$270,000 Bettors Delight colt smashes brother's Canadian record

Marlboro Seelster becomes the most expensive yearling ever sold in Canada as day one of the London Selected Yearling Sale is on par with the 2018 opening session average of $28,370.

by Dave Briggs

Marlboro Seelster, the richest standardbred ever sold at auction, with Walter Parkinson of Seelster Farms.

Two years ago, Mohawk Seelster set the record for the most expensive standardbred yearling ever sold in Canada. On Saturday, his younger brother did him one better at the London Selected Yearling Sale at the Agriplex at The Western Fair District in London, ON. Marlboro Seelster, a Bettors Delight colt out of Macapelo Rose, fetched a bid of $270,000 from trainer Dr. Ian Moore on behalf of owner Jeff Snyder of New York, NY.

"London is excited to hold the Canadian record for the highest price yearling to sell. He is by a proven quality sure, Bettors Delight, and from a great maternal line. Buyers are very confident in those types of purchases,” said sale manager Ann Straatman.

The $270,000 bid bested the old Canadian record by $50,000. At the inaugural London Selected Yearling Sale in 2017, Mohawk Seelster a Sportswriter colt, sold for $220,000. He has earned some $15,000 to date for Millar Farms of Stouffville, ON.

“I know (Marlboro Seelster’s) brother went for a lot of money at this sale two years ago and it didn’t work out,” Moore said. “But (Marlboro Seelster) is an outstanding individual and he’s a Bettors Delight.”

Seelster Farms bred and consigned both colts and Moore said that was key in his purchase decision. He said he likes buying from Seelster Farms because they raise nice yearlings and the Lucan, ON operation does not retain any of its yearlings to race.

“I like that they sell everything and I think that matters to other buyers, too,” Moore said.

Seelster Farms led all consignors on day one in both gross ($1,257,000) and average ($52,374) with 24 yearlings sold.

The sale-topper in the ring.

Winbak Farm LLC was second in gross with $400,000 in sales for 17 sold. Preferred Equine Marketing sold $308,000 worth of yearlings.

Moore led all buyers, both as an agent for Snyder – thanks to the session-topper alone – and solo with $170,000 spent on three yearlings.

He said he was encouraged that Snyder wanted to buy in Ontario and said the bright spot is Snyder would get a premium on his U.S. dollars buying in Canada.

“Mr. Snyder originally told me to go to $150,000, but I told him, ‘I don’t think that’s going to get it done. This is a very nice individual.’ So, he said, ‘Okay, put me on the phone when you’re bidding.’ When it got to $260,000, he said, ‘Well, that’s it,’ but I said, ‘Just go one more bid’ and that was the final one,” said Moore, who will own a piece of Marlboro Seelster with Snyder and Snyder’s son, Michael.

Marlboro Seelster is a half-brother to Mach Three filly Mayhem Seelster trained by Tony O’Sullivan. Mayhem Seelster was third in the 2015 Breeders Crown final for 2-year-old pacing fillies (won by Pure Country) and earned over $300,000 in her career.

Saturday’s first session saw 119 yearlings sold for a total gross of $3,376,000, and an average of $28,370 that was on par from the opening session of 2018 (off only 1.2 per cent) when 100 yearlings grossed $2,870,00 for an average of $28,700.

“We’re thrilled with Day One at the sale,” Straatman said. “We had a super crowd and enthusiastic bidders. The London Selected Yearling Sale continues to prove that breeders can sell Ontario-sired yearlings right here at home in Ontario for outstanding prices. (Sunday’s) roster is every bit as exciting as (Saturday’s) offerings, so we look forward to seeing

SELLING AT THE HOOSIER CLASSIC YEARLING SALE OCTOBER 25-26

YEARLING VIDEOS!

Buying yearlings can be very rewarding or a major risk. If you want to improve the reward and reduce the risk, consider a Wilt yearling purchase in 2019. In 2017, Wilt sold five yearlings, four took records at two in 2018. In 2018, Wilt sold five yearlings, four have taken two year old records in 2019. This year, Wilt will sell six yearlings. After you review their pedigrees & videos, I believe you will see one of the reasons you can expect top end performance from these yearlings at two and beyond. Add to that the manner in which these yearlings have been raised from conception to their yearling sale to become Champions. Wilt two year olds have won major sires stakes in Indiana and Ohio, both trotting and pacing.

Breeders Crown - 2yocp

'Papi Rob' large in Crown elimination victory, defeats Tall Dark Stranger

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Earlier Friday evening, driver Yannick Gingras upended two unbeaten juveniles in capturing Breeders Crown eliminations. Gingras was on the other side of the fence in the lone $25,000 Crown elimination for juvenile pacing colts and this time his unbeaten Tall Dark Stranger tasted defeat for the first time as Papi Rob Hanover and driver Dave Miller turned the tables in capturing the event in 1:50.2 at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Tall Dark Stranger was sent off as the odds-on choice in the field of 10 necessary to find eight horses for the final. Gingras sent him to the front early and he seated Cattlewash in the pocket and cut the opening fraction in :27.4 as Papi Rob Hanover and Major Betts both found spots along the pylons.

Tall Dark Stranger appeared to be cruising on the lead until Miller made a sudden move and engaged the leader. The two hooked up for an extended duel, but Papi Rob Hanover overtook the favorite just past the :55.1 opening half. Miller kept the pace lively and did not allow an outer tier flow to develop kicking his third quarter in :27.1 with the teletimer flashing 1:22.2.

Papi Rob Hanover, sent off at 3-2 was second in the Metro to Tall Dark Stranger, but on this night it was his rival that failed to engage in the final eighth of a mile as Miller worked on Papi Rob Hanover and got the desired result. A final quarter of :28 snapped Tall Dark Stranger's seven-race win streak and assured the winner a decent draw for the final.

Cattleshaw finished third, followed by Mayhem Hanover in fourth. Rounding out those headed for next Friday's final are Freedom Warrior, Allywag Hanover, Major Betts and Put To Right.

David McDuffee owns Papi Rob Hanover, a son of Somebeachsomewhere—Panera Hanover and Brett Pelling trains the colt who returned $5 to win.

"I knew we had to finish in the top eight so I asked Brett before the race what the strategy was," Miller said. "He said 'I came here to win' so we accomplished that," said Miller. "I was going to sit and just come late but when I saw the quarter in :27/4 I figured I better go. He was strong."

