Ted Wilson's resolve

Some 50 years after he got his start with horses, the man that bred, raised and raced Resolve is hoping two of that stallion's offspring – Resolving and Kipper Whipr Snipr – can deliver Super Final victories on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Ted Wilson owns a pair of trotters preparing to compete in Saturday night's (Oct. 16) $1.8 million Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) Super Finals, but the Seagrave, ON resident can claim a grandfatherly connection to two others.

The lifelong horseman bred and raised Ontario sire Resolve and campaigned the son of Muscle Hill through his 2-year-old season in partnership with fellow breeder Michael Pozefsky of Saratoga Springs and William Pozefsky of Albany, NY. Resolve, who would go on to earnings of $2.7 million, stands at Tara Hills Stud, just kilometres from his birthplace, and will see three members of his first crop compete for a division title on Saturday.

"He's standing right in the same county he was born in," said Wilson, who has a Resolve weanling filly roaming the same fields her sire did a decade ago. "She's absolutely gorgeous. She has the same breeding as Duly Resolved; she's by Resolve out of a Muscle Mass mare, so I am hoping that history will repeat itself."

a pair of runner-up results at Woodbine Mohawk Park, and finished the regular season ranked third in the division standings with 106 points.

Resolving and driver Trevor Henry will make their bid for the lion's share of the $225,000 2-year-old trotting filly Super Final purse from Post 4 in Saturday's third race, giving them an advantage over division point leaders Adare Castle and Dabra Day, who will line up at Posts 8 and 10, respectively.

In addition to Resolving, Wilson will also be rooting for home-bred Kipper Whipr Snipr in the 2-year-old trotting colt division that has been dominated by Duly Resolved. Royalty For Life son Kipper Whipr Snipr got his first Gold Series win at Flamboro Downs on Oct. 3 and driver Louis-Philippe Roy will try and make it two in a row from Post 2 in the eighth race.

Both Resolving and Kipper Whipr Snipr are trained by Rockwood resident Rob Fellows, who has known the Wilsons since he was a child growing up in Port Perry, ON.

"In the very early 1970s, when I got involved in the horses at the Port Perry Fairgrounds, it was Ted Wilson who I began this long career with. Here it is close to 50 years later, I still train horses for him," said Fellows. "He's one of the nicest, hardest working people I've ever met in my life, to be honest. He bred them, raised them, trained them, drove them, shod them, he was a one-man-band, he did everything. He still has a few mares, and he's slowing down, but I still have two or three horses with him and it's a pleasure.

"Some people know who you are now, but Ted and Kipp; they knew me before I cleaned my first stall, it was just the beginning of what has turned out to be my life."

It was Kipp Wilson who inspired her husband of 60 years when it came time to name the first foal of New Years Day, whose mother Wilsonator is a half-sister to Resolve's dam Anikawiesahalee.

"My wife one day had the whipper snipper out cutting the weeds, and I took a picture of her and I said, 'That's what we're going to name the horse,'" said Wilson, who often names horses in honor of family members.

"You never told me you were naming the horse that," said Kipp, sharing a laugh with her spouse.

Wilson grew up with draft horses, which his grandfather and father used to promote their Cannington, ON lumber company, and it was meeting Kipp that first piqued his interest in Standardbreds.

"We had a six-horse hitch and we showed them all over Ontario and the States and in Quebec back in the 1940s, 1950s," recalled Wilson. "And when I met my wife down in New York her father had Standardbred horses down in Saratoga, so it was kind of a natural to go from the Clydesdales to the Standardbreds."

The couple purchased their farm in Seagrave 46 years ago and over the next two decades housed as many as 20 horses at a time, which Wilson drove and trained as a part-time endeavour alongside his teaching career. Health problems forced him to scale back in the early 1990s and since his return to harness racing he has concentrated on raising and racing trotters. He currently has three mares in residence, all in foal to Green Manalishi.

“The Europeans don’t buy pacers and so it makes the value of trotters much better, and boy pacers have to go so fast,” said Wilson of the transition to trotters. “You look at those 2-year-old pacers going in 1:50, of course some of the trotters can do that now too, but it’s just so common to see in the 2-year-old pacers, going so fast.

“I remember some years ago, one of the drivers coming up to Barrie after he had raced in Toronto in an earlier race and he said, ‘You know, I just went in 1:52 and a piece and I didn’t get a check,’ and that was few years ago.”

In spite of his current focus on trotters, the horse that holds the biggest part of Wilson’s heart is pacer Wobbly Legs. The horse’s mother Dahlia Lobell was the only mare he retained through his health struggles, and her Kiev Hanover son banked $525,013 and took a mark of 1:49.1 before retiring in 2009.

“He was a dear horse, he was a great friend,” said Wilson.

So long as the weather holds, the couple will be on hand Saturday night to watch Kipp’s namesake and Resolving make their bid for a Super Final title, a race that has eluded them thus far. They have two Grassroots Championship trophies – earned by Legzy in the 2013 sophomore trotting filly final and Resolve’s half-sister Anikadabra in the 2016 freshman filly test – but their best result in the Super Final was a runner-up effort by Wilsonator in the 2009 2-year-old filly Super Final. With Adare Castle and Duly Resolved looming large in this year’s 2-year-old trotting filly and colt Super Finals, Resolving and Kipper Whipr Snipr will be lightly rated, but Wilson shares the same optimism every other owner has heading into the season finale.

“That’s how this game goes, you live in hope,” he said with a chuckle.

Wrenns have three shots tonight in Indiana Super Finals at Hoosier Park

A victory or two at Harrah's Hoosier Park would be a positive ending to a year in which Peter Wrenn suffered a serious on-track accident.

by James Platz

Dave Briggs

Peter Wrenn has recovered from a serious accident in June in which he sustained fractures in eight different vertebrae in his back, two fractured ribs and a deep bruise near his hip to go along with various cuts and scratches.

Tonight (Oct. 15), the top Indiana-sired pacers and trotters will take center stage at Harrah's Hoosier Park when the track hosts Indiana Sires Stakes Super Finals. A grueling summer of competition culminates in the crowning of this year's champions. Peter and Melanie Wrenn have experienced the thrill of victory in the Hoosier State's top program, most recently with Odds On Osiris in 2019. This evening, they have three shots at returning to the winner's circle in a season that provided its share of twists and turns.

After turning in a solid freshman campaign, SwingfortheFences returned in 2021 to become one of the more consistent sophomore trotting colts in the state. In 11 attempts at 2, the gelded son of Swan For All hit the board eight times, winning thrice, and finishing third in last fall's Super Final. This season, he has finished on the board in 12 of 13 starts, claiming six victories and amassing nearly $197,000 for owners David McDuffee and L&L Devisser LLC.

"Maybe he doesn't always go to the winner's circle, but he's never done anything wrong," Peter Wrenn said of the 3-year-old, trained by his wife. "I don't think he's overpowering in there. If you take care of him in the race, it pays off the next start. Sometimes we don't think about it, but he's sure been very, very consistent. He really has. He's not a problem horse, he's fun to race. He's a good poor man's horse. He just keeps getting money and going to work each day."

The veteran driver has steered SwingfortheFences in nearly all of his 2021 starts, but a serious injury in June forced him to the sidelines. The incident occurred on Saturday, June 19 at Hoosier Park in a schooling race following qualifiers. Wrenn doesn't remember the accident, only the aftermath and path to recovery.

"I've been in two wrecks in my life that I don't remember, and that was one of them. I don't ask about it. It wasn't filmed. I don't care. I really don't know what happened," he said. "I remember coming up off the ground. I must have gotten drilled into the ground, and I realized I was hurt. I mean bad. I knew I was. When I got up that day I knew I was seriously hurt."

