Dexter Dunn is positioned to break Breeders Crown single-season wins record

The driver has a shot to break David Miller's record of five Crown victories in a single year.

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

The record for number of Breeders Crown wins in a single year is five, held by David Miller from the 2015 event at Woodbine Racetrack. If things hold relatively close to form, that number should be surpassed by Dexter Dunn two weeks from now.

Miller's record of five wins has been elusive for those who've come close to matching it in recent years, which includes many times where the far more common number of four wins has been achieved. Dunn himself has notched four Breeders Crown wins twice in two of the last four years, reaching that number in 2022 and in 2020. Andrew McCarthy and Yannick Gingras also have won four times since Miller established the top benchmark.

In this year's Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands where divisions with necessary eliminations will start at the end of this week, the ceiling seems high for the number of possible wins that Dunn could theoretically reach. Let's break it down by categories of most to lesser likely wins.

LOCKS

Open Mare Trot, Open Mare Pace

Twin B Joe Fresh and Jiggy Jog S have been well documented all year long as the sports top two rated horses and were half of a four-horse sweep from Dunn on a Grand Circuit night at Dayton a few weeks ago. With both horses figuring to offer odds of no better than 10 cents on the dollar, these two are about as close to gimme's as possible.

NOT LOCKS BUT CLEAR FAVORITES

2-Year-Old Colt Trot and 3-Year-Old Filly Pace

Maryland has really asserted himself at the top of the division over the last month and a half by consecutively storming through the Wellwood, Peter Haughton and then the Mohawk Million, that most recent of which came in a career best 1:52.3. He prepped for the Breeders Crown with a qualifier Thursday at The Meadowlands when he closed, as Dunn asked, to be second to a horse named Karinchak; a horse who was coming off a loss in a non-winner of 2 at Pocono and could be one to bet depending on where he goes next. My Girl EJ won the Breeders Crown last year for Dunn at 2 when upsetting Geocentric and has been one of the top fillies in the division all year. She most recently won the Glen Garnsey at Lexington in a career best of 1:48.1 over another top filly, Direction. There could be other threats that include Its A Love Thing and Rocket Deo, the latter of which upset her two races ago, but Dunn and My Girl EJ are going to head into their Crown event as the ones to beat.

LIKELY FAVORITES

Open Trot and 3-Year-Old Colt Pace

It looks like Dunn is going to head into the Breeders Crown with his choice in the Open Trot of either Winner's Bet or Logan Park, and his biggest threat could be whichever of the two he ends up not driving. Winner's Bet has been the more decorated horse throughout the season and Dunn has teamed up with him with a bunch of solid stakes wins and prepped most recently by opting to race in a plain open handicap race at The Red Mile in which he coasted. Logan Park though has come on extremely strong of late, especially in his last two which of no coincidence has come on the driver change to Dunn. Last Sunday he came from last to pass Periculum and won in a career best time of 1:49.2. I'm guessing Dunn would still opt for Winner's Bet but we'll see how things continue to shake out. In the 3-Year-Old Colt Pace, Dunn retained the drive on Mirage Hanover after driving him for the first time on Jug Day, and the result was a 1:46.3 win in his division of the Tattersalls Pace which was two full seconds quicker than the other division. This horse has been fast his entire career since the earliest days of his 2-year-old season and may be the "now" horse in a division that's seen horses go through their ups and downs.

Dunn will have options on different horses throughout these divisions so much of this is just speculation until entries come out, but here's some possibilities. In the 3-Year-Old Colt Trot which seems as wide open as it's been all year, I hope that Melander gives Vic Zelenskyy a chance in the Breeders Crown, who is eligible. I raved about him in last week's column, and he didn't disappoint with Dunn on Futurity Day, I think he'd be a real threat against the best if given the chance. Dunn may also have options in the division with Tony Adams S and Amazing Catch, though the road to win will still have to go through some variation of Karl, Highland Kismet or Sig Sauer.

In the 3-Year-Old Filly Trot Dunn should have a live drive with Date Night Hanover. She was the beaten favorite in the Filly Futurity last week and never really made inroads from post 10, though in fairness it wasn't going to matter anyway as winner R Melina went one of the miles of the year in her win. Barring a supplement, the Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Filly Pace will go without Chantilly who isn't nominated. But at the same time, neither is Papi Grad, who Dunn drove most recently in her last two. Maybe Dunn's best chance at this point goes with Miki And Minnie? Her recent qualifier at The Meadowlands was just fair, but all prior races have been excellent; owns a 1:49.4 mark having never finished worse than second in eight starts. In the 2-Year-Old Filly Trot, maybe Champagne Problems should be rated even in Dunn's win probability than I'm giving her credit for; I just don't have as solid a handle on this division as others. Regardless, the NJSS champion cruised most recently in her International Stallion Stakes division and will be out to make amends from her fourth-place finish in the Peaceful Way where she may have gone a little too quick early. Dunn also has Abuckabett Hanover in the Open Pace. The Dayton Derby champ from two back was beaten last out by the return and resurgence of a familiar foe in Bythemissal, but Dunn absolutely rates as good a chance as any with his drive in this division too.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE

Dunn would have rated a fighting chance for a win in this division with American Son, but he isn't Breeders Crown eligible. I'd imagine with availability, Dunn would pick up a possibly live drive by the final, though he didn't have a drive in this division in the Metro Pace either.

With the top contenders throughout most divisions, including a couple that should be cinches, the record number of five wins seems like it would be Dunn's floor. If other horses perform to expectations and with a little bit of luck thrown in, it's not impossible that Dunn could make a number close to double the current record.

Black Gold (Braxten Boyd) winning the Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final for sophomore trotting colts on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park.

Indiana Champions Night produces memorable moments

by James Platz

Hoosier Champions Night at Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino always manages to produce interesting storylines, and Friday night (Oct. 11) was no exception. Eight $250,000 Indiana Sires Stakes Super Finals were contested on the 15-race card, along with a quartet of finals for older trotters and pacers. The night produced several memorable moments for those that follow the Indiana program and know the players.

When this writer was first introduced to harness racing in the Hoosier State, Jay Cross was perennially one of the top drivers at Hoosier Park, and a formidable conditioner. That was more than two decades ago. Cross, now 69 years young, and his wife, Pam, continue to operate a small stable that competes on the Indiana Fair Circuit and at the Anderson oval. In the twilight of his racing career, the veteran horseman showed Friday that he still has the skills and savvy to get not one, but two horses to the winner's circle on the program's biggest night.

Dean Gillette

Gruesome Twosome (Daryl Bontrager) winning the 3-year-old Colt Trot Super Final in 1:54.3.

“It’s special because of my age,” said the Indiana Hall of Famer. “You don’t have many of those nights anymore. You don’t get those opportunities anymore. You know those are special nights and you know what it means.”

He struck first in the night’s seventh race, a $70,000 contest for older pacing mares. Jay steered Walkin On Sunshine, a 4-year-old mare he also trains, to a :55 half and maintained a half-length advantage at the wire in a time of 1:50.2. The victory was the eighth seasonal win in 19 starts for the Always A Virgin—Hatsoff Hanover mare, bred by Victory Hill Farm Inc. and owned by Maynard Miller, Daniel Lehman and Michael Yoder. Sent off as the 4-5 favorite, Walkin On Sunshine surpassed $300,000 in career earnings with the victory.

“I thanked the guys again for the opportunity,” the veteran conditioner and catch driver said. “They could have sold her for a lot of money. They could have given her to somebody else. But they stuck with us.”

Jay wasn’t finished. He would secure another triumph in the night’s 12th race, this time with slight second choice Chandler Bing. Trainer Alvin Miller and Jay have teamed for many wins in the Hoosier State over the years. The last time they joined forces to capture an Indiana Sires Stakes final came in 2007 with then-sophomore Rocket Fuel. Racing at Indiana Downs, the Dontgetinmyway gelding scored a 1:52 victory, winning by a length and a quarter as the co-second choice.

“ [Winning on Hoosier Champions Night is] special because of my age. You don’t have many of those nights anymore. You don’t get those opportunities anymore. You know those are special nights and you know what it means.”

~ Jay Cross

Friday night, Jay and the Miller-trained Chandler Bing powered home in :26.4 to win by 2½ lengths to capture the $250,000 finale for freshman pacing colts, stopping the clock in 1:51.2. Bred by Glen Yoder, the son of Tellitlikeitis—Northern Beauty is owned by Miller and Twila Harts, who also owned Rocket Fuel with her husband, Phil. A $29,000 yearling purchase, Chandler Bing has earned over $215,000 this season by virtue of five wins from nine outings, including four-straight.

“I thanked Alvin for giving me the opportunity,” Jay said. “That means a lot. I started the season with the colt and he stayed with me.”

On the same night that Rocket Fuel scored the first of multiple Indiana Sires Stakes finals wins, a young Mike Peterson steered freshman pacing colt Robin I Scoot to victory at Indiana Downs for trainer Dan Perdue. That night he triggered a slight upset with the second choice, defeating favored Freddyscooter. Seventeen years later he reached the winner’s circle again, this time with 34-1 longshot trotting filly Martz Seven.

“I’ve won a few of those races, but they were going for $100,000 then,” Peterson said. “I just try to make the most of every opportunity. I liked her right from the get-go. She was a longshot on the board, but early I thought she was one of the best fillies in the division. She had a couple issues over the summer and she made some breaks. She was better in her last start and she was good tonight.”

Racing near the back of the field through the early fractions, Peterson used Hoosier Park’s long stretch to his advantage. Kicking home in :27.3, the Swan For All—La Mirada freshman picked off her opponents one by one on the way to a three-quarter length victory in the $250,000 final in a time of 1:55.2, a new lifetime mark. She returned a hearty $69.60, $35.20, and $18.60 across the board to her backers. Walter Haynes, Jr. trains the filly for owner Stephen Stoll and Black And White Stable.

The first foal from Chapter Seven mare La Mirada was bred by Martz Creek Farm and Roman Stoll. The $9,500 Hoosier Classic purchase has now banked more than $210,000 with Peterson as the primary driver.

“I think it’s great, small stables, not big-time owners,” the driver said of winning for the connections. “Small guys in the game, I think it’s great for guys like that. I’m just lucky to get hooked up with them.”

