Peter Wrenn and Paul MacDonell coming “home” again

Both drivers once gave the Meadowlands circuit a try and return this weekend to compete in the Breeders Crown.

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

In this weekend's Breeders Crown finals, driver Paul MacDonell has two shots with Duly Resolved and Beach Glass, while fellow driver Peter Wrenn has sophomore filly trotter Shirley Goodness.

Both once tried the Meadowlands full-time.

"I came here in 1986," MacDonell said. "I was just 24 or so. We were on strike in Canada. I had a couple of pacing mares and Robins Wonder, a nice trotter. I think I wound up staying three months or so before I headed back home. Great experience. The mecca-drivers like Campbell, Manzi, Case, O'Donnell were racing then. I was just an impressionable kid."

Wrenn came to the Meadowlands for the first time ever in July, 1994 and won the $200,000 Driscoll/Haughton with Under Orders and paid $66 on his first night at the East Rutherford, NJ oval.

He stayed a couple of seasons in New Jersey and it was in 1996 that he last won a Breeders Crown at Vernon Downs ending Moni Maker's win streak at 19 victories as a sophomore.

"That was great," Wrenn said. "My filly was second choice ($8.60) and was owned by George Steinbrenner. He treated me great. I had raced for him for a while. That was the same time the Yankees were in the World Series against the Braves. I watched from the owner's box one game and sat real close for the others.

I remember drinking a beer right on the dugout.”

MacDonell last won at the Meadowlands with Melmerby Beach in 2015. He also won with Melmerby Beach and Beach Glass’ sire Somebeachsomewhere, who wrapped up his career with his 20th victory in 21 tries in the 2008 Breeders Crown. Of course, the great SBSW had his lone loss in the Meadowlands Pace of 2008 after an epic duel with Art Official in a world record time of 1:47.

Wrenn drove four times in the 1996 Breeders Crown series and was 1-2-3-4 – twice having the longest shot in the field. He was second in a dead heat with 19-1 Jacs Choice at Yonkers.

“I had him as a yearling. Top horse. He would up racing for a long time,” Wrenn said. “The occasional open, too.”

Wrenn was third at the Meadowlands with Hi Ho Silverheels at 52-1 in the Open Pace.

“I trained him on and off. I remember he was a sub-1:50 winner at Hoosier back when that really meant something.”

Wrenn also finished fourth with Paige Nicole Q for Chuck Sylvester.

“I think she won an elimination (True). I won the Jugette with her.”

But what about Shirley Goodness this weekend?

“I was happy with her making it. She started pretty far off the gate. When David (Miller) turned her behind the gate she couldn’t hit a trot. Seeing how it worked out, I thought she did fine and finished up strong. She’s a healthy strong filly with a good heart.”

If Wrenn does win with Shirley Goodness, it’ll be 25 years between Breeders Crown wins. The current record for time between Crown wins is 13 years, set by Richard Silverman from 1986 with Masquerade to 1999 with Tyberwood.

As for Mr. MacDonell, Duly Resolved was second in the Mohawk Million and he was third in his Crown elim.

“He’s quite a handy horse – smart, too – and John Bax always does a good job. He’s got a shot.”

As for Beach Glass (second at 1-5 in his elim) from the final crop of SBSW, MacDonell is taking the quieter approach.

“He’s a contender. I’m optimistic. He has the tools to some nice things. High speed. He got started the same time that Beach shut it down at 2 in 2007. (SBSW) was not eligible to the Breeders Crown and he wound up with a good long rest into 3.”

MacDonell remembers a few others of note in his personal Crown history:

Bays Fella 1990 $140.60 at Pompano: “I wasn’t really thinking about winning it that year. I was just looking forward to the trip to Florida!”

Camotion: “One of the best horses ever NOT to win a Breeders Crown.”

Billyjojimbob: “He won going a big trip. It was an 11-horse field.”

Village Jiffy: “I wound up with him at 4. He had already won the Crown at 2. He was sharp and kind of flew under the radar. He won easily at Freehold against a field that included Riyadh. He had a great fall that year running the table.”

Jeremes Jet: “He was just beaten in his elim, but in the final that year he came back with a great trip and got loose to win going away.”

Brett Pelling bullet Breeders Crown facts

Trainer Brett Pelling won the Breeders Crown at Colonial Downs in 1998 with Juliets Fate as the favorite ($5.40).

That same year, his Armbro Romance was fourth when Galleria won it. Remember, they finished 1-2 in reverse order on June 27 that year in 1:49.4 the first ever sub-1:50 female mile.

Artsplace sired both Galleria and Armbro Romance. Now his son, 22-year-old Art Major sired Test Of Faith.

Pelling’s trainee Rocknroll Hanover had his final career start came at the Meadowlands in the Breeders Crown of 2005 in November to solidify Horse of the Year honors.

Rocknroll Hanover was the first ever sub-1:50 2-year-old thanks to a 1:49.4 victory at Woodbine in the 2004 Metro. He later scratched out of the Breeders Crown at 2.

Dave Landry

Eight-time Breeders Crown winner Paul MacDonell has two 2021 Crown finalists – Duly Resolved and Beach Glass.

Test Of Faith was not eligible to the Crown in 2020.

Pelling's student Papi Rob Hanover was disqualified in the 2019 Breeders Crown and Tall Dark Stranger was put up.

