Breeders Crown

wrap-up by the numbers

A numerical analysis of the 2024 series held at The Meadowlands.

by Bob Heyden

HOLLYWOOD'S HITS

with BOB HEYDEN

With this year's Breeders Crown finals in the books, here are a few numbers that deserve some attention.

ONE AND ONLY

My Girl EJ is the one and only Breeders Crown champion from last year to repeat.

TWO MUCH TO BELIEVE

Andrew Harris had two of his trainees hit the board in the Open Pace. Seven Colors (86-1) was second and El Rey (150-1) was third.

FOUR NOT

Post 4 was shut out. The last time the Crown was held at The Meadowlands in 2021, only post 9 was blanked.

FIVE CLOSE CROWNS AND INSIDE CHECKS

Five Crowns were decided by a neck or less. This is well off the eight-for-12 or 67 per cent from 2021, the record high... Five checks, all five, went to the inside five posts in the 3YOCP: Mirage Hanover, Nijinsky, Captain Albano, Calicojack Hanover, and McCrunch, respectively.

SIX FOR SIX

Six consecutive seasons to start his Breeders Crown career for Dexter Dunn with a minimum of two or more wins. How rare is that? Only Bill O'Donnell did it even twice in a row going two-for-six in 1985 following a two-for-seven debut year in 1984... Post 6 was also shut out this year.

TEN FROM TEN

Jason Bartlett is No. 10 on the all-time earnings list and had a banner weekend considering his post time odds. Tarrific (31-1) missed by a neck from post 10; Seven Colors (86-1) a half-length off Coach Stefanos in the Open Pace and Warrawee Xenia (93-1) fourth in the Mare Trot.

SEVENTEEN YEARS LATER

In 2007, Moving Pictures went from last to first in the Mare Pace in Mark MacDonald's first Breeders Crown. Fast forward 17 years to 2024 and his brother James MacDonald went from last to first in the Open Pace with Coach Stefanos for his second Breeders Crown.

TWENTY STRAIGHT

It's 20-straight years for Bettors Delight to have a Breeders Crown elim/final starter. His first was his richest female Darlin's Delight in 2005 with $2.9 million for her career, and his latest is his fastest, Mirage Hanover, who owns a 1:46.3 mark and won decisively in the 3YOCP on Saturday night.

TWENTY-TWO YEARS LATER

It's been 22 years since Linda Toscano won a Breeders Crown in 2002 to get the ladies rolling. Now, after Toscano and Nancy Takter each added one in 2024, the tally is 34 in 23 editions.

TWENTY-SIX YEARS OLD

Twenty-six is Bettors Delight's age. He went 1-2 in the 3YOCP with Mirage Hanover and Nijinsky. Then, in the finale of the 2024 Breeders Crown, the Mare Pace, Bettors Delight's full brother Roll With Joe sired the likely HOY and dominant winner Twin B Joe Fresh.

THIRTY OR LESS

The Bank ($30.50) was Dave Miller's high win price in 2015 in Canada when he first won as many as five Breeders Crowns. Dunn paid over $13 this year with Miki And Minnie as his high-water mark with a new record six Crowns.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS OLD

Dave Miller was 35 years and 268 days when he won his first Breeders Crown in 2000 with Magician, Ron Pierce was 35 years and 125 days of age when he broke through in the Breeders Crown with Giant Victory in 1991, and Brian Sears 35 years and 306 days when he broke through in the Breeders Crown series with his very first win Stroke Play Nov. 29, 2003. The relevance you ask? Dexter Dunn now has 21 Breeders Crowns at 35 years and 57 days.

MIDWEST CHRONICLES

with JAMES PLATZ

First Turn Stable struggling to reach the starting gate

by James Platz

Two months have passed since my last update on the First Turn Stable experience. I wish I could devote paragraphs to recount the details from each start at Harrah's Hoosier Park, but that won't happen in this column. There is very little on-track action to cover from the last eight weeks, just a lot of waiting and hoping.

