SHSC yearling sale “loaded” and mixed sale “one of the strongest” in Welk’s tenure

The Standardbred Horse Sales Company mega-auction begins Monday in the midst of a contentious presidential election.

by Dave Briggs

Nearly 50 years after he first came to the Standardbred Horse Sales Company sale in Harrisburg, PA as a caretaker for Hanover Shoe Farms, sale president and director of operations Dale Welk said he is just as passionate about an auction that has sold some of the greatest horses in standardbred history.

“It’s absolutely mindboggling,” said Welk, who came to work at Hanover 48 years ago. “I have sale sheets going back 30 years or more. I start looking at those and looking at the totals and just think how many millions and right into the billions of dollars’ worth of horses have gone through here and all the money they’ve made. It’s pretty humbling.”

Now that he is running the sale, Welk is even more invested in it emotionally.

“Even last year, I knew what went on with the yearling sale and why we were down because a couple of stallions just didn’t perform, but I still take it personally and think there’s something else that I could’ve done,” Welk said. “It’s hard for me to put it through my head.”

Last year, the yearling sale grossed $35.9 million, down 19 per cent from a record gross of $44,356,000 set in 2022 (though 100 fewer horses were sold in 2023 compared to 2022). The 2023 average of $44,284 was off 10 per cent from the 2022 average of $49,066. The all-time record average of $54,653 was set in 2021.

Still, one down sale does not diminish the history of an incredible and important sale now in its 86th year.

“When you step back and look at it, no matter how you look at it, it’s basically the largest standardbred sale in the world,” Welk said. “Nobody sells more and we’ve got yearlings and mixed horses.”

This year’s three-day yearling sale begins on Monday (Nov. 4) at noon when some 155 horses will be sold at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex. The sale continues through Tuesday (10 a.m. start) with just shy of 400 horses selling. Nearly 360 yearlings are scheduled to be sold on Wednesday (Nov. 6). The two-day mixed sale starts Thursday (Nov. 7) at 11 a.m. and concludes Friday (Nov. 8) with a session that starts at 11 a.m. Complete information about the auction can be found on the Standardbred Horse Sales Company’s website.

Welk said he is bullish about the two catalogs.

“It’s loaded, the yearling sale,” Welk said. “I think we’re going to be great there. We’ve got a lot of half-brothers and brothers and sisters of some of the top racehorses in the business right now. I think we’re going to have a real good sale. I’m really, really optimistic about it.

“I’m sure that the mixed sale is going to be incredible... In my tenure, it’s probably one of the strongest mixed sale catalogs.

“I guess I should say that I’m a hair ‘cautiously optimistic’ because we also are in a presidential election. That’s always tough.”

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION HAS POTENTIAL TO IMPACT INVESTMENT

What is promising to be a divisive presidential election will be held Tuesday (Nov. 5). Pennsylvania is a key battleground state. That day’s sale session will be over before polls close and since it’s unknown whether the winner will be known that night, it’s unlikely the results will impact the yearling sale much.

Welk said probably the biggest impact will be distracted buyers, particularly on Tuesday.

“I’m hoping not, but I have a feeling they are going to be glued to everything,” Welk said. “And I’m sure there are some that want to vote live and don’t want to do mail-in ballots.”

The ability to bid on horses via the Internet or send representatives to the sale to bid on their behalf means even those buyers not in attendance can still purchase the horses they want.

But Preferred Equine owner David Reid said the results of the election may have an impact on buyers’ economic outlook,

“It’s loaded, the yearling sale. I think we’re going to be great there. We’ve got a lot of half-brothers and brothers and sisters of some of the top racehorses in the business right now. I think we’re going to have a real good sale. I’m really, really optimistic about it. I’m sure that the mixed sale is going to be incredible... In my tenure, it’s probably one of the strongest mixed sale catalogs.”

The bidding is expected to be lively in Harrisburg.

which could impact their level of investment, particularly for the mixed sale.

“With the yearling sale, I don’t anticipate [the election] altering people’s overall plans, but it could impact certain people,” Reid said. “That said, I don’t think it’s going to have a strong impact.

“As far as the mixed sale is concerned, I think it’s a big churn business. The female section of the mixed sale, between the broodmares on Thursday and the race fillies on Friday... obviously, traditionally Harrisburg has a lot of breeding opportunities for those maiden mares and in-foal mares. I think with Lexington already in the books and the yearling sale already in the books, I think the breeders are going to have a good understanding of what their budget is going to be, if they are looking to reinvest it will probably be regardless of how the election goes.”

Also, Reid expects the election results should balance out people’s investment in horses. Those that pull back on a belief tough times are ahead based on either a Kamala Harris or Donald Trump victory should be balanced by those bullish about the economy going forward should their preferred candidate win the presidential race.

“Depending on which side of the pendulum that you’re rooting for or rooting against, then that could affect your decisions,” Reid said. “That’s going to be a personal decision. Truthfully, one group is going to be happier than the other and they may wash each other out... In theory, they should neutralize each other.

“But, I definitely feel that the election is going to have an impact on the U.S. economy, one way or the other. I’ll let people make their own determination, but leading into the election, I think people are definitely planning both ways and if a particular candidate wins or loses, I think there will be some adjustments in [investment] for all believers, one way or the other. I think that may weigh a little bit on strategic investment level.”

RECORD PURSES, MORE RACING OPTIONS STRENGTHENS MARKET

Blue Chip Farms owner Tom Grossman said certain economic indicators bode well for yearling buyers regardless of the election’s outcome.

“Given that the stock market is at all-time highs, and no one has a firm opinion on how the election is going, I would assume yearling buyers are probably fine either way,” Grossman said.

What helps inoculate the standardbred industry, somewhat, is record purse levels, many more strong sires stakes jurisdictions and the general health of thoroughbred sales.

This year’s Lexington Selected Yearling Sale set a record for gross sales ($67,916,300).

“Even since Lexington, we’ve just sold another 1,600 horses at Fasig-Tipton of thoroughbred yearlings,” said Rob Tribbett, general manager of All American Harnessbreds. “The market was strong all the way through to the last part of the sale and was strong really at every level. They certainly sell a lot of high-end horses, but there are a lot of people looking at the purse opportunities and want to be involved in the game and the tax advantages obviously are huge.

It’s pretty humbling. ”

~ Dale Welk

“I’d certainly expect to see the same thing at Harrisburg. There will be horses at all levels, but I think demand will be pretty strong.”

Grossman said, “the standardbred business, particularly, stands on its own merits. On the federal level, that stuff shouldn’t affect it a ton. Some of the state stuff can affect it more, but I think we’re in a great position in these different states – Kentucky and others – that the revenue for horses is very steady.”

Welk said despite the country being divided about the election, the sale company, “sent out more mixed catalogs this year than we did in the last few years and our yearling response has been really good. We sent out over 4,000 yearling catalogs.

“I’m really looking forward to it. Our online bidding is really coming together. That helps some people that have trouble getting here or it’s just easier for some people to bid online.”

Dave Landry
Winbak Farm yearling manager Jimmy Ladwig.

A quarter century later, that horse is the leading stallion in standardbred history with total progeny earnings exceeding $355 million. That's some $125 million more than the next closest sire.

Ladwig, who has long been the yearling manager at Winbak, says he remember Bettors Delight from that 1999 auction.

"Maybe that's just wishful thinking in my memory," he said. "I was so green, I was just happy that the day ended."

He laughs when he's asked if selling Bettors Delight in his first year with the farm guaranteed him a job for life.

"Exactly," he said. "Then we sold Rainbow Blue, Muscle Hill and a few others."

Now that Bettors Delight has stopped breeding and the stallion has just a few more crops of yearlings to sell, Ladwig said the thought of producing and selling another Bettors Delight, "is what keeps the dream alive, right there."

Winbak – long the nation's number two breeding operation behind only perennial top dog Hanover Shoe Farms – has built its reputation on mixing quality with volume. Ladwig knows that better than almost anyone. He's instrumental in preparing some 300 yearlings to sell each and every year.

Winbak Farm celebrates the 25th anniversary of selling Bettors Delight, the leading stallion in harness racing history

by Dave Briggs

Twenty-five years ago, Jimmy Ladwig was in his first year working for Winbak Farms when, on Halloween, the famed nursery sold what Ladwig remembers as a "little brown horse" for $65,000 at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

NOVEMBER 7 & 8

Hip#1197 Highland Top Hill

Hip#1286 Mollop Hanover

Bf 2021 • Captaintreacheros - Southwind Thundra

Multiple KYSS winner in 2024 including the $100,000 KY Commonwealth Final. To-date in 2024 she is: 5-6-0 in 17 starts. CAPYTREACH is from a 1:54.4f sister to the winners of over $8 million including SOUTHWIND TEMPO p, 1:48.2 ($2,445,541). Eligible to the $100,000 KYSS final on Nov. 5/24, $50,000 Star Destroyer on Nov 15/24, $50,000 The Ballys Randy on Nov 22/24 and the $50,000 Thanksgiving Classic on Nov 29/24.

Hip#1527 Lil' Sweet

2, 1:53.4s-'24 ($249,371)

Bf 2022 • Green Manalishi - Sweetspellosuccess

2024 $300,000 OSS Super Final winner in 1:53.4s, equaling the OSS record for 2yotf's. To-date in 2024 she is: 2-3-2 in 10 starts. This champion filly is a half-sister to TRY TRY AGAIN 1:53.1 ($297,512). Her dam SWEETPELLOSUCCESS 3, Q1:58.4 ($206,024) is a half-sister to Hambletonian Champion and $3 million winner, MARION MARAUDER

“That is a lot, but I’ve got a good team that knows what it takes,” Ladwig said. “And we’re actually a little less than 300 these days. We’re probably more around 280. We’ve been selling some weanlings in the fall and wintertime, so by the time the sale comes around we’re probably at 260. We’re slowing down a little bit – not too much, though – don’t tell anybody.”

With that Ladwig laughs. He says there are three keys to surviving long sales like the one in Harrisburg.

“Have a few pairs of good shoes, don’t pick that weekend to quit drinking and keep your sense of humor,” Ladwig said.

“We have a great team, which makes it so it can be that way right from the start. Our grooms, our group of guys that are getting the horses ready – they make it so it’s not a stressful event or environment. Then, we just keep it going.”

Winbak, which is second in all-time progeny earnings with $412.5 million, will sell some 70 yearlings in Harrisburg this year – 50 in the yearling sale and 20 more in the mixed sale that are predominantly Delaware-sired.

As for specific Winbak yearlings he wants to highlight, Ladwig mentioned:

- “A real nice American Ideal colt out of Bet On Chrissy [Hip #363 Odds On Marshall].”
- “A Cattlewash colt out of Flibbertigibbet [Hip #457 No Hard Feelings]. I really like that one.”

- “An Archangel filly out of New Leaf [Hip #580 Lily Rein] is a good one... for our Canadian friends.”

- “Our McWicked–B So Lucky colt [Hip #755 Wick Of Luck] is good-looking also.”

- “Our Courtly Choices are really good. I like them a lot. The Ashleeswayrhigway colt [Hip #749 Highway Find] is a real good colt.”

Speaking of Courtly Choice, his offspring will benefit from major improvements to the New York Sire Stakes program, including the ability to ship semen out of state and an increase in purses.

“All of that is huge,” Ladwig said. “That’s helping us and we’ve seen that bump a little bit and I think we’ll continue to. [Our New York farm manager] Noelle [Duspiva] has done a good job in New York making it happen. I give everybody credit up there who has made it happen. It’s been a long time coming, but they’ve finally made some good progress.”

As has Winbak Farm in the 25 years since it sold Bettors Delight.

In the last 10 years, Preferred has sold over $121 million worth of horses in Harrisburg (counting both the yearling and mixed sales), and has been the leading consignor by gross nine times, including each of the last three years.

Preferred owner David Reid normally is reluctant to make predictions about this year's auctions, but he said he is pleased about the horses he is selling on behalf of 45 different breeders.

"It just shows our diversification... representing a whole range of breeders, from larger to smaller and we have a lot to offer for everybody," Reid said.

"I think Preferred has a very typical consignment for Harrisburg... I'm very pleased with the offering and we've got some good pedigree updates, in particular, we're selling a sibling to the Breeders Crown elimination winner Captain Optimistic.

"I have all the jurisdictions, I have first crops with Perfect Stings, I have Bulldogs, I have Huntsvilles, I have Captainteacherouses. So, from a pacing side, I'm happy with what we have to offer.

"We have an outstanding Chapter Seven colt. We have an outstanding Walner filly. We have an outstanding Captainteacherous and an outstanding Bulldog Hanover.

"We have a good cross-section of trotters and pacers."

Fresh off being the first consignor in the history of the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale to gross more than $12 million ($12,588,000 to be exact), Preferred is selling 137 yearlings in Harrisburg this year – 52 trotters and 85 pacers.

In the mixed sale, Reid said Preferred has, "a strong group of Fabulous Fillies across the board, pacers and trotters. In the racehorse section, Amazing Catch [Hip #1595] is getting a lot of interest. That's a nice 3-year-old trotter.

"On the broodmare side, we have a unique situation where we're offering the dam of Jiggy Jog S, Hot Mess Hanover [Hip #1178]. She's young, she's good looking and she's a producer. There's not many times you can breed a young mare, who is already the dam of one of the greater race fillies of our time. She's carrying a full sibling to Jiggy Jog, so we're very excited about offering her, for sure."

Reid also mentioned 4-year-old millionaire race mare Mambacita, Hip #1510, a Tactical Landing out of Bill's Lady.

Diamond Creek selling some of its own yearlings in Harrisburg for first time in at least six years

by Dave Briggs

Shaun Laungani said this year marks the first time since he joined Diamond Creek in 2018 that the farm is selling some of its own yearlings at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company sale in Harrisburg, PA.

“We’ll see how it works, but for some of the later foals it’s been handy to let them mature a little bit,” said Laungani, Diamond Creek’s vice-president.

Typically, Diamond Creek sells its own yearlings in Lexington.

