David Miller on the incredible impact of the Little Brown Jug

The Ohio native will drive Later Dudes and Cattlewash on Thursday in the 75th Little Brown Jug in Delaware, OH as he attempts to win a record sixth Jug.

Hall of Fame driver David Miller is 55 now, but he has vivid memories of attending the Little Brown Jug as a child with his father.

"I must have come to the Jug a dozen times with my father before I was ever in it. I remember seeing Governors Skipper up close [in 1977]. Wow! This was the first time I ever got up close. In those days you could hardly see over the crowd. To me, this was like seeing Elvis Presley."

Miller was only 12 then. Three years later, he was blessed to see another rock star.

"In 1980, when Niatross was here, I kind of hung out — hid maybe — in the paddock all day. I wouldn't leave. I wanted to see Niatross. It was unbelievable. What an experience."

Miller drove in his first Jug 12 years later in 1992.

"I remember it well," he said. "Ruff Hewn. I was sitting in the stands. I had driven earlier on the card, and Peg the Paddock Judge came looking for me. Mickey McNichol had been dumped out of the bike earlier and they wanted me to drive Ruff Hewn in the Jug. It was unreal, actually. The entire time I was out there I couldn't feel the bike under me. I was floating all afternoon. He raced well, too – second in his elim and third in the final. I was used to driving Ohio horses, but this was my first experience with a colt like this.

"It was just crazy that I was in the Jug."

Two years later, Miller had his second Jug drive with Duke Duke.

"I had been driving him during the season – in the Confederation Cup and some other stakes. I was in the race with Cams Card Shark. I remember John Campbell scoring him down into the first turn and him making a break. He was lame. They had to scratch him. My colt was competitive in there – second and fourth."

In 1995, Miller drove Powerful Structure.

"Jimmy Cruise, Jr. wanted me to drive his horse. I had come in Monday to train him over the surface. I remember this well because this was my first heat that I won. They were battling pretty good up front and I circled the field. It was quite a feeling. So many years I sat and watched and wondered what it would be like. Magical. That's what it felt like."

Four years later, Miller would drive Magician for Cruise's brother, Earl Cruise.

Before that, he drove Bahama Bunny in the 1996 Jug – "He was okay [fifth]" – Arturo in the 1997 Jug finishing third and third with post 9 in the final.

The Jug was one of 10 victories Miller had on the 2003 card.

hole with All American Ingot [who finished fifth]”

Then came 2003. A colt named No Pan Intended won the Triple Crown that year.

“I remember that year and especially that day,” Miller said. “I would have to say that was the best day I ever had in racing. I wound up winning 10 races that day, pretty much all the stakes, and my family was all there. My father had passed by then, but everyone else was there. We were all crying that day. I cried like a baby.”

Ten wins in his home state of Ohio, his first Jug win – and with everyone watching. No wonder there were tears.

No Pan Intended went on to become the first and only horse to win both a Triple Crown and a Breeders Crown. No pacer has won the Triple Crown since.

“I had to wait until 2008 to win [the Jug] again with Shadow Play. He was a top colt.”

Miller has since won the Jug three more times – in 2011 with Big Bad John, in 2016 with Betting Line and in 2018 with Courtly Choice.

When asked if his best work in the Jug was done with Courtly Choice in 2018, there was no hesitation.

“Yes! That was definitely my toughest Jug. That colt had bore IN all year – and in the Jug he was all fired up and bore out. He got to running at the gate in the first heat. He was drifting and all over the track in the final. Luckily, it worked out.”

Five Jug. Nobody has won six. Now, 28 years after his debut, David Miller will be trying to set the all-time Jug record.

DAVID MILLER JUG FACTS

- He is the second leading money winning driver of all time and the only one with $200 million already on his bio while winning a Jug [2018].
- Just four days before the 2020 Jug, Miller had eight drives in the Kentucky Sires Stakes finals, each carrying a purse of $250,000 and posted a record of 4-1-2 with earnings of $625,000. He won with Blue Diamond Eyes (second choice) Perfect Sting (1-20 favorite, one of four on the KYSS card), Lady Chaos (third choice) and Baby Your The Best (second choice)

Perfect Sting is an undefeated, royally-bred son of world record holders Always B Miki and Shebestingin. Miller drove both the sire and dam.

“He’s more like his dad than his mom. More laid back. Grinding type that can go all day. She was cat-like quick. And something to look at. Incredible. Perfect Sting was not a great training horse. He didn’t train down all that great. He was doing it – 2:00 then 1:59 – but he wasn’t even working at it. One day we trained him behind [top mare] Zero Tolerance. He came out and got her on the wire in 1:55. Joe (Holloway) and I looked at each other and knew we had something.”

Owner excited about Little Brown Jug opportunity with Warrawee Vital

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Attending the Little Brown Jug has been on Blair Corbeil's bucket list for a while, but the long-time horse owner only wanted to go if he had a horse in the race.

On Thursday, Corbeil will be at his first Little Brown Jug, ready to follow the exploits of his pacer Warrawee Vital. Ironically, owning a horse in the race is the only way he could be there this year as fans are prohibited from attending the races at the Delaware County Fairgrounds because of the coronavirus pandemic.

"I've been wanting to go to the Jug forever and I've said that I want to have a horse in the Jug when I go," said Corbeil, a 56-year-old resident of Beaumont, Alberta. "This is my first one. It's unfortunate the fans will not be there, but it will be exciting no matter what. We're excited about the opportunity, that's for sure.

"I think everybody that's been in the business long enough dreams about having the chance of being there and winning that race."

A total of 14 horses entered the 75th edition of the Little Brown Jug, one of harness racing's premier events for 3-year-old male pacers. The field was divided into two eliminations, from which the top-four finishers in each group advance to the same-day final. Each elimination goes for $111,800 and the final is $335,400.

Warrawee Vital is the morning line's 3-1 second choice in the second elimination. The colt will start from post three with Tim Tetrack driving for trainer Rob Fellows. Capt Midnight, trained by Tony Alagna, is the 5-2 favorite, starting from post two with Dexter Dunn.

Adios winner Catch The Fire is the 5-2 favorite in the first elimination. He leaves from post five with Mike Wilder driving for John Ackley.

Warrawee Vital, a son of Captaintreacherous out of Great Memories, has won seven of 11 career races and $107,307. He is a half-brother to O'Brien Award winner Warrawee Needy and two-time Dan Patch Award winner Warrawee Ubeaut, who won last year's Jugette for 3-year-old female pacers at Delaware.

"When we bought the colt in Lexington, he had the pedigree and breeding behind him to be this good," said Corbeil, who shares ownership of Warrawee Vital with Yolanda Fellows and M&S Racing Stable. "He's very versatile. He's got tremendous gate speed and he's got that kick to come home with. He seems to be the full package."

Last year, Warrawee Vital was unraced until December, when he won one of two races at Mohawk. After the calendar changed to 2020, the colt won a second race in January and then two preliminary divisions of the Snowshoe Series for 3- and 4-year-old pacers before finishing second in the final.

It was enough of an audition to give his connections the confidence to stake Warrawee Vital for the summer and fall. Fellows gave the colt time off to freshen up, but then hit another delay training back for the stakes season. Warrawee Vital returned to the races in August, finishing second in a conditioned race and eighth in a North America Cup elimination before putting together a three-race win streak that he brings to the Jug.

His two most recent victories came in divisions of the Simcoe and Somebeachsomewhere stakes.

"He got to the races early enough (at age 2) but he had some problems, so I gave him time off," Fellows said. "I raced him in the winter to see if he was good enough to stake him, and he showed that he was.

"Then training down in the spring, he had a little soreness problem, so I gave him time for that and that's why I'm so late in getting to the table. But he's raced well so far. His best quality is that he's smart. He's learned quickly what he's had to learn. He's caught on very well. And he's fast, very fast."

Fellows is racing in the Jug for the second time in his career, but first time since 1988 when Just Bold finished third in his first heat and seventh in the final, won by B J Scoot.

"I've gone there since I was a kid and it's nice to take a horse there," Fellows said. "(Warrawee Vital) has never raced on a half-mile track, but he trains on it. Hopefully, he's competitive and gives a good representation of himself"

Said Corbeil, "Rob and Yolanda have done a fantastic job. They deserve something like this, too. We're not the type of owners that have the opportunity to attend these big races all the time. It definitely means a lot to us to have this opportunity."

In addition to the Little Brown Jug, Thursday's card at Delaware includes the Miss Versatility Series final for older female trotters, the Old Oaken Bucket for 3-year-old trotters, and divisions of the Standardbred Stakes for 2-year-old male trotters and pacers.

Manchego is the 7-5 favorite in the Miss Versatility final while Hobbs is the even-money choice in the Old Oaken Bucket.

Racing begins at noon (EDT). For complete entries, click here.