In 2017, Michigan horseman Brett Boyd shipped to Running Aces and needed a driver. He found James Yoder. From there the relationship grew, producing an Indiana Sires Stakes victory as Yoder trained and piloted Boyd’s Katkin American in 2020. Friday night the roles were reversed. Yoder, now an accomplished trainer in his own right, called upon Boyd’s son, Braxten, to drive sophomore trotter Black Gold. Together, they capitalized on the break by heavy favorite Danger and triggered the biggest upset of the night. The 129-1 longshot crossed the wire first to claim the $250,000 final for 3-year-old trotting fillies.

“I can’t really describe it,” Yoder said of the relationship he and his wife, Cheyenne, share with the Boyd family. “It’s great to be surrounded by family and friends like that. They’re closer family than they are friends. They’ve been a big part of our program. We wouldn’t be where we are today without them.”

Bred by Ernie Lambricht and purchased as a yearling by Yoder’s in-laws, Stephan and Elizabeth Ray, for $15,000, the Dover Dan—Hp Guccio Girl lass had won only two starts this season. Starting from the trailing position in post 10, Braxten was able to pick up “ I’ve won a few [Hoosier Champions] races, but they were going for $100,000 then. I just try to make the most of every opportunity. I liked [Martz Seven] right from the get-go. She was a longshot on the board, but early I thought she was one of the best fillies in the division. She had a couple issues over the summer and she made some breaks. She was better in her last start and she was good tonight. ” cover in the outer flow as the field raced into the final turn. In the stretch, Black Gold closed fastest of them all, trotting home in :27.4 to win by 1¼ lengths, timed in 1:54.3. She lit up the tote board, paying $260.20, $57.80, and $88.60. Black Gold doubled her career earnings, which now stand at $250,000, with the win.

Other Final winners on the night were:

- Gruesome Twosome (Daryl Bontrager) winning the 3-year-old Colt Trot in 1:54.3.
- Can’ttouchthese (John DeLong) winning the freshman pacing fillies’ event in 1:51.1.
- Eugene The Genius (Mike Oosting) taking the 2-year-old Trotting Colts’ final in 1:54.1.
- Jada Caroline (Tim Tetrick) upset Lets Go Endofaera to win the sophomore pacing fillies’ final in 1:50.1.
- Noblesville (Dale Yeah) taking the sophomore pacing colts’ final in 1:50.
- Flagman (Rick Plano) winning the older male trot in 1:52.1.
- M-M’s Dream (Henry Graber, Jr.) winning the older trotting mares’ test in 1:54.2.
- Little Rocket Man (David Miller) taking the older male pace in 1:49.1.

Sylvia Hanover is trending up at the right time for the Breeders Crown

by Melissa Keith

The 4-year-old season is challenging for many top 3-year-olds coming back to the track. The 2024 season of Canada's 2023 Somebeachsomewhere Horse of the Year illustrates the point: Sylvia Hanover (p, 4, 1:47.3m; $1,748,495) has managed two wins from 10 starts this year, and neither was at her home track Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Going into the Sept. 14 Milton Stake final at Mohawk, Sylvia Hanover was looking to bounce back from back-to-back losses in the Mohawk filly and mare preferred.

winner's circle.

Her only win as a 4-year-old had been on July 21 at Plainridge Racecourse, when she captured the $100,000 Clara Barton Pace over a field that did not include divisional leader Twin B Joe Fresh. The 1:48.2f Clara Barton victory was also Sylvia Hanover's first pari-mutuel start with a driver other than Bob McClure. Tim Tetrick was in the sulky behind the 2022-23 Dan Patch and O'Brien 2- and 3-year-old pacing filly of the year for one more start, before McClure returned.

Shawn Steacy spoke with HRU Friday (Oct. 11) about Sylvia Hanover's current campaign.

"There's a lot of great horses racing right now, but the two best are Twin B Joe Fresh and Sylvia," said the trainer, who was on his way to Mohawk late that afternoon.

He said he was impressed by Sylvia Hanover's second 2024 victory, a 1:47.3 divisional track record mile in the Sunday (Oct. 8) Allerage Farms Mare Pace at The Red Mile. It was also a new lifetime mark and the co-fastest win of the year by a pacing mare in North America.

"It was kind of unexpected, but the mare deserved it," Steacy said. "I didn't know if there was that much life in the track, but over the last two days, it got faster, and I know she has the lungs, the heart, and the ability to carry her speed."

Winning at the Lexington, KY landmark added to his happiness about Sylvia Hanover's dominant win. "The Red Mile is a really “ [Sylvia Hanover] had a little bit of a slump around Hambletonian time. She was a little tired, a little sick, and she’s bounced back. She started rounding back into form around Milton time [Sept. 14]. We’re continuing to work on her blood and keeping her happy.”

special place to race for me and my family; it’s the cream of the crop just to race there,” said the Millgrove, ON-based horseman. When racing in the U.S., the mare is trained by his father, Mark Steacy.

While a two-win year may look disappointing on the program page, Shawn said there was more happening behind the scenes with “Sylvia.”

“She had a little bit of a slump around Hambletonian time,” he told HRU. “She was a little tired, a little sick, and she’s bounced back. She started rounding back into form around Milton time [Sept. 14]. We’re continuing to work on her blood and keeping her happy.”

Sylvia Hanover looked playful on track before the Milton final, as Shawn warmed her up. Her caretaker, Natasha Steacy, kept the tall mare relaxed in the paddock before the race, massaging her neck and never leaving her side.

Sylvia Hanover showed signs of a clear turnaround in the Milton, leaving aggressively and coming on again late in a place finish behind leading 2024 Horse of the Year contender Twin B Joe Fresh. Sept. 28 in the Dayton Distaff Pacing Derby at Dayton Raceway in Dayton, OH, Sylvia couldn’t reel in a breakaway Twin B Joe Fresh, but finished a strong second in the winner’s 1:48.3 track record mile.

Coming back strong after what Shawn called “that short bout of sickness” this summer, the defending Breeders Crown champion has her sights set on the 2024 Open Mare Pace at The Meadowlands on Oct. 26.

“She’s in New Jersey right now, prepping for the Breeders Crown,” said her trainer. “We’re just waiting to see if there

“If [Sylvia Hanover] comes back at 5, I think she will come back better and stronger. The 5-year-old year is usually easier than 4-year-old. Having said that, she and Twin B Joe Fresh graduated together, but I’d like to see it.”

~ Bob McClure

will be eliminations [Oct. 19]. It wouldn’t shock me if there aren’t any, with Sylvia and Twin B Joe Fresh.”

Shawn said that despite fewer wins than last year, Sylvia Hanover had stepped up well during her 4-year-old campaign.

“She’s been really good all year,” he said. “She’s been super. There’s probably no horse out there that’s come home in as many :26 last quarters... Sometimes you can be out of a race, just on statistics... if you need to make up five lengths and have to pace home in 24 seconds.”

Sylvia Hanover has a reputation for mind games on the track.

“That’s her one thing that makes her a little different,” Shawn said. “She can conserve herself to a point of fault.”

He noted how the mare’s regular driver McClure is able to get the best from her when she understands she’s being “completely asked” to unleash her speed.

McClure himself confirmed Shawn’s view.

“She was excellent [in the Allerge],” observed the winning reinsman. “I’d say she probably had more, but she doesn’t do more than she has to. She loves The Red Mile. Her start last year [Sept. 30 in the Bluegrass] was bionic. She only went :48.1 but she felt like she was going :51,” defeating Twin B Joe Fresh in that 3-year-old filly stake victory.

The driver’s respect for Sylvia Hanover has only grown this year.

“She’s gone some brutal trips, but on that day [Oct. 8 at Red Mile], it would’ve been interesting to see what she could have gone,” McClure said. “She was awesome to start the year, and then she hit a skid. I don’t know if there was some sickness or soreness, but she wasn’t herself for a few starts, and obviously the way Twin B Joe Fresh has come back, she’s lights out this year.”

Sylvia Hanover's mental game remains perhaps her biggest barrier.

As Shawn said, "That's her handicap," particularly at age 4, when positioning throughout the race becomes more essential. "As a 3-year-old, maybe a couple of others" could keep up with Sylvia Hanover's raw speed, he noted. Among the older mares, there are others who can match strides with the long-legged daughter of Always B Miki—Shyaway, making trip more important.

McClure echoed the trainer's remarks.

"She's at times hard to get motivated in the middle half, but down the stretch she has no issues," he said. "From the three-quarter pole in, she takes care of the rest. She is relentless late."

Sylvia Hanover's connections were anticipating the 2024 Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands, but also looking ahead to a potential 5-year-old campaign.

Shawn told HRU, "There's no decision made on that yet. We're just taking it race by race."

Sylvia Hanover's owners, Hudson Standardbred Stb Inc. of Hudson, QC, have not come to a decision on whether to race or breed the champion mare next year.

Taking on male pacers will not figure in Sylvia Hanover's 2024 campaign. (It had been suggested elsewhere as a way for Twin B Joe Fresh to seal the deal on the 2024 Horse of the Year title).

"We've never talked about it," Shawn said. "We don't need to if we're going to race another campaign." The fact that the year's top pacer is already her distaff divisional rival makes the idea of facing stallions and geldings especially pointless.

McClure said that he expects continued upward progression from Sylvia Hanover, one of the horses who has defined his career.

"If she comes back at 5, I think she will come back better and stronger," McClure said. "The 5-year-old year is usually easier than 4-year-old. Having said that, she and Twin B Joe Fresh graduated together, but I'd like to see it."

Absence of Leap To Fame clears way for Swayzee in Victoria Cup

Aussie megastar Just Believe victorious in Bill Collins Trotters' Sprint.

by Adam Hamilton

The biggest story of Australia's best race meeting this year came the day before it.

Drama rocked Victoria Cup Night when champion pacer Leap To Fame was struck down with a virus on the eve of the $300,000 feature race, which forced his scratching.

Leap To Fame was the $1.20 favorite (for a $1 bet) to win the race and become just the second pacer to win Australia's Grand Slam of the Victoria Cup, Inter Dominion, Miracle Mile and Hunter Cup. Former megastar Preux Chevalier won the four in 1984 and '85.

Leviathan owner Kevin Seymour said he was "devastated" at missing the Victoria Cup, especially after Leap To Fame was beaten into third place in a thrilling finish as a hot favorite last year.

