Jiggy' jogs off into sunset, will be bred to Muscle Hill

The 5-year-old trotting mare retires after an undefeated 2024 campaign.

by Debbie Little

Owner/breeder Steve Stewart has always said: "People plan, horses decide." That certainly applies to Jiggy Jog S, whose unexpected retirement was announced on social media on Monday (Oct. 14).

According to Stewart, 'Jiggy' had some swelling in her ankle following her victory on Sept. 28 in the Dayton Derby.

Following two veterinary examinations and an MRI, it was determined that the daughter of Walner—Hot Mess Hanover had an issue unusual for standardbreds, a small tear in the ligament below the sesamoid.

Stewart said his veterinarian in Lexington, Dr. John Park, was very black and white explaining the situation.

"He said, 'Even if you gave this filly time to heal, she'll heal, but you run the risk of a catastrophic injury where she goes down on the track and you gotta put her down and that could happen like a thoroughbred,'" Stewart said.

The announcement was made prior to the deadline to enter for the Breeders Crown eliminations, but according to Stewart, the next two weekends were not their focus when it came to what was best for Jiggy Jog S. However, there were others to consider since her driver, Dexter Dunn, needed to know what was going on.

Jiggy Jog S and trainer Ake Svanstedt.

“So, we were kind of up against it for a decision, but the puffy ankles had already decided that she was not up to racing [in the Breeders Crown],” Stewart said.

Despite the disappointment in Jiggy Jog’s racing career being cut short, Stewart said he’s choosing to look at the positive side of this.

“Thank goodness that it wasn’t the boxer that went out and got his head beat in and then he decided to retire,” he said. “Thank goodness that she didn’t back through the field at The Meadowlands and everybody goes, ‘Oh, my gosh,’ and then you find out that she pulled a tendon.

“ I just look at it as we’re very, very, very blessed and so fortunate when you think about it; what a dream to own her. Forget about the money in, money out. When you get the opportunity, it’s an honor, and Cindy and I have always used that word over and over and over again. It’s an honor to own great athletes that these horses are.”

“We knew she was not going to race in the Breeders Crown. This was a decision of whether we were going to race her in [2025] you know, six months from now.”

Despite the fact that Hunterton Farm, owned by Stewart and his wife, Cindy, boasts one of the top broodmare bands around, the plan was always to race Jiggy Jog S.

Steve told HRU earlier this year, that he and his partners – Ake Svanstedt Inc, John Lengacher and Hickory Hollow Stables – bought Jiggy Jog S back in February of 2024 to race her and that they hoped to do so for several years.

“We had met with Ake [Svanstedt, who also trains Jiggy] at Lexington and our plan was to race her and do what we did this year again and then this time next year, start packing her bags, or her stall up, to send her to Europe,” Steve said. “That was the plan, one more year here and then go.”

Steve said he spoke with Sarah Svanstedt on Monday before the news was officially released.

According to Steve, Sarah was reading him what she had put together but couldn't get through it because she was in tears. He said what gets lost sometimes is how much the connections care for their animals.

In that release, the Svanstedts thanked Jiggy Jog's “best friend and caretaker” Rene Lopez for his “professional support and care for her throughout these years,” as well as her driver Dunn.

Steve said it's obvious to him how much everyone, especially Sarah, care about Jiggy Jog.

“She speaks about Jiggy Jog the way she would speak about her daughter that she does not have, she has two sons,” Steve said.

Jiggy Jog S is currently the top-ranked trotter in North America, according to the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown Standardbred Poll, a position she has been in for six-consecutive weeks with a perfect six-for-six record in 2024 and $934,188 in earnings.

To truly understand what a remarkable talent Jiggy Jog S is, you just have to look at her career numbers, with 24 wins in 41 starts and over $3.1 million in the bank.

You could say, Jiggy Jog S really found her stride at 3, since from the start of her sophomore season until now, 30 starts in all, she finished worse than second only twice: a fourth-place finish in the Hambletonian and a seventh-place finish in the Delmonica Hanover after going off-stride. Since those two losses, she has had 22 starts with 18 wins and four seconds.

Jiggy Jog S also had no issue facing off against the boys. In fact, four of her six victories this year involved male competitors with two of the best being her all-out domination in the $1 million Yonkers International Trot and in the $282,000 John Cashman in a career-best 1:49.2 in a torrential downpour.

“ Thank goodness that [Jiggy Jog S] didn't back through the field at The Meadowlands and everybody goes, ‘Oh, my gosh,’ and then you find out that she pulled a tendon. We knew she was not going to race in the Breeders Crown. This was a decision of whether we were going to race her in [2025] you know, six months from now. ”

~ Steve Stewart

Jiggy Jog's new career will begin with being bred to Muscle Hill.

“Obviously, we're big owners in Tactical Landing and that would be a great consideration, but we know that at 18 or coming up on 19 years old, Muscle Hill won't be around forever,” Steve said. “And so, our plan is to breed her to Muscle Hill. And our thought process is we will always have time to breed to Tactical Landing.”

Although the ride with racing Jiggy Jog S ended a little sooner than expected and before they had a chance to go to Europe and compete in the Prix d'Amerique, Steve said it was fun while it lasted.

“I just look at it as we're very, very, very blessed and so fortunate when you think about it; what a dream to own her,” he said. “Forget about the money in, money out. When you get the opportunity, it's an honor, and Cindy and I have always used that word over and over and over again. It's an honor to own great athletes that these horses are.”

