Anatomy of a handle record

Wagering heats up chilly Breeders Crown

by Melissa Keith

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

with MELISSA KEITH

The crowds in the grandstand and along the fence told the tale: The 2022 Breeders Crown at Woodbine Mohawk Park would be remembered not only for outstanding on-track performances, but for strong attendance and handle. Friday night (Oct. 28) featured the four divisional finals for 2-year-olds, while the six open and 3-year-old finals were held Saturday night (Oct. 29).

Spectators sported souvenir Breeders Crown toques and kept warm around outdoor fire pits. Meanwhile, horseplayers looked to “get hot, stay hot” on and off track, sending $8,945,779 (Cdn) through the real and virtual windows combined through both nights. Jim Lawson, CEO of Woodbine Entertainment, tweeted that the 2022 championship event was “the most successful @ Breeders_Crown in its history,” with the track’s “2 day wagering record smashed.”

It wasn’t the first year that the Campbellville, ON track established a new wagering milestone playing host to the Breeders Crown. In 2019, the first year Mohawk held all 12 Crown finals, it generated a Canadian record handle of $6,678,779 (Cdn). Woodbine Racetrack no longer conducts harness racing, but set a previous national record handle of $5.7 million (Cdn) during the 2015 Breeders Crown.

Jamie Dykstra, communications director for Woodbine Entertainment, confirmed the new record: “It was the biggest Breeders Crown handle in Woodbine Entertainment’s history of hosting the event at Woodbine Racetrack and Woodbine Mohawk Park.”

He added that American dollars wagered on the card were converted into Canadian currency, with the total handle expressed in Canadian dollars.

Moira Fanning provided Breeders Crown wagering statistics which revealed a combined four-night handle of $14,752,248 (Cdn) for this year's finals ($8,945,779 Cdn) plus eliminations ($5,806,469 Cdn). The Meadowlands handled $11,489,900 (US) for all four Breeders Crown days/nights (elims and finals) in 2021.

The Hambletonian Society director of publicity/COO pointed out that comparing different editions of the Breeders Crown should take into account how previous editions were conducted, with events spread around different venues in the same year. For example, The Meadowlands handled a whopping $7,039,284 (US) in 2001, on a daytime card with Hambletonian eliminations, three Breeders Crown finals (open pace, open mare pace, open trot) and foreign wagering to accommodate the huge following of Italian champion Varenne.

American horseplayers showed strong support for this year's Breeders Crown. Dykstra told HRU that 77 per cent of handle originated in the United States and 23 per cent from Canada. While attendance was visibly strong, particularly on Saturday night, overall wagering trends stayed consistent: 60 per cent of handle was online, 40 per cent at tracks and OTBs. He confirmed that overseas betting did not factor into the 2022 total: "It did not, but international wagering beyond North America is something our wagering team is actively working on."

Woodbine Mohawk Park is already Canada's top harness track by handle; little adjustment was required for Breeders Crown wagering options.

"Our wagering team works very closely with our racing office to create the best card possible," said Dykstra. "There were no major adjustments to the wagering menu, other than adding a third Pick 5."

He found that horseplayers gravitated towards the surest thing of the two cards: "Race 9, the open pace final featuring Bulldog Hanover, had the most wagering of any Breeders Crown race." (1-5 favorite Bulldog Hanover and driver Dexter Dunn won going away in 1:46.4s, matching the all-time Canadian pacing record held by himself and Dr J Hanover).

Fanning agreed that the star power of the 2022 finals made the races attractive to even casual fans: "Bulldog absolutely, as well as horses like Test Of Faith, Ecurie D, Atlanta, and Bythemissal have garnered fan and wagering support all year long, so that helps."

She observed that field size and guaranteed pools for multi-leg wagers (Pick-4 and -5) have both contributed to increases in Breeders Crown wagering: "Field size is key, but we usually have full fields in the finals if not the elims. If you have special wagers, which we did at Pocono in 2010 or Mohawk in 2015, for example, it can boost the handle."

