Supplements look to deliver in Little Brown Jug and Jugette

The connections of Messenger winner American Courage paid $45,000 to supplement to Thursday's Jug, while the teams behind Oakwoodanabella IR and Smothastenesewisky each paid $15,000 to make them eligible for today's Jugette.

Starting in 2022, there won't be any stipulations when it comes to supplementing to the Little Brown Jug. Years from now though, there's a chance that open supplements could be misconstrued as the "Charlie May rule," due to the purely coincidental timing of the implementation of the new rule and efforts for the 3-year-old gelding to race in this year's edition of the Little Brown Jug. This is the final year where if not initially staked to the Little Brown Jug, that a horse could supplement for a hefty amount of $45,000 to the race if he had won either the Messenger Stakes, Cane Pace, North America Cup, or Meadowlands Pace. The decision for that change was agreed to over two years ago, long before the debate as to if first-past-the-post Meadowlands Pace winner Charlie May should have been able to supplement while his Pace disqualification appeal remains unsettled.

For certain, the decision to allow anyone to supplement to the Jug from 2022 onward is the correct one. Interestingly, it's a rule that never applied to the Jugette and as such, there are two Jugette supplements for today's race that wouldn't have been able to enter otherwise if the same rules of the Jug applied.

In broader support, supplemental entries should be allowed universally for all open stakes. The staking system in harness racing makes those smaller owners at an extreme disadvantage. Because of the exorbitant costs to stake and continue to make lengthy sustaining stakes payments, smaller outfits must carefully select what stakes they target. And you could debate separately how much sense it makes statistically speaking to even supplement $45,000 to the Little Brown Jug, but it's better to have that option than not have it at all.

As for Charlie May and this year's Little Brown Jug, there's no question that the feel-good horse whose connections maintain strong ties to the local community would have really pumped up the Delaware County faithful. But rules are rules, and they were interpreted as such that it didn't allow for the Charlie May story to play out on the track this week. It's a tough situation, but the good news is that this type of predicament won't exist going forward.

Of the three horses that were supplemented for today and Thursday, Oakwoodanabella IR and Smothastenesewisky will join the Jugette lineup, with American Courage anteing up to start in the Little Brown Jug by virtue of him being this year's winner of the Messenger Stakes.

Oakwoodanabella IR has gained notoriety for being an Irish-bred (full story here), though her breeding is far from obscure. Out of Carmel Camden, her granddam is Pan Culottes who won the 2-year-old fillies Breeders Crown in 2003 at the Meadowlands in a first-over upset of Kikikatie. Her sire Foreclosure N beat top older pacing horses here during his career, and he's out of Pleasing Package A who had a successful racing career in North America too.

Just off two starts, it's hard to say how Oakwoodanabella IR matches up with the likes of Test Of Faith. She won most recently in 1:50.4 at Scioto and times that night across the board seemed relatively quick. She landed in the far tougher elimination but does have the post edge on what appear to be her two biggest threats; Ronnie Wrenn Jr. gets the call for trainer Brian Brown.

Also supplementing to the Jugette for $15,000 is Smothastenesewisky. The career overachiever most recently romped in the $300,000 Ohio Sire Stakes final and is more than deserving of a shot in the Jugette. In between both supplemental entries is a daunting challenge in Test Of Faith. The Pelling trainee most recently jogged in the New York Sires Stakes final and has been one of the best – if not the best – fillies over the last two seasons collectively. The first Jugette elimination shows Nashville Elgenna (2-1) as favored over Scarlett Hanover (7-2) but I'd be shocked if that isn't reversed come post time.

In the Jug, I'll admit that I was surprised by the supplement of American Courage. Expectations were high entering the Meadowlands Pace on the heels of his Messenger wins at Yonkers, but the reality is that he hasn't been as sharp for the last couple of months. Reportedly he had some issues when racing on Lasix that caused some of his off performances and in his favor is the fact that he hasn't lost this year on a half-mile track.

On the flip side of the Lasix issues from American Courage is Lou's Pearlman. After posting back-to-back 1:47.4 miles in July he came up short in the Adios. From there, he was put on Lasix and has jogged in his last three. He finds himself in a pretty cozy draw in his elimination and taking them wire to wire would set him up favorably for the Jug final.

Back to the American Courage elimination, Perfect Sting drew the outside post 6. He only needs to get into the top 4 to draw into the final so that shouldn't be an issue, but there's an obvious premium on winning the elimination. With almost every horse to his inside having the potential to leave – and at least a couple of them will – Miller will have to be careful not to get caught in something crazy if he tries to leave as well with Perfect Sting.

Jugette final heat picks: Test Of Faith, Scarlett Hanover, Oakwoodanabella IR

Jug final heat picks: Lou's Pearlman, Perfect Sting, Rockyroad Hanover

Hambletonian winner Captain Corey injured and out for the rest of 2021

by Thomas Hedlund

Trainer Åke Svanstedt told Swedish media on Monday (Sep. 20) that his 3-year-old Hambletonian champion Captain Corey has a fracture in a hoof that has put a stop to his racing schedule for the remainder of 2021.

"It's not a serious fracture, but there will be no more starts this season. It will maybe take 4-5 months before Captain Corey can train again," Svanstedt said.

The owners will decide if Captain Corey will continue to race or if he will begin his work as a stud.

Ganay de Banville outstanding at Vincennes

The $235,000 Prix de l'Etoile over 1.3 miles was held at Vincennes on Sunday (Sep. 19) afternoon and champion trainer Jean-Michel Bazire had his Ganay de Banville (Jasmin de Flore) in splendid condition.

Five-year-old Ganay de Banville started 50 meters behind well-merited 3-year-old trotters and the task was nothing but easy for Bazire's horse. After a quick attack three wide at the back stretch, Ganay de Banville hit the front with a half mile to go.

First choice 3-year-old Italiano Vero, got his chance from position third on the inside, but new leader Ganay de Banville was strong over the stretch and won easily in a splendid mile rate of 1:52.2.

Vincennes' Sunday race card also featured the racing under saddle race the $235,000 Prix de Vincennes over 1.9 miles and 5-year-old mare Gladys des Plaines (Opus Viervil) won in a stakes record mile rate of 1:56.2 for jockey Matthieu Abrivard.