Warrawee Vital, Catch The Fire head $559,000 Little Brown Jug

by Jay Wolf / Little Brown Jug publicity

Warrawee Vital and Catch The Fire headline a field of 14 in the 75th edition of the Little Brown Jug, presented by the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association, to be held Thursday (Sept. 24) at the Delaware County Fair.

Canadian invader Warrawee Vital comes into the Jug with a three-race win streak, including the Somebeachsomewhere and Simcoe Stakes, both held at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

His lifetime best time of 1:48.2 came in the Somebeachsomewhere Stake on Sept. 12.

Warrawee Vital will leave from post #3 in the second elimination. Tim Tetrick, who is looking for his first Jug title, will drive. Robert Fellows trains the colt for Blair Corbeil, Yolanda Fellows and M & S Racing Stable.

Warrawee Vital's chief rival should be Sandbetweenmytoes who will leave from post five. The Somebeachsomewhere colt has earned $177,142 during his career for Fashion Farms.

Jim Campbell trains and Scott Zeron is listed to drive.

The Ohio owned and trained Catch The Fire leads the first $111,800 elimination.

The son of Captaintreacherous won the $375,000 Adios Pace Final on Aug. 1 in 1:49.3. Catch The Fire has won more than $480,000 with six career wins.

John Ackley trains Catch The Fire for the CT Stables of Washington Court House, Ohio. Catch The Fire will be piloted by Mike Wilder and will leave from post #5.

OBC highlights Tuesday action at Delaware County Fair

Street Gossip and Brett Miller cruised to victory in the $108,190 (div) Ohio Breeders Championship for 2-year-old colt trotters in Tuesday (Sept. 22) action at the Delaware County Fair.

At the start of the second division, the Cash Hall colt had a couple of anxious moments as he had to maneuver around a breaking Elliotstone (Dwayne Minor) in the first eighth of a mile, but once he cleared it problem it was smooth sailing.

Street Gossip won by $\frac{3}{4}$ of a length over a pocket sitting Tango With Me (Aaron Merriman) in 1:57.3.

The colt is owned by Carl Howard and Steven Finkelstein's Jesmereal Stable. He is trained by Virgil Morgan, Jr.

"I want to congratulate Steve and Carl. They are great guys and love the program here in Ohio," said Morgan, who won for the 102nd time at Delaware.

"I had no idea I had that many wins. It makes me feel older than I am," joked Morgan.

Street Gossip now has four wins in eight career starts and has amassed over $171,000.

The punters who like hunch plays were sure to support Winning Ticket in the first $54,095 division.

Aaron Merriman guided the Triumphant Caviar colt to a neck win over a fast closing Grafenberg (Dan Noble) in gate-to-wire fashion in 1:57.2.

Winning Ticket is owned by trainer Chris Beaver, Steven Zeelandar, Tim Homan, and Jim Burnett. He has now won four times in seven starts and $95,047 in earnings.

Three $17,500 divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series went to Sabina (Ray Paver), Katie's Lucky Day (Trevor Smith) and Boujee Girl (David Miller).

Mandy Jones won the Spring Haven Farm Ladies Driving Series final with Sports Band.

Jones came into the final as the season's point's leader and used the rail position to go gate-to-wire in 1:57.4. Heather Woolums and Cenalta Power was second. Emily Hay drove the 15-year-old T Red to a third place finish in the racetrack veteran's final race.

Fly Charley Fly (Luke Ebersole), Wiggleitjim (David Miller) and Atta Boy Chris (Ken Holliday) took the three divisions of the Ohio Fair Racing Conference for freshman colt pacers.

On the distaff side, Beautiful Life (Shawn Barker II), McDreamy Again (Ray Paver) and Cruizin The Night (Ken Holliday) won the three divisions of the OFRC 3-year-old pace.

Driver Ryan Stahl swept the Ohio Fair Racing Conference two-year-old colt trot with Best Value (2:01.2) and Phineas (2:02).

The 18 race Jugette Day card will start at 12:00 noon.

Guinevere Hall remains undefeated with OBC win

Guinevere Hall is a perfect eight-for-eight on the season as the 3-year-old filly trotter cruised to a 2 $\frac{3}{4}$ length victory over Tootie (Brett Miller) in the second division of the \$93,840 (div) Ohio Breeders Championship on Monday (Sept. 21) at the Delaware County Fair.

When the field of six was sent on their way, Delovely Hall (Aaron Merriman) grabbed the early lead and set the fractions of :27.2, :56.3 and 1:24.3.

Driver Peter Wrenn sat patiently with the eventual winner and used a first over move to take the lead past the three-quarter pole. The Cash Hall filly pulled away for the victory in 1:54.1.

Melanie Wrenn trains the filly for the MT Pockets Stables and David McDuffee.

Guinevere Hall, an Ohio Triple Crown winner, now has earned $438,541 during her 18 race career.

"She's been great. She is starting to show her stuff," said the winning driver. "I could not ask for anything more. She is definitely one of the better ones."

Lima Gold (Dan Noble) scored an upset victory in 1:56.2 over A Fancy Face (Chris Page) in the first $46,920 division. The margin of victory was a half-length.

The Coraggioso filly earned her first victory of the season and third of her career for the Spaaaartners.

Chris Beaver trains the filly who paid $22.00 to win.

Clara Lou (Tyler Smith) took the fastest of the four BSS divisions for 2-year-old filly pacers in 1:55.1.

The Pet Rock filly is owned Charles Purvis and conditioned by Ben Davis.

The remaining filly pace divisions went to Lovely Munro (Ryan Stahl), Smothastenesewisky (Chris Page) and Apple Soozy (Tyler Smith).

The three divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for sophomore colt pacers went to Medoland Bosa (Chris Presley), McCam (Kyle Ater) and Epic Ace (Chris Page).

On the undercard, Designer Specs made it 13 straight wins with her victory in the Ohio Fair Racing Conference freshman filly trot.

Ryan Stahl steered the winner for Louise and trainer Jay Weller.

The winning time of 1:58.3 was a lifetime best for the Full Count filly.

Summer Touch cruises in opening day action at the Delaware County Fair

Summer Touch became the latest member of the Triple Crown club when she cruised to victory in the first division of the $122,202 (div) Ohio Breeders Championship 2-year-old filly pace on Sunday (Sept. 20).

Driver Chris Page used his rail position and led at every pole winning in 1:55.1 to win by two lengths over Gucci (Aaron Merriman).

"She's been perfect since day one," said the winning driver. "We won with the ear plugs in today. Hopefully we are leaving a little bit for next year. She's very user friendly."

The Well Said lass previously won the $50,000 Ohio State Fair Stakes and the $300,000 Ohio Sire Stakes Final, amassing over $285,000 this year.

Ron Burke trains Summer Touch for Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi and breeders Knox Services and Slaughter Racing Stable.

Rainy Day Chic (Brett Miller) took the faster of the two divisions.

The daughter of Rockin Amadeus went gate-to-wire to score a 2 1/2 length win over Free Thinker (Josh Sutton) in 1:54.4.

Rainy Day Chic won for the sixth time in 10 seasonal starts. Dan O'Mara conditions the winner for Marjorie Polhamus.

Gold Digger King (Brett Miller) held off a late rally by BBlack Hole (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) by a scant nose to win the $8,300 OBC for aged pacers.

Scott Mogan trains the 4-year-old gelded son of Pet Rock for Linda Van Camp.

The winning time of 1:51.4 equaled the stakes record.

The $17,500 divisions of the Buckeye Stallion Series for 3-year-old colt trotters when to Big Box Hanover (Jeff Nisonger) in 1:59, Holton (Kayne Kauffman) in 1:58.2, Rose Run Vindicate (Brett Miller) in 1:57.2 and Rose Run Valor (Kayne Kauffman) in 1:57.3.

The sophomore filly trot BSS divisions went to Lights Down Low (John DeLong) in 1:57, Dream Change (Kayne Kauffman) in 1:58.1 and Susie D (Ken Holliday) in 1:58.

Stephen Oldford took the Tim Fouts Memorial Driving Championship with Missile J in 1:54. Oldford represented the Delvin Miller Amateur Driving Association.

The two divisions of the Great Lakes Amateur Driving Association trot went to Hititoutofthepark (Alesha Binkley) in 1:57.1 and Don't Forget Muscle (Daniel Jones) in 1:58.4.

Somethingbeautiful chases crowning achievement in Indiana

The undefeated Indiana-sired 2-year-old pacing filly is hoping Friday's Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stakes will be a springboard to the Breeders Crown at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

by James Platz

Trainer Dylan Davis arrived at last year's Hoosier Classic sale with the goal of bringing home a handful of Indiana-sired babies. The mission included acquiring the Always A Virgin filly Somethingbeautiful, sister to his trainee and Breeders Crown final runner-up Shnitzledosomethin. While siblings to top racehorses do not always pan out, Somethingbeautiful has shown she has all the tools to become another top talent and her connections have their sights set on the Breeders Crown.

