Venerate captures inaugural Mohawk Million

The victory in the sport's first "buy-in" race gives driver Andrew McCarthy a sweep of the sport's million-dollar races following his win with Ramona Hill in the Hambletonian.

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Venerate and driver Andrew McCarthy powered off cover at the head of the stretch to win the $1 million (USD) Mohawk Million on Saturday night (Sept. 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park (replay here).

A full field of 10 rookie trotters, including three fillies, met in the inaugural Mohawk Million, a “buy-in” race with nine slots available for the purchase of $110,000 each and a final slot awarded to the winner of the William Wellwood Memorial.

Racing in the slot of Brad Grant, Marvin Katz and partners, Venerate overcame a second-tier start with a perfect steer from McCarthy to win in 1:53.2. The Julie Miller trainee got away eighth and was able to follow the favorite Donna Soprano, eventually muscling by the previously undefeated filly to win by three-quarters of a length.

“I was hoping I’d get out of there a little closer, but after scoring him down I knew I couldn’t make him accelerate too fast, so I just wanted to get out of there upright,” said McCarthy. “He’s a very strong horse, I’ve seen that, I didn’t really care how far back I got, just figured I’d have to get through that first turn and then worry about where I’m going from there.

“The speed was pretty tough early, so it worked out where I could end up getting a pretty good trip, but when I looked up at the eighth-pole I was a long way back.”

Dave Landry

The victory gave driver Andrew McCarthy a sweep of the sport’s only two million-dollar races. He won the Hambletonian with Ramona Hill in August at the Meadowlands.

The opening stages of the race saw several horses leaving hard, causing a four-wide push into the first-turn. Altar cut a :27 opening-quarter before handing the lead over to Wellwood winner On A Streak, who was four-wide entering the turn. Donna Soprano got away sixth, while Venerate was eighth.

On A Streak led to the half in :56.1 just as Insta Glam came with a powerful rush to claim the top spot going into the final turn. Donna Soprano got her cue to go just before the half, as did Venerate and McCarthy seeing an opportunity to follow the favorite.

Insta Glam trotted a strong third-quarter to get the field to that station in 1:24 with a few lengths of separation.

In the stretch, Donna Soprano and Venerate trotted by Insta Glam to set up a battle of their own. Donna Soprano tried to hold on, but Venerate was too much to handle, powering by to victory.

A son of French stallion Love You out of Peaceful Kemp, Venerate was bred by Steve Stewart and Kemppi Stable and sold to the Pinske Stables and Andy Miller Stable for $90,000 at the 2019 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The connections negotiated a private deal with slot owner Brad Grant, Marvin Katz and partners to take a shot at the Mohawk Million.

"It's just shocking to go from not even having the race on our radar to being a real contender and then winning it," said Carter Pinske via text. "It really doesn't feel real. I am so thankful to my family, my parents and my grandma to buy a horse like this... Of course, we're also so thankful to the Millers who have been absolutely perfect partners for years to the Pinske family.

"We're also just so thankful to Brad Grant and Andy McCarthy for the opportunity on such a messed up year. On a night we couldn't be with the horse because of COVID-19, we

On A Streak finished third, while Insta Glam was fourth.

Venerate is now four for seven and adds the winner's share of the $1,320,000 purse to his previously earned $188,766.

The victory for driver McCarthy gives him a sweep of harness racing's two richest races in 2020. McCarthy won the $1 million Hambletonian on Aug. 8 at The Meadowlands in New Jersey.

"It feels amazing just to be involved in a race like this," said McCarthy. "It's important to hold races like this, it draws a lot of attention and hopefully it hangs around for next year."

The inaugural Mohawk Million was the richest standardbred race contested in Canada since the 2012 Pepsi North America Cup. The inaugural race headlined a $2.8 million card, which included the $720,000 Metro Pace, $455,000 Shes A Great Lady and $215,000 Milton.

A $2 win ticket on Venerate returned $6.80.

Lawless Shadow rocketed out to the front, posting a :26 opener. Bayfield Beach looped to the top from second and led the field to the half in :55.1 and three-quarters in 1:22.1.

Abuckabett Hanover got away sixth and started the first-up bid in the second-quarter. The Alagna pupil grinded to within a length of the lead at three-quarters, while Exploit followed his every move.

In the stretch, Exploit shot off cover to surge by his stablemate and eventually by a game Bayfield Beach to win by half a length in 1:50.4. Lawless Shadow crossed the line third, while Abuckabett Hanover was fourth.

A son of Somebeachsomewhere—Time On My Hands, Exploit was bred Michael Robinson, Robert Mondillo, Steve Cheatham and Steve Stewart. The pacer was two-for-seven coming into the Metro final and had finished fourth in his elimination. The Alagna trainee was a $165,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase and adds $360,000 in earnings to a previously earned $26,457 for owners LeBlanc and Kribbs, Joe Sbrocco, In The Gym Partners and Joe Barbera.

Exploit's triumph gives driver McNair his first Metro title and trainer Alagna his third to go with wins in 2012 with Captaintreacherous and 2014 with Artspeak.

“They do a great job,” said McNair of the Alagna barn. “It's great to get to drive for them and their horse showed up tonight.”

A $2 win ticket on Exploit returned $73.90.

Scarlett Hanover was the first to the wire in a blanket finish, but was disqualified to ninth after causing interference.

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

Caviart Audrey went from second to first following a long inquiry in Saturday's (Sept. 26) $455,000 Shes A Great Lady at Woodbine Mohawk Park (replay here).

Scarlett Hanover and driver Andrew McCarthy found a seam late at the pylons after screaming for room throughout the stretch. It appeared Scarlett Hanover had grabbed the victory. However, the judges lit the inquiry sign and found Scarlett Hanover caused interference to a pair of horses when searching for room. She was disqualified to ninth after being found to have bumped Lady Arthur, causing a chain-reaction bump into Twin B Sunkissed who went off stride.

Nancy Takter trainee Caviart Audrey and driver Yannick Gingras inherited the victory after a very game effort in a race filled with action from start to finish.

Scarlett Hanover blasted to the lead, posting a :26 opening-quarter. Notorious Pink rushed to the top in the second-quarter from fourth and posted blistering fractions of :53.4 and 1:21.4.

Caviart Audrey moved from mid-pack at the half and pressed first-up around the final turn.

The lead fillies were clearly fatigued from the hot fractions, but gamely dug in. Notorious Pink kept the rail shut, as Scarlett Hanover and McCarthy were crying for room. As expected, the backfield came to life in the lane to set up a wild finish.