The 59-year-old sustained fractures in eight different vertebrae in his back, two fractured ribs and a deep bruise near his hip to go along with various cuts and scratches. The road to recovery required a back brace, a lot of rehab, and patience as Wrenn's body healed with time.

"I was very fortunate with how I healed up. I healed up quickly. It was a bad one. The first couple of weeks I was very unsure what was going to happen. I wasn't sure when racing would be involved again," said the winner of more than 10,000 career races. "I worked my way out of it. It's all behind me now."

While he was down, Melanie kept the stable moving forward. Trace Tetrack piloted Swingforthefences in a qualifier and start in the third round of Indiana Sires Stakes, finishing third. Fleurie, a freshman trotting filly just getting her start around the same time, needed more attention. Veteran driver Mike Oosting was asked to help.

"I qualified her the first time before I got hurt. Mike took over and he did a really nice job with her," Wrenn offered. "I think he got her in the right direction. He got along very well and I appreciate what he did for me. It just felt like me sitting on her. That helped her a lot."

Oosting guided her through a second qualifier and then two starts over the Hoosier Park oval, including a triumph in the opening round of sires stakes, where she was a two-length winner in a time of 1:56.1. The Muscle Massive filly is owned by breeder M T Pockets Stables.

"She's a nice filly, but there are a lot of nice fillies in there. I think there's a little more in there, I think she's got a chance," Wrenn said.

As Wrenn returned to the bike – first in a qualifier on July 21 and pari-mutuel competition on July 23 – he focused mainly on the stable's horses. He won his second start back, and as the summer wore on, he became more comfortable each time out. Swingforthefences continued his consistent ways, and Fleurie claimed divisions in four of six Indiana Sires Stakes rounds, becoming one of the top fillies in the group while earning a little over $140,000. Each secured the points to qualify for tonight's Super Finals, as did Shirley Goodness, a Swan For All sophomore that the Wrenns campaigned at 2. She returned to their barn in August, and enters the Super Final sixth in points for the partnership of Bill Beechy, Bradley Maxwell and Kenneth Frieder.

The Wrenns will get their first crack at the winner's circle in the fifth race. Shirley Goodness has drawn post six in the $250,000 final for sophomore trotting fillies. She is 5-2 on the morning line behind favored Swift Swanda, who starts from post four for Erv Miller. Fleurie has drawn post five in the night's seventh race and is the 9-5 morning line favorite. Swingforthefences has drawn to the outside of favored Brookview Bolt in Race 11, starting from post three as the 5-2 second choice.

"Pacer, trotter, it doesn't matter. It's a long haul and you just never know how it's going to turn out," he said of the Super Finals. "It will probably be a rainy, muddy night. It usually is. Cold, windy, rainy night."

Weather.com is forecasting a 60 per cent chance of rain this evening with winds between 10 and 15 mph and a low of 47 overnight. Not ideal racing conditions. But as Peter Wrenn can attest, it could always be much worse. First post is slated for 6:30 p.m.

Hoosier Champions Night - selections and notes of interest

by Bob Heyden

Tonight (Oct. 15) is Hoosier Champions Night at Harrah's Hoosier Park featuring over $2.3 million in purses for 139 Indiana-bred horses over 15 races.

As a comparison, on opening night of Hoosier Park in 1994, the track offered $20,100 in total purses for a 10-race card featuring 88 horses.

Veterans' night?

Forty-two of tonight's 139 horses entered will be driven by someone older than 50 (30 per cent; 12 drivers altogether over 50 will be in action).

Only eight horses are being driven by someone under 30 (5.9 per cent).

Drivers over the age of 65 have more assignment than those 25 or younger.

Braxten Boyd, 21, and Dan Shetler, 71, will both drive tonight.

Jack Parker, Jr. is in race #2 with Morairtime. He is the only active driver in the sport who drove against Niatross.

Solidly Stohler

Trent Stohler is part owner of This Kit Rocks (#10 in the 15th race). Stohler also appeared on the track's opening night in 1994, driving three. Mr Obvious was in the very first race for Stohler at Hoosier Park but was beaten as the favorite.

Big Jim - Better Than Happy

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Recent races provide a mini case study in Lasix as a handicapping tool

by Brett Sturman

In harness racing, the anti-bleeding medication Lasix isn't often a prominent topic of discussion when it comes to predicting race performance. Though the use of race-day Lasix is noted in a racing program the same way that it is with thoroughbreds, the use of it is far less prevalent amongst standardbreds and perhaps that's one reason it's not a preeminent handicapping tool.

On Kentucky Futurity Day at the Red Mile last Sunday, a rare opportunity was given to see on a relatively wider scale how horses perform that are coming off Lasix from their most recent start. This is because the state of Kentucky bans race-day Lasix for all 2-year-old races and all stakes races, which covered seven stakes races on the Sunday card. Some horses didn't seem impacted in the slightest, while others did.

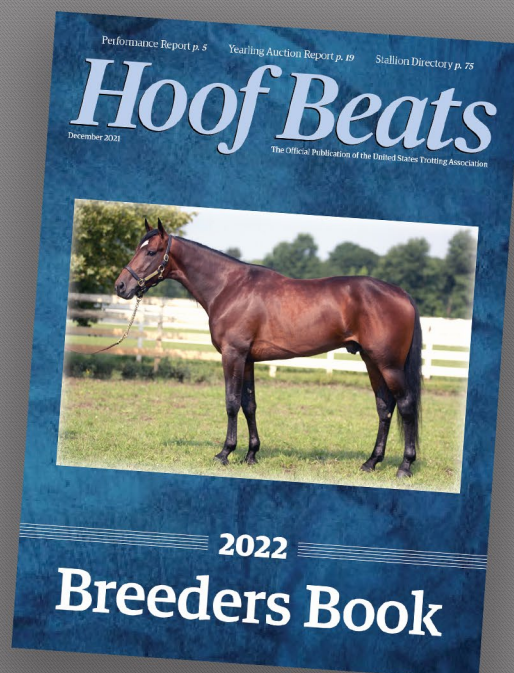

One of the more interesting cases was that of Allywag Hanover. A 4-year-old gelding by Captaintreacherous, he's shown a high-speed ability at the onset of his career as a 2-year-old, was a 1:48 winner last year at 3 and has turned into the best Open pacer this year; always being a super talented horse.

It wasn't until his second start of this year though that he was put on Lasix for the first time. After losing his first two races on Lasix though still pacing fast times, he then reeled off 8 of 13 including wins in the William Haughton, McKee Memorial, Canadian Pacing Derby and the Mohawk Gold Cup. Now again, this was always a fast horse so it's not to say by any means that Lasix alone is responsible for what he's blossomed into – just that it complements his record. The real point is: how would he respond last Sunday now being moved off Lasix? In this column last week, I (foolishly) thought he'd be adversely affected by having to race off Lasix since his first start since May.

Instead of regressing or even racing stagnant, Allywag Hanover paced the fourth fastest race mile in history in 1:46.4, as well as it obviously being a career lifetime best. And the way he accomplished might have been as impressive as any sub 1:47 win. Leaving from post 10, he was parked past an opening quarter in :25.4 and then yielded as they went to the half in :51.3. By three-quarters in 1:19.1 he had been shuffled along the rail and then was repeatedly shifting directions in the stretch looking for room before finally veering to the inside and sprinting away. You could conclude that with or without Lasix, this horse is a monster, and his future Lasix status is negligible when gauging performance.

