Cokstile upsets in $1 million MGM Yonkers International Trot

Mike Lizzi

Cokstile (Vincenzo Dell'Annunziata) won Saturday's $1 million Yonkers International Trot for Norway in 2:23 for the mile and a quarter.

The Norwegian trotter took advantage of hot opening fractions by Ecurie D to win in 2:23 over a mile and a quarter.

by Yonkers Raceway media

New York

Cokstile, representing Norway and sent off at odds of 20-1, rallied off a hot tempo and drew clear in the stretch to win Saturday afternoon's (Oct. 15) $1 million MGM Yonkers International Trot in 2:23 for the mile and a quarter.

Denmark's Ecurie D (Ake Svanstedt) went right to the lead from post five and led his nine rivals by open lengths through fractions of :27.4, :55.2, and 1:24, with Tycoonconwayhalldk (Kasper Foget) gapped in the pocket and Cokstile (Vincenzo Dell'Annunziata) behind him in third. The outer tier was led by a parked-out Stoleteshow (Frode Hamre), but he couldn't keep touch with Ecurie D and clogged the flow. Going to three-quarters, Tim Tetrick sent Back Of The Neck three-wide off the cover of Stoleteshow to take up the first-over position, and Cokstile would have room to slide off the pylons to follow him.

Ecurie D clung to the lead at the 1:54.2 mile mark, but he would be passed by both a two-wide Back Of The Neck and a three-wide Cokstile beyond that marker. Back Of The Neck and Cokstile dueled around the last turn after overhauling Ecurie D, but it was clear late on the bend that Cokstile had more to give, and he showed that in the stretch as he powered away to score by a few lengths. Back Of The Neck was second, It's Academic (David Miller) rallied from well off-the-pace for third, and Lovedbythemasses (Todd McCarthy) collected fourth. Kennedy S (Jason Bartlett) finished fifth.

"It's unbelievable for him, the owners, and the trainer. The owners, they spend money, they invested to buy this horse in Norway," Dell'Annunziata said through an interpreter. "It was an advantage for him that the race was very fast to the half-mile because he's a strong horse. When he saw that the second horse was not fresh, he moved to go behind [Back Of The Neck]. He knew here that that's the time. He pushed the horse and opened up.

"He loves New York, he loves the race, and he loves the people that organized this big race. For him, it's fantastic."

A winner of races around the globe, including the 2020 Elitloppet, Cokstile is a 9-year-old stallion by Quite Easy and is trained by Mattia Orlando for owner Scuderia Santese SRL. Cokstile posted his 28th career victory, and he has now earned US$2,004,432. He paid $42.60 to win and keyed a $274.50 exacta and a $3,865.00 trifecta.

"We believed he could win. In the Lotteria [his last race in Italy on Oc. 2] he had a little problem with one of his feet," said co-owner Stefano Paladini. "He never lost to Ecurie D in Europe. In the first position, he is very strong. He's an aggressive horse who likes to push and push and push. When he races in the front from the beginning, it is too much for him."

When asked about the chances Cokstile would stay in North America for any additional races, Paladini said, "This evening we will speak and maybe. We will see."

Driven by David Miller and dispatched as the 4-5 favorite, When Dovescry stepped to the top from post four and led through an opening quarter in just :30.1. Miller was able to keep the tempo soft from there with the mare, reaching the half in just 1:01.1

and the three-quarters in 1:30.2. Hillexotic (Yannick Gingras) and Amigo Volo (Todd McCarthy) followed along on the inside behind When Dovescry, while Take All Comers (Jordan Stratton) made a three-wide blitz from near the back of the pack to take up the first-over position beyond the half, giving cover to second choice Bella Bellini.

The speed increased on the way to the 1:58.3 mile marker, as When Dovescry zipped a :28.1 panel to get a bit of separation, and nobody could catch her through the lane, with Hillexotic fending off Amigo Volo for runner-up honors, a length and a quarter behind the champion. Lean Hanover (Jim Marohn Jr.) stuck to the cones and ended up finishing fourth at 107-1, and Bella Bellini was fifth.

"I didn't really expect it to go that smoothly. I got to the lead, and she relaxes so well. Every quarter that flashed up, it was getting slower and slower. Up the backstretch I was like 'we should be home free from here.' Yannick was the only one I was worried about. He was running me over, and I didn't want to let him out, but going that slow, 1:58.3, I figured she could out-sprint him.

"She's well-deserving of that win, that's for sure."

A 6-year-old Muscle Hill mare, When Dovescry is trained by Brett Pelling for owner John Lengacher. This was her 23rd career victory, and she has now pocketed $2,055,252. She returned $3.80 to win and led a $35.20 exacta and a $187.00 trifecta.

NONE BETTOR A BEST IN MGM ARIA INVITATIONAL PACE

Trainer Travis Alexander finished first and third in Saturday afternoon's $250,000 MGM Aria Invitational Pace at Yonkers Raceway. The winner was None Bettor A, who rolled over the mile and a quarter distance in a world record 2:20.3.

Driven by Dexter Dunn, None Bettor A was in the lead at the :27.2 opening quarter, but This Is The Plan (Yannick Gingras) tipped out of fourth and was able to clear None Bettor A for the top spot nearing the half, which went up on the board in 56 seconds flat. After This Is The Plan hit the front, Leonidas A (Austin Siegelman) went on the attack first-over from fourth, giving cover to American Courage (Matt Kakaley).

This Is The Plan and Leonidas A would duel through a 1:23.2 three-quarters and a 1:51.2 mile, but Leonidas A had no more to give and began to fade on the last turn, giving Dunn a lane to tip off the cones with None Bettor A. Once he had room, None Bettor A had pace to go with it, and although This Is The Plan dug in determinedly, he couldn't fend off None Bettor A, who surged by for the win by a head. American Courage was third, followed by Ignatius A (Andy McCarthy) and Poseidon Seelster (George Brennan).

"First and third, very happy. Both horses raced great," said Alexander. "None Bettor had a wicked trip. It worked out and Dexter did the job. It was a big mile."

When asked about the upcoming schedule for his two charges, Alexander replied, "Back to the open here, that's all [None Bettor's] pretty much got. American Courage is going to stand and race next year at Blue Chip. We might call it quits now and get him ready for the Borgata."

A 9-year-old Australian-bred Bettor's Delight gelding, None Bettor A is trained by Alexander for owners Joe P Racing LLC. and Oldford Racing LLC. None Bettor A is now a 42-time winner in his career, and he has earned $1,020,177. Sent off at 7-1, be available here. The Pick 5, which begins in race five, has a takeout rate of 20 percent.

This was the final scheduled Saturday card of 2022 at Yonkers Raceway. Live racing at the oval will now be conducted on a Monday through Friday basis – outside of Nov. 24 and 25 when the facility is dark for the Thanksgiving holiday – through closing night of the meet on Thursday, December 22. Post time is 6:55 p.m.

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

A conversation with Ohio racing troubleshooter extraordinaire Amy Hollar

by Murray Brown

What is a track representative and what does she or he do? I asked that question of Amy Hollar who has been a track representative for the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association for the last 32 years. Her territory covers Northfield Park and some of the numerous fair tracks that have harness racing in the Buckeye State. Her comparable colleague in the southern part of the state is Brett Merkle who handles the job at Scioto Downs, Miami Valley, Dayton Raceway and the fairs in that area.

What is it that a track representative for the OHHA does?

"When asked to describe what it is that I do I suppose in one word it might be that I am a troubleshooter. I look upon myself as a liaison between horsemen and track management. I think that I not only need to help out in getting all sides together when a problem presents itself, but also, perhaps more importantly, to identify possible problems and help to try to nip them in the bud before they even become identifiable. Most of what I do takes place in and around Northfield Park. I'm there just about every day and almost all racing nights. I like to think of myself as a people person. I make it a point to know every person's significant other's name and to get to know their children as well. I think that the number of people with whom I cannot get along are few and far between. I like to think that of all the pari-mutuel tracks in North America, there are very few, if any, that have a better rapport between management and horsemen than what is found at Northfield Park. Most of the time we get along without any negative issues. On the relatively rare occasions when they come along we get together and solve them."

I find it rather interesting that Northfield and Yonkers are both harness tracks owned by the casino behemoth MGM. At least on the surface, it appears that Northfield seems to get along rather well with its horsemen, while in New York one cannot always say the same about what goes on.

"I don't know. Maybe at Yonkers it's just growing pains with MGM. Here at Northfield, we've been together for much longer, I guess so to speak, the kinks have been worked out. I sense those in management here might have a better feel for racing and its needs and wants. This just comes from guessing but I hope Yonkers horsemen and management can work out their issues."

You have been doing this for 32 years. How did you become a track representative?

"I was born into harness racing. My grandad operated a pony ride at Ohio fairs in the late '60s and he started our family's racing history. My mom raced horses in Toledo at Raceway Park, Scioto and of course many Ohio fairs. We are a harness family. My daughter and her fiancé, Todd Luther, employ our youngest son and of course my middle sister Jennifer is married to Brian Brown. I graduated from The University of Toledo after meeting my husband and transferring from Kent State with a degree in journalism. I never really practiced it at all though. In the late '80s not many jobs were being found at newspapers. My roots in racing just attached themselves to me. In retrospect, I can't imagine myself being more happy and satisfied with what I do."

What is it that you do on a day to day basis?

"I look upon myself as primarily being, for lack of a better term, a horseman's helper. If someone at the track has an insurance problem, he or she can call me. If someone needs help with the racing office I'll try to help. If help is needed with paperwork regarding the USTA or the Racing Commission, I'll try to help and make an issue easier on someone. If I mess up, I really take it to heart and I do mess up."

How do you look upon what I and many others call the recent renaissance in Ohio harness racing?