"We want him to go down as one of the all-time greats and this race [Victoria Cup] is one the great horses have won," he said. "We can only hope we get another chance at it next year, now."

Although the virus was only minor, Seymour didn't hesitate to scratch after talking to trainer/driver Grant Dixon.

"No, he's just too valuable to take any risk at all with and he's still quite young," Seymour said. "We've always done what's right for the horse and will continue to do so."

Dixon was more philosophical.

“Look, it’s very disappointing, especially after we’d brought him down by road [20-hour drive from Brisbane], but we’ve also got to remember we’ve been lucky with injury and his health so far and through so many big races,” Dixon said.

The setback looks set to have even bigger ramifications beyond the Victoria Cup.

Seymour conceded it was now “unlikely” Leap To Fame would travel to New Zealand for the iconic $1 million NZ Cup at Addington in Christchurch next month.

“It’s not looking good,” he said. “It’s not a flat no, yet, but he’s not only missed the Victoria Cup but also a race we thought was crucial to his preparation for a grueling 3200-meter race like the NZ Cup. We’ll make the decision in the next week or so, but at this stage I’d say I am leaning strongly against it.

“He would have to recover really quickly and for us to have a good lead-up race or two as options. Even then, you wonder if he’s had the sort of preparation he needs. If he doesn’t go, he could stay home and prepare for his Inter Dominion defense.”

With Leap To Fame out, his older half-brother Swayzee became Victoria Cup favorite and didn’t let the family down.

Swayzee beat Leap To Fame in their first clash last year, but Leap To Fame had won all three stoushes since.

That said, Swayzee was sublime last night.

It was a powerhouse staying performance which rekindled memories of the Jason Grimson-trained star’s epic NZ Cup win last November.

Despite drawing the back row, working around the field in a quick lead time and then “warring” with leader and main danger Mach Dan to get the front, Swayzee just kept going.

“He’s amazing when he just gets out and rolling like that,” driver Cam Hart said. “He’s a beast.

“I knew he’d done plenty of work, but he’s done that before and kept going. On the home bend he still felt strong.”

Swayzee easily held-off stablemate Curly James to win by four meters in a sizzling 1:51.8 mile rate for 2240 meters, just 0.4 seconds outside the track record.

But Grimson doesn’t regret scrapping plans to take Swayzee back to Christchurch to defend his NZ Cup title.

“No, the trip and the race took a lot out of him,” he said. “We’ve got the [Carnival of] Cups at home [in New South Wales] and then the Inter Dominion for him.”

Swayzee won the first of five legs of the NSW Carnival of Cups at Parkes two weeks ago. If he wins all five legs, he lands a $1 million bonus.

One Aussie megastar who will be returning to NZ next month is champion trotter Just Believe.

The remarkable rising 9-year-old posted the ninth Group 1 win of his career when he scored narrowly but impressively in last night’s $75,000 Bill Collins Trotters’ Sprint (1720 meters) at Melton.

Stuart McCormick

“I had a few moments of concern when Ollivici [the leader] gave a good kick on the home bend, but I knew Just Believe would keep finding, he always does,” driver Greg Sugars said. “It was a big effort to win, especially with five weeks between [races].

“That break was deliberate because we’ve got lots of big races and travel coming up for him over the next four months or so and we’re mindful he’s not getting any younger. We’re just trying to pick and choose things a little more. In saying that,

Jess [Tubbs, trainer] and I think he’s as good or maybe even better at home than we’ve ever had him.”

The next major target is the $400,000 Group 1 Dominion Trot at Addington on Nov. 12.

Sugars and Tubbs enjoyed a stellar night with their classy former New Zealand mare Rakero Rebel also winning the $150,000 Group 1 Queen of the Pacific, one of Australia’s biggest mares-only features.

Joining Just Believe on a trip from Victoria to Christchurch next month will be the immensely exciting Keayang Zahara, the trotter many think is Just Believe’s heir apparent.

The Marg Lee-trained 3-year-old made it nine wins from as many starts and her fourth at Group 1 level when she blasted clear to win last night’s $75,000 Group 1 Victoria Trotters’ Oaks by 18 meters without being extended by driver Jason Lee.

Keayang Zahara’s NZ target is the inaugural $500,000 The Ascent, a slot race for 3-year-old trotters, at Addington on Nov. 15.

Another highlight of the night was champion trainer Emma Stewart’s stunning dominance in the $200,000 Group 1 Victoria Derby.

Stewart and co-trainer Clayton Tonkin qualified seven of the 12 finalists and snared the first four placings, with American Ideal colt Best Deal snatching victory by a head.

Best Deal had to blaze his own last quarter in :25.6 to chase down leader and stablemate Some American by a nose with Miki To Success third and Bay Of Biscay fourth.

It was the fourth Victoria Derby win for Stewart and Tonkin, following Petracca (last year), Act Now (2021) and Our Little General (2017).

Stewart also played a huge role in the $150,000 Group 1 Victoria Oaks final, playing host to star Kiwi filly and winner Coastal Babe, while training the second [Kiss], third [Showsomejoy], fourth [Vague Beauty] and fifth [Eureka Jo] herself.

Coastal Babe, brilliantly rated in front by James Herbertson, and runner-up Kiss are raced by the huge Summit Bloodstock syndicate, who were very active at the recent Lexington sales.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

A call to a stranger put Steve Head on the path to ownership

by Murray Brown

It was shortly before the Lexington Grand Circuit meeting and the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale and in the week following when I spoke with Steve Head, a prominent owner in the Tony Alagna stable.

“There is so much to learn and so much to gain by participating in this great pursuit known as harness racing,” said Head. “I think that maybe the best part of it is the exposure to all the great people in the sport and, of course, the wonderful horses that make the game so gratifying.

“I suppose I’ve dabbled in it most of my adult life. I was first introduced to the game when my dad took me to the races at nearby Rosecroft Raceway as a child. I became friends with driver/trainer Jimmy Morand – a relationship that still exists today. I gradually became more involved. I then had horses with Les Givens, Eddie Hart and John Berger dabbling with some New York Sires Stakes performers. It was when I called my now dear friend Myron Bell that I first became involved with Grand Circuit horses.”

You just called Myron out of the blue?

“I did. A few days after the Harrisburg sale concluded and I wasn’t able to come home with any of Captain’s first crop. I hadn’t met him before but read about him and his deep knowledge of pedigrees and his race management skills. I really had no idea how deep that initial call would lead me into my participation in the sport. I found Myron to be quite welcoming and we talked and talked. He indicated that if I wanted to come into one or more of his groups, I would be very welcome. Since then, there is rarely a conversation I have with Myron where I haven’t learned something.”

From that first phone call you became a part owner of a group of horses that now numbers in the area of 20.

“Yes. Myron introduced me to Tony Alagna with who I have most of my horses. Captaintreacherous was just getting started then and many of my equine investments were in foals by ‘The Captain.’ We had some very good horses including Rockyroad Hanover, Boudoir Hanover and Bellissima Hanover. We also went back-to-back in the Governor’s Cup with El Rey and Captain Luke. Those investments led to me also to becoming involved in the breeding end of the sport. I was not only racing these great animals, but also involved in breeding and raising them at Hunterton Farms with Steve and Cindy Stewart. I also have a small interest in the stallions Bettor’s Wish and Perfect Sting. Not only have I been involved in some good horses, but I have met some of the best owners in the business and I would be remiss if I hadn’t mentioned them as they have been just as important in our success. Mr. Segal [Brittany Farms], Robert LeBlanc, Brad Grant, Robbie Pryde, Caviart Farms, John Fodera, Daniel Plouffe and obviously Myron and Stephanie Bell. Of course, I can’t say enough about how much I have learned from Tony Alagna and how great he has been to own horses with. Ms. Donna, his mom, is the best and I see where Tony got his work ethic from.”

What is your “day job” that allows you to own horses?

“I grew up wanting to become a professional baseball player dreaming of playing in the Major Leagues and I took it as far as I wanted to go. My dad started a business which specialized in moving military families wherever in the globe their duties might take them. The business has grown and expanded to providing a comprehensive list of services in the commercial real estate industry as well. This includes the military, many other governmental agencies, and private sector. I’m mostly involved in the sales end and business development.”

Last year you switched from placing your eggs in the Captaintreacherous basket to that of Tall Dark Stranger.

“Yes, we did. In retrospect, it perhaps was not the best idea. Not so much the investing in Tall Dark Stranger part, but rather the part where we strayed from Captaintreacherous. After all, we had had nothing but success with him and his offspring. I suppose we rationalized doing so by buying Tall Dark Strangers out of the best mares by Captaintreacherous. We were still in the Captaintreacherous camp, but a generation removed.

“With regard to Tall Dark Stranger, I think the view in the industry is that he has been a huge disappointment. We saw that in the results from the Lexington Sale. I don’t really believe that to be so. Has he been disappointing? I don’t know if I am ready to say that yet. But the expectations were so high that I doubt that any sire other than a super stallion such as Captaintreacherous or Sweet Lou could have met them. When you look at Tall Dark Stranger’s numbers, if he were just an ordinary stallion making his debut, those numbers would have been quite satisfactory. They showed up. They were competitive in stakes races and we sent two who made the Metro final. People go to the select yearling sales expecting superstars. That is especially so when they spend the large amounts of money that we, as well as most of those who bought them did. Nevertheless, he has sired a bunch of very competitive youngsters, who to my eyes keep on improving. I’m far from ready to say that I’m leaving his camp. In fact, I purchased a very nice colt the first night in Lexington by him.”

 WHERE CHAMPIONS ARE MADE

How is your horse portfolio structured now?

"I presently have about 16 in training of which a few are scheduled to be sold in the mixed sale at Harrisburg. We will be carrying over a few of our 2-year-olds to race at 3. I'm involved in five of the yearlings that were bought in Lexington. I'm guessing that we will probably get a few in Harrisburg. I'll probably meet Tony in Hanover in the next week or two where we will look at this year's consignment."

When shopping, do you have a game plan?