A five-across finish saw Scarlett Hanover sneak up the rail to hit the wire first in 1:52.2. Caviart Audrey was second by a head, but was placed first following the inquiry. Notorious Pink was third placed second, while Paulas Bet Hanover was placed third and Best Head West placed fourth.

A daughter of superstars Somebeachsomewhere and Darlins Delight, bred by White Birch Farms, Caviart Audrey was a $280,000 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale purchase. The victory gives her five wins in six starts and $354,237 in earnings for owners Caviart Farms (Buck and Judy Chaffee).

The third quarter was the decisive quarter in the race, as Kissin In The Sand paced a :28 split without any pressure. Treacherous Reign committed first-up going into the far turn, but didn't gain much ground, leaving the leader untouched.

Kissin In The Sand, with the jump on her rivals, never had any anxious moments. Lit De Rose, who left hard, dug in at the rail to finish second. Caviart Ally sat second-over turning for home and edged Treacherous Reign for third.

A 5-year-old daughter of Somebeachsomewhere—Kiss Me Kate, Kissin In The Sand was large in her elimination, pacing home in :25.2 to win in 1:49.2. The elimination was her first start in several weeks.

“This mare is entirely 100 per cent due to Nancy Takter,” praised co-owner Marvin Katz. “From the time she was a baby, developing her as a baby she’s loved her...Nancy and I have had 50 discussions about stopping with her, because we want to breed of course, and it’s Nancy who has insisted that she’s good and great, Nancy loves this filly and deserves absolutely all the credit in the world.”

Kissin In The Sand is owned by Katz and Hatfield Stables and went over $2 million in career earnings with the Milton Stakes victory. She is now three-for-nine on the season and has 22 wins. She was bred by Christina Takter and John Fielding.

A $2 win ticket on Kissin In The Sand returned $5.

with MURRAY BROWN

Gabe Prewitt: “The words ‘it’s always been done that way’ are not part of my vocabulary”

by Murray Brown

Is there a single person with a greater involvement in harness racing than Gabe Prewitt?

None that I’ve met.

He has, to a large degree, been responsible for the renaissance of racing both at Pompano Park and, together with Joe Morris, and their rendition team, at Scioto Downs.

He is a small breeder and has been moderately successful in both breeding and racing a few horses.

He is among the foremost race callers in North America, regularly doing the duties at Red Mile and Pompano Park, but also subbing at several other racetracks.

He is an ace interviewer and a most astute handicapper.

Gabe Prewitt.

Special Notice

He was the head of the Kentucky Horseman's Association for 10 years.

He stepped into a role totally foreign to him as a pedigree reader at Harrisburg and did it as though he has been doing it all his life.

In August, he was named the director of racing for Caesars Entertainment-Racing, the parent company of Pompano, Scioto, Harrah's Hoosier Park and Harrah's Philadelphia (full story here).

He comes from a background devoid of horse racing and admits that he knew nothing about standardbreds until he moved into an apartment right across the road from Red Mile.

Previous to that, he had been somewhat a fan of the runners, attending the spring and fall meets at Keeneland while a student at the University of Kentucky.

A friend of his one night suggested they cross the road to see the trotters.

To that point he barely knew that harness racing existed. "What are they?" he asked his friend. "They are racehorses," his friend replied. "But instead of being ridden by jockeys, they are driven in sulkies by drivers. A major difference is that they don't gallop, they trot or pace – which are gaits which their breeding generally determines how they will race." So, they went across the road and Gabe discovered that he was having a terrific time. This was fun!

He started going regularly and like a sponge his head began filling with knowledge of this new found sport. Maybe more important, he was finding that he could make money while enjoying himself. What started as fun, turned to work. He became an astute handicapper. He would watch race reruns constantly. He would pick up every bit of information that he could possibly garner. He became consumed with the small things that often made the difference between winning and losing. He has always been a numbers person and when handicapping horse races, he would try to make the numbers work in his favor.

Upon his graduation from the University of Kentucky, he ventured into a few areas other than harness racing among them as a loan officer at a bank and a job with the Kroger grocery chain.

Throughout this period, he had become a devoted fan of harness racing with his interest growing as time evolved.

His first opportunity at a job in the sport was when he moonlighted as a teller at the Red Mile.

From there he progressed to the money room.

One evening, the track announcer, Kevin Mack, who was also the race secretary, became indisposed and asked Gabe if he would try subbing in for him.

From there, he eventually became the full-time announcer at Red Mile except during the Grand Circuit meet where his idol, and just about everybody's dear friend, Sam McKee, took over the microphone. While the greatest track announcer ever (mine and others' opinions) was calling the races, Gabe did the on-track interviews. There he met and became acquainted with just about all the great names in the sport.

After a few years at Red Mile, he was asked if he was interested in becoming the track announcer at Buffalo Raceway for their winter meet. He decided to give it a try.

At the beginning, he found the adjustment to the winter climate of Buffalo somewhat difficult compared to what he was used to, but he persevered and worked the microphone in Hamburg, NY for two racing seasons.

Throughout the time away, he was never more than a phone call away from his friend and mentor Sam McKee who was always available to give him advice and support.

Gabe, you were the horseman's representative with the Kentucky Horseman's Association from April of 2010 to this Summer. How did this come about?

"I was looking for a job in the industry and this position became available. I was very fortunate to secure it. At the time I was selling ads for the Thoroughbred Times. I realized the precarious nature of print journalism and decided I needed something more secure. The people there, especially its president Bob Stewart, could not have not been nicer and more accommodating. I was in charge of day to day operations and was involved with negotiations with the racetracks. I cannot emphasize enough the tolerance and help that everybody involved gave to me."

What brought you to Pompano? What have you done there?

"I think the number one thing, as it has hopefully been with every track with which I have been associated, has been not being satisfied with the status quo. The words 'it's always been done that way' are not part of my vocabulary. You need to try new things. They won't always be successful, but you need to try. Each year we've improved the product at Pompano. Joe Morris, my boss at Scioto, has been a great help as a mentor and friend. He understands racing. He understands bettors. So many tracks today are led by well-intentioned people who have never been in the fray of battle as bettors. In my opinion it really helps to be or have been a gambler yourself in order to better understand what your customers are looking for and what pleases or displeases them.

"In retrospect, I regret that we closed the meet at Pompano at least two weeks too early this year. We would have had the market all to ourselves. Goodness only knows how well we might have wagered during that period."

What are the reasons for the incredibly successful meet you had at Scioto this year?

"The first reason was probably that we were one of the first tracks out of the box. Nobody else was racing, so we had the action all to ourselves. I thought our racing was ultra-competitive. Some of it might have been due to a dearth of racing previously. People needed money. They hadn't been racing for a long period of time when usually money had been coming in. The expenses were virtually the same. The purse money was needed by everybody. This led to more competitive racing.