Yearlings Nov. 7-9 | Mixed Nov. 10-11 | (717) 637-8931 | theblackbook.com

Woodbine Mohawk Park's year-round promotion of harness racing from a wagering perspective helped elevate the 2022 Breeders Crown in horseplayers' awareness. "Absolutely," said Fanning. "[Woodbine Entertainment] did a lot of promotions and concentrated very heavily on wagering and their ADW partnerships and promotions. This is key of course, to consistently cater to your bettors all year long, not just for a special event."

Reaching new bettors is another crucial aspect of marketing the Breeders Crown. Fanning praised the continued "crossover effort" started with FOX Sports/NYRA last year by The Meadowlands with the Breeders Crown and Hambletonian Society. Television and simulcast audiences were (re-)introduced to standardbreds at their finest:

"More thoroughbred people are becoming comfortable betting on harness horses, and the 'America's Day At the Races' FS2 block of two hours on Friday and 7:30-11pm on Saturday with Anthony Stabile and Acacia Clement, as well as Jess Otten live from [Woodbine Mohawk Park] had to really help. The WMP races were interspersed with Charles Town gallopers. I firmly believe we saw a bump from that exposure."

There was no one variable that made the 2022 Breeders Crown such a success, said Dykstra. "It's a combination of many factors, including the strength of the racing product; the strength the Woodbine Mohawk Park brand; marketing in the U.S. remotes market; strong HPIbet promotions; great weather; and of course, it always helps to have a star horse like Bulldog Hanover competing in the championship race."

Perfect fall weather made for a great night out at the track, but also had a clear effect on off-track wagering, according to Fanning. "Some bettors just won't bet in inclement weather, or bet less, and fewer people come out in bad weather too," she said.

Neither was an issue last weekend, at the track where the souvenir toque inadvertently symbolized a cozy Canadian Crown.

"Mohawk is obviously the top harness signal in Canada and maybe even North America," she added. "People are familiar and comfortable betting it."

The stars and big winners from Breeders Crown weekend

by Bob Heyden

Breeders Crown stars of the weekend: Ake Svanstedt with three wins, Walner with three from his very first crop where the oldest is now 3, Dexter Dunn with four victories and Bulldog Hanover.

Dunn is the only driver with multiple Crowns in each of his first four years in the Crown. From 2019 through 2022 he won two, four, two and four Crowns, respectively. However, he is not the quickest ever to a dozen Crowns. It took him 43 drives to win his 12th. Brian Sears reached 12 in his 39th Crown drive in 2006.

This is the third straight year Dunn led in Crown money. The record is six, set by John Campbell first from 1988-1993 and then equaled by Brian Sears in 2004-2009

David Miller, the 2015 record-setting in Canada with five Crown wins and the 2016 money leader, was the only U.S.-born driver to win a Crown all weekend.

DRIVERS SCOREBOARD

Scott Zeron scored for the sixth time in Crown history

Louis-Philippe Roy won his first

Bob McClure his second

Doug McNair his second

Ake Svanstedt his third

Nancy Takter won her eighth Crown

Noel Daley his fifth

Ray Schnittker his fourth

Jack Darling his first

Virgil Morgan, Jr. his second

Richard Moreau his first

Shawn Steacy his first

Nifty Norman his eighth

Ake Svanstedt his third, fourth and fifth

For the first time in Breeders Crown history only one of the top 14 trainers and one driver all-time in Breeders Crown history won a Crown. David Miller is #2 all-time in Crown earnings and Joe Holloway is #8.

HANOVER TOPS

Bulldog Hanover gave Hanover Shoe Farms its third of the weekend and 30th overall to now have the all-time lead among breeders with 30. In 26 of the 39 Breeders Crown seasons, Hanover Shoe Farms had the most starters. Brittany Farms had one credit and improved to 29 trophies.

WHITE BIRCH HAD TWO

White Birch Farm had a big weekend with two winners: Grace Hill and Treacherous Dragon.

Treacherous Dragon's sire, Captaintreacherous, won one Crown and her dam, My Little Dragon, won three.

