The Big M's first Crowning achievement

by Debbie Little

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

with DEBBIE LITTLE

As The Meadowlands prepares to play host to Breeders Crown eliminations next weekend – Friday and Saturday (Oct. 18 and 19) – for the 40th edition of the series, here's a look back at the first Crown race ever contested at The Big M.

It was 1987, the fourth year of the Breeders Crown, and The Meadowlands played host to the race for older horse and gelding trotters won by Sugarcane Hanover campaigned by Hall of Famers, Ron Waples (driver), Jim Simpson (trainer), Charlie Coleman (caretaker) and John Simpson, Sr. (owner).

Unlike today, where one track plays host to all 12 races, when it started, the Breeders Crown was more of a traveling road show giving different tracks the opportunity to be a part of this incredibly special event.

In its inaugural year, 1984, there were only eight Crown races, for 2- and 3-year-olds. The following year, a trot and pace for older horses was added and in 1986, a pace and trot for mares was also added. Unlike their pacing counterparts, mare trotters were thought to be able to be competitive with the guys and therefore could and did race in that older trot in 1985. In fact, from 1996 to 2003, the Mare Trot was discontinued and they had to compete with the fellas, until 2004 when the Mare Trot was reinstated. In 1993 the trots and paces for older horses were changed to opens where 3-year-olds could take on their elders.

Just like the Breeders' Cup for thoroughbreds, the Crown was designed to be a year-end championship, which could at least partly explain why The Meadowlands – which, at the time, did not race past early August – only played host to a single race in 1987 and 1988.

Despite the fact that The Big M featured that '87 Crown race on a Friday on the same night as the Hambletonian Oaks – the Crowns were on ESPN back then and that was when they had availability – Waples said it was still an important race.

“It was a Breeders Crown and it was special and it meant an awful lot to people,” Waples said. “And if they say that it didn't mean anything, then you're talking to a fool.”

Waples won three Crown finals in 1986, including the 3-Year-Old Colt Trot with Sugarcane Hanover.

“I think all the guys that raced in them all kind of had the same thought, ‘If I can win the Breeders Crown, that's going to be a feather in my cap; this is something special and I just hope to God, I can win one of these,’” Waples said.

Winning a Crown race at a premier track like The Meadowlands may have been special, but according to Waples, for him it was more about winning with Sugarcane Hanover.

“There were maybe four or five horses in my 60 years or however long I was doing it, that I had so much confidence in that I could do whatever I wanted, and he was one of them,” Waples said. “He just was so powerful and so handy. He just couldn't leave out of the gate really quick; it was better not to leave out of the gate. After that, any time you wanted to pull the right line, if you wanted to save it till late, wanted to pull at the half, whatever, he was more than willing to accommodate and most times he did.

“And Charlie Coleman that looked after him and Jimmy Simpson that trained him just did an exceptional job with the horse.”

Even though it was only a six-horse field, Waples said it was still a competitive bunch.

“I think there were two, they weren't front runners, but they were very aggressive horses, Dicks Bell and Express Ride, who

I thought was a great, great horse,” Waples said. “And when they got to the front, you know they’re going to roll on. So, that’s helpful for me if I want to just kind of relax. That’s basically what happened.”

Even though he was still six or seven lengths off the lead at the top of the stretch, Sugarcane Hanover crossed the wire in front by 1½ lengths over Tabor Lobell in a stakes record 1:54.3, becoming just the second horse to score a Crown double. Replay here. The first to win multiple Crowns was trotting filly JEF’s Spice who won at 2 in 1985 and then again at 3.

“Like I said, I’ve probably got five best horses all the time that I drove, and he was sure as hell one of them, and Ralph Hanover was another one, and Presidential Ball was another one,” Waples said. “I mean, you just knew what you had in your hands so you could make a mistake and you’re still going to come out of it looking all right.”

“That training center, Southern Oaks, that Carter Pinske runs and owns, Mr. Simpson said, ‘Sugarcane Hanover bought this training center,’” Waples said of the training center that Brian Pinske bought from Simpson in 2000. “If there was no Sugarcane Hanover, there would be no training center. He told me that himself.”

Looking back at those early days, Waples said that then Hambletonian Society president Tom Charters didn’t get the credit he deserved for coming up with the Crown. Waples said he’s also happy to see the Crown turning 40.

“So, you know, when it started, nobody was sure it’d still be going now,” Waples said. “There was a bit of uncertainty there because there was going to be so much money involved and everything. So, I’m thinking from my point of view as I remember, if I remember correctly, it was just a little bit of a wonderment.”

“Will it still be here 10 years from now? Will it still be here five years from now? But it was kind of the dedication and very hard work from a lot of people like Tom Charters and underneath Tom Charters that it’s still here today.”

Writer’s note: If you haven’t already done so, I highly recommend that you check out the early Breeders Crown races on YouTube. The ESPN broadcasts are top notch and it’s a wonderful walk down memory where you get to see great horses and several beloved tracks that sadly are no longer with us.

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

Kentucky wrap-up

by Bob Heyden

HISTORY FOR KARL

Though it was not what they exactly had in mind, Karl entered the history books with his fifth-place finish in the $500,000 Kentucky Futurity. He vaulted past $1 million to $1,002,839 on the heels of a freshman $1,041,977 to become the first trotter to do this at 2 and 3 (U.S. funds). Others who came close were Deweycheatumhowe 936G at 2, Muscle Hill 817G, Father Patrick 744G, Southwind Frank 786G and Shake It Cerry 827G all of the above followed with seven-figure sophomore seasons.

SHOW TIME

Those two words would best describe Dave Miller's Futurity Day. Three times he was third, twice with the longest shot in the field and once with the second longest: Call Option (54-1) paid $8.16 to show; in the Filly Futurity, Sambuca Hanover (60-1) paid $17.30 to show and in the Futurity second longshot in the field, Bellas Muscleshill, paid $16 to show at and an incredible 130-1.

BORN IN THE USA?

No. For what is believed to be a first, zero U.S.-born drivers won a single race on Futurity Day. The races were won by: Bob McClure, Dexter Dunn, Yannick Gingras, Andy and Todd McCarthy and Ake Svanstedt. The U.S. born drivers had 28 out of 95 drives, and only Dave Miller even drove a favorite, lukewarm choice Little Rocket Man at 2-1 who didn't cash.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

The Kentucky Futurity began in 1893, after the first race in Kentucky was held in 1875. The races were "sweepstakes" and the entire weekend "The Great Fall Trots." Plus-the term "time trial" was not yet coined in 1893 when the first Triple Crown race was launched. The world race records were both 2:04 flat by Nancy Hanks on the trot and Mascot on the pace. The 2:01 3/4 overall best from the 20th-century term "time trial" was recorded by Westmont, then called "pacing with running mate."

SIX FIGURES

For the first time I've ever seen in any sophomore stake, every starter in the Filly Futurity had a six-figure bankroll at both 2 and 3. All 22 lines in this 11-horse field. Try and find this anywhere previously. In the Futurity it was 17-for-22 with six-figure money lines. Of course, with the field based on earnings, the 3YO money is obvious, but every freshman line too?

NOT ENOUGH TIME

Noel Daley missed Jerry Silverman's mark of most time in between winning the same Triple Crown race by four years. It's been 21 years for Daley since Mr Muscleman won the 2003 Futurity and now he won with Sig Sauer. Silverman had a full quarter century in the Messenger winner's circle with Romeo Hanover in 1966 and then Die Laughing in 1991.