Mystical Maddy won a Breeders Crown for Pelling from post eight at Yonkers.

Pelling won a Breeders Crown for Papi Rob Hanover's owner David McDuffee in 1996 with Armbro Operative.

Cool Papa Bell

Cool Papa Bell the horse is named for the Negro League star from 1922-1946. The ballplayer's career ended the year before Jackie Robinson became the first African American to play in the major leagues for the 1947 Brooklyn Dodgers. Cool Papa Bell's stats were: 285 career stolen bases in 1,199 games, 4,756 at bats, 1,548 hits, 325 average. He was born on May 17, 1903.

The horse competes for the Runthetable Stable. Sandy Farber's son is now the head man, but it was Run The Table who got the ball rolling for this group back in 1986-1987. Del Insko raced the colt at 2, who was fourth and then sixth in the Breeders Crown at 82-1 and then 12-1. Sold at New Faces time in 1987, Jim Campbell took over for his new owners headed by Sandy Farber. That year's quite memorable Breeders Crown saw him win his elim in 1:53 by a head and then get edged out by Call For Rain in the same time by the same margin in the 3YOCP Crown final.

Val D'Or goes wayyyyy back

At Garden State Park in 1985, the race before Nihilator would wrap up his career in the 3YOCP Breeders Crown, Val D'Or Farms had Cannon Fire in a NW3.

In 1986, Val D'Or won the 3YOCP with free-legged Masquerade ($21.40).

Val D'Or trainer Joe Holloway was in the first Crown Open Pace in 1985, finishing fifth with Tuff Choice. Thirty-five years later, Perfect Sting brings them together in the 2021 Breeders Crown for sophomore pacing colts.

Perfect Sting, Jujubee favored in sophomore male Breeders Crown finals

by Debbie Little for the Breeders Crown

Dr. Patty Hogan's Hogan Equine, a state-of-the-art equine medical facility, was the impressive backdrop for the post-position draws for the Breeders Crown Finals for the $600,000 3-Year-Old Colts and Geldings Pace and the $650,000 3-Year-Old Colts and Geldings Trot, which will be held this Saturday (Oct. 30) at The Meadowlands (special early post time, noon).

By virtue of his win in one of two eliminations for 3-year-old male pacers, Perfect Sting was installed as the early 5-2 morning-line favorite from post position five.

"It's a good thing we won, or we probably would have had 10," said Perfect Sting's trainer, Joe Holloway. "Last week [when he won his elimination in 1:49.2] was the first time, since he qualified the very first time [in 2021], that I knew he had it. He's had a lot of noses. Like I tell [driver] David [Miller], we're six feet from greatness."

The ultra-consistent son of 2016 Horse of the Year Always B Miki has had 25 career starts and hit the board every time. In 2021, he has six wins from 15 outings and has never been beaten by more than three-quarters-of-a-length. His seasonal earnings of $973,847 are tops in the sport.

Charlie May, who won the other elim in 1:49.1, drew post 2 and is the 3-1 second choice.

Trained by Steve Carter and driven by Brett Miller, Charlie May has nine wins in 18 tries this season, including a victory in the $300,000 Milstein at Northfield Park. He also crossed the wire first in the $700,000 Meadowlands Pace before being disqualified for interference.

In the 3-year-old male trot, Jujubee is the 2-1 favorite from post six. The Kentucky Futurity champion came into last week's elimination seeking a seventh straight win but was gunned down at the wire by a neck by Cuatro De Julio 1:52.2 in one of two eliminations.

Cuatro De Julio will depart from post four and is listed at 9-2 for driver Lucas Wallin and trainer Marie Ortolan Bar.

Ambassador Hanover, trained and driven by Åke Svanstedt, won the other elim in 1:51.2 and is the 4-1 second choice from post two. The son of 2012 Horse of the Year Chapter Seven has hit the board 10 times in 14 starts this season, including 4 wins. During 2021, he finished third in the $1 million Hambletonian and second in the $500,000 Yonkers Trot.

The complete fields, with post positions, horse, nominated drivers, trainers and early odds, is as follows:

$600,000 Breeders Crown — 3-year-old pacing colts and geldings

1. Southwind Gendry (Yannick Gingras, Ron Burke), 5-1
  2. Charlie May (Brett Miller, Steve Carter), 3-1

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Symon Spicer has seen incredible growth in his stable the first year on his own

by Chris Lomon

If Symon Spicer had any question marks about how successful he'd be going out on his own, his answer has come in the form of an exclamation point.

Born and raised in New Zealand, Spicer, whose father owned a few standardbred horses over the years, came to North America, specifically, New Jersey, in 2002, and soon found work in the barn of standardbred trainer Linda Toscano.

After working with the successful conditioner for 12 years, he moved on to the stable of Ron Burke, one of the sport's most successful and decorated horsepeople.

Spicer's time with both operations provided a treasure trove of harness education, skills he studied every minute he was in the barn or at the races.

While he had no target date in mind as to when he would launch his own stable, he began to give the thought more consideration in 2020.

Despite the obstacles the industry faced throughout a COVID-19-impacted 2020, Spicer maintained an optimistic outlook, both for himself and for the sport.

Courtesy Symon Spicer

Former Ron Burke assistant Symon Spicer warming up Foiled Again.

