Does it all come down to the Breeders Crown for Twin B Joe Fresh?

by Debbie Little

MEADOWLANDS MATTERS

Twin B Joe Fresh and co-owner and driver Dexter Dunn after winning in Lexington in 2022.

Twin B Joe Fresh has been ranked No. 1 in the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll for 15 consecutive weeks and is currently viewed as the favorite for Horse of the Year, which will be announced at the Dan Patch Awards banquet in Orlando, FL, in February of 2025.

Following a second-place finish from the 10-hole in the lone Breeders Crown Open Mare Pace elimination on Saturday (Oct. 19) at The Meadowlands, the question of whether Twin B Joe Fresh needs to win in the Crown final to lock up HOY was discussed on social media.

Twin B Joe Fresh had a nine-race win streak going into her Crown elim. Her only previous loss being her first of the year in an overnight against a field of 4-year-old male competitors, where she finished second.

HRU spoke with co-owner/trainer Chris Ryder about the Crown elim and why he didn't take a bye.

"It happens," Ryder said about finishing second. "It's alright. We just got to keep doing our thing and I believe we'll be fine. We had a qualifier, and she's been alright before off a qualifier. Obviously, we had to race and here we go again, so she'll be all right."

“ I chose to race [Twin B Joe Fresh in the elims, rather than take a bye]. Obviously, it’s a little bit of a tricky situation, but no, I’d rather race. You refuse the bye not expecting to get a 10-hole [in the elims], of course. But that happens. That’s the way it is. It’s part of the risk, isn’t it? ”

~ Chris Ryder

“I chose to race [in the elims, rather than take a bye]. Obviously, it’s a little bit of a tricky situation, but no, I’d rather race. You refuse the bye not expecting to get a 10-hole [in the elims], of course. But that happens. That’s the way it is. It’s part of the risk, isn’t it?”

Had the daughter of Roll With Joe out of the Captaintreacherous mare Fresh Breeze won her elimination she would have earned draw protection between posts 1 through 6 in the final. So, going into Tuesday’s (Oct. 22) draw, Ryder was hoping to have more luck than he had had so far with some of his other Crown entrants.

“They’ve drawn two fields of my horses and one got a 9 and one got a 10, so I’m not doing too well,” Ryder said.

Ryder’s Miki And Minnie drew post 9 in the Breeders Crown 2YOFB, and post 10 with Tarrific in the 3YOFB prior to the Tuesday draw when Gem Quality got post 8 in the 3YOCP, and lastly, Twin B Joe Fresh, post 5, in the Mare Pace.

Even though his other three horses drew towards the outside of the gate, Ryder was happy with post 5 for the Twin B Joe Fresh whom he co-owns with her driver, Dexter Dunn, Peter Trebotica and Barry Spak, especially since it’s one of the winningest posts at The Big M. In terms of win percentage, the top post at the East Rutherford mile oval bounces between posts 5 and 6, with post 6 currently having a slight edge.

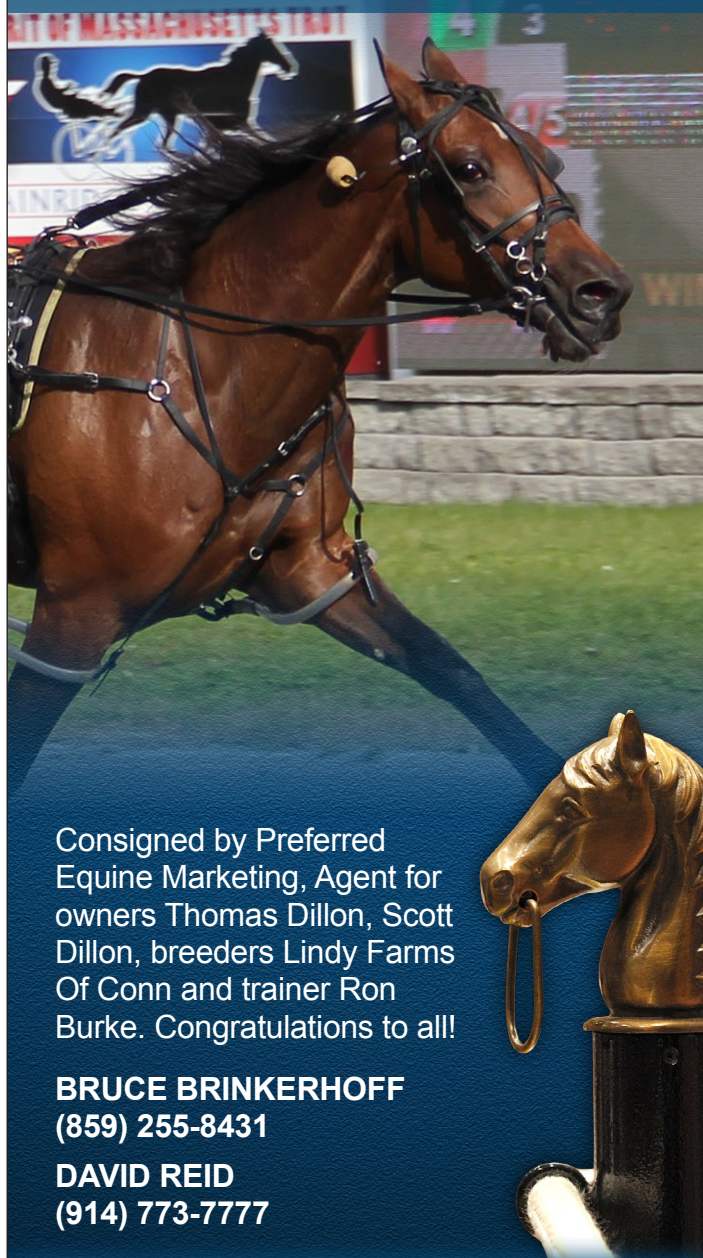

If the Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown poll, which came out on Tuesday before the draw, is any indication, going into tonight’s (Oct. 26) Crown finals, Twin B Joe Fresh’s HOY hopes are still looking good.

To be fair, even though she maintained 27 first-place votes, her overall point total dropped from 336 to 332, but she also widened the gap on her opponents. Jiggy Jog S – who was retired prior to the Crown elims due to an injury – although still second in the poll with seven first-place votes, saw her total points drop from 315 to 300. Off his Crown elim victory,

Captain Albano jumped up from fifth to third, going from 193 to 233 points, and Crown ineligible Chantilly, who is reportedly done racing for the year, dropped from third to fourth but gained 16 points to go from 210 to 226. Rounding out the top five is Nijinsky, who moved up in the poll from sixth to fifth after a close second-place finish in his Crown elim, although his total points dropped from 149 to 142.

This year for Twin B Joe Fresh has been nothing short of sensational with her nine seasonal victories coming in the Betsy Ross, Perfect Sting, Dorothy Haughton Memorial, Lady Liberty, Cleopatra, Milton, Dayton Distaff Derby and elim and final of the Roses Are Red. She has banked $627,062 for this season heading into tonight's finals; a good amount for a pacing mare that, unlike trotting females, doesn't race against males for much better purses.

But, if indeed Twin B Joe Fresh loses in the Open Mare Breeders Crown final, would she lose her top spot in the poll and for HOY consideration?

In recent years, both Tall Dark Stranger (2020) and Shartin N (2019) finished second in their respective Crown finals but still garnered Horse of the Year honors.

Whether Twin B Joe Fresh will race again this year, after tonight, remains to be seen.