"Isn't it great? Every phase of our business here in the Buckeye state is on an upward swing. It wasn't all that long ago that we might have been described as being on death's door. The breeders were starving. The horsemen were just barely making a living — if that. The breeding industry here in Ohio is thriving as never before. There was a time when more mares were bred in Ohio than anywhere else. Through the years it kept diminishing to the point where we became an also ran. It now has regained its stature and then some. I truly admire the folks with long histories in Ohio like Hickory Lane and Midland Acres who rode out the tough years and are now benefitting. Joe McLead and Billy Walters at their Sugar Valley Farm are now standing several top stallions, especially the stud I'm personally partial to — Downbytheseaside — already among the best pacing studs in the world.

In a few phrases, let's talk about several famous Buckeye horseman:

Gene Riegler — "I can only speak with reverence about Mr. Riegler. I'm sure the same applies to most Ohio people. He was arguably the greatest horseman ever from Ohio. He was a great trainer and driver and a great factor in the progression of the breed both in and out of his native state. Can you imagine having trained Artsplace, Western Hanover and Life Sign in subsequent years? Not only a great horseman but a great family man."

David Miller — "The Buckeye. As with most great drivers, he is a natural. He has been great and is a great asset to harness racing wherever he has been. He is the king of Delaware, Ohio among other places. But it’s at Delaware where his light has shone the brightest. He has won more races at Delaware, most of them stakes, than anyone ever.”

Brian Brown — “I’d say the same of him even if he weren’t my brother-in-law. He is one of the finest people in Ohio. He works harder than most men that I’ve known besides my father. He paid his dues learning from his father and he honed his craft with another great Ohio horseman Ivan Sugg. Through Brian’s success on the Grand Circuit I’ve been able to travel to tracks and meet people I never would have just by staying in Ohio.”

Aaron Merriman — “I don’t know how he does it with the schedule he keeps. He is consumed with driving. You asked me why he hasn’t tried the so called ‘big time.’ I think the answer is twofold: 1. He loves Ohio and I think it would take a huge carrot to get him to leave. 2. With the good purses in both Ohio and Pennsylvania, I think that economically he feels he’s at a comfort level staying where he is rather than going to explore new territory where he might not feel comparable satisfaction. I think he’s driven by the fact that someday he might get the chance to be number one in wins, even ahead of Dave Palone. He almost certainly can get to number two maintaining this same schedule. It wouldn’t be easy to do that racing two nights a week at The Meadowlands. He’s Hall of Fame bound for sure.”

Terry Holton — “Big T was one of the great Buckeyes. He is terribly missed and loved by all who knew him. One thing that stands out about him is that there was not a jealous bone in that body of his. He loved to see others do well.”

Jerry Knappenberger — “Another guy who is terribly missed. He lived and breathed Ohio harness racing. He would be so pleased with the inroads the sport in Ohio has made since he left us. No one had a bigger heart for Ohio harness racing than Knappy.”

Brett Miller — “I love Brett. He has an extraordinary great disposition. This world would be a greater place if we had more people like Brett.”

Ronnie Wrenn Jr. — “A great talent. I like to refer to him as my third son. I’d be remiss if I didn’t mention my two actual sons, Carson and Aaron, and my daughter Toni Dale and of course my husband of 30 years - Calvin. I often make Buck the butt of my jokes, deservedly so, but I’m very proud of his ability to train horses and support our family through very lean times. My family and the Wrenns are very similar which is probably why Ronnie and I have become so close since he moved to northeast Ohio.”

Don Irvine Jr. — “In my opinion in terms of talent he’s a great driver and as a horseman he’s one of the best. Donny will be one of the first to say his demons got in the way many times, but for a man in his early 70s he still seems to be at the top of his game. I know by looking at his stable and the condition of his horses, it’s evidence to his great horsemanship.”

Roger Huston — “There is nobody like our Roger. He just turned 80 years old. I don’t know any 60 year olds who can accomplish as much as he can. I’m 54 and don’t look upon myself as a straggler, yet I can’t come close to keeping up with Roger’s schedule. He loves people, he loves horses and he loves harness racing. That constitutes a great combination.”

Where do you see harness racing in the near future?

“In Ohio, I believe it has a great future. Horsemen and women do not forget about the struggle it took to get us to where we are. I do worry about other states and hate seeing any racing opportunities disappear. I believe one of the biggest virtues of harness racing in Ohio is our numerous county fairs. Families with kids get to be up close and personal with racing and horses. Without kids becoming fans our sport will disappear and what a loss it would be.”

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

Rebuff redeemed

by Alan Leavitt

After watching all the great races at the Red Mile these past two weeks, there are two things I want to get off my chest:

At any race at a mile, every horse in the field should be on the gate. A great trotting filly raced her heart out to finish second because she had to start from the second tier. There is no good reason to make a horse start from behind the field. It not only creates an unfair handicap for the horse or horses starting from behind the field, it also creates an unfair handicap for the two horses starting from two outside gate positions. Posts nine and ten are disadvantageous in their own right. With one starter behind the field at the Red Mile, the two horses with the outside gate positions now have one more horse inside them. With two horses behind the field, the outside posts now have two more horses inside them, which is a tremendous handicap.

There also should be a permanent stop to “dragging” by the track. Dragging consists of holding the field long after the official clock has passed zero minutes to post. It’s done to increase the betting handle.

As it’s practiced now, the claim that dragging increases the handle becomes a self-fulfilling prophecy. If the bettors know each race will drag, they hold on to their money until the last 15 seconds.

If the bettors know that there will be no dragging, they’ll get their money in on time according to the official clock. In the biggest betting race in our world, the Kentucky Derby, when the clock hits zero the horses are being loaded into the gate.

There’s a more ominous downside to dragging, and I’m amazed a casino company has not yet raised it. When the clock says zero time left to post, and the field is held for more than five minutes after zero, the tracks are practicing dishonesty. It can only be a matter of time until a casino company uses this matter of dishonesty to support its decoupling efforts. They all want to be done with harness racing, and we’re handing them a perfect weapon to do us in.

At the races, Rebuff redeemed himself, if he even needed redemption, by winning the Kentucky Futurity. Although winning a classic race at 3 like the Futurity enhances his image as a future sire, his brilliance at 2 is the determining factor for me.

On a personal note, his caretaker graciously let me visit Rebuff several times in his stall at the Red Mile. Rebuff is a friendly guy, and quite affectionate. He should be an easy horse to handle in the stud.

I suspect a deal to stand him could well be in the works now. But whether that’s true now or not, if he were mine I’d have gotten the issue of his fertility out of the way while he was in Lexington, where repro vets abound.

Anyone of them could have taken certain testicular measurements and put them into an equation that will tell with 95 per cent accuracy what his semen output will be. It doesn’t say what the quality will be, but from a stud master’s point of view, the quantity is the essential number. And once this procedure is done, there’s no need to make a deal contingent on an actual fertility test.

A stallion’s strength or weakness as a sire revolves only around his racing ability, with no reference to his pedigree. But here we’re talking about two entirely different aspects of every horse’s makeup, his Phenotype, which is the living horse and includes his racing side, and his Genotype, which is his genetic profile.

Within every horse’s Genotype is his speed gene, and his ability to transmit it determines his ability to sire fast horses, and with what frequency. For a layman horse breeder, it’s convenient to think of a horse’s genetic profile as a deck of playing cards, running from a low card of Two to a high card of Ace.

Each parent of every foal contributes 50 per cent of its genetic makeup, although what each contributes is entirely separate unto itself. At the instant of conception two genetic contributions are blended, and the average of the two determines how fast the foal will be on the track.

A great trotting sire, Walner, always comes with a high speed card, so even with a low or middle range speed card from the dam, the result is at least a decent racehorse. But with any help genetically from the dam, you get a stakes colt or filly. Which is why there are so many sons and daughters of Walner in the first three placings of so many trotting stakes.

Which brings me, at long last, to Rebuff’s five generation pedigree, which tells us where he came from. Valley Victory, who raised the speed level of the trotting breed to a new level, is both Rebuff’s Tail-Male sire on his paternal and maternal sides. Which makes Rebuff technically inbred to Valley Victory.

As a quick refresher, when the sum of the two generations in which the same name appears is six or less, that is properly designated as Inbreeding.

When the sum of the two generations in which the same name appears is seven or eight, what is Line Breeding.

Rebuff's extended pedigree also shows how great a role Charlie Keller played in breeding the modern standardbred. Rebuff traces twice to Charlie's foundation mare Yankee Duchess, who is the granddam of Yankee Blondie, the dam of Muscle Hill, and also the granddam of Gratis Yankee, the dam of Yankee Glide, who's the sire of Meucci Madness, Rebuff's dam.

If no name appears twice for a total of eight or less, the horse so bred is designated an Outcross. The overwhelming majority of today's trotters and pacers are Outcrosses. The racing success of Rebuff shows how powerful an effect Inbreeding can have.

Rebuff's extended pedigree also shows how great a role Charlie Keller played in breeding the modern standardbred. Rebuff traces twice to Charlie's foundation mare Yankee Duchess, who is the granddam of Yankee Blondie, the dam of Muscle Hill, and also the granddam of Gratis Yankee, the dam of Yankee Glide, who's the sire of Meucci Madness, Rebuff's dam.

Keller's affect is also seen in Brazen Yankee, who is the second dam of Maiden Yankee, the dam of Muscles Yankee.

Charlie Keller was a great ballplayer who played in the New York Yankee's outfield with Joe DiMaggio and Tommy Henrich. For several seasons he outplayed DiMaggio in every way, including statistically, but he never got the recognition he deserved. The same is true for his career as a standardbred breeder.

I'm proud to say he was a friend of mine. Rest in Peace, Charlie, you deserve it.

