Will Lexington smash the gross record for the fourth straight year?

The sale's co-manager David Reid said that would be an incredible accomplishment even with one of the strongest catalogs in history and purse money at record highs in many jurisdictions.

by Dave Briggs

David Reid said the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale — which begins Monday night (Sept. 30) at the Fasig-Tipton Sales Pavilion and runs through Friday (Oct. 4) — is as deep on quality as ever. He's just not sure the sale can continue to smash records for gross as it has in each of the last three years, when it has leapt from $56.7 million in 2021 to $65.3 million in 2023 and $67.9 million in 2023.

It's a familiar refrain. For years, Reid, who manages the sale with Bruce Brinkerhoff, has been realistic. He has long said it will be tough to top the year prior.

Dave Landry
The bidding is expected to be lively at this year's sale.

Dave Landry
Last year's sale topper, Kadena, ended up fetching $800,000.

"The thoroughbred sale just concluded and they were quite strong," Reid said. "I anticipate a nice, solid, strong marketplace, with no expectations as far as gross dollars or averages because the sale, over the last number of years, has continued to show increases. That won't happen every year, so whatever year it happens I can finally be right."

The 2023 Lexington auction set 12 records, including new standards for gross ($67,916,300) and number of yearlings sold for $100,000 or more (233).

Setting another gross record will be more challenging considering about 40 fewer yearlings will be sold this year compared to last.

"We were a little more selective in the spring time and we tried to keep the overall numbers and time management under control, so we accepted a few less yearlings this year," Reid said.

Still, this year's catalog is as deep as it's ever been – and that's saying something.

"From a sire point of view, I think the catalog is as strong as ever. All the top stallions are represented across the board, trotters and pacers. We have fewer first crop sires this year. For pacing, we have Perfect Sting as the one that has the biggest numbers and then Captain Corey on the trotting side."

The first crops of Bulldog Hanover, Calgary Games and Ready For Moni will also sell this year.

"Geographically and sire power-wise, within those jurisdictions, I think our customers are going to have a lot of quality yearlings to choose from and we're very happy with the offerings of the pacers, both fillies and colts," Reid said.

"On the trotting side, it's a little more top-heavy with Walner and Chapter Seven. Then, Muscle Hill still has pretty good-sized numbers and, obviously, he's a great sire. Then, you have a whole number of other sires under that who demand respect, nationally and geographically. We have an outstanding offering of trotters.

"It's probably a cliché, but the sale has something for everybody, at all price points, in all jurisdictions. Part of our goal from a sales company management point of view is to showcase the best the breeders have and I think we've accomplished that."

Beyond a stellar catalog, Reid said one major factor points to the likelihood of outstanding results for this year's auction.

"Obviously, it's an election year and there are inflationary problems that are similar to last year, but the purse structure is the most important thing in my opinion," Reid said. "Jurisdictions and purse money, they are as healthy as they were in 2023 and I think that's a good sign for the horse economy."

He said the setup at Fasig-Tipton with outdoor stalls and easy access for horse buyers, makes it a fantastic place for consignors to show off their horses.

"It's an open-air environment," Reid said. "When looking for yearlings, there's a lot to shop for and it's a benefit to the buyers once you get down here and really put the boots on the ground and see the consignors. We've really got a great group of consignors and breeders in the sport and they've got a lot to offer."

“There’s a cocktail reception Monday night, prior to the first session from 5 to 7 p.m., and it will also be a celebration of life for Randy Manges,” Reid said.

Then, the first yearling will step into the ring. “From the buyer’s point of view, get your boots on the ground, get your ducks lined up and have a strategy, because there’s just a lot of horses that fit a lot of people’s lists that are viable and it’s important to work the sale hard and pay attention during the sale,” Reid said. “There’s always opportunities, but you have to be prepared for them.”

After an evening session to kick off Day 1, the sale will begin at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday before wrapping up with an evening session that begins at 7 p.m. on Friday.

The sale will kick off Monday with a memorial for Randy Manges, Reid’s long-time co-manager. Manges died in December of 2023 after 40 years as one of the driving forces behind the Lexington sale.

Zubrod at peace as Brittany gets set to sell its final yearlings in Lexington

by Dave Briggs

On the other end of the phone connection, Art Zubrod sounds like he is at peace. In about a week, George Segal's Brittany Farms will sell its final yearlings at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale after 39 years in the business. Not long after that, Zubrod, the lone farm manager in Brittany's history, and his wife, Leah Cheverie, the long-time office manager, will be off on new adventures.

"Both my wife and I are quite ready for this," Zubrod said. "We purchased a house [in Louisville] in April, not too far from our kids and the barn that my sister runs. Both of my daughters work for her and all three of our grandkids ride.

Dave Landry

After this year's auction, Brittany Farms' Art Zubrod and Leah Cheverie will head for a well-deserved retirement near their children and grandchildren in Louisville.

#WeSellWinners

"I think I'm over all the sentimentality. The last thing that came together was [placing Brittany's] trophies [in the Stable of Memories] at The Red Mile. I had sleepless nights about it. I did not want to have to auction them. It would've crushed me. It would have crushed all of us"

After Brittany sells 13 of its own yearlings and three as an agent at the sale, it will mark the end of an incredible run as one of harness racing's greatest breeding operations. Though, Zubrod and Cheverie have had plenty of time to prepare for the end and plan for what's next. Brittany's closure has rolled out slowly since being announced in January of 2023. Though, Segal and Zubrod did opt to close the farm one year sooner than the original target of 2025.

"That was our initial plan, but as things unfolded, we could see that it didn't have to wait until 2025 and that 2024 would work," Zubrod said. "We've still got a couple of months of work to do, here and there, but it really has been a blessing that we got it done a year earlier.

"[Segal is] 86 years old and he knows it's time for him to start slowing down. And he's certainly not quitting, just slowing down and preparing for the future. I think his family is happy about it."

Brittany's exit from the game brings with it a nice full-circle moment. Zubrod said they are proud to be selling the first crop of Perfect Sting, a horse they raised and raced to great success, including a freshman year that was, literally, perfect.

"I'm extremely happy with the 'Stings,'" Zubrod said. "Just in the last couple of days, I've come to the realization that they actually followed in his footsteps in their maturity phase, because Sting was always a nice colt from the time he was born – correct and what not – but he never looked an athlete. Then, by the time of May, June of his yearling year, he filled out and started getting a little more leg and had a keener look in his eye. Damned if [his offspring] aren't doing the exact same thing. I'm really excited about it.

"I think with this sale we'll bow out nicely.

Zubrod said Stingman, Hip #34 is "extremely nice... Then, I've been looking around to see who is selling around us and, daggone, there's a real good bunch of [Perfect Sting's] selling in the first half of the sale on the first night. It's a really stellar bunch of horses.

"They are very strong and athletic in the field. You can't ask for anymore."

Zubrod also highlighted Watchfire, Hip #178, a Bettor's Wish colt out of Shining Beauty.

"The first foal out of that mare was also a Bettor's Wish [named Skylight] and Leah and I talked and we had decided early on that we were going to buy a really nice Bettor's Wish and train it," Zubrod said. "Then, when this colt was born – the first one out of her – he was just stellar. He was as good as a weanling foal as I had ever seen. So, we made George a very substantial offer to buy half the horse, with the intent that he would go into training and if something came along that we didn't want to train him then we'd put him in the sale. Anyway, we were so excited about him. We sent him to Chris Ryder and he was excited about him. Then, it was one thing after another – a foot, a this, a that. He looked great on the racetrack, but he just never could get over the hump. I mean, he's racing. We sold him and he's racing, but he's not what I had hoped for.

"Then, the next one [Bettor's Wish filly Bytheliteofthemoon] turned out nice, but [Watchfire] is a killer. Everything you'd want. He's a real long-legged colt and real smart and loves going out in the field and showing off for people. The only thing about him, he's got a lot of white and we were so concerned that he was a daggone Sweet Lou. When he was born, we had his DNA done right away.

"This colt is from a family where we hadn't seen white in it for several years and if there was it was always a hind pastern or a front hock or something like that."

Zubrod also highlights two Chapter Seven colts – Hip #82 Steinbeck and Hip #186 Silverstein.

"They are both really top-of-the-line colts, who perform in the paddock and I think they will do well," Zubrod said.

"The Bettors Wish colt [Rays Wish, Hip #715], he's a real snappy colt. Somebody is going to be real happy that they bought him. And, the Sting out of Beautiful Candy [Sting Candy, Hip #583] is a real nice filly. She is just now coming into herself"

Brittany was founded in 1985 when Segal purchased Bill Shehan's Clermont Farm. The end will come just shy of the farm's 40th anniversary, but that's okay with Zubrod.

"It's funny, I'd always said that I'd die with my boots on, because I do love this and I still love it, but I woke up about two-and-a-half or three years ago... we hadn't had any rain for three or four weeks and I was just consumed with that," Zubrod said. "I got to thinking about all the damn things I worry about that I had absolutely no control over and it takes away from your life and the joy of your life.

"So, I said, 'Well, I know one way to solve that problem' and Leah was finally coming around to the idea of retiring. She was always adamant that she didn't want to retire, she wasn't ready to retire, but that changed and then once we got into it... we really enjoy, we've always enjoyed spending time with the grandkids, but we really look forward to spending more time with them."

Weaver Standardbred Farm debuts at Lexington with 10-horse consignment

by James Platz

Dave Landry

Enos Weaver spent a decade and a half working for Spring Haven Farm, and during that time he learned the ins and outs of selling at Lexington. This week, he and his wife, Lexi, will offer their first consignment under the banner of Weaver Standardbred Farm. The Utica, OH operation features 10 babies sired by Huntsville, Gimpanzee, Chapter Seven and Cattlewash, a formidable roster to debut in the Bluegrass State.

“I’ve been to Lexington quite a few years with Spring Haven,” Enos said. “This year, we are lucky enough to have some nice Huntsvilles and a Chapter Seven. We’ve got two Gimpanzees. It’s just a nice group to go. We’re excited to see what we can do.”

The Weavers purchased Spring Haven’s home farm in 2019. The 37-acre property, along with 80 acres of leased land, serves as the home for 63 mares. This spring, 47 babies were foaled on the property to go along with the 28 yearlings selling this fall in Ohio and Kentucky.

“By 2020, we had just gotten so many that it made sense to go on our own and do our own sales,” he said.

Previously selling through Spring Haven, Weaver Standardbred Farm offered their first consignment at last year’s Ohio Selected Jug Sale. This year they returned to the Circleville, OH sale with a 14-horse consignment that grossed $592,000. Their $42,286 average trailed only Rose Run Farm (17 sold for a $47,412 average) and Double Spring Farm (five sold for a $42,800 average).

“For our second year, we were really happy to be second in consignor average for five or more sold,” Lexi said. “We look forward to growing.”

Enos and Lexi considered bringing a consignment to Lexington last fall but ultimately decided to wait a year.

“Last year we were thinking about going, but we didn’t quite have what we needed for the first year to go down there,” Enos said. “So this year was a little bit easier. We have a really nice group. We picked out what we think will fit Lexington.”

Weaver Standardbred Farm’s initial offering is small, and they intend to keep it that way by design.

BRITTANY FARMS

BREEDER OF HARNESS CHAMPIONS

Versailles, KY | (859) 873-3878 | britfarms.com

PROUD SPONSOR OF THE
HARNESS HORSE YOUTH FOUNDATION

"I've worked for Spring Haven for several years and they've always had big consignments, a lot of horses and a lot of client horses as well," Enos said. "My vision was always to have 10 or 15 head that I have and I know are born and raised at my place. We lucked out this year, we have 10 head and we know every one of them. To me that's important going into a sale like that, to know the horses."

Of the 10 cataloged, nine are agent horses for Jim Crawford's KAD Farms, all born and raised at the Ohio farm. The group features six sired by Huntsville; five from KAD Farms and one owned by the Weavers. Four are colts, all first foals, and two are fillies, with one a first foal. Four are eligible to the Empire and Bluegrass States.

"We have the first foals and they are very correct and they are nice sized," Enos said. "I've had several trainers in here looking at yearlings. Ron Burke was here a few times and he told me that we have some of the nicer sized ones for New York. They don't want great big horses because of the smaller tracks, so I think we're going to fit in well with that."

Enos and Lexi both chose Hunt Off The Press, Hip #154, as their top selection for the consignment. The colt is out of Sportswriter mare Off The Press, a winner of over $180,000 in her career.

"He is a very nice colt," Enos said. "We videoed him and he was outstanding in the video paddock. He would be my best pick for the pacing end. The Chapter Seven and Gimpanzee colts, those are two really nice colts."

Dazzling Prince, Hip #298, is a Chapter Seven first foal from Father Patrick mare Dazzling Reign. The colt is eligible to the New York and Kentucky programs and sells Tuesday. Gorilla Sighting is a Gimpanzee colt out of the Cantab Hall mare Stylemaker. Her three previous foals were fillies, with two already banking six figures. The dam is a sister to Paulina Hanover and Patriarch Hanover. Cataloged as Hip #646, he sells Thursday (Oct. 3).

Another highlight on the pacing side is Huntsville colt Shakeitonthebeach. Selling on Thursday as Hip #662, the brown colt is the first foal from Wannashakeyourtree, whose dam, Bridesmaid Hanover, is a sister to 2022 Horse of the Year Bulldog Hanover.

"He's a very nice colt," Enos said. "He's in the fourth night. We're pretty excited about him."

What Weaver Standardbred Farm lacks in quantity, they believe they make up for in quality.

"We have a really nice group for our first year," said Lexi. "We're excited to branch off out of Ohio."

Preferred is loaded with talent and variety as it guns to be top grossing consignor for 11th time in last 12 years

by Dave Briggs

In 2022, Preferred Equine Marketing smashed the all-time Lexington Selected Yearling Sale consignor record for gross with more than $11.2 million in sales. Last year, Preferred came just a sliver away from being the sale's leading consignor for the 11th straight year. Hunterton edged Preferred by a mere $93,000 to claim the title for the first time since 2012.

Preferred's David Reid said he was feeling optimistic about his consignment this year, which features 169 yearlings from nearly 40 clients.

"I think we have a very good mix of individuals this year," Reid said. "We're super proud to represent all of the breeders that we represent. There's multiple jurisdictions with a lot of sire power, which I'm happy about.

"On the trotting side, we have a lot of Muscle Hills, Walners, Chapter Sevens, Gimpanzees. We've got the first-crop of Captain Coreys, plus Greenshoes, International Monis. We have a strong representation on the trotters and then we'll finish up on the last night with Ready For Monis, which I'm excited to sell. We're very deep in trotters, fillies and colts and I'm very happy to represent them.

"Pacing-wise, we have a broad selection, including Captains, Bulldogs, Papi Rob Hanovers, Always B Mikis. We have first-crop Perfect Stings."

Reid, who is always reluctant to single out many yearlings from his consignment due to representing so

He stressed he is extremely proud to sell every one of the yearlings in his consignment, but was especially happy to be selling Hip #14 Treacherous, the full-brother to last year's top-selling pacer, Treacheryinthedark, which sold for $700,000 to Andrew Harris and partners out of the Preferred consignment.

Reid also mentioned he is proud to have sold 2024 Hambletonian Oaks winner Warrawee Michelle at the 2022 Lexington sale for Ontario's Warrawee Farms.

"In addition we've sold several other stakes winners across all gaits," Reid said. "We strive to sell stakes winners year after year." Preferred will start showing yearlings on Saturday (Sept. 28) at 1 p.m. and then go strong all the way until the end of the sale on Friday (Oct. 4).

Golden opportunity to purchase the best of Diamond Creek's trotting yearling stock

by Dave Briggs

Diamond Creek, which has long aimed to excel both on the track and as breeders, has opted to sell all of its trotting yearlings this year. Shaun Laungani, the farm's vice-president and director of bloodstock services, said it's a big change for the operation.

"Everything that we bred is in this sale or Harrisburg, yearling wise, and that's a big change for us. We've always kept some trotters and no longer are we doing that," Laungani said. "We're, more or less, taking a hiatus from racing trotters. We've got our last group of trotters that we're cycling through the racing stable now. It's just simply because of lack of success. The results haven't met expectations or the pedigrees and so we need to retool.

"On the pacing side, we are keeping a small number of homebreds. It will probably end up being six or seven, let's just say seven. Then, we'll probably look to go buy a few pacing fillies to have some numbers. We still have some good pacing stock in the sale. In our sale group, our non-homebred group, the pacers still stack up against just about everybody."

Of the 28 yearlings Diamond Creek is selling of its own yearlings and 19 more it is selling as an agent, Laungani said nearly 20 are first foals out of mares.

"That's a high percentage of first foals," Laungani said. "It mostly just came to fruition from bringing in younger fillies and mares a few years ago.

"We're trying to become one of the top commercial sellers of yearlings.

"First foal-wise, the really notable ones would be the first grandchild out of Mission Brief to sell at the yearling sale. That's Hip #228 [Chaucer]. This is one of only two registered Face Time Bourbons in the yearling crop of 2024 and we have both of them.

"These mares were actually sent to France to be bred. These mares were not bred on frozen semen... He's just super notable

“This Qualita Bourbon, under the third dam, almost any European I speak with, will agree that this is maybe the first top family in Europe. So, she’s regally-bred and super different. Something really cool.”

Laungani said Gimpanzee has had a good start and Diamond Creek is being the first grandchild of Mission Brief and then having a European stallion like that, it’s certainly interesting. The success of Tactical Landing makes this a big family.

“He’s a really cool horse. He’s built a lot like a French horse, in that he is pretty substantial and robust. He’s one of these horses that looks like he could go even further than a mile, you know? He’s got all the speed coming from the Mission Brief side, hopefully to balance out his stamina. So, he’s a horse that can be anything. If, for some reason, he would become a stallion prospect, his options to cross with mares are very, very high. This would be an ideal horse to breed to Chapter Seven line of mares and Muscle Hill line of mares, which is a big issue we have in the trotting breed right now.

“He’s awesome. He’s a super cool horse. I can’t wait to see who ends up with him. From a breeding perspective and then the way he looks, he’s just totally unique.”

Laungani also highlighted Hip #51 Copernicus, another first foal.

“This is from the fastest trotting filly we ever had, Altar,” Laungani said. “She was so close to being a Breeders Crown champion and this is her first foal. It’s an embryo transplant, it’s a Gimpanzee and he’s super determined. He’s also flashy and a really good representation of his sire. He looks like the stallion and some of the good Gimpanzees that have come through the farm already... Basically, one of our very best foundation trotting families and one of the best trotting fillies we’ve ever had, who is just wicked fast, and this is her first foal. He’s super nice.”

Laungani also mentioned Hip #101 Creator, a Walner filly out of French mare Hanna Bourbon FR.

“This is a Walner filly named Creator that’s dual-eligible and out of a French mare. Not only does she look like an athlete that can win somebody a lot of money in stakes races but, when she’s done, her options to go to any Muscle Hill or Cantab line stallion are totally open and that’s rare these days to have both those options open.

