On Friday (Oct. 14) at The Raceway at Western Fair, Natasha "Nat" Day captured her second consecutive OLG Ontario Women's Driving Championship title. It's how she repeated that was particularly noteworthy: Day drove six winners in a row, none in races with short fields, and only one from the rail. Saturday evening, the newly-minted champion was going to Flamboro Downs to qualify Melissa Lamoureux's trotter Magnolia Lane, not driving at Woodbine Mohawk Park. No one in the North American harness racing industry will consider the fact surprising, despite her sweep in the 2022 women’s driving series and going six-for-six in the London, ON finals.

This surpassed a previous record set Aug. 11, 1985, when Danielle Duquet won 5 of 10 races on a single card.

Day questioned why so many in North America hold female drivers in low regard. She said that her points advantage going into the finals for the 2022 Women’s Driving Championship series didn’t guarantee victory, because of her talented Ontario rivals. “You know what? I didn’t feel comfortable at all that I had a huge lead and nobody was going to touch me,” she said. “Marielle [Enberg] is very competitive. Julie [Walker] is very competitive. I mean, all the girls are competitive...I did the best with what I had, and just got lucky that I got horses that had gate speed.”

Going undefeated into race 5, Day joked that her reputation was on the line with trotter Jayport Roadrunner, owned by fellow driver Tyler Borth: “I knew I had to win this one. The pressure was really on. I thought I’d be scrutinized by basically every driver at London.”

Her historic six-race win streak was capped off in the final leg, in which Day said she felt least confident. She was familiar with two-time 2022 winner Azucar Pipedream from various Ontario “B” tracks, and added a third victory to the mare’s seasonal stats Friday evening.

“She was good last night. I just had to send her and that was it,” said Day. “She paid attention last night.”

Day’s toughest competition in the Women’s Driving Championship was Marie-Claude Auger, who remains on racing hiatus for health reasons.

“That’s a huge shame and a huge loss,” said Day. “All the girls feel so bad for her, leaving indefinitely from driving, because that’s her livelihood.”

Importantly, Auger was the only series driver besides Day who was regularly racing against male drivers, primarily at Rideau Carleton Raceway. When Woodbine Mohawk Park played host to two special races for female drivers this year, Day won with Mach My Kiss on March 7 and Auger won with Dark Moves on Aug. 15.

There are no female drivers regularly based at Canada's top track today, with the most recent being Riina Rekila. She last drove at Mohawk in 2016 before returning to Finland, where she continues to enjoy considerable success with her Wania Racing stable.

"We need more women out there. I don't understand why we haven't moved forward like other countries," Day told HRU. The Queensland, Australia native said that the rarity of female pari-mutuel drivers in North America seems rooted in stubborn beliefs about who can outmuscle a horse: "I can't explain why it's like this, why so many owners and trainers believe, 'I have the horses and you're not physically good enough.'"

Imagine driving a horse to victory, only to lose the drive in that horse's next race for the same connections. "It really annoys me," said Day, noting that when the best women are passed over for catch drives, it reinforces the problem and keeps others from trying.

Familiar questions run through her mind whenever it happens: "Why aren't you 'good enough'? Why aren't more of these girls 'good enough?'"

Objectively, Day knows she's more than good enough.

"It says on my license I'm a driver. I'm an 'A' grade driver. It doesn't say 'woman driver', so why do you call me a woman driver?"

Women's races at Woodbine Mohawk Park this year were beneficial to female drivers' visibility and credibility, in her view.

"It was good to go there to Mohawk and experience driving on the mile track," said Day, who primarily drives at half-mile ovals. "It's great to take in that atmosphere and it's a totally different driving experience as well. If you want to get the experience, you've got to go down there and do it. All of the girls really enjoyed it and they put on such a great show for us."

Yet aside from special events, there is a stubborn reluctance among trainers and owners ("a lot of older gentlemen") to list female catch drivers. Day said even back-to-back Ontario Women's Driving Championship titles hasn't translated into more drives, particularly at Mohawk.

"I'd love to say yes, but I can't even guarantee that it will help me drive more," she said. "I hope the series will make people stand up and take notice, not only for myself but for the other girls as well."