“These broodmares are just unbelievable. We've got quite a collection of them now and she'll just be another queen among queens. That's what we would call her.”

Gabrielle O’Hearn is willing to go that extra mile, or 200, for the love of the sport

by Chris Lomon

Gabrielle O’Hearn is always willing to go the extra mile, or in some instances, 260 miles, for the love of harness racing.

She didn’t have a horse in to race, she wasn’t scheduled to paddock, and she didn’t have any caretaking duties on tap the afternoon and evening of Sept. 28 at Dayton Raceway.

Yet, the horsewoman from Mount Morris, MI, was in the stands to watch all 14 races on the card before making the near four-hour trip back home.

“ I am currently looking for a new horse and I want to keep training. I would paddock every day if I could. Ideally, I would like to move to Ohio because it doesn't make financial sense to ship from Michigan every week ”

~ Gabrielle O'Hearn

“I drove all the way to Dayton to watch some friends race and then I turned around and came back home,” O'Hearn said. “I guess I just can't get enough of it.”

It has been that way for the past seven years.

Although O'Hearn didn't grow up in the sport, it happened to find her while she was working with a different breed of horse in her home state.

“It's kind of a funny story,” O'Hearn said. “I drove the draft horses in Frankenmuth [MI], which takes tourists around to look at spots throughout the area. A girl who had come to work with us was in harness racing and they needed help one night.

“They asked if I wanted to come out and I said, ‘Sure!’ I like learning different things and thought it would be a great experience.”

And that is precisely what it was for O'Hearn.

Although she viewed it as a one-and-done moment, others had a different hope.

“I went to the track with her, and I got my groom license,” O'Hearn said. “I was there all of five minutes and other people started asking me if I could help them too. I asked my friend if that was okay and she was all for it, so I did.

“Then, everyone told me to come back next week, and I said, ‘What do you mean?’ But I enjoyed it and that's what I did. It turned into a weekly thing, and I picked up more and more paddocks. I had a blast. And then I never left.”

To her amazement, O'Hearn was soon going places, quite literally.

“Another trainer needed someone to groom and took me down to Cleveland, so I got to go there for the first time,” she said. “I ended up basically living in Cleveland for two years and came back to Michigan because of my kids.”

When Starry Nite Teen, a racehorse with plenty of miles to his name came into her life, O'Hearn immediately bonded with the hard-to-handle pacer.

“He is very arrogant,” she said of the son of Art Official—Rosatina, bred by Robert Key of Leechburg, PA. “I got him for free because a trainer I was working for had claimed him out of a race, and he ended up having a broken coffin joint. He asked me if I'd like to take him.

“My intention was rehabbing him, breaking him to ride, and selling him... but then I got attached.”

So much, in fact, that it prompted O'Hearn to write the trainer's exam just after Christmas 2021.

She passed the test.

On March 12, 2022, Starry Nite Teen, in his first race under the tutelage of O'Hearn, finished seventh at Northville Downs.

One week later, again at Northville, he was third.

Six days after, in race 12 at the same racetrack, Starry Nite Teen was three-quarters-of-a-length the best in a time of 1:57.2.

“I cried... a lot,” O'Hearn said. “He won. He was really bad in the winner's circle, and everyone was making fun of me because I didn't grab him.

“He is still very arrogant. But he's not going anywhere. He gave me my first win as an owner and a trainer, and we won the High Point award for the Signature Series with him – he was my first everything.”

Starry Nite Teen, whose final start came this June, still is.

“My horse is my baby,” O'Hearn said. “I still have him, and he is going to be a jumper.”

Last year, O'Hearn didn't send out any starters.

“I didn't have access to a truck and trailer, and the kids' schedules got busy,” she said. “He [Starry Nite Teen] split time between Jason Moore and David Lake.”

Now, O'Hearn is looking for a refresh and reset.

Her top priority is to find new stock.

“I am currently looking for a new horse and I want to keep training,” O'Hearn said. “I would paddock every day if I could. Ideally, I would like to move to Ohio because it doesn't make financial sense to ship from Michigan every week.

“My ideal number of horses – in my head, I need even numbers – would be four to eight horses, if I was by myself. Anything more than that would be too much.”

Understandable, when you consider horse racing isn't O'Hearn's only career.

Her other job does, however, have ties to the equine world.

“I am a real estate agent, and I specialize in equestrian properties,” O'Hearn said. “When my ex and I were looking into houses, our agent was great, but I was speaking in a foreign language as far as what I needed in terms of zoning requirements for a barn and horses. I realize that there aren't a lot of agents who specialize in equestrian properties in Michigan and most states in the U.S.”

O'Hearn is dressed for success whenever she meets with prospective buyers.

“ I am a real estate agent, and I specialize in equestrian properties. When my ex and I were looking into houses, our agent was great, but I was speaking in a foreign language as far as what I needed in terms of zoning requirements for a barn and horses. I realize that there aren’t a lot of agents who specialize in equestrian properties in Michigan and most states in the U.S.”

~ Gabrielle O’Hearn

“People ask me why I only do equestrian properties, and I tell them that I can leave the barn in jeans and boots, and not worry about having to wear a dress or fancy outfit,” she said. “I’m usually walking fence lines and acreage with my clients, so they understand why I show up dressed like that.”

Outside of the racetrack and real estate worlds, O’Hearn is happily busy raising her two children, a daughter, 12, and a 9-year-old son.

Both have already developed their mother’s affection for harness racing and horses.

“I’m a happy mom,” O’Hearn said. “My son, when he was smaller – he still does it now too – would have no problem telling you what you were doing wrong. He thinks he’s a mini driver. He loves the track, and he loves following the drivers.