“From my perspective, they are very similar markets, both standardbred yearling markets, but they are both different,” Laungani said. “You do have some people that only go to one and not the other. You just hope you put the right horse in the right sale to hit the right person.

“We had two really nice Muscle Hill colts and so it was nice to split them and put one in Harrisburg, so they wouldn’t have to compete against each other in the same consignment.

“You are just guessing on this stuff, but you’re just trying to do the right thing by each individual horse. So, if you’ve got one that needs a little more time or was a later foal, it’s a really handy option. Or with the Ontario-breds, it seems to make sense to go to Harrisburg because it always seems that the Canadians are able to get down in a bigger group for that sale, being that their Sires Stakes program is over by that point.

“This year, we’re taking several Downbytheseasides and so are a lot of other people. They sold fabulous all sales season, but they could potentially sell just as well or better because now, finally, the Ohio Sires Stakes finals have occurred, whereas it hadn’t occurred... and that’s a lot of purse money to be distributed but that didn’t happen until after Lexington.”

Fresh off the news that 2024 Hambletonian winner Karl will stand in 2025 at Diamond Creek, Laungani said the farm is rolling into Harrisburg ready to work out the syndication details. The farm is also still aiming at winning some prominent late-season stakes.

high-quality horses. They sold Geocentric with us a few years ago up there and then they had a few Grand Circuit horses that sold in our consignment last year, like Papis Pistol and My Sweet Lily. So, they are on a roll and they've got a super strong group, maybe their strongest ever, coming to us this year.

"Then, we've got Hot Lead Farm and that's Joe Parisi – the Parisi family of White Birch. He has a really high-quality broodmare band and he's working with us for the first time this year. We sold one in Lexington for him and we've got a few at Harrisburg for him.

"Direction, our good homebred filly, was third in the Breeders Crown," Laungani said. "She's going to go to the Matron.

"We've got some fresh shooters, one for the Governor's Cup – Fusion is a really nice colt that hasn't really had to face the top ones yet. We have him prepping to go against the top ones in the Governor's Cup. We're excited about that. We've got a filly named Faze and she's another homebred filly. She's also not really had to race against the top ones, but she did get a taste of it there in the Bluegrass and she fared pretty well, so we're going to give her a shot in the Matron and the Three Diamonds.

"I don't think we've had a racehorse in the Three Diamonds or Governor's Cup in a while and usually our 2-year-olds have had too many starts to keep going by then, but with these ones we tried something different. We let everybody compete in the Breeders Crowns and hopefully we'll be fresh."

All of which proves Diamond Creek is just as pumped about racing as it is about breeding and selling horses.

Diamond Creek will sell 38 yearlings in Harrisburg – about a third are Diamond Creek owned and the other two-thirds are agent horses.

"We're representing several good clients, people that we are close to that we like working with and we've kind of been involved with their yearlings or their breeding plans the whole time," Laungani said. "So, we know the horses well."

Laungani said Diamond Creek is most excited about selling yearlings for Anthony Perretti Farm, "which burst back onto the scene a few years ago. They are producing some really

"We've got Woodside Farm out of Indiana. He bred Woodside Charm and he's bred some really nice trotters.

Inspect at the Sale: Main Hall Rows H & I

"We've got some Ontario-breds for the first time in a long time from a breeder-client of ours, Nick Malcolm and we've got a few trotters for Order By Stable.

"That kind of covers all the core people. It's a mix, you know, we've got something for everybody, every jurisdiction. It's pretty even between pacers and trotters."

In terms of highlights, Laungani mentioned:

• Hip #21 Woodside Jet Seven. "This is one of the most athletic, strong Chapter Seven colts we've been around in a few years," Laungani said. "He's a must-watch video. I think people... have to have a Chapter Seven colt to compete these days, so I think people will gravitate towards him."

• Hip #105 Papis Best Shot from Perretti. "This is just an A-plus individual," Laungani said. "He's a Papi Rob colt... and this guy has extreme presence about him. So, he's got the full package and I think he's going to be super, super popular. He already has been at the farm."

• Hip #129 Custom, "is super cool," Laungani said. "She's a Walner filly and she is out of a very high-class stakes filly in France, who made over $300,000 and won several stakes. She was second in a Group 1 and third in a Group 2, second in another Group 2. This is her first foal, from the family of Qualita Bourbon. It's a Walner filly that's really athletic and has really been enjoying her prep here at the farm. I think people are going to be excited to see her as well."

• Hip #131 Vinyl Daddy, "I believe is the only colt in the sale that's bred on the same cross as Maryland," Laungani said. "That's Chapter Seven over a Father Patrick mare, so that's interesting. He's a nice colt."

• Hip #330 Climate, "people shouldn't sleep on [her]," Laungani said. "This is a first foal, a Downbytheseaside filly, that we love. Fantastic family, family of Ginger And Fred that goes back to Elegant Grace and Caviart Belle involved – not shown on the page. This filly can really move and she's one of those tough fillies that you think, 'Yeah, she's going to race good for somebody.' She's dual-eligible."

• Hip #357 Canal is, "a Creatine filly, of all things, but she's royally-bred on the dam side," Laungani said. "She's dual-eligible with a must-watch video. Lovely physically. She's cool because somebody is really going to end up with a gem here. Being that she is a Creatine, she might not be on everybody's radar. I'll be talking about her a lot and getting her out because being a Creatine is actually a fantastic thing. All of us need to look outside the box with these trotting fillies so we've got options when they are done racing. She's a big, dark, beautiful thing."

Off strong Lexington sale, All American enters the next phase of its two-year dispersal

by Dave Briggs

Prior to the Lexington Selected Yearling Sale – where All American Harnessbreds was the second leading consignor by average ($136,889) – the farm’s general manager, Rob Tribbett, announced All American was exiting the standardbred breeding business at the end of 2025. At the time, Tribbett called the decision “bittersweet.”

Asked about his prevailing emotion as All American gets set to sell 67 horses at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company sale in Harrisburg, PA – including some of the farm’s top mares in the mixed sale portion – Tribbett said, “The one thing is that I’ve been so busy getting ready [for Harrisburg] that I haven’t really had time to be thinking about [emotions]. We’ve got 67 horses to sell in the next week, so that’s really the focus right now.”

After nearly 40 years in business, All American – owned by Fred Hertrich III – is leaving the standardbred breeding game at the pinnacle of its success. Tribbett said it simply was the right time to make the exit due to the pending retirement of key farm staff.

Hertrich said the four-phase dispersal plan was set in motion when long-time farm manager Beverly Webb and her second in command, Debbie Pinder, said they were both interested in retirement.

All American will sell its assets in four phases and exit the standardbred breeding market at the end of 2025.

Tribbett said All American yearlings will sell this year both at Lexington and Harrisburg as normal. The in-foal mares will be sold in the mixed sale portion of this year's sale in Harrisburg, along with the majority of the farm's stallion share interests.

"Then, in 2025, we're holding over our weanlings of this year to sell them as yearlings as we normally would next year," Tribbett said. "Then, next year at Harrisburg, the remaining barren mares, barren of '24, will be sold at the mixed sale in '25 along with the balance of the stallion shares that we're holding over to breed those mares next year."

The objective is to have a complete dispersal of the farm by the first week of November, 2025.

"Lots of people are sad to see us exiting, but anyone who is operating a breeding business understands the challenges and how important it is to have a good staff," Tribbett said. "It's been nice to hear people talk about how many nice horses they bought from us and how much they like coming to see us. We still have this sale at Harrisburg and then another full crop of sales next year."

Before we talk about the opportunity for breeders to acquire some top mares from All American, let's begin with the yearlings the farm is selling beginning Monday (Nov. 4).

"One of my favorites is Hip #2 [Bettor Story], out of Allamerican Memoir – the mare of one millionaire [Bettor Memories] and one horse that made $945,000 [Beach Memories]," Tribbett said. "This is a Bettors Delight filly, who is a very nice filly.

"We also have a sister to Horse of the Year Test Of Faith [Hip #9 World Of Faith] and another out of one of our best mares, My Lady Day, who is the dam of Stag Party, Hen Party and Save America [Hip #94 Midnight Party].

"So, you could be buying a yearling you like knowing that, if they are successful, you've got a very good broodmare. And even if it doesn't work, you've got a lot of residual value. These are mares that, when they retire, would be in-demand broodmare prospects, but also have a lot of ability to be good racehorses."

On the trotting side, Tribbett highlighted two Chapter Seven offspring – Hip #127 Secured, a colt out of Frannie Hanover and Hip #547 Sharp Seven, a filly out of Lookin Sharp.

During the mixed sale, which begins on Thursday (Nov. 7), All American will sell – all in a row – the dams of this year's Hambletonian Oaks runner-up Buy A Round (Hip #1056 On Your Tab), the 2024 Little Brown Jug champ Captain Albano (Hip #1057 Angelou) and the 2021 Horse of the Year Test Of Fath (Hip #1058 Cannae Cammie), followed a few hips later, by this year's Pepsi North America Cup winner Nijinsky (Hip #1062 Pirouette Hanover) and many more.

"Someone recently called to ask about a few of them and it's the same sentiment as I've had; those horses are obviously the headliners in the ads, but there's going to be some horses that are yearlings now or foals now or in utero that are probably going to be – based on our recent success – Breeders Crown horses the next year or the year after," Tribbett said.

"I think that's the interesting thing for people, that there should be something for everyone. That it's not just about the headliners. There are a lot of young mares in there that we selected that we thought could produce really good horses and hopefully they do for wherever their new home is."

As well, All American is selling a deep list of stallion shares, including: Bulldog Hanover, Captaintreachorous, Downbytheseaside, Huntsville, Perfect Sting and Tall Dark Stranger.

"Also, we're selling a five per cent interest in Always B Miki, which is kind of unique," Tribbett said. "That's not a share, but an undivided five per cent. That's really a good opportunity for someone who wants to breed to the horse and you get to participate in the income side of things."

Hanover consignment a who's who of well-bred yearlings

by James Platz

Hanover Shoe Farms is known for supplying a strong contingent of well-bred yearlings each year at the Standardbred Horse Sale. This year is no exception. The 2024 roster includes 205 babies, up from the 191 sold in 2023. The group consists of 112 pacers, with 28 sired by Captaintreacherous and 21 from the second crop of Papi Rob Hanover. On the trotting side, 55 of the 93 yearlings in the consignment are fillies.

"We have a very nice selection of horses for Harrisburg," said farm manager Patti Murphy. "I think we've got some strong pedigrees and very nice individuals. I'm kind of a pacing freak myself, so I like my pacing horses. On the trotting end we're very strong as well."

Just over a week removed from the Breeders Crown, one of the big highlights in the Hanover consignment is Cambridge Hanover, Hip #104. The Walner colt is the second foal from Father Patrick mare Crucial, making him a three-quarter brother to Crown champion and millionaire freshman Maryland.

"He's a very exceptional individual; very fast in the paddock," said Murphy.

Another notable Walner yearling that sells on the first day is Sorcery Hanover, Hip #28. The dual-eligible filly is a half-sister to the great trotting mare Manchego.

The Hanover consignment includes 31 from the third crop of their trotting sire Greenshoe.

"We have quite a few Greenshoes, which we've been very happy with how they've been performing this year," said Murphy. "He's made a very good rebound with his 2-year-old trotters. He's ranked second behind Chapter Seven in freshman earnings."

Heiress Hanover, Hip #130, is a Greenshoe filly out of multiple Dan Patch Award winner and Horse of the Year Hannelore Hanover. She is a full-sister to sophomore colt Loxahatchee, a five-time winner.

"She's a little lighter built than her brother," said Murphy. "She is a little finer built, but pretty athletic and quick on her feet."

Hanover Shoe Farms vice-president Mark Loewe and farm manager Patti Murphy.

The first crop of Captain Corey was well received in Lexington, with the trotter's offspring averaging a little over $65,000. The Hanover-based sire is represented by 19 yearlings in the farm's Harrisburg consignment.

"We were happy with how they were received in Kentucky," said Murphy. "They are very nice individuals. One of my personal favorites is [Hip] #47 Shimmering Hanover, a Captain Corey out of Star Hanover. I know it's old bloodlines on the maternal side, but she's a consistent producer and this is just a gorgeous filly."

Star Hanover has produced 12 winners from 15 foals, with half a dozen six-figure earners.

The 2024 crop marks the last full crop by the late Bar Hopping. Although Hanover will have some future offspring utilizing frozen semen, their Harrisburg consignment includes 18 from the son of Muscle Hill.

"Have some very nice Bar Hoppings," Murphy said. "I really like 362, he's a Bar Hopping colt out of Bernis Hanover. He's a nice colt. The Phaeton colt, 201, I've liked him since he was a foal. He's a very outstanding looking individual to me."

Bernise Mo Hanover, Hip #362, is a brother to two winners, and his dam is a sister to two-time O'Brien Award winner Caprice Hill. Pastinaca Hanover, Hip #201, is a dual-eligible half-brother to the speedy Phaetosive.

On the pacing side, the conversation begins with the farm's top pacing sire, Captaintreacherous.

"We have a very nice selection of Captaintreacherous colts," Murphy said of the progeny from the leading sire of the pacing contingent. "Number 26, he's been looked at quite a bit. A very handsome colt."

Sea Bistro Hanover, Hip #26, is a half-brother to Dan Patch and O'Brien Award winner Pebble Beach. Murphy also highlighted Zin Hanover, Hip #70, and Baby Jack Hanover, cataloged as Hip #85. Zin Hanover is the second foal from near-millionaire Zero Tolerance. Baby Jack Hanover is a full-brother to Boudoir Hanover and Bellissima Hanover.

Papi Rob Hanover's first crop has represented the sire well on the racetrack in 2024. His 81 starters have earned close to $2 million thus far. The farm is offering another bumper crop from their young pacing stallion.

"We are very pleased with how they are performing," she said. "One of my favorites of his, colt [Hip #258] Samson Hanover, is out of the mare So Perfect. He's just a gorgeous individual. Slightly on the smaller side, but I think he is perfect otherwise."

Samson Hanover is a half-brother to world champion Dr J Hanover and $500,000-plus earner Machiavelli.