In my last installment, First Turn Stable was in the midst of transition. Four-year-old pacer Fast Feet had been sold via online auction site onGait.com. First Turn then claimed 7-year-old Sweet Truth on Aug. 24. Things were looking up. Trainer Patrizio Ancora sent out the veteran pacer Aug. 30 in a claiming handicap at the Anderson oval. Steered by Jordan Ross, the favorite led through a :55.1 opening half before slipping to fifth at the wire. A claim was entered, and Sweet Truth left the Ancora barn after one start.

That's the challenge of the claiming game. Just as quickly as you acquire a horse you can lose it, claimed the next week by another outfit. Back to the drawing board. New plan. New horse. But that's where things have gotten tricky. First Turn Stable has attempted to claim a horse multiple times, but lady luck has not been on our side.

A claim was entered on Commentariat on Sept. 19. That night the 10-year-old gelded son of Bettors Delight raced fourth in a claiming handicap for trainer Hector Herrera. Multiple claims were entered on the $300,000 winner, successfully claimed by Charlie Stewart.

First Turn Stable once again attempted to claim Commentariat, this time on Sept. 27. Entered in the third race on the card, the pacer never had a chance to line up behind the starting gate. That night, Hoosier Park management tried in vain to race as remnants from Hurricane Helene pushed their way into the Midwest. The track canceled the program after two races.

Moving into the month of October, the struggle continues to claim a horse. First Turn Stable put in yet another claim Oct. 5, this time on Always A Warrior. The 5-year-old was competing in non-winners of a race or $2,001 in the last four starts. The gelding was third that night. Two claims were entered, and First Turn Stable lost the shake. Now trained by Cristian Pacheco, Always A Warrior won his next time out and finished second in the most recent start. Claimed for $5,000, he has quickly banked $3,000 for his new connections.

Time is running out for the stable to add a new horse. Hoosier Park wraps up the 2024 meet Nov. 30, leaving only a few weeks of racing on the calendar. The chance of returning to the winner's circle a second time this season is quickly escaping. And that's disappointing. First Turn Stable's campaign started with so much promise. Fast Feet made 11 starts in May, June and July, collecting one win. After his final start for First Turn on July 31, the group has had one start in the last 12 weeks. Twelve long weeks.

As I have taken this journey, I have tried to maintain what I hope is a proper perspective. First, I realize my commitment is only a couple hundred dollars. First Turn Stable hasn't sent out a starter in two months, but it also hasn't cost me a dime. Last weekend as I watched one yearling after another sell at the Hoosier Classic Sale, I thought about the owners that will begin accumulating bills on these young horses as early as next month. And they will pay those bills with optimism that the babies they have invested in will pay dividends next summer. If First Turn doesn't acquire another racehorse soon, I'm still only out my initial fee. Truth be told, I may have a chance to get a small return at season's end.

Second, I didn't enter into this with preconceived notions of how the experience would play out. And looking back at the summer, I would have never anticipated any of this. Racing is unpredictable. Fast Feet loses a shoe racing to the quarter, drastically altering his chance of winning. You don't prepare for that. It makes me appreciate how a lot of little things have to go right in order to reach the winner's circle. For First Turn Stable, we're just looking to catch a break on a claim at the moment.

Virginia SIRE STAKES REPORT

by Darrell Wood / Shenandoah Downs

Kelsey Wagner's Brooksforreal won his ninth-straight race in wire-to-wire fashion and track record time Sunday (Oct. 27) in the $90,975 Virginia Breeder's divisional championship for 2-Year-Old Colt and Gelding pacers at Shenandoah Downs. A total of eight Breeder's titles for 2- and 3-year-olds were contested with $720,265 in purse money on the line.

Trainer John Wagner's pacer wired the field in two previous eliminations on Oct. 13 and 20 and established a new track mark in each of those for freshman gelding pacers – in 1:56 and 1:54.1, respectively. Brooksforreal started Sunday from post 2 with Corey Braden in the bike against seven others, hit the opening quarter in :26.3 and half in :55.4 while maintaining a length-plus cushion over the Britney Dillion trainee, Paxamillion. The frontstepper opened up the second time around, crossing the third marker 3½ lengths in front in 1:25.1 then cruised home in 1:53.3, 5½ lengths the best.

