Calling the Crowns

Woodbine Mohawk Park's Ken Middleton, Jr. on calling harness racing's "Stanley Cup."

by Melissa Keith

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

Ken Middleton, Jr.'s views from the Woodbine Mohawk Park announcer's booth are second to none. With the 2022 Breeders Crown finals set for the Campbellville, ON track on Friday and Saturday (Oct. 28-29), the veteran race caller was feeling only calm anticipation after last Saturday night's eliminations, which determined fields for the 3-year-old colt and filly trot, 3-year-old colt pace and open mare pace finals.

"I'll be honest, there's no pressure anymore," he said. "The first year I had the opportunity to call a Breeders Crown event was likely a different story, simply because I'd never done it before and the enormity of the event was unlike any other event I ever had the privilege of calling."

Behind the mic for Woodbine Entertainment harness races since 2006, Middleton called his initial Breeders Crown events at Woodbine Racetrack that year, when the finals for 2- and 3-year-old trotters and pacers came to Canada. Earlier, he conducted Crown night winner's circle interviews in 2003, 2004 and 2005 at Woodbine and Mohawk, which were broadcast across Canada on The Score.

He said the divisional championships haven't lost their luster.

"I, like everyone who loves the sport, still get excited for the Breeders Crown whether it's in Campbellville, New Jersey or Indiana. It's our Stanley Cup."

Mohawk was one of eight tracks to play host to a division of the inaugural Breeders Crown. October 7, 1984, Conifer and trainer/driver George Sholty set a new track and Canadian record of 2:01.2s in the $539,825 (Cdn) 2-year-old filly trot. Since then, five Canadian tracks have been home to at least one Breeders Crown event: Northlands Park, Blue Bonnets, Greenwood Raceway, Woodbine Racetrack, and Mohawk.

The importance of the Breeders Crown means that Middleton spends more time getting ready.

"There's extra preparation for this event simply because there are so many new horses coming to town and you want to be familiar with their accomplishments in other jurisdictions and possibly any records the horses or horsepeople could be sitting on."

There's no change to his usual announcing style, however.

"I just try to call exactly what I see and be creative in doing it. I try to paint a picture, inject energy into each call, be accurate, and be prepared with record information in order to incorporate it into the race call, if it applies."

The Cambridge, ON resident has a few favorite calls in Crown finals.

"My most memorable Breeders Crown call was San Pail's triumph in the 2011 open trot at Woodbine Racetrack," he said. "It was a brilliant drive by Randy Waples to win with the Rod Hughes trainee over the European tandem of Rapide Lebel and Commander Crowe. As for a favorite Crown call by another announcer at another track, I'd have to say Tom Durkin's call of Bays Fella's 60-1 upset over heavily-favored Topnotcher at Pompano Park in the 1990 open pace is one that sticks out. Two of my favorite drivers growing up, Hall of Famers Paul MacDonell and Doug Brown, finished 1-2."

Middleton said that there's one pacing superstar who stands out among the many in Campbellville this coming weekend.

"I think we're all paying attention to what Bulldog Hanover [p, 4, 1:45.4m; $1,951,675] can do next. He's been the poster boy for the sport in 2022, and being on his home turf will certainly bring a lot of local people off their couches to catch him in his Canadian swan song."

History's fastest pacer qualified at Woodbine Mohawk Park Friday (Oct. 21), wiring three overmatched rivals by 29 open lengths in a 1:51.2s tightener.

"His prep in that qualifier looked rock solid," said Middleton. "He just kind of dawdled along to the [:56.4] half and then [driver Dexter] Dunn blew some of the carbon out of his engine in the [:26.4] last quarter. He looks 'all systems go', as one would expect...As for retirement, I thought I heard [trainer] Jack Darling indicate they were going back to New Jersey for the TVG at The Meadowlands. I guess we'll find out after the Breeders Crown."

On the trotting side, Atlanta's retirement is coming up after her 2022 Breeders Crown open mare trot. Middleton called her 1:50.2s victory in the 2019 Armbro Flight final at Mohawk – still Canada's fastest-ever mile by a trotter of any age/sex.

“My most memorable Breeders Crown call was San Pail’s triumph in the 2011 open trot at Woodbine Racetrack. It was a brilliant drive by Randy Waples to win with the Rod Hughes trainee over the European tandem of Rapide Lebel and Commander Crowe. As for a favorite Crown call by another announcer at another track, I’d have to say Tom Durkin’s call of Bays Fella’s 60-1 upset over heavily-favored Topnotcher at Pompano Park in the 1990 open pace is one that sticks out. Two of my favorite drivers growing up, Hall of Famers Paul MacDonell and Doug Brown, finished 1-2.”

~ Ken Middleton, Jr.

