A Page in Jug History

Delaware, Ohio resident Chris Page posted an emotional victory in the 77th Little Brown Jug by driving supplemental Ohio-bred entry Bythemissal to victory for the Burke Brigade. It was Burke's fourth Jug win in eight years and second straight.

Brad Conrad

Bythemissal (Chris Page) became the first Ohio-bred Little Brown Jug champion since BJ Scoot in 1988. He won the Jug final on Thursday at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in 1:51.1

Ohio

by Nicole Kraft

Chris Page was 11 years old when he clung to the chain-link fence around the Delaware County Fair racetrack and watched Magical Mike win the 1994 Little Brown Jug. From that day forward, the Ohio native fantasized that someday it might be him hoisting the Jug trophy in that winner's circle.

After driving in 36,028 races, Page's childhood dream finally came true Thursday.

Page, a resident of Delaware, was mobbed in the winner's circle by nearly 200 family and friends after he steered favorite Bythemissal to victory in the $641,550 Little Brown Jug final. Trained by Ron Burke, Bythemissal, won by three-quarters of a length over Fourever Boy and Night Hawk in 1:51.1.

"I can't even put it into words," Page said. "It's just a whole bunch of emotions. I've been coming to the Little Brown Jug since I was a little guy and standing on the fence cheering. To actually win, it's just the icing on the cake for my career."

The Burke Brigade in the winner's circle after winning the Jug in back-to-back years and the fourth time in the last eight years.

Bythemissal, just the second Ohio-bred pacer to win the Little Brown Jug after BJ Scoot in 1988, has now won 10 races in his 12-race career and earned $830,525. He became the third horse in Jug history to win after a supplemental payment, following in the hoofprints of Wiggle It Jiggle It in 2015 and Courtly Choice in 2018.

The gelding was the pre-race favorite by virtue of wins this year in the $350,000 Delvin Miller Adios and $300,000 Max C. Hempt Memorial. Few observers, however, would have expected the son of Downbytheseaside, purchased as a yearling for $135,000 from the 2020 Lexington Select Sale, to be anyone's best Jug shot when he started the year.

While most horses gain experience for a tough 3-year-old campaign by racing at age 2, Bythemissal suffered an injury that sidelined him until the late fall of 2021. He finally showed a flash of potential by winning his first race Nov. 30 for trainer Josh Green and owner Erik Good.

The gelding moved to Burke's barn early in 2022 after Good sold shares to Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi and Rich Lombardo Racing. The pacer soon proved his value, capturing eight of his first 10 races and beating many of the best horses in his class.

"When Josh sent him to me, he said he was the real deal," Burke said. "When [Bythemissal] started training down, I said he was the best horse in the barn, and he showed it."

If anyone knows a good horse, it is Burke, who has conditioned winners of more than 13,000 races and $288.6 million in purses.

Burke won the 2021 Jug with Lou's Pearlman to cap a year in which the trainer was also inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame. Filibuster Hanover in 2017 and Limelight Beach in 2014 also put Burke in the Jug winner's circle.

Unlike Burke's previous horses, however, Bythemissal was not kept eligible to compete in the Jug. Lucky for his connections, Jug officials changed the rules in 2022 to allow any ineligible horse to compete for a supplemental fee — set at $45,000.

"We are pretty game bunch," Burke said of the ownership team before the race. "It does not take much to get them to try and Fourever Boy (Dexter Dunn) won the second Jug heat in 1:51.4 and was second to first-heat winner Bythemissal in the Jug final.

do something neat. He is as good as any 3-year-old I have had to this point. He really is a special horse. He deserves this shot."

Bythemissal dominated in the first elimination heat, taking the lead right off the gate and pulling away from the field by four lengths at the finish of a 1:51.3 mile. Night Hawk was second and Atlas Hanover was third.

"He was super," second trainer Mickey Burke said of the elimination win. "The horse went exactly the way Chris wanted to drive him and he paced home on his own. Chris says he couldn't have been any better."

Fourever Boy moved into the final by virtue of his elimination heat victory, though it was far from easy. The Dexter Dunn-driven pacer was parked much of the race before pulling clear in the stretch, winning by 1 ½ lengths in 1:51.4 to give trainer Tim Twaddle his first Jug heat victory. Six Feet Apart was second and Gulf Shores was third.

"It's kind of like an out-of-body experience," Twaddle said. "Everybody dreams of being in the Jug and it's so hard to have a horse who is good enough to compete at this level. He just really special."

The top eight finishers moved on to the final, and Fourever Boy shot out to an early lead, while Page tucked Bythemissal right behind the leader through fractions of :27.1 and :55.3. When the field rounded the three-quarters in 1:24.1, the race was on. Bythemissal had the lead midway through the stretch and neither he nor Page were going to give up an inch.

"You need to be aggressive," Burke said. "You're not going to win here just watching the race. You got to be in it."

The victory was Burke's second Jug in two years, and it puts the trainer in historic company as just the third person in history to train four Jug winners, joining Hall of Famers Billy Haughton with six and Stanley Dancer with four.

"The thing is, I'm not done," Burke said. "I've got to catch these guys. I don't like being second. I've got a lot more to go. But I'm thrilled to win this one... because it gave Chris his first, and he's our guy."

Page was equally excited to win with Burke, who he called, "the best trainer, not standardbreds but even thoroughbreds." He recognized that the partnership has lifted them both to lofty heights.

"He's took me from zero to a hero in my career," Page said. "Like in the movie 'Willy Wonka,' I punched a golden ticket with Ronnie."

The sun was setting on the Delaware Fairgrounds as Page jogged Bythemissal back to the barn, accepting congratulations every step of the way.

Waiting for him, standing by the chain-link fence was his 21-month-old son, Carter, who had just witnessed his first Jug dressed in mini white and blue colors that matched his father.

When asked if history might repeat itself a few decades in the future, Page just grinned.

"I don't know," Page said. "Whatever he does, I hope it makes him feel like I do right now."

Ohio State journalism students Megan Husslein, Gabby Khodadad and Katy Popovitch contributed to this report.

by Jay Wolf / Little Brown Jug publicity

The Ron Burke trained S I P (Joe Bongiorno) established a new world's mark in the $88,600 Old Oaken Bucket.

The sophomore Bar Hopping colt overcame windy conditions to cut the fractions of :28.2; :56.2 and 1:24, defeating Famous Father (Andrew McCarthy) by 10 lengths in 1:51.2.

The new world champ is owned by the Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, Brixton Medical and Weaver Brussemi.

MS VERSATILITY FINAL

Triple-millionaire Atlanta (Yannick Gingras) started her 'farewell tour' with a win going gate-to-wire to take the $115,500 Ms Versatility Final in 1:53.2.

The 7-year-old mare defeated When Dovescry (David Miller) by 1 ¼ lengths and Refined (Mitchell Cushing) by 5 lengths.

Atlanta is owned by Crawford Farms Racing, Bradley Grant and Howard Taylor and conditioned by Ron Burke.

STANDARD BRED (TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT)

Bugaboo Lou (David Miller) was a popular winner in the Standardbred 2-year-old colt pace.

The Sweet Lou colt defeated Lou On The Beach (Mike Wilder) and Coaches Corner (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) in 1:53.2.

Brian Brown trained the winner for Country Club Acres, Joe Sbrocco, Aws Stables and Acadia Farms.

All of the connections are from the Buckeye state.

STANDARD BRED (TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT)

Andy McCarthy gave Volume Eight a patient drive and sprinted past the pacesetter Biscoe (Yannick Gingras) in the stretch to score a narrow neck win in the $47,331 Standardbred for freshman colt trotters.

OHIO BREEDERS CHAMPIONSHIP (THREE-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE)

Dragononthebeach and Sling Shock won the two divisions of the $110,764 (div.) OBC for sophomore colt pacers.

Dragononthebeach tripped the timer in the first division in 1:51.4, defeating Risenshine Seaside (Cameron McCown) and Moved Bythe Spirit (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.).

Kelly O'Donnell trains the homebred for the Emerald Highlands Farm.

Sling Shock established a new national season's record in the second $55,382 division with his 1:49.3 win over Odds On Capitalism (Dexter Dunn) and Terminator (Chris Page).

The Downbytheseaside colt is owned by Michael Cimaglio, William Richardson, William Salmeri and Rhonda Gillmartin.

OHIO BREEDERS CHAMPIONSHIP (THREE-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT)

Rose Run Xtra and Longshot took the pair of OBCs for sophomore colt trotters.

In the first $53,808 division, Rose Run Xtra (Chris Page) defeated Gabbys Bit Coin (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) by 6 ¼ lengths in 1:55.