“My daughter does equestrian vaulting, so she enjoys everything about horses too. We kind of do everything with the horses.”

The hope, for O’Hearn, is that there is more to come with pacers and trotters.

Going the extra mile to see that come to fruition won’t be an issue.

“We’ll see where it all goes,” she said. “But I do know I love everything about this sport. How could you not?”

AMONG OURSELVES

with FRANK COLTOLO

The unbearable lightness of being a harness driver, Part 4

by Frank Coltolo

Part 1 is here.

Part 2 is here.

Part 3 is here.

One particular thing I was told that best affected my handicapping career came from a juggler. Let's call him Delaney. His act incorporated humor; his stage character acted no smarter than a bag of magnets while orchestrating dangerous flying objects with flawless precision. Delaney said, "Most people appreciate what I do because they see my stage character as stupid. But let me tell you something; you can't be stupid and be a juggler."

I believe the same for a harness driver. But most harness bettors I met over decades were sure they know the skill of driving pacers and trotters well enough to indict drivers for performances not benefitting their handicapping skills (which incidentally are never officially earned). Of course this is not intrinsic to harness racing. Disappointed fans and sports bettors have used derogatory terms to describe professionals even before the 1919 Black Sox scandal.

Talking with Catello Manzi and other professional drivers after watching them drive thousands of times made me realize being smart is a given for all of them and they should be measured equally. That should be all a handicapper needs to know.

What follows is the continuation of my interview (see part 3 above) with Catello Manzi for YouBet in the early 2000s.

ME: How often do you make split decisions leaving the gate if a horse surprises you wanting to leave or take back?

MANZI: A driver has got to stay loose. Be ready for surprises. The driver has to react to a horse's unexpected moves. It goes on all the time where a horse has no intention of leaving but I can tell if the horse wants to race well [regardless] and I help make things work out.

ME: Planning is good but adjusting to any plan is negotiable.

MANZI: Sure. Three out of 10 times or more a driver changes his mind about plans made before the race.

ME: Do you ever have to follow what trainers say you should do when driving their stock?

MANZI: Some trainers will do that, and if a driver wants to work again, he has to go along with it.

ME: Would you ever disagree with a trainer telling you how to drive a particular horse?

MANZI: You can talk about it but some of them have their own ideas. I just say I'll try to do what they want me to do.

ME: Do you think it's a modern driving tactic to want to be up front early?

MANZI: There's no question about drivers wanting to be up front, if not in front, early. It's a perception that it's the best when beginning a race. But a driver has to make adjustments because if there's 10 horses in a race not all of them can be in front early.

ME: Do you remember times when your horse was sixth or seventh at the start and you didn't rush because you knew you still had a good chance to win from behind?

MANZI: Yes. Today a lot of standardbreds are driven more like thoroughbreds. It's about speed over strategy.

ME: If you get a drive for the first time on a horse not doing so well lately, can a bettor expect you are going to take a different approach for success?

MANZI: Absolutely. If I'm driving a horse that looks to go to the front all the time, I'm going to try not to do that. I'm not going to ride a horse a certain way [if it has been losing]. But I'm not different from a lot of drivers who would try to make some kind of [positive] adjustment.

ME: Do you approach driving a classy horse in stakes race differently than a common overnight horse?

“A driver has got to stay loose. Be ready for surprises. The driver has to react to a horse's unexpected moves. It goes on all the time where a horse has no intention of leaving but I can tell if the horse wants to race well [regardless] and I help make things work out.”

~ Catello Manzi

“ There’s no question about drivers wanting to be up front, if not in front, early. It’s a perception that it’s the best when beginning a race. But a driver has to make adjustments because if there’s 10 horses in a race not all of them can be in front early. ”

~ Catello Manzi

MANZI: Since stakes horses keep racing the same types, a driver gets to know what each one is capable of doing. Overnight horses race against different horses all the time so it’s hard to gauge them.

ME: Is driving a stakes race more stressful for you?

MANZI: Hard to say because in stakes fields of eight to 10 horses there are usually eight to 10 excellent drivers.

ME: Do you prefer a certain size track?

MANZI: No. All it takes is a good horse for me. If I have a good horse, I don’t care if we go down a turnpike racing.

ME: The horse could have a preference, right?

MANZI: Yes. The horse has to be able to handle a certain sized track.

ME: Do you feel hopeless if you know the horse does not like four turns compared to three, etcetera?

MANZI: Not hopeless.

ME: What about driving pacers versus trotters on a certain sized track?

MANZI: There are certain trotters that go good on a half mile as well as a mile. I don’t have a preference. As long as they’re good it doesn’t matter to me. Overall, you have to be a little more careful with trotters because even with hobbles they break [more so than pacers].

The worst comment I ever heard about a harness driver came from a professional in the business who said, “He couldn’t drive a starving rat into a cheese factory.”

Call Me Goo, Nelsonbriteagle NO supplemented to Breeders Crown

by Ken Weingartner on behalf of the Breeders Crown

Trotting mares Call Me Goo and Nelsonbriteagle NO, both from the stable of trainer Ake Svanstedt, have been supplemented to the upcoming Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands. The deadline for supplemental entries was noon Monday (Oct. 14). No other horses were supplemented.

The cost to supplement for each mare was $48,000. The one-time supplemental payment also makes the horses eligible to all future Breeders Crown events under the normal schedule of payments.