“I remember it had rained a bit earlier that evening and it seemed to bring a lot of life to the track,” he said. “The half in that race flashed up in :54.1 and caught me off guard how fast they were going up front and Atlanta [6, 1:49.0m; $3,440,719] hadn’t even moved at that point. So right at that point, it set off an alarm that we were likely going to see some type of record. It’s cool to be a part of those moments for special horses that were as talented as Atlanta was throughout her career.”

Middleton hasn’t yet encountered the enviable “problem” of having to call one of his own horses in a Breeders Crown race, although he got a sense of the thrill when homebred trainee Bob Loblaw upset at 37-1 in his Ontario Sires Stakes Gold Super Final last October at Mohawk.

“It is very difficult to call races when one of my own horses is racing, but I do my damndest to keep it bottled up on the inside,” he said. “Staying focused isn’t an issue, because at the end of the day I still have to do my job and call the race the way I normally would. It just becomes more emotional and complicated on the inside. I like to think I do an admirable job at tempering my emotions.”

Woodbine Mohawk Park will be the scene of much emotion next weekend, as on-track spectators enjoy some of the best views in the sport.

“The thing that makes Mohawk such a great host track for the Breeders Crown is the intimacy offered by the venue to our guests,” said Middleton. “Fans can get basically right to the edge of the track, in front of the grandstand, and the grandstand itself offers so many great sightlines to watch the parade of stars. The paddock area’s proximity to the grandstand also allows fans to get a feel for what goes on in the preparation of the horses throughout the night, as well. And the location of the track offers a great, fall backdrop with the leaves changing color. It’s a perfect setting for these autumn championships.”

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Paige Austin on balancing two careers, having a horse in the Mohawk Million in her first year training

by Chris Lomon

Support is rarely more than a horse length away for Paige Austin.

Whether it was in the days leading up to her first starter or in the times since then, the young standardbred trainer, and daughter of late trainer Mark Austin, has always felt a genuine sense of encouragement and kindness from those closest to her.

This July, all of that was on display at Woodbine Mohawk Park when Hasty Bid, a horse she co-owns with the 1000063663 Ontario Inc. group, delivered her a milestone moment with fiancé James MacDonald in the race bike.

"It was really fun," said Austin, of the trotter's 3 ½-length score in a second leg of the Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots series.

"Having James drive the horse was extra special too. My mom and sister were there. They had come to Clinton too for my first race, just in case we got the win in the first start. We got it in the second, so no complaints. Having my family there was really important and I know my dad was watching from above. It was very emotional, but I know he'd be proud."

And not only for what his daughter has achieved in her short time as a trainer.

Aside from her harness racing career, Austin is a Registered Practical Nurse, a graduate of Conestoga College in 2019, who specialized in medical and surgical nursing during her studies. Currently, she works at the Guelph Skin Clinic.

It's a busy life balancing two careers, but Austin is fully prepared to handle the rigors of both.

"I've always loved being around the horses. I've worked for [trainer] Carmen Auciello, paddocking at nights for him, for about six or seven years now. When we decided to buy Hasty Bid at Harrisburg last year, it meant there would be longer days."

It's by no means a complaint.

While she maintains a modest stable, Austin has enjoyed success with the aforementioned Hasty Bid.

The son of My MVP was a $35,000 Harrisburg purchase for the partnership. He is out of Garland Lobell mare Sunshinenlollipops, who won the Casual Breeze in her first of four career starts.

Hasty Bid has gone 2-2-1 from eight career dashes and finished fourth in this year's edition of the prestigious Mohawk Million on Sept. 24.

"We liked him a lot, but there are no guarantees that a horse will even make the races. Once he did, after a few training starts, it was an amazing feeling to see him out there competing. And when he won, it was even better than you could imagine. He's a tough horse and he loves to race. Everybody wants a horse like that. Win or lose, they go out and give their all."

Austin, less than a dozen starts into her conditioning role, understood well before that first race at Clinton what to expect in the rollercoaster world of racing.

"It's tough having horses, which is why you have no choice but to take things day by day. That was our outlook with Hasty Bid. What was he going to be? Would he be a Grassroots horse or a Gold horse? You look at trying to keep the horse sound, preparing them the best you can and then work with them to bring out their very best."

“We’re really hoping (Hasty Bid) comes back next year and competes in the Gold series and on the Grand Circuit. He showed that he is capable of that this year. We’re going to pay him up for whatever we can and hope he comes back even stronger. He’ll enjoy some time off, recharge and then we’ll prepare for next year.”

~ Paige Austin

Maintaining a small stable is the goal for the foreseeable future.

Austin recently added another horse to her barn, a $53,000 purchase at the recent London Classic Yearling Sale.

