Cancellieres light up Lexington

New Jersey brothers claim the full-brother to Captaintreacherous with a bid of $360,000 and top a gangbusters opening session of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale that set a record for gross.

by Dave Briggs

Dave Landry

The $360,000 sale topper, Treasure Trove, the Somebeachsomewhere-Worldly Treasure full-brother to Captaintreacherous consigned by Preferred on behalf of White Birch Farm.

A few minutes after unleashing rapid-fire counter-punches in a toe-to-toe bidding slugfest across the Fasig-Tipton sales arena over the rights to take home the full-brother to Captaintreacherous, John Cancelliere was standing in the front lobby enjoying every second of scoring the TKO.

"He was aggravating me a little bit, because he should've taken his rightful position in the back seat, but that's okay. I understand that he had to give it a shot or two," John said of the underbidder on the $360,000 opening-session sale topper at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

It was one of the more entertaining bidding contests in recent memory at the sale.

Asked if he was enjoying himself, John grinned.

John Cancelliere checking out Hip 70, a Sweet Lou colt out of Shark Lightning that he bought for $150,000 from the Spring Haven Farm consignment.

“We like to mix it up a little bit. This is the enjoyable part,” John said of buying top-of-the-line yearlings that will be trained by his brother, Tom.

“It’s always fun and it’s always exciting, until you get them home and start working with them and you find out their quirks, but since I don’t work with them, my brother Tommy does, it’s okay. I can bitch and moan at him,” John said, laughing. “On Saturday morning I show up at the farm and I screw around and watch him and occasionally he’ll let me go jog a horse.”

The bidding war over Hip 82, a Somebeachsomewhere colt out of Worldly Treasure named Treasure Trove that was bred by White Birch Farm and consigned by Preferred Equine, was the highlight of a sale filled with fireworks. The average of $126,471 is up 10.6 per cent from the 2017 opening-session average of $114,344. The gross of $12,900,000 is the highest, ever, for an opening session at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale.

“Last year, it was 10-something,” said the sale’s co-manager Randy Manges, referring to a 2017 opening-session gross of over $10.6 million.

"This year, we sold more horses so that had something to do with the gross, but the average – we just had good horses, it's that simple."

As for the Cancelliere brothers, they also spent $150,000 on a Sweet Lou colt out of Shark Lightning named Like Lightning Lou, consigned by Spring Haven Farm. The brothers' total expenditure on the night was just over a

"I'm not going to buy anything else tonight. I've had my fun and going to have a couple of drinks now," John said. "Just please tell me (Treasure Trove) wasn't the highest-priced horse at this sale so far."

When informed that he had, indeed, collared the sale-topper, John slipped into mock protest.

tonight. I don't want it," he said, explaining he has been down this road before with little luck.

"Let me just get a couple of things straight... I started out with Some Of The Beach, (a $430,000 yearling) which is the full brother to Somebeachsomewhere and I started out with Detour Hanover, the ($825,000) full brother (to Donato Hanover)," John said.

"Look, this started with a joke. I said to Tommy one day, 'Go buy a horse' and it started as a joke and just escalated from there," John said. "We own a horse farm, we ended up breeding. We bred a lot of horses to Sweet Lou... We love Sweet Lou, he's my favorite. I love Lou. When we got the Love Me Some Lou brother, I was yelling across the room, 'Looooooooou.'"

David Reid, who manages the sale with Manges, laughed about the Cancelliere brothers' display.

"Any time the brothers pull into town, it's always a show and they didn't disappoint, that's for sure," Reid said. "It was definitely entertaining and hats off to them and the underbidder. There was a lot of action on that colt, which there should be. To see them come out in the end, they have a great staying power."

"We can only hope that he's half the horse that (Captaintreacherous) is and I would be doing a handstand," John said.

Though the $360,000 price could be surpassed in the four remaining sale sessions, as it stands now, Treasure Trove is the first sale topper White Birch has ever produced.

