The Bulldog Hanover effect

The world record holder proves why racing stars past the age of 3 is critical to harness racing's survival.

by Michael Antoniadis

I walked into the OTB the other day and the comparisons to thoroughbred Flightline continue. Bulldog Hanover is the talk of the thoroughbred crowd, too.

Bulldog's trainer, Jack Darling, stated the TVG is on his schedule after the Breeders Crown in late October.

Meanwhile, the public frenzy begins for another world record attempt at Lexington on Oct. 9.

Bulldog Hanover has reached the pantheon of popularity, in my opinion.

But, let's take a moment to remember the great Cam Fella's 4-year-old season in 1983. This from Wikipedia:

After a slow start to 1983, Cam Fella won two of three legs of the World Cup series at The Meadowlands, including a two-length win in the final in 1:55 on a wet track. Once Cam Fella began winning in 1983, he continued winning until the end of his career at season's end by going on a 28-race unbeaten streak.

During the streak he won the Graduate and Driscoll Finals at The Meadowlands, the Canadian Pacing Derby, American National, Stewart Fraser Memorial, Frank Ryan Memorial, Blue Bonnets Challenge, Gold Cup and all three legs of the US Pacing Championship.

In the Summer Championship at The Meadowlands in July, It's Fritz was given a strong chance of beating Cam Fella by bettors; however, Cam Fella won in 1.54.2, ending a five-race winning sequence for his opponent. His wins in the US Pacing Championship leg and American National both broke the Sportsman's Park track record, and his win in the US Pacing Championship leg at Roosevelt Raceway set a track record of 1.56.2. By the end of 1983, Cam Fella had won 30 of 36 starts for the year and was voted Harness Horse of the Year for a second time. His final start came at Greenwood Raceway, Toronto, in December. It was his 28th consecutive win.

When Cam Fella was feted after 28 straight wins in his 4-year-old season, the late Canadian Sportsman publisher Bruce Johnston said, "They had the faith and courage to race this horse as a 4-year-old, when I'm sure they heard it a hundred times from all the experts in the industry, what have you got left to prove?"

Well, Bulldog Hanover did have a lot left to prove, and he's turned the whole industry around. I don't think another great racehorse will ever be able to retire to be a stallion without racing past his third year, and be as great as Cam Fella.

Can you remotely imagine what 2022 would have been like if Flightline and Bulldog Hanover were retired after their 3-year-old campaigns? This is why horse racing desperately needs the stars on the track past their sophomore season.

Hard fight at the wire in Bologna

by Thomas Hedlund

The $155,000 Gran Premio Continentale for 4-year-olds was held in Bologna, Italy on Sunday (Sept. 25) afternoon and Love You son Carlomagno d'Esì proved to be the toughest trotter at the half-mile track.

Carlomagno d'Esì attacked from third over with a quarter to go in the 1.3-mile race and Laurent Claude Abrivard's horse held on when Alessandro Gocciadoro tried at the open stretch with his Charmant de Zack. The mile rate was 1:59.1 for the Italian bred trotter who claimed his biggest win in his career so far.

Gocciadoro won the $66,000 fillies division of Gran Premio Continentale after a first over trip with his Clarissa (Exploit Caf). Clarissa won in a mile rate of 1:55.3 over 1,660 meters.

HUGO LANGEWEG WINS SIXTH DERBY

The $86,000 Derby for 3-year-olds was on the race card in Duindigt, The Netherlands on Sunday (Sept. 25) afternoon. Hugo Langeweg, well merited Dutch trainer and driver, claimed his sixth Derby win in his home country, this time with Max Occagnes (Traders) who came home in 2:01.2 over 1.6 miles.

First choice Malou Vredebest (Yeovani Boko) was best in the $32,000 fillies division of the Derby for driver Jaap van Rijn.

DUSKTODAWN BOOGIE TOPS IN FINLAND

Finnish Derby winner Dusktodawn Boogie (Lexus Font) continues to impress in Finland. After a successful winter in Paris, trainer Kenneth Danielsen has improved his 4-year-old mare even more and on Saturday (Sept. 24) afternoon, Dusktodawn Boogie was outstanding beating her opponents in the $100,000 Villinmiehen Tammakilpa in Lappeenranta.

Olli Koivunen was entrusted behind Dusktodawn Boogie this time, since trainer Danielsen was suspended and the duo had to face a first over trip, outside of leader Magic Madonna while the pace was set at a high level. Despite the tough trip in a high pace, Dusktodawn Boogie was pushed to the lead before the last turn and then she flew away from her opponents, to come home in a mile rate of 1:56 over 1.3 miles.