"We had a two-week audience pretty much to ourselves. Once other tracks started racing, we had built up our fan base considerably and they continued to wager with us. I also believe that a good part of our success was because of judicious management by our entire team. We also expanded the betting menu. Bettors love carry-over wagers with smaller takeouts. Perhaps more than anything, we tried to control our post times so that there was little – or better than that – no conflicts with other tracks. I believe that a combination of all these factors were involved with making the meet as successful as it was."

Gabe, you read pedigrees at sales. You started at the top, at Harrisburg and most recently you did a great job as a last-minute sub at the recent Ohio Select Sale. What brought you to it?

"Well, to a degree, you did. You highly recommended me to Pete Spears. Sam McKee had of course, passed away and they needed a replacement. Nobody replaces someone like Sam McKee. I was privileged to sit in his seat and to go third in line behind Ed Teefey and Hollywood Heyden. I would be lying if I said I wasn't nervous, if not downright scared. But it's like most things, especially things that you love doing – the more you do it, the more adept at it you become. I hope that as long as they will have me, will be as long as I read pedigrees at Harrisburg. Of course, this year the sale will be in Timonium Maryland."

Let's talk about some of the people you have been associated with.

Joey Costa - "A great guy who sometimes does not receive the credit he should get. Joe is somewhat of a man behind the scenes.

Before he came on the scene The Red Mile had no political juice in the Commonwealth of Kentucky. We were basically an unknown with little political power. Joe has changed that a great deal. He knows the powers behind the scenes and makes it a point that they know about The Red Mile and its importance. Despite us sometimes sitting at different sides of the table, he is also a very good friend. Joe has a philosophic side to his nature. Many of our conversations have little or nothing to do with horses or racing."

Sam McKee - "In two words simply THE BEST. To have known Sam was to have loved him. He was the very best ever at race calling, reading pedigrees, as an analyst, as a horseman and perhaps most importantly as a great friend to anybody and everybody who was privileged enough to have known him. Any success I've had to some degree comes through Sam."

Joe Morris - "A terrific and talented man. Among racetrack management, he is about the best friend a horseman could possibly hope to have. I've been privileged to have him as my boss at the Thoroughbred Times and Scioto Downs. It would be extremely difficult to find a better one."

Dave Brower - "A great friend who I have known and also worked with for many years. He is one terrific handicapper and analyst as well as being as good as we have as a TV host."

Ed Tefey - "I first met Ed when reading pedigrees at Harrisburg. Ed has been there a long time and does a superb job of it. He was kind enough to recommend me for stints at the Indiana and Ohio Select sales when he was unable to be there."

Bob Heyden - "If there is a kinder, less selfish person in this business than Holly, I've yet to meet him. His knowledge is monumental and he is never reluctant to share or extend a helping hand."

Nick Salvi - "America's guest. He's here, he's there, he's everywhere. There's nobody in the sport who doesn't have a good word to say about Nicky. But behind all that bonhomie exists a strong and versatile work ethic. There is very little related to harness racing that Nick hasn't done and in some areas excelled."

What's the future hold for Gabe Prewitt?

"If I were to describe myself in one word, that word would be competitor. I am never satisfied with the status quo. I am always looking to improve and for higher mountains to climb. I hope that I am able to continue to remain with that mindset and work ethic."

Gimpanzee collars Atlanta to triumph in Caesars Trotting Classic

by Kimberly French, for Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino

They had eight high quality rivals including world champion Guardian AS, Breeders Crown victor Fiftydallarbill, Indiana champions Custom Cantab and Bridge To Jesse's and defending champion Lindy The Great, but it all came down to Atlanta and Gimpanzee on Friday (Sept. 25) at Harrah's Hoosier Park in the $150,000 Caesar's Trotting Classic. The mare and stallion did not disappoint as two of the most talented horses in the sport engaged in a scintillating stretch duel in which Gimpanzee narrowly prevailed.

Immediately subsequent to the wings of the gate unfolding, Guardian AS (Tim Tetrick) assumed control from post position nine, but he would only remain in that position after a first quarter in a spritely :26.3. That is when David Miller decided to steer Atlanta from sixth straight to the lead. The 5-year-old daughter of Chapter Seven appeared to relish the opportunity to obtain the lead and did not demonstrate any evidence of relinquishing that advantage as she led the field through fractions of :55 and 1:22.4 through the final turn.

Atlanta, however, was about to realize Gimpanzee and Brian Sears had other plans.

Gimpanzee was the slight favorite over the 2018 Hambletonian winner and settled in third for the first quarter mile after starting from post position six. When Atlanta moved to the front, Gimpanzee followed her hoofprints and around the track, biding his time based on Sears' guidance as to when he should find his best stride.

As these two horses made trotted their way to the finish line it appeared Atlanta would persevere until, with roughly a 1/16 of a mile remaining, Gimpanzee began to inch ever closer. Would he catch the Maple Leaf Trot winner? After all, she had got the best of him in that event when he came home third.

As the mare dug in it seemed she would do so once again. Yet Gimpanzee continued to advance as did Lindy The Great

Dean Gillette

Gimpanzee (Brian Sears) edged Atlanta in 1:51.2 in the $150,000 Caesar's Trotting Classic.

(Andy Miller), but it was clearly a two-horse race. Gimpanzee then drew alongside Atlanta and in a flash was in front. On this occasion, it would be he and not the mare who would visit the winner's circle at the Anderson, IN oval. Gimpanzee recorded a final time of 1:51.2 as did Atlanta but his :28.1 final panel compared to her :28.3 final quarter mile proved to be the difference.

Lindy The Great held off a fast closing Crystal Fashion (Jordan Stratton) for the show spot.

"He wasn't 100 up in Canada, he wasn't as sharp as he was all year," said Marcus Melander, Gimpanzee's trainer. "I wanted to qualify him last week to see if he was back to normal and I brought him here because he was. This worked out for his schedule. He has Lexington in two weeks and then the Breeders Crown. The track was good here today and I'm thrilled to be back in a month or so. He always gets the job done, he can race down Atlanta like he did today. She's an amazing filly but today we beat her and we're happy about that."

Owned by Courant Inc. and S R F Stable, Dan Patch Award winner and dual Breeders Crown champion Gimpanzee now has collected $2.48 million during his career and after an undefeated freshman campaign his record is now 31-21-2-3. He paid $3.60 to win with Atlanta providing $3.20 to place. Lindy The Great was $3.40 to show.

