Time to rename Illinois' Night of Champions?

Fox Valley Gemini scored on Illinois Night of Champions for fifth year in a row. Other stakes winners on the card that carried more than $1 million in purses were: Fox Valley Ozzy, Lousdobb, Rndmnunpredictable, Breeze At Sunset, Funky Wiggle, Apple Valley, Ryans Loan Shark, Bootsy Bombay, Fox Valley Exploit, Talk About Valor.

Maybe Hawthorne Race Course ought to change the name of the premier event in Illinois harness racing from the Night of Champions to the Fox Valley Gemini Festival.

The 6-year-old gelding extended his Night of Champions winning streak to five years in a row on Sept. 25 when he won the $64,000 Robert S. Molaro Memorial for older male pacers for the third straight year after capturing the Robert F. Carey Memorial for 3-year-old colts and geldings in 2018 and the Incredible Finale for 2-year-old males in 2017.

With Hawthorne's perennial driver champion, Casey Leonard, calling the shots from the sulky for his trainer father, Terry Leonard, and owner Jim Ballinger, Fox Valley Gemini spent much of the race in second place, stalking his pacesetting nemesis, He'zzz A Wise Guy.

The leader paced the quarter in :27.2, the half in :55 and three quarters in 1:22.1.

Fox Valley Gemini moved the within a head at the stretch call and overtook He'zzz A Wise Guy with less than an eighth of a mile remaining. In the closing strides, Fox Valley Ren also edged in front of He'zzz a Wise Guy, forcing last year's Illinois Horse of the Year to settle for third.

Gemini was clocked in 1:50.1 as he snapped a string of four straight second-place finishes and scored his sixth victory in a 16-race campaign in which he has come in second eight times. He'zzz A Wise Guy, meanwhile, has made 20 starts and has a record of 8-3-7. The 4-year-old horse was the 3-5 favorite in his unsuccessful attempt to annex a Night of Champions championship for the third consecutive year. He too had won the Carey Memorial at age 3 and the Incredible Finale as a 2-year-old.

"The biggest thing tonight was the draw," said Casey Leonard. "I drew (No. 6) inside He'zzz A Wise Guy (No. 7 in an eight-horse race) and that was the key."

He'zzz A Wise Guy's driver, Kyle Wilfong, was of the same opinion. "If Gemini draws outside of me it's totally different," Wilfong said. "I wouldn't have had to park so long on the first turn and wouldn't have had to go so hard in the first quarter. But give credit to Gemini; he's a terrific horse."

The Molaro was the first of 11 championship races for pacers and trotters on a program with a total pot of $1,009,500 and Leonard won four of them.

His other conquests came with Fox Valley Ozzy in the night's richest race, the $138,000 Incredible Finale for 2-year-old male pacers; Lousdobb in the $114,000 Kadabra for 2-year-old male trotters; and Rndmnunpredictable in the $97,500 Erwin Dygert Memorial for 3-year-old male trotters.

Playing the role of the 4-5 favorite Fox Valley Ozzy won for the eighth time in 10 starts for owners Stephen Mc Mackin and David Samuelson and trainer Gary Rath. In both of his losses he came in second, a neck behind Get E Up, the 6-5 second choice in the Incredible Finale.

At the outset, Get E Up came from post 6 to play the role of the pacesetter. Fox Valley Ozzy was in fifth place at the quarter after leaving from post 8 and Leonard gradually put him in contending position. In the stretch he swung three-wide to engage in a three-way battle with Get E Up and Kingofmyheart.

Fox Valley Ozzy finished a length in front of Kingofmyheart and Get E Up was third, 3/4ths of a length behind the second place finisher. The winning time was 1:54.

Both Lousdobb and Rndmnunpredictable are trained by Steve Searle. The former is owned by Flacco Family Farms and All-Wright Racing and Flacco Family Farms is the sole owner of the latter.

Sent off at 10.70-1 odds from post-position eight in the Kadabra's field of 10, Lousdobb was sixth in the early stages before surging into second at the stretch call to challenge 1-5 favorite Fox Valley Cairo, a stalker who'd come from second to take the lead from Lou's Di Nomite on the front end. The gelding then went on to win by 3/4ths of a length in a career best time of 1:58.4, snapping a four-race losing streak in recording his fourth triumph in 10 starts.

The script was somewhat similar for Rndmnunpredictable early in the Erwin Dygert but by the time he hit the stretch he was in command and he went on to win by 8 lengths—widest margin of the night—in 1:59.2.

A 96-1 longshot, Loyz Say When, placed and 28-1 longshot Emsroscopcoetrain showed.

Rndmnunpredictable's victory was his fourth in a 15-race campaign.

"They named him right because he is random and unpredictable," Searle said. "There have been times when he should have won but he ran or some other stuff. But he behaved well tonight and that was the main thing."

In the $68,500 Beulah Dygert for 3-year-old filly trotters the 4-5 favorite Breeze At Sunset lived up to expectations by winning by 2 1/2 lengths in 1:58 for driver Atlee Bender, trainer Erv Miller and owner Bowie Racing LLC.