"I would have had a heck of a time explaining why I didn't buy her," Davis said. "That's why I was at the Hoosier Classic. My guys wanted her, the guys that own Shnitzle. If she had a leg on backwards or something, I'm sure I could have discouraged it. But she was put together well enough. She's heavy and she's strong."

Somethingbeautiful is owned by the partnership of Howard Taylor, Edwin Gold, Abraham Basen and Richard Lombardo, the same men behind Shnitzledosomethin, now a winner of nearly $800,000. Absent from the group is Dr. Thomas Lazzaro, one of the original partners on the son of Fred And Ginger, and the catalyst behind last fall's yearling purchases. Lazzaro passed away last December at the age of 75.

"Dr. Lazzaro wanted to try Indiana babies. He was the reason we went," said Davis. "We were buying Somethingbeautiful regardless. But, the other four that we bought, that was all Dr. Lazzaro. He wanted to buy babies and gave me free reign to pick out three of four that I wanted."

Through the first five legs of Indiana Sires Stakes competition, Somethingbeautiful is undefeated and leading the division in the Hoosier State. In her latest start Sept. 16, driver LeWayne Miller steered her to a sixth seasonal score, this time staying a length in front to trip the timer in 1:52.2, just a few ticks off her 1:51.4 mark. Hammered down for $30,000 last fall, the filly now sports earnings of $104,500. She did not start the winter as one of Davis's top pupils, but within a few months, she emerged as one of the babies with the most promise.

Dean Gillette

The connections of Somethingbeautiful (LeWayne Miller) are hoping Friday's Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stakes will be a springboard to the Breeders Crown at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

"We had a little trouble training down with her gait, but I think that was just a matter of her growing. I wouldn't call her very tall, but she's very big; very broad, very heavy," Davis said of his charge. "She went from not being top four, but my blacksmith finally hit the key with the shoes, and she became the best. By the end of March, I texted Howard and told him she's your best one."

Before stringing together six straight wins, Somethingbeautiful provided Davis with clues that she had what it takes to be a good racehorse. Training at his home base of Delaware, Davis started the pacer out on an Equi-Ciser before hooking her to a jog cart. When it came time for the filly to see the track for the first time, she handled it like a professional. Somethingbeautiful also displayed her competitive spirit once on the track and training alongside Indiana-sired freshman colt and Fox Stake champion Virgo.

"She went right to the gate like she had been up to it a hundred times. Good horses are just different," the conditioner said. "I always liked her. Training down she may not have been as fast as the colt we have, Virgo. She was never as fast as him, but if he was in front of her, she was beating him. If there was somebody in front of her, she was going to break her neck trying."

That determination served her well in her first start at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Debuting in a mini-series at the Anderson oval, Somethingbeautiful and Miller started from post eight and raced first over through the opening half before winning by two and one-half lengths in 1:53.4. After gate-to-wire triumphs in the first two legs of Indiana Sires Stakes competition, the filly sat fifth the next time out before rallying to win by open lengths. Davis says the pacer is best when coming from off the pace.

"She's actually better from the back," he said. "Her best game is from the back. She will do it on the lead, but she gets a little bored up there."

By virtue of her five Indiana Sires Stakes leg wins, Somethingbeautiful has locked in a spot in October's Super Final. However, Davis is focused on a bigger prize. From the time she made her first start, the trainer has managed the filly with the Breeders Crown, hosted this year at Hoosier Park, in mind. Friday night, the freshman will get her first taste of Crown-level competition in the Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stakes. By night's end, Davis will have a better idea just how Somethingbeautiful stacks up against the competition.

"Breeders Crown is the priority for us. I hope she doesn't prove me wrong, but I think she's that good," he stated. "She's a total professional. She's very smart. I can't say enough good things about her. She's been different from the day we started. She wasn't the fastest, she wasn't the best gaited, but she was the most determined of all of them."

Somethingbeautiful is one of 10 fillies entered in the $220,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stakes Friday evening (Sept. 25) at Hoosier Park. She has drawn post three, and will square off against the likes of top New York Sires Stakes freshman Test Of Faith (post 7), Pennsylvania-bred Continualou (post 5) and four-time winner Darby Hanover, who will start from the second tier. The race is part of a major stakes card at Hoosier Park that also features the $150,000 Caesar's Trotting Classic, $221,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stake for freshman filly trotters, $140,000 Hoosier Park Pacing Derby, $105,000 Moni Maker Stakes, $120,000 Elevation Stakes and $100,000 Jenna's Beach Boy Stakes.

MOHAWK MILLION

Stage set for Mohawk Million night

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The inaugural Mohawk Million headlines Canada's richest night of racing with over $2.8 million on the line this Saturday (Sept. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The $1,000,000 (USD) Mohawk Million, $720,000 Metro Pace, $455,000 Shes A Great Lady and $215,000 Milton

Stakes are the marquee races on a 12-race card.

The Mohawk Million will see a field of 10 2-year-old trotters under the bright lights for harness racing's newest million-dollar race. The event is the first million-dollar "buy-in" race in harness racing history. A total of nine slots in the race were available for purchase at a cost of $110,000 (USD). The 10th and final slot was awarded to the winner of the William Wellwood Memorial.

Serge Godin's Determination will send out a powerful one-two punch in the Mohawk Million. Undefeated filly Donna Soprano races in Determination's purchased slot, while On A Streak won the Wellwood Memorial to secure a second starter for Godin. Both horses are trained by Luc Blais.

Donna Soprano is a perfect five-for-five and most recently won the Peaceful Way in dominant fashion. The regally-bred daughter of millionaires Donato Hanover and Windsong Soprano has earned $278,082 to date and holds a mark of 1:53.3. She will be driven by Woodbine's leading driver Bob McClure.

New Image Media

Donna Soprano (Bob McClure) a perfect five-for-five heading into the Mohawk Million and most recently won the Peaceful Way in dominant fashion.

On A Streak was winless in five starts prior to upsetting in the William Wellwood Memorial. The son of Cantab Hall is five-for-six in the top-three and sports the highest earnings in the field at $312,601. Scott Young will make his million-dollar race debut when he sits behind On A Streak.

Woodbine's leading owner Brad Grant has negotiated with the connections of Kentucky Sires Stakes champion Venerate to race in his slot. The Julie Miller-trained son of French stallion Love You won the state final at Red Mile last Sunday in a dazzling 1:51.4. He is now three-for-six with $186,766 earned for owners Pinske Stables and Andy Miller Stable. Andrew McCarthy, who recently won both the Canadian Trotting Classic and Elegantine, will steer.

Donna Soprano will be joined by two other fillies in the race. Insta Glam, racing in John Fielding's slot, and Altar for Diamond Creek Racing will take their shot in a year that has seen fillies have big success against the boys.

Insta Glam is trained by Nancy Takter for Goran Falk and Christina Takter. The daughter of Father Patrick is four-for-seven and earlier this season set a new track record of 1:54 at Harrah's Philadelphia.

Diamond Creek Racing kept it all in the family with their Mohawk Million entry of Altar. The daughter of Muscle Hill is a homebred for Adam Bowden's Diamond Creek. She sits with a record of two wins in five starts and was this season's New Jersey Sires Stakes champion.

Anders Ström's Courant Inc. entered their own Muscle Hill colt Iznogoud AM S. The Marcus Melander trainee is winless in six starts but has been knocking on the door with runner-up finishes in legs of the New Jersey and Kentucky Sires Stakes.

Jules Siegel's Fashion Farms will send out Bravado Fashion from the Jim Campbell barn. The son of Bar Hopping is looking to build off a maiden-breaking victory in his most recent start at Red Mile.

The remainder of the field saw slot owners do some private negotiating to secure their Mohawk Million starter.

Warrawee Whisper from the Shawn Steacy barn will race in the slot belonging to Jim Bullock's Glengate Farms. The son of Trixton is winless in six with three runner-up finishes, including seconds in the Wellwood Memorial elimination and Champlain.

Brad Maxwell trainee Full Of Muscles has been secured to race in the slot of Gina Ghent's Dreamland Farms. The son of Muscle Mass just missed a victory in last Saturday's Ontario Sires Stakes Gold at Mohawk Park and has four runner-up finishes in six starts.

Tokyo Seelster from the Richard Moreau barn is an OSS Gold winner with three wins in nine career starts. The son of Kadabra has been secured to race in the slot of Jeffrey Snyder.

The Mohawk Million is Race 10 on Saturday's $2.8 million card. Post time is approximately 10:45 p.m.

