Elimination takeaways and picks for Friday's Breeders Crown finals

My picks for the 2-year-old Crown events.

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Of all the hexes this column has provided, the most recent column serving as a Breeders Crown preview may have served up the biggest of them all. A day after proclaiming Jiggy Jog S as one of two Dexter Dunn “locks” in the Breeders Crown, it was announced that one of the great trotting mares of our time was being retired due to injury and wouldn’t make it to the Breeders Crown. The other Dunn lock from that column, Twin B Joe Fresh, still is well positioned in her Crown division but did see her nine-race winning streak come to an end in rather surprising fashion in her elimination.

In something new, Friday’s (Oct. 18) eliminations were contested during the afternoon since The Meadowlands was racing thoroughbreds at night. I like the idea a lot of daytime elimination races; it gives things a different look. The thoroughbred’s race their Breeders’ Cup 2-year-old races Friday afternoon and it’s always well received, I wonder if the afternoon setup could be made more formal going forward. One drawback though was handle. Perhaps not everyone was fully aware of the unusual post time, and total handle across the 13-race card was $1,562,649. By comparison, when eliminations were last held at The Meadowlands in 2021 at night, the Friday handle over 12-races was $2,145,473.

As for the racing, the 2-year-old finals seem to be more well-defined than the 3-year-old and older divisions. But there were a couple of horses across the eliminations that were coming off strong performances at The Red Mile and not all their form translated when shipped north to The Meadowlands. It’s already been a long and windy season for some of these Breeders Crown freshmen and I'd let the odds dictate who I eventually go with, where depending on trips, things could go either way. Hoping to not jinx any of the connections with my endorsement, here are picks for who may take home the 2-year-old Breeders Crown races.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE

The amazing thing here is that Dunn went into this division without a prior drive on any top contenders, but picked up a drive in each elimination, won both (one in a track record time), and now has his choice of the top two morning-line favorites for the final. Dunn picked up the drive on Captain Optimistic as it looks like Gingras had his choice between that one and Sippinonsearoc and opted for the latter. In his elimination, Captain Optimistic, beaten favorite in the Metro final, went down the road from his outside post 8 and repelled a late challenge to his inside from Railroad Station. In that race, Sippinonsearoc did all he could to close from off the pace into the fast race time. The highly regarded Louprint was fourth in that race, having raced first-over and was still trying towards the finish. In the other elimination, Swingtown and Dunn stormed from second-over right behind the 1-5 favored Fallout and always had the look of a confident winner. At the time of this print, Swingtown has drawn the post edge over Captain Optimistic but if I had to guess I'd predict Dunn will opt for Takter's Captain Optimistic.

Picks: Captain Optimistic, Swingtown, Fallout

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

Looksgoodinloulou, coming off a second-place finish to Papi Grad two back and then an International Stallion Stake winner last out, kicked things off in the elimination races with a 1:48.4 track-record performance and wore down Miki And Minnie who raced pretty brave herself. Rodeo Drive Deo who also was coming off a pair of strong wins in Lexington, rode the winner's cover and closed well to nail down second. Though her win was the slower of the two eliminations, The Last Martini raced giant. She came first over from sixth, eventually tracked off cover, that she may have not even needed, and surged late with a race best :26.2 final quarter to win. Longshot Duration tipped first-over near three-quarters and actually led the charge to go past the 1-5 favored Rose who couldn't stave off the late challengers; will be interesting to see how she bounces back. Unreasonable raced well too in that elimination but drew towards the outside.

Picks: The Last Martini, Looksgoodinloulou, Rodeo Drive Deo

2-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT

The road here will go through Maryland, who had a bye into the final, and whose recent form in the Wellwood, Haughton

As for the racing, the 2-year-old [Breeders Crown] finals seem to be more well-defined than the 3-year-old and older divisions. But there were a couple of horses across the eliminations that were coming off strong performances at The Red Mile and not all their form translated when shipped north to The Meadowlands.

and Mohawk Million would make him hard to go against. But elimination winner Maximum Mearas S could be one to watch and is developing quickly with only five starts now under his belt. He was able to turn the tables on Super Chapter who had beaten him prior at The Red Mile and surged late when angled off the rail from third to get up for the win in 1:52.4. Super Chapter came into The Meadowlands off a couple of big wins at The Red Mile but came up a little short at the end of his mile last week; is almost certain to lose Dunn also to Maryland. In that same elimination, the Melander-trained Blank was flying late up the rail at monster odds of 150-1. The earlier elimination that day took form as a three-horse breakaway and that's the way they went around. Emoticon Legacy was strong late up the inside to get the win going away, while Hidalgo closed for third on the outside. In between those two was PASS champion Meshuggah, who was third in the Mohawk Million and has never been off the board in nine lifetime starts.

Picks: Maryland, Maximum Mearas S, Hidalgo

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

Once again, it's going to be decision time for Dunn. Going into last week it would have seemed a formality that he would wind up on the bye-earning Champagne Problems – and he still might – but elimination winner Luna Lovegood has had to give him something to think about. Making her first start outside of The Red Mile, she left to be second, didn't want to sit that position and retook ahead of 9-1 shot R Charm, and then poured it on through the stretch in a really impressive performance to win by over five lengths. What A Bid Hanover, who was making just her fourth career start, was shuffled and locked to the inside and actually had some good late trot once free to be second over Lasting Dream who had the initial jump on her. The two other elimination winners both enjoyed perfect pocket trips. One of those being Sound Judgement played the role of pocket rocket over Delaney Hanover who looked like a winner until the late stages; Miss Belmar closed from out of nowhere in the race to be third. The other pocketed trip winner was Lady Landia who bested Aperfect Annie who battled on well enough to lose only by a neck.

Picks: Luna Lovegood, What A Bid Hanover, Champagne Problems
In Saturday's HRU (yes, we're publishing Saturday, not Friday this week), I'll have my picks for that night's Crown finals.

Karl's retired to stud duty after Crown hopes derailed by sickness

by Debbie Little

According to co-owner Barry Guariglia, Hambletonian champ Karl has been retired and is heading off to his next career at stud.

"We gave him every chance and there's no way we could go with him this week [in the Breeders Crown final]," said Guariglia after Karl came up sick following his Crown elimination. "He needs a little time and based on the fact that we have a stallion deal, obviously, we just retired him, and that's that.

"The plan at the moment is get him tested in December and then he'll go to Diamond Creek."