"We have quite a few that were free-legged pacing in their videos," Murphy said of the consignment. "Punctual Hanover, [Hip #197], and Silas Hanover, [Hip #41], they were showing pacing in the paddock, which was great to see."

Punctual Hanover is a Papi Rob Hanover embryo transfer out of the ultra-productive Paula's Best. The yearling colt is a sibling to Pirouette Hanover, dam of Nijinsky. Silas Hanover is a dual-eligible son of Huntsville, from the 100-per cent producing American Ideal mare Social Scene.

Hanover-bred Bulldog Hanover's first full crop won't reach the sale ring until 2025. The farm does have one individual from the limited crop that sells this fall. Colt Barracuda Hanover sells on the first day, cataloged as Hip #88. He is out of Bettors Delight mare Bettor's Chance, who has produced five winners from six living foals.

"We are very happy with him," Murphy said. "His dam normally doesn't rank first day but we felt this individual ranked first day. He's a very exceptional looking individual and we really like him."

Concord Stud's Harrisburg consignment its largest ever

by James Platz

Concord Stud Farm brings its largest consignment to this year's Standardbred Horse Sale Company auction, slated for Nov. 4-8 in Harrisburg, PA. The Cream Ridge, NJ farm will be represented by 76 babies, only four of which are agent horses not raised on the property, with just shy of a third from the consignment selling on the first day.

"We're excited," said Julie Meirs. "We've got another nice group of horses. I'm excited coming into this sale because of all the people we have had out at the farm. It's like a complete 360 from last year. I think having the Breeders Crown at The Meadowlands was huge for us. We've had people come out that were here for Breeders Crown week that have never been to the farm before."

The consignment is trotter-focused, with 51 diagonal-gaited yearlings (28 fillies and 23 colts) compared to 25 pacers. In previous years Concord Stud offered more pacers at Harrisburg, but instead some were consigned to Lexington this fall.

"We took some of the pacers down to Kentucky this year, so that lightens the load here," Meirs said.

In response to the burgeoning Kentucky program, Concord Stud purchased farms in the Bluegrass State in order to take advantage of dual eligibility. This year's Harrisburg roster is the first to feature dual-eligible yearlings out of mares that spent time there.

"A significant number of our consignment this year includes the Kentucky eligibility," Meirs said. "We bought our first farm and we definitely used every ounce of it. This year we purchased a second farm in Kentucky to meet the needs of our clients. It allows us to take everything that needs to be down there; we can do that and meet that need. That gives us the three farms now. Our main farm is in New Jersey, the two farms in Kentucky, and we still have our Pennsylvania farm so we are able to do those Pennsylvania breeders awards as well."

With a consignment of this size, Concord offers a lot of variety for buyers. Yearlings eligible to Pennsylvania, Ontario, New Jersey, New York, Kentucky, Ohio and Indiana make up the roster, and sell each of the three days that comprise the yearling portion of the sale.

"I think we've got nine Chapter Sevens, five Muscle Hills, several Captain Coreys," she said. "Something we like to try to do with our consignment every year, at least with the Concord horses, is that we have a little bit of everything. While me might have nine Chapter Sevens, we also have McWicked, Bettor's Wishes, Green Manalishis; all over the map for the stallions. We try to make sure there is something for everybody. We've got all levels all three days."

Concord's first offering of the 86th annual auction will be the third horse to pass through the sales ring. Over the course of the Monday session 24 yearlings from the consignment will sell. One of the highlights for Day 1 is Swinging Loyalty, Hip #53. The Walner filly is out of RC Royalty mare Swinging Royalty, who has produced Ahundreddollarbill 2, Q1:54.1; 3, 1:52; 4, 1:50.2 ($972,356) and top Empire State freshman Royal Mission 2, 1:54.3 ($291,213).

"She's been out a ton at the farm, and whenever she comes out, the comments from everybody are just, 'Wow,'" Meirs said. "She's an exceptional yearling."

Also selling on the first day are fillies Art Of The State and Get Outa My Lane. Art Of The State, Hip #133, is a Gimpanzee filly out of Cantab Hall mare Amour Heiress, a 100-per cent producer. The filly is a half-sister to millionaire and Maple Leaf Trot victor Periculum.

"She's a gorgeous filly," Meirs said. "Different body type than the Walner, obviously with the Gimpanzee, with a great pedigree."

Get Outa My Lane, cataloged as Hip #152, is a New York, Kentucky and New Jersey Std. Dev. Fund eligible Chapter Seven filly out of Livininthefastlane. The dam is a $460,000-winning Donato Hanover sister to T C I that has produced a pair of six-figure earners.

"She's just a really nice filly," Meirs said of Get Outa My Lane.

Two trotting colts that Meirs highlighted are Negotiation, Hip 101, and Dustbin Spy, Hip 12. Negotiation is a Muscle Hill first foal from Contested Hanover, a near-$200,000 winner. Second dam CR Calendar Girl has produced seven winners.

"He's just got something about him," she said of the dual-eligible colt. "From day one when he was born, he's just the ruler of the roost. He always has been. He was the top colt in his field and he's just got this air about him that says he wants everybody to know what he's up to."

Dustbin Spy is a full-brother to the great Atlanta. The bay is a July foal and an embryo transfer.

Dave Landry
Concord Stud's
Julie Meirs.

"He's young," Meirs said. "He's one of our youngest babies. He's a July baby, so he's got a lot of growing left to do, but he's very correct."

She also noted a pair of pacing colts selling on the first day. Special Mac, Hip #52, is a Sweet Lou colt, while Make A Buck, Hip #76, is a son of Bettors Delight. Each is from a family that traces back to Dan Patch and Nova Award winner Michelle's Jackpot.

"These are two nice colts both from that family," Meirs said. "Number 52 is a Sweet Lou from the Michelle's Jackpot family. He's a nice individual. Number 76 is a nice Bettors Delight colt out of the Michelle's Power family."

Concord is also offering a trio from the limited first crop of Bulldog Hanover: fillies Hip #196 Bullbythehorns, Hip #203 Takes No Bull and Hip #292 Bullonthebeach.

"His first crop is pretty exciting, and we've got three nice fillies," said Meirs. "There's not that many out there, and we're thrilled to have three of them."

Northwood
Bloodstock's Bob Boni.

Northwood Bloodstock bullish on first-crop sires

by Matthew Lomon

For Bob Boni, owner and president of Secaucus, NJ-based Northwood Bloodstock, a successful yearling sale will always take care of itself.

The man with over 50 years of service time in the harness racing game expects no different at this year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA.

"It will be a good sale; they always are," Boni said. "The ones that people want to buy, they never have a problem spending enough on those. I think we should have a good day."

While the formula seems simple, it has worked wonders for Boni, who will be inducted into the Harness Racing Living Hall of Fame in 2025.

As for what buyers can expect from the future hall of famer's 46-horse Harrisburg consignment (all agent), Boni is quite bullish on the prospects of a burgeoning sire's first crop.

"I've got five Perfect Stings — three fillies and two colts — and they look good," Boni said. "From what I've seen, they move well. They've all got a little something to offer, and they were very well received in Kentucky.

"I would anticipate that to be the same here. First crop horse, he'll be important in [New] Jersey next year, and I think that's going to bode well for him."

Boni's arsenal of Perfect Sting fillies includes pacers Hip #14 Sting On The Beach, Hip #239 Butterfly Pv, and Hip #635 Perfect Bang.

Pacing colts Hip #149 Perfect Sky, and Hip #452 Fine To Sting round out the expert agent's cast of Perfect Sting youngsters.

"I guess you could say I'm particularly intrigued with the Perfect Stings because they were highly regarded in Lexington and they look to be nice-sized, nice made horses," Boni said.

"And following through with my association with Always B Miki, it's nice to see a little more go on."

Boni also highlighted a trio of promising Pennsylvania eligibles, starting with a trotting filly out of 2021 Hambletonian champion Captain Corey, JL Serenity, Hip #97.

On Day 1 of the sale, Boni has high hopes for a pacing colt out of Papi Rob Hanover.

"I've got what looks like a very nice colt out of Papi Rob Hanover, Pepsi Pop, Hip #68," he said. "Very good pedigree, first foal [Worlameri], I think we could be all right with him."

The third member spotlighted in Boni's PA trio is Winning Bar, Hip #166, a trotting filly out of prominent sire Bar Hopping.

"Overall, some good-looking horses," Boni said. "They all move well."

Before signing off, the man who holds strong ties to heralded performers Nihilator, Camtastic, and Always B Miki, made an astute observation about another renowned racehorse in Huntsville, of whom he represents two yearlings — Valentino De Vie, Hip #708 and Huntheuntr De Vie, Hip #785.

"What's key with a horse like him is he's not only dominated New York, for the most part, but he's also shown that he can leave the state and do well," Boni said. "And that's always to me, what separates horses in the regional programs is their ability to leave."

"Once they can go outside the geography of their state, be it horses that leave Pennsylvania, obviously, we know they do because of the stallions here, but New York, Ohio, Indiana, when those horses can go elsewhere — we saw it in the Breeders Crown when Tellitlikeitis won the older horse race and we've consistently seen that with some of the Indiana stallions — that gives a little different value to your horse."

Peninsula Farm brings tasty buffet to Harrisburg

by Debbie Little

If variety is the spice of life, expect Carter Duer's Peninsula Farm to be bringing some flavor to the Standardbred Horse Sale Company's auction in Harrisburg, PA, with 18 yearlings representing 13 different sires.

Peninsula's trotting troop of 11 colts and seven fillies includes a baker's dozen of dual eligibles which are sure to draw some eyes.

"I've got a very good group," Duer said. "There's not a lot of names in there, but as far as individuals and what they can do, it's a very, very good group."

There are ones that stand out to Duer on all three days, and although he's not a big fan of showing on Day 1, that's when some of his favorites are scheduled.

Duer said the leader in his pack this year is Hip #58 The Old Man, a son of Walner out of the impeccably-bred Muscle Hill mare The Ice Dutchess.

"He's a little earlier [in the sale] than I would have liked, but that's just the way it fell, but it'll be all right," Duer said. "He'll definitely be my top one and he should sell very well."

The Old Man – who is New Jersey and Kentucky eligible – is the third registered foal out of The Ice Dutchess. Her first, Samwise The Brave, brought $150,000 at Harrisburg in 2022, while her second, Shatter Me, now known as R Dutchess, sold for $300,000 in Lexington in 2023.

"This colt is a very nice colt," Duer said of The Old Man. "He's very correct and he's the right size and there's just nothing with him that isn't right. Whether he's any good or not, none of us know, but he looks the part and he's bred to be good. He doesn't have a flaw."

Peninsula's consignment includes a pair of Day 1 Captain Corey sons. The first is Hip #39 False Dogma, a June 7 foal out of the Father Patrick mare Sister Christina.

"It's late, but it's better than nothing," Duer said with a laugh of False Dogma's arrival date. "He's a very nice horse. He's just not quite as big as I'd like him at this point, but he's very correct and very athletic."

Duer had high praise for his second Captain Corey colt [Hip #114] out of the Muscle Mass mare Emiliciousboomboom, and said he loves everything about him with one small exception.

"He's nice, other than his name; It Could Be Worse is his name," Duer said with a laugh. "That's what the owner named him and that's fine with me."

Dave Landry

Peninsula Farm's Carter Duer.

"He is very, very nice. He's as nice as, or better than, M J D was. He is very, very special. And I would think he would sell where the top ones of the Captain Coreys sold, maybe $200,000, but I don't know.

"He's very correct and shows well, and is just a well-bred colt. And he looks the part too. He's just as good as the Walner colt to look at. He's just as nice a colt, he's just not a Walner. But they're both very, very nice."

Duer sold M J D – a colt named for his grandfather – in Lexington this year for $275,000. Duer bred M J D, a son of 2021 Hambletonian champ Captain Corey, who was also bred by Duer.

For Day 2, Duer mentioned two Pennsylvania- and Kentucky-eligible colts Hip #247 The Green Hornet and Hip #496 I've Got People.

The Green Hornet is out of the Muscle Hill mare Sherrys Lady. "I've got a very, very good Greenshoe colt, I mean, very good," Duer said of The Green Hornet. "He's right with the Walner and the two colts by Captain Corey, and I'm not a Greenshoe fan, but I love this colt."

Duer explained that he was not the biggest fan of Greenshoe's first crop but his opinion of the stallion after that changed.

"His second crop was better," Duer said. "I feel a lot better about [Greenshoe] now than I did this time last year. He's having a better year this year. He's got a lot of them, colts and fillies, that are racing better."

"And this colt is very nice and the mare's had two previous foals. Both of them have raced, but one of them has made a lot of money and is a good horse and that's going to help. He is very athletic too, and very correct."

“Where the hills are HIGH and the horses are STRONG”

Sherrys Lady's first foal, Once In A Lifetime, sold for $50,000 in 2021 in Lexington and has earned over $648,000, while Ready Freddie sold at last year's sale in Harrisburg for $150,000.

I've Got People is an International Moni colt out of Honorable Daughter.

"I really think he's a little bit special," Duer said of I've Got People. "He's a very athletic colt, very good looking, very correct. I mean, I don't expect a whole lot for him, but I think he's a very nice horse."

Although Duer said his colts stand out a little more than his fillies at this particular sale, he did point out

New Jersey and Kentucky eligibles Hip #254 Naked And Famous and Hip #142 No Promises.

"I've got a filly and she's a Six Pack out of a mare of mine [Sleep Tight My Luv]," Duer said of Naked And Famous. "That's from the Bold Dreamer family and I've had all her foals... I really think she could be kind of nice. In fact, I hate to sell her, but I, you know, I've got to sell her.

"And I've got a Tactical Landing filly [No Promises] who toes in somewhat, but handles herself very good; a big, strong, good looking filly."

Duer said two standouts for him on Day 3 are Hip #774 Finn McCool and Hip #814 Stardust Joe.

Finn McCool is a son of Fabulous Wood out of the Tsunami Ranger mare Mama's Brokn Heart.