She identified three main barriers to greater female participation as catch drivers in North America. First, many of the best-known women drivers have a husband or family with a powerful stable: "It's not uncommon." Women drivers are also usually trainers: "Take nothing away from Riina [Rekila] – she's a really good driver, and she's winning races over there in Sweden too, so it's definitely not anything against her. But if you have to train and drive your own horses to get to that level [i.e. driving at Woodbine Mohawk Park], it's an issue."

Day doesn't consider herself a trainer who occasionally drives: "I'm the other way around. I have three horses," she said.

Raised in Queensland, Australia, Ontario's busiest female driver grew up in a racing family, but took initiative on her own to become licensed as soon as possible.

"Dad was a trainer/driver and I've been driving since I was 16, and I've driven ever since. I'm 44 now."

The topic leads to Day's second reason for the lack of female catch drivers.

"One of our biggest problems is we start off driving too late," she told HRU, noting that Australia's "pony trots" raise skill and confidence in young girls and boys learning to drive. "They're not allowed to go out there and gallop. The ponies have to trot. I think we've missed that chance over here. They can get the experience before they even take a horse on the track. I think it's so much better."

She challenged other participants in the Women's Driving Championships to follow the path of herself and Auger by making more pari-mutuel starts.

"I actually said to Julie Walker, 'Julie, you need to start driving more,'" said Day, who tallied 118 total points in the series, ahead of runners-up Marielle Enberg and Walker, who both finished with 80 points.

A third barrier for North American women drivers is the promotion of stereotypically-pretty girls ahead of those with the most ability, according to Day.

"It really needs to change and we really need to come to terms with the modern age," she said. "It's very archaic here sometimes."

Meanwhile in August, the 2022 Australian Drivers' Championship featured a record five women in the field of 12 top drivers: Kate Gath, Dani Hill, Emily Suvaljko, Grace Panella, and Narissa McMullen. It was not billed as a novelty "Battle of the Sexes."

Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park was the Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Finals.

"I've got the Women's Driving title and I don't even have a drive there," said Day, whose 2022 record at the track (two wins, one place and two show finishes from 16 starts) puts her 37th of 100 drivers with at least a single seasonal start there. Several male catch drivers with a UDRS near her current .201 drove throughout the card.

"With a huge driving colony, a lot of guys are like, 'Well, why would you put her on when we have the leading drivers at Flamboro?' And you kind of get shuffled down the ranks," she said with disappointment.

Day continues chasing her first 100-win season, picking up drives at tracks around Ontario. She hopes that more owners and trainers will open their minds about listing female catch drivers, particularly on better horses at Canada's top track.

"They walk around with blinders on and they just don't see us. If any of these guys had been to Australia or Sweden, they would have a totally different opinion of things."

Bythemissal, Adare Castle, Watch Me Now N supplement to Breeders Crown at Woodbine Mohawk Park

The richest sophomore pacing male of the season, Bythemissal, Ontario Sire Stakes star sophomore trotting filly Adare Castle, and pacing mare Watch Me Now N have all been supplemented to their respective divisions of the US$6.7 million Breeders Crown championships at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Oct. 28 and Oct. 29.

Monday's (Oct. 17) noon deadline yielded the three supplements with the connections anteing up the required 12 per cent of the advertised $600,000 sophomore purses – $72,000 – and Watch Me Now N paying the $42,000 to enter the $350,000 Mare Pace.

Bythemissal, an early season acquisition by Weaver Bruscelli, Rich Lombardo Racing, and Burke Racing in partnership with original owner Eric Good, has been nearly flawless this year in racking up $980,525 in 13 starts. His 11 wins for trainer Ron Burke include the Little Brown Jug, Adios, Milstein Memorial, and Ohio Sire Stakes final. The son of Downbytheseaside – Dismissal finished second in his two losses.

Adare Castle, who has raced almost exclusively at Woodbine Mohawk Park this year, has banked $509,883 for trainer/co-owner Mark Etsell in partnership with Robert Newton, Graham Hopkins, and Peter Porter. The daughter of Muscle Mass – Pacific Edge has finished no worse than second in 11 of 12 races this season, winning seven.