Another example that closely parallels Allywag Hanover is that of Atlanta. One of the great trotting mares of all-time, Atlanta has raced consistently on Lasix, including every one of her eight starts this year leading up to Sunday. In her two most recent races in Canada, the Maple Leaf Trot and the Armbro Flight, I think it's fair to say that she wasn't up to her best which was uncharacteristic of her normal self. How would she race in the Allera Farms open mare trot coming off a couple of losses and now going off-Lasix for the first time in a long time? Another world record, and one which tied the fastest mile ever for a trotting mare.

Aided by a perfect trip after having dead aim throughout, Atlanta kicked off cover with a :26.3 final quarter to widen away at the wire for a time of 1:49. For reference, no one else in the race closed faster than :27.1. With the return to form and record mile being achieved off-Lasix, she's another example where at least for one race, she can deliver a top performance with or without the medication playing a factor.

While going off-Lasix certainly didn't hurt those horses, it did have a different impact for others – even ones from the same barns. Trained by Ron Burke, Atlanta wasn't impacted in the slightest by the change. But the same couldn't be said for another Burke trainee, Lou's Pearlman.

A 1:49.1 winner at Lexington last year as a 2-year-old, Lou's Pearlman started off this year not at that same level. He eventually found his form which included back-to-back 1:47.4 miles at the Meadowlands, but he could never threaten the best 3-year-olds in major stake races. That all changed in August when Lou's Pearlman debuted this season on Lasix.

From that point, he went 5-for-5 which was capped off by a relentless first-over win against the great Perfect Sting in the Little Brown Jug final. But on Sunday in the Tattersalls Pace, Lou's Pearlman was flat. Perhaps it could have been something other than off-Lasix, maybe he simply bounced after racing two heats on the same day a couple of weeks prior or maybe it was moving back to a mile track. At any rate, the way he tired after setting pedestrian-like fractions makes the off-Lasix change notable, especially due to how sharp he got while on it. Unlike Allywag Hanover and stablemate Atlanta, a real case can be made that Lou's Pearlman thrives on Lasix and you'd have to handicap for that accordingly.

In the Allera Farms open mares pace, Rocknificent was interestingly the only mare who had already been racing Lasix-free. She won easily as the 30 cents on the dollar favorite, which likely had more to do with her being better than anyone else as is regardless of medication changes from her competition.

And maybe a single race for any of these horses isn't enough to come to a definitive conclusion. Beads was never a serious threat in the Allera Farms open trot going off-Lasix, but the last time he went off-Lasix prior was when he won the Hambletonian Maturity. Perhaps his race has more to do with current form as opposed to on-again off-again Lasix use.

Some horses seemingly do better or worse, with or without Lasix, and some don't seem impacted. Ultimately, Lasix is just one piece of a larger picture and if the results from the Red Mile tell us anything, that perhaps in harness racing it's even less of a piece than I first thought.

Breeders Crown Charity Challenge already a winner as it nears the finish line.

by Debbie Little

As the Breeders Crown Charity Challenge nears the finish line, its events last week at the Red Mile were both fun and profitable.

Prior to the race card on Sunday, Oct. 3, representatives from Teams Dunn, Gingras, Miller and Tetrick took to the track for a charity relay race.

"The genesis of the race was to put some emphasis on the stallion auction and remind everyone that it was coming up on the Wednesday," said Charity Challenge creator Marvin Katz. "We wanted to make sure people were aware of the sale being in the afternoon and that the cocktail party was going to be preceding it. I felt that having something at the Red Mile during the Grand Circuit races right in front of everyone would put the stallion auction front and center."

Initially, Katz considered just having the four team drivers pull a race bike down the stretch for 100 yards, but then he thought why not make it more fun.

"I thought of doing it with somebody in the sulky, then I thought, let's put some horsewomen in the sulky and then it occurred to me, let's really spice it up and let's switch halfway through," said Katz.

The team of Yannick Gingras and Sarah Svanstedt won the dash, earning $4,000 for the New Jersey Pandemic Relief Fund. The second-place combo of Dexter Dunn and Nancy Takter earned $3,250 for the John Theurer Cancer Center. Andy McCarthy, subbing for Tim Tetrick, paired with Makenna Pinske to deliver the $2,750 show dough for Special Olympics New Jersey, while David and Julie Miller finished fourth, taking home $2,500 for the enCourage Kids Foundation.

"You have more of an appreciation for what your horse does, I'll give you that," said Julie Miller. "We knew it was for charity, worthy causes and fun and how me and David actually remember the race is we won in our category of 45 and over."

In its third year, the "Breederings for a Cause" charity auction raised a record $207,000.

"I love what Marvin Katz is doing with the charity event," said owner Ken Jacobs. "That's special. And if you can't give back then what good are you, as far as I'm concerned."

Jacobs donated a highly-coveted breeding to Walner that went for $55,000 to Brad Grant.

"I have a new saying, 'If you want to beat a Walner, you better have a Walner,'" said Jacobs.

Ola Yoder's Kountry Lane Standardbreds bought a Father Patrick at last year's auction and was happy to take part again this year, getting a Captaintreacherous for $27,000.

"For charity, I like to help if I can," said Yoder. "I was interested in Walner if I could get it for $30,000, but you know how that went."

The Lexington Selected Sales Company sponsored the cocktail hour before the auction and also sold those breedings commission free, so the net proceeds went directly to the charities.

"From the sales company point of view, we were very happy," said sales manager/director of operations Dave Reid. "Obviously, as syndicate manager for Walner, I'm very pleased of the price it brought as well."

The four charities have been doing their part by supporting their team at The Meadowlands, wearing their gear and getting out the vote.

"I know that kids love horses, but I never knew how easy it was to have families come out," said Michele Hall-Duncan, president and chief executive officer of the enCourage Kids Foundation. "People don't always think of it as a family event, but The Meadowlands has so many wonderful family activities and when our families were invited out, and I don't think any of them had ever been to the racetrack, they had so much fun."

"People have said to me, 'You're taking kids out to the track?' I'm like, 'Yeah, they're not betting, but they're eating chili and enjoying festival-like fun and we have to drag them out of there.' They love the horses. If we have opportunities after this to bring our families out, we certainly will do that."

Nancy Karole Kennedy, director of development for the John Theurer Cancer Center, is a lifelong resident of Bergen County and has been to The Meadowlands many times in the past, although not since the new building opened, until the Charity Challenge.

"I had so much fun with one of our staff members who had never been to the track," said Kennedy. "She was so thrilled. We won our first race. We bet on our team, Team Dunn, and he won and she couldn't have been more thrilled. We just had so much fun watching her experience it and she can't wait to go back."

Although he'd never been to The Meadowlands prior to the Charity Challenge, Hans Dekker, president of the Community Foundation of New Jersey that hosts the Pandemic Relief Fund, had a great time.

"I think we brought a group of eight and no one had been to the track before," said Dekker. "I was recruiting for volunteers and people were like, 'I'll go, I'll go.' They're all great charities and we're super happy to be part of the team and may the best place win."

Staff and athletes from Special Olympics New Jersey have been to every night at the races event that's been held.

"We've had tremendous buy in by our staff and by our constituents for this event so it's been a lot of fun," said chief operating officer Bill DePonte. "The coolest thing for our athletes is that professional athletes at that level will engage with our athletes and families. Our athletes love to cheer. They love to root for other athletes. It's just provided a very unique opportunity that many of our athletes typically would not have had."

"We're a sports organization, so we're competitive. We want to win. [The Special Olympics] motto is 'Let me win. But if I cannot win let me be brave in the attempt.' And we're going to definitely be brave in the attempt, even if we don't win."