The son of Tactical Landing out of the RC Royalty mare Avalicious is co-owned by Christina and Nancy Takter, Guariglia's Black Horse Racing, Crawford Farms Racing and Bender Sweden Inc and was bred by Crawford Farms LLC.

News circulated on social media on Monday (Oct. 21), when his trainer Nancy Takter posted that Karl would not be racing in the Breeders Crown final for 3-year-old colt and gelding trotters, after having scoped sick following his sixth-placed-fifth finish last Saturday.

"It's funny, driving into the office today, I can't believe it's two seasons [racing Karl], it's gone by so quickly," Guariglia said. "It's been great.

"I texted Nancy last night after that little press release came out, about [Karl] being sick and said, 'It's been a great ride and you've done a great job making Karl a champion, you and the whole team and there are memories that we'll never forget.'"

For Guariglia, one of those memories that will always be with him, despite the torrential downpour, was when Karl won the Hambletonian.

"I've never been that wet in my life," Guariglia said with a laugh. "Every piece of garment I had on was soaking wet, but nobody cared.

"The other thing that sticks out in my mind from that race on that day is the amount of people outside. You know, non-owners, of course, just spectators that stayed right through the whole race in the pouring rain, that was really remarkable to me, and I thought it was quite interesting."

Karl has gone over the million-dollar mark in both of his seasons on the track and was only off the board twice in 23 starts, which included 18 victories.

Although racing in the Crown final would have been great, Guariglia said Karl's health is the most important thing to his connections. He also mentioned that there is a 90 per cent chance that the great Manhego will be bred to Karl.

"I've been in the business long enough that stuff like this has happened, not necessarily when you might be the favorite or co-favorite for the final in the Breeders Crown, but it is what it is," Guariglia said. "There's no way we would force it. It's not worth it. Let him rest and be ready for the next part of his career."

Draws completed for four remaining Breeders Crown finals

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Twin B Joe Fresh, the No. 1-ranked horse in the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll, will leave from post 5 in Saturday's (Oct. 26) $400,000 Breeders Crown Mare Pace at The Meadowlands and was made the 4-5 morning-line favorite.

The post-position draws for the finals of the Breeders Crown Mare Pace, Open Trot, 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot, and 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace, were held Tuesday (Oct. 22) as part of a luncheon at Hogan Equine in Cream Ridge.

Elimination winners drew for posts 1 through 6 before the remaining finalists were placed in open draws in their respective events.

Twin B Joe Fresh, who finished second to Grace Hill in the single Mare Pace elimination last week, has nine wins and two seconds in 11 starts this season for trainer Chris Ryder and driver Dexter Dunn. She has won 28 of 38 lifetime races, missing the top three only twice and earning $2.06 million. She had a nine-race win streak snapped in her Crown elimination, when she started from post 10 at The Big M.

"She's fine," Ryder said. "She'll be ready. I keep saying the same thing, I have to pinch myself. She's been winning, and winning well. It's a big joy. It's very exciting."

Grace Hill will leave from post 3 for trainer Virgil Morgan, Jr. and driver Todd McCarthy and was established as the 4-1 second choice. Grace Hill captured the Mare Pace in 2022. She has won 35 of 77 races and $1.86 million during her career. She missed the board in four straight starts during the summer but has three consecutive victories, two in conditioned classes, since a month layoff.

"She just needed some time off and we regrouped," Morgan said after Grace Hill's elim triumph. "Obviously, it paid off. She was really good in the last two starts, but she's supposed to be against those horses. That worked to our benefit coming in here."

The field also includes two-time Breeders Crown champion Sylvia Hanover, who will leave from post 9 for trainer Mark Steacy and driver Bob McClure and is 6-1. Canada's 2023 Horse of the Year has won 20 of 37 lifetime races and earned $1.75 million.

In the draw for the 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers, elimination winners Mirage Hanover and Captain Albano got posts 1 and 5, respectively. Elim winners Daiquiri Hanover and T C I drew posts 2 and 6, respectively, in the 3-year-old colt and gelding trot final. There were no eliminations for the Open Trot, which features a field of 11.

Following are the fields for all 12 Breeders Crown races with morning-line odds. The finals for the four 2-year-old events will be Friday (Oct. 25) at The Meadowlands. All other finals will be Saturday (Oct. 26) at The Big M. Driver changes for Friday will be available on Wednesday, while Saturday's changes will be available on Thursday. First-race post time is 6:20 p.m. both nights. FOX Sports will air coverage from 8-11 p.m. on Friday on FS1 while Saturday's telecast is from 7:30-11 p.m. on FS2.

Some takeaways from Saturday's Crown elims and a few notes about Twin B Joe Fresh

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

If Saturday's (Oct. 19) Breeders Crown eliminations were any indication, this week's finals could be a wild ride. Here is a look at a few things that stood out from the upset laden evening.

NO FAVORITES HERE

Dave Miller had another strong night without any favorites. He qualified 79-1 Asweetbeachhere, won with T C I (the second choice that paid $6.80), finished third with 7-1 Oaks favorite Elista Hanover, as well as 31-1 South Beach Star and 63-1 Greenspan. Miller is days from climbing to within $10 million of John Campbell ($299.8 million) on the all-time earnings list, the first time since March 1989 that anyone (Bill O'Donnell) was within $10 million ($73-$63 million).

BY THE NUMBERS

Ninety-eight tried to win and advance to Saturday night's (Oct. 26) finals. Zero did so from posts 1 or 2; 24 of 98 were homebreds; 46 of 98 were six-figure yearlings (five won); eight of 11 winners actually had a better win percentage in 2023 than this year; one of 98 was a chestnut and, just like on Hambletonian Day, it was Hambletonian Oaks favorite Elista Hanover (third in her Crown elim); two of 98 entered were sons of Somebeachsomewhere who passed away in 2018 but both advanced (Ruthless Hanover and South Beach Star).

BELOW AVERAGE

Scott Zeron won with 8-1 Allegiant. That price is about $50 lower than his average Breeders Crown final payoff of $68.80 through the years. Last year he had his lone Crown favorite, Tactical Approach ($6).

THIS ONE'S FOR THE GIRLS

Linda Toscano started the female trainer Breeders Crown onslaught in 2002 with Molly Can Do It, and now 32 Breeders Crowns have gone to the ladies. She represented the ladies with Allegiant in the winner's circle on Saturday.