"That depends on the final of the Crown," Ryder said. "I'm going to leave that on the table, so to speak."

Having a top horse like Twin B Joe Fresh is nothing new for Ryder, who will be inducted into the Hall of Fame in Goshen in July. But to be on top at the end of the year when the voting happens would be particularly meaningful as he has never had a Horse of the Year and is the only trainer to have a HOY runner-up three straight years: Bettor's Wish (2019), Party Girl Hill (2020) and Niki Hill (2021).

"Well, it'd be nice [for Twin B Joe Fresh to be Horse of the Year], but I don't want to get ahead of myself," Ryder said. "We'll just race, and we'll go from there. You know, [the voting is] out of my hands. All I can do is take care of my horse and here we go."

What could go down at tonight's Breeders Crown

by Brett Sturman

Continuing on from my thoughts on Friday's 2-year-old races, here is my take on the eight 3-year-old and open Breeders Crown races for tonight (Oct. 26) at The Meadowlands.

RACE 4: OPEN MARES TROT

While still acclimating to North American racing, Nelsonbriteagle NO came up a little short against a few of these over the summer, but it looks like a different ballgame right now. As one of two opportunistic late supplements in this division following the injury to Jiggy Jog S, she had won two in a row prior to the Allerage in Lexington, and her recovery in that race was nothing short of spectacular. After being down probably over 20 lengths following an early break, she only lost by a neck to barn mate, rival, and co-supplement, Call Me Goo. Any semblance of her last couple seems like it would be plenty good enough to beat these. M-M's Dream hasn't had quite as strong a year this time around as she did last year but is still to be respected and comes off a confidence building win at Hoosier. Refined has a knack for stepping up in spots like this, invades from Ohio for Morgan. Tactical Mounds won in 1:49.4 over this track earlier in the year but has been dusted the last two times by the top choice.

Picks: Nelsonbriteagle NO, Tactical Mounds, Call Me Goo

RACE 5: 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT

In one of the more wide-open contests, Willys Home Run is a live price play from the rail. After showing early trot last week as a 22-1 longshot, she was quickly shuffled out of it but came on really well with a late charge to out close everyone. She was second to Drawn Impression from a bad spot in the Simcoe and seems overdue for some better racing luck. Drawn Impression will be the deserving favorite after besting Date Night Hanover last week. Both fillies took some time to clear to the lead in that elimination, but Blais' filly was even better en route to taking a 1:51.1 lifetime mark. You could say that maybe R Melina "bounced" a little last week in losing at odds of 2-5 following that unbelievable front-end win in the Kentucky Filly Futurity but still only lost by a neck, will be interesting to see how she responds. Allegiant went the mile of her career in her elimination win over R Melina coming on the barn change from Beachy to Toscano. Warrawee Michelle seems almost forgotten from post 10 but always takes action.

Picks: Allegiant, Willy's Home Run, Drawn Impression

RACE 6: 3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE

Is it just me or did the elimination race times for this division go comparatively slow to all the other races that night? My Girl EJ was coming off a lifetime best 1:48.1 win two back but really had to fight hard for that win last week to prevail by a neck over a game Collusion Hanover in 1:51. No slip-ups allowed in this competitive group if she wants to repeat as a Breeders Crown champion. Its A Love Thing was blocked for her life last week before finally getting through too late, will be my tepid pick. Direction was second to My Girl EJ two back in the Glen Garnsey and may have been beaten to the punch for an opening last week by longshot Asweetbeachhere. Caviart Belle was also knifing her way through late in that same race and looked better than she did throughout September. Rocket Deo is another that couldn't replicate her Red Mile feats from the start prior and at least will offer a higher price this time around for those that want to try her back. Disney will track from off the pace and look for similar late heroics.

Picks: Its A Love Thing, Direction, My Girl EJ

RACE 7: 3-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT

Highland Kismet is lucky to draw well – let alone draw at all – into the race following the retirement announcement of Karl, and he will be a major player going second-time Tetrick. He was already passed by those couple of big longshots last week even prior to the break but he had a tough trip in his defense; better positioned now. T C I encountered no issues whatsoever in his elimination and looked like himself of old while coasting on the front-end off soft fractions; would have to think he'll be forwardly placed once again by Miller. Security Protected gapped along the inside last week but gathered some late momentum; Secret Agent Man chased T C I around from the 2-hole in that same elimination. As has been a theme, Sig Sauer was another that raced tremendously last out at The Red Mile but the Futurity winner couldn't reproduce the same try last out. Amazing Catch took a ton of action last week but couldn't get close to T C I. Tony Adams S is a wild card from post 10. He's another that had a ton of road trouble last week and if you toss aside the ridiculous :52.4 half-mile race from two back he's been very good.

Picks: Tony Adams S, Highland Kismet, T C I

RACE 8: OPEN PACE

Bythemissal has gotten sharper every start since he returned last month and made fairly easy work of it in his elimination after having to wait for clearance earlier to make it to the front. He has the post edge on his main rival in post 8 and could be set up to pounce should Ruthless Hanover be allowed to set the pace. Ruthless Hanover was able to hang on last week in a race where Miller did a good job to get separation from the field around three-quarters and Abuckabett Hanover did well to close but just had too much ground to make up in the lane. Indiana-bred Coach Stefanos came from a wide third-over to emerge out of the pack and close nicely when being second in his elimination to Bythemissal. It's My Show made a brief bid in his elimination against Bythemissal but was quickly repelled; Seven Colors goes second start off the month layoff and will get a new driver.

Picks: Bythemissal, Coach Stefanos, Abuckabett Hanover

RACE 9: OPEN TROT

Logan Park really has impressed in his last few; first winning the Dayton Derby three back and then kicking home twice in a row to pass Periculum, who had become one of the best open trotters since his return to the U.S. Logan Park swept everyone to win his Allerage coming from last, and last week as a tune-up, he trotted a final quarter of :25.4. For what it's worth he has the age advantage on some of the 4-year-olds in here and will leave it to McNair who picks up the livest of drives to overcome the outside post. The resume of Winner's Bet this year speaks for itself and his mark of 1:49.3 came over this track earlier in the year in a Graduate split, Dunn's pick over Logan Park. Periculum continues to fire honest efforts every race for Melander and is entirely playable too; could come down to the trip. Oh Well won that prep race last week but things look trickier here from the second tier. Ari Ferrari J has earned a try here off recent Yonkers form; It's Academic was better last year but will offer a price for Burke.

Picks: Logan Park, Periculum, Winner's Bet

RACE 10: 3-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE

That was some show put on last week between Mirage Hanover and Nijinsky. Those two locked up at about three-quarters and had it to themselves, nearly inseparable the rest of the way with Mirage Hanover ultimately getting the better of the Meadowlands Pace runner-up by a head. Those two will line up from the two inside post draws and it'll be interesting to see if they push each other early. Captain Albano won his elimination last week in the faster time of 1:48.1 and a lot of credit should be given to him for versatility. Probably known more as a five-eighths mile horse due to his success in PA, he since won the Jug on a half-mile track and then put up a career best 1:48.1 at The Meadowlands. Captain Luke actually took a pretty good shot at Captain Albano in his elimination and wasn't disgraced whatsoever in finishing second; larger problem now is the outside post. Gem Quality upset in this race last year and would benefit from a lively pace.