Indiana

Homebred Fortunada scores improbable victory for Wright, DeLongs

by James Platz

The father-son team of Bo and Pat DeLong have made a habit of buying yearlings at the sales and turning them into Indiana Sires Stakes champions. Friday night (Oct. 14) the Wisconsin duo earned their latest Super Final win at Harrah's Hoosier Park with Fortunada, a horse they bred and raised in partnership with Michigander Gordon Wright. The small yet resilient filly, sent off at 16-1 odds in the $250,000 final for freshman filly pacers, delivered an improbable upset win for the trio, trainer Roger Welch and driver John DeLong, stopping the clock in 1:52.4.

"This one here is just a small little filly. We got her ready a little late because Roger didn't have the people to take care of her,"

Bo DeLong said. "We trained her at our farm track and brought her down here. She gives 100 per cent every time she races."

Over the years, the DeLongs have collected Super Night hardware with multiple horses bought at public auction including millionaire Bridge To Jesse's and Always About Katey, a mare that retired with just shy of $850,000 on her card. This time, their newest champion was born through a decade-long association with Wright, who began this journey with Fortunada's great grandam, One's Enough. He bred the Albatross mare to Armbrus Cadet, resulting in the mare One Cadet.

"I had her grandmother, One Cadet. Raced her grandmother in Chicago. She was a very good racehorse. She just died about two weeks ago on my farm," Wright said. "Then I had her daughter, this mare's mother, Lauren. She was also a good mare. She raced in Canada, a Canadian bred, she made about $380,000."

One Cadet raced five seasons, chalking up 31 wins in 105 starts and banking $318,254. She took a 1:52.1 mark at Balmoral Park as a 5-year-old. Ironically, the previous year she turned in her fastest seasonal score, a 1:52.2 effort, at Hoosier Park. As a broodmare, One Cadet has produced six winners from nine foals, with five six-figure earners. Lauren, sired by Modern Art, raced three seasons, but her freshman campaign turned out to be her best. Trained by Bob McIntosh, the filly won two Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots finals and finished second in two more.

Lauren was first or second in 11 of 14 seasonal starts, collecting eight wins and amassing $309,468 in earnings.

At the conclusion of her racing career, the DeLongs traded into Lauren and bred the mare in partnership with Wright. Fortunada is the sixth foal from the mare, sired by Breeders Crown champion Luck Be Withyou. Lauren had not produced a winner prior to the filly racing this season.

"The mare herself was a good race mare. She comes from a good family," said Pat DeLong. "The first few babies we had with her were beautiful. I don't think any of them really made over $15,000 or $20,000. Definitely not sires stakes horses. Then we bred her to Luck Be Withyou and she had a little runt. And the rest, you saw it tonight."

To make a horse eligible to the Indiana Sires Stakes program, one needs to pay a $500 nomination fee in the spring. Had the cost of entry been higher, the DeLongs may have hesitated with making the undersized Fortunada eligible. Instead, they tried their luck.

Said Bo DeLong, "For $500, we'll take a chance."

On a night when several of the established favorites failed to reach the winner's circle, Fortunada triggered the biggest upset of the evening. Although there were multiple fillies sporting longer odds in the contest, the partners watched in disbelief as John DeLong and their homebred moved from third on the outside racing out of the turn and surged past fading favorite Rollin Rosie and Sleazy Mama late in the stretch to score the win by three parts of a length. The winning time was a fifth off her seasonal best.

"We named her Fortunada, which is Italian for 'Lucky One,' and it came through tonight. It's unbelievable. I could never have dreamed this. She started coming in the stretch and just kept coming. She's got a lot of heart. I thought she could get a check. This is my wildest dreams come true."

"Never in my wildest dreams did I ever think," said Bo DeLong, in an excitement-fueled back and forth with his son after the winner's circle presentation.

"No, we have never had a horse ever surprise us like this, ever. This is crazy. I mean, she's this big," interjected Pat, holding his hand out to his side to indicate her small stature.

The story is even crazier when you consider that Fortunada did not qualify for the Super Final on points. While the filly recorded six wins in 10 attempts leading into the championship race, she only competed in two Indiana Sires Stakes legs, finishing second in one and third in another. That left her 11th in points, four shy of the last spot. When Beauty N Grace, third in the standings after six legs and twice a winner, did not drop in the box for the final, the filly was pulled into the $250,000 finale.

"We named her Fortunada, which is Italian for 'Lucky One', and it came through tonight," said Wright, who watched the race from the rail. "It's unbelievable. I could never have dreamed this. She started coming in the stretch and just kept coming. She's got a lot of heart. I thought she could get a check. This is my wildest dreams come true."

Fortunada turned the trio's good fortune into a Super Final score. With the win, she raised her seasonal bankroll to $202,870 while providing a thrilling conclusion to the sires stakes campaign for Wright and the DeLongs.

Harrah's Hoosier Park plays host to Hoosier Champions Super Finals Night

by Jacob Rheinheimer / Harrah's Hoosier Park

Harrah's Hoosier Park Racing & Casino played host to Hoosier Champions Night on Friday (Oct. 15), and the 15-race program provided a fitting conclusion to the 2022 Indiana Sires Stakes season. The summer-long Indiana Sires Stakes culminated with the crowning of 12 new champions with purses offered exceeding $2.3 million. The competitive card was reflected with a record handle on the evening, as the bettors pushed over $1.2 million through the Harrah's Hoosier Park betting windows as the eight $250,000 Indiana Sire Stakes Super Finals provided a mix of formful favorites and a few surprises on the evening.

TWO-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

Kicking off the quarter million dollar Super Finals on the night would be the freshman filly trotters in the evening's third race. Yo Beth D proved that the outside post nine was no problem at all, setting sail for the lead immediately as the wings of the gate folded and never looking back from that point forward with driver Trevor Smith. Yo Beth D scored in a dominating 1:54.4 performance by over two-lengths on the wire in front-end fashion as the co-favorite at even money. T's Pride and Trace Tetrack rallied for the second position, with Helpoftheseason and Peter Wrenn finishing third.

With the victory, Yo Beth D makes it seven victories in 10 starts at age 2, banking $299,650 for owner Greg Luther Racing LLC. Trained by Todd Luther, Yo Beth D is a daughter of first crop stallion Helpisontheway out of the Cantab Hall mare, Scented Roses. Bred by John Schmucker, the 1:54.4 effort in the Indiana Sire Stakes Super Final was just 1/5 of a second off of her career best.

M-M's Dream (Sam Widger) won the Super Final for 3-year-old filly trotters in 1:52.4. The victory gave the Henry Graber Jr. trainee filly a sweep of all eight legs of Indiana Sire Stakes along with the quarter million dollar Super Final.

TWO-YEAR-OLD COLT & GELDING TROT

Immediately following a 1:48.4 score in the older pace with now three-time Indiana Sire Stakes Champion, Tellmeaboutit, driver Mike Oosting would once again be back in the winner's circle with freshman trotting gelding, Jailhouse Dance. Leaving from post four in the field of 10, Jailhouse Dance settled sixth in the early stages before joining the cover flow third over up the backstretch. In the lane, Jailhouse Dance vaulted off cover, setting up a deep stretch duel with Talent Scout and Dexter Dunn, with Jailhouse Dance scoring the victory by a head behind the strength of a :27.3 final quarter in 1:54.1. Brookview Darius and Atlee Bender would round out the trifecta at 42-1.

Trained and co-owned by Ken Rucker alongside Rock & Roll Stable Inc and Michael Shan, Jailhouse Dance has been a model of consistency in his rookie campaign, picking up four wins in 11 starts and hitting the board nine times. Bred by Lester Beechy, Jailhouse Dance is a gelded son by Dover Dan out of the Jailhouse Jesse mare, Jailhouse Diva. The 1:54.1 effort was a lifetime best for Jailhouse Dance who has now banked $254,680 with the victory.

THREE-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

With a shot at competing the Indiana Sire Stakes sweep with yet another Indiana Sire Stakes Super Final victory, M-M's Dream did yet again what she's done all season long with a vicious score in the 3-year-old filly trot. Leaving from post seven, M-M's Dream and driver Sam Widger settled mid-pack early as World Champion Bluebird Dove and Peter Wrenn opened with blistering early fractions of :27 and :55.4. M-M's Dream went on the offensive from there, grinding first over before putting her nose in front at the top of the lane, from there, M-M's Dream powered ahead with authority with a :27.4 final fraction to score in a lifetime best 1:52.4 by a length over longshots Luv Lorelei with Robert Taylor and Swan Trixie with Dexter Dunn respectively.

The victory gave the Henry Graber Jr. trainer filly a sweep of all eight legs of Indiana Sire Stakes along with the quarter million dollar Super Final. The daughter of Swan For All out of the Classic Photo mare, Trading Places has been all but invincible in 2022, scoring wins in 10 of 11 seasonal starts, with her lone defeat coming at the hands of Hambletonian Oaks Champion, Fashion Schooner in the $115,000 Moni Maker in September. Bred by Mervin Miller, M-M's Dream has banked $427,550 in 2022 and boasts a career bankroll of $696,012 for owners Eleven Star Stables, Hillside Stables, and Frank Baldachino.

TWO-YEAR-OLD PACING FILLIES

The first shocker of the evening came in the freshman pacing fillies division, as Fortunada and driver John De Long pulled the 15-1 upset with a late rally in a chaotic finish. Leaving the gate from post seven, De Long took back with Fortunada in the early stages as things got busy upfront, with the heavily favored and unbeaten Rollin Rosie had to work hard to get by Always In Flight and Jordan Ross though early fractions of :26 and :53.4. After finally clearing to the front, Rollin Rosie and Dunn appeared to be home free on the turn, opening up by three on the field before the hot early fractions and strong stretch headwinds bringing the field back into play in the lane. In the end, it would be Fortunada with a stirring stretch rally, closing with a :28.2 final quarter to score a 1:52.4 victory by three-quarters of a length over Sleazy Mama and Marcus Miller. Rollin Rosie and Dexter Dunn would dig in to hold for third.

