Unbeaten rookies look to stay perfect in Friday's Crown elims

Seventy-one 2-year-olds dropped into the box Tuesday (Oct. 19) meaning nine Breeders Crown eliminations will be needed Friday at The Meadowlands.

by Dave Little / Meadowlands media relations

A pair of undefeated sensations topped a total of 71 2-year-old entrants dropped into the box Tuesday morning (Oct. 19) to create a total of nine eliminations as the Breeders Crown makes its return to The Meadowlands for the first time since 2016 on Friday night (Oct. 22).

The action will feature 2-year-olds of each sex and gait, with all eliminations going for a purse of $25,000. All four $600,000 finals will take place Friday, Oct. 29. Post time for both Friday race cards is 6:20 p.m.

The filly trot attracted a total of 15 entrants, making it necessary for a pair of splits. Mohawk Million, Peaceful Way and Jim Doherty winner Venerable, unbeaten in eight starts in 2021, will attempt to win a ninth in a row for trainer Nifty Norman and driver Dave Miller.

The top five finishers from each elim will move on to the final, with the winners drawing for post positions 1-5.

Don't Fence Me In and Lyons Serenity accepted byes and go straight to next week's final.

The top eight finishers from the elimination will qualify for the championship dash with the winner drawing post position 1-5.

Elimination – Race 12 (horses listed in post-position order): Captain Cowgirl, Sea Silk, Boudoir Hanover, Gotthegreenlight, Galleria Hanover, Queen Of Success, Niki Hill, Yes And Yes, Frantasy Hanover, Treacherous Dragon.

order): Fast As The Wind, Branded By Lindy, Threepointbluechip, Double Deceiver, Periculum, Robertsin, Global Pandemic, King Of The North.

The colt and gelding pace attracted a total of 21 who will be split into three elims. Monte Miki, the Mark Evers trainee who pulled off a 15-1 upset in the Metro Pace after racing in 10th at the half, is one of a handful to watch in a highly competitive field.

True Blue Lindy (the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes winner), Pebble Beach (who won the Kentucky Sire Stakes title in 1:48.4) and Gulf Shores (the Ohio Sire Stakes champion) are others with solid resumes.

The top three finishers from the three elims plus the fourth-place finisher with the highest lifetime earnings will qualify for the final. The winners will draw for post positions 1-5.

Saturday's Crown elims set for ages 3 and older

Ten eliminations necessary on Saturday afternoon at The Meadowlands for 101 horses vying to advance to Breeders Crown finals.

by Ken Weingartner for the Breeders Crown

Harness racing's No. 1-ranked horse, Lyons Sentinel, and nine previous Breeders Crown champions will be in action Saturday afternoon (Oct. 23) when Breeders Crown eliminations for pacers and trotters ages 3 and older are held at the Meadowlands Racetrack.

The event for 3-year-old female pacers as well as the Open Pace, Mare Pace, and Mare Trot each will have a single elimination. The events for 3-year-old male pacers, 3-year-old male trotters, and 3-year-old female trotters each will have two elims. All eliminations will go for a purse of $25,000.

Winners of Saturday's eliminations will draw for posts one through five for their respective final. The remaining finalists will participate in open draws for their starting positions.

Eliminations are unnecessary in the Open Trot, with 11 older male trotters advancing directly to the $650,000 final. The 11 entrants are: Amigo Volo, Back Of The Neck, Beads, Chin Chin Hall, supplement Ecurie D Dk, Forbidden Trade, It's Academic, Majestic Player A, Ready For Moni, Sermon, and Warrawee Roo.

Saturday's 12-race card will begin at noon. The card for Breeders Crown finals for horses ages 3 and older, Oct. 30 at the Meadowlands, also will start at noon.

Eliminations for 2-year-olds are Friday with the finals on Oct. 29.

Four-year-old Lyons Sentinel was among 13 horses entered in the Mare Pace. Byes based on seasonal earnings were offered to reduce the elimination field to 10, with the connections of Drama Act, $31,250 supplemental entry Racine Bell, and So Much More accepting the opportunity to proceed directly to the $330,000 final. The connections of Lyons Sentinel, Rockin Nola, and Rocknificent declined byes.

Lyons Sentinel will bring a seven-race win streak to her Crown elim. Her victories include the Dayton Distaff Derby, Milton, Roses Are Red, Lady Liberty, and Clara Barton.