After giving Burke notice of his intentions to forge his own training career, Spicer, who had trained a small number of his own horses over the past four years, opened up shop this April. He recalled one particular piece of advice that Burke shared with him more than a few times over their years together.

“Ron always told me that classification is the key to success. If you’re not racing them in the right spot, you might as well go home. He’s a big believer in putting them where they belong,” Spicer said.

Admittedly not a goal-setting type, the 46-year-old likely never could have anticipated what his rookie campaign would yield to date.

“I was working for Ron and in March of this year, I had a few hobby horses of my own, and ended up getting a few more,” said Spicer. “I ended up having too much to do, so I told him I was going to head out on my own. Pretty soon after that, things really took off. I started out with four and now that’s turned into 21. I had a few owners who are friends of mine who claimed some horses for me to train and I’ve basically gone from there.”

Where Spicer has gone is really rather quite impressive.

As of Oct. 24, he has 35 wins and over $440,000 in purse earnings.

The star of the stable, at least so far, is a 2-year-old gelding by the name of Kosher Mahoney.

Bred by Robert Krivelin and owned by Eli Beiler, the trotting son of Explosive Matter has enjoyed a strong rookie campaign.

A $7,500 purchase as Hip #72 at the 2020 Goshen Yearling Sale, Kosher Mahoney posted two wins, two seconds and a third from six starts.

He broke his maiden in style at Harrah’s Philadelphia on July 8, cruising to a 6 ½-length score in a time of 1:58-flat.

“Eli gave him to me,” said Spicer. “He won a Pennsylvania Sires Stakes division and was fourth in the final... He was a little unlucky in the final. He might have won it if he had some luck on his side. He’s probably my best one. He’s turned out for the rest of the year, so we’ll give him some well-deserved rest and look forward to him hopefully having a great 3-year-old season. My other horses are claimers and cheaper condition horses.”

In terms of his objectives, both current and in the long term, Spicer has a very simple formula for what he’d like to achieve.

“I just want to keep training horses, make money for my owners and support my family. But I would like to reach $500,000 in earnings and have 50 winners by the end of the year. I don’t set goals. I just like to win. As long as they win and the owners are happy, then I’m happy.”

One of the biggest reasons behind his success story is a ‘who,’ not a ‘what.’

“I have 21 horses and my wife, Veronica, is the groom of every one of them. We have two small children, and she takes care of them when I’m at the racetrack, so what she does is amazing and invaluable. It wouldn’t be any good without her. She deserves most of the credit. She works from sun-up until sundown. I also have another person, Jimmy Foley, who has been a big boost to me as well. He just started out on his driving career, and we’ve had four or five winners together already.”

When he does have the opportunity to relax away from the demands of standardbred racing, Spicer can usually be found on the golf course or watching his favorite sports teams.

“I really like to golf. I shoot in the low 80s. I try to get out once a week, just to enjoy myself and work on my game a bit. I like to watch the New York Giants play and I also follow the All Blacks (the New Zealand men’s national rugby union team). That’s about all I have time for when it comes to myself. Other than that, it’s spending time together as a family.”

As for the latest chapter in his racing life, don’t anticipate Spicer giving any thought to what he’s achieved so far in 2021.

“Whatever you do, you have to move on, whether that’s the next race or the next day. You always want to get better, learn more, and push yourself to chase success.”

Hoosier Classic Sale posts huge increases in gross and average

by James Platz

The 2021 Hoosier Classic Yearling Sale followed the trend established this fall at other auctions, posting significant increases over the two-day event. Held at the Indiana State Fairgrounds on Oct. 22 and 23, the select sale offered a catalog of 416 yearlings – 43 more than in 2020 – and produced record numbers in all metrics. A total of 400 yearlings were hammered down for gross sales of $8.576 million, an increase of nearly $1.7 million over the previous year. The sale average of $21,441 signaled a nearly 12 per cent increase compared to 2020, and the gross and average for each of the two sessions surpassed the standards of one year ago.

“We were slow out of the gate but hit the groove that carried us to the end. Anytime you add horses and improve your average it’s a win,” said sale manager Steve Cross. “The company was excited when Carter Duer decided to bring the brother to Captain Corey to the Hoosier Classic. He obviously attracted new interest to our sale. We had a record number of new buyers.”

Last year, JK’s Speed, a colt from the second crop of JK Endofanera, set a record for the highest-priced Indiana-sired yearling sold at public auction when he garnered a $240,000 final bid. That mark was eclipsed in this year’s Oct. 22 session when Bourbon Courage, a You Know You Do half-brother to Hambletonian champion Captain Corey 2, 1:53.3f, 3, 1:51f ‘21 ($1,090,333), brought $255,000 to lead the opening session and top the sale. Consigned by Peninsula Farm as Hip 162, the colt is the second foal from Angus Hall mare Luv U All. Doug Overhiser signed the ticket, and the horse will be trained by Erv Miller.

“Buyers are starting to realize what Erv Miller and his group have known for quite some time now. Buyers who are serious about the Indiana program come to the Hoosier Classic,” Cross said. “The Erv Miller group signed for a record 21 yearlings.”