The Cash Hall colt is owned by Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services and Jason Melillo.

Longshot (Chris Lems) didn't live up to his name and when off as the bettor's choice in the second division.

The Long Tom gelding topped Caviar Gold (Aaron Merriman) by 6 ¼ lengths in 1:54.

Longshot is conditioned by Scott Cox for Wayne Mast, Jr. and Callam Racing.

OHIO BREEDERS CHAMPIONSHIP (TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE)

Racing Rampage (Aaron Merriman) showed why he is considered by many as the top 2-year-old pacer in the state when he took the $120,214 OBC in 1:53.

The son of Racing Hill has won five of his seven seasonal starts and more than $191,000.

Trainer Darren Dowler co-owns the gelding with Lawrence Bettler.

OHIO BREEDERS CHAMPIONSHIP (THREE-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE)

Cape Cod Hanover (Chris Page) overcame post #10 and survived a four-horse photo finish to take the $103,714 OBC for sophomore filly pacers.

Do It Like Bobbi (Tony Hall) and the pace-setting Bittsweetsymphony (Matt Kakaley) was second and third, respectively.

The Downbytheseaside filly is trained by Ron Burke for the Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, Rich Lombardo Racing and RAS Racing.

Treacherous Dragon takes the 52nd Jugette

by Jay Wolf / Little Brown Jug publicity

Treacherous Dragon and Dexter Dunn found enough daylight in the stretch and outsprinted the pace-setting Sea Silk (Chris Page) to take the Jugette, presented by Crawford Farms, for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Wednesday (Sept. 21) at the Delaware County Fair.

When the field of eight were sent on their way for the $205,100 second heat, they settled in post-position order with Sea Silk leading the field past the quarter in :27.4. Just Divine (Jordan Stratton) started the outer flow at the half in :56.4.

The field raced in pairs past the three-quarters in 1:23.4. Treacherous Dragon looked like she had nowhere to go, but found enough room to come off the rail to win by a neck and trip the timer in 1:51.

Brad Conrad
Treacherous Dragon (2, Dexter Dunn) winning the Jugette on Wednesday in 1:50.

Sea Silk held on for second. The winner's stablemate, Sweet Treasure (Andy McCarthy) was third.

Nancy Takter conditions the Captaintreacherous filly for the Hot Lead Farm of Allentown, NJ.

Treacherous Dragon's record stands at 12 career wins in 23 starts with $709,863 in earnings.

The first elimination came down to a stretch duel between Treacherous Dragon and A Girl That Twirls (Tim Tetrick). It appeared that A Girl That Twirls stuck a nose in front in mid-stretch, but Treacherous Dragon rallied at the rail to score a one length victory in 1:50.

Trick Of The Light (Trace Tetrick) out finished Galleria Hanover (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) for the show spot.

At the start of the second $25,000 elimination, a pair of Ron Burke trainees, Sea Silk and Just Divine, swapped the lead in the first quarter of the mile, with Sea Silk retaking the lead before the three-eighths pole.

The supplemental entrant, Sweet Treasure was the first to challenge on the outside, by Sea Silk had enough left in her tank to defeat Just Divine and Sweet Treasure in 1:50.1.

Wine N Dine Me (Tim Tetrick) survived a photo to advance to the final.

BLUEBIRD DOVE ESTABLISHES WORLD RECORD IN BUCKETTE

Bluebird Dove took flight in the $91,500 Buckette for sophomore trotting fillies to highlight the Jugette Day undercard on Wednesday (Sept. 21) at the Delaware County Fairgrounds.

Bluebird Dove defeated Disclosure (Tim Tetrick) by three quarters of a length and Valentina Blu (Joe Bongiorno) was another three lengths back in a world record breaking 1:52.2.

The new world champion is trained by Melanie Wrenn for David McDuffee and L & L Devisser LLC.

The daughter of Swan For All was unraced at 2, but has made $173,206 this season.

STANDARD BRED (TWO-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE)

The early action was frantic, as three pacers took their turn on top in the first quarter of the mile, but it was Valley Of Fear (David Miller) who made the final lead change and won the $41,531 Standardbred for 2-year-old filly pacers.

The other early leaders, Stay Happy (Mike Wilder) and Captain Carmella (Andy McCarthy) took second and third.

The winning time of 1:52.2 established a new track and stakes record.

Blake MacIntosh trains and co-owns Fear The Dragon filly with Hutt Racing Stable and Ozzie MacKay.

STANDARD BRED (TWO-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT)

Brunella (Yannick Gingras) overcame post #8 and a late charge by Ruth Honig (Tim Tetrick) to take the $46,331 Standardbred filly trot in 1:56.1.

Brunella has visited the winner's circle twice this season and has now earned $69,493.

OHIO BREEDERS CHAMPIONSHIP (TWO-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT)

It was a Rose Run double in the $118,114 (div.) Ohio Breeders Championship for 2-year-old filly trotters as Rose Run Yolanda and Rose Run Yanae captured the two divisions.

In the second $59,057 division, Rose Run Yanae received a patient drive by Chris Page and cruised past Global Girl (Don Irvine, Jr.) and Truly Relentless (Chris Lems) by less than a length in a track and stakes record 1:54.3.

Burke trains the winner for Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services and Weaver Brussemi.

Rose Run Yanae picked up her second career win in her seventh start.

Rose Run Yolanda (Trevor Smith) made it five straight wins as the freshman filly trotter scored in the first division with a ¾ length romp.

Smith kept the daughter of Triumphant Caviar in the pocket behind Swinging Seniorita (Anthony MacDonald) and was pulled out down the backstretch the sprinted clear of Swinging Seniorita and Contechsfashion (Aaron Merriman) in 1:56.2.

Rose Run Yolanda has now earned $140,528 for Black Magic Racing and trainer Todd Luther.

OHIO BREEDERS CHAMPIONSHIP (AGED TROT)

The lone mare in the field, A Fancy Face, captured the $18,200 Ohio Breeders Championship trot for older trotters.

A Fancy Face (Trevor Smith) defeated The Next Triumph (Dan Noble) and Omyheart (Cameron McCown) by ¾ of a length.

The final time of 1:53.2 equaled the stakes record.

The five-year-old My MVP mare is trained by Todd Luther for Greg Luther's Black Magic Racing.

SMOOTH GOING FOR RUMBLE STRIPS IN WORLD RECORD EFFORT

Rumble Strips and Kayne Kauffman established a new world record in the $110,914 Ohio Breeders Championship for freshman colt trotters in Tuesday (Sept. 20) action at the Delaware County Fair.

When the gate's wings folded, Kauffman hustled Rumble Strips out of his rail position and rebuffed an early challenge by Black Magic (Chris Lems), tripping the quarter mile timer in :28.1.

As the field of six passed the stands in :57.3, A Real Legend (Don Irvine, Jr.) was the first to tip to the outside.

Rumble Strips went past the three-quarter pole in 1:25.3 and used a :27.4 final quarter to establish a new world mark of 1:53.2. Black Magic held on to second and Burton's Hill (Brett Miller) rallied for the show spot.

The new world champion is conditioned by Mike Polhamus for Constance Polhamus and Mary Beth Walters.

With the lion's share of the purse, the Long Tom colt's earnings jumped to $126,144.

BUCKEYE STALLION SERIES (TWO-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT)

The sire Downbytheseaside has dominated Ohio pacing ranks the past two years, now he is taking on the trotters.

Doc's Boo Boo (Jeff Nisonger), a Downbytheseaside lass, cruised to an easy victory in the final division of the Buckeye Stallions Series for freshman filly trotters.

Waddupgee (Aaron Merriman) and Don't Tickle Me (Brett Miller) completed the trifecta.

Jr Stables owns the mistakenly bred trotter who scored for the seventh time in 12 seasonal starts. Mark Winters trains.

Hank LeVan guided Frantastic L to a gate-to-wire win over Mission Valley (Ronnie Gillespie) by 2 ¾ lengths in 1:57.1 to take the first division.

LeVan Stables Inc., Darmofal Racing, Edward Perry and Megan LeVan own the daughter of Team Six. With the win, Frantastic L now has 10 wins in 16 seasonal starts.

A Long Dream (Brett Miller) came from off the pace to sweep past the tiring leaders to take the third division in a lifetime best 1:57.2.

Go Long Kate (Aaron Merriman) and Aquatica (Jason Thompson) were second and third.

First Up Racing Stable and Elise Kilmer share ownership of the Long Tom filly. Vernon Beachy is the winning trainer.