SIX AND SIX FOR SIX

Six Triple Crown races in 2024 are now in the books and it's rare to see six different winners for six different trainers and six different drivers.

AKE'S THE ONLY ONE

Ake Svanstedt is the only trainer/driver (both) on the list of the 26 track record holders at the Red Mile. Four times too: Six Pack at 3 (1:49.1) and 4 (1:49.2), Plunge Blue Chip at 3 (1:49.4) on the filly side and 2YOTC Southwind Tyrion (1:51.1).

OH BROTHER

Brothers Andy and Todd McCarthy taking the Futurity and Filly Futurity, respectively in the same year is unprecedented. Father and son took them in 1978 when Billy Haughton won the Filly Futurity with Rosemary and his 24-year-old son Peter won the Futurity with Doublemint.

BETTER MAKES BETTOR'S BETTER

Bettor's Wish now has his first million-dollar credit as a stallion, as soon as Better Is Nice crossed the wire second behind Mirage Hanover's 1:46.3 in the Tattersalls. Bettor's Wish is a two-time HOY runner-up and possibly THE son of Bettors Delight everyone is waiting to take and run with the crown.

Buckeye Classic sale records increase in gross; average down

by James Platz

Hoosier Classic Sale Company LLC conducted its annual Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale Tuesday (Oct. 8), at the Champions Center Expo in Springfield, OH. Now in its 10th year, the 2024 Buckeye Classic catalog was the largest ever, with 361 yearlings consigned. During the marathon session, a total of 339 babies passed through the ring for gross sales of $3.99 million, a record for the sale, while averaging $8,821. Last year, 227 yearlings brought just shy of $2.7 million and averaged $11,872.

Trotters occupied the top of the sales sheets led by a pair from first crop sire In Range. Neigh Brr Lady, cataloged as Hip #181, topped the session with a $41,000 bid. Consigned as agent by LMN Bred Stables, the filly is out of Cantab Hall mare Lady Bella, who has already produced three winners. The dam is a sister to five six-figure earners. Stacey Nisonger signed the ticket on behalf of Nisonger Stable.

Colt Mile Range, Hip #135, was next on the sheet, bringing $40,000. An agent horse from the Dublin Valley Farm consignment, the colt is the third foal from Yankee Glide mare Glide Onin Sabrina. The dam is a sibling to seven other winners including $300,000 winner Hes A Demon. Brent Davis signed the ticket acting as agent.

Ready For Sunshine, a colt by Ready For Moni, was next in the results, selling for $38,000. Also from the Dublin Valley consignment, the brown colt is the second foal from Cantab Hall mare A Ray Of Sunshine, sister to Hambletonian Oaks runner-up Lady Rainbow. Cataloged as Hip #8, Ready For Sunshine was bought by Dalten Walls, signing as agent.

A group of 33 babies from the first crop of In Range sold Tuesday for a gross of $472,500, good for an average of $14,318. Ten from the sire sold for $20,000 or more. Ready For Moni was represented by 18 yearlings that grossed $249,000 and averaged $13,833.

Parading Fire was the top pacer sold at Tuesday's Buckeye Classic. The bay colt, Hip #144 in the catalog, was part of the Winterwood Farm consignment, hammered down for $37,000. From Royal Mattjesty mare Gracie's Parade, the Catch The Fire colt is a sibling to $100,000 earning freshman Downbytheparade and nine-time winning sophomore Hardfoneguy. The colt was purchased by Nisonger Stable.

Catch The Fire colt Ultimate Catch also topped $30,000 Tuesday, sold for $34,000. Consigned by Edgemoor Farm LLC as Hip #344, he is the first foal from McArdle mare Ultimate Thrill, full-sister to top Ohio pacer McThriller p, 1:49 ($480,522) and Normans Madeline p, 1:51.2 ($326,192). Wayne Mast, Jr. purchased the yearling.

A total of 16 babies sired by Catch The Fire passed through the ring, bringing $175,000. The group averaged $10,938.

Four yearlings sired by Downbytheseaside were offered at the Buckeye Classic. Naughty At The Sea, Hip #234, led the group with a $30,000 final bid. From the $700,000 winner Naughtytilltheend, the Ohio and Kentucky eligible filly is a sister to five winners. The second dam is millionaire Cam Swifty. Consigned by Wittmer Standardbreds, the filly was purchased by Brent Tartar. The quartet of yearlings averaged $17,750.

Zumma World topped the list of babies sired by Summa Cum Laude. The colt, cataloged as Hip #107, is from Western Ideal mare Show The World, already a producer of six winners from eight foals. Second dam is the great Worldly Beauty. Consigned as agent by Mervin Burkholder, the colt garnered a $32,000 final bid, purchased by the Nisonger Stable.

Dublin Valley Farm, the sale's largest consignor with 45 horses sold, grossed $423,000. Edgemoor Farm led all consignors selling five or more yearlings in average. The Adamsville-based farm sold five babies for an average of $17,200.

ALL OVER ONTARIO

with MATTHEW LOMON

First yearlings will step into the London Classic auction ring on Tuesday

The two-day sale is being held at the Western Fair Racing District Agriplex in London, ON.

by Matthew Lomon

Optimism is in the air ahead of the third-annual London Classic Yearling Sale.

Set for its usual post at the Western Fair Racing District Agriplex in London, ON, this year's edition of Canada's standardbred racing's premier yearling sale is already generating significant buzz well before Day 1 kicks off at noon on Tuesday (Oct. 15). The two-day showing continues at the same time on Oct. 16.

The viewing period opens on Oct. 14 at 10 a.m.

"There's a good vibe going into this year's sale," said Greg Blanchard, director of equine programming at Western Fair. "You never know for sure how things will play out but going by what we've seen elsewhere, especially the recent Lexington Sale, we certainly hope that's a positive indicator for our sale, which it typically is.

"And based on the number of people that have been reaching out to us — looking for catalogs, checking to make sure videos are up for yearlings, inquiries from people coming to town and looking for hotel rooms — I've got a good feeling, but we'll find out in a few days from now."

As Blanchard alluded to, his team hopes that the stellar showing at this year's Lexington Selected Yearling Sale (Sept. 30 – Oct. 4, 2024) will translate positively over to Ontario.

Over the course of the five-day Lexington Sale, a total of 911 yearlings sold for $65,712,700 (USD).

The gross sales ranked as the second highest ever recorded at the marquee event, falling about $2 million shy of the all-time record set in 2023 ($67,916,300).

However, average sale price increased slightly year-over-year from $71,566 to $72,132.

"It's a good sign that there's a strong market out there, and other jurisdictions are doing well," Blanchard said. "There's been some encouraging announcements. We feel good about where things sit in Ontario and think there will be more exciting news to come."

“[The London Classic Yearling Sale is] a crucial component of what we do here. When we had the opportunity to step up and take over operating a yearling sale here, we jumped at the chance. It’s Canada’s premier yearling sale, and we wanted to make sure that we maintain that status and continue to grow even more in the future.”

~ Greg Blanchard

Last year’s London Sale saw 284 yearlings sell for a total of $7,579,000 (CAD). The average sale price experienced a year-over-year dip to $26,687 ($35,682 from 186 yearlings in 2022), although Blanchard said that was expected with a larger number of entries.