Watch Me Now N, who finished third in the Milton Stakes at Woodbine Mohawk Park in September, is owned by Curtin ANZ Stables and trained by Tony Alagna. The 6-year-old daughter of He's Watching-Mach N Elle has won two of 13 races this season and earned $72,681.

The contestants for the 12 Breeders Crown finals will be determined through elimination races, if needed, this Friday

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Minnesota's Justin Anfinson on the long, satisfying road to the Courageous Lady podium

by Chris Lomon

The moments when he wasn't smiling were few and far between for Justin Anfinson.

An 11-hour drive from Northfield, OH, to Kenyon, MN, could have been a tough road to travel for the standardbred trainer/owner/breeder, but on this occasion, every stretch of the 744 miles was well worth the time.

The reason for the happy return came courtesy of a 3-year-old Minnesota-bred pacing miss who stepped into the stakes spotlight and reached the podium against some top-rank rivals on Oct. 15.

Give Me This Dance, 40-1 on the tote board at Northfield Park in the $100,000 Courageous Lady, crossed the wire third in a time of 1:52.1.

For Anfinson, the bronze-medal performance was a genuine thrill, a chance for the bay filly to test her mettle on the big stage and prove that she belonged.

And, with Aaron Merriman at the controls, she most certainly showed she did.

"Aaron gave her a great drive," said Anfinson. "To be honest, I wasn't sure how she would do taking on those horses, but we were really pleased with what she did out there."

After a winless 2021 rookie campaign in which she went 0-4-4 from 13 starts, Give Me This Dance has strutted her best stuff in her sophomore season, going 14-7-5 from 27 starts to date.

The well-traveled miss – her dance card includes wins in California – took everything in stride before and after the Courageous Lady.

Not surprisingly, Anfinson is a big fan.

"Just a great horse in every way," he said. "She's one that goes out there and steps up to each challenge that comes her way. We're very lucky to have her in our barn."

Courtesy Justin Anfinson
Anfinson and his children in the sulky.

Perhaps her Northfield result isn't much of a surprise considering the person who has played a major role in orchestrating her big year.

Anfinson, a second-generation horseman, has shown a winning touch since he joined the training ranks 15 years ago.

A modest four-win first year was followed by a 94-win output in 2008.

Since that time, Anfinson, who trains Minnesota bred and open pacers and trotters for his family, and for other owners across the Midwest and Northeast, has racked up 665 wins and over $4 million in purse earnings.

Aside from Give Me This Dance, he's had other standouts like 2018 Minnesota Horse of the Year, Burning Blaze, bred

“My dad always told me whatever I did, just work hard. And that’s always stayed with me in whatever I’ve done, including with the board. Racing here in Minnesota keeps growing and getting better each year and that’s what we all want to see. Doing that, while training, it can be tough, timewise, on certain days. I want to see the sports keep growing and we’re all working together to make that happen.”

~ Justin Anfinson

by Iowa-based Alan and Cheryl Sandbulte, who co-own with Edward Gutin, of Massapequa, NY.

Burning Blaze, a son of Wind Me Up-Cowgirls N Indians, notched a track record of 1:54.1 at Running Aces on September 15, 2018, en route to a 2YO Divisional Championship. No longer in his barn, the gelding has posted 15 wins and earnings of just under $140,000.

“I’m not sure what I’m most proud of when it comes to my career. We built the farm up and I’ve been able to train a stable in Minnesota, which was what my goal was, so that’s certainly something that I’m happy about.”

Just as he is about a prosperous summer.

“I had a lot of nice Minnesota-breds this summer, which has been really nice for us. Obviously, Give Me This Dance stands out. Wavzeka (a two-year-old pacing daughter of Arts Chip-Delco Dusty) really came on strong at the end, especially. I had a pair of three-year-old trotting fillies, CR Promise To You, and Wilamar Spark, who were both very good. I definitely can’t complain.”

Anfinson, Minnesota’s Fair Trainer of the Year in 2021, has made an impact beyond his own stable’s successes.