She’s excited at the prospect of seeing what’s in store for Blarney Castle, a trotting son of My MVP—Fighting Irish, she bought with MacDonald.

“It will be nice to see how this horse pans out for us. It’s always fun when you get to develop the babies. I think two horses is probably max for me because of my other job. There is a lot of organization that needs to happen with our respective careers. We’re fortunate to have a great caretaker, Teresa Large, who looks after ‘Hasty.’ She’s a vital part of the success.”

As for Hasty Bid, Austin is hoping 2023 yields even more memorable results.

“We’re really hoping he comes back next year and competes in the Gold series and on the Grand Circuit. He showed that he is capable of that this year. We’re going to pay him up for whatever we can and hope he comes back even stronger. He’ll enjoy some time off, recharge and then we’ll prepare for next year.”

It’s also a pleasant thought for the horse racing couple.

When they’re not at the racetrack or the barn, Austin and MacDonald form their own cheering section of sorts, sitting in the stands for various live sporting events in Toronto and beyond.

It is, she offered, a welcome chance to watch others do the competing.

“We try to do things together as much as we can, especially on Sundays. A couple weekends ago, we went to the Buffalo Bills game – we’re big sports fans – and we’ve also gone to Blue Jays and Maple Leafs games, too. We try to get away in the winter as well, head south for a week and try to get out of the cold for a bit. But horse racing, it’s addicting, and we don’t want to be away from it for too long.”

As for what she’s most proud of so far in her career, Austin takes brief pause to ponder the question.

Her answer speaks volumes about her adoration for the sport and its stars.

“I think out of everything, I’m the proudest of Hasty Bid. He’s been so great, and he’s really tried every start. Every time he’s on the racetrack, he gives it his all. We’re very grateful for what he’s done for us.”

A compliment Austin also directs to others.

“I’m really happy that my family has been part of all this too. My sister has really taken a liking to racing again and has come out to every one of Hasty Bid’s starts. I’m really proud that my family can enjoy everything with me too. To have everybody there, it’s really fun. It makes it all more special.”

With the Holiday season drawing nearer, Austin doesn’t have her wish list filled out yet.

While she won’t find it under the tree or be able to open it, there is one thing she would gladly accept.

“Well, maybe one of those Grand Circuit wins next year with Hasty Bid would be nice.”

THE ART OF BREEDING

with ALAN LEAVITT

The only absolute is...

by Alan Leavitt

There is only one absolute in harness racing, and it is this: There are no absolutes.

Although it is frequently the case that a mare's best performance on the racetrack will be either her first or second foal, the fastest standardbred of all time, Bulldog Hanover, with his record of 1:45.4, is the 14th foal of B.J.'s Squall. It's also true that many sires get their fastest and richest progeny from their two first crops, but Bulldog Hanover is from Shadow Play's 12th crop.

As an example of the early success of a mare's production, today's leading trotting sire, based on his first two crops, is Walner. He's the second foal of his dam, Random Destiny. But more importantly, he was a great 2-year-old, winning all but one time he looked at a starting gate, and that a close second.

Walner had just two starts at 3 before his racing career was cut short due to injury, which meant nothing to this kid. Along with the greatest thoroughbred breeder of all time, Federico Tesio, I regard 2-year-old brilliance as the major determinant of a stallion's sire potential.

I say that even though the greatest sire I ever was blessed with was Speedy Crown, and he never started in a race at 2.

Previously, when I called Speedy the greatest trotting sire of all time, it didn't make it past my editor. I say it again, based on the fact that Speedy Crown is the only standardbred sire whose single season progeny exceeded that of every thoroughbred stallion in a given year.

Speedy Crown won the Hambletonian himself, and he sired three Hambletonian winners. I was involved with one of them, Speedy Somolli, whom I had syndicated halfway through his 2-year-old year. S² was a little horse, and he would make breaks out of nowhere, which cost him a 2-year-old world's record.

Howard Beissinger spent the winter before this 3-year-old season braving him up in a Kant-See-Back bridle. He stayed flat rigged that way, but it took away just a little of his high speed.

I spent the longest afternoon of my life in the grandstand at DuQuoin the day of Somolli's Hambletonian. He won the first heat, and then lost the second. It took a minute to sink in that if Florida Pro won the third heat for George Sholty, as he had won the second heat, that would be it for us and the Hambletonian.

After waiting several years, they finally called the horses for the third heat. The other six horses were pretty quiet in the post parade, but not Speedy Somolli. He was already in high gear, with his ears pinned back, and wearing a blind bridle for the first time all year.

Benny Webster, may his name be forever blessed, was driving another colt by Speedy Crown, and he took the field to the quarter in 30 seconds. That was all the help Howard needed, and he cut it the rest of the way to the winner's circle.