Gladys des Plaines came to the lead after a kilometer and just cruised away from her opponents during the race's last part.

Timo Nurmos trained Isabelle Cash flew to victory in her Oaks elimination at Solvalla and will be one of the favorites in Saturday's race.

Nurmos in front seat ahead of Oaks and Kriteriet in Sweden

The biggest races for 3-year-old Swedish bred trotters are scheduled on Solvalla's Saturday (Sep. 25) race card and Derby-winning trainer Timo Nurmos seems to have great chances to enlarge his already vast trophy cabinet.

Nurmos trains four horses in the 12-trotter strong field in $640,000 Oaks for 3-year-old fillies and all his weapons won their eliminations, respectively. Two of his horses (Senorita Tokio

Burke, Gingras and Teague join Boring in Hall of Fame class of 2022

by The United States Harness Writers Association

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) is pleased to announce that Ron Burke, George Teague, Jr., and Yannick Gingras will be inducted into the 2022 Harness Racing Hall of Fame, along with Chris Boring who will be inducted in the veterans category.

"This is a fantastic group of horsemen who will be inducted at Goshen in 2022," said Kimberly Rinker, USHWA president. "All of them have contributed greatly to harness racing through their professionalism, indefatigable work ethics, horsemanship, and willingness to participate in publicity for the betterment of the sport. They without a doubt certainly deserve this honor."

The trio of Burke, Gingras, and Teague secured well above the 75 per cent of the yes-no votes required of the electorate, with 147 ballots cast in the voting conducted by USHWA.

This quartet will first be honored at USHWA's Dan Patch Awards & Night of Champions on Feb. 20, 2022, at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort, in Orlando, FL. They will be formally inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame on July 3, 2022 in Goshen, NY.

Ron Burke has rewritten the definition of the modern trainer while shattering all previous records for trainers in earnings and money – he currently has sent out more than 11,700 winners, 4,900 more than any other conditioner, and the $250 million+ earnings of his trotters and pacers are nearly double of his closest competitor. He is a three-time winner of the Glen Garnsey Trainer of the Year award selected by USHWA, in 2011, 2013, and 2018.

The list of champions with whom Burke has been associated could go on for paragraphs, but some top horses would be the highest earner of all-time, Foiled Again ($7.6 million); Hannelore Hanover, the trotting mare who was 2017 Horse of the Year; Mission Brief; and Sweet Lou. His stable has sent out 18 Breeders Crown champions.

Foiled Again and some other top Burke Brigade horses were driven by Yannick Gingras, who came to the United States from his native Quebec, was USHWA's Rising Star of 2003, and has George Teague Jr. has campaigned some of the top horses of the 21st century. That list would begin with Rainbow Blue, a pacing distaff who was the 2004 Horse of the Year while winning all but one of her 21 seasonal starts and who is generally regarded as one of the most talented female pacers of all-time.

A second Horse of the Year campaign by a Teague horse came from Wiggle It Jiggleit (2015), who was as prolific a winner as Rainbow Blue and who earned over $4 million in his combined 3- and 4-year-old seasons, with his most famous win coming in the Little Brown Jug where he was passed in the stretch but fought on to claim the victory. Most recently Team Teague has campaigned Lather Up, a tremendously fast pacer who shares the 1:46 record for the fastest mile ever with Always B Miki.

The exploits of George Teague Jr. have earned him the William R. Haughton Good Guy Award (2004, 2016) and HHI's Dominic Frinzi Person of the Year (2016); in that same year, his outstanding Team Teague received the Stan Bergstein Proximity Award, USHWA's highest honor.

Little Brown Jug happenings through the years

by Bob Heyden

This year marks 50 years since Nansemond defeated Albatross in the Jug on Sept. 23, 1971.

Albatross was 25-for-28 and the first pacing Horse of the Year for Stanley Dancer. He set a new earnings record of $558,009 that year for either a trotter or pacer. He recorded a 1:54.4 world race record set at The Red Mile — and he did it twice in one day.

Albatross won the Horse of the Year vote 131-34 over Steady Star and the division title 188-1 over Nansemond.

But on that one day in Delaware, OH, Herve Filion and Nansemond got the measure of "Big Bird" by a length in 1:57.2. Albatross, who had won six days earlier in Livonia, MI where Stanley promised a friend he would compete, was barred from the betting in the Jug.

Four years later, Filion, who also trained Nansemond, would go into the Hall Of Fame at age 35.

Miller time

David Miller has won five Jugs for five different trainers:

Ivan Sugg in 2003, Ian Moore in 2008, Ron Potter in 2011, Casie Coleman in 2016 and Blake MacIntosh in 2018. Miller's first Jug victory in 2003 came on a day in which he posted 10 wins on the card.

Delvin Miller won three straight Jugs as a trainer with three different drivers:

1950 with Dudley Hanover (Del Miller drove), 1951 with Tar Heel with Del Cameron driving and 1952 with Meadow Rice with Curly Smart in the bike.

Switch hitter supreme

Six Day War certainly was a switch hitter on the trot and pace. He won the 1989 Woodrow Wilson for pacers, competed in the 1990 Little Brown Jug (finishing 8th in his heat) and won the 1992 Su Mac Lad for trotters.

Makeup time

Cam Fella won the 1982 Cane and then the Messenger via the supplemental route, but he was ineligible for the Jug. Still, he made up for it big time.

Cam Fella sired Goalie Jeff, the 1989 winner, Precious Bunny, the 1991 winner and HOY, Fake Left, the 1992 winner and Armbro Operative, the 1996 winner. Then, he had four straight grandsons win the Jug, too (after Blissful Hall won it in 1999): 2001 winner Bettors Delight followed by Million Dollar Cam in 2002 No Pan Intended in 2003 and Timesareachanging in 2004.

Smashing debut

Mike Lachance's first four drives in the Jug were winners – two heats in 1988 with BJ Scoot and both drives in 1989 with Goalie Jeff. Then he was second in 1990 with longshot Spirited Style in his fifth drive in an elimination heat, who earned no money in the final at 176-1.

Only happened twice

Only twice has the 2-year-old Breeders Crown winner come back to win the Jug at 3: Bettors Delight in 2000-2001 and Well Said in 2008-2009.