Overhiser picked up another trotter earlier in the session, going to $42,000 on Swan Kenzie, Hip 83, from the Oakwood Farms consignment. The Swan For All filly is a half-sister to Indiana champion May Baby 2, 1:53.2s, 3, 1:52.2s ‘20 ($574,695), and the dam has produced five winners from seven foals, with a trifecta of six-figure earners. Other owners buying yearlings that will be developed by Miller included Anthony Lombardi, Rocco Ruffolo and Al Kowalewski. Miller purchased five horses as agent, signing tickets totaling $140,000.

Swan For All led all stallions represented at the Hoosier Classic in both gross and average. A group of 45 babies brought a little over $1.6 million, good for an average of $36,067. A trio from the Hoosier State’s top trotting sire fetched six-digit bids, led by second session topper Ponda Chase, Hip 353. The colt, a full-brother to Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final runner-up Ponda Adventure 2, 1:54.2s ‘21, BT1:53.3s-’21 ($271,468), was consigned by Pond A Acres and purchased by Peter Wrenn for $160,000. Wrenn, acting as agent, also signed the ticket on Happy Swan, Hip 99, consigned by Wilt Standardbreds. A full-sister to Indiana Sires Stakes leg runner-up R Desireable

Lady 2, 1:59 -21, BT1:56.2s-21 ($69,053), the yearling brought $120,000.

Wilt Standardbreds, based in Savannah, Missouri, brought a power-packed six-horse consignment to the Hoosier Classic, with each of the yearlings selling on the first day. Besides Happy Swan, the consignment featured two more Swan For All babies, Bridge To Triumph ($95,000) and Flashy Swan ($27,000), to go along with You Know You Do colt Whiskey Bender ($45,000), Helpisontheway filly Midnight Dreams ($39,000), and Tellitlikeitis colt David Allan Whoa ($32,000). Wilt Standardbreds finished with an average of $59,667, surpassed only by Peninsula Farms' mark of $72,800.

"We had a great sale; we were quite happy. That's the best average we've ever had there," said Randy Wilt. "We're very happy. What we're even happier about is that our horses went to some great homes. They ended up in some really good trainer's hands, where they have a shot at being somebody. We've got a very good clientele that come back and look at our horses. If they don't buy them, they are bidders every year, and that makes a difference."

Victory Hill Farm led all consignors in gross sales, selling 21 yearlings for $722,500 and averaging $34,405. In the first session alone, the LaGrange, Ind.-based breeder sold 12 babies for $544,000, including four yearlings that each brought at least $70,000, led by Hip 95, Powerful Tell. The Tellitlikeitis colt topped all pacers with an $83,000 final bid, purchased by trainer Brian Brown.

"We had a good average. We had mainly Tellitlikeitis this year. I didn't have a standout, but I just had nice horses. It was really a good bunch for us this year," Victory Hill's Jeff King said. "Our owners have bought good broodmares, and that makes it so much easier to get in foal. If you get a nice looking yearling and you've got some pedigree, they've sold real well here again at this sale."

Riding the wave of a standout season on the racetrack, Tellitlikeitis yearlings grossed nearly $1 million in sales, with 41 yearlings averaging $23,854. A group of 48 babies sired by Rockin Image averaged $20,073 and 25 yearlings from the third crop of JK Endofanera averaged $18,280. A trio from Odds On Equuleus, sire of freshman Indiana Sires Stakes Super Final winner Trick Of The Light p, 2, 1:51.1S -21 ($227,250), averaged $29,333.

The first crop of Bluegrass Stakes and Breeders Crown elimination winner Check Six was well received by buyers. Ponda Executive, a colt consigned by Pond A Acres, led the group of 35 with a $60,000 price, while filly Bluebird Affection brought $50,000. All told, Check Six yearlings averaged $21,929. Bolstered by the sale topper, first-crop sire You Know You Do ranked second to Swan For All among trotting sires. Represented by 24 yearlings, the son of Muscle Hill grossed $824,500 and averaged $34,354. Fellow first-crop trotting sire Helpisontheway grossed $672,000 from 35 yearlings, signaling a $19,200 average.

Trainer LeWayne Miller was the most active buyer over the two days, signing tickets on nine yearlings totaling $140,500. Wrenn spent the most of any buyer, picking out five babies for $396,000. Tom Pollack spent $338,000 to acquire seven yearlings to be co-owned and trained by Jeff Cullipher. A total of 14 horses were sold via Proxibid to 12 different buyers, bringing $243,500.

London Virtual Yearling Sale up in gross, but down in average

by Dave Briggs

The second annual London Virtual Yearling Sale, which ran from Saturday, Oct. 16 through Thursday, Oct. 21 on the OnGait.com platform, was up 32 per cent in gross, but down 9 per cent in average compared with the inaugural online-only sale in 2020 when 44 fewer yearlings were sold.

In all, 146 yearlings grossed $4,357,000 total for an average of $29,842 (all figures in Canadian dollars).

In 2020, 102 yearlings collectively grossed $3,312,990 for an average of $32,480.

This year's sale topper was hip 89 Mickey Muscles, a son of Muscle Mass out of Lady Bling sold for $125,000 to George Millar of Stouffville, ON from Dean and Ashley Wilson's consignment.

The other yearling to reach six figures was hip 48 Stonebridge Agate, a Muscle Mass filly out of Stonebridge Cream sold for $105,000 to Larry Walker of Campbellville, ON from the Stonebridge Farm consignment.