Any necessary eliminations for horses ages 3 and older, including the Breeders Crown Mare Trot, will be contested Saturday night, Oct. 19, at The Big M. First-race post time is 6:20 p.m. (EDT). Any necessary eliminations for 2-year-olds will be held Friday afternoon, Oct. 18, at The Meadowlands. First-race post time Friday is 12:30 p.m. (EDT).

The entry box for all horses eligible to the Breeders Crown closed at 9 a.m. (EDT) Tuesday (Oct. 15).

Call Me Goo, a 4-year-old daughter of Googoo Gaagaa—Callmemza, has hit the board in 31 of 35 career races, winning 22 and earning $688,518.

This season, she has six victories and three seconds in 12 starts. She enters the Breeders Crown off a 1:51.4 triumph in the Allerage Farms Mare Trot on Oct. 6 at Lexington's Red Mile, where she defeated Nelsonbriteagle NO by a neck. She also captured the Armbro Flight Stakes in a career-best 1:51.2 in June at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Call Me Goo is owned by Graham Grace Stables LLC and Ake Svanstedt Inc. She was bred by William "Bib" Roberts.

Nelsonbriteagle NO, a 6-year-old daughter of Bold Eagle—Lindy's Holiday, is in her first season competing in North America.

She has hit the board in all seven of her starts here, winning two and earning $98,955. She won the Miss Versatility Series championship on Sept. 19 at the Delaware County Fairgrounds in central Ohio and a conditioned race in a career-best 1:51.1 on Sept. 6 at The Meadowlands, where she beat Call Me Goo by a nose.

Nelsonbriteagle NO, who won 11 races and earned $81,674 overseas, is owned by Ake Svanstedt Inc. and breeder Nils Johan Munkhaugen.

Hanners and Merriman double up in Sires Stakes Gray Championships

by Frank Fraas / Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association

Austin Hanners and Aaron Merriman didn't let the rain and sloppy track bother them as they each won a pair of Ohio Sires Stakes $100,000 Gray Championships Sunday night (Oct. 13), at MGM Northfield Park. Hanners won the 2-year-old colt pace and 3-year-old filly trot while Merriman captured the 2-year-old filly trot and the 3-year-old colt pace.

Hanners picked up his first title of the night in the Gray Championship for freshman colt and gelding pacers, Austin Hanners rallied Twin B High Tide down the stretch to win in 1:53.4.

Off the gate, Chris Lems hustled Downbythewater to the lead which he held for the first three-quarters with fractions of :28, :57.3, and 1:25.1.

Hanners powered Twin B High Tide up the backstretch, pulling to the leader's wheel around the final turn. As the two hit the top of the stretch, Hanners asked for more from the son of Downbytheseaside and the colt responded, reeling in Downbythewater, drawing away to win by three lengths.

"This horse, he has a huge motor," said Hanners. "When I asked him, he gave me everything he had. He's been awesome. This means everything to us. We finished out the way we wanted to."

It was the fifth win of the year for Twin B High Tide who is trained by Hanner's mother Alicia. The colt won the Buckeye Stallion Series final last weekend at Dayton Hollywood Raceway.

Twin B High Tide is owned by Hanners Racing and was bred by Twinbrook Limited.

The Onyx Dragon finished second with Downbythewater third.

Merriman's first title was the 2-Year-Old Filly Trot Championship which featured a calvary charge down the stretch with Mega Money and Merriman holding on to win a tight photo and inquiry over stablemate Triumph Over You.

Merriman took the daughter of Triumphant Caviar to the lead off the gate, covering the first quarter in :28.1. After a :30.1 second panel, Mega Money, the 7-5 favorite, was pressured by Mia Sangria and Dublins Dragonfly as they hit three-quarters in 1:28.4.

Around the final turn, Up went four-wide to join Mega Money and the challengers while Triumph Over You sat in the pocket.

Mid-stretch, Triumph Over You fired down the passing lane entering the fray. At the wire, the field was six wide within a length of the winner, but it was Mega Money stopping the clock in 1:59.2.

It was the first career win for Mega Money in nine starts.

Chris Beaver trains Mega Money who co-owns with Patricia Stable, LA Express Stable, and Sjoblom Racing.

Dublins Dragonfly was third.

In the first of the eight Ohio Sires Stakes Gray Championships, Anthony MacDonald used the rail to his advantage, taking Gorgeous Package to the lead and never looked back cruising to an easy three-length victory in the 2-Year-Old Filly Pace. Gorgeous Package cut fractions of :28, :58.3, 1:27, on the way to winning in 1:54.4.

"She is a very likable filly," said MacDonald. "We bought her for next to nothing and she has been a treat."

It was the fifth win in 10 starts for the daughter of Lather Up. Gorgeous Package is trained by Jason McGinnis, owned by The Stable.ca, and was bred by Odds On Nourrir.

Odds On Collateral was second with Goodnight Dance third.

The final Gray Championship for 2-year-olds was the colt trot. What A Buckeye with Dan Noble took the early lead with a :28.3 opening quarter.

Following a :30.2 second panel, Rose Run Ari with Austin Hanners grabbed the lead heading to three-quarters in 1:28.2.

Around the final turn, Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. took Rose Run Arch three-wide and grabbed the lead with a late stretch run to win by a length in 1:59.2.

“He was really good tonight after some trouble with breaking leaving the gate early in the year,” said Wrenn. “I had a lot of trot and when I tipped him, he responded.”

Rose Run Ari held on for second with What A Buckeye finishing third.