“All of these Gimpanzees have that Kentucky-stallion bonus where in any of the Kentucky Sires Stakes or fair races – basically all breed-development races – if you earn money in those races, you get half of that purse again at the end of the year,” Laungani said. “It’s a huge bonus. Not a lot of people know about that yet, just because it’s the first year for it. People may not be expecting those checks at the end of the year and they are going to be very happy.

SALES MANAGER: GREG BLANCHARD · LCYS@WESTERNFAIRDISTRICT.COM
WWW.LONDONCLASSIC.GA

“Overall, Gimpanzee has had a good start. He only had about 30-some U.S-registered yearlings and over half of them have started and there are stakes winners across the way, so he’s got what it takes. We expect big things as his crops get bigger. He bred 120 mares this past year, so it steps up from there.

“There’s a filly, Hip #258 [Bristol Legacy] and she’s a first foal. This is bred by Order By Stables and she’s just a tremendous athlete. She’s so coordinated and strong that she can trot with her head between her front legs. To me, that always signifies hind strength and back strength, because for your head to be down and to be able to move well.

“Then Hip #335 [Chosen], is another Gimpanzee. It’s a first foal out of a super tough Swan For All mare named Grand Swan, a really, really nice Grand Circuit mare. This filly is really elegant, but also powerful. She’s all trot, but, then again, this filly, when she’s done racing, she’s outcrossed again where she can go to the Muscle Hill line or the Cantab Hall line. It just gives the next person options when she’s done racing. It’s super cool in that way.”

On the pacing front, Laungani mentioned Hip #907 Goodwill, Hip #274 Blood Queen, Hip #477 Credible, Hip #565 Gracious and Hip #852 Chase.

“My very favorite [pacer] is Hip #907 [Goodwill],” Laungani said. “This colt, I would challenge anybody to find a better, more athletic-looking colt. He almost reminds us of Confederate. He’s a little longer and taller, but if I was going to compare him to a basketball player, he would be like a Kevin Garnett. He’s just long, lean and mean. He just looks like he’ll excel at a mile distance, like he’ll have a huge stride. The Always B Miki mares, from what we can see, early signs are that they are growing really nice types. There haven’t been too many yet, but here’s one that we really love and everybody should look at.

“Hip #274 [Blood Queen] is from Delinquent Account’s family, just a super awesome family that we rarely, if ever, offer to the public.

“Then, Hip #477 [Credible], that’s the family of Confederate. That’s a Papi Rob. I would throw her into the group of royally-bred fillies. That’s Confederate’s family, maybe one of only two yearlings out of that family that are in any of the yearling sales. I think there’s one in Harrisburg.

“Hip #565 [Gracious] is the third foal out of L A Delight, Captaintreacherous filly. So, that’s West of LA and that’s a royally-bred group there.

“Hip #852 [Chase], that’s the family of Sweet Lou, a Downbytheseaside.

Ladwig feeling optimistic about Winbak's Lexington consignment

by Matthew Lomon

Winbak Farm returns to its regular post at the Lexington Selected Yearling sale with a promising group of 79 yearlings and a positive mindset to boot.

"We're feeling good about the sale," said yearling manager Jimmy Ladwig. "We have a great group of yearlings, as usual, and we're optimistic heading in."

Ladwig, who's been with the multi-regional operation since 1999 (flagship property in Maryland, with other facilities in Delaware, New York, and Ontario), spotlighted a trio of youngsters from Chapter Seven, Papi Rob Hanover, and Walner with intriguing family ties.

"We have a great-looking Chapter Seven filly out of Tosca, Hip #58 Seven Winds," Ladwig said. "We're really excited about her. She's great looking and she has some family out there doing really well."

"Hip #84 Encryption is a Papi Rob [Hanover] out of Code In. He's a great looking colt, and his 2-year-old Cattlewash brother [Power Code] is performing quite well, so we're definitely keen on him."

"There's a Walner colt out of Mets Life, Hip #113 You Can Dream who's a nice colt. His brother [Amazing Catch] was third in the Hambletonian and we're thinking he might be pretty good in his own right."

Ladwig's watchlist for this esteemed team of sires includes another appealing Chapter Seven-Debra Hall colt in Read The Room, Hip #300.

"I could go on and on," Ladwig said, laughing.

Alongside the familial favorites, Winbak's deep sales roster also features a steady dose of Cattlewash (seven) and Bettor's Delight (five) progeny.

While Ladwig noted that his Winbak partners are "really high" on their quintet of Cattlewash's, a group that includes Nugget Hugit, Hip #655, a pacing colt out of Thong, and A Clean Deal, Hip #558, a pacing filly out of Ideal Talker, he is particularly impressed by a physically imposing Bettor's Delight-Pleasant Yet Bad filly (Naughty Delight Hip, #405).

"She's got a real good look to her," said Ladwig. "You don't see too many that big."

Dave Landry
A Winbak yearling heads for the ring at the 2023 Lexington sale.

Winbak's clubhouse leader by number of yearlings is American Ideal with nine.

American Ideal's offspring also accounted for the lion's share of Winbak's 83-horse catalog in last year's Lexington sale (nine).

"It seems like you can spot American Ideal's from a long way away," said Ladwig. "He stamps them. They're all pretty correct, 'typey-type' horses. They're consistent and come with a lot of desirable qualities. They almost take care of themselves."

"They're just a good, consistent, reliable horse and it shows up in the results."

So, it should come as no surprise that one of Ladwig's sleeper selections comes from his most trusted source.

"We have an American Ideal out of Logan's Girl [Quickaway, Hip #585] who's a nice-looking colt, videoed great," he said. "He certainly fits that bill."

Ladwig also anointed the underdog tag to Flippin Liz, Hip #322, a pacing filly from Stay Hungry out of Flipit To Winit.

“We’re very impressed with her,” he said.

The yearling sale specialist made a point to give Masked Singer, Hip #318 and Devil’s Mark, Hip #354, two Tall Dark Stranger spawns, their flowers.

“They might get overlooked a little bit by being Tall Dark Strangers, but these two are great individuals,” Ladwig said. “Great videos, great pedigree. They’re absolutely ones to keep an eye on.”

He also highlighted Winbak’s quartet of Courtly Choice babies.

Hunterton bringing a mare-balanced consignment to Lexington

by James Platz

Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Sales Agency is known for annually bringing top-notch consignments to the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale. This week will be no different, with the Paris, KY-based operation cataloging 95 yearlings offering some of the most fashionable pedigrees in the sport.

"I would call our consignment versatile," Steve said. "In years past, we probably had more top trotters than we did pacers. This year, we have an awful lot of top pacers that should sell very well. It's a little more balanced in that sense than it has been in the past."

Perusing the catalog, Hunterton's roster includes 54 trotters from 19 different sires and 41 pacers representing 14 sires. Last fall, the agency topped all consignors in gross, with 111 babies tallying a combined $10.65 million. Hunterton also topped the sale with Gimpanzee filly Kadena bringing $800,000. This year's consignment is smaller, but the catalog is as well, which Steve said is a good thing.

"The sale company is doing the right thing," Steve said. "I applaud David [Reid] and Bruce [Brinkerhoff] at the sale company for having less yearlings to sell than they did last year. It's so easy just to keep taking more and more. It's hard not to take more when you have a great sale. I think everything is firing on all cylinders. They probably knocked off about 10 yearlings of ours that might have been sold in the last couple years, and that's fine. There are other venues to sell those yearlings, and that's what [we] did."

Can Hunterton reach the marks it established in 2023? Steve admits that is not the pursuit. Instead, the focus is on bringing a quality consignment and letting the marketplace dictate.

While Mission Brief's filly topped the sales sheet last fall, her yearling colt is absent from the catalog. He is consigned to the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA. Instead, Jolene Jolene's baby, Walner colt Kaizen, will be offered in Lexington after his sister, Voguish, sold in Harrisburg last year. Cataloged as Hip #50, the New Jersey- and Kentucky-eligible colt is a brother to Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Venerable and Crucial, dam of the red-hot Maryland. Kaizen is one of 21 yearlings Hunterton will sell on opening night in Lexington.

Hunterton's Cindy and Steve Stewart at the 2023 Lexington sale.

"I don't think he has sale topper written on him, but he's going to sell for a lot of money," Steve said. "Jolene is the grandmother of Maryland. Voguish, the 2-year-old, dead-heated for win in the Kentuckiana Stallion Management Stake at Hoosier, so the beat just keeps going on and on. Jolene's filly was the second-highest priced yearling at Harrisburg at $535,000. She's had several sale toppers and now you're coming with the first colt. He'll be a lot of fun to sell."

Buyers will get a second chance at this high-performing family later on Monday night (Sept. 30) when the first foal from Jolene Jolene's daughter, Ineffable, enters the sale ring. Cataloged as Hip #108, the dual-eligible Walner colt is named Inexpressable.

Five of the first 10 yearlings that will sell Monday night are from the Hunterton consignment. Just over one-fifth of the agency's roster will be sold opening night. While Hunterton has several high-quality yearlings cataloged in the opening session, Steve highlighted a few that should garner notable attention. Hip #19 Rocknacious, is a colt from Perfect Sting's first crop. He is dual-eligible to New Jersey and Kentucky, and is the first foal from millionaire Captaintreacherous mare Rocknificent. The second dam is double millionaire and Dan Patch Award winner Rocklamation.

"He is exceptional," Steve said. "I've been bragging on him since he was born. In my opinion, he should be the flag bearer of all Perfect Stings because he's such an outstanding individual."

Dual-eligible colt Enbolden, Hip #26, is a son of Walner from Cantab Hall mare Pleasing Lady.

"He's a really outstanding Walner colt," Steve said. "It's the brother to Six Pack."

Besides the two-time Dan Patch winner, the mare also has produced three other winners, with plenty of production through the second and third dams as well.

Another of note is Iconic Bi, Hip #91 in the book. The Gimpanzee filly is out of Muscle Hill mare Dream Child, a 100-per cent producer with three six-figure earners to her credit.

"She's the dam of Ari Ferrari," Steve said. "She hasn't missed. She's done extremely, extremely well."

A few pages later in the catalog is Muffin Queen, Hip #95, a dual-eligible Tactical Landing filly. She is the first foal from Andover Hall mare Love Muffin, a full sister to Big Barb, dam of millionaire Back Of The Neck.

"She is one of the ones that I think will really rattle the cage," Steve said. "She has a very, very nice pedigree, but even more so she's an outstanding filly."

Hunterton yearlings are scattered throughout each of Lexington's five sessions. With the balance of trotters and pacers, variety of sires, and mixture of first foals with babies from productive dams, the agency's menu caters to many interests.

"We have a lot of nice horses," Steve said. "I don't think we're loaded with any one stallion. I think across the board we have something for everybody."

Before exiting the breeding game, All American is hoping for some fireworks in Lexington

by Dave Briggs

This year's Lexington sale will be one of your final chances to purchase a yearling from All American Harnessbreds. After nearly 40 years in business, the operation is leaving the standardbred breeding game at the pinnacle of its success. The farm's general manager, Rob Tribbett, said it simply was the right time to make the exit due to the pending retirement of key farm staff.

“It’s different than some other dispersals where someone passed away or it slowly went down,” Tribbett said. “We are probably having our best year ever on the track. So, it’s bittersweet – we love the business and we love the people and the horses, but it’s just time to do it.”

All American owner, Fred Hertrich III, said the four-phase dispersal plan was set in motion when longtime farm manager Beverly Webb and her second in command, Debbie Pinder, said they were both interested in retirement.

Tribbett said All American will exit the standardbred breeding market at the end of 2025.

He said All American yearlings will sell this year both at Lexington and Harrisburg as normal. The in-foal mares will be sold in the mixed sale portion of this year’s Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA, along with the majority of the farm’s stallion share interests.

“Then, in 2025, we’re holding over our weanlings of this year to sell them as yearlings as we normally would next year,” Tribbett said. “Then, next year at Harrisburg, the remaining barren mares, barren of ’24, will be sold at the mixed sale in ’25 along with the balance of the stallion shares that we’re holding over to breed those mares next year.

The objective is to have a complete dispersal of the farm by the first week of November, 2025.

In Lexington this year, All American will sell nine yearlings.

“As we’ve done in the recent past, they’ve been carefully selected for that sale,” Tribbett said. “We have four from Downbytheseaside and we’ve always been huge fans of the stallion and still are. We’re excited to have those for sale, including one that we’re selling on Day 2. Traditionally, his horses always sell on the last day of the sale. We do have some others as well, but we actually have a Downbytheseaside out of See You At Peelers that’s a very nice colt [Gentlemen’s Club, Hip #138].

“It’s a very nice individual. I actually purchased that mare with the goal of breeding her to Downbytheseaside.

“On Day 1, we’re also rolling in there with the ‘Papi Rob’ brother to Captain Albano [Papi Albano, Hip #63]. That one really doesn’t need any explanation.

“Then, we have a Chapter Seven sister to Buy A Round [Buy Another, Hip #7] and a ‘Captain’ brother to Act Fast [Captain Phillips, Hip #59]. So, there’s three of the top performers of the year and we’re rolling in there with those and they are all out of young mares. It’s not like they’re 20-year-old mares and they’ve had enough good horses. They’ve all had two or three previous foals and have had horses make over $500,000 already. So, we’re very excited about those three.

"Then, Day 2, we've got the 'Seaside' out of Peelers, but then we also have a Papi Rob filly [American Story, Hip #190] and a Walner colt [Dynamo, Hip #255] that we feel physically stack up and look like very athletic individuals.

"We picked these horses from our crop to be down [at Lexington] because we're proud to be able to show them to people. We're excited about them."

All American will then sell 22 yearlings at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA before moving to the 2025 phase of their closure plan.

As for the industry itself, both Hertrich and Tribbett said they are bullish on it.

"This was the time to exit because, selfishly, the market has never been better, the industry in my estimation has never been better," Hertrich said. "So, as a result, it's a great time to pull the plug."

"We think the standardbred business is super healthy," Tribbett said. "Obviously, the Freehold [Raceway closure] news was disappointing, but if you look at it across all the jurisdictions, I think the money in New Jersey has been reaffirmed. Ohio is rocking and Indiana. Kentucky continues to rise and Ontario and New York, Pennsylvania.

"I think the standardbred business is as healthy as it's been in quite a long time. So that was definitely not a factor [in our leaving]. We're very optimistic heading into the yearling sales because of the strength we've seen everywhere in the standardbred business. It is a great time to own a standardbred racehorse."

The home of Muscle Hill, Tactical Landing and Walner will sell twelve yearlings by those brilliant sires, as well as pacing yearlings by Captaintreacherous, Huntsville, Perfect Sting, and more!

"I'm going to tell people they have to salute me now," Boni said, laughing. "Either salute or bow, one of the two."

"When I started doing this 1,000 years ago, I didn't go home at night and say, 'I can't wait to get into the Hall of Fame.'"

But, now that he's part of the class of 2025, Boni has the unique honor of having his Hall of Fame figure made by an old friend, Kristin Roberts.

"I went to work at Pine Hollow in 1969," Boni said of the former stud farm. "[Roberts'] mother came on, I think, the next year. She became the executive secretary and was there until the day I left in 1980. We became very close friends and Kristin, at that point, she was maybe 8 or 10 years old... She ended up working for me at Pine Hollow and took care of yearlings and did other things. We've been extremely close ever since. So, it's kind of interesting. She once said something to me about doing [my Hall of Fame figurine] and I said, 'I don't care what it looks like, it doesn't make a difference to me.' The fact is, that if I was ever in a position to have one, you could put my head on backwards if you wanted to."

As for his 20 Lexington yearlings, Boni highlighted Hip #70 Bay On The Beach.

"It's a 'Miki' colt [out of Beach Gal] and the mare's been a terrific producer," Boni said. "I think he's got an opportunity to be a pretty good horse."

"Another one that I have for Sergent Stable is McHungry [Hip #134]. He's a brother to a Breeders Crown winner, and he's a Stay Hungry. That's something that would draw some interest and they raise a good horse. Their horses perform well."

Boni said he's "anxious to see the reception that Captain Corey gets." Northwood is selling Captain Corey colt Captain Dolittle, Hip #307.

"His brother [Father TJ is] a pretty good horse," Boni said. "He's made $160,000 this year and he was a very sharp colt also last year. He'll be an interesting colt for somebody. I'd have to think anybody looking for one of them will give him some interest. He should be all right."

Finally, Boni said he's got strong hopes for Intisaar Mil, Hip #329. It is a Bar Hopping filly out of Frisky Magic.

"She's a sister to a number of pretty good horses, but the 2-year-old filly this year was a very good horse, Princess Jackie – a Greenshoe filly."

The Bittle and Keller families' Yankeeland consignment will sell 11 yearlings in Lexington including the first foals of four multiple stakes-winners and a Papi Rob Hanover brother to Yankee Bounty p,1:49.3 ($849,819).

on opening night, five of which are sired by the son of Windsong's Legacy. This is the first time the farm will sell double-digit lots on the first night.

"We're trying to do the best we can for our clients," Meirs said. "Regardless of what day they are, we put a lot of pressure on ourselves just because our clients are relying on us to get top dollar. Night one of Lexington with 10, when we're only taking 24 down there, that's a big chunk of our consignment."

It may be a big chunk of the roster, but Concord Stud has done well on night one in the past. Last year, six yearlings grossed $905,000, with the top bringing $275,000. Overall, the consignment grossed $1.57 million in 2023.

Madam Cheval will kick things off for the nursery, entering the ring early in the session as Hip #25. The dual-eligible Walner filly is out of multiple Dan Patch Award winner Shake It Cerry. The mare is a 100-per cent producer, led by $390,000 winner Mon Cheval. The filly's second dam is Hall of Fame mare Solveig.

"She's a great individual and she's had a lot of lookers and a lot of people really like her, so we're super excited about that," said Meirs.

Shake It Cerry's Walner brother, the dual-eligible Joe Bo, sells as Hip #33. Solveig's production is so extensive, the pedigree page has no room for the second dam.

"We've got two Chapter Seven fillies, Hip #54 [Wall And Piece] and Hip #75 [Stealing Banksy], that are very nice. We've got a Chapter Seven colt at #55 [Vitner] that's very nice," said Meirs. "If you want to get away from Chapter Seven, we have a Gimpanzee colt, Hip #76 [Sheeeeeesh], that is good. And if you are looking for a Muscle Hill colt, you need to check out Hip #292 [Ocean Rider]. He's very nice as well."

Wall And Piece, Hip #54, is the third foal from 100-per cent producing mare Windy Corner, a sister to Breeders Crown runner-up Fast As The Wind, a winner of over $800,000. The bay filly is one of 12 agent horses for Order By Stable. Filly Stealing Banksy, Hip #75, is another. She is a full sister to New York Sire Stakes final-winning freshman Variegated and Sevecheeta, both $200,000 winners.

Vitner, Hip #55, is the second foal from Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final runner-up Wine Rack Hanover. The colt is one of three yearlings Concord Stud is offering from new client Spring Run Farm of Apple Creek, OH.

Sheeeeeesh, Hip #76, is the lone Concord-owned yearling from the roster. The son of Gimpanzee is out of the highly-productive Muscle Hill mare Blk Thai Optional, dam of Hambletonian champion and Dan Patch Award winner Cool

Michael Gulotta's Deo Volente Farms will sell a Muscle Hill half-sister to Up Your Deo in Lexington, along with five yearlings from the first crop of multiple Dan Patch winner Perfect Sting and siblings to Breeders Crown champions and millionaires Rocknificent and I Luv The Nitelife.