"We actually begin our shopping in June, when Myron, Tony, and anybody else in the stable who is interested in doing so, goes to Kentucky and first gets a look at the forthcoming yearling class. After that Tony periodically visits the farms to keep up with the yearlings with which he has an interest. Then on the week of the sale we once again visit the farms and make our final decisions on which yearlings we are most interested in and how far we are willing to go to acquire them. As with most buyers I guess, we often go beyond our limits. I suppose that is the nature of auctions of any type."

Lexington is now over. How many did you end up buying there?

"I ended up buying into five yearlings: two Always B Miki colts, a Captaintreacherous colt that I love, a Tall Dark Stranger brother to Strangerinthenight and Hip #34 on opening night, a Perfect Sting colt who is a first foal from a stakes-winning full sister to this year's sensational colt Fallout. We really stepped out on him. We bought him for $275,000."

Now on to Harrisburg. What do you anticipate you will be doing with regard to purchases?

"As I said previously, we will be both buyers and sellers at Harrisburg. We have several yearlings earmarked in the Hanover consignment that we will be taking a close look at. I'm sure there will be several others with other consignors. I have pieces of 10 scheduled to be sold in the mixed sale. They include some real good ones which I am certain will make good raceway horses for whoever buys them."

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Pierce Henry is finding success and respect of his peers

by Chris Lomon

His main priority is chasing success, but for Pierce Henry, there is another equally important element to his harness racing career.

Whatever the Ohio racetrack, be it Dayton, Montpelier, Upper Sandusky, or the Delaware County Fair, the 27-year-old Buckeye State horseman is hopeful of two things at the end of each live racing card.

“Obviously, the priority is to get the best result and best effort from each horse you drive,” said Henry, who hails from Leipsic, a village in Putnam County, OH. “But it is also important for me to have the respect of other horse people and those in the industry, for them to know I am there to be successful and work hard.”

That has been the approach of Henry since he started out in the race bike in 2013 at the age of 16.

Two years later, he added training to his standardbred repertoire.

“My grandfather was a hobby horseman back in the 1970s,” Henry said. “I never got to meet him – he passed away quite a bit before I was born. My grandfather had a family friend, Russ Hill, and my dad kind of followed him around. My dad would bring me around to the races. Once you get around it, it is hard to get away from it.”

Not that Henry saw that as negative.

As a teenager, he made a name for himself on the Ohio fair circuit.

His milestone first driving win came at Tiffin Fair on July 22, 2013.

“When you get that first win, it feels like a monkey off your back,” he said. “It really helps when you finally get that one out of the way.”

The victory was special beyond it just being his first.

“I was 16 at the time,” Henry said. “I drove the horse [Cant Slay Me] for Ryan and Nicole Stall. They had another horse

[State Of The Union] in the same race. I got to the front and had that other horse on my back where I wanted it to be. It was a close race, but we got there.

“What a very good feeling to win, which was even better considering you won it for someone you really look up to. It meant quite a bit.”

In 2015, Henry added training to his horseman skillset.

He won his first race as a conditioner on June 9 of that year, the victory coming with the filly Johns Jessi Bird at the half-mile oval in Paulding, OH.

“Training-wise, I started out with a lot of young horses,” he said. “I had an owner who supported me quite a bit. We started out with a few young horses and had some success. The first good one, Johns Jessi Bird, was competitive in the sires stakes ranks. She had a great 2-year-old season but came back at 3 and wasn’t as good. We had some luck with the babies.

“I love training down the babies, watching them from the time you get them to the time they make their way to the track.”

Forty-plus wins later as a trainer, and over 400 in the sulky, Henry has carved out a solid career on both sides.

Seven years ago, he won a career-best 78 races, more than a dozen of them coming with a local fair legend.

“I have driven some nice horses,” Henry said. “In 2017, when I was 21, I drove a horse named Carmensdaleyapple

“I used to be what people would call aggressive when I first started driving. Over time, you learn each horse is different and they all like to race differently. I feel like I have learned a lot about each horse I have driven. You have to always adapt to each horse and to what track you are driving at too.”

~ Pierce Henry

for Joe Paver. I didn't drive him in his first start, but I got to drive him from that second start until his final start as a 2-year-old. He won 16-straight races.

"In the fair final at the end of his 2-year-old year, he drew the outside and had a rough trip. He ended up finishing fourth, but just looking back at how cool that was – everyone was aiming to beat him. To keep him out of trouble and keep winning was very cool. He was a great horse."

One of many who have taught Henry valuable lessons along the way.

Known once for his aggressive approach in the race bike, he has refined and retooled his driving style over time.

"With driving, I try to watch and learn from as many as the successful drivers," Henry said. "I did that a lot when I first started out. I was always told that patience was a big thing, so I watched the drivers who put themselves in good spots. You learn the good things they do and incorporate it into what you do.

"I used to be what people would call aggressive when I first started driving. Over time, you learn each horse is different and they all like to race differently. I feel like I have learned a lot about each horse I have driven. You have to always adapt to each horse and to what track you are driving at too."

Henry's well-rounded view of his roles has paid off handsomely.

This season, he has already set a career-best mark in driver purse earnings with three months left in the year.

Even so, the humble side of Henry sees the season as a "glass half-full."

"There have been a lot of downs this year with my stable, but to keep going forward and pushing through is something I am proud of," he said.

"The driving this year, it wasn't one of the best years I have had, but it is still very good. The horses I was driving showed up each week at the fairs. I want to be consistent and competitive until the end of 2024 and then do the same next year."

One guaranteed constant is Henry's student-of-the-game outlook.

"Every day is different," he said. "For me, if I don't pick up or learn something new every day – even at the barn in the mornings – I feel something is missing. If it's not learning from horses, watching races or talking to someone, or listening to others, I don't think you are doing something right. There is always more to learn. You can never know enough."

When he isn't around the horses, Henry, try as he might to do otherwise, is thinking about them.

In the times they do escape his thoughts, life is all about family.

"Even when I get away from the horses and you try to shut your mind off for a while, you still end up thinking about them," he said. "It's hard to turn it off at times. But I enjoy spending time with my wife, my family and her family. We are all very close. Family is very big for me."

Racing-wise, Henry has a set of goals, present and future, he is looking to chase.

"Short term, I would like to pick up more drives," he said. "There have been years I have driven in a decent amount of pari-mutuel races. I don't have a lot of people I drive for in the summer who race in the winter. I think that will change with a few of the people I drive for, which will give me some more opportunities.

"Long term, I would love to build a decent-sized stable, with younger, competitive horses, and to have some new owners."

And, just as importantly, Henry, wherever he finds himself competing in Ohio, hopes to earn the one thing that keeps driving him forward.

"To be respected is a big thing for me," he said. "Whatever I do, driving or training, I want to have a good name for myself. That means something to me."

Abandoned horses, Part 5

by Trey Nosrac

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

Part 3 is here.

Part 4 is here.

Julia and Walt Binghamton sat in matching blue Adirondack chairs on the sprawling green lawn of their gated property. They waited for Renee Tuttle to arrive and retrieve the two retired racehorses standing near the white gazebo to the left of the three-car garage.

Walt mused, "Are they retired harness racehorses if they never raced?"

She shrugged, "A cryptic question. Perhaps we should refer to them as retired attempted racehorses."

"Or hopeful but failed racehorses."

Julia said, "They are fascinating, big, powerful, quiet, and docile creatures. Did you ever attend a harness horse race?"

"No, but I watched a few videos last night. They race, pulling a cart with a driver. A group of eight to 10 horses begin the race behind a car with a fence and travel parade style in a circle, except at the end when they bunch together. The horses race wearing boots, buckles, headgear, leggings, poles, numbers, goggles, and whatnot. They looked as if they were ready for a medieval joust, and the people in the buggies carry whips."

"Oh dear."

A grey truck with the logo Final Strides Horse Care on the door pulled a large red horse trailer into the driveway at 2021 Remington Road, Huntington Valley. A tall woman in her 30s turned off the truck engine, hopped out of the driver's seat, and waved cheerily to the Binghamton's. The visitor wore jeans, a grey sweatshirt, and a blue baseball cap with her ponytail pulled through the back.

The woman walked toward the couple. They met at the bottom of the porch stairs, and the woman in the blue cap extended her hand, "I'm Renee Tuttle."

Julia took her hand and smiled, "Nice to meet you. I'm Julia, and this is my husband, Walt. Over there are Drive and Iggy, the pawns in this game."

Renee reached into her rear pocket, pulled out an envelope, waved it excitedly, and shouted, "We are ALL pawns in Lewis' last game! I have the story. The mystery is solved. It's unbelievable. I got a second letter yesterday. I was going to call you but decided to wait to show it to you."

She handed the envelope to Julia. Walt read the hand-written letter over his wife's shoulder.

Dear Renee,

I am sure you are confused about the pick-up location. I truly believe the "delay" in transit is, well, was, a no-lose possibility. I have researched possible targets. The Binghamtons appear to be a wealthy, childless, upstanding couple. A few days under their stewardship may allow you to have patrons to support your worthwhile non-profit organization. I believe this couple may adopt these two horses as I did. This intentional delay may be a remote possibility, but at the very least, you can drop off some brochures and meet the unwitting horse minders face to face.

Good luck. Thank You. Give Drive and Iggy a good life.

On another matter, when you receive a rather substantial check as an endowment from my estate liquidation, you will also find a few pages of suggestions for practical solutions to the problem of care for unwanted or uncared-for horses.

I have given the problem of horses that need care a great deal of thought. Of course, I can no longer implement my ideas, but the little manifest I leave behind may be helpful.

Lewis

The trio were silent for a few seconds as they digested the words in the letter.

Walt said, "Fascinating. I find this character fascinating. I wish we had met him."

Julia spoke softly, "Obviously, he doesn't want anything. He hopes and wants to help horses and make his money beneficial. It's oddly genius."

Renee, "He fell in love with his horses. I do that every month, and I wonder what plans and ideas his horse care manifesto will have?"

The trio were silent for 10 seconds. Julia broke the silence, "Renee, your truck will go home empty. Iggy and Drive now have a new home. Can I rely on your help and advice on building a barn and horse care?"

"Absolutely! Holy smokes. Funding for Final Strides, horses placed, and I can't wait to see his plans, his horse rescue manifesto. Good old Lewis, he was a junkyard Nostradamus."