"I was very proud to see the full brother to Captaintreacherous be the sale-topper for multiple reasons," Reid said. "First of all, it's great to see the breeder of Captaintreacherous breed a full brother to Captaintreacherous, which happens to be White Birch Farm of New Jersey. Since Michael Parisi's passing it's been two-and-a-half years or nearly three years and the farm has been operating and it's a credit to him — his vision and his breeding. This is the result of that. They've been a long-time breeding farm that's produced numerous champions and to see the breeder of Captain sell a full brother to Captain — and to see the Captains be so good this year as a first-crop sire is really gratifying for White Birch Farm."

"I can't take any credit for that — (White Birch does) a great job. Great pedigrees, great individuals... Not only did they sell him, but they sold a brother to Stay Hungry tonight for $300,000. Overall, it's a credit to them."

Asked if he was surprised the sale average was up more than 10 per cent compared to last year's record-breaking opening session, Manges said, "Yeah, of course. I'm always surprised when we're up off of the best sale we've ever had."

In all, a record 64 yearlings sold for $100,000 or more, including 17 over $200,000 and five over $300,000.

"I don't think we've ever sold four pacing colts in a sale for over $300,000. We sold four tonight," Manges said.

As for the opening night crowd, Reid said he thought it was "on par" with recent years.

"You walk around and you talk to the buyers and I think they felt the market was very strong and the numbers will probably indicate that. On the other hand, it's really great to see everybody in town. The crowd was great and it's just opening night – we've got 600 (yearlings) to go, but it's gratifying to Randy and myself that put together the sale. It's gratifying to see the consignors bring quality horses here. For the most part, there's a few hiccups every night and we had a few tonight, but overall I thought the sale had good energy, good flow and I think the numbers will speak for themselves."

"There were a lot of people here, people I hadn't seen in years... we weren't really seeing that in the people who purchased, but the people were bidding," Manges added. "We had good activity from the Europeans tonight. They bought a lot of horses and spent a lot of money."

Despite all the good news, Manges said people should temper their expectations for a record-setting second session.

"Tomorrow night it'll be a little tough," he said. "We sold our highest-priced horse last year on the second night and we had the highest gross ever of any session – it was $12 million last year for the second session, so we'll see."

The Burke Racing Stable LLC led all buyers in gross purchases, spending $935,000 to bring home seven yearlings. Bryan Montgomery, agent, spent $835,000 to buy four yearlings, followed by freshly-minted Hall of Famer Jules Siegel (4 yearlings, $605,000 total), Mickey Burke, agent for Elite Trotting (3, $575,000) and then Cancelliere.

Reid's Preferred Equine was the leading consignor by gross, selling 21 yearlings for a total gross of $2,964,000, an average of $141,143. Reid said it was a record night for his operation.

"Coming in, the feedback and just seeing what we had, I thought we were loaded for bear," Reid said.

Hunterton Farms was next with total sales of $2,527,000 for 18 yearlings ($140,389 average), followed by Kentuckiana Farms at $1,060,000 for six yearlings. Kentuckiana's average of $176,667 was the highest of all consignors with three or more yearlings sold.

The second-highest priced yearling sold was the Bettor's Delight colt out of Precocious Beauty named Tall Dark Stranger. Nancy Johansson, agent, plucked the colt for $330,000 from breeder Jim Avritt, Sr. and consignor Hunterton Sales Agency.

Avritt joked someone may need to clean up the seat he was sitting in while watching the bids continue to climb.

"It got harder to breathe, I'll say that. I had my iPad with me and I was videoing the whole thing, for posterity. I could see the board, too, and I was listening," he said. "I've tried to keep the level of excitement down pretty low, you know. I try not to get too high on them. Everybody was saying, 'Ah, he'll bring between $200,000 and $300,000' and I'm thinking $150,000 would tickle me a bit. I was trying to keep the expectations down. I knew it was a nice colt and I knew everything was falling into place, but who knows after that?"

Stewart said, "when you look at that family and what's happened just in the last month-and-a-half (with Tall Dark Stranger's talented 2-year-old half-sister Beautyonthebeach), that's how you get those prices because it's a tremendous family, but it's striking when the iron is hot."