Papa Bell. He is one of four in the consignment sired by Gimpanzee.

Dual-eligible colt Ocean Rider, Hip #292, is from a sister to Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Crys Dream and O'Brien older trotting mare of the year Brigham Dream. He is a brother to a pair of winners.

"Tactical Landing is definitely up and coming and we have a couple of those that sell on Wednesday," Meirs said. "You can't seem to go wrong with Chapter Sevens right now. Gimpanzee is stepping up with what he has out there so far coming from such a small crop. Walner is Walner, and Muscle Hill is still chugging along and producing top horses. It's a trotter's world right now."

Filly Jailbird Jog, cataloged as Hip #380, is a dual-eligible Tactical Landing first foal. Jambo Jog, Hip #564, is a first foal Tactical colt out of a Ready Cash mare.

While Concord's pacing offering is light, Meirs noted the individuals are strong. A case in point is Hip #40, Henry Sugar, a colt she is selling as agent for Birnam Wood Farms. The dual-eligible son of Tall Dark Stranger has a tremendous pedigree. His dam, Sweet Lady Jane, is a sister to Sweet Lou and Bettor Sweet, and she has produced Dan Patch Award winner Youaremycandygirl.

"The client is testing the waters by selling one down here that would historically go to Harrisburg. We think this is where he will sell the best," Meirs said. "He's very nice, and we're excited to get him to Lexington for Seth Rosenfeld."

The farm has consigned a trio from the second crop of Tall Dark Stranger. Hip #426, Difaced Tenners, is a filly that is eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky. She is the first foal from a family whose third dam is Dan Patch champion Put On A Show, mother of Little Brown Jug and North America Cup winner It's My Show.

Concord's consignment might be its largest in the four years of selling at Lexington, but Meirs said she has yet to determine if there is an optimal number of babies to bring to the Fasig-Tipton Newtown paddocks.

"I'm not sure if we have figured out what our Lexington sweet spot is going to be. It has changed every year that we have gone," she said. "I expect that we'll be a little bit higher next year, especially if we are able to continue the success that we've had this year."

Fresh off their Lexington yearling's Mohawk Million win, Hanover is hoping for more of the same in Kentucky

by Dave Briggs

How does Hanover Shoe Farms figure out which yearlings to bring to Kentucky and which ones to sell at its own Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA? Farm manger Patti Murphy said this year the selection process was fairly simple.

"We wanted to highlight the ones that are Kentucky eligible," she said. "Our consignment is a little smaller this year, we only have 13, because, you know, it's a big trip for us and it takes people away from getting our Harrisburg horses prepped, so we just tried to pick 13 exceptional individuals."

Last year, Hanover sold 25 yearlings and grossed $3.39 million to be the sale's second leading consignor (behind All American) by average with $135,720.

From last year's Lexington consignment, Hanover sold this year's Mohawk Million winner, Maryland for $475,000 (sold as Charlie K Hanover).

"We try to do a variety of stallions [in Lexington]," Murphy said. "We're a little heavier on the pacers this year, but we have some very exceptional trotting individuals. We have five trotters, three colts and two fillies, that we're selling. We wanted to save some for Harrisburg as well, it's our home-base sale."

Murphy highlighted Hip #15 Rani Hanover, a Walner filly out of Hambletonian winner Ramona Hill.

Dave Landry

“She’s just a gorgeous individual, very athletic,” Murphy said. “Her video was awesome – she was all up and down on the line. Beautiful trot on her. We’re really excited about what she’s going to do.

“We have a ‘Papi Rob,’ you know they’ve been doing very well this year, so we’re excited to see how they are going to sell this year. Ecuador Hanover [Hip #93] is a brother to Caviart Belle, who’s a very big stakes filly. Big colt, very leggy, again very athletic.

“We have a Chapter Seven out of Secret Passion [Spencer Hanover, Hip #22], which is Manchego’s family. He’s very nice. He’s actually a little larger in size than your average Chapter Seven. Some size came from the mare. He’s a very correct, very nice looking individual.

“We have two beautiful Captaintreacherous individuals – Makeemblush Hanover [Hip #140] out of Modesty is just a gorgeous filly. Captaintreacherous stamps his babies and her family is just... pretty royal pedigree there, just a big solid filly.

“Then, Throttle Hanover, [Hip #219] he’s our other ‘Captain’ colt, out of the Perfect Touch family.”

Murphy said she’s happy to send two first-crop yearlings by Captain Corey to Lexington.

“We are pretty excited about him and I talked to [Hanover owner] Russell [Williams] about sending some Captain Coreys to Lexington to represent him,” Murphy said. “I thought it was important to show off some of his first crop. The colt out of Dab Hanover [Dublin Hanover, Hip #293], he looks very similar to Captain Corey. He’s a big colt, very flashy and shows a lot of talent. I think people that have watched him in the paddock, and if you watch his video, he’s very impressive.

“We also have the first foal out of Andela [Arella Hanover, Hip #256] by him. She’s a little smaller, but she’s built very nice. The Captain Coreys are very smart individuals, very easy to get along with and they show a lot of talent.”

After Lexington, the real fun begins at Hanover for the 108 yearlings selling in Harrisburg.

“We get back [from Lexington] on Monday (Oct. 7), and we’ll start our video process,” Murphy said. “Last year, we got it done in five days. We’ll maybe get it done in five days this year, but we have a few more yearlings than we did last year.”

Blue Chip's Grossman bullish on economy and improvements to the New York Sire Stakes

by Chris Lomon

Tom Grossman, the man behind Blue Chip Farms, is liking what he sees ahead of this year's sale at Lexington.

"I think [the vibe] is pretty positive," he said. "I think with the U.S. election, and all that drama notwithstanding, we have seen that the thoroughbred sales were good. I thought Goshen [sale] was very good overall and the traffic at the farm has been very good as well. I sense positivity.

"The economy is pretty positive for the sale. That could change at a minute, but rates are certainly going to go lower, and the big tax advantages are still in place for buying horses. Financial markets have been pretty darn positive this year, although if you read the news, it doesn't feel that way. Gold prices are very high. It seems to be a very good environment to buy horses, especially in the U.S. with the taxes as they are – it's kind of a no-brainer if you are looking to buy a horse."

A long-standing champion of the standardbred industry, Grossman is further buoyed by the recent announcement that the New York Sire Stakes will award record purses for all three series finals next season as well as a significant increase to the Breeders Award program in 2025.

Earlier in the month, the Agriculture & New York State Horse Breeding Development Fund Board approved the following purse totals for the 2025 series finals:

- New York Sire Stakes Finals: $300,000 USD
- Excelsior Series Finals: $100,000 USD
- County Fair Series Finals: $25,000 USD

It was also announced that the New York Sires Stakes will add a new stakes race for 2-year-olds in 2025 featuring a purse totaling $1 million USD.

The Breeders Awards program, which provides rewards for each level of New York Sire Stakes racing, will now offer $1.75 million USD, which is to be distributed to eligible breeders for the 2025 season.

"I was very pleasantly surprised with the funding that came through," said Grossman. "There is meaningfully more money to race for at age 2 and 3. With the finals going up $75,000 and an extra 2-year-old race for $250,000 for each gait and sex – it's a lot more money to race for at 2 and 3.

"Most importantly, simultaneously, this has happened with a marked decrease in the number of eligible foals in New York. It will rebound in three or four years, but for the next two or three years, there are very few – I believe there are 80 trotting colts or fillies in the whole world – who are New York Sires Stakes eligible. The NYSS purse increases per eligible foal are astronomically higher than any jurisdiction and I think horse people are starting to find that out. There are less than 200 horses combined in Harrisburg and Lexington who are New York-bred yearlings.

“I have a ton of New York breds for next year, but not as many for this year, unfortunately. I’m sure people will think I am biased, but I am only buying New York fillies. I have no interest in racing in other jurisdictions.”

Grossman does, however, have a big interest in the upcoming Lexington sale.

Blue Chip will showcase nine yearlings, including a Day 2 trio Grossman is quite high on.

“Hip #173 [Aviatrix Blue Chip] is a Chapter Seven filly out of Oh My Goodness,” Grossman said. “She looks like she is going to be a nice horse. I spent a lot of time around [champion trotter] Cedar Dove, back when Noel Daley had her. This filly reminds me a lot of her. I think she is very exciting.”

He is equally bullish about Apocalypsebluechip (Hip #155).

“We have a Papi Rob Hanover colt out of Queen of Darkness, which is from the family of Downbytheseaside, who I like quite a bit,” Grossman said. “This guy is really racey looking. He’s a nice-looking colt too.”

Grossman gave out high marks for the filly Aster Blue Chip, listed as Hip #160.

“We are a big believer in Green Manilishi [S] and I think he is going to serve us well,” he said. “We have a first foal, a filly out of Nimbus Deo, who also has a very nice pedigree. It is the family of Perfect Alliance and several others. This filly can fly.”

“So, there you have it, an Ontario bred, Pennsylvania bred, and New York bred for you.”

As for value plays, Grossman has a Day 3 colt he believes could have a bright future.

Hip #509, he noted, is certainly worth a second look.

“I am not sure how the Perfect Stings will be,” Grossman said. “I don’t know what the hype is around Perfect Sting and his first crop, but we have one – I don’t think he will bring a lot of money – a colt out of Bathsheba, who is from the ($1.3 million earner) Fire Start Hanover family, that I always liked very much growing up.”

“His name is Azrael Blue Chip, and she is Bathsheba’s third foal. She had two foals, who had excuses that I won’t get into – they were meant to be very good horses. But I think this guy is going to be a nice sleeper, a diamond-in-the-rough kind of horse.”

Spring Station Bloodstock looks to build on rookie success with larger consignment

by James Platz

Last fall, Spring Station Bloodstock LLC debuted at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale with 12 babies that grossed $898,500 ($74,875 average). This year, farm manager Josh Green brings 33 yearlings to Fasig-Tipton Newtown Paddocks looking to build on that success.

"We've got 12 trotters and 21 pacers, so it's kind of a mixed group," Green said of the offering, which nearly triples the 2023 roster. "We have a total of 10 Ohio-breds that are selling. It's a good group, and I feel good about our consignment."

Spring Station, owned by Eric Good, sold two yearlings on opening night last year, with a Captaintreacherous filly fetching $300,000. Monday night (Sept. 30), a trio are cataloged to sell.

"We have a very strong Day 1," Green said. "We have two really nice trotting colts and a really nice Ohio-bred pacing filly. Those three are very nice individuals. I'm very pleased to have all three of them on day one. With an Ohio-bred, they don't always have them on Day 1."

Bay filly Pacey Station will be the first to sell for the Midway, KY-based nursery, cataloged as Hip #9. Sired by Downbytheseaside, the Ohio- and Kentucky-eligible baby is the first foal from Sweet Lou mare Pace Baby Pace, a winner of over $380,000 on the track and a sister to O'Brien Award winner Pass Line.

Midwest racing fans will recognize the dam of Spring Station's second offering of the night. Stratagem Station, Hip #42, is a Walner colt that is the first foal from Swift Swanda. The mare earned just over $450,000 on the track, winning in Grand Circuit action at 2 and 3, claiming an Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final as a freshman. The colt is eligible to Kentucky and New Jersey.

"We bought her at the Meadowlands sale," Green said of Swift Swanda. "That was probably our first big purchase. Beautiful mare, a nice individual. We were very happy to get her, she's from the CR Kay Suzie family. It's nice to have a good Midwest mare that people know."

Spring Station's first-night offerings conclude with Forte Station, cataloged as Hip #97. The Chapter Seven colt is the first foal from Father Patrick mare Fortissimo Fashion, a full-sister to Sister Sledge, a winner of over $840,000 prior to export. The colt is New York- and Kentucky-eligible.

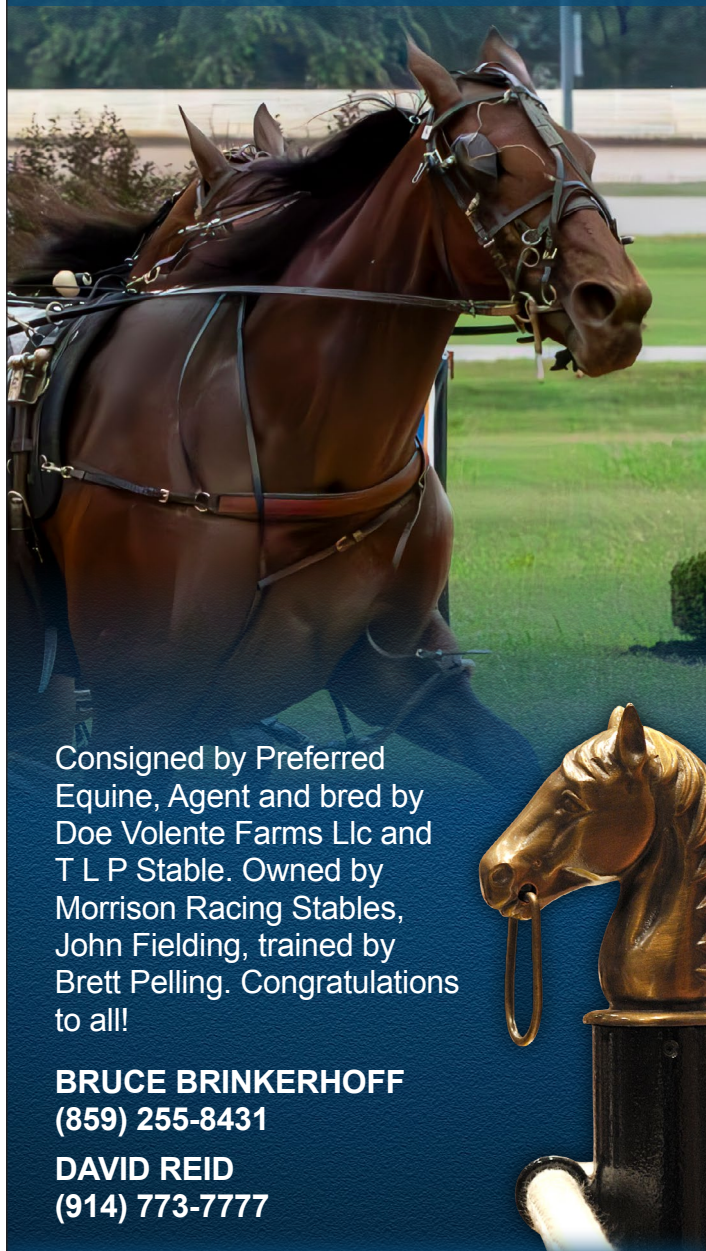

The consignment, which features 21 first foals, is spread out across the week, and includes a good variety for buyers.

"We have a Tactical colt selling the second night that's really nice," Green said. "He moves well. We're really excited about him. He's the second foal out of a really good family. A really nice looking colt. He handles himself well. Just a really stunning individual."

Andy Station, Hip #249, is out of Allswell Hanover, sister to Dan Patch Award winner Anoka Hanover. The Tactical Landing colt is eligible to the New Jersey and Kentucky programs. Following Andy Station into the sale ring will be Atte Station, Hip #250. The Captaintreacherous filly is the first foal from Well Said mare Amazing Alexa, half-sister to North America Cup winner Nijinsky. "With what he's done on the track, we're excited about that," Green said. "It's a really good cross, Captain out of Well Said."

Handle Station, selling late in day two as Hip #340, is a Captain Corey first foal from Father Patrick mare Harness AM, a $140,000 winner. The filly is dual-eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky. "She's all trot all over the fields; up and down," Green said. "She will go up and down those rolling hills and just fly. She's been that way since she was young. She just never misses a beat."

Another highlight is Ticket Station, selling on Day 2 as Hip #216. The bay colt is from the small first crop offering of Horse of the Year Bulldog Hanover. He is the first foal from a Sunshine Beach mare with a 1:52 freshman mark. Second dam That Day has produced 14 winners from 15 foals.

"He's had a lot of looks from clients coming to the farm checking him out," Green said. "He's a really nice individual."

Spring Station will offer yearlings out of "blue collar" mares as Green described them. They are from mothers that he trained, or from the same family as other horses he conditioned.

"We have some in our consignment that I trained that were tough as nails," he said. "I think they can be great broodmares. I just loved the families and the character, the toughness of the mares."

The group includes Distillery Station, Hip #522, a Papi Rob Hanover second foal from Dewar N Soda, as well as a group of four selling on Friday. Of the quartet, three are first foals sired by Downbytheseaside. Filly Warrior Station, Hip #865, is out of 18-time winner and six-figure earner War Crimes. Pettybetty Station, Hip #890, is a filly from Betsea, a 13-time winner. Filly Ginny Station, Hip #899, is from Keystone Classic winner Ginger Tree Carey. Hosting Station, Hip #928, is an In Range colt out of Holiday Promise, third in the OSS Super Final as a freshman.

Spring Station is continuing to expand and upgrade, and is poised to bring an even larger consignment next fall.

"I feel good about what we have," said Green, noting the August addition of Dan Patch Award winner Bond to the broodmare band. "Naturally, we're like any other farm and we continually want to upgrade. We have 47 foals on the ground for next year and we have 65 mares in foal. We have plenty in the pipeline."

Anvil And Lace consignment has ‘a little bit of everything’ for buyers

by James Platz

Anvil And Lace Farm’s 2024 Lexington Selected consignment is down in size when compared to last fall, but it is not suffering in quality or selection. The Paris, KY farm has cataloged 50 babies, trimmed from the 66 offered one year ago. According to Beth Yontz, who owns and operates Anvil And Lace with her husband, Doug, the farm has more horses overall selling at auction, and the adjustments made are to help spread the wealth.

“We’re down a few, [but] we still have 50,” she said. “I do have more in Harrisburg. I went up over 30 in Harrisburg. The numbers are more overall, just less in Lexington. I had some owners that wanted to split them up. Farms are getting bigger, therefore, they are just splitting them up and hitting both sales.”

A consignment this size offers variety, and Anvil And Lace will send yearlings to the sale ring in each of the five Lexington sessions. The group is divided between 13 trotters and 37 pacers. Beth has one yearling selling on opening night. Kountry Splash, Hip #35, is a Chapter Seven first foal from Splash Blue Chip, a winner of over $470,000 and sister to world champion and millionaire Plunge Blue Chip. She is one of 10 yearlings in the sale from Kountry Lane Standardbreds.

“Obviously, the Splash Blue Chip, number 35, the pedigree says it all,” Beth said on the New York- and Kentucky-eligible filly. “She’s a first-day horse and she’s phenomenal.”

That’s high praise from Beth, who is careful when placing horses in the first session after previous lessons learned.

“You have to have the perfect horse for first night because they’re so picky,” Beth said. “I’m okay with not having a bunch. If it was my personal horse, I don’t know that I would ever go first night because they are judged so strictly, because it is the top of the top. You have to have the pedigree match the individual that matches the updates on the page. I’m okay with it if they belong there. I had some there last year and they did well. Early on we’ve made the mistake of putting a horse that, ‘Oh, he’s a great individual. Stunning.’ Didn’t have the best updated pedigree. Had a great pedigree, but it was old. They get lost in the shuffle on the first day.”