He's the real deal," said Pelling. "He's never done anything wrong. He had post 9 in the Metro final and got beat and I

Breeders Crown - 2yofp

Bates secures Priceless spot in Crown final; New Year and Lyons Sentinel also winners

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Trainer/driver Brandon Bates will make his Breeders Crown debut following a 1:50.2 blowout victory on Friday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park in the opening elimination for 2-year-old pacing fillies with his Rockin Image—Btwnyurheartnmine filly Priceless.

A group of 21 rookie pacing fillies were split into three $25,000 eliminations to determine the field for next Friday's (Oct. 25) $600,000 final (draw below).

The first elimination saw Bates blast Priceless to the front while Gai Waterhouse secured pocket to a :26.3 opening quarter. Priceless raced uncontested to a :55 half and faced far-turn pressure from Baby Your The Best tipping first over from third. Past three-quarters in 1:22.4, Priceless opened her lead through the stretch chased by Reflect With Me closing from third over for second while Baby Your The Best settled for third.

"Actually she did it pretty easy," Bates said after the race. "She's got more in the tank. I thought all year that she belongs in the conversation."

Winning her seventh race from 10 starts, Priceless has earned $344,912 for owners Kevin Miller and Bert Hochsprung. She paid $6.50 to win.

Lyons Sentinel delivered as the 1-5 favourite in the second fastest elimination on the night to hold off a pocket move from Marloe Hanover.

Betalady launched from the outermost post in the field of seven to take the lead with Marloe Hanover sitting second to a :26.4 opening quarter. Marloe Hanover soon popped pocket to take control as driver Tim Tetrick sent Lyons Sentinel towards the front approaching a :55.1.

Lyons Sentinel led the field to the final turn, speeding to three-quarters in 1:22.4, and maintained command through the stretch as Marloe Hanover angled wide but only gave pursuit from second. Looksgoodinaromper closed from last for third.

“She just keeps impressing me more and more every time I sit behind her,” Tetrick said after the race. “I wasn’t [planning on] going to the front but I didn’t want to get away too far back and let some of the better [fillies] get away from me. I put her on the lead, which I don’t think that’s her best game, but she paced all the way to the wire today and the plugs were still in.”

Collecting her seventh-consecutive victory in her 11th start, Lyons Sentinel has finished no worse than second in her career. The daughter of Captaintreacherous out of Tutu Hanover – racing for owner Threeylonsracing – has surpassed $600,000 in earnings. The division leader heads into the final facing a firm challenge from other elimination winner Priceless.

“I followed Brandon Bates’ filly in the Kentuckiana,” Tetrick said. “I had a filly I thought was okay but he blew my doors

“As it stands, we’re really looking forward to next week, but it’s going to be a horse race,” winning trainer Jim King Jr. said after the race. “I hope we’re ready for them. [Priceless] was impressive; that was I really good mile tonight. I hope she was watching us too. I think she has a little in reserve and I hope we don’t have to use it all up yet.”

Lyons Sentinel paid $2.50 to win.

New Year ground down 1-5 favourite Alicorn to take the second elimination, stopping the clock in 1:52.

Driver Corey Callahan floated New Year into fourth while Lady Lou led Alicorn to a :27 first quarter. Alicorn soon circled to the front moving to the backside and strolled to a :56.1 half while Callahan edged New Year first over heading to the far turn.

New Year ranged closer to Alicorn pacing to three-quarters in 1:24.4 and drew alongside the Ontario Sires Stakes champ in the stretch. Alicorn tried to stay straight through the lane as New Year dug into the pacesetter before pushing past in the final eighth to win. Lady Lou – off a pocket trip – finished third while Shouldabeenatd, with the highest earnings of the fourth-place finishers, coming from second over to qualify for the final in fourth.

“She’s like the perfect combination of Drop The Ball and Somebeach[somewhere],” Corey Callahan said after the race. “Drop The Ball [her dam] was really quick and this filly just carries her speed a long ways. You don’t really feel her change gears but she hits it. It’s a good feeling.”

A filly by Somebeachsomewhere, New Year — a homebred for Let It Ride Stables Inc. and Dana Parham — made her career debut in early September. She has since won four races from five starts and earned $99,930.

“She’s really fresh,” Callahan also said. “She’s gone a couple of big heats — that heat at Lexington was huge. Today she didn’t have to work quite as hard as she did down there, so I think we have fresh legs going into the final.”

New Year returned $6.40 to win.

The post-position draw for the $600,000 2-Year-Old Filly Pace final took place following the eliminations. Elimination winners drew for post positions one through five.

Breeders Crown – 2yoft, 2yoct

Gingras sweeps rookie trot Crown eliminations

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Driver Yannick Gingras set up shop in the winner's circle to launch the Breeders Crown elimination weekend festivities on Friday evening at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A pair of eliminations for the 2-Year-Old Filly Trot and a single elimination for the 2-Year-Old Colt Trot were contested.

Gingras drove Synergy to a 1:55 win in the $25,000 in the lone freshman trot elimination.

The field left evenly except for Chestnut Hill, who galloped off the gate while mid-pack Beads went to the front as the rest of the field found early spots. Back Of The Neck sat behind the leader into a :27.2 first quarter while Synergy sat in fourth.

Synergy was in a good spot going into the half as favorite Amigo Volo and outsider Horse Trader jumped, leaving a big lead for Beads and a clear path for Synergy on the inside through a half in :57.

By the 1:25.4 three-quarters, Beads was being chased strongly by Third Shift, who went four wide into the stretch, along with Rome Pays Off charging up the middle and Synergy riding the rail.

Those three left Beads behind and as Third Shift dueled with Rome Pays Off, Gingras glided by them to win by a length in 1:55.

Synergy (Father Patrick—Southwind Sauna), is trained by Per Engblom. The colt was bred by Southwind Farms and is owned by Brittany Farms, John Fielding, Herb Liverman and David Anderson.

Third Shift nosed Rome Pays Off for the place. Chestnut Hill recovered from the early break and finished fourth.

The top-seven finishers from the elimination advanced to the final to join the trio of Capricornus, Port Perry and Real Cool Sam, who all took byes to the final.

Moon Bridge, Beads and Amigo Volo finished fifth through seventh to qualify for the next Friday's (Oct. 25) $600,000 final.

Synergy paid $36.90 to win.

Sister Sledge regained her winning form and in the process ended the undefeated reign of Hypnotic AM in capturing the first of two $25,000 eliminations of the Breeders Crown for juvenile trotting fillies.