The victory was the seventh in 11 seasonal tries for the Roger Welch trained Fortunada. Fortunada is a homebred filly owned by Gordon Wright along with William and Patrick De Long, and with the score has now earned $202,870 in her freshman campaign. Fortunada is a daughter of Breeders Crown winning stallion, Luck Be Withyou out of the Modern Art mare, Lauren.

THREE-YEAR-OLD TROTTING COLTS & GELDINGS

Driver Sam Widger completed the sweep of sophomore divisions and jumpstarted a banner night for trainer Tyler George when he steered Adamsville Road to a gate-to-wire victory over Ponda Adventure (Trace Tetrack) in a career-best 1:53.2. Swan Captain (John De Long) was third. Adamsville Road took control right after the wings folded off the gate and simply asserted himself throughout the mile while establishing fractions of :27.1, :56 and 1:24. Ponda Adventure provided a valiant chase as he was second the entire journey, Swan Captain and John De Long finished third.

Competing for Mel Rose Stable and Joe Nesselrod, Adamsville Road is trained by two-time defending leading trainer at Harrah's Hoosier Park, Tyler George. The gelding is a son of Swan For All out of the Yankee Glide mare, She Wore Red and was bred by Joyce McClelland. With the Super Final score, Adamsville Road boosted his bankroll to more than $136,000 and sports a lifetime record of 21 8-2-3.

THREE-YEAR-OLD PACING FILLIES

Trainer Tyler George picked up where he left off in the next $250,000 Super Final on the evening, this time prevailing in a photo finish with Need To Breathe in the 3-year-old filly pace. Starting from the middle of the gate in post five, driver Dexter Dunn worked out a perfect pocket trip in the early stages as race favorite JK's Rollin Baby and Mike Oosting set the tone early with :26.2 and :54.1 early fractions. Dunn waited patiently behind dueling leaders of JK's Rollin Baby and Trick Of The Light and Trace Tetrack through three-quarters of 1:22:4 before launching their bid up the passing lane. Need To Breathe would need to fend off a hard charging Always Gonna B You and Dave Miller as well as Marvelous Marshia with John De Long to score by a head on the line in 1:51.1.

Owned by trainer Tyler George along with Trent Stohler and Terry Leonard, Need To Breathe has now won six times in 15 seasonal starts in a season that has seen the filly earn $205,305. Bred by Mike Hollenback along with the late Charles Kline, Need To Breathe is a daughter of Riggins out of the Western Ideal mare, Christie Hanover.

TWO-YEAR-OLD PACING COLTS

Driver John De Long picked up his second Super Final score of the evening in the freshman pacing colts division aboard Buzzsaw Russ. Buzzsaw Russ and De Long were patient in the early stages, sitting third along the rail as Fox Stake Champion, Coach Stefanos and Trace Tetrack cut early fractions of :26.2 and :54.4. Coach Stefanos would get company on the front on the far turn as stablemate J B Gram and Marcus Miller engaged him at three-quarters in 1:23. Coach Stefanos and Tetrack shrugged off the challenge to emerge clear of his rival at the top of the lane, with Buzzsaw Russ desperate for racing room on the rail before shaking loose and motoring home late, rallying by Coach Stefanos late in the lane to get up by a head behind the power of a :26.4 final split in 1:50.2. Hetolditlikeitwas and Peter Wrenn would round out the trifecta at 12-1.

Trained by Missy Essig for her father Russell Beeman and Charles Weaver, Buzzsaw Russ has picked up four victories in nine tries as a freshman. Bred by Devon Beechy and Devon Knepp, Buzzsaw Russ is a gelded son of Rockin Image out of a near half-million dollar earning Yankee Cruiser mare, Up Front Cruiser. The career best effort of 1:50.2 has now brought the earnings of Buzzsaw Russ to $235,460.

THREE-YEAR-OLD PACING COLTS

The Super Final action would conclude with a 10-1 stunner and Ponda Warrior uncorking a ferocious performance in the glamour boy division. Driver Dexter Dunn hopped aboard this week and steered Ponda Warrior to the middle of the pack from a post eight starting position as JK Victory and Trace Tetrack laid down the law with a :25.2 opening panel. The heavily favored Soaring Now and Joey Putnam flew up to take command at the half in a potent :53.1 before Ponda Warrior went on the attack on the far turn, surging into second at three quarters in 1:21.3. After a very brief tuck into the pocket coming out of the final turn, Ponda Warrior was back out for more, unleashing a :27.2 final quarter to decimate the field by over three lengths in 1:49.2. Rip Wheeler and Brandon Bates would get up for second after having never seen the rail from post nine, Soaring Now and Putnam held for third.

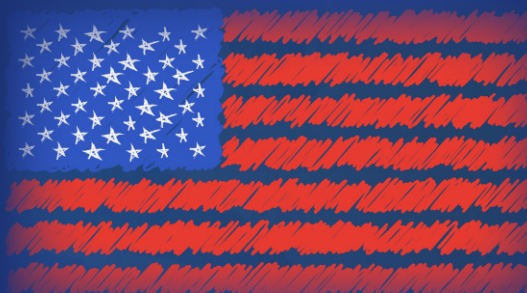

Trained by Jay Hochstetler who co-owns the colt along with Finkelberg Racing LLC and South Of The Tracks Racing Inc, it was the fourth win in 13 seasonal tries at three for Ponda Warrior. Bred by Pond-A-Acres, Ponda Warrior is a Rockin Image colt out of the American Ideal mare, Sweetinsinful. The Indiana Sire Stakes Super Final score boosts Ponda Warrior's 2022 bankroll to $239,400 and puts him at over $350,000 for his career.

OLDER FINALS

Four $70,000 Indiana Sire Stakes Finals for the aged competitors would also highlight the evening, with Ima Diamond Babe and Atlee Bender scoring in 1:54 over ER Kim for trainer James Yoder taking the mare trot. In the older horse and gelding final, Dexter Dunn would score yet another stakes victory on the evening, this time with Predator And Prey with a 1:53:4 score for trainer Michael Hitchcock.

The older pacing ranks would see some familiar faces in the Hoosier Champions winner's circle, as now three-time Indiana Sire Stakes champion, Tellmeaboutit dazzled with a 1:48:4 front-end victory in the older horse and gelding pace with regular pilot Mike Oosting in the bike for trainer Alvin Miller. The queen of Hoosier Champions night, Rockin Nola was in vintage form in the mare pace as she unleashed a vicious 1:49:3 score for the father-son team of Joe and Joey Putnam to pick up her fifth Indiana Sire Stakes final in as many tries at age six.

Long Tom colt tops Buckeye Classic Sale

by James Platz

Long Touch, by Long Tom out of the Andover Hall mare Upfront Carol, topped the Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale, held Tuesday (Oct. 11) at the Champions Center Expo in Springfield, OH. Consigned by Dublin Valley Farm as agent for Troyer Farms of Middlefield, OH, the brown colt, cataloged as Hip 114, sold for $75,000, purchased by Wayne Mast Jr. All told, 231 yearlings passed through the sale ring to gross $2.57 million and produce an average of $11,127. That figure represented a nine per cent decrease over 2021 business for the sale, conducted by Hoosier Classic Sale Company LLC.

"We really had not focused in on him until we saw him. He caught our eye," Mast said of Long Touch. "We just really liked that horse. He was a good-looking individual. There were some things I was looking for in the Long Tom side. We really like Long Tom in general to start with. We thought the colt had a lot of similarities to the one we have."

Mast and his partner, Walt Callam (Callam Racing LLC), won an Ohio Sires Stakes championship on Oct. 1 with Long Tom gelding Longshot. The sophomore won eight of 14 seasonal starts and banked just shy of $300,000 in 2022.

Mast not only purchased the sale topper, but the Dundee, OH-based owner was also the most active buyer at the Buckeye Classic. Over the course of the session he signed seven tickets totaling $212,000. Besides Long Touch, a sibling to 16-time winner Dont Front Me, Mast purchased three other offspring from the son of Muscle Hill. Lucky Tom, Hip 106 in the catalog, sold to Mast for $32,000. Out of the SJs Caviar mare G Momma, the colt is a full brother to OHSS final runner-up Along In Time. Brushy Acres of Huntsburg, OH consigned the bay.

The owner also invested in yearlings from well-established and new trotting sires in the Buckeye State. Mast placed the last bid on Home Run Queen, a Full Count filly consigned by Long Touch, a colt by Long Tom out of the Andover Hall mare Upfront Carol, topped the Buckeye Classic Yearling Sale, held Tuesday (Oct. 11). Wayne Mast Jr. paid $75,000 for the colt consigned by Dublin Valley Farm as agent for Troyer Farms of Middlefield, OH.

Crystal Springs Farm. Cataloged as Hip 66, she is a sister to three winners, selling for $21,000. Mast also signed the ticket on Lady's Cdl (Hip 158) for $20,000. From the first crop of European champion Volstead, the colt is the first foal from a Chapter Seven mare that is sister to four winners.

"In the first sale there was a lot of hype about him," Mast said of Volstead. "I'm impressed with how he puts a horse together. It wasn't just the one I ended up buying. I hope it will translate into good racehorses."

Volstead was well received at the Buckeye Classic, with eight babies averaging $20,250. A pair of colts from the Dublin Valley consignment – Swanstead (Hip 107) and Whiskey Peddler (Hip 166) – brought $25,000 apiece. Offspring from Long Tom also generated strong numbers, with 25 averaging $18,360 and seven sold for $25,000 or more. A quartet sired by Triumphant Caviar averaged $21,500, while Full Count was represented by 10 yearlings that sold for $17,300 on average.