With the win, Wagner's star pacer's bankroll surged to $170,502 from just 23 starts. Paxamillion, who completed a solid Breeder's series, finished second while Caviart Farms' Caviart Cash was third.

Next fastest winning mile Sunday was authored by Lawrence Cooper's Caviart Simon in the $84,400 3-Year-Old Colt and Gelding Pace. The Always B Miki gelding had a win and a third in elimination action but picked it up a notch with more money on the line. Reinsman Archie Buford led the wire-to-wire effort and after opening up by five over Tracy Bradshaw's runner-up Bgoing Away at the half, Cooper's pacer never let up. He crossed in 1:54, 8¼ lengths the best. His previous best time in 25 starts was 1:55.2 in the second elimination race. Mary and John Bare's The Marshal took third.

Caviart Farms' Caviart Ainsley powered home in the stretch, catching and passing second place finisher Sweet Pirategirl just before the wire, to secure top spot in the $87,600 3-Year-Old Filly Pace title match. The daughter of Captain Crunch came within a fifth of her 1:55 previous best which was set at Pocono Downs. The Tony Alagna trainee was driven by 20-year-old William Carter who this past week, went over the $1 million mark in 2024 earnings. Anne McDonald owns the runner-up. Caviart Farms' Caviart Dawn finished third. Fourth place finisher Caviart Sophie, also owned by the Caviart group of Buck and Judy Chaffee, was sent off as the betting choice based on back-to-back elimination wins but broke at the start and in the stretch.

In the 3-Year-Old Trotting finals, Jane Dunavant's Pretty Two got his picture taken in the $86,000 Colt and Gelding bout while Nanticoke Racing Inc. and Delbert Cain's Platinum Proposal took honors in the $90,000 Filly counterpart. Pretty Two, by Dusty Winner, competed in one early Breeder's leg and prevailed in 2:01.1 and on Sunday, got to the front after departing the rail spot and never looked back, crossing by three over Kelsey Wagner's Gerald's A Keeper in a new life mark of 1:57.2. Cody Polisenio piloted the victor for Carlo Polisenio. Kelsey Wagner and Scott Woogen's K J Dash finished third.

Platinum Proposal swept her three leg Breeder's series, putting a cherry on top of her elimination wins with a wire-to-wire, three-length victory over Marna Shehan's Speedy Town in the final. Jim Morand was in the sulky for trainer Les Givens again and the E L Platinum filly did not disappoint after being sent off at odds of 1-9. She finished in 2:00.4 and increased her career earnings to $230,194. Jane Dunavant's Glide Along finished third.

In 2-Year-Old Trotting finales, Kelsey Wagner's Sweringmervin was best in the $92,175 Colt and Gelding Trot while Caviart Farms picked up their second championship trophy Sunday in the $94,500 filly category with Caviart Glory, who starred after leaving from outside post 8.

The former, who holds the track record time of 1:58.4 in that division, left from post 4 with Braden in the sulky. After triggering a 1:30.3 third fraction and holding a six-length cushion over two other Wagner horses – Roan Ridge and Magoo Will Do – the winner coasted home with a :30.4 closing quarter and was 2½ lengths the best in 2:01.2.

Five of the seven entrants in the Filly Trot broke stride which opened the door for trainer Philip Scott Sonstebly's Caviart Glory to triumph easily after securing a perfect pocket trip the first time around. Sonstebly, who was in the bike, led the Greenshoe filly past breaking leader Kat's Fancy before the third fraction and went on to a nine-length victory in 1:59.1. In her sole elimination race, Caviart Glory wired the field and crossed 20 lengths in front. Kelsey Wagner and Scott Woogen's K J The Thirteenth finished second on Sunday while Jane Dunavant's Song Master took third.

In the final Breeder's race, Woogen's K J Becky collected her first lifetime win in the $94,975 Filly Pace after being sent off at 8-1, highest odds of any stakes winner Sunday. The daughter of Huntsville was fresh off respective sixth and second place finishes in the elimination rounds and left from post 2 with leading driver Fern Paquet, Jr. aboard. The Gary Messenger trainee maintained a one length lead over Elwood Tignor's Mygirlmia through three-quarters then opened up a bit in the stretch and crossed in 1:57. The winner had been sent off at 20-1 in each of her elims. D R Thompson, A L Stephens and L L Belcher's Caviart Maria was second and Mygirlmia was third.