Last fall Anvil And Lace sent four yearlings through the ring on the first night, with one bringing $200,000, another fetching $170,000, and a third hammered down for $140,000. It was a strong start to a sale that saw the farm gross just shy of $3.1 million and average $46,892.

Going beyond the first session, the Anvil And Lace consignment covers a lot of bases with much to offer buyers.

“As always, we have a little bit of everything; trotters, pacers, regional horses,” Beth said. “We have Perfect Sting’s first crop and we have some European. We have a Calgary Games and Ready For Cash; some European blood, something different in there. We also have some regional horses that sell on the last day simply because they are regional horses.”

One of the highlights is Caviart Anders, a dual eligible colt by Sweet Lou. Cataloged as Hip #263, he is the first foal from Somebeachsomewhere mare Caviart Audrey, a near-$300,000 winner out of Dan Patch and O’Brien Award winner Darlin’s Delight, and sister to millionaire Darlinonthebeach. The colt is eligible to Pennsylvania, Kentucky and Virginia.

DIAMOND
CREEK

BY CHAPTER SEVEN OUT OF STEAMY WINDOWS

“The pedigree page speaks for itself,” Beth said. “You look at that pedigree page, hopes and dreams, he should be a stallion.”

Beth said that because of the nature of the sale and the strength of the catalog, top individuals from the consignment sell later in the week. Selling later isn’t an indication of their quality.

“I have some Captains and a Papi Rob that sell later in the sale. Why? It’s just because the sale is so loaded. Is there anything wrong with them? No. They are phenomenal individuals,” she said.

Anvil And Lace offers five by Captaintreacheraus, one by Papi Rob Hanover and five from the first crop of Perfect Sting. Filly Kountry Joy, Hip #189, is a dual-eligible Captaintreacheraus first foal out of a $500,000-winning Bettor’s Delight mare. Colt Kountry Peaky, Hip #205, is a dual eligible Captaintreacheraus first foal from Breeders Crown champion Peaky Sneaky. Papi Rob Hanover filly Mami’s Charm, Hip #504, is a first foal whose family includes the half-sister to O’Brien Award winner Caviart Ally.

Of the five Perfect Stings in the consignment, all are colts, and all are dual eligible. Imapricelessprince, Hip #406, is the first foal from Indiana champion and Breeders Crown elimination winner Priceless, who earned over $600,000 on the racetrack.

“For the most part, I like them. Some of them are a bit big,” Beth said about the Perfect Stings. “Being New Jersey eligible, you have the Meadowlands, so you have a big track to race on.”

Asked for a sleeper pick in her consignment, Beth pointed to Dancin Lou colt Mega Moves, Hip #806 in the catalog. Ontario and Kentucky eligible, he will be the second horse through the ring in the week’s final session.

“The mare hasn’t produced much, but I don’t know that you’ll find a much better looking individual,” she said. “But, it’s a Dancin Lou, it’s Canadian, who knows.”

Steve Jones of Cameo Hills Farm said if he doesn't have a good sale then no one will

by Debbie Little

Cameo Hills Farm is serving up a smorgasbord at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, starting on Day 1 and running all the way through Day 5 that features some first foals as well as first crop sires.

Farm owner Steve Jones, expects them to get out of the gate well on Day 1 with a momentum that will carry them through the entire sale.

"I'm selling three Walner fillies opening night," Jones said. "They're all very well bred and very nice looking. You can pick the one you like if you're the buyer. I don't think that any of the three are going to be embarrassed when they walk out of the stall.

"Specifically, the first foal out of Mazarati [Hip #2 Extra Gears] and the first foal out of You Ato Dream [Hip #58 Kickan] are both well-bred, nice-looking fillies and I'd be surprised if they don't sell well.

"I mean, Mazarati was second in the Breeders Crown and made $300,000. You Ato Dream made $600,000 and wasn't a great filly, but was a very nice filly. Plus, she's a sister to Ari Ferrari J who was a good Walner."

Jones said others that kind of stand out to him include the first foal out of Thebeachiscalling by first Crop sire Perfect Sting, Hip #44 Perfect Weather, as well as a full sister to Instagram Model, Hip #83 Going Viral.

"I can't really say I'm selling anything Day 1 that there's much to complain about. We kind of plan it that way. I took the best ones to Kentucky and they've got looks and they've got pedigree.

Also on Day 1, Jones has Hip #74 The Unit a full brother to Max Contract who won the Breeders Crown last year.

"I had two people last week that said to me that [The Unit] reminds them of Legendary Hanover," Jones said. "So, I hope that's the case and hope he races just like him."

Jones also really likes Hip #52 The Wow Factor a son of Chapter Seven out of the Trixton mare Violet Stride.

"It's the second foal, first colt of the mare and he couldn't be nicer looking," Jones said. "I don't think there'll be a nicer looking

Dave Landry
The Cameo Hills
team in Lexington.

Chapter Seven colt at the sale in Lexington, to be honest with you. So, I think I should be looking forward to a strong first night."

Jones spoke briefly about how even though some sellers want to be on the first day, if you have a good enough horse, people will find it wherever it is.

"We sold Bowlin For Dollars in Lexington many years ago and he was like eight or 10 hip numbers from the end of the sale on the last day of the sale," Jones said. "I think at that time, the last day of the sale was Sunday afternoon. And, he was kind of a jerk to be around and I was following the horse to the ring, because I didn't want something stupid to happen here. And like I said, the sale is basically over.

"Well, I'm following him to the ring and I'm passing every significant horse trainer that you could possibly think of that's a trotting trainer at that time, Ronnie Gurfein and Chuck Sylvester and Trond Smedshammer and this guy, and that guy. I'm thinking, 'Wait a minute, these guys are all still here and really the only trotting colt of note left is this horse?' I said this horse could sell pretty good. Well, he brought $93,000 and he was at the tail end of the last day, and it was a lot of money."

Another first crop sire represented in Cameo Hills' consignment is Captain Corey.

"I've got a Captain Corey colt [Hip #242 Captain Vodka] a first foal out of a sister to Bella Bellini [Agro Dolce]," Jones said. "He's beautiful. He's a very nice colt and he sells on Day 2 and his pedigree couldn't be much better."

"And I've also got a Captain Corey colt [Hip #427 Jimmy Buckets] out of a mare, Sianna Hanover. She's only had three colts and they've all made over 100,000. They've all been nice colts; a couple of Chapter Sevens and the other one's a Walner."

Also of note on Day 2 is Hip #358 Bucked Up, a Perfect Sting out of a sister to Huntsville.

"It's the first foal of that mare called Let'er Buck," Jones said. "The mare herself, she's a Betting Line filly that made over $100,000 as a 2-year-old, which tells you that she wasn't bad either. And, like I said, she's a sister of Huntsville."

Jones also pointed out a Greenshoe colt out of the Kadabra mare Casaubon Hip #500 Money Mayfield.

"He's a full brother to, Shes A Shoe In and she just won the Pennsylvania [sire stakes] final in 1:55 and she's made [$191,350] this year as a 2-year-old," Jones said. "So, that makes her the richest Green Shoe filly ever, 2 or 3. And we're selling a full brother to her."

"If I'm taking a bad one down there, I don't know which one it is. I'll put it that way."

Just like many of his fellow consignors, Jones is expecting positive sale results.

"If we don't have a good sale in Lexington, I don't think anybody else will either," Jones said with a laugh. "The thing about yearlings selling this year, that is absolutely true, is these horses have the ability to race for more money than they've ever been able to race for. I mean, not only has New York greatly enhanced their sire stakes program for 2025 but the Kentucky program didn't exist a few years ago. So, it's not like money got shifted, it's just additional money that this relatively small body of horses can race for."

Crawford Farms looking to extend its legacy after three Hambletonians in six years

by Chris Lomon

Crawford Farms has plenty of reasons, 55 to be exact, to look forward to the upcoming Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

The gold-standard standardbred breeding and racing farm with two locations – in upstate New York and horse-rich Versailles, KY – is once again showcasing top-tier talents and intriguing value plays.

Over the past 17 years, Crawford Farms has provided the industry with dozens of impeccably-bred yearlings from blue-blooded broodmares. In the last several years, with the acquisition of their Kentucky farm, they have been able to provide dual-eligible yearlings for the Lexington sale.

Crawford Farms has now won three Hambletonians in the last six years as the co-owner of Atlanta (2018), Ramona Hill (2020) and Karl (2024). More importantly, the farm bred both Ramona Hill and Karl, who was also the 2023 Dan Patch Award winners as best 2-year-old male trotter.

“If the Keeneland Thoroughbred sale is any indication of the buying power, then I am hopeful that will transition over to the standardbred sale, and we break some records this year,” said Michelle Crawford.

Crawford, who anticipates a lot of eyes on their offerings at this year’s sale, is impressed by several of the farm’s yearlings.

“It’s hard this year because we have a very good consignment across the board, from Day 1 through to Day 5. On Day 5, we will have our Kentucky-eligible, well-bred Crazy Wow yearlings. Next year, those Crazy Wow yearlings will be dual-eligible to both New York and Kentucky.”

Crawford has no shortage of compliments for a son of Propulsion—Avalicious, Aspen, Hip #69.

“As far as standouts for me, I would start with Aspen – not because he is Karl’s brother, but because I think he has some insane talent,” she said. “I have seen gears – when we have been showing him out in the paddock – that I didn’t see on video day.

“We put the horses in the grass paddock to show them to buyers, and you see a whole different side of them. They are comfortable and they fly up and down. I have seen some remarkable speed and gears with him.

“We bred and sold a great Propulsion filly in last year’s sale, R Charm. She just won the New Jersey Classic. I’m not sure the industry on a whole will receive Propulsions like they should be received, even though it’s Karl’s brother.”

Hip #51, Ubrute, a son of Tall Dark Stranger, out of Warrawee Ubeaut, has also caught Crawford’s attention.

“For some reason, I just really like him,” Crawford said. “I have liked the Tall Dark Strangers all along. I know that they didn’t appear like they should have this year, but it is still early. I still believe in him. This horse is a phenomenal individual out of a great mare and is also co-owned by Ron Burke and the original ownership of Warrawee Ubeaut.”

Pink Hermes, Hip #86, is a bay filly who certainly looks the part, said Crawford.

“She is a Muscle Hill—Lock Down Lindy filly, which is a full sister to Ramona Hill,” Crawford said. “I think she is special too. We showed her in the paddock, and she has another set of gears, too. I like everything about her. I am not saying she is going to be another Hambo winner, but I would love to think so.”

On Day 2, Crawford expects sale goers to be impressed by Hip #203, Belly Up N Aspen, a son of Chapter Seven—Sexy Wow.

“This is a very nice colt,” she said. “When I go out in the chute and look at them, I’m watching their conformation, how they trot, how they move – I look at them all like I am the buyer. I try to separate myself and see them through that lens. I have to say I like this colt a lot.”

Captain Charley, Hip #438, a son of Captain Corey—Stella Jane, also earned top marks from Crawford.

“He is stunning,” she said. “He was stunning the moment his little four hooves hit the ground. He is a prototype of Captain Corey. When people look at him, I think they will see just how nice he is. He is well-balanced in the field, head down, and shows his athleticism.”

Heather Marshall, who works for Crawford Farms, is equally enthusiastic about this year’s standout prospects.

“Hip #66, Wayne Harvey (a son of Downbytheseaside—Alexis Faith);” Marshall said. “He is an absolutely gorgeous colt, a great big hip on him, strong, super athletic out in the field. He never has a bad day.

“I also like Hip #192 [Shaboozin On Top]. She is a daughter of Huntsville, out of the mare All On Top Hanover. That mare has had back-to-back starters [Blue Hunt, in 2023, and

Courtesy Crawford Farms
Aspen, Crawford Farms' Propulsion colt out
Avalicious, will sell as Hip #69.

Huntingforchrome, in 2024] make the Little Brown Jug final. The is the first full-sister to both those colts. With New York adding the extra purse money, it would be no surprise if she is everyone's top pick.

"The other one who comes to mind is Hip #68, Seaport Sammy (a son of Gimpanzee). He is out of a Muscle Hill sister, Ava Kathryn, to Karl. He is a big, strong colt and is a killer out in the field."

As for value opportunities, Marshall points to Hip #549, Sundownsomewhere, a daughter of Tall Dark Stranger—Somwherovrainbow.

"She looks much more like a Somebeachsomewhere than she does a Tall Dark Stranger," Marshall said. "We have had the last few foals out of this mare and this one is by far the nicest."

"I would also go with Hip # 659 [Laguna Glow] as well. She is a daughter of Propulsion—Tuvalu. The full-sister, Eloise, recently won at Freehold, and has made nearly $200,000 in her career so far. This filly has a great hind end, and I think being a Propulsion, she might fly under the radar a little bit."

Marshall also points to Hip #168, Captain Gage, as an underrated yearling.

"He is a son of Captaintreacherous—All About Kisses," Marhsall said. "She is a 100 per cent producer, and this colt shows fantastic athleticism, and I think he's going to be under the radar. I like him a lot."

Crawford also has rave reviews for another duo.

"I also like Jewel Crush [Hip #246]. She is maybe a little under the radar because she is a Propulsion. She's out of Jewels In Hock, whose second foal, R Charm, seems to have been a good cross for the mare.

"Nash, Hip #351, is a Tall Dark Stranger out of Nashville Elgenna, with the second dam being Anndrovette. This filly is just a very nice individual. She is built like a colt, but she is 'wow' on the floor. I like the way she moves, and she could be anything."

Peninsula Farm is offering a little something for everybody

by Debbie Little

Carter Duer's Peninsula Farm has a consignment offering 33 yearlings – 26 trotters and seven pacers – at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale with two that they own and 31 agent horses.

Duer said he thinks that his group have the looks that will bring you in and breeding and talent to back it up.

"As a group and as individuals and as athleticism goes, it's a very good group," Duer said. "Now I used to deal with hundreds and now I'm dealing with tens. But, when we film them, you always have one or two that either don't want to or can't do anything. Of this group, all the trotters were very, very good, I thought, and did what they were supposed to do.

"I think there are some diamonds in the rough in this bunch and another thing they're very correct in their confirmation. I just think it's a group that not strictly on pedigrees but on athleticism and on confirmation, and just what they look like, there'll be some very nice horses in there.

"I will think next year at this time if we have this conversation, there will be quite a few of this bunch, even though it's a small bunch, that will have done enough that you recognize them."

The farm's name, Peninsula, pays homage to the Delmarva Peninsula where Duer was raised. And his favorite colt in the sale also pays homage to someone special to him.

Selling on Day 2, Hip #237 M J D is by Captain Corey out of the Credit Winner mare You Want Me. Duer named the big brown colt – who he thinks is the spitting image of his sire – after his grandfather, Maurice James Duer. In 1947, Maurice had Tyson Hanover in the Hambletonian won by Hoot Mon.

"[M J D] won't be as special to anybody else as he was to me, but I waited a long time [to name one after my grandfather]," Carter said. "I was very close to my grandfather and he was in the horses all his life and it took me a while to find one that I thought that name might be good for, but that's all personal. But I think he's a very nice horse. I really do."

Carter has four selling on Day 1, including Hip #67 Voltage Peaks, a Chapter Seven colt out of the Muscle Hill mare Autumn Deo.

"I think he's very special," Carter said. "I don't look for a whole lot of money out of him, but for Chapter Seven, he's very special. He could be any kind of horse."

Also, on Day 1 is Hip #116 Midwind Lover Boy, a half-brother to Its a Love Thing, that Duer thinks would have brought a lot of money had it been a filly.

The fact that Hip #72 Bee Ready, a son of Ready For Moni out of the Balanced Image mare Beehive is on Day 1 surprised Carter a little bit, but the Ohio- and Kentucky-eligible colt is a half-brother to the great Bee A Magician.

"The sales company [put him on Day 1] and I would have been against it if it wasn't the horse's first crop, Carter said. "I knew that when people saw him in the catalog, everybody was going to look at him to see why he's on the first day, but he's kind of a special kind of colt, too."

Carter said he has two by Creatine, Hip #845 Princess Karolyn and Hip #938 Bug On that he thinks should have been on Opening Day.

"The way they do it, the Ohio and Indiana, and all those horses like the Downbytheseasides, except for a very few exceptions, all go on [Day 5]," he said. "Bug On should have been on Opening Day and I don't like opening day, but he's a very, very nice horse and a full brother to one of the best colts that's been in our business in the last five or six years. Jujubee was a very, very good horse and this colt is very, very special."

Carter mentioned some very nice Gimpanzees he has, including Hip #77 Midwind Chimp, a half-brother to Bond selling on Day 1.

"I was a little worried about [Gimpanzee] a month ago but, you know, he's done better, particularly his fillies," Carter said. "We have five [yearlings by Gimpanzee] and they're pretty darn nice horses. They really are."

He also mentioned a standout on Day 2 through 5.

"I've got [Hip #261 Aperfect Tillie on Day 2] a sister to [Aperfect Annie] that won the 2-year-old filly stake down here [at The Red Mile] who is very, very nice," Carter said. "She isn't as fashionable as some of the others that I'm sure she'll be better than, but that's just the way it is."

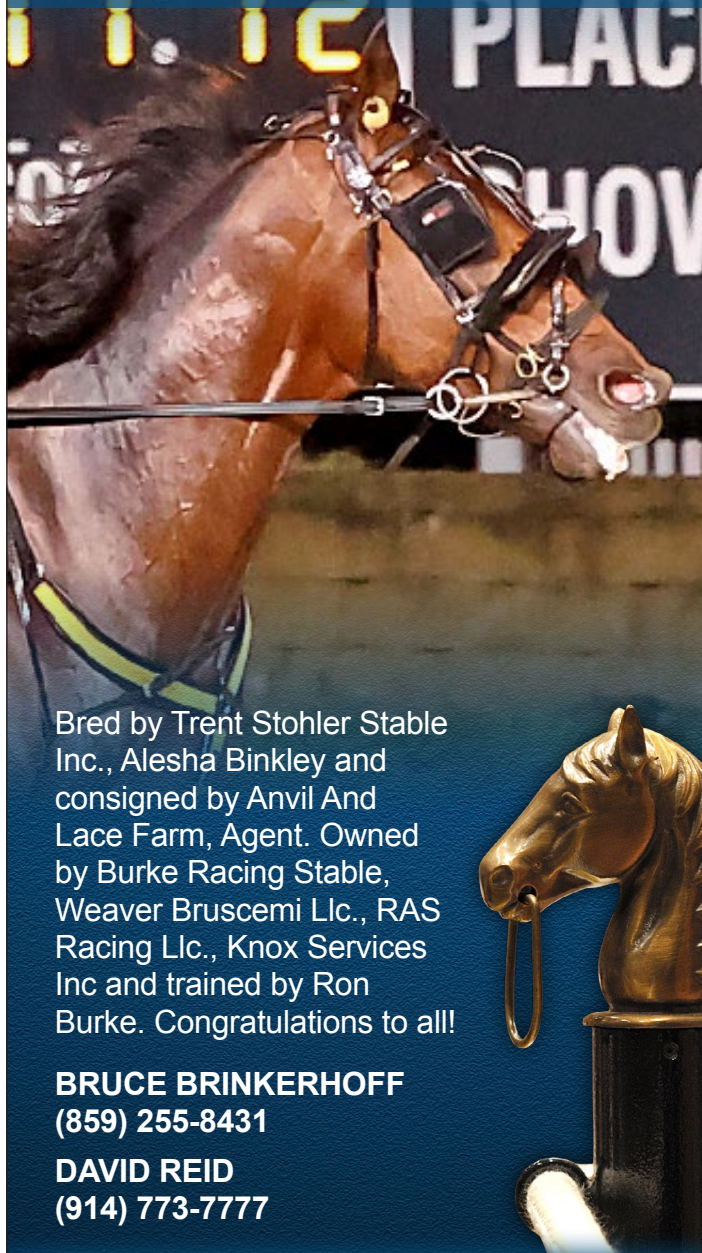

Aperfect Annie, who Duer sold as agent last year at Lexington, won the $400,000 Kentucky Championship Series on Sept. 15 and has so far banked $303,000 for the season.