PHOTO OPS

Six of Saturday's 11 elims were bang-bang, with two won by a head and four by a neck.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Three of the 10 winning sires are no longer with us, and all three were Breeders Crown winners themselves. Cantab Hall won in 2003 to complete a Trotter of the Year season at age 2, Somebeachsomewhere won as a 3-year-old in 2008 in his only Crown appearance, and Bar Hopping won the 3YOCT in 2016. All three were favored.

TRIPLE DIGITS

There have been seven $100 Breeders Crown final mutuels. Incredibly, in Saturday night's elims, there were two: 66-1 Disney for Todd McCarthy and Brett Pelling, and then a 79-1 shocker from Ake Svanstedt with Daiquiri Hanover.

ALL HAIL MUSCLE HILL

Muscle Hill moved into the No. 1 spot all time among trotting stallions in the Breeders Crown last year with 35 less starts than prior king Speedy Crown. Muscle Hill looks to add to that next week with Drawn Impression.

TOP BROTHERS

In a rarity of rarities, full brothers lead all of North America in earnings for a full year. It happened folks in 2001 with Bettors Delight at $1,776,800 and a full decade later with Roll With Joe in 2011 at $1,649,725. Both could have 2024 Crown winners as Roll With Joe's Twin B Joe Fresh leads the Open Mares and Bettors Delight qualified all four of his: Collusion Hanover and Its A Love Thing were third, Nijinsky was second and his best of the night was 3YOCP champ Mirage Hanover, his fastest ever offspring at 1:46.3 at The Red Mile.

REPEAT MINDED

The Cancelliere Brothers' Ruthless Hanover will try to repeat what their Bettor Sweet did twice in the Breeders Crown Open Pace. Bettor Sweet doubled up in 2011-12.

LADIES MAN

Dexter Dunn will try and go to an amazing five-for-six in the Mare Trot this weekend. He won it back-to-back with Manchego in 2019-20, then with Bella Bellini in 2022, and Jiggy Jog S last year.

SHOW ME THE MONEY

Todd McCarthy winning with a $100 horse at The Meadowlands? He did it twice on Hambletonian Day 2022 with both Kobe's Gigi and Cool Papa Bell. It had happened only once prior to that in East Rutherford, and much like Hambletonian Day 2022, "brand names" were involved. It was July 31, 1991 when Cat Manzi did it with 95-1 Fake Left and 49-1 Hundred Kisses. Fake Left would capture the Jug the next year and Hundred Kisses would make her splash off the track as the dam of 1999 Triple Crown winner Blissful Hall. Hopefully the $100 plus twins – Disney (66-1) and Daiquiri Hanover (79-1) – from Saturday night can become equally noteworthy.

IT AIN'T ALL ABOUT THE MONEY

The 19 highest priced yearlings in the elims on Saturday did not emerge victorious. Three winners were homebreds, and the others had yearling tags of $150,000, $150,000, $175,000, $50,000, $135,000, $170,000, $57,000, and $75,000, respectively.

A FEW NOTES ABOUT TWIN B JOE FRESH

1. Dexter Dunn is trying to become the fifth driver who is also part owner of a Horse of the Year. The previous driver/owners to do it were Mal Burroughs in 1997 with Malabar Man, Rod Allen in 1995 with CR Kay Suzie, Tim Tetrick in 2019 with Shartin N, and Clint Galbraith in 1980 with Niatross.

2. Jiggy Jog S is Twin B Joe Fresh's main competition for HOY. Dunn drives both. Females going 1-2 in the HOY ballot is not unprecedented. It happened just three years back when Test Of Faith got 97 votes to Niki Hill's 24; the latter also Chris Ryder and Dunn just like Twin B Joe Fresh. It also happened in 2001 when Bunny Lake easily fended off the undefeated Syrinx Hanover.

3. In the first 67 years (1947-2013) of HOY balloting, just three times did a female pacer win HOY honors. All were sophomores. The aforementioned Bunny Lake in 2001, Rainbow Blue in 2004, and the trailblazing Fan Hanover in 1981. Yet, in just the past decade, a 2YOF, JK She'salady, won it for the very first time in 2014, and a 6YO, Shartin N, for the first time in 2019. Twin B Joe Fresh would be the first ever 4YO pacing mare if she does it.

4. Can you watch from the sidelines and still be HOY? Yes. So, the recently retired Jiggy Jog S could. It happened first in 1991 when single season earnings-record setter Precious Bunny was ineligible. Then again in 1994 when Cam's Card Shark did not race past Sept. 3 when he won the Dancer for $274G. He reset the earnings record nonetheless and was an easy HOY choice. Two years later Continental victory in 1996 was fifth in the Bluegrass on Sept. 25 and stopped there. But she had done more than enough and was named HOY. Moni Maker was out a while in 1999 with AFib and missed the first half of the summer. Fern and Supergrit won the trotting Breeders Crowns which were then contested mid-summer at The Meadowlands. Moni Maker returned with a vengeance and nailed down her second straight HOY title. The last time this occurred was in 2015 when HOY Wiggle It Jiggle it was not eligible and Freaky Feet Pete took the 3YOCP Crown.

5. Ryder is the only trainer to have a HOY runner-up three straight years: Bettor's Wish (2019), Party Girl Hill (2020) and Niki Hill (2021). He has never had a Horse of the Year.

6. It's been 54 years. For what you say? That is how long it has been since a trainer has gone into the Hall of Fame and had the Horse of the Year the same season! In 1970 Joe O'Brien went in the same year his Fresh Yankee was HOY. Ryder could duplicate this!

Hoosier Classic Sale sets new marks for sale average

by James Platz

Hoosier Classic Sale Company LLC conducted its annual select sale Friday (Oct. 18) and Saturday (Oct. 19) at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, setting new benchmarks for sale average over the two-day event. Offering a smaller catalog than in 2023, the Hoosier Classic Sale sold 55 fewer yearlings while producing gross sales that nearly matched the previous year's total and generating a significantly better average.

In the first session, 173 yearlings grossed more than $4.5 million and established a new record for session average with $26,211, an increase of over 25 per cent from the previous year. Four babies fetched bids exceeding six figures, with a pair of yearlings topping the session. Ponda Type and Whatitisyo each sold for $145,000 to lead Friday's activity.