Youngsters

Scott Zeron was 23 when he won the Jug with Michaels Power in 2012. He is the youngest driver to ever to win a pacing Triple Crown event.

Montrell Teague was 24 when he won the Jug with HOY Wiggle It Jiggle It in 2015.

Mark MacDonald was 27 in 2006 when he won the Jug with Mr Feelgood.

John Campbell was 27 when he won the Jug – and his first Triple Crown race – in 1982 with his own colt Merger.

William Walters was 18 when he competed in the 1973 Jug. A year later, 19-year-old Peter Haughton debuted. That makes the Jug the only Triple Crown event to have teenagers appear in back to back seasons.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Erin Meilhammer and the amazing moment her free horse Steady Cat broke his maiden at age 6

by Chris Lomon

Erin Meilhammer's horse racing field of dreams began in the most appropriate of places.

The horsewoman from Maryland, the one who grew up barrel racing and riding horses, will gladly tell you that there is truth to the adage that the best things in life are free.

A bay pacer by the name of Steady Cat would be a perfect example.

"Both my parents had racehorses growing up and then brother got into it as well," said Meilhammer, who now calls Delaware home. "I helped him out for a while, but one day, I was curious, and bought a horse of my own... actually, I should say I didn't buy the horse, I got him for free."

It turned out to be a perfect match between Meilhammer and the gelded son of Quik Pulse Mindale.

"I got him as a 6-year-old. An older couple had him. He had bowed both front tendons as a 2-year-old at Harrington. The husband had fallen ill and his wife had him out in a field, where he was for four years. A friend called me and said she has a friend that has a standardbred she couldn't take care of anymore and wondered if I would be interested in taking him. I went over and looked at him and it was instant love. He is the sweetest horse you could find. She gave him to me for free and we bonded right away."

Meilhammer quickly went to work, making sure the horse was comfortable in his new surroundings.

Watching him renew his life on the racetrack wasn't on the radar during their early time together, but that would soon change.

"Eventually, I started him back to see if there was a chance he could race again. There were no expectations on my part. The only thing that mattered was that he was happy. But he started showing signs that he might be able to race."

After a pair of qualifiers in June of 2016, Steady Cat was in to race in Maryland over the half-mile oval at Ocean Downs.

There wouldn't be a fairytale finish that evening, as the pacer broke stride and was distanced in what was his first race in nearly three years.

Less than 10 days after another qualifier, Steady Cat was in to compete at Ocean Downs again. He stayed flat over a sloppy track and finished seventh in a time of 2:01.2.

Meilhammer saw improvement, but had no idea what to expect from his next engagement on the evening of July 29, 2016.

She was hopeful of a better result, but unsure of what the final outcome would be.

To say that she was pleasantly surprised would be a massive understatement.

"He broke his maiden as a 6-year-old that night and he did it by 10 ½-lengths. It was such a cool moment. You just couldn't ask for a better horse. I have tons of pictures of him. I'll never forget that night. It was amazing seeing him open up and then win so easily."

Meilhammer, who currently works in the barn of Steve LeBlanc in Delaware, is working on attaining her training license. Along with her fiancé, horseman James Stuart, they operate a small stable of their own.

The couple is looking to increase their profile and the number of horses they have in the near future.

"We work together, we race together and we live together... there's a lot patience to be able to do that," Meilhammer said with a laugh. "We're working on building our own stable – we both work with Steve – and acquiring more horses."

Right now, they have one horse, Murrow Boy, a 5-year-old pacing son of American Ideal.

Bred by Stake Your Claim Stable and Linwood Higgins, the brown gelding is another highlight for Meilhammer. So too is Allie's Finale, a bay son of Allie's Western.

"We bought Murrow Boy for $7,500. He wasn't getting in every week. He wasn't doing well for his owners and he is a bit of a difficult horse to have. He has bad feet and he's not a great shipper... he's just a really sensitive horse. You have to work around him and treat him with kid gloves. But that teaches you how to handle horses and understand what needs each horse has. He's doing really well now.

"James and I owned a piece of the Allie's Finale with Steve and two other owners. He was a Maryland Sires Stakes champion and was great for us too. There was a point where he was undefeated. He's a horse that gives you everything he has every time he races."

While she seems to have the magic touch with standardbreds, Meilhammer isn't getting carried with any of the successes.

In fact, she's happy to avoid the subject matter altogether.

"I don't want to jinx it. That's the last thing I want to do."

As for her current list of goals, finding more horses like Steady Cat, Murrow's Boy and Allie's Finale, is a definite priority.

Meilhammer is excited as to what the future holds, even more so considering there were some question marks about her horse racing career not so long ago.

"The whole COVID thing, being shut down and not knowing when things would start to get back to somewhat normal, was a very difficult time. At one point, we didn't know if we'd have to get out of the sport, or if racing was going to continue. I'm so close to the horses... it was very tough. There was a time when we thought we'd have to consider getting out."

That decision, thankfully, is no longer weighing on Meilhammer's mind.

She sees plenty of reason for optimism, both for herself and for the Delaware racing scene.

"Building our own stable and doing our own thing is something I'm truly excited about. I have the paperwork signed for my trainer's license and I want to get that in the next couple of months, fingers crossed. We have good racing here and the people work very hard. Everyone is willing to work to see it succeed."

Meilhammer included.

"I'm in this to be around the horses and for the love of horses. Of course, I want them to do well. But I'm a big believer in giving horses second chances. They deserve that."

Favorites fire in Kentucky Championship finals

Championships were won by Dont Fence Me In, Pebble Beach, Dancinginthedark M, Empressive Hill, Blue Diamond Eyes, Goldie's Legacy, Selfie Queen and Double Deceiver.

by Ray Cotolo, for The Red Mile

While speed was plentiful on the $2 million-plus Kentucky Championship card at The Red Mile on Sunday (Sept. 19), the betting public's dollar saw plenty of churn with seven of the eight $250,000 finals going to the public's choice.

The afternoon began with a Sunday stroll by Dont Fence Me In, who registered a lifetime-best 1:50.2 victory in the final for freshmen pacing fillies. Leaving widest of the three-horse field, Dont Fence Me In nonetheless secured the top and set a clip of :27.2, :55.4 and 1:23.4 with Sloopy in tow from the pocket and Captains Princess in third. The trio remained in that order spinning for the final-quarter sprint, with Dont Fence Me In extending her lead to the beam over Sloopy to 1-3/4 lengths.