"You know, she wasn't supposed to be winning that, but she did and she earned it and she was very deserving," he said.

“But she wasn’t one of the ones that brought $700,000 or $800,000. I think she brought [$70,000] and I thought that was very high.

“I can’t see [Aperfect Tillie] bringing over $125,000, and she’s very, very nice, but, you know, you never know. She’s got that look to her. She’s a very, very correct and very good-looking filly.”

“One other thing I will tell you, I really like the way that the Perfect Stings look, I’ve only seen two because I’m selling two [Hips # 542 Swarm (Day 3) and #744 Bulldogs A Rockin (Day 4)]. But they are very nice horses too. And I understand that people like them quite a bit.”

Lastly, he mentioned Hip #813 Dr Dashti by Calgary Games out of Muscle Babe by Muscle Mass selling on Day 5.

“He’s just a grand looking horse,” Duer said. “He just looks like a good horse, but he is very athletic and he is very correct. When you look at him, you just say that he could be a good one and you don’t even have to know what his breeding was or anything. He is just looks like that kind of horse.

“This is a very nice group of horses and I’m very happy to represent them with their looks and what they show me and people that come out to see them. I’ve had a lot better ones on paper with a lot more expectations, but I don’t know that in all the years I’ve been doing it, I’ve had a group that as a whole, I’ve liked any more than these 33. They’re just nice horses. Like I say, it’s a little bit of everything in here.”

Esty bringing strong consignment and trademark optimism to Lexington

by Matthew Lomon

For Senena Esty of Spring Haven Farm, the fine art of crafting a desirable consignment starts with having a little something for everyone.

The Utica, OH-based outfit heads into the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale fresh off a successful appearance at the recent Ohio Selected Jug Sale on Sept. 13.

Spring Haven's crop of youngsters netted the third-highest revenue total ($918,000) amongst participating consignors.

Esty and Co. will look to carry that momentum some 250 miles south along with a diverse group of 41 yearlings – seven of their own and 34 agent horses – featuring babies from Captaintreacherous, Cattlewash and Papi Rob Hanover.

While Spring Haven's showrunner is excited about her entire cast of yearlings, there are a few Captaintreacherous spawns that Esty is particularly bullish on.

"I've got three Captaintreacherous' at the farm that are really nice," said Esty. "I have a full sister to Captain Cowgirl [Long Love Cowgirls, Hip #56], and she's an awesome individual. She's got the pedigree, she has the confirmation, and she's got the video to go with it.

"I'm really high on that filly as well as the Captaintreacherous colt [Wishful Captain, Hip #17]. He's the first foal out of a really good mare (Wishy Washy Girl) and he is a tank. He's muscle on muscle and I'm very high on him.

"Both are very correct individuals."

Esty's Captaintreacherous praise parade also floated attention by a bay colt owned and bred by Steven McCoy.

"We have another agent Captaintreacherous [Odds On Favorite, Hip #579]. He's a full brother to Captain Cowboy. If you want a Captain Cowgirl and a Captain Cowboy, we've got them. Just bring your lasso," said Esty, laughing.

As far as the other renowned sires headlining Spring Haven's Lexington consignment, Cattlewash and Papi Rob Hanover, Esty has a total of seven for interested buyers to rope in.

Four belong to the former, including a pair of pacing colts in Cattle Drive [Hip #435] and Tilthecowscomehome [Hip #510], and two pacing fillies in Ridin the Rodeo [Hip #640] and Sullivan's Island [Hip #763].

"These horses are very correct, very smart individuals," Esty said. "Cattleshed had a stellar first crop, and we've got a number of his that we're really high on.

"If you're looking for a Cattleshed, we've got them."

For the folks who have already done the math, Spring Haven has three from Papi Rob Hanover, who's 35 yearlings sold for more than $3 million at last year's Lexington sale.

Esty's current trio is made up of two pacing colts, Stonebridge Boytoy [Hip #110] and Justinian [Hip #472], and a pacing filly by the name of Papi's Crush [Hip #162].

Before getting into some under-the-radar picks and promising first time sires, Esty had a specific PSA for buyers with an eye on Indiana-bred talent.

"If you're looking for Swan For All for Indiana, wow, you better come and see me because we've got several and they all look the part," she said. "They're all very nice individuals."

Spring Haven's quartet of Swan For All's is comprised of two trotting colts in Spectre Ship [Hip #816] and Swan Travolta [Hip #878], and two trotting fillies, Karlee Grace [Hip # 881] and Flowers For All [Hip #942].

Everybody loves a good value pick, and Spring Haven has one from Bulldog Hanover [Bull Beach, Hip #703] that Esty's positively chipper about.

"I'm really happy with this colt as an individual," said Esty. "Plus, he has great video. He would be my, dare I say, sleeper. There's a lot of excellent qualities about this colt.

"He's incredibly intelligent, for one."

The second yearling on Esty's list of dark horses happens to come from two-time Breeders Crown Champion (2020, 2021), Perfect Sting.

When describing the Jon Brinkerhoff-bred youngster, Esty used a key word that often lends well to her yearlings' prospects.

"This is my first crop of Perfect Sting's, and I'm very intrigued by his filly [Perfect Thought, Hip #448]. She's a fancy filly with some really attractive qualities.

"People that know me know when I use the word fancy, I mean it," said Esty, laughing.

Rounding out Spring Haven's versatile catalog are five Stonebridge agent horses that are, too, very much worthy of Esty's lofty 'fancy' designation.

Alongside Papi Rob Hanover – Ken Doll J's Stonebridge Boytoy, the group of Stonebridge yearlings includes Stonebridge Cabana [Hip #180], Stonebridge Swifty [Hip #197], Stonebridge Jeter [Hip #387], and Stonebridge Luck [Hip #561].

"I've had people already come look at those horses, and I'm hearing very strong reports."

Ahead of the big day, Esty, now a sales veteran, knows that it doesn't always go according to plan. But the very least she can do is go in with the right mindset.

"As a breeder, you have to be an optimistic person. There's no other way to do this."

Kentuckiana's Bob Brady at the 2023 Lexington sale.

Kentuckiana's Bob Brady says signs pointing to a strong sale

by Matthew Lomon

Based on the words of Kentuckiana Farms part-owner Bob Brady, the metaphorical arrow is pointing in the right direction ahead of the 2024 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

Brady, who's been with the standardbred breeding stalwart since 1986, is especially encouraged by the recent resounding success that was the Keeneland September Yearling Sale.

"I think it's going to be a very good yearling sale," said Brady. "If you look at the economic indicators in the country and how things are going and the recent Keeneland Sale – they have set records in every category – I think that usually transpires over to our sale.

"I'm expecting a very strong sale."

Another crucial component that has Brady bullish leading into Lexington is the steady presence of dual-eligible yearlings in this year's catalog.

"As far as the overall sale goes, I think it's important that a vast number of yearlings are dual-eligibles," Brady said. "There's a great number that are going to be dual-eligibles in this sale and people are really interested in buying from that crop.

"And with that, most of our Kentuckiana yearlings are dual-eligible. That's one aspect of the sale that we're certainly excited about."

Kentuckiana's latest selection of 132 – 36 of their own and 96 agent horses – features babies from several standout sires, including Walner, Captain Corey, and Bar Hopping, who paces the pack with 15 youngsters.

Last year's Kentuckiana crop contained six yearlings from Bar Hopping. As for the reasoning behind the sharp increase this time around, Brady was effusive in his praise for the trotter's siring prowess.

"Historically, and again this year, Bar Hopping produces a very attractive yearling," Brady said. "He has nice foals, and they develop into very nice yearlings. They're all correct. They have enough size. They have a very sharp look to them. They're very willing in the video paddock, and they do things the right way. They're a very athletic type of colts, and he's been a super sire. He didn't breed the top shelf mares, and he found a lot of success with what he had.

"We like Bar Hopping. He's a rock-solid sire and we're very happy to have ours. It's an overall outstanding group."

While Walner needs no introduction, Brady noted that his team is particularly charged about the prospects of trotting colt American Power [Hip #65], who represents the stud sire's first yearling out of champion mare Ariana G.

"She was a heck of a mare," said Brady of the trotting filly who banked more than $2.45 million during her racing days.

"This is the first Walner from that mare. He's one of those colts that checks all the boxes, and we're expecting a very good sale for him."

Kentuckiana's deep consignment also features an intriguing group of Captain Corey progeny.

"We have 10, and they're all very nice," said Brady. "He stamps them all pretty well – dark brown color, plenty of leg and very nice, powerful bodies. And they all video great. I'm expecting them to be well received."

Those interested in yearlings from the 2021 Hambletonian champion will have ample opportunity to peruse his crop on days 2, 3, 4, and 5 of the sale.

For all the buzz surrounding Kentuckiana's go-to sires, Brady was equally enthusiastic about a pair of Perfect Sting pacers.

"I've got two exceptional colts, one out of Odds On St Lucie [Baalbek, Hip #36] and another from Alexis's Beach [Perfect Stu, Hip #244]," Brady said.

"They're both top end colts that have high-end ability and should do very well."

The third member of Kentuckiana's Perfect Sting selection is another pacing colt out of A Special Moment by the name of A Perfect Moment [Hip #467].

In terms of value picks, Brady tabbed pacing fillies as the best bang for buyers' bucks.

The University of Kentucky alum attributed this to the lucrative events available to fillies on the professional circuit.

As the countdown to Lexington continues, Brady said he is confident that this year's versatile lot will return another favorable result for Kentuckiana on home turf.

"I think we have something for everybody," he said. "We've got a dozen Walners, our 10 Captain Coreys, a healthy crop of Muscle Hills, a few Chapter Sevens. On the pacers side, we've got Captaintreacherous fillies and colts, Perfect Stings, and an overall strong mix across the board.

"I'm excited about it."

The family-owned and operated outfit sold 119 yearlings for a total of $9,294,500 in 2023's edition of the sale.

Historic Cane Run Farm has a good group of trotters across first four days

by Debbie Little

Even though they started out with pacers, it was trotters that brought fame to Cane Run Farm. The historic Georgetown, KY, farm established in 1982 is co-managed by Elizabeth Caldwell, a third-generation horsewoman descended from the Van Lenneps of Castleton fame.

“We had Nan’s Catch and we bred Moni Maker, so that kind of put us on the map as a trotting farm and we’re kind of stuck with that,” Caldwell said. “And then with Danae, we bred Propulsion and we had Bar Slide that we owned. She won the Oaks.”

With that sort of a history, it is perhaps no surprise that all 15 yearlings in this year’s Cane Run consignment at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale are trotters.

“It seems to be a pretty good group this year,” Caldwell said. “I’m happy with all of them physically. They’re pretty correct overall and they all had good videos, so that’s something to be happy about.”

Dave Landry

“And, obviously the two headliners on Day 1, [Hip #27] Wukong, his brother’s been pretty active this year racing, Winner’s Bet [recent winner of the $200,000 Caesars Trotting Classic]. So, that’s exciting that we have a three-quarter brother to him to sell and the Muscle Hill filly [Hip #87 Calyx], she’s nice too.”

Calyx is a daughter of the Donato Hanover mare Creature Of Habit.

“It’s a nice group Day 1 and 2,” she said. “They’re all pretty good horses that could be interchangeable and we have good horses on every day [1 through 4], so that’s nice.

“I think it is good to have nice horses each day because not everyone can afford a Day 1 or 2 horse, but they could still get a nice racehorse. Like, Oasis Dream or the Fortunes Of Fables [both with foal on Day 4]. Those mares have produced several racehorses that have won quite a bit of money, but maybe just aren’t like Grand Circuit type horses that they’ve had so far.

“So, we keep hoping for a big one out of both of them. But that’s kind of how they end up further back in the catalog. So, they have the back pedigree, but, they don’t give them a whole lot of chances if they don’t hit right away.”

Hip #609 Sliders is the colt out of Oasis Dream that’s selling on Day 4.

“He had a nice video but he might not bring a whole lot of money,” she said. “He’s by Tactical Landing, so he’s nicely gaited, has a good attitude and everything. He’s just kind of immature a little bit being a May foal, but videoed really well. So that was good.

“And there’s a nice Muscle Hill colt also on that same day [Hip #770 Underground]. I think he’s the last one to go through the ring for us.

“And we’re selling our last Cantab Hall foal that we have that we bred Fly Thru Time is [Hip #] 748.”

Caldwell said she’s excited about the Gimpanzees, which is a good thing since they comprise a third of her consignment.

“I think that he’s shown enough so far [as a sire],” she said. “I think they’ve done well from such a small crop of horses to be out there racing. I think we have five we’re selling.”

On Day 3, Caldwell mentioned Hip #392 Grace In Heaven a daughter of Chapter Seven out of the Muscle Hill mare Oblivion who is New York eligible.

“They usually sell really well, and it’s so hard to get to Chapter Seven and get a foal and she’s a nice size, she’s not small,” Caldwell said. “Some of them can be a little small, but she’s a nice individual.

“She’s been popular. I think people are interested for the program obviously, and she’s a nice looking individual too, so she kind of ticks all the boxes. So far, we’re going in the right direction there and hopefully she’ll sell well for her owner and they’ll be happy, but she looks good and I think that program is exciting.

“It’s so strong and it keeps getting stronger each year and they’re adding more money. She’s not dual eligible, but she doesn’t really need to be I don’t think. If that program kinda stays like it does, she should be fine.”

Caldwell also has a soft spot for Hip #337 Football Is Life a Gimpanzee colt out of Habit’s Best that she said is the Americanized version of Ted Lasso’s Futbol is Life.

“She’s getting older so we retired her, that was her last foal and we were hoping it would be a filly, but it’s a colt, so he’s in the sale,” Caldwell said with laugh. “We own a half-sister [Creature Of Habit] to him that we’re selling a foal out of her on Day 1. So that’s fine.

“It’s just been fun watching [Football Is Life] grow up to see how he’ll end up being for somebody and hopefully he gets a good home.”

When asked if she thought that there would once again be a strong sale in Lexington, Caldwell was cautiously optimistic.

“Well, you never know with the economy, but it seems like there’s a lot of money out there that people have to spend and we kind of try to base our sale based on how Keeneland’s going and their book one, book two have been really strong,” Caldwell said. “I think they had the highest price colt they’ve had since, I don’t know, 2006, maybe. So, yeah, it was a $5 million yearling. So somebody wanted that one for a lot of money.

“The catalog is very strong, so I think the buyers are going to be there and looking to be spending money and hopefully everything will line up and that will continue.”

Vieux Carre Farms' consignment may be a little smaller than usual, but it still packs a punch

by Debbie Little

The Vieux Carre Farms consignment can be looked at as tiny but mighty as it is spread across the first three days of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale including three on Day 1. The farm's baker's dozen of yearlings include tried and true sires as well as some hot new ones.

"We're bringing a few less this year than we normally bring, 13, but I think we've got a nice lineup," said Vieux Carre Farms' general manager Mark Egloff. "We're stronger on the pacing side and I'd say our pacing fillies are probably our strong suit here at Lexington.

"I've got a pair of Sweet Lou fillies that are really well bred and they look the part. One's on the first day named Sweet Lake. She's [Hip] #78 and her brother Captain Luke [P, 3, 1:49.1M $583,524] is a good horse... He's done well. It's a great family, so I expect her to sell very well.

Egloff's second Sweet Lou filly is selling on Day 2.

"She's out of Bolt Of Thunder; she's [Hip] #275," Egloff said. "Her name is Stormy and she's a very tall, elegant, very racy looking filly and very classy and I think she'll be received well. So, I'm not worried about those. Those will sell themselves."

Also on Day 2, Vieux Carre has a colt by Papi Rob Hanover [Hip #227 Winter Hawk] out of a good mare they've had for a while named Weapons Against. This colt has a lot of stud horses – Rocknroll Hanover, Westerner Hanover, Cam's Card Shark and Somebeachsomewhere – in his pedigree.

"And Papi Rob's had a very good year," Egloff said. "This colt is a big, strong, very, very animated colt, but he has a lot of manners. Those are my favorites."

When it comes to naming their foals, Egloff said they try to be a little creative as well as pay homage to the past.

"Sometimes we try to bring back the famous name in the pedigree too," he said. "Like Sweet Lake is the granddaughter of Bunny Lake who was a top mare."

Vieux Carre also has a pair of Tall Dark Strangers selling on Day 1.

Their first horse in the ring is Hip #64 With The Fur, out of Apple Bottom Jeans. If the Flo Rida song that inspired the filly's name is correct, the whole place may be lookin' at her.

They also have a colt, Hip #92 Really Bright.

"We've got a Tall Dark Stranger out of Economy Terror who's obviously sold them for lots and lots of money down there every year," Egloff said. "She hasn't come up with a top horse yet, but this is a nice colt and all of hers have shown flashes of brilliance. I think if all the balls fall in the right spot she's supposed to come up with a champion."

The lowest price brought by Economy Terror's last five foals was $50,000 (Market Based in the pandemic year of 2020) with the other four bringing at least twice that: One Eight Hundred ($800,000 in 2019), Sheer Terror ($270,000 in 2021), Booming Economy ($180,000 in 2022) and Inflation Proof ($100,000 in 2022).

According to Egloff, there's always interest in an Always B Miki filly that looks the part.

"I've got a nice Always B Miki filly; you know, he's still cranking out those top fillies," he said. "I think they did really well in Lexington [a couple of weeks ago] in the sire stakes. She's, [Hip] #476 [Buzz Me Up] on the third day."

Also selling on Day 3 is New Jersey eligible yearling Hip #487 Perfect Ruler. The first crop son of Perfect Sting is out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Ava Hanover.

When asked how he thought the Perfect Stings would sell at Lexington, Egloff said: "You know, I don't know why they wouldn't sell well this year. I mean, he's pretty much going to have it all to himself in Jersey. I expect them to sell well."

According to Egloff, perhaps one important key to a good sale is variety.