The Lexus Font mare has eight wins in 10 attempts 2022 and there is no doubt about who's the best horse in the crop in Finland.

GOCCIADORO IS HOT IN NAPLES

The classic race the $660,000 Gran Premio Della Lotteria is scheduled in Naples, Italy on Sunday (Oct. 2) and dominant trainer Gocciadoro has prepared 10 of his elite horses for the race.

Three heats over 1,600 meters where the top three horses qualify for the final are the conditions in Lotteria and several top trotters will make the journey to the southern part of Italy.

Joey Putnam on trading diamonds for ovals and loving it

by Chris Lomon

Win or lose, Joey Putnam always steps up to the plate.

There was a time when diamonds, not racetrack ovals, were his first sporting preference. Now, slugging percentage and batting average have been swapped for win percentage and UDRS stats for the young driver/trainer.

And that suits the 24-year-old Putnam, son of veteran horseman Joe Putnam (a winner of more than 3,000 races as a driver and 1,300 as a trainer), just fine.

"I think I may have gone the right route," he said with a laugh. "But two of my buddies, this summer, had their Major League debuts, one of the St. Louis Cardinals, Zach Thompson, and one for the Arizona Diamondbacks, Drey Jameson. They're both pitchers, one is a lefty and the other is a righty, and now they're doing it in the big leagues. That's pretty awesome."

Putnam's connection with Thompson extends beyond baseball.

"We all played travel ball together, but when I had my first pari-mutuel win at The Red Mile, and Zach and his family were there in the winner's circle because he pitched at the University of Kentucky. Both guys are really great people and they're doing well with their careers."

So too is Putnam.

After embracing the standardbred life, he began to dedicate more hours to working in the family barn. It was five years ago when he told his father he wanted to sit in the sulky on the fair circuit.

Putnam's milestone first win came in his third start when he piloted U'll Learn to victory at the Corydon, IN, fair track.

The big moment from that summer came when he teamed with his father's trotter Sum It Up to take the Signature Series final during Little Brown Jug week.

At season's end, Putnam posted 10 wins, to go along with 13 seconds and seven thirds, from 59 starts.

The strong start led to even more successes, including a busy sophomore campaign.

In 2018, Putnam earned a Grand Circuit score at the with Lily Grace, a daughter of Shark Gesture, in her division of the Horseman Stake for 3-year-old pacing fillies. In 444 races, the reinsman recorded 37 wins and earnings of just over $281,000.

It set the table for a sensational 2019, highlighted by 61 wins in the summer to earn him leading driving honors on the fair circuit. Victories included a fair crown with Tellawoman, a daughter of Tellitlikeitis he co-owned with his father and Mike Lee, along with a fall fair triumph with Kazans Power, a trotting son of Cherry Hill Park.

That same year, he teamed with Rockin Nola, a daughter of Rockin Image, trained by his father, for several big moments, none bigger than the night of October 11 at Hoosier Park.

Putnam guided the multiple stakes-winning mare to victory in her $270,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final, a two-length triumph in 1:51.4.

"It was an awesome feeling," he said. "To be able to drive a horse like that against top competition and come out with a win was a dream come true."

He closed out 2019 with 115 wins and just under $850,000 in earnings.

What would Putnam do for an encore?

Plenty more.

In 2020, Putnam notched 110 wins and over $1 million in earnings.

Last year, the former baseball standout hit it out of the park, with a career-best 169 wins and over $2 million in earnings. In December, he was named one of three finalists for the U.S. Harness Writers Association's Rising Star Award.

"I'm very happy with the opportunities that have come my way and I'm grateful for the chance to get to know a lot of good people along the way. Being able to juggle a barn of 40-plus horses with my dad – we have a great crew – and the [horse] shipping company I own, which is doing really well too, keeps me on my toes. I'm just thankful everything is going well and that it is all working hand in hand."

Putnam isn't bristled by busy days, long weeks, and his numerous racing roles.

He considers it all a labor of love.

"We're in the busy part of the season right now. We have a bunch of yearlings to ship to the Lexington sales by the end of the week. And the Hoosier Classic, our Indiana Sale is coming up quick, and then we'll start turning our attention to going to Florida for the winter. It's been a hectic season all around, the Oak Grove meet started in May, and that's kept me hopping, racing Sundays, Mondays and Tuesdays, which are the dark days at Hoosier. I was doing that and at our home track. The year really has flown by."

Still, as it is every year and each race, Putnam will be pushing hard right to the wire.

Goals for the rest of 2022 and beyond are still at the forefront of his thoughts.