In 2019, the board of directors of Minnesota Harness Racing Inc. (MHRI) elected Anfinson to serve as president of the association. His uncle, the late Ron Banks, previously served as MHRI president and was inducted into the Minnesota Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2018.

“My dad always told me whatever I did, just work hard. And that’s always stayed with me in whatever I’ve done, including with the board. Racing here in Minnesota keeps growing and getting better each year and that’s what we all want to see. Doing that, while training, it can be tough, timewise, on certain days. I want to see the sports keep growing and we’re all working together to make that happen.”

Support for his roles comes from far and wide.

Along with his wife Stephanie and their two young children, daughter Morgan, 5, and son, Carter, 3, Anfinson receives a helping hand from plenty of people.

He’s grateful for all the backing.

“Having a couple of kids has really helped me with my patience in terms of the horses. But I’m very fortunate to have the support of my family in so many ways. Everyone helps out. My mom, my dad, his brothers, my uncles, they all help out. Everybody was watching the Courageous Lady. I had a lot of people call and text, to congratulate me. That means a lot. People here where I'm from, it meant a lot to them that a Minnesota-bred would get invited to the race, and that the horse did well."

Anfinson has learned to roll with the punches in a sport where losses happen far more often than trips to the winner's circle.

"That's just the nature of the business, those ups and downs. That rollercoaster, it's part of the business, which makes you appreciate the successes even more."

Give Me This Dance's most recent outing is an ideal example of that mindset.

On the long drive back to Minnesota – Anfinson, his wife and the filly stopped for the night at owner/breeder Jay De Long's farm in Wisconsin before getting on the road the following morning – the horseman had plenty of time to think about his harness life, past and present.

And whatever recollection or look ahead happened to cross his mind, it was more than enough to make him happy.

"I've been very fortunate in my career, to have nice horses and a lot of people, family, friends, owners and others, supporting me. I don't really set my goals. I just try to run with the horses I'm granted each year and do the best I can. That's my goal."

First day of London Classic Yearling Sale grosses over $3.7 million, averages $39,840

The average was up 29 per cent and the gross was up 11 per cent from the last time there was an in-person sale in London in 2019.

by Dave Briggs

The first day of the first year of the newish London Classic Yearling Sale is in the books and first-year general manager Greg Blanchard said he is pleased with the results, so far.

Tuesday's (Oct. 18) opening session of the two-day sale at the Western Fair Agriplex in London, ON saw 94 yearlings gross $3,745,000 for an average of $39,840.

"I was very happy with Day 1. I didn't know what to expect coming in. Considering that, I'm ecstatic to see the numbers that we had," Blanchard said.

"I feel great for the team here. This is the first year that we're running the sale, so we have pretty much an all-new staff. They have really embraced it and put a lot of hard work into it. So, to see us pull off a good opening day like that was really, really rewarding."

Prior to this year, the auction was called the London Selected Yearling Sale and it was operated by a consortium of Ontario breeders. The new incarnation is owned and operated by the Western Fair Association.

The London Selected Yearling Sale was a virtual sale only in both 2020 and 2021 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The last time the London sale was held in person was 2019. Comparing this year's opening session to the first day of the 2019 sale, show's this year's average is up 29 per cent – from $28,370 in 2019 to $39,840 – and the gross was up 11 per cent – from $3,376,000 to $3,745,000.

When compared to 2018, this year's opening session is up 39 per cent in average (from $28,700 to $39,840) and up 30 per cent in gross (from $2,870,000 to $3,745,000).

"I was watching what happened in Lexington and I saw the strong sale they had in eastern Canada. Alberta had a strong sale, so I was optimistic," Blanchard said. "Then, (Monday), seeing the large turnout for the viewing day so I had a good feeling about today.

"I thought it was a pretty strong catalogue coming in. The overall numbers of horses were a little bit lower than I had hoped, but understandable right after a two-year absence and that uncertainty... to see the increase in incredible."

Six yearlings were sold for $100,000 or more on Tuesday.

"That impressed me, to see that many hit six figures. That was tremendously encouraging," Blanchard said. "I think the timing of the recent announcement about the increase to the OSS purses for next year... and I think seeing how the Ontario-sired performers have been doing, especially in recent years, beyond the provincial program, shows that they can go with the best in North America. I think that was something that was in our favor. Then, the U.S. dollar the way it is, that's probably another factor that helped."