Gingras guided Sister Sledge to the lead in the early stages and released 1-5 favorite Hypnotic AM and driver Brian Sears well before the :27.2 opening quarter marker. Those two continued in that order through middle fractions of :56.1 and 1:24.4 as only Violet Stride attempted to rally on the outside without cover but couldn't get reasonably close to the top pair.

In the homestretch, Gingras tipped the daughter of Father Patrick—Behindcloseddoors to the outside and Sister Sledge rolled right by the favorite to score by a length. Hypnotic AM entered the Crown elimination unbeaten in seven prior starts but had to settle for second here. Shishito saved ground most of the way and finished third with Violet Stride and Madame Sherry earning final berths.

Burke Racing Stable, Jason Merillo, J & T Silva, Purnell & Libby and Weaver-Bruscemi LLC share partnership in Sister Sledge now an eight time winner in 10 starts as a freshman.

"I rushed her a bit out of the two hole at the Red Mile," said Gingras, "And she got rough. Here I waited a bit and she was strong."

Trainer Ron Burke was frustrated with a second and third place finish in Grand Circuit action at the Red Mile but found the answers he was looking for.

"We decided to change her bridle after the Pennsylvania Championship," Burke said of the mistake. "She's as good a filly as there is out there."

Sister Sledge returned $13.80 to win.

It was Gingras once again putting the end to another unbeaten streak in the second $32,500 Breeders Crown elimination for juvenile trotting fillies when he guided Ms Savannah Belle to victory with previously flawless Ramona Hill had to settle for third.

Gingras drove Synergy to a 1:55 win in the lone Crown elimination for freshman trotters.

Ms Savannah Belle started from post eight but Gingras was quick to energize her at the outset grabbing the early lead then yielding to Indiana-based filly May Baby before the :27.3 opening quarter was clocked.

Ms Savannah Belle stayed close up in the pocket as May Baby carved out lively fractions of :56, 1:24.4 for James Yoder. Gingras wasted little time and angled Ms Savannah Belle to challenge into the homestretch and the daughter of Muscle Hill—Stubborn Belle took off quickly rolling past the leader and drawing clear from other rivals to post a 1:53.2 clocking.

Wine Rack Hanover rallied along the inside after a pylon-sitting trip for second just ahead of Ramona Hill who went a long way on the outside without cover in a difficult grinding effort. May Baby settled for fourth after doing the early leg work and Peaceful Way champion Dip Me Hanover rallied late for the final berth.

Sent off as a 4-1 offering, Ms Savannah Belle returned $10.60 winning for the fourth time in 8 career starts for owner-breeder Al Libfeld and trainer Per Engblom.

"We decided to race her just the first week at the Red Mile Ms Savannah Belle paid $10.60 to win.

Post positions for the 2-Year-Old Colt Trot and 2-Year-Old Filly Trot finals were drawn following the eliminations. Elimination winners drew for inside post positions one through five.

Breeders Crown - 3yft The Ice Dutchess and Millies Possession takes Crown elims

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Sophomore trotting fillies launched the second night of Breeders Crown eliminations on Saturday evening at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A group of 16 3-year-old trotting fillies were split into a pair of $25,000 eliminations to determine the field for next Saturday's (Oct. 26) $600,000 final.

Yannick Gingras picked up where he left off a night earlier sending The Ice Dutchess to the front shortly past the quarter pole and rolling to an easy 1:53 score in the first elimination.

Gimmie Hanover left alertly to gain control into the opening bend for Corey Callahan with The Ice Dutchess getting looped initially and then driving forward. Gimmie Hanover cut the quarter in :28.1, but yielded to The Ice Dutchess (Muscle Hill–The Ice Queen) in short order and then followed from a distant pocket. Evident Beauty, the 3-2 betting choice sat third and was patient past the half in :57 flat and it wasn't until midway on the final turn as The Ice Dutchess drew clear from Gimmie Hanover that David Miller sent Evident Beauty out on the offensive followed closely by Only Take Cash.

The Ice Dutchess passed three quarters in 1:24.3 and had a sizable advantage heading into the homestretch when Evident Beauty appeared to be closing the gap but in mid-stretch Evident Beauty made a miscue that she wouldn't recover from and Gingras sat idly in the bike and allowed his filly to march home in a :28.2 final quarter to complete the mile.

Only Take Cash was a solid closing second as Winndevie with Brian Sears made up a huge amount of ground in the late stretch to finish third. Early leader Gimmie Hanover held on for fourth while Seaside Bliss closed out the qualifiers from this division.

The Ice Dutchess is owned by Coyote Wynd Farms and trained by Nancy Johansson. It was the fifth win in 2019 for The Ice Dutchess who paid $8.80 for the win.

"Nancy (Johansson) has got her figured out. When she's on her game she can do it any way," Gingras said of The Ice Dutchess.

"We've had trouble getting her around this track," said Johansson. "I think we've found the right shoe combination."

Millies Possession and driver Dexter Dunn made a bold move on the backstretch to gain control and then easily held off Hambletonian Oaks champion When Dovescry in the stretch to post a 6-1 upset in the second elimination.

When Dovescry and driver Simon Allard left alertly from post two to gain control and managed to force a host of leavers into holes with Cambridge Kate taking a seat and Kentucky Futurity filly champion Beautiful Sin dropping in fourth before entering the first turn.

Millies Possession (Possess The Will—Fashion Athena) got away in fifth and after When Dovescry hit the quarter in :27 flat Dunn wasted little time and sent the homebred Millies Possession and a brisk backstretch bull rush that saw her take command well before the :56 1/5 opening half clocking.

Dunn kept Millies Possession engaged on the front end and had her hit three quarters in 1:24 as Ake Svanstedt and Beautiful Sin languished on the rim unable to make up ground on the leaders.

It was a two-filly race in the homestretch and Dunn kept Millies Possession to her task as When Dovescry angled and drifted out through the stretch but didn't make up ground. Sweet Chapter held her ground inside and finished third ahead of a solid closing Asiago with Miss Trixton gaining the final berth. Millies Possession trotted the mile in 1:53.

Millies Possession was a winner for the 11th time in 14 career starts all in 2019 for trainer Jim Campbell and owner Jules Siegel's Fashion Farm LLC.

"She's a great filly," said Dunn following the race. "She felt good when I warmed her up. That move down the backstretch was the best she's felt all year."

Millies Possession bounced back from her worst performance of the year, a seventh-place finish in the Kentucky Filly Futurity.

"She had a legitimate excuse," said Campbell for the Red Mile disappointment. "She scoped sick after the race. We got her back to New Jersey and on antibiotics and she bounced back."