Kentucky

Captains Princess gave close pursuit for third.

Owned by her breeder Riverview Racing, along with Alagna Racing, Steven Head and Jerry Glantz, Dont Fence Me In won her fourth race from seven starts, earning $199,375. Tony Alagna trains the Captaintreacherous—Mystery Game filly who paid $2.20 to win.

Pebble Beach graced world-record territory again, this time coming a fifth of a second off the mark when scoring a 1:48.4 win in the final for freshmen colts and geldings.

Driver Todd McCarthy landed the Downbytheseaside—Santa Rosa colt in a race where the field aligned in post-position order to a :27 first quarter. The field stayed strung at the pegs behind pacesetter Western Era, who fired to the half in :53.2 before facing far-turn pressure from Silverstone popping pocket. Pebble Beach tracked his move to three-quarters in 1:21.2 and left his cover behind off the corner, swooping to the lead as River Ness readied a stretch rally from last. River Ness kept rolling towards Pebble Beach late, but the Noel Daley trainee hit the beam in time to win narrowly with Wolftrax closing for third.

Winning his fifth race from seven starts, Pebble Beach, bred by Brittany Farms, has banked $209,800 for owners Patricia Stable, Joe Sbrocco, Country Club Acres, LA Express & JAF Racing. He paid $2.20 to win.

Dancinginthedark M dashed late for the lead to nab victory just in time in the final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings, nailing Cuatro De Julio on the line in 1:49.3.

Cuatro De Julio, the 3-2 favorite, left for the lead off the car as Venerate broke stride and lost contact with the field. On the point, Cuatro De Julio set fractions of :27.2, :54.3 and 1:22 while Dancinginthedark M raced fourth and ranged off the pegs around the final turn. Cuatro De Julio gained separation on pocket-sitter Rattle My Cage into the stretch, though Dancinginthedark M came charging down the center of the course. With long strides Dancinginthedark M loomed closer to Cuatro De Julio, who could not reaccelerate and rebuff the Marcus Melander trainee's late speed and settled for second by a nose. Rattle My Cage held third and Tangled Love took fourth.

A colt by Readly Express—Leila, Dancinginthedark M won his fifth race from 12 starts this season and his eighth from 19 overall, earning $353,704. Menhammar Stuteri Ab bred and owns the $9.00 winner that had Brian Sears in the sulky.

Slight-favorite Empressive Hill powered to the lead up the backside and held firm on top to the finish of a 1:51.2 mile to take the final for sophomore trotting fillies.

Away third to a :28.4 first quarter, trainer-driver Jordan Derue sent Empressive Hill after the lead heading to the half and cleared control from second-choice Beltassima past a :55.4 half. Beltassima inched off the pegs rounding the final turn to challenge Empressive Hill to three-quarters in 1:23.3 and entered the stretch giving futile pursuit. Empressive Hill coasted to the finish 2-1/2 lengths better than Beltassima settling for second, with her stablemate Piper Hanover rallying to take third from Lady Chaos.

Co-owned by Derue with Bruce Soulsby, Alan Weisenberg and Gilbert Short, Empressive Hill won her sixth race from eight starts this season and her eighth from 15 overall, earning $225,375. She paid $4.40 to win. The daughter of Muscle Hill—Slice Slice Baby was bred by Dr. Fred Kruszelnicki.

Blue Diamond Eyes put in a gate-to-wire speed show in the final for 3-year-old pacing fillies to just hold off a pocket charge from Thebeachiscalling in a 1:47.4 mile.

Scoring from post 6, Blue Diamond Eyes bolted for the top with Thebeachiscalling settling into second moving to a :26.3 first quarter. The Ron Burke pupil rolled up the backside under no pressure to a :54.2 half and continued with no challenge to three-quarters in 1:21.2. Into the straightaway, the Captaintreacherous—Aria Hanover filly began to show some sense of fatigue as Thebeachiscalling came lunging late for the lead. Thebeachiscalling cut into her deficit as the finish drew closer, but Blue Diamond Eyes under high lines maintained command to the finish to win by a nose. High Minded took third with So Irresistible finishing fourth.

Owned by Thomas and Scott Dillon, Blue Diamond Eyes won her fifth race from 13 starts this season and her 10th from 26 overall, earning $989,914. Yannick Gingras drove the Brittany Farms-bred filly who paid $2.10 to win.

Goldie's Legacy raced gamely on the point through quick fractions to then withstand a wall of pursuers and win the final for pacing glamour boys in 1:49.

Mad Man Hill hustled off the wings and grabbed the lead to the first turn until Goldie's Legacy, briefly yielding for the pocket, pulled wide in search of command. Komodo Beach tracked his move to a :26.4 first quarter but nestled into the pocket as Goldie's Legacy asserted himself on the point. To the half in :53.3, Komodo Beach grew increasingly anxious on driver Yannick Gingras' helmet but stayed put to the inside as Exploit rushed from last to press the pacesetter to three-quarters.

Challenged to the third station in 1:21.2, Goldie's Legacy rebuffed Exploit into the lane while a trio came charging after the lead late. However their late-springing efforts came up short as Goldie's Legacy held his ground from between the competition to win by a neck over Komodo Beach, who came rolling three wide for second. Mad Man Hill scurried up the pylons for third while Toronto darted through traffic and finished fourth.

won his seventh race from 19 starts this season and his ninth from 29 overall, earning $271,985. Jeff Cullipher trains and co-owns the $3.00 winner with Pollack Racing LLC. Goldie's Legacy was bred by Dave Yoder.

Selfie Queen delivered a strong preparatory victory for the Mohawk Million next Saturday (Sept. 25) with a 1:53 effort in the final for freshmen trotting fillies.

Pink Gypsy powered for the lead from post 9 and pocketed Selfie Queen, who promptly came off the pegs to a :28.3 first quarter and took over the lead. She continued up the backstretch uncontested through a :56.3 half and cruised to three-quarters in 1:24.4 before opening on her rivals off the turn. The Muscle Hill–Lady Lakewood filly coasted to the finish 3-1/4 lengths better than Eternal Lee flying to take second from More Than Ever, with Disclosure finishing fourth.