"He's a foreign horse," Duer said of Fabulous Wood a son of Ready Cash. "He's just had a few in the United States. I sold a full brother to this one last year. He was a very nice colt and then he had a chip in his knee, which had to be taken out. But he trained down like a really good horse. And this one is a nice colt... everything the mare has races, so you can just about be assured he'll race.

"I've got a Green Manalishi S colt [out of Donatos Stardust] and they all seem to want them. He's not much on paper, but he's a pretty good individual and I think he'll sell all right."

Peninsula did well this year at Lexington and Duer is hopeful they'll do equally well at Harrisburg.

"I do have four or five trotting colts that I think are very, very good, and by good, I mean, as good as anybody's got," Duer said. "I'm sure someone's will bring $600,000, $700,000, $800,000 and mine will bring $100,000 or $150,000, but I've got some I wouldn't trade for some of those others. They'd have to be pretty darn good to be better individuals and can show more than these can. And I'm sure I'll be disappointed in some of them and then there will be some of them that might bring more than I thought, but they're very good.

"I've been around a long time and I've seen a lot and I wouldn't care who had them, they're nice horses. Now, what they'll do,

I don't know, but I'm certainly pleased to represent them with how they appear.

"We've got high expectations for that one [The Old Man]. He'll be as good as any colt there and whether I get him sold as well as any, I don't know, but he'll be as good as anything that's up there. There are some very good ones on paper and I'm sure they're good, but when you see him, he'll be just as good as anything there. I will say that. And that's the only statement I'm really making."

Twinbrook Farms roster features yearlings by the sport's hottest sires

by James Platz

This year's Twinbrook Farms Harrisburg consignment consists of 26 pacers and four trotters, with 16 of the babies bred and raised at the Embro, ON, nursery. Jenna McNiven discussed the offering from the home of the "Twin B" horses, saying the roster for the Standardbred Horse Sale Company's auction is a group that ranks as the best the farm has ever had.

"As a group, they are all very nice horses," McNiven said. "We have a handful by the hot sires, so they are the ones that everyone is excited about. As a whole, this is my favorite bunch of horses we've had."

Kentucky-eligible yearlings have attracted significant attention, and Twinbrook has five in the consignment. Three that McNiven highlighted are Twin B Dreamchaser, Hip #111, Twin B Manhunt, Hip #308, and agent yearling Sin City Pioneer, Hip #315.

"We have a few Kentucky eligibles, so that's pretty exciting for everyone," she said. "Any mare of our own that does not have a foal by her side, we send them to Kentucky. We like to foal our own mares out. We like to have the babies at our farm so that we can keep a good eye on them. If the mare does not have anything on her side that foaling year, we'll send her to Kentucky. These are the first that we sent."

Twin B Dreamchaser is a Pennsylvania and Kentucky eligible Captaintreacherous filly. She is the first foal from American Ideal mare American Dreamgirl, who is a full-sister to $468,000 winner American Dreamer.

"You have to go down to the third dam, but My Girl EJ is down there and she just won the Breeders Crown," said McNiven.

Twin B Fierce, Hip #139, is not dual eligible, but is another Captaintreacherous filly with a strong pedigree. She is a sibling to Twin B Tuffenuff ($717,021) and Twin B Fighter ($335,203). McNiven compared the two babies from the perennial top sire.

"They're both very different, but they're both very nice on their own," she said. "Twin B Fierce is more powerfully built; broader and stockier. The other filly is a more feminine, beautiful-bodied filly. They both come from families that are pretty hot right now."

Twin B Manhunt, also dual eligible, sells on Tuesday (Nov. 5). The son of Huntsville is the second foal from Twin B Peaches, a sister to 10 different winners.

"He's a nice individual and he's a nice size for New York," McNiven said. "New York has added more money to their program this year, so we think he'll suit their program with his build."

Hip #75 Twin B Seven Sins, is one of the quartet of trotters in the Twinbrook consignment. The Chapter Seven colt is a brother to O'Brien Award winner Twin B Archie 2, 1:54.3; 3, 1:53.1 ($610,729).

"He comes from a really good family," she said. "He's a very smart horse and he's nice to be around at the barn. He's a good looking individual."

Twin B Stinger, Hip #549, is a colt from the first crop of Perfect Sting. The dam, Sportswriter mare Lovely Erin, has four winners to her credit, including top Ohio freshman Twin B High Tide.

"His 2-year-old brother made $134,000 with a 52 and a piece mark," McNiven said. "The first crop Perfect Stings have been selling well. He's probably our best-looking horse. Not everyone's going to like big horses, but he's a gorgeous horse. He's 16 hands and he's a big, strong horse. He's definitely one that would catch your eye if you saw him out on the show floor."

Twin B Msamericana, Hip #754, is a dual-eligible first foal from Avia Hanover, sister to Dan Patch Award winner Allywag Hanover.

"She's on Wednesday because she's small," McNiven said. "She doesn't know she's small. She's got a big horse attitude. She's an American Ideal first foal out of a sister to Allywag Hanover. A lot of people will knock her because she's quite small, but she's very strongly built, and if there's any place to have a small horse, New York is the most forgiving. I think she's a sleeper where she'll get knocked off a lot of lists for her size."

McNiven said that while the consignment includes yearlings sired by some of the sport's hottest stallions, the group also includes quality individuals from sires that aren't as popular.

"We have some very nice individuals by stallions that are not as sought out by most people," she said. "We have a really beautiful Lazarus filly [Hip #565, Twin B Bettorfly], a nice Captain Crunch filly [Hip #834, Twin B Yummy], and a really nice Fear The Dragon colt [Hip #600, Twin B Dragonite]. They aren't going to get the traffic because of their sire, but if you're looking for a nice individual, we have it."

Anvil And Lace expands Harrisburg roster in second year

by James Platz

Last fall Anvil And Lace Farm sold for the first time in Harrisburg. The Paris, Kentucky farm brought a 17-horse consignment that averaged $31,529. Owner Beth Yontz is back at the Pennsylvania State Fair Show Complex, this time with a group that is nearly triple the size compared to 2023.

"I had 50 consigned and I have one out, so we're bringing 49," said Yontz, who operates Anvil And Lace with her husband, Doug. "I have six selling for Caviart Farms. They were not one of my clients last year. Ola Yoder (Kountry Lane Standardbred) split his up rather than selling everything at Lexington. We have horses in both places. I picked up consigning for Patty Key of Winning Key Inc. I have consigned a couple here or there for them, and I've done all their prepping in the past few years. This year I'm able to consign them all myself. They have nine, so it all just adds up."

The Anvil And Lace roster consists of 27 trotters and 22 pacers, with five yearlings selling on Monday (Nov. 4).

"On the trotting end I'm probably a little bit better in Harrisburg than I was in Lexington," Beth said. "On the flip side, I think on the pacing end probably some of the better ones were in Lexington compared to here."

Hip #73 Book Advance is one of the day one offerings for Anvil And Lace. The colt is the first foal from Bar Hopping mare My Abigail.

"It's a Chapter Seven out of My Abigail, which is a sister to Six Pack," Beth said. "That's exciting."

Other first day selections include Magical Force, Hip #34, a first foal Muscle Hill filly whose second dam is Win Missy B, and filly Avenzee, Hip #83, a Gimpanzee first foal from a $100,000-winning Muscle Hill mare whose family includes millionaire Strong Yankee.

"On the filly end, we have Captain Coreys, some Gimpanzees, Bar Hopping, a little bit of everything," Beth said. "A Green Manalishi filly. I think we have a little bit of what we need up there. I think the variety on the trotting side is much stronger. That has a lot to do with Winning Key because all nine of theirs are trotters."

The consignment includes yearlings from 15 different sires, with five by Greenshoe, a trio by Muscle Hill and two by Chapter Seven.

One trotter Beth identified as unique is Golden Eagle, Hip #598. Also from Winning Key Farm, the Bold Eagle colt is out of Windsong's Legacy mare Pleasure's Song, who has produced five winners and two with six-digit earnings.

Dave Landry
Anvil And Lace's Beth Yontz.

"He's probably one of the few selling at public auction," Beth said. "Although he's not eligible to a state, he's eligible to stakes, but not a state stakes program. He's a very, very nice individual and I'm hoping the Europeans can really look at him. I've had a few look at him already. He's actually bigger than what he looks on video. He's eye-catching. He's a nice colt."

The six pacers selling for Caviart Farms are also unique based on their eligibility. Four are sired by Captain Crunch (Hip #s 568, 845, 864 and 908), one by Tall Dark Stranger (Hip #626) and one by Stay Hungry (Hip #882). All are eligible to three different state programs.

"They are Kentucky, Pennsylvania and Virginia eligible," Beth said. "The Virginia program, there aren't a lot eligible to that. I've had people reach out asking, 'What do you have?' And I think because that sire stakes went just last week, it's fresh in people's minds. All of the Caviart horses would be eligible to that, so it's something a little different that most consignments won't have."

Anvil And Lace is offering yearlings by 11 different pacing sires led by Captain Crunch (eight) and American Ideal (five). Only one Perfect Sting will be in the aisle, but Beth said he's a quality individual. Cataloged as Hip #323, Kountry Sting is a New Jersey and Kentucky eligible colt out of the great Western Silk, making him a half-brother to Dan Patch Award winner Grace Hill.

"That colt is going to be desired just because of the mare, and just because he's a first crop Perfect Sting," Beth said. "That's a very nice colt."

Beth is also selling one of her own. Cataloged as Hip #826, Imdagirl of urdreams is a New York and Kentucky eligible filly by American Ideal. Dam Enchanted Eva has already produced freshman winner JMs Best Bet. The family also includes 29-time winner Mystery Chase, who has earned just shy of three quarters of a million dollars.

"I'm taking her up just because I want to test the waters," Beth said.

Mission Brief's Walner colt headlines Hunterton's Harrisburg offering

by James Platz

Last year Steve and Cindy Stewart's Hunterton Sales Agency sold the second-highest priced yearling at Harrisburg's annual sale. This year, the Paris, KY-based operation arrives at the Standardbred Horse Sale Company auction with a 53-yearling consignment consisting of a near-even distribution between trotters (29) and pacers (24).

"We always stay right around 100 for Lexington and 50 for Harrisburg," said Steve. "Obviously we sell more in Lexington because of logistics, but we've always liked Harrisburg. As we go forward, we continue to improve the quality of yearlings going there, because we think it's a very good sale."

The quality of Hunterton's consignment will be on display in the first session at the Pennsylvania State Fair Show Complex, headlined by a Walner colt out of the great Mission Brief. Apex, a New Jersey and Kentucky eligible colt that is a half-brother to Vic Zelensky, is cataloged as Hip #82. Mission Brief's four previous foals sold at Lexington, with last year's offering, Kadena, bringing $800,000. This year, Steve swapped foals from Mission Brief and Jolene Jolene, after the latter's 2023 offering brought the second highest price at the Pennsylvania sale.

"It's happened twice now where Jolene Jolene and Mission Brief have the exact same thing," he said. "Last year they both had Gimpanzee fillies; one sold for $800,000 and the other sold for $535,000. This year we've got two Walners. The one sold for $350,000 at Lexington. This year we switched things up a little. I'm glad we did. A lot of times horses change quite a bit in the four or five weeks in between. He has changed a lot. He's still changing; he's growing and filling out more. He took a great video, and we're excited about selling him."

Highly accomplished on the track, Mission Brief is a 100-per cent producer as a broodmare. Freshman Kadena was twice a winner in Kentucky Sires Stakes Commonwealth series action, while sophomore Vic Zelensky is a five-time winner with a 1:50.1 mark, a time that is second only to Sig Sauer's 1:49.3 clocking this season among sophomore trotters.

"I think this colt will sell very well," Steve said. "They've all shown a lot of speed and talent, but not a lot of money yet. Vic Zelensky is starting to show the true talent of the family."

Triscari Video Web Marketing
Hunterton's Steve and Cindy Stewart.

Steve highlighted a few other horses from the consignment that he believes are notable. Fragment, Hip #253, is a Huntsville colt that is New Jersey and Kentucky eligible. He is the sixth foal from Rocknroll Hanover mare The Show Returns, sister to Put On A Show, who has produced three winners to date but only one six-figure earner.

"The mare hasn't really set the world on fire, but the colt is very, very nice, and he'll sell accordingly," Steve said. "He's tremendously athletic. He's not all that big. The mare is not big, but I can just see him buzzing around those half-mile tracks in New York."

He also singled out a pair of trotters, Hip #354 Deuce Pop and Hip #30 Endurance. Deuce Pop is a dual-eligible Tactical Landing colt from $150,000 winner Atlantic Crest. Endurance is a dual-eligible Captain Corey colt that sells on the first day, out of Muscle Massive mare Love Session.

“The sleeper in the sale, I think, is a Tactical Landing out of a mare that hasn’t produced anything yet, but this is the first one that we have raised,” Steve said. “He’s a really handsome colt that took what I thought was a great video. He’s a beautiful horse. So is the Love Session colt from Captain Corey that sells the first day.”

Hunterton’s consignment is represented by a wide array of stallions, with 10 different pacing sires – seven by Captain Crunch, four by Huntsville, three each from Perfect Sting and Cattlewash, and two from Sweet Lou – and 11 trotting sires, led by six from Green Manalishi S and five by Greenshoe. Yearlings in the group are eligible to the programs in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Ontario.

“From top to bottom you’ve got an extremely high-priced yearling selling the first day and then you’ve got some that won’t bring top dollar,” Steve said. “A lot of people will say that Hunterton only sells their best at Lexington. I have to remind them that the last Hambletonian winner that came from Harrisburg is one that we bred, Forbidden Trade. So, it throws out the theory that we only sell our best at Lexington. That’s not true.”

Dual eligibility has become an important distinction with the resurgence of the Kentucky program, and many of the yearlings in Hunterton’s consignment are eligible to the lucrative stakes in the Bluegrass. Of the 53 consigned, 36 are Kentucky eligible.

“You’re talking to someone from Kentucky,” Steve said. “I think the bottom line is it still comes back to the individual. Is it good to be Kentucky eligible? Absolutely. But I don’t think it’s a death knell if you’re not.”

Last year, Hunterton sold 55 yearlings at Harrisburg, averaging $46,273.