Picks: Mirage Hanover, Captain Albano, Nijinsky

RACE 11: OPEN MARES PACE

A win here by Twin B Joe Fresh would likely clinch Horse of the Year honors. She was beaten in her elimination by a former familiar rival in Grace Hill which snapped a nine-race win streak. You could say that maybe post 10 and a :26 and change quarter contributed to the loss, but maybe it was just her time to lose. I'd be surprised if she doesn't return back to winning ways. Grace Hill stepped up huge last week and gathered steam late to go past Twin B Joe Fresh from the pocket; seems like she'll be well-positioned enough once again to take her chance. Silver Label was only a length down to Twin B Joe Fresh a few back in the Milton and invades off a confidence building win at Woodbine Mohawk Park; had some successful moments here last year. Sylvia Hanover has her work cut out for her.

Picks: Twin B Joe Fresh, Silver Label, Grace Hill

Sophomore filly pacers look for key Crown win

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

When it comes to tonight's (Oct. 26) $600,000 Breeders Crown final for 3-year-old female pacers, the adage that "It all comes down to the Breeders Crown" seems particularly relevant to trainer Brett Pelling.

Pelling will send out four fillies in the field of 10 at The Meadowlands. Ron Burke-trained My Girl EJ is the 2-1 morning-line favorite, followed by five horses listed at no more than 8-1, including three from Pelling's stable: Rocket Deo, Direction, and Disney.

My Girl EJ, an elimination winner last week, is the season's fastest sophomore filly pacer, with a mark of 1:48.1. Its A Love Thing (the 7-2 third choice) and Rocket Deo (3-1 second choice) are not far behind, at 1:48.2 and 1:48.3, respectively. Fan Hanover Stakes winner Its A Love Thing is the division's richest horse, with $572,408. My Girl EJ and Rocket Deo have both surpassed $400,000 and Direction has nearly reached that level.

Dave Landry

My Girl EJ (Dexter Dunn) winning the Glen Garnsey Memorial on Oct. 6 at The Red Mile.

"When they say that it all comes down to the Breeders Crown, I think it definitely does for the 3-year-old fillies," Pelling said. "Its A Love Thing, Rocket Deo, My Girl EJ, and, if Direction wins, she will have won the two highest purse money stakes for the 3-year-old fillies. So, her hat is in the ring. Any one of those four fillies, to me, could be filly of the year. I don't know if anyone else thinks that way.

"It's an interesting race. My Girl EJ will be the favorite; she deserves to be. It will be a good race. I see at least four horses pushing out of there hard."

All Breeders Crown finals for 2-year-olds were held Friday at The Meadowlands. The remaining eight finals will be tonight at The Big M. First-race post time is 6:20 p.m. (EDT). Fox Sports will air coverage tonight from 7:30-11 p.m. on FS2.

Rocket Deo finished fifth in her elimination last week, which was won by stablemate Disney at odds of 66-1. Rocket Deo, a daughter of Captaintreacherous—Rocklamation, was a nose from unbeaten in her previous seven races. Her wins included divisions of the Glen Garnsey Memorial and Bluegrass Stakes at Lexington's Red Mile.

"She was sick coming back from Kentucky and I missed a week with her, which is really out of character for her. That's just not what she does," said Pelling, whose 13 lifetime Breeders Crown triumphs are tied for fourth in history. "She was good a couple of days prior to the race, but I think the week in the interim, it just wasn't a good week for her."

Direction also was fifth, missing by less than two lengths, in her elimination, which was won by My Girl EJ. She was no worse than second in 10 of her remaining 11 races this season, with her seven victories including the $400,000 Kentucky Sire Stakes championship. She was second to My Girl EJ in a Garnsey division in her start prior to the Breeders Crown elim.

"She's never put in a bad race," Pelling said about the daughter of Always B Miki—Blood Red. "I do believe that if she got through the other night, she wins. She was the one with all kinds of pace. She was just shaking her head trying to find a spot."

Disney, a daughter of Always B Miki and two-time Breeders Crown champ Pure Country, rallied from the back of the pack to win her Crown elimination by a head. She raced in the Kentucky Sire Stakes Golden Rod Series, the third of the KYSS levels, before moving up to take on Grand Circuit horses in a division of the Bluegrass, which she won, in September.

"She's just a big, strong, easygoing filly," Pelling said about Disney, who has six wins, four seconds and a third in 11 starts. "She's still learning how to race. She's just really working it out. I kind of expect that she learned a bit the other night as well. I think she liked doing it that way, and she's drawn for it to be the same way again. I know there will be a better group of better horses in front of her, but if they go crazy, who knows."

Disney will leave from post 6 with driver Tim Tetrick, Direction from post 4 with Todd McCarthy, and Rocket Deo from post 7 with Andy McCarthy.

Pelling's remaining starter, Sweet Gal, will leave from post 9 with Scott Zeron. The daughter of Sweet Lou—Beach Gal has hit the board in 12 of 16 seasonal races, winning three and earning $180,170.

"They're doing well this week," Pelling said. "Father Time has kind of taken care of some of the issues I had last week. I think they'll be the best they can be. That's all I can ask for."

Lady Landia astounds in Crown rookie filly trot

by Frank Cotolo for the Breeders Crown
additional quotes from Debbie Little

Lady Landia, with James MacDonald at the lines, soared late to catch Miss Belmar and win the $700,000 Breeders Crown 2-year-old filly trot final, on Friday (Oct. 25) at The Meadowlands, in a career-best 1:53.3.

Miss Belmar (driven by Andy McCarthy) took the early lead into the first turn, with Aperfect Annie (Todd McCarthy) early lick settling for second spot and Lady Landia trotting easily in third. In the contest for early positions, Luna Lovegood (Dexter Dunn), the overwhelming favorite, galloped while showing an aggressive move off the gate but was eliminated from competition thereafter.

“[Luna Lovegood] just got a little pacey in the first turn and went off stride,” Dunn said. “She’s usually really good-gaited but these are 2-year-olds and it’s just a shame for it to happen tonight. She was very good afterwards, though [finishing sixth]”

Miss Belmar dug in to maintain the lead to the half in :57.1 while the only movement from behind was from Delaney Hanover (Tim Tetrick), followed by Sound Judgement (David Miler). But the leader put some distance between herself and the rest to cut three-quarters in 1:25.4.

Down the stretch, Lady Landia was full of trot, and MacDonald moved her to the outside and chased with gusto.

“Our chances felt good at the five-eighths,” MacDonald said. “I told myself to hold on and don’t fall off. I was surprised she was loaded heading for home.”

Miss Belmar held on for second; Sound Judgement closed late to take the show spot.

MacDonald, who scored his first Breeders Crown win, was picked to drive Lady Landia late by trainer Åke Svanstedt and was happy because “[Svanstedt] always has his horses ready.

Asked when he found out he was down to drive, MacDonald said, “When the sheet came out. [Svanstedt] never asked me before. I’d driven a few for him so it’s just that you see your name down and do your thing.”

Lady Landia, a daughter of Tactical Landing out of the Chapter Seven mare Seventimesalady, was bred by Svanstedt in partnership with Jeff Gural's Little E LLC, Knutsson Trotting and L Berg Inc., and is owned by Svanstedt, Little E and Santandrea Inc.

It was her fourth win in eight freshman starts after breaking in the New Jersey Classic Final and losing as the favorite at the Red Mile in an International Stallion division. Sent off at 12-1, she paid $26.60 to win.

The championship win spiked the filly's earnings to $426,300.

MacDonald said, "It's amazing winning a Breeders Crown trophy after many tries.