Topping the sale was Hip 38 Heist Seelster, a Resolve colt out of Hollywood Beauty that sold for $165,000 to Gestion Zane of Laval, QC from the Seelster Farms consignment. The final six-figure yearling was Hip 96 Century Komodo, a Bettors Delight colt out of Michelons Filly purchased by Scott McEneny of Waterdown, ON from Century Springs Fam.

Resolve led all stallions in average at $85,000 for five yearlings, followed by Muscle Mass ($69,000 for 19 yearlings), Archangel ($65,000 for three) and Bettors Delight ($53,417 for 17).

Seelster led all consignors in both average ($60,130) and gross ($2,224,810) for 37 yearlings.

Preferred Equine was next in gross with $1,493,178. Dean and Ashley Wilson were second in average with $40,765 for 35 yearlings sold.

Blanchard said he is hoping for good results from today's (Oct. 19) second and final sale session. The London Classic Yearling Sale did not seed its yearlings.

"We mixed it. It was totally random," Blanchard said. "So, I think, on balance, that (Wednesday) should be a good day. I'm not going to predict that we'll match today's numbers, because they were, I thought, exceptional, but if we're in the ballpark I'll be very happy with that, for sure."

In 2019 for the complete sale, 291 yearlings combined to gross $6,285,000 for an average of $21,598. In 2018, the gross was $7,064,800 for 312 yearlings sold for an average of $22,644. In 2017, the sale grossed $7,536,000 for 306 sold, an average of $24,627.

Keep in mind, this year, about 100 fewer horses will be sold than in any of those three above years.

Today's sale session begins at noon at the Agriplex.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Treacherous Tom remains unbeaten in Massachusetts Sire Stakes

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The third leg for 3-year-old eligibles of the $2.56 million Massachusetts Sire Stake were held at Plainridge Park on Monday afternoon (Oct. 17) with $260,000 in purses up for grabs with four divisions valued at $65,000 each.

Treacherous Tom (Captaintreacherous—Kate) remained unbeaten in the stake this year after taking his third straight win in the pacing colts and geldings division in a non-betting event held before the first race.

Bruce Ranger put Treacherous Tom in his favorite spot – on the point – and got things his own way from there. With no pressure from behind, he skated through quarters of :26.3, :56.3 and 1:25 before turning for home and pacing away to a 3-½ length win in 1:53.2.

It was the fourth win in a row and ninth overall for the year from only 11 starts for Treacherous Tom, who is owned by Tom and Scott Dillon and trained by Joe Nelson. Fashion Farms bred the winner.

The male trotters were up next and Bill Bauer (E L Titan—Miss Flaggy Meadow) is moving towards becoming a two-time MASS champion after a convincing win.

Moni's Heaven Cent (Jay Randall) took the early lead and parked Bill Bauer (Yannick Gingras) to the quarter in :28.2 before Gingras was able to get the trotter clear. Once he crossed over and settled in, the race was Bill Bauer's to win. Moni's Heaven Cent tracked Bill Bauer from the quarter to the top of the final turn before he tipped and put forth a solid brush against the leader. But Bill Bauer responded and trotted away by 3-¼ length win in a new lifetime mark of 1:56.1.

It was the second straight win for Bill Bauer ($2.10) who is owned by his trainer Paul Kelley, in partnership with Joseph Palillo and Ellen Palillo. Bill Bauer was bred by East Pond Stable.

The filly trot was won by Moni Heist (Walner—Nothing But Moni) who took full advantage of a lot of early action to score late.

It was a four horse dash for the lead that ended up a two horse battle between Dancin On The Wall (Yannick Gingras) and the parked-out Just Liv Broadway (Luke Hanners). These two got to the quarter in :27.4 and continued to spar past the half and up the backside while Moni Heist (Scott Zeron) was far back seventh. Nearing three-quarters, Wonderwall Lindy (Jay Randall) tipped three deep around the fading Just Liv Broadway and engaged Dancin On The Wall. At the same time, Moni Heist tipped three deep around the entire pack. At the top of the stretch Moni Heist was rolling and went right past Wonderwall Lindy and then caught the very game Dancin On The Wall by one length to win in 1:59 in the pouring rain.