Fox Den Farm has perfected the art of quality and quantity

by Chris Lomon

Owned and operated by Thomas and Linda Winebrener, Fox Den Farm has fashioned a fantastic selection of pacing colts, pacing fillies, trotting colts and trotting fillies for this year's Harrisburg Sale.

"Our mission at Fox Den has never been to be the biggest," said Thomas. "We bring a limited group of horses to the sale that we can give hands-on attention to with our experienced staff. We strive to present our consignment at the highest level that can only be done with a limited number of horses. Most of our clients become our friends and we look forward to working with them year after year. "That being said, this year lines up with the following strong group of yearlings."

The operation's picturesque farm is a complete standardbred facility – offerings include a stallion barn, foaling barn, horse transport, insemination of mares by transported semen from the United States and Canada, breeding shed and laboratory – is located in the rolling hills of Frederick County, MD.

Fox Den provides care for standing stallions, foaling mares, raising yearlings, post operative care and lay-ups.

Some of the standout stallions who have resided over the year at Fox Den include Yankee Presto, Sun Lords Elegy, Nuke Skywalker, Armbro Alert, Beach Walker, Bostonian, Artie's Dream, Forrest Skipper, Hot Hitter, Super Juan, Great Nero, Icarus Lobell, LV Glory Bound, Radiant Ruler, Nansemond, Photo Maker, Brilliant Yankee, JJ's Hallmark, Wonder Dancer, Western Hero, ENS Talisman, You Betcha, Allie's Western, Total Truth, Go Get Lost, Andoversure, Tarver Hanover, Rusty's All In, Lockkeeper and Charlie De Vie.

The current stallion roster features trotter Il Mago, and the pacing trio of More The Better N, Rusty's For Real, and Talent Soup.

With a diverse group of yearlings set to walk into the sales ring over two days in Harrisburg, the Winebreners are looking forward to showcasing their stars of tomorrow, working in concert with others.

"We have eight strong entries for Mahantongo Farm with a Captaintreacherous colt [Captain Pa, Hip #54] selling the first day," said Thomas. "We have a Papi Rob Hanover colt [Pa Luke, Hip #218], one Perfect Sting colt [Pa Sting, Hip #215], two Perfect Sting fillies [Hip #382 Pa Perfect and Hip #672 Sweetest Of Pa], a Captain Cory filly [Pa Nutmeg, Hip #305], a Father Patrick filly [Pa Patricia, Hip #705] and a Bar Hopping filly [Pa Dawn, Hip #851] – she is a beautiful roan filly, classy and athletic.

"They do a great job of managing their mares and raising their yearlings."

Elmer Smucker, of Mahantongo Farms (PA), is understandably excited about the eight yearlings they will have at this year's sale.

"We are very happy with the yearlings we have going in," Smucker said. "As far as the sires we have this year, Bar Hopping's last crop, Father Patrick, I think he will work well with Tymal Lux on our Pa Patricia, the Perfect Stings and the Captain Coreys obviously have been selling very well, and you can never go wrong with the Captaintreacherous ones."

Smucker has several superlatives for Pa Dawn.

"Pa Dawn has a really nice head and a good eye," he said. "She likes people and is easy to be around but can really float in the field. She has a great video."

Smucker believes Pa Patricia has nice potential for prospective buyers.

"I don't think she is going to be a high-dollar filly, but I think she is something that could work for anybody," he said.

As for the two Perfect Sting fillies, Pa Perfect and Sweetest Of Pa, Smucker points to their eye-catching conformation.

"Both are very nice, well-built fillies," he said. "I have nothing negative whatsoever to say about them. We hope they do well too."

Smucker is bullish on Pa Sting, a son of Perfect Sting.

"He is a very sensible colt, who has nice size to him," Smucker said. "We are very excited about all three of our Perfect Stings; all of them have long legs and power to go with that."

Any buyers looking for a powerfully built filly should keep tabs on Pa Nutmeg.

"She is a really, really strong filly – very impressive," he said. "Just super powerful."

With Captain Of Pa, Smucker sees plenty of upside in the son of Captaintreacherous.

"He's out of a sister to Tall Drink Hanover, who is also a Captaintreacherous," he said. "Looks-wise, I'm excited to see what people think of him."

“He is the cream of our consignment; the right sire from the right family. He’s a physical specimen who is drawing lookers from the best in the business.”

Smucker applies the same superlatives to Pa Luke.

“He is every bit as nice as Captain Of Pa and we are excited to have a Papi Rob colt, obviously,” he said.

The Mahantongo eight were raised in a picture-perfect setting in the Keystone State.

“All of our horses, including our foals, are raised outside – out in the pastures,” Smucker said. “We have a lot more hills on the farms than a lot of the Pennsylvania farms do.

“Time will tell if that makes a difference, but we are interested to see what they can get out of that, used to being up and down the hills from a young age.”

Smucker is hoping Harrisburg is a big hit for buyers.

“We feel the Lexington sale was good,” he said. “We are very optimistic about the industry as a whole and we appreciate the support from the Harrisburg crew – they do a great job helping and promoting a smaller consignor like me out.

“We greatly appreciate Fox Den too. They do great work for us.

“Also, thanks to all who look at our yearlings. We are a young family that loves horses and are serious about making a living on standardbreds. Our goal is to take the farm to around 40 mares over the next several years and in the few short years we have been in the industry, the people have amazed us. It’s awesome how many people in this circle are willing to put time and effort into helping a young person get started.”

Fox Den has a trio with Olive Branch Farm, found in Wingate, NC.

“They have consigned three, a Stay Hungry filly [Sparktrina, Hip #273], a Captain Cory filly [Darling Corey, Hip #718] and a Catch The Fire filly [Girl From Dayton, Hip #583],” said Thomas. “It goes without saying that Olive Branch exceeds on all levels, and we look forward to representing their yearlings each year.”

Zette Stable, stationed in New Hope, PA, also has three consigned to the sale.

“They have a Swan For All colt [Nighthawk Zette, Hip #663], a My MVP colt [Must Be Zette, Hip #866] and a Father Patrick filly [Black Minx Zette, Hip #893],” said Thomas. “We prepped these yearlings and were impressed with their athletic ability as demonstrated on their videos.”

Hartland Farm, based in Honaker, VA, has a pair of colts Thomas believes will catch the eye of buyers.

“We prepped two very nice yearlings for Hartland, a Father Patrick colt [Punchin Preacher, Hip #799] and a Betting Line colt [Bet On Bling, Hip #741] – both should draw a lot of attention,” said Thomas.

Located in Sudlersville, MD, Nola Leager Farm will have a pair represented by Fox Den.

“We have two that we prepped for Nola Leager, an outstanding Bettor’s Wish colt [One Chip Bettor, Hip #384] and a Bettor’s Wish filly [Bettor Be A Star, Hip #875] – also very nice with great videos,” said Thomas.

Thomas believes an Always B Miki colt could be gold for prospective buyers.

“We are representing this colt [Rg’s Miki B, Hip #500] from a great family for our friends at Red Gold Acres [based in Geneva, IN] and are looking forward to this colt doing well.”

Fox Den is also high on a Captain Crunch filly.

“[Hip #579] Ninety Six Tears is out of a very nice mare, Nelly Hanover, for Barb Patterson,” said Thomas. “The Pattersons have sold with us for many years.”

Thomas is equally bullish on a Beiler and Beiler Stables – the farm is in Gratz, PA – twosome.

“We are happy to have Beiler and Beiler Stables with us this year, with a Captain Cory colt [Mister Beiler, Hip #563] and a Captain Cory filly [S J W, Hip #647] – both very athletic, great videos.”

Walnridge Farm is packing a preponderance of pacers for Harrisburg

by Debbie Little

Dr. Richard Meirs' Walnridge Farm hopes to be outpacing the competition at the Standardbred Horse Sale Company auction in Harrisburg, PA, with only four trotters in their 25-horse consignment.

"I work for a number of different clients, and at the present time, most of the client horses that I have are pacers," Meirs said. "I'm very heavy on the pacing gait this year; it just is one of those years where my trotting-horse people didn't have yearlings, but I'm going to have a much, much stronger group of trotters next year."

Meirs thinks highly of his yearlings eligible to New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Ontario, and Pennsylvania.

"I have a lot of really good horses," Meirs said. "I'm extremely excited about the first crop stallions that I'm going to be selling babies by. I have one real nice Captain Corey filly; I have three Perfect Sting colts and one Perfect Sting filly that I'm extremely excited about. They're really growing up to be beautiful, and I'm very happy with them."

The yearlings that Meirs are most excited about stretch across all three days of the sale.

Selling on Day 1 is one of Walnridge's Perfect Sting sons, Hip #51 A Little Kick, a half-brother to Captain Crunch out of the Artiscape mare Sweet Paprika. Featured on Day 2 is the Captain Corey daughter Hip #391 Cherry's Girl out of the Conway Hall mare Cherry Lovin, and two more Perfect Sting colts, Hip #192 He's Gone Rogue out of the Rocknroll Hanover daughter Outtathisworld and Hip #506 Bring On The Sting out of In Deep Thought by Ponder. Day 3 is highlighted by the New Jersey and Kentucky eligible daughter of Perfect Sting, Hip #830 Enduring Love, out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Enduring Hope.

"I have a big mixture of pedigrees," Meirs said. "I have a Captaintreacherous filly [Hip #108 On Heir] that's outstanding,

I have a Greenshoe filly that I like a lot, and I have a very nice group of Always B Mikis."

Selling on Day 1 is Hip #108 On Heir a daughter of Captaintreacherous out of the Bettors Delight mare Delightful Dragon, while Hip #388 Shelooksgoodngreen, a Greenshoe daughter out of Chapter Too by Chapter Seven, Hip #421 Dreamer's Miki, a son of Always B Miki out of the Bettors Delight mare Dreamer's Delight and Hip #424 East Side Darling, a daughter of Always B Miki out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare East Side Hanover, are all on Day 2.

Meirs also mentioned that he has a very, very nice Tactical Landing colt out of the RC Royalty mare Summers Windsong Hip #666 Phanto Summer Rain, as well as Hip #408 Callmebigpapi a nice son of Papi Rob Hanover out of Dancethenightaway by A Rocknroll Dance.

With Walnridge selling several New Jersey eligible yearlings at Harrisburg, Meirs is slightly concerned with the announced closing of Freehold Raceway.

"I don't know how many people are going to really be excited to go out and look for Jersey-breds," Meirs said. "I've had people come in and say, 'I just want to see your PA-breds,' and 'I want to just see your New York-breds,' but I don't have anybody coming in saying, 'I just want to see your Jersey-breds.'"

"I think a lot of people are disappointed [about the situation with Freehold], and we have a lot of things to work out with that, like where we're going to race and what we're going to do with the race dates, and what we're going to do with the appropriated money from the state of New Jersey that was earmarked for Freehold."

Meirs also dislikes the fact that it's a presidential election year, since Election Day coincides with Day 2 of Harrisburg, because he said politics can become a distraction from selling horses.

"I know for a fact that most of the conversation is going to be focused around the presidential election," he said. "I'm certain of that. But nonetheless, you know, we'll be fine..."

"It's going to be very raw and volatile out at Harrisburg, because it's going to be an incredible mixture of personalities, and a lot of people that are going to be pretty emphatic about the situation in Washington. And so, we'll see. I'm just going to try to encourage everybody to talk politics somewhere else and get my horses sold."

Dean and Ashley Wilson Farm bring small but mighty consignment to Harrisburg

by Matthew Lomon

After selling 40 yearlings for a gross total of $1,351,000 to pace all consignors at the recent London Classic Yearling Sale, Dean and Ashley Wilson enter this year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA with a modest five-horse consignment (four agents, one of their own).

But if their second stint in Harrisburg goes according to plan, expect the Kerwood, ON-based husband and wife team to widen their sales roster as soon as next year.

"We have five this year, but we're hoping to expand the numbers," said Dean. "The goal is to broaden our horizons next year."

"We like London because it's close, and it's easier on the yearlings to travel. But we're thinking our top-end yearlings may sell better in the States, and Harrisburg, especially. That's the last shot of the year for buyers to purchase a yearling, so if we take some of ours that would do really well in London, they might do a little bit better because it's the last kick of the can to get your yearlings."

Two additional factors weighed heavily in the Wilson's decision to enhance their presence at major U.S. sales.

The first, according to Dean, is that he and Ashley received solid intel from owner Blair Corbeil, who owns three of the five youngsters in the Wilson's 2024 consignment.

"He really likes selling down there," said Dean of the Leduc, AB-based horseman. "That's part of why we started selling in Harrisburg."

Among the trio of Corbeil-owned trotters heading down to Harrisburg with Dean and Ashley is Hip #228 Touchedbyanangel, Hip #413 Handthecookiejar, and Hip #564 Mike Me Up.

The Wilsons are particularly enthused with the prospects of Touchedbyanangel.

"Our Archangel colt, Touchedbyanangel, we're thinking he'll probably be our number one seller," said Dean. "He's out of a mare [Rubys Are Nice] that took a mark of 1:54.3 and she is a full sister to a colt that we sold last year [Lookatmegoamigo]. He brought $120,000 down there, and he made over $100,000 this year racing. He's got a best time of 1:54.4."

"I've liked him [Touchedbyanangel] since he was born. He's got a good look to him and he's quite athletic."

Mike Me Up also boasts a bevy of desirable qualities.

"He's a Muscle Mass who looks the part," said Dean. "He's very athletic looking, he's correct, he travels well and put together a nice video. He's got lots of energy and is always on the go. Maybe the page doesn't look as good for him, but as an individual, he stands out."

Looking ahead – the second major factor – Dean and Ashley plan to showcase weanlings from champion mares Righteous Resolve and Motown Muscle.

The former collected more than $1 million in earnings across 21 lifetime starts (11-5-4), while the latter banked over $460,000 from 30 attempts (9-5-6).

With an eye on Harrisburg, and even Lexington down the line, the Wilson's are working hard to lay a sturdy foundation in 2024.

Even with a lighter consignment, strong results at this year's Harrisburg sale would go a long way in solidifying the duo's position as prominent U.S. players.