Breeze at Sunset bided her time in third place before making her compelling stretch move. BC's Rose was second and Loulita was third after leading for the opening three quarters.

It was the eighth victory in 14 starts for Breeze At Sunset.

"She has a little bit of an attitude and she was inconsistent at the start of the year," said Bender, the son-in-law of her trainer. "It took us awhile for us to turn her around. She has to be in the race or she doesn't try at all.

"Tonight we got the trip I wanted. I wanted to stay close to (Loulita's driver) Casey Leonard and see what he did off the car. I saw he was leaving hard so I figured if I could stay close we would be all right. My filly felt really good. Late in the stretch I knew we had it."

Funky Wiggle whizzed her way to the fastest mile by a 2-year-old trotting filly in Hawthorne history when the 1-2 favorite won $120,500 Fox Valley Flan by 3 lengths in 1:57.2 with Kyle Wilfong at the reins for her owner, Dr. Patrick Graham, and trainer Curt Grummel.

"It was one of my old horses whose record she broke so it was kind of bittersweet," Wilfong said, looking back on Good Design's 1:58 mark set in 2017. "She was a horse owned by my dad and my grandma.

"With Funky Wiggle we had a lot of options going in. When (even-money second choice) Armbro Lark was off the gate (leaving from the rail) I decided to push forward."

After Funky Wiggle came from post 6 to immediately assert herself she refused to be caught.

"She was prepped for this race and everything set up just perfect," Wilfong said.

Ambro Lark came from third to finish a non-threatening second, trading places with Lou's Xanadu, who wound up a distant third.

The track record victory enabled Funky Wiggle to end her 12-race freshman year with eight triumphs and three seconds on her report card.

"She can do it any way – on the lead or coming from out of it, and she can handle any surface," Grummel said.

Wilfong was back in winner's circle with another member of the freshman class when Apple Valley was the valedictorian in the $117,000 Incredible Tillie for filly pacers.

"Kyle is an awesome driver," said James Molitor, who trains Apple Valley for owner/breeder Michael Perrin. "She has trouble through the turns and were worried about her. He babied her through the turns and waited on her – she's got a move."

Apple Valley made her move on the outside in the stretch – after being sixth at the quarter, fifth at the half and third at the three-quarter mark–taking charge and prevailing by 1 ½ lengths in a career best time of 1:55.1 as the 7-10 favorite. The victory was her fourth in seven outings.

Fox Valley Captiva was second after leading most of the way and Dandy's Mnm faded from second to third.

Molitor also won the $79,000 Robert F. Carey Memorial for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers with Ryans Loan Shark, a gelding the trainer co-owns with Flacco Family Farms and David Falzone.

Driven by Travis Seekman, Ryans Loan Shark stalked Ideal Big Guy for the entire race before catching the 1-2 favorite at the wire and winning a photo-finish by a neck in 1:56.2. Late-mover Diamond Diesel was third.

The 2.40-1 second choice in the wagering, Ryan's Loan Shark, won for the fourth time in a 17-race campaign that has seen him show marked improvement during the past two months. He has placed in three races and showed four times.

"We start them slowly and eventually they'll come around," Molitor said. "Going into the race at DuQuoin (the Dudley Hanover that he won on Aug. 28) he had a big spider bite and his leg was swollen, and we almost didn't race. After that start his leg blew up and we almost didn't come (to Hawthorne). But he's a tough horse."

Ryan's Loan Shark showed his toughness when he made his next start on Sept. 18 and finished a distant third in his Carey elimination race and then outdueled his elimination conqueror, Ideal Big Guy, a week later in the main event.

Kyle Husted was another who made a twin-killing on the Night of Champions.

Immediately after driving Bootsy Bombay to victory for owner

James Greer and trainer Nick Prather in the $76,000 Plum Peachy for 3-year-old filly pacers he returned to win the last race of the night, the $65,000 Tony Maurello Memorial for aged mare pacers with Fox Valley Exploit, a 4-year-old he trains and co-owns with David Brigham.

Bootsy Bombay was an upset winner of last year's Incredible Tillie and she again was the underdog in the Plum Peachy because of losses in all 11 of her prior races this year.

But she pulled off another surprise by scoring a 4 ¾ victory at odds of 11-1.

Husted had Bootsy Bombay in third place at the quarter and the half and she dropped back to fourth three quarters of the way before exploding in the stretch and winning in a lifetime best time of 1:55.1.

"They did a little equipment change," Husted said. "They changed her bridle and put ear plugs on her to help her relax."

Bootsy Bombay also was listed in the program as a first time Lasix user.

"Lasix absolutely helped her," Husted said. "When a horse is unmanageable, as she tends to be, they tend to bleed and Lasix definitely helped that. This time she was really good."

Hart's Hart placed as the 3-5 favorite after taking a short-lived stretch lead, while Clearly The Bomb was a closing distant third at odds of 73-1.