“If you want to stay in the business, you’ve always got to invest in some new stallions and they’re not all going to work out,” he said. “But, you know, you have to take a shot and then you have the ones that have worked out that you keep going back to. So, yeah, we’re always going to try to have a mix like that. I have some ones that have already done it and some ones that we hope will do it.”

And, just as he has done in previous years, Egloff likes his consignment to be spread across multiple days.

“We’re just like farmers, you know, some crops are better than others,” Egloff said. “A lot of people say, oh, you know, they want the first day or second day. The first day you’re competing with the best pedigrees in the world, so you can kind of fall through the cracks there too if you end up there. But we talk with the sales company and David Reid is very knowledgeable and he works with us. They’re great to work with and you can learn a lot from them and of course they want to know as much information as they can about ours and the individual ones we like.

“So, we get together and we kind of figure out who should go where and hope it works out. It’s all a crap shoot in the end.”

The sale in Lexington has been very good in recent years and Egloff sees no reason, barring something unforeseen, for it to be any different this year.

“I know the thoroughbred market’s been really strong,” Egloff said. “Saratoga was really big this year, stock markets are at record highs, so, I have no reason to think that it won’t be a very good sale.”

Hickory Lane offerings headlined by Tactical Landing half dozen

by James Platz

Kevin Greenfield's Hickory Lane Horse Farm arrives in Lexington with a 15-yearling consignment that is balanced between trotters and pacers. The group includes seven trotters and eight pacers headlined by six from the hot sire Tactical Landing.

"I think it's a very strong consignment," Greenfield said. "We have six Tactical Landings, which is our feature. We have several nice pacers too. Two Tactical Landings in particular that I think are very good are Hip #290 [Courtney's Promise], Courtney Hanover's filly is very nice. Hip #224, Victorianas Secret, the filly out of Victoriana is very nice. We have several nice pacing fillies out of Sweet Lou, Bettor's Wish, Papi Rob Hanover, McWicked, Cattlewash and Stay Hungry. We also have a nice colt out of first crop sire Bulldog Hanover."

Victorianas Secret is the first yearling that will sell from the Findlay, OH breeder on Tuesday (Oct. 1). The brown filly is a Tactical Landing first foal from Donato Hanover mare Victoriana, a sister to millionaire Little Brown Fox and export Danatomite. The yearling is dual eligible to New Jersey and Kentucky.

Courtney's Promise, also a dual-eligible Tactical Landing filly, is a full-sister to freshman winner Landing On Time. The colt finished second in a Kentucky Sires Stakes leg and raced fourth in the $400,000 final. He has banked $70,640 to date.

"Each year we're trying to improve the quality and have better and better horses," Greenfield said. "The nice thing this year is that we have yearlings that are out of mares that are producing on the racetrack.

"We have a very strong trotting and pacing consignment for the 15 we have, and we're real excited to present them."

On the pacing side, the Hickory Lane consignment offers two first foals. Loureka, Hip #312, is a Sweet Lou filly out of Keystone Eureka, a Somebeachsomewhere mare with a mark of 1:52 and earnings exceeding $180,000. Her third dam, Hula Dancer, produced double millionaire Maltese Artist. Cattlewash-sired Like A Ferrari, Hip #663, is the first living foal from a McArdle mare that is a sister to six-figure earners Rose Run Uptowngal and Rose Run Victoria.

Looking So Good, cataloged as Hip #572, is a Papi Rob Hanover second foal that is a sister to freshman New Kid On Therock, timed in 1:59.3. Stay Hungry filly Stay Thrilling is from a McArdle mare that has already produced Buckeye Stallion Series leg runner-up Thrill By The Sea. She sells on day four, cataloged as Hip #656

Hip #743, Bettor After Dark, is a Bettor's Wish filly out of Sweet Lou mare Ever After, a 100-per cent producing mare with a six-figure earner to her credit. The dual-eligible filly sells Thursday (Oct. 3). The Dog Warden, Hip #516, will enter the sale ring Wednesday (Oct. 2). The Bulldog Hanover colt is the second foal from Delightful Space, a Bettor's Delight mare that has produced Indiana fair circuit runner-up Delightful Era, timed in 1:58.4.

Hickory Lane's last offering for the week is Front And Center, Hip #801 in the book. The McWicked filly is out of the 100-per cent producer Lionness Hanover. The Ontario-eligible yearling is a sister to $787,000 winner Queen Of The Pride and Roaring To Go, winner of over $400,000.

Greenfield explained that with the addition of Little Brown Jug champion Lou's Pearlman as a pacing stallion at Hickory Lane, future consignments will offer more for buyers who favor that gait.

"We're strong on the trotting end," he said. "Now with Lou's Pearlman at the farm, you'll see more and more in the future on the pacing end. I personally have more trotters. With the pacing stallion, we're getting quality pacing mares. The ones we're selling this year are nice individuals with good pedigrees."

Last year, Hickory Lane's 15-horse consignment grossed $782,000, good for an average of $52,133.

BACKSTRETCH WITH GORDON

with GORDON WATERSTONE

Goodbye Helene!

by Gordon Waterstone

Goodbye Helene. And good riddance.

It's hard to believe that the Bluegrass felt the wrath of what was still Tropical Storm Helene on Friday (Sept. 27), forcing the cancellation of the races at The Red Mile. For those wondering, the purses will be divided equally and distributed to each of the entries.

The decision to cancel Friday's card came shortly after 8 a.m. as the forecasters predicted heavy rain and strong winds all day. They were correct as Lexington received nearly three inches of rain and the area had steady 30-40 mph winds all day, with several gusts recorded at Bluegrass Airport of more than 60 mph. Probably a third of Lexington lost power – my power at home kept going off and on for a couple of hours Friday morning but finally stayed on – and trees were down throughout the city. Ex-boss Kathy told me a tree came down at her house, and there were several down in my community.

All in all, it was a day better suited for ducks. Still, I don't think there was much quacking as the ducks probably were afraid of getting blown into the Ohio River with all the wind.

I occupied my time Friday watching TV, fully expecting to do the same on Saturday as while the winds were going to subside, the rain wasn't. Another day of steady rain was predicted, but despite the forecast the call went out around 8:30 a.m. that the show would go on.

That said, I reached out to my agents Nick Salvi and Amy Hollar for help in securing me some extra hazard pay from Boss Dave. Nick was still sleeping so he didn't answer nor return my call. Amy gave me hope as she said, "I'll certainly show you the way!" Alas, she was wrong as Boss Dave wouldn't budge in his resistance to help me out. In the old days, whenever I had to endure miserable conditions at The Red Mile, ex-boss Kathy always rewarded me by taking me to dinner at Tony's or Jeff Ruby's. Sigh, I guess those days are long gone.

I made my way to The Red Mile about noon on Saturday and when I arrived, I saw announcer Gabe Prewitt and Greg Gillman, who supplements his primary job as a bartender at Frank & Dino's by working as a mutuel clerk in The Red Mile clubhouse. An important PSA; if you are in Lexington and planning on having dinner at Frank & Dino's, the restaurant is closed until Tuesday after having some power problems after going dark during Friday's storm.

I made my way up to the announcer's booth with Gabe and first stopped to say hello to judges Jeff James and PJ Cooksey. When I got to Gabe's booth, I could hear him muttering expletives and I saw the reason; the storm had blown his window out so things were a bit wet in there. I helped Gabe dry things off and move the window out of his way.

Gabe also noted the damaged jumbo screen and that it was inoperable for Saturday's races. But he assured me that a replacement would be in place when the races resume for Week 2 of Grand Circuit action next Friday (Oct. 4). There were a couple of early non-betting races, which I think was a good thing because it gave starter Mike Moss a chance to test the starting gate and make sure it had firm footing on the "sloppy" surface.

When I came back downstairs, I saw Dr. Katie Flynn sitting underneath the grandstand awning. I asked her with a wink why she wasn't sitting in her usual apron box, and she told me that if she was people would think she was crazy.

The rain had subsided into a light drizzle so I decided to take a walk back to the paddock. I asked a few drivers what they did yesterday to pass the time, and for my own safety I can't divulge the answers. As the horses came onto the track for the first pari-mutuel race Keith Crawford, a Michigan Hall of Famer and a longtime friend who now works for Virgil Morgan, Jr., came over to say hello.

Brett Pelling came by so I asked how the track was and he said the footing was pretty good. When the horses and drivers came back to the paddock after the race, I asked a mud-covered Tim Tetrick how the track was and he said it was OK but that there was a small puddle on the inside down the backside that they had to be careful with.

Brian Brown came over so I shook his hand and wished him a happy 60th birthday, which he celebrated Friday. I saw Noel Daley and congratulated him on his Little Brown Jug victory with Captain Albano.

Some of the drivers – including Dexter Dunn, who will drive Twin B Joe Fresh and Jiggy Jog S, the top two horses in the weekly Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll – will need extra colors as they will later be heading two hours north on I75 to Hollywood Dayton for a quartet of open stakes for older horses.

One casualty as a result of the weather on Saturday was the charity relay race as the track was too messy to let the competitors on the track. One person MIA on Saturday was Tom Charters, the former chief of the Hambletonian Society.

After the Little Brown Jug, Tom made the drive to his hometown of Springfield, OH – yes, that Springfield, OH that's been in the news – and when he was getting ready to head to Lexington, he took a tumble and broke his left arm. So, instead of making it to Lexington, Tom was heading back home to New Jersey. I spoke to Tom on Friday night and he said this will be the first time since Nixon was president that he'd be missing out on Lexington.

The only thing that went right for me on Thursday is that I went into the Caesars sportsbook at The Red Mile – which just celebrated its first anniversary of operation – and made a couple of plays. I cashed my “no” bet on Friday's racing, but I lost out on my “no” bet on Saturday and my parlay at nice odds that both programs would be canceled.

I made one other wager that I expect to cash next week. The sportsbook offered me odds of +350 that Garnet Barnsdale would post more than four winning first touchdown wagers on Sunday's NFL slate of games. That's absolutely a sure thing as Garnet always posts winning first touchdown bets, which I know is pretty easy since he bets on nearly every offensive player in every game. Just like the racetrack tout who gives out 10 horses in a race to 10 different people so he's sure to have a winner. It's such a sure bet on Garnet that when I was leaving, I ran into Mark Weaver and he took some of my action.

Thursday night I attended the Kentuckiana Farms pre-sale party at the Malone's Banquet Center. When I arrived, I promptly thanked both Bob Brady and Ken Jackson – as well as Becky Brady and Lisa Jackson – for kindly inviting me. It's a little bit hard for me to make an excuse to not go as I live directly across the street from the Banquet Center, which is located next to OBC Kitchen and the same strip mall as their sister properties Malone's Steakhouse and Drakes. I certainly can't say I got lost or stuck in traffic as it's only a five-minute walk.

There was a great gathering for the party and I talked to many people. After I went through the buffet line and filled my plate with huge cocktail shrimp, beef sliders and crappies and bluegills (brought from the waters of Kentuckiana Farm), I found a spot at a table with Lexington Selected Yearling Sale co-manager Bruce Brinkerhoff and starter Mike Moss.

I also sat at last year's party with Bruce and Mike and we all noted that. Shortly after, Tahnee Camilleri came over and asked to join us. Luc Blais then put his plate on the table, and Andy and Julie Miller did the same. Emily Ratcliff came by and said she'd be back to join us, but before she did, Joe Holloway and Karl Nagle took the last couple of seats.

One of the hot topics of discussion throughout the night was the earlier disqualification of Go Dog Go in a Bluegrass division for 2-year-old male trotters. Driven by Todd McCarthy, Go Dog Go made a break in front at the wire and was moved back to fifth by the track judges. All of the talk was centered on why Go Dog Go wasn't moved back just one spot to second and not all the way to fifth.

As I was getting ready to leave, I stopped a second to talk to Emily, who was speaking to someone I did not know. They were talking about the DQ and then I learned that the gentleman was one of the colt's owners, Jon Wiesman. What was best about meeting Jon was that he told me he's enjoyed reading my stories and columns over the years. Thank you, Jon you made my day!

Before you think everybody's miserable with the weather, I know one person who isn't: Jeremy Wilson, who runs the gift shop at The Red Mile. With the rain and cooler temperatures – highs next week only in the high 60s-low 70s – Jeremy has plenty of attire to fill your needs. Stop in to see him at the gift shop located in the center of the main floor of the grandstand.

Congratulations to my hometown Detroit Tigers for their incredible run and clinching a spot in the playoffs. I have to give kudos to my longtime friend Ed Burke, a former mutuel clerk at Hazel Park and Northville Downs, as he predicted this last year. I doubted him then so I have already apologized to him. And congratulation to the UK football team who upset Ole Miss on Saturday. Remember, the team is on a bye next Saturday.

Also remember the Stable of Memories dinner and auction at 6 p.m. tonight (Sept. 29), and Monday's opening night session of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale at Fasig-Tipton. A cocktail reception at 5 p.m. will include a celebration of the life of Randy Manges, with the sale getting underway at 7 p.m.

And in my travels Saturday I didn't see a gas station with a price higher than $2.89.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

May Dodge at Lexington

by Murray Brown

On Nov. 7, 2021 my column dealt with the production of the family descended from the mare May Dodge, sometimes referred to as the family of Klata Thorne or sometimes that of Miss Duvall. The story can be found here. In this writer's opinion, it is by far the greatest maternal family of pacers in the history of the sport.

In going through the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, which begins tomorrow (Sept. 30), the catalog offers a virtual plethora of riches from that great family. According to this guy's reckoning there are 455 pacing bred yearlings on offer. No less than 67 of them trace to that great family. There are two main, modern-day branches from the family. One of them traces to the mare Nora Abbe and the other to the mare Romola. Of the 67, 28 are descendants of Nora Abbe and 38 go back to Romola. There is one – Hip #614, the Courtly Choice colt Colorful Choice – who although a direct descendent of Miss Duvall, goes back to neither Nora Abbe nor Romola.

The 67 yearlings are by 15 different sires. The freshman sire Perfect Sting leads the pack with 12 yearlings from the family. He is followed in numerical order by Tall Dark Stranger with nine, Captaintreacherous with six, and Always B Miki, Bettors Wish, Downbytheseaside and Papi Rob Hanover with five each. Then you have American Ideal, Huntsville, and Sweet Lou with four, Captain Crunch with three, Bettors Delight with two, and Dancin Lou, Lazarus, and Stay Hungry each with one.

Bettor's Wish, Captaintreacherous, Downbytheseaside and Tall Dark Stranger descend from the family, so their yearlings will have the family on both the tail end of the sire and the dam of each.

If the dedicated yearling buyer were to concentrate on only one family, he could do a heck of a lot worse than looking at all the yearlings coming from this one.

For purpose of this article, I will go into slight detail on the ones selling on Opening Night, tomorrow, and then list those being sold in the following sessions. Those with a (N) descend from the Nora Abbe branch. Those with a (R) descend from Romola.

Hip #14 Treacherous (N) – Colt by Captaintreacherous–Rainbowinthedark–Bettors Delight. Half-brother to multiple stakes winner Seven Colors ($799,079).

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Remembering Joe O'Brien, Glen Garnsey and good times at The Red Mile

by Bob Heyden

Both Glen Garnsey and Joe O'Brien were gentlemen and industry giants. Both passed away this very week: Garnsey in 1985, the year after O'Brien in 1984. Fittingly the first of two Grand Circuit weeks will have just ended at The Red Mile where they did some of their best work.

GLEN GARNSEY

Born on New Year's Day in 1933, we lost Garnsey on Sept. 27, 1985 at just 52 returning from the Fasig-Tipton sale. A son of Garland Garnsey, this dynamic duo provided the very first 1,000 victory father-son driving team.

Glen won his first race near his birthplace of Clayton, NY, with Margaret Eblis in 1950. Also a baseball and basketball star, Glen worked with his dad until 1963. He also served his country for two years in 1953-54.

He opened his first public stable near Vernon Downs, NY, in 1963 and later in 1968 privately trained for K D Owen. It would be just a year later when prestigious Castleton Farms came calling for Glen's services. There he developed such standouts as Colonial Charm, Alert Bret and Noble Florie.

Glen amazingly drove three of the first four Hambletonian Oaks winners, Gay Blossom (1971), Colonial Charm (1973) and Berna Hanover (1974).

He re-opened his public stable in 1978 – some fantastic timing here – as Keith Bulen came calling with a 3-year-old named Abercrombie (HOY in 1978). That title to be repeated in 1981 with a $20,000 yearling named Fan Hanover, still the only female to win the Little Brown Jug.

Glen had other notables such as Bruce Gimble, Armbr Aussie and Incredible Nevele. He had a day for the ages at The Red Mile on Oct. 2, 1982, setting three world records on the same day with Delmegan, Armbr Aussie, and Fan Hanover.

Glen was a USTA director and was the 33rd person elected to the Living Hall of Fame in 1983. The night he was inducted,

Glen said, "I only wish that my father was here to see it."

Stan Bergstein put it quite aptly when he said of Glen, "There were many beneficiaries of Glen's generosity and teachings. Glen was always available to other horsemen, and as one of the blithe spirits of the sport, always was one of the most popular of the fraternity."

JOE O'BRIEN

Born on June 25, 1917, we lost O'Brien in the early morning hours of Sept. 29, 1984, forty years ago today! Born in the Maritimes, O'Brien was 67 and retired about a year at the time of his passing. Just one week later, the Breeders Crown era began.

A look at O'Brien's amazing career saw him train for such notables as Stan Bergstein, Thurman Downing, Armstrong Brothers, Almahurst Farm, Larry DeVan and Duncan MacDonald.

It was O'Brien who won the sports first Triple Crown with Scott Frost in 1955. O'Brien also scored the initial back-to-back HOY 1955-56 also with Scott Frost.

It was O'Brien who won the Hambletonian twice (Scott Frost and Blaze Hanover), the Little Brown Jug twice (Shadow Wave and Melvins Woe), the Cane Pace once with Nero, the Roosevelt

Joe O'Brien.

International twice – both with standout females – Fresh Yankee and Armbro Flight, the inaugural edition of the Yonkers Trot in 1955 with Scott Frost, and an amazing five victories in the Kentucky Futurity (Scott Frost, Safe Mission, Armbro Flight, Governor Armbro, and Arnie Almahurst).

It was O'Brien again with the phenomenal Fresh Yankee (1970 HOY), the first North American-bred millionaire! When Niatross stunned the world in 1980 with his 1:49.1 time trial, it was O'Brien who had set the previous mark of 1:52 flat nine years earlier with Steady Star.

On the day Niatross set that electrifying new standard (Oct. 1, 1980), guess who had the most time trial assignments? O'Brien. Of the first 100 scheduled (of 259 total) Joe was named on 23, at 63 years of age mind you!

This year, 2024, marks the 50th anniversary of Armbro Nesbit and O'Brien setting the new track standard at Yonkers of 1:56 4.

O'Brien wrote the "Bits, boots and bridles" section in the Care and Training of the Trotter and Pacer.

O'Brien won 4,285 races and $20,443,084.

He did some of his best ever work with the outstanding Flight Director and Ima Lula. Some of the other stars handled by O'Brien in his stellar career include Storm Damage, Sunbelle, Diamond Hal, Horton Hanover, Dream Of Glory, Armbro Regina, Flower Child, Sara Lane Hanover, and Starita Lobell.