“Ontario is still one of the best jurisdictions to race horses,” he said. “We have one of the leading stakes programs in the world here, and we’ve got some of the top stallions in the world. We believe we have a top-quality catalog this year with something for everybody, and hope it translates into a successful sale.”

Blanchard is particularly bullish about the prospects of this year’s London Sale roster, which currently features 252 yearlings.

“I don’t think there’s any question that this is the best quality catalog that we’ve seen in the time we’ve been operating the sale,” he said.

And it’s easy to understand why.

The London catalog includes progeny from the first crop of the legendary Bulldog Hanover, the first full Ontario crop of Cattlewash, and several other standout sires in Green Manalishi S, Muscle Mass, Bettors Delight, Betterthancheddar, and many more.

“We’re so fortunate in Ontario to have some of the best sires in North America,” Blanchard said. “It’s a very deep catalog, and I think there will be something for every taste, if you will.

“We’re eager to get it going.”

The London Sale took on a new meaning for the team at Western Fair in 2022 when they officially assumed control of event operations.

While the shift was a stark contrast to the facility’s previous role, Blanchard says it’s been rewarding to see just how integral the sale is to the health of Ontario’s standardbred industry.

“When we took over the sale three years ago, it was very new territory,” he said. “We had hosted it here for a long time, but to actually be operating a sale was new for a lot of us, including myself. But getting to learn as we go, and realizing how much work goes into putting on a sale, you take on an even greater level of respect for the breeders.

“It’s a long time from when you breed a mare to finally getting that horse through the auction ring, and a lot of money tied up in it as well. It’s not for the faint of heart. You gain an even stronger appreciation for how important the sale is to those folks and the industry at large.”

The sale is equally vital to the racing program at Western Fair.

“It’s a crucial component of what we do here,” Blanchard said. “When we had the opportunity to step up and take over operating a yearling sale here, we jumped at the chance. It’s Canada’s premier yearling sale, and we wanted to make sure that we maintain that status and continue to grow even more in the future.”

~ Greg Blanchard

This year’s running of the sale is especially meaningful, as it will be directly tied to the Southwestern Ontario track’s beloved City of London Series.

Not only will Western Fair’s long-standing staple return in the spring under a new moniker (London Classic Sales Series), but a portion of the gross revenue from the sale will also be used to bolster purses for the series’ finals.

“We host the City of London Series finals here on Camluck Classic night, which is our closing night card,” Blanchard said. “Those are very important races for many horse people in the area. They’re meant for horses that are maybe a little bit later to the races that are looking for an early opportunity, they’re showing potential, but might not have a lot of money on their card to that point in time.

“It gives some of those folks that maybe missed out on some of the 2-year-old money a chance early in the season to race for some good purses.”

The London area also stands to benefit from the two-day sale with droves of horse people flocking into town and booking stays at hotels and dining at local restaurants.

Now in their third year calling the shots, Blanchard and Co. are officially yearling sale veterans.

Buy-in was evident from the beginning, and an eagerness to spotlight Ontario as one of the world’s foremost harness racing destinations soon followed.

That sense of pride, along with an unwavering dedication to the industry and its people is what drives the staff at Western Fair to make the next London Sale better than the last.

“We try to listen to the consignors, breeders, sellers, and buyers, and collect feedback each and every year,” Blanchard said. “We then take that feedback and introduce some positive changes. We’re embracing technology as best we can, and I think that will continue to evolve when it comes to putting on an annual yearling sale.

“We have probably one of the best venues of its size anywhere in North America. We’re proud of that. And for a sale under one roof, we’re able to offer a pleasant experience for everybody, including the people that are bringing horses here to sell. We want to ensure that when people are coming here, they’re treated to an enjoyable experience, no matter which industry stakeholder group they represent.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

This is one of the biggest weekends of the year for Swedish harness racing

by Thomas Hedlund

It's hard to think that more money, bigger purses have been offered in total during three days, in three different European countries, than what is a fact for tonight, Saturday and Sunday (Oct. 11-13).

Tonight starts with some hot races in Paris, at Vincennes where the $550,000 U.E.T. Elite Circuit Finale attracts some of the very best older trotters in Europe 2024. The only disappointment is that Horsy Dream, who has dominated big time during the season, is sick and had to be scratched from the race. Besides that, top names like Borups Victory, Idao de Tillard and Francesco Zet gather behind the gate at Vincennes and the spectators in Paris will get acquainted with at least two new names on the circuit. Borups Victory and Francesco Zet are both good enough for the big races during Vincennes' winter meeting, starting next month. Later that same night, 4-year-old trotters qualified for the $440,000 Grand Prix de l'U.E.T. will battle over 2,100 meters and we can state that there is a small disappointment even in this event since Timo Nurmos' star Fame And Glory has to stay in Sweden due to sickness. Still, the race is spectacular with contenders like East Asia, Krack Time Atout, Koctel du Dain and exotic contribution, Swiss trotter Kalattine.

The big-purses show continues in Sweden, at Solvalla on Saturday (Oct. 12) when the best Swedish-bred 3-year-olds have their biggest event for the year.

Fillies battle in the $600,000 Oaks while the $800,000 Kriteriet is open for all horses.

The Oaks seems to be an open story with several trotters with great chances to win and trainer Daniel Wäjersten, who participates in both big races at Vincennes on Friday night, has three fillies in the field of 12 horses and he opted to drive Propulsion daughter Vivillion, while Ulf Ohlsson drives Screen Time Limit and Per Linderöth sits behind Beedrill.

Wäjersten looks to grab his first Trainer of the Year award in Sweden after his tremendous season, in battle with Daniel Redén, who always delivers strong results, but who will stand aside when the two biggest races for 3-year-olds are underway Saturday. Wäjersten on the other hand, has three chances even in the Kriteriet and all his shots impressed in the eliminations, respectively, so the weekend can be something really extra for the eminent trainer.

Bullet The Bluesky, Good Lord and Lando Mearas are his weapons in the Kriteriet.

And the big race-weekend ends in Italy, in Rome where the 3-year-old Italian-bred horses chase $850,000 in the Derby Italiano del Trotto and $270,000 in the Oaks del Trotto for fillies.

Alessandro Gocciadoro is the obvious dominant in his home county when the stakes races are on the menu and the yellow-suited trainer and driver has nine horses in total in the two events and he has attracted top Swedish drivers Magnus A Djuse and Örjan Kihlström to Rome on Sunday (Oct. 13).

Sire Face Time Bourbon will probably be the father of the favorites in both races. French trained (Sebastien Guarato, Face Time Bourbon's trainer) Frank Gio, who is the most well-merited trotter in the Derby enters the race with strong performances in his back pocket and Gocciadoro's Fanny Gio will get attention from the bettors in the Oaks.

LÖNBORG'S BIG TRIUMPH

Danish trainer and driver Michael Lönborg experienced a nice day at the track when Charlottenlund in Copenhagen played host to the $160,000 Danish Kriterium for 3-year-old trotters on Sunday (Oct. 6) afternoon.