Fox Valley Exploit played the role of the 3-10 favorite in the Tony Maurello and she put on a stellar performance, taking the lead before the half-mile mark and going on to an overwhelming 5-length triumph in 1:53.1.

Skeeter Machine came from behind to claim second and My Uptowne Girl earned third place in the 10-horse race.

"I was questioning whether Kyle (Husted) moved too early but it panned out," his delighted co-owner Brigham said following Fox Valley Exploit's seventh victory in 17 starts this year.

In the $68,500 Plesac for older trotters of both sexes Travis Seekman guided Talk About Valor to his seventh conquest in a nine-race campaign in which he has finished worse than second just once.

Owned by Shelley Steele and trained by Gerald Hansen, the 1-2 choice of the betting public started from post 2 and settled in second place for the first three quarters. While the 6-year-old gelding was biding his time, the 2-1 second choice, the 7-year-old mare Anna's Lucky Star, was setting the pace.

Approaching the stretch, Talk About Valor was called on and he responded by taking the lead and going on to defeat Anna's Lucky Star by 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths in 1:55.3. Late closer Louzotic finished third.

"Tonight he gave us exactly the trip we wanted," Hansen said of Talk About Valor.

"He has had some health issues — both of his back legs — and that's why we (usually) only race him every two or three weeks. He has come a long way. Now, he's probably done for the year."

Finish Lines

The 63-night meeting that began May 7 concluded Sept. 26. Casey Leonard was the champion driver for the sixth year in a row and his father, Terry Leonard, regained the trainer title that he held in 2018 and 2019 before finishing third last year. After missing the preceding two programs because of a severe cut to his thigh with a chain saw while working at his father's farm, Casey returned to action on Sept. 24 and drove 10 winners during the last three nights, giving him 126 for the meeting, 14 more than the total for Wilfong, who was second. Terry was credited with training 48 winners, 12 more than the number for runner-up Dean Eckley.

The thoroughbreds now are moving into Hawthorne for their fall meeting that is scheduled to begin Oct. 8. The standardbreds will return for a Jan. 7-March 20 winter season.

During both meetings construction will continue on the $400 million project that will turn the track into a racino. Management hopes to have the racino taking bets sometime next fall. In the Sept. 26 edition of HRU it was erroneously reported to be a $4 million project.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

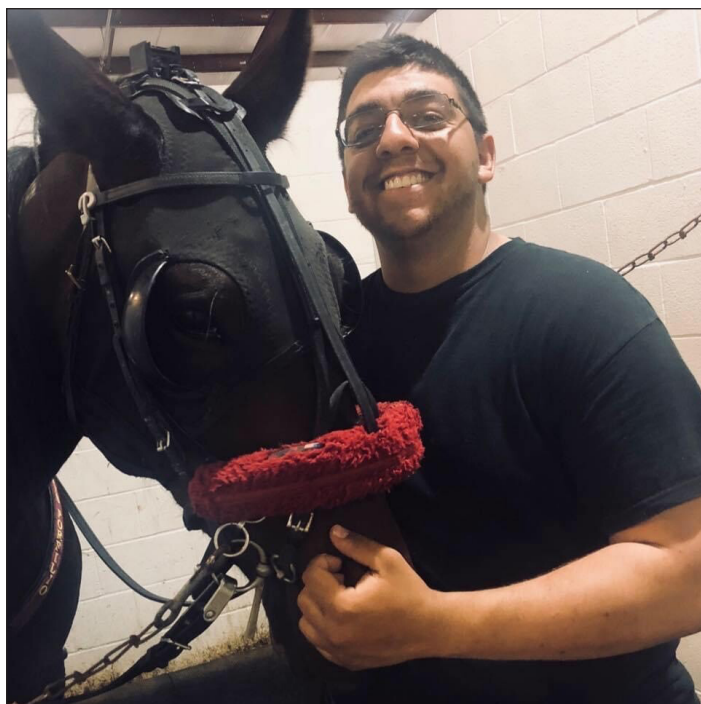

with CHRIS LOMON

Santiago Porfilio on his journey from Argentina to a budding training career in Pennsylvania

"The last two or three months have been incredible. I really can't complain at all. Three months ago, I had three horses and now I have seven. I've been very fortunate with the horses."

by Chris Lomon

It was a harness racing journey over 5,300 miles in the making.

Courtesy Santiago Porfilio

Santiago Porfilio has come a long way from Argentina.

Santiago Porfilio might not recall the early days of his life in Buenos Aires, Argentina, but the 24-year-old, who now calls Washington, PA home, has heard the stories, read about them, and viewed the photos that detail his father's and grandfather's horse racing exploits in their homeland.

"In Argentina, my dad [Luis] was one of the leading trainers there and his dad [Domingo] was one of the leading trainers also."

When Porfilio was four, he and his family moved to the U.S. — Florida, specifically — where his father could carry on with his horse racing career.