Smokinhotirishgirl used a patient drive by Anthony MacDonald to take the second division in 2:00.4.

The Uncle Peter lass sat behind the pacesetting Gabby's Teddy Bear (Aaron Merriman) until the top of the stretch and sprinted clear by 2 1/4 lengths.

TheStable.ca and Hutchison Harness share ownership in the three-time winner. Jason McGinnis is her trainer.

LADIES DRIVING CHAMPIONSHIP

The Spring Haven Farm Ladies Driving Championship went to Poof Daddy and Krista Harmon in 1:55.4. The event features the top point earners from the season long pacing series restricted to female pilots.

Poof Daddy defeated Speaking Out (Amy Wengerd) and Sister Said (Emily Hay).

The seven-year-old Woodstock gelding is also owned and trained by Harmon.

With the win, Poof Daddy's career earnings stand at an even $100,000.

Richard Banca sentenced to 30 months in prison

by Bill Finley

Former standardbred trainer Richard Banca was sentenced to 30 months in federal prison after pleading guilty to one count of drug adulteration and misbranding. Banca was among the more than two dozen individuals nabbed in a widespread investigation into doping in thoroughbred and standardbred racing.

Banca was also fined $10,000 and has been ordered to pay a forfeiture of $120,975.

Rene Allard, Thomas Guido III, Donato Polisenio and Louis Grasso were named in the same indictment as Banca and have pled guilty. They are scheduled to be sentenced at later dates.

The government had asked the judge to sentence Banca to 36 months while Banca's defense team had asked for a sentence of home confinement followed by probation.

"Richard Banca was a prominent racehorse trainer whose success was founded on fraud and deceit. Banca's racing program — which he built and helmed — was predicated on a scheme to obtain and administer illegal, unsafe, and unapproved performance enhancing drugs to racehorses under his control. Banca orchestrated this deceit in service of greed, namely, to increase the odds that his horses would win races, thus earning him greater fees and income," the prosecutors wrote in their pre-sentence filing.

The government's pre-sentence filing continued: "First, it is not the case that the defendant's crime was the result of a single lapse in judgment, confined in time and scope. The defendant engaged in a years-long, sophisticated, and lucrative scheme to corruptly win horse races. Until his arrest, Banca earned his livelihood through his 'doping program,' which touched all the horses under his care and control. And that doping program carried serious risks to the health of the horses under his care. Banca's claim that his horses did not 'suffer any injury' as a result of his doping is simply incorrect."

Banca wrote a letter to the court apologizing for his deeds. It read: "I would like to start with telling you I'm sorry for what I've done. I'm sorry for breaking the law. I'm sorry for what this has done to my family. I never thought I would ever be in trouble with the law. I know I have made mistakes, but I have taken the last 2 ½ years to do right."

When Banca was indicted in March of 2020, the court documents regarding his case include a deposition from FBI agent Bruce Turpin, who linked Banca to Grasso and Conor Flynn, who were among the 27 indicted. Turpin testified that Banca's property in Middletown, NY was searched and that the FBI found a number of illegal substances and handwritten notes with instructions on how to administer those drugs. Turpin laid out a scenario where Flynn, Grasso and Banca worked together to illegally administer drugs to horses.

"I have learned that Grasso has, on multiple occasions, supplied Flynn with adulterated and misbranded performance-enhancing drugs for Flynn to administer – or deliver to others to administer – to racehorses," Turpin testified.

In further testimony, Turpin reported: "Based on my discussions with an agent who has spoken with a confidential source, I have learned that Flynn has stated, in substance and in part, that Flynn administers horses owned, trained, or otherwise under Banca's control, with PEDs at Banca's direction.

In 2011, Banca was sanctioned by the New York Racing and Wagering Board for Oxymetazoline violations and given a 90-day suspension and a $1,000 fine.

Banca has won 1,695 races. After never having more than 82 winners in a year, his win total shot up to 174 in 2015 and he won 200 races in 2016. He was the leading trainer at Yonkers at the time of his arrest. Allard was in second place at the time.

In a related development, Lisa Giannelli, an associate of Dr. Seth Fishman, has appealed her conviction and sentencing. Giannelli, one of only a handful among those indicted on doping-related charges to take their case to trial, was sentenced to 30 months in prison and was also ordered to pay a fine of $100,000 and to forfeit $900,000.

Fishman was sentenced to 30 years and is currently locked up in a Florida prison.

Righteous Resolve sitting out the Mohawk Million

Canada's fastest 2-year-old trotter of 2022 will skip Saturday's $1 million race at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

by Melissa Keith

Bax Stables of Campbellville, ON enjoyed a very successful night last Thursday (Sept. 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park. In the four Champlain Stakes divisions for freshman trotters, trainer John Bax sent out a total of eight starters. Gelding Oh Look Magic (Lookslikeeachpndale-Miami Magic) took a new personal best of 1:54.4s in his $95,353 open division for driver James MacDonald, also establishing a new seasonal best for 2-year-old trotting geldings in Canada. Bax stablemate Snowpiercer finished fifth in that race, from post 11.

New Image Media

Oh Look Magic (James MacDonald, winning the Champlain last Saturday in a 1:54.4 personal best) is one of two John Bax trainees in Saturday's Mohawk Million, though Righteous Resolve is sitting this one out.

Oh Look Magic's record was set in race 7, in the shadow of Righteous Resolve's victory in race 6. Coming off a win streak spanning two Ontario Sires stakes Gold legs and the Peaceful Way elimination and final, Righteous Resolve (Resolve–Motown Muscle) easily extended her divisional dominance in one of two $83,098 Champlain Stake filly events last Thursday night at her home track.

Trained by John Bax and out of former Bax trainee Motown Muscle (3, 1:53.4s; $447,945), Righteous Resolve smashed the stake record and became Canada's fastest 2-year-old trotter of 2022 with her 1:53.1s mile. Her stablemate, Proud To Be Lindy, led to the :27.4 opening quarter and closed for place, getting within six-and-a-half lengths of the long-gone winner. There was simply no catching Righteous Resolve after driver Paul MacDonell sent her third-over from fourth approaching the :57.1 half. Shiny New Penny briefly took command, right before MacDonell's filly circled with ease and opened up on the final turn. Looking relaxed at three-quarters in 1:24.2, she needed no urging from her driver, who kept glancing over his shoulder down the stretch, vigilant for closers. None came close.

Matt Bax takes Righteous Resolve for most of her training miles. He praised MacDonell's winning drive: "Paul does a great job managing the young horses, and he knows that there's a lot more starts to come, so I think he shut her down, down the stretch and just did what was comfortable for her."

Matt, son of trainer John, drove Quite Fast (Walner–Juanitas Fury) to a place finish in the card's first Champlain filly event. She left quickly from the outside post to make front and led until strides from the wire, when Milliondollarwall and Yannick Gingras came calling late in the 1:56.1s mile.

"She's a homebred and she improves a little bit each week," Matt said. "She's got a lot of heart, and there's nothing wrong with having a Walner filly, either."

Another John Bax trainee, Its Your Choice, finished third behind Quite Fast for driver James MacDonald.

The day after the draw for the Mohawk Million, Matt Bax explained why Righteous Resolve's name was conspicuously absent from the 10-horse field, though Bax trainees Proud To Be Lindy and Oh Look Magic are both heading to the gate.

"I think it just came down to there were a lot of opportunities. I'm sure anyone would have given up a slot for (Righteous Resolve), to make a deal, but at the end of the day, the owners felt that maybe it wasn't the best thing to do for the longevity of her [career]. She still has two more OSS races and the Breeders Crown up here."

The filly is owned by Bet Max Stables Inc. of Casco, MI and Benenati Inc., Clinton Township, MI. Bax said they considered the bigger picture to be the longevity of the filly's career.

"They looked at that, and racing against the colts, and thought, 'You know what? Maybe it's best to sit this one out'... It's a tough thing to do when money's on the line like that. But this might be the best course for the horse, in the long run. We support whatever they want to do, and hopefully it works out in the long run."

Matt knows Righteous Resolve and family well

"She definitely has the pedigree there. To say that she was going to be as good as she is..." He paused, then offered his take on her rapid ascension: "Even week-to-week, training her, it's a little tough to believe. When you have that grit on the track, and she goes out there and performs the way she does... Yeah, I wouldn't say I expected that from her training miles."

He does see parallels to Motown Muscle's other foals, however.

"We bought the brother the year before, [2021 O'Brien Two-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year] Duly Resolved [3, 1:54.1s; $611,755]... We've also had the sister out of the mare as well, Bright Eyes M [3, 1:53.0s; $239,589; now owned by Menhammar Stuteri of Sweden].