Combined with five $20,000 Breeder's races for older horses and a $10,000 winners over pace, over $800,000 in purse money was distributed Sunday. The Woodstock oval completed its ninth fall season as a pari-mutuel track and combined with its 2024 spring meet, raced a total of 28 days over 14 weeks. The track has applied for a pair of seven week meets again in 2025 and pending Virginia Racing Commission approval, will kick off its spring season April 26 and run through June 8. Fall dates are planned from Sept. 13 – Oct. 26. Details will be available at shenandoahdowns.com.

Leigh Fitch dies at age 79

Leigh W. Fitch, a Maine harness racing icon whose daring, rail-hugging driving style propelled him to 7,592 victories and more than anyone's share of driving spills during a 53-year career, died on Oct. 26, 2024, at his home in Sebago, ME, after a long illness. He was 79.

Fitch won his first race on Sept. 1, 1962, at the Windsor (Maine) Fair with the pacer Miss Marie Pointer in 2:12. His last drive was also at Windsor, on Sept. 1, 2015, 53 years and one day after his first win.

Fitch was one of the first great catch drivers in Maine, emerging a few years before Billy Parker, Jr. His winningest years were from the late 1970s to the early 1990s, peaking between 1983 and 1994, when his UDR dropped below .300 just once. He earned New England Driver of the Year in 1984 but the best was yet to come. In 1988, he won 472 races from 2,051 drives, primarily at Lewiston Raceway and Scarborough Downs as well as the Maine fairs, good for a UDR of .379 and fifth in the nation in dash victories behind Herve Filion, Walter Case, Jr., Jack Moiseyev, and John Campbell.

"I idolized him when I was a kid," said Case of Fitch, who grew up in Lewiston, in 1996. "He has the fire. He taught me what a winning attitude was all about."

In 1996, Fitch estimated that he had been involved in more than 150 accidents in his career. Harness racing columnist Tony Aliberti, writing in the Lewiston Sunday newspaper in 1986, stated that "not a single driver in the history of racing has sustained either the number or magnitude of his driving injuries." As Fitch liked to say, "I've broken just about every bone, some more than once." In 1984, he cut off a cast himself to get back to driving quicker than doctors suggested.

Indeed, Fitch's capacity to literally get back on the horse would ultimately define his greatness, and was why fans loved Fitch in his green and orange colors, always on the comeback. He rebounded from personal challenges, including achieving sobriety in 1985, not to mention bruises and broken bones from his many accidents, without losing his nerve or his "stick," as one fellow driver described Fitch's mettle.

Shane Bacon is executive director of the Maine Harness Racing Commission. In the 1980s, he was the track announcer at Lewiston Raceway. After Fitch won the track's dash and UDR title for the fall meet in 1987, Bacon presented Fitch with a life-size trophy. "I have that picture in my office," said Bacon.

"Calling races with him at the top of his game, one word that comes to mind is 'patience.' He had the presence of mind to realize that the shortest route is the best most of the time so he made a living out of that. Fitch was truly the Fox."

The mark of a great driver is winning with a horse that isn't the best or fastest, noted Bacon. And that's what Fitch did day after day. "He was just smarter," Bacon said.

As a catch driver, Fitch was most associated with trainer Elmer Ballard, a perennial leading trainer at Lewiston Raceway and Scarborough Downs. He drove horses up and down the class ladder, but was perhaps best known for cagy drives on cheap claimers.

"Leigh Fitch accepts horses few others would dare to drive," wrote columnist Aliberti "There is no driver in Maine who tries harder to please his fans."

Fitch made occasional forays outside New England. He had the talent but, he would admit, not the mindset.

"Leigh Fitch is ours alone to recognize," said Aliberti. "No one will ever know the epitome of aggressiveness, courage, ability, finesse that come together in Leigh Fitch."

In 2012, Fitch suffered broken bones in his neck and back when a horse he was driving fell during a race at Scarborough Downs. Two years later, Fitch chose to drive the same horse in its first race back since the fall.