Crucial edges stablemate Sister Sledge for Moni Maker triumph

by Kim French for Harrah's Hoosier Park

Crucial, with David Miller holding the lines, was the first to enter the winner's circle in Grand Circuit action at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Friday (Sept. 25) when the 3-year-old filly captured the $105,000 Moni Maker Stakes. The daughter of Father Patrick—Jolene Jolene collected the first of eight trophies on Breeders Crown Preview evening. The sensational 15-race card disseminated $1.2 million in purse money.

Gimpanzee's full-sister Iteration (Brian Sears) won the $221,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management in 1:55 well in hand.

after the scratch of the No. 2 horse Princess Dubai, Crucial floated from the gate and went straight to the lead with Sister Sledge (Brian Sears) tracking in second. The Ron Burke trainee established the first fraction of :27.1 with ease as the field went around the first turn in single file. Crucial established the pattern of the entire contest as she went by the half-mile pole in :57.4 and the three-quarter marker in 1:27. Her rivals appeared content to allow the filly her own way on the front.

Shortly after the field rounded the final turn, Sister Sledge, who is also Crucial's stablemate, and Sears made their bid for victory as they came on through the inside. It appeared Sister Sledge may trot past Crucial shortly before the wire but when asked the leader kept to her task and hit the wire in front with Indiana champion Rock Swan (Trace Tetrick) in third. The final time was 1:54.1.

Owned by Burke Racing Stable, William Donovan, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby and Weaver Brussemi, the filly lifted her career bankroll to $484,696 and improved her overall record to 22 8-2-5. She most recently finished third in the $250,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes final at Red Mile and was crowned a Pennsylvania Sire Stake champion after winning the $252,000 final in her previous trip to the post. Crucial was also fourth in the $500,000 Hambletonian Oaks and has been an extremely consistent performer throughout her career.

No Lou Zing (Dexter Dunn) won the $100,000 Jennas Beach Boy in 1:49.3.

“She has flown under the radar for us just a tad,” said co-owner Mark Weaver. “Sister Sledge was just so good at 2 I guess I can understand why. Crucial just continues to improve and David Miller really seems to get along with her. She’s raced great for him every time he’s driven her, included a locked-in fourth in the Hambletonian Oaks.”

Sent off as the second choice behind the favored Sister Sledge, Crucial paid $4.20 to win. Sister Sledge provided her supporters with $2.20 to place and Rock Swan’s backers received $2.20 to show.

final, Test Of Faith (David Miller) easily passed the previously undefeated Somethingbeautiful (LeWayne Miller) to collect her sixth consecutive victory in the $220,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management for freshman pacing fillies.

A daughter of Art Major—Cannae Cammie, Test Of Faith was the slight favorite over Somethingbeautiful at post time. The Brett Pelling pupil began her journey over the Anderson oval from post position seven and settled in fourth position through the first split of :27.1 established by Continualou (Joe Bongiorno). After the first quarter mile, Miller moved Somethingbeautiful to the lead while Test Of Faith continued to remain in fourth. Somethingbeautiful hit the half in :57 and passed the three-quarter pole in 1:25.1 while Test Of Faith moved into third. As the fillies hit the top of the stretch Test Of Faith advanced into second and hit her best Test Of Faith paid $4.40 to win with Somethingbeautiful paying $2.60 and Gd Rockin Kay $4.80.

Brookview Bolt takes the Madison County

Sam Widger placed Brookview Bolt on the lead immediately after their departure from post position four and the duo never afforded their other eight competitors with the opportunity to gain that advantage in the $40,000 Madison County for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings. Trained by Ron Burke and owned by Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby and Weaver Brussemi, the son of Swan For All--Witty's Winner is now has a resume of 8-4-2-1 and has earned $86,950.

Swingforthe fences (Peter Wrenn) was second and Bridge To Success (John De Long) closed stoutly to be third.

Brookview Bolt paid $7.40 to win while Swingforthe fences paid his backers $3.20 and Bridge To Success $3.40.

Iteration impresses in Kentuckiana Stallion Management

Already attracting attention in her young career as the younger full sister to world and Breeders Crown champion Gimpanzee, Iteration (Brian Sears) demonstrated she has plenty of talent of her own with a gate-to-wire victory in the $221,000 Kentuckiana Stallion Management contest for rookie trotting fillies. Big City Pearl (Verlin Yoder) was second and Swift Swanda (Trace Tetrack) was third.

Iteration, a daughter of Chapter Seven--Steamy Windows, was sent straight to the front after starting her mile from post position five and that is where she remained. The filly clicked off fractions of :27.4, :57.3 and 1:26.2 before stopping the clock in 1:55 well in hand.

"She is a lot like Gimpanzee," said Sears. "Not much bothers her and she has real ability. She is also very easy to drive."

Trained by Marcus Melander for owner Courant Inc., Iteration now has a record of 6-4-1-1 and a bankroll of $258,194. She paid $4 to win. Big Pearl was $5.40 to show and Swift Swanda paid $4.20.

No Lou Zing shows a new dimension in Jenna's Beach Boy

After a freshman campaign in which he only raced on three occasions and failed to hit the board in all three attempts, No Lou Zing (Dexter Dunn) collected his sixth victory from 10 starts this season and has not failed to hit the board in any event he has competed in. Splash Brother (Trace Tetrack) was second and Allywag Hanover (Tim Tetrack) was third in this $100,000 race for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

No Lou Zing, a son of Sweet Lou—Terroronthebeach, broke alertly from post position four and Dunn was not about to impede his momentum. The gelding went straight to the lead and played "catch me if you can" with his nine rivals. Obviously, they could not as No Lou Zing appeared to only grow stronger as the mile went on. He established splits of :26.1, :55.2, and 1:23 prior to hitting the line in 1:49.3. It was a lifetime best for a horse that had never been on the front in that fashion and on this occasion, it was not quite by design.

"He was really immature last year, he had no concept of what being a racehorse entailed," trainer Nancy Takter said. "We gelded him and turned him out. Really we were babying him racing off the pace. I was nervous when he went to the lead. Probably not the plan for him to be on the front but it was really rewarding to see his maturity and how much he's become a racehorse. We actually didn't have him staked very much this year because he didn't race much last year but it has been very rewarding watching him progress this season."

Owned by 3 Brothers Stables, Rojan Stables and Caviart Farms, No Lou Zing now has a career record of 13 6-3-1 and has amassed $322,418 in purse money.

He paid $4 to win with Splash Brother providing $5.60 to place. Allywag Hanover paid $2.20 to show.

Southwind Gendry sails home to win The Elevation

It required every inch of the long Hoosier Park stretch but favored Southwind Gendry (David Miller) got the job done in this $120,000 event for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers. Virgo (Tim Tetrack) was second and What's Your Beef (Trace Tetrack) was third.