You only get a day like that once, if you're lucky. And that one day is enough to last your for the rest of your life.

What brought on this attack of nostalgia was reading about the filly Special Way, whose dam is named Special Hill. That rang a bell because I once owned a mare with the same name.

My Special Hill was a foal of 1969. She was by B. F. Coaltown, and out of Scotch Hill, by Hoot Mon. She was a good producer for us, she had three hundred thousand dollar winners in a day when there were no slot machines to beef up the purses.

The current version of Special Hill is off to a great start with her daughter Special Way. As a 2-year-old this season, Special Way has already won $397,125, with a record of 1:52. Her sire is Walner.

And she happens to be the second foal of her dam. Now, one caution: When you're looking at pedigrees, don't ever make the mistake of thinking that anything you happen to find is a coincidence.

The first rule in the Detective's Manual is that there is no such thing as coincidence. And that is an absolute.

Vivid Wise As wins Gran Premio Delle Nazioni in Milan

by Thomas Hedlund

Alessandro Gocciadoro-trained Vivid Wise As (Yankee Glide) continues to score in big European races for the older elite. On Saturday (Oct. 22) afternoon, Matthieu Abrivard drove the 8-year-old Italian-bred trotter to victory in the $220,000 Gran Premio Delle Nazioni in Milan.

Vivid Wise As was served a perfect pocket trip by Abrivard and when the duo left the back of stablemate Vernissage Grif, the leader was defenseless.

Vivid Wise As captured the second title in the race in a mile rate of 1:56.2 over 1.4 miles.

And harness racing in Italy continues with the $300,000 Orsi Mangelli 3-year-old race in Turin on Tuesday (Nov. 1).

Twenty horses in two elimination heats chase glory but the Italian Derby winner Dimitri Ferm is missing in the entries list. Five horses from each elimination will enter the final the same day.

B-RACES SCHEDULED

The four preparing B races ahead of 2023 year's edition of Prix d'Amérique are scheduled at Vincennes' race cards this autumn and winter.

Paris' winter meeting starts in November and on the 20th, the $120,000 Prix de Bretagne paves the way towards Prix d'Amérique 2023.

As usual, it's the top three horses in each B-race that qualify for the big race in the end of January next year and the $120,000 Prix du Bourbonnais follows on Dec. 11.

December 24 is the day when 4- and 5-year-old trotters get their chances to reach the Prix d'Amérique. The $200,000 Criterium Continental for 4-year-olds and $200,000 Prix Tenor de Baune for 5-year-olds are both scheduled at Christmas and on New Year's Day (Dec. 1), $120,000 Prix de Bourgogne will be held.

Two weeks before the $1,000,000 Prix d'Amérique, on Jan. 15, it's the last qualifying race when the $120,000 Prix de Belgique is on Vincennes' race card.

January 29 is the date for Prix d'Amérique.

Charlie Keller III leaves legacy bonus for Breeder of the Crown mare trot champion

by Hambletonian Society

Charlie Keller III was a generous and benevolent man in life, who passionately supported the sport of harness racing. Besides carrying on the legacy of his father's Yankeeland Farms breeding and racing empire, he was an accomplished athlete and a devoted supporter of the racing industry. His many contributions included serving as a director of the Hambletonian Society for 20 years and as chairman of the executive committee, as well as his five-term tenure as a District 11 director for the U.S. Trotting Association (USTA) and integral member of that association's Finance Committee. Coupled with the family's Yankeeland Farm legacy, Charlie's accomplishments and sterling character were acknowledged by his peers with induction to the Harness Racing Hall of Fame in 2016, where he also became a trustee.

Upon his passing in 2021, Charlie left an honorarium to the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown to be gifted to the winning breeder of the Breeders Crown mare trot, a race that will bear his name on the memorial trophy.

For the next decade, the winning breeder of the Crown mare trot champion will receive the Charlie Keller Memorial Award, a $10,000 bonus.

The $350,000 Breeders Crown mare trot takes place on Saturday (Oct. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park in Campbellville, ON as one of 12 year-end championship series. The 2022 edition attracted eight of the top distaffers in North America, with total earnings of over C$9 million. The bonus will be presented after the race to the winning breeder in the Diamond Creek Winner's Lounge by Keller nephew Dan Bittle.

"Most people who knew dad were well aware of his deep love and passion for our industry," said Charlie "Chaz" Keller IV. "This award will not only recognize and reward the breeders of truly great trotting mares that become Breeders Crown champions, but will also carry on the legacy that dad hoped to preserve by supporting and promoting our great sport of harness racing."

The event choice stemmed from arguably the most famous "Yankee" that Charlie's father bred in the early days of Yankeeland Farms of Frederick, Maryland. A daughter of Hickory Pride—Pert Yankee—Titan Hanover foal, Fresh Yankee was a $900 yearling purchase from the Yankeeland consignment. She would go on to race until 1972, and earn $1,294,252.