"I have numbers I want to hit each year. We're down a little bit from last year, but there are some good opportunities coming up, so that's what we'll focus on. Long term, it would be great to be on the big stage. We develop or buy some of our yearlings who could go to the big stage, so that would be nice. I definitely want to win a Breeders Crown one day. That's one of my big hopes. And maybe the Dan Patch because that's in our backyard. I want to have the success everyone dreams of, but I want to be hardworking and a good person. That's important to me."

As for his best skill in the race bike, Putnam points to his ability to rise to the occasion on the big nights.

"I try my best every time I'm out there, but when the big money is on the line, I don't overthink or feel the pressure. I make sure I'm fully prepared and I really embrace those moments to drive in the big races."

Putnam also welcomes any chance to learn more about his craft. Advice is always appreciated and often sought out.

"You never can stop learning, picking other people's brains about horses, or even just seeing what other drivers do. Dexter [driver, Dunn], he doesn't move when he's in the lane. He's able to sit so still, so that's something I see and then I try to be quieter in the bike myself."

Putnam also endeavors to enjoy any time he has away from the racetrack.

Opportunities to unwind are a near impossibility over certain stretches of the racing season, but when they do come, he takes full advantage of them.

"Yesterday [September 25], I had my first Sunday off in a long time. [Driver] Atlee Bender and I, we rode bikes and played a little basketball. I'm not too good at basketball, but it was a good time. It was a nice, refreshing day. When I do get a bit of time away from racing, I like to head out to the lake close by and go boating. In the spring and fall, there's a little bit of time you can find, and my friends and I will go to Kentucky and Tennessee and do some off-roading with our side-by-sides."

When it comes to the racing side of his life, knowing that he's found his personal field of dreams puts a smile on his face every day.

"I love what I do. Baseball was always the biggest thing for me growing up, but horse racing is everything for me now. I'm lucky with how things turned out."

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Gingras wins four Massachusetts Sire Stakes at Plainridge

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The 2-year-olds took center stage in the $2.5 million (est.) Massachusetts Sire Stakes at Plainridge Park on Monday afternoon (Sept. 26) and four of the five winners were piloted by Hall of Fame driver Yannick Gingras.

There were 11 trotting fillies who entered on Monday so they were split into two $32,500 races. All other divisions went one race for $65,000 each.

Gingras swept both trotting filly contests starting with Milliondollarwall (Walner—Mom's Millionaire) who took a quick lead and maintained a gapped advantage throughout. With Backstitch (Frank Affrunti) working hard to stay close in second, Milliondollarwall tripped the timer in :30, 1:00.1 and 1:29.3 before taking a three length lead into the stretch and pulled away to a five length victory in 1:59.3.

Milliondollarwall ($2.10) was bred and is owned by Moni Maker Stable and is trained by Domenico Cecere.

In the other split, Gingras got away second with Pembroke Moni (International Moni—Possessed By Lindy) behind The Wise One (Bruce Ranger) who got to the quarter in quick :28.4. Despite the fraction, Gingras was out a moving right past that station and took control in front of the stands. Dictating the second half, Pembroke Moni got a :30.1 breather in the third quarter and then sped away from everybody, coming home in :28.4 to win by 4-1/4 lengths in a new lifetime best 1:58.

Pembroke Moni ($2.20) is owned by William Varney and is trained by Mark Ford. Lindy Farms of Connecticut was the winning breeder.

Then Gingras took the pacing colt division with Rooster Bennett (So Surreal—Teddy Ballgirl) who sat in the pocket behind Good Will Lindy (Shawn Gray) to the half in 1:02 before moving to the outside at the five-eighths. Rooster Bennett took the lead on the outside at three-quarters but Good Will Lindy fought back to regain a head advantage in the last turn. When they hit the stretch the two were even for about five strides when Rooster Bennett swelled up and paced away by two lengths and won in 1:59.1.

Treacherous Tom (Bruce Ranger) won the MASS test for 3-year-old pacing colts on Sunday at Plainridge in 1:52.4.

Rooster Bennett ($2.10) was bred and is owned by Nancy Longobardi and Domenic Longobardi and is trained by George Ducharme.

Gingras completed his stake grand slam with Yes Im Hungry (Stay Hungry—Yes You Can) who worked hard to best the field of seven pacing fillies. Four horses left with Dame (Jim Hardy) grabbing a tenuous lead with Seafood Beauty (Jay Randall) parked out second to the quarter in a fast :27.2. Seafood Beauty then took the lead and paced without a challenge until the three-quarters. That's where Yes Im Hungry, who had been pacing up the rim since the five-eighths, finally caught the leader. Initially Seafood Beauty turned back the challenge in the turn, but Yes Im Hungry regrouped at the top of the stretch and then pulled away to a 1-¼ length win in 1:56.2, which was a new lifetime mark in her first career win.