Luis was a decorated driver and trainer in Argentina. His high-profile victories include the 2000 Gran Premio Nacional, the country's top standardbred event. His late father was also a revered horseman in his homeland.

"That race would be equivalent to winning the Meadowlands Pace or Breeders Crown here in the U.S. He won it [Nacional] four or five times. The money, it's not great there, so he decided to come to the U.S. and look at opportunities here.

"Osvaldo Formia, a trainer who has won the Hambletonian, he's from Argentina, too. He was in Florida, and we went to where he was in Florida. Eventually, my dad got a job with Kosmos Breeding Farm in Pennsylvania for a few years and he also shod horses, something he did in Argentina."

Luis started his U.S. training career in 2005, eventually bringing over the best horse he campaigned in South America.

career starts in Argentina and picked up right where he left off when he competed in North America.

The pacer scored three straight wins at Rosecroft over October and November of 2005, winning his first U.S. race on Sept. 10 of that year.

Four years later, Luis won the 2-year-old filly Matron Final at Dover Downs with All Heart Gal, a horse he trained and owned through his Heritage Stables LLC.

Luis has wound down his training operation, focusing instead on his respected work as a farrier. His son has carried on the family's racing success story.

"My dad kept a few horses at The Meadows, where he could either keep shoeing or training, and he decided to go with the farrier work. I think I was around 16 or 17 when I really fell in love with the horses. I've always been very business-minded. I went to school for business management and a minor in accounting. Although I didn't completely finish my schooling, it's something that has always fascinated me. But the horses eventually became something very important to me. I thought about them more and more each day."

Just as he did when he was toiling long hours working in an oil field.

"I worked in that field for close to a year, right after I graduated high school. There was one day I remember where I just thought that working 100 hours a week wasn't for me. I wanted to start chasing my dream, so I did."

Santiago went to work for Pennsylvania trainer Greg Wright Sr. and then moved on to work at different stables.

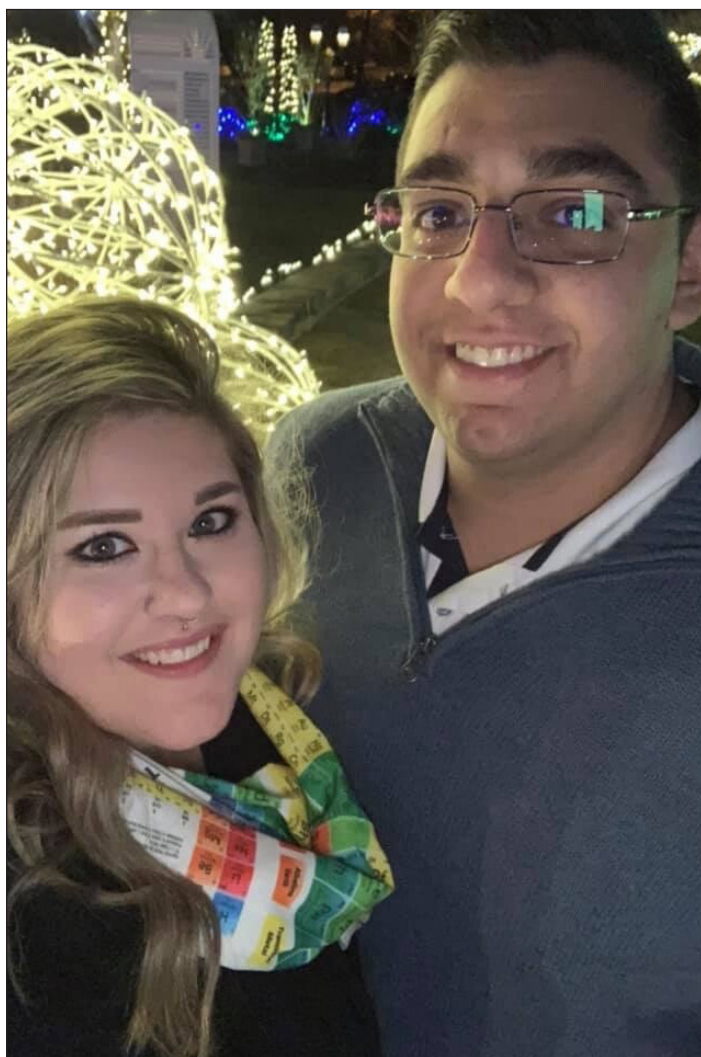

The first racehorse he bought didn't pan out. In keeping with his penchant for making smart business decisions, Santiago saved money and built up his racing education.

In 2019, he launched his own training career. It was a modest beginning – he went 1-1-2 from 32 starts in his rookie year – but his passion for horses and horse racing continued to grow.

His second year was entirely forgettable.

"Last year, I had six herniated discs. I had a horse kick me, but it wasn't very hard. What the doctors think happened is that when I went to the gym the day after, I probably injured myself doing that. After the surgery, which took place in Stubenville, OH, it took me a few months for me to get fully healed. My parents (including his mother, Angela, also a trainer) really kept things going for me while I was injured."