The elimination field also includes 5-year-old Warrawee Ubeaut, a Breeders Crown champion at ages 2 and 3, as well as Peak Sneaky, who won last year's final for 3-year-old female pacers. The top-seven elimination finishers will join the bye recipients in the final.

Thirteen horses also were entered in the Open Pace. Byes were accepted by the connections of Allywag Hanover, Catch The Fire, and Ocean Rock. The connections of This Is The Plan, who leads all older pacers in purses with $784,269 this year, declined a bye.

The 10-horse elimination field also includes Dorsoduro Hanover, who won a Breeders Crown at age 3 in 2018. The top-seven finishers from the elim will advance to the $600,000 final.

Atlanta, who equaled history's fastest mile by a female trotter, 1:49, in her most recent start and is ranked No. 7 in the sport's Top 10, is among the horses in the single Mare Trot elimination. Her connections declined a bye, as did the connections of multiple Grand Circuit winner When Dovescry. The field also includes past Breeders Crown champs Next Level Stuff and Ramona Hill.

The connections of Hypnotic AM and Weslynn Quest accepted byes. Those two mares will be joined in the $300,000 final by the top-eight finishers from the elimination.

The only 3-year-old event with a single elimination, for 3-year-old female pacers, saw Test Of Faith, who is ranked No. 3 in the current Top 10, and Scarlett Hanover receive byes. The connections of returning Breeders Crown champion Fire Start Hanover, Grace Hill, and Blue Diamond Eyes declined a bye. The top-eight elimination finishers will advance to the $600,000 final.

In the following 3-year-old events with two eliminations, the top-five finishers from each elim will advance to the final. The final for both the 3-year-old male and female trotters will go for $650,000. The final for 3-year-old male pacers is $600,000.

Perfect Sting, who is the leading money-winning horse in North America this season with $961,347, was among 15 horses entered in the Breeders Crown for 3-year-old male pacers. He also is among two returning champions in the event, having won the 2-year-old final in a dead heat with Summa Cum Laude. It was the first dead heat for win in Crown history.

Summa Cum Laude and Perfect Sting drew into the first elimination, which also includes Tattersalls Pace winner Abuckabett Hanover. The second includes Carl Milstein Memorial winner Charlie May, Little Brown Jug winner Lou's Pearlman, and Cane Pace champion Rockroad Hanover.

Kentucky Futurity winner Jujubee, a $62,500 supplemental entry who is ranked No. 5 in the sport's Top 10, was among 17 sophomore male trotters entered in the Breeders Crown and will race in the second elimination including Yonkers Trot winner

with CHRIS LOMON

Multi-talented Lisa Dunn takes harness racing to the limit

by Chris Lomon

It's rather ironic that one of Lisa Dunn's favorite songs is Wasted Time.

There is one thing in particular those who travel with the horsewoman from Cochranton, PA, need to be aware of before they get into her truck: there will be singing.

A playlist staple is the 1976 release Wasted Time by the Eagles.

"I have Sirius XM radio and I'm a singer. If you ride with me, you have to put up with my singing. I'm a big Eagles fan and I have an alert set up. It doesn't matter what channel I'm on, if an Eagles song comes on, I switch to that. Occasionally, I do books on tape, but that's for a longer trip."

Dunn, whose family is synonymous with the Pennsylvania standardbred racing scene, is the furthest from a one-talent horsewoman as you'll find.

In fact, on any given day, before, during or after the races, Dunn has tackled numerous roles, be it at the barn, on the road or at the racetrack.

"We still breed our own, so we have a band of seven broodmares now, five that are in foal for next season. And then there's trainer, shipper, and some days, it's groom and depending on the horse, I still paddock sometimes. I'm on the MSOA (Meadows Standardbred Owners Association) Board – I'm the treasurer there – and I'm president of the Pennsylvania Fair Harness Horses Association."

Would it have been more appropriate to ask what she doesn't do?

"I guess that depends on the day," Dunn said with a laugh.

Days that are usually not easy, and most definitely, long.

"I think the biggest challenge with having so many roles is finding enough hours in the day. There are definitely times that things don't get done that I would like to see completed that day. The horses come first. They are the income-makers, so I tend to them and their well-being before I delve into any of the other stuff.