"I've had a lot of luck the last few years in Canada, but I've never really dipped my toes into a lot of Grand Circuit here in the United States. This year, I've had a lot of good horses to drive and have been able to knock a few big races in America off my bucket list and hopefully just keep banging away, that's all I can do."

Miki And Minnie magical in freshman pacing fillies' Breeders Crown

by Ray Coto for the Breeders Crown
additional quotes from Debbie Little

Forced into a first-over push midway up the backstretch, Miki And Minnie never ceased in her grind for the front and forged forward to a decisive 1:50.2 knockout in the $700,000 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Filly Pace on Friday (Oct. 25) at The Meadowlands.

Driver Dexter Dunn sent Miki And Minnie from post 9 and found a position in fifth behind a :27.2 first-quarter skirmish wrapped with 1-2 favorite Looksgoodinloulou landing on the lead.

"You can't do much about [the draw]," Dunn said. "You've just got to go out there and race the horse. She earned it tonight. She had the toughest [trip] in the race and really deserved to win that."

With Rodeo Drive Deo swiftly angling from the pylons in seventh and marching forward, Dunn vacated his spot at the cones and began an advance towards Looksgoodinloulou into a :55.4 half.

Looksgoodinloulou braced for pressure from Miki And Minnie through the final turn and maintained control by three-quarters in 1:24. Miki And Minnie persisted spinning for home and stuck a head in front of Looksgoodinloulou, who soon folded from the battle, to then edge away to a 1¾ length victory. The Last Martini burst from a pocket trip to take second with Rodeo Drive Deo finishing third and Looksgoodinloulou holding fourth.

"I definitely felt confidence in her," Dunn said. "She just got better and better as the year went on. I thought her elimination last week was really good; we had to use her extremely hard the first quarter and half. The draw was a little bit of a worry, but I was out at [trainer] Chris [Ryder]'s farm this week, and [he] usually doesn't say much, but I've never seen him so confident in a horse. So that filled me with confidence."

Miki And Minnie, a homebred daughter of Always B Miki out of the Roll With Joe mare That's The Ticket, collected her fifth win from 10 starts and has now banked $671,750

Maryland becomes millionaire with Breeders Crown freshman trotting colt triumph

Maryland (Dexter Dunn) winning the Breeders Crown freshman trotting colt final in a stakes-record equalling mile of 1:51.4 on Friday at The Meadowlands.

by Jay Bergman for the Breeders Crown additional quotes from Debbie Little Maryland and driver Dexter Dunn fought off pressure on both flanks to prevail in the $700,000 Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Trot, held Friday (Oct. 25) at The Meadowlands, in a stakes record-equalling 1:51.4 mile. The son of Chapter Seven out of the Father Patrick-sired mare Crucial also pushed his career earnings above $1 million, making him the third-richest juvenile trotter of all time.

"Obviously, [Maryland is] a great horse and he's had a great year," Dunn said.

“[Trainer] Marcus [Melander] is just so good at having the horses ready for big races. He’s only had one soft qualifier since Mohawk. I think this was the first time I put him on the front end. He was a little lacksy-daisy there, but when the horses came at him, he fought them off really well.”

Maryland and Dunn left from post 2 and were out-sprinted in the early stages as Maximus Mearas S and driver Scott Zeron vaulted to the early lead and seated Emoticon Legacy in the pocket. David Miller had Super Chapter parked and pressing, and that pair took charge through the :27.3 first quarter.

Louis-Philippe Roy, driving Emoticon Legacy, was anxious and moved on the backstretch to gain control three-eighths of a mile into the race, followed closely by Dunn with the favored Maryland. The pace was moderate, and Dunn strolled to the lead past the :56 half.

Dunn and Maryland were quickly joined by Go Dog Go and Todd McCarthy, who applied severe pressure to get level with the leader through three-quarters in 1:24.3.

Dunn called on Maryland in the homestretch, and the Melander trainee dug in gamely – at times throwing his head in response to urging. That was good enough to stall Go Dog Go’s bid to his outer flank, but Maryland soon found company along the pylons as early leader Maximus Mearas S came charging boldly in the final yards. The wire arrived in time for Maryland, who used :27.1 closing speed to preserve his lead and leave Maximus Mearas S a neck short of the upset. Go Dog Go finished a well-earned third with Blank fourth across the wire.

For Maryland, bred by Hanover Shoe Farms and owned by the partnership of Courant Inc., PCW Racing, Holly Lane Stud East, and Steve Stewart and Robin Thorn Stables, the victory sewed up his championship season but will not be his last race of the year.

“We’re going to bring him back for the Kindergarten final here (at the Meadowlands) in a couple of weeks, and that will be his last start,” said Melander.

It was the second Breeders Crown victory of the night for Dunn.

“He fought hard to the wire,” said Dunn. “Marcus and Mattias have done a great job with him.”

Maryland paid $3.60 as the public choice.

Louprint upsets in freshman male pace to give Wrenn, Jr. first Crown triumph

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager
additional quotes from Debbie Little

Louprint wore down pacesetter Fallout in deep stretch and held off fast-closing stablemate Sippinonsearoc at the line to capture Friday's (Oct. 25) $700,000 Breeders Crown for 2-year-old male pacers in 1:49.1 at The Meadowlands. The margin was a head over Sippinonsearoc and q neck over Fallout in the three-horse photo.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. picked up his first Breeders Crown trophy by driving Louprint to victory for trainer Ron Burke.

The triumph was the 21st for Burke in the Breeders Crown. He leads all active trainers in victories, trailing only Jimmy Takter's 34 triumphs.

Louprint's time was one-fifth of a second off the stakes record, which was set in 2011 by the colt's sire, Sweet Lou.

In last week's elimination, Louprint was second by a nose to D A Love Boat Burke said he thought about changing drivers for the final, "for maybe for 15 seconds. After the race last week, I was, like, 'Son of a bitch, Ronnie' but then I've seen it a thousand times. When we've been on the front in the elimination and maybe took too much out of a horse, but I thought in the long run we were going to be okay with this horse and now let's just pray for a good draw.

"Then, he draws the nine. I said, 'I told you, that's why you've got to win those things!'

"[But] I have all the faith in the world in Ronnie. He knows what it takes to win. I'm very impressed, and I'm very happy for him also."

Despite being one of the top drivers in the Midwest, last week was Wrenn, Jr.'s first time driving at The Meadowlands. He scored his first Big M win earlier in Friday's card.

"Last week was my first-time ever racing here, which is crazy after about 30,000 races," Wrenn, Jr. said, laughing. "I'm just a midwestern kid, I guess. A horse like this, I told them when I qualified him that I'd travel anywhere he'd go because I thought he was special. It's a dream come true."

Fallout and Louprint started from posts 8 and 9, respectively, and both left the gate quickly to get favorable early positions.

Louprint got the lead midway on the first turn and brought the field to the opening quarter in :27.1. Fallout and driver Tim Tetrick, though, were already closing in and took over the top spot on their way to a :55.2 half. Fallout remained in front at three-quarters, reached in 1:22.3, but faced pressure from Louprint as they came out of the final turn.

The two colts battled down the stretch, with Louprint overtaking Fallout nearing the wire. Sippinonsearoc and driver Scott Zeron, who were sixth at three-quarters, closed on the inside with a :25.3 last quarter to get up for second in the final strides.

Louprint, out of the mare Rockin Racer, is owned by breeders Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci, and Phil Collura. He has won seven of 10 races and earned $737,939.