Hambletonian Society
The late Charlie Keller III.

Fresh Yankee was North America's first "million dollar" trotter and second in the world list only to the famous French mare Une de Mai. Her awards and victories would fill pages. Fresh Yankee was the season or world champion for seven consecutive years and retired as the leading money winning American Standardbred of all time.

Prior to the farm's dispersal, Yankeeland was responsible for the winners of nearly $70 million in purse money. In the Breeders Crown series their starters have banked more than $1.5 million, with Crown champions like Yankee Cashmere, Muscles Yankee, Strong Yankee and Yankee Slide. The Yankeeland-bred Hambletonian winner Muscles Yankee went on to be one of the most influential trotting sires in the sport, responsible for three consecutive Hambletonian winners in Deweycheatumnhowe, Muscle Hill and Muscle Massive.

To those who knew Charlie and his family and friends, it comes as no surprise that his legacy and generosity will continue to reverberate in the sport of harness racing long after his passing.

Tyler Jones set for Crown moment

by Ken Weingartner / USTA
media relations manager

Tyler Jones was in high school the first time his father, trainer Dustin Jones, won a Breeders Crown. Twelve years later, Jones will be in the sulky trying to win another for his dad.

Jones, a former social worker who turned to driving full-time in 2021, will sit behind Tactical Planner in Friday's (Oct. 28) $600,000 Breeders Crown championship for 2-year-old female trotters at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The filly, who finished eighth in last week's single elimination to grab the final spot in the field, will start from post two.

And while Tactical Planner will be a longshot in a group that includes elimination winner Special Way, Jim Doherty Memorial champ Instagram Model, and Peaceful Way winner Righteous Resolve, Jones needs only to think back to his father's victory in this event in 2010 with Martiniontherocks at odds of 30-1 for inspiration.

"You never know what can happen in a final," Jones said. "Especially with 2-year-old trotting fillies."

Tactical Planner and Jones have already provided a surprise this season, capturing the Pure Ivory Series final at odds of 67-1 in August at Woodbine Mohawk Park. It is the filly's only victory in eight races, but not for a lack of ability in Jones' eyes.

"She's a quirky filly," Jones said about the daughter of Tactical Landing—Dressed To Impress that he co-owns with Andrea Lea Racing Stables. "She's super talented, but all summer she just had an issue here, an issue there."

"Finally, we sort of settled everything up and we schooled her, and she was awesome. I thought her start when she came home in :27 (finishing fifth against 3-year-olds on Oct. 13) was maybe her best race."

Jones' father Dustin is no stranger to success. His past stars include 1994 Canadian Horse of the Year Emilie Cas El and O'Brien Award-winner Wheeling N Dealin, who won the second of the stable's two Breeders Crown trophies in the 2012 final for 2-year-old male trotters.

"Everyone says my dad is the most optimistic person they've ever met when it comes to horse racing," Jones said. "Anything can go wrong, but tomorrow is another day and another chance. That's how you have to approach it."

Jones graduated from college with a degree in criminology and was a social worker for five years while dabbling with driving on the side. This year, he has set highs with 635 starts, 42 wins, and $739,765 in purses. Overall, he has 162 victories and $1.42 million. He got his first win in 2016.

"After COVID hit, I told my parents that I couldn't do what I was doing anymore; I told them I had to get back into horses," said Jones, who turns 29 next month. "I figured it's easier to be a social worker at (age) 50 than a driver at 50. I always thought the horses were my plan 'B' but it turns out it was my plan 'A' and everything else is plan 'B'."

"I love it. I can't get enough of it. It runs in my pedigree."

No matter the outcome Friday, Jones is looking forward to his Breeders Crown appearance.

"I was talking to a friend, and he said some people drive their whole career and don't get to a final, so just enjoy it," Jones said. "That's the approach I'm going to take."

All four Breeders Crown finals for 2-year-olds will be held Friday at Mohawk. The finals for horses ages 3 and up will be Saturday. Racing begins at 7 p.m. (EDT) both nights.

Beatson family excited as So Much More heads to Breeders Crown

by Ken Weingartner / USTA
media relations manager

A year after experiencing the frustration of having to scratch So Much More from the Breeders Crown mare pace at The Meadowlands because of sickness, the Beatson family is enjoying the excitement of having its Canadian millionaire in this year's final at Woodbine Mohawk Park.

So Much More, a 6-year-old daughter of Big Jim—Ladysai, finished second by a nose to defending U.S. Horse of the Year Test Of Faith in their Breeders Crown elimination this past weekend at Mohawk. She will start Saturday's $400,000 final from post two with regular driver James MacDonald in the sulky.