The full field for the Mohawk Million is listed below:

1. Iznogoud AM S (Doug McNair/Marcus Melander) – Courant Inc.
2. Warrawee Whisper (Jonathan Drury/Shawn Steacy) – Glengate Farms
3. Donna Soprano (Bob McClure/Luc Blais) – Determination
4. Full Of Muscles (Trevor Henry/Brad Maxwell) – Dreamland Farms
5. Altar (Jody Jamieson/Per Engblom) – Diamond Creek Racing
6. Tokyo Seelster (Sylvain Filion/Richard Moreau) – Jeffrey Snyder
7. On A Streak (Scott Young/Luc Blais) – Wellwood Winner
8. Bravado Fashion (Louis-Philippe Roy/Jim Campbell) – Fashion Farms
9. Insta Glam (Yannick Gingras/Nancy Takter) – John Fielding
10. Venerate (Andrew McCarthy/Julie Miller) – Brad Grant

ROOKIE PACERS READY FOR METRO PACE AND SHES A GREAT LADY

The spotlight will be bright Saturday for 2-year-olds with the Metro Pace and Shes A Great Lady joining the Mohawk Million.

Abuckabett Hanover will have all eyes on him in the $720,000 Metro Pace. The Tony Alagna trainee is on a four-race win streak and posted a strong 1:51 elimination score for driver McCarthy.

A son of Betting Line, Abuckabett Hanover is a perfect three-for-three at Mohawk Park with all three wins coming in Grand Circuit races. The rookie has displayed tremendous speed, finishing off each of his last two wins in :26.1.

Alagna will be searching for his third Metro Pace victory after winning the event in 2012 with Captaintreacherous and 2014 with Artspeak.

Amanda Fine trainee Highlandbeachsbest is the other elimination winner in the field. The Somebeachsomewhere colt pulled off a 14-1 upset in his elimination, stopping the clock in 1:51.4 for driver Trevor Henry.

Highlandbeachsbest is finding his best stride at the right time, as he's won two of his last starts after going winless in his first five outings.

The $720,000 Metro Pace is carded as Race 8 (9:55 p.m.).

The $455,000 Shes A Great Lady is headlined by star pacing filly Caviart Audrey for Caviart Farms, trainer Takter and driver Gingras. The Somebeachsomewhere filly is four for five and would be undefeated if not for a disqualification in her second lifetime start.

Caviart Audrey has dazzled in three starts at Mohawk Park, most impressively winning the Eternal Damnation on August 29 in 1:51.2. She won her elimination last Saturday in 1:52.4.

Scarlett Hanover is red-hot going into the Shes A Great Lady. The daughter of Bettors Delight has won three in a row and is five for nine overall. Ashleigh Hensley trains for the rookie pacing filly in Ontario for Ron Burke.

McCarthy lands the drive behind Scarlett Hanover after Gingras opted to remain with Caviart Audrey.

The $455,000 Shes A Great Lady is carded as Race 5 (8:40 p.m.).

PACING MARES MEET IN WIDE OPEN MILTON

The Milton Stakes has the ability to be the race of the night if the final is anything like last Saturday's eliminations. Both eliminations saw thrilling three-across finishes.

Kissin In The Sand and Trillions Hanover prevailed in the eliminations and earned the right to select their post for the final, choosing post three and four, respectively.

Six-year-old Caviart Ally is looking for a three-peat in the Milton after winning the last two editions. The Brett Pelling trainee was third by a head in her elimination, which was her first in seven weeks. She starts from the second-tier Saturday.

Roses Are Red winner Warrawee Ubeaut will look to rebound after hitting a wall late and getting picked off by Kissin In The Sand in her elimination. The Burke trained four-year-old has had an up and down year, but has enjoyed major victories in the past at Mohawk Park.

Local stars Boadicea, So Much More and Lit De Rose are also part of the ten-horse field.

The $215,000 Milton Stakes is carded as Race 7 (9:30 p.m.).

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Post time for Saturday's rich card is 7 p.m. Early program pages can be downloaded by clicking here.

Fans and horseplayers can watch and wager on the Mohawk Million card through HPIbet.com and the Dark Horse App. The marquee stakes events will also be broadcast live on COSATV through their YouTube channel and various social media accounts.

JACKPOT HI-5 MANDATORY PAYOUT

Woodbine Entertainment announced Tuesday (Sept. 22) that a mandatory payout for the Standardbred Jackpot Hi-5 will be offered this Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The Jackpot Hi-5 carryover currently sits at $122,342.03 heading into Tuesday evening's card of racing. The Jackpot Hi-5 wager will be offered on every card this week leading up to the mandatory payout on Saturday.

The Jackpot Hi-5 mandatory payout race is carded as Race 12 (11:35 p.m.).

Eyes, but the Ron Burke trainee repelled the pocket popper and hold sway by one-and-a-half lengths. Making Waves settled for second with High Minded sliding up the pegs for third and Single Girl snagging fourth.

Off a victory in the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes Championship, Blue Diamond Eyes added a fourth win to her seven-start resume and pushed her bankroll to $317,042 for owners Thomas and Scott Dillon. The Brittany Farms-bred Captaintreacherous—Aria Hanover filly returned $6.40 to win.

Undefeated Always B Miki colt Perfect Sting kept his record intact with a blowout 1:49.4 victory in the Two-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace in rein to Miller.

Native's Filou fired from post 7 to the lead entering the first turn and took the field by the quarter in :28.2. Perfect Sting soon tipped outside from fourth and advanced towards the lead moving into the backstretch, but Native's Filou accelerated towards the half to stretch out Perfect Sting to a :55 midpoint. The 1-9 favourite cleared command heading to the final turn and led to three-quarters in 1:22.4 as Native's Filou angled from the pocket to challenge the leader late, though levelled out late while Perfect Sting strode away to a two-and-a-half length victory. Race favorite Darlene Hanover dashed by early leader Beautiful Game after a :27.4 opening quarter to led the field into the backstretch. Dutiful raced third while Miller floated Lady Chaos slightly off the pegs from fourth as Darlene Hanover strolled to the half in :56.1. The Linda Toscano trainee flushed Dutiful for cover into the final turn but fanned three wide by three-quarters in 1:25 for the stretch drive. Darlene Hanover clung to a diminishing lead as Beautiful Game veered out of the pocket to take a short lead before Lady Chaos, towards the center of the track, stormed by to win in 1:53.1. Eazy Pass rallied to best Darlene Hanover in the final strides for third.

Now a four-time winner from seven starts, Lady Chaos has banked $248,303 for owners Richard Gutnick, Thomas Pontone, Joseph Lozito Jr. and Enviro Stables Ltd. The Cantab Hall--Strong Legacy filly bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut and Av And Son Bloodstock LLC paid $14.40 to win.

Linda Toscano and Miller teamed in the following final with Baby Your The Best to upset 1-9 favorite Reflect With Me with a 1:49.3 mile in the Three-Year-Old Filly Pace.

Pettycoat Business protected position from the pylon post moving to a :27.3 first quarter but yielded control when Baby Your The Best brushed first over from third into the backstretch. Baby Your The Best kept the pace hot to a :55.2 half and to three-quarters in 1:23.1 as Reflect With Me attempted to gain ground first over. Spinning for the finish Baby Your The Best scooted away from Reflect With Me, extending her lead to three-and-a-half lengths at the finish with Pettycoat Business finishing third and Gai Waterhouse fourth.

A Captaintreacherous--Dophins Can Talk filly owned by Richard and Joanne Young, Baby Your The Best won her third race from nine starts this season and her fifth from 22 overall, earning $457,947. Steve Stewart, Conquest Acres Lp and Michael Robinson bred the $14.20 winner.

As Tuscany parked and progressed uncovered before going offstride into the backside, Hypnotic AM vacated pocket and circled to the front heading to a :55 half. Crucial edged first over and rolled towards the leader with Ms Savannah Belle in tow circling the final turn, drawing within a length of the lead by three-quarters in 1:23.2. Hypnotic AM drifted slightly off the pylons through the stretch, leaving a seam for Panem to slide through and secure second while Crucial gave pursuit from third and Ms Savannah Belle settled for fourth.

Bred by Courant A B for owner Courant Inc., Hypnotic AM won her fifth race from nine starts this season and her 12th from 18 overall, amassing $1,041,260 in earnings. Brian Sears drove the $3.40 winner.

With 7-5 favorite Cuatro De Julio losing stride into the first turn, Venerate vaulted to the lead and cruised to a 1:51.4 victory in the Two-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot, a fifth of a second off the world record.

Venerate led pylon-starter Cricket Fashion by the quarter in :28 with New Legacy racing third and Bidensky fourth. The Julie Miller-trained colt by Love You out of Peaceful Kemp continued uncontested to the half in :56.1 and by three-quarters in 1:24.4 chased by Cricket Fashion as his lead grew. Venerate hit the finish clear of Cricket Fashion with New Legacy farther back in third and Bidensky taking fourth.