It was the first win of the year for the Long Tom gelding. Jeff Conger trains Rose Run Arch and co-owns with Knox Services and Joshua Conger. Rose Run Farm bred Rose Run Arch.

Hanners’ 3-year-old championship came in the 3-year-old filly trot with Justasiam AS. The daughter of Lionhunter was third off the gate but grabbed the lead following a :28.2 opening quarter.

Following a :30.1 second quarter, Hot Tea with Tyler Smith challenged the leader up the backstretch. Around the final turn, Justasiam AS held the lead by a head.

The two battled down the stretch but it was Justasiam AS holding off Hot Tea to win by a nose in 1:58.3.

Uma Lady rallied to finish third.

Hanners picked up the drive after Tony Hall, who drove Justasiam AS to the Buckeye Stallion Series final last week was injured.

“She won last week and was impressive,” said Hanners. “She is extremely talented and showed it tonight.”

It was the fifth win in 14 starts for the Anette Lorentzon trained filly. ACL Stuteri AB owns and bred Justasiam AS.

Merriman’s 3-year-old title came with Howaboutyankee in the Colt Pace Gray Championship.

Nine One Oh Six and Dan Noble grabbed the early lead but gave way to Downbythedanceclub and Chris Page as they hit the quarter pole in :27.3.

Merriman pulled Howaboutyankee even with the leader as they passed the half mile. As the two headed up the backstretch, Howaboutyankee kicked it into gear, opening a big lead around the final turn and coasting to a four-length win in 1:54.

“We hoped to get away towards the front, but he’s gritty and tough, and if he’s good he can come first up and he was good tonight,” said trainer K. Dean Glispie. “When he made the front, I was feeling confident.”

It was the sixth win in 18 starts for the son of Dancin Yankee.

Always Finish Second Stable owns Howaboutyankee. The gelding was bred by Matt Rowe.

Beaueastel overcame the far outside sixth post position to win the 3-Year-Old Colt Trot Gray Championship. Peter Wrenn took the 2-5 favorite to the lead just past the quarter pole and shook of a challenge from Gypsy Hill and Tyler Smith around the final turn, cruising to a two-length victory in 1:58.2.

Gypsy Hill finished second with Tt’s Magnum Force third.

The son of What The Hill has hit the board in nine of 12 starts, winning six.

Beaueastel was tied in points for the final spot into the Scarlet Championship but ended up in the Gray Championship.

“We were happy to be in the Gray Championship,” said trainer Melanie Wrenn. “We landed here, and we are super happy.”

Wrenn says it is a miracle that the horse made it to the championship after missing a couple of weeks due to an injury in August.

Beaueastel is owned by Wrenn Racing and was bred by MT Pockets Stables.

In the 3-year-old championship for filly pacers, Dan Noble and Calypso Pearl won a three-way battle for the lead heading to the quarter, taking control and cruising to an easy three-length victory in 1:55. The daughter of Fear The Dragon was never really challenged through quarters of :27.2, :56.1, and 1:24.4.

Zuma Beach rallied down the stretch to finish second with Bad Girls Racing third.

Like Beaueastel, Calypso Pearl was also tied in points for the final Scarlet Championship spot. Noble said they would have liked to have been in the Scarlet Championship, but it worked out for the best.

“She likes to keep trucking and when she is really good, she just keeps going,” Noble said.

It was the seventh win of the year for the Fear The Dragon filly. Christi Noble trains Calypso Pearl for owner-breeder Sandra Burnett.

Ohio championships continue Saturday (Oct. 19), with the Ohio Fair finals at MGM Northfield Park.

Zeron wins three Massachusetts Breeders Stakes at Plainridge

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The third leg of the Massachusetts Breeders Stakes for 2-year-olds of both gaits and sexes was held at Plainridge Park on Monday (Oct. 14) and state-bred first year starters competed for a total of $315,000 in purses.

Filly pacers and trotters and colt and gelding pacers went in split divisions due to number of entries worth $40,000 each, while the male trotters went a single $75,000 race.

Driver Scott Zeron had the hot hand on Monday, winning a total of three stakes events. Two of his winners were horses trained by George Ducharme, who topped his fellow conditioners for the afternoon.

In the first filly trot, Fourth Warning (Greenshoe—Concentration) took control past the half and never looked back.

Fourth Warning (Mark Athearn) got away fourth while Bridgeoverbroadway (Troy Beyer) had the lead in the first turn before making a break bear the quarter. That left Arianelle (Steve Smith) in control and she trotted to the half in 1:00.2. Passing that station, Fourth Warning was out and rolling and she took the lead on the backside heading to three-quarters. Fourth Warning rounded the last turn and then just pulled away in the lane to win by 7¾ lengths in 1:59.1.

Fourth Warning ($9.40) is owned and bred by Ray Campbell, Jr. and is trained by Gretchen Athearn.

The second group of girls saw R Lady W (Walner—Born Lindy) take her second straight MBS event.

Riviera Princess (Yannick Gingras) and R Lady W (Scott Zeron) lined up one-two off the gate and remained that way through quarters of :29.3, 1:00 and 1:29.3. With the bulk of the rest of the field far behind, the two leading ladies trotted around the last turn and at the head of the stretch, Zeron tipped R Lady W and she went right by Riviera Princess en route to a 5½ length, 1:57.4 victory.

R Lady W ($2.80) is leased by M&L of Delaware and trained by Linda Toscano.

Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred R Lady W.

The filly pacers were next and in round 1, Beantown Roberta (Papi Rob Hanover—Ace of Pace) got her first lifetime and stakes win.