Lil Sweet equals stakes record while pulling upset in Gold Super Final for freshman trotting fillies

by OSS publicity

Lil Sweet finished a head short of division leader Monalishi on Sept. 30 in the final Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Leg for freshman filly trotters. On Saturday night (Oct. 12), however, Doug McNair and the 3-1 second choice turned the tables in deep stretch, surging past the favorite to claim victory in the $300,000 Gold Super Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The duo matched Bee A Magician's stakes record 1:53.4 clocking in the win.

McNair entered the night's second race, the first of eight Gold Series Super Finals events, riding a hot streak. Friday night he steered six winners on the Mohawk program. He wasted little time returning to the winner's circle on Saturday. The regular pilot for the David Menary-trained filly, he left from post 6 with Lil Sweet as soon as the gate folded, moving to the front and leading the field through a :27.3 opening panel.

As McNair set the tempo with a geared-down 30-second quarter, James MacDonald pulled on the right line and brushed Monalishi from fourth to the lead, taking command after the half and led the group to three quarters in 1:25.3.

"My filly, when we moved past the quarter she just hesitated a bit on the front," McNair said. "I haven't raced her on the front all year. I didn't want to take any chances and have her pull up, I was looking for James, that's for sure."

McNair asked his filly in the lane, angling away from the pylons and dashing to the wire to collect her second seasonal score in 10 attempts. Monalishi settled for second, while 63-1 Exquisite Taste, driven by Louis-Philippe Roy, rounded out the trifecta. Lil Sweet returned $8.40 to win.

"She drew the rail all season long and I said to Dave if she ever gets in the middle of the gate where we can kind of get her off the gate a little bit and sit her up close, I think she'll kick home good for us," said McNair. "We got the right helmet there just past the half or five-eighths, and she did the rest from there."

"I didn't want to jinx anything, but that's exactly how I thought it would go. I was hoping that James would come. We chased her pretty hard last week, and we were ready to start chasing her sooner this week."

Bred by Windsong Stable, Lil Sweet is from the first crop of Green Manalishi S out of the Credit Winner mare Sweetpellosuccess. The freshman sold for $35,000 to Eric Good at last year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA. Fifth in points entering Saturday, the victory pushed her seasonal earnings to $249,371.

Menary credited his team for having Lil Sweet primed for a top Super Final performance.

"I have to give my staff a lot of credit," the trainer said. "Leanne Silverthorn takes care of her. She does such a great job with her. I wasn't here last week when the filly raced great. I watched the race in Lexington at the sale. It's a 52-week process to get here. It's not just this week, it's the whole year. The staff worked really hard and I want to let everybody know I really appreciate them."

Chantilly remains unbeaten, dominates OSS Gold Super Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies

by Frank Cotolo for OSS publicity

The magnificent unbeaten Chantilly, with James MacDonald up, trounced nine foes to win the $300,000 OSS Gold Super Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (Oct. 12) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The time for her ninth-straight win of the season was 1:50.2, matching her speed badge in her first season on the track. “She goes miles in :50 like training trips,” said MacDonald after the race.

MacDonald eased Chantilly from the gate while Macapelo Seelster got to the top. Wickedpace, Millie May Hanover and Wicked N Single followed in a wicked :26 first quarter.

“I was happy to sit fourth,” MacDonald said after the race. He had no problem, either, he added, tipping his filly out and passing the quartet as soon as there was room on the outside.

Chantilly took command heading for the half and was already proving her superiority over the division’s top freshman pacing fillies as she clocked the half in :55.4.

Macapelo Seelster remained leading the others with Wicked Pace behind her and Wicked N Single going first over with a rush.

“She’s an unbelievable horse,” said trainer Nick Gallucci as a bit of an understatement as Chantilly continued to increase the lengths between her and the rest of the field.

Chantilly soared down the stretch five, six and seven lengths in front, cutting three quarters in 1:23.3 and crossing the wire with an eight-length lead. In her previous eight races, no competitor came closer to her winning margin than a single length.

The crowd’s second choice, Wickedpace, hit the wire best of the rest. Macapelo Seelster finished third.

Chantilly is a daughter of Big Jim out of the Bettors Delight mare Shiraz Seelster. She paid $2.10 to win as the 1-9 favorite. With the win she has earned $761,000, all of it in Ontario.

“She’s not paid up for the Breeders’ Crown,” Gallucci said, adding that it was always the plan looking forward to a sophomore season.

“She’ll appreciate the rest. She’s the best filly ever that I’ve trained and we’re grateful to have her in our barn.”

Millar Farms bred and owns Chantilly. Farm owner George Millar said, “The Big Jim [colts and fillies] are all great and do well.”

Willys Home Run hits it out of the park again to win OSS Gold Super Final

by Kelly Spencer for OSS publicity

Willys Home Run covered all the bases in the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Series as the 2023 freshman trotting filly champion returned to repeat as a sophomore with an impressive win in Saturday's (Oct. 12) $300,000 Gold Super Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Sent off as the even-money favorite, Willys Home Run and driver James MacDonald tangoed early for the lead with chief rival R Liza (Jody Jamieson), before both settled behind pacesetter Kinnder Hotblood (Todd Rathchford). Willys Home Run exploded off cover in the stretch to win by three lengths in 1:53.1. It was her 10th career victory and the winner's share of the championship purse boosts her bankroll to $944,000.

The Archangel—Rite Outa The Park daughter is trained by Robert Kyle Fellows for owners Dr. Sara Gatchell, Yolanda Fellows, Jake Higgs and breeder Reg Higgs – many of the same connections of the filly's older brother Logan Park – a former top OSS performer which recently surpassed $1.75 million in career earnings.

"Kyle was really confident in her the last few weeks," said MacDonald following the race. "And when she has a good trip, she has a wicked motor."

For co-owner Dr. Gatchell, the win was especially poignant.

"She's basically the culmination of a promise I made to my father when I was really young," she said. "He instilled my love of horse racing, and one day he asked me to buy a racehorse if I ever became a veterinarian and to name it after him.

"That was the goal and as luck would have it, my father-in-law, who has been in this business for decades, gave us the opportunity to own a broodmare and she [Willys Home Run] was the first foal.

"So it was for sure going to be Willys Home Run named after my father, William, who passed away last week from Alzheimer's. Unfortunately, he didn't get to ever watch her race. By the time she was a 2-year-old he was stricken with very severe dementia.

"But I think my dad was up there tonight and I think he was cheering her on and I think he gave her that last push when she blew by everybody. So, dad, I think this one was your doing."

You Got It Kemp dominant in rookie trotting colts' Super Final

by James Platz for OSS publicity

You Got It Kemp has been on a roll since finishing second in his career debut, and Saturday night (Oct. 12) at Woodbine Mohawk Park the freshman trotter rolled to his fifth straight Ontario Sires Stakes victory in dominating fashion.

Steered by Sylvain Filion, the Muscle Mass–Speed Titan gelding manhandled the competition in the $300,000 Gold Super Final for 2-year-old trotting colts, winning by open lengths in 1:53.4.

Second in points entering the Super Final, You Got It Kemp was unlucky in the draw, assigned post 9. The outside post was not a factor, though, as Filion pushed to the lead at the start and never looked back. The 6-5 favorite clicked off fractions of :28, :56.4 and 1:25.4 while unchallenged on the lead, a place Filion would prefer not to be with the freshman.

“When I hit the backside and I can feel him slow down a bit, I just yelled at him and he took off,” Filion said. “I knew right now and then that we were okay.”

Getthegreen and James MacDonald moved from fourth on the backstretch and ducked in behind the leader as the field turned away in the lane. Getthegreen finished a distant second while 42-1 Rising Interest trotted third. The winner paid $4.50, $2.80, and $2.90.

You Got It Kemp was bred by Kemppi Stables Oy Inc. and Suojalampi Stable Inc. Brady, Brooke and Daniel Lagace share ownership of the bargain $12,000 purchase from the 2023 Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA with Suojalampi Stable Inc., which retained an interest. Daniel Lagace trains the gelding.

“It's been amazing,” said Brooke Lagace. “He's been a really awesome horse for us. He progresses every week and it's been really fun to watch.”

The victory was the fifth in six seasonal starts for the freshman. He finished his campaign with $378,167 in earnings and a new lifetime mark. He'll ship to the Bluegrass to rest and grow in anticipation of next season.

“He always showed good early speed, but he was always a little cheeky like Sylvain said,” said Brady Lagace. “We never did much training with him, so he's still learning as he goes and he's just getting better. He'll be in Kentucky on Monday.”

For Filion, the Super Final victory brought him even with Paul MacDonell for winning drives. Both men have each accumulated a record 18 Super Final tallies in their careers.

Odds On Platinum becomes millionaire with OSS Gold Super Final upset

by Frank Cotolo for OSS publicity

Odds On Platinum held a late lead by a nose to win the $300,000 3-year-old filly pace Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final on Saturday night (Oct. 12) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The time for the mile was 1:49.4 with Sylvain Filion in the bike.

Filion's filly was quick to leave the gate but stayed put behind Collusion Hanover and Lightning Lizzie in the early going. Odds On Platinum saved ground through the blaze of a first quarter, clocked in :25.4.

Leader Collusion Hanover kept the next two rivals smoking down the backstretch, cutting the half in :54.1. Favorite Its A Love Thing took to the outside and driver James MacDonald had the filly aiming for a big challenge through three-quarters in 1:22.

Filion was sitting on his filly ready to light her burners and when he did, Odds On Platinum fired on the outside to catch a tiring Collusion Hanover while Blazing Belle was working her way into the picture.

Into the stretch, Odds On Platinum was on top and protecting a lead threatened by Its A Love Thing. MacDonald was leaning back and pumped as a duel ensued with his filly on the outside.

"I thought [Its A Love Thing] was going to go right by me," Filion said of the duel, which he and Odds On Platinum won by a nose. Collusion Hanover finished third.

For Odds On Platinum, it was the sixth win of her sophomore season and the eighth of her career. The victory pushed her two seasons of racing over the $1 million mark to earnings of $1,049,374.

Dr. Ian Moore trains Odds On Platinum. She is a daughter of Bettors Delight—American Jewel.

She paid $8.90 to win.

"This might be all for her [at 3]," Moore said. "She isn't going to the Breeders' Crown." Though, he added a possible supplemental payment could change that.

"She was better tonight than at the Jug meet," Filion said. "Dr. Moore did a great job with her [this season]."