The Charity Challenge standings, including Grand Circuit points and charity nights at the races, as of October 12 are:

Team Dunn – 1130

Team Tetrick – 1067

Team Gingras – 1042

Team Miller – 1029

Fan voting runs through Oct. 29 – as do the Grand Circuit races – so there are still more chances to earn points prior to the Oct. 30 announcement of the Charity Challenge champion. Fans can vote at: <https://www.playmeadowlands.events/bc>

"I think the good will that we have established and will have created, that lasts for a long time," said Katz. "And it needs to be the example. It needs to be what we should aspire to do on a regular basis throughout our industry."

London Virtual Yearling Sale begins Saturday

Canada's largest standardbred auction will be held entirely online again this year.

by Dave Briggs

Canada's largest standardbred auction will begin Saturday (Oct. 16) and run through Thursday (Oct. 21). As it was in 2020, the London Virtual Yearling Sale will be conducted entirely online through www.ongait.com. The sale's traditional home — the Agriplex at The Western Fair District in London, ON — is still being used as a COVID-19 vaccination site by the Middlesex-London Health Unit.

"The rental is going to continue until November, so there's not a chance for us to put a sale set up in there while it's still being used for vaccinations," sale manager Ann Straatman told HRU earlier this year when the sale was announced (full story here).

The sale (<https://www.londonvirtualyearlingsale.com/>) will feature 156 yearlings from 20 consignors with the bidding starting at noon on Saturday. The virtual auction begin closing at noon on Monday (Oct. 18).

Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, most Ontario yearlings were sold through a traditional auction at the London Select Yearling Sale at the Agriplex,

In 2020, the London Virtual Yearling Sale — the only major standardbred sale in North America conducted entirely online — saw 102 yearlings collectively grossed $3,312,990 for an average of $32,480 (Canadian dollars). As a comparison — which is admittedly imperfect since the 2019 auction was a traditional live auction where nearly three times the number of yearlings were sold — the 2019 two-day London sale grossed $6,285,000 for 291 sold, producing an average of $21,598. By that imperfect measure, 2020's online average was up more than 50 per cent over last year's traditional sale average.

"I think most (consignors) would say that they had a successful sale," Straatman said. "I didn't have any negative feedback."

Seelster Farms — where Straatman serves as reproduction manager — is traditionally the leading consignor at the sale. This year, the Lucan, ON-based nursery will sell 51 yearlings. Dean and Ashley Wilson will sell 23 yearlings, Century Springs Farm will sell 19, Stonebridge Farm will sell eight and Glengate Farms will sell six.

This year, horses will be sold in Canadian dollars on ongait.

"The reason they were not sold in Canadian dollars last year was that the terms and conditions in our catalogue, which was printed well before the sale, had terms that the horses would be sold in American dollars and I couldn't change that before the sale," Straatman said.

After this year's auction concludes, sale organizers will discuss whether to go back to a traditional sale or stay virtual only for 2022, Straatman said.

"I think we would have to weigh how the 2021 virtual sale goes and weigh it against the wishes of the buyers and the sellers," she said.

Buckeye Classic Sale sets record for gross at just over $2.7 million

by James Platz

The seventh edition of the Buckeye Classic Sale, held Tuesday (Oct. 12) at the Champions Center Expo in Springfield, OH, saw a new record established as 221 yearlings sold for a gross of just over $2.7 million, the most in the sale's history. The sale average of $12,238 was down slightly from last year's mark of $12,904 when 26 fewer horses were sold for $2.516 million. Offspring from the red-hot Downbytheseaside topped the one-day session, with a trio of babies taking the top spots.

"I'm pleased with the trend we've seen the past few years. With Ohio being the hottest program today, buyers have been very bullish at the yearling venue which is obviously good for those breeders having invested earlier in the program," said sale manager Steve Cross. "Consignors and buyers alike are finding the Buckeye Classic a very good option to do business with and we are always grateful for those who participate."

Ohioan Mark Evers purchased only two horses at the Buckeye Classic, but he left with the sale topper and second-highest priced yearling on the day. Evers spent $55,000 on Solution, a Downbytheseaside colt consigned as agent by Trotting Traditions. Out of the Well Said mare Satisfy My Soul, the colt was cataloged as Hip 165 and is a half-brother to PA Stallion Series division winning freshman Vicious p, 2, 1:52.4f; BT 1:49.

Evers also signed the ticket on Seaside Abby, Hip 197, a filly from a family with which he is well connected. She is the second foal from Rockin Image mare Velocity Abby, a horse that Evers trained and briefly raced. He also bred and is campaigning Seaside Abby's half-sister, Fear Abby, a freshman winner with a 1:56.3 mark. Evers bought the yearling for $50,000. All told, a group of five sired by Downbytheseaside grossed $205,000 and averaged $41,000.

The success of Ohio-based trotting sires at the Red Mile last Sunday — Creatine-sired Jujubee winning the Futurity and Uncle Peter-sired Katie's Lucky Day taking the Filly Futurity — translated into increased interest at the Buckeye Classic. Eight yearlings sired by Creatine averaged $21,000, with Star Crystals, a filly from the Dublin Valley consignment, bringing $30,000. Uncle Peter was represented by five yearlings that averaged $17,900. Wild Bill Hiccup, a colt consigned by agent Trotting Traditions, topped the group at $35,000.

"Uncle Peter had a good year this year. So the Uncle Peters they were looking for. Creatine had a good year this year, so they were looking for Creatines," said Dublin Valley Farm's Joe Yoder. "I think (Sunday's success) had a large impact because you heard that from a lot of people. The fact that it was so fresh had a positive impact on them."

Dublin Valley offered a consignment second in size to only Abby Stables. The Fredericksburg, OH-based farm cataloged 30 yearlings and sold 27 for a gross of $372,000 and an average of just under $13,800.

"It felt like the bottom was stronger than in the past and it felt like if you had a nice colt or filly you could certainly get a price that you could be pleased with," Yoder said. "I thought overall it felt like a stronger sale at all the levels, whether you were at the bottom edge, or middle or upper."

Dublin Valley also sold yearlings from the first crop of their trotting stallion Enterprise. A total of 13 Enterprise babies were sold, averaging $14,308. The highest priced from the crop was Devoted Beauty, Hip 157, hammered down for $25,000.

"We were very pleased. With people not totally knowing what they are going to get, hopefully something they will be very pleased with, we thought he was very strong too for being a first crop sire that is an unknown at this point," said Yoder.

Henry D. Burkholder led all consignors in sale average. His quartet of yearlings, which featured the aforementioned Seaside Abby, grossed $93,000, good for an average of $23,250. Abby Stables, which offered the largest consignment, sold 33 for a gross of $415,500, averaging $12,591.

Rosy Weaver was the most active buyer at the Buckeye Classic, signing eight tickets totaling $155,000. Chris Beaver purchased six yearlings for a total of $98,500.

Seven horses were purchased online via Proxibid for a total of $82,000.

Atlantic Breeders Crown champions race toward future.

by Melissa Keith

Harness racing is a sport of regional champions, competing in the omnipresent shadow of the Grand Circuit. Not all small-market stars find future success at big tracks, but events like the Atlantic Breeders Crown (ABC) serve to showcase prospects. One well-known example is Waiting On A Woman (6,1:52.2f; $613,336 U.S.), who captured the ABC Two-Year-Old Trot in 2010, later winning multiple open handicaps at Pompano, The Meadowlands, Saratoga, and Vernon Downs. The 13-year-old is still racing at Saratoga, never missing a single season on the track.

On Sunday (Oct. 10) at Red Shores Charlottetown, the newest ABC 2- and 3-year-old trotting champions coasted to dominating victories. Freshman colt Up Helly AA (Armbro Barrister—Burnt With Finesse) took a new 2:01.1h personal best in his ninth seasonal win, opening up by six lengths for driver Ken MacDonald. Another Armbro Barrister son captured the sophomore final: Mr Finlay Ridge (out of Angus Hall mare R Rocket Rachel) won by five lengths in 1:59.3h for his fourth consecutive stakes win. Asked if there was ever any doubt, trainer/driver Clare MacDonald quipped, “Of what?”