The post positions for the $600,000 final were drawn following the eliminations. Elimination winners drew for post one through five.

Breeders Crown - Open Pace Dorsoduro Hanover sharply preps for Crown with victory at 10-1

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Dorsoduro Hanover, with Matt Kakaley in the bike, won the $34,000 preferred for trainer Ron Burke at Woodbine Mohawk Park on Saturday in 1:49.4, topping four others eligible to next week's Breeders Crown Open Pace.

Youaremycandygirl and Courtly Choice left alertly, with the mare taking a short lead until Courtly Choice got the lead, followed by favorite Geez Joe and Dorsoduro Hanover in a first quarter of :26.1.

Geez Joe took to the outside and rushed to the top, keeping the pace through a :55.1 half.

Dorsoduro Hanover came out and fired first over, reaching Geez Joe around the second turn in three-quarters timed in 1:23.1.

Dorsoduro Hanover plowed ahead to take command as Geez Joe was overtaken by a closing Jimmy Freight and a persistent Youaremycandy girl, crossing the wire in 1:49.4.

Dorsoduro Hanover (Somebeachsome—Deer Valley Miss) was bred by Hanover Shoe Farm, is owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC.

Dorsoduro Hanover paid $22.50 to win.

Post positions for the $500,000 Breeders Crown Open Pace were drawn on Saturday evening.

Dont Letem matches Canadian record in Crown elim win

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Yannick Gingras drove Dont Letem to a 1:51.3 win in the $25,000 Breeders Crown Three-Year-Old Colt Trot elimination on Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

A field of 10 competed with the top-eight finishers advancing to next Saturday's $600,000 final. Forbidden Trade and Greenshoe received byes to the final.

The Nancy Johansson-trained Dont Letem fired early for the lead and made the rest of the field chase him through fractions of :28.1, :56.4, 1:24.2 and matched the track record for sophomore trotters with a 1:51.3 mile.

Green Manalishi S sat in second for three panels and Chin Chin Hall rolled along in third.

Soul Strong came out to lead a second tier that stalled down the stretch. Chin Chin Hall took his best steps late to get second, with Green Manalishi S holding third, those three a few lengths ahead of the rest of the pack.

Gimpanzee closed strongly to pick up fourth.

"They all left so slow out of the gate," said Yannick Gingras, "I had to take him to the front."

Dont Letem (Muscle Hill—Passageway) was bred by Brittany Farms, which co-owns with John Fielding. His win price was $9.10.

Spots fifth through eighth to qualify for the final were secured by Soul Strong, Goes Down Smooth, Marseille and Super Schissel.

The post position draw for next Saturday's final took place following the elimination. Dont Letem drew first for posts one through five based on winning his elimination.

Breeders Crown - Mare Trot Dunn sweeps Mare Trot Crown eliminations

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Reinsman Dexter Dunn cleaned up in the Mare Trot eliminations on Saturday night at Woodbine Mohawk Park to add to his big night in the Breeders Crown eliminations.

A total of 15 older trotting mares were split into a pair of $25,000 eliminations to determine the Breeders Crown final field.

Dexter Dunn found a seam late in the stretch and was able to knife through and catapult Darling Mearas S to victory in the first elimination.

Replay (YouTube) - Darling Mearas S

Woodbine Mohawk Park 2019-10-19 (Race 6)

Darling Mearas S left alertly then yielded willingly into the first turn to Custom Cantab who cut the opening fraction in :27.3. David Miller put the breaks on in the short field and had Custom Cantab in control through a half in a pedestrian :57 clocking.

The pace picked up as Dream Together moved to the outside on the turn followed by Hannelore Hanover and race favorite Plunge Blue Chip second and third over respectively. Custom Cantab had all of the rating required to get the job done but turning into the homestretch off the 1:26.1 mile the field was closing in.

Dream Together was holding her ground first-over and Plunge Blue Chip had rallied wide for Ake Svanstedt and flanked Hannelore Hanover as those continued to grind up towards the leader.

Yet it was Dunn who found room at the right time and Darling Mearas As, a daughter of Cantab Hall—Khao Manee had the explosive speed necessary in the final sprint to get the job done in a 1:53.2 clocking. Plunge Blue Chip rallied brilliantly for second with Custom Cantab holding on for third. Hannelore Hanover and Dream Together also advance into next week's final.

Supergirl Riley made a break well before the start and lost her chance at the final. Bettors were given a refund as the mare was declared a "non-starter."

in 12 starts this year for trainer Ake Svanstedt and owner-breeder Snogarps Gard of Sweden.

"She got herself in good position," Dunn said. "We really got lucky half way down the stretch. Looks like we're in good shape for next week."

Manchego got the respect one would expect from a 1-5 betting choice and had little difficulty in strolling down the road to capture the second Mares Trot elimination for Dunn. It was the fourth straight victory for the 4-year-old by Muscle Hill out of Secret Magic.

Only Manchego and Emoticon Hanover left in the field of eight and Manchego had control before the :27 opening quarter with Emoticon Hanover content to race in the pocket for Bob McClure. With no challengers Dunn cruised to the half in :56.4 and waited for challengers to come.

Hey Livvy was flushed out on the final bend by Weslynn Dancer but couldn't make a dent in the leaders margin as Manchego controlled the pace through a three-quarter clocking of 1:25.2.

In the homestretch, Dunn looked around to see where the competition was coming from but there was none to be found. Manchego did drift a bit off the pylons but at no point did the Nancy Johansson-trained mare need any assistance from her driver and she scored comfortably in 1:52.3 with a :27.1 final quarter.

Emoticon Hanover held on for the place spot with Weslynn Dancer closing well to finish third. Ice Attraction became the third Ake Svanstedt-trained mare to qualify for the final and Highland Top Hill rounded out those advancing.

Manchego won for the sixth time in 2019 and returned $2.40 as the prohibitive favorite. She's trained by Nancy Johansson for owner Black Horse Racing.

"She's exceptional," said Johansson. "There's no other way to describe her."

"She felt great again tonight," said Dunn referring to her consecutive world record performances at the Red Mile and Dayton. As far as the mare drifting out some, he said, "You just let her do her thing. She was full of run at the line."

and swept past the brief pacesetter before a :55.3 half.

Rolling to the far turn Warrawee Ubeaut faced little pressure as she decelerated to three-quarters in 1:24.3. Queen Of The Pride tipped first over into the final turn but stalled through the stretch as Warrawee Ubeaut sprinted to the finish while widening her lead on Tall Drink Hanover in progress to a 1:50.2 win.