Bred by James Wilhite, Jr. and owned by Robert LeBlanc, David Anderson and John Fielding, Selfie Queen won her fifth race from eight starts, earning $201,250. Dexter Dunn piloted the $2.60 winner for trainer Nancy Takter.

Double Deceiver commandeered his competition past the half and held his late challengers at bay to win the final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings in 1:52.3.

Away third to a :28 first quarter, driver David Miller dashed Double Deceiver off the pegs to the point through a :56 half and led to the final turn as Classic Hill came off the cones from third to race first over. He continued uncovered towards three-quarters in 1:24.4 and began to retreat as Double Deceiver hit another gear off the turn and had just the fresh-legged backfield to withstand. The Carter Pinske trainee stayed strong on the lead to the finish, holding a length over Rebuff who rallied for second. Looks Like Moni finished third and Gigondas closed for fourth.

Owned by Pinske Stables and Makenna Pinske, Double Deceiver won his fourth race from seven starts, earning $200,290. The Cantab Hall–Sarcy gelding, bred by Steve Stewart and Oakwood Farms, paid $4.40 to win.

Sunday's card also started two of the eight $50,000 finals for the Kentucky Commonwealth Series, with Branded By Lindy overcoming post 10 to take the first final – for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings – in 1:53.

Wide and tracking a move from Access to a :28 first quarter, Branded By Lindy landed on a brief lead into the backstretch. Golden Life As, positioned fourth, swept to the front as the dust settled up the backside to take the field to the half in :56.1 and by three-quarters in 1:25. Though Branded By Lindy proved sharp off the covered ride and sprung to the lead in the stretch to deliver as the odds-on choice by 1-3/4 lengths over Golden Wall As. Access gave chase from third while Senna finished fourth.

Winning his fifth race from seven starts, Branded By Lindy has banked $80,350 for owner/breeder Lindy Farms of Connecticut. Domenico Cecere conditions the Chapter Seven–The Lindy Label colt who paid $3.20 to win while Yannick Gingras sat in the sulky.

Blue Diamond Eyes (Yannick Gingras) put in a gate-to-wire speed show in the final for 3-year-old pacing fillies to just hold off a pocket charge from Thebeachiscalling in a 1:47.4 mile.

Six Feet Apart swooped to the top moving by the half and left his competition behind in the Commonwealth final for rookie pacing colts and geldings, stopping the clock in 1:50.4.

Danger Zone zipped to the lead to a :27.3 first quarter with Boston sitting second and Six Feet Apart third. Boston soon vacated the pocket to the backside and took the lead heading to the half before yielding control to Six Feet Apart by the station in :55.1. From there, the Sweet Lou—Ideal Love colt cruised to three-quarters in 1:23.1 and kicked away with a :27.3 final quarter to win by 3-1/4 lengths over Danger Zone, who snagged second from Boston late. Anvil Hands finished fourth.

Trained by Brian Brown for owners Michael Robinson, Robert Mondillo, David Meola and Rich Lombardo Racing LLC, Six Feet Apart won his fourth race from five starts, earning $57,400. David Miller drove the $3.00 winner, who was bred by S R F Stable.

Date Night completes Commonwealth sweep

Through all of the state-bred finals contested over the last two days at The Red Mile, the Bar Hopping—Nightsthatneverend filly Date Night became the only one to win in every preliminary and then the final when she scored in the $50,000 Kentucky Commonwealth final for 2-year-old trotting fillies on Monday (Sept. 20).

The Julie Miller trainee, dispatched the 1-2 choice, raced unhurried from fifth to a :28.1 first quarter set by Medley, who cleared control from post 10. Medley soon yielded command up the backside to Pauline Hanover as she then took the field by the half in :57. Meanwhile, driver Andy Miller got underway with Date Night out of fifth and slowly ranged his charge towards the tempo-setter nearing three-quarters in 1:26.4. She then spurred clear off the turn, rolling to a 5-3/4-length victory in 1:55.1 over Wallabee closing for second. Pauline Hanover faded to third with Bold And Beautiful taking fourth.

A homebred for Marvin Katz and Al Libfeld, Date Night kept her unbeaten record intact to five starts and has banked $65,000. She paid $3 to win.

Altar put in a tour of force in the final for 3-year-old trotting fillies when strolling to a 1:51.4 victory.

Driver Dexter Dunn cleared control from post 6 with Altar heading to a :29 first quarter and essentially competed with herself from that point. Princessa gave chase from a loosening pocket through a quickened clip to a :56.1 half and three-quarters in 1:23.4 with Eazy Pass in behind from third. Altar continued to widen on her rivals through the straightaway and grew her margin to about 6-1/4 lengths in the end over Eazy Pass snagging second. Princessa faltered to finish third with Material Girl taking fourth.

Selfie Queen (Dexter Dunn) delivered a strong preparatory victory for the Mohawk Million this Saturday (Sept. 25) with a 1:53 effort in the final for freshmen trotting fillies.

Trained by Nancy Takter for owner/breeder Diamond Creek Racing, Altar won her fourth race from eight starts this season and her sixth from 14 overall, earning $169,773. The Muscle Hill—Swan Hot Mama filly returned $2.40 to win.

Notorious Pink also decimated her competition to take the final for sophomore pacing fillies going away in a 1:49.2 effort.

The Captaintreacherous—She's A Hot Mess filly cleared command to a :27.3 first quarter and raced uncontested as she buzzed to a half in :55. Realization took a shot at the pacesetter out of third coming to three-quarters in 1:22.2 but managed only to take over second as Notorious Pink accelerated. She sped through the stretch to open 5-1/4 lengths on Realization to the finish while Wicked Ways gave chase to take third from In Lou Of Money, who recovered from a break at the start to take fourth.

Owned by Alagna And Grant Stable, Big Als Stables, Riverview Racing LLC and Fodera And Head Stable, Notorious Pink won her third race from 11 starts this season and her eighth from 24 overall, earning $333,562. Todd McCarthy drove the $2.60 winner for trainer Tony Alagna. Notorious Pink was bred by Riverview Breeding LLC, Visionary Breeders LLC and John Fodera.