Favorites flourish In Commonwealth Finals

by Ray Coto for Red Mile

The Monday (Sept. 21) card at The Red Mile featured eight $50,000 finals of the Kentucky Commonwealth — a division for freshmen and sophomores of each sex and gait. Of the eight finals, the betting favorites managed to deliver in all but one.

Trainer/driver Verlin Yoder vaulted Miss Vet Hanover out of the pocket into the stretch to post the lone upset in the final of the afternoon's Commonwealth events, the Two-Year-Old Filly Trot.

At the start, 9-5 favorite Hey There Delilah broke stride with 3-1 second-choice Adirondack soon going into a gallop as the field entered the first turn. Princessa pushed to lead the field by the quarter in :28.3 with Miss Vet Hanover situated in the pocket. The field rolled in line to a :57.1 half and towards three-quarters in 1:26.2, setting up for a Driver Andrew McCarthy set sail with Sail By, motoring to the front early and crushing her rivals to win the Three-Year-Old Filly Pace in 1:50.4 while giving trainer Tony Alagna his first of three victories in the Commonwealth finals.

Sent the 2-5 favorite, Sail By bolted to the lead from post 6, clearing Alleyesonme As to a :26.2. She kept her competition chasing while strolling through middle fractions of :54.1 and 1:22.2 before opening her lead into the stretch. Pristine Beauty circled Alleyesonme As as they tired to the inside and chased the winner Sail By to finish second, seven-and-a-quarter lengths behind. Pure Decadence rallied for third.

Bred and owned by Brittany Farms LLC, Sail By won her fifth race from eight starts this season and her seventh from 18 overall, earning $87,680. The Captaintreacherous—Acquavella filly paid $2.60 to win.

Scott Zeron later steered Captain Video, taking the Three-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace with the Tony Alagna trainee in 1:49.4.

Floating to the lead after a :28 first quarter, Captain Video pocketed stablemate Major Risky moving for the backstretch and maintained his speed towards a :55.4 half. Starship edged first over from third circling the final turn with Mancrush in tow towards three-quarters in 1:23.1. Mancrush kicked off his cover into the stretch and stormed after Captain Video, who then repelled the late challenger to win by a neck. Major Risky finished third with Lottery Winner closing for fourth.

Beach Party gave chase in third with Red Right Hand taking fourth.

Bred and owned by Diamond Creek Racing, Almanac won his third race from six starts, earning $46,123. He paid $3.00 to win.

Odds-on favorite Molto Bene ranged towards the top, inherited control when the tempo setter lost stride and from there strode to a 1:53.2 victory in the Three-Year-Old Filly Trot.

Aperfectcrystal took control to a :27.3 first quarter, but yielded for the pocket up the backstretch when Graceful Winner rushed out of third to the front before a :56 half. Driver Dexter Dunn pulled Molto Bene from fourth rounding the final turn as Graceful Winner broke stride, leaving Aperfectcrystal back on the lead. By three-quarters in 1:25.4, Molto Bene matched strides with Aperfectcrystal, who then started to gallop straightening for the finish. Molto Bene cruised on the lead to the finish with Watyankee two-and-three-quarter lengths behind closing for second. Fortune Telln Lady, off a pocket trip, took third.

A Father Patrick—Bene Bene filly bred by Melvin Hartman, David McDuffee and Marvin Katz, Molto Bene competes for owner Frederick Hertrich III. She collected her third win from nine starts this season and her fifth from 20 overall—earning $73,419—and paid $2.40 to win.

Even-money choice Media Mogul swept to the front approaching the half and cruised to a 1:54.4 victory in the Two-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot.

Positioned third to a :28.1 first quarter, driver Scott Zeron zipped Media Mogul off the pylons and to the lead heading to a :56.4 half. Pocket-sitter Six O'Clock News began to lose ground on the leader into the final turn, prompting Lockbox to pull first over nearing three-quarters in 1:25.3. But Media Mogul widened his lead to three lengths entering the stretch with Flemsteen rallying from fifth to finish second, three-and-three-quarter lengths behind the winner, in a photo with Lockbox.

Owned by W. Donovan, Thomas Dillon, Purnel & Libby LLC and Joe Sbrocco, Media Mogul won his second race from seven starts, earning $68,044. The Muscle Hill--Kathy Parker colt -- bred by Al Libfeld and Marvin Katz -- paid $4.00 to win.

Sermon emerged from a pocket trip and ripped to the finish to post a 1:53.4 victory in the Three-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot.

Cupid Hanover cruised to the lead from post 8 heading to a :28.1 quarter, but faced pressure into the backstretch when Awesomedabra marched uncovered from fourth to the front. Approaching a :55.1 half, Awesomedabra broke stride, sliding to the center of the course before regaining his gait into the final turn. Meanwhile Cupid Hanover raced unchallenged to three-quarters in 1:24.4 until Sermon tipped out for the drive to the finish. Driver Kasper Forget sent the Muscle Hill--Letsjusttalkaboutme gelding after the lead at the head of the lane and drew clear to win by four-and-a-quarter lengths over Generous Pour rallying for second, with Cupid Hanover faltering to third.

Competing for owners Consus Racing Stable Inc. and Longbridge Trotting Inc., Sermon won his third race from 11 starts, earning $50,545. Per Engblom trains the $4.80 winner bred by Diamond Creek Farm LLC and Melvin Hartman.

Illinois

Hawthorne's Night of Champions belongs to Fox Valley Gemini

For the fourth straight year the gelded pacer has been triumphant on Illinois' biggest harness racing night of the year.

by Neil Milbert

Fox Valley Gemini is the champion of Champions.

As he has done every year of his racing career, the 5-year-old gelding captured one of the championship races on the Night of Champions card at Hawthorne Race Course when he won the Robert S. Molaro Memorial, a $68,000 race for older male pacers, for the second straight year.

Earlier in his career on the Night of Champions he won the Incredible Finale for 2-year-old males in 2017 and in 2018 he won the Robert F. Carey Jr. Memorial for 3-year-old colts and geldings. Both years he was selected Illinois Horse of the Year.

The Night of Champions for Illinois-breds is the main event on the Illinois harness racing calendar and it was held on Saturday night, second last night of the only pari-mutuel meeting in the state. There were 11 championship races.

Bred by Fox Valley Standardbreds, Fox Valley Gemini was purchased by Jim Ballinger for $2,700 in 2016. The son of Yankee Skyscraper and Epona is trained by Terry Leonard and Terry's son, Casey Leonard, has driven him throughout his 55-race career in which he has been victorious 39 times. His triumph in the Molaro Memorial was worth $34,000, increasing his career bankroll to $485,648.

In 13 starts this year he has 9 wins, 3 seconds and 1 third.

Seeking his fifth consecutive triumph, Fox Valley Gemini was sent off the 1-10 favorite in the field of 10 and he looked the part. He began the trip in fifth place and gradually moved up. In the stretch he went by pacesetting Al's Hammered and went on to a compelling 5 1/4-length conquest in 1:50.1, a fifth of a second shy of his lifetime best mark. Al's Hammered held was second and Bass Player third.

"This year early in February, the track conditions weren't ideal to get him trained down and in his first three starts he got beat," said Casey Leonard, critiquing Fox Valley Gemini's campaign. "But he came back great and since then he has been very consistent."

Four Footed Fotos

Fox Valley Gemini (Casey Leonard, shown winning the 2019 Robert S. Molaro Memorial for older male pacers), has been victorious on four straight Night of Champions cards going back to his 2-year-old year.

The Molaro was one of three Night of Champions races won by Casey Leonard, Hawthorne's driver champion for the fifth year in a row. In the $88,000 Fox Valley Flan for 2-year-old filly trotters he guided 1-9 favorite Loulita to her sixth straight victory and in the $109,000 Erwin Dygert Memorial for 3-year-old male trotters he was at the reins of 3-2 second choice Fox Valley Quest.

Loulita won in 1:59.2, breaking the 2-minute barrier for the first time as she prevailed by 4 lengths, and Fox Valley Quest, leading all the way, won by 2 lengths in a career-best clocking of 1:55.

Loulita is owned by her breeder, Flacco Family Farms, in partnership with Dr. Patrick Graham and is trained by Steve Searle, while Fox Valley Quest was bred by Fox Valley Standardbreds, is owned by Carl Lacy and Benita Simmons and trained by Tom Simmons.

In addition to Loulita, Searle had three other fillies in the Fox Valley Flan, fourth place Lous Voodoo Woman, eighth place Lou Lou Lamaour and 10th place Lous Livia.

Leonard was driving Lou Lou Lamaour at the outset of her career when Searle suggested he switch to Loulita.

"Loulita got started late," Leonard recalled. "Steve really liked her. She's got a good gait and a great attitude. She's excellent to drive. Steve has done an excellent job with her.