Ian Tate of St. Andrews, NS said he, breeder Arnold Rankin, and Clare MacDonald, all owners of Mr Finlay Ridge, would “probably have a discussion after this week” about the gelding’s future plans. “He’s been a great horse for the two years we’ve had him,” said Tate. “He definitely has the best driver and trainer in the area, so we’re glad to be part of it. Hopefully, he’ll carry on to do great in the future for someone. He’s always been hyper and keen on race day, so as long as he stays healthy, he’ll do great... He’s only had one break in his career.”

Boo Yaya (Stonebridge Terror—Village Bound) upset in the Two-Year-Old Filly Pace, as she and driver Marc Campbell overtook pacesetter divisional leader JJ Scarlett in the stretch. The 1:57.2h victory was the Robert MacLeod trainee’s fourth career win, equalling her lifetime mark.

An accident-marred Two-Year-Old Colt Pace saw heavy favourite Fern Hill General (Brodie MacPhee) and Alldawaytocardigan (Myles Heffernan Sr.) tangled up going into the first turn. While the latter horse was pulled up, Fern Hill General remarkably chased down leader Soul Assassin (David Dowling) from first over, briefly making front at the 57.1 half. When Stash It Away (Corey MacPherson) tipped three-wide from second over, the ‘General’ had no answer. Stash It Away won for the sixth time this year, overtaking a game Soul Assassin in the shadow of the wire, in 1:56.1h.

Reg MacPherson of Stratford, PEI owns Stash It Away, a Pang Shui—Allamerican Napa gelding trained by Kevin MacLean.

“My thought was, we’d be the second-best,” said MacPherson, in reference to having post #8. “‘General’ probably would have won it, but you never know in a horse race.”

The outside draw helped Stash It Away avoid the accident, despite interference: “[MacPherson] drove him great, perfect. He had to dodge to get out of the way. He was just lucky he didn’t get involved in that.”

In the Three-Year-Old Filly Pace, 7-1 Woodmere Leah (Rollwithitharry—Oh Pretty Leah) turned rail advantage into a gate-to-wire victory for trainer/driver Darren Crowe. Divisional leader and Charlottetown track record holder Mystifying started from post #8 with trainer Darryl MacLean in the sulky, since regular catch driver Gilles Barrieau was injured in an accident Saturday and off all drives. Top rival Tobins Brownie (Dave Dowling) launched from post #7, soon finding herself parked first over. Both Tobins Brownie and a pylon-skimming Mystifying would circle Elm Grove Penney to finish two-three behind Woodmere Leah, who took a new 1:55.1h lifetime best for newcomers to stakes-horse ownership, Kenneth and Susan Lowthers of Three Mile Plains, NS.

regional-record-setters Woodmere Stealdeal, Dustylanegoliath, and Rotten Ronnie for a highly-anticipated showdown. Just Call Me Doc (Dave Dowling) grabbed early command, but a three-wide Woodmere Stealdeal (Marc Campbell) would swiftly take over, landing on the lead before the opening panel. Dustylanegoliath (Brodie MacPhee) was forced to take back to third, then renew his first-over attack when he couldn't find room along pylons; Rotten Ronnie gapped his cover, second over in fifth. As Vance Cameron declared at the :55.1 half, "There's no friends on Atlantic Breeders Crown day!" Justcallmedoc couldn't keep pace with 'Stealdeal', breaking in the pocket just ahead of 'Goliath' before the three-quarters. Rotten Ronnie (Redmond Doucet Jr.) was wide enough to avoid interference and get within range of Woodmere Stealdeal, who held him off by half a length in 1:53 flat.

It was the seventh win in 12 starts this year for Woodmere Stealdeal (Steelhead Hanover—Very Ideal Hanover), who went undefeated at 2 for trainer Danny Romo and owners Robert Sumarah and Kevin Dorey. The owners recently welcomed Glenn MacDonald and Frank Brundle to their group. Romo told HRU he was slightly concerned, watching the race: "Well, he took a long time to make front. I saw the quarter in :27 and said, 'Ohhhh, that's rough!' Things happened in the race that shouldn't have happened [interference], but he was going to give a good race."

Marc Campbell said he worried about Rotten Ronnie "a little bit down the lane", but in the winner's circle, Sumarah called it "a fantastic race" and praised Romo's conditioning skills. "The owners are very happy and the race went the way I expected," said the Halifax, NS resident. He said the pacer has three more races between Truro Raceway and Red Shores CDP, before likely heading to Yonkers.

In the ABC Open Mares Pace, Ladylike (Dave Dowling) upstaged pacesetting Woodmere Skyroller and favorite Larjon Legacy in 1:54.2h. The ABC Invitational Pace was a 1:52.1h romp for 2020 Gold Cup and Saucer champ Time To Dance, in line to trainer/driver Marc Campbell. It was the 11th win in 14 starts this year for Brent Campbell and Matthew McDonald's 5-year-old gelding, who did win a 2021 Cup and Saucer trial, but drew post #8 for the final.

Record-breaking Atlantic Classic Yearling Sale

Debbie Francis reflected on the successful Atlantic Breeders Crown and record-breaking Oct. 9 Atlantic Classic Yearling Sale. The Atlantic Sires Stakes executive director observed, "the Maritime-breds have definitely improved since the inception of the ABC. Great horses years ago, but the breeding keeps improving, both stallions and mares."

The proof is in the weekend's races, and in the all-time Maritime-bred sales-topper, gelding Woodmere Xspeedia (Arthur Blue Chip—Wild Ride Hanover), purchased by PEI owner Gene Smallman for $68,000. The 103 yearlings sold for $1.7 million before sales tax, surpassing the previous record of $993,500 set last year.

Trevor Smith is 'still in awe' after Kentucky Filly Futurity triumph

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Over the years, Trevor Smith had seen his share of Grand Circuit races at Lexington's Red Mile and watched people celebrate victories in the winner's circle. Entering this year, he never imagined he would be one of them.

But Smith was there in the Red Mile winner's circle Sunday after guiding Katie's Lucky Day to victory in the $351,000 Kentucky Filly Futurity in the biggest race of his life so far. The triumph continued a career season for the 25-year-old driver, whose earnings of $2.32 million put him among the top 45 drivers in North America.

Katie's Lucky Day, who was supplemented to the Kentucky Filly

Futurity for $50,000 by owner Greg Luther of Black Magic Racing, captured the race by a nose over favorite Bella Bellini.

"That win meant everything," said Smith, who entered this year with one Grand Circuit start to his credit. "At this point in my career, I never thought I would have the confidence to go on the big stage. I grew up kind of around the Red Mile and Lexington all my life. I can remember being there at 10, 11 years old, all the summers spent there and watching all the (Kentucky) Futurities and Filly Futurities and all the great people that won.

"Just to be in it was one thing. To win it, it's a feeling I don't think I will ever feel again just because of the importance and the surprise of it and everything that went into it. I never thought I would be in that place with an Ohio-bred trotter that I drove 28 out of her 30 starts. It meant the world. I don't have the right words to explain it. I'm still in awe."

The fact Smith has been with Katie's Lucky Day nearly every step of the way made their win all the more special. He recalled driving the filly in her first start, when she trotted 2:13.1 in a race for 2-year-old female trotters at the Pickaway County Fair in Circleville.

"From 2:13 to (1):50.4," Smith said with a laugh, referring to the winning time in the Kentucky Filly Futurity. "We're not done yet, though."