Beantown Roberta (Matty Athearn) shot right for the lead and set the pace from there. After getting to the quarter in :28.1 and the half in :57.2, Seafood CC (Zeron) pulled from third and approached Beantown Roberta at three-quarters. The two fillies battled around the last turn and down the lane where Beantown Roberta won the war with Seafood CC by a neck in 1:57.1 to set a lifetime mark.

Beantown Roberta ($12.40) is owned and trained by Wil Dubious.

Michael Goldberg Racing bred the winner.

The second division went to It's Crunch Time (Captain Crunch—Meghan Lynn) who also claimed her second stakes win.

Wassail Blue Chip (Marcus Miller) brushed to the front, but It's Crunch Time (Gingras) was rolling on the outside, made her way to the top past the :28.3 quarter and then marched to the half in :58.3. It's Crunch Time opened up two lengths on the backside and sped to three-quarters in 1:27 flat. She then circled the far turn and headed into the stretch where she turned back a challenge from the late closing Beantown Deuce (Brett Beckwith) to win in 1:55.3.

It's Crunch Time ($3) is owned by Thomas and Scott Dillon and trained by Ron Burke.

Crawford Farms bred It's Crunch Time.

The male pacers put on quite a show and Digging For Gold (Huntsville—Gold Orchid N) remained undefeated in the MBS this year.

Digging For Gold (Zeron) took the lead and called all the shots during the mile. With Jon I Love Dat (Gingras) sitting in the pocket, Digging For Gold went :27.3, :58.1

and 1:26.4 with only a mild bid from Southpaw (Jimmy Whittemore) at that last station. Coming off the turn, Digging For Gold was in full flight and didn't allow Jon I Love Dat to gain any ground as he won by 1¼ lengths in 1:54.3 for his third-straight win.

Digging For Gold ($2.60) is owned by his trainer, George Ducharme, in partnership with Jim Winske and Dr. Megan Moschgat.

Bamq LLC bred the winner.

The second division was won by McCusker (Cattlewash—Robocall Hanover) who got a perfect trip to victory.

McCusker (Zeron) got away fourth and watched Seafood Star (Matty Athearn) overtake Sweet Lucky Lou (Bruce Ranger) for the lead passing the :27.2 quarter. Seafood Star continued to pace sharply on the lead to the half and didn't receive any pressure until the backstretch, where Mass Transit (Ron Cushing) made a first-over move, followed by McCusker as they paced past three-quarters. Positions remained the same around the final bend until McCusker swung three-wide heading into the stretch and then paced home the best by 1½ lengths in 1:54.

McCusker ($3.60) is owned and bred by Winters Racing Stable.

Then in the lone trot for colts and geldings, track record holder Belmondo (Walner—Love Lockdown) chalked up his second straight MBS win.

Belmondo (Marcus Miller) got away fourth as Moni Man (Beckwith) and Our Father Lindy (Ranger) traded leads to the quarter. Once on top, Our Father Lindy got to the half in :58 before all the action started. Castel Lindy (Gingras) rushed to the front from third, and was followed by Belmondo and Moni Man, who were pursuing on the outside. Positions remained the same until they came out of the turn where Belmondo swelled up and trotted away to a 3½-length win in 1:56.2.

Belmondo ($3.60) is owned by the Andy Miller Stable, One Legend Stable and Jean Goehlen and trained by Julie Miller.

Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred Belmondo.

The finals of the Massachusetts Breeders Stake will be held on Thursday (Oct. 24) at Plainridge Park.

Kentucky SIRE STAKES REPORT

Cumberland Run launches second live standardbred meet

by Jennie Rees / Kentucky Downs

Cumberland Run launched its second live standardbred meet on a sun-soaked Sunday (Oct. 13) with 14 Kentucky Sires Stakes legs for 2-year-old trotters and pacers. Driving many of those horses were the sport's biggest names, reflecting Kentucky harness racing's upward trajectory.

Yannick Gingras, inducted into the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2022, made his debut at Cumberland Run.

"It's a nice facility," he said. "The money is great. It's Kentucky. It's crazy the job they'd done with the Sires Stakes program. It's second to none. There's so much money to go around among the three tracks [in the state]. I love it."

And that was before he won three races.

Cumberland Run's 12-day meet runs Sundays, Mondays and Tuesdays through Nov. 5, with first post at 1 p.m. (EDT). Admission and parking are free.

The Sires Stakes legs for 2-year-olds and 3-year-olds (the first legs of those are Monday) are worth $40,000 apiece, leading into a $100,000 final for the top eight qualifiers in each division. Four-year-olds will have three $50,000 legs and no final.

Nationally prominent drivers Scott Zeron, Todd McCarthy and Tim Tetrick also were at Cumberland Run for the first time. Along with Gingras, each has won harness racing's greatest race, the Hambletonian for 3-year-old trotters.

At Cumberland Run they were greeted with sunshine and 80 degrees, in contrast to the rain and cold for last year's inaugural card.

"It's really nice to see the local community come out and enjoy this outstanding day of racing," said Ted Nicholson, vice president of racing for Cumberland Run and its sister thoroughbred track, Kentucky Downs. "The horsemen here are some of the top players in the country, right here in their backyard."

McCarthy, who came to America from his native Australia in 2020, also won three races. He said he expects to be at Cumberland Run for almost all of the dozen dates.

"It's great; It's a beautiful place to be out here," said McCarthy, who ranks No. 6 nationally in purse earnings this year at $7.7 million. "It was a nice day of racing here, so it was a lot of fun the first day."