A son of 2016 Horse of the Year Always B Miki's first crop, Southwind Gendry is out of the Cam's Card Shark Mare Gambler's Passion. He commenced his journey from post position four in fourth place while What's Your Beef paced through fractions of :27.2, :55.3 and 1:23.2. When the field of 10 entered the top of the stretch it appeared What's Your Beef's efforts were beginning to take their toll and Southwind Gendry began to move from fourth place on his outside.

Just when it appeared What's Your Beef may hold on, Southwind Gendry provided one final burst to surpass the leader just prior to the finish line. The winning time was 1:50.4.

Owned by Burke Racing Stable, Philip Collura, Joe Sbrocco, Knox Services, Weaver Brusceci and J&T Silva-Purnel & Libby, Southwind Gendry's record now stands at 8-6-0-0 and he has earned $299,369.

Southwind Gendry paid $2.70 as the public's top choice. Virgo paid $9 to place and What's Your Beef $8.40.

This Is The Plan defends Hoosier Park Pacing Derby title

by Rose Flood / Harrah's Hoosier Park

On a night filled with stakes action, This Is The Plan made Hoosier Park history as he became the first back-to-back winner of the $140,000 Hoosier Park Pacing Derby at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Friday (Sept. 25). With Dexter Dunn in the bike, This Is The Plan utilized a pocket trip to score the victory by three parts of a length in 1:49.1. Dismissed at odds of 7-1, the Ron Burke trainee left alertly for position then utilized the passing lane to capture his third win from 10 seasonal starts.

A power-packed field of 10 lined up behind the wings of the gate and it was American History with Joe Bongiorno who protected their rail position and took the early lead through the opening quarter in a snappy :25.4. This Is The Plan left just enough from post three to grab a pocket seat while Backstreet Shadow and Tim Tetrack were next in line third. The field remained in straight formation through the half in :54.4. Backstreet Shadow was given the green light just before the three-quarters in 1:22 and he quickly ranged up to take command.

When the field turned for home, the race appeared to be wide open. Backstreet Shadow clung to the lead and braced for the cavalry charge to the wire. Dorsoduro Hanover and Matt Kakaley fanned out across the track with a full head of steam but it was Dunn who urged This Is The Plan into the passing lane to get the victory. He was followed by stablemates Filibuster Hanover with Chris Page in second and Dorsoduro Hanover with Matt Kakaley in third. This Is The Plan paid $17.80 to win at the betting windows.

"I wanted to get him out of there and he responded well," driver Dexter Dunn noted in the winner's circle. "Ronnie (Burke) told me before the race that this horse has been racing well so get him out of there early and then give him a shot late. This track takes a bit of getting used to. I had to work him through that long stretch but he really dug in well late."

With the victory, This Is The Plan now boasts a lifetime bankroll of $1,555,412 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi, J&T Silva - Purnel & Libby and Lawrence Karr. The victory was one of three wins on the evening's 15-race card for driver Dunn and one of three training wins for Burke. This Is The Plan also gave Ron Burke his fifth victory in the Hoosier Park Pacing Derby. The son of Somebeachsomewhere--That's The Plan was bred by Moni Market Breeders.

Redén lucky in his first attempt in Sweden's biggest race for 3-year-olds

by Thomas Hedlund

The $910,000 Svenskt Travkriterium, Sweden's biggest race for 3-year-olds, was held at Solvalla on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 26) and a new name presented himself in this stake. Daniel Redén has had several successful years as trainer since he became professional in 2017, but the Svenskt Travkriterium was a race that he never even had participated in as a conditioner prior to this year.

In 1998, Redén was groom when his horse Lucky Po won the Kriteriet with trainer Stefan Melander in the bike.

In this year's edition Redén had two shots – Brambling (Bold Eagle) won his elimination and Beacon Kronos advanced to the final via a second place two weeks ago.

In Saturday's race, Brambling exploded behind the gate and flew to the front with Örjan Kihlström in the bike. When in front, Brambling expressed nice form in eager style and when tough opponents San Moteur and Henry Flyer Sisu attacked at the back stretch, the pace increased. Brambling didn't really look like the winner in the last turn, but

Brambling (3, Örjan Kihlström) won the $910,000 Svenskt Travkriterium, Sweden's biggest race for 3-year-olds, Saturday at Solvalla.

Kihlström navigated the SRF Stable-owned horse gently throughout the turn and pulled the ear plugs when the field entered the stretch. Brambling came back on the inside and held San Moteur (trained by Björn Goop) and Henry Flyer Sisu (trained by Timo Nurmos) behind him in a mile rate of 1:57.3 over 1.6 miles.

"It's incredible how this horse wants to fight in the races. He's been quite difficult to get clean in his gait and he's close to pacing, especially in the turns, but his will is unbelievable," said Redén after the victory.

Suspended Goop happy alongside the track at Solvalla

Björn Goop had three horses in $635,000 Oaks at Solvalla racetrack on Saturday afternoon and from beside the track, the dominant driver – and successful trainer – saw his Bold Eagle filly Eagle Eye Sherry win the prestigious Oaks.

Stefan Persson replaced Goop in the bike and from post 1, Persson let Eagle Eye Sherry open quickly the first quarter of a mile, to then give the lead away to Beauty Kronos.

With undefeated Hoboken Am first over, the race was locked and the second part of the first lap was slow and horses in the back of the field got problems when the pace began to grow at the back stretch. Leader Beauty Kronos, paired with Örjan Kihlström, seemed to have control over the field in mid last turn, but the Muscle Hill filly lost her gait just ahead of the home stretch, which left Hoboken Am alone in the lead. From the pocket, Eagle Eye Sherry found her space to sprint and shortly before the wire, Goop's trotter disarmed Hoboken Am.

The mile rate over 1.3 miles was 1:57.3. Hoboken Am held strongly as runner up ahead of Barbro Kronos.

Björn Goop's other horses in Oaks finished fourth and fifth.

11 in a row for Mascate Match

Pekka Korpi-trained Mascate Match (Muscle Mass) knows how to win races and in the $135,000 Villinmiehen Tammakilpa in Lappeenranta, the 4-year-old mare took a safe wire-to-wire win in mile rate 1:58.1 over 1.3 miles.

This was Mascate Match's 11th consecutive win and she is by far the best 4-year-old trotter in the Finnish crop.

SELLING AT THE LEXINGTON SELECT YEARLING SALE

OCTOBER 5-9
KENTUCKIANA CONSIGNMENT

Buying yearlings can be very rewarding or a major risk. If you want to improve the reward and reduce the risk, consider a Wilt yearling purchase in 2020.