WINNING SIRES

Always B Miki now has become the quickest stallion to record six Breeders Crown credits. Grace Hill, 4, gave him the half-dozen. Miki had two Crown credits on the weekend.

The other Crown-winning sires were:

Infinitif — sire of back-to-back winner Ecurie D.

Bar Hopping — sire of back-to-back winner Bella Bellini.

Shadow Play — gave Bulldog Hanover and trainer Jack Darling their first Crowns. Previously, Shadow Play's Percy Blue Chip was a $100 plus mutuel in 2018 in the 3YOF.

Cantab Hall — won a 2YO Crown showing there's some gas still in the tank. It was #9 all-time for Cantab.

Captaintreacherous — won his 4th Crown

Downbytheseaside — got on the board with his first

Sweet Lou – finished 1-2 in the 2YOCP with the 52-1 shot over the odds-on choice.

Walner – went 1-2 in two Crowns (2YOFT and 3YOFT) and led with three winners this year.

CLOSE, BUT NO CIGAR

That photo from this year wasn't quite as close as last year's, but both times trainer Brian Brown was the runner-up in the freshman pacing colt Crown. Last year, Gulf Shores was just a nose back to eventual division winner Monte Miki. This year, Brown's Confederate was a half-length back of Ammo.

36 YEARS BETWEEN CROWNS

Marty Granoff and Val D'Or now have 36 years between their first Breeders Crown in 1986 with Masquerade and this year's win with Ammo.

SIX STRAIGHT FOR ATLANTA

Atlanta is yet to win a Crown, but she did earn six straight Crown checks.

RESPECT? INDEED

In year one of the Breeders Crown in 1984, 176 stallions were nominated to the series in January. Remember, nobody had any idea how the series would go at that point. Meadow Skipper had died in January, 1982, but was still on the list and did win in year one with Naughty But Nice in the 3YOFP. But, one of the 176 was born in the 1940s and died also in 1982 – Tar Heel. The son of record-setting Billy Direct won the Jug and sired two Jug winners. He was bred and owned throughout his 3YO season by tobacco magnate W N Reynolds. At the suggestion of Del Miller, he was given the state's nickname Tar Heel. He was sold to Lawrence Sheppard of Hanover Shoe Farms for a record price of $125,000 in 1951 and entered stud duty after his 4-year-old season in 1952. He was the sport's leading sire three straight years in 1969-1971, becoming the first ever stallion to top $2 million in 1969. He bred his last group of mares in 1980.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Young trainer Zach Vickerson puts in the miles

by Chris Lomon

On most racing nights, Zach Vickerson puts in more miles than his horses.

Whenever he has a pacer or trotter in to compete at the 5/8ths oval in Plainridge, ME, the 22-year-old standardbred trainer is a man in perpetual motion in the leadup to post time.

"Oh, man. Before the race goes off, I can't sit still. I'm walking, I'm pacing, my heart is beating faster... You would think the more you race, that would stop. But for me, every week is the same. That's just the way I am."

By the time the horses cross the wire, Vickerson very well could have traversed farther than one of his charges.

Yet, it's a formula that works.

One look at his stat sheet suggests, 'if it ain't broke, don't fix it.'

After going 4-1-2 from 11 starts in his rookie season in 2021, Vickerson hasn't fallen victim to the sophomore jinx.

Instead, the Maine native has had a dream season, racking up impressive numbers across the board, including wins and purse earnings.

Two big reasons for his success come in the form of a pacer and a trotter.

"Come on Raags, I paid $14,000 and he's made almost $80,000 this year," Vickerson said of the 5-year-old pacing son of Art Major. "He's had a good year."

Seeing his trotter, Big Al M, back on track after an injury is a source of pride for Vickerson.

The hard-knocking son of Anders Bluestone earned his lifetime-best speed badge of 1:53.3, at Plainridge, on July 22.