Johansson said she picked out of Tall Dark Stranger with Force N Fury, the Captaintreacherous colt out of My Little Dragon was purchased for $300,000 by Tony Alagna, agent for Brad Grant, Marvin Katz and Al Libfred, out of the Preferred Equine consignment. The colt was bred by White Birch Farms.

her father, Hall of Fame trainer Jimmy Takter.

"I've been looking at yearlings with my dad as he's heading into retirement here and stepping into his new role and we both just loved the colt – super athletic, gorgeous. You can't fault him anywhere and he's got the page to go with the individual, so there isn't really much negative to say about the colt," she said.

Johansson said, so far, the partners on the colt are Marvin Katz, Caviart Farm, Crawford Farm and Howard Taylor.

The trainer said the high price tag doesn't create extra pressure; quite the contrary, in fact.

"This colt has a license to play in Division One and that's where we want to be," Johansson said. "I feel better about having horses like that. They are usually easier to train, they are naturally athletic and they've got pedigrees that carry them a far way."

As for the three horses that sold for $300,000, Determination Stable of Montreal bought the sale's highest-priced trotter – the Cantab Hall filly out of Bright Baby Blues named Whose Blues consigned by Cane Run Farm.

Dana Parham of Boca Raton, FL paid $300,000 for the Captaintreacherous colt out of Lisjune named Das Deo consigned by Preferred for Deo Volente Farms.

"Ross Croghan liked the horse a lot, so that's where we're at," Parham said. "Ross couldn't find a flaw with him and he has a good eye for horses. He's done well over the years."

Parham said he decided to be particularly active at this year's sale.

"I missed a couple last year that went for $300,000,

$350,000... I can't buy them all, but there's not one I can't buy and I was just determined this year that I'm not going to get outbid on one or two of my favorites," Parham said. "I passed up on Rocknroll Hanover years ago and I regretted that. I could've had him.

"You reach an age and you just don't want regrets and I'm not going to regret buying one that doesn't work out. That's not a big regret. The regrets come not buying one that does work out."

The bidding was strong all night.

Deo Volente CEO Mike Gulotta said, “it’s ridiculously exciting” to sell a horse for $300,000. “We always thought that he was going to sell well, but ridiculously well? No.

“But, the mare has produced. She had Im The Pied Piper. She had I Luv The Nitelife, you know. She’s a sister to Lis Mara. We owned Lis Mara. So there’s a special place in our heart for this one,” Gulotta said. “We were rooting for (Das Deo’s full-brother) De Los Cielos Deo all year. Ronnie (Burke) said that the horse was his best since Sweet Lou. I understand that they still have very high hopes for him.”

Trainer Tony Alagna signed for the $300,000 half-brother to Stay Hungry on behalf of Marvin Katz, Brad Grant and Al Libfeld. Force N Fury is a Captaintreacherous colt out of My Little Dragon raised by White Birch Farm and consigned by Preferred.

“We bought that colt, basically, because we have Stay Hungry, of course, and (Force N Fury is a) Captaintreacherous as opposed to Somebeachsomewhere and we think The Captain is the next generation of Somebeach, being his best son,” Alagna said.

The second session of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale will feature 167 yearlings. It begins tonight at 7 p.m. at Fasig-Tipton. For more information about the sale, please visit: <http://www.lexingtonselected.com>

by Sandra Snyder / OSS publicity

Ten sophomore trotting fillies made the trip to The Raceway at Western Fair District on Tuesday evening to compete in a pair of $94,000 Gold Series divisions, and both races featured upsets as the favorites failed to live up to fan expectations.

Apprentice M scored her first win of the season in the first division, inheriting the lead around the final turn when pacesetter Zorgwijk Sophia and fan favourite Illusioneesta made breaks as they battled for control. Unfazed by the chaos, the steady Apprentice M and driver Paul MacDonell simply carried on down the stretch to a 2:01 victory. Miller Time also delivered a flawless effort to finish three-quarters of a length back in second and Illusioneesta recovered quickly enough to claim third.

"That's why they race horses," said the philosophical MacDonell. "She's pretty solid gaited, which helps on the half-mile track, and then as you saw, things worked out."