She heads to the race with 54 wins in 119 career starts and C$1.1 million in purses. She has finished in the top three a total of 93 times, with 12 of her 28 second-place finishes coming by a neck or less.

"She's been a winner," said Don Beatson, an Ontario native who trains and co-owns So Much More with his son Kenneth and grandson Cole England.

"She's consistent," England added.

"She's got a good heart, and she's pretty fast too," Beatson continued. "All of the mares opens and preferred races here, just the amount she could win, that's what is so impressive. That she could stay at the top like that. She wins them all the time."

So Much More, who received the 2020 O'Brien Award for best older female pacer, has won the past seven opens or preferred handicaps for fillies and mares that she has competed in at Mohawk. Over the years, she also has defeated the boys at the preferred level.

Beatson purchased So Much More early in her 3-year-old campaign in 2019. The mare, who began her career on Prince Edward Island racing for breeder Doug MacPhee and trainer Tom Weatherbie, won her first four races for her new connections and went on to capture the Ontario Sire Stakes Grassroots Series championship.

New Image Media

Local favorite So Much More (James MacDonald) looks to upset Test Of Faith in Breeders Crown mare pace.

"I saw her for sale on the internet and we decided to go for it," Beatson said. "If you're in the business, you're always looking for a horse. She was Ontario-bred, that is what made it for us."

Last year, the family was looking forward to sending So Much More to The Meadowlands for the Breeders Crown. She received a bye to advance directly to the final, but just before departing for New Jersey, she was found to be sick.

"We were all set to go, we were all keyed up for that," Beatson said. "It was very disappointing."

So, what does it mean to advance to this year's final?

"It's amazing," Beatson said. "We're loving it."

So Much More was the 6-1 second choice in her elimination, and just missed against Test Of Faith as they hit the finish line in 1:50.1.

"She raced big," Beatson said. "It didn't surprise us. We knew she would be something like that. In the late stages, I thought she was going to win."

"That was a good one," he added. "And we'll hope for another good one (this) week."

TEST OF FAITH LOOKS TO BE FIRST

No female pacer has ever won a Breeders Crown at age 3 and returned to capture the mare pace the following year. But that is what Test Of Faith will try to accomplish Saturday from post one with David Miller in the sulky for trainer Brett Pelling.

Test Of Faith won last season's Breeders Crown for 3-year-old filly pacers and brings a five-race win streak to this year's mare pace final. She won her elimination by a nose over So Much More.

"That's not typically how we see her, but believe it or not, she was never going to lose," Pelling said about the close finish. "She's traveled a lot. Compared to pretty much all the other mares in the race, she's the one that's gone to every race. It was a pretty hectic schedule for a couple of weeks."

"She will stay up there (in Canada) and have a restful week and I think that will really put her right back on her game."

Test Of Faith has won 11 of 17 races this year, including the Milton Stakes and Roses Are Red, both at Mohawk. For her career, the daughter of Art Major-Cannae Cammie has finished no worse than second in 41 of 42 starts, winning 33.

"That (elimination) field, it was stacked," Pelling said. "The four horses to beat in the entire thing were all in the same race. I was happy with her."

"If there was anything disappointing, it was the draw. Drawing the rail there, it's just not a great spot. But the one thing about her is that she's incredibly versatile. She is just one of those horses who can do anything."

CROWN CHAMPION IN TWO HEMISPHERES

Seven-year-old No Win No Feed A comes to Saturday's Breeders Crown mare pace looking for a trophy in North America after being a Breeders Crown champion in Australia at ages 3 and 4. She was voted Australia's top 3-year-old filly pacer.

No Win No Feed A finished second to Grace Hill, beaten by a head in 1:51.2, in her Breeders Crown elimination at Mohawk. Andy McCarthy will drive her from post seven for trainer Erv Miller and owner Doug Overhiser in Saturday's final.

"She's a nice mare," Miller said about the daughter of A Rocknroll Dance—Designer Rose. "Hopefully she can be good Saturday night, get the right trip and get it done. Doug has been buying a lot (of horses from Down Under) and we've been having some luck with them. She's a really nice big, strong mare. We took our time getting her ready to race over here, and she's coming around good."

No Win No Feed A has won 10 of 28 races and earned $201,634 in her first season of racing in North America.

All four Breeders Crown finals for 2-year-olds will be held Friday (Oct. 28) at Mohawk. The finals for horses ages 3 and up will be Saturday (Oct. 29). Racing begins at 7 p.m. (EDT) both nights.