Smith, who resides in Washington Court House, OH, began his driving career in 2015. Although he grew up around harness racing — he is the son of Kathy Smith and trainer Jeff Smith, and his older brother Tyler was the youngest driver in history to reach 1,000 and 2,000 wins and now has more than 3,700 — Trevor's focus was on playing basketball and other sports. He planned to play basketball in college, but a broken leg his sophomore year of high school put an end to that idea.

He attended college in the hopes of finding a career path, but left school his sophomore year. As it turned out, his path had been in front of him all along.

"This was never on my radar growing up," Smith said. "Sports were my No. 1 in high school and middle school. Tyler was always in the barn; I was always on the court or the field. When school wasn't going, I would help dad, but it was never something I wanted to do (as a career).

"My sophomore year in college, I was struggling with where I wanted to go. Tyler was begging me to drive. He had seen me train and he would always say I was better than him. So, I left school. I drove 23 races at the fairs my first year. The next year, I went to Miami Valley (Raceway) to qualify, and it was all over. I don't know, it was just a different setting being there, and everything sort of came full circle."

Smith, though, did have a love of horses well before getting involved in the sport. He got his first horse, a Quarter Horse, around the age of 9 as a gift from a woman who had helped care for him through a serious respiratory illness as a young child.

Mark Hall / USTA

"His name was Sugar," said Smith, who from the ages of 10 to 15 showed Quarter Horses. "I would be able to walk him in the yard with no lead, no nothing, and it was like a friendship I never had. I felt like you could get that with every horse. That was just the first one I got to come in direct contact with and take care of. The love for the horse has always been there."

Smith entered Thursday (Oct. 14) with 614 career wins, including a career-high 173 so far this year. This is his fourth consecutive campaign with more than $1 million in purses. His previous high came last year when he totaled $1.63 million.

"My expectations coming into this year were, honestly, to make enough to pay my rent," Smith said. "It's been tough. I kind of feel like I have my foot in the door, but I don't have it enough to where I can be comfortable. Coming into the year, I knew I had to go every place I could, stay as positive as I could, and just try to stay above water. Keep my name out there and keep trying."

"I never in a million years would have dreamed I'd have the year that I've had. I just knew I had to keep progressing on everything I've done. That was basically my attitude, to keep getting better at the little things and the drives will come. I never really expected too much, but in the back of my head, I still wanted to be in every race. I was getting better at trying not to let it bother me. I think that's what allowed most of the things that transpired this year, just taking it slowly."

Smith was the regular driver of Katie's Lucky Day in 2020, when she was owned and trained by Bill Cottongim. He remained with the filly after Black Magic Racing purchased her in April and Todd Luther took over the conditioning of the 3-year-old. Smith also began driving other horses more frequently for the Luthers, and has won 49 races with them this season.

"I didn't have Todd Luther's account until Miami Valley this year because of Katie's Lucky Day," Smith said. "It just went step by step, just kept building more and more. It was a lot of luck. I'm very thankful for the opportunities."

Katie's Lucky Day has won 15 of 30 career races, hit the board 11 additional times, and earned $512,416. She is expected to be supplemented to the Breeders Crown next week. Perhaps Smith and the filly will create another memory, but regardless, Smith will never forget this past Sunday.

"There is no greater feeling," Smith said. "You look into the crowd, the grandstand is filled, and they're all screaming for Katie and me, and it's just, wow. It's amazing. I was able to soak most of it in. I was able to enjoy every part of Sunday, every single part. It was quite the experience."

Betting Line moves to Winbak Farm of Canada

Winbak Farm of Canada is proud to announce that Betting Line, p, 2, 1:51.4s; 3, 1:47.2f ($2,238,518), will be joining its 2022 stallion lineup.

"Betting Line is an accomplished son of Bettor's Delight who is already a proven sire of stakes winners from just two crops of racing age," said Pat Woods, Winbak Farm of Canada manager. "We are excited to have the opportunity to stand this world champion at our farm."

Betting Line was the 2016 O'Brien Horse of the Year Award Winner and 2016 O'Brien and USHWA 3-Year-Old Colt Pacer of the Year awards winner.

"We feel that the move to Ontario will be advantageous to all involved," said Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky, executive vice president of Hanover Shoe Farms. "As a winner of the North America Cup, Canadian breeders are very aware of the excellence of Betting Line as a racehorse and this gives breeders access to the next generation of Bettor's Delight at a very reasonable service fee."

Betting Line won 20 races. His accomplishments at 2 included winning the Champlain Stakes, Metro Pace elimination, two Ontario Sires Stakes Gold legs and Super Final. At 3, he won the Battle Of The Brandywine Final, Carl Milstein Memorial Invitational, Little Brown Jug elimination and Final, North America Cup elimination and final, four Ontario Sires Stakes Gold legs and Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final, Simcoe Stakes division and Somebeachsomewhere Stakes elimination.

"Betting Line was an outstanding racehorse," said Casie Coleman, Betting Line's trainer. "Every time he went behind the gate, he gave it his all and I look forward to having Ontario-sired offspring sired by him with that same desire."

Betting Line's dam, Heather's Western, p, 2, 1:54.3f; 3, 1:53f ($173,102), has produced six who have made $100,000 or more, that in addition to Betting Line are highlighted by Full Picture, p, 2, 1:55.3f; 3, 1:51.1; 1:51f ($582,000), and Shoot First, p, 2, 1:56.4h; 3, 1:53.3f; 1:52.4f ($304,720).

"Betting Line has proven he can sire horses of the highest quality as evidenced by Abuckabett Hanover," said Jablonsky.

"Hanover will keep shares in Betting Line and will be breeding mares to him in the future."

From his first crop, Betting Line is already the sire of $500,000 Tattersalls Pace Winner, Abuckabett Hanover, p, 2, 1:50.3s; 3, 1:49.1s -'21 ($703,072), Paulas Bet Hanover, p, 2, 1:55.1s; 3, 1:52.3f -'21 ($193,669), 2021 Pennsylvania Stallion Series Winner, Darby Hanover, p, 2, 1:52.4f; 3, 1:51.3f -'21 ($192,137), and 2021 Kentucky Commonwealth Series Winner, Caviart Lotus, p, 2, Q1:53.1; 3, 1:49.4 -'21 ($155,751).

"Winbak Farm plans on booking some of our best mares to him in 2022," said Pat Woods. "We have had great success in the Ontario program and are looking to grow upon this success with Betting Line."

Betting Line's 2-year-olds are highlighted by 2021 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes winner, Jazzed, p, 2, 1:53f -'21 ($85,330), 2021 Kindergarten division winner, Hood Party, p, 2, 1:52.2 -'21 ($75,744), and 2021 Pennsylvania Sires Stakes winner, Night Hawk, p, 2, 1:52f -'21 ($54,219).

"I believe Winbak Farm of Canada will be a great place to stand Betting Line since he was very accomplished in Ontario," said Coleman. "I am excited that Betting Line will join the same roster as three others that I trained, Betterthancheddar, McWicked and Stag Party."

Betting Line will stand at Winbak Farm of Canada for $5,000 Canadian.

For more information on Betting Line, please visit www.winbak-farm.com. For booking inquiries, breeders are encouraged to call Pat Woods, Winbak Farm of Canada's Manager, at 905.838.2145 or email pat.woods@winbakfarm.com.

Harrisburg Mixed supplement closes Monday

Officials of Standardbred Horse Sales Co. remind industry participants that supplemental entries for the Harrisburg Mixed Sale will close at the end of business hours on Monday (Oct. 18).

Those planning to enter the supplemental catalog for the mixed are asked to contact their sales agent or call the sales company office at (717) 637-8931.