"This colt was trained at the farm, he didn't even go to Florida," Burke said. "All winter I kept telling the guys down in Florida, listen, we've got one up there that can beat all of yours. They said I was crazy. I told them, the best colt we've got is up there. We've battled all year between our group trying to see who's the best. Tonight, he gets to be the best."

Burke sent out four colts in the Breeders Crown. In addition to Louprint and Sippinonsearoc, he had Swingtown and Railroad Station.

"They're incredible; they're all good," Burke said. "They try hard. We even have some other ones that aren't in here that are really nice colts, but these guys are special. Sippinonsearoc, I have to give him credit. He just kept getting better and better all the way to the end here."

Sent off at 8-1, Louprint paid $18 to win.

SIRE STAKES REPORT

Massachusetts Breeders Stake finals had a record-breaking day

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

The $1.28 million finals of the Massachusetts Breeders Stake were held on Thursday (Oct. 24) afternoon at Plainridge Park and records of all sorts were rewritten throughout the program. Four stakes and two track records as well as four lifetime marks were either tied or broken during the stakes divisions that were contested for $160,000 each.

Quick notes from the afternoon show that Yannick Gingras was the leading driver with three stakes wins, seven different trainers each won one stake apiece and Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred five of the seven 2024 Massachusetts Breeders Stake champions.

In the non-betting 3-year-old filly pace, Every Mans Dream (Always B Miki—Lindy’s Nightmare) became a two-time Massachusetts champion after she destroyed the field in a record mile.

Gingras eased Every Mans Dream to the front and cut quarters of :27, :55.2 and 1:23.2 while Beantown Ace (Nick Graffam) followed in the pocket. As they entered the last turn, Every Mans Dream and Beantown Ace had separated themselves from the rest of the field. But then Every Mans Dream pulled away from Beantown Ace and flew home in a swift :27 flat final panel to win by 11¼ lengths in 1:50.2.

Tom Melanson Pepper Wow (Yannick Gingras) not only pulled off a 22-1 upset in the Massachusetts Breeders Stake final for 3-year-old trotting colts, he equalled the 1:53.3 stakes record.

The time tied the lifetime mark of Every Mans Dream, tied the track record and set a new stakes record for 3-year-old pacing fillies, breaking what she just set earlier this month.

Every Mans Dream is owned by Thomas and Scott Dillon and trained by Ron Burke.

Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred Every Mans Dream.

The 2-year-old colt and gelding trot went to current track record holder Belmondo (Walner—Love Lockdown) who brushed late to a convincing victory.

Moni Man (Brett Beckwith) took the lead and was followed by Castel Lindy (Gingras), Belmondo (Marcus Miller) and the remainder of the field through consistent quarters of :27.1, :56.2 and 1:26.4, with nobody pulling the right line. But as Moni Man headed into the turn, Gingras engaged Castel Lindy and Miller tipped Belmondo three-deep, and that top trio entered the stretch in a line across track. But it became quickly evident that Belmondo was full of trot and pulled away from the field before holding off a late closing My Degenerate (Andy Miller) to win by three-quarters-of-a-length in 1:55.3.

It was the third straight MBS win for Belmondo ($2.60) and owners Andy Miller Stable, One Legend Stable and Jean Goehlen. Julie Miller trained the winner, Belmondo and the place finisher My Degenerate.

Belmondo was bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut.

There was a major upset in the 3-year-old trot for colts and geldings when Pepper Wow (Crazy Wow—Tori Hall) tripped-out to victory at 22-1.

R Lady W (Scott Zeron) won the Massachusetts Breeders Stake final for 2-year-old trotting fillies with a 1:54.2 track record.

the stretch, where Beckwith tipped O'er The Ramparts and took dead aim on the leader. These two pacers were all out in the lane, but O'er The Ramparts had a little more in the tank and got up at the last moment to win by a neck in a lifetime best, 1:52.

The favored Keep Asking (Scott Zeron) took the lead as Pepper Wow (Gingras) tracked intently from second as Keep Asking set fractions of :27.2, :56 and 1:24.4 with only a mild bid from International Law (Marcus Miller) at three-quarters to contend with. Keep Asking rounded the last turn looking strong, but at the top of the lane, Gingras popped the deuce with Pepper Wow and powered by Keep Asking to win by three-quarters-of-a-length at the light in 1:53.3.

The time was a new lifetime mark for Pepper Wow and equaled the stakes record for 3-year-old trotting colts as well.

It was the sixth win of the year, but first MBS victory of 2024 for Pepper Wow ($46.00) who is owned and bred by Earl and Kathy Beaman in partnership with co-owner Shirley Michaud. Ivan Davies was the winning trainer.

The 2-year-old trotting fillies saw more records fall when R Lady W (Walner–Born Lindy) put in a dominating front end performance.

Zeron sent R Lady W for the lead and never looked back once crossing over. With Riviera Princess (Gingras) sitting the trip, R Lady W stepped off quarters of :27.3, :57 and 1:26.3 completely unchallenged. From there, R Lady W really turned it on and trotted her last quarter in :27.4 while pulling away by 5½ lengths in a 1:54.2 performance.

The time was a career best for R Lady W and also set new track and stakes records for 2-year-old trotting fillies.

R Lady W ($2.20) is leased by M&L of Delaware and trained by Linda Toscano.

Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred R Lady W.

The second upset of the day came in the 3-year-old colt and gelding pace where O'er The Ramparts (American Ideal–See To Believe) got up in the shadow of the wire at 17-1.

The favored Rocknroll Lou (Gingras) methodically made his way to the front while O'er The Ramparts (Beckwith) was happy to take the trip. Rocknroll Lou glided to the half in :55 and three-quarters in 1:23.1 with only a mild bid from Bang Ah Uey (Jimmy Hardy) at that last station. Rocknroll Lou took his short lead into

It was the sixth win of the year, but first in the MBS for O'er The Ramparts ($36.20) who is owned by Glenn Goller and Stephen Demeter and trained by Mark Beckwith.

O'er The Ramparts was bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut.

The 3-year-old trotting filly final went to the current MBS record holder Treatyofversaille (International Moni–Birthright) who captured her third consecutive stakes victory on Thursday.

Treatyofversaille (Bruce Ranger) got away third as Sassy Zaza (Beckwith) cut the quarter in :28.2. But Ranger was out and rolling early and put Treatyofversaille on the point before the :58.1 half. From there, Treatyofversaille fought off Dawn Of Lindy (Gingras) at three-quarters, turned for home and then held the tripping Sassy Zaza at bay late to win by 1¼ lengths in 1:55.4.

It was the sixth win of the year for Treatyofversaille ($3.60) who is owned and bred by Lindy Farms of Connecticut and trained by Domenico Cecere.

Another stakes record fell in the 2-year-old colt and gelding pace where Jon I Love Dat (Downbytheseaside–Franney Love Dat) was never headed as he claimed the crown.

Gingras took control easily from post 1 with Jon I Love Dat and had Digging For Gold (Graffam) shadow him from the garden spot. Jon I Love Dat paced smartly on the lead through quarters of :26.4, :55.4 and 1:24.3 with Digging For Gold breathing down his back. When they turned for home, Digging For Gold pulled to advance, but Jon I Love Dat just paced away from him and to a 2½-length victory in 1:52.3, setting a new stake record for 2-year-old pacing colts.

Jon I Love Dat ($6.20) is owned and bred by Robert Lovett and trained by Chuck Connor, Jr.