MacDonell steers Apprentice M for trainer John Bax of Campbellville, ON and owner Menhammar Stuteri AB of Paris, Kentucky. In her four previous Gold Series starts the Kadabra daughter had recorded one second, one third and two fifths. Tuesday's victory pushed her point total to 97 and puts her in fourth spot in the standings heading into the Oct. 13 Super Final.

"She just hasn't really kicked in like she probably should have, but again I think she's got $100,000 made, so it's hard to knock her," said MacDonell. "It's late in the season and a few of the fillies are getting tired and stuff, so you can take advantage of that sometimes."

Tuesday's victory pushed Apprentice M's 2018 earnings to $109,253 and put her less than $10,000 shy of $200,000 lifetime.

Collateral Beauty (Louis Philippe Roy) went gate-to-wire in 1:59.2 in the second of two Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Gold Finals Tuesday at The Raceway at The Western Fair District.

MacDonell finished second with Bax trainee Magical Lady in the other division, following Collateral Beauty and driver Louis Philippe Roy as they went gate-to-wire in 1:59.2. Pocket-sitter Town Hall Justice settled for third, well ahead of favourite Smoke And Mirrors, who took herself out of contention with an early break.

The win was Collateral Beauty's second in the Gold program. The Kadabra daughter was also victorious at Georgian Downs on July 21 for trainer Herb Holland and owner Carolyn MacIsaac of Milton, Ontario.

"She's a little bit of a lazy filly, but looking at her lines, it seems like she takes her job a little more seriously when there's big money on the line," said Roy, who was making his first appearance in the filly's race bike. "Herb told me she's better when you put her into play right off the gate, so that was the plan today and it worked good."

With two wins, one second and one seventh in four Gold Series starts, Collateral Beauty heads into the $225,000 Super Final tied for second with 127 points. Tuesday's win bumped the filly's sophomore earnings to $123,800.

The top 10 point earners from the five regular season events will now head to Woodbine Mohawk Park for the Oct. 13 Super Final.

Hashtagmadeyalook wins thriller in Mass Sire Stakes

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

Wet weather and an off track engulfed Plainridge Park for a second straight day as the Massachusetts Sire Stakes (MASS) 3-year-olds made their first start of the 2018 season on Tuesday in five divisions pursuing available purses totaling $163,840.

Owner Ray Campbell Jr., trainer George Ducharme and driver Shawn Gray teamed up to win two of the five MASS races while three of last year's 2-year-old champions, Hashtagmadeyalook, Delco Dusty and I'm A Clown, made their bid to repeat as the best at three with wins in their first leg outings today.

$41,450 3-year-old colt and gelding trot

Winner: Hashtagmadeyalook (Chapter Seven—Royalty Free) 1:58.1
Owner: Ray Campbell Jr.
Trainer: George Ducharme
Breeder: Ray Campbell Jr.
Mutuel: $6.00

Kinda Lucky Lindy (Greg Merton) drifted outside at the start of the race before moving up to take the lead by the quarter in :29.2. Merton then backed the half off to a minute with no one pushing the issue. It wasn't until the five-eighths pole that Hashtagmadeyalook (Shawn Gray) pulled from third and trotted alongside the leader before heading into the last turn where it became a full-blown match race. The top two pulled away from the field; Kinda Lucky Lindy on the pylons and Hashtagmadeyalook on the outside. They went stride for stride, side by side all the way to the wire and it took a photo to show Hashtagmadeyalook winning by a nose in 1:58.1.

It was the fourth win in 10 starts this year for Hashtagmadeyalook who now has earned $50,540 in purses.

$39,000 3-year-old filly trot

Winner: Ithinkthatsmine (RC Royalty - Super Starlet) 1:59.4
Owner: Ray Campbell Jr.
Trainer: George Ducharme
Breeder: Ray Campbell Jr.
Mutuel: NB

After two starters made breaks off the gate in the already short field, Ithinkthatsmine (Shawn Gray) found herself on top by four lengths at the quarter. From there she led stablemate Bag O Chips (Steve Smith) for the remainder of the mile until the top of the stretch when she pulled away by herself and won by six-lengths in 1:59.4.