Lönborg's Karat C.N. (Express Bourbon) was outdoing his crop friends when the best horses among the 3-year-olds gathered for the big final Sunday. Lönborg drove a perfect race with his Karat C.N. He made sure that big favorite Kungfufightning had to make a three wide initial kilometer before Lönborg gave cover for his horse with 1,500 meters to go. When the final attack was made 500 meters to go, Karat C.N. flew on the outside and got a big advantage as the field turned for home. Karat C.N. was just wonderful to watch on the outside and it must have been a pleasurable home stretch for driver Lönborg when his horse hit the wire in a strong mile rate of 1:56.4 over 2,500 meters.

Erik Adielsson steered Adrian Kolgjini's Kilimanjaro Face (Googoo Gaagaa) to a safe win in the $95,000 Stokriteriet for fillies earlier on the same race card in Copenhagen. After a trip in front, Kilimanjaro Face won in 1:56.1 over 1.3 miles.

Taking a chance on Sabonis pays off

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

John Miller considers himself “pretty lucky” when it comes to standout Indiana pacer Sabonis. Miller purchased Sabonis as a yearling for $9,000 at the 2022 Midwest Mixed Sale and has watched the colt develop into a multiple Grand Circuit winner and potential Breeders Crown participant in the two years since then.

Owned by Miller’s wife, Pat, and trained by Aaron Stutzman, Sabonis has won 17 of 19 career races and earned $480,200 as he prepares for today’s (Oct. 11) $250,000 Indiana Sire Stakes championship for 3-year-old male pacers at Harrah’s Hoosier Park.

Sabonis, whose victories this year include the Carl Milstein Memorial and Jenna’s Beach Boy on the Grand Circuit, will bring a 13-race win streak to his INSS final. The colt is not eligible to the upcoming Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands, which will host eliminations for all 3-year-olds on Oct. 19, but the plan is to supplement the colt to the event for $72,000.

“You dream about something like this, but you don’t think it will ever happen,” John said. “When I bought him as a yearling, I didn’t even know if he would ever race, but I thought he looked good and had a pretty good pedigree. I thought I’d take a chance on him. That’s something that nobody else wanted to take.

“I guess I’ve been pretty lucky. It’s very special.”

Sabonis raced twice as a 2-year-old, finishing third in his debut at Hoosier Park before winning a race for Indiana

Dean Gillette

Sire Stakes eligibles in gate-to-wire fashion in 1:55.1. His season ended there because of health issues and needing more time to mature, but he returned this past April with a 1:52.1 victory by four lengths in the first leg of the Mark Fransen Memorial conditioned series at Hoosier.

“That kind of opened our eyes to what we might have,” said Stutzman, who drove Sabonis that night before turning the lines over to Joey Putnam the rest of this season. “He came home in :25.4 and I was just sitting on him.

“I knew there was something there, but I didn’t know it was this kind of horse. It’s not that we weren’t impressed, but we were just kind of going from one race to the next.”

And with the exception of a second-place finish in early May, all Sabonis did while going one race to the next was win. The son of Tellitlikeitis—Gypsy Bellevue posted his best time of 1:48.2 in the second leg of the Indiana Sire Stakes in June at Hoosier Park and totaled seven triumphs in the series.

His victory in the Milstein was perhaps his defining moment so far. Sabonis was fifth through the first three-quarters of a mile and needed to make up nearly seven lengths from there. He got the job done, winning by 1½ lengths over Timeisonmyside in 1:50.3.

“All of his wins have stood out to a certain extent, but in the Milstein, going into the last turn he was fifth and took a bad step,” John said. “I thought he was going to make a break, but he didn’t. When they came out of the turn, he was competing for the front, and I couldn’t hardly believe it.”

Said Stutzman, “I’d have to say the Milstein was my favorite so far, with as far back as he was going to the three-quarter pole and to still come back and beat them.

“He’s having an awesome year. It’s been fun. He’s a nice versatile horse. He’s well-rounded. You can put him on the front or race him from behind. That’s just the type of horse he is. And he’s laidback. He acts like he doesn’t have a mean bone in his body.”

John said Sabonis’ demeanor is one of his best qualities.

“He’s gentle,” John said. “The girl that takes care of him [Leah Schlabach] said she will give him something to eat after cleaning his stall, and he’ll just come over and put his head on her shoulder. He’s very gentle.”

Of course, the ability to go fast also helps.

“I’ve never had one with the speed that he’s got,” John said. “I’ve got to put in a good word for Aaron. He’s done a hell of a job with him.”

Sabonis will start today’s INSS final from post 3 in a field of 10. He is the 4-5 morning-line favorite. Last year’s champ, Tellmeitmatters, is the 9-2 second choice from post 6 with John DeLong driving for trainer Roger Welch.

If all goes well today, the plan is for Sabonis to continue his campaign with a trip to New Jersey for the Breeders Crown. The purses for all 3-year-old finals are $600,000.

“I have to buy into it, but it’s pretty good money for the Breeders Crown,” John said, adding about the supplement fee, “I might be silly, but I’ve been silly before I guess. I might regret it, but you only go around once. So far, he’s been able to hold his own with everyone. We might never have another one like him.”

“The Lord blessed us in getting him,” Pat said.

Harrah’s Hoosier Park will host 12 Indiana Sire Stakes championships tonight. For complete entries, click here. For free programs, visit the track’s website here.

Delaware SIRE STAKES REPORT

Melvin G, Buttoncandy take DSBF finals

by Matt Sparacino / Harrington Raceway

Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund $110,000 final events for 2-year-old trotters headlined the Wednesday (Oct. 9) card at Harrington Raceway.

Linda Mac Donald's Buttoncandy ($13, Art Stafford, Jr.) was a 2:04.4 winner in the filly trotting final over Holly Lou and Lady Burg. Taking advantage of attrition at the start when multiple horses went off-stride, Buttoncandy cruised to her second career win for trainer Joe Mac Donald. The E L Platinum filly improved to two-for-three lifetime.

Melvin G ($2.10, Jim Morand) notched his third-straight win in the male trotting final in 1:59.2 over Wolfpack Cheddar and Legend Of Rock. Owned by Legacy Racing and Nanticoke Racing, the Les Givens-trainee was coming off a track-record performance the week prior in 1:58.1 and was a comfortable front-end winner.

In the $50,000 Allen J Cook, Jr. Memorial, Breakaway Racing and Yorwollahan Racing's Speed Away ($9.80) recorded his third-straight win over Sinatra De Vie and Not For Moni in 1:55.2. The Nick Callahan trainee continued his success over the Harrington half-mile oval with a sustained first-over gain and victory. All six of his wins in 2024 have come at Harrington. The race was named in honor of the long-time racing official and former horseman who was extremely popular among the local racing community.

CALLAHAN TAKES TWIN FEATURES; LITTLE MISS PEYTON WINS DSBF FINAL

Donna Messick's Little Miss Peyton ($2.10, Corey Callahan) was a 1:56.4 winner in the $110,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund (DSBF) stake final for 2-year-old pacing fillies at Harrington Raceway Tuesday (Oct. 8).

The gray daughter of Papa Ray was a wire-to-wire winner over Valentina Station and Tilted Crown for trainer Les Givens. She improved to four-for-six in her young career with a front-end victory where she sprinted away from her rivals with a 28.1 second last quarter.