It was the first MASS stake win of the year for Moni Heist ($15.00) who was bred and is owned by Moni Maker Stable. Domenico Cecere trains the winner.

As the inclement weather continued, the fourth group to line up were the pacing fillies and Dude's Sweet Bet (Dude's The Man—Sweet Bettor) bounced back from a third place finish last week to claim her second win in this series.

Dude's Sweet Bet (John Macdonald) got away second behind Believe It's Lindy (Bruce Ranger) while Halleysbigcomet (Drew Campbell) was parked out to the quarter in :27.4. With nowhere to go but up, Campbell pushed on with Halleysbigcomet and got alongside Believe It's Lindy going to three-quarters as Dude's Sweet Bet continued to draft at the pylons. Shakeitoffscarlet (Kevin Switzer Jr.) joined the fray at the top of the stretch and a wall of horses, three across, began the trek down the lane leaving Dudes Sweet Bet still looking for racing room. That finally came when the pylon path came clear and Macdonald shot through with Dudes Sweet Bet who finished off the job by winning by 1-¼ lengths in 1:56.1.

Dude's Sweet Bet ($2.80) is owned by Sal Vullo, James De Armond and Chris Lems, who bred the horse along with Triple C Stables.

The top point-getters from all the preliminary legs will move forward in eight $125,000 Massachusetts Sire Stakes finals during the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts "Million Dollar Monday", October 24. Post time for that card is 2 p.m.

RECORDS FALL IN MASSACHUSETTS SIRE STAKES AT PLAINRIDGE

With perfect fall weather and a lightning fast track greeting the contestants at Plainridge Park on Sunday (Oct. 16), stake and track records along with lifetime marks were the order of the day as the third leg of the $2.56 Massachusetts Sire Stakes for 2-year-old eligibles were held.

The trotting fillies were split into two $32,500 races while the remaining three divisions each went one for $65,000 apiece.

The first filly trot went to Milliondollarwall (Walner—Mom's Millionaire) who claimed her third straight Mass stake win.

Get The Picture (Jay Randall) left from pylon position and set fractions of :29, :58.3 and 1:27.4 while Milliondollarwall (Yannick Gingras) sat in the pocket waiting to pounce, and that happened at the top of the far turn. Milliondollarwall engaged Get The Picture heading into the stretch and had a hard time getting separation from her gutsy rival. But just before the wire, Milliondollarwall finally got the advantage and won by three-quarters of a length in 1:57.2.

It was the fourth win in only five lifetime starts for the heavily favored Milliondollarwall ($2.10) who is owned and bred by Moni Maker Stable. Domenico Cecere trains the winner.

The second group of trotting girls were bested by Laurens Hoopla (E L Titan—Tattoo You) who won her second consecutive Mass stake.

Nick Graffam went right for the lead from post four with Laurens Hoopla as Pembroke Moni (Yannick Gingras), who also left, dropped into the garden spot. When the race reached the half in :56.3 the top two had gapped from the field with only the Wise One (Bruce Ranger) staying close. Positions remained unchanged until the seven-eighths pole where Gingras pulled Pembroke Moni and tried to overtake Laurens Hoopla. Although she gained ground with every stride, Pembroke Moni could not get past Laurens Hoopla, who hit the line on top by a neck in 1:56.3.

Laurens Hoopla ($4.60) was bred and is owned by Ray Campbell Jr. and is trained by George Ducharme.

Inter Mischief (International Moni—Blinded By Lindy) had a big day winning the trot for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings and broke several records in the process.

Inter Mischief (Kevin Switzer Jr.) took the early lead but yielded it to Yo Lucky Moni (Jimmy Whittemore) past the speedy :27.4 quarter. It was there that the favored Te Amo Lindy (Yannick Gingras) made a break and that changed the complexion of the race. Yo Lucky Moni then backed off the half to :58.4 and headed up the backstretch, seemingly in complete control. However in the far turn, Switzer tipped Inter Mischief and got his colt in gear. He got up alongside Yo Lucky Moni and the two trotted together all the way to the wire with Inter Mischief getting the advantage by three-quarters of a length to win in 1:55.4.