This year, however, has been much more memorable as Santiago has posted impressive numbers across the board (nine wins and 25 top-three finishes from 68 starts as of Sept. 26).

Off the track, life is good too, including his engagement to Chelsea Prescott.

"A horse I claimed almost a year ago to the day, Poacher N, I would say that's when I really started doing this full time. He kind of guided me there and we had some success. There were some ups and owns during those times, but that's the journey that it's been."

He's hopeful the journey is even better in the years to come.

"The last two or three months have been incredible. I really can't complain at all. Three months ago, I had three horses and now I have seven. I've been very fortunate with the horses. It's always challenging, but I like that challenge. When you have a tie to horse racing and there are other options out there for you, there's something that draws you back, and you really know it's what you want to do."

It's why Santiago looks forward to heading to the barn each morning, where he can be around the horses while also furthering his racing education.

His willingness to listen and learn from others has been a key contributor to his rising star status.

"I'm extremely competitive, so that's another thing that makes this a good career for me. Every day, you got out there see who is best. I like that aspect of it a lot."

When he's not spending time with his fiancée, you'll find Santiago immersed in a very familiar subject.

His preferred way to de-stress? Horses and horse racing.

"For me, there really isn't too much of an unwind. I like to do things together with Chelsea, but outside of that, it's the horses. On any given day, you'll find me reading the entries, watching replays... if I could, I'd probably watch racing all day. The horses help me out. They are my unwind. I'm lucky because Chelsea loves the horses. She comes out, looks at the horses, enjoys being around them, and then she's off to her job. If I have a good or bad day at the racetrack, she's always there to listen to me. In many ways, she's my backbone."

As for where his career is headed, Santiago is eager to see where it leads.

He's proud of the journey that's brought him from Buenos Aires to Pennsylvania and focused on adding more memories along the way.

"I always say it's one horse at a time. I'd love to have a stable on the Grand Circuit one day, to get that opportunity. I never thought I'd have seven racehorses, but that happened. I want to continue to grow and put myself in a good position."

The top trotter sold was hip #102 Extreme Force, a Bettors Delight colt out of Mystic Dance that was sold for $72,000 to Sylvain Descheneaux of Quebec, who led all buyers by spending $144,000, total, to purchase three yearlings.

Buoyant atmosphere at Ontario Select Yearling Sale as numbers were on par with 2020

by Dave Briggs

Dave Landry

Topping the sale was hip #15 Muscling Vegas, a Muscle Mass filly out of Vegas Virgin purchased for $75,000 by Christopher Storms of Picton, ON out of the Twinbrook consignment.

The second edition of the Ontario Select Yearling Sale — held Sunday (Sept. 26) at Winbak Ontario's location in Inglewood, ON — produced similar results compared to the 2020 auction, but the atmosphere was a noticeable improvement compared to a year ago when COVID-19 restrictions kept human interactions to a minimum.

"The best part of my day (Sunday) was just seeing all the people out laughing, talking. A lot of people haven't seen each other since the last time there was a live sale somewhere, so it was great to see," said sale manager Pat Woods, Winbak Farm of Canada's manager. "It almost felt that things were back to normal, you know, people were smiling and happy. For us, it was a great feeling that we could provide that atmosphere and buzz around the industry.

"It was, kind of, back to normal-sized crowds. We weren't limited being an outdoor event. As long as we had enough room to social distance, then we weren't restricted to a number. Only inside the tent, which the limit was 400 inside the tent and... there might have been 200 in there at any given time."

In all, 119 yearlings were sold for a gross of $2,349,000 and an average of $19,907. In 2020, 110 yearlings grossed $2,247,000 for an average of $20,427. This year's gross was up 4.5 per cent and the average was down 2.5 per cent. Forty-three horses sold for $20,000 or more.

"We believe that having both virtual and in-person options for bidding allowed people to choose their personal best option," Woods said, adding he was happy the sale was essentially on par with last year.

"We felt the nice horses, we were rewarded on and the average...

that's what we'd hoped for and it definitely met our expectations," he said.

Both Muscling Vegas and Extreme Force were consigned by Twinbrook Farms, who led all consignors in average. Twinbrook grossed $313,000 for seven yearlings sold, averaging $44,714.

"Twinbrook has always supported Winbak and they are friends, as well," Woods said. "Tammy and Rob (McNiven) run a top-notch farm and they breed nice horses. When they show up here, they look good. I'm not shocked in the least that they sell some high-priced talent. They did it last year and they've done it again this year. They bring nice horses to our sale and we love having them here."

Winbak sold the third highest priced yearling, hip #45, an Artspeak colt out of Bunkhouse Babe named Top Bunk.