"I was so happy to win with Fox Valley Quest because of what happened last year (on the Night of Champions). Last year I thought he was the best horse but there was some confusion behind the gate and he made a break.

"Tom and Benita have done an outstanding job with him this year. He showed his potential, he was outstanding at the right time and it's a tribute to them."

After having to settle for second with 9-10 favorite Crooked Creek in the Erwin Dygert, trainer and co-owner Mike Brink won the $118,000 Kadabra for 2-year-old male trotters with Fistfulofdollars.

"He had an injury early — a freak accident in his stall — and we had to wait on him," said Brink after the gelding prevailed by 3 1/2 lengths over Mystical Mystery in 2:01 3/4 for his second victory in a five-race campaign during which he has been in the mutuel money every time.

"The horse has a lot of talent and he's smart. I told (driver) Kyle Wilfong last week (in the prior race in which Fistfulofdollars recorded his first triumph) to just tighten him up, get a better feel of him and make him trot a little faster. Kyle did and it worked out fine."

The other six-figure race on the card was the $108,000 Plum Peachy for 3-year-old fillies. Fox Valley Exploit overcame the No. 9 post position in the 10-horse race to win by 2 3/4 lengths in 1:53 2/2 for driver-trainer Kyle Husted, who with David Brigham co-owns the daughter of Sportsmaster—She Likes It All.

She is now eight-for-nine in '20; she was second by a head in her lone loss.

Joining Fox Valley Exploit, Fox Valley Quest and Fox Valley Gemini, Allbeastnobeauty became the fourth Night of Champions winner bred by Fox Valley Standardbreds when she took the $68,000 Tony Maurello Championship for aged female pacers by 2 lengths in 1:51 2/5.

In the $67,000 Plesac for older trotters of both sexes, Lousraptor was a winner for owner/breeder Flacco Family Farms. Trained by Searle and driven by Juan Franco, Lousraptor made a powerful stretch move to win by 2 lengths over stablemate Louscardamon who finished second at odds of 25-1.

Driver Marcus Miller made a successful trip back to Chicagoland where he began his career by winning the $98,000 Beulah Dygert Memorial for 3-year-old filly trotters with 3-1 second betting choice El Oh Govner and the $71,000 Incredible Finale for 2-year-old male pacers with 4-5 favorite Well Basically.

El Oh Govner moved up gradually before taking charge in the stretch and going on to win by 1 1/4 lengths over 51-1 shot Celone Hall for trainer Mike Rogers and owners Donald and Sharri Huddleston. Driven by the first time by Miller, she was clocked in a career best time of 1:57 4/5. The victory was her second in 14 starts this year.

"Mike told me that she was good to be really good if I could just work out a clean trip and have a lane in the stretch," Miller said. "He was spot on. As soon as she straightened, she stepped off on her own and did the rest."

In contrast, Well Basically led all the way in recording a 2 1/4-length victory over late-moving Frontier Charlie in a lifetime best clocking of 1:56 1/5.

Marcus' father, Erv Miller, trains Well Basically for owners Anthony Lombard and Engel Stable of Illinois. The gelded son of Sagebrush—Basic Brown was bred by Chicago Agricultural High School in partnership with William Hook.

Last year's Incredible Finale winner, He'zzz A Wise Sky, went off the heaviest favorite of the night at 1-10 in the $86,000 Robert F. Carey Jr. Memorial for 3-year-old males and, with Robert Smolin, at the reins he delivered a 3 1/4-length triumph in 1:51 3/5, matching his lifetime mark.

Bred by trainer Don Filomeno in partnership with Joann Filomeno, the son of Yankee Skyscraper—Gimmeazzmooch extended his winning streak to four races in winning for the seventh time in 12 outings this year for Triple Zzz Stable.

The biggest win payoff came when third betting choice Bootsy Bombay returned $12.40 by virtue of her victory in the $80,000 Incredible Tillie for 2-year-old filly pacers.

With Travis Seekman in the sulky for owner James Greer and trainer Nick Prather, Bootsy Bombay left from the outside post position in the field of 10. She took an early lead before dropping back to second. Then, she made a late move to win by 3/4ths of a length over 4-5 favorite Scorecard Dandy in 1:56 2/5, fastest time of her 10-race career. The triumph was her second.

Finish lines: Casey Leonard's 130 winners at the meeting were 11 more than the number recorded by Kyle Wilfong, the runnerup in the driver standings. Brink's 48 winners gave him the trainer title. Searle was an ultra-close second with 47 and 2018 and 2019 winner Terry Leonard was third with 45.

This month Hawthorne entered into a partnership with PointsBet to launch all-sports wagering. To celebrate the partnership, PointsBet contributed a $20,000 in purse money to each of the three Night of Champions races for older horses.

The Hawthorne meeting originally was scheduled to be for 92 nights but it shrunk to 59 nights because of a 2 1/2-month interruption because of the COVID-19 pandemic. Live racing resumed on June 6 and there were no spectators for the duration of the meeting. Nevertheless, unofficial statistics show a 34 per cent increase in all-sources handle increase over the 70-night 2019 total of $8,339,429.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Spencer Kahrig glad he transferred to Standardbred U

by Chris Lomon

The college life wasn't for him, but Spencer Kahrig is a proud graduate of Standardbred U.

It didn't take the teenager from Washington, PA that long – perhaps around the same amount of time between the first and last race held on a typical night at The Meadows – to realize the pursuit of a college education wasn't an ideal fit for him.

Fortunately, he knew what course he wanted to take.

"I decided to go to college, but I knew pretty quickly it wasn't going to be for me. After a semester, my parents, my uncle Rod [Bolon], and my aunt Sally bought a horse together, and that just sparked something in me. So that was the end of college. I stuck it out for a semester and it wasn't for me. By that winter, I was back working for my uncle."

This time, it felt just like home for Kahrig.

He had been around racing his whole life, and after his brief collegiate experience, the thought of pursuing a career in standardbred racing became much clearer.

"Both of my great uncles, Rod and Benny Bolon, I grew up watching them race at The Meadows. I was raised here in Washington [PA], so I watched a lot of races. My dad has been a cameraman for The Meadows racing since the late 1980s, so I've been around the racetrack for as long as I can remember, in some way or another, either watching them or coming to work with my dad. Even when I was young, I loved being around the horses.

"When I was 16, I started working for my uncle Rod during the summers. My cousin and I bought a horse together a couple of years after college, and then my dad and I got a horse together, a cheap claiming trotter. That's how I got started, and that's how I met my wife Dana. It was around 2010 and 2011 when we met and we got a few horses together. Now, her and I have anywhere between 12 to 18 horses a year. Currently, we have 16. I own a couple of those with my dad. He still helps out. He still does the camera work, but he loves being involved with the horses. It's a busy life, an all day, every day, type of thing. But everything I have in my life, I owe to harness racing."

It truly is a family affair for Kahrig, who recorded his first training win on Dec. 7, 2006 with Katiesgonnacatchya, a horse he also owned.

Whether it's vocal support or hands-on help, he has plenty of people he can count on.

"My grandma and her sister, they watch the races pretty much every day. My dad helps out. Dana, her dad helps out too. When he's not working his regular job, he's helping us jog horses in the morning. My sister-in-law, Dawnelle Mock, she's the marketing director with The Meadows. She also helps us in the morning. Her boyfriend Johnny Yoder helps us during any of his free time. My sister is just a big fan... she's been my No. 1 fan for a long time. My mom and Dana's mom, their support for us is 24/7. One way or another, everyone is there for us. And that means a lot."

Kahrig, who has also dabbled in driving – his first driving victory came in 2007, in only his third pari-mutuel drive, with Time To Speak, a horse his mother Kara Kahrig co-owned along with driver Kyle Bolon's mother, Sally Bolon – has posted the best numbers in his career over the past three seasons.

In 2017, he recorded 35 wins, upping that total to 42 the next year. In 2019, he made 40 trips to the winner's circle.

Reaching those plateaus wasn't without its challenges.

"I would look at 2017 as our best year. The next year, it wasn't a bad year either, but The Meadows got hit with the herpes virus, and our barn was shut down for a good while. Having a small stable and owning a lot of them yourself – that did some damage for us. But it also did damage for a lot of other people, too. Then we've had to deal with the coronavirus this year. When you own a lot yourself – we have other owners and I'm grateful for them – it's like being a small business owner, that's how I take it as. It can take a real toll on you."

None of it, however, is enough to put a dent in Kahrig's love of the sport.

"I just try to remind myself that you've got to keep moving forward through it all. It was the same way when the herpes virus struck at The Meadows. You didn't know when it would end and normalcy would return, but you just had to keep moving forward and things would work out. Hopefully, you keep moving forward and that's what your horses do too."