Ithinkthatsmine now has seven wins this year and earnings of $72,230.

$40,800 3-year-old filly pace

Winner: Delco Dusty (Jereme's Jet—Gypsies Good Girl) 1:54.1
Owner: Jesse De Long
Trainer: Jimmy Nickerson
Breeder: Jesse De Long
Mutuel: $7.20

Delco Dusty (Shawn Gray) went for the front and cruised there unchallenged to the half in :57.1. At that station, Rock Me Threetimes (Mitchell Cushing) pulled from third, advanced towards the leader and drew almost even with her at the three-quarter pole. But Delco Dusty responded by pacing away to a two-length lead, forcing Rock Me Threetimes to go back to the pylons. Cushing never gave up on the filly and Rock Me Threetimes came on again in deep stretch under heavy urging but Delco Dusty was under a hand drive by Gray and won by a length in 1:54.1.

The win time tied Delco Dusty's seasonal mark and her second win in eight starts pushed her earnings to $31,118.

$21,295 3-year-old colt and gelding pace

Winner: I'm A Clown (I'm Gorgeous—Lordy Miss Scarlet) 1:54.1
Owner: Nelson Malin III
Trainer: Kevin Switzer

Tom Melanson

I'm A Clown (Mitchell Cushing) won the sophomore pacing colts' final of the Massachusetts Sires Stakes in 1:54.1.

Breeders: KDK Standardbreds and Nelson Malin III

Mutuel: $2.20

Going off at 1-9 it was no surprise that I'm A Clown (Mitchell Cushing) went to the front and was intent on dictating this race. After getting to the half in :57.4 with everyone single file behind, I'm A Clown turned it on the final two quarters posting a :56.3 back half and cruising home with a six length lead to win in 1:54.1.

It was the first win of the year for I'm A Clown and the time was also a new lifetime mark for the winner.

$21,295 3-year-old colt and gelding pace

Winner: Pembroke Pharoah (Baron Biltmore—Migraine) 1:54.1

Owners: William Varney and Heath Campbell

Trainer: Valerie Grondin

Breeders: William Varney and Valerie Grondin

Mutuel: $2.40

Twelve (Eddie Davis Jr.) took early command and opened up a three length advantage going around the first turn. However with Latent Print (Scott Renz) gapping in second, Pembroke Pharoah (Heath Campbell) was roused from third and eventually made his way to the lead in front of the stands before the half. It was pretty much over at that point as Pembroke Pharoah was pacing well in hand up the backside, past the three-quarters and around the final turn. At the top of the stretch with Campbell sitting chilly, Pembroke Pharoah won at will by three lengths in 1:54.1.

Pembroke Pharoah captured a new lifetime mark in winning his sixth win of the year and has now banked $51,575 in purses for 2018.

Wrenn is happy with progress of Chin Chin Hall

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

As driver Peter Wrenn walked to the Red Mile winner's circle alongside Chin Chin Hall after their victory in a division of last week's Bluegrass Stakes for 2-year-old male trotters, he wore a big smile while rubbing and patting the horse's side, followed by several fist pumps. Patience and faith had been rewarded.

Making only his second career start, and first in more than two months, Chin Chin Hall got his first victory by defeating a field that included five trotters with Grand Circuit or state-restricted stakes triumphs to their credit. Chin Chin Hall, a three-quarter brother to award-winning Cantab Hall, won by 1-1/2 lengths over Hudson River in 1:55.4 over a surface labeled "good." The time was one-fifth of a second off the night's fastest trotting mile.

"A few of those horses (in Chin Chin Hall's race) had been there and done it," Wrenn said. "As a group we decided to see where he was at and put him in there. We thought he could trot along there and not get embarrassed.

"He wasn't even stressed afterward. He came out of the race great. That was exciting for everybody involved. To come out of the woods with a maiden trotter in September and win on the Grand Circuit, that's pretty fun."

Chin Chin Hall is trained by Wrenn's wife, Melanie, and owned by David McDuffee and Gene Oldford Farms. The horse, a son of Cash Hall out of Canland Hall, was purchased for $50,000 at the Ohio Selected Jug Sale.