"It's nice for our yearlings to go to a good trainer and to go on and be successful in the future," said Dean. "And if this year sells well, that's what sells your next year's crop."

"Last year we sold D A Love Boat in Harrisburg – Jack Darling bought him. He won this year in 1:48.4, which is only two-fifths of a second off the world record. He actually beat the horse that won the 2-year-old Breeders Crown [Louprint]. Love Boat wasn't eligible for it, but it would have been really nice to have him in there and to compete because he really raced well."

Dean added that when one of their yearlings goes on to perform at a high level, it offers hope that the following year's crop will produce more of the same.

The Wilsons are optimistic that their homegrown youngster, pacing colt D A Cherry Crunch, goes on to follow a similar path as D A Love Boat.

"We only have one of our own that we're selling, [Hip #779] D A Cherry Crunch," said Dean. "I really like him. He's another Captain Crunch and he's a flashy looking guy. He's very athletic with a good attitude on him."

Rounding things out for the Wilson's is the lone filly in their catalog, Hip #850 Sneaking Out, a trotter out of Muscle Mass – Gliding Phoebe.

"Hopefully they show up like Love Boat did last year," said Dean. "That'd be a great sight."

Blue Chip Farms' big, well-rounded consignment has a bunch of New York-breds

by Matthew Lomon

Tom Grossman is well aware of the external factors swirling around this year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale, but the owner of Blue Chip Farms is doing his best to shut out the noise.

Heading into the 2024 sale with a larger consignment than usual – 45 agent horses – Grossman's focus remains on doing right by his yearlings and the buyers who take them home.

"We have a really big, well-rounded consignment," he said. "We brought fewer horses than usual to Kentucky, and thus have more than usual for Harrisburg. We're very excited, but a little nervous with the election and everything else happening at the same time.

"Overall, we have a very strong group that we're excited about."

The impending presidential election (Tuesday, Nov. 5) is set to coincide with this year's Harrisburg Sale (Nov. 4-8), and with that has come increased levels of uncertainty for consignors and buyers.

Grossman, however, believes that certain economic indicators bode well for yearling buyers regardless of the election's outcome.

"The biggest factor is the purse amounts you can race for," he said. "Nothing that's going to happen in the presidential election is going to affect these yearlings that are selling in terms of purses out there. And the purses are at all-time highs, total, and certainly in New York.

"I think that usurps all the political worries and other factors."

The New York angle is especially important for Grossman, who's been a key proponent of the state's burgeoning sire stakes program and views New York eligibility as a legitimate incentive for buyers in Harrisburg.

Grossman isn't just talking the talk, either.

"I was so blown away by the New York program that I actually bought a couple New York-breds in Lexington," he said.

"It's well documented on our Facebook and other platforms, but not only are the purses way up, at the same time, the number of New York-breds is way down. There's only 99 New York-breds in Harrisburg. There was only a like amount in Lexington. We're going for 20-30 per cent more money with 20-30 per cent less eligible horses.

Dave Landry

Blue Chip Farms owner Tom Grossman.

Of the 46 yearlings listed in Blue Chip's catalog, 13 are New York eligible.

"I have a lot of New York breeds, probably more than anybody, but as a percentage, it's on the lower end of what we normally do," Grossman said. "Fortunately, for the next two years after this, we have a ton, because we have some new stallions [Back Of The Neck and Cannibal] standing in New York."

After a strong showing in Kentucky, Grossman is betting on another healthy run on New York eligibles in Pennsylvania.

"I'm putting my money where my mouth is," he said. "I'm buying some New York-breds from other people and wish we had more New York-breds to sell.

"I did start to see a little bit of a New York premium starting to develop in Kentucky for the first time in many years. I do think the message that we're talking about is starting to get out there. But the New York-breds in general sold very well in Kentucky, and I expect them to sell extremely well in Harrisburg."

As for some of Blue Chip's can't-miss prospects, Grossman was particularly bullish on youngsters from American Ideal and E L Titan.

The former is tied with Tactical Landing for the most yearlings in Blue Chip's consignment (six).

American Ideal's crop includes a colt by the name of Aries Blue Chip, Hip #460 out of Fox Valley Shaker.

Grossman foresees a very bright future for the pacer, whose parents found great success previously with Hitman Hill.

"We knew this cross works great, and this is the first time we got back to it, and it's a really nice individual and New York-bred," he said.

"It's hard for me to see that horse not being competitive in New York, and the likelihood of him earning more than he sells for, I believe, is extremely high."

Grossman is equally enthused about a pair of E L Titan's in Avalon Blue Chip, Hip #811 and Aquarius Blue Chip, Hip #753.

Much like Aries Blue Chip, Grossman's excitement for Avalon and Aquarius is rooted in familial results.

"Avalon's 2-year-old brother, Wendell Blue Chip, raced very well at the end of the year," Grossman said. "We think he's going to be a top 3-year-old. We're really excited about both of them.

"Aquarius is an absolutely beautiful individual. E L Titan – it's a shame we lost him – on Chapter Seven mares is a perfect combination, both pedigree wise, and mentality and physicality. I think that Double Red colt Aquarius is the shining example of that.

Before signing off, Grossman highlighted one yearling flying under the radar.

Aura Blue Chip, Hip #27, a pacing filly out of Captaintreacherous – Shania Blue Chip, caught his eye because she is triple eligible (PA, Massachusetts, and New York) and has the bloodline to back it up.

"New York and Mass work great together because a lot of the money in New York is fairly early, and then the Massachusetts money is really late," he said.

"If it's a top filly, which it has every right to be, being out of the family of Kenneth J and Percy Bluechip, I think people might miss how attractive this one is."

Harrisburg is a family tradition for Vieux Carre Farms

by Debbie Little

Though Vieux Carre Farms' consignment at Harrisburg from this year may be a little smaller than usual, from a quality standpoint it will still be mighty.

"We've scaled back a little bit, had some clients that wanted to train a few more and send some to Lexington, so, we have 21 this year, which is the smallest number we've had in quite a while," said Vieux Carre Farms' general manager Mark Egloff. "But, you know, we always like to bring some nice horses to Harrisburg.

"And you know, it's a family tradition for us. I've been going to the Harrisburg sale since I was in high school, so I haven't missed too many, even when I was in college or working in Florida, I would still make it up for the sale. It's a real tradition for us. It's a real family affair. We've got a nice crop of horses, and I think we'll be all right. I don't have any sale toppers or anything, but, you know, we've got a nice bunch."

The yearlings that Egloff wanted to highlight are all selling, by design, on Day 3.

"I think probably as far as individuals, my favorites would be maybe that Captain Corey filly, [Hip #622 Sirene Song] out of a Muscle Hill mare [Sabrina Deo]," Egloff said. "That's a very, very nice filly. She's been well received and got a lot of hits on her videos. She kind of goes like her old man, so we'll see how that works out. He had a very unique way of going, but it was very fast, so hopefully it translates, you know. So, she's nice.

"We're kind of playing a hand we played before. We kept some Sweet Lou colts till the end of the sale that I think are nice, and people will be running out of options and I think we might do pretty well with them. [Hip #650 Hickock] that's a Sweet Lou colt that's out of the Silky family, which is always well received. So, I think he'll get a lot of looks. And then I've got two more, [Hip #677 Sweet Pete Pv and Hip #820 Easy Breeze] out of nice families, so yeah, we hope to sell those for good money on the third day."

Although Vieux Carre Farms group for the Standardbred Horse Sale in Harrisburg, PA, does have quite a few Pennsylvania eligibles, that's not all they have to offer.

"Mostly Pennsylvania, but we've got a Perfect Sting filly and Six Pack colt from Jersey, and then we've got a couple of Huntsvilles for New York," Egloff said. "So, yeah, we're good."

Dave Landry

Mark Egloff of Vieux Carre Farms.

The Perfect Sting daughter, Hip #652 Perfect Dawn, is out of the Somebeachsomewhere mare Somebeachsomedawn, while the son of Six Pack, Hip #867 Streaking Six, is out of the Yankee Glide mare Highland Glider. The two daughters of Huntsville are Hip #683 Ravishing out of the Rock N Roll Heaven mare One For The World and Hip #742 Bandera Babe out of the Always B Miki mare Always A Buzz.

“I thought the Perfect Stings sold well in Lexington,” Egloff said. “He’s going to have a pretty open runway there in New Jersey as pacing sires go, so I think there’s a lot of reasons for people to want to own one. There’s good money in Jersey now, so I think he’ll be very competitive there.

“Same with Captain Corey in Pennsylvania, regarding the trotters. You know, there’s definitely a place for another good trotter here in Pennsylvania, so he’ll have a shot there to get his first crop out there and win some money in Pennsylvania. So, yeah, we’ll see how it shakes out.

“New York’s made some great improvements to their program, which always helps, and then Huntsville is having his best year ever, so we’re happy to have a couple of those fillies to sell.”

In all, Vieux Carre Farms has yearlings eligible to New Jersey, New York, Ontario, and Pennsylvania, made up of both male and female pacers and trotters representing 11 different stallions.

“When you have a variety, then you get a lot of different buyers stopping by for different things,” Egloff said. “And then you get more chances to tout the other ones in your consignment, because you’ve got a good cross section of people. So, hopefully it works. Hopefully the sale will be strong, like Lexington and we’ll make enough to do it again next year.”

According to Egloff, when it comes to talking up your consignment, there has to be a balance between promoting and preserving your credibility.

“You don’t want to be shooting your mouth off when you don’t really have the goods,” he said. “So, with experience, you kind of learn, to temper your salesmanship a little bit if you don’t have the cards to play. But anyway, we’ve got some cards to play, and I think we’ll be fine.”

Egloff said Vieux Carre Farms had a good sale in Lexington and is hoping for the same in Harrisburg.

“If you’re not an optimist in this business, you probably wouldn’t last very long,” Egloff said with a laugh. “It wouldn’t be much fun.”

Icy Stable looks to freeze out competition in Harrisburg

by Chris Lomon

Icy Stable, the farm that bred and sold 2024 Peaceful Way and Champlain winner Monalishi, will have six strong offerings at this year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling auction in Harrisburg, PA.

If last year's success is any indication of what is in store for Icy Stable, nom du course of the husband-and-wife team, Jim and Kim Laird, this year's edition of the annual sale in the Keystone State could be another memorable one for the breeding operation based just outside of London, ON.

"We sold Monalishi last year in Harrisburg," said Jim, of the uber-talented trotting daughter of Green Manalishi N—Pretty Phylly, who is trained and co-owned by Blake MacIntosh. "Obviously, she has gone on to have a phenomenal season, including a mark of 1:52.2 in the Peaceful Way final."

Over the years, the Lairds, who in 2019 partnered with major real estate developer Shmuel Farhi to acquire, breed, raise and sell top standardbreds, have authored several successful sales stories, including Cant Stop Lou, Full Of Muscles and the aforementioned Monalishi.

In 2024, they have five colts and one filly to showcase at Harrisburg.

"We like the Harrisburg sale, where we see plenty of familiar faces each time we go," said Jim. "It's what we aim for all year long. A lot of the big races in Canada and the U.S. are now done, so it is a place to go where there is something for everyone looking to buy quality racehorses."

Having bred horses for the past 15 years, Icy Stable, who will mark its fifth straight appearance in Pennsylvania, once again has offerings from coveted sires such as Sweet Lou, Always B Miki, Captaintreacherous, and Perfect Sting.

"We have Hip #297 Massive Flash, who is a big colt," said Jim, of the son of Muscle Mass—Tiffanys Flash. "He's grey and he's flashy looking as well. He's a colt who is full of himself and moves very well. He is the second one out of the mare to go to the auction and the first colt. He definitely looks the part."

Hip #43 True North has also caught the attention of the Lairds.

"She is a Perfect Sting filly, who we quite like," said Jim. "She is the first foal out of Somewhere North. Her full-brother, Points North, is still racing and doing quite well. He's less than $2,000 shy of $1 million in career earnings. This filly is very nice – we like her a lot as well."

Encourage Mint, Hip #110 is showing plenty of signs that he doesn't need any encouragement to get into racehorse mode.

An imposing sort, the bay reminds the Lairds of his dam.

"He is a big Always B Miki colt, out of Double A Mint, who had a lifetime-best mark of 1:47.3," said Jim. "He's a big, strapping colt and he reminds us a lot of his mother, in temperament, attitude and the 'ready to get to work' approach."

As far as value plays, the couple are both bullish on LA Lou, Hip #321, a son of Sweet Lou—Way Bettor.

"L A Lou is one we think should get a second look," said Jim. "He's racy looking, a nice-looking individual, eye-catching and very light on his feet. He moves very well, and the video speaks to that."

The breeding business and the sport of standardbred racing continues to be a labor of love for the Lairds, even with the demands that come with the territory.

Now, nearing the finish line of the sale, they are hopeful their meticulous efforts will result in another successful Harrisburg experience.

"It's a lot of work that we do each day – long days, weekends, holidays – and it can be tough," said Jim. "There is so much that goes into those two or three minutes when the hammer drops. We do everything we can for these horses to make it to that point. We always want them to have the best chance, and we give them everything they need to get that."

Icy Stable also has plans to build on its success – literally.

"We are expanding," said Jim. "We are up to 12 broodmares now. Next year's crop is a mixture of half-American and half-Canadian.

"The property we have is 76 acres, but we have also purchased 100 acres next to us which we will be developing. We expanded the farm to the next-door property too, so there are three farms beside one another, which we will be operating out of."