"I don't know if it's a trait of the family, because Duly Resolved was the same way, but they're all very smart. It's a very smart family. It's just 1, 2, 3 – they have the bike on in two days. Very easy to break, very smart. So that goes a long way when you're racing as a 2-year-old too, to be that smart. They make it easy."

The Baxes were naturally interested in Motown Muscle's 2020 foal.

"We heard that [the owners] had a full-sister Resolve yearling, so we talked to them because they're getting all these breeders' awards for Duly Resolved in the OSS," said Matt. "We kept in contact and asked them what they were doing with this filly, whether they were putting her in the sale or if they wanted to sell her privately. Fortunately for us, they kept us in mind and said, 'Well, we're going to keep her, but would you guys like to train her?'"

John Bax took Righteous Resolve and a handful of other young horses to train at the Palema Trotting Center in Vero Beach, FL over the colder Canadian months.

"We broke her up here first before she went down to Florida. He doesn't head down until the first of December, so we break everything here and decide what we want to send down," said Matt, who worked with the stable's remaining 14-15 horses in Campbellville, ON last winter. He said caretaker Lianne Head and regular turnout friend, maiden trotting filly Its Your Choice (Muscle Mass–Choice Hall), help keep Righteous Resolve on the right track, mentally and physically.

TIP TOP CAT: PERFECT TIMING FOR THE METRO PACE

Driving back from Kentucky to Ontario, Gregg McNair joked that "we don't have an income tax problem" after recent results at the Red Mile. Despite that disappointment with Whole Nother and Tall Dark Beauty not hitting the board in Kentucky this week (he did win with freshman colt Whole Nother (Nuncio–Undersong) in a non-stakes start there Sept. 13), the Campbellville, ON-based trainer has something to celebrate. His 31-1 Metro Pace elimination winner Tip Top Cat gets closer to Saturday's (Sept. 24) final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"I thought he'd got in with a really tough bunch there, but it worked," said McNair. "It was a perfect trip for him, the way it worked out for him. He got used fairly hard leaving the gate too, so he did a little bit of the work."

Tip Top Cat (Always B Miki–Western Top Cat) left from post #7, ambitiously circling then-undefeated 2-5 favorite Stockade Seelster and 5-2 second-choice Tickertape Hanover to make front before the first turn. Driver Doug McNair opted to let those two rivals battle for the lead, backing down to third as they sparred to the :27 opening quarter.

Tip Top Cat was single-file third, his driver flat in the bike, at the :55 half. The backfield was in motion to his outside at the 1:23 three-quarters, leaving McNair with one best route to success – "McNair Lane," as some dub the inside path down the Mohawk stretch. The late-blooming colt sprinted past Tickertape Hanover (second) and Stockade Seelster (third) in a :26.3 closing quarter.

"He went up there twice," said Gregg, Doug's father. "The first time, there wasn't any room there, and he kind of had to wait a few more lengths, then it opened up enough for him to get through."

The one-length victory was his second in six career starts, the 1:50.1s mile a new personal best.

"When we qualified him, he was probably one of the better-looking horses coming out for the 2-year-old [Mohawk] qualifiers, in the spring," Gregg said. Tip Top Cat won his June 25 qualifier in 1:55.1s, but encountered a setback.

"He looked like he was one of the top colts up here, then he got sick. It seemed like a long time before we got him racing. It was a month before he even started."

When he made his pari-mutuel debut July 26, the colt closed from post #10 for place. He broke his maiden for regular driver Doug McNair with an off-the-pace 1:54.2s effort on Aug. 11.

Tip Top Cat came into stakes competition late, finishing seventh in the Aug. 27 Nassagaweya at his home track. A week later, Gregg said he was impressed by the colt's sixth-place trip (despite interference) in the Champlain Stake.

"He raced big," said the trainer. "He was kind of out of it, but he did finish good, though. That's more the kind of horse I thought he was. It even surprised Doug a little bit. Not me though."

Stepping up last Saturday (Sept. 17) on the biggest stage for freshman pacers was a different story.

"As far as winning the Metro elimination, I wasn't looking for that. It surprised me that he won the Metro elimination... But we really did like that colt, training down."

Owners Scott Horner of Toronto, ON and Timothy Murray of Shawville, QC share ownership of the Pennsylvania-eligible colt, who was a $50,000 Harrisburg purchase.

"I've had a few horses for Clay and Scott [Horner]. We were shopping for yearlings there last year and [Scott] was going after an Always B Miki filly," said Gregg. "He went really high on her. I think maybe he bid $170,000 on that filly. Didn't get her. He wasn't at the sale, so he said to me, 'Go take a look at that colt and see if you like him.' I didn't pick the horse out of the catalog, but I went to look him over and called [Scott] back and said, 'Yeah, he's a nice-looking colt.'"

An improbable victory in the $900,000 Metro Pace would be sweet vindication for Tip Top Cat's connections. Because of illness, "he missed all his stakes, pretty much," said trainer McNair. "He's eligible for the Kentucky Sire Stake; he comes from Hunterton Farm [Paris, KY]. The stakes were almost over by the time that he looked like he'd be competitive in them. He's got some Grand Circuit races in Lexington – I don't know if he's going or not – and he's also eligible to the Breeders Crown."

Gregg considers his trainee the likely fourth choice among Metro bettors. He expects strong repeat performances from Stockade Seelster, Tickertape Hanover, and first elimination winner Save America. He also expressed cautious optimism for his own colt's chances.

"There's a lot between now and Saturday night, so I hope things work out for him this week."

Handicapping the Woodbine Mohawk Saturday $100,000 guaranteed Pick-5

by Brett Sturman

As part of one of the best cards of the year, the Saturday Pick-5 at Woodbine Mohawk Park spans across all major stakes on the card, concluding with the Mohawk Million. Here are my thoughts for (hopefully) putting together a winning ticket.

RACE 6, $525,000 SHE'S A GREAT LADY FINAL

There's only a few "must include" type horses throughout the Pick-5 sequence, and two of those are in this race, in what figures to be a showdown between elimination winners Charleston and Sylvia Hanover; both 2-year-old fillies with identical records. Charleston impressed last week upon arrival in his first start north of the border. The Pelling trainee came first up from fifth off a slow half, had the pocket horse pull in front of her, and it still didn't matter as she tracked that cover and then powered away late to win rather easily in the end. Likewise, Sylvia Hanover delivered as expected at odds of 1-9 where she controlled the pace through a pedestrian-like :57.3 half-mile split at which point no one was going to get to her; she was an even more impressive winner two back in the Champlain when she took her early career mark of 1:50.2.

I won't be reaching beyond those two, but if someone else were to win it would eliminate a massive share of Pick-5 tickets after the first leg. Some other fillies to at least consider as upset candidates include Horizontal who wasn't bad last week in her elimination, fending off two-hole pressure and only gave way late to Charleston. Bellissima Hanover had some late pace to offer from the pocket in her elimination after the race had already been settled; went a tough trip two back but is yet to figure out Sylvia Hanover. The exact same can be said for Caviart Diva, who fought that rival filly impressively all the way through the lane three back in the Eternal Camnation. She wasn't a factor last week, however. Treacherous Penny took a shot last week only to flatten out late.

RACE 7, $350,000 ELEGANT IMAGE FINAL

It's hard to make a case to not include Warrawee Xenia. It's certainly possible she could break as she did in her both starts in August including the Hambletonian Oaks, but outside of that she's been brilliant. Last week was just another example of how these prep-type races are unbetttable as Warrawee Xenia was raced from the pack in a paceless race at odds of 3-5 and trotted up a storm late to close in :26.2. Maybe the post 11 second tier creates issues?

Mon Cheval was the winner of that Warrawee Xenia race last week and now finally lands an inside post in a big race; she's seemed long overdue for that. She was handled aggressively last week and was strong; will need to be ever better now but that was an encouraging step forward. Raised By Lindy is perhaps still sorting herself out in her sophomore season. She couldn't track down Fashion Schooner nor hold off Jiggy Jog S from third last out at the Meadowlands, but there's no disgrace in either of those two things; took a lifetime mark two back at Lexington. Peyton Hanover surprised to take the "B" NJ Classic Final last out when she swept from loose third over cover; maybe is around if the pace sets up for her. Adare Castle threw in a rare clunker last week; likely back to speed tactics now but will have to get involved from an outside post. Mischievous Rose couldn't get close to Mon Cheval last week from the pocket but was able to hang out for second over the oncoming Warrawee Xenia.