Ponda Type, Hip #32, is a full-sister to Dan Patch Stakes winner Ponda Warrior p, 2, 1:51.3s; 3, 1:49.1s; 4, 1:48s ($732,310). Out of American Ideal mare Sweetnsinful, the Rockin Image filly is also a sister to Ponda Executive, a 10-time winner with a 1:49 mark and more than $125,000 in earnings. Consigned by Pond-A-Acres, Pat DeLong signed the ticket. He also purchased the other session topper. Cataloged as Hip 135 for consignor Bontrager Stables, Whatitisyo is a Tellitlikeitis colt from a Sportsmaster mare that has produced six winners from seven foals. One of those winners, Marvelous Marshia, is a $300,000 earner owned by DeLong and his father, Bo.

Swan For All filly Ponda Suite topped all trotters on day one with a $135,000 final bid. From the Pond-A-Acres consignment, the yearling is out of Muscle Hill mare Aperfectcrystal, half-sister to half-million dollar earner Aperfectyankee and recent Breeders Crown elimination runner-up Aperfect Annie 2, 1:53-24 ($343,450). Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky signed the slip on behalf of Burke Racing Stable.

Hoosier Classic's second session continued the positive trends. A group of 169 yearlings sold for a gross of $3.73 million

Dean Gillette

Whatitisyo shared the billing as the top yearling sold. He sold for $145,000 to Pat DeLong out of the Bontrager Stables consignment.

Dean Gillette

Ponda Suite topped all trotters on day one with a $135,000 final bid. Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky signed the slip on behalf of Burke Racing Stable.

while averaging $19,962. While neither figure was a record, combined with session one, Saturday's numbers helped the company establish a new two-day mark. Selling 342 yearlings for gross sales of $7.9 million, Hoosier Classic averaged $23,123, exceeding the previous record of $22,633, set in 2022.

Rolling Like It Is topped the Saturday session, bringing $140,000 for consignor In-Law Stables. Cataloged as Hip #256, the Tellitlikeitis colt is the second foal from Bettors Delight mare Rolling Delight. The colt is a half-brother to sophomore Rolling Image, an Indiana Sires Stakes leg winner with a 1:49 beaten time and $77,500 on his card. Tyler George, Rolling Image's trainer and co-owner, signed the ticket.

Ponda Stripes, a Swan For All filly, led all trotters on Day 2. She is the first foal from 20-time winning Big Stick Lindy mare Perfect Stick, a quarter-million-dollar winner in her career. Consigned by Pond-A-Acres, Connie Hochstetler signed the ticket on behalf of the partnership of Hochstetler, Robert Budig and Allen Schwartz.

JK Endofanera led all pacing sires by average. Represented by 18 yearlings selling for $626,000, the sire's progeny averaged $34,778. Five babies sired by JK Endofanera brought $50,000 or more, with filly Peachy Girl, hammered down for $95,000. Tellitlikeitis closely trailed JK Endofanera in average, with 35 yearlings generating gross sales of $1.14 million and averaging $32,757. Colts, in particular, sold well, with 17 averaging just over $48,000.

Swan For All, the perennial leader among trotters in the Hoosier State, once again topped the sale by average. Represented by 52 babies that grossed $1.44 million, the sire averaged $27,712. Dover Dan was next on the list, with 25 yearlings grossing $634,000, good for an average of $25,360.

Victory Hill Farm led all consignors in gross sales. The northern Indiana nursery sold 25 yearlings for $946,500. Eight from the consignment brought $50,000 or more, helping the farm to average $37,860. Pond-A-Acres sold 15 yearlings for $635,000, good for an average of $42,333.

Summit Bloodstock, purchasing on behalf of Bet The House LLC, was one of the more active buyers at the Hoosier Classic. Winning the bids on a dozen yearlings, the agent spent $509,000 over two days. DeLong was also a leading buyer. While making all of his purchases during the Friday session, he spent $495,000 on six babies.

Stuart McCormick

Keayang Zahara (Jason Lee) winning the Vicbred Super Series final for 3-year-old trotting fillies on Sept. 14 at Melton Park.

THE DOWN UNDER DIARY

with ADAM HAMILTON

Undefeated Keayang Zahara may be best 3-year-old filly trotter ever Down Under

by Adam Hamilton

Perfection is unfolding Down Under.

In the words of Australia's voice of harness racing, race caller Dan Mielicki, the unbeaten Keayang Zahara is the "best 3-year-old filly trotter I think I've seen."

The daughter of Volstead effortlessly stretched her unbeaten record to 10 races – four of them at Group 1 level – in a heat of the Victoria Trotters' Derby against the boys at Maryborough in country Victoria last Sunday (Oct. 20).

Keayang Zahara looks to have the $75,000 Derby final – and a fifth Group 1 win – at her mercy this Sunday (Oct. 27).

Of her rivals, top driver Nathan Jack has chased Keayang Zahara more than most.

Jack, one of Australia's most experienced and successful feature race drivers, is spellbound, like most.

"I've been lucky enough to drive a few Derby winners and a few really good juveniles, but she's the best I've ever seen I think," Jack told thetrots.com.au last week. "That's compared to horses like Cravache Dor and Dance Craze – we're talking good horses – but I think if she raced the free-for-allers tomorrow, she would probably beat them in my opinion. That's how good I think she is."

In her 10 wins, Keayang Zahara is yet to be extended.

"She's basically been in second gear every time, despite running some unbelievable times and winning by margins in many of them," leading Aussie harness media man Ryan Phelan said. "She's just something else."

Keayang Zahara's aggregate winning margin is 136.1 meters. That's almost 14 meters – or about four lengths – per win.

The times she goes are certainly comparable with the open-older free-for-all class.

“ I’ve been lucky enough to drive a few [Victoria Trotters’] Derby winners and a few really good juveniles, but [Keayang Zahara’s] the best I’ve ever seen I think. That’s compared to horses like Cravache Dor and Dance Craze – we’re talking good horses – but I think if she raced the free-for-allers tomorrow, she would probably beat them in my opinion. That’s how good I think she is. ”

~ Nathan Jack

Two starts back in the Group 1 Victoria Oaks final at Melton on Oct. 12, Keayang Zahara trotted home her last half in :55.2. Her last quarter was :26.6.

If you had a pacer go that fast, you would be thrilled.

Go back to the Group 1 Vicbred on Sept. 14 and Keayang Zahara smashed the clock – and the 3-year-old record – winning by 13 meters in a 1:56.8 mile rate for 2240 meters. It was just 1.4 seconds outside the all-aged track record.

The challenges will continue – and get bigger – for Keayang Zahara after Sunday’s Derby final.

She has landed a slot in the inaugural $500,000 The Ascent, at the Addington track in Christchurch, NZ, on Nov. 15.

She is booked on a four-hour flight “across the ditch” to New Zealand on Nov. 5.

