Ron Burke - Who Else? - Looks To Dominate American Nationals
By Neil Milbert

Ron Burke is trying to corner the money market in Saturday night’s $1.3 million American-National extravaganza at Balmoral Park.

The trainer is bringing 16 horses to Balmoral Park from Hoosier Park, and four are entered in the main event, the $227,000 pace for 3-year-old colts and geldings.

He has the 3-1 morning line favorite in the field of 10 JK Endofanera (Art Major); 4-1 second choice Limelight Beach (Somebeachsomewhere); Somesizesomestyle (Somebeachsomewhere), listed at 8-1; and At Press Time (Western Terror), pegged as a 12-1 longshot.

Yannick Gingras has been driving both Limelight Beach and JK Endofanera and both have been on a roll. Now, they are going to compete against one another for the first time since a group headed by Burke bought Limelight Beach in July, and became the gelding’s trainer.

“It’ll be very interesting to see how they do,” Burke said. “Limelight Beach is a very high speed horse who can make his own racing luck. JK Endofanera is a little grittier; there’s no quit to him.”

Burke let Gingras decide which of the two he wanted to drive and he picked the gelding projected as the second choice.

Limelight Beach drew the No. 8 starting slot in the 10-horse race and JK Endofanera drew No. 9. Neither is a favorable post position but Gingras believes Limelight Beach’s style is better suited for an outside point of departure.

“I like them both and I said I’d drive whichever one I thought had the better chance,” he explained. “Limelight Beach has a lot more gate speed. I thought it’d be easier to get into the race.”

Going into the Little Brown Jug, Limelight Beach was winless in 12 starts this year but had seven seconds and a third on his resume. Then, he captured the first heat of the Jug in 1:51 and came back to lead all the way and win the final in 1:50 4/5.

In his next and last start Limelight Beach again set the pace in the Bluegrass at The Red Mile. He crossed the finish line in 1:49 1/5, fastest time of his 25-race career. A week later JK Endofanera had an identical time at The (continued on page 3)

Yearling Trends Indicate Positive Growth For Forest City Sales
By Perry Lefko

If the positive trend in the sales of yearlings this year is any barometer, the Forest City Sales this weekend at the Western Fair Agriplex in London, Ontario should result in an upward spike in the average sale per horse.

The recent Canadian Yearling Sales at Flamboro Downs had an increase of 24 percent from the previous year, with an average of $12,614 per horse. The Lexington Selected Yearling Sale had a 10.1% increase from the year before with an average price of $44,121.

Seelster Farms is expecting nothing but good things at the Forest City Sale

In Ontario, there is an overall sense of calm following the decision this year by the Ontario government to enter into a five-year, $400 million agreement with the horse racing industry following turb...

the announcement the lucrative Slots At Racetracks Program would be terminated at the end of March 31, 2013. In addition, heading into the Canadian Yearling Sale, the province announced a five percent bonus for the Ontario Sires Stakes program.

Collectively, there is reason to be optimistic for breeders and sellers heading into the Forest City Sale.

"I'm afraid to be optimistic because we've been fooled before," said Cal Stiller, owner of Stonebridge Farm, which is one of the investors in the Forest City Sale along with Winbak Farm and Seelster Farms, all of which are selling horses. "But everything points to people understanding the stability of the Ontario racing program has been re-established, there is a relative imbalance between supply and demand, broodmare bands have been improved, and all of that should lead to a stronger sale. So despite my worrying about being optimistic, everything tells me I should be.

"I think the catalogue for the Forest City Sale is relatively strong, and everybody who has come to the farm have looked at me and said, 'Wow, this looks like it could be a good sale.' I think the Ontario-sired horses at this sale are equivalent at Lexington, except for the Kadabras, which were very strong (there). But there's some good Kadabras here. I've got two. I'm expecting to see a significant increase over last year's (results)."

There are 148 horses scheduled to be sold.

"I think we have a strong catalogue," said Forest City sales manager Ann Straatman. "There's certainly some strong pedigrees. From my inspections, there's some strong individuals available. I think we have a nice variety, something for everyone, I expect our numbers to be up from last year. Certainly there's been some positive movement (in Ontario horse racing this year) and I'm hoping next year there will even more mares bred in the province."