A third Muscle Mass yearling, hip 58 Stonebridge Jasper, sold for $98,000 to Luc Blais of Campbellville, ON. The colt out of Stonebridge Encore was consigned by Stonebridge Farm.

The highest-priced pacer sold was hip 69 Battalion Seelster, a Big Jim colt out of Tarport Bearcat that sold for $96,000 to Steve Heimbecker of Waterloo, ON from the Seelster Farms consignment.

Stonebridge Farm of Arva, ON was the sale's leading consigner by average. The farm averaged $55,250 for eight yearlings sold. Erinwood Equine Inc. was next at $41,500 for 10 yearlings, followed by Century Springs Farm Inc. ($35,474 for 19), Glengate Farms ($35,000 for six), Dean & Ashley Wilson ($31,091 for 23), Icy Stable ($29,667 for three) and Seelster Farms ($28,625 for 51).

As for the sale breakdown, 40 pacing colts averaged $28,894; 52 pacing fillies averaged $25,058; four pacing geldings averaged $24,500; 20 trotting colts averaged $44,166; 30 trotting fillies averaged $33,740 and one trotting gelding averaged $26,000.

As it was in 2020, the London Virtual Yearling Sale was conducted entirely online because the sale's traditional home — the Agriplex at The Western Fair District in London, ON — is still being used as a COVID-19 vaccination site by the Middlesex-London Health Unit.

There is no word, yet, whether the 2022 sale will be held online, live or a combination of the two.

Million-dollar trotter Damien wins career debut

by Thomas Hedlund

Three-year-old Damien (Muscle Hill–Danae), who was purchased by Brixton Medical AB for $1 million at the 2019 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale, won his career pari-mutuel debut on Tuesday (Oct. 26) for trainer Daniel Redén.

Stall Zet, Brixton Medical AB bought the full brother of Propulsion and left the horse in Marcus Melander's barn, where Damien tried a qualification race in 2020. Some months into 2021, an agreement that resulted in a journey over the Atlantic Ocean was made between Melander and Redén and Damien has been trained at Redén's farm in Sweden during the summer and fall.

The race debut was made in Eskilstuna in a $5,800 race and the Muscle Hill son solved the task without problems. Örjan Kihlström came to the lead after 650 meters and Damien more or less jogged in nice style towards a 2:03.2 (mile rate) over 1.3 miles.

Damien's pedigree is without doubt interesting and Danae has proved to be a successful broodmare in America. Propulsion is well known, for many reasons and full sister Dream Together banked $893,046 during her career. D'Orsay (Yankee Glide–Danae) earned $450,683 and now the career has started for 3-year-old Damien.

New career for record-breaking filly

Björn Goop-trained Eagle Eye Cherry (Bold Eagle) became the most successful 3-year-old filly when she ended her season in 2020. Eagle Eye Cherry earned approximately $588,100 last year and she earned big trophies in the Oaks and Breeders Crown.

The 4-year-old Bold Eagle mare has now concluded her career with eight wins in 19 starts and total earnings of $719,000. According to Björn Goop's website, Eagle Eye Cherry will be bred to Muscle Hill next year.

Massachusetts champions crowned at Plainridge Park

by Tim Bojarski for the Standardbred Owners of Massachusetts

Plainridge Park played host to the $800,000 Massachusetts Sire Stake (MASS) finals on Monday afternoon (Oct. 25) with eight divisions vying for $100,000 each. A steady morning rain and sloppy track conditions greeted the day's participants. However, that didn't detract from the performances put in by the horses on the track and provided some lucrative payouts for the betting faithful.

As expected, Yannick Gingras had a big day, winning three of the four 3-year-old divisions. However, drivers Nick Graffam and Drew Monti also put in stellar efforts winning two races apiece. Owner William Varney found himself in the winner's circle two times as did horses bred by Moni Maker Stable. And despite the inclement weather, four horses turned in lifetime best performances.

Two races were non-betting and held prior to the pari-mutuel card which got underway at 2 p.m.

The first non-betting event was for 3-year-old trotting fillies and Moni For Lindy (Credit Winner—Live Moni) delivered as expected.

Me Too Baby (Jim Pantaleano) held pylon position off the gate

Tom Melanson

Longshot Tennessee Lindy (Nick Graffam) went from last to first in a thrilling stretch drive in the rookie trotting fillies' final.

and strung out the field in a :28.2 first quarter. But Moni For Lindy (Gingras), who got away third, was already out and moving and took the lead as the race passed the stands. Moni For Lindy opened up a two length advantage heading up the backside and put the field away as she trotted a brisk :28.3 third quarter. Now up by five into the last turn, Moni For Lindy cruised home by 10-¾ lengths in 1:56.1.

Moni For Lindy swept her division, winning four of four straight outings in the stake. Trained by Domenico Cecere, Moni For Lindy also boosted her earnings to $351,377 this year for owner Greathorse on the strength of her ninth win of 2021. Moni Maker Stable bred Moni For Lindy.

Then in the second non-betting event for 3-year-old trotting colts, Incommunicado (Chapter Seven—Gran Cavalla) also made it four in a row en route to becoming a two-time Massachusetts Sire Stake champion.