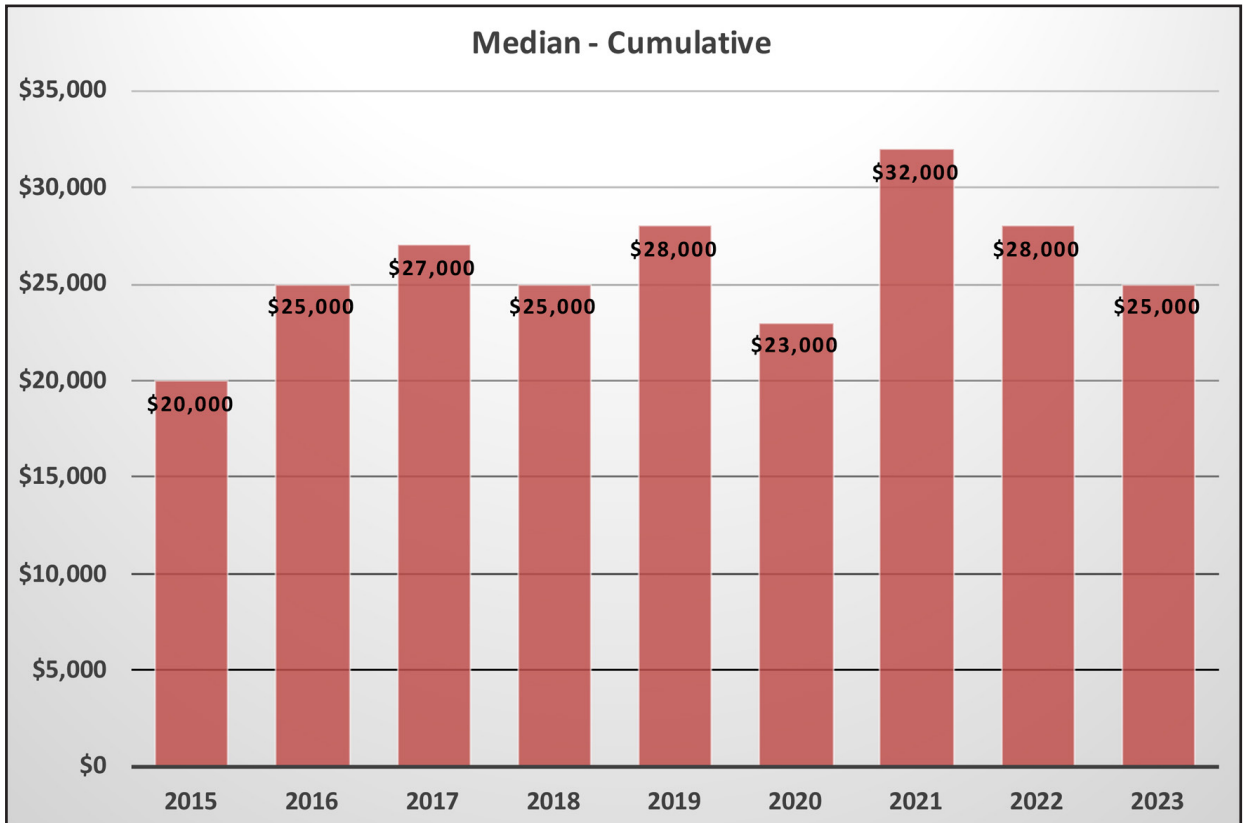

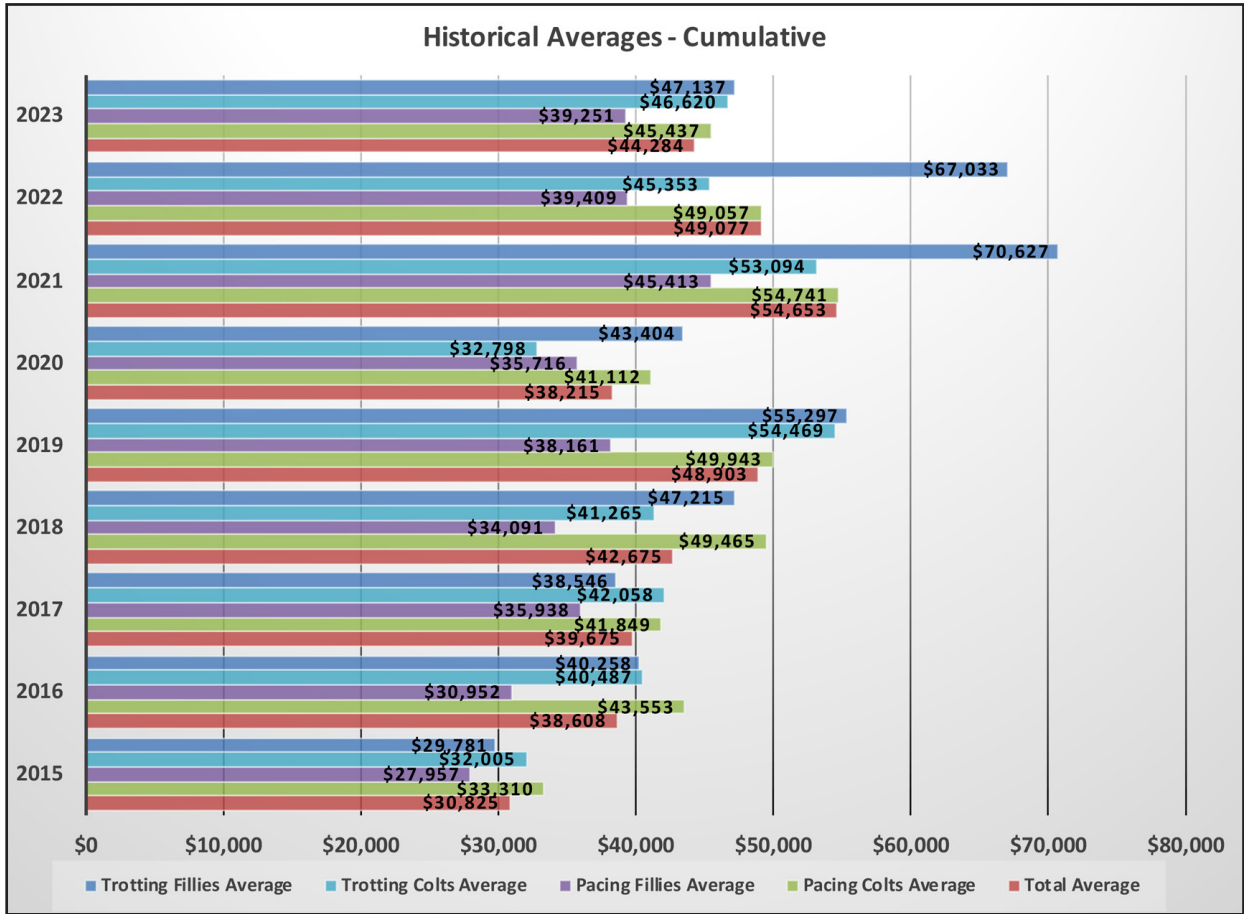

A win-win for the Lairds, Farhi, and the industry itself.

THE VIEW FROM WOODBINE MOHAWK PARK

Fallout from Funtime leads to major penalties for Richard Moreau and Sylvain Filion

The Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario has suspended both horsemen for 10 years and slapped each with $40,000 after DPO was found in Pepsi North America Cup competitor Funtime Bayama. Interviewed at length, Moreau told HRU he is appealing.

by Melissa Keith

While no date has yet been set for the Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) hearing of Richard Moreau, the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (AGCO) announced substantial fines ($40,000 each) and 10-year license suspensions for both the suspended trainer and driver Sylvain Filion on Friday (Nov. 1). Filion's suspension will extend from Oct. 31, 2024 through Oct. 31, 2034, inclusive. Moreau's runs from July 23, 2024 through July 23, 2034.

AGCO deputy registrar Katherine Cunningham's order also stated that horses trained by Filion and Moreau are ineligible to race, unless sold or moved to a trainer in good standing. Horses owned or co-owned by either are barred from competition. Neither is permitted to go beyond the grandstand if attending any Ontario racetrack. Both are required to complete the AGCO Equine Medication Use and Awareness Program in order to pursue future reinstatement.

The AGCO imposed the penalties for Moreau and Filion's alleged involvement with the administration of a banned substance to 3-year-old pacing gelding Funtime Bayama (p, 3, 1:49.1s; $322,108). The horse was the subject of out-of-competition drug testing by the AGCO on June 10, 2024; a certificate of analysis later confirmed that he had tested positive for DPO or darbepoetin alfa. The banned substance is a protein-based drug used to increase red blood cell production, with damaging side effects and no therapeutic value for horses.

News of the substantial suspensions and fines became public just three days after Moreau's 60th birthday, but he told HRU Saturday (Nov. 2) that he was already aware of it.

Trainer Richard Moreau.

"I knew everything before they even posted," he said. "I've been off work for four months. I've been fighting for my life, but it's in the hands of my lawyer."

No word, yet, if Filion is planning to appeal.

The leading Woodbine Mohawk Park trainer this meet, Moreau said he had long aspired to the career he was enjoying until it came to an abrupt halt. "I studied administration and finance in Quebec. I played hockey with the boys from the track. I worked for [Blue Bonnets 1989 Trainer of the Year] Robert MacKenzie, who died last year. Then I worked hard on my own. I moved to Ottawa and raced my own horses."

He said that Robert MacKenzie's lawyer son, Jean-Marc MacKenzie, is representing him in the Funtime Bayama appeal.

Moreau has been sidelined from training since July 22, 2024, although he maintained his innocence in a July 24 comment to HRU as well as on Facebook ("For all of you who know me, obviously, I didn't do it.") His four trainees entered to race July 23 at Mohawk were all scratched. The AGCO announced his suspension on July 24. He has 160 training wins and $1,799,744 in earnings this season; 6,947 wins and $64,707,500 over his career.

Driver Sylvain Filion.

"If I were to come back tomorrow, 15 to 20 horses would come back the next day," said Moreau, adding that he would not want to return to the "high volume" of horses it took to establish himself as the top Canadian trainer. "I don't have anything to prove anymore. I'm proud of what I accomplished. I don't want to go back [to training a large stable] when I'm 70 years old."

Listening to music, walking on a treadmill, and doing maintenance on the training track at his farm occupy Moreau's time as he awaits word of his appeal hearing date. "I don't think my lawyer did apply yet," Moreau said. "It's a slow process. Right now, I just rent stalls and do the track, which is the same as I was doing anyway. I'm by the books and the last thing I want is to get myself in trouble."

Moreau respectfully declined to comment on the specifics of the Funtime Bayama case or his fine and suspension.

"I've been fighting Lasix positives. Meanwhile, I win them all," he said.

An Aug. 20, 2024 decision by the Ontario Horse Racing Appeal Panel (HRAP) set aside Moreau's $2,500 fines in relation to the disqualification of pacer Real Willey at Mohawk on June 19 and July 22, 2023. The appeal was dismissed, although the disqualifications were upheld. Real Willey was in the AGCO's Exercise Induced Pulmonary Haemorrhage (EIPH) program at the time of the Lasix overages.

His career at a crossroads, the 10-time O'Brien Trainer of the Year (2013-22) looked back wistfully.

"I finally made it. I lived the dream," he told HRU. "I thought that I would be eligible for the O'Brien Awards last year, but I was fighting Lasix positives. Same for the [Canadian] Hall of Fame."

Moreau said that now, the horses he recently trained are not even allowed to be stabled on his farm.

He firmly denied administering DPO to Funtime Bayama.

"I would never even consider using it, but it's hard to prove me out of it," he told HRU, adding that he wouldn't speculate about how the drug ended up in the horse. "I don't even know what the package looks like.

"I don't want to throw nobody under the bus. Meanwhile, we have to be patient."

The AGCO's decision in the case was accompanied by a statement from AGCO registrar and CEO Dr. Karin Schnarr: "The AGCO is committed to protecting the health and wellbeing of Ontario's racehorses and maintaining the fairness and integrity of racing. Performance-enhancing substances have no business in the sport and their administration can lead to severe consequences for licence holders."

The AGCO ruled that Filion had been the de facto trainer for Funtime Bayama, while Moreau was the listed trainer, making both responsible, based on "an inspection into the circumstances surrounding the positive test."

Funtime Bayama was owned by Yves Filion, Sylvain Filion's father, prior to being sold for an undisclosed figure. The homebred gelding's ownership was officially transferred on June 20, 2024, before results of his June 10 drug test were available. He is currently owned by William Pollock and Bruce Areman, both of Freehold, NJ, along with trainer Andrew Harris of Allentown, NJ. The AGCO suspended Funtime Bayama from racing from June 24-Dec. 24, 2024. In an Aug. 2 interview with HRU, Harris said that he had been advised by a lawyer not to comment on the situation. He was able to confirm that Funtime Bayama, unraced since his 10th-place finish in the Meadowlands Pace July 13, remained in New Jersey.

Moreau had trained Funtime Bayama from his first, winning Woodbine Mohawk Park qualifier on July 7, 2023 until the horse

“ I would never even consider using [DPO], but it’s hard to prove me out of it. I don’t even know what the package looks like. I don’t want to throw nobody under the bus. Meanwhile, we have to be patient. ” was sold. Sylvain drove Funtime Bayama in that qualifier, but Yves was in the sulky for the gelding’s first two pari-mutuel starts: place finishes in Ontario Sires Stakes Grassroots July 14, 2023 and Gold July 21, 2023, both at Mohawk. Sylvain drove in every subsequent start prior to the sale of Funtime Bayama. On Sept. 2, 2023, the 2-year-old gelding set a 1:50.1s divisional track and Canadian record in an OSS Gold leg. To date, the horse has eight wins from 15 career starts, with a 1:49.1s lifetime mark taken in his June 1, 2024 Somebeachsomewhere stake victory.

~ Richard Moreau

In a post-race on-track interview following his Oct. 12 OSS Gold Super Final win with You Got It Kemp, Sylvain provided measured responses to questions.

“I’ve had a decent career so far, so hopefully things will keep going,” he said. “I’ll take a bit of time off, until probably next summer. I’ll see from there. I really don’t know what I’m going to do.” He had just equalled Paul MacDonell’s record for OSS Gold Super Finals driving wins (18); in the 3-year-old pacing filly Super Final. Sylvain surpassed that mark by winning with Odds On Platinum.

On Oct. 23, 2023 at Mohawk, Sylvain recorded his 10,000th driving win. The 55-year-old horseman has not driven in a race anywhere since Oct. 12, 2024. He was inducted into the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame in August of this year. Yves was inducted into the same Hall of Fame in 2016.