If she delivers as the betting suggests in The Ascent – Keayang Zahara is a $1.60 favorite (for a $1 bet) – she will stay in NZ for the $140,000 Group 1 NZ Trotting Oaks (Nov. 29) and the $200,000 NZ Trotting Derby (Dec. 6).

If the streak continues, she could finish her 3-year-old season unbeaten in 14 starts, seven of them at Group 1 level.

What’s even more remarkable is that Keayang Zahara didn’t race at 2. Her first start was at Maryborough on April 3. In just her third start she won the Group 1 NSW Trotters’ Oaks and in her following start, the NSW Derby.

All this from a homebred filly, who is trained more than three hours from Melbourne at Ecklin South, in the western districts of Victoria.

And she is trained by Marg Lee and her son, Paddy. And driven by another son, Jason.

It’s a beautiful story.

The Lee clan, who have enjoyed tremendous success in the game, not only bred Keayang Zahara, but her mother, Keayang Yankee, too. She won nine of her 19 starts.

Most of the family’s early success came with pacers, none better than the brilliant Jilliby Kung Fu, who won the 2018 Group 1 Chariots Of Fire and was second in the Miracle Mile a week later.

Marg has always put Jilliby Kung Fu on a pedestal, but she now concedes Keayang Zahara is rivalling him as the best horse they have trained.

Jason agreed: “Kung Fu was a star and cut down in his prime, but on sheer ability this girl is right up there with him.”

The early focus on pacers has changed a bit with 10 of the 30 horses the Lees have in work being trotters.

“The pacers are still a big part of what we do, but yes we did consciously decide to put more of a focus on buying some well-bred trotters and breeding some of our own a few years back now,” Jason said. “It is so hard to compete with the Emma [Stewart] and Clayton [Tonkin] stable in the biggest juvenile pacing races [in Victoria], but they don’t have many trotters, so we thought there was an opportunity.”

Jason said his brother, Paddy, who is a backbone of the family training operation, was the first to get excited about Keayang Zahara last year.

“I was telling mum [Marg] how I liked one of the baby trotters and Paddy jumped in and said, ‘No, Strawberry (Keayang Zahara’s stable name) is clearly the best of them,’” Jason said. “I drove her a week later and quickly agreed.”

“She didn’t race at 2 for a few reasons, but mainly because we weren’t in a rush. She had a bit of soreness and was still growing, and we were re-building our [training] track at home, too. She could’ve raced, but when you own them yourselves, you can have the luxury of waiting.”

“The sport has its challenges at the moment, especially in Victoria, so to have [Keayang Zahara] come along and get everyone talking, not just in the game, but outside of it too, that’s really important. When I go to the local pub, I’ve got people who know me through footy or just socially and who don’t even follow the trots... they’re all asking about her. Let’s hope she can keep doing her thing for a while yet, for us and the sport.”

~ Jason Lee

While the immediate focus is on Sunday’s Derby, Jason admits he cannot wait for NZ.

“Well, we do have to get through this week first, but NZ really looks like the trip of a lifetime,” he said. “I grew up watching all the stars from NZ come across and kick our asses in the big races here. The tide has turned a bit and it’ll be great to go over there with a filly we think so much of.”

While the stunning emergence of Keayang Zahara is amazing for the Lee clan, it’s just as exciting for Australian harness racing.

“The sport has its challenges at the moment, especially in Victoria, so to have her come along and get everyone talking, not just in the game, but outside of it too, that’s really important,” Jason said. “When I go to the local pub, I’ve got people who know me through footy or just socially and who don’t even follow the trots... they’re all asking about her.

“Let’s hope she can keep doing her thing for a while yet, for us and the sport.”

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

What happened in Europe?

by Thomas Hedlund

The European report has been absent for a few weeks, due to different circumstances and it would be wrong not to mention at least the winners' names from the weekend two weeks ago, when big races were held in France, Sweden and Italy. So here comes a short list of what happened in Europe between October 11-13.

PARIS, FRIDAY (OCT. 11):

The $550,000 U.E.T. final for older trotters, became a big success for French "iron horse" Go On Boy (Password) and his driver and trainer Romain Derieux. Go On Boy proved best among strong names as Francesco Zet, Idao de Tillard and Borups Victory as he won in a mile rate of 1:51.2 over 1.3 miles.

In the battle for 4-year-old trotters, the $440,000 Grand Prix de l'U.E.T, Daniel Redén's Muscle Hill son Epic Kronos was more or less outstanding after a first over trip. Epic Kronos possesses all of the qualities needed to be an international star. In the hands of Örjan Kihlström, Epic Kronos won in 1:53.4 over 1.3 miles.

SWEDEN, SATURDAY (OCT. 12):

One name, one trainer, one driver summarizes the day at Solvalla. Daniel Wäjersten experienced some magical hours when he steered his Vivillion (Propulsion) to a tight but safe wire-to-wire win in the $600,000 Oaks for 3-year-old fillies and thereafter used the same recipe behind Bullet The Bluesky (Ready Express) in $800,000 Kriteriet. A memorable day for a very professional trainer and driver.

ITALY, SUNDAY (OCT. 13):

Rome, capital of Italy offered big money in the $850,000 Derby del Trotto and the $270,000 Oaks del Trotto and Mauro Baroncini trained Follia d'Esì (Ringostarr Treb) was strongest after a first-over trip in the Oaks, while Alessandro Gocciadoro's First Of Mind (Face Time Bourbon) was outstanding in a wire-to-wire win the Derby.

Norway lost one of the country's biggest names ever in the sport when Gunnar Eggen, 78, died on Oct. 11. Eggen won over 5,500 races and behind Sugarcane Hanover he celebrated big successes in Europe, and in the U.S. In 1988, in the historical race March of Dimes Trot at Garden State Park, Sugarcane Hanover bested world champions Mack Lobell and Ourasi, with Gunnar Eggen in the bike.

Sunday's (Oct. 27) $250,000 Gran Premio delle Nazione, in Milan, Italy includes such really strong names, as Go On Boy, Hohneck and Gocciadoro's quartet of Click Bait, Bengurion Jet, Dolce Viky and Always Ek. The latter took an upset win in the $170,000 Gran Premio Gaetano Turilli in Rome on the Derby Day.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

The road more traveled is proving successful for driver Dustin Miller

by Chris Lomon

Dustin Miller will tell you that sometimes it is the road more traveled that can take you to the most unexpected of places.