Platinum As upended odds-on choice Julia Muscle Pack in the final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings with a methodical grind to the lead with enough stamina to clock a 1:53.3 victory.

Leaving from post 4, driver Dexter Dunn floated Platinum As off the card and raced wide from sixth into the first turn with a skirmish developing at the front. Julia Muscle Pack yielded control to Boaster Coaster in a :27.4 first quarter but promptly pulled pocket into the backside as Sunny Crockett, caught three wide around the first turn, made slight gains. Julia Muscle Pack kept Sunny Crockett to the center of the course up the backside, cleared the lead and then yielded command to a :55.3 half.

Sunny Crockett held control the far turn all while Platinum As made steady progress stalking the first-half action. The E L Titan—Jarett As colt cruised to the top heading to three-quarters in 1:24.4 and coasted through the stretch under minimal challenge. Julia Muscle Pack skimmed through to take second, beaten 2-3/4 lengths, with Sunny Crockett third and Boaster Coaster fading to fourth.

Owned solely by breeder ACL Stuteri Ab, who bred the colt with Kjell Johansson, Platinum As won his sixth race from 17 starts, earning $75,250. Anette Lorentzon trains the $7.60 winner, who was bred by

Beach Party pulled a 10-1 upset in the final for pacing glamour boys when ripping off the pegs and surging to a narrow 1:50.4 three-way-photo victory.

Driver Todd McCarthy secured the lead with Beach Party to a :27.2 first quarter and was quickly shuffled when 5-2 favorite Four More Years took over the lead followed by Red Right Hand to a :53.4 half. The speed stayed hot to three-quarters in 1:21.2, though the tempo proved taxing the pacesetter. Nonetheless, Red Right Hand battled at the pylons when braced by Beach Party's far-turn surge while Commanding Officer came charging down the center of the course late. Beach Party emerged in front from between horses at the finish, keeping a head in front of Commanding Officer at the post while Red Right Hand settled for third. Almanac closed from last to take fourth.

Returning $23 to win, Beach Party collected his third win from 20 starts, banking $79,384 for owners David McDuffee, John Fielding and Clay Horner. Brett Pelling conditions the Somebeachsomewhere—Precocious Beauty gelding that was bred by Jim Avritt, Sr.

Ainthesamewithoutu blitzed the pacesetter to the bottom of the final turn and held firm once on the lead to take the final for freshmen pacing fillies in 1:54.

Kentukylady took the lead to a :27.4 first quarter and faced minimal pressure to a :55.4 half. Driver Andrew McCarthy landed Ainthesamewithoutu in third, and waited until the far turn to make his move with the Anette Lorentzon-trained Sweet Lou—Book Babe filly. She quickly gained to match strides with the leader past three-quarters in 1:25.1 and edged to a slight advantage through the stretch, which she held to the finish by three-quarter lengths while also bearing a late charge from Bet On The Bay. Kentukylady stayed on at the pylons to settle for third.

Winning her third race from eight starts, Ainthesamewithoutu has earned $60,390 for Lorentzon who bred and owns her. She paid $6 to win.

None Bettor A wins Quillen Memorial

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Joe Pennacchio Racing and Oldford Racing's None Bettor A ($28.80, Mark MacDonald) captured the 14th edition of the $150,000 Bobby Quillen Memorial at Harrington Raceway on Monday (Sept. 20) with a 1:49.4 win.

The race honors the memory of the late long-time Delaware legislator Bobby Quillen who loved harness racing and advocated for horsemen during his career.

None Bettor A, an 8-year-old Bettor's Delight gelding received a pocket seat in the mile behind favorite Tattoo Artist through fractions of :26.4, :55.2 and 1:22.2. None Bettor A edged to the outside at the top of the stretch and was a neck ahead of Tattoo Artist at the wire. Local entry Jack's Legend N charged home down the passing lane to finish third. Trained by Andrew Harris, it was None Bettor's 34th career win. The veteran pacer has been a regular on the Yonkers Raceway circuit but stepped up to the Invitational ranks in style with his 5th win of the year.

It was the second Quillen win for MacDonald, who won the 2018 edition with Sunfire Blue Chip. It was just the fourth sub-1:50 mile in Harrington's 75-year history.

"The trip couldn't have worked out better," said Macdonald, who was driving None Bettor for the first time.

Four $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) 1st leg events for 2-year-old male pacers were contested on the 14-race program. The top eight point earners from two legs of eliminations will return to compete in a $100,000 final on October 4.

Reggie Hazzard's Clear Mist ($2.80, Allan Davis) was a front end winner in the first split in 1:58.2 over Ash In The Wind and Step On Over. The Powerful Mist gelding recorded his first lifetime win for trainer Wayne Givens.

George Teague and K&R Racing's It's Above Me Now ($26.40, Ross Wolfenden) prevailed in the second split over Bad And Boujee and Callaland. The Southwind Lynx colt notched his first career win for trainer Clyde Francis.

Kdk Standardbreds' Heinikin By The Bay ($2.80, Jason Thompson) won his third straight race for trainer Kevin Switzer over Johnny Badlands and Schrute in the 3rd DSBF division. The Southwind Lynx colt is the only colt in the current DSBF crop with a trio of wins already under his belt.

Ds Heartland ($5.40, Art Stafford Jr.) was the fastest elimination winner with a 1:55.3 win over Its Pronounced Jif and Imwoncaptainwiser in the final split. The Les Givens-trainee recorded his first career win. A son of Badlands Hanover, Ds Heartland had been racing at Harrah's Philadelphia in his previous 3 attempts.

Eric Good's Carlisimo ($3.40, Tim Tetrick) won a $17,000 conditioned pace in 1:51.2. The Josh Green-trainee notched his sixth win of the year. Green and Tetrick later teamed up with Play Rock ($2.40) for a 1:56.1 victory in a $10,000 conditioned pace.

Live racing will continue Monday through Wednesday through Oct. 20. Post time nightly is 4:30 p.m.

Wally Hennessey wins 11,000th career race with Marquis Volo at Tioga

What a weekend for Wally Hennessey as he followed a seven-win Friday (Sept. 17) with four more wins including his 11,000th win at Tioga Downs on Saturday (Sept. 18) driving Marquis Volo.