Moore said this was a gratifying win.

"Look at her lines this year," he said, pointing out her many outside posts. "This is the first time she got a good trip. Its A Love Thing is a tremendous filly. Don't take anything away from her."

Crack Shot doubles up on OSS championship victories with win in Gold Super Final

by Kelly Spencer for OSS publicity

Crack Shot has not one but two Ontario Sires Stakes Championship victories to his credit in 2024. The freshman pacer won Saturday's (Oct. 12) $300,000 Gold Super Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park just two weeks after capturing the $75,000 Grassroots final.

Crack Shot was the first-ever beneficiary of a new feature added to the provincial program which stipulated a Grassroots Series champion was entitled to enter the Super Final if the division didn't fill with Gold Series top point-earners.

In Saturday's effort, he was fourth under cover heading into the stretch, and taken wide to pace home with driver Doug McNair one length the best in 1:51.3 – a new career best for the Bettors Delight–Beautyonthebeach son.

Pacesetter Sterling Choice (Louis-Phillippe Roy) was the runner-up, while race favorite Allstar Maniac (James MacDonald) was third. Crack Shot paid $7.40 for the win.

Purchased as a yearling for $205,000 at the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale by trainer Gregg McNair and co-owners Frank Brundle, Dale Hunter and George Kerr, Crack Shot has won five of his eight rookie starts for total earnings of $238,000.

"Dad loved him all year," Doug McNair said of Crack Shot. "So, all the credit goes to him. He's a great little horse to drive. I just wanted to keep him out of trouble tonight."

Gregg said, "I was high on him all winter. He was always a fast horse. I didn't know how he would do with this bunch tonight. He has really come around."

For co-owner Brundle, the pair of championship wins has been a fun ride in a long relationship with the Gregg McNair Stable that began in 1986.

"To have Crack Shot blossom in the Grassroots finals and now win the Super Final is amazing, just amazing," Brundle said.

Crack Shot (Doug McNair) became the first horse to win both the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots final and Gold Super Final in the same year when he won the latter on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Paquet vaults to Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final win for sophomore trotting colts

by James Witherite for OSS publicity

Despite some early anxious moments, Paquet overcame a tough trip to live up to his 1-5 billing in Saturday's (Oct. 12) $300,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final for 3-year-old trotting colts and geldings at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Jody Jamieson floated Paquet forward into midfield as Myretirementdream forged clear from post 7 and Masstercraft attacked from deeper on the track, only to be parked through :28 and :56.3 sectionals. With the outer flow jammed up in front of him, Paquet had no window to brush forward up the backstretch and instead was forced to circle the tiring Masstercraft on the far turn.

"I didn't want to be three-wide on the last turn after having strangled him the first three-eighths," said Jamieson, who pushed Paquet second-over on the far turn and swung him three-wide with five-sixteenths to go.

After What About Elmo, who took over on the backstretch, hit three-quarters in 1:25.3, Paquet lifted gradually into the lead off the home turn and drew clear steadily to win by the better part of five lengths in 1:54.3. What About Elmo held second over Myretirementdream.

"This horse was just rude tonight," Jamieson said. "I'm surprised he won – when the gate called us, he was galloping, rooting his head. But he's so talented, he overcame it. I'm very happy that we won, but we've got some work to do. He doesn't have much experience."

After not racing as a 2-year-old, Paquet has won four of seven races in his sophomore season and banked $315,265 for trainer Carl Jamieson, who shares ownership with the Estate of Brian Paquet, 1140545 Ontario Ltd., and Douglas Good.

Paquet was bred by Seelster Farms and sold for $70,000 at the 2022 London Classic Yearling Sale under the name Dion Seelster. The Muscle Mass–Darjeeling colt paid $2.40 to win.

Nijinsky (Louis-Philippe Roy) overcame a tough trip to win the OSS Gold Super Final for sophomore pacing colts.

Nijinsky roars back to claim 3-year-old pacing colt OSS Gold Super Final

by James Witherite for OSS publicity

Pepsi North America Cup winner Nijinsky made amends for a disappointing showing in the Little Brown Jug with a 1:50.3 win in Saturday's (Oct. 12) $300,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final for 3-year-old male pacers at Woodbine Mohawk Park, but he had to prove himself amid an eventful journey.

Louis-Philippe Roy initially floated Nijinsky into fourth in pursuit of 69-1 pacesetter Unrivaled Hanover. On the backstretch, as Roy angled Nijinsky second-over on the backstretch, his cover – Century Komodo – locked on a line and faltered sharply, causing Nijinsky to check and enabling Unrivaled Hanover and Jonathan Drury to scamper four lengths clear on the far turn after being pushed through a :54 first half.

"I had no choice but to go three-wide on the last turn," said Roy. "[Jonathan Drury's] horse was making open lengths on us, so I had to make him work a little earlier. At first, JD was going good fractions up front, the only way I could have him beat was to put [Nijinsky] into a crazy half."

After getting around Century Komodo, Nijinsky took second with just over a quarter to go. Unrivaled Hanover, who hit three-quarters in 1:21.2, began to shorten strides off the turn for home. Nijinsky collared Unrivaled Hanover at the eighth pole and was urged to win by a widening 1¼ lengths in 1:50.3. Best Night Ever rallied boldly from deep in the field to nab Unrivaled Hanover for runner-up honors.

"I was worried that something was going to happen, but he seemed fine and Louis said he was great," said trainer Anthony Beaton. "I wish we had a little easier trip, but he raced tremendous. It seems like he's back, and hopefully we can look forward to The Meadowlands [for the Breeders Crown eliminations] next week."

This season, Nijinsky, bred by Jeffrey Snyder, has won 10 of 12 races and banked over $1.24 million for West Wins Stable, John Fielding and Mark Dumain, who purchased Nijinsky as a yearling for $120,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's 2022 auction in Harrisburg, PA.

As the 1-4 favorite, the son of Bettors Delight out of Pirouette Hanover returned $2.50 to win.

Brett Miller posts driving triple in Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet Championships for trotters

by DRF Harness for the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Driver Brett Miller guided Virgil Morgan, Jr. trainees Sugar Instead and Aunt Laura to victory in their $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet Championships for trotters on Saturday night (Oct. 12) at MGM Northfield Park and then added a third title with Daren Harvey-trained Lt Loverboy. Hung Over, driven by Dan Noble, won the remaining trotting Championship.

One of the stars of the Ohio Sires Stakes program as both a rookie and a sophomore, Sugar Instead completed a Triple Crown season with a 1:55.2 triumph in the event for 3-year-old fillies. Miller floated away with Sugar Instead from post 4, and once the dust settled, drove her on two-wide to take the top spot away from Jurassic Hattie (Tyler Smith) after the :29.1 quarter-mile marker.

Createaqueen (Dan Noble) came with a big brush out of fourth in the second quarter and took the lead on the outside from Sugar Instead past the :58.4 half. Createaqueen couldn't clear, though, and then broke on the third turn, putting Sugar Instead back in charge. Legacy Affair (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) was the next challenger to Sugar Instead on the outside heading to the 1:27 three-quarters, but Sugar Instead dealt with that bid with little issue and went on to defeat Jurassic Hattie by a length. Legacy Affair wound up third.

"What do you say? Every time I think, 'Well, I don't know if she can do it again,' she just does it again," said Dick McClelland, who owns Sugar Instead with his wife Joyce and their partner Larry Wills. "Tonight they tried her and they tried her a lot. She's a very nice horse. I've got a really great partner. He puts up with me a little bit, and we've had a great season with her.

"As best as I know, we are going to the Breeders Crown."

Sugar Instead has 19 wins, two seconds and a third from 23 efforts, has put away $866,014 and returned $2.20 to win as the 1-9 favorite. Sugar Instead, a daughter of Volstead—Sugar Pop, was bred by Elmer Miller and purchased for $11,000 at the 2022 Blooded Horse Sale.

In the championship for 2-year-old fillies, Miller and 15-1 shot Aunt Laura, a homebred owned by the McClellands, led through panels of :28.1, :58 and 1:26.3 on her way to a 3/4-length victory in 1:56.1. The 2-5 favorite Mocha Hill (Chris Page) went three-wide from second-over on the final turn but had to settle for runner-up honors and Aunt Lilly (Anthony MacDonald) turned a pocket trip into a third-place result.

“I’ve liked her all along since we broke her,” Morgan, Jr. said. “She was just immature, but she always had talent. When she got through the first turn, I felt really good. Again, she’s shown sparks of this, but she put it all together tonight, which is the right night to do it.

“Joyce and Dick McClelland, I can’t say enough about them. They do a great job at their farm raising these horses, and they bring them to me. There’s pedigree there. Their broodmares are excellent and it shows when they race. It’s just a pleasure to train for them.”

A daughter of Uncle Peter out of Tori Ann, Aunt Laura has a trio of tallies from nine outings, has banked $229,250 and paid $33.80 to win.

Miller’s third championship came with Lt Loverboy via placing in the Championship for 2-year-old colts and geldings. Battle Hill (Chris Lems) worked his way around Hilltop Sonar (Page) nearing the :27.3 quarter, and when Hilltop Sonar broke on the second turn while trying to re-move, that left Battle Hill on the lead.

While that was going on up front, Scrapyps Love (Mike Wilder) committed to an extended first-over move out of fourth before the :57.4 half, and that gave cover to Lt Loverboy, who wound up parked from post 7. Scrapyps Love continued to make forward progress on the rim and was nose-to-nose with Battle Hill at the 1:27 three-quarters while Lt Loverboy was out three-wide.

Scrapyps Love forged his way by Battle Hill for good before they entered the stretch drive and dug in gamely, but he shifted out in the closing strides, bothering Lt Loverboy in the process. So, even though Scrapyps Love hit the wire a half-length ahead of Lt Loverboy in a 1:57.3 performance, the judges bumped Scrapyps Love to second and promoted Lt Loverboy to the victory after an inquiry. Oso Fast (David Miller) went across the wire off-stride in third and was also moved back to fifth, elevating Battle Hill from fourth to third.

Jeffrey Zamaiko

Lt Loverboy (Brett Miller) winning the Ohio Sire Stakes Scarlet Championship for freshman trotting colts.