"The more time you're off it works on you," Fitch said at the time. "In my younger years, the first thing you do is get back right on another horse so you don't get time to think about what happened. If you jump right up and the next one goes all right, you've basically put the one behind you that went bad."

Driving the same horse after two years was just as important, even if the result wasn't a winning one, he said.

"We all came out of it happy," Fitch said. "Fifth money isn't great, but it's better than sixth and a lot better than being in the hospital. That's just the way this business goes."

He is survived by his wife, Stacey Lord Fitch, and his five children. Details of a celebration of life will be announced on social media, as well as a memorial race at First Tracks Cumberland in the coming weeks.

Per Engblom reaches 1,000 career training victories

Trainer Per Engblom sent out two winners on Monday night at MGM Yonkers Raceway, with the second of victories being the 1,000th of his career.

Engblom joined forces with driver Jason Bartlett to take the second event with 4-year-old Sweet Lou gelding Lous The Attitude in 1:53.1 for owners Stephen and Brian Gordon, and then Engblom's milestone triumph came with Coaches Corner in the $35,000 invitational pace. The runner-up in the final of the MGM Borgata Pacing Series earlier this year, Coaches Corner, a 4-year-old gelding by Always A Virgin owned by Jeff Fought Racing and Brian Carsey, got the job done from first-over in 1:51.

Last year's leading trainer at Yonkers, Engblom has been battling with Travis Alexander at the top of the board in 2024 and went back in front 165 to 163 after his double.

A former assistant in the powerful Jimmy Takter stable, Engblom went out on his own in 2019 and has sent out horses that have earned over $21.1 million.

USTA special committee to review SRIF findings

The United States Trotting Association's board of directors met Monday (Oct. 28) to address matters related to an investigation conducted by the Standardbred Racing Investigative Fund (SRIF).

The investigation was overseen by Vicki Humphreys, founder and president of HML Group, which serves as the lead investigator for SRIF, and Carson Morris, an attorney with the law firm Montgomery McCracken Walker and Rhoads, who serves as SRIF's counsel. SRIF is presently engaged in numerous investigations of suspected misconduct in the standardbred industry on behalf of the USTA.

The USTA is the keeper of the standardbred registry. As such, the Association is responsible for the data upon which the foundation of the standardbred economy is built. Maintaining the integrity of this information is integral to the ongoing viability of the standardbred economy, from which all USTA members benefit.

During today's board meeting, USTA president Russell Williams emphasized that in carrying out its oversight role, the USTA must investigate and, when warranted, take action against USTA members involved in the false and fraudulent ownership of registered standardbred horses by ineligible individuals, a practice known as "bearding." Bearding is prohibited by the USTA's rules and bylaws, and for too long, the USTA has had insufficient resources to investigate and enforce violations of these rules. That era has ended.

The USTA tasked SRIF with, among other things, investigating suspected bearding in the standardbred industry. That inquiry yielded results. On Monday, the board approved the appointment of a five-member committee to consider SRIF's findings and determine whether certain USTA members violated the Association's rules and bylaws. Facts uncovered in SRIF's investigation will remain confidential until the committee's work is complete.

Powerful finish to Simpson series at Pocono

In winding up the John Simpson, Sr. Memorial stakes races for the year at Pocono Downs at Mohegan Pennsylvania on Monday (Oct. 28) afternoon, the dominant players were the sophomore trotter Sir Pinocchio, who achieved one distinction while just missing two others in winning a division for his group in 1:51.4; trainer Åke Svanstedt, who sent out the divisional winners in the other three of the 3-year-old diamondgaited action; and the pairing of driver Tim Tetrick and trainer Jim King, Jr., who swept the races for 2-year-old pacing fillies.

In his division of the Ayres stake for his group, like the others carrying a $30,000 purse, the Met's Hall gelding Sir Pinocchio made the lead early for driver Jason Bartlett and laid down rapid fractions of :27. :56.2, and 1:24.1, then came home in :27.3 to leave Bryant Bros S (yet another Svanstedt horse) 4½ lengths behind at the finish in the sensational win for trainer Ed Hart and owner Carolyn Atherton.