The 2-year-old pacing filly final was declared a “no contest” after It's Crunch Time made a misstep and fell in the first turn, causing interference to the trailing horses. All wagers on the race were refunded.

The horses and drivers involved were checked out and okay after the race and the purse money will be distributed according to USTA Rule 13.05 (e) 1, concerning no contest races.

HARNESS RACING PRESS RELEASES,
NOTES & ANNOUNCEMENTS

www.HarnessRacingUpdate.com

A grand Breeders Crown night on tap at Big M

The grandest of harness racing events, the Breeders Crown, continues tonight (Oct. 26) at the sport's grandest venue, The Meadowlands, as the 8 finals for 3-year-old and older horses of both sexes and gaits will battle it out in front of a national television audience on Fox Sports for purses totaling $7.296 million.

Live racing will be conducted tonight at The Big M with a first-race post time of 6:20 p.m.

"The Breeders Crown World Championships at The Meadowlands take an international stage this weekend on Fox Sports," said track chief operating officer/general manager Jason Settlemoir. "Horses, owners, trainers and drivers from around the world will meet, and everything, most notably Horse of the Year and divisional honors, will be on the line."

The Breeders Crown finals telecast tonight on Fox Sports 2 (FS2) from 7:30-11 p.m. Acacia Clement and Paul Verderosa will anchor the show from The Meadowlands while selections, analysis and interviews will be provided by Meadowlands' TV talent Jessica Otten and Red Mile jack-of-all-trades Gabe Prewitt.

THE LINEUP: There are eight Breeders Crown races that will be contested tonight (Oct. 26):

- Race 4 – $496,000 – Open Mares Trot (post time, 7:25 p.m.)
- Race 5 – $600,000 – 3-Year-Old Filly Trot (7:48 p.m.)
- Race 6 – $600,000 – 3-Year-Old Filly Pace (8:15 p.m.)
- Race 7 – $600,000 – 3-Year-Old Colts and Geldings Trot (8:40 p.m.)
- Race 8 – $600,000 – Open Pace (9:15 p.m.)
- Race 9 – $600,000 – Open Trot (9:42 p.m.)
- Race 10 – $600,000 – 3-Year-Old Colts and Geldings Pace (10:10 p.m.)
- Race 11 – $400,000 – Open Mares Pace (10:38 p.m.)

Complete entries can be found here.

CATCH THE CROWN: For coverage of the Breeders Crown in print, check out harnessracingupdate.com, drf.com/harness and harnesslink.com.

To watch live coverage of the crown, in addition to Fox Sports, a live feed will be available on The Meadowlands' YouTube and Facebook pages. Also, many ADW (Advance Deposit Wagering) sites – like the one offered at FanDuel.com – are a great place to catch the action as well as get your action.

The Meadowlands live in-house presentation will find Dave Little in the host chair on the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set sitting alongside Woodbine Mohawk Park multi-tasker Mark McKelvie, who was last seen at The Big M with Little on set analyzing the 2023 Hambletonian.

THAT'S A GUARANTEE: The wagering menu for the Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands will undoubtedly fire up the mile oval's loyal fan betting base, as there will be $300,000 in guaranteed pools up for grabs on the track's most popular multi-leg wager.

Tonight, the Early Pick-4 is guaranteed at $100,000 while the Late P4 will be at least $50,000.

Here is a look at what bettors can expect night in and night out when playing Meadowlands' races for the foreseeable future. These wagers sport a low 15 per cent takeout:

- 20-cent Pick-5: Race 1-5
- 20-cent Survivor Pick-7: Races 3-9
- 50-cent Pick-4: Races 6-9
- 20-cent Pick-6: Races 8-13
- 50-cent Pick 4: Races 10-13
- 10-cent Pentafecta (Hi-5): Race 14

The Meadowlands has added two superfectas to each card. There will now be 10 superfecta opportunities on 14-race programs. The minimum wager is one thin dime.

FA-REEE! To show appreciation to its loyal fan base, The Meadowlands offers free programs on every race of every race card on its website.

Go to playmeadowlands.com to get the past performances at absolutely no cost.

"X" MARKS THE SPOT: Everything Meadowlands is available by going on X (formerly known as Twitter). You can check in with the Big M team for early changes, racing information and staff selections by going to @themeadowlands or #playbigm.

Stay in touch with The Big M team of Otten (@JessicaOtten1), Little (@DaveLittleBigM), Ken Warkentin (@kenvoiceover) and John Rallis (@john_rallis).

POWERHOUSE PROMOTIONS: Tonight's Breeders Crown finals feature special promotions and events to complement the great racing:

- $1,200 Breeders Crown Hat Contest (Sign up from 6-7:30 p.m. in the Clubhouse Lobby with judging in the winner's circle following race 4. First Prize: $500; second place: $250; third place: $100; fourth place: $50. Bonus categories: $100 for scariest; $100 for funniest; $100 for best horse-themed costume).

- $10,000 Handicapping Contest ($100 betting card purchase required at contest check-in. Entry includes a live racing program. Format: Contestants must bet a minimum of five Meadowlands races. No minimum and no maximum bet per race. Open to any wager on the Meadowlands live wagering menu. This includes W/P/S, Exacta, Trifecta, Pick 3/4/5/6, Daily Double and Superfecta wagers. Contestants keep all pari-mutuel winnings. Unlimited entries allowed per person. Payouts: first – $2,500; second – $2,000; third – $1,250; fourth – $1,000; fifth – $750; sixth-10th – $500).

Breeders Crown to return to Woodbine Mohawk Park in 2025

The Hambletonian Society and Woodbine Entertainment on Friday (Oct. 25) announced the 2025 Breeders Crown will be held on Oct. 24 and 25 at Woodbine Mohawk Park in Campbellville, ON.

The $7 million-plus (USD) Breeders Crown will consist of 12 championship races.

Woodbine last hosted the Breeders Crown in 2022 and has hosted more Crown races than any other racetrack operator in the 42-year history of the series. A total of 164 Breeders Crown finals have been held across Mohawk Park, Woodbine Racetrack and Greenwood Raceway since the series was created in 1984.

The Breeders Crown finals for 2025 will be split over two-nights, with the four finals for 2-year-olds held on Friday (Oct. 24, 2025), and the eight finals in the 3-year-old and open divisions scheduled for Saturday (Oct. 25, 2025).

“The Hambletonian Society is proud to announce the continuation of our longstanding partnership with the Woodbine Entertainment Group,” said John Campbell, president and CEO of the Hambletonian Society, which owns and services the Breeders Crown races.

“The Breeders Crown returning to Woodbine Mohawk Park in 2025 continues their long-held tradition of offering the very best racing that the standardbred industry has to offer. The Woodbine Mohawk Park team and the Hambletonian Society are confident that the Breeders Crown will once again be a memorable event for horsemen and racing fans.”

The 2025 Breeders Crown will mark the sixth time Woodbine has hosted all 12 events in the same year (2022, 2019, 2015, 2012, 2011).

“Woodbine is eager to welcome back the Hambletonian Society and the very best in harness racing to Mohawk Park for the 2025 Breeders Crown,” said Michael Copeland, CEO of Woodbine Entertainment. “As a partner with the Breeders Crown since its inaugural year in 1984, we’re committed to being a host track and regularly adding this prestigious event to our world-class standardbred product.”