"I am also lucky to have some great friends that pitch in to help. Brian Zendt usually keeps a couple of my older racehorses down at The Meadows and trains them there for periods of time so that I don't have to ship them back and forth each start. I also have Harold and Rebecca Brocklehurst that help me tag team the barn chores at times. If I am at the track, they will make sure mine are fed and watered. Then, if they are racing, I try to return the favor. I am definitely busy, but I don't want to imply that I am a one-woman show."

Lisa Dunn in the winner's circle at the Franklin County Fair.

Courtesy Lisa Dunn

Dunn's passion for racing and racehorses was established early on her life.

Her father, the late Walter L. 'Boots' Dunn, started his association with racing in the 1940s and was a longtime USTA Director. He is believed to be the leading amateur driver of all time, with 1,152 wins. He was a five-time national leader in UDRS for his category of starts.

Dunn's sister, Leslie, is also in the business.

"My two other sisters, Kathy and Debbie, were maybe the smartest. They stayed out. They are still fans and supporters of the family business, though. For my sister Leslie and I, racing has been around us our whole lives. We each went to college and both of us got our degrees, but we still ended up back in the horse business."

After school, Dunn worked in the accounting field for four years and after returning home, worked in the same capacity for her family's construction business.

It was around that time when she began dabbling in standardbreds again.

"Once we closed down the construction company – I think that was back in 2011 – I went back full-time to the horses."

There are, offered Dunn, a few similarities between racing and accounting.

"Other than the fact that I have to do my own books for the stable, I'm not too sure. But my background in accounting does come in handy. Now that I'm treasurer of the MSOA, I get to use those skills there if need be. I think returning to racing all came to that I just hated being inside and being in an office. That just not the way we were raised."

Dunn, whose son Wyatt works with her at the barn (her other son Garrett lives in Pittsburgh), is certainly no fair-weather horsewoman. But colder temperatures can, on occasion, make her momentarily question her career choice.

A trip to the winner's circle, rain or shine, quickly puts those thoughts out of her mind.

"In good weather, there's not a better job. You get to go to the barn and to be out jogging horses and enjoying the nice weather and beautiful days. When it's a rainy day or that time of the year, or when winter hits, there are days when you think, 'Why in the world am I doing this?' Someone once told me it's like golf. You can struggle and on one hole, you can hit several bad shots, but when you hit that one good one, you think, 'Hey I can do this.' It's the same thing with racing. There are ups and downs and weeks where you wonder if it's worth it. But when something good happens, that keeps you coming back."

Closing in on 200 training wins, consistency has been a hallmark of Dunn's career.

Her top year, win-wise, was in 2017 when she posted 35 victories. On year prior, she set a personal-best mark in purse earnings with $379,803.

Complemented by a lifetime UTRS mark of .321 (as of October 18) Dunn continues to be a success story in the Pennsylvania standardbred ranks.

And although she has little time to look at those numbers or take brief pause to reflect on highlights, past or present, she isn't fazed by the demands of her career.

In her world, there will never be such a thing as wasted time.

"It's a busy life, but I'm happy that I am able to be part of such a great industry. When I'm not at the track, I just enjoy spending time with friends and family. In the summers, it's all about the county fairs, and going all around the state for those. I really don't do a whole lot else outside of racing. But I really don't have too much to complain about. It's a pretty good life."

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Ladies In Red has earned comparisons with the greatest fillies Australia has seen

by Adam Hamilton

Ladies In Red's greatness is no fluke.

The champion filly's Australian dominance is the result of some great vision, a huge investment of time and money and a real attention to detail from prominent Australian owner/breeders Bill and Anne Anderson through their Lauriston Bloodstock.

It all started in "about 2004" when the Andersons wanted to get more serious about breeding and realised buying some of the best domestic Aussie or even New Zealand stock wasn't going to be enough.

So, the Andersons turned their sights to North America and through a relationship with Aussie horseman Peter Walsh, who was then training in New Jersey, they bought their first mare from the U.S. in Makin Faces, a daughter of Jate Lobell.

"She started it all. Then came Lindsey Leigh, who's first foal was Maffioso (by Presidential Ball). He won us over $A600,000 and a Chariots Of Fire," Bill Anderson said.

But it was another daughter of Artsplace in Aston Villa, who really launched what is today's juggernaut for the Andersons.

Stuart McCormick

Ladies In Red (David Moran) winning the Victoria Oaks Final on Oct. 9 at Bendigo.