Gingras grand slams in Massachusetts Sire Stakes

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

It was Million Dollar Monday (Oct. 24) at Plainridge Park as eight fields of finalists vied for $125,000 each to determine this year's Massachusetts Sire Stakes champions. Rain and off-going greeted the horses but outstanding performances were still put forth as the uber-competitive Massachusetts breeding program produced winners for eight different trainers representing eight different ownership groups.

The one common denominator to the day was the performance of Yannick Gingras who for the second year in a row dominated the finals, winning four races to register a championship grand slam.

The following is a synopsis of the day's events and a closer look at the winners.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROTTING CHAMPION

Inter Mischief (International Moni—Blinded By Lindy)

Owner: Frank Chic and Jamie Lee Sullivan

Trainer: Jamie Sullivan

Driver: Kevin Switzer Jr.

Breeder: K R Breeding

Mutuel: $3.80

Te Amo Lindy (Yannick Gingras) took early control in a speedy :27.4 while Yo Lucky Moni (Jimmy Whittemore) drafted in second. Positions remained unchanged to the half where Kevin Switzer Jr. pulled Inter Mischief from third and powered to the lead by the three-quarters in 1:27.4. From there Inter Mischief was in full command and trotted under wraps to the wire on top by 2-½ lengths in 1:56.3.

Tom Melanson

Inter Mischief (Kevin Switzer, Jr.) won the 2-year-old trotting colt championship in 1:56.3.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROTTING CHAMPION

Pembroke Moni (International Moni—Possessed By Lindy)

Owner: William Varney

Trainer: Mark Ford

Driver: Scott Zeron

Breeder: Lindy Farms of Connecticut

Mutuel: $5.20

The Wise One (Bruce Ranger) got off to a fast start from post eight and took the early lead. But Scott Zeron came quickly with Pembroke Moni and took the front by the :29 quarter. Pembroke Moni continued on the front to the half where Milliondollarwall (Yannick Gingras) was charging on the outside. Milliondollarwall grabbed the front and trotted a strong :28.4 third quarter and took her lead to the top of the stretch. There, Pembroke Moni came back out on the attack, took the front and held off a fast closing The Wise One to win by a length in 1:57.3.

2-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACING CHAMPION

Dame (Dude's The Man—Seat By The Window)

Owner: Stephen Richard

Trainer: Jolene Andrews

Driver: Jim Hardy

Breeder: Stephen Richard

Mutuel: $2.40

Dame was sent right for the lead by Jimmy Hardy and took it from Seafood Beauty (Jay Randall) as they passed the quarter in a swift :27. From there Dame led by an open length through quarters of :56.4 and 1:25.3 and extended her lead to two at the top of the stretch. Heading to the line, Dame was on cruise despite a valiant late effort from Yes I'm Hungry (Yannick Gingras) and won by 1-½ lengths in 1:54.3.

2-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING PACING CHAMPION

Rooster Bennett (So Surreal—Teddy Ballgirl)

Owner: Nancy Longobardi and Domenic Longobardi

Trainer: George Ducharme

Driver: Yannick Gingras

Breeder: Nancy Longobardi and Domenic Longobardi

Mutuel: $3.40

Good Will Lindy (Shawn Gray) and Rooster Bennett (Yannick Gingras) argued for the front off the gate with the latter getting the lead by the quarter in :26.4. As a torrential downpour was in progress, Rooster Bennett continued to the half in :56 on top by three lengths as Good Will Lindy started to lose touch. At that point Kevin Switzer Jr. tipped Luke McGook from third and started to close the gap. Luke McGook caught up with Rooster Bennett around the last turn and the pair squared off down the lane. But Rooster Bennett swelled up and pulled away and won by 2-½ lengths in 1:54.3.

3-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROTTER CHAMPION

Dancin On The Wall (Walner—Lovely Lindy)

Owner: K R Breeding

Trainer: Domenico Cecere

Driver: Yannick Gingras

Breeder: K R Breeding

Mutuel: $4.20

Yannick Gingras left with Dancin On The Wall from post seven and settled in third as Just Liv Broadway (Luke Hanners) took the field to the quarter in :28. Positions remained unchanged to the half when Gingras went on the offensive with Dancin On The Wall and was moving up the outside towards the leader. The two trotters engaged up the backside with a :28.2 third panel, continued around the last turn and into the stretch where Dancin On The Wall got the advantage and the win by one-half length in 1:56.1.

3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING PACING CHAMPION

Striking Impact (Always B Miki—Aunt Caroline)

Owner: Fox Racing, Nickerson Racing and Drew Monti

Trainer: Candace Brandstatter

Driver: Yannick Gingras

Breeder: Lindy Farms of Connecticut

Mutuel: $5.80

Dudes Sweet Bet (John Macdonald) won the 3-year-old pacing filly championship in 1:54.3.