The time was a new lifetime mark for the winner and it also broke the Mass stake and Plainridge track records for 2-year-old trotting colts.

It was the second stakes win for Inter Mischief ($4.80) and owners Frank Chic and Jamie Lee Sullivan, who also trains the record setter. Inter Mischief was bred by K R Breeding.

The pacing fillies had a field of eight go to post and Dame (Dude's The Man—Seat By The Window) exerted her muscle to take her second straight victory.

Jimmy Hardy pushed Dame off the gate but Seafood Beauty (Jay Randall) who had pylon position played hardball and would not release the lever. It wasn't until past the :27 quarter that Dame took control and crossed over. Once on the point, Dame went to the half in :56.4 and three-quarters in 1:25.3 as Seafood Beauty tried to stay close. But close was not good enough as Dame paced away to a 3-1/4 length lead down the stretch and won in a new lifetime best time of 1:54.2.

Dame ($3.00) was bred and is owned by Stephen Richard. Jolene Andrews trains the winner.

Finally it was a full field of nine pacing colts and geldings that lined up with Luke McGook getting up late for a win and a new mark.

Kevin Switzer Jr. put Luke McGook on the point after a battle with Good Will Lindy (Shawn Gray) and then took the field to the quarter in :27.1. However his stablemate So Rock N' Roll (Drew Monti) was out and rolling early and took the lead from him in front of the grandstand.

As they headed into the second half, Rooster Bennett (Yannick Gingras) moved first-over from fourth and got within close proximity of So Rock N' Roll. These two went at it around the last turn while Luke McGook drafted behind, waiting for an opening. That came halfway down the stretch when the pylon lane opened up as So Rock 'M Roll was fighting off Rooster Bennett. Switzer guided Luke McGook through the gap and shot to the front by one-half length at the light and won in 1:54.1.

The time was a new lifetime mark for the winner and also tied the Plainridge track record for 2-year-old pacing geldings.

It was the eighth win of the year for Luke McGook ($9.80) who is owned by Leighton Properties and trained by Marc Tardif. Erica Saucier bred the winner.

Deal With It Roman takes Maine's glamour boys' final

by Chris Tully for the Maine Breeders Stakes

The rich $324,426 Maine Breeders Stakes (MSBS) sophomore finals are in the books with 4-5 favorite Deal With It Roman taking the $81,079 MSBS 3-year-old colt & gelding pace in a new lifetime best 1:57.3 at historic Bass Park on Saturday (Oct. 15) night.

Driven by Walter Case Jr. for owner/trainer/breeder Marc Tardif, the altered son of Western Maverick performed admirably under the lights for the special evening card at Bangor's Hollywood Casino Hotel & Raceway.

Scoring from post four Case put Deal With It Roman into gear as soon as the wings folded and pushed on to the top, with second choice Bandolito Blaze (Heath Campbell/Valerie Grondin) right alongside him going through the first turn. Campbell ducked 'Blaze' into the two-hole for a millisecond just past the eighth pole, but was right back out and moving to set a snappy :28 opening panel.

With Case begrudgingly yielding command, Campbell continued on the lead and landed at the half in "58. Ugotaearyrstripes (Dave Ingraham/Steve LaCasse) was the first to move into the outer flow, who managed to get to within a length of the leader into a 1:27.1 third stanza.

As the field rounded the final turn and moved into the home stretch Case tipped Deal With It Roman off his perfect cover trip and coasted home a winner by 1-1/4 lengths, paying $3.60 to win.

Bandolito Blaze hung on for second; Daughtry (Ron Cushing/Heidi Gibbs) was a hard-charging third.

As advertised, the indomitable Wolverina had things her own way in the $81,172 MSBS 3-year-old filly pace, picking up her 12th consecutive triumph. Driven by Nick Graffam for co-owner/trainer/breeder Mike Graffam (with Bill Arnold), the daughter of Cheyenne Hollywood went off at 1-9 and performed as a heavy favorite should.