The clocking, on a cool day, was just a tick behind the Pocono track record for 3-year-old trotting geldings recorded by Pinkman in 2015. It also was just a fifth behind the fastest trotting mile of the year at the northeast Pennsylvania track, a clocking shared by Sig Sauer (the Breeders Crown winner this past Saturday) and Warrawee Michelle (yet another Svanstedtite who equaled the filly track mark in that time). The clocking did lower Sir Pinocchio's lifetime record by a fifth.

Having already won the first three of the four divisions, the second-place check for Bryant Bros S meant the green, black, and white had to settle for $52,500 in stakes earnings, after winning two Crowns and $914,250 in Crown purses over the weekend.

Svanstedt himself drove two of the three Ayres winners from his barn: the faster was the front-ender Flying Kronos S, a Face Time Bourbon colt who flew home in :55.4 to win in 1:53, a new mark in a race where less than a length separated the first four finishers. Flying Kronos S is owned by Midnight Sun Partners Inc., Bruni Racing Team Inc., and Kronos Breeding Inc.

Åke also drove the Six Pack colt Mr Bluebird as he won in 1:54, also flying his back half in :55.4 in triumphing for Åke Svanstedt Inc., Little E LLC, and Torbjorn Swahn Inc. Svanstedt drove another horse in the other trotting section, so frequent local Svanstedt deputy George Napolitano, Jr. had the winning steer behind the Walner colt Southwind Metric, who continued on after his cover broke to win by three-quarters-of-a-length in a lifetime best 1:53.4 for Westergaard Inc.

The Razzle Hanover was the stake for the baby pacing misses, and it carried at total purse of $100,200. The first division saw the Jim King barn go 1-2, and the other saw him send out finishers one and three.

First up was the Bettor's Wish—McSauna miss Royally Hot, who has now strung together stakes wins in the Keystone Classic at The Meadows, the Liberty Bell stakes at Philly, and here her Simpson division in 1:53.2. Working gradually to the lead, Royally Hot had to keep the burners on late as she needed a :26.4 last quarter to stave off her barnmate Lyons Benz by a half-length for Tim Tetrick LLC.

Pilar Hanover, a daughter of Papi Rob Hanover—Paula's Best, also pulled off the Liberty Bell-Simpson double, authoritatively winning while recording a new lifetime speed mark of 1:51.2 for Jo Ann Looney-King and Paton Racing Inc. Beckoning Yankee got between the winner and her stablemate Lyons Anitasangel to thwart another 1-2 King finish.

The two multiple stakes-winning trainers were the only conditioners to have more than one win at Pocono on Monday, but no fewer than six drivers had a pair of victories: Jason Bartlett, Matt Kakaley, Napolitano, Jr., Svanstedt, Tetrick, and Ridge Warren.

Dr. J Stallion Management is proud to announce the addition of four new stallions to its roster

Captain Albano, p, 3, 148.1 $1,320,023, Dan Patch 2-Year-Old Pacing Colt of the Year in 2023 and the favorite to capture divisional honors again in 2024, will stand the 2025 breeding season at Blue Chip Farms in Wallkill, NY for a service fee of $8,500. At 2, Captain Albano recorded seven wins and two second-place finishes in nine starts while taking a record of 1:49.2 winning his division of the Bluegrass Stakes. Captain Albano's other wins at 2 include the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes final, his division of the International Stallion Stakes and his elimination of the Breeders Crown. This year at 3, Captain Albano captured the Adios, Little Brown Jug and his elimination of the Breeders Crown. From the classic Shifting Sands family, Captain Albano is a handsome, correct son of Captaintreacherous out of Angelou (by American Ideal). Trainer Noel Daley said, "Captain Albano has been a complete professional since the day I broke him. He has a great attitude, a world of talent and a terrific gait that enables him to get around any size track, I wouldn't change anything about him." Shares in this great son of Captaintreacherous will be sold.