In the historic third race, ER Sophia (Mike Merton) jumped to the early lead and led to the quarter in :28.3. Then Hennessey used his signature sling shot move coming off the turn as he guided Marquis Volo ($3.70) to the lead with a circuit to go. Hennessey slowed things down using a :30.0 second quarter to hit the half in :58.3. He then went :28.2 down the backstretch to get to three-quarters in 1:27.

Mayfair Well (Mike Simons) put some light pressure on the leader as they went around the final turn. As they reached the stretch Marquis Volo found another gear and cruised home to get the easy win in 1:56.0. ER Sophia finished second with Mayfair Well getting third place.

Marquis Volo is a 9-year-old gelding by Credit Winner. He is owned by Jacalyn and Dan Boddie as well as trainer Jim McDonald.

Wally Hennessey is the 13th driver in harness racing history to record 11,000 wins. He is headed for his third straight title at Tioga with 148 wins on the season. The next closest rival is young sensation Braxten Boyd with 85 trips to the winner's circle. Tioga Downs closes out their live racing season on Saturday (September 25). Post time is 6:15 p.m.

Dabra Day trots into the record books at Flamboro Downs

For the second time this season, the province's best 2-year-old trotting fillies have rewritten a track, Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) and Canadian speed record, with Dabra Day etching her name into the Flamboro Downs record books with a sizzling 1:56.1 effort on Sunday (Sept. 19).

In rein to Louis-Philippe Roy in the second $99,000 Gold division, Dabra Day fired out of Post 3 and edged away from the field with every stride, hitting the quarter in :28.2, the half in :57.3, the three-quarters in 1:26.2 and the finish line in 1:56.1. Socks N Crocs was six and one-quarter lengths back in second, and HP Felicity rounded out the top three. Favorite Mischevious Rose was never a factor and finished well back in fifth.

The mile took a full second off the 1:57.1 Ontario Sires Stakes and Canadian record for 2-year-old trotting fillies on a half-mile track that Adare Castle established in Gold Series action at Grand River Raceway on July 28, and lowered the 1:57.4 Flamboro Downs record set by Devils Advocate in a 2015 Gold Leg. Dabra Day is now the fastest 2-year-old trotter ever over a half-mile oval in Canada, with her 1:56.1 record also eclipsing the colt and gelding marks.

"She wears the trotting hobbles, but she's very good gaited and she trots around the turns great," said trainer Meg Crone. "I can't actually tell you what happened; I never can watch her race. I watch the replay when I get home."

Crone's reluctance to watch the Kadabra daughter stems from the filly's quirky nature. She has two breaks on her resume and can be thrown off her game by anything new and different. Sunday was her first start at any racetrack other than Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"Being there for the first time she was little bit more excitable than she has been, but she overcome it," said the Cambridge, ON resident, who trains the filly for W.J. Donovan of Monument Beach, MA and Purnel And Libby LLC of Ocean Ridge, FL. "She doesn't look at things like she did before, she's a lot better that way, but she still does get excited. I think next year she'll mature a lot and be a lot smarter."

The win was Dabra Day's third lifetime and her second in Gold Series action. With 100 points she now sits second in the Gold Series division standings behind Adare Castle, who suffered her first Ontario Sires Stakes loss in the other $99,800 division.

Adare Castle and driver James MacDonald were sent off as the heavy favorites from Post 6, but the public's third choice, Grace, took command from Post 2 and never looked back. Doug McNair fired Grace off the wings and the filly reached the quarter in :29, the half in :59.3, the three-quarters in 1:27.4 and the finish line in a personal best 1:58. Adare Castle finished three lengths back in second and Lilys Lass completed the top three.

"She's always excelled in the turns. She was always very powerful in the turns, and then we had to watch her in the straightaways basically," said Amy MacDonald, co-owner of fractional ownership enterprise TheStable.ca, whose Grace Group owns the filly. "I am happy for everybody."

The win was Grace's first in Ontario Sires Stakes action and her second straight, with the first coming in a Sept. 7 overnight at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The Merchandiser daughter finished second in the July 6 Gold Series opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park but, battling some sickness and problems with tying up, made early breaks and finished out of the money in the next two legs. Since requalifying on Aug. 31 Grace is a perfect two-for-two and MacDonald said much of the credit goes to caretaker Cindy Acton, who has been caring for the late-blooming filly since April.

"She deserves a lot of accolades, her and her husband Shane (Acton). James (MacDonald) has been a big help too, he goes to the track and schools her or trains her," said MacDonald of her brother-in-law, who handed the drive on Grace over to McNair on Sunday, opting for Adare Castle, but had driven the filly in all of her previous outings.

"She just was one of those horses all winter that we were like, 'Oh Grace, it's just Grace, you know, whatever Grace'. I always ended up training her because nobody wanted to go with her," said Guelph, ON resident MacDonald. "She qualified really good at Mohawk and then she was second in her first lifetime start, trotted in 1:57, and everyone was like, 'Where did this horse come from? Who is Grace?' She was just kind of at the bottom of the food chain and she just kept marching forward. She did spoil two stake races and it was unfortunate, but after tonight she seems to be back on track, which is good."

The win bumped Grace from ninth to fourth in the 2-year-old trotting filly Gold standings. The fillies will wrap up their regular season at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Oct. 4 and then the top 10 point earners will compete in the $225,000 Super Final at the Campbellville oval on Oct. 16.

Therewasthisgirl smashes track mark at Plainridge Park

The fourth track record of the season was broken at Plainridge Park on Monday afternoon (Sept. 20) after Therewasthisgirl dominated a field of 6-year-old and younger fillies and mares in a $17,500 conditioned event.

Driver Nick Graffam put Therewasthisgirl on the point and posted fractions of :27.4, :55.2 and 1:23 on top by two lengths at that point, before turning for home and opening up a five length advantage while completely wrapped-up at the line in 1:51. The time was a new lifetime mark and also set a new track record for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

It was the fourth win in a row for Therewasthisgirl ($2.60) who in her last start won the $50,000 final of the New York Sire Stakes Excel A series. The daughter of So Surreal—The Company Store is trained by George Ducharme who co-owns with Heather Marshall.