Leaving from post three the race appeared to be more of a training mile for the fantastic filly, with pressure coming in the form of Pembroke Legacy (Heath Campbell/Valerie Grondin) as the winner cruised to a 1-3/4 length victory in 1:58.

Shelley Gilpatrick

Deal With It Roman (Walter Case, Jr.) won the $81,079 MSBS 3-year-old colt pace in a new lifetime best 1:57.3 at historic Bass Park on Saturday (Oct. 15) night.

Wolverina paid $2.20 to win. Pembroke Legacy finished second; CBF Fin (Dave Ingraham/David Crochere) was third.

The $81,014 MSBS 3-year-old colt and gelding trot was captured by point leader Katahdin Mark (Gary Hall) who went right to the top and never looked back to prevail by 1-1/2 lengths. Picking up his ninth seasonal victory, the son of Noble Venture and his trainer/driver Gary Hall set an opening panel of 30.4 and then put the field to sleep with a slow 1:03.4 half.

With Wild Venture (Ivan Davies) sitting in the catbird seat, only Chamorro (Drew Campbell/Valerie Grondin) took a shot at the leader while charging up the backside going into a 1:32.4 third panel, but soon found the pylons again and had to settle for second best. Owned and bred by James and Betsey Kelley, Katahdin Mark paid $2.80 to win in 2:02.4. Chamorro finished second; Wild Venture was third.

In the non-wagering event $81,161 MSBS 3-year-old filly trot, one of the four 'Pembroke' entrants found the winner's circle for owner/breeder Bill Varney and trainer Valerie Grondin.

Driver Heath Campbell had pylon position Pembroke Faye and never had an anxious moment once division leader Maplewood Slugger (Andy Harrington/John Nason) got parked and then went off stride going to the three-quarter pole.

The homebred daughter of Pembroke Slugger scored by four open lengths, taking a new 2:01.4 lifetime mark while winning her third race of the year. Maplewood Slugger came from twelve lengths back following her miscue to finish second. It was a photo for third with Pembroke Booboo (Grondin) taking the show dough by a whisker over Show No Tears (John Nason).

Strong middle buoys PEO sale

After a three-week break for the Lexington sales, Preferred Equine Online was back in action on Monday (Oct. 17). The Mixed Sale tallied $827,500 in transactions and was led by the sporty 4-year-old pacer Twin B Heart Throb, who brought $74,000.

Sale owner and manager David Reid said he was pleased with the results.

"The sale had what I'd call strong middle-market racehorses, those with a value of anywhere from $30,000 to $50,000, and most of them exceeded expectations," he said.

"The bidding was solid all the way from Friday until the auction started to close today, and participation during the live auction was outstanding. There were a lot of buyers that everyone will recognize."

(View complete sale results)

The sale-topper, Twin B Heart Throb p,3,1:51.2 ($100,825), was a stakes competitor who raced against the likes of Bulldog Hanover. He has been race-timed in 1:49.4 this year in the conditioned classes at Woodbine Mohawk Park. He was consigned by PEO as agent for Todd Ratchford and purchased by Marc Reynolds as agent for Tom Pollack.

Betts Racing bought the next-highest seller, the stakes winning sophomore filly trotter Resolving 3,1:54.2-'22, for $66,000. She was one of six selling in the racing and breeding stock dispersal of Ted Wilson.

The Weaver BrusceMI racing partnership snapped up the sharp 3-year-old Sporty M Three p,3,1:52.3f-'22 for $52,000.

Topping the five broodmares in the sale was another from the Wilson dispersal, the stakes winning Muscle Hill—Sahalee 4-year-old Spruce Creek, in foal to Archangel. She brought $50,000 from purchaser Winbak Farm.

Buyers left the sale with 27 horses from the 32 that were on offer. Those not sold are still listed as "make offer" on the sale page, most with asking prices.

The entire sale averaged $30,648, with racehorses averaging just shy of $32,000.

The company's next online mixed sale is scheduled for Oct. 31 — Halloween afternoon. With bids starting to close at 3 p.m., the sale will conclude before the anticipated arrival of trick-or-treaters. Entries are now being accepted at preferredequineonline.com.