"The owner wanted to sell the horse and they ended up putting him on onGait. My friend Eric Davis had him in Delaware as a

2- and 3-year-old. I talked to Eric, and he convinced me to buy him. About seven starts in to having him in the barn, he tore a tendon, and I was pretty down. It was $25,000 to buy him, which was a lot for me to spend. He's got a weird personality. He doesn't really like anybody. When I first got him from Delaware, I couldn't even get a bridle on him for a couple days. I couldn't get near him. To bridle him up, you have to drop the cross ties and stand behind him. You can't be in front of him. He's one-of-a-kind, that's for sure. But he's a nice horse. I ended up patching him up in the spring and trotted that big mile at Plainridge. I'm really happy with that.

Trainer Zach Vickerson.

“Oh, man. Before the race goes off, I can’t sit still. I’m walking, I’m pacing, my heart is beating faster... You would think the more you race, that would stop. But for me, every week is the same. That’s just the way I am.”

~ Zach Vickerson

“There are no words to describe that feeling [of seeing a horse healthy]. You work night and day, and put all that blood, sweat and tears into this, and to see him come back and perform at such a high level, week in and week out, it just puts a smile on your face. There are some weeks where you work your butt off and you get nothing, so when they do well, you really have to appreciate it.”

Vickerson also appreciates having his grandfather, fellow conditioner Milton Vickerson, along for the ride.

“My grandfather and my dad, they had horses when I was younger. When I was 6 or 7, they got out of the business. Around when I was 15 or 16, I was going to the track, and I was always bugging my dad and grandfather to get a horse. At the end of 2016, I convinced my grandfather to buy a horse. Since then, it’s just taken off. We went from one up to seven horses as of now. It just kind of snowballed. It started out as something that was just a hobby, to loving it so much I wanted to do it as a job full time. It’s worked out so far and hopefully it keeps going well.”

A carbon-copy of his 2022 season would suit Vickerson just fine when he speaks of goals for next year.

He hasn’t taken any of the success for granted.

“This year has been unbelievable, a career year. Next year, I’d like to do as good, if not better. I love to win and when I don’t, I’m kind of sour, but that’s just my competitive side and I don’t think there’s anything wrong with that. You are going to lose more than you’re going to win, so you have to remind yourself that you have to take things in stride. That’s not always easy. It’s about working hard the next day and next week to do better. My grandfather has always been my biggest help and biggest supporter. He’s always told me, ‘You take care of the horses, and they will take care of you.’ Care is the number one thing with these horses.”

When he’s not tending to his horses, Vickerson isn’t the thrill-seeking type, instead opting for a quiet life away from the racetrack.

“Going out with friends, watching football on Sundays if I get a chance. Just staying low key because I’m on the road three or four days a week, so any chance to relax, I’ll happily take it. Having hobbies outside of racing is no easy task.”

The same can also be said of reining in his pre-race jitters.

After listening to a wide range of music genres – from country to heavy metal, depending on the day – in the car on the way to the races, Vickerson is dialed-in on the task at hand.

And while he might wear out the soles on a few pair of shoes each racing season, the young horseman is happy to walk the walk whenever he sends out a horse.

“Every day I wake up, I’m happy because I get to work with the horses. Who can say they get to do that every day? Not too many people at all. And whenever I see my horse out there on the track, it brings out my competitive spirit. I really can’t stand still leading up to the start of the race. But that’s fine with me. It tells me just how much I love this sport and how much I love to win.”

Prime Hall Caviar remains undefeated heading Breeder's Championship Card

Leon Harris' Prime Hall Caviar added another chapter to his promising young career by dominating a field of 2-year-old colt trotters in an $8,000 non-betting Virginia Breeder's elimination race Sunday (Oct. 30) at Shenandoah Downs.

The 2-year-old Armed Dangerously gelding wired the field – again – in 1:59.4 and crossed nine lengths the best. Harris' charge led by three at the quarter, four at the half and four at the top of the stretch before he powered home for his sixth straight win. The fractional times were :31.1, 1:00.2 and 1:30.2. Chuck Perry has driven the trotter in all six races and has led at every point of call except one, which occurred Oct. 22 when Prime Hall Caviar was a head behind at the opening quarter. Four of his wins have come at the Shenandoah Downs meet while his first two came during the Shenandoah County Fair meet.

