 1:54 over Gimpanzee Dancer (Tetrick) and Ketel One Up (Marvin Luna).

The son of Greenshoe—Witty Girl began trotting from the rail in the field of 10 and was in fifth place through a first quarter in :27.3 and sixth at the half in :55.2 by longshot Global Sensation (A. McCarthy, 17-1).

The colt was in seventh after three-quarters in 1:24.4 when favorite Yannick G Kemp went to the lead. That advantage, however, was short-lived, as Big Shoes made his move behind new leader Gimpanzee Dancer (Tetrick) rounding the final bend.

Gingras had plenty of horse in front of him as the duo hit the line clear of a game Gimpanzee Dancer. Ketel One Up closed well from eighth to round out the trifecta at 49-1.

Big Shoes now sports a career slate of 6 3-0-2 and has collected $90,109.

The colt was bred and is co-owned by Knox Services Inc. He is a half-sibling to March Awareness (Ken Warkentin, $452,154), Mission Accepted (Manofmanymissions, $1.40 million), Wittyville (Manofmanymissions, $343,705) and Merry Anne (Southwind Spirit, $258,700).

Big Shoes is also owned by his trainer, Ron Burke, and Weaver Brussemi.

The colt paid $13.92 to hit the line in front.

FUSION DELIVERS

Favored Fusion (Gingras) collected his third consecutive victory in 1:51.3 over Harrisburg Heist (A. McCarthy) and Wavemaker (Zeron) in the Commonwealth Series final for freshman male pacers.

The son of 2016 Horse of the Year, Always B Miki, and multiple Dan Patch Award winner, Pure Country, left from the rail in the field of six. Second choice Higher Ground (A. Miller) immediately assumed command and set fractions of :27.3, :56.1 and 1:24 while Fusion enjoyed a dream trip in second place.

As the horses made their push to the finish line, Fusion popped the pocket and paced home with a :27.3 final panel as Higher Ground tired.

The third foal out of his dam, Fusion is trained by Nancy Takter. He competes as a homebred for Diamond Creek Farm's racing division.

The colt's record stands at 5 4-1-0 and he has earned $102,500. He is the first foal out of Pure Country to break the $100,000 barrier.

Fusion paid his supporters $2.72 to win.

SPLENDID UPSETS

Splendid (Tetrick) outlasted For July (Mattias Melander) and Bargain (A. McCarthy) in a lifetime best 1:52.3 to win his ninth race from 14 starts this season for trainer Todd Rooney.

The son of Father Patrick—Long Island Ice Tea drew the coveted rail in the field of 10. Tetrick placed him in third position at the beginning of the mile as Bright Star set the first split of :28.2. Tetrick sent Splendid to the front with a half-mile in :56 but For July wanted to control the action and established the next fraction of 1:24.

Splendid simply possessed more trot in the lane to best For July by a half-length.

Owned by Rooney Racing and Trotting For Bourbon, Splendid is the third foal out of his dam. He is a half-sibling to Perron (My MVP, $552,739) and Pappardelle (Wishing Stone, $387,145).

The colt was a $22,000 purchase at the 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. He was bred by Steve Stewart, Black Creek Farm and Paul Kelley Racing Stable.

Virginia trainer William Fletcher, 95, wins first race in four years Saturday at Shenandoah Downs Harness trainer William Fletcher, 95, collected his first win in four years during the fall season opening-day card Saturday (Sept. 14) at Shenandoah Downs with 4-year-old pacer Billy Boy B.

The son of Roddy's Bags Again was making his first start of the year – as was his nonagenarian conditioner – and was fresh off a Sept. 11 runner-up qualifying mile at Harrington. In Saturday's sixth race, Fletcher's gelding sat third through the first half of the non-winners of 1 mile event until driver Chuck Perry took the eventual winner outside down the backstretch, hit the third fraction in front by a length over previous leader Opals On Fire and cruised home crossing in 2:00. The winner, who was turned out for eight months after his last start in November, returned $7.40.

Fletcher, who lives in Oak Hall, Virginia – located on the state's Eastern Shore – was a produce farmer who got involved in harness racing in the 1960's. His last win came with Breeze Away B, a former Virginia Breeder's 2-Year-Old Filly Pacing champ, in 2020. The daughter of Nuclear Breeze won five races that year and as a freshman in 2019, captured both the Breeder's prep and $42,275 final in that division. Fletcher lives five hours from Woodstock but caught a ride with owner/trainer Robert White of Chincoteague whose Antares Star competed on the same card Saturday.