In 1964, the Alberton, PEI, native, now residing in Shafter, CA, and just the second driver ever to reach 2,000 wins (Billy Haughton was the first) was installed in the Canadian Sports Hall of Fame. The only other inductee prior involved in harness at that time was Colonel Dan MacKinnon, also a PEI native.

O'Brien's 685 2:00 victories at the time of his passing was third all-time to another pair of proud Canadians John Campbell and Bill O'Donnell.

GOOD TIMES AT THE RED MILE

As things really heat up in Lexington, heading into the sale and Week 2 of racing, here's a look at some fond memories and fun facts from the past.

1. Only The Red Mile can say that for over a month in the second half of last year they were the home of both the Trotter and Pacer of the Year, Tactical Approach and Confederate.

2. Closing Day of The Red Mile in 2023 was the ultimate all or nothing results day. On the high end to win you had Eternal Love ($67.56), Speak Volumes ($162.84) and Windwood Jack ($65.52). On the lower end was Grace Hill ($2.10), Alrajah One IT ($2.66), Bythemissal ($3.02), Sylvia Hanover ($2.20), Twin B Joe Fresh ($2.14), and Confederate ($2.32).

3. In what is next to impossible to believe, 48 years later, Peter Haughton is still the youngest Triple Crown race winner taking the 1976 Kentucky Futurity with Quick Pay when he was just 22. Winning sire Stars Pride was 29, seven years older than the winning driver! When Stars Pride won the 1950 Kentucky Futurity there was not yet a Triple Crown to shoot for as the Yonkers Trot debuted in 1955.

4. The Tattersalls debuted in 1971 with Albatross going 1:54 4 twice as history's fastest race horse. The 1987 Tattersalls had its first dead heat with Laag and Jaguar Spur unable to be separated.

5. Peter Haughton's 1976 nose win over Steve Lobell in the Kentucky Futurity prevented his dad from winning this classic, the only Triple Crown event that eluded Billy Haughton. It also kept his dad from his only Trotting Triple Crown since Steve Lobell had already won the Yonkers Trot and the Hambletonian.

6. Nevele Pride was the only three-time HOY among the trotting set. It figures then that his career Red Mile record is six-for-six.

7. Hanover Shoe Farms not only has the fastest winner at The Red Mile in two of the past three meets, but they were 1-2 in the track's all-time record in 2021 with Allywag Hanover in 1:46.4 then in 2022 when 'Allywag' edged by Bulldog Hanover in a new track standard of 1:46 flat.

8. On Sept. 30, 1995 Jenna's Beach Boy went 1:48.4, five years later to the day, on Sept. 30, 2000, P B Bullville went 1:48 flat, Both 3YO world records at the time.

9. Two times was the charm for Donato Hanover, who is the last HOY to post his two fastest career miles on the same day at The Red Mile. On Oct. 6, 2007, he went 1:51.1 and then a lifetime best 1:50.1 in the Kentucky Futurity.

10. Can you believe that five years have now passed since Manchego's 1:49 record at The Red Mile on Oct. 6, 2019? And, it's been six years since Homicide Hunter's 1:48.4 all-age world record at The Red Mile also on Oct. 6, but a year earlier in 2018.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Unexpected outcome in Finnish Kriterium

by Thomas Hedlund

Tampere racetrack played host to the $225,000 Kriterium for 3-year-old Finnish bred trotters on Saturday (Sept. 28) and the winner was hard to find when 200 meters remained in the prestigious race.

The race's first choice, Arctic Emerald, trained and driven by Pekka Korpi, hit the lead at an early stage of the race, and since the big favorite commanded great respect from his opponents, he sat on the lead and nothing much happened in the 2,600-meter-long event.??

And the spectators had probably given up all thoughts about a loss for Pekka Korpi's Arctic Emerald, at least in the last turn and at the top of the stretch. Arctic Emerald was given the signal to race for real in the turn and he had a three or four length advantage on his opponents as he turned for home.

And it might have looked like Arctic Emerald lost pace in the stretch, but that is not the whole truth about what happened next. From a position third on the inside, racing room was given to Lil Runner and Antti Teivanen with 200 meters to go and despite the many lengths disadvantage, Lil Runner (So Perfect) flew to a tight win in a mile rate of 2:01.3 over 1.6 miles. Replay here.

Arctic Emerald was second and Dollar Haven third.

GREAT SKILLS SHOWED GREAT SKILLS

Swedish championships for older trotters were determined in two $100,000 divisions at Åby racetrack on Saturday (Sept. 28) afternoon and Daniel Wäjersten's Great Skills (Ready Cash) proved best among the Swedish-bred mares. Great Skills, with her long and effective gait, took over the lead with a kilometer remaining, which was a bit surprising since second choice Felicia Zet had reached the front position a few hundred meters earlier. Åby racetrack offers an open stretch, so maybe the choice of tactics on Örjan Kihlström's part (Felicia Zet's driver) was easy to understand, but at the same time, Great Skills escaped a tougher outside trip for two turns.

Great Skills lengthened her steps on the lead down the backstretch and the field divided as four horses kept up with the pace in front. Felicia Zet got her chance to challenge, but too late and not via the open stretch, so Great Skills held on and won by a length in a mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles. Replay here.

Felicia Zet was runner up ahead of good finisher Iceland Falls.

San Moteur, named by many fans as one of the best trotters in the world, was the big favorite in the open division of the Swedish Championship, but after a safe start where Björn Goop eventually found a position fourth over, the opponents made the way to victory too hard for him. San Moteur attacked from a first over position with a mile to go in the 2,640-meter-long race but leader High On Pepper (Ready Cash) and driver Jorma Kontio really wanted to defend the lead. So, Goop had to settle outside the leader with San Moteur. Nothing to be worried about when it comes to San Moteur? Well, to be honest, he is fast, but this wasn't the first time he disappointed the racing fans in Sweden, because San Moteur was a beaten horse with 200 meters to go and High On Pepper just stepped away in great style in the stretch. Katja Melkko's High On Pepper, who dominated the Swedish gold division during the entire winter, captured his third big race in 2024 as he effortlessly sprinted to victory in a mile rate of 1:55.3 over 1.6 miles.

Staro Mack Crowe finished second after a pocket trip and Mister Hercules followed as third after an inside journey.

FIELD SET FOR EUROPEAN DERBY

Vincennes in Paris, France, will play host to this year's edition of $430,000 Grand Prix de l'U.E.T. for 4-year-old trotters bred in Europe.

Four qualification races were held this weekend, two of them at Vincennes on Friday (Sept. 27) night and the remaining two at Åby racetrack in Sweden on Saturday (Sept. 28) afternoon.

In Paris, Alessandro Gocciadoro claimed the first spot in the final on Oct. 11 as he sat behind Jean-Pierre Barjon-owned East Asia (Ready Cash), who impressed a lot. First over during the race's first half mile and front position thereafter was the trip that East Asia needed for sprinting to a safe win in a strong mile rate of 1:53.2 over 1.3 miles. Replay here.

Favorite Koctel du Dain held for the bronze medal after a trip outside of leader East Asia and as runner up, Kaporal des Forges finished sprightly on the inside.

Sébastien Guarato trained Krack Time Atout (Face Time Bourbon) has battled in the top of the French K-crop for two seasons and managed to capture a win in Friday's $65,000 Grand Prix de l'U.E.T. elimination. Krack Time Atout, with small margins to make up, disarmed Swiss contribution Kalattine just before the wire and the mile rate for Guarato's horse was 1:53.1 over 1.3 miles. Replay here.

Kiara de Vandel finished third and will enter the final on Oct. 11.

Swedish Derby winner Fame And Glory was the heavy favorite in the first elimination at Åby on Saturday afternoon and driver Björn Goop did what he could trying to steer Timo Nurmos' trotter first at the wire. But Fame And Glory was not as good as he was when he won the Derby earlier in September, and Daniel Wåjersten's Kuiper (Face Time Bourbon) easily passed by the leading favorite in midstretch after being served a pocket trip. Kuiper won in a mile rate of 1:56 over 1.3 miles, Fame And Glory was second and Norwegian Derby winner Charron was third.

Runner up in the Swedish Derby, Epic Kronos (Muscle Hill) was outstanding after a tough trip in the last elimination for driver Örjan Kihlström. Epic Kronos had to race on leader Daim Brodda's outside, but that didn't bother Daniel Redén's trotter, who left the opponents in the last turn and won in a mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles. Norwegian runner up in the Derby, Just Like Heaven, finished strongly in second and Powwow was third.

The final at Vincennes will be held over 2,100 meters with 12 horses behind the gate.

Abandoned horses, Part 3

by Trey Nosrac

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

The two-lane blacktop of Route 53 ribboned over hills in Amherst, OH. The road was traffic-free in the morning sun. Walt and Julia Binghamton glanced at long driveways leading to a smattering of farmhouses on either side of the road. A few driveways led to recently constructed large Tudor homes. They found the address they were looking for, which had a rusted mailbox with the address and stick-on letters spelling Tremeau. This gravel driveway led them up the crest of a hill.

Julia glanced at her husband, turned the EV Mercedes into the driveway, and began to creep up the hill. At the top, they gasped in unison. Julia tapped the brake pedal.

Walt sat up straight and said, "What in bloody hell? It looks like someone plowed a path through a scrapyard of rusty caravans, tires, piles of lumber, washing machines, toilets, and advertising signs. Look over there, an ice cream truck."

Julia said, "I find this frightening. Look at those three buildings, probably filled with junk. He must live in the green one with the front door and the windows."

Walt said, "This is like one of those Picker or Hoarder Shows on the telly."

She said, "We're on the right track. Look at that barn-like building on the left – it has a fenced-in corral."

She pressed the accelerator, and the Mercedes quietly moved toward the front door and stopped. "Walt, go knock on the door."

"Oh no, my dear, you're the family detective. Agatha would go alone; apprise me if you find any additional clues."

Julia sighed, exited the car, rapped on the door, and then rang an old school bell resting on a weathered wooden milk crate. Nothing happened. This lack of response inspired Walt to venture out of the car. Together, they tentatively explored the vacant property but did not enter any buildings.

They returned to the car, and Julia said, "Let's try the neighbors who live in the new Tudor house on the other side of the trees."

"Lead on, my dear."

They parked the car in the driveway of the large, new home and walked to the front door together. Julia pushed the doorbell. Almost immediately, a man in his 70s, who resembled the late actor Ed Asner, opened the door. He smiled and said, "We don't get many Jehovah's Witnesses out here?"

Walt said, "No, we are interested in your neighbor, the one with all the trash."

"Lewis?"

"Yes. Do you know him?"

"I did. Lewis was old, like me. He was a bit of a kook, a little scary at first, but deep down, he was a good egg. My son and daughter-in-law built me an in-law suite around back, but it gets lonely out here when they are working, which is always the case. I visited Lewis every few days for the past two years."

"You speak of him in the past tense."

"Yeah, he died a few days ago. Sad. He had hospice out for a week. Nice folks. They had someone with him all the time till the end. Are you kin? Lewis always said he didn't have any close kin."

Julia said, "No, we never met Mr. Tremeau; we are interested in horses registered to him. Do you know anything about them?"

"Drive and Iggy, sure, I know a lot about them. They are retired racehorses. Well, they truly were not retired because, as far as I know, they never raced. Lewis and I would sit in lawn chairs, sip coffee, and watch them mess around in the corral. Sitting there was strangely relaxing. Lewis and I would talk for hours."

"Do you know where the horses are now?"

"Nope."

"We think they are in our yard!"

"Really?"

"Did Lewis Tremeau discuss their aftercare with you?"

"No. But near the end, Lewis gave me a few letters to post, addressed to a place named Final Strides. It sounded like a retirement home, but I'm unsure. The envelopes were sealed, had special postage, and he gave me specific instructions about when to take them to the post office."

"Did you see anyone pick the horses up?"

"Nope, the trees block out his property, and I'm not the nosy type."

"Did he race harness horses?"

"No, but he knew about the sport from when he was a kid at county fairs."

"So why did he have two horses on his property?"

"That is a story I know, a crazy one." The neighbor chuckled, relishing the story he was about to tell.

He pointed to four white rocking chairs on the front porch. "Sit down. I will give you the abridged version. You want a soda or something?"

The couple shook their heads but silently moved to sit on the rocking chairs.

The neighbor cleared his throat and said, "This all has to do with a 1994 MG Midget, a small two-seater sports car made in England. Lewis had one buried under junk in one of his buildings."

Walt said, "An English sports car?"

The neighbor nodded, "This is the way Lewis told me. First, you should know that he listed his stuff on the internet. Lewis was quite the wheeler-dealer and computer savvy. He bought and sold all the time. It was his job. Anyway, he took pictures and listed the MG for $2,500. A man who owned a horse breeding farm came out and wanted to buy the car for his son as a birthday present. The son was in his 40s and liked to restore cars, and the MG needed some serious restoration."

Julia asked, "What does this have to do with racehorses?"

The neighbor held up his hand, "I'm getting to that. The horse breeder offered $1,200. Lewis was firm at $2,500. The old farts would not budge. I am sure the egos were more important than the dollars, but the horse breeder stomped away without buying. The next day, the horse breeder returns with a trailer with two horses and a new offer."

"Horses?"

"The horse breeder told Lewis he would pay $1,200 plus two horses. The breeder said there was a horse auction in two months and that even if the horses sold to people from a slaughterhouse, they would bring more than $600 each, probably more. He showed Lewis the auction date and printouts of the sales results of previous auctions, which proved his point."

"Lewis made the deal?"

The neighbor nodded, "Crazy as it seems, Lewis did the deal. At first, he thought he could flip the horses and make money, but he never sent them to the sale. He enjoyed having the horses around and could not bear the thought of them being killed or mistreated."

"Lucky horses," said Julia.

"Lucky Lewis," said the neighbor.

Pelling sweeps Bluegrass filly pace

by Ray Cotolo for The Red Mile

Trainer Brett Pelling denied a pair of favorites with Rocket Deo and Disney to cash the lion's share of the total $170,000 purse in the Papi Rob Hanover Bluegrass Stakes, for 3-year-old pacing fillies, on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 28) at The Red Mile.

Rocket Deo ditched cover from 1-9 favorite My Girl EJ in the stretch and surged to a 1:51.4 victory in the faster split of the Papi Rob Hanover.

Driver Andy McCarthy sent Rocket Deo out of post 8 and found a slot behind My Girl EJ (driven by Dexter Dunn) to race fourth. Asweetbeachhere (Yannick Gingras) brushed by early leader Miraculous Deo (Todd McCarthy) to click by the first quarter in :27.4 and maintained her speed up the backside to clock a :55.2 half. As the leader started to slow around the final turn, My Girl EJ launched into action with Rocket Deo following the tow, and the outer tier swiftly reached the front spinning off three-quarters in 1:23.3. My Girl EJ grabbed the lead in the stretch but stalled while Rocket Deo veered outside and confronted the odds-on choice in deep stretch. Rocket Deo zipped by an even My Girl EJ with ease and pulled away to a length victory with Beautiful Roz (Scott Zeron) closing for third and Capytreach (Andy Miller) taking fourth off a ground-saving trip.

"She was our number one pick when we bought her [at the yearling sale]," said Brian Gordon, co-owner of Rocket Deo through the Morrison Racing Stables. "Matt Morrison and I went there specifically to buy her that year. We got her, we watched her grow up; we have horses at Deo Volente, so we actually saw the day she was born. [At 2], she was a little off, a little sick. Brett [Pelling] took his time with her [and] we said 'You're in charge, Brett,' and he was very high on her all along. He thought exactly what she's done this year would happen, and we've been thrilled so far."

A filly by Captaintreacherous out of stakes-winning mare Rocklamation, Rocket Deo notched her 10th win from 17 starts and has now earned $383,201 for owners Morrison Racing Stables and John Fielding. She paid $11.58 to win.

Regally bred Disney (T. McCarthy) mounted a grueling pocket-popping bid in the stretch and survived flanking pressure to land a narrow win and a 17-1 upset in the first division of the Papi Rob Hanover Bluegrass.

Rocket Deo (Andy McCarthy) winning the second division of the Bluegrass 3YOFP on Saturday at The Red Mile.

Leaving from the pylon post, McCarthy secured a pocket ride for Disney as Donegal Spirit (Dunn) swooped down from post 6 to commandeer the pack before a :28.4 first quarter. McCarthy kept Disney focused from the trail seat to a :56.3 half and started floating off the pegs once Sweet Gal (A. McCarthy), the 9-5 favorite, committed to move out of third. Disney drew to terms with Donegal Spirit by three-quarters in 1:25 and remained hooked in a toe-to-tail battle all through the stretch while Sweet Gal marched nearer to the outside. Disney forged to a narrow lead within the final eighth and kept fighting through the unrelenting challenges to hold a head in front of Donegal Spirit at the finish of a 1:52.2 mile. Sweet Gal settled for third and Geocentric (Tim Tetrick), off a second-over trip, gave chase another three lengths behind in fourth.

“We’ve liked her right from day one,” trainer Brett Pelling said of Disney, a foal from double-millionaire Pure Country. “We had a couple of mishaps; she’s got a couple of little screws in her. But we’ve always thought she’s had a lot of talent. Just going by her breeding and stuff, we always had to give her a chance.”

Disney, finishing no worse than second from nine starts, bagged her fifth win and added to her account now worth $92,250 for owner Diamond Creek Racing. The filly by Always B Miki paid $36.88 to win.

Each division of the Papi Rob Hanover Bluegrass Stakes was sponsored by the Papi Rob Hanover Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms.

SOIREE HANOVER BACK TO FORM IN BLUEGRASS SCORE

Soiree Hanover soared over the slop and her compatriots to register a slight 5-1 upset in a 1:54.2 mile, the fastest of the three divisions for the $252,200 King Of The North Bluegrass Stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies, on Saturday (Sept. 28) at The Red Mile.

Driver Tim Tetrick secured a second-over ride for Soiree Hanover by landing her in fourth out of post 7 and flushing cover from Senorita Palema (driven by Ake Svanstedt) after Sadbirdstillsing (Todd McCarthy) fronted the fillies through early fractions of :29.1 and :57.1. Senorita Palema slightly advanced when uncovered around the final turn while Sadbirdstillsing continued strongly by three-quarters in 1:25.3. Tetrick tipped Soiree Hanover three wide into the stretch and accelerated forward to seize the lead in the closing eighth and hold a 1¾-length advantage at the beam. Buy A Round (Andy McCarthy) kicked from the back with too much ground to recoup and settled for second while Sadbirdstillsing held third and Spy Coast (Yannick Gingras) held fourth off a pocket trip.

“It’s been a little up and down this year,” trainer Lucas Wallin said after the race. “But when she’s good, she’s very good. And today she was very good.”

A filly by Walner, Soiree Hanover collected her eighth win from 17 starts and pushed her bankroll to $741,708 for owner Snogarps Gard Inc. She paid $13.28 to win.

She Shaq (Ake Svanstedt) rushed into contention as speed diminished late to snag a 1:55.1 victory in the second split of the King Of The North.