Larry Drysdale, Farm Manager for Winbak's Ontario division, said the results of the Ontario-sired horses that sold at the Lexington sale is a positive indicator for Forest City's sale.

"The way the Ontario Sires sold at Lexington, I think it's a very good sign," he said. "The (yearling) sale at Harrisburg (November 3-6) usually follows suit with Lexington. If Lexington was strong, then Harrisburg will be strong. If a person wants to buy a good Ontario-sired horse, you may want to get it (at Forest City), because the prices could be very high at the Harrisburg Sale.

That's not saying that there's not good stock (at the Forest City sale). I think the prices will be high down there, too. I think this could be a very good sale."

horses at the sale, has 18 this year. "We sell all of our Canadian-breds at Forest City," Stiller said. "We do have a financial interest in the sale. Although we don't make money on it, we believe we need to have a good, strong platform for selling horses. That's why we've invested in it. The facility is a terrific facility. It's the best facility I know of in terms of selling horses. From the beginning we encouraged the Western Fair to build facilities for the horse sales. We made the investments and we're glad we did."

This year's sale includes offerings by first-year sires Big Jim, Manofmanymissions, Roll With Joe, Up The Credit and Vintage Master.

It will also include two by second-year sire Sportswriter - Carolina Hurricane, a colt, and Endless Legacy, a filly, both of which are consigned by Preferred Equine Agent. Sportswriter's offsprings are selling extremely well due to the success of the ones who are currently racing.

Also, the sale will include the first crop in Ontario by Bettor's Delight, who was moved to Pennsylvania by Winbak following the uncertainty of the racing provincial racing program. Stonebridge has two horses sired by Bettor's Delight - Stonebridge Satire and Stonebridge Bettor, both colts - while Seelster has the only other Bettor's Delight offspring, a colt called Apocolypse Seelster.

"Sportswriter is the hottest sire right now, but I think Bettor's Delight will be close to what (Sportswriter) brings," Stiller said. "It will be very interesting to see how (buyers) treat him. I think he'll do well. He's a proven sire, and depending upon the dam he produces a good yearling."

Dave Menary, the trainer and of the owners of star three-year-old He's Watching, plans to be at the sale and is expecting it to be robust. "We've got a great program in Ontario," he said. "The prices were up (at the Canadian Yearling Sale) and the way Ontario-breds sold at Lexington is kind of encouraging for the breeders. I think we'll see prices up. We're looking at limited numbers compared to the past. If you combine (the Flamboro) Sale and this sale, we're looking at about 300 yearlings, whereas in past years there were 600-700 yearlings, so there's the supply-and-demand factor. I think everybody's got a lot more confidence in the stability of Ontario and the new (OSS) program introduced prior to the sale in Flamboro gives everybody a little bit more encouragement. It's a good program."

"There's a lack of Sportwriters in this sale, and the way they sold in Lexington they're going to be a hot commodity. The Bettor's Delights sold well in Lexington, and there's only three in this sale and they are all colts."

Adriano Sorella, one of the owners of 2013 Little Brown Jug winner Vegas Vacation, is going to the sale with the intention on bidding on the Sportswriter horses. "I like the way the Sportwriters have been racing, they're been pretty much been good all around," Sorella said. "There's not been that many Sportwriters for sale this year to start off with and the prices for the ones in Lexington were pretty expensive. If the price is right and they're good, maybe we'll pick one up. He's dominant this year in the Ontario Sires Stakes. People are seeing these Sportwriters can be or will be Grand Circuit horses, so now the money is starting to come out. Instead of spending $200,000 on a Somebeachsomewhere horse, we have Sportwriter, so people are willing to spend $70,000, $80,000, $100,000, $120,000 on a nice looking one."

"There's going to be a little bit of competition for Sportwriter, that's for sure, with the Bettor's Delight horses. You never know when you go to these sales. I went to the Lexington Sale expecting to buy horses for $50,000-$60,000 and they were selling for $150,000-$160,000. It's tough. The prices are there. I tend to stay away from people saying 'there's no money.' There's guys willing to spend money and there's horses that sell for a lot of money. If you've got it, you're going to spend it. There's a lot of good horses out there."