Set Sail, the lone representative of Downbytheseaside, topped all pacers sold at the Buckeye Classic. The filly is eligible to Ohio and Kentucky and is a sibling to six-figure earners Dragons Revenge and My Red Sea. Cataloged as Hip 38 from the Cool Winds Farm consignment, William Rufenacht of Archbold, Ohio purchased the filly for $49,000.

How Hill, a colt from the Winterwood Farm consignment, attracted the next highest bid for a pacer at $38,000. Sold as Hip 131, the Racing Hill yearling is the first foal from a Western Terror mare that is a full sister to 48-time winner Mosee Terror ($574,582). Matt Rowe purchased the colt.

A group of six Racing Hill babies averaged $17,417, while half a dozen from the first crop of Lather Up sold for an average of $12,667. Nine individuals sired by Fear The Dragon averaged $10,389 led by filly Dancing Dragon, which brought $35,000 and sold to Chris Short.

Dublin Valley Farm, which offered the largest consignment at the Buckeye Classic, finished with 36 yearlings grossing $508,800 and averaging $14,133. LMN Bred Stables sold 19 babies for $261,000, an average of $13,737. A group of six Hickory Lane yearlings averaged $16,833, while Crystal Springs Farm sold eight that averaged $12,563.

Smaller consignments that produced good numbers included Perry Coblentz (two sold for $60,000), Brushy Acres (four sold for $86,700), Marvin Raber (three sold for $77,000) and Royal View Farms and Bill Troyer (two sold for $41,000).

This year's sale saw a reduction in gross, average and median while selling 10 more yearlings than in 2021. Although 21 yearlings were hammered down for $25,000 or more, 30 brought less than $4,000. By comparison, only nine babies sold for less than $4,000 last year when the sale averaged over $12,000.

A dozen yearlings were sold online through the Proxibid platform for sales of $75,900.

Great night for Guarato and Ready Cash in Paris

by Thomas Hedlund

Vincennes offered a nice race card with the $400,000 European Derby for 4-year-olds as the main act on Friday night (Oct. 14).

The French "I-team", with Italiano Vero as first choice, would dominate the race, but it wasn't the Philippe Allaire trained favorite who proved strongest over the distance 2,100 meters.

Italiano Vero was sent to the front position a half mile into the race and a couple of hundred meters later, the first choice got company from outside trotter Ideal du Pommeau (Ready Cash), driven by Matthieu Abrivard.

The European Derby contained five French horses and six Swedish bred trotters and it was the French home team that dominated the race when the home stretch approached. Ideal du Pommeau looked very strong when Abrivard asked for some action at the top of the stretch and leader Italiano Vero couldn't defend himself.

Swedish horse Iznogoud Am was smartly driven, third on the inside, by Björn Goop and the duo claimed the silver medal ahead of leader Italiano Vero. French horses finished 1-3-4-5 and the winner Ideal du Pommeau could very well be a serious threat in the biggest races in Europe in the future. Sébastien Guarato's 4-year-old started his career late as a 3-year-old, on Oct. 18 last year and he ended the season undefeated after five starts.

Ideal du Pommeau continued to win his first two starts as a 4-year-old and Friday night's victory is his biggest so far in his career. The mile rate in the European Derby was 1:55 over 1.3 miles.

Ready Cash claimed one more big trophy as sire during Vincennes' card Friday night. The $100,000 Championnat Europeen des 5 ans became a successful story for Jean-Michel Bazire and his Herault d'Armes (Ready Cash). Bazire gave his horse order to attack against leader – and first choice – Hohneck in the last turn and the two French bred trotters battled in a tight finish, where outside horse Herault d'Armes was the strongest of them. Hohneck is merited in tough races in France this year, but this time he had to capitulate. Herault d'Armes came home in a strong mile rate of 1:53.4 over 1.3 miles, on a track that could be described as sloppy.

Three-year-olds battled in Championnat Europeen des 3 ans and favorite Just A Gigolo had to use plenty of power to reach front position after 650 meters and even if driver Franck Nivard could keep the pace down as the uphill part approached, Just A Gigolo was beaten at the top of the stretch when Sébastien Guarato trained Deus Zack (Victor Gio) attacked three wide. The Italian bred trotter flew to safe victory paired with Eric Raffin and Guarato claimed his second group-race win on the card at Vincennes.

Deus Zack won the $120,000 Prix Paul Viel at Vincennes in January this year and came back and claimed mile race $90,000 Prix Henri Cravosier at Enghien in late July.

The mile rate for Deus Zack this time was 1:54.3 over 1.3 miles.

FEEL NO PAIN IN SVAMPEN

The $120,000 Svampen for 2-year-old trotters was held in Örebro, Sweden on Thursday (Oct. 13) night. The 2-year-old racing in Sweden, or any other of the northern European countries, is not comparable with the business in America, so Svampen has become a big race for the youngest trotters and this year it was time for a Walner offspring to claim the title.

Daniel Wäjersten trains and drives Feel No Pain (Walner—Under The Table) and the young Swedish rookie trainer had the race in control from the lead. Feel No Pain won in 1:59.4 and Daniel Wäjersten can look back at a tremendous 2022 as a trainer so far. His stable has 131 wins in 510 starts and Wäjersten has placed himself in top-5 among the Swedish trainers this season.

The $1,649,000 in earnings so far in 2022 can be compared with his 2021 when his horses earned $1,031,700, which was, by far, his best year until then.

Dinner with Andre

by Trey Nosrac

Whenever our discussion touches Artificial Intelligence, my pal Andre Isner from Silicon Valley goes into a rant. Today was no exception.

"AI is insidious because people don't see it. We are all addicted, but only a few genuinely realize it. Even realizing it does not allow you to escape."

"Addicted. Really?"

"Oh yes. AI now understands the inescapable value of reaffirming what humans crave. It began by feeding us what we want for advertising, and now it has morphed into politics, entertainment, government, everything."

"This is so far removed from my little world of sports and gambling."

"You are wrong, my friend. No aspect of life gets a pass. Racing could learn lessons from the invisible gatekeepers of our attention. AI understands that nothing draws our attention like emotions. Misfortune of others, anger, loathing, strangeness, and moral outrage thrill us to the core. These emotions are measurable in our neurochemistry. Nobody is immune."

"It's always been like that."

"Yes and no. It has never been like this, with technology creating feedback loops in our brain patterns. We need the constant drips of dopamine. We are under the illusion that we are choosing what we are intaking. We become uncomfortable when deprived. If we are away from our devices, the world feels wrong."

I opened my hands. "What are we gonna do about it?"

"In the long run, I don't know. In the short run, if your sport wants to stay relevant, the presentation needs to mimic the basic adjustments of other sports using principles of the artificial intelligence universe and learn some of the lessons our competitors are learning."

"Like what?"

He sighed and said, "Once you get attention, never let it go. If you notice presentations of other sports, the advertisements show up on split screens, allowing the games to remain available. Should they cut to commercials, the commercials are often louder and more dopamine-inducing than the game."

I nodded. "And repetitive. Sometimes you see the same commercial six times in fifteen minutes."

"For a reason. Have you noticed how you get directed on your cell phone and iPad?"

I shrugged. "Maybe a little."

"You barely notice this because any platform worth its gigabytes directs you seamlessly. The new buzzword is 'adhesion.' Devices and programming do whatever it takes to keep the addicts satisfied."

I sighed, "I don't hear a helpful racing plan."

He said, "Somehow, horse racing needs to latch on to this endless, adhesive formula. Racing might have an advantage if scheduled correctly. America, heck, the world could have a horserace available almost constantly. If artificial Intelligence ran the world, the world of horse racing could use this bounty of action as an asset. Once AI got a person to play a horserace, they would never be more than a few seconds from another race. A nonstop hamster wheel could be possible. Adhesion is something horse racing can do that other sports cannot."

"We can't get racetracks in the same state to cooperate, and now you are going national and international. Besides, getting eyes and minds to pay attention to horse racing is the first part of the puzzle."

He nodded. "Go back to what AI does very well. It refines and promotes emotion. Supply may be an asset for horse racing, but emotion is an obstacle. Horse racing does not have teams or individuals to love and hate. There is a race with winners and losers but minimal conflict. Horses are beautiful novel animals but so are giraffes.”

“That’s not an answer.”

He said, “AI would suggest that horse racing should create drama.”

I shrugged. “How?”

“They would use astonishing, life-changing amounts of money on the table and constantly ratchet the total amount that players could win to magnify the drama. A million-dollar payoff will escalate to two million tomorrow, etc. The customers could attempt to solve the riddle of the jackpot race or races to keep them occupied. This cliffhanger effect, and competition, even international competition, could be a pillar of horse racing. Finding bold personalities making bold predictions could create additional layers of conflict.”

I gave him a brush-off with my hand. “Too much science fiction, too... otherworldly.”

“The future will come. The world will continue to mutate and adapt. We don’t believe it, but we are pawns in the game of creating and keeping people who crave constant drips of reinforcement. Like psycho lab rats, rewards trigger us. If a player wins a dollar on a horse race, they could immediately have a choice to turn the dollar into two dollars. Another quick win, more dopamine, and the brain signals this is fun, so let’s do it again. This constant repetition with a deceptive payout in regular intervals is a tool your sport has not used.”

“That sounds suspiciously like casinos?”

“Whatever it takes. Your sport faces problems, and making some changes could help. As pari-mutuel structures lose steam, technology, often non-human, will crush and create gambling devices that hold attention for making money. Even a plodding sport like horse racing needs to try and be on the right side of the onrushing train of Artificial Intelligence.”

I scrunched my face and whined, “Don’t you think you are getting carried away with all this machine-learning alarmism?”