It was a three horse charge for the lead that eventually saw Striking Impact (Yannick Gingras) take command in :26.2. But control was soon turned over to Treacherous Tom (Bruce Ranger) in front of the stands who kept the pace brisk with a :55.2 half. Motoring up the backside, Treacherous Tom took a three length lead on Striking Impact, who himself broke away from the field by four lengths. As they entered the stretch, Treacherous Tom was still in control but Gingras tipped Striking Impact and drove him hard all the way to the wire where he caught the favorite and won by one-half length in 1:53.1 to become a two-time Massachusetts Sire Stake champion.

3-YEAR-OLD COLT AND GELDING TROTTING CHAMPION

Bill Bauer (E L Titan—Miss Flaggy Meadow)

Owner: Paul Kelly, Joseph Palillo and Ellen Palillo

Trainer: Paul Kelley

Driver: Yannick Gingras

Breeder: East Pond Stable

Mutuel: $2.60

Moni's Heaven Cent (Jay Randall), Strongerwithlindy (Steve Smith) and Bill Bauer (Yannick Gingras) got away one-two-three in the field of seven and remained that way to the half in :58.1. Gingras tipped Bill Bauer from third heading into the backstretch and drew alongside Moni's Heaven Cent and the match race was on. The pair went stride for stride around the last turn and into the stretch and despite Moni's Heaven Cent's best effort, Bill Bauer muscled to the lead by three-quarters of a length to take the victory in a lifetime best 1:56 to become the second two-time Massachusetts Sire Stake Champion of the afternoon.

3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACING CHAMPION

Dudes Sweet Bet (Dude's The Man—Sweet Bettor)

Owner: Salvatore Vullo, Chris Lems and James De Armond

Trainer: Jessica Okusko

Driver: John Macdonald

Breeder: Triple C Stables and Chris Lems

Mutuel: $4.00

John Macdonald left with Dudes Sweet Bet and took the lead from the pylon-starting Wolverina (Nick Graffam). But Graffam was out and rolling almost immediately before the :27.1 quarter and had to work hard to gain control in front of the stands. Positions settled for the half until Shakeitoffscarlet (Kevin Switzer Jr.) came roaring first-over and pushed Wolverina to a :27.4 third quarter. That challenge lasted until the top of the stretch when Shakeitoffscarlet faded and Dudes Sweet Bet popped the deuce and ran down Wolverina at the wire to win by two lengths in 1:54.3.

Svanstedt scores in two Simpson stakes Sunday

Åke Svanstedt, who spent his weekend in Toronto, winning two Breeders Crown elimination races and qualifying three others for this weekend's $6M+ championships, promptly came back to Harrah's Philly on Sunday afternoon (Oct 23) and won the two divisions of the $106,600 Davidia Hanover, the John Simpson Sr. Memorial stake for 2-year-old trotting fillies, both via the uncovered route.

First to parade back to the winners circle with trainer/driver Svanstedt was Wild Jiggy S, a daughter of International Moni-Hot Mess Hanover who broke her maiden with a 1:55.2 victory. There were three horses across at the finish, with Wild Jiggy S getting the decision by a neck over pacesetter Ruth Honig, with favorite and pocket-sitter Park Slope coming up the inside only to be another head back at the finish. Wild Jiggy S, a half-sister to Breeders Crown elim winner Jiggy Jog S, is owned by Jorgen Sparradal Inc.

The road to the winner's circle was not nearly as difficult for Svanstedt and Pure Hope S, a foreign-bred daughter of Brillantissime-Final Hope, blitzing right by going into the far turn when moving uncovered and drawing away to a 6 3/4 length triumph in 1:54.4. Perry Soderberg owns the winner of three out of seven in her brief career.

$1,000 guaranteed superfecta Breeders Crown contest

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) is going to give away $1,000 in cash with its last Free Superfecta Contest of the season.

It all takes place Saturday night (Oct. 29) at Woodbine Mohawk Park in one of the Breeders Crown race finals that will be announced on Thursday.

The contest is free to everyone aged 21 and older (except USHWA members are not eligible to enter), and all you need to do is select the Superfecta (first four official finishers in the race) in the designated race.

The best part is that USHWA is going to give away the $1,000 cash no matter what. If no one selects the Superfecta, then we go to those that had the Trifecta or then the Exacta and if need be, we will draw the winners from those who picked the winning horses on top. Someone is going to win the $1,000 cash!

For complete rules and to enter the contest starting on Thursday, please go to Scott Alberg's Facebook page by clicking here. All entries for the $1,000 giveaway must be done on Scott Alberg's Facebook page.

USHWA is celebrating its 75th anniversary throughout 2022-2023 and will have other special events leading up to the USHWA Dan Patch Awards Dinner on February 19, 2023 at the Rosen Shingle Creek resort in Orlando.