"She was the one who took it to another level," Anne said. "We really wanted another Artsplace mare so we went to Lexington and must have pulled-out 40 Artsplace fillies to look at. We were a bit blown away by the prices being paid and it's even more when you're paying with Australian dollars.

"Then, on the fourth day, Aston Villa (out of Storm Damage mare Villa Storm) came into the ring. She's one I really liked and we bought her."

Aston Villa raced just nine times for four wins, but has proven a revelation in the breeding barn. All six foals to race have won, including the first of them Yankee Rockstar (by Rocknroll Hanover), who won 22 of his 35 starts and $A329,048.

Then came Poster Boy (by Somebeachsomewhere), her fourth foal, who won 22 of his 30 starts (with another seven placings). He won the Chariots Of Fire, NSW Derby and ran third in a Miracle Mile before injury curtailed his career. Both he and Yankee Rockstar have now just started stud duties.

"A couple of years after we bought Aston Villa, I really wanted a Western Terror mare as well," Anne said. "This big, forced sale came up when a major owner had to sell his stock. Lots were for sale online, but I like to see them in the flesh."

Bill recalled the 37 hours of travel from Australia to the Harrisburg Sales – "including a 20-seater flight from Chicago to Harrisburg which wasn't really my go" – before they saw and then snared Kabbalah Karen B.

"We had a budget, but when the bidding reached it, I gave Bill a nudge and said, 'Keep going, we didn't come all this way for nothing,'" Anne said.

Kabbalah Karen B raced with some success for Walsh in the US and then in Australia. She retired with nine wins, 18 placings and just shy of $A300,000 in earnings.

Her first foal to race was the pint-sized Our Little General, who won a Victoria Derby and two Breeders Crown finals before continuing his career in the US.

"Ladies In Red is her fourth foal. I think she's our best horse, yet. Not just on what she's done, but how she's done it," Anne said.

Ladies In Red's name comes from the red string bracelet worn by those associated with Kabbalah religious beliefs.

The daughter of Mach Three made it 13 wins (and a second) from just 14 starts when she thrashed her rivals in the Group 1 Victoria Oaks at Bendigo on Oct. 9.

The win earned her comparisons with the greatest fillies Australia has seen and she's still got major races like the Breeders Crown and Vicbred finals to come this season.

"I think she's the best juvenile we've trained and she's still on the way up," co-trainer Clayton Tonkin said.

"The credit goes to Bill and Anne, who really insisted she have a long spell after she was beaten for the first time in the Vicbred (2YO) final last New Year's Eve. They were happy to sacrifice races such as the NSW Oaks and Australian Gold with a longer-term view and they've been rewarded because she's gone to another level."

It's now gone the full circle for the Andersons with Kabbalah Karen B in foal to their own Poster Boy.

"Ladies In Red is something else, but so too is Kabbalah Karen B. I don't think there's been another broodmare Down Under produce a Derby winner and Oaks winner and between them, Ladies In Red and Our Little General have already won three Breeders Crown finals, too," Bill said.

Ladies In Red's next big target is the Breeders Crown 3YO Fillies series in Victoria next month.

A tradition of excellence

Bepi Bi outstanding in Treviso

by Thomas Hedlund

Alessandro Gocciadoro-trained Bepi Bi (Donato Hanover) took a safe wire-to-wire win in the $127,500 Gran Premio Memorial Giuseppe Biasuzzi in Treviso, Italy on Sunday (Oct. 17) afternoon.

Bepi Bi is one of the most interesting 4-year-olds in Europe this season and the half-brother of world champion Twister Bi (Varenne—Lorraine Bi) collected his big trophy of the year in Sunday's race by winning in 1:54.3.

Gocciadoro claimed the title in the race for the fourth year in a row. Zaniah Bi (2018), Vitruvio (2019) and Alrajah One (2020) have all won the race previous years.

And Gocciadoro has a great chance when the $255,000 Gran Premio Delle Nazioni over 1.3 miles is scheduled in Milan on Saturday (Oct. 23).

Nine horses will gather in Milan and Gocciadoro's choice in the bike is Zaccaria Bar who starts from post 1 behind the gate, while his duo Vivid Wise As (Matthieu Abrivard) and Vitruvio (Andrea Guzzinati) begin from post 5 and 6, respectively.