Sig Sauer, 3, 1:49.3 $1,151.32, the likely choice for 2024 Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year is the winner of nine of 15 lifetime starts. Sig Sauer won four of five starts at the age of 2 while taking a record of 1:53.3 winning the New Jersey Sire Stakes final. Sig Sauer is the fastest 3-year-old trotter of 2024 by virtue of his 1:49.3 win in the Kentucky Futurity which is the only sub 1:50 win by any 3-year-old trotter this season. In addition to the Kentucky Futurity, victories by Sig Sauer this year at 3 include his division of the Stanley Dancer, the Beal, and the final of the Breeders Crown. A $200,000 yearling purchase, Sig Sauer is a breathtakingly handsome son of the great Muscle Hill out of Sigilwig by Donato Hanover. According to his trainer Noel Daley, "There isn't a 3-year-old trotter this year that can beat Sig Sauer when he is at his best." From a great maternal family that includes Back Of The Neck, 1:51 $1,463,646, Broadway Donna, 1:51.1 $1,434,735 and Fashion Schooner, 1:50 $765,374, Sig Sauer will stand in Pennsylvania at Hanover Shoe Farms for a service fee of $8,000. Shares in this exciting young stallion will be sold.

It's Academic, 1:50.1 $2,640,323, the world champion and 2023 Dan Patch Older Trotting Horse of the Year is a gold standard for consistency and honesty. A precocious 2- and 3-year-old, It's Academic won at the Delaware County Fair in 1:55.2 at 2 and took a record of 1:50.3 at 3. In fact, It's Academic captured seven of his 14 starts at 3 including the Currier and Ives, his division of the Bluegrass and the Pegasus. It's Academic blossomed into one of the best older trotters in the history of our sport. His victories as an older trotter are too numerous to mention here but include the Hill Memorial, multiple legs of the Graduate, the Crawford Farms Trot, the Spirit Of Massachusetts (twice), the Cashman Invitational, the Aldrich (twice), and the Caesars Totting Classic. A dark, perfectly sized and perfectly conformed son of Uncle Peter out of The Muscle Hill mare Annapolis, trainer Ron Burke said, "It's Academic has been a pleasure to train since the first day I put the harness on him. He's a classy, honest horse that always gives his all and has defeated some of the best trotters in the world." It's Academic will stand the 2025 breeding season at Tara Hills Stud in Port Perry, ON. His 2025 service fee will be $6,000 CAD and multiple mare discounts will be available.

Hellabalou, p, 1:48.3f $1,475,821, the iron-tough son of super sire Sweet Lou out of the Rocknroll Hanover mare Magestic Blue Chip will stand the 2025 breeding season at Pedigree Point Stables in Etna Green, IN, for a service fee of $4,000. At 3, Hellabalou won his elimination of the Meadowlands Pace in 1:49.2 with a last quarter of :25.2 and both his elimination and final of the Adios. As an older horse, Hellabalou became a stalwart in the opens and preferreds at several racetracks with the crown jewel being his victories in the Borgata final at Yonkers in both 2023 and 2024. Hellabalou hails from one of the sport's hottest maternal families whose performers include Boston Red Rocks, p, 1:48.2f $1,365,823, McSeaside p, 1;48.4 $595.238 and this year's Ohio 2-year-old phenom Rick Wink p, 2, 1:50.2h $376,675. Trainer Ron Burke called Hellabalou, "The best-looking horse I have ever trained." Burke went on to say "If Hellabalou passes his raw speed and toughness, I truly believe he can be a great stallion." Shares in this gorgeous son of Sweet Lou will be available at a very attractive price.

For further information on these four stallions please contact Dr.J at 717-578-7395 or drjablonsky@drjstallionmanagement.com. All these stallions, except for Sig Sauer, will be featured at the Dr.J Stallion Management Open House that is scheduled to be held Dec. 18 from noon to 3 p.m. at Scioto Downs Racetrack. All are invited to attend.

MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series resumes Friday at Yonkers

Two $75,000 divisions of the second leg of the MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series will go behind the gate on Friday night (Nov. 1) at MGM Yonkers Raceway.