As one of the most coveted honors in harness racing, the Breeders Crown series has typically crowned champions in every division for trotters and pacers and been the deciding factor in Horse of the Year voting.

In addition to the Breeders Crown races, the event also includes the Breeders Crown Charity Challenge, which was first held in 2019 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. The Challenge has raised more than $1.8 million for charitable organizations in the host community.

Woodbine will announce further details regarding the 2025 Breeders Crown in the coming months.

Fundraiser held for Senator Sarlo at Fair Winds Farm

New Jersey Senator Paul Sarlo visited Fair Winds Farm on Wednesday (Oct. 23), where he was given a tour of the facility, watched the yearlings’ daily routine at the farm, and received more insight about the standardbred breeding industry.

The event for Senator Sarlo was hosted by the Standardbred Breeders and Owners Association of New Jersey and TrotPAC, the state’s standardbred industry’s political action committee. The event included a reception and fundraiser.

Senator Sarlo’s support has been vital as a co-sponsor of the initial five-year $100 million appropriation for the state’s horse racing industry, and especially for the recent renewal of the appropriations that the governor signed this year.

Among those joining Senator Sarlo for Wednesday’s event were SBOANJ president Mark Ford as well as fellow officers Anthony Perretti, Mike Klau, Julie Miller, and Al Ochsner. The group also included SBOANJ directors Bob Boni, Mike Gulotta, Mark Mullen, Chris Ryder, and Linda Toscano, plus drivers Dexter Dunn, Andrew McCarthy, Todd McCarthy, John Calabrese, and Patrick Ryder and trainers Nancy Takter, Jimmy Takter, Trond Smedshammer, Tom Fanning, Ron Coyne and Nifty Norman. Others from the industry in attendance included John Campbell and Moira Fanning from the Hambletonian Society and Jason Settlemoir from The Meadowlands.

Deputy Majority Leader representing District 36, Senator Sarlo has served in the State Senate since 2003 and is also the chairman of the appropriations and budget committee. He has been a huge advocate and ally of the horse racing industry.

Pressure Cooker, Staying With Emily win Pocono stakes

On Tuesday (Oct. 22), probably the last day the temperature will reach 80 degrees at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania for the next six months, Pressure Cooker (1:50) and Staying With Emily (1:50.2) won divisions of the $80,000 Hardie Hanover, the John Simpson, Sr. stakes for 3-year-old pacing fillies.

The Heston Blue Chip filly Pressure Cooker was away on the boil for driver George Napolitano, Jr., getting to the quarter in :26.2, getting a breather to the half in :55.1, then rattling off successive :27.2 splits to be three lengths clear at the finish while taking a new mark. The winner of three of her last four, all in stakes company throughout Pennsylvania (PA Stallion Series final at Philly, a Keystone stake at The Meadows, and now a Simpson stake here), Pressure Cooker is trained by Linda Toscano for Let It Ride Stables Inc., Odds On Racing, and Mac Nichol.

The Stay Hungry filly Staying With Emily made her way forward after hotly-contested numbers of :26.4, :55.;2, and 1:22.2 in her Simpson division, then held off the horse on her back, Parkavenuelisa (denying trainer Toscano a stakes double), with a neck success. Tyler Buter handled driving duties for trainer Ron Burke and owner Brad Grant.

In further testimony to the day's speedy conditions, eight trotters went in 1:55 or less in overnight races.

Matt Kakaley had four winners on the day, Tyler Buter and George Napolitano, Jr. three.

Simpson series stake action continues when Pocono next races live, today at 1 p.m., with over $237,000 in purses marked for three divisions of freshman trotting fillies and four of sophomore pacing males. Free Pocono program pages are or will be available at www.phha.org.

Crissman-Bier, Teague win titles as Harrington Raceway's 78th season ends

Harrington Raceway's 78th season of live harness racing came to a close Wednesday evening after a 15-race program.

End of meet honors highlighted the card as trainer Crissy Crissman-Bier notched her second training title, and Montrell Teague recorded his first driving title. Crissman-Bier took the lead in the standings in the fall and held off defending champion Joe Columbo, while Teague was back and forth with Corey Callahan for the lead before a four-win night Tuesday (Oct. 22) and a double Wednesday which helped secure the title.

On the closing night program, Allan Davis had three wins, including a victory in the $16,000 trotting feature with Moni Talks LLC's Not For Moni ($2.60) who was a 1:56.1 winner over The Strawboss and Mickey Muscles. The Brendan Davis-trainee recorded his third win of the season. Art Stafford, Jr. also had three wins on the card.

Live racing on the Delaware circuit will shift to Bally's Dover, who opens for live racing Nov. 4 (post time 4:30 p.m.) with racing on a Monday through Thursday schedule.

Virginia Breeders' $720,625 Championship Day card set for Sunday at Shenandoah Downs

Fields for the 27th annual Virginia Breeder's Championships are set for this Sunday (Oct. 27) at Shenandoah Downs and will help usher out the fall racing season in Woodstock. Eight divisional championships featuring 2- and 3-year-old pacers and trotters of both sexes will be carded on the front end of the 14-race card and run consecutively as races 1 through 8 beginning at 1:05 p.m. Combined purse money for the eight is $720,625. An additional six races will follow – including five Virginia Breeders Older races worth $20,000 each – bringing the afternoon's purse distribution to a record $830,625.

Kelsey Wagner's Brooksforreal set a new track record for 2-year-old gelding pacers in his October 13th Breeder's elimination win, then shaved nearly two seconds off that mark in last Sunday's elimination with a 1:54.1 effort. The Rusty's For Real gelding leads a field of eight in Sunday's $90,975 final for freshmen colt and gelding pacers. Corey Braden will drive for trainer John Wagner. Overshadowed a bit in this division is W. Hartt, H. Taylor, B. Dillon and J. Dumberger's Paxamillion, who snagged a first leg score in 1:56.3 then, when facing Brooksforreal last week in the second leg, had a solid runner-up finish crossing just 1¾-lengths behind. Luke Hanners will drive for trainer Britney Dillon.

Kelsey Wagner's Swervingmervin authored a track record last week as well in the 2-year-old colt/gelding trot category and leads a field of eight in the $92,175 final. The John Wagner trainee wired the field in 1:58.4 and crossed 1¾ lengths the best over Scott Woogen's Mane Man Charlie who scored a first leg elimination in 2:03.4, over Swervingmervin. The record holder will be piloted by Corey Braden while the latter will get the services of leading driver Fern Paquet, Jr. for trainer Gary Messenger.

Caviart Farms' Caviart Glory thumped the field in the 2-year-old filly trot's first leg, wiring the field by 20 lengths while setting a new track record in that division. The Greenshoe filly crossed in 1:59.4 and after cementing her spot in the final, took a pass on the second elimination a week ago. Trainer Philip Scott Sonstebly will be in the sulky in Sunday's $94,500 final from outside post 8. Other divisional winners include Jane Dunavant's Kat's Fancy and Song Master and Scott Woogen's KJ Breeze.

Four different freshman filly pacers won elimination races the past two weekends including Elwood Tignor's Mygirlmia, whose 1:57.1 clocking was fastest of the four. William Carter's Alexandria's Dream and Elwood Tignor and Deborah Mulligan's Toys Little Tinker – who each have seven combined first and second place finishes this year – recorded winning elimination miles of 1:57.4 and 1:58.4, respectively. The latter has bankrolled $60,500, highest figure of any entrant in the field. Dr. Edward Ward's Caviart Acadia collected the other elimination victory in 1:58.1.