In the overnight feature, driver Callahan also prevailed as Mike Casalino and Dylan Davis' Majorca N ($6) won her seventh race of the season, all at Harrington, over Incaseyou didnt know and Odds On Hail Mary in the $50,000 Kathleen Cain in 1:52. The Art Major 9-year-old collared pacesetter Odds On Hail Mary on the final turn and held off a late kick from Incaseyou didnt know for her 38th career triumph. The race honored the service of Harrington's long-time receptionist for over 40 years, who at age 96 was in the winner's circle.

Callahan had three wins on the card.

PRIMO MASCHIO REMAINS UNBEATEN, WINS DSBF FINAL

Forrest Bartlett's Primo Maschio ($2.10, Trae Porter) improved to eight-for-eight in his young career with a 1:54.1 win in the $110,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders (DSBF) final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings Monday (Oct. 7) at Harrington Raceway.

The Badlands Hanover gelding went right to the front from post 6 and never looked back in his wire-to-wire triumph over Shore Not Beach and Lew Not Lou. Trained by Kevin Lare, Primo Maschio has banked nearly $110,000 lifetime.

On the undercard, Andrew Glassmeyer's Sweet Angel Boy ($5, Tony Morgan) was a 1:51.4 winner in the $50,000 Bobby Quillen Memorial. Trained by his owner, the 6-year-old Sweet Lou gelding emerged from the pocket a winner over Mack and Ats Hanover. Sweet Angel Boy also won the $50,000 Governor's Cup earlier in the year at Harrington.

Quillen was a popular local legislator who loved harness racing and was on the board of directors at Harrington Raceway and the Delaware State Fair, who passed away in 2004.

Art Stafford, Jr. had four wins on the card. Allan Davis, Montrell Teague and Bart Dalious each had a driving double.

Live racing will continue on a Monday through Wednesday schedule (post time 4:30 p.m.) until Oct. 23.

Virginia SIRE STAKES REPORT

Virginia Breeders 3-Year-Old eliminations conclude at Shenandoah Downs; 2-Year-Olds up next

by Darrell Wood / Shenandoah Downs

Caviart Farms continued to dominate the Virginia Breeders 3-Year-Old Filly Pacing elimination divisions as Caviart Sophie and Caviart Dawn powered to victories Sunday (Oct. 6) at Shenandoah Downs. The pair got their pictures taken after wire-to-wire efforts, but they came in different style.

The former engaged with another of Caviart's sophomore pacers – Caviart Ainsley – in a stretch duel and as they crossed, Caviart Sophie was a neck the best in 1:57.4. Driver Anibal Borjas led the winning effort for trainer Tony Alagna. Her first division win a week ago came in 1:56.1 but she coasted home in that $8,000 elimination nine lengths the best. Caviart Ainsley won her first leg heat by 10 lengths – in 1:57 – so Sunday's close clash was not unexpected. Alagna trains both who will face each other again in the Breeders Fund final on Oct. 27. Anne McDonald's Sweet Pirategirl finished third.

Alagna's Caviart Dawn, a distant second behind stablemate Caviart Sophie a week ago, breezed to a six-length score Sunday over Steve Wetzel's Caviart Rachel in the second elimination. Borjas again directed the winning score in 1:55.1 – the pacer's first win in 18 career starts. The runner-up finisher rebounded from a fourth place finish a week prior.

Lawrence Cooper's Caviart Simon got the best of first leg winner Bgoing Away in the Virginia Breeders 3-Year-Old Colt/Gelding Pace prep on Sunday. The Always B Miki gelding, a Lawrence Cooper trainee who broke in his start a week ago, surged to the front before the half with Archie Burford at the controls, opened up an eight-length cushion at the three-quarter mark and held on to win by three in 1:55.2. Tracy Bradshaw's Bgoing Away took second and John Wagner's Pete's For Real was third.

Nanticoke Racing Inc. and Delbert Cain's Platinum Proposal won her second-straight Breeders 3-Year-Old Filly Trot elimination, shaving nearly two seconds off her first leg clocking. Unlike a week prior where she wired the field, The E L Platinum filly had to play catch up with front steppers Gregory's Princess and Speedy Town in the final quarter but hit the wire a length the best in 2:00.1. Her first-leg victory came in 2:02. Platinum Proposal collected her eighth career win and pushed her impressive bankroll up to $183,915. Marna Shehan's Speedy Town was second and Jane Dunavant's Glide Along was third.

In the other Filly Trot, Howard and Linda Dege's Royal Robin went coast-to-coast to earn her first lifetime win from 13 starts. The daughter of Yankee Royalty had John Wagner in the sulky and improved from a fourth-place finish in her first leg elimination, finishing in 2:02.3. William Reynolds trains Royal Robin, who never had a lead of more than 1½ lengths at any point. Jane Dunavant's Rip Away took the runner-up spot while Arthur Hauser's Ida Muscles finished third.

In the 3-Year-Old Colt/Gelding Pace eliminations, Dein Spriggs and Barbara Murphy's Caviart Grady and Debbie Warnick's Royal Beep Beep each scored wins and advanced to the Oct. 27 final. The former wired the field but battled every step of the way as Kelsey Wagner's Ronnie Ridge stalked outside within a neck the entire trip. Tyler Shehan piloted the winner for trainer Mike Murphy while John Wagner drove the runner-up. Scott Woogen's K J Pro finished third. Betting favorite Gerald's A Keeper, who is eight-for-nine this year including a dominant first leg win, broke stride and finished a distant fourth.

Royal Beep Beep, who broke stride and finished fifth in his first leg elimination, stayed on gait and prevailed by 1½ lengths over Kelsey Wagner and Scott Woogen's K J Dash in 2:00.4. The victor, who collected career win number eight, was driven by Pat Berry for trainer Jason Skinner while the runner-up was led by Fern Paquet, Jr. for trainer John Wagner. Jaypaul Hoover's Meantrottinmachine was third.

The next two weekends in Woodstock feature 2-year-old eliminations which all lead to the $650,000 Virginia Breeders Champions Day card on Oct. 27 when 2-Year-Old, 3-Year-Old and Older finals will be contested. Post time this Saturday and Sunday (Oct. 12, 13) is 1:05 p.m.

Page notches 7,000th career win

Chris Page won four races Sunday night (Oct. 6) at MGM Northfield Park, collecting his 7,000th career win during the process.

Page entered the night with 6,997 wins. He inched closer to the milestone guiding Mcfehr to the win in the opener. He pulled to within one of the mark driving Scares Me to the win in the fourth.

In the following race, Page recorded his 7,000th win in the Buckeye Stallion Series consolation for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters. He drove Papa Nordin to a gate-to-wire victory.

Page's fourth win of the night came with Sweet Rose in the eighth.

The 40-year-old Page of Delaware, OH, started his driving career in 2000. His first career win came the following year with Titanic Fella at the Champaign County Fair in Urbana, OH.

Page has amassed over $74 million in purse earnings during his career.

Tattoo Artist to stand at Winbak Farm of Canada in 2025

Winbak Farm of Canada and the Tattoo Artist Syndicate are proud to announce that O'Brien Award winner, Tattoo Artist, p, 2, 1:52s; 3, 1:48.2s; 1:47.1s ($3,272,258), will be standing in Ontario in 2025.

"Tattoo Artist always gave it his all and he didn't have to be prompted," said Eric Cherry, owner. "He knew what to do and didn't need any special kind of trip because he always knew where the wire was."