“Nope. Sundar Pichai, the head of development at Google, recently said that Artificial Intelligence is one of the most profound things we’re working on as humanity. It is more profound than fire or electricity.”

“More profound than harness racing?” I asked.

Andre Isner laughed. A nervous laugh.

SIRES STAKES

Righteous Resolve wins Super Final for sophomore trotting fillies

by Melissa Keith for Ontario Racing

It's not often that show wagering is barred for a large field of 2-year-old filly trotters. But that's exactly how the $225,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final played out Saturday (Oct. 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Prohibitive 1-9 favorite Righteous Resolve is Canada's fastest 2-year-old trotter of 2022, taking her 1:53.1 record in the Champlain Stakes at the Milton oval on Sept. 15. On Saturday, she affirmed that she is the class of the division.

Scott Zeron and Cardio Muscle made the front early, launching from the outside post to circle Its Your Choice and James MacDonald before the first turn.

Mass Hysteria and Trevor Henry left from post nine and followed from third, just ahead of the star filly Righteous Resolve who Paul MacDonell settled in nicely from post three.

Cardio Muscle led to the :27.2 opening quarter but had no answer when the first-over Righteous Resolve came calling and smoothly sailed past, leading the way to the :56.3 half.

Louis-Philippe Roy sent Shiny New Penny first to tip on the turn for home, emerging from sixth and flushing out Mass Hysteria from fourth.

But MacDonell's filly was never headed as she reached three-quarters in 1:26 and continued with confidence down the stretch. Mass Hysteria left the loose pocket to chase the favourite, as Its Your Choice and Shiny New Penny battled behind her for show.

At the wire, Righteous Resolve finished two-and-a-half lengths ahead of Mass Hysteria in a 1:54.4 mile. Its Your Choice finished third, ahead of Shiny New Penny.

In the winners' circle, MacDonell said Righteous Resolve ranked right up there among the best young trotters he's driven.

"She's so professional in everything she does and she makes my job real easy, so she's way up there in the top echelon of trotting fillies, for sure," said MacDonell. "My job is just to keep her out of trouble and make sure we have a clear path and no nonsense, and that's what I try to do — try to keep her quiet and just let her do the rest, and she does it."

Leading 2022 OSS trainer John Bax reflected on his stable's seasonal success.

"We're really proud of the year we got. A lot of horses have made good money and that's hard to do. I mean, a lot of years, you're lucky to get one, so we're pretty blessed this year." He said that the filly's owners' decision to bypass the Mohawk Million was "a testament to the owners like Roy [Maxwell] who are looking after what's best for the horse... Hopefully for their sake and our sake, it pays out in the long run."

Righteous Resolve (Resolve—Motown Muscle) is owned by Bet Max Stables Inc., Casco, MI and Benenati Inc., Clinton Township, MI., and she now has $536,224 in earnings, $290,675 of which have come in the OSS.

Before leaving the packed winners' circle, Roy Maxwell, a partner in Bet Max Stable, described the experience of owning the filly phenom, who has been defeated just once in 9 starts.

"It's unbelievable. You don't expect something like this to come along, but when it comes around, you sure enjoy it," said Maxwell. "What a lady, what a night."

Cheesy Smile wins freshman pacing filly Super Final

by Heather Mackay Roberts for Ontario Racing

Cheesy Smile was the leading point earner in the 2-year-old pacing filly division this season and she kept her name at the top of the list with a resounding win in the $225,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

"I thought I had the best filly in the race. I'm happy that she's the one coming home with me," said trainer and co-owner John Pentland.

As the race got underway it was Savethelastdance and James MacDonald rocketing from post 10 to the lead and opening up several lengths on the field as they passed the opening marker in :26.1.

MacDonald was just a passenger as the Bettors Delight miss hit the half in :53.4 and the three-quarters in 1:22.

Sitting patiently in sixth at the half with Cheesy Smile Bob McClure rolled his charge out before the three-quarter pole and down the stretch the wicked fractions took their toll on Savethelastdance allowing fresher fillies to pounce. Cheesy Smile took full advantage and hit the wire first in 1:51.1 and paid $4.40 for the win.

"I felt she was the best coming in. (She has) a high turn of speed, I don't think there's one, speed wise, that can go with her," said McClure. "John's just kept her so good and she was peaking. She's also a sweetheart to drive, I like that."

Big Big Plans closed well to take second with Freshen Up third. Savethelastdance held on for fourth with Lyons Bettorday collecting the final cheque.

Cheesy Smile improved her summary to 5-2-0 in 10 freshman starts and upped her earnings to over $316,000 for Pentland and partners Cindy Molyneux (Sparta, ON), Peter Charlton (St. Thomas, ON) and Archie Leach (London, ON).

"One thing about her, you don't have to worry about being too far back because of her high turn of speed," said Pentland. "When they were blazing fractions (early) that just couldn't have worked out any better."

The filly was second in her last time out at the Gold level and showed well against open stakes competition at Mohawk in September.

"I was expecting a good performance. Who knows how the race sets up, anything can happen," said Pentland. "I've had a lot of disappointments in the Super Finals over the years so this is maybe a little vindication. It felt awfully good."

The win will cap off the freshman filly's campaign.

"That's it," said Pentland. "She wasn't paid into the Breeders Crown, so we'll call it a season. She's going away healthy; we couldn't be happier about that."

Pentland's co-owners were at the racetrack in matching Cheesy Smile t-shirts and it was a thrill for the group to experience stakes success for the first time as owners.

"It's been wonderful from the start when we bought her in Harrisburg," said co-owner Charlton. "We all went down with John and picked her out. It's just so satisfying to see it all come to fruition tonight. It's just a wonderful ownership group. We couldn't ask for anything better and John as the trainer has been a dream come true."

They have been at the track for all of her races this season and had steady nerves for the big night.

"I wasn't that nervous tonight because I know John's going to have her ready," said Charlton. "He talked all week about how she's peaking at the right time. I was confident, more confident tonight than any other race."

Super Final for freshman trotting colts won by DWs Point Man

by Melissa Keith for Ontario Racing

The Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final event for 2-year-old trotting males on Saturday (Oct. 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park was a war of the noses, as a pair of trotters were nearly inseparable at the wire.

DWs Point Man, and Louis-Philippe Roy got the first call, but quickly settled in behind fast-leaving Snowpiercer from post eight driven by Paul MacDonell, as several rivals went off stride in the early going.

Osceola and Doug McNair tightened up in third, and Deadline Hall and Chris Christoforou followed from single-file fourth to the :27.4 opening quarter.

From first over Osceola sprinted to the front nearing the :57.1 half; as Oh Look Magic gained steadily from second-over sixth, making it up to third as the stretch loomed.

Osceola reached three-quarters in 1:25.3, then suddenly went off stride coming off the turn, allowing Snowpiercer to inherit the lead.

DWs Point Man stepped out to take his shot from third, as late-charging Passarino urged on by James MacDonald took on Deadline Hall. Photos were required to decide both win and show at the end of the 1:55.1 mile. DWs Point Man prevailed at 9-2 odds in a very tight decision over Snowpiercer.

After the race, Louis-Philippe Roy said he wasn't sure he passed MacDonell's colt in time.

"I would say ten feet before the wire, I was pretty sure I wouldn't get there," said Roy. "I felt like Snowpiercer just gave up very, very late there, and mine just kept trotting and never really gave up. I didn't really know if I had got there in time or not."

As for winning strategy in a race with multiple breakers, Roy said familiarity with OSS rivals was the best advantage.

"If you have too much in mind, I feel like that's when you make mistakes," said Roy. "You go in there, you know the horses—you've been racing against them. For example: Snowpiercer, I was following him in the last Gold. I was in the three-hole and he was on front and he looked a little lost [and] almost pulled up ... So following him today, I knew that he might do that, getting out on the first turn, and I wasn't going to panic. I just wanted a good trip for my horse tonight."

It was DWs Point Man's fifth seasonal victory in 10 starts and a new lifetime mark.

The My MVP—Yankeedoodlecandy gelding was bred by Jeffrey Ruch of Innisfil, ON and began the year at Saratoga Raceway before capturing his OSS Gold debut on Aug. 12 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

He is trained by Richard Moreau for owners Ecurie Csl and 9174 7998 Quebec, Inc., Sorel-Tracy, QC.

"I got the best out of it. I got a two-hole trip," said Moreau. "I was hoping for a check, but the biggest thrill was when [Hall of Fame driver/racing analyst] Randy Waples said that he knew the other horse [Snowpiercer] did win, and then they announced that mine had won. That was a big stress relief."

Moreau said he is happy for the connections of DWs Point Man.

"The owner invests lots in this and it paid back, you know," said Moreau. "I imagine he will spend the winter in Quebec, at his owner's farm, and hopefully we go from there. The season is over now, I think. He deserves a break."

Mischievous Rose upsets in sophomore trotting fillies' Super Final

by Charlie Pinkerton for Ontario Racing

The Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final for 3-year-old trotting fillies saw the series finale's second straight upset winner, with Mischievous Rose besting the heavily favored Adare Castle on Saturday (Oct. 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The race came down to the wire, with the victor pulling ahead of the odds-on favourite in deep stretch.

"In a sprint duel, I really like (Mischievous Rose's) chances there and she was on top of her game tonight," driver Louis-Philippe Roy said after the race.

The victory by the trainee of Luc Blais, who lives in Campbellville, ON, sends the winner's share of the $225,000 purse the way of Montreal-based Determination stable, owned by Serge Godin. Mischievous Rose paid $10.70 for the win.

Adare Castle, the heavily bet favorite, led the race through each of its first three quarters.

Driven by James MacDonald of Guelph, ON and trained Mark

Etsell of Rockwood, ON, the champion filly had won 14 of the 20 races in her career.

Adare Castle set opening quarters of :28.3 and :58.1, and the daughter of Muscle Mass, extended her lead entering the third panel, while the eventual victor trailed two spots behind in the single file pack.