Gran Premio delle Nazioni 2021

2. Rushmore Face - Joke Face - Edoardo Loccisano
3. Elsa de Belfonds - Tornado Bello - Nicolas Ensch
4. Atik DL - Look de Star - Manuel Pistone
5. Vivid Wise As - Yankee Glide - Matthieu Abrivard
6. Vitruvio - Adrian Chip - Andrea Guzzinati

8. Agrado - Ganymede - Francesco Di Stefano
9. Toscarella - Varenne - Massimo Castaldo

Four in a row for Cleangame

Jean-Michel Bazire's top gelding Cleangame (Ouragan de Celland) has made a great comeback at the tracks during the fall and in Sunday's (Oct. 17) $173,000 Grand Prix du Sud Ouest, in Beaumont-de-Lomagne, Cleangame played with his opponents over 2,400 meters.

Bazire sent his 9-year-old gelding to position first over with 1,100 meters to go and with 600 meters remaining of the race, the duo was in front. Bazire just controlled his opponents over the long home stretch and Cleangame won easily in mile rate 1:56.

Stablemate Rebella Matters finished strongly as runner up ahead of Ce Bello Romain.

Cleangame had a long break from competition due to an injury, but now it seems like the gelding has found a top level again. Earlier this season he has claimed the $197,000 Prix d'Ete, the $115,000 Grand Prix de la Federation Regionale du nord and the $115,000 Grand Prix Anjou-Maine.

Last big battle in Sweden

The Breeders Crown for 3- and 4-year-olds ends the stake racing in Sweden and on Sunday (Oct. 24) it's time for eliminations ahead of the Nov. 7 finals at Eskilstuna, the traditional host of the event.

The eliminations are held at Solvalla on Sunday and the race card is outstanding with all the best horses there are in every division, except for the 4-year-old colts and geldings, where the sport's new star Calgary Games is missing due to stud work at Menhammar Stuteri.

Fans will get more than their share of entertainment from trotters Lara Boko, Red Lady Express and Good Vibes among the 3-year-old fillies. Francesco Zet, Mellby Jinx, Felix Orlando and Borups Victory in the eliminations for 3-year-old colts and geldings.

Among the 4-year-olds, horses such as Honey Mearas, Önas Prince, Fifty Cent Piece, Eagle Eye Sherry, Barbro Kronos, San Moteur, Brambling, Rome Pays Off and Mister Hercules are carded.

Tattoo Artist equals Yonkers Raceway's all-age track record

Tattoo Artist inked his name next to Theartofconfusion A and American History in the record book at Yonkers Raceway by winning the $48,000 open handicap pace on Monday night (Oct. 18) in 1:49.3 to tie the all-age track record.

With Dexter Dunn in town to handle the driving, Tattoo Artist left quickly from the outside post seven and worked his way to the front prior to the :26.4 opening quarter. Tattoo Artist maintained the top spot to a :54.4 half, but Shadow Cat, driven by George Brennan, vacated the three-hole to go first-over prior to that station. All that Shadow Cat did after tipping out was spin his wheels, though, as Dunn stepped on the accelerator with Tattoo Artist and zipped a 27 second quarter to put three-quarters up in 1:21.4. That tempo also put pocket-sitter Dragon Said, steered by Joe Bongiorno, into retreat mode.

Around the far turn, Tattoo Artist maintained a clear lead over his foes, and although closing Funatthebeach N, with Jordan Stratton in the bike, and Belmont Major N, piloted by Tyler Buter, did gain ground through the stretch drive, it was after the result was no longer in doubt. Tattoo Artist hit the wire a length and a quarter to the good over Funatthebeach N, who was the 8-5 favorite, and Belmont Major N was the third-place finisher.

Chris Ryder trains Tattoo Artist, a 4-year-old son of He's Watching, for owners Let It Ride Stables Inc., Frank Cannon, Diamond Creek Racing, and J&T Silva Stables, LLC. This was his 18th career victory, and he has now earned $892,617. Tattoo Artist paid $5.70 to win and was atop a $20.00 exacta and a $172.00 trifecta.

Gingras dominates in Massachusetts Sire Stakes at Plainridge

The third leg of the $2.24 Massachusetts Sire Stakes (MASS) for 3-year-olds of both sexes and gaits were held at Plainridge Park on Monday (Oct. 18) and Hall of Fame driver Yannick Gingras stole the show. Gingras won three consecutive $60,000 divisions of the four on the program and did so by open lengths in all of them. Then later on the card, pacing filly Suzie Blue Chip set a new MASS record for her age, gait and gender in the last stake of the day.