Tattoo Artist won 47 per cent of his 96 starts and finished second 20 per cent of the time. He won on every size track – half, five-eighths, seven-eighths, and mile – while setting many track and stakes records.

"He gave us so many thrills, but probably the biggest was the victory over a stellar field in the Canadian Pacing Derby," said Cherry. "He came first over from seventh and paced his back half in :52.1 to get up to win, it still gives me goosebumps."

Tattoo Artist is a son of Breeders Crown winner, Stylish Artist, p, 2, 1:52.4f; 3, 1:51 ($940,022), and his half-sister Shabby Chic, p, 2, 1:55.2h; 3, 1:54.1h ($233,650), was Delaware Filly of the Year. He is also from the same maternal line as Idyllic, p, 2, 1:51s; 3, 1:50f ($1,313,241), and [EW1] Idyllic Beach, p, 2, 1:50.3s ($1,252,272). He is the fastest and richest son of his sire, He's Watching, p, 2, 1:50f; 3, 1:46.4 ($1,116,450).

While racing, he paced his last quarter in :25.4 or faster 10 times. He won O'Brien Awards for 3-Year-Old Pacing Colts and for Older Pacing Horses.

At 2, he won two Ontario Sire Stakes Gold legs and an Ontario Super Final. At 3, Tattoo Artist won five Ontario Sire Stakes Gold legs and a Simcoe Stakes division. He finished second in the North America Cup to Tall Dark Stranger.

Additional victories that highlighted his career include winning the Breeders Crown elimination, Canadian Pacing Derby elimination and final, Dayton Pacing Derby and Joe Gerrity, Jr. Memorial.

"Tattoo Artist is a handsome individual who had many jaw-dropping victories in his career," said Pat Woods, Winbak Farm of Canada manager. "He will be a great option for many Ontario breeders."

Tattoo Artist's first crop will foal in 2025. Tattoo Artist will stand for $7,500 CAD. Please stay tuned to www.winbakfarm.com for more information.

"We look forward to working with Tattoo Artist and hand-selecting some of our best mares to breed to him," said Jack Burke, Winbak Farm general manager.

If breeders have any questions, please feel free to call Winbak Farm of Canada at 905-838-2145 or email canada@winbakfarm.com.

Tactical Landing's service fee set for 2025

The Tactical Landing Syndicate has announced that Tactical Landing's service fee for the 2025 North American breeding season has been set at $25,000.

“Tactical Landing has earned his way to this level by producing an unprecedented two Hambletonian winners and two future prominent North American sires in Tactical Approach and Karl along with European superstar, Fame And Glory, winner of the Swedish equivalent of the Hambletonian at 3 and recent winner of the prestigious Swedish Trotting Derby, in just his first two crops of racing age from a group of mares widely considered below the best available,” said syndicate manager, Kevin Greenfield.

This year, 2024, marked a major upward turning point in Tactical Landing’s stallion career. Not only did he begin to service many of the finest trotting mares in the sport throughout North America, Europe and the Southern Hemisphere, in a recent historic vote by the French governing trotting board, SETF, he also became the only North American based trotting stallion in over 30 years to be accepted into the French stud book, commencing with the 2025 breeding season, which will allow his foals born to qualified French mares in France on frozen semen to be eligible to the lucrative French racing program, one of the finest in the world. With his outstanding fertility, unmatched pedigree, looks and conformation, Tactical Landing’s future standing as a prominent world class trotting sire is now unlimited.

Stockade Seelster being syndicated and to stand in Ohio

Stockade Seelster p, 2, 1:49.3; 3, 1:48.4 $1,279,127 has been retired and will stand in Ohio beginning in 2025. The million-dollar winner was the Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Pacing Colt of the Year in 2022 and holds the distinction of being a back-to-back O’Brien Award winner in Canada, being crowned both 2-Year-Old and 3-Year-Old Pacing Colt of the Year. As a freshman, the colt won eight of 11 starts, winning the Metro Pace and going undefeated in Ontario Sire Stakes action winning the Super Final. Last year as a sophomore, he added wins in the Somebeachsomewhere, multiple Ontario Sire Stake Gold legs, the North America Cup consolation and the Progress Pace elim, as well as runner-up finishes in the Hempt and both the elim and $600,000 final of the Breeders Crown (to Confederate). Trained by Dr. Ian Moore and driven throughout much of his career by Jody Jamieson, his driver had this to say about him. “Stockade Seelster has the deepest set of lungs on a horse that I’ve ever driven,” Jamieson said. “There was just no end to him. He was always willing and able to win!”

Stockade Seelster will be managed by Cornerstone Stock Farm (Jeff Fought) and will stand at Winterwood Farm in Bellville, OH, under the watchful eye of Mark Adams for a fee of $4,000. Being a son of State Treasurer (Real Desire) out of a Big Jim mare, the stallion brings the ideal outcross pedigree to the exploding Ohio breeding program at an opportune time. With regard to bringing the horse to Ohio, Fought stated, “Stockade Seelster represents a tremendous opportunity for the breeders in the expanding Ohio program. Stallion quality in the state is strong, and this horse fits in perfectly with his credentials and pedigree. Ohio is very heavy on quality Somebeachsomewhere-line stallions, and this opens the door for Stockade Seelster to breed the mares from that sire line. Mares by Downbytheseaside, Captaintreacherous, Somebeachsomewhere and so many other lines will fit this horse perfectly.”

Syndication is underway and a limited number of syndicate shares are available, terms are friendly and share purchasers are entitled to two free breedings per share for the first three years Stockade Seelster stands at stud. For details, contact Jeff Fought with Cornerstone Stock Farm at 260-463-1649.

Many records fell in Grand Circuit action at Plainridge

Grand Circuit racing returned to Plainridge Park on Monday (Oct. 7) afternoon and featured the Colonial Oaks Trot and the W.N. Reynolds Memorial Tar Heel for pacing colts and geldings and Leta Long for pacing fillies.

All three stakes records were broken, one of them twice.

The day kicked off with the $53,150 Colonial Oaks for 3-year-old trotting fillies and Elista Hanover (International Moni–Evermore) was the first to make history.

David Miller settled Elista Hanover in fourth off the gate as Sister Mary Maude (Yannick Gingras) was busy leading the fillies to the quarter in :28.2 over the wet/fast track. But Miller had Elista Hanover out and rolling and took control of the race before the half. Positions remained basically unchanged to the three-quarters and around the last turn, but at the top of the stretch it got interesting. Gingras tipped Sister Mary Maude and the filly was making up ground on Elista Hanover with every stride. The two sprinted to the line in close quarters but Elista Hanover was the best by a neck in 1:53.

The time set a new track record for 3-year-old trotting fillies and also a new stakes record for the Colonial Oaks at Plainridge Park.

It was the 12th win of the year for Elista Hanover ($2.20) who is owned by R Curry, Philomena Curry and Annie Stoebe, who also trains the winner.

Elista Hanover was bred by the Hanover Shoe Farms.

Next up were two $49,875 divisions of the W.M. Reynolds Memorial Tar Heel for pacing colts and geldings.

In the first division more records were set, and by two horses as Howlenth hills (American Ideal–Arielle Lynn) and Solid Character (Sweet Lou–Riley Character) finished in a dead-heat for the win.