Just after the three-quarter mark, which was clocked at 1:26.2, Mischievous Rose moved from third place along the pylons behind Baby Longstocking and the leader.

The upset winner trotted a :26.4 final quarter, overtaking Adare Castle in deep stretch. Mischievous Rose's 1:54 winning time is the fastest in her career.

Roy explained after the race that the way it unfolded was to the benefit of Mischievous Rose.

"I know my filly, she can sprint a lot," the driver who lives in Mississauga, ON said. "I think in the long term, Adare Castle... seems like she never gets tired. (I thought) if we got a shot maybe tonight – if it's a sprint down the lane – that maybe it could help us, and it did."

The Super Final victory was Mischievous Rose's second ever Ontario Sires Stakes Gold win and first in 2022. She had one second-place finish and was third three times in her five OSS starts this season.

Mischievous Rose's career mark improves to 4-7-5 from 22 starts and she now has $422,457 in career earnings with just over half coming from her Ontario Sires Stakes finishes.

Just before driving the upset winner of the third Super Final, Roy did the same in the second race of the evening, urging Dws Point Man to victory.

Safe Conduct upsets in sophomore trotting colts' Super Final

by Ontario Racing

Safe Conduct, close in many of his recent Ontario Sire Stakes contests put it all together at exactly the right moment, closing strongly to win the $225,000 Ontario Sire Stakes Super Final for his 3-year-old trotting males group on Saturday (Oct. 15) at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

The gelded son of Archangel, starting from post eight in the field of 10 and sent off at 10-1 odds driven by Chris Christoforou got away cleanly and tucked in sixth as the early pace was disputed by Unevergonnagethis and Duly Resolved through a :26.3 quarter on the cool night.

Duly Resolved finally claimed the pacesetter's spot midway down the backstretch, and the even money favorite looked like he might be tough after getting to the half in a relatively soft :56.1.

The outer tier lined up approaching the far turn, with first-over Tymal Tiggs followed by Twin B Archie, the second choice and last year's winner of the Super Final for this group, with Safe Conduct in an optimal spot to follow cover third-over.

The three-quarters was reached in 1:25.1, still relatively moderate, with Duly Resolved still on top.

Horses began to fan out all over the track coming off the final turn, while Duly Resolved soon showing it wasn't to be his night.

Twin B Archie looked well-placed, and he did have some closing kick, but not nearly as much as Safe Conduct, who was sent four-wide and quickly flashed the highest gear to win by just over a length in 1:53.3, missing his own lifetime mark by a fifth.

Sea Can, let go at 120-1, was near the back at the top of the long Mohawk stretch, then found both good strides and a forward-moving path behind Safe Conduct, finishing second after the winner had just gotten too good a jump; Twin B Archie continued on to be third.

Safe Conduct is a family horse, with the family firmly planted in Campbellville, Woodbine Mohawk's location. Patriarch Charalambos Christoforou bred the horse in partnership with Toronto's Banjo Farms, and he owns the horse with Irvann Holdings Inc., also of Toronto.

Chris' wife, Camilla Christoforou, is the horse's trainer. Safe Conduct has hit the board in 11 of 13 seasonal starts, including his fourth victory in this most important outing, and he has career earnings of $302,200.

Informed that his horse paid $22.20 to win, Chris Christoforou expressed surprise after the race.

"I would have thought he would have been 4-1, 5-1, as well as he had been racing," said Christoforou. "He's been very good, and he just hasn't had the right luck sometimes – I thought he had a chance to win at London last week (where he finished third after traffic issues). Going around the last turn, I was watching the 'body language' of all the horses around me, and I was smiling – I knew my horse was stronger than the others looked."

The win finishes the gelding's OSS career with a flourish.

"I think that he could develop into a free-for-all trotter at 4 and beyond," said Christoforou. "He's been brought along carefully and not over raced, and he has developed well and can continue to develop."

The $2 exacta of 8-10 combining Safe Conduct and Sea Can paid $1176.90, and anybody with a correct ticket having Twin B Archie third, or Archie third and 30-1 Esplosione fourth earned $10,301.10 and $19,611.25.

SIRES STAKES REPORT

Stockade Seelster sensational in sophomore pacing colts' Super Final

by Heather MacKay Roberts for Ontario Racing

Stockade Seelster stamped himself as one of the best 2-year-old pacing colts in the history of the Ontario Sires Stakes with another impressive performance in Saturday's (Oct. 15) $225,000 Gold Super Final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Jody Jamieson had the son of State Treasurer away third in the early going and watched Moment Is Here pace by the opening quarter in :26.3.

Jamieson pulled on the right line just past that point and was comfortably on top at the :54.2 half. Stockade Seelster opened up a couple of lengths by the 1:22 three-quarters and simply could not be caught down the lane as he hit the wire in 1:50.1, paying $2.30 for the win.

Santana Hanover (Big Jim) was second followed by Sounds Good (Bettors Delight). Moment Is Here and Write Me A Rose were next across.

"You put $200,000 on the line and we're going to race for it and we did," said Jamieson. "It just goes to show he's a great horse and I can ride as fast as he can go. There's really no end to him. He was a little tired, he'd been off three weeks. Doc (Moore) had him great tonight."

Stockade Seelster now has eight wins in nine starts this year. His lone loss was a third place finish in the Metro Pace elimination.

He returned the following week to win the $900,000 Metro Pace final, defeating many of the top Grand Circuit freshman pacing colts. He ends the year undefeated in five OSS starts, four Gold events at Mohawk and the Super Final.

Stockade Seelster (Jody Jamieson) continue their incredible season by winning the $225,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final for 2-year-old pacing colts on Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Bred by Seelster Farms, Stockade was purchased as a yearling for $45,000 by Sally Macdonald of PEI and her nephew Paul Macdonald of Toronto who were quite familiar with his sire State Treasurer having owned him throughout his racing career.

They purchased State Treasurer as a yearling for a mere $6,500 and he went on to win over $2 million. Dr. Ian Moore trained State Treasurer, who stands stud at Seelster Farms. He also handles Stockade Seelster.

"I was concerned that he may be a little short tonight," said Moore. "It's very difficult with a 2-year-old late in the year especially when you consider that he's had the harness on for one year now, he started in October of last year. You wouldn't do that with an aged horse."

"I gave him a whole week off and then we jogged him one week. Jody trained him on the Friday when I was down in PEI for my daughter's wedding and we trained him again on Thursday this week," said Moore. "So, I was concerned and maybe that's why the last quarter wasn't so quick but he got the job done and hopefully should be ready for the Breeders Crown, that's our next step."

As for the Breeders Crown, eliminations for which start next weekend at the Campbellville oval, Moore said: "It's getting late, that's nine starts now, 10 is a good number for me. He seemed good tonight and if he comes out of it fine on Monday or Tuesday when I jog him then we'll put in for the Breeders Crown and we're looking forward to it."

Allan Macdonald, Sally's husband, said: "It's unbelievable, my wife always called State Treasurer a horse of a lifetime but it kind of looks like maybe we've done it again. It's incredible, just incredible to be here and see what he's done, he's a really nice colt. I was extremely nervous here tonight because he had the three week layoff. He stepped up, we're very proud of him."

Cold Creek Queso takes Super Final for sophomore pacing colts

by Ontario Racing

Standardbred owner Dan Walker of Cold Creek Standardbred in Grafton got a phone call from his trainer, Murray Brethour of Sunderland, about a week after Walker acquired a yearling in the late fall of 2020.

On Saturday night Walker remembered, "Murray calls me and says, 'You know what you've got here with this colt? It's good!'"

In his $225,000 Ontario Sire Stakes Super Final for 3-year-old pacing males at Woodbine Mohawk on Saturday, Brethour showed his handicapping was pretty good as well, as the Betterthancheddar gelding Cold Creek Queso, exploded to a 5 1/4 length victory at the expense of a good field in a solid 1:50, two weeks after he won his most recent Ontario Sire Stakes Gold event in 1:48.3 under more favorable conditions for a fast mile.

The 4-5 public choice off that big win, Cold Creek Queso was forwardly-placed early by driver Sylvain Filion, sitting third as Kolby Two Step took the lead away from Magical Arthur just after a :26.4 quarter. Filion had plenty of horse in front of him and decided to take matters into his own hands, pulling his charge to the outside and making the lead late on the backstretch, approaching a moderate half-mile of :55.

After that fairly soft work assignment in the first half of the race, Cold Creek Queso had more than enough to finish out the task at hand, reaching the three-quarters in 1:23, with longshot Century Inspector tiring after having to challenge without cover, and second choice Ron poised on that one's back and ready to gain wide.

But nobody was gaining on Cold Creek Queso down the Mohawk stretch on this night, as Filion was just a passenger as the three-year-old expanded his lead seemingly with every step.

Betterhavemymoney launched a sharp rally on the far outside late to just catch Ron for second money, giving sire Betterthancheddar a 1-2 finish in the glamour boys division of the Ontario program.

Cold Creek Queso was a surprise winner at age 2 in the OSS Grassroots Championship and continued to improve from 2 to 3. As he has developed, so has his bankroll, which now sits at $246,152 for 2022 and $296,164 lifetime.

Sylvain Filion of Milton, a member of one of world harness racing's leading families based in Quebec, noted after the race that, "This horse is very easy to drive – you can race him from behind or in front, and he always shows up."

Asked about his tactical trip this evening, Filion said, "I moved him to the lead down the back(stretch), and once we got the lead he started to get a little lazy on me, so I popped out his earplugs (which restrict incoming noise; when popped out via an attached string, the horse gets the signal to increase his effort). He was good and strong after that – he took right off."

Cold Creek Queso was bred by Debora Stokes, also of Grafton, the corresponding secretary for Cold Creek Standardbred.