“There were a few breakers earlier, and that changed the whole race,” Brett Miller said. “When Chris Page’s horse made a break, that really changed it for us. My colt raced awesome.”

Bred by Midland Acres Inc., Lt Loverboy, a gelded son of Long Tom—Fortheloveoflindy, is owned by Wayne Mast, Jr. and Callam Racing LLC, who purchased the trotter for $60,000 from the Ohio Selected Jug Sale.

Lt Loverboy has a summary of 6-3-1 from 10 appearances and has pocketed $304,855. He returned $3.60 to win.

The Championship for 3-year-old colts and geldings saw Spaaaanzano (Aaron Merriman) get to the front from post 2 while being tracked from the pocket by Hung Over. Royal Precedent (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) also had early speed from post 7 but wound up parked to the :27.4 quarter and would continue to pester Spaaaanzano on the outside through a :56.4 half and a 1:25.3 three-quarters.

Through the stretch Spaaaanzano was game on the lead and continued to keep the persistent Royal Precedent at bay, but Hung Over dove into the passing lane, and he had just enough time and just enough trot to get by Spaaaanzano at the end of the 1:55.3 mile, prevailing by a nose. Royal Precedent turned in a huge mile of his own at 55-1 to get third, just a length behind the top two.

“[Hung Over] shows up every time we race him, and he got the job done tonight,” said winning trainer Bob Stewart. “We trained his father, so it’s even more special. We’re partners with Mitchell Skolnick, who is one of my best friends. He bred the horse and was nice enough to let us get in on him. It’s been a good ride.

“I was a little worried about going up the inside because he hasn’t done that before, and some horses aren’t used to going to the inside. Danny didn’t have a lot of choice, and the stretch was just long enough.”

As Stewart mentioned, Hung Over is a homebred colt by Creatine—Drunkard’s Dream bred by Skolnick’s Bluestone Farms. Lynda Stewart co-owns Hung Over, who made his eighth trip to the winner’s circle, has now earned $487,933 and paid $7.80 to win as the 5-2 third choice.

BURKE COLLECTS TWO OHIO SCARLET CHAMPIONSHIPS FOR PACERS

Trainer Ron Burke finished 1-2-3 in the $300,000 Ohio Sires Stakes Scarlet Championship for 2-year-old male pacers and also prevailed in the Championship for 3-year-old pacing fillies with Seaside Diva. In the other Championships for the pacers, Clever Cody defended his title from 2023 in the 3-year-old colt and gelding event and Odds On Hialeah delivered in the tilt for 2-year-old fillies.

Rick Wink (Chris Page), who was trying to improve to nine-for-nine in 2024, led early in the Championship for the rookie colts and geldings, but Sippinonsearoc (Yannick Gingras), who became harness racing's all-time fastest 2-year-old with a 1:48.2 performance at The Red Mile on Aug. 13, overtook him before the :27.4 quarter. Sippinonsearoc then yielded to sit behind a brushing Swingtown (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.) after that marker.

Jeffrey Zamaiko

Swingtown maintained the top spot through a 56-second half and a 1:24 three-quarters, but Sippinonsearoc was full of pace to his outside in the lane, went by and pulled clear to prevail by a length and a half in 1:51.2, equaling the track record. Swingtown was second and Rick Wink, who tried a first-over attack out of third before three-quarters, couldn't make any headway and had to settle for the show dough.

"I was kind of rooting for Rick Wink since he could win the Ohio Triple Crown, but Sippinonsearoc, what a beast," said co-owner Carl Howard, whose wife Rocchina competes as R A S Racing LLC. I know he's got the Breeders Crown, so hopefully he'll go there, but that's really up to Ronnie and the group.

"I was fortunate that Mark [Weaver] put me in the whole group. We just wanted to invest in a few horses, and the next thing you know we've got 10, 15, 20."

Burke trains Sippinonsearoc, a Downbytheseaside—Queen Ann M colt bred by Trent Stohler Stable Inc. and Alesha Binkley, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brussemi LLC., R A S Racing LLC. and Knox Services Inc. Sippinonsearoc, purchased for $77,000 at the 2023 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, has a summary of 6-1-1 from nine trips behind the gate, has earnings of $408,500. He returned $6.60 to win.

Seaside Diva (Page) avenged her defeat in the Championship a year ago with a 1:52.2 triumph in the showdown for sophomore fillies. Daisy's Star (David Miller), who knocked off Seaside Diva in that Championship in 2023, led the way early, but Seaside Diva marched up two-wide and cleared her past the :27.1 quarter. Seaside Diva maintained her grip on the front-end through middle-half panels of :55.4 and 1:24, then sealed her 1½-length triumph with a :28.2 final kicker. No Foolin April (Dexter Dunn) was game from first-over and held off second-over Wasted On You (Brett Miller) for the runner-up spot.

"As a 2-year-old she was probably the best filly," Page said. "A minor setback out in the field probably caused her to get beat in the final. This year, she's just been flawless."

A daughter of Downbytheseaside—Real Diva, Seaside Diva is a homebred for Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brussemi LLC., Knox Services Inc. and Let It Ride Stables Inc. Seaside Diva made her 15th trip to the winner's circle in her 26th try. She has banked $761,605. She paid $2.20 to win as the 1-9 favorite.

Clever Cody (Aaron Merriman) overcame an extended first-over grind to take the Championship for the sophomore colts and geldings in 1:52. Paris's Dragon (Dan Noble) and Janelle Granny (Dunn) battled most of a :26.1 quarter before Paris's Dragon took command. As Paris's Dragon was clearing, Merriman sent Clever Cody off the pylons from fourth, and he would advance into second on the outside as Paris's Dragon got to the half in :54.4. Paris's Dragon and Clever Cody kept up their duel around the third turn and over to the 1:22.1 three-quarters, with Hundred Dollar Man (Montrell Teague) going three-wide from second-over and Janelle Granny still in the hunt after he slid off the cones into a third-over position.

Jeffrey Zamaiko

Clever Cody (Aaron Merriman) winning the Ohio Sire Stakes Scarlet Championship for 3-year-old pacing colts.

In the stretch, Clever Cody showed his determination by dispatching Paris's Dragon for good, and from there, Clever Cody went on to score by three-quarters of a length in 1:52. Paris's Dragon held off a ground-saving Rock The Hill (D. Miller) for third.

"He kind of makes you feel good about yourself, a couple of other guys drive him, Hall of Famers, and they don't get along with him," said Merriman. "He's been very, very good for me. Today he really raced gritty. I was very, very impressed. He lost a shoe in the first turn, and he had a lot of things that might not have been great for him. I moved him at the quarter, and he just raced well.

"I knew there was going to be a lot of speed. I took it upon myself here a few starts back to really teach this horse how to race off a helmet. He's so great on the front and he relaxes so well, but there are other guys who want to race on the front. One of the races this year, I really think that I committed and it was my fault. Hats off to Danny's horse, too. He raced unbelievable, but I'm just really happy with the way the horse raced and happy for the connections."

Clever Cody, a colt by The Panderosa—Cams Van Go, was sent out by Dr. Ian Moore for owner Clever Cody Stable. The Marvin Raber-bred posted his 11th lifetime triumph, has put away $712,732 and returned $3.00 to win. Clever Cody was purchased for $24,000 at the 2022 Ohio Selected Jug Sale.

Trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr., who collected three titles overall on the card, finished first and second with a pair of Odds On Nourir-bred/Odds On Racing-owned or co-owned 2-year-old fillies in their Championship, as Odds On Hialeah (Dunn) fought off Odds On Chesapeake (D. Miller).

Odds On Hialeah, the 1-9 choice, marched two-wide to the lead past the :27.3 quarter but Odds On Chesapeake came first-up out of fourth heading to the 57-second half and battled eye-to-eye with Odds On Hialeah around the third turn and to the 1:25 three-quarters. Odds On Hialeah was game on the inside, though, and was able to keep in front around the last turn and to the finish line, defeating Odds On Chesapeake by a neck. Skywalker Sea (Austin Hanners) had pace off a second-over trip and collected third.

"She's a beautiful filly and lovely to drive," Dunn said. "She put in a great performance at Delaware and went to Dayton and put in a good mile. She was great again here tonight. She's very easy to drive and gets around the small tracks great, too.

"I probably deserved to get pressure because I went too slow in the second quarter, but it probably helped her a little bit. She's probably more of a stalker than on the front, but with a good draw, we had to use it. It sort of got her up and going. We got her traveling around the last turn, and she had to fight hard up the straight, though."

Odds On Hialeah, a homebred Lather Up—Laughandbehappy filly, is seven-for-eight in the win column, has pocketed $324,750 and paid $2.80 to win as the 1-9 favorite.

Burke goes two-for-two in MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series

Trainer Ron Burke went two-for-two in the first round of the MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series on Friday night (Oct. 11) at MGM Yonkers Raceway, taking the $75,000 divisions with It's Academic and Chapercraz.

It's Academic, driven by Jason Bartlett, lowered the track record for an older trotting stallion to 1:53.1 in his triumph. Starting from the outside post 7, It's Academic got to the top before the :27.4 quarter, was unchallenged through middle-half stations of :57 and 1:25.1, and came home in 28 seconds to defeat pocket-sitter Take All Comers (Jordan Stratton) by a length and a half. Ghostly Casper (Pat Lachance) was third.

That time of 1:53.1 knocked two-fifths of a second off the previous mark of 1:53.3 set by Major Athens back on June 25, 2016.

A 7-year-old Uncle Peter stallion owned by Brad Grant, It's Academic won for the 33rd time in his career and has now earned $2,634,323. The Dan Patch Award winner for top older male trotter a year ago, It's Academic paid $2.70 to win as the 1-5 favorite and was atop a $5.80 exacta and a $22.20 trifecta.

In the second split, Chapercraz (George Brennan) was in front through stations of :27.4, :57.3 and 1:26.2, and while several closers made up ground on Chapercraz through the stretch drive, he was able to hold them all off to the finish line, winning by a head in 1:56.1. Ari Ferrari J (Bartlett), who was two-wide throughout but on cover, surged three-wide to the wire to get second and Bestfriend Volo (Matt Kakaley), who had space on the inside in the lane from the pocket, checked in third.

Chapercraz is a 4-year-old gelding by Crazy Wow and is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brussemi LLC. and Phil Collura. Chapercraz returned $5.40 to win as the 8-5 favorite and led a $28.80 exacta and a $165.50 trifecta.