"He was a really nice, big, strong-looking individual," Woods said. "When he would come out, people would be, like, 'Oh, who is that?' A lot of people came to look at him. The mare has been very successful as a broodmare. She has a nice 2-year-old Shadow Play (named Flo) that Ian Moore trains that's been racing in the (Ontario Sires Stakes) Golds and done well. Because the mare has produced, people weren't afraid to buy something and spend a little bit of money."

Woods added that Winbak is thrilled to be standing Shadow Play, who is having an outstanding year.

"Even Saturday night in the Golds, they finished 1-2-3. That's pretty much been the trend all year and they are missing Lawless Shadow right now due to his injury. It's just been unbelievable.

Dave Landry

Sale manager Pat Woods said, "We felt the nice horses, we were rewarded on and the average... that's what we'd hoped for and it definitely met our expectations."

Dave Landry

The sale drew some international buyers, including the UK's Tom Hill, Sr. and Tom Hill, Jr. who won the Shes A Great Lady the night before at Woodbine Mohawk Park with Niki Hill.

Dave Landry

Desperate Man winning the North America Cup, especially because he's a Winbak-bred has brought more people in to look at the Winbak Shadow Plays and I think that's why he commanded the price he did," Woods said.

From sires that sold five or more yearlings, the leading pacing stallion was Shadow Play with 10 sold at an average of $25,000 and the leading trotting stallion was My MVP with seven sold at an average of $24,500. This is the first crop of Ontario-sired yearlings from My MVP. Both stallions stand at Winbak Farm of Canada.

Winbak led all consignors in gross sales. The farm grossed $1,059,000 for 57 yearlings sold for an average of $18,911.

Preferred Equine had the next highest gross. It sold 42 yearlings for a total gross of $748,000 and an average of $17,810.

"Dave Reid is probably the best in the business at consigning horses," Woods said. "He's world-class with everything that Preferred does at any sale. They've always been a big supporter. Dave Reid and (Winbak owner) Joe (Thomson) have been good friends and they help each other out whenever we can. They are great to be here. They bring in quality people. Their horses look good and they run a professional operation... Up here, Steve Bray runs (Preferred's) operation and he's so great to deal with. There's never an issue, never a problem and always willing to help out at any cost."

Consignors that also sold yearlings were Erinwood Equine, Joe Hudon, Princeton Farms and Tri Star Farms.

As for Thomson, he came up from Pennsylvania for the sale. Winbak's yearling manager Jimmy Ladwig and head trainer Jeff Fout were also present.

"It was great that Joe was able to attend, as well as our yearling manager Jim, this year. That's fantastic and people were happy to see them back up here for the sale after missing last year due to the restrictions with the border. Our racehorse manager, Jeff Fout, got to come up and talk to a bunch of our trainers and everything as well. That was a great addition to the team up here," Woods said.

Thomson even pitched in to help show a yearling when it was particularly busy just before the sale.

"There were horses everywhere with people looking. It was a big crowd and all the girls had horses out and Joe was the only one to see it, so he went and grabbed a horse himself and brought it out to show someone," Woods said. "That's the thing, he's not afraid to do the job himself. He's out here selling horses."

Esprit Sisu climbs towards the top in Sweden

by Thomas Hedlund

The $172,000 STL Open final was on Solvalla's Sunday (Sep. 26) race card and several of the most successful trotters in gold division in V75 during the year were gathered over 1.3 miles.

Very Kronos, Milligan's School, Milliondollarrhyme and Cyber Lane were just some of the merited trotters that tried to catch the STL Open trophy and the story became quite entertaining with Cyber Lane in the lead and Very Kronos in position first over.

The pace was set high and in second over, Daniel Wäjersten had placed his Esprit Sisu (Ready Cash). The 7-year-old gelding has developed a lot during the season and when Very Kronos got advantage over leader Cyber Lane in the last turn, Daniel Wäjersten had a lot of power left in his horse. Esprit Sisu fought well over the stretch and won in strong mile rate 1:53.4 over 1.3 miles. Milliondollarrhyme finished tremendously far outside and hit the wire as runner up, close before a brave Very Kronos.

On the same race card, two eliminations for $465,000 European Derby for 4-year-olds were held and Swedish Derby winner, still undefeated Calgary Games (Ready Express) dominated the first race for driver Jorma Kontio. Calgary Games claimed his eighth consecutive win in mile rate 1:56 over 1.3 miles and it was also announced that the horse has a new part owner. Margareta Wallenius-Kleberg, Menhammar Stuteri, has bought a part in Timo Nurmos trotter and it's obvious that Calgary Games will work as a stud beside his racing career next year.

In the second elimination, Björn Goop's San Moteur impressed from the lead in mile rate 1:56.1.

Later that day, one elimination was held at Vincennes in Paris and that race contained only seven horses. Eric Raffin drove Jean-Michel Baudouin trained Hirondelle Sibey (Gazoullis) and opted position first over as Wild West Diamant got fired up in the lead. In the last turn, Raffin had control over the race and Hirondelle Sibey cruised to safe win in mile rate 1:54 over 1.3 miles.

The final of the European Derby is scheduled at Åby racetrack in Sweden on Oct. 9.