Silver Label bests stablemate for Super Final revenge in the sophomore pacing fillies' division

by Charlie Pinkerton for Ontario Racing

A showdown of stablemates in the $225,000 Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final for 3-year-old pacing fillies saw the favorite bested by another for the first time.

On Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Silver Label used a strong final quarter to pick surge to victory.

The top three picks in the race – Silver Label, Velvet Stinger and favourite Prohibition Legal – are homebred stablemates of George Millar, of Stouffville, ON.

They're all trained by Nick Gallucci, also of Stouffville. Doug McNair of Guelph, ON drove the Super Final-winning horse.

While Silver Label and Prohibition Legal finished one-two, Velvet Stinger was seventh.

Prohibition Legal piloted by James MacDonald was in the lead by the :26.3 quarter mark, while Silver Label was steered into the pocket as they continued to the half in :54.4.

"The speed was on the outside of it, so I figured I'd try to take advantage and try to grab a hold of the front as early as I could," said McNair. "I figured James would be on the move and (Prohibition Legal) is a nice filly to follow, so she got us to the promised land."

Silver Label and Balance, who finished in fourth, jockeyed for pocket positioning for much of the race's third quarter.

Prohibition Legal led at the 1:23.1 third-quarter pole, appearing poised to win her second straight Super Final. Then, early in the home stretch, McNair angled his filly and overtook her stablemate.

Silver Label went on to a single-length victory in a time of 1:50.2, a new lifetime mark.

"Legal just didn't really find her home the way I was thinking. But all the credit goes to Silver Label and Doug," said Nick Gallucci the trainer of the 1-2 finishers.

The daughter of Bettors Delight paid $8.10.

The Super Final score puts Silver Label's lifetime winnings over $770,000.

Six of those wins, and more than $430,000 of that prize money, has come in 12 races this season.

Silver Label compiled a record of 3-1-0 in six OSS starts this year.

Millar was asked after the Super Final if there was one of the horses he preferred over the others.

"You know what, they're all my favorite. I mean, I love them all," said Millar.

Both the victorious Silver Label and her runner-up stablemate are expected to be in the field in next week at Woodbine Mohawk Park for Breeders Crown eliminations.

Galleria Hanover wins $100,000 Courageous Lady at MGM Northfield Park

by Michael Carter for MGM Northfield Park

Galleria Hanover ($12.20) took advantage of an inside draw and miscue by favorite Captain Cowgirl delivering the first Grand Circuit win at MGM Northfield Park to Ronnie Wrenn Jr. in Saturday night's (Oct. 15) $100,000 Courageous Lady for 3-year-old filly pacers.

Wrenn Jr., who had previously been second four times in the Courageous Lady, left alertly with Valar Dohaeris (Mark MacDonald). The pair dueled until the mid-point of the first time when MacDonald decided to take a hole in the pocket.

"I wanted to push hard leaving the gate," said a jubilant Wrenn Jr.

Exiting the first turn, Captain Cowgirl (Tim Tetrick) tried to make a move from third but broke stride. Galleria Hanover would lead by 1-3/4 lengths past the opening quarter of :27.3.

Coming to the half, Cape Cod Hanover (Chris Page) was flushed out of the three-hole by Lookatmyrapsheet (Billy Davis Jr.) to try to challenge the leader. Galleria Hanover, confidently handled by Wrenn Jr., got to the half in a leisurely :56.1.

Moving past the five-eighths pole, Cape Cod Hanover moved within three-quarters of a length of the leader, but approaching three-quarters, Wrenn shook the lines at Galleria Hanover, and she kicked clear to a 1-3/4 lead past three-quarters in 1:23.2.

Through the stretch, Galleria Hanover kicked clear to win by 5-3/4 lengths in 1:50.4 over Valar Dohaeris, who got a perfect trip in the pocket, Give Me This Dance (Aaron Merriman), and a hard closing Sweet Treasure (Chris Lems).

"She (Galleria Hanover) raced well tonight; when Captain Cowgirl broke, the race completely changed," said Wrenn Jr.

For Galleria Hanover, it was the fifth win of her career in 28 starts for trainer Ron Burke and owners WJ Donovan, Purnell & Libby, and Joe Sbrocco.

The Late Pick-4 was not solved on Saturday night; there is a carryover of $8,830 heading into tonight's (Oct. 16) early Pick-4. Beginning in Race 2, the Early Pick-4 will feature a guaranteed pool of $30,000.

Live racing at MGM Northfield Park returns tonight with a first post of 6 p.m.

Kentucky Futurity champion Rebuff to miss Breeders Crown

Rebuff, who this past weekend won the Kentucky Futurity for 3-year-old trotters at Lexington's Red Mile, will miss the upcoming Breeders Crown in Canada and not race again this season because of sickness, co-owner/trainer Lucas Wallin said Friday.

The colt, who won the 2021 Breeders Crown for 2-year-old male trotters at The Meadowlands, returned to Wallin's training base in New Jersey on Monday and began to show signs of sickness on Tuesday morning. Rebuff's condition worsened through the week, leading to the decision to end his campaign. The Breeders Crown was the last stakes event on his schedule.

"We gave it a couple of days, but there is still too much mucous to risk it," Wallin said about the trip to Ontario for the Breeders Crown at Woodbine Mohawk Park, which hosts eliminations for 3-year-olds on Oct. 22 and finals on Oct. 29. "It just got worse and worse. We were really looking forward to the Breeders Crown, to defend his title. That's too bad, but that's horses."

Rebuff, a son of Muscle Hill—Meucci Madness driven by Tim Tetrick, hit the board in eight of nine races this year, winning five. In addition to winning the Futurity, his triumphs included an elimination of the Hambletonian and divisions of the Stanley Dancer Memorial and W.N. Reynolds Memorial. His 1:49.4 score in the Dancer is this season's fastest time for a 3-year-old trotter.

His only off-the-board finish came in the Hambletonian final. He rebounded with a win in a leg of the Kentucky Championship Series and finished second in the series final.

For the year, Rebuff earned $518,395 for owners Wallin, Kjell Magne Andersen and Pieter Delis. Lifetime, the colt has won nine of 20 starts and earned $962,490.

"His year was a little up and down, but it felt like he was on the way up again," Wallin said. "He raced super in the Futurity. It was very rewarding. When he is good, I think he's definitely the best colt out there."

The Kentucky Futurity is the third jewel in the Trotting Triple Crown. It was the 29-year-old Wallin's first victory in a Triple Crown event.

"To win the Futurity, which I think is the second-biggest race after the Hambletonian, with so much history, was a fantastic feeling," Wallin said. "That's definitely a race you really want to win before you retire as a trainer. That was such a moment."

No decision has been made about Rebuff's future.

"We have no plans yet for next year," Wallin said. "We are three owners, and we really haven't discussed it. A lot of people have showed interest in him. Me, as a trainer, would love to see him race next year. I know it's a lot of money as a stallion also, so it's both ways."

Breeders Crown supplemental and entry box Info

The deadline for potential supplements to the 3-year-old and older Crown races at Woodbine Mohawk Park and eligible entries is just around the corner.

Supplemental entries for 3-year-old and open events are due and payable by noon [EDT], Monday, Oct. 17, in the race office of Woodbine Mohawk Park, Campbellville, Ontario, Canada. There are no supplements for the 2-year-old races.

All Breeders Crown eligible horses must declare in by 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Oct. 18.

Harness Racing Update on Facebook

/HARNESSRACINGUPDATE

Supplemental declaration amounts are listed below. Go to www.hambletonian.com/2022-breeders-crown-home for more info on supplementing.

Guaranteed Purses for all 3-year-old and open races are $600,000. The supplemental fee is 12 per cent of the purse or $72,000. For the open mare pace and trot with a guaranteed purse of $350,000, the supplemental fee is $42,000.

The entrance fee for each race is included in the supplemental amount. A minimum of half the amount of the supplemental fee, minus the entrance fee, may be added to the purse. This one-time supplemental payment makes a horse eligible to all subsequent years' Breeders Crown events under the normal schedule of payments.

You can access the Woodbine Mohawk Park Condition Sheet here: woodbine.com/mohawk/horsepeople/

Eliminations, if needed, will occur for 2-year-olds on Friday, Oct. 21 with a post time of 7 p.m. [EDT]

Three-year-old and open eliminations, if needed, will race Saturday, Oct. 22, with a post time of 7 p.m. [EDT]

All eliminations will race for a minimum of $25,000. Such elimination races will be held in accordance with AGCO rules, except as provided below. All seasonal earnings will be calculated by Standardbred Canada.

Eliminations occur when more than eleven (11), but less than fourteen (14) horses enter. If more than 14 enter, there will be multiple eliminations (see conditions.) If less than 14 enter there will be a single elimination to "qualify" only enough horses that can be accommodated by the number of positions in the front tier of the starting gate as follows:

In the 2-year-old colt and filly trot, the Win and You're In horses, Kilmister and Instagram Model will advance directly to the final if entered by 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 18. From the other declared horses, those with the least total earnings in the period from January 1 of that year up to time of declaration, will be selected to race in a single elimination field with no more starters than can score in a single tier with no trailers.

If there are eliminations, post positions in the Final will be determined by an open draw with the exception that Elimination winners and Win and You're In entrants, in an order determined by lot, will draw for post positions number one (#1) through five (#5) in the final. All other finalists will be placed in an open draw for the remaining post positions.

Those horse(s) that receive a bye into the Final will be in the open draw for post positions in the Final. All horses that start in the Final receive money.

All Two-Year-Old races are Friday, Oct. 28 with a post time of 7 p.m. [EDT].

Three-Year-Old and Open events are Saturday, Oct. 29 with a post time of 7 p.m. [EDT]

Moir Fanning / Hambletonian Society