James Brown's Terry's Watching finished second in the elimination while Pamela Wagner and Scott Woogen's K J Roberts finished third.

Providence West's Royal Mistake captured the other freshman male trot division handily as well, wiring the field in 2:05.2 and finishing 5-3/4 lengths in front. Trainer/driver Kim Vincent's Yankee Royalty gelding went off stride in a $100,000 Delaware Breeders Final at Harrington in his previous race but stayed flat in his Woodstock trip.

Wagner/Woogen owned K J Alexander finished second and Woogen's K J Cinco Demayo was third.

In addition to the top three in each elimination, fourth place finishers I don't give a chuck (Dan Chansky) and Cantab Speed (Tyler Shehan) will participate in Sunday's $90,600 final.

Cary Grady's Miss Norissa battled with Anne McDonald's My Quick Moni throughout Sunday's $8,000 prep for 2-year-old trotting fillies and came away with a one length triumph in 2:01.3. The daughter of Gregory Pecs had a pocket trip throughout the first half, came out approaching the third fraction but ducked back in and waited for the stretch to overtake My Quick Moni.

Driver Fern Paquet Jr. led the way aboard Miss Norissa who is trained by Joseph Carroll. The winner now has two wins and three runner-up finishes from five starts in Woodstock this fall. Caviart Farms' Caviart Gwen took third. All eight prep competitors will advance to the $87,325 final.

Charles Myers' Hillbilly Pacin Hill and Mark Wright's Base Stealer won respective 2-year-old filly pace eliminations on Saturday.

The former, a son of Racing Hill, collected his 10th "in the money" finish in 11 starts with the win. Driver David Myers had his pacer in the pocket through the first half behind Marriage on the rocks

Abuckabett at $534,000 tops PEO Sale

Abuckabett Hanover p,3,1:49.1 ($945,246), who finished fourth in last Saturday's Breeders Crown open pace to Bulldog Hanover, topped Preferred Equine Online's "monster" Halloween sale on Oct. 31 when he was hammered down for $534,000.

The 4-year-old horse by Betting Line, a near-millionaire and prime contender for every upcoming FFA pacing stake, was consigned by PEO as agent for the partnership of Alagna Racing, Crawford Farms, Jablonsky Held and Wienick and was purchased by Andrew Harris.

It was the highest grossing sale in the company's short history, setting records for both gross ($1.4 million) and racehorse average ($52,154).

(View complete sale results)

"Abuckabett Hanover would be a marquee horse at any mixed sale, live or online, and we're very proud his owners chose PEO," said owner and manager David Reid. "A horse of that caliber draws attention from everywhere, and the high number of bids today on all of the sale's horses reflected that."

Next down the price ladder with a tag of $130,000 was the multiple stakes winning 3-year-old pacer Sling Shock p,3,1:49.3h'22 ($358,382). He was sold as agent for Cimaglio, Richardson, Salmeri and Gilmartin and purchased by WRS Racing.

The sale's middle market showed strength once again. The highly successful Weaver Brussemi partnership, active at recent PEO sales, left the Oct. 31 sale with three horses: Portofino ($66,000), Kenogami Rebel ($42,000) and Forrest ($34,000).

Marc Reynolds, as agent for Tom Pollack, was on the buyer sheet again this week, purchasing Pencils Down for $58,000.

In all, 33 of the 41 horses cataloged were sold. Those not sold are still listed on the sale page, with an asking price posted for most.

Reids said the date for the next Preferred Equine Online Mixed Sale will be announced soon. Bookmark the website preferredequineonline.com and check for updates.

Preferred Equine Online

but when the front stepper went off stride before the third marker, Hillbillypacinhill took the lead and held on, crossing 2-3/4 lengths in front of Lucky Major (Andrew Scheller) in 1:57.3. Miraclepowerfull (Jimmy Viars) finished third and Center Of It All was fourth (Pamela Wagner).