When the Kahrigs aren't working from sun up until sun down with their horses, the couple spends as much time as they can with their soon-to-be 3-year-old son Austin.

There are early indications the youngster could follow in his parents' footsteps.

"He gets pretty much all the attention from us when we have our down time in a day. He'll watch any race and not just the ones that we're racing in. He'll root anyone on. You just tell him which horse to root for and he's your biggest fan for those two minutes, that's for sure. You never know if he'll have a career in the industry. Some days, I hope he does and some days I hope he doesn't."

If Austin Kahrig decides he'd like to give a life in standardbred racing a shot, his father will remind that it's all about going forward.

He'll also share what keeps him coming back year after year.

Austin may already have developed a passion for horses.

"I love the competition and I love doing what I do. The competition really motivates you. And I really enjoy racing at The Meadows. It's year-round and the purses are pretty good. It's a good place to be."

Much better, Kahrig said with a laugh, than listening to a lecture in college classroom.

"I made the best decision based on what I knew would be the right path for me. Sometimes, certain things in life take a while to figure out. But I was able to, and I have no regrets at all. I'm part of an industry that I really enjoy. It's hard work, but that's fine. I don't mind it all. For me, every year, you just try and improve, learn more, and have better results on the racetrack."

It's a philosophy that Spencer Kahrig deserves top marks for.

Cokstile wins $258,000 Gran Premio Costa Azzurra in Italy

by Thomas Hedlund

The $258,000 Gran Premio Costa Azzurra was held in Turin, Italy on Sunday afternoon and Norwegian-bred Cokstile (Quite Easy) was served a perfect trip behind leader and stablemate Chief Orlando by Antonio di Nardo.

In the last turn, Chief Orlando began to show fatigue and Cokstile just flew away from the rest of the gang, which was a merited one with trotters such as Vivid Wise As, Vitruvio and Zacon Gio in the field of seven horses.

Cokstile cruised to safe win in a moderate 1:54.3 mile, ahead of strong finisher Zacon Gio and bronze medalist Vitruvio.

Cokstile can look back at a great season where he's been runner up in Elitloppet, Kymi Grand Prix and Hugo Åbergs Memorial.

Muscle Hill son in $240,000 German Derby

Wild West Diamant (Muscle Hill), driven by Robin Bakker and trained by Paul Hagoort, claimed the $240,000 German Derby for 3-year-olds in Berlin on Sunday afternoon.

Favorite Keytothehill and Heinz Wewering disappeared at an early stage due to a break and a second over trip for Wild West Diamant resulted in a safe win in stakes record 1:56 over 1,900 meters.

Straight Flush finished second after a pocket trip and first over trotter Toto Barosso held strongly as third.

This was the 125th edition of the German Derby and Dutch trainer Paul Hagoort claimed his seventh victory in the prestigious race. Robin Bakker has helped Hagoort in all his earlier wins in the race and among the duo's previous winners horses like Tiger Woods As (Quick Wood), Tsunami Diamant and Mister F Daag can be mentioned.

Suspended Goop in favorite position

Solvalla racetrack prepares for stakes races this weekend and Saturday's race card contains the biggest race for 3-year-olds in Sweden.

The $910,000 Svenskt Travkriterium is open for colts, geldings and mares, but since the mares can choose the $635,000 Oaks, it's rare that a female 3-year-old tries her luck against the boys and this year is no exception.

Twelve eliminations were held at Solvalla on Sept. 11 – six for the Oaks and six for the Kriterium – where the top two advanced to this week's stakes finals.

Gerard Forni

Norwegian-bred Cokstile (Antonio di Nardo) won the $258,000 Gran Premio Costa Azzurra on Sunday in Turin, Italy.

In $910,000 Svenskt Travkriterium, Björn Goop will maybe experience an extra exciting moment since his, so far, undefeated San Moteur (Panne de Moteur) most likely will be the favorite while Goop will look at the race from beside the track. The Swedish top driver is suspended on Saturday and Per Lennartsson will replace Goop behind the talented 3-year-old.

San Moteur, Head Run (Sahara Dynamite), trained by Robert Bergh and Önas Prince (Chocolatier), trained by Per Nordström, are the horses that people talk about most seriously ahead of Saturday's battle over 2,640 meters, but the edition is very open and it's not unusual that upset winners present themselves in this particular race.

Goop also managed to qualify three mares for the Oaks, so he will certainly have a nervous Saturday afternoon trackside at Solvalla.

Freshman trotting fillies sharp on return to Gold Series

Trotting fillies were in the spotlight at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Monday (Sept. 21) with the freshmen competing in a pair of $106,000 Gold Series divisions and the sophomores in four $23,000 Grassroots splits of the Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS).

You Will Be Queen captured the first $106,400 Gold division with a personal best 1:55.2 effort. Starting from Post 5, with Chris Christoforou in the race bike, You Will Be Queen left smartly and led the field to a :28.2 opening quarter. Up And Ready swept to the front heading for the :57.2 half, but just before the 1:26.3 three-quarters Christoforou tipped You Will Be Queen to the outside and the fan favorite powered down the stretch to a one and one-quarter length victory in a personal best 1:55.2. Up And Ready finished second and Pixies Lady was third.

"She's been good all year. She got sick on us there after the first leg of the Pure Ivory (July 23), we had to give her some time off, but she's come back good," said trainer Dustin Jones. "She raced good in the Peaceful Way Final (Sept. 12) and got beat by two really good fillies, and then she raced really good tonight. She raced actually tonight like she did in her win in the Pure Ivory where Chris left with her, let a guy go and then came back out, so real happy with her."

Monday's victory was the first Gold Series win of You Will Be Queen's career, but not her first in Ontario Sires Stakes action. The Royalty For Life filly won a division of the Grassroots season opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park on July 13. She finished second in her Gold Series debut on Aug. 19 at Grand River Raceway and then posted three straight third-place finishes behind Donna Soprano in the Champlain Stakes and the elimination and final of the Peaceful Way at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"She's very nice filly," said Jones, who bred and owns the filly in partnership with Hebert Horses Inc. of Montreal, QC. "She's a pleasure to come to the track with."

In the second $107,200 two-year-old trotting filly Gold division, Imextraspecial and driver Trevor Henry left well from Post 3 and watched from third as Dashing Muscle reached the quarter in :28.2 and then yielded to fan favorite Dicentra. As Dicentra rolled toward a :58.1 half, Henry sent Imextraspecial after the lead and once the filly reached the front she opened up a four length lead on her peers, reaching the three-quarters in 1:26.2. Imextraspecial cruised home to a personal best 1:55 clocking, three and three-quarter lengths ahead of Dashing Muscle and Dicentra.

"She raced really well," said trainer Paul Walker of Owen Sound, ON. "I think maybe a those couple races at Elora kind of turned her around and she's been getting better ever since."

Like You Will Be Queen, Imextraspecial started her provincial career in the Grassroots, winning a division of the July 13 season opener at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the July 29 leg at Grand River Raceway in Elora. The Muscle Mass daughter went back to Elora for the Aug. 19 Gold event and added a third win to her resume.

Imextraspecial also tested her skills against the Grand Circuit fillies in the Champlain and Peaceful Way. She finished fifth, placed fourth in the Champlain, second in her Peaceful Way elimination and fourth in the final.

“She raced a really good race in the Peaceful Way (final), we were really pleased. She put in a real gutsy effort there. She got a bad shuffle and then come again in the stretch, so it takes a pretty good two-year-old to do that,” said Walker, who trains the filly for Keith Coulter of Mono, ON. “Her mother was a very tough mare and I think she’s passed it on.”

The 2-year-old trotting fillies have one Gold event remaining on their schedule, Oct. 6 at Woodbine Mohawk Park, before the top 10 point earners compete in the Oct. 17 Super Final. Imextraspécial and You Will Be Queen currently sit third and sixth in the point standings, respectively.

In the 3-year-old trotting filly Grassroots action, Sonadora Deo kicked things off with a 1:55.4 score in the first $23,150 division. The fan favorite held off a hard-charging Moana for the half-length victory. Noblesse Duharas was five lengths behind the leaders in third.

“Dora should have been a Gold filly, but just had a lot of bad luck,” said Bob McClure, who piloted the Kadabra daughter to her second Grassroots win for trainer Luc Blais and owner Determination of Montreal, QC. “We’re trying to end on a good note in the Grassroots. She’s a very solid filly.”

McClure, who is in a battle for top spot in the OSS driver standings with five-time Lampman Cup winner Sylvain Filion, returned to the Grassroots winner’s circle in the last division, scoring an upset with Th Present when favorite Profound Paragon skipped offstride in the stretch. Th Present sprinted by to a six length win in a personal best 1:55.1. Scorched Romance was second and Highland Foxytrotr was third.