Bellei upsets in Bologna

The $180,000 Gran Premio Continentale for 4-year-old trotters was held in Bologna, Italy on Sunday (Sep. 26) afternoon and heavy favorite Bepi Bi went off stride in hunt for the lead at an early stage of the race.

French trotter Hooker Berry hit the lead and Enrico Bellei put his filly Birba Caf (Orlando Vici) outside the leader in the 1.3 miles long race. Bologna offers a half mile track and Bellei's choice of tactic proved to be the right one since Birba Caf easily disarmed leader Hooker Berry in the last turn and then held the rest of the gang behind her in mile rate 2:00.3.

The 60-1 winner collected her tenth win in 30 starts.

Oosting records 7,000th career driving win

Driver Michael Oosting recorded the 7,000th win of his career piloting Western Sierra to victory in a conditioned pace at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino on Saturday (Sept. 25). The 1:53 victory marked the fourth win of the season for the 4-year-old mare and a career milestone for the 59-year-old Illinois native.

Trained by Luis Quevedo, Western Sierra staged big rally late in the lane and stormed past her competitors to get the win by a head. Owned by John Barnard, Western Sierra now sports a career bankroll of $159,766.

Oosting came into the 13-race card at Harrah's Hoosier Park on Saturday just two wins away from his milestone. He also found the winner's circle with Rocknroll Charm for trainer Mike Wilson in the first race on the card before reaching 7,000.

Oosting started his driving career nearly four decades ago and has since steered the winners of over $48 million in purses. Oosting has multiple leading driving titles from Balmoral Park and Maywood Park and has produced purse earnings over the $2 million mark in four of the last five seasons. Oosting made the trek to Harrah's Hoosier Park full-time in 2018 and finished among the top ten drivers that season. Oosting has since finished among the top five drivers every year and is currently the fourth leading driver at Harrah's Hoosier Park for the 2021 season. Oosting is also the regular pilot behind the multiple Indiana Sires Stakes champion and current aged pacing star Tellmeaboutit for the Alvin Miller Stable.

Oosting is currently fifth on the 2021 leading driver standings at Harrah's Hoosier Park with 138 trips to the winner's circle and over $1.9 million in purse earnings. Trace Tetrack leads all drivers with 296 victories with John DeLong in second with 194 winners.

Jason Brewer records 4,000th win at Dayton

Driver Jason Brewer scored his 4,000th lifetime victory on Monday (Sept. 27) at Hollywood Dayton Raceway. The 43-year-old reinsman went start to finish in front with the trotter Delilah Seelster in the tenth race, topping Mission Voyage (Brady Galliers) by a head. Big Bad Caviar (Tyler Smith) crossed the line in third.

Brewer started his driving career in earnest in 1996, notching 46 wins in his first full season. He scored over 100 wins for six straight years from 2003 to 2018 with a high water mark of 505 triumphs in 2007. Horses guided by Brewer earned over a million dollars in 15 straight years, topped by a pair of $3 million plus campaigns in 2007 and 2008. The son of trainer Jeff Brewer and his wife Lynda has amassed near $34 million in earnings for the horses he has driven.

The newest member of the 4,000 Wins Club is also the trainer of Delilah Seelster, a 5-year-old mare owned by the First Up Racing Stable. With the victory she now sports 11 career wins and just over $130,000 in earnings.

Southwind Lynx offspring dominate DSBF events Monday

Kdk Standardbreds' Heinikin Bythebay ($2.60, Jason Thompson) won his fourth straight race Monday (1:55.2) and headed a quartet of winners, 3 of which were sired by Southwind Lynx, in the second leg of Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund $20,000 elimination action Monday (Sept. 27) at Harrington Raceway for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings.

The Kevin Switzer trainee was a comfortable front-end winner over Hiro Knockout and Clear Mist. The Southwind Lynx colt improved to 4-for-6 in his young career and will be one of the favorites in the Oct. 4 $100,000 final.

Team Teague won two of the divisions, including It's Pronounced Jif ($2.20, Montrell Teague) for owner George Teague and trainer Clyde Francis. The Southwind Lynx colt came out a nose ahead in a tight photo with runner up Imwoncaptainwiser, while Callaland was third. Teague had 5 driving wins on the program.

George Teague and K&R Racing's It's Above Me Now ($3.60, Montrell Teague) prevailed in 1:57. Also a son of Southwind Lynx, he held off race favorite Ds Heartland for his 2nd career win. Badlands N Wine was third. It's Above Me Now is also trained by Francis.

Eric Foster's Bad And Boujee ($4.20, Russell Foster) won the remaining division in 1:55.4. The Badlands Hanover gelding was a 2-length winner over Johnny Badlands and Nipse. Trained by his owner, Bad And Boujee earned his first career win after a second place finish in his elimination last week.

The top eight point earners will return for next week's DSBF final.