It's Academic, who was one of the first-round winners, drew the pole position in the first split (race 4). Last year's Dan Patch Award winner for older trotting males, It's Academic was sixth in the Breeders Crown Open Trot final on Saturday (Oct. 26) at The Meadowlands. Yannick Gingras is listed to drive for trainer Ron Burke. Ari Ferrari J (post 5, Jason Bartlett listed to drive for trainer Tony Alagna), who won the Bob Miecuna Invitational Trot at Yonkers in September, was second in his opening leg flight and eighth in the Breeders Crown Open Trot final.

Chapercraz, the other horse to tally in the initial leg of the series, starts from the outside post 7 in Friday night's other section (race 6). Another Gingras/Burke entrant, Chapercraz backed up his tally in the MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series with another score in a NW30000L5 base class event at Yonkers on Oct. 24. If Chapercraz is victorious he will go over the $1 million mark in career earnings.

Here are the full fields for Friday night's races with listed driver and trainer:

DIVISION 1 – RACE 4

Post – Horse – Driver – Trainer

1. It's Academic – Yannick Gingras – Ron Burke
2. Gaines Hanover – Pat Lachance – Pat Lachance

FanDuel Championships info online

With the 2024 Breeders Crown completed, the FanDuel Championship becomes the focus of the connections of the sport's top horses.

The stakes conditions were designed to allow invitations be offered to horses that have won major Grand Circuit stakes, largely to provide a stage for the best 3-year-olds to take on their elders in a season ending Championship.

The FanDuel standings are posted on The Meadowlands website. Included in the chart are the stakes that offer the possibility of an invitation (in the order that those invitations are offered) along with the winners of those races.

Merner magnificent on Maritime Breeder's Saturday

Driver Adam Merner was firing on all cylinders as he snagged four wins on the second half of a special Maritime Breeder's Saturday (Oct. 26) program at Red Shores Racetrack and Casino at the Charlottetown Driving Park.

The Cape Breton native started the winning in race 2 in a $20,250 Maritime Breeder's 3-year-old pacing filly dash with Miss Dutton in a 1:56.3 final clocking over Fern Hill Indigo (driven by Brodie MacPhee) and U No Peach (Kenny Arsenault). Kuri White trains the winning daughter of Rollwithitharry to her third-straight win for owner Shoulda Been Onabeach Stable of Charlottetown.

Downtown Tonight was another Merner driven winner in a $20,250 Maritime Breeder's 3-year-old pacing filly division at 10-1 odds in 1:56 over race favorite Zendayas Firstlady (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) while Windemere Saddy (Marc Campbell) was third. Tom Weatherbie trains the Shanghai Phil lass for owners Cam and Gordon MacPhee.

Merner's third Maritime Breeder's prize was in a $28,500 Home Hardware Maritime Breeder's 3-year-old pacing colt division as he converted a 2-hole trip with Merigo Magic to glory in 1:54.3 as he snapped Tobins Chester's (Jason Hughes) win streak at five. Merner trains the Tobago Cays colt for Mike May, Herman Mcquaid, Derrick Cameron and Ian Walker. Swordfromthestone (Marc Campbell) completed the triactor.

Merner also won an overnight dash with Well Said Celeb from his own barn in 1:55.2 for four wins on the program.

In other action, Atlantic Breeder's Crown champion Galway Girl (Marc Campbell) went all the way in her $20,250 Home Hardware Maritime Breeder's division for sophomore fillies from the Brent Campbell stable for owners Brady Doyle, Jacinta Campbell, Bernard MacDonald and Kent MacDonald. Time of the mile was 1:56.2 as First Filly Chip (Corey MacPherson) finished second with Rollwithitdarling (Paul Langille) third.

The other $28,500 Home Hardware Maritime Breeder's 3-year-old pacing colt split saw Jackies Boy (Myles Heffernan, Sr.) hold on to win in 1:55.1 in a neck decision over Howmac General (Langille). Little Leroy (MacPherson) was third. Myles Heffernan, Jr., owns and trains the winning son of Tobago Cays.

Acefortyfour Dome scored a mild upset at 8-1 odds in the $14,650 Atlantic Older Pacing Mares Series final, presented by Standardbred Canada, for driver Hughes, trainer Ashley Gamester and owner Donald MacRae. Time for the mile was 1:54.1 with Pasta Momma (Marc Campbell) second and Sugar Bowl (Gilles Barrieau) third.