Yes Im Hungry ($4.60) is owned by Alagna Racing and Pryde Stables and is trained by Tony Alagna. Holland Racing Stable bred Yes Im Hungry.

The final MASS division was for trotting colts and a full field of nine went postward with Inter Mischief (International Moni—Blinded By Lindy) coming out on top.

Inter Mischief (Kevin Switzer Jr.) took the lead from RLF's Jasper (Nick Graffam) just past the :28.2 first quarter and settled in for the duration. After getting to the half in :58.2, Inter Mischief was approached by Yo Lucky Moni (Jimmy Whittemore) just past the five-eighths and the two hooked up in a battle after opening up a six length separation from the rest of the field. Yo Lucky Moni took the lead at three-quarters and then Inter Mischief took it back as they entered the stretch. Inter Mischief then got a length advantage and held it to the wire to win in 1:57 and take a new lifetime mark.

Owned by Frank Chick and Jamie Lee Sullivan, who also trains the colt, Inter Mischief ($4.20) was bred by K R Breeding.

MASSACHUSETTS SIRE STAKES 3-YEAR-OLDS

The $2.5 million (est.) Massachusetts Sire Stakes kicked off its 2022 season with sophomore trotters and pacers of both genders going postward in five divisions at Plainridge Park on Sunday afternoon (Sept. 25).

With 13 horses entered, the pacing fillies were split into two $32,500 divisions while all other divisions went one race for $65,000 each.

The first filly pace went to Wolverina (Cheyenne Hollywood—Terri I Fra) who led at every station for driver Nick Graffam and closed it out with a brisk :27.4 final panel to win by 1-¼ lengths ahead of Believe Its Lindy (Bruce Ranger) and Shakeitoffscarlet (Kevin Switzer Jr.) in 1:53.4. The time was a new lifetime mark by a full second.

It was the ninth straight win this year for Wolverina ($3.20) who is co-owned by William Arnold and Mike Graffam, who also bred and trains the filly.

The second division was won by Dudes Sweet Bet (Dude's The Man—Sweet Bettor) who left sharply for John Macdonald from post seven, took the lead and extended it at each station through the mile. Down the lane she stretched her advantage to 5-½ lengths and stopped the timer in 1:53.1, tying her lifetime best.

Dudes Sweet Bet ($2.80) is owned by Sal Vullo, Chris Lems and James De Armond and is trained by Jessica Okusko. Triple C Stable and Chris Lems bred the winning filly.

The glamour division pace had a full field of eight go postward with the red hot Treacherous Tom (Captaintreacherous—Kate Is Well Said) finding the winner's circle once again for driver Bruce Ranger. Treacherous Tom took the lead and while Use Yah Blinkah (Jim Hardy) tracked closely from second, set fractions of :27.1, :56.4 and 1:24.3, but from there it was no contest. Treacherous Tom rounded the final bend and paced home uncontested by 5-½ lengths in 1:52.4.

It was the seventh win in only nine starts this year for Treacherous Tom ($2.80) and owners Tom and Scott Dillon. Joe Nelson trains the razor sharp gelding bred by Fashion Farms.

Moving to the trot, Stamped By Lindy (Muscle Hill—Born Lindy) beat his male rivals with a good effort in a close finish. Yannick Gingras cut the mile with Stamped By Lindy with fractions of :28.4, :59.1 and 1:28.1 and took a two length lead into the home stretch, but good late work by Strongerwithlindy (Steve Smith) put the pressure on the leader late. However despite the strong challenge, Stamped By Lindy still finished the job and won by three-quarters of a length in 1:57 flat.

The Paul Kelley trained Stamped By Lindy ($4.40) is owned by Terrance Smith and Neil Goldstein. Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred the winner.

Finally in the trotting fillies division, Just Liv Broadway (E L Titan—Black Broadway) got her first ever stake win in impressive style. Just Liv Broadway (Luke Hanners) left against the prohibitive 1-9 post time favorite Dancin On The Wall (Yannick Gingras) and took a clear lead after Dancin On The Wall made a break before the eighth pole. From there Just Liv Broadway got things her own way with only Wonderwall Lindy (Jay Randall) trotting close behind. After they got to three-quarters in 1:27.1, Wonderwall Lindy pulled on the attack, but Just Liv Broadway responded and opened up 2-¼ lengths at the wire and won in 1:56.2.

It was the seventh win of the year for Just Liv Broadway ($19.00) who is owned and bred by Michael E. Eaton and Bob McHugh. Mike Eaton trains the winner.