In 2017, Wilt sold five yearlings, four took records at two in 2018. In 2018, Wilt sold five yearlings, four took records at two in 2019. In 2019, Wilt sold six yearlings. Five have taken records, plus Charlie May.

Charlie May (McArdle-Stipple Hanover), owned by Don Tiger of Pa., was bred, foal & raised by Wilt Standardbred. Charlie May won THE NEXT GENERATION STAKE $150,000, and the OHIO TWO YEAR OLD COLT PACING CHAMPIONSHIP STAKES at Scioto Downs for $300,000 in record track and stakes time of 1:50.2, as well as setting a new National Seasons time for two year old pacing gelding of 1:50.2f. YTD record 1:52.2h, 1:50.2f earnings exceed $328,162, 9-7-2, still racing. Charlie May is considered one of the top two year old pacing colts in Ohio 2020.

Add to these results the professional manner in which Wilt yearlings have been raised from conception to their yearling sale to become Champions. Wilt two and three year olds have won major sires stakes in Indiana and Ohio, and beyond, both trotting and pacing.

French twist deux

by Trey Nosrac

David, the rich guy I drive around, was sitting in the back seat of the Lexus. We were waiting for Monique to retrieve her cellphone from his farmhouse kitchen. The plan was simple, take a drive in the country.

I said over my shoulder. "We got a big problem."

"What's that?" David asked.

"I'm in lust with your French lady friend. I spend every day of lockdown wishing her quarantine was at my place instead of with you and your mom."

He answered with a sigh, "Be careful what you wish for."

My eyebrows raised, "Trouble in Chateau De David?"

"Being locked up with a stranger is difficult, and she is practically a stranger. She just happened to be visiting when the virus struck."

"That sounds like a door is open for Trey to make a move."

He chuckled, "Move away or move her away. She might be a bit more than you can handle."

"Dude, she's great looking, has confidence, a sense of humor, money, and loves racing trotters. It's like you had your team from Silicon Valley build her for me."

He muttered, "The team needs a little more Beta testing. There's a thin line between confidence and arrogance, and she...here she comes."

She strutted to the open rear passenger door, shimmied in with a hint of peach perfume, closed the door, and chirped, "Bonjour, Monsieur Trey."

Looking at her in my rear-view mirror, I replied, "Que pasa? I hope the social distance is okay. You want me to mask up?"

"Non."

I asked, "How's it going in these strange times, in a strange land, marooned with a strange guy and his mother?"

She hesitated slightly, "D'accord."

"No, this is a Lexus, a new one, compliments of David."

"D'accord means things are fine."

I made my first move, "Remember you said you would tell me about French harness racing on our... hold on...um...on our la prochaine balade."

She gave a quick clap of her hands and said, "You remembered the French term for our next ride."

"Sort of, I printed them on my hand with a sharpie so I could impress you."

She gave a tsk, tsk noise and said, "Alas, since the great Trey found it necessary to write two simple words on his hand, he did not succeed."

"Touche. You remember where we left off in our last chat?"

"Oui, I was explaining how racing in France is different than America."

"Yeah, only trotters, big field, and longer distances. Let me ask a few questions about the business model in French racing. How is it different from America?"

She replied, "It is not stupide. We have one plan."

I had to defend my homeland, "We have several states that run harness racing operations. Each state does things a little differently, you know, different strokes for different folks, LAZY- fair, C'est la vie, let them eat cake."

"And how is that structure working out for harness horse racing in your country, Monsieur Trey?"

I shrugged, "Meh. How is racing going in France?"

"Bien."

"Well, that's good to know. So how does it work in France?"

"Do you want a long history or a short summary?"

"Short and simple."

"Trotters in France race under the PMU."

I shrugged and said, "Too simple, too short, and please don't use letters, por favor."

Monique flashed me a cat with a mouse smile, "The Pari Mutuel Urbain is a French company located in Paris that designs, promotes, markets, and is involved in the entire process of horse racing."

"Does this PMU run the gambling part of the deal?"

"Oui. Since 1985 the PMU is officially an economic interest group that links together over fifty racing companies, all of which are non-profit associations. Two companies regulate and provide racing. One is France Galop for flat and obstacle races, the other is Le Trot, for trotting races. For ten years, since online gaming became legal, the PMU now also operates sports betting.”

“If I interpreted that correctly, racing is all under the same umbrella.”

“Absolutely. American horse racing is madness.”

“Hardly madness we...” Suddenly she demanded, “Stop zee car.” Then she softened the command with a purred, “S’ilvous plait.”

Monique had spotted a roadside vegetable cart. I braked, backed up, and pulled the car into the gravel driveway. She masked up, exited, and strolled towards the tidy display of homegrown tomatoes, squash, and sweet corn.”

David and I remained in the Lexus, watching her chat with a teenage girl handling the store while sitting in a lawn chair.

I said, “She’s probably lecturing about how French vegetables are fresher.”

David asked quietly, “You still want to make those moves on mademoiselle and want her move into your place?”

I gave a slow shake of my head and mumbled, “Maybe we can work out a short-term lease.”

Bill Galvin dead at 89

Standardbred Canada reported Saturday (Sept. 26) (full story here) that Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame member Bill Galvin has died at the age of 89.

A native of Arnprior, ON, Galvin made a tremendous impact on horse racing in the country – so much so that he was part of just the second class to be inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame's Communicator category.

Galvin was a Canadian horse racing historian, poet, author, publisher, educator, horseman, humanitarian, publicist, former thoroughbred racing official and executive editor of TROT Magazine.

His promotions transcended racing. He led a charge to bring harness racing onto the ice on Ottawa's Rideau Canal and expose the sport to thousands of potential fans, one of those a young future Prime Minister of Canada, Justin Trudeau.

He started the Race for MS fundraiser to gain exposure for the sport as chronicled by Melissa Keith in HRU (full story here) and ran numerous other high profile campaigns dedicated to the well-being of horse racing during his career. He was also a member of the Advisory board for the School of Equine Studies at Toronto's Humber College of Applied Arts.

Galvin was the director of special promotions (harness and thoroughbred) for the Ontario Jockey Club and publicity chairman for the Greenwood Centennial Program. He produced a History of Grand Circuit Racing in Canada and the Golden Horseshoe Circuit Press Book, conducted equine poetry and art competitions for grade school children and organized both trotting under saddle races at Greenwood and intercollegiate harness driving championships.

He published Ballads of the Turf in 2006, was the first publicity chairman of the Sovereign Awards and published a 100-year history of racing at Greenwood and Woodbine. Galvin, the former president of the North American Harness Publicists Association, was a regular weekly contributor to Canadian and U.S. harness trade magazines, and wrote a regular nightly review of the races for the dailies and other media.