Incommunicado (Gingras) left and got the lead before Twoscoopsforjack (Kevin Switzer Jr.) circled from post eight and grabbed the front by the :28.4 quarter. However, not content to sit, Gingras was out and rolling at that point and from there never looked back. Incommunicado took the lead and started to gap the field by the half. He opened up five lengths at three-quarters in 1:27, circled the last turn all alone and flew home on top by 11-½ lengths in 1:57.2.

The Ake Svanstedt-trained Incommunicado has now amassed $240,015 in purses this year while registering six wins for owners Knutsson Trotting, Little E, Arthur Geiger and David Stolz. Moni Maker Stable also bred Incommunicado.

The 2-year-old trotting fillies was a very competitive race with longshot Tennessee Lindy (Muscle Hill—Nashville Lindy) going from last to first in a thrilling stretch drive.

Just Liv Broadway (Steve Smith) and Dancin On The Wall (Gingras) traded leads in a spirited :28 first panel. Dancin On The Wall finally settled on the front and never really got a breather as an outer flow was already coming at her. Grateful Express (Drew Campbell) and Moni Heist (Bruce Ranger) were pressing on the outside while Wonderwall Lindy (Jay Randall) and Tennessee Lindy (Nick Graffam) were right behind in the breeze. With the entire field now with a shot at the win, Wonderwall Lindy tipped and Tennessee Lindy tipped around her and the two trotted together away from the field. The stablemates hit the wire side by side with Tennessee Lindy getting the nod by a neck in 1:58.4, which tied her lifetime mark.

Tennessee Lindy ($19.80) got her second MASS win and claimed the 2-year-old trotting filly crown for owner FTM Racing Stable and trainer George Ducharme. K R Breeding bred Tennessee Lindy.

The prices continued to come in the 2-year-old trotting colt division when Bill Bauer (E L Titan—Miss Flaggy Meadow) upset at 9-1 and got his first lifetime victory.

When the gate released the field, Bill Bauer (Drew Monti) took the lead while the heavily favored Wallet (Nick Graffam) made an unfortunate break shortly after the start, followed by Strongerwithlindy (Steve Smith) who also ran before the quarter. With the complexion of the race completely changed, Monti grabbed leather and backed off the half to :59.3 while RFL's Super Sonic (Jim Hardy) and Threenthree (Mike Stevenson) tried to keep pace. But as the race went on, Bill Bauer was getting stronger and opened up five lengths around the last turn. When they turned for home, Monti sat chilly as Bill Bauer closed it out on his own, winning by 8-¾ lengths in a lifetime best time of 1:57.4.

Bill Bauer ($20.80) is now a Massachusetts Sire Stake champion for owner/trainer Paul Kelley. Bill Bauer was bred by East Pond Stable.

The 2-year-old pacing colts division was won by Striking Impact (Always B Miki—Aunt Caroline) who turned a pocket trip into a championship win.

Takechargebluechip (Bruce Ranger) was the commander of fractions from the start with Striking Impact (Drew Monti) and Use Yah Blinkah (Jim Hardy) following in line. After fractions of :27.1, :57.3 and 1:26.1, Galactic Storm (Jimmy Whitemore) was rolling first over and advanced to second on the outside heading into the stretch. As they moved to the wire, Galactic Storm stalled and Monti was able to get Striking Impact free from the box. When he cleared, Striking Impact shifted gears and blew by Takechargebluechip to win by a length in a new lifetime mark of 1:56.1.

Striking Impact ($4.00) is owned by Fox Racing and is trained by Jimmy Nickerson. Lindy Farms of Connecticut bred Striking Impact.

There was another upset in the 2-year-old pacing filly event when Pembroke Legacy (Baron Biltmore—Pembroke Oasis) rallied from way back to catch the co-favorites in deep stretch.

So Flo (Frank Affrunti) and Wolverina (Graffam) — who both went off at 2-1 — sat first and second from the quarter pole. With the field moving single file, they went to the half in :55.4 and three-quarters in 1:24.2, where Dude's Sweet Bet (Shawn Gray) was pressing on the outside. At that point, Pembroke Legacy (Heath Campbell) was still sixth and looked pretty much out of it. But when the group started to tighten in the last turn, Pembroke Legacy was finding her best foot and was moving two wide around the curve. At the top of the straight, Campbell swung Pembroke Legacy five-wide and came barreling down the lane to win by three-quarters of a length in 1:55.1, which was a new lifetime mark for the winner.

Pembroke Legacy ($29.60) got her sixth win of the year and is now a MASS champion for owner/breeder William Varney and trainer Valerie Grondin.

The 3-year-old pacing colts were scratched down to a field of six and Mullinax (American Ideal—Up Front Kellie Jo) claimed his second straight MASS championship, but not without a fight.

Mullinax (Gingras) took a quick lead but Call Me Maverick (Mike Stevenson) came at him hard and pushed a :27.1 quarter. Call Me Maverick seated second and Mullinax then backed the half down to :57. When the group made its way to three-quarters, Bumpah Stickah (Jimmy Hardy) pulled from third and started to advance. He got to within a length around the last turn but continued to gain ground heading into the stretch. Now under full assault, Mullinax dug in and fought back against Bumpah Stickah, who still was gaining ground with every stride. But when they hit the line, Mullinax stood firm and held on to win by a head in 1:53.3.

Mullinax ($2.10) swept the series and pushed his earnings to $224,547 for owner William Varney. Mark Ford, who trains the winner, also bred him along with Ed Mullinax.