RACE 8, $900,000 METRO FINAL

This is another race that's going to have a clear favorite, this time in Save America. The Takter trainee has stormed through the 2-year-old stakes in Canada including the Nassagaweya, Champlain and then his Metro elimination last week when he moved uncovered from sixth and earned a measured win without too much anxiety; second time this year he's broken 1:50. This is a competitive group of frosh colts however, and there are reasons to go beyond just Save America for Pick-5 purposes.

Stockade Seelster went down in defeat last week for the first time in seven career starts, and that was a bit of a surprise. One race removed from that super OSS Gold win in 1:49.3, he took pressure in his Metro elimination early to rebuff a rival into the pocket and then again at the top of the stretch and ended up being passed late both to his inside and outside. He does land a great post on Saturday to potentially rebound. Tickertape Hanover matched strides with Stockade Seelster for much of their mile last week and looked like a winner for a moment in deep stretch. He was an impressive winner two back in the Nassagaweya and was runner-up to Save America three back. Tip Top Cat pulled off a shocker in his Metro elimination for team McNair and the aggressive handling paid off. After leaving early and securing a close, inside spot, the Always B Miki colt skimmed up the rail to win at odds of 31-1; anxious to see if he's that good again. Huntinthelastdollar was used early in his elimination and was fair late, similar for Ace of Aces. Ants Marching will be a longshot in this final, but he did make a circling move around the final turn in his elimination and kept his momentum going well enough in the stretch. Moment Is Here continues to outrace his odds against the best 2-year-olds; deserves some respect.

RACE 9, $615,000 CANADIAN TROTTING CLASSIC

This edition of the CTC for 3-year-old colts contains many of the usual suspects we've seen from over the past couple of seasons now and is probably the widest open of any race in this Pick-5 sequence.

Horses I wouldn't want to get beat by include a host of them, starting with Pretender. He's been quite good in his last three and has come to the form that I'm sure his connections had expected of him all year. He popped the two-hole early last out in the New Jersey Classic and was proved right as he gradually went on by and lasted to the wire in a compact field that included a win over 1-9 favorite Temporal Hanover. Branded By Lindy picked a good time to deliver, winning the $400,000 KY Sires final last week at the Red Mile when he tracked down the cover of Rebuff. Keg Stand is another worth including, coming off two strong front-end tries for Takter. It looks like he'll pick up a new driver too in Todd McCarthy as Andy is listed on Pretender.

Horses that I'll reluctantly exclude but warrant a mention include King Of The North, who remains winless on the year through nine starts. He hasn't been bad, but he hasn't intimidated anyone either. Simcoe winner Twin B Archie will get attention from the hometown crowd; faces some new and tough foes. Slay did surprise in the Dancer in July but outside of that I would be surprised. Fast As The Wind gave way last out in Lexington and now has post 10. Periculum will be a big longshot but did have some late trot to offer two weeks ago in that NJ Classic. Duly Resolved nearly pulled off a shocker on this night last year in the Mohawk Million; exits an encouraging try.

RACE 10, $1,000,000 MOHAWK MILLION

This is the third edition of the Mohawk Million and fillies have been prominent in the first two years of the race. Of course, with super 2-year-old filly Righteous Resolve not entered in this race despite a smashing record score last out in the Champlain, this race looks open.

Favoritism may end up going slightly to Winners Bet. One of two Walner colts in here, he punched his ticket by winning the Wellwood two back when he rode the cover of International Man to edge by late for the win. Last week, he was used early from post 10 and floated many paths wide into the first turn before having to continue onward from fifth before eventually clearing to the lead. There was no shame in getting beat off that trip by pocket-sitting Gaines Hanover, but he'll need to bring his best. Another one to attract attention will be Oh Well. The New Jersey Sires Stakes and NJ Classic winner makes his Woodbine Mohawk debut for Melander and Tetrick; interesting to see how form translates.

From inside out for other possibilities, Proud To Be Lindy was pretty good last week in the Champlain where she showed speed and had decent trot after being shuffled back behind a gapper; did well to stave off a rival filly for second. Oh Look Magic went a tough trip in the Wellwood when she couldn't clear to the lead and dueled, rebounded nicely to beat fillies that included International Man in the Champlain. Yo Beth D invades from Indiana and has been thriving for Luther. Silly Me Hanover raced encouragingly last out in her first start since the Peaceful Way; connections seem to shine in spots like this. Dw's Point Man has had most of his success on the smaller tracks but he did win here at Woodbine Mohawk two back; needs to go faster. What An Angel was decent last out despite the big step up in class; moving in the right direction. Crantini was super far back after an early break for the start last week and actually did really well for herself to finish within touch.

Meet the field for the 2022 Mohawk Million

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

The third edition of the Mohawk Million will headline a $3.6 million card of racing this Saturday (Sept. 24) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

M O H A W K
MILLION

Started in 2020, the Mohawk Million is an event for 2-year-old trotters that follows a 'buy-in' format. A total of nine slots were available for purchase at the cost of $100,000 (Cdn) each for entry in the $1 million (Cdn) Mohawk Million. The 10th and final slot was awarded to the winner of the William Wellwood Memorial on Aug. 27.

The owners of the slots were not required to declare a 2-year-old trotter for the race until Monday at noon. Each slot is considered an entity that could be sold, traded or leased.

Just like in past years, several of the slot owners worked out private deals with their spot in the race. Owner Brad Grant has had the winning slot in both editions of the 'Million', securing a horse that he did not own in each victory.

Here is a breakdown of this year's slot owners and field.

#1 OH WELL (SLOT OWNER: HUNTERTON FARMS & PARTNERS)

Owner: S R F Stable

Trainer: Marcus Melander

Driver: Tim Tetrick

Hunterton Farms' Steve Stewart has bred both winners of the Mohawk Million (Venerate and Venerable) and now is in the position of slot owner. Hunterton & Partners secured Marcus Melander trainee Oh Well for the $1 million race. The son of Muscle Hill has been the top rookie trotter in New Jersey Sires competition, winning the Sires Stakes final in July and the NJ Classic on Sept. 16.

#2 PROUD TO BE LINDY (SLOT OWNER: BRAD GRANT)

Owner: Bax Stable, Glengate Farms

Trainer: John Bax

Driver: Chris Christoforou

Brad Grant is two-for-two when it comes to his slot in the Mohawk Million. The Milton, ON resident worked out deals to secure Venerate in 2020 and Venerable in 2021. Now Proud To Be Lindy from the John Bax barn will look to keep Grant's streak alive. The daughter of Muscle Hill is winless in six starts, but does have three runner-up finishes. Proud To Be Lindy is one of three fillies in this year's race.

#3 OH LOOK MAGIC (SLOT OWNER: GLENGATE FARMS – JIM BULLOCK)

Owner: Bax Stable, Glengate Farms, The Cavalier Stable

Trainer: John Bax

Driver: Matt Bax

Jim Bullock's Glengate Farms is competing in their second 'Million' and this time will be represented by one of their own in Oh Look Magic. The gelded son of Looklikeeachpndale is four for seven in his rookie season with notable victories in a division of the Champlain and an elimination of the Wellwood Memorial. The father-son team of John and Matt Bax will be looking for their million-dollar moment.

#4 YO BETH D (SLOT OWNER: DOUG OVERHISER)

Owner: Black Magic Racing LLC

Trainer: Todd Luther

Driver: Trevor Smith

Greg Luther's Black Magic Racing has been making a splash in recent years and now they're set to compete in the Mohawk Million after acquiring a slot from Doug Overhiser. Purchased by Black Magic Racing from Verlin Yoder in early-August, Yo Beth D moved to the barn of Todd Luther and continued her winning ways. The Indiana Sires Stakes star is five for seven on the season. Driver Trevor Smith will make his Woodbine Mohawk Park debut with the daughter of Helpisontheway in Saturday's rich contest.

#5 HASTY BID (SLOT OWNER: STEVE HEIMBECKER)

Owner: 1000063663 Ontario Inc, Paige Austin

Trainer: Paige Austin

Driver: James MacDonald

Steve Heimbecker has been a strong supporter of the Mohawk Million. The prominent owner was part of the group that held the slot used by winner Venerate in 2020. This time around Heimbecker has worked a deal with Paige Austin and James MacDonald for their 2-year-old trotter Hasty Bid. A gelded son of My Mvp, Hasty Bid has two wins in six starts, including a victory in the Wellwood Memorial Consolation. Trainer Austin is in her rookie season and is one of three female trainers in the race.