More recently, Galvin established 'The Stable That God Loves' as a fundraiser for the Standardbred Racetrack Chaplaincy of Canada. He continued to work with racetrack chaplaincy programs, serving as the Vice-President of the Race Track Chaplaincy of Canada Inc. He also delved into Standardbred racehorse ownership, co-owning 2020 two-year-old winner Shes A Sassy Beach with Woodbine Mohawk Park's Ken Middleton.

Details on arrangements will be posted when available.

Lexington Selected announces COVID-19 protocols

Officials of the Lexington Selected Sales Co. have announced COVID-19 protocols for both consignors and those planning to attend the upcoming yearling and mixed sales, to be held Oct. 5-10 at Fasig-Tipton's Newtown Paddocks in Lexington, KY.

"We're fortunate to follow Fasig-Tipton's own successful thoroughbred yearling sale, which was held here Sept. 9 and 10," sale co-manager David Reid said. "Both Randy (co-manager Randy Manges) and I were in attendance and able to see firsthand the measures they had in place. Everyone adhered to the regulations and the yearling shows and the sale went very smoothly.

Reid said the thoroughbred sale utilized two large tents for expanded seating and gathering areas, and those will be kept in place. They are located alongside the pavilion and in the lot behind the back walking ring.

The company's statement regarding protocols follows:

In advance of the upcoming Lexington Selected Yearling and Mixed Sales, the company has announced the following COVID-19 protocols will be in place in accordance with Kentucky regulations:

- Screening measures, including temperature checks and health screening questions, will be in place to gain admittance to the sales grounds for all staff, participants, and attendees.
- Cloth face coverings are required in accordance with U.S. CDC recommendations.
- Participants will not be allowed to congregate. At least six feet of distance must be maintained between people.

- Seating capacity in the sales pavilion will be reduced below 60% of capacity. Buyers are encouraged to enter the arena just before they are ready to bid on a horse.
- No food service will be available in the sales pavilion. Food service will be available in the restaurant and back bar.
- Valet parking will not be available.
- Increased cleaning and disinfection procedures will be implemented with regular sanitation of high touch surfaces at least every two hours.
- Frequent hand washing with soap and water for at least 20 seconds is recommended for all attendees.
- Sales company management requests that anyone showing symptoms of the virus—or if they are not feeling well—not attend the sale, and stay home.

The health and safety of sale participants is of paramount importance. These guidelines are intended as a supplement to assist with safe operations during the COVID-19 pandemic and are subject to change.

Those who would like further information are asked to call Randy Manges (859-255-8431) at the sales company's Lexington office.

Dude Included rallies to win ISS at Hoosier

Three-year-old trotting colts & geldings were the highlight of Thursday's (Sept. 24) racing card at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino. With a competitive field of 10 behind the gate, it was Dude Included who dug in to win the sixth leg of stakes action for the sophomore trotters, earning the Trent Stohler trainee his second stakes win in 1:54.4.

When the gate opened John DeLong guided Dude Included to find a spot along the rail in third. TJ's Top Pick and Trace Tetrack carved out fractions of :27.4 and :57.1 while Dude Included waited patiently for a chance to move in on the leader. Not long after the half, Speedball Swagger with LeWayne Miller moved first-over and Bluebird Deacon with Jay Cross grabbed the cover to advance positions.

The battle for the lead heightened through the third quarter in 1:26.4, Speed Ball Swagger was able to wear down TJ's Top Pick but Dude Included was winding up to strike. Speed Ball Swagger and Bluebird Deacon were slugging it out on the front but it was Dude Included who was widest of all and surged ahead for the win. Bluebird Deacon dug in gamely for second and Speed Ball Swagger in third. Dude Included paid $6.40 to win at the betting windows.

"The team does a great job taking care of him," Stohler said. "I think he races best if he has a target to aim for, which worked out beautifully tonight. He hasn't done a thing wrong."

Dude Included has now won four of 10 lifetime starts, sporting a lifetime bankroll of $184,395 for owner Benjamin Graber. The son of Class Included-Celebrity Faith was bred by Lester Beechy.

Massachusetts Sire Stakes kick off today

The $1.4 million (est.) Massachusetts Sire Stakes kicks off today (Sept. 27) at Plainridge Park and the 2020 edition looks to be one of the most competitive sessions to date. With the flexibility of the Massachusetts resident mare program, many of the eligibles shipping in have already competed in other sire stake programs this year and are coming into these stakes in top form.

The 3-year-old divisions for both genders and gaits will take place today (Sept. 27) followed by the 2-year-olds on Monday (Sept. 28). Post time for both days will be 2 p.m.

Today's card has 28 sophomores going postward including two 2-year-old champions looking to repeat at three.

Without A Warning (RC Royalty—Concentration) was the 2019 MASS champion 2-year-old trotting filly who ended the year with $188,160 on her card after sweeping all three legs and the final.

This year, the filly has been competing successfully in the New York Sire Stakes all summer, finished as the second highest point-getter in her division and made the $225,000 final for the second year in a row. In that race she finished a very solid third behind a runaway Hypnotic Am.

Two starts before that she posted an impressive win 1:55.1 in a New York Sires Stakes event at Yonkers Raceway and all told, has made $138,662 in only eight starts this year.

Her main competition is Dramatra (Trixton—Bourbon N Grits) who is a sister to 2013 Hambletonian champion Royalty for Life.

Dramatra has seen limited stake competition in New Jersey, making only five starts over the last two years. But she has been building an impressive resume recently in overnights at Plainridge where she has won four out of her last six starts including a lifetime best 1:55.1 outing in August. She comes into this first leg off a 1:55.3 win and looks to be tuned up and ready for a top effort.

Both fillies are trained by George Ducharme. Scott Zeron will drive Without A Warning from post three at 6-5 and Shawn Gray will steer Dramatra from post two at 9-5.

The other returning champion today is pacing gelding Finnbar (Real Desire—Unbeachable) who is coming off a lifetime best win of 1:53.3 just two weeks ago. He followed up that trip with a solid second place finish after being parked out most of the mile. Has been racing consistently at Plainridge but has shown his best form in those two starts.

Wyatt J (American Ideal—Think Pink) rolls into town on the strength of a four-race win streak at Yonkers Raceway that saw him take a career best mark of 1:53.1. After two NYSS starts earlier this summer, Wyatt J found his groove in overnight condition races and looks to cash in during the month of October in Massachusetts.