Rounds 2 and 3 of the MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series are scheduled for Nov. 1 and Nov. 8, with the $250,000 final on Nov. 15. The third leg and the final will be conducted at the distance of a mile and a sixteenth.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EDT).

The entry box for supplements to the 3-year-old and older Breeders Crown races and for all eligible horses to declare in to the $7 million year-end championship events at The Meadowlands closes next week.

Supplemental entries for 3-year-old and open events are due and payable by noon [EDT], Monday (Oct. 14), at The Meadowlands race office in East Rutherford, NJ. There are no supplements for 2-year-old races.

Click here for more instructions on supplementing. Supplemental declaration amounts are listed below:

GTD. PURSE	CROWN EVENT	SUPPLEMENT IS 12 PER CENT OF ADVERTISED PURSE
$600,000	3-Year-Old Events	$72,000
$600,000	Open Trot and Pace	$72,000
$400,000	Open Mare Pace and Trot	$48,000

The entrance fee is included in the supplemental amount. The percentage of the supplement added to the purse is determined by The Hambletonian Society.

This one-time supplemental payment also makes a horse eligible to all subsequent years' Breeders Crown events under the normal schedule of payments.

All eligible Breeders Crown horses enter on Tuesday (Oct. 16) by 9 a.m. Two-year-olds will have eliminations on Friday (Oct. 19), on a rare Meadowlands day card with a post time of 12:30 p.m. All 3-year-old and up events that require eliminations will be held on Saturday night (Oct. 21). Eligible 3-year-olds have the option of entering the sophomore event to which they were nominated or an Open event.

You can access the Meadowlands condition sheet here.

All eliminations will race for a minimum of $25,000.

If there are eliminations, post positions in the final will be determined by an open draw with the exception that elimination winners, in an order determined by lot, will draw for post positions 1 through 6 in the final. All other finalists will be placed in an open draw for the remaining post positions. Any horse(s) that receive a bye into the final will be in the open draw for post positions in the final. The two Win and You're In horses (Champagne Problems and Maryland) for the freshman Trot divisions skip the eliminations and draw for posts 1-6 in the final. The winner receives 50 per cent of the purse but all horses that start in the final receive money.

All 2-Year-Old Breeders Crown races will be held Friday (Oct. 25), with a post time of 6:20 p.m. [EDT].

All 3-Year-Old and Open Breeders Crown events will race Saturday (Oct. 26), also with a post of 6:20 p.m. [EDT].

Saulsbrook Rolo tops sensational Atlantic Classic Sale

Roll With Joe filly Saulsbrook Rolo garnered the top bid at the 2024 Atlantic Classic Yearling Sale held Friday (Oct. 11) at the Crapaud Agriplex in Crapaud, PEI.

A total of 149 yearlings changed hands on the day for a gross of $1,740,000 with an HST included total of $2,001,000 in total sales on the day.

“There is no question optimism was in the air Friday in Crapaud with another fantastic sale,” said Atlantic Classic Sale committee chair Nicholas Oakes. “The breeders in Atlantic Canada put quality animals through the ring all day and the buyers showed their support in keeping sale results consistent with the records we have set in the past three years. The partnership our industry has on PEI, with the provincial government and racetrack operator Red Shores is second to none and it showed as horse people bought with confidence all day long.”

Roll With Joe filly Saulsbrook Rolo topped the sale selling for $40,000 with Carl Stafford grabbing the final bid of the daughter of Atlantic Champion Saulsbrook Alana.

The first Bulldog Hanover to sell in public auction in Canada was Hip #13 Isle B Bulldog Beth who sold for $32,000 to Ontario trainer Victor Puddy. Stephen Johnston consigned the filly.

The top priced colt came near the end of the day as Donald MacRae dropped $38,000 for Hip #147 Tobins Nibbler from the Robin Burke consignment. The sharp looking pacer is sired by Burke’s own Shanghai Phil.

Tobago Cays colt Islebebadtothebone was another sought after animal with a $34,000 price tag being signed by Ken Murphy from the Lynda Ramsay consignment.

E L Rocket colt Sputnik went for $26,000 from the Dusty Lane Farms consignment to Daniel Gaudreault of Quebec to top the sale for trotters.

Papi Rob Hanover colt Woodmere Robi fetched $29,000 going to new owner Randy Van Meer. Woodmere Farms also sold Rollwithitharry gelding Woodmere Styles for $25,000 to Red Oak Stables of PEI.

The Saulsbrook Farms consignment from Nova Scotia had a strong day with John Mehlenbacher purchasing Hip #121 Saulsbrook Fancy for $27,000.

Consignors Jaunita and Alan MacLeod sent Bettors Delight colt Zendayas Bettorbuy through the ring for $27,000 with Brady Doyle signing the slip.

The Blaine Thibeau consignment sold a pair of fillies for $26,000 each with Donald MacRae purchasing Tobago Cays filly Camluck Lady and Nikway Farms buying Lady Rose, a sister to Mohawk open mares winner Western Wish from the first crop of Gold Cup and Saucer champion Somewhere Fancy.

The day had the fifth highest average in the history of the Atlantic Classic Sale at $11,678.

Yonkers Raceway celebrates milestone 125th anniversary

Empire City Casino by MGM Resorts (“Empire City”) celebrates a major milestone this year as the historic Yonkers Raceway marks its 125th anniversary. Founded in 1899 as William H. Clark’s Empire City Trotting Club, the half-mile standardbred harness racing dirt track was originally called “Empire City Race Track.” Since then, the now world-renowned venue has provided many notable moments throughout its 125-year history. Today, Yonkers Raceway is among the most popular harness racing tracks in the world and holds more races per year than any other track known.

Over one million horses have graced the track at Yonkers Raceway throughout its long and storied history. Though originally built for harness racing, thoroughbred racing was brought to the track in 1907 and continued until 1943. The legendary champion thoroughbred racehorse and 1938 American Horse of the Year, Seabiscuit, won a purse of $7,300 in the Scarsdale Handicap, setting a new record at the 1936 Yonkers Raceway event. It has been said that Seabiscuit won more stakes races at Yonkers Raceway than at any other racetrack.

Celebrities are no strangers to Yonkers Raceway, however. Throughout the years, the track has welcomed famous musicians, politicians and athletes including Frank Sinatra, Ed Sullivan, Willie Mays, Mickey Mantle and Jack Dempsey, along with several former U.S. Presidents such as Richard Nixon, Jimmy Carter and Ronald Reagan.

More recently, in 2021, former UFC Lightweight Champion Charles Oliveira took the lines and took home the win against harness Hall of Fame driver Tim Tetrick in an exhibition race. In December 2023, three-time NBA MVP Nikola Jokic, an avid harness racing owner, trainer and fan, made a surprise visit to Yonkers Raceway to check out the action.

Another monumental moment occurred over five years ago in the form of an investment in the future of the track. MGM Resorts acquired Empire City and Yonkers Raceway in 2019 and has since continued to support the historic venue by investing more than $1 million to enhance the entire racing experience. Throughout the exciting 240 days of racing each year, which is more than any other track in the country, guests and harness drivers have enjoyed track upgrades that include a resurfaced and regraded track that raised the turns as much as a foot, improvements to the track lighting to include an LED system, a resurfaced paddock, and a new state-of-the-art tote board with video capabilities. These upgrades are the first of their kind in over 15 years, showcasing that MGM Resorts is “all in” on Empire City and Yonkers Raceway.

“MGM Resorts is proud to celebrate this historic milestone as the stewards of the legendary Yonkers Raceway,” said Ed Domingo, president and COO of Empire City Casino by MGM Resorts. “We have continued making significant investments in our facility over the last several years and promoting the sport of harness racing through showcasing cornerstone events such as the New York Sire Stakes finals and the MGM Yonkers International Trot.”

These investments in one of New York’s iconic sports venues also underscore the importance of the horse racing industry in the Empire State, which contributes more than $3 billion to the state economy. This economic driver also supported more than 20,000 jobs in 2023, according to a recent study by the American Horse Council.

In an annual celebration of the importance of Yonkers Raceway to the region, members of the New York State Assembly and State Senate recently turned out for the Legislative Pace event to experience harness racing firsthand in what is typically dubbed the “hottest political race of the year.”

Live racing continues into December at Yonkers Raceway Monday through Friday evenings with a first-race post time of 7 p.m. Over 80 equine athletes compete nightly, and races are simulcast and available for viewing and wagering online at www.EmpireCityBets.com, where racing fans can create a free account and view live racing at Yonkers Raceway and tracks across the country.

Minler-Grabatin and Flamboro draws join Mohawk race office

Woodbine Mohawk Park Wednesday (Oct. 9) announced the standardbred race office has added Sheri Minler-Grabatin to the team and will now conduct all draws for Flamboro Downs.

Minler-Grabatin has been overseeing the draws for Flamboro Downs through a satellite office for several seasons and will now be a full-time member of Woodbine’s standardbred race office as of this Monday (Oct. 13).

There will be no changes to the draw and final change schedule for Flamboro. The phone number for Flamboro entries and changes is 647-391-5954.

However, the Woodbine Mohawk Park race office wants to encourage all trainers to make every effort to enter their horses through the Standardbred Canada online entry service.

Blooded Horse Sale taking yearling entries

Time to get your black type yearlings in for the 77th annual Blooded Horse Fall Sale to be held Nov. 20, at the Champions Center in Springfield, OH.

If you still have yearlings to sell, join others in taking advantage of this late fall opportunity. Mixed horses will be taken for the main catalog until around Oct. 25, with supplemental entries added through Sunday (Nov. 17).

This highly anticipated sale draws buyers from across the United States and Canada. It’s the perfect venue to sell 2- and 3-year-olds at the end of their stakes season, along with young green prospects and raceway horses. In addition, breeders flock to the sale in search of broodmares and weanlings. With the supplement now remaining open until a few days before the sale, horsemen can bolster their buying power by bringing along a late entry to sell.

The Blooded Horse Sale offers the best marketing value for your horses. With both online bidders and in person buyers competing for your consignment, you get the best of both worlds at a fair price.

There is no commission for reserves not attained.

Enter now at bloodedhorse.com or by fax at 859-300-3940.