"She's great — there's no other words to describe her," winning driver Yannick Gingras said after the race. "She's perfect to drive and when I called upon her at the top of the stretch she was like coming out of her skin pacing so strong."

Warrawee Ubeaut races for owners Burke Racing Stable LLC, Phillip Collura, Jerry & Theresa Silva Stables, Purnel & Libby and Weaver Brusceci. Ron Burke conditions the Sweet Lou—Great Memories filly who collected her 18th victory from 28 starts—her 11th from 16 this year—and earned $1,329,555.

"Now we've got her pretty much dialed in that we just keep doing what we're doing," Burke said after the race. "When we were teaching her to become this mare it was a little bit harder. Sometimes she took losses that you were thinking maybe you should just roll her all out and she can hang on. But we knew it would come to the day where she would learn to do this or at least we hoped. And now she's become a complete horse."

Dunn sweeps sophomore pacing colt Crown elims to cap off memorable night

by Woodbine Communications / Hambletonian Society

Driver Dexter Dunn completed a night to remember Saturday at Woodbine Mohawk Park by capturing both 3-Year-Old Colt Pace Breeders Crown eliminations for a six-win night.

A group of 15 sophomore pacing colts were split into two $25,000 eliminations to determine the field for next Saturday's (Oct. 26) $600,000 final.

Sent the 1-2 favorite, Bettors Wish sat second to a :27.1 opening quarter set by Cant Beach That, who yielded command as Southwind Ozzi marched to the top from third moving to the backstretch. Southwind Ozzi took the field by the half in :56.3 while Dunn angled Bettors Wish first over from third moving to the final turn.

Bettors Wish (Bettors Delight—Lifetime Star) drew alongside Southwind Ozzi passing three-quarters in 1:24.2

and powered past entering the stretch. Through the lane, Bettors Wish expanded his lead on Southwind Ozzi as he clung to second in the 1:51 mile with Covered Bridge, De Los Cielos Deo and Bronx Seelster rounding the finalists.

"You can't help but love him," Dunn said of Bettors Wish after the race. "He's such a cool horse. He's had a great year and I think tonight was probably the best he's actually felt post parading and that. I've given him some pretty hard runs too, the poor wee fella, and he just keeps bouncing back. It's a credit to Chris [Ryder] and the team for the job they do — he's just sublime."

Collecting his 12th win from 16 starts this season and his 17th from 28 overall, Bettors Wish has amassed over $1.7 million in earnings for owners Chris Ryder, Bella Racing Ltd., Fair Island Farm Inc. and Bettors Wish Partners.

Dancin Lou (Dunn) won the other Crown elimination for sophomore pacing colts in 1:50.1.

“Well, it’s my job that he’s not messed up this week,” Ryder said after the race. “I just kept my fingers crossed for another week. It’s been a great year... I just love having him; he’s a beautiful horse. We actually had a bit of a hiccup with a foot this week but it came right and he’s an easy keeper.”

Bettors Wish returned $3.00 to win.

Dancin Lou darted through a seam at the pylons and past tiring leaders to take the first Breeders Crown elimination.

Stag Party pushed for the front heading to the first turn while 4-5 favorite Captain Crunch sat second to a :26.1 first quarter. Captain Crunch soon circled to the lead entering the backstretch while Century Farroh raced anxiously from third before angling off the pegs and brushing to command.

Past the half in :55.4, Century Farroh faced first-over pressure from Air Force Hanover circling the final turn. Captain Crunch fanned three wide through a gap in cover passing three-quarters in 1:23.2 and slid past the dueling and drifting leaders into the stretch. Dancin Lou (Sweet Lou—Dancewiththebest) stuck towards the pylons and had a straight shot to the front in the final eighth, hitting the finish in 1:50.1.

“[The trip] worked out pretty good really,” Dunn said after the race. “There was a bit of action in that race. He was really good last out at Lexington but he was better tonight. We took our shot, took a bit of luck and he got around the inside there and really exploded.”

Owned by David Kryway and 1362313 Ontario Ltd., Dancin Lou won his 11th race from 27 starts, earning $284,756. Tahnee Camilleri conditions the Sweet Lou colt who advances to the final along with Best In Show, Captain Crunch, Fixed Idea and Semi Tough.

“That was a really good field tonight — I’m just so proud of that little colt,” said Camilleri, who made the decision to try Dancin Lou in the Breeders Crown after his win at Lexington two weeks ago. “I’m very thankful it’s panned out so far with the owners. I haven’t come from a racing background and it’s just been a uphill struggle to get recognized. To have a horse like this is great for my career and I’m very thankful the owners gave me a shot.”

Dancin Lou paid $12.20 to win.

Post positions for the $600,000 final will be drawn on Tuesday at a press conference. Elimination winners will draw for posts one through five.

Fourteen fun, random facts about the Breeders Crown

by Bob Heyden

1. In 1988, Steve Elliott just missed becoming the first trainer to win three Breeders Crowns in one year. He missed by a head with division champ Totally Ruthless and won the Crown with Valley Victory and Sweet Reflection. (Bob McIntosh in 1993 was the first to post a three-bagger).

2. Racing Hill's 1:48 mile from 2016 stands as the Breeders Crown fastest for 3-year-olds. He won by 3/4s of a length, paid $6.40, 60-1 shot Manhattan Beach was up for second. Ron Burke finished 2-3-4, but Tony Alagna was the winning conditioner.

3. John Campbell's Breeders Crown finale was a solid second with L A Delight for trainer Bob McIntosh in 2016. The race was won by Call Me Queen Be.

4. The 1993 Mare Pace went to Swing Back (over Shady Daisy), who went to the post 50 times the year before.

5. Another Miracle was the 3-2 favorite (finishing fifth) in the very first Breeders Crown race held on Oct. 5, 1984 at the Red Mile. Workaholic was the winner.

6. That Arch Madness competed in SEVEN Breeders Crowns and got checks SIX TIMES? The only time he missed one was his last try-2014-6th-at age 11.

7. Me Maggie had a way of rising to the Crown challenge. Her first win in the 3yoft Breeders Crown in 1990 came with her having just one win on the year going in. In 1991, she was a repeat Crown winner and it was her first win of the season.

8. In year one of the Breeders Crown (1984), there were eight races, eight venues, and five of the eight winning drivers were Hall Of Fame bound. The fastest mile was posted by a 2-year-old – Dragons Lair in 1:54.1.