Sugar Instead was sweet in OBC action at Delaware

Legacy Affair (Ron Wrenn, Jr.) took the lead past the opening quarter in :27.4.

The field raced in a straight line past the half in :57.1.

Brett Miller eased the eventual winner off the rail in third past the three-quarters in 1:26 and stuck a neck ahead at the top of the stretch.

Sugar Instead used a :28 final quarter to secure the 1:54 win, which equaled the stakes record.

Legacy Affair was second, three-quarters-of-a-length back. Jurassic Hattie was third.

The daughter of Volstead is conditioned by Virgil Morgan, Jr. for Joyce McClelland and Larry Wills. She was bred by Elmer Dean Miller.

She is undefeated in 10 seasonal starts and has earned $712,839 lifetime.

Signature Series final goes 'Global'

OBC action headlined Sunday card at Delaware

The Luther brothers – owner Greg Luther and trainer Todd Luther – and driver Austin Hanners swept the $133,600 (div.) Ohio Breeders Championship for two-year-old filly pacers on Sunday (Sept. 15) at the Delaware County Fair.

In the second $66,800 division, Hanners fired Skywalker Sea out of post position 5 and grabbed the early lead and sprinted past the quarter in :27.3.

The field of six raced in single file past the half in :56.3.

Lilly Grace Hill (Kayne Kauffman) was the first to challenge, but was parked past the three-quarters in 1:24.3.

Skywalker Sea used a :28.1 last quarter to win by 7¼ lengths in 1:52.4.

The homebred daughter of Downbytheseaside went to the winner's circle for the third time in 2024 and pushed her earnings to $115,600.

The completion of the first division changed when the heavily favored The Word Is Out (Chris Page) made a break in stride at the start, allowing Prolific Fire to grab the early lead, winning in gate-to-wire fashion in 1:53.3.

The winner is from the first crop of Catch The Fire and was bred by Spring Haven Farm.

Queen Of Fear (Brett Miller) was a length back in second. The Word Is Out rebounded to take the show spot.

Larry Ferrari and Lmc Mass Gem took the first division in 1:58.

United States Harness Driver's Club steps up to the plate

Although the United States Harness Driver's Club (USHDC) is just beginning to race back in action after a summer hiatus, it hasn't stopped them from adding to their vast contributions to worthy causes far and wide totaling over $320,000 since their inception.

USHDC president Dein Spriggs has announced that the Club has taken a platinum sponsorship in the upcoming National Standardbred Horse Show, which will be held September 20-22 at The Horse Park of New Jersey, located in Allentown.

About the USHDC participation as a platinum sponsor, Spriggs said, "This is one of the greatest events honoring and showcasing our great standardbred breed and it truly is an honor to be involved. It's just an amazing showcase and the versatility of our breed is on full display in the many different classes of competition.

Helene Gregory is the sponsorship chairperson and reminisced about how she became involved with the show over 20 years ago.

"The first time I saw this show, a horse by the name of Red Bow Tie was competing," she said. "He was a world champion that was before his time and, as you can imagine, I was hooked right then and there."

Red Bow Tie had a mark of 1:48.2 before the turn of the new century on his way to lifetime earnings of $2,673,920.

"I really got involved with one of my horses, Taurmade," Gregory said. "He was a really great looking horse that had million-dollar looks... but he was slower than a snail... hardly could trot in 2:11.

"But he was a champion in the show ring and won all kinds of awards... a champion in my eyes and heart."

This year is the 30th anniversary of the National Standardbred Horse Show and features well over 300 different categories of competition over the three-day extravaganza, including western dressage, obstacle driving, open roadster, pleasure driving reinsmanship, walk/trot flag race, puddle jumper and showmanship and, to further prove the versatility and agility of the standardbred breed, a barrel race.

There are four separate age groupings ranging from the 13-18 age group to those age 50 and over.

USHDC treasurer Tom Eichas said, "Our USHDC is focusing on the all-important youth participation to bolster the future of the standardbred breed and the importance of our youth to be involved.

"This is exactly why the USHDC is so proud to take a platinum sponsorship one stride further and pay for all entry fees in our sponsored events in a continuing effort supporting the standardbred breed in all stages of their lives and careers."