The final event of the day was the 3-year-old pacing fillies and Purameri (American Ideal—J K Pure Pearl) became the third repeat MASS champion of the day after her victory.

Suzie Blue Chip (Drew Campbell) outpaced So Amazing (Bruce Ranger) for the lead while Purameri (Nick Graffam) floated from post eight and dropped in fifth in fast early fractions of :26.3 and :55.4. As the race moved towards three-quarters, Rightfully Mine (Yannick Gingras) moved first-over towards the leader and Purameri followed as the field began to bunch. As Suzie Blue Chip, So Amazing and Rightfully Mine were within a length of each other in the last turn, Nick Graffam tipped Purameri three-wide and circled them all to take the lead at the top of the stretch and pace sharply to 1-1/2 length victory in 1:53.1.

The third win of the year for Purameri ($10.20) pushed her lifetime bank to $209,647 for owner Purple Haze Stable. Jessica Okusko trains the filly bred by 3 Brothers Stables and Camelot Stable.

Diamond Creek syndicating Creatine, announces 2022 stud fees

Diamond Creek announces that they will be syndicating Creatine as he returns to Ohio in 2022.

As the sire of Kentucky Futurity winner Jujubee (1:49.3), Diamond Creek is looking forward to the future of Creatine's influence on our sport. His share availability has been opened up to our clients who would like to get involved in the next chapter as he makes his way back to Ohio to stand at Sugar Valley in 2022.

Shares will be available at a price of $10,000 upfront or $12,000 split over 2 payments.

As a special incentive to buy in, shareholders who sign on now will receive 2 breedings per share for 2022 and 2023.

Please contact Diamond Creek at office@diamondcreekfarm.com or 717.638.7100 if you are interested. Shares are limited and will be on a first come basis.

Diamond Creek has also announced stud fees for its roster of 10 stallions at their Kentucky farm, Pennsylvania Farm, and Sugar Valley Farm in Delaware, OH. The roster is led by three-time Breeders Crown champion Gimpanzee and a trio of young guns: Always B Miki, Downbytheseaside, and Sweet Lou.

"Coming off a bullish yearling season, it is still important to us to offer our clients both quality and value at all levels of the market" said president Adam Bowden.

Shaun Laungani, VP, added, "Our stallions bred over 1,000 mares last season, a milestone for us."

Several Diamond Creek studs are wrapping up a banner year in 2021. Diamond Creek-bred stallion Creatine, sire of sensational Jujubee, Kentucky Futurity Winner in 1:49.3. Creatine excelled in the sales ring with a yearling average of over $59,000 in Lexington and will return to Sugar Valley Farm (OH) for a fee of $4,000. Diamond Creek is also offering shares in Creatine for $10,000 a share and a special incentive of 2 breedings per share in 2022 and 2023.

Breakout freshman sire Downbytheseaside is off to a historically strong start with Ohio Sire Stakes domination and Grand Circuit successes including with Breeders Crown finalist Sea Silk, Gulf Shores and Pebble Beach. This wave of success has breeders dreaming of Ohio bred Grand Circuit champions, he will stand for a fee of $12,000 at Sugar Valley Farm (OH).

Always B Miki has proved he is a sire of champions with his first crop of 3-year-olds, including Perfect Sting and Grace Hill. Second crop of 2-year-olds proved to be just as potent as the first with Niki Hill, Monte Miki, and True Blue Lindy. At the top of sire standings for 3-year-olds, Always B Miki will stand for $12,500 in Pennsylvania and continues to give his breeders a substantial chance to produce a champion.

Sweet Lou achieved a Lexington yearling sales average of $90,000 topping out at $400,000 on the backs of Jug winner Lou's Pearlman and Adios winner Hellabalou and two year old Breeders Crown finalists Lyons Serenity and Six Feet Apart. He remains a great value for yearling sellers giving breeders a consistent early race horse that can last for a long career.

Diamond Creek looks forward to Captain Crunch and Bettor's Wish first yearlings in 2022. First crop foals for Gimpanzee and Marseille are set to drop next Spring. The breeding season will also debut a new stallion barn at the Kentucky Farm.

Mares can be submitted online at www.diamondcreekfarm.com, by emailing bookings@diamondcreekfarm.com, or calling the office at (717) 638-7100. There will also be paper copies available at the Diamond Creek consignment in Harrisburg. For Bettor's Wish (managed by the Bettor's Wish Syndicate) send inquiries to bettorswish@gmail.com or (908) 451-4135.

He's Watching to stand in Delaware

Winbak Farm of Delaware is proud to introduce He's Watching for the 2022 breeding season.

He's Watching was the 2013 USHWA Dan Patch Award Winner for 2-Year-Old Pacing Colts. At 2, He's Watching was undefeated and set World Records on a half, five-eighths and a mile track.

"In my opinion, He's Watching's most impressive race was his Meadowlands Pace victory when he won in 1:46.4 and had a last quarter of 25.3," said Jack Burke, Winbak Farm. "This victory matched the all-age World Record and made him the fastest three-year-old to ever win at The Meadowlands."

At 3, he won the Empire Breeders Classic elimination and Final, Meadowlands Pace elimination and Final and Somebeachsomewhere Stakes elimination. He was second in Bluegrass Series division, Cane Pace Final, and North America Cup elimination (third in Final).