In addition to Cantab Hall, who received the Dan Patch Award for best 2-year-old male trotter in 2003, Chin Chin Hall is a half-brother to Ontario Sires Stakes winners Constance Hall and Campbell Hall. The family also includes Dan Patch Award winner Cameron Hall and Hall of Fame broodmare Amour Angus.

"The last couple years we've been buying in Ohio," Wrenn said. "Mr. McDuffee wanted to feel the waters out a little bit in Ohio. Mr. Oldford has been a client of mine for a long time and he's always interested in buying a yearling or two at the sale. We combined those two guys and picked (Chin Chin Hall).

"We liked that maternal family; that's a great family. We were looking for a sire stakes-type colt that may be competitive somewhere and we took a chance. If you get one that tries out of (that family) you've usually got a pretty good chance of doing something."

Chin Chin Hall won two qualifiers before making his debut in a maiden race for 2-year-olds on July 14 at Hoosier Park. He went off stride in the stretch while second to eventual winner Woodside Charm.

"He trained like a nice horse most of the winter," Wrenn said. "When he got up north, he kind of lost his gait for a

"Dreaming of Better Lives for Local Families Financially Overwhelmed by a Child's Illness"

The Rudolph Family: Mark, Gina, Madison, Mia

The Dream Foundation founded by Mark and Gina Rudolph provides financial and moral support for families whose lives have been financially effected by a child's illness. The foundation has no administration expenses and is 100% volunteer based. ALL donations go directly to assist families that so desperately need your help. On behalf of The Dream Foundation and the many families touched by your generosity, thank you so much for helping make life a little easier.

Hear how The Dream Foundation has impacted lives in our community:

My daughter Andrea was diagnosed with Kidney disease at the age of 4-1/2. One year later, she was diagnosed with bladder disease. Her diseases have progressively gotten worse, she has been hospitalized over 15 times and has had 8 operations to try and help her. This year, she was diagnosed with Diabetes and celiac disease. Her medical expenses, travel expenses and treatment over the years have continued to increase and have devastated our family financially. Andrea needs another critical surgery last year and we simply weren't able to pay for it, and didn't know what we would do. The Dream Foundation heard about Andrea, and they presented us with the money for her surgery. When we couldn't afford Christmas presents for the kids, they played Santa for our family and made Christmas entirely possible for my children. They are a true testament to how good and kind people are, even though we weren't looking or asking for help. They save and help countless families who are struggling every day with children's illnesses, and they let you focus on the most important thing – YOUR CHILD GETTING BETTER! I am eternally grateful to The Dream Foundation for all they have done for Andrea and for our family

-Carrie F., Millville NJ

Oliver and I have had a very difficult time trying to find the right words to express our gratitude to all of you. One cannot imagine how much you have helped our family during the hardest two years of our lives. Watching our little boy fight for his life has been inspiring and scary all wrapped into one, and all the while, it has been people like you that have made this easier for us. The financial strain is indescribable and your assistance has meant the world to our family. Mark and Gina, you have become angels among us for our family. Thank you for opening your hearts (and checkbooks) to perfect strangers. We hold you in the highest regard, you are no longer strangers, we are blessed to call you friends.

-Oliver and Nicole Keller

My Name is Anette Santos and I am the mother of Miguel Nunez Jr., the first recipient of The Dream Foundation. At the time, Miguel was battling Osteosarcoma, which is bone cancer. I don't even remember how Mark and Gina found us, but from the moment we met, they were there for my son in so many ways. The Dream Foundation was a blessing because while Miguel was battling the cancer that ultimately took his life, I was laid off from my job, and the Foundation stepped in to help. Mark and Gina were literally angels sent from above. When Miguel passed away, they paid for all of our funeral expenses and even hosted the gathering after his viewing. I will always be grateful to Mark and Gina for all that they did for us during the most difficult time of our lives.

while, but he got it back, just as babies will do. He wasn't quite ready to qualify early so we waited a bit. We qualified him twice and I put him in an overnight and he knuckled over in the stretch. He was a little weak behind and made a break. We gave him time and he's come back good ever since that little break."