#6 WINNERS BET (SLOT: WELLWOOD WINNER)

Owner: Lindy Farms of Conn, Robert Rudolph

Trainer: Domenico Cecere

Driver: Dexter Dunn

Winners Bet punched his ticket to the Mohawk Million with a strong victory in the Wellwood Memorial on Aug. 27. The Domenico Cecere trainee has won three of six starts and never finished outside the top-three. Winners Bet is looking to become the first Wellwood winner to capture the 'Million'. On A Streak finished third in 2020, while King Of The North was fifth in 2021.

#7 SILLY ME HANOVER (SLOT OWNER: DETERMINATION)

Owner: Determination

Trainer: Luc Blais

Driver: Bob McClure

Serge Godin's Determination has supported the Mohawk Million from day one and will be sending out their fifth 'Million' starter on Saturday. Silly Me Hanover will look to get Determination their first victory in the rich race. The daughter of Walner is two for five to begin her career, with both victories coming in legs of the Pure Ivory Series.

#8 DWS POINT MAN (SLOT OWNER: CRAWFORD FARMS)

Owner: Ecurie CSL, 9174 7998 Quebec Inc.

Trainer: Richard Moreau

Driver: Louis-Philippe Roy

Crawford Farms has worked out a deal for their support to be used by Dws Point Man. A relative unknown in Ontario until recently, Dws Point Man made five starts in Saratoga, NY to begin his career before Sylvain Descheneaux's Ecurie CSL and Sophie Bourgeois' 9174 7998 Quebec Inc. purchased gelded son of My Mvp. Since joining the barn of Richard Moreau, Dws Point Man is two-for-two with both wins coming in Ontario Sires Stakes Gold events.

#9 WHAT AN ANGEL (SLOT OWNER: GINO TOSCANI)

Owner: Gino Toscani

Trainer: Desiree Jones

Driver: Mark MacDonald

Gino Toscani returns to the Mohawk Million with one of his own. Toscani had two slots in last year's 'Million', racing one his own, while working out a deal with different connections to use the other. Archangel colt What An Angel has made 10 starts this season, posting a win and five top-three finishes for trainer Jones.

#10 CRANTINI (SLOT OWNER: THESTABLE.CA)-

Owner: TheStable Crantini Group

Trainer: Megan Scran

Driver: Yannick Gingras

The rapid rise of the TheStable.ca has been well documented. Founded by Anthony and Amy MacDonald, the fractional ownership operation now has over 900 partners from more than a dozen countries around the world. International Moni colt Crantini has had a successful campaign to date, posting three wins and five top-two finishes from seven starts. The chestnut colt joined the barn of Megan Scran in early-summer and enjoyed a successful Pennsylvania Sires Stakes season.

Saturday's Mohawk Million card also includes the $900,000 Metro Pace, $615,000 Canadian Trotting Classic, $525,000 Shes A Great Lady and $350,000 Eleganceimage. Post time is 7 p.m.

Ken Warkentin is a beauty

by Debbie Little

According to the website NCAA.com, "beauty" is hockey slang for "a player who is loved not only for his skills, but for his personality. He is one of the coolest guys on the team and usually has great stories. He might also have the best flow on the team."

Sounds like a good term for newly minted Hall of Famer Ken Warkentin, who's living out his childhood dream, although he did have to trade skates for sulkies.

"I had this pipedream to be a play-by-play announcer in hockey or a color guy," said Warkentin. "And then I found this thing on the side, called harness racing."

At 14-years-old, Warkentin saw his first race at his hometown track, Greenwood Raceway in Toronto. And, at that time, he remembers reading the sports section of his local newspaper, the Toronto Star, and responding to a feature that offered young fans the opportunity to meet a sports personality.

So, he wrote a letter to the newspaper because he wanted to meet Greenwood's track announcer and shortly thereafter was contacted by Jim Lampman, long-time publicity director for the Ontario Jockey Club.

"And I met Earl Lennox and I spent a whole night there," said Warkentin. "And he said, 'If you ever want to come up and call qualifiers, you can.' Which I did."

While at college, Warkentin got a summer job at Greenwood working in the race office and calling the baby races.

One night, when Lennox was on vacation, Jack Stephens was scheduled to call but was running late, so the judges asked Warkentin to give the changes and do the post parade.

As they were moving behind the gate, Stephens finally walked in and Warkentin handed him the mic and went to leave.

"He says 'Hey, you know these, right?'" said Warkentin. "I say 'Yeah, I think so.' And he hands me the mic and I did the first race."

A columnist from Toronto's Globe and Mail newspaper got wind of the story and wrote about the aspiring announcer who got his big chance.

Warkentin grew up a few streets over from Flamboro Downs track announcer Wayne Reed.

"I would drive to Flamboro and he would let me call two races a night and do post parades," said Warkentin. "I wasn't getting paid but he was giving me good exposure."

When Reed retired, Warkentin became the Flamboro announcer from 1982-90, before moving to the States.

Following a one-year stint as publicity director and backup announcer at Ohio's Northfield Park, Warkentin got his dream job when he was hired to work at The Meadowlands in 1991.

Dave Landry

For 31 years, Warkentin has been the voice of The Meadowlands.

Courtesy Ken Warkentin

A young Ken Warkentin calling the races at Flamboro Downs.

“It’s got to be fun and if it’s not fun, find something else. I really love the pressure. Put me in that spot. I’m prepared. I’m ready to go. Now, you can put the light on. Put me there. I want to be there. I want that pressure.”

He’s now in his 31st year at the mecca of harness racing and is quick to point out that through the whole of his tenure, he has been part of a terrific on-air team that’s included John Bothe, Dave Brower, Shades Demsky, Edison Hatter, Bob Heyden, Dave Johnson, Dave Little, Sam McKee and Jessica Otten.

Warkentin has called and done TV work at many different tracks throughout his career, and in addition to The Big M, for over the last dozen years, he’s been part of broadcasts from Red Shores at the Charlottetown Driving Park on Prince Edward Island, one of Canada’s Maritime Provinces.

“Because The Meadowlands is not racing at that particular time it allows him to do some work on our signature events,” said Lee Drake, manager of racing, brands, and broadcast for Red Shores. “The winner is really us and our team. Ken is a true professional. He always comes prepared. And he’s a true delight for the customers and also the horsepeople get along great with him.

“When Ken comes to Prince Edward Island, he’s here to work and whether it’s on the broadcast or backfilling for [announcer] Vance Cameron when he has to go to the booth and call some races or hosting something with me, he’s just a pro and that’s why he’s going into the Hall of Fame.”

Last week, while out taking a walk, Warkentin got the call about his Communicators Hall of Fame election from U.S. Harness Writers Association president Barry Lefkowitz.

“He told me and then it started to sink in and then we started talking about hockey for two hours,” said Warkentin with a laugh. “It kind of sums up your career. It kind of sums up your life. It puts a nice bow on a lot of work.”

Even though they never worked together, former voice of The Meadowlands Tom Durkin had a profound influence on the announcer that Warkentin would become.

“Long ago, I tried to figure out the right way to do this and there weren’t many out there that inspired me except Tom Durkin,” said Warkentin.

Coincidentally, the three best pieces of advice that Warkentin ever received all came from people who have at least, occasionally, handled a mic.

“Jack Stevens told me ‘The stars are on the track and your job is to highlight them. That’s it. You’re not the star, they’re the stars,’” said Warkentin. “Earl Lennox said ‘If you want to pursue this that’s up to you but you really need to try different things, different jobs.’ And [Hall of Famer] Jerry Connors told me ‘Talk to people. Go out and ask questions.’”

Warkentin was extremely close to Hall of Fame announcer Sam McKee, who died unexpectedly at 54 from stroke complications in 2017.

It’s not lost on Warkentin that going into the Hall will put him back in the same room with McKee, since their sketches will hang near one another. And he believes that McKee is happy for him.

“We were a good team,” said Warkentin. “Sam was the king. I try to be better every day. And I know I’m 63 and father time wins every time. But, when you’re able to utilize what you’re good at and you enjoy it, isn’t that the key to life?

“It’s got to be fun and if it’s not fun, find something else. I really love the pressure. Put me in that spot. I’m prepared. I’m ready to go. Now, you can put the light on. Put me there. I want to be there. I want that pressure.”

Drake made the trip to Goshen, NY when the “King of PEI”, driver Wally Hennessey, was inducted and has Sunday, July 2, 2023 circled on his calendar.

“He’s pretty humble,” said Drake of Warkentin. “I’m not sure he realizes the connection that he has [with the fans]. He’s very recognizable and very approachable and easy to talk to, so he fits right in with our Island charm here.”