9. Century Farroh cost the same as a yearling ($17,000) as Pine Chip a two-time Breeders Crown winner (1993-1994) and Mack Lobell a three-time Breeders Crown winner (1986-1987-1988).

10. Somebeachsomewhere with 16 progeny (eight each night) in the elims, leads the way among sires. In 2016, he sired 19 of the 40 pacing finalists at ages 2 and 3.

11. Progeny of 12 different sires won a Breeders Crown in 2013 at Pocono.

12. Rocknroll Hanover is gone six years already and is still the only sire to have a double-millionaire from his first crop – male and female: Rock N Roll Heaven and Put On A Show.

13. When John Campbell won a Breeders Crown in 2015 with Wild Honey, it made him the only driver to win a Breeders Crown in his 20s, 30s, 40s, 50s and 60s.

14. The last time the Breeders Crown was in Canada (in 2015), Jimmy Takter posted an incredible night with earnings of $2,074,487.

SUPERSTAR FEMALES OF HARNESS RACING

with VICTORIA M. HOWARD

Chantal Mitchell – trainer / force to reckon with

by Victoria M. Howard

You often hear “watch out for the quiet ones,” for they are the people who never boast, brag or need others to recognize their feats, but they often come out on top.

One of those known as ‘reserved but forceful’ is a Canadian female trainer named Chantal Mitchell, who has worked her way up as a force to reckon with.

Today, Mitchell, along with her boyfriend Kris DiCenzo, train 14 horses at Classy Lane near Mohawk/Woodbine racetrack in Canada.

It all began when Mitchell was 12 year old and started going to the barn with her father. Until then, Mitchell rode hunters, but it only took one look at a standardbred and she was hooked.

“I couldn’t get enough of those gentle giants and began going back as much as I could, trying to learn every aspect of harness racing,” said Mitchell.

Over the years, Chantal went from training one or two horses to training 14. Although she may not have the high numbers that many top trainers have, in her case it’s not quantity, but quality.

The star of her barn is a small, but mighty 2-year-old daughter of Bettor’s Delight named Alicorn, who driver Louis-Philippe Roy calls, “the big beast in a small body.”

In the 2019 Ontario Sires Stakes (OSS) 2-year-old pacing filly Alicorn re-wrote the history books not once, but twice, and lowered her own record by two-fifths of a second in 1:50.3.

Alicorn first set the OSS record of 1:51, then lowered it to

1:50.3 before tying her own record in the final Gold of the season. She also tied the record for 2-year-old pacing fillies at Grand River Raceway in her elimination of The Battle of The Belles, in a time of 1:54.2

“Alicorn is a super horse – she’s small, but speedy,” Mitchell said. “I feel so honored to have been given the opportunity to train her.”

Alicorn, a Bettor’s Delight out of the mare Mythical, came into Mitchell’s barn while she was training for a group who owned some yearlings in Pinehurst under trainer Rolland Millar.

Harness Racing Update on Twitter

@HARNESSUPDATE

"They called me up around the beginning of May and asked if I would train two fillies for them. They said they were both on the small side: one was having trouble in the turns and the other had just qualified at Harrah's at Philadelphia in 1:58. When they stepped off the van, I remember saying to myself, 'Wow! They weren't kidding,'" Mitchell said, laughing, for both fillies were quite small.

"However, the first time I trained the girls I couldn't believe how professional they both were. I saw that Alicorn had a very efficient way of going and could carry her speed quite a ways. She's very easy going and nothing really gets her worked up for the most part. She likes to go in the paddock, play in the mud, and sleep. A typical youngster."

Like her trainer, the petite filly is a quiet one who is not to be reckoned with.

"In the barn Alicorn is a pussycat, but when she hits the track – watch out! She bites, kicks and raises hell. And it doesn't matter how you race her: either coming from the back or putting her on the front. You can pretty much drive her however you want and that's a desirable quality," said Mitchell.

"I feel like Alicorn's getting stronger and stronger. When she gets on the racetrack, she knows how to turn it on. At home she's an unassuming nice quiet filly, but when she's on the track, she has her game face on."

Thankful and blessed for the opportunity to have trained these two great horses, Mitchell said she knows that it takes a tremendous amount of confidence and faith in giving your horses to another trainer to train.

Winter is right around the corner and racing horses in the winter in Canada is not easy or fun. The temps can get below zero and the track can freeze and become slippery.

"Racing in frigid temperatures is definitely less than ideal. Horses can bleed from the lungs more easily, but that's something the trainer's need to watch closely and monitor. However, when I feel it's too cold to race, I scratch my horse. There's even some mornings that it is simply too cold to jog and I personally feel the horse is better staying in the barn, instead of taking the risk of getting them sick or injured.

"After all, tomorrow is another day."

Standardbreds shine in Louisville art exhibit

by Dean A. Hoffman

Richard Stone of Kentucky has arguably the finest private collection of harness racing art in North America, so it's no surprise that 13 items from his personal collection will be featured when the Speed Museum in Louisville opens its "Tales From The Turf: The Kentucky Horse 1825-1950" exhibit on Nov. 15.

It's a coup for harness racing that Stone's trotting treasures are included in the exhibit at a museum that is not far from the home of the Kentucky Derby. There will also be standardbred items from other private collections as well as from the Harness Racing Museum.

Stone's contributions to the exhibition include paintings of Lou Dillon, the first 2:00 trotter and the champion trotter Major Delmar.

The Speed Museum exhibit will be the "first exhibition to examine Kentucky's relationship to the horse through art."

It features paintings, sculpture, photographs, drawings, prints and manuscripts to convey the role of the horse in the Bluegrass State.

The exhibit information says, "Tales from the Turf begins when Kentucky was still the edge of the western frontier and early breeders looked for models to the gentleman farmers of Virginia, who, in turn, looked to the British aristocracy as their own models in business and collecting."

Stone has spent his lifetime amassing his collection, scouring antique shops and online listings regularly in a never-ending search for harness art and books.

He started when he was a youngster growing up on Long Island and frequenting the tracks there. He expanded his collecting efforts when he was working as a caretaker for such noteworthy stars as the former world champion juvenile Alert Bret.

Stone served as the yearling manager at Castleton Farm in Lexington for more than two decades. Living and working in the Bluegrass allowed him to scour antique shops and develop sources for equine art. He was an active participant in the art auctions that Harness Tracks of America held in Lexington for many years.

Stone's painting of Lou Dillon shows the fast but temperamental mare in full flight and was done by Gean Smith, an artist born in New York State in 1851 who later moved to Chicago at age 20 and began to focus on equine art. He ultimately moved to New York City.