"He's probably one of the fastest horses I've ever driven," said Tim Tetrick. "The day he won the Meadowlands Pace, he was shot out of a rocket."

He's Watching is fondly remembered for his speed by his trainer as well.

"He's Watching had indescribable speed and showed it on every size track," said David Menary, trainer.

He's Watching's stakes winners are led by 2020 O'Brien Award Winner, Tattoo Artist, p, 2, 1:52s; 3, 1:48.2s; 1:47.1 -'21 ($904,617).

"Tattoo Artist has a sub-1:50 record on a mile, seven-eighths, five-eighths and a half-mile," said Eric Cherry, Let It Ride Stables. "His versatility has made me into a believer of He's Watching."

Cherry has high hopes for the progeny of He's Watching.

"Once I experienced the pleasure and thrills of owning Tattoo Artist and watching his performances on all size race-tracks I had to get involved with owning a share of his sire and breeding mares to him," said Cherry.

He's Watching is also the sire of 2021 Ontario Stakes standouts, Dabarndawgswatchin, p, 2, 1:54.3s; 3, 1:50.3s -'21 ($188,036), and Century Inspector, p, 2, Q1:59.3s -'21; BT1:51.3s -'21 ($102,893).

"He's Watching will be the fastest stallion standing in Delaware," said Burke. "We are excited to introduce the next generation of American Ideal to the first state."

He's Watching will stand for $5,000 in 2022. For more information on He's Watching, visit www.winbakfarm.com or call Jack Burke at 410-885-3059 or Eric Cherry at 561-212-5700.

Major updates to Harrisburg Mixed catalog

Results from the Breeders Crown eliminations last weekend at the Meadowlands have added yet more firepower to an already strong Standardbred Mixed Sale. Several dams and siblings of Crown elim winners are slated to sell in the Thursday, Nov. 11 breeding stock session at Harrisburg.

To further enhance the updates, many of the "live" pedigrees are mares selling in foal to Walner; and the industry is well aware of his exploits. He leads all sires in 2021 freshman trotting earnings, with more than $3.4-million earned by his first crop of 2-year-olds.

In the Warrawee Farm dispersal on Thursday, Sound Check, the young dam of Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt Trot elim winner Testing Testing 2,1:53.4 ($43,025), sells in foal to Muscle Mass.

There are also two other big updates in that dispersal, as both the dam of and a sister to Open Trot prep winner Warrawee Roo 1:51.2 ($777,548) are slated to enter the auction ring. His dam is in foal to Trixtan, while his half-sister sells in foal to Walner. The dispersal is to be offered by Preferred Equine, agent.

The dams of two other 2-year-old Breeders Crown elim winners will also sell in the mixed.

Cashaway, the dam of Niki Hill's 2-Year-Old Filly Pace upsetter Queen Of Success p,2,1:50.3 ($91,397), sells in foal to Downbytheseaside, making her resulting foal a three-quarter sibling to Queen Of Success.

Also selling is Jolie De Vie, the dam of 2-Year-Old Filly Trot elim winner Lilbitalexix 2,1:52.2 ($146,362). She is in foal to Walner, making her foal of 2022 a full brother or sister to Lilbitalexix.

The mixed sale supplement also has a powerful contingent of mares, led by a large 17-head reduction from storied nursery Lindy Farms. Lindy continues to add to its resume by having bred impressive winners of the Breeders Crown 2-Year-Old Colt Trot and 2-Year-Old Filly Trot elims, with Branded By Lindy and Raised By Lindy, respectively.

The Standardbred Mixed Sale follows the company's Nov. 8-10 yearling sale at Harrisburg's Farm Show Complex.

The catalog for the yearling sale — along with the catalog and updated racehorse past performances for the mixed and mixed supplement — is now available at theblackbook.com and on the EquineLine app.

Southwind Harrisburg videos available

Videos of the Southwind Farms yearlings that have been consigned to the Standardbred Horse Sale in Harrisburg (Nov. 8 -12) are now available on the Southwind Farms website (www.southwindfarms.net) as well as the Preferred Equine Marketing website.

The yearlings (which will sell in the Preferred Equine consignment) feature colts and fillies by champion sire MUSCLE HILL, first crop sensations WALNER, HUNTSVILLE, as well as ALWAYS B MIKI, AMERICAN IDEAL, and exciting first crop stallion TACTICAL LANDING.

Yearlings are available for inspection at the farm. For an appointment please call farm manager Laura Young at the farm (609)737-9067 or Syndicate Manager, Michael Klau at (917) 930-2709.

Southwind Ozzi stands in New Jersey in 2022

Walnridge Farm has announced that 2019 Little Brown Jug winner Southwind Ozzi will be its newest stallion in 2022.

The son of Somebeachsomewhere retires to stud with over $977,000 in career earnings. His career mark of 1:48 was the fastest by a 3-year-old on a five-eighths mile track in 2019. Winner of the Adios and the highest leading money-winning 3-year-old colt pacer in the 2019 Pennsylvania Sire Stakes.

Southwind Ozzi out of Southwind Solara is a half-brother to Southwind Silence. He stands his first season in 2022 with a stud fee of $4,000.

Contact Walnridge Farm at 609-758-8380 or click link <http://sboanj.com/pictures/OzziAd.pdf> for more information.