"Owners with money are realizing the Ontario money is not too bad and the Ontario Sires Stakes program is pretty good."

Drysdale said he expects horses sired by Shadow Play to sell well in the Forest City Sale given how well they sold at Lexington. "They averaged 10 times his ($4,000) stud fee. I think that's pretty amazing," Drysdale remarked.

Red Mile (though not the best of a career in which he has been clocked in 1:48 2/5) when he led throughout to take the Tattersall, sending him to Balmoral with a two-race winning streak. In the American-National, Ron Pierce will replace Gingras as the colt's driver.

With any kind of night Burke will likely break his own record for earnings. Burke established the record of $22.2 million last year and entered Friday with $21.6 million. Saturday's card at Balmoral features eight American-National Stakes for trotters and pacers and purses in excess of $1.3 million.

If all goes well, Burke plans to continue having his prominent pair of 3-year-old pacers race against one another in the Monument Circle at Hoosier and then in the Breeders Crown.

The most accomplished of the horses Burke is bringing to Balmoral is the 10-year-old gelding Foiled Again (Dragon Again), the sport's all-time leading money-winner with 219-race earnings in excess of $6.6 million. With Gingras in the sulky, Foiled Again will be in quest of his seventh victory in (continued on next page) 22 starts this year in the $179,000 aged pace, a race he won in 2011.

“Last week in Kentucky he had a huge mile (when he was edged by a head in the Allerage) and I think he’ll snowball from there,” Gingras predicted. “This is his time of year. Once the fall comes he gets sharp.”

In the $166,000 aged trot, Burke and Gingras will try for an upset with Archangel (Credit Winner), who prepped for the race by winning a Hoosier qualifier by 35 lengths. Projected as a 6-1 shot, Archangel will leave from the inside post in the field of eight, and Burke likes his chances.

In the trainer's opinion: “Archangel is a very good horse in a great spot.”

Among the other notables in the aged trot are two winners of 2013 American-National races—defending champion Market Share (Revenue S) and Lindy’s True Grit (Cantab Hall), who prevailed in the 3-year-old colt and gelding trot. Market Share is the 3-1 morning line favorite even though he has won only three of his 14 starts this year.

In terms of current stature, Saturday night’s marquee horse is Father Patrick (Cantab Hall), the No. 2-ranked horse in the Hambletonian Society/Breeders’ Crown poll. Trained by Jimmy Takter and driven by Gingras, Father Patrick is the 2-1 favorite in the $203,000 American-National for 3-year-old colts and geldings.

He is going into the 10-horse race with 20 triumphs and three seconds in 24 starts. One of the second place performances came in his most recent outing, the Kentucky Futurity, in which he was defeated by stablemate Nuncio (Andover Hall) after holding the lead at the stretch call.

“He didn’t put on his best performance last week,” Gingras said of the setback in the last leg of the pacing Triple Crown. “If he bounces back, he’ll be tough to beat. He’s always the horse to beat.”

In the $150,000 trot for 3-year-old fillies, the highest profile belongs to Shake It Cerry (Donato Hanover), ranked No. 5 in the poll. She is 11-for-13 this year and is coming off a compelling 4 ½-length conquest in the Kentucky Filly Futurity.

Shake It Cerry is trained by Takter and Pierce has been doing the driving. Despite drawing the No. 9 post in the field of 10, she is the favorite at 2-1 on the morning line.

One of the most intriguing horses on the program is Roland Rock (Rocknroll Hanover), the 5-2 second choice in the $86,000 colt and gelding pace. Owned and trained by Duane Roland, the gelding is flaunting a perfect record in 13 starts and his performances have been overwhelming but most have come in non-betting events on the Iowa fair circuit.

Trainer Roger Welch’s entry of Earndawg (Sportsmaster) and King of the Swamp (Sportsmaster) is the 7-5 morning line choice in the race.