David McDuffee may never top this

by Bob Heyden

Owner David McDuffee is likely Hall Of Fame bound one year soon. But I wonder if he has ever topped the weekend of Aug. 13-14 in 1994. He was five-for-five, winning two overnights at Foxboro, the $747,400 Woodrow Wilson by a nose with Magical Mike, the Adios as a longshot with full brother Miles McCool and the Wilson consolation with Hawaiian Hole.

:24 FLAT – HOW LONG WILL IT HOLD?

On July 24, 1996, Dixie Cheer lowered his own mark at Vernon Downs – the quarter-mile dash mark – to :24. Greg Merton drove the 8-year-old gelding who improved to $56,087 lifetime. He won by 4 and a half lengths.

It is now 26 years later and he still holds the record. How long will this stand?

40 YEARS SINCE

Workaholic, the first Breeders Crown winner, was born 40 years ago (3/15/82). We are about two weeks from his milestone win in the first ever Breeders Crown, held at Lexington on Oct. 5, 1984. His yearling ad looked like this:

“Half brother to European champion At Risk 3, 1:59.4, the first 3-year-old to trot under 2:00 in Europe and winner of his first 17 starts. Family of Speedy Somolli world champion 1:55.”

POINTS FOR HONESTY

You want points for honesty? This buyer sure gets them. I recently came across a resale slip from 74 years ago at Harrisburg. All slips carry the reason that such and such a horse has to be resold. Check this one out:

Hip #68 Bertie Schuyler: “Buyer bought more horse than he can handle.”

THE FIRST GREAT ATLANTA

Yes, there was another trotting filly named Atlanta. She was born in 1883 and was sired by Attorney.

Several ownership transfers and she wound up the property of Daniel Hayes. Her first foal in 1888 was Alix, who became the fastest ever female trotter – 2:03 ³/₄.

Her second dam was sired by the thoroughbred Iowa.

60 YEARS AGO YOU SAY?

In 1962, $928,740,959 was bet on the sport up 8.2 per cent from 1961. The attendance of 16,161,655 was up 6 per cent from the year prior.

Su Mac Lad was 8-for-13 and earned Horse of the Year honors. There were 112 2:00 miles recorded 94 by pacers and 18 by trotters.

Matastar twice time trialed in 1:55.4 in an attempt to lower Greyhound's record set 24 years earlier.

A Cs Viking won the Hambletonian for Sanders Russell who with a broken ankle had to be lifted in and out of the race bike.

JIM CAMPBELL

If he makes it to the 2023 Hambletonian at age 61, it would be the same age as his brother John when he made his final Hambletonian start (2016 – ninth with The Royal Harry).

Jim is a one-time assistant to Glen Garnsey – but only after he assisted John in 1982 the year they won the Jug with Merger.

Run The Table, Tagliabue, Indian Alert, Jefs Eternity – it's easy to forget some of Jim Campbell's former stars because he is still so relevant.

MARK MACDONALD JOINS $100 MILLION CLUB

He's not 44 until December, but Mark MacDonald has reached the $100 million club. At the same age, Ron Pierce was at $54 million in 2000.

Still, MacDonald is a long way from his $300 first purchase of Jim Bob Skipper at age 13. His first two winners on the fair circuit at the very same oval Joe O'Brien won his first races in 1932 – St. Peters Matinee Track.

SOME FACTS ON JACK DARLING

- Born 2/3/52
- 2015 Unsung Hero winner and Presidents Award winner.
- 1996 Canadian Trainer of the Year.

He campaigned:

- Twin B Champ – $437,235, 1:50.4 and the 2000 North America Cup favorite.
- Gothic Dream, a $27,000 yearling (sound familiar?) won the Metro equaling the 1:51.3 world record.
- Northern Luck, a son of Camluck, won $907,974 and was the 1:49.1 fastest ever nighttime horse (at 3) after winning the Tattersalls at the Red Mile.

In summation, set the world record at 2 with Gothic Dream, the world record at 3 with Northern Luck and the world record at 4 with Bulldog Hanover.

125 YEARS OF SPEED

Taking us to where we are today:

- 1897 – Star Pointer TT 1:59.1/4
- 1903 – Dan Patch TT 1:59
- 1903 – Dan Patch TT 1:56.1
- 1904 – Dan Patch TT 1:56
- 1905 – Dan Patch TT 1:55.1/4
- 1938 – Billy Direct TT 1:55 (same week as Greyhound's 1:55.1 on the trot)
- 1955 – Adios Harry 1:55
- 1960 – Adios Butler TT 1:54.3 (first HOY to do this (the award did not begin until 1947))
- 1966 – Bret Hanover 1:54 (first to do so in a race – Vernon Downs for a $26,000 purse)
- 1966 – Bret Hanover TT 1:53.3
- 1971 – Steady Star TT 1:52
- 1980 – Niatross TT 1:49.1

1993 – Cambest TT 1:46.1

2016 – Always B Miki 1:46

2019 – Lather Up 1:46

2022 – Bulldog Hanover 1:45.4

Notice the dominance of sire Adios from Adios Harry-Adios Butler and then Bret Hanover.

Direct Scooter (Sampson Direct-Noble Claire by Noble Victory) sired Matts Scooter and had trotting blood.

Here's the copy from his 1978 ad selling as a 2-year-old unraced at Harrisburg:

"A quick and well-gaited individual who goes free-legged and worked in 2:14 before being turned out in May. Should make a very useful raceway horse. He is the second living foal of the stakes-placed Noble Clair 2:04 she a half-sister to the trio of stakes-winning fillies Lucille Eagle 2:00.1, Claire Sampson 2:00.3 and Jean Sampson 2:02.3 and to the dame of Noble Gal, 1:58.2."

Sparkling race card at Solvalla on Saturday

by Thomas Hedlund

Three-year-old trotters are in focus when the $800,000 Kriteriet and 560,000 Oaks are on the race card at Solvalla on Saturday (Sept. 24). In addition to the two big stakes races, a $150,000 STL open is on the menu.

Roger Walmann-trained Bedazzled Sox (Brillantissime) will most likely be the bettors' choice in Kriteriet over 2,640 meters. Walmann's horse won his elimination heat at Solvalla on Sept. 9 without problem after a front-end trip. Bedazzled Sox won the $200,000 E3 in July, finished second in the $200,000 E3 in August and is by far the most merited trotter in the field Saturday. In his runner up performance in E3, Stefan Melander's Nuncio son Following proved to be the best. Paired with Björn Goop, Following will be a serious shot in Kriteriet.

Walmann trains three contenders, Daniel Redén has four horses in the race, of which three of them won their respective eliminations. Redén's main driver, Örjan Kihlström, drove all four horses in the eliminations and he has opted for the only one that didn't win for the final. Kihlström's choice is Xanthis Harvey (Propulsion), who starts from post 11.

In the $560,000 Oaks, Timo Nurmos has pole position with three horses in the race, where Aurelia Express (Readly Express) and Bonnewille W.I. (S.J.'s Caviar) start from the best positions, post 1 and 2 over 2,140 meters.

EUROPEAN TEAM SET FOR INTERNATIONAL TROT

October 15 is the date for $1 million Yonkers International Trot and the European team is set for the prestigious race. The International Trot has been presented in its current shape since 2015 and the last time the race was held was in 2019 (the COVID-19 pandemic forced a two-year break), when Italian trotter Zacon Gio won. Zacon Gio will represent Italy even this year and Europe sends a strong field to New York in October.

Ecurie D, who is trained by Åke Svanstedt, is obviously already in the U.S., but the horse will represent Denmark in the International Trot.

Elitloppet winner Etonnant is probably Europe's best shot at Yonkers this year, even if a half-mile track will be a tricky experience for him.

Cinema standardbred: a plot to promote the sport of harness racing - Part 5

by Frank CotoLO

Alternative Actions (AA) continues its series developed to offer the solution that has the best chance to change the nature of the film industry's ambivalence towards harness racing and perhaps inspire someone to pioneer a project that could be the most successful promotional tool standardbred racing ever utilized.

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

Part 3 is here.

Part 4 is here.

Year after year movies are released. Audiences and critics praise many of them and hand out award after award. Make no mistake about one thing, though. A movie is a community project. A veritable city neighborhood filled with residents have their creative and technical hands in it, all under the supervision of the Big Dog – the director. Yet, every movie begins with one or two writers describing a movie, i.e., a script.

The journey of script-to-film is long and arduous, but scriptwriters have total control and freedom before the work is put through the community-art mill. Even so, screen writers, especially newcomers, are inundated before writing a word. The good news is they do not have to be stunned before starting because there is a free writing tool offering countless ideas for stories (from start to finish) and it is free.