Trainer Nancy Longobardi has Ron Cushing up behind Finnbar from post five at 7-1 while Wyatt J will team with Scott Zeron from post two at 9-5 for trainer Linda Toscano.

The 3-year-old male trotting division should be very closely contested having three standout performers.

Double Dealing (RC Royalty—Heather Spur) is another Ducharme pupil and was second best in the MASS final last year. In 2020 Double Dealing was very effective in the NYSS Excel A series where he made the $50,000 final. He has four wins this year and took a lifetime mark of 1:54.2 at Tioga Downs.

Then there is the powerful duo from the Domenico Cecere barn, Dazzling Lindy and Marquis Lafayette.

Dazzling Lindy (Crazed—Lindy On The Rocks) finished third in the MASS final last year and has come back looking much improved. In only five starts at Plainridge, Dazzling Lindy has won three while finishing second and third in the other two. His wins include a lifetime best 1:55.2 outing last week.

Marquis Lafayette (Ready For Cash—Highscore Kemp) has only four lifetime starts, but his single 2020 start is worth noting. It was a 13-1/2 length, 1:55.2 romp that gives immediate legitimacy to his presence.

Double Dealing drew the pylons for driver Shawn Gray and is 3-2. Dazzling Lindy and Drew Monti leave from post six at 2-1 and Marquis Lafayette starts from post five at 5-2 for Scott Zeron.

The 3-year-old pacing fillies are also closely matched with a former track record holder leading the way.

Ry's Red Rocket (Sunshine Beach—Mo Molly Blue Chip) broke the Plainridge track record for 3-year-old pacing fillies on July 23 when she went a personal best 1:52.2 mile. Whereas that mark has since been broken again, she has continued to race well through the summer and is highly regarded here.

She's A Fireball (Western Maverick—Fire Can Fly) was the Maine Sire Stake champion at two but did not fare well in the MASS final after making a break. This year she has two wins, a new mark of 1:55.1 and was race timed in 1:52.4 while finishing only 1-3/4 lengths behind Ry's Red Rocket in her track record performance.

Trainer Gretchen Athearn has Matty "Ice" Athearn up behind Ry's Red Rocket who drew post six at 3-2 while Ron Cushing will steer She's A Fireball from the pylons at 5-2 for trainer Heidi Gibbs.

The 2-year-old divisions begin on Monday (Sept. 28) as 33 first-year campaigners go postward.

The trotting fillies will go in two divisions week one and each has a definite favorite.

Moni For Lindy (Credit Winner—Live Moni) competed twice in the NYSS this year, winning at Tioga Downs in 1:55.3. She won two starts ago in the Wood End Light series at Plainridge Park in 1:57.4 and is the even money chalk from post four in the short field. The Domenico Cecere trained filly will be driven by Scott Zeron.

In the second split, Me Too Baby (Muscle Hill—Baby Shaq) comes in off an impressive gate to wire victory in 1:58.2 in a division of the Wood End Light and looks to have a decided advantage over her competitors after that start. Me Too Baby is the 3-5 favorite off the pylons for Team Athearn.

The pacing males have several strong entrants and the weeks leading up to the finals should be interesting.

Mullinax (American Ideal—Up Front Kellie Jo) was a star in the NYSS Excel A series this year, winning two legs before going a lifetime best 1:53.2 mile in the $50,000 final. Plus he has won four out of his last five starts, finishing second in the other which brings him into this race at his best for trainer Mark Ford.

Maui (Bettor's Delight—Barbara Ann) had two impressive wins in 1:54 and 1:54.3 in condition races before falling short in his most recent effort in Plainridge's Nauset Light series while stablemate Dancing Lew (Rocknroll Dance—Love Rocks) just took his mark of 1:54.4 at Plainridge after finishing fifth in his lone Pennsylvania Stallion Series start at the Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono. Both geldings hail from the Kevin Switzer stable.

Mullinax is 2-1 from post seven with Scott Zeron, Maui leaves from post two with Shawn Gray at 8-5 and Dancing Lew drew post six with Bruce Ranger at 7-2.

The trotting colts and geldings feature two more standouts from the NYSS.

Incommunicado (Chapter Seven—Gran Cavalla) was the fourth leading point-getter among his peers and finished third in the NYSS final at Yonkers after cutting the mile and falling short by only 1/2 length. Trainer Ake Svanstedt will be making his first appearance in the MASS and looks to be one to beat.

Beantown Madness (Conway Hall—Armbro Archer) competed in the NYSS Excel B series all summer where he amassed four wins in five starts. In his last start at Plainridge he won by five lengths in a career best 1:56.1, which was only 2/5th's of a second off the track record. Another George Ducharme trainee, Beantown Madness will have much to say in the coming weeks.

Incommunicado leaves from post six at 2-1 with Scott Zeron and Beantown Madness drew post eight with Shawn Gray at 3-2.

The pacing fillies offer a wide open affair that should go down to the wire.

Rightfully Mine (American Ideal—Leah) finished as the third top point-getter in the NYSS and made the final where she drew poorly and had a rough trip.

So Amazing (So Surreal—Teddy Ballgirl) was a NYSS Excel A star that also made that final and had an unfortunate draw. So Amazing beat Rightfully Mine at Plainridge Park on September 4 in the Nauset Light series where she went a career best 1:53.4.

Suzie Blue Chip (American Ideal—Betty Hill) comes in off three straight wins including her 1:54.4 best at Plainridge and a NYSS Excel B event.

Rightfully Mine drew post two for trainer Sheena

Mcelhiney who has Scott Zeron up at 2-1, Ducharme's So Amazing drew post seven at 5-1 for Bruce Ranger and Suzie Blue Chip starts from post six at 9-5 with Shawn Gray up for Eve Bergeron.

Here is the complete MASS schedule:

Sunday, Sept. 27 – 3-year-old first leg

Monday, Sept. 28 – 2-year-old first leg

Sunday, Oct. 4 – 3-year-old second leg

Monday, Oct. 5 – 2-year-old second leg

Sunday, Oct. 18 – 2-year-old third leg

Monday, Oct. 19 – 3-year-old third leg

Monday, Oct. 26 – 2- and 3-year-old finals

Responding to Dr. Marino

I am compelled to respond to Dr. Marino's comments regarding the use of Lasix (full story here). He states in favor of race day Lasix that "at the end of that (Lasix) syringe is a licensed veterinarian who has taken an oath." I don't think I have to remind Dr. Marino that at the end of the syringes that not long ago were used to pump up horses with anabolic steroids and other syringes that were used to inject joints with corticosteroids a day or two before a race, stood a licensed veterinarian. Racing has managed to rein in the use of those drugs, as well as other drugs, and it needs to do the same with Lasix.