The favorites in the other American-National championship races are Act Now (Western Ideal) at 7-2 in the $173,500 3-year-old filly pace and Well Hello There (Well Said) at 7-5 in the $61,150 2-year-old filly pace. Burke trains Well Hello There and Matt Kakaley will be at the reins in the six-horse race.

“Well Hello There is not in the toughest spot for that kind of money,” Burke said. “She’ll be good.”

In addition to the eight American-National championship races, there will be three consolation stakes on the 13-race card—a $28,000 pace for 3-year-old fillies, a $25,000 pace for 3-year-old colt and geldings and a $25,000 trot for 3-year-old fillies.

Burke’s entry of Southwind Silence (Well Said) and Sayitall BB (Tell All) is favored at 7-5 in the filly pace and he has the 1-2 selections in the pace for colts and geldings, Somestarsomewhere (Somebeachsomewhere) at 8-5 and Big Boy Dreams (If I Can Dream) at 9-5.

Red Mile Judges Nail Kickers

Yannick Gingras was the most notable name on the list of drivers penalized for kicking a horse at the Red Mile. The “Green Hornet” was fined $200 by the Red Mile judges and also picked up a $400 fine from Chester judges for causing interference and making a horse break.

The Red Mile also fined booters Jody Jamieson, Brett Miller, Chris Page and Dave Palone.

Dover Downs 45th Season Opens Sunday, November 2

DOVER, DE - Dover Downs 45th season opens on Sunday, Nov. 1, 2014. The annual six-month long meet continues, five days a week, through April 9, 2015 featuring top horses, top stables and top drivers.

Live racing will be contested Sundays through Thursdays during November and December with Friday and Saturday “dark” days. Once more, weekday racing begins at 4:30 p.m. with Sunday post time at 5:30 p.m.

Again, Dover Downs will feature a lucrative stakes schedule. Traditionally, the lucrative Progress Pace, eight Matron Stakes Finals and four Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund two-year-old divisions event are the highlight events of a stakes-heavy November and December racing program.

There is no charge for admission or parking at Dover Downs. Reservations are suggested for the Winner’s Circle Restaurant by phoning 302-764-4600. Due to strong weekend bookings at the 4-Star Dover Downs Hotel, horsemen desiring to stay overnight are urged to make reservations early.

Along with daily simulcasting of North American harness and thoroughbred racing, and during football season there is three-game NFL parlays, available in the Dover Downs’ Race and Sport’s Book in the Colonnade.

Rockaround Sue, Somebody as Win Friday 44G

Co-features

By Frank Drucker
Publicity Director, Empire City @ Yonkers Raceway

YONKERS, NY - Yonkers Raceway’s Friday night $44,000 co-featured Open Handicaps—one for distaff pacers and one for trotters with valid working papers—were won by a inside-routing Rockaround Sue (Jason Bartlett, $12.80) and a down-the-road favorite Somebody AS (Dan Dube, $4.10).

Rockaround Sue, in no early hurry from post position No. 5, waited her turn as last week’s victress, Coffee Addict (Dube), set early intervals of :27.2 and :56.4. Set Me Up (George Brennan), as the 2-1 favorite, was offering just mild, first-over grief in and out of a 1:25 three-quarters. Robin Cruiser (Jordan Stratton), meanwhile, going wide from second-up.

Coffee Addict owned a length-and-a-quarter lead into the lane before “Sue” closed from fifth deep in the passing lane. She picked off the leader by a head in 1:54, while Robin Cruiser, Seafood Annie (Greg Merton) and Campanile (Tyler Buter) came away with the small change.

For fourth choice Rockaround Sue, a 5-year-old daughter of Rocknroll Hanover trained by PJ Fraley for co-owners Bamond Racing and Silva Stables, it was her fourth win in 30 seasonal starts. The exacta paid $100, with the triple returning $408.

For fourth choice Rockaround Sue, a 5-year-old daughter of Rocknroll Hanover trained by PJ Fraley for co-owners Bamond Racing and Silva Stables, it was her fourth win in 30 seasonal starts. The exacta paid $100, with the triple returning $408.