Solid Character (Gingras) took the first lead but Howlenth hills (Matt Kakaley) brushed up from second to grab the front in a quick :26.4. With Armada Hanover (Matty Athearn) tracking the leaders from third, Howlenth hills got to the half in :55.1 and three-quarters in 1:22.4 unchallenged. After they came off the last turn, Howlenth hills had opened up a two-length advantage and was looking like a winner. But Gingras tipped Solid Character and asked for more and Solid Character delivered, as he flew down the lane and caught Howlenth hills in the shadow of the wire as they both crossed at the same time in 1:50.3.

The time was a new stakes record for the Tar Heel at Plainridge Park.

It was the 13th win of the year for Howlenth hills ($2.10) who is owned by Symmetry Stable and trained by Travis Alexander and also the fifth win of the year for Solid Character ($2.10) who is owned by Burke Racing, Robert Jackson, Timothy Sullivan and Tom Wilson and trained by Ron Burke.

Howlenth hills was bred by Crawford Farms and Solid Character was bred by Winterwood Farm.

In the second split, the pair of records just set by the first group would go down hard as Sweet Beach Life went the mile of his career in an easy victory.

Kakaley wasted no time getting Sweet Beach Life to the front and dominated once he crossed over. After setting fast and unchallenged fractions of :26.3, :54.4 and 1:22.3, Sweet Beach Life swelled up at the top of the lane and bolted home under Kakaley wraps by 5¼ lengths in 1:49.3.

The time was a new lifetime mark for the winner, set a new stakes record for the Tar Heel at Plainridge Park.

It was the sixth win of the year for Sweet Beach Life ($2.20) who is owned by A Sweet Beach Life Stable and trained by Travis Alexander.

Sergeant Stables bred Sweet Beach Life.

The Grand Circuit closer on Monday was the $62,150 W.N. Reynolds Memorial Leta Long for 3-year-old pacing fillies where Ponymamedwildfire (Huntsville–Worldly Treasure) went the mile of her life in stakes-record time.

Bruce Ranger flew off the wings with Ponynamedwildfire and set a quick quarter pace of :26 flat. But that wasn't fast enough for Leanne's Choice (Marcus Miller) who pulled from second to take the lead before the :53.4 half. There was no rest for the leader as So Well Dressed (David Miller) was on the attack and took the lead on the backstretch. But as soon as she cleared, Chiapanecas (Gingras) was at her bridle pressing hard in 1:21.1 and Ponynamedwildfire was right on her back. When the race entered the stretch, the battling front-runners were collectively tiring and Ranger had a fresh horse and tipped Ponynamedwildfire three-deep and paced home the best by 1½ lengths in 1:51.

The clocking was a new lifetime mark for the winner and also set a new stakes record for the Leta Long at Plainridge Park.

It was the sixth win of the year for Ponynamedwildfire ($8.20) who is owned and bred by Steve Jones and trained by Ray Schnittker.

Meadowlands qualifier notes

Live racing returned to The Meadowlands Thursday morning (Oct. 10) with 19 qualifying races, held on a lovely day under clear skies with a considerable homestretch head wind when they began at 9 a.m. that dissipated as the day wore on, and on. Larry Fox was at the mic to call the action.

With the Breeders Crown eliminations scheduled for next weekend, many among those entered were looking for some work to hone their edge for the championship events.

Twin B Joe Fresh has been a grizzly all season and there was no letting up today as she smoked around the oval in 1:52, :26.4 home in Dexter Dunn's grip while facing a considerable head wind. She may deserve, as her thoroughbred grizzly counterpart Thorpedo Anna got in the Travers Stakes, a shot at the boys before year's end. A win in the Breeders Crown Mare Open is fifth in line for invitations to the FanDuel Open final. Chris Ryder has done a remarkable job to hold her form since May. Valar Dohaeris and AVF Claire were valiant in defeat behind the winner.

Maryland has taken three top freshman trotting stakes, the Bill Wellwood and Peter Haughton Memorials then the Mohawk Million, in his last three starts to pick up around $750,000 for his ownership group. This morning, driver Dunn took the opportunity to race the Chapter Seven colt from behind and he rallied up late in hand to be a closing second to another nice Chapter Seven colt in Karinchak (Mark MacDonald/Ray Schnittker) who set all the fractions and held sway easily in 1:55.2.

Maryland's win in the Peter Haughton stakes at Hoosier last month provides him with a bye into the BC final and to draw for his post position with the elimination winners.

She's A Shoe In has collected some impressive hardware as of late, including an upset win in the PASS final for the MacDonald/Schnittker combo and she was given a tightener this morning, following the well-bred Conversano around the oval and finished second to that one. Conversano has shown flashes of brilliance for her connections and the sister to Celebrity Bambino put it together nicely this morning for Scott Zeron and trainer Juan Cano with an impressive 1:56 score, home in :28.3 while never asked. Torrisi also went well this morning, closing nicely through the stretch to just miss second for Nancy Takter and Yannick Gingras.

Five accomplished freshman pacing fillies teed it up in race 5 and the combination of trainer Cano and owner Hot Lead Farm struck right back with their homebred Papi Rob Hanover PA Stallion Series winner Gigglingonthebeach who sat just off the lead then closed inside to get the win in 1:54.1 for Andy McCarthy. KY Golden Rod champ Faze did most of the work for Tim Tetrick, pressed to a :56 middle half by KYSS final winner Miki And Minnie, she fought that one off but just got snapped inside late.

Race 7 had a juicy field of colt pacers with impressive resumes and Bruce Saunders' good Cattlewash colt Manolete wore down mile cutter Papi's Pistol (Andy Miller/Sam DePinto) right at the light to get the 1:52.2 nod for Todd McCarthy. Captain Optimistic had good late pace in a successful prep.

Makes Sense (Andy McCarthy/Robert Cleary) and Sugar Man (Tetrick/Brett Pelling) went right to the wire together with the former getting the slight nod in a contentious eighth race. The pair of Papi Rob's moved on the outside in tandem then squared off, with Makes Sense holding sway narrowly over his rival with both colts driven out in 1:52.3 home in :27.3. Fusion actually had the best foot finishing for Gingras, conservatively raced and sent up the inside in a useful effort.

Oh Well looked great, again, for the Melanders and driver Todd McCarthy. A better looking, better gaited horse you'd struggle to find, while he's certainly got great style and has won major stakes while collecting $1.5 million, the sense is that there's even more there. Relatable. He crushed an overmatched group today in 1:55.

Dave Miller sent T C I (first-time Lasix) out fast for the Burke barn today and kept rolling and he had some of his old snap back, blasting along through even numbers while well in front throughout to win in 1:53.2 home in :28 pretty much on his own. He wasn't in by himself either as Daquiri Hanover and Supernova Hanover, both stakes winners, were left in his wake.

Voukefalas (Jordan Stratton/Mike Russo) sharpened up with a 1:52.4 home in :27.4 largely front running effort and looked like he could use the work having been a month off, should set him up nicely for next week. Seven Colors showed snap that we haven't seen from him this year, rallying up the inside late to narrow in on the winner for Dunn.

Ruthless Hanover put on one of his speed shows, 1:49 off a half in :56 and, as always, he looked great doing it. Strong right through the wire for Andy Miller with a :26.4 end to the mile, he's been a really good horse for a very long time for the Cancelliere boys. Oakwood Ardan IR got a little detached behind slower, then paced right up to "Ruthless" in the stretch with Andy McCarthy keeping him on Miller's helmet right through the wire in a trip sure to braven him up.