Green Mercedes (Andy Miller) barreled on a line for the lead through a :27.4 first quarter and settled once on the helm in the backstretch. She strolled up the backside to a :56.1 half, but clung to a line again as even-money favorite Miss I La (A. McCarthy) popped the pocket moving for the far turn. She Shaq meanwhile stayed steady from fourth and crept outside towards the four-wide path as Miss I La took the lead by three-quarters in 1:25.3. Miss I La scooted two lengths clear of her peers into the stretch but levelled in the lane while She Shaq gathered steam to the center of the track. She Shaq kept charging and clenched the lead in late stretch while withstanding a push by Drawing Rights (Dexter Dunn), rallying from last, to win by a nose. Drawing Rights settled for second with Miss I La third and Slip Sliding Away (Tim Tetrick) riding the pylons for fourth.

“She started out good and then she had some breathing issues, so she had throat surgery,” co-owner Matt Franklin said. “Since she’s come back, she’s peaking right now. I hope that win gets us in [the Kentucky Filly Futurity].”

Franklin partners with trainer Ake Svanstedt’s incorporation and Little E LLC on She Shaq, a filly by Southwind Frank. She won her fifth race from 17 starts, has now banked $243,938 and paid $15.38 to win.

Date Night Hanover (Dunn) steamrolled first over as the 1-5 favorite to win easily in the final division of the King Of The North.

Starting from the pylon post, Dunn kept Date Night Hanover steady and sat fourth while Paulina Hanover (Tetrick) swooped to the lead into a :29.1 first quarter. The tempo increased up the backside and Dunn waited for cover to pull until no one showed themselves a taker, so Date Night Hanover initiated a first-over attack past a :57.4 half. She progressed towards Paulina Hanover and pushed to the lead effortlessly after three-quarters in 1:26.2 to wrap up the victory by the final eighth. Date Night Hanover trotted over the line geared down in a 1:55 mile and 2¼ lengths in front of pocket-sitter Sambuca Hanover (David Miller) in second while Star Attraction (Gingras) took third and Upallnight Hanover (Svanstedt) closed from last for fourth.

“She better be for real; she cost a lot of money as a yearling,” co-owner Jeff Snyder said jokingly of Date Night Hanover, the $600,000 sales topper from the 2022 Black Book Sale in Harrisburg, PA. “It’s just a thrill owning her. We plan on racing her next year, too.”

Snyder added Date Night Hanover will race in the Kentucky Filly Futurity next Sunday (Oct. 6) before heading to the Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands.

Marcus Melander trains Date Night Hanover, a filly by Chapter Seven, for owners Jeff Snyder and Onda Racing Stable LLC. She won her ninth race from 25 starts, has now earned $773,309 and paid $2.46 to win.

Each division of the King Of The North Bluegrass Stakes was sponsored by Kountry Lane Standardbreds.

STEELY KNIFE UPSETS, BETTER IS NICE DELIVERS IN BLUEGRASS COLT PACE

Steely Knife and Better Is Nice both powered first over and persevered to win in their respective divisions of the $197,000 Captaintreacherous Bluegrass Stakes, for 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings, on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 28) at The Red Mile.

Steely Knife (driven by Dexter Dunn) built momentum from a first-over push and rolled home a 1:52.2 winner in the first division of the Captaintreacherous Bluegrass Stakes.

Dunn slid to the pylons to race fourth to a :28.3 first quarter cut by Cupid Shuffle (Yannick Gingras), who Gingras tried to wrangle back despite coasting to a :56 half. Steely Knife started to gather speed moving for the final turn and angled off the pylons, vaulting forward as Cupid Shuffle raced on fumes by three-quarters in 1:23. Cupid Shuffle promptly folded while Steely Knife powered forward and held firm from late rallying McCrunch (Andy McCarthy), who sat an antsy pocket and burst through an inside seam to challenge late. McCrunch had to settle for second, beaten a neck, while Captain Luke (Scott Zeron) – the 3-2 favorite – saved ground throughout and held third from Total Stranger (Dan Noble) as he swooped from last for fourth.

Trained by Ron Burke, Steely Knife has now won six races from 29 starts and banked $264,097 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Knox Services, Philip Collura and J & T Silva–Purnel & Libby. The Always B Miki colt paid $27.90 to win.

Better Is Nice (A. McCarthy) kept fighting in a damp stretch sprint to down pacesetter Women Layer (Todd McCarthy) and win the second division of the Captaintreacherous as the even-money favorite.

A. McCarthy positioned Better Is Nice into fourth while Women Layer circled from the pocket for the lead after a :29.2 first quarter. Women Layer shuffled Dancin Champion (David Miller) into second up the backside and coasted to the half in :58, where A. McCarthy decided to lift Better Is Nice into action. Once off the pylons, Better Is Nice lunged forward with Women Layer in his sights accelerating to three-quarters in 1:25.4. Better Is Nice continually intensified pressure on a game Women Layer all through the stretch before eventually overpowering his rival and edging to a half-length victory in 1:53.1. Huntingforchrome (Tim Tetrick) closed from last for third and Number Cruncher (Zeron) finished fourth.

“Starting off, he was a little slow to come and we brought him down to Oak Grove,” trainer Tony Alagna said. “He won the [Kentucky Sire Stakes] final there, and then when he came back over here, he started to spark back up again. Then he hit a lull where he wasn’t as sharp, but in his last couple of starts he’s been as good as ever.”

Alagna co-owns Better Is Nice, a colt by Bettor’s Wish, through his Alagna Racing LLC with Pryde Stables Inc. and Birnam Wood Farms. He won his 12th race from 25 starts, has now banked $973,433 and paid $4.20 to win.

Each division of the Captaintreacherous Bluegrass was sponsored by the Captaintreacherous Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms.

SECRET AGENT MAN STORMS THROUGH SLOP TO BLUEGRASS WIN

Chapter Seven gelding Secret Agent Man posted the swiftest mile of the three divisions for the $256,900 Greenshoe Bluegrass Stakes, for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, stopping the clock from a front-stepping effort in 1:53.2.

Driver Andy Miller crossed over from post 6 to take the lead with Secret Agent Man moving for the first turn and relaxed on their way to a :29 first quarter. Secret Agent Man continued comfortably on the point while awaiting the move of even-money chalk T C I (driven by David Miller), who tipped first over out of fifth heading to a :57.1 half. T C I plodded forward through the far turn but reached his reserves as Secret Agent Man hit the pedal. By three-quarters in 1:25, Secret Agent Man scampered away as T C I folded and built enough cushion to roll in a 3¾-length winner. Vic Zelenskyy (Dexter Dunn), mounting a three-wide bid into the stretch, settled for second over pocket-sitting Bargain (Andy McCarthy) and Bryant Bros S (Ake Svanstedt) finished fourth.

“He was a really fast 2-year-old, but he wasn’t ready mentally for it,” said Bjorn Bernie Noren of Knutsson Trotting Inc. “Andy and Julie Miller did very good work to get him around.”

Julie Miller trains Secret Agent Man for Knutsson Trotting Inc. along with Andy Miller Stable Inc., Plouffe Racing and Patrick Hoopes. He won his fourth race from 16 starts, has now banked $176,705 and paid $9.78 to win.

Mr Bluebird (Svanstedt) also stamped a pillar-to-post win on the rainy Saturday with a 1:55.1 effort in the second division of the Greenshoe.

Svanstedt secured the lead out of post 2 to a :29.1 first quarter and, despite facing little pressure, increased speed to a :56.3 half. Wild Ticket (Dunn), the 6-5 favorite, tried to challenge first over from out of third but quickly flattened off three-quarters in 1:25.3, leaving Mr Bluebird to scurry to a three-length lead. Greenspan (D. Miller) closed ground down the center of the track all through the stretch but could only manage second, beaten a length. For July (Mattias Melander) came from last for third and Wild Ticket held fourth.

“We had a problem with him,” said trainer Svanstedt of Mr Bluebird, who has only raced five times in his sophomore season. “Don’t know what it was – I think he was growing too much and he was stiff and couldn’t train so much.”

Now a four-time winner from 15 tries, Mr Bluebird has accrued $187,219 on his card for owners Ake Svanstedt Inc., Little E LLC and Torbjorn Swahn Inc. The colt by Six Pack paid $5.44 to win.

Highland Kismet (Bob McClure) muscled off tepid fractions to a widening open-length win in the final division of the Greenshoe Bluegrass.

McClure eased Highland Kismet into contention and had ample room to settle as Bella’s Muscleshill (D. Miller) led a three-wide wave for the lead to a :28 first quarter. Bella’s Muscleshill remained revved once planting onto the front in the backstretch and clocked a :57.2 half as his foes waited to strike. McClure got Highland Kismet underway entering the final turn and fanned wider as horses angled from the pylons in a slog to three-quarters, timed in 1:27.3. Highland Kismet had the most momentum rounding the bottom corner and cruised to the lead upon straightening while expanding his advantage with each stride under a firm McClure grip. He crossed the line 4½-lengths better than Bella’s Muscleshill in the 1:55.1 mile while Flying Kronos S (Gingras) took third and Benny J (A. McCarthy) faded off a pocket trip for fourth.

“His last start: he just choked,” McClure said after the race, speaking on Highland Kismet’s break in stride in the $527,620 Canadian Trotting Classic. “He got ramped up getting out of there, horses came out under him and I was in a bad spot. I had no intention of racing him off the pace [today], but I got caught in a similar situation. Between two horses, he didn’t want to go up to the car. Luckily though, he was an absolute sweetheart in the hole. The way it all worked out – that’s the way you want to go into the [Kentucky] Futurity. That’s probably as good or the best that he’s been.”

Unraced at 2, Highland Kismet continues to pile onto his resume with now eight wins from 13 tries and $485,806 banked for owner-breeder Highland Thoroughbred Frm. Mark Etsell trains the Father Patrick gelding who paid $2.60 to win.

Each division of the Greenshoe Bluegrass Stakes was sponsored by the Greenshoe Syndicate and Hanover Shoe Farms.

Racing resumes at The Red Mile next Friday (Oct. 4) to kick off the closing week of the Grand Circuit meet. Friday’s card will feature the $275,000 (est.) International Stallion Stakes for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings and the $250,000 (est.) International Stallion Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies. First-race post time at The Red Mile is 1 p.m. (EDT).

Ontario SIRE STAKES REPORT

Blazing Belle and Wikipedia wow in OSS Gold

by Mark McKelvie / Woodbine communications

It wasn't a holiday, but the final Ontario Sires Stakes Gold event for 3-year-old pacers provided fireworks on Thursday night (Sept 26) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Both the 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings and 3-year-old pacing fillies had a single $140,000 division contested Thursday to cap off the regular season.

Blazing Belle reached up in the last strides to pull off a shocking 55-1 upset over division leader Its A Love Thing in 1:49.2.

Driven by Doug McNair, Blazing Belle left strongly to land in the 2-hole behind longshot One More Bet at a :26.1 opening-quarter. Odds On Platinum swept the lead from fourth to hit the half in :54.4, while Its A Love Thing remained in fifth.

The 2-5 favorite Its A Love Thing edged out entering the far turn to start advancing first-up, pulling to within three lengths of the leader. The three-quarter time was a sharp 1:22.1.

In the stretch, Its A Love Thing kept inching in closer on Odds On Platinum and had the leader reeled in with a sixteenth to go. However, Blazing Belle was able to angle off the rail and follow the heavy favorite briefly before powering by in the shadow of the wire.

Blazing Belle stopped the clock in a new career best 1:49.2, beating Its A Love Thing by a neck. Odds On Platinum was third, while Coco Jo Jo was fourth.

"I just wanted to get spotted and figured if I finished fourth or fifth, I did a pretty good job and she surprised me," said

Blazing Belle (Doug McNair) reached up in the last strides to pull off a shocking 55-1 upset over division leader Its A Love Thing in 1:49.2 in the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series event for 3-year-old pacing fillies on Thursday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Doug McNair post-race. “She surprised me tonight. I didn’t really want to move her off [Its A Love Thing’s] helmet because I didn’t want to cost myself third because I figured if I tipped her that [Its A Love Thing] would probably go on, but once I tipped her, she just kept on digging.”

A well-bred daughter of Bettors Delight, Blazing Belle was returning to Ontario on Thursday following a stint in Kentucky, racing for owner/breeder James Avritt, Sr. and trainer Gregg McNair.

Blazing Belle is now five-for-14 on the season, earning $132,057. The 3-year-old was winless in 10 starts at age 2, but did make over $100,000.

McNair is confident that Thursday’s win will provide great momentum moving into the OSS Super Final on Oct. 12.

“[Winning] doesn’t hurt her confidence or mine and hopefully we can get another good start into her,” he said.

A $2 win ticket on Blazing Belle returned $112.10.

Wikipedia turned in a wicked stretch rally to defeat five rivals in the OSS Gold for sophomore pacing colts and geldings.

The compact field took position quickly, as Crush Kill Destroy grabbed the early lead and showed the way throughout. The leader put up sensible fractions of :27.1, :56.2 and 1:25 to lead the field into the stretch.

Heavy-favorite Chain Gang edged from third on the far turn, but didn’t advance, opening the door for another rival.

Sitting fifth throughout and more than five lengths back turning for home, Wikipedia unleashed a :26.1 final-quarter to sweep by his rivals for driver Travis Cullen and win in 1:52.1. Crush Kill Destroy held second over Unrivaled Hanover, while Legal Attack was fourth.

A son of McWicked, Wikipedia was winless in his last nine starts going into Thursday’s race for owners S S G Stables and trainer Anthony Beaton.

“He’s a fast little colt,” said Cullen post-race. “I knew [the shorter field] would help him because he can fire for home quite well. I thought [Chain Gang] would carry us a little further, but when I saw him stall, I thought we had a good shot because he was the horse to beat.”

Wikipedia now has three wins and $173,182 earned in 16 starts this season. The sophomore colt had just one win in eight tries as a rookie and now sports career earnings of over $220,000.

A $2 win ticket on Wikipedia returned $21.50.

With the regular season now complete, the sophomore pacers will all turn their attention to the OSS Super Finals on Oct. 12 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Palone, Toscano sweep Keystone Classic; Sarasota Hanover sets stakes record

Sarasota Hanover turned back Gentrify's stern challenge and rolled home in a stakes-record 1:49.2 in Friday's (Sept. 27) $27,375 second division of the Keystone Classic for sophomore pacing females at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows. Pressure Cooker captured the other division of the event for 3-year-old filly pacers, giving Dave Palone and trainer Linda Toscano a stake sweep. Overall, Palone enjoyed six wins on the 13-race card.

Sarasota was cruising down the "good" backside when she faced first-over pressure from Gentrify. That changed Palone's plans.

"I thought maybe I'd give her a breather up the backstretch, and then Gentrify sort of forced my hand," Palone said. "But when I took the plugs out, she was off on her own. Really an impressive filly. She wouldn't embarrass herself against any filly in the country."

Once put to the task, the daughter of Stay Hungry—Surfside Sexy reasserted and defeated Gentrify by a length, with Lou Lou third. The time erased the previous stakes mark held jointly by Lispatty and Drama Act.

Jablonsky Held Stable, Camelot Stable Inc., John Fodera and South Mountain Stables campaign Sarasota Hanover, who now boasts a career bankroll of $243,025.

Pressure Cooker quarter-poled to the top and made the move stand up, downing the rallying Stonecoldtreachery by three-quarters-of-a-length in a career-best 1:50.4. Staying With Emily completed the ticket.

"Last time I raced her, I had to use her leaving, and I had a little trouble getting her to relax," Palone said. "But we were going enough that wasn't an issue today. The fast fractions actually played into my hands."

The daughter of Heston Blue Chip—Bettor Be Steam in now has earned $183,476 lifetime for owners Odds On Racing, Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Mac Nichol.

Favorites Blackhawk Zette, Usain Hanover dominate Keystone Classic at The Meadows

As expected, heavy favorites Blackhawk Zette (1-9) and Usain Hanover (6-5) subdued overmatched competition, each winning a split in Thursday's (Sept. 26) $55,550 Keystone Classic for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows.

Fresh off a third-place finish to national star T C I in the Pennsylvania Sires Stakes championship, Blackhawk Zette had an opportunity to drop in third from the gate in the Keystone Classic, but neither he nor driver Matt Kakaley was interested in an early seat.

Instead, the son of Cantab Hall—Zette Starlet powered to the point before yielding it to the first-over Ordained. In the final turn, Blackhawk Zette exploded past Ordained and defeated him by 2¾ lengths in 1:53.3. Long shot Thaler Hanover rallied for show.

"Honestly, I didn't think it really mattered what I did with him as long as I didn't get him in a bad spot where he was trapped in," Kakaley said. "He's up there [with the best in his division]. He tries, and he's beautiful to drive."

Blackhawk Zette now boasts a lifetime bankroll of $260,079 for trainer Robert Baggitt, Jr. and owner J.L. Sadowsky LLC.

Usain Hanover, who finished second in that PASS final, trotted patiently in third until Dave Palone sent him first up after the leader, Green Pastures. The Bar Hopping—Up Front Hotsey gelding cleared in a heartbeat and downed Activation — under wraps — by 1¼ lengths in 1:53.4. Going Green finished third.

"He's coming out of sires stake company, and this was probably a softening for him," Palone said. "I thought if I could sit two turns, we were probably in good shape. I never removed his earplugs; he was shut down late. He's a fresh horse for this late in the season."

Nifty Norman conditions Usain Hanover, who boosted his career earnings to $195,589, for Enzed Racing Stable Inc.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. piloted three winners on the 13-race card, giving him seven victories over the last two days.

USTA receives 41 rule and bylaw change proposals

A total of 41 rule and bylaw change proposals have been submitted to the U.S. Trotting Association and will be voted upon by the full board of USTA directors in March at the 2025 annual meeting in Columbus, OH.

The 2025 proposed rule changes may be found here.

Prior to the final decision on which rules will be adopted, amended or rejected, they will be discussed at each of the USTA's 12 district meetings. Current USTA members in attendance at each district meeting will review and vote to provide a recommendation for each proposal; those recommendations will be submitted to the full board of directors at the annual meeting where the final decisions on rule change proposals will be made.

All USTA members are asked to consider the proposed rule changes and encouraged to attend their local district meeting to provide input. Members who are unable to attend their local meeting are urged to contact their local directors prior to the meeting date.

The names and contact information for directors in each district may be found online via this link. For a schedule of district meetings, some of which will be held in-person and others by Zoom, click here. Meeting notifications will be sent via email to current USTA members approximately three weeks prior to each meeting.

The 41-rule and bylaw change proposals cover a wide range of issues that include ownership percentages, limiting starts for horses by age, the use of extracorporeal shock wave therapy, raising the limit of mares a stallion may breed in a breeding season, and the prohibition of Ovum Pick Up/Intra-cytoplasmic Sperm Injection (ICSI).

The list also includes proposals submitted by the Standardbred Racing Investigative Fund (SRIF). SRIF, along with USTA staff, have established a number of proposals that would augment the framework of the organization as it applies to integrity matters and participation.

Submissions were provided by USTA members, racing officials, horsemen's associations, and directors from Arizona, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, and South Carolina.