Ducharme, Okusko dominate in 2-year-old Mass stakes

The first leg of the $2.24 million Massachusetts Sire Stakes continued at Plainridge Park on Monday (Sept. 26) with the 2-year-olds taking center stage in four divisions for a total of $480,000 in purses. Each division competed for $60,000 except for the trotting and pacing fillies who were each split into two $30,000 races.

Highlights from the afternoon's stake action included trainer George Ducharme capturing three stake victories while trainer Jessica Okusko sent out two winners of her own. And there was one major upset that returned a healthy payout to the betting public.

The first set of trotting fillies became a race between Maliziosa Lindy (Bruce Ranger) who cut the mile, and Wonderwall Lindy (Jay Randall) who stalked the leader for the first three-quarters of the race. Heading into the last turn, Randall tipped Wonderwall Lindy, took the lead and held off a rallying Maliziosa Lindy at the wire where she won in a lifetime best 1:58.2.

Wonderwall Lindy (Walner—Lindy'sleadinglady), who returned $2.60 for the win, is owned by Jim Winske, David Winske, Stephen Michaels and Keith Cluff and is trained by George Ducharme.

Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred Wonderwall Lindy.

The second filly trot went pretty much as expected — that is until the three-quarter pole. Moni Heist (Yannick Gingras) led the field to that point until stablemate Pardon My Lindy (Bruce Ranger) challenged for, and then took the lead. Immediately after, Moni Heist broke and then Pardon My Lindy broke, leaving Grateful Express (Drew Campbell) with the lead. Heading down the stretch, Tennessee Lindy (Nick Graffam) took a late lunge at the leader, but Grateful Express was game and dug in to win by a length in 1:59.1.

Paying $13.20 in the mild upset, Grateful Express (Cantab Hall—Touch Girl Lindy) notched her third lifetime win for owners James De Armond and Sal Vullo. Jessica Okusko is the trainer.

Grateful Express was bred by K R Breeding.

The first group of pacing fillies was very competitive early as Dude's Sweet Bet (Shawn Gray) made a strong first-over move from fourth at three-eighths to take the lead from Wolverina (Nick Graffam), who had cut the quarter in :28.4. These two distinguish themselves from the rest of the field by the time they reached the last turn and when they hit the stretch, Graffam tipped Wolverina and drew alongside Dude's Sweet Bet. The two paced furiously to the line with Dude's Sweet Bet getting the late advantage by a neck in 1:55.3.

Going off the heavy favorite and returning $2.20, Dude's Sweet Bet (Dude's The Man—Sweet Bettor) scored her second lifetime win for owners/breeders Triple C Stables and Chris Lems. Jessica Okusko is the trainer.

In the second stanza, So Flo (So Surreal—Teddy Ballgirl) kept her mind on her business and put together the best race of her life. Driver Frank Affrunti put So Flo right on the point and played catch me if you can from there. After cutting fractions of :27.3, :58.1 and 1:26.3, So Flo turned for home and was gone, winning by 2-1/2 lengths in a lifetime best time of 1:54.4.

So Flo ($9.00) captured her second career win for owners/breeders Nancy Longobardi and Domenic Longobardi and trainer George Ducharme.

Six male trotters hooked up in one division and Wallet (Walner—Touch Of Moni) proved much the best. After watching Strongerwithlindy (Steve Smith) lead the field to the quarter, Nick Graffam pulled out his Wallet and took him to the bank. Wallet grabbed the lead at the half, opened up a two-length advantage by three-quarters and then trotted to the wire wrapped-up by 4-1/4 lengths in 1:59.3.

Wallet ($3.80) scored his first lifetime win for owners George Ducharme Stable, Jim Winske, David Winske and Stephan Michaels. Ducharme also trains the winner.

Wallet was bred by the Moni Maker Stable.

The male pacers also went one division and saw the biggest upset of the 2021 Plainridge meet occur when Galactic Storm (American Ideal—Betit To Get it) rallied late to win at 60-1.

As the heavily favored Treacherous Tom (Yannick Gingras) took the lead past the quarter, Galactic Storm (Jimmy Whitemore) was sitting last at the pegs. But when a three-horse outer flow formed, Whitemore guided Galactic Storm up the inside and found himself fourth at three-quarters. At the top of the stretch, Striking Impact (Drew Monti) tipped around Treacherous Tom and Use Yah Blinkah (Jimmy Hardy) went three-wide around him. That left the pylon lane wide open for Galactic Storm, who paced by everyone in the stretch to win by a neck in 1:56.3.

Owned by his driver Whitemore and trained by Marissa Chadbourne, Galactic Storm returned $122.40 to win, $189.40 to place and $70.40 to show and sparked a $15,744.20 trifecta payout for the 7-4-3 combination.

Galactic Storm was bred by Holland Farms.

The Massachusetts Sire Stakes resume at Plainridge Park on Sunday (Oct. 3) when the second leg of 3-year-olds take the track and then continue on Monday (Oct. 4) for 2-year-old competition. Post time for both days is 2 p.m.