This is not a scam; this is a gift to be used that is accepted by the community of art. It is a library of well-constructed characters and stories used over and over – because they work. The proof is in hundreds of scripts made into movies. I offer proof blatantly, shamelessly, gratis adaptations.

You may not have struggled through Homer's 15th century epic poem "The Odyssey" but enjoyed the 2000 film, "O Brother Where Art Thou?" The Coen brothers turned the plot about Greek hero Odysseus' journey home war into a satire about three convicts escaping prison to search for treasure.

Re-imagining classic plots without being accused of plagiarism is common using classic literature. A wealth of film scripts are smeared with Shakespearean literary plots, themes, premises and even dialogue. "Motocrossed" (2001) is "Twelfth Night." "10 Things I Hate About You" (1999) used "Taming Of The Shrew" and Cole Porter's "Kiss Me Kate" was a Broadway musical about "Shrew" that became a musical film. Disney's 1994 animated hit, "Lion King" took generously from "Hamlet" and "West Side Story" is an adaptive "Romeo & Juliet."

Steve Martin's 1987 "Roxanne" was a contemporary version of Edmond Rostund's 1897 "Cyrano de Bergerac." Broadway's "Man of La Mancha" was book one of Miguel de Cervantes' 17th-century novel "Don Quixote." And on and on.

Some movies have strong similarities to other movies, thanks to inspiration, which rarely is indicted for copyright infringement. The original "The Magnificent Seven" is a cultural spin on Akira Kurosawa's "Seven Samurai." The 1981 space thriller "Outland" owes its story structure to 1952's "High Noon," and the original "Alien" is a glossy rendering of 1958's "It! The Terror From Beyond Space."

There are countless others but I rest my case. If you look into it, the volume of free and available adaptations is vast; it is a library abundant with the basic tools any screen writer needs to dismiss all excuses for not starting to write a screenplay or, for the matter of this series, not using harness racing as the "atmosphere" to support a proven-to-work premise from another literary source. I say proven because though the foundations of any screenplay are finite, they still allow great freedoms to be creative.

It is time to lay the groundwork. I am going to explain my process; show you how best to re-imagine a classic literary piece delivering elements needed to write your screenplay with a harness-racing presence. Purely for use in this exercise, I will choose the classic piece and its premise (thematic truth) and follow through with the process.

To show the process durable, start by choosing a genre. That's right, it's your choice. Do you want the screenplay to be science fiction, comedy, horror? Choose carefully because you will have to be loyal to the genre. I am going to use drama in modern times.

My classic-literature model is Mary Shelley's gothic novel, "Frankenstein."

The novel itself is based upon another classic source – the Greek myth of Prometheus, a human who steals fire from the gods to become god-like. There are a number of premises to work with when re-imagining. The source is a guide.

My re-imagining will be driven by the premise: "Vanity leads to self-destruction." I need not be concerned about a title or a specific location where the characters develop. I am merely a servant of the premise. Every scene in my screenplay has one purpose--move the story along and nurture the development of the characters so the completed script proves the premise.

The process ensues in the next part of the series.

Kildare King targets a crown at Harrah's Hoosier Park

Kildare King may not hold the star status several of his rivals possess in the fifth edition of the $220,000 Caesar's Trotting Classic tonight (Sept. 23) at Harrah's Hoosier Park, but one thing is certain: it will be all systems go for the gelding to take center stage.

"He has an engine on him," said trainer Chris Beaver. "He can really trot all day long and he deserves the opportunity."

Assigned post position nine in a field of 10, Kildare King, will have leading dash-winning driver Aaron Merriman holding the lines. The duo is 10-1 on the morning line and must face Cuatro De Julio (post position one, Yannick Gingras, 2-1), 2019 Hambletonian victor Forbidden Trade (post position six, Bob McClure, 6-1) and Breeders Crown winner Jujubee (post position seven, Andrew McCarthy, 5-1).

There is also the champion mare Bella Bellini (post position 10, Dexter Dun, 7-2).

Kildare King, however, will make the most of his spot behind the starter. Especially since he established a new track standard of 1:51.4 in his last performance at El Dorado Scioto Downs on Sept. 10.

Kildare King was placed in the New Jersey and Kentucky Sire Stakes programs as 3-year-old where he never quite put it all together.

As a freshman and sophomore Kildare King compiled a record of 22-2-3-2-2 and banked $68,475. But as a 4-year-old the gelding has blossomed.

Kildare King has been victorious in 10 of his 15 trips to the post this season with one second and one third. He has earned $226,730 and won six of his last 10 races.

"He really is a nice horse and is very competitive," Beaver said. "He earned his chance to show he belongs."

The gelding competes for his breeder, Robert Goodman.

Beaver also harnesses Ohio champion Winning Ticket (post position five, driver Todd McCarthy, 20-1). The 4-year-old son of Triumphant Caviar-Lotto Winner has not visited the winner's circle this season in two starts but his only loss last season from 12 pari-mutuel starts was a third in the $479,135 Canadian Trotting Classic.

Winning Ticket has banked $517,260 with a record of 22-15-0-1 for his trainer, Steven Zeeland, Tim Homan and Jim Burnett.

The Caesar's Trotting Classic is a component of an outstanding 15-race card at Hoosier Park that includes Bulldog Hanover, the world's fastest Standardbred, in the Hoosier Park Pacing Derby, Hambletonian winner Cool Papa Bell in the $90,000 Phil Langley Memorial and Hambletonian Oaks winner Fashion Schooner in the $110,000 Moni Maker.

Here is the field for the Caesar's Trotting Classic:

1. Cuatro De Julio (Gingras/Ortolan Bar) 2-1
2. It's Academic (DeLong/Burke) 15-1
3. Logan Park (Henry/Fellows) 20-1
4. Kings County (B. Miller/Van Hulzen) 12-1
5. Winning Ticket (Merriman/Beaver) 20-1
6. Forbidden Trade (McClure/Blais) 6-1
7. Jujubee (A. McCarthy/Wright) 5-1
8. Lovedbythemasses (Tim Tetrick/Cullipher) 8-1
9. Kildare King (Merriman/Beaver) 10-1
10. Bella Bellini (Dunn/Norman) 7-2.

Shenandoah Downs' seventh harness season kicked off with solid racing, ADW streaming

Shenandoah Downs kicked off a new era of racing in Woodstock, VA this past weekend, video streaming its racing feed to major Advance Deposit Wagering outlets for the first time ever. Race fans that have accounts with TVG, Xpressbet, Twinspires and NYRAbets were able to wager all the weekend action in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley, and will be able to throughout the eight-week meet which continues through Nov. 6.

The track opened last Friday (Sept. 16) with an eight-race card and followed Saturday with an 11-race program which featured a $10,000 open trot and three consecutive pacing events which finished in 1:55 or faster.

Fans, on track and online, saw Todd Warren guide 9-year-old Muscle Hill gelding Jack Verno — a trotter he co-owns with Lester Peters and Richard Tomei — take over the lead from Creekside Pete at the half in the feature, then maintain a 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ -length cushion all the way to the finish. Jack Verno crossed in 1:57.1 and won for the seventh time this year.

The first of those three consecutive paces kicked off when track record holder John's Dream initially won an $8,000 conditioned pace in 1:54.3, but the 9-year-old Dream Away gelding was placed second for causing interference to runner-up Art Nukem, who was awarded the victory in 1:55. The winner is driven/owned by Corey Braden and trained by Stacey McLenaghan.

Archie Buford piloted Benjamin Patrick's Crius n Rock to a win next in a $5,250 conditioned pace in 1:54.4. The 6-year-old Rock n Roll Heaven gelding won earlier this year in 1:54 at Oak Grove. Buford is competing at Shenandoah for the first time ever. The 35-year-old driver/trainer scored earlier in Saturday's card with Ideal Big Guy.

The third speedy mile was authored by reinsman Fern Paquet Jr. in a $7,000 conditioned pace aboard William Dagget Jr. and Lawrence Vukovich's McNeil Z Tam in 1:54.2. The 5-year-old son of Sweet Lou, who triggered a 1:51.4 effort at Pocono last year, won for the first time this year for trainer Jennifer Sansone.

Shenandoah Downs kicks off its second week of fall racing with a 10-race card on today (Sept. 23) at 4 p.m. Happy hour specials include $2 draft beers and $1 hot dogs. Saturday's card starts at 1 p.m. and the first 400 fans receive a free commemorative baseball cap.