Current USTA members with an email address on file will also be emailed a link to vote upon the rule change proposals and submit comments prior to their district meeting.

The 23 rule change proposals cover a wide range of issues that include medical assistance at racetracks, horse identification, electronic claiming and voidable claims, selection of drivers in stakes races, trainer continuing education, pre-race interference, whip specifications, breaking rules, breeding regulations, and name changes.

The three bylaw proposals deal with the creation of a new Equestrian membership, annual elections of USTA directors at district meetings, and the addition of a Trainer Continuing Education Committee.

Proposals were submitted by racetrack executives, owners and breeders, USTA directors and staff, the Hambletonian Society, racing officials and others.

Submissions came from numerous states including Arizona, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Minnesota, New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania and South Carolina.

Grassroots double for Brethour in freshman pacing filly finale

Woodbine Mohawk Park played host to five Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots divisions on Monday, Sept. 20 and there were not many surprises as the 2-year-old pacing fillies and 3-year-old trotting colts wrapped up their regular season.

Trainer Murray Brethour had a successful night, as Better Catch Girl and Crème Delight finished first and second in the opening $22,850 pacing filly split and Goudawon captured the second division.

Woodbine Mohawk Park fans sent Better Catch Girl off as their top choice from Post 6 and driver Bob McClure of Rockwood, ON had the filly on the engine by the :27.3 quarter. They sailed along through a :57 half and 1:26.1 three-quarters and then opened up a three length margin in the stretch, halting the teletimer at 1:53.3. Crème Delight, who started from Post 10, shadowed her stablemate into second and Sunjet Ray rounded out the top three. (replay here: Better Catch Girl)

"Vic Puddy owns her actually. He was going down to the Gold Cup and Saucer for two or three weeks and he asked me if I would take her, and she came up here and she kind of got better all the time. The last couple of times she's raced real good. Vic, he got back up here and I said, 'You want her back?' And he said, 'No, she's racing good.' So he left her with me," said Brethour. "She's just a nice filly to be around and actually, the one that finished second in that race, I've got them buddied up and they go out together."

Mountain resident Victor Puddy shares ownership of Better Catch Girl with 10462217 Canada Inc. of Gloucester, ON. Monday's win was the Betterthancheddar daughter's second straight and her first in Ontario Sires Stakes action. With one win, two seconds and one sixth, the filly heads into the Oct. 9 Grassroots Semi-Final ranked fourth in the standings with 103 points.

Goudawon earned her first Ontario Sires Stakes victory with a second-over trip from Post 11 for driver Chris Christoforou of Campbellville, ON. Swinging into an open lane in the stretch, the Betterthancheddar daughter kicked into gear and caught Ribbon Ridge at the wire in a personal best 1:53.3. Day To Party also closed hard to be third, leaving favorite Dewitt For Josie to settle for fourth. (replay here: Goudawon)

"She was kind of a crazy one to break in, but she's kind of settled down. She still gets a little hot the odd time, I've got a hood on her and everything, but she's turned out to be a pretty nice mare," said Sunderland, ON resident Brethour, who trains the filly for owner/breeders Brenda, Mark and Anthony Lane of Norwood, ON. "I don't know whether that will get enough points to get her in the Semi-Final or not."

Combined with third and sixth-place results from her first two Grassroots starts, the win boosted Goudawon's point total to 65 points and vaulted her from thirty-eighth to tenth in the division standings.

Better Catch Girl and Goudawon will be joined in the Semi-Finals by Crème Delight, who finished fifteenth with 58 points, and Morethanmyhometown, who finished right behind her stablemate with 53 points in spite of a disappointing result in the third division on Monday.

Delight Bayama emerged victorious in the third division to stretch her perfect Grassroots record to three wins. In spite of interference on the final turn that saw driver Sylvain Filion have to check the filly's momentum, Delight Bayama laid down a :27.1 final quarter to catch fan favorite In The Mood and pacesetter Speaker Nancy in the final strides. The 1:52.3 clocking was a personal best for the Bettors Delight daughter, who has only been bested once this season. (replay here: Delight Bayama)

"She's a nice filly, so far this year she's done everything that's been asked and she did it well," said Milton, ON resident Filion, who drives Delight Bayama for trainer Jean Tourigny and his father Yves Filion's Bayama Farms Inc. of Saint-Andre-D'Argenteuil, QC. "And it's always fun to win with a homebred, you know, that was born and raised on the farm in Lachute."

The first $22,500 three-year-old trotting colt division saw Sweet Soul David extend his lead atop the point standings with a gate-to-wire score in 1:55.2, crossing the wire three-quarters of a length in front of favorite Harry. Stonebridge Armour was four lengths back in third. (replay here: Sweet Soul David)

Louis-Philippe Roy of Guelph engineered the Kadabra gelding's fourth Grassroots win for trainer Patrick Lang of Ancaster and his co-owners Simon Swindells of Little Britain, Garth Bechtel of Meaford and Paul Kleinpaste of Orangeville, ON. Sweet Soul David wraps up the regular season with 225 points.

The Prince, in rein to Paul MacDonell of Guelph, ON, scored his second Grassroots win in the second $22,850 split, stepping into an open lane in the stretch and powering away to a two and one-half length victory in a personal best 1:53.4. Tokyo Seelster and Four Wheelin followed the fan favorite across the line. (replay here: The Prince)

"He just keeps on improving and I can't be happier," said trainer Chantal Mitchell. "Last week (Sept. 13) he got a great trip and raced seemingly flat, but Paul (MacDonell) said he wasn't getting a hold of the track and was working harder, so we got him freshly shod and he was flawless tonight. Paul has done a great job having him in the right spot, and teaching him, and The Prince has really blossomed because of it."

Mitchell and her partners in Party Don't Stop Racing of Waterdown, ON share ownership of the Archangel gelding with Imagine Stable of L'Ange-Gardien, QC. The win boosted The Prince into third spot in the standings with 100 points.

The top 20 point earning 2-year-old pacing fillies and 3-year-old trotting colts will return to Woodbine Mohawk Park next week for their Grassroots Semi-Finals. The 2-year-olds compete on Sept. 30 and the 3-year-olds on Oct. 1, all looking for a top five finish to score a berth in the Grassroots Championships on Oct. 9.