The week’s marquee trot was a three-speed number, with Fort Valley AS, New York Sire Stakes soph winner Gural Hanover (Brennan) and Lorenzo Dream (Brent Holland) departed 1-2-3 and finished that same way.

Somebody AS, from post No. 4, never had an anxious moment (:28.2, :57.4, 1:26.3, 1:54.2). Last week’s runner-up whipped the statebred champ by 3¾ lengths. It was “Lorenzo,” The Triple Lindy (Carlson) and Traverse Seelster (Buter) settling for the remainder.

For “Somebody,” a 5-year-old Striking Sahbra gelding co-owned by ACL Stuteri AB & Kjell Johansson and trained by Anette Lorentzon, he’s now 5-for-18 this season. The exacta (two wagering favorites) paid $17.60, the triple returned $120 and the superfecta paid $503.

Saturday night features the sixth annual Fall Harvest Festival, trackside from 4-8 PM. Also, the Legislators’ Challenge—a trio of non-wagering events with New York State elected officials—beginning at 5:30 PM.

Brett Sturman’s Balmoral Stakes Analysis

Race 2, $61,150 Am-Nat 2YO Filly Pace

WELL HELLO THERE was only three lengths back at the three-quarter pole last out in that race where JK SHE’SALOGY set a 1:50:2 world record. She’s one of 16 that Burke has entered tonight and I suspect she’ll win fairly easily in here. MR LELAND’S FILLY is the obvious threat to the top choice in this compact field of six. She is another that was well beaten by She'salady in her most recent but it’s back to Balmoral where she’s won four in a row including a 1:53:2 win when she won the Orange & Blue. ANGEL DEMON was good two back; goes third start for trainer Erin Elliott.
Race 4, $203,000 Am-Nat 3YO Colt Trot
FATHER PATRICK going down in defeat was one of a few upset prognostications that delivered in this print last week and as much as I'd like to try to beat him again - particularly on the six days rest - he really should beat these. It looked like he was a winner on Sunday when he went at least a half-length past NUNCIO at the top of the stretch but that rival was able to fight back and get his due; logical spot to bounce back. ODDS ON AMETHYST goes third start Takter and he couldn't have been any more impressive two back when he sprinted home to pull away from IL SOGNO DREAM. I was surprised he lost last week but the front end that day wasn't particularly kind; would not be a total shock. E L TITAN was trotting up a storm two back in the Canadian Trotting Classic and certainly would have put a scare into Patrick if he were better positioned; note the driver change to Pierce now.

Race 6, $150,000 Am-Nat 3YO Filly Pace
SHAKE IT CERRY has never been better (and that's saying something) and seeks revenge on LIFETIME PURSUIT from this year's Hambletonian Oaks. As usual, any road to the winner’s circle goes through Takter as he conditions both these fillies and SHAKE IT CERRY has simply been untouchable of late; was a pleasure to see her fly through the Lexington stretch by her lonesome last weekend. LIFETIME PURSUIT lands the rail and will be given every chance by Yannick if good enough to beat the reigning divisional champion again. CEE BEE YES exits not only a 56/1 shocker, but an all time world record in the same process. That race was set up by the speedy COOLER SCHOONER but even with that her most recent race still borders on the inexplicable; barn is capable of big time improvement but I'd be surprised if that good again. I remember when HARLEY MOMMA was highly touted by Burke and exits a career best mile where he closed in :26:1; I think he's a play against despite earning the confidence of YG. LET'S DRINK ON IT gets the younger driver change to Pierce now.

Race 7, $86,000 Am-Nat 2YO Colt Pace
ROLAND N ROCK goes for Iowa connections coming from county fair races and reminds me of the Iowa standout from a few years ago, Panaramic Art (although that one was bred by the obscure Hot Pans and this is a Rocknroll Hanover). He did emerge back in August at Springfield where he put up a 1:51 mile early in the 2-year-old season; could be the real deal. SIR MAMMO closed in :26 flat four races back; that should count for something as he now picks up Tetrick. BUCKLE UP enters here on a tear but I'll note his fast race from two back might be a deceptive; the Red Mile oval was lightning quick that day. EARNDAWG and KING OF THE SWAMP for the 7/5 favored Roger Welch entry but both are going to have to go quicker than they've ever gone before; didn't have the best fortune at the post draw either.