All four divisional champions from the 2023 class return as 3-year-olds with hopes of defending their titles, though none reached the winner's circle in their respective eliminations.

Kelsey Wagner and Scott Woogen's K J Dash brings a field best bankroll of $221,011 into the $86,000 3-Year-Old Colt/Gelding Trot final. The Lockkeeper gelding is fresh off a pair of runner-up finishes in the eliminations. Debbie Warnick's Royal Beep Beep authored the fastest elimination win in 2:00.4. Other winners were Kelsey Wagner's Gerald's A Keeper, who is eight-for-10 in 2024, Jane Dunavant's Pretty Two and Dein Spriggs and Barbara Murphy's Caviart Grady.

Anne McDonald's Sweet Pirategirl has fared similarly. Last year's 2-year-old filly pacing champ has a second and third in 3-year-old Breeder's elimination races but is fresh off a dominant conditioned race win Oct. 13. Caviart Farm's Caviart Sophie has a pair of series wins including one in 1:54.1. Those two and five other entrants will battle in the $87,600 final on Sunday.

Kelsey Wagner's 2023 2-year-old colt/gelding champ Pete's For Real has a second and third in 2024 eliminations and his $101,682 bankroll tops the field. With only seven in this division, the first two weeks served as prep races, which were won by Tracy Bradshaw's Bgoing Away (1:56.4) and Lawrence Cooper's Caviart Simon (1:55.2). The $84,400 final has been carded as the sixth race.

Last year's 2-Year-Old Filly Trotting champ Rip Away enters the sophomore title bout with a pair of runner-up finishes from her eliminations. The Dusty Winner filly is one of two in the $90,000 final that sport a six figure bankroll. The other, Nanticoke Racing and Delbert Cain's Platinum Proposal, won both of her eliminations with Jim Morand in the bike. The Les Givens trainee has career earnings of $185,931. Other preliminary leg winners were Marna Shehan's Speedy Town and Howard and Linda Dege's Royal Robin.

Sunday's Breeders' Championship card will close out Shenandoah Downs' final weekend of the fall race meet. A 14-race card is scheduled for today as well beginning at 1:05 p.m.

Harrah's Hoosier Park 2025 racing dates approved

The Indiana Horse Racing Commission approved Harrah's Hoosier Park's 2025 live racing dates during their regularly scheduled meeting on Thursday (Oct. 24). Offering 160-days of live harness racing, the 2025 racing season will begin on Friday (March 14) and extend through Saturday (Nov. 29). Harrah's Hoosier Park will retain its standard post times of 6:15 p.m. on weeknights, and 7 p.m. for Saturdays during the 2025 racing season.

The 2025 season will closely mirror that of the 2024 race schedule, with a few minor changes agreed upon between both Harrah's Hoosier Park and the Indiana Standardbred Association. The March 14 start date is a week prior to that of the opening of the 2024 season. Racing will begin with a two-day (Friday and Saturday) schedule for the first two weeks of the 2025 season, a three-day (Thursday through Saturday) schedule the following two weeks, before beginning a four-day (Wednesday through Saturday) schedule on Wednesday (April 9). From there, the 2025 season will look much like 2024, with a five-day (Tuesday through Saturday) racing schedule from Tuesday (June 24) through Saturday (Oct. 25).

An additional change for the 2025 season is that there will be no racing on Wednesday (Aug. 6) to avoid overlapping with the Grand Circuit racing at the Indiana State Fair Grounds highlighted by the Fox Stake.

Included with the approval of the 2025 race dates was approval for special post times from many of Harrah's Hoosier Park's signature race dates. The cards for both the 32nd Dan Patch Stakes (Friday, Aug. 8) and eighth Caesars Trotting Classic (Friday, Sept. 19) will both begin at 6 p.m. as they did in 2024. Additionally, Harrah's Hoosier Park will once again offer a 4 p.m. post time on the first Saturday in May (May 3), splitting the card around the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs in efforts to introduce more of the Derby Day crowd to racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park. Post Time for the two remaining Triple Crown dates (Saturday, May 17 and Saturday, June 7) will be 7:20 p.m.

Stall applications for the 2025 racing season will be made available at a later date and additionally posted on the Harrah's Hoosier Park website.

For more information on live harness racing at Harrah's Hoosier Park, guests are encouraged to visit www.harrahshoosierpark.com.

Ohio Feature Race and Capital Improvement Grant applications due

The deadline for submitting 2025 Ohio Feature Race Grants and Fairgrounds Capital Improvement Grants is Thursday (Oct. 31, 2024).

All applications must be postmarked by the deadline to be considered.

The Feature Race Grant Program is designed to assist individual county fair race programs to increase the purse for a feature race or races. Applications must be submitted by the county fair seeking the grant.

The purpose of the 100 per cent matching funds Capital Improvements Grant Program is to facilitate construction and fund expenses for capital improvements to standardbred racing industry-specific buildings or structures, equipment, and maintenance and repair of facilities used in conjunction with live race day programs.

For complete details of both programs, visit the Ohio Harness Horsemen's Association website at www.ohha.com.

Oceanview Nikki sets track record in Maritime Breeders

Record setting was on the agenda for Oceanview Nikki in the Home Hardware Maritime Breeder's Stake Thursday evening (Oct. 24) at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The $12,050 Home Hardware Maritime Breeders stake for 2-year-old trotting fillies had Mike McGuigan trained stablemates Oceanview Nikki (driven by McGuigan) and Supreme Rockette (Gilles Barrieau) battle to the wire in a 1:59.3 final time. Blue Diamond Racing of Emyvale shares ownership of the EL Rocket—King Kong Kate filly with Josh MacDonald of Little Pond. The mile erased the former 2:00.1 2-year-old trotting filly track record held by Oceanview Rumours and establishes a new rookie filly Atlantic Sired record for the region.

Rocket Blast (MacPherson) had his win streak snapped at four-straight in the Home Hardware Maritime Breeders 3-year-old trot colt class for a $10,975 purse as Dusty Lane Darby (Adam Merner) snagged him in the stretch drive to win in 2:00.2. Merner trains the EL Rocket—Delta Dental colt for owners Herman McQuaid and Jared Perrot.

West River Jet overcame an early break to romp by 28-lengths in 2:00.4 in the Home Hardware Maritime Breeders stake for 2-year-old trotting colts. The $12,050 race had Kenny MacDonald driving the EL Rocket—Kaddys Angel colt for trainer Clare MacDonald and owner Haley MacDonald of Stratford. Stablemate Marcus Down Ridge (Clare MacDonald) finished second.

Driver Jason Hughes teamed up with trainer Ashley Gamester for a pair of wins with Century Kalima (1:59) and Fight Song (1:57.2). Hughes also won with Elm Grove Mistress (1:56) as part of a Jennifer Doyle training triple.

Driver David Dowling won three on the program including the opener with the Todd Walsh trained Talk Some Smack (1:57) and with the Doyle trained duo of Shake N Blake (1:56) and Woodmere Heather M (1:57).

Dusty Lane Wee (Marc Campbell) was the best in the Home Hardware Maritime Breeders for 3-year-old trotting fillies in 2:01.2 for $10,975 from the Lenny Myers barn for owners Ron Gass and Garry MacDonald. The dash was held as a non-betting race prior to the official program.

Live racing continues today at Red Shores Charlottetown with a special Home Hardware Maritime Breeders doubleheader with programs at noon and 6 p.m.