“She’s been super in her last two since Marcel changed some gear on her,” said McClure, who steers the Royalty For Life filly for trainer Marcel Barrieau of Cambridge and Gestion Mastel Inc. of Longueuil, QC. “She’s very sharp right now, which is good timing.”

The top 20 point earners will compete in the Oct. 2 Semi-Finals at Woodbine Mohawk Park and Th Present heads into the postseason in second with 163 points, while Sonadora Deo is sixth with 100. The other two winners, Yen and No Angel Here, also finished in the top 20.

Yen got her first Grassroots win of the season in 1:56.2 for driver Sylvain Filion, trainer Julie Walker and owner/breeder Overseas Farms Ltd. of Cambridge, ON. The E L Titan filly bested Goddess De Vie and Magic Wanda.

No Angel Here clocked a personal best 1:57.4 for driver Paul MacDonell, trainer Peter Core and owner/breeders Bet Max Stables Inc. of Casco and Benenati Inc. of Clinton Township, MI. The Archangel miss edged out Emotions Durables and Protostar for her first Grassroots win.

Indoor dining this weekend at the Meadowslands

Limited indoor dining continues this Friday and Saturday night during live racing (7:15 pm post).

Trotters has a $29.95 pre fixe menu featuring a variety of salads and hot entrees and side dishes. A selection of pre-packaged desserts will also be available. On Friday, diners will enjoy a steak house salad with bacon and bleu cheese, teriyaki glazed steak tips and fried Alaskan cod. Saturday’s menu features traditional Caesar salad, Norwegian salmon with capers, pork tenderloin and chicken Milanese. The full menus can be viewed here.

Reservations are required and dining must be prepaid. Reservations can be made by calling 201-TheBigM. Trotters members can email Marianne Rotella at mrotella@playmeadowlands.com for reservations.

Victory Sports Bar and Lounge also has indoor food and beverage service Thursday-Monday for both live racing and sports. Diners can enjoy a variety of snacks, appetizers and burgers along with a full bar for those 21 and older. Reservations must be made by emailing Victoryreservations@arkrestaurants.com or calling 201-842-5102.

The grandstand and apron area remains open at 500 persons social gathering limit with teller and self-service machines available for wagering.

Once capacity is reached guests will be asked to wait in their cars until space becomes available.

Guests are encouraged to make dining reservations for guaranteed seating.

To adhere to all COVID-19 protocols the Meadowlands has instituted the following measures:

- All guest seating has been 6 ft social distanced
- Hand sanitizer has been placed throughout the grandstand
- All high touch surfaces will be frequently wiped down throughout the day including all self-service machines, door handles and counter-tops

All guests will be required to enter via the Clubhouse entrance. All are required to wear a face covering both indoors and outside, have their temperature checked and complete a brief health questionnaire. No one with a temperature exceeding 100.4 will be allowed to enter. There will be no valet parking available for live racing this weekend.

All racing and dining information can be found at PlayMeadowlands.com and the health questionnaire can be downloaded and filled out prior to arrival here.

The Wild Card wraps up regular season with perfect record

The Wild Card scored his fifth Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Grassroots win on Sunday, Sept. 20 to wrap up the regular season with a perfect record and the top spot in the 3-year-old pacing colt standings.

Flamboro Downs bettors sent the colt off as the heavy favorite from Post 1 in the first $22,800 Grassroots split and driver Doug McNair let the colt settle into second early as Noneyabizzness powered out to a :26.3 quarter. The favorites were soon out and driving and The Wild Card led the field through a :54.4 half and a 1:24.2 three-quarters before digging in down the stretch for a one-half length victory in 1:53.1. Captivate Hanover finished second and Bettor At Hightide was third.

"He's just a nice little horse. He's handy, he's quick off the gate and he's always happy, he's got his ears up and he just keeps going," said McNair. "He kind of got tortured a little bit tonight, I mean I had to go a big half with him, I was out a long way with him, and he just kept going. He's just a nice little horse to drive."

McNair piloted The Wild Card to all five of his Grassroots wins for trainer Dr. Ian Moore of Cambridge, ON and his co-owners R G McGroup Ltd of Bathurst, NB and Serge Savard of St-Bruno, QC. Three of those wins came at Woodbine Mohawk Park and one at Rideau Carleton Raceway. Sunday's appearance was The Wild Card's first start on a half-mile since an unsuccessful tour of Clinton Raceway last summer so Moore gave the Bettors Delight son a trial run over the Flamboro oval on Wednesday, Sept. 16.

"There was a little question about the half-mile track, because he's only a little guy but he has a really big swing behind, especially on his inside leg. When we raced him at Clinton last year he couldn't get around the turns very good at all, he struggled with it, so I took him down Wednesday, me and the guy that looks after him, Joe Tulino, and I trained him in 2:03 down there in the bike, just went the one trip. Last quarter in :28, last half in :58, and he got around there no problem at all," said Moore. "We were humming and hawing whether I should put him in Mohawk Saturday in non-winners of five or whatever, but I'm glad we went there, it worked out all right."

With 250 points, The Wild Card will lead the sophomore pacing colts into the Oct. 2 Grassroots Semi-Finals. The top 20 point earners qualify for the Semi-Finals and the top five finishers from each Semi-Final advance to the $75,000 Grassroots Championship at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Oct. 10.

McNair may face a tough decision in the postseason. He also piloted Mayhem Hanover to a win on Sunday, qualifying the defending Grassroots champion for the Semi-Finals. Heading into the final leg Mayhem Hanover had made just one start in the Grassroots, finishing third, but Sunday's win gave him the required two starts and vaulted him into the top 20 with 62 points.

"He's been racing against tough horses so he finally got a little bit of a break," said McNair of the colt's recent starts in the North America Cup, Simcoe and Somebeachsomewhere. "He's just kind of on the border. Just a little behind them other guys, not far though."

Starting from Post 9, Mayhem Hanover got away fourth as Sunshine List led the field to a :26.4 quarter. Coming off the second turn McNair tipped Mayhem Hanover to the outside and started to advance on favorite Bettorbuckleup, who hit the half in :55.3. By the 1:23 three-quarters Mayhem Hanover had edged Bettorbuckleup and from there the colt opened up a five and one-half length margin on his peers, hitting the wire in 1:51.4. Pocket-sitter Sunshine List got up for second and Bettorbuckleup settled for third.

"He went a good trip here tonight. His first time on a half too it was. He trains over a half all the time, but he hasn't raced anywhere other than Mohawk," said trainer Gregg McNair. "That was a real impressive mile he went there tonight."

Scott and Clay Horner of Toronto, ON share ownership of Mayhem Hanover. The win was the Sportswriter son's second in 11 sophomore starts.

The other $23,150 Grassroots division went to Day Delight and driver Louis-Philippe Roy, who sat in the pocket behind McNair and Poseidon Seelster as they clocked fractions of :26.1, :54.4 and 1:23.1. In the stretch Day Delight held off Sports Obsession for a head victory in 1:52.4. Poseidon Seelster finished third.

"He just seems to be getting better all the time. That was a big mile tonight," said Bill Manes, who shares ownership of the Bettors Delight son with Lloyd Stone of Portland, 10462217 Canada Inc. of Gloucester, ON and Wayne MacRae of Fall River, NS. "We were a little disappointed the last Grassroots (Sept. 7) when he was the big favorite and got beat, but he bounced back pretty good."

Victor Puddy trains Day Delight, who finishes the regular season with 122 points from two wins, one third and two fifths, good enough for fourth spot in the standings.

Grassroots point standings are available on the Ontario Sires Stakes Leaderboard.

Me Too Baby, Suzie Blue Chip take finals at Plainridge

The final legs of the $15,000 Wood End Light for 2-year-old trotters and $15,000 Nauset Light for 2-year-old pacers were held on Sunday (Sept. 20) at Plainridge Park producing two more winners who will be competing in the Massachusetts Sire Stakes (MASS) starting next week.

The Wood End Light was won by Me Too Baby (Matty Athearn) who led at every station of the mile before turning for home and holding off a charge from the pocket-sitting Sumbigbank Hanover (Jay Randall) to score her first lifetime win by a neck in 1:58.2.

Me Too Baby ($3.00) is owned by Thomas Dillon and trained by Gretchen Athearn.

The Nauset Light saw Suzie Blue Chip (Shawn Gray) sit a garden spot trip behind last week's winner Bumpah Stickah (Jim Hardy) all the way to the top of the lane where Gray pulled and ran down the leader at the light to win by $\frac{3}{4}$'s of a length in 1:56.1.

It was the third win in a row for Suzie Blue Chip ($2.40) and owner Kapildeo Singh. Eve Bergeron does the training.

Both of these horses will draw serious consideration in the MASS when it kicks off at Plainridge Park on Sunday (Sept. 27) when the 3-year-olds go to post. The 2-year-olds will first convene on Monday (Sept. 28).