Race 9, $166,300 Am-Nat Aged Trot
I don't think that Takter could have foreseen the debacle of a drive that MASTER OF LAW would have gotten when he switched to Zeron last night and now Jimmy sees fit to once again take the drive himself. You can toss that race completely and two back this one broke through with a giant win at Hoosier; that win wasn't a fluke and he can beat this suspect group again despite starting from the outside. CREATINE is likely to take a good amount of action coming off that thrilling win when he was able to run down SEBASTIAN K. He was second to the top choice three races back enters tonight in career form for trainer Bob Stewart. MARKET SHARE just hasn't been himself over the last couple months and although he's won this race before; I'm inclined to let him beat me now if he can. ARCHANGELO could have beaten these in August but he looks like one of the longer shots at this point; UNCLE PETER hasn't done anything since returning from Sweden.

Race 10, $173,500 Am-Nat 3YO Filly Pace
This may be the most wide open race of the night and I'll give WEEPER a look as regular driver Dave Palone makes a special trip to Balmoral for this one. She's looked fresh in her last pair since returning from a two month layoff and don't forget this one just missed in the Mistletoe Shalee in a 1:49 mile the only other time she was on a mile track this year; looks versatile too. GETTINGREADYTORIZATION seemed like a lock last weekend at the Red Mile but ended up with a pretty tough trip and was overtaken late. If right, she's best. ACT NOW picks up Tetrick as Sears isn't here tonight and recent form is excellent; back to her old self and I wouldn't fault anyone for playing. UFFIZI HANOVER surprised me last week as I thought she had all but tailed off; was one of a couple upset winners that Dave Miller was able to get home that weekend. However, that driver now opts for Coleman's MAJOR DANCER and both of them might be up against it tonight. FANCY DESIRE may not be as strong as she was during her Lynch win in May although Callahan gets the return call; PRECIOUS BEAUTY picks up Campbell.

Race 11, $227,000 Am-Nat 3YO Colt Pace
Driver Yannick Gingras had a very difficult decision in having to choose between JK ENDOFANERA and LIMELIGHT BEACH and opted for the latter. The result is that we get Ron Pierce on JK ENDOFANERA and I'm tempted to bite. The North America Cup winner actually beat ALWAYS B MIKI two back at Hoosier and we all saw what that one went onto do in Lexington; back to his better form. After starting the year 0 for 12, Little Brown Jug winner LIMELIGHT BEACH has turned into a killer for Burke and exits a career best mile where he closed in :26:1; I think he's a play against despite earning the confidence of YG. LET'S DRINK ON IT gets the younger Seekman in the bike tonight and should now rate as an outsider. SOMEWHERE IN L A hasn't missed the board in ages but always seems to land very tough posts when the big money is on the line; I wouldn't discount this barn if the price is right. UNLOCKED was at at Hoosier last out and I actually liked him that night; back to his home track now. CAPITAL ACCOUNT has chased Miki in his last pair and AT PRESS TIME can spring a big mile every now and then.

Race 12, $179,000 Am-Nat Aged Pace
BETTOR'S EDGE continues to fire nearly every race but it's hard to believe he hasn't actually won since early in the summer. He came close a couple times to beating SWEET LOU when that one was in his form spree and he seems to do his better work on the mile size tracks; fires out again for Kakaley and can beat these at a price. STATE TREASURER was an 8/1 winner in this print last week and needed every bit of that ideal cover trip to get up for the win; Tetrick's back again and another :26.2 final kicker gives another shot albeit at a lesser price. FOILED AGAIN raced too good to lose last Sunday at the Red Mile and he seems to do his best work around this time of year once the weather cools a little. He likely will end up the de facto favorite from the Burke barn as Lou didn't make the trip here; only recent wins came around the friendly half mile oval at Harrington. CLEAR VISION continually goes overlooked with this group but is capable on his best; AL'S HAMMERED represents Chicago while getting the ultimate test for class.