The two-day mixed sale, to be held Thursday, Nov. 11 and Friday, Nov. 12, follows the annual yearling auction that begins at noon on Monday, Nov. 8 and runs through Wednesday, Nov. 10.

Sales company president Dale Welk is optimistic that not only the yearling sale will provide plenty of fireworks, but that the mixed will, as well.

"Even with a pretty tight market of mixed horses that have been heading to sales, our mixed sale has shaped up to really exceed our expectations,” Welk said.

“We have two excellent breeding stock dispersals, from Herb Liverman (Peninsula Farm, agent) and Warrawee Farm (Preferred Equine, agent), that lead a solid group of broodmares on Thursday, and on Friday buyers will find some truly outstanding racehorses, from 2- and 3-year-old stakes winners to fast free-for-allers.”

Welk urged buyers to keep a close eye on mixed sale updates, as so many of the sale’s “Fabulous Fillies” and racehorses are coming in straight off wins.

“For example, Katie’s Lucky Day is heading to the mixed after her win in last Sunday’s Kentucky Filly Futurity. Sunny Crockett, a 3-year-old trotting colt, just won the Old Oaken Bucket and Liberty Bell, and there’s a 2-year-old Walner colt, Wallet, that just won back-to-back Massachusetts Sire Stakes,” Welk said.

Both the yearling and mixed sale catalogs have been mailed and both are also online at theblackbook.com website and Equineline app. Past performances for racehorses are also available for download on both platforms.

Southwind Petyr equals Jimmy Freight’s Yonkers track record

Southwind Petyr, driven by Jason Bartlett for trainer Mark Harder, matched Jimmy Freight’s track record for a 3-year-old colt pacer on Tuesday night (Oct. 12) at Yonkers Raceway by winning in 1:50.3.

Starting from post six in the $24,000 event for non-winners of six pari-mutuel races or $75,000 lifetime, Southwind Petyr, who finished fourth in last month’s New York Sire Stakes final at Yonkers, went to the lead and carved out fractions of 27.1, 55.3, and 1:22.3. Pocket-sitter Tell Them Lou and driver Matt Kakaley tipped out coming to three-quarters but didn’t make any headway at that point or around the far turn. The stretch drive was a different story, though, as Tell Them Lou began to rally and Southwind Petyr tried to fend him off.

Responding to Bartlett’s encouragement, Southwind Petyr was able to keep his nose in front and put himself in the record book at Yonkers, tying Jimmy Freight’s standard that he accomplished in an elimination for the 2018 Messenger Stakes.

Harder also co-owns the victorious American Ideal colt with partner Rick Phillips. Southwind Petyr, who was sent off at 6-1 and paid $14.60 to win, is now a five-time winner in his career, and he has earned $259,457. The exacta returned $57.50 and the trifecta was worth $152.00.

Elsewhere on the program, older male pacers battled in the $50,000 Pop-Up Series final, and it would be Bettor Memories and driver George Brennan who won in 1:51.4.

Bettor Memories secured the pocket in the early going from the pole position but moved out and around Rock The Devil and driver Jordan Stratton after the 26.4 opening quarter. From there, Bettor Memories maintained command to a 56.2 half and a 1:24.1 three-quarters, then slammed the door with a 27.3 final kicker to win by three-quarters of a length over Rock The Devil. Bill Haley N, driven by Scott Zeron, rode the rail behind the top two finishers, was unable to find room in the lane, and had to settle for third.

Ron Burke trains Bettor Memories, an 8-year-old gelding by Bettor’s Delight, for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC., Weaver Brussemi LLC., and Phil Collura. Bettor Memories made his 41st appearance in the winner’s circle, and he has now pocketed $838,957. He was the 2-1 second choice and paid $6.80 to win. He was atop a $27.20 exacta and a $70.00 trifecta.

Breeders Crown supplementals and entry box approaching

The deadline for potential supplements to the 3-year-old and older Breeders Crown races and for all eligible horses to declare in to the $6.6 million year-end championship events at the Meadowlands Racetrack is right around the corner.

Supplemental entries for 3-year-old and open events are due and payable by noon [EDT], Monday (Oct. 18), in the race office at the Meadowlands or the Hambletonian Society offices in Cranbury, NJ. There are no supplements for 2-year-old races.

All Breeders Crown eligible horses must declare in by 9 a.m.

[EDT] Tuesday (Oct. 19). All eligible 3-year-olds have the option of entering the sophomore event to which they were nominated or an open event.

Supplemental declaration amounts are listed below. Click here for more instructions on supplementing: How to supplement to the Breeders Crown.

The entrance fee is included in the supplemental amount. A minimum of half the amount of the supplemental fee, minus the entrance fee, will be added to the purse. This one-time supplemental payment also makes a horse eligible to all subsequent years' Breeders Crown events under the normal schedule of payments.

You can access the Meadowlands Condition Sheet here: Meadowlands Condition Sheet

All eliminations will race for a minimum of $25,000. If eliminations are needed, post positions in the final will be determined by an open draw with the exception that elimination winners in an order determined by lot, will draw for post positions number one (#1) through five (#5) in the final. All other finalists will be placed in an open draw for the remaining post positions. Any horse(s) that receive a bye into the final will be in the open draw for post positions in the final. All horses that start in the final receive money.

All 2-Year-Old elimination races will be held Friday, Oct. 22 with a post time of 6:20 p.m. [EDT].

All 2-Year-Old finals will be held Friday, Oct. 29 with a post time of 6:20 p.m. [EDT].

Eliminations, if needed, for all 3-year-old and older events will race on Saturday AFTERNOON, Oct. 23 with a post time of Noon. [EDT].

All 3-Year-Old and open events will race Saturday, Oct. 30, with an early AFTERNOON post of noon [EDT].

For more information and racing conditions click: <https://www.hambletonian.com/> or call 609-371-2211 or call 609-371-2211.

Siegelman Stable and Breeders Crown team up on limited edition apparel

Siegelman Stable and the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown continue their 2021 partnership, which resulted in a sellout of their Hambletonian collaboration this past July.

The new specialty collaboration line focuses on the upcoming $6.6 million Breeders Crown Championships at the Meadowlands in October.

This is the limited edition of horse race collections created and designed by Max Siegelman, who launched Siegelman Stable sportswear in June 2020.

Siegelman's capsule collection will feature hats, hooded sweat-suits and more with the re-imagined fresh Breeders Crown logo reinterpreted for current streetwear appeal.

The Collection will drop on Friday, Oct. 29, exclusively on Siegelman's Stable website.

Siegelman is the son of trainer Robbie Siegelman, an accomplished trainer and driver of racehorses for more than 35 years. The luxury streetwear collection also benefits equine causes near to Max Siegelman's heart, including: HorseAbility, an equine therapy program in Long Island that provides services for veterans, doctors, frontline healthcare workers and special needs children; and the Fletcher Street Urban Riding Club out of Philadelphia, and more.

Siegelman Stable has been spotted on Alex Pall of the Chainsmokers, Post Malone, a number of NBA players, as well as, Future's music video and more. It has also been featured as a brand to watch in 2021 by Complex Magazine.

The Breeders Crown, harness racing's year-end championship series, will take place at the Meadowlands Racetrack, East Rutherford, NJ on Friday night, Oct. 29 and on a special day card beginning at noon, Saturday, Oct. 30.

USTA sends SAFE Act letter of support to Congressional leaders

The U.S. Trotting Association has sent a letter of support for the Save America's Forgotten Equines (SAFE) Act of 2021 to Congressional leaders: Speaker Nancy Pelosi and Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy in the U.S. House of Representatives and Majority Leader Charles Schumer and Minority Leader Mitch McConnell in the U.S. Senate, commending their "recent legislative efforts aimed at prohibiting the transport of horses for purposes of slaughter for human consumption."