The latter wired the field in the first of three non-betting races, beating Dan Chansky's Imroddythebagman by 1-3/4 lengths in 1:58.4. The Rockin Image colt, who won for the third time in his last four starts, is trained by Donna Loney. The runner-up, a Scott Warnick trainee, and Jibberish (Tracy Bradshaw) finished in a photo for second. Nici's All In (Wagner/Woogen) was next in fourth.

The advancing eight will battle Sunday in the $91,100 colt pace final.

Pamela Wagner's Lloyd's Loves and Charles Myers' Hillbillyclassygirl won filly pae elimination divisions Saturday in 1:57.4 and 2:00, respectively.

The former, who brought a $32,431 bankroll into the race courtesy of Maryland Sire Stake prep wins at Ocean Downs and Rosecroft, eased past Caviart Farms' Caviart Leeloo in deep stretch to snag a one-half length victory. Todd Warren piloted the winner for trainer John Wagner. Clearlydreamy (Pamela Wagner) was third and Idareyoutocutmeoff finished fourth.

The latter – fresh off a win at Northfield Park – paced second behind Caviart Farms' Caviart Sarina through three-quarters, made a move past the leader in the final turn and cruised home to a 2-1/2 length score. Caviart Sarina held on for second while Morgans All In (Pamela Wagner) and Ressies All In (Arlene Cameron) were third and fourth.

The $89,475 final will include the top four from each elimination.

In all, $699,300 in purse monies will be distributed between 2- and 3-year-old pacing and trotting title bouts Sunday which highlights closing day festivities at Shenandoah Downs. Several $20,000 Virginia Breeders aged races will also be contested that day.

Shenandoah Downs races can be wagered online via TVG, Xpressbet, Twinspires and NYRABets.

Any caretaker working for any stable or farm in North America is eligible to be the Fair Island Farm Caretaker of the Year. All that is needed to nominate is an email or letter, 200 words minimum, from an individual or group detailing the skills and special qualities of the caretaker.

The Fair Island Farm Caretaker of the Year will receive a cash prize of $2,500 as well as transportation costs to the USHWA Dan Patch Awards banquet in Orlando, Fla, on Sunday night, Feb. 19, 2023, where he or she will be recognized and presented with a trophy. The winner will also enjoy a two-night stay at Rosen Shingle Creek, host hotel for the USHWA activities, as well as two complimentary dinner tickets. All nominated caretakers will receive a certificate recognizing their accomplishments.

"Leah and I are honored to continue the tradition of recognizing caretakers and the hard work they do on a daily basis," said Zubrod. "And it is especially gratifying to honor one most-deserving person as the Caretaker of the Year."

Initially titled Groom of the Year Award when first presented in 1982, the honor was instituted as a result of a suggestion made by Delvin Miller at the annual Harness Tracks of America meeting when he received HTA's Stanley F. Bergstein Messenger Award. Previously sponsored annually by HTA and Hanover Shoe Farms, the tradition was continued in 2015 by MGM Northfield Park and USHWA, with Fair Island Farm coming on board in 2019.

"The U.S. Harness Writers Association is once again pleased to be able to include the Caretaker of the Year in our Dan Patch Awards presentation," said USHWA president Barry Lefkowitz. "I can't say enough of Art and Leah's sponsorship of this award through their Fair Island Farm. The caretakers are the backbone of this sport and it is gratifying to be able to work with Fair Island Farm in the recognition of these outstanding individuals."

The winner will be chosen by a seven-person selection committee comprised of USHWA members, all of whom are former caretakers: Tim Bojarski (chair), Kim Rinker, Tom Charters, Moira Fanning, Dean Hoffman, Rob Pennington and Shawn Wiles.

All nomination letters and emails must be received and/or postmarked by Monday, Nov. 28, 2022, and sent to chairman Bojarski at a159star@gmail.com or mailed to Tim Bojarski, 7523 Maple Road, Akron, N.Y. 14001.

Nominations open for Fair Island Farm Caretaker of Year

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2022 Caretaker of the Year. The award, sponsored by Art Zubrod and Leah Cheverie's Fair Island Farm in conjunction with the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), recognizes the unsung heroes of the sport--the caretakers who maintain the health and welfare of the horses on a daily basis.