Of the Kentucky Sires Stakes program, he said, "It's bringing a lot of people to the state. It's obviously doing a lot for racing. For us, it's a lot of traveling back and forth from the East Coast. But it's great racing, so we're happy to be here."

Zeron, a three-time Hambletonian winner whose main base is New Jersey's Meadowlands and New York's Yonkers Raceway, said the lure of so many good horses now being eligible for the Kentucky Sires Stakes brought him to Corbin. He said the game-changer is the rule change allowing horses to be "Kentucky eligible" if either the sire and/or the mare resided in the commonwealth for 180 days during the calendar year of conception. That allowed many horses to be dual-eligible with other states' stallion and breed programs.

"These are the best horses we have going, and it just keeps getting bigger and bigger," Zeron, whose $8 million in purses so far in 2024 ranks No. 5, said of Kentucky. "It's massive. Usually, Kentucky was never on the schedule. Now it's the main target on the schedule. All three tracks. These are the fastest, best horses — here in the state of Kentucky."

Dexter Dunn, America's leading purse-earner in three of the last four years and in front so far this year at $12.6 million, participated in only nine Cumberland Run races last year, with five wins and four seconds. He said his participation will increase this year.

"I think I was only here for two or three days, but it's good to be back," said Dunn, who also won three races on the opening card. "[Cumberland Run] is only going to get better each year, getting more race meets under its belt. Kentucky is just getting stronger and stronger. It's got a great program, and it's why we're here."

Those are the kinds of comments Kentucky Rep. Tom Smith of Corbin wants to hear. Smith, whose district includes Cumberland Run, said the track is the sort of economic development the General Assembly envisioned when lawmakers voted in 2021 to protect historical horse racing gaming at the state's pari-mutuel tracks.

"I just got through talking to Ron [Winchell] and Marc [Falcone], the owners," he said. "It's a large investment for our community. As you can see, the turnout is good. It's a positive for the horse industry, no matter what breed.

"... Not only are we the thoroughbred capital of the world, but we've got other breeds such as standardbred that are also important. You used to see them run for only a few thousand dollars. Today they're running for $40,000 per race. It helps the industry grow. That was the Legislature's intent."

Also with hat tricks on the card: Hall of Fame driver David Miller and Ron Burke, harness racing's all-time winningest trainer. Tony Alagna, last year's leading trainer at Cumberland Run, won two races.

YO! LOCAL GUY YODER WINS AS 'TILLIE' GOES TO SIX FOR 10

The days are past when most horses at many standardbred tracks were driven by their trainers. But there was a notable exception Sunday at Cumberland Run when owner/trainer/driver Verlin Yoder won the 12th race with his filly trotter Yo Tillie.

Yoder doesn't just ship in and out of Kentucky. Living and racing in Florida in the winters and racing at Indiana's Hoosier Park in the summer, Yoder handicapped the terrain two years ago. He bet on Kentucky and bought a farm where he trains his modest-sized stable (10-12 horses in the winter) in Columbia, KY. It's a true family operation, with his wife, Rachel, and grown kids involved.

"Steve Stewart of Hunterton Farm [in Paris, KY], good friend of mine, he kept on talking to me about the program, where the program is going, where we're going to be in three years," Yoder said. "And he hasn't lied so far. He was one of the main reasons I made up my mind to do this, to try and just switch to Kentucky. I've always said, 'If you switch somewhere, don't half [way] do it. Go all in.' We went all in.

"It took me a year to get my feet under me, and I still don't have my feet under me. But we're gaining."

Yo Tillie is helping Yoder get a foot-hold. She won the $100,000 2-year-old trotting filly Sires Stakes final at Oak Grove, near Fort Campbell, and was third in the $400,000 final at Lexington's The Red Mile in her last start, Sept. 15. She was one of only two horses racing Sunday with as many as five wins. Now Yo Tillie is 6-1-1 in 10 starts, earning $235,300.

"She's really grown up," Yoder said. "She's starting to mature into a better horse to drive. She's been a very fast filly all year; sometimes she was just hard to drive. This is awesome. You can have a Kentucky-eligible 2-year-old, and they can race for $1 million from the first of June to the first of November."

Two records set during Virginia Breeders 2-Year-Old eliminations at Shenandoah Downs

by Darrell Wood / Shenandoah Downs

Kelsy Wagner's Brooksforreal and Caviart Farms' Caviart Glory established new track records in their respective Virginia Breeder's 2-Year-Old elimination division victories over the weekend at Shenandoah Downs as freshmen competitors looked to punch their tickets to the $650,000 Champions Day card in two weeks.

The former, who rolled into Woodstock with a bankroll of $117,015 and six-consecutive victories, lived up to his billing and simply dominated in wire-to-wire fashion as the 1-9 betting choice. Driven by Corey Braden for trainer John Wagner, the Rusty's For Real gelding pacer crossed in 1:56, 19 lengths ahead of runner-up BDay. The prior best time in that category was authored by Lemonaideshine (1:56.3) in 2017. Brooksforreal is now seven-for-11 and has finished out of the money just one time. Wagner's Playin For Real finished third.

The latter, a freshman filly trotter, had a similar outing despite entering the race winless in five outings and being sent off at 7-1. Trainer/driver Philip Scott Sonstebly led the wire-to-wire effort in 1:59.4 and guided the Greenshoe filly to a 20-length triumph over second-place finisher Royal Toni. Caviart Glory, whose best previous effort had been a fifth at The Red Mile, broke the track record in the filly trot category held by Miss Norissa (2:00.3 in 2022). K J The Thirteenth finished third.