The notion that he would bring three horses from his home base in Tioga, NY, to compete at the Orleans County Fair in Barton, VT, had never crossed the amicable horseman's mind.

Until it did.

"Honestly, it was on a whim," said Miller. "I called Patty Bruno, who is the race secretary for a lot of the fairs in New York that I race at. I asked her a bunch of questions about it because I had never been, but always wanted to go. She told me all about it and I thought it sounded great. I didn't end up entering horses, so Patty called me and said, 'We're short horses. What do you think?' I told her that it was six hours, one way, and that is a lot.

"When I asked her how short they were on entries, she told me that they only had 17. I said, 'Okay, let me put my three in.'"

It would turn out to be a win-win for all on Sept. 4.

Miller won all three races earning him the Rick Flanders Memorial leading driver title and commemorative blanket.

He trained and drove Angel's Beauty, owned by Barbara Hudson of Chateaugay, NY, to victory in the non-winners of one trot in 2:13.3 and pacer Somebody's Me, also owned by Hudson, to a win in 2:03.4.

Miller capped off the day with a free-for-all pace score with Kissapotamus, owned by Donna Hansen of Afton, NY, in 2:01.3.

Vermont Lieutenant Governor David Zuckerman, a farmer from Hinesburg, was on track to greet arriving horse people in the backstretch.

"I had an absolutely amazing experience," said Miller. "It was the first time I had ever met a politician in a good way, in relation to horse racing. He was there to say hello – and it was nice to have that.

"I have been racing horses for almost my whole life and the atmosphere was just phenomenal. They welcome you with open arms, their stalls are set up so well, and they had name tags for the horses and their breeding on the stalls."

It was a feeling like none other he had ever experienced in racing.

"Everybody, from the people who worked on the track to Dave Little, who was the announcer, to everyone who worked at the track – people would say, 'Thanks for coming; your horses raced great,'" said Miller. "I have never had that before."

“ I raced most of the summer at Tioga and the county fairs. Now, I am racing at Vernon, but with that meet coming to a close, I will venture down to Monticello and The Meadowlands for the winter. Give a few things a try and see how it goes. ”

~ Dustin Miller

Three trips to the winner's circle were not the highlight for Miller.

Far from it.

“People might say I feel this way because I won three races,” he said. “I would have said the same thing if I had finished last in all three races. I didn't go to win races. Luck happened to be on my side, and I had some very good horses who could win, and they did.

“That is the last fair in New England, outside of Maine for horse racing. I am going to do everything in my power to support these fairs. Without them, we would lose a significant part of our identity.”

After his trip to the Green Mountain State, Miller feels an obligation to make sure that doesn't happen.

“I talked to quite a few people before that, and they had also expressed interest over the years about going but couldn't pull it together in time,” he said. “Fortunately, for me, I have clients who give me carte blanche with the horses, where I can race them wherever I think is right. I told my owners we were going to Vermont, and they were very supportive.”

Miller has felt supported from the moment he decided to join the standardbred world.

It didn't take long for him to realize he had a future in the sport.

“I remember being a little punk teenager on the backstretch of The Meadowlands,” he said. “My mom worked for [trainer] Ronnie Gurfein and my stepdad was his personal blacksmith, so I spent a lot of time at that track and in that barn as a kid, as well as at Monticello too.

“So, I just kind of fell into it. I worked for my brother-in-law, Claude Huckabone III, for a long time, and then ventured out on my own. Knock on wood, I have had what I consider to be a successful career.”

One, over the years, which has had its share of ups and downs, question marks, and forks in the road.

Even in times of doubt, Miller never lost his love of racing and racehorses.

“I have come and gone,” he said. “I've been in the business, I've left it, but I have always come back. The clients I have now are amazing. I have a barn full of horses, right now it's 12.”

As for personal favorites, Miller came up with a pair of horses, one from his past and another from the present.

“One is a mare I claimed forever ago named Amy's Dreamboat,” he said. “I got her out of a $6,000 claimer at Monticello and she turned into an open pacing mare who made around $90,000 in a year.

“Last year, I bought a little New York bred pacing filly, and when I say little, I mean, pony-sized little. I bought her as a 2-year-old, and she was extremely successful last year. We took a shot with her this year, and she was competitive in the Sires Stakes, which was a whole different world for me.”

Miller, who has 45 career driving wins and 163 more training, is not all about horse racing.

When he's not in the race bike, he is working as an advanced emergency medical technician for a small ambulance company based in Sidney, NY, not far from his home in Bloomville.

“I can work my 36 hours on the ambulance and my schedule is set up that the only day I miss at the barn is Sunday,” said Miller. “I have time to look at horses, buy them, and enjoy that

“In the short term, I just want to keep doing what I am doing. I have been fortunate that my horses have been doing well, week in and week out this year. I would love to be competitive on a bigger circuit. Whether it happens or not, I don’t know. I’d be happy to keep the status quo.”

Something else that will stay the same for Miller, who also has ties to other horse breeds – his wife and brother-in-law run a breeding operation for Morgan and Andalusian horses – are his fond recollections of the day he had at the Orleans County Fair.

He views it as his most treasured racing moment to date.

“It was an amazing feeling,” he said. “I’ve won three or four races in a day, but I shipped six hours on a whim, paddocked three horses myself, drove four on the day, raced three on my own, did everything myself – it was just unbelievable to experience that.”

“It felt like a great accomplishment to go out of my comfort zone, to travel six hours and then be successful.”

side of my life. I am very fortunate to get paid to do the two things I love to do.”

With three months left in the year, it has already been a prosperous 2024 campaign for Miller, the horseman.

He has already set a personal-best mark in driver purse earnings.

His upcoming calendar will see him compete in his home state and New Jersey.

Ohio SIRE STAKES REPORT

Lifetime marks fell for freshmen in Ohio Fairs Championships

by Ashley Dailey / OHHA

The Buckeye State's county fair season came to a close on Saturday (Oct. 19) with eight $50,000 Ohio Fairs Championships for 2- and 3-year-old male and female pacers and trotters at MGM Northfield Park. The freshmen were impressive with three championship winners lowering their lifetime marks.

Jailhouse Pearl went wire-to-wire in the championship for 2-year-old filly trotters. Driver Chris Lems hustled the daughter of Long Tom to the lead and never looked back, posting fractions in :28.4, 1:00.1, and 1:29.1. As the 3-5 favorite, Jailhouse Pearl drew away to win in a lifetime mark of 1:59.1.