Lou Dillon came from her roots in California to travel east and record a 1:58-1/2 mile in 1903.

The Alexander Pope portrait of Major Delmar shows the grand trotter posing on a track, as was often the artistic style early in the 1900s. Pope (1840-1924) was also a carver of great renown and his works hang in the White House, Metropolitan Museum of Art, and the National Wildlife Museum, among others.

In addition to the paintings used with this article, Stone is lending the Speed Museum:

- Hambletonian painting by E.L. Seavey
- Greyhound head study by George Ford Morris
- Nancy Hanks drawing by George Ford Morris
- Pastel painting of Hourie by J. F. Stephens
- Belle Brasfield painting by J. C. Cory.
- Race posters, sale catalogs, and an accounting ledger from Castleton Farm from the late 1940s

The Speed Museum is a world-class art facility and the equine art exhibit, which continues until March 1, will be showcased in a special exhibit area at the museum.

BREAKING STRIDE

with TREY NOSRAC

Inside Story (Part 2)

by Trey Nosrac

"The most-often missing ingredient in a sales message is that the sales message doesn't tell an interesting story. Storytelling... good storytelling... is a vital component of marketing."

— Gary Halbert, marketing expert

My pal and I sipped coffee from heavy white mugs as we sat in matching white wicker chairs on the screened-in front porch of his mother's farmhouse. The morning sun struggled to push back grey clouds. Any moment, the light would shine on the carpet of damp leaves on the sprawling front lawn.

He nodded towards the laptop resting on a small, round glass-topped round table, "So what's this prototype?"

"I want to try out an idea. This may turn out to be another crazy walk on the wild side, but trying stupid things is my forte, I'm sort of a cello player in the marching band of life. This time I want to try a new technique to sell a yearling, something that could work for smaller breeding farms and individuals."

"You feel they get lost in the sales season stampede?"

"Not exactly lost, but the amount of information is limited to a pedigree page and a video. As a customer, you dash from stall to stall in the sales arena wanting to know much more about a yearling. As a seller, you want to give customers more information."

"Like what?" He asked.

"For example, and this always bugged me, once upon a time, the broodmare of the dam of the yearling we were selling showed four out of eight racehorses produced. However, that second dam had two that raced overseas that did not show up in the catalog."

He tilted his head, "Serious buyers could dig out that information."

"There are hundreds of horses in each sale. Customers can't take all day on every horse hunting down obscure information. Besides, even though yearlings have only been alive for a short period of time there is valuable information, both positive and negative, that doesn't show up on paper."

"Give me another example."

"Say the first two foals from a broodmare didn't race, that lack of production on a catalog page is a huge turnoff for many buyers. However, what if you learned that first foal trained under two-minutes and then put a foot through a fence, and the second yearling went to a family that did not race and they bought it as a personal horse for the family farm. Buyers don't know that."

He flipped his chin towards my laptop and said, "Let's hear your pitch?"

I took a sip of coffee, set it down, cleared my throat, and began with my well-rehearsed opening lines.

"I believe that inside every person is a story-teller waiting to be set free. I believe that other people enjoy reading and hearing stories. I believe that every horse is part of a story. Social norms, lack of confidence, and fear of embarrassment make potential storytellers hold their stories inside, especially in front of a large audience of strangers."

He clapped his hands, "Nice opening, you have my full attention."

I continued, "Now, for me, the social norms and embarrassment ships have sailed. I am the captain of my non-normal ship of fools. My stories tend towards long, rambling, ridiculous, sarcastic sagas complete with bad puns and cheesy dialogue."

He nodded, "You may be pathologically idiosyncratic."

"Let's go with pathologically creative or enthusiastic. For this sample, for this prototype, and for normal humans, I calmed things down. The example that I show you will not be clever, obscure or great literature. Instead, I will use a very, very simple form of storytelling, a good old Q & A."

"Simple is good."

"The experiment begins with a potential yearling buyer, or perhaps merely a curious reader, noticing a three-line teaser panel."

He shrugged, "That's not new. People highlight their yearling consignment in magazines or on websites all the time."

"True, but this is different. This form of advertisement must be on websites because there are three links. In the sample I am about to show you, two of the links are normal while one link is very unusual. The unusual link leads to a story. The length, depth, and style of the story can vary. After all, space is not a problem in cyberspace, I could have linked to War and Peace if I wanted to. The ad space I purchase is basically a digital portal."

He dramatically clasped his hands over his heart, bugged his eyes out and howled, "Digital portal! Did Trey, the walking Luddite, just utter the words digital portal?"

"Yes, great Yoda from the Land of Technology and tofu. Your forces are everywhere and strong they be. I'm trying to create an alternative from auctioneer rat-tat-tats. This is a method where buyers and sellers are digitally leaning over the fence exchanging information."

"What if the seller is lying?"

I gave a fake gasp, "I'm shocked at your cynicism. Dude, it's life, I'm an optimist who believes most people give the real scoop. You go into the conversation knowing the seller will lean to the positive and the buyer will be wary. The alternative is the way we do it now - visual inspection, video, pedigree, waving hands, and a wild leap into the abyss."

I kept rolling, "Besides, it would be less expensive and give the seller more control. In this sample there are a few costs, paying to have it hosted, a professional video, and purchase of the pedigree page. I wrote the story of this yearling. If a transaction is made, there is no sales preparation and no intermediary. The horse goes from the farm to the buyer. If the seller does not get his price, he lowers his price or leaves it home for training. Either way, the story gets told."

He held out his hand, "Let's see what you have."

Creature Of Habit repeats in Big M's Kindergarten

Creature Of Habit got into the win column for the first time in her career a week ago, and Friday night at the Meadowlands, the daughter of Donato Hanover—Habit's Best came right back and won again, taking one of five divisions of the Kindergarten Classic for 2-year-olds.

The Nifty Norman trainee scored in the dash for filly trotters by brushing to command down the backstretch before reporting home a safe half-length in front of She Rocks Kemp in 1:55.3 for driver Victor Kirby. As the 8-5 favorite, the winner of two of 11 lifetime starts returned $5.40 to her backers.

In other Kindergarten action, Hen Party ($15.60) went wire-to-wire to defeat 1-5 public choice Annabelle Hanover by 1¼ lengths in a filly pace for driver Pat Berry and trainer Ron Burke in 1:52.4 while Ideal Perception ($7.60) held off Force N Fury by a hard-fought nose in 1:51.3 in a pace for colts and geldings with Joe Bongiorno in the bike for trainer Tony Alagna.