The letter signed by USTA president Russell Williams and executive vice president and CEO Mike Tanner stated that, "We strongly support congressional efforts to end the legal pipeline of U.S. horses being transported outside of the United States for slaughter and human consumption. This loophole enables bad actors to take advantage of horses and horse owners in vulnerable situations.

"The existence of this loophole also stymies programs and organizations working to provide more suitable option for care."

The letter also cited USTA support programs for retired Standardbred racehorses including the USTA's Support Our Standardbreds and Full Circle programs and the organization's efforts in the establishment of the Standardbred Transition Alliance.

In speaking on behalf of the USTA and the harness racing industry, Williams and Tanner emphasized that “Horse owners, breeders, and the like should not have to fear that selling or donating their horse might mean unintentionally placing them in the horsemeat pipeline...Closing this loophole will allow for the better protection of horses and those looking to provide them with care.”

H.R. 3355, the SAFE Act of 2021, was introduced by Representatives Janice Schakowsky (D-IL) and Vern Buchanan (R-FL).

S. 2732, the John Stringer Rainey SAFE Act was introduced by Senators Robert Menendez (D-NJ), Lindsey Graham (R-SC), Sheldon Whitehouse (D-RI), and Susan Collins (R-ME).

MGM Northfield Park announces retirement of track photographer Jeff Zamaiko

For the past 12 years, Jeff Zamaiko has been a mainstay at the Northfield Park winner's circle as the track photographer where he has celebrated over 40,000 winners. Zamaiko retired on Sept. 15 and will be honored with a family dinner at Kosar's Wood-Fired Grill, a winner's circle ceremony with his MGM work family, and some unique gifts from his time at Northfield Park. Jeff will be joined by his wife Natalie and their son Jeff throughout the festivities at the Flying Turns.

Before starting at Northfield Park, Zamaiko was the track photographer at Thistledown for 18 years and then pulled double duty at the two tracks for more than a decade. Zamaiko has had a trio of photographers helping him for the last 10 years, and he says he could never have made it without their help. His wife Natalie has been known to pick up a camera and help her husband out along with Bob Kemelhar and Dale Dengerd.

“I have known Jeff for 30+ years,” said MGM Northfield Park VP of regional racing operations, Brent Reitz. “He is an outstanding photographer and an even better human being. Congratulations to Jeff, Natalie and the entire Zamaiko family. Enjoy your retirement because you deserve it.”

Zamaiko will continue photographing the thoroughbreds for one more year before giving it all up to head to his retirement home in sunny Florida. To keep himself busy in his retirement Jeff plans on continuing to breed and raise Labradoodles as well as spending many mornings on the Florida lakes fishing.

Angela Casalinova who has been a constant sidekick to Zamaiko for the last five years has taken over for Zamaiko at Northfield Park. She will also assume the Thistledown role at the end of 2022.

Young guns top Maine fair driver standings

In 2018, Windsor Fair played host to a young guns challenge for younger drivers looking to make their mark in Maine Harness Racing. In 2021, three of those young guns topped the driving standings for the Maine Fair racing circuit which concluded on Sunday, October 10 at Fryeburg Fair.

Andy Harrington was the top driver this year with 58 wins and $255K in earnings. He grabbed driving titles at Topsham, Windsor, Farmington, and Fryeburg Fair. He also set track records with MIDNIGHT ZETTE at Topsham Fair and Fryeburg Fair, WARRIOROFTHEVALLEY at Cumberland Fair, and MATT SO SURE at Fryeburg Fair.

Aaron Hall had 49 wins and $221K in earnings at the fair circuit, good for second place in the standings. His orange, blue and white colors also had two of the fastest miles during the circuit, JET AVIATION and SARAH'S LILLY (an all age track record at Fryeburg Fair), both timed in 1:53.3. Aaron grabbed the driving titles at Skowhegan and Cumberland Fairs along with another track record at Cumberland with WHATCHAGONNADOBOO.

Dan Deslandes visited the winners circle 40 times and earned $145K during Maine Fairs. He earned the driving title at Union Fair. Dan now sits on top of the Maine driving standings for 2021 with 111 wins (as of October 10)

Rounding out the top 10 drivers at the fair circuit were: Heath Campbell (39 wins), Gary Mosher (30), David Ingraham (24), Drew Campbell (23), Matty Athearn (15), McGwire Sowers (14) and Walter Case, Jr. (13)

Honorable mention to Winter Asher-Stalbaum, who visited Maine

for the summer from Michigan. The 17-year-old got 10 wins on the circuit and was highly respected by his fellow horsemen.

On the training side, a bunch of familiar faces topped the standings. Benson Merrill had the most wins with 37 followed by Valerie Grondin (31), Karl Butterfield (18), Chris DuBois (16), Sara Gibbs (16) and Marc Tardiff (15).

Racing in Maine continues at Bangor Raceway until Oct. 30 and then First Tracks Cumberland takes over until the end of the season on Dec. 31.

New database for Standardbred industry to be built for Britain and Ireland

A new database has been announced to be built to help professionalise the standardbred industry in both Britain and Ireland. This new database which will be built for use by both the Irish Harness Racing Association and the British Harness Racing Club (BHRC) by leading equine software company Equine MediRecord, based on the Curragh in Kildare, will capture the details of participants including owners, trainers and drivers but also all standardbred horses competing in both countries. This system will help with not only the day to day running of the sport but also increase transability and transparency of the horses involved.

This new database will allow for information from both jurisdictions to more easily be shared with partner organisations in Europe and North America as British and Irish standardbred horses are more frequently competing at the highest level overseas. This is best illustrated by 3-year-old filly Oakwood Annabella who raced in the $250,000 Jugette at Delaware, OH, finishing third in the final this past month.

The BHRC is the governing body for Harness Racing in Great Britain and a member of the International Trotting Association. The Irish Harness Racing Association (IHRA) is the internationally recognised governing body of harness racing in Ireland. The IHRA is a member of the Union of European Trotting (UET) and International Trotting Association. The IHRA works closely with the Department of Agriculture, Food and the Marine (in Dublin). Both organisations look to develop the sport both domestically and internationally.

Darren Owen, chairman of the BHRC said, "The British Harness Racing Club are delighted to be utilising the services of Equine MediRecord, this will be of a great benefit to the administration of the sport in Great Britain and will ensure the licence holders will receive a group 1 service from a world renowned leader in the equine sporting industry. With our colleagues at the IHRA embracing the same project, this will enable our two countries to work closer together as we continue to govern and promote harness racing in our islands."

Mark Flanagan, Chairman of the IHRA said, "The Irish Harness Racing Association is excited to extend our services provided by Equine MediRecord and the new database they will provide to our association. We know that it is critical to have the relevant data about our races easily available as we continue to professionalise our sport in Ireland and with the plans of establishing our own tote. Working with the BHRC on this project will help us to promote the sport of harness racing across our islands while also ensuring we become a world leader in transparency, integrity and equine welfare."

Pierce Dargan, CEO of Equine MediRecord said, "We are happy the BHRC and IHRA decided to partner with us for this project and we hope this will be the beginning of meaningful change that helps improve outcomes for horses and the standardbred industry as a whole in the UK and Ireland."

Equine MediRecord is the global leader in equine anti-doping and horse welfare software. It currently operates in Ireland, the UK, France and the United States with well-known clients such as the Breeders' Cup World Championships, Thoroughbred Owners of California and Arabian Racing Organisation. Equine MediRecord based on the Curragh, county Kildare, is a client of the Local Enterprise Office Kildare and has represented Kildare in the National Final for Ireland's Best Young Entrepreneur Competition.