In other Breeder's action Sunday, Britney Dillon's Paxamillion wired the field in a second colt/gelding pace division in 1:56.3 with Luke Hanners in the bike. Hanners, who was injured Aug. 7 and spent two months recovering, recorded his first win since returning to action Oct. 7. The 2-year-old Sweet Lou colt was six lengths the best over Jerry Nock's Rusty's Lancelot and Tracy Bradshaw's Mr. Big Check. Paxamillion won for the fourth time in eight career starts.

Trainer Billy Carter's Toys Little Tinker and Alexandria's Dream swept both filly pace divisions in 1:58.4 and 1:57.4, respectively. The former went coast-to-coast and held off runner-up Caviart Rose by 1 $\frac{3}{4}$ lengths while the latter was a neck better than Caviart Lyra in a photo finish. Billy Carter piloted Toys Little Tinker for co-owners Elwood Tignor and Deborah Mulligan while owner William Carter was at the helm for Alexandria Dream's win.

Gary Messenger's KJ Breeze took the second Virginia Breeders' filly trot division after securing a perfect pocket trip behind Twin Springs Mari through the head of the stretch. Corey Braden directed the winning effort and after taking control of the field late, surged in deep stretch to a 7 $\frac{3}{4}$ -length win over runner-up Speedy Gal. The victor, making just her third lifetime start, is owned by Scott Woogen. William Wyatt's Peggys Girl finished third.

Messenger's Mane Man Charlie prevailed in a colt/gelding trot elimination in 2:03.4 with Fern Paquet, Jr. aboard. The Met's Hall colt won his second career start by a half-length over John Wagner's Swervingmervin. He now has eight "in the money" finishes in 11 starts. Wagner's Roan Ridge finished third.

Elwood Tignor's TJ Jadster got his picture taken for the first time ever after passing HS Jesse – who had gone off-stride for the second time in the mile – before the wire in another colt/gelding trot elimination. The freshman gelding was driven by William Carter and crossed in 2:04.3. HS Jesse took second while I Luv Women was third.

Shenandoah Downs' fall season continues Saturday and Sunday (Oct. 19 and 20) with cards both days at 1:05 p.m. The $650,000 Champions Day card closes out the season on Sunday (Oct. 27).

Christina Johnson wins Pace for the Cure at Northfield

Northfield Park hosted their $2.4 million Ohio Sire Stakes finals on Saturday night (Oct. 12) but, of equal importance to the millions seeking a cure for cancer, the track also played host to the "Pace for the Cure," featuring many of the great ladies participating in our sport today.

For the second year in a row, Christina Johnson took top honors in this event by wiring her competitors with the 11-year-old gelding My Friskie Boy in 1:56.2.

Taking the lead immediately when the wings folded, Johnson guided the son of Feelin Friskie through panels of :28.2, :58 and 1:26.2 to report home a length in front of the pocket sitting and late charging Blue Spanx, handled by Nadine Habke, with the longest proposition in the field at 57-1, third for Jennifer Main.

The only 3-year-old in the gathering, In His Time, with Mary Birkhold in the sulky, was fourth with St Lads Thriller awarded fifth for Mandy Jones after suffering interference at the start necessitating a refund on that one's wagers.

Emma Wahlberg, Emily Hay, Lauren Harmon and Leslie Joyce completed this now annual event fighting one of our more serious illnesses, breast cancer.

The winner is now owned and trained by Elson Miller and, for My Friskie Boy, it was his third win of the year in 28 starts, vaulting his career bankroll to $315,659. It was also his 51st career win in a career stretching 10 seasons and 320 starts.

As the slight 2-1 favorite, My Friskie Boy, paid $6.60 to his faithful.

For "Chrissy" Johnson, it was her 10th win of the year, sending her UDRS to a lofty .412.

Ironically, it was the second win in a row for Johnson in this event and, also, the second consecutive year that Johnson-Habke combined for the Pace for the Cure exacta; last year's $2 exacta returning $30.20 and this year's $21.80.

In a post-race interview, Johnson said, "Winning is important and I am very happy for Elson [Miller] but to win this race for the second year in a row is really, really special to me. We had some very special fund-raising events in conjunction with this and this is a very special event to all of us and we were all honored to participate."

"As for My Friskie Boy, well, he lived up to his name, that's for sure. One chirp on the backside and he was on his way, :28.2. He really raced great. The crowd was very enthusiastic about the race, too... They bet us very well! [Over $70,000]."

"I look forward to participate in these and, just maybe, we can find a cure! That would be a dream come true for so many!"

John Berry

Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association photo contest for 2025 Stallion Directory cover

The Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association is hosting a photo contest for the cover of the 2025 Ohio Standardbred Stallion Directory and OHHA Membership Directory.

The OHHA is looking for pictures of foals by a registered Ohio stallion.

Please submit all photos to publications@ohha.com. The deadline to submit your pictures is Nov. 15, 2023. There is a limit of three pictures per photographer.

Please include the following information when submitting your photographs:

- Name of photographer
- Foal's name
- Sires and dam information

Photos should have a portrait orientation and high resolution. All photographs will be considered.

The photographer of the winning picture will receive a $250 gift card.

The staff of the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association will select the photograph to be used on the cover.

Any photographs submitted that are selected as a winner may be used throughout the stallion directory.

For information about placing a pedigree page for your stallion in the 2025 directory or for information about advertising your farm, product, or service, please contact Frank Fraas at publications@ohha.com.