The first two events were non-betting and held before the first race.

Gingras started out winning the trotting filly division with Moni For Lindy (Credit Winner—Live Moni) who took the lead at the quarter and incrementally stretched out her top margin throughout the mile. After hitting three-quarters in 1:27, Moni For Lindy turned on the burners and simply took off, hitting the line 12-1/2 lengths in front and claiming a 1:55.4 win.

Moni For Lindy is now undefeated in MASS competition this year and has pushed her bankroll to $301,377 as a result. Owned by Greathorse and trained by Domenico Cecere, Moni For Lindy was bred by the Moni Maker Stable.

Next, Gingras toyed with the pacing colts with Mullinax (American Ideal—Up Front Kellie Jo) who also remained unbeaten in stake action at Plainridge. Mullinax was up by two lengths at the quarter and kept everyone single file in chase for most of the mile. At the top of the stretch Mullinax started to stretch out as he closed the mile with a :27.2 panel to win by five in 1:52.3.

Mullinax has now pocketed $174,547 this year on the strength of his Massachusetts stake victories for owner William Varney. The colt is trained by Mark Ford who also bred him along with Ed Mullinax.

Gingras then got the natural stake hat trick behind Incommunicado (Chapter Seven—Gran Cavalla) who was much the best again among his trotting colts peers. Incommunicado opened up three-lengths at the quarter and was never confronted from there. After a soft half of :58.2 and three-quarters in 1:27.3, Incommunicado switched gears, trotted home in :28.3 and won by 7-1/2 lengths in a lifetime best of 1:56.1.

It was the third straight MASS win for Incommunicado ($2.10) who now has $190,015 in the bank this year for owners Knutsson Trotting, Little E, Arthur Geiger and David Stolz. Ake Svanstedt trains the winner who was bred by the Moni Maker Stable.

The fourth and final division was for pacing mares and Suzie Blue Chip (American Ideal—Betty Hill) re-wrote the record book.

Drew Campbell didn't waste any time shuffling Suzie Blue Chip off the gate and to the lead but had Eyemadream (Shawn Gray) parked out and pushing the pace a long way. After a half in :56 and three-quarters in 1:24.2 Suzie Blue Chip was still going strong on the point while Eyemadream faded away. However, So amazing (Bruce Ranger) and Rightfully Mine (Yannick Gingras) were now in play and trying to chase down the leader. But they weren't going to catch Suzie Blue Chip on this day as she paced away to a five length win in 1:52.2.

The time was a new lifetime mark for Suzie Blue Chip and also set a new Massachusetts Sire Stake record for 3-year-old pacing fillies. This was the third consecutive week this stake record was broken and by three different fillies.

It was the first MASS win and second overall win of the year for Suzie Blue Chip ($16.60) who is owned by Kapildeo Singh and trained by John Gerow. Blue Chip Farms bred Suzie Blue Chip.

The 2021 Massachusetts Sire Stakes will conclude next Monday (Oct. 25) with eight divisions of 2 and 3-year-olds competing in the finals that are worth a total of $800,000 (est.) that will be held at Plainridge Park. Post time for the first race will be at 2 p.m.

Brown and Sweeney win seats to the 2022 NTRA NHC

George Brown of Neeham, MA, captured the Oct. 16 NTRA National Handicapping Championship Qualifier at Meadowlands Racing & Entertainment.

The $400 no-takeout contest attracted a field of 66 players representing several different states. All entry fees went to the prize pool totaling $13,200.

The Meadowlands NHC Qualifier required each contestant to make at least 10 $20 win wagers on their choice of races from Belmont, Laurel and Keeneland.

Brown cashed on three of his 10 bets and was able to build his $200 bankroll into $1,122.50 earning him the $5,280 top cash prize and seat in the 2022 NHC Final in Las Vegas. George's big score came in Belmont's 10th race where he cashed for $892.50 with a $175 win bet on maiden claiming winner Lemon Taffy.

Long-time NHC and Meadowlands contest player Bill Rendino finished in second place with a $900 tournament bankroll. Since Rendino already qualified for the NHC, the second NHC seat was passed to Michael Sweeney of Ryebrook, NY.

The top 10 finishers along with contest prize payouts are below.

The Meadowlands Racetrack will look to hold a NHC 2023 Qualifier in March of 2023.