The goal was to have Chin Chin Hall ready for the Kentucky Sire Stakes, which began in mid-August, but the horse required more time to mature.

"He's a growthy colt," Wrenn said. "He grew a lot over the winter and he's still growing. He's getting it together again. He needs to race. He needs some good confidence builders at race speed. He always could go enough. I qualified him a week before the (Bluegrass) and he qualified like a nice horse. It was a bad day here -- rain, deep mud -- and he qualified like the horse we were hoping.

"We have patient owners. It worked out well. Sometimes good owners make good horses. They're both great guys. They've been in the game, they understand it, and that goes a long way."

Next for Chin Chin Hall is Thursday's International Stallion Stakes for 2-year-old male trotters at Red Mile, where he will compete in the first of three divisions.

He is also eligible to the Breeders Crown and Valley Victory Stakes.

"(The Breeders Crown) wasn't on the radar two months ago, but as of last Thursday it's been on the radar," Wrenn said. "We'll let him tell the story. You'd hate to have him spotlighted and disappoint everybody. I don't think he will because he usually puts in a good effort. That mile last week did him a wonder of good. We'll know a lot more Thursday evening, whether he's the real deal or what direction he might go.

"But he's been a nice colt, a fun colt to be around. He's got his quirks, but he craves work, which I like, and he never misses a meal, which is another thing I like. He's got some good characteristics to him. The end of the mile seems to be his deal. We'll see where he's at.

"It's a lot of fun. I've been here before, where you see it, you hope everything is good, and the next week you say, darn it, he's not as good as we thought. You hate to talk. But I'd take a whole barn like him, that's for sure."

Cantab Fashion, Green Manalishi face off in International Stallion Stakes

by Ray Coto for Red Mile

Both winners in Bluegrass splits last week, Cantab Fashion and Green Manalishi S put their win streaks on the line Thursday when they compete in the third of three divisions for the $275,600 Trixton International Stallion Stakes, sponsored by the Trixton Syndicate, for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters at Red Mile.

Trained by Jim Campbell, Cantab Fashion won his fourth straight race with a 1:55.3 victory in his division of Bluegrass last week. The Cantab Hall—Defiant Donato colt, with $64,500 to his bankroll, competes for the Fashion Farms LLC and will start from post one with David Miller at the helm.

On the opposite side of the gate, Green Manalishi S, runner-up in the Peter Haughton Memorial and winner of the William Wellwood Memorial, starts from post nine with Tim Tetrick in the bike. The Marcus Melander-trained colt by Muscle Hill out of Naga Morich enters off a 1:56.1 win by three-and-three-quarter lengths as the 1-9 favorite in his division of the Bluegrass. Competing for Courant Inc., he has earned over $340,000 in earnings.

Chin Chin Hall, upsetting a division of Bluegrass in 1:55.4 at odds of 14-1, makes his third start career when leaving from post three in the first split of the Trixton. The Melanie Wrenn-trained gelding by Cash Hall will have Peter Wrenn in the bike for owners David McDuffee and Gene Oldford Farms LLC.

Finishing third to Chin Chin Hall as the 2-1 favorite, Kentucky Sires Stakes champion Forecast races in the same division. Nearing $200,000 in earnings, the John Butenschoen-trained colt by Cantab Hall has five wins from 10 starts and races for owners William Wiswell, Jean Goehlen and Eugene Schick. Corey Callahan sits in the bike and will start from post four.

Pulling the biggest upset in the opening night of Bluegrass action, Aldebaranwalkabout returns to the track in the second division of the Trixton. Coming from off the pace, the Jonas Czernyson trainee stormed through the “good” track to finish second to favorite Don’t Let’em but was placed first due to the public choice not obeying the breaking rule. He won at 29-1—getting his second win from five starts total—and pushed his earnings tally to over $50,000 for owner Aldebaran Park Inc. Andrew McCarthy pilots the Muscle Hill colt from post eight.

The nine-race program Thursday, which also features two $4,000 amateur-driver trotting events honoring Hall of Fame inductees Joe Holloway and Linda Toscano, gets underway with a first-race post time at 1 p.m. (EDT).