Hall Of AM S ($5.00 as the favorite) took another filly trot, completing the mile in 1:55.2 to finish 1¾ lengths in front of Scorched Romance for driver Mattias Melander, who is the brother of winning trainer Marcus.

In a non-betting race before the start of the regular card, Sky Castles scored in a division for trotting colts and geldings for driver Mitch Cushing and trainer Andrew Harris in 1:55.1.

TROLLEY ON TIME: The Erv Miller-trained Trolley hit the Meadowlands' winner's circle for the first time since May 18, scoring by 1¾ lengths over Max as the 3-5 favorite in 1:54.4 in a $25,000 conditioned trot for driver Marcus Miller.

A LITTLE MORE: A $20,922 carryover from last Saturday led to a total pool of just over $150,000 in the 50-cent Pick-5. Those who cashed had to be sharp, as the fourth leg of the wager was won by 39-1 chance Princess Holly N. The odds of the other four winners were 4-5, 8-5, 2-1 and 9-2. The payoff was $3,054.15... Twenty-five-year-old Kasper Foget was a winner in his Big M driving debut, guiding For A Dreamer to victory lane in the 11th race at odds of 5-1. The native Of Denmark was a champion European driver in the under-25 division... All-source wagering on the 13-race card totaled $2,294,868... Racing resumes Saturday at 7:15 p.m.

If The International is no more, fans deserve some of the blame

We just saw another great day of racing at Yonkers Raceway. Unfortunately I feel it may be the last. I went on track the first year (The International) was renewed but was disappointed by the on track experience. The old management, just like I am sure MGM management, seems more interested in operating the casino rather than the racetrack. I have watched and wagered on this race card every year since via my advanced deposit wagering account. Since it takes me over 3 hours to get to Yonkers and the gas and tolls it is much more convenient to wager from home. Unfortunately, I have noticed the mutual dollars bet on the card were less than a million dollars. If MGM is going to evaluate this race from a business standpoint I don't see how it will make sense to them to continue it. We as fans must also take some of the blame. If we do not support the big races by going on track or at least betting reasonable amounts via simulcast or advance deposit accounts how can we complain if track managements reduce purses or eliminate marquee events?

— John Chambers, Lansdowne, PA

Faraldo on the value of The International

I couldn't agree more with the opinion Davis Briggs voiced regarding the ultimate value of our International Trot (IT) full story here.

After the agreement to transmit 26 Sunday cards to the PMU's worldwide distribution network, Tim Rooney and I agreed to revive the IT, an event so important to all our European friends that it is referred to overseas as the "World Championship." MGM Resorts needed only minimal convincing that they were getting a marquis event handed to them and that it should be continued. MGM received a lot of assistance from the SOA of NY, in the form of manpower as well as in the planning and in economic support for many of the social events that must accompany it. The social part of the week-long event is important and was recommended to me at the Paris yearling sale by Jerry Riordan six years ago. The week-long events are critical and are the reason the SOA jumped up in the riggin to help MGM, that had little knowledge of the sport in this first year of its ownership of the Hilltop Oval and The MGM comment, after seeing the Italians throw some of their group of 24 up in the air in the winner's circle, was the need to promote and market this event better.

The MGM people have expressed interest in traveling to the Prix d'Amerique in January to see how the IT may be better promoted and marketed by those who do marketing so very well. As far as the size of the track, it is not its size that makes the event, it is all the effort put into it before the race. The world champion should be able to negotiate the half mile track. Over the years I have seen horses, some I have owned, unable to negotiate the half, so for me it is important for the horse wishing to wear the IT Crown to be able to win on any size track, the toughest being the half. Bold Eagle has made the trip to the Breeders Crown, skipping the IT, for that reason, the half. Bold Eagle is a proven commodity on the big track and the revival of the IT may have gotten his connections to focus on bringing that truly great horse to North America for another big event. The game is far better for the exposure generated by the IT for all our American Classics. It is good to see people recognizing the value IT has, but it isn't going to be relocated, and were it ever to, it comes with a great responsibility both in terms of economic and social commitment that only one track, Yonkers and its horsemen have seen fit to undertake. Next year, if Zacon Gio is fit to defend his title he will come with a 100 Italian supporters because the event is viewed as so very important a race to win. Hopefully, some of the stud books closed to American breeders will also open up promoting an even better product through necessary gene pool diversification.

Thanks David for the kudos to Yonkers by MGM Resorts and the Yonkers horsemen.

— Joe Faraldo / president SOA of NY

Response to The Guru RE: Dr. Tobin, the USTA and HRMC

In his Oct. 18 "Ask the Guru" column (full story here). Ron Gurfein relates a story about his "very good friend" Dr. Tom Tobin and the doctor's involvement as co-author of a particular study and his comments regarding a past medication issue involving a thoroughbred.

Gurfein concludes that "We (harness racing) face similar problems in our sport, it's to (sic) bad that we don't have a Dr.

Tom Tobin to rectify matters.”

Well, actually, we do.

And not only do we have Dr. Tobin himself, but we also have quite a few other highly respected academic and practicing veterinarians who are members of the Harness Racing Medication Collaborative established by the U.S. Trotting Association through its Board of Directors’ Medication Subcommittee in May 2018.

The HRMC’s purpose is to assist in identifying and developing the scientific background for medication regulation in Standardbred racing. The USTA then provides the HRMC’s reports and supporting data to the Association of Racing Commissioners International to disseminate to its regulators in the various racing commissions.

You can read the HRMC announcement on the USTA website.

And what’s really puzzling is that the last time we responded to a “Guru” column published on June 21, 2019, in which Gurfein described a USTA statement on Lasix as “so terribly misinformed it’s embarrassing,” our response in Harness Racing Update included the following:

“A little more than a year ago, the USTA established the Harness Racing Medication Collaborative, which includes some of the most respected academic and practicing equine veterinarians in the country.”

And our reply concluded with this.

“Finally, attached is a letter from Dr. Thomas Tobin, one of the foremost experts on Lasix.”

In fact, not only is Dr. Tobin a member of the HRMC, but he made a presentation on behalf of the USTA to the ARCI in California last April.

There are many challenges facing harness racing, and horse racing in general, today. And a big one is how many people that are “so terribly misinformed it’s embarrassing” utilize a variety of forums to spout uninformed, inaccurate criticism rather than support for the sport that most of them are making or have made a living in.

That’s just not very smart and it doesn’t help.