Madam L (Hank LeVan) was second while Kountry Behave (Aaron Merriman) finished third.

Jailhouse Pearl has never missed the board, scoring 10 wins and five second-place finishes this year. She has earned $63,377 under Eric Nesselroad's conditioning. Casey Clemens bred and owns Jailhouse Pearl.

The championship for freshmen filly pacers went to Evil L in 1:57.3. Evil L and Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. raced third along the rail as betting favorite Pink Jammies (Hunter Myers) set fractions in :28.2, :59.2, and 1:29. Heading into the final turn, Evil L pulled three-wide to win in a new lifetime mark.

Maddie's Delite (Austin Hanners) was second and Pink Jammies held on for third.

Evil L has notched six wins, seven seconds, and four third-place finishes this year and has earned $52,195 in 18 tries. It was the second start for Evil L under trainer Elson Miller. Josiah Miller owns the daughter of Fear The Dragon bred by Midland Acres.

Jet Wings and Elliot Deaton took the championship for 2-year-old colt trotters in 1:59.4. Jet Wings took advantage of his inside post position and eased off the gate to settle in fourth. After the :29.4 opening quarter, the What The Hill gelding pulled first-up as the field passed the half in 1:01.1. Jet Wings easily grabbed the lead before hitting the three-quarters in 1:30.2. With no challengers, Jet Wings cruised across the wire in a new lifetime mark.

Full Moon Howl (Luke Ebersole) finished second and Hydroplane'n Henry (Greg Bateson) rallied for third.

The victory was the fifth of the season for Jet Wings. The Virgil Morgan, Jr. trainee has not missed a check in 15 starts, earning $55,794 for owner Joyce McClelland. Jet Wings was bred by Martz Creek Farm.

Unique Catch captured the championship for freshmen colt pacers in 1:55.4. Out of the gate, Unique Catch briefly battled with Downbytheparade (Merriman) before settling into the pocket at the :28 opening quarter. Driver/trainer Daren Harvey stayed patient with Unique Catch while the field reached the half in :58.2. The son of Catch The Fire changed gears while passing three-quarters in 1:27 and popped the pocket to challenge Downbytheparade in a closing effort. Unique Catch showed his grit, winning by a nose. Lord Bridgerton (Wrenn) finished third.

Unique Catch has won nine of 12 starts this season. Originally a $15,000 purchase out of the Buckeye Classic Sale, the victory upped his earnings to $51,331. The colt is owned by Wayne Mast, Jr., Eden Acres Farmstead, Steven Miller, and Daren Harvey. Henry Burkholder bred Unique Catch.

At 37-1, Threemargaritashot upset in the 3-year-old colt pace championship in 1:53.3. Guided by Austin Hanners, Threemargaritashot settled into the pocket as the leader passed the opening quarter in :27.2. While heading to the :55.3 half-mile marker, betting favorite Drinkinmybabygdby (Ronnie Wrenn, Jr.), made his move to grab control of the field. Threemargaritashot stayed patient until the 1:23.4 three-quarters, when the gelded son of Pet Rock pulled off the rail and rocketed to the lead, winning by a length. Drinkinmybabygdby held on for second and All Lathered Up (Aaron Merriman) was third.

The Randy Smith trainee has hit the board in 16 of 24 seasonal starts. Threemargaritashot has bankrolled $68,149 this year and $88,912 lifetime. Jessica Smith owns Threemargaritashot, who was bred by Brent Hopper and Kyle Gray.

The championship for sophomore colt trotters went to Jurassic Justice in 1:58.4. Merriman let the field fall into place before urging Jurassic Justice to the lead at the :29 opening quarter. Once on top, the gelded son of Volstead set fractions in :58.4 and 1:28.4 before opening up to win by five lengths.

Whiskey Peddler (Hanners) was second while Super James (Don Irvine, Jr.) finished third.

Jurassic Justice has won 10 of 18 seasonal starts and earned $60,024. Michael Lowe trains and co-owns Jurassic Justice alongside breeder Jerry Welch.

Lady Bridgerton dominated the 3-year-old filly pace championship in 1:55.2. Wrenn briefly let the dust settle before powering the daughter of Bit Of A Legend N to the lead. Lady Bridgerton quickly pulled away from the field to set fractions in :27.2, :56.3, and 1:25.3 before cruising across the wire.

Sp Dancinwithstarz (Keith Kash, Jr.) was second with Cruiser Cancelled (Elliot Deaton) third.

The victory marked the 10th win of the season for Lady Bridgerton. She has hit the board in 17 of 22 tries this season to earn $78,089. Brain Georges trains for Kent Walker, Travis Kelley, Benjamin Jaminson, and Curt Carey. Ct Stables bred Lady Bridgerton.

Flip Five Stones and Jeff Nisonger took the championship for 3-year-old filly trotters. Chaos erupted in the first turn as the three front runners made breaks. Flip Five Stones minded her manners in the middle of the pack as the field passed the opening quarter in :29. She followed cover while heading to the half in 1:00, but made a powerful move to grab the lead at the three-quarters in 1:29. Flip Five Stones confidently stopped the clock in 1:59.

All About Faith (Jason Beattie) rebounded after her miscue to place second. Phyllis L (Hank LeVan) finished third.

Flip Five Stones has notched 11 wins, four seconds, and two third-place finishes this season. Trained by Mark Winters, the daughter by Lane Of Stone has earned $69,842 for breeder/owner Dennis Shaner.

Virginia SIRE STAKES REPORT

The $720,0625 Virginia Breeder's Championship Day set for Sunday at Shenandoah Downs

by Darrell Wood / Shenandoah Downs

Kelsey Wagner's Brooksforreal captured an $8,000 Virginia Breeders elimination division for 2-year-old colt and gelding pacers on Sunday (Oct. 20) at Shenandoah Downs. The son of Rusty's For Real tripped the timer in his wire-to-wire performance in 1:54.1, nearly two seconds better than his 1:56 effort a week ago. The talented John Wagner trainee won his eighth race in a row and pushed his first-year earnings to $125,015.

Not to be overlooked was the performance of W. Hartt, H. Taylor, B. Dillon and J. Dumberger's Paxamillion who was runner-up and finished 1¾-lengths behind, a week after his first leg Breeder's elimination score in 1:56.3. The Britney Dillon trainee was a solid second behind Brooksforreal throughout the mile Sunday and now sets the stage for a rematch in Sunday's (Oct. 27) $90,975 Breeders final in the male pacing category. Corey Braden piloted the winner while Luke Hanners drove the runner-up. Nancy Takter's Caviart Act Two finished third and also advanced to the final.