Caviart Belle (Gingras/Takter) has not been at her best recently, but she perked right up today upon her return to The Meadowlands, storming first up to take the lead off the last turn then drawing away from a good group of her peers through a 26-second last quarter for the 1:52 score impressively. Stonecoldtreachery, Tarrific and Hunting Hula all acquitted themselves well in the winner's wake.

The glamour boys showed up for race 18 and last year's Breeders Crown winner Gem Quality proved dead game for Gingras to hold his rival, 2-year-old Dan Patch Award winning Little Brown Jug champ Captain Albano off by a nostril in 1:51.3. Both were held off a controlled pace with Gem Quality first up to leader Captain Bazinga and "Albano" tracking that move. They went right to the wire in sub :27, which arrived just in time for "Gem" to hold safe. Captain Bazinga held up well under the circumstances.

Live racing returns next Friday (Oct. 18) with the eliminations for the Breeders Crown stakes.

Please note that post time on that day is 12:30 p.m.

Spottin two Ottens invade MGM Northfield Park for Ohio Super Night

MGM Northfield Park is proud to play host to the Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlett and Gray Championships on Saturday (Oct. 12) and Sunday (Oct. 13), adding to the pomp and circumstance of both nights will be the addition of Jessica and Jenna Otten to the broadcast team. The pair will join Michael Carter and Kenny Livengood to provide analysis into each of the championship races.

Both sisters were featured on Fox Sports last weekend covering the Grand Circuit action at The Red Mile in Lexington. The quartet will provide analysis and pre/post-race interviews throughout the entire 15-race program that will feature several great wagering opportunities for those playing the races.

Jessica joined the MGM Northfield Park team for the Battle of Lake Erie and Carl Milstein Memorial. This will be Jenna's first appearance on the broadcast.

The blockbuster programs on Saturday and Sunday will get underway at 6 p.m. Those attending on track can take advantage of a buffet inspired by MGM Northfield Park executive chef Chris Poplin in the clubhouse from 6 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. The cost of the buffet is $27.95, for reservations, contact 330-467-4101.

Ohio Scarlet and Gray Championship detention reminder

The race office at MGM Northfield Park would like to remind horsemen racing in the Ohio Scarlet and Gray Championships this weekend of detention guidelines that will be enforced.

Horses competing in both the Scarlet and Gray Championships are required to be in the detention area no later than six-hours out from post time of their scheduled race.

Detention guidelines can be found on the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association website by clicking here. Hay bales that are brought into detention must be unopened.

Horsemen who have questions regarding detention guidelines should direct their questions to Michael Carter at 601-543-6213.

Track records obliterated in Summerside

Tobins Chester cracked the track record for sophomore pacing colts during an all-stakes Sunday afternoon (Oct. 6) program at Red Shores at the Summerside Raceway.

Jason Hughes was in the bike for trainer Ashley Gamester and owner Donald MacRae as the 3-year-old son of Shanghai Phil went all the way in 1:53.3 in a $24,300 Joe O'Brien Memorial Gold division. The mile broke the former 3-year-old pacing colt record of 1:53.4 set by Complete Player in 2017.

Merigo Magic was victorious in the other $24,300 Gold division in 1:56 for trainer/driver Adam Merner and owners Mike May, Herman McQuaid, Derrick Cameron and Ian Walker.

The $12,150 Grassroots divisions of the Joe O'Brien Memorial for sophomore pacing colts were won by Justa Country Boy (Darren Crowe) in 1:58.2 for trainer Gardener McCallum and Woodmere Armour (Marc Campbell) in 1:56.4 from the Kevin MacLean barn.

Merner had four driving winners on the day as his trainee Oceanview Rumours scored a 13-length romp in 1:59.2 for a new 2-year-old trotting filly track record and new Atlantic record in her $18,150 Lady Slipper division. Supreme Rockette had the former standard of 2:01.3. It was the sixth-straight win for Oceanview Rumours for owners Scott Roloson, Bill Roloson and Joey Aylward.

Campbell also had four driving wins Sunday with one coming on Bless Me Father in a $18,150 Lady Slipper 2-year-old trotting colt division in a new track record of 1:59.4 for owner Donna Van Meer and trainer Landon Campbell. The trip erased the former track record of 2:01 held by West River Jet.

Dusty Lane Wee went all the way in her $17,300 Lady Slipper trot division for 3-year-old fillies. M. Campbell had the catch driving call for trainer Lenny Myers and owners Garry MacDonald and Ronnie Gass. Time for the mile was 2:00.4.

Rocket Blast (Corey MacPherson) captured the Lady Slipper stake for 3-year-old trotting colts in 2:01.1 for owner/trainer Carl Bagnall in the $17,300 event.

The first $20,200 Lady Slipper Gold division for 3-year-old pacing fillies saw Woodmere Delta (David Dowling) win in 1:56 for trainer Jeff Holmes and owners Robert Sumarah, Frank Brundle and Brad Sumarah.

Miss Dutton (Merner) was the best in her $20,200 Lady Slipper Gold division with a 1:57.2 clocking for trainer Kuri White and owner Shoulda Been Onabeach Stb of Charlottetown.

Wednesday was back from Ontario and romped by seven-lengths in the final $20,200 Lady Slipper Gold division for 3-year-old pacing fillies with Myles Heffernan, Sr., aboard for trainer Myles Heffernan, Jr., and owner Jackie Heffernan.

The $10,100 Lady Slipper Grassroots divisions for 3-year-old pacing fillies went to Woodmere Kennedie (M. Campbell) in 1:56 for trainer Mike McGuigan, Woodmere Lizzie (Merner) in 1:59.2 for trainer David O'Brien and Showdown (Gilles Barrieau) in 1:57.1 for trainer Earl Watts.

Nicholas Oakes for Red Shores

“The addition of this new entertainment option has encouraged visitors to linger longer and enjoy the many tourism assets that we have to offer in our region. We are so pleased to have been chosen as the home of beautiful Cumberland Run. Last year’s inaugural event included a carnival for the kids, and we are excited this year will include two full days of carnival to kick off this year’s racing season. We hope to see everyone there!”

Admission and parking are free for live racing and the carnival. While The Mint, Cumberland Run’s indoor gaming facility, is restricted to those at least 21 years old, the outdoor area overlooking the racetrack is open to all ages.

Family fun starts Saturday at Cumberland Run, while live racing kicks off Sunday

Cumberland Run is gearing up for its second standardbred meet in southeastern Kentucky, with live horse racing held Sundays, Mondays and Tuesdays through Nov. 5. The 12-day meet starts this Sunday (Oct. 13), with the first race scheduled to go off at 1 p.m. Eastern each day.

New this year is the expansion of last year’s opening-day carnival to include this Saturday as a pre-racing celebration. Cumberland Run’s free family-friendly carnival this weekend will feature rides, fair games and food trucks. The festivities, positioned through the track’s homestretch, start at 11 a.m. both days.

Corbin Mayor Suzie Razmus is among those happily awaiting both the racing and the carnival.

“Corbin is gearing up to host a new season of racing at Cumberland Run and we are quickly learning the sport of harness racing and the ever-colorful [drivers] and horses,” Razmus said in an email.