Lucinda Belcher's Bday won the other freshman male pace elimination in 1:59.1. The Herman Hagerman trainee got a cover trip behind Andrew Scheller's Rusty's Lancelot, came outside in mid-stretch and hit the wire a half-length in front with Hanners in the bike. Tracy Bradshaw's Mr. Big Check finished third.

In the 2-year-old filly pace eliminations, Elwood Tignor's Mygirlmia and Dr. Edward Ward's Caviart Acadia each scored division wins. The former earned her first lifetime win in nine starts and improved from a third place finish a week prior. William Carter piloted the More Than Better filly to a 1:57.1 clocking. The latter wired the field in 1:58.1 in just her second lifetime start and rebounded from a fourth place finish a week ago. The Captain Crunch filly crossed the wire in 1:58.1 for trainer/driver James Stiltner II. Scott Woogen's KJ Becky and Timothy Amos's Caviart Snowdrop finished second and third, respectively, in the first elimination while D. Thompson, A L Stephens & LL Belcher's Caviart Maria and Tony Dinges and Dein Spriggs's Prairie Puma rounded out the latter division's top three.

In Saturday's (Oct. 19) freshman trotting eliminations, trainers John Wagner and Carlo Poliseno each scored a pair of victories respectively with freshman colts and geldings, and fillies.

Wagner's Roan Ridge and Swervingmervin each collected their first lifetime victories in 2:03 and 1:58.4. The former was making his fifth start while the latter, pushing his career bankroll to $45,505, was making his 12th. Wagner and Corey Braden were in the sulky, respectively. Kelsey Wagner of Fairfax, Virginia owns both winners. Cary Grady's HS Jesse and Kelsey Wagner's I Luv Women rounded out the top three in the first while Woogen's Mane Man Charlie and Elwood Tignor's TJ Jadster were second and third in the latter.

Poliseno's pair – Song Master and Kat's Fancy – wired the field in their respective $8,000 divisions. Both broke stride in first round eliminations but stayed flat Saturday with Cody Poliseno in the bike. Song Master, a Glidemaster filly, finished in 2:02.3 while Kat's Fancy, a daughter of Dusty Winner, crossed in 2:01.2. Jane Dunavant of Kenbridge, VA owns both. Arthur Hauser's Speedy Gal was second in the first division and Woogen's KJ Title was third. In the latter, Kelsey Wagner and Woogen's KJ The Thirteenth finished second and Providence West's Royal Toni took third.

With Breeder's 2- and 3-year-old elimination races for both sexes and gaits now complete, the Champions Day card on Sunday is set. The eight divisional bouts will chase a combined $720,625 in purse monies. A four-pack of $20,000 Virginia Breeders older races will also be on the card along with a couple other top level overnight races. The fall meet's closing day card will go to post at 1:05 p.m.

Saturday's Pink Power event in Woodstock raised money for the Shenandoah Valley chapter of the American Cancer Society in the name of Cathy Rutherford, Shenandoah Downs' beloved paddock judge who passed away several week ago after a courageous battle with breast cancer. Nearly $5,000 was raised through various efforts that included a donation from the U.S. Driver's Club, proceeds from a specially made t-shirt that honored Rutherford, a 50/50 split and Booze Wagon raffle.

The John Simpson, Sr. stakes series started its 2024 run at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania during the Monday (Oct. 21) afternoon card. The 2-year-old pacing gelding No Trespassing came within three-fifths of a second of the divisional track record with a 1:51.1 victory in one of two $58,000 events for his group, while Åke Svanstedt trained and drove two of the four winners in $30,000 sections of the stakes for 3-year-old trotting fillies. Today's races were called the Bret Hanover and the Elma, respectively (all Simpson divisions carry the name of a top horse with whom Simpson had some association throughout his Hall of Fame career).

No Trespassing, a son of Sweet Lou—Flirtswell who in his last two outings missed a head in a "nw 2" race then was downed by a head in a Grand Circuit stake at Lexington, found himself on the right side of a photo on Monday. With the rail shooting neck victory over Lochland Hanover while coming home himself in :54.3, No Trespassing also came close to the 10-year-old divisional standard of Yankee Bounty at the mountain track while also recording a lifetime best. Jim Pantaleano guided the fast freshman for trainer Deborah Daguet and owners John Darrah and Lawrence Keethe.

The other division for freshman pacing males was won by the Papi Rob Hanover—Kiss Dont Bite colt Beach Club Monte in 1:52.1, a mark. The baby lost some ground to pacesetter favorite Inflation Proof on the far turn, then found better strides to run down the chalk by 1¼ lengths while himself closing in :55.1 for driver Tim Tetrick, and has now won two straight for trainer Brett Pelling and the partnership of South Merrick Stables and Andrew Berg.

The faster of Svanstedt's pair of winners in the Elma for sophomore trotting misses (and the quickest sectional winner overall) was the Southwind Frank miss She Shaq, who lowered her mark to 1:53, going back numbers of :56.1 - :27.2. The winning diamond gaiter moved out raw nearing the far turn and overhauled favored front stepper Sister Mary Maude by the day's biggest stakes margin, 2½ lengths, for Åke Svanstedt Inc., Little E LLC, and Matt Franklin.

The Swedish native also sent out the Six Pack distaff Cocktailwithakick, who set all the pace to hold off Fannie Lipkowitz by a half-length, with the others far behind. Cocktailwithakick lowered her speed mark to 1:53.1 while also giving Åke Svanstedt Inc., partners with S R F Stable, an owning double.

Joining Cocktailwithakick as the only winning favorites in Monday stakes action at The Downs was Sapphirerainstar, who broke her maiden in her last start and here picked up a stakes victory while going a lifetime best of 1:53.4. After sitting behind leader Diamante Hanover most of the mile, the winning daughter of Walner passed that rival to win by a length for driver Simon Allard, trainer Mark Akins, and A 1 Racing.

Completing this sector's quartet of winners was the Uncle Peter filly She's Spicy, who fashioned a 1:54.4 victory after two breaks: one early by a foe which allowed her to race in the pocket, and another by the pacesetter, which gave her a clear chance to come up the inside to defeat closer Mon Ami Martine by three-quarters-of-a-length. Jason Bartlett drove the pupil of Per Engblom for Morrison Racing Stables.

Braxten Boyd led the driving colony Monday by bringing home four winners, for four different trainers.