Moreau said he was introduced to the sport by Grand Circuit driver Yannick Gingras’ father, trainer/driver Raymond Gingras.

“I used to babysit Yannick, because he’s my cousin,” Moreau said. “That’s how I started in the business.”

Moreau’s father worked as a banker in Montreal.

Ascending the training ranks in Ontario took many years. Moreau recalled the farm, owned by Ian Reid, where he had brought his best horses to try to establish himself as a trainer at nearby Mohawk.

“I had 10 horses racing at Mohawk,” Moreau said. “I was trying to make it, and it worked. My other 25 horses were at Windsor.”

Later based at Classy Lane Training Center in Puslinch, ON, Moreau moved his stable to a Freelton, ON farm he and Garth Henry purchased in early 2010. He later bought out Henry’s share, and trained horses there until the Funtime Bayama situation emerged.

“I have the perfect set-up, 10 minutes down the road [from Mohawk],” he told HRU. “I didn’t mean to retire all of a sudden.”

Still living on his farm, Moreau said he’s now renting out both of the barns, instead of just one.

The AGCO ruling dims, but does not eliminate, the prospect of Moreau’s or Sylvain’s return to Woodbine Mohawk Park.

Meanwhile, Yves has not raced Funtime Bayama’s 2-year-old Bettors Delight half-brother Greattime Bayama since the gelding’s fourth-place finish in an Aug. 4 Coupe de l’Avenir elim at Hippodrome 3R. Greattime Bayama had won a Mohawk 2-year-old qualifier for Sylvain on June 29. On Aug. 10, the pacer changed ownership, moving from breeder-trainer Yves’ Bayama Farms Inc. of Saint-Andre-D’Argenteuil, QC to Les Ecuries S. Filion Inc. of Milton, ON, which also owned dam Tymal Sugrbabydoll and her latest sons, Mirabel Bayama (2024) and Handsome Bayama (2023); unraced fillies Emy Rose and Fairy Bayama; and unraced stallion Dreamer Bayama before Friday’s ruling.

Yves’ son Justin Filion is suspended indefinitely (effective Aug. 16) for refusing to make a statement to AGCO judges during the Funtime Bayama investigation. Sylvain had earlier told HRU that Justin was helping Yves at Bayama Farms, the family’s Quebec standardbred nursery where Funtime Bayama was raised and also wintered before his 3-year-old return to racing at Mohawk.

While both Yves and Sylvain are inducted in the Canadian Horse Racing Hall of Fame, Moreau’s legacy now looks less certain, although he told HRU he is not returning to Quebec.

“My address is in Ontario,” he said. “I cheer for the Leafs. My next move would be an oceanfront condo.”

Though, he added that he would rather resume training horses, the focus of his life’s work.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Gocciadoro unbeatable in Turin

by Thomas Hedlund

Friday's (Nov. 1) $270,000 Gran Premio Orsi Mangelli for 3-year-old trotters in Torino became a grandiose show directed by Alessandro Gocciadoro. And that fact, that Alessandro Gocciadoro dominates the most prestigious races in Italy, is nothing new. Gocciadoro has trained five of the last eight winners in the Orsi Mangelli and he had strong weapons in both eliminations on Friday's card.

French contribution Lovino Bello, who came from impressive performances in France, was the big favorite in the first elimination, but Lovino Bello had to capitulate to outside trotter, Italian Derby winner, First Of Mind (Face Time Bourbon), driven by Roberto Vecchione, trained by Alessandro Gocciadoro and the latter sat in the bike behind Falco Killer Gar (Varenne) in the second elimination and it ended with a strong first over-win.

The final of the Orsi Mangelli developed into another big show from Gocciadoro. Falco Killer Gar was pushed to the lead after 500 meters and stablemate First Of Mind attacked three wide from his third over position with less than a half mile to go. First Of Mind finished strongly, but could never seriously challenge Falco Killer Gar in the stretch. First and second place for Gocciadoro's stable as winner Falco Killer Gare won in 1:55.1. Lovino Bello grabbed the bronze medal behind Gocciadoro's horses.

It's rare not mentioning Gocciadoro when basically all big European races are on the agenda and it goes without saying that he claimed even the $95,000 filly division of the Orsi Mangelli.

Funny Gio (Face Time Bourbon) had to race three- and four-wide during the last kilometer, but she still had the best power when the fillies turned for home. Funny Gio won in 1:55.1.

DJUSE ON FIRE IN ITALY

Swedish top driver, Magnus A Djuse, 24, has been given nice opportunities racing in Italy lately. Besides the dominance in his home country, Gocciadoro has tried the young driver behind good horses in some of Italy's biggest events, like the $250,000 Gran Premio Delle Nazione in Milan on Sunday (Oct. 27) afternoon.

Always Ek (Filipp Roc) came to Milan after a convincing victory in the $165,000 Gran Premio Gaetano Turilli in Rome and he followed up by winning the "Nazione" after a race where Always Ek was pushed to the lead after 500 meters.

Djuse noted that his drive this day was pretty outstanding and Always Ek won in a stakes record time of 1:54 over 1.3 miles.

Go On Boy finished second and Gocciadoro's Dolce Viky was third.

GASPAR D'ANGIS BEST ON THE FIRST DAY IN PARIS

Vincennes' winter meeting started on Thursday (Oct. 31) afternoon and the race card's biggest event was the $100,000 Prix des Cevennes for older trotters.

Some well merited horses showed up in the 2,850-meter long race and winner Gaspar d'Angis (Quaro) found front position one kilometer into the race. When in front, Eric Raffin could play his tactical skills well before he stepped on the gas pedal at the top of the stretch. Gaspar d'Angis sprinted to a superior win in a mile rate of 1:56.3 and the Jean-Michel Baudouin trained gelding dominated the French Grand National du Trot-circuit last season. As a gelding, Gaspar d'Angis is excluded from the winter meeting's Grand Prix-races, but there are some big objectives to aim at in the months to come.

EMOTIONAL WIN FOR GUNDERSENS

Bjerke racetrack in Oslo, Norway, played host to the $58,000 Axel Jensens Minneslopp for 4-year-old trotters on Saturday (Nov. 2) night and the race included interesting horses like Kilmister (winner of the $337,000 Peter Haughton Memorial in 2022) and Crown (winner of the $280,000 Sprintermästaren in July this year), so it looked to be a spectacular mile race.

Three quarters of the mile was not that spectacular. Not at all in fact, because Erik Adielsson sent Kilmister to the lead and kept the pace at an even, appropriate level, which led to a big chance of winning for the leader.

But some higher power wanted something else.

Nothing bad about Kilmister (third) and Crown (runner up after a tough trip), but the night in Oslo belonged to Geir Vegard and Magnus Teien Gundersen. Their Derby winner Charron (Code Bon) flew four-wide throughout the last turn and disarmed Crown and Kilmister just before the wire and won in 1:53.4.

It was hard to fight back the tears for, I guess, everyone watching the races from Bjerke when Charron hit the wire as a winner. Geir Vegard Gundersen's wife, Magnus Teien Gundersen's mother, Charlotte, 53, tragically died last weekend and Charlotte was an important part of the Gundersen Stable's success and business. Geir Vegard's tears said it all. Charron won and we all got a reminder about the fragile life we've been given. This was an emotional moment, not only for Geir Vegard and Magnus Teien, as tears were falling even in front of the television.

Old enough to know better, young enough to do it anyway

by Trey Nosrac

Trey attended a recent yearling horse auction for fun, not to buy. No buying this time, not a chance, never again.

This time, it's a trotting colt, a can't-miss prospect. How and why do I do it?

How I finance these horse deals is a little tricky. Here is my fascinating formula. I calculate the future earnings of the yearling, then subtract this ephemeral amount from the purchase price. This complex form of math is known only to standardbred afflicted humans and mythical gnomes. The purchase becomes a temporary cash flow when you KNOW the yearling in the sales ring will make $50,000 as a 2-year-old racehorse. This mindset makes a yearling purchase more manageable. I'm sure many of you in the harness racing game have similar formulas.

Why I purchase a yearling is tricky, but conspiracy theories are all the rage. I read on a blog that someone heard on a podcast about the atmosphere situation in the sales arena. Everybody except the sheep knows that horse sales companies are in bed with the deep state and inject a strange, odorless, invisible gas into the ventilation system that causes unsuspecting mortals to forget our financial situation and imagine the yearling they fixate on is THE ONE.

A second theory for making a questionable purchase of a yearling racehorse is that more and more people crave attention. It is easy to nod when a chum casually asks the fateful question, "You want a piece of the (filly, colt, trotter, pacer)?" Joining your pals, tribe, and clan makes raising your hand and signing a clipboard easy. If you crave even more attention, there is a feeling of exhilaration in winning the bidding for a yearling. You are the show's star for a few moments as they photograph you signing a sales ticket. In my case, the sales company arranges a "chaining to the chair ceremony" until the payment is assured.

The hows and whys concerning horse ownership in the previous paragraphs are flippant. Let's get serious and ask Chat GPT – "What are a dozen reasons a person purchases a young racehorse?" The answer was almost instantaneous:

- Tax benefits
- Financial potential
- Prestige
- Love of horses
- Family tradition

- Nostalgia
- Diversifying investments
- Breeding prospects
- Potential for sponsorships
- Social and lifestyle benefits
- Passion for horse racing
- Improve gambling skills

I asked for another dozen reasons. They were as rapid, vapid, and stupid as the original list. The Chat GPT thing creeps me out, so I shut off my computer and made a margarita. After a second dose of the bracing beverage, I closed my eyes and listed my reasons for purchasing a yearling and staying in this challenging sport. My list is short. I didn't even need a pencil to write it down:

- Friends – If I don't have friends to share the ride, I'm not riding.
- An adventure into the unknown – People don't get that many chances to take a flyer.
- A trotter in motion in the morning – This still takes my breath away.

You may notice that my reasons do not mention making money. I am not delusional enough to consider racehorse ownership a cash cow or portfolio stuffer. Money would be far down any comprehensive list of reasons for playing. Money in horse racing falls under "You pay for your thrills."

Speaking of money, Trey's significant other greeted the news of the new yearling purchase with withering silence and theatrical eye-rolling. I tried to explain the inexplicable to her:

"I only bought a quarter of this one."

She said, "That means nothing. The purchase price could be a million."

"Twenty grand," I said.

She gasped, "For your share or the whole horse?"

"Whole horse, I'm only in for five grand."

With a finger wag, she said, "You blithely dismiss the monthly upkeep of the animal."

"Blightly dismiss! What is this, Masterpiece Theater?"

I smiled, hugged her, and said, "We won't even notice the money is gone."

She stepped back and placed her hands atop her lovely head, sighed, and said, "Until we need a new car and, you know, food."

"Ah, darlin', I got a strange feeling this one is THE ONE. Success was in the air at the sales arena."

Nijinsky, T C I score in sophomore stakes at Harrah's Hoosier Park

Nijinsky proved to be a in a league of his own on Friday (Nov. 1) at Harrah's Hoosier Park, scoring decisively in the $180,000 Monument Circle which highlighted the 13-race card. Additionally, T C I rebounded from a strong second-place effort last weekend in the Breeders Crown, cruising in the $175,000 Carl Erskine Memorial for sophomore trotting colts.

With regular pilot Louis-Philippe Roy in tow, Nijinsky was sent away as the 1-20 favorite from post 3 in the field of 10 for the evening's feature. Roy guided the Anthony Beaton trainee into fourth off the gate while Solid Character (Dave Miller) blitzed to the lead through a first quarter of :25.3. Roy's hand was forced on the backstretch, tipping from fourth before a parked out Stat That (LeWayne Miller) fired three-deep around the bettors' choice and drove to the front at odds of 93-1 to the half in :54. Left first-over entering the turn, Nijinsky brushed to the lead around the longshot before opening up by 3½ lengths at three-quarters in 1:22.1.

With Roy keeping the pedal down and Stat That faltering in the pocket, the lead expanded to seven lengths midway through the lane for Nijinsky. With his pursuers well back in deep stretch, Nijinsky coasted home a winner by 5¼ lengths to stop the clock in 1:48.4. Tellmeitmatters (John De Long) rallied for the place spot, Miki Ray (Pete Wrenn) picked up show dough at 175-1.

The 1:48.4 clocking was just a fifth of a second off the stakes record of 1:48.3, established by Downbytheseaside in 2017 and since matched by Cattlewash (2020) and Bulldog Hanover (2021).

Nijinsky has won 11 of 15 starts this season, banking $1,142,920 on the year for owners West Wins Stable, John Fielding and Mark Dumain. The son of Bettors Delight—Pirouette Hanover was bred by Jeffrey Snyder, and continues to add to a 3-year-old resume that includes victories in the North America Cup, Simcoe Stakes and Ontario Sire Stakes Super Final.

Earlier on the card, T C I held up his end of the bargain as the 1-5 favorite in the Carl Erskine, emerging atop a skirmish with Indiana champion Gruesome Twosome and Ontario champion Paquet.

T C I left alertly with driver Dave Miller, grabbing the pocket seat behind Paquet (Jody Jamieson) to the first quarter in :27.3. Miller moved T C I to the lead briefly on the backstretch before Gruesome Twosome (Daryl Bontrager) tipped from third to take command to the half in :56.3. The field of six trotted to the far turn with all three of the favorites having taken their turn on the lead, with Gruesome Twosome leading to three-quarters in 1:25.2.

At the top of the lane, Paquet moved back into contention first-over as Gruesome Twosome drifted off of the rail, providing daylight for T C I. Gruesome Twosome battled valiantly on the lead before T C I surged up the cones in :27.1 to power to victory by 1½ lengths in 1:52.4. Gruesome Twosome held for second, Paquet finished third.

Trained by Ron Burke, it was announced in the winner's circle following the race that T C I will join the Midland Acres stallion roster in Ohio for 2025. The son of Cantab Hall—Nicole's Promise has won seven of 13 on the year, earning $592,202 on the year and over $1.8 million career for owners Burke Racing Stable, Hatfield Stables, Knox Services and Weaver Brusceci.

Miller and Burke teamed up to take the filly counterpart as well on the night, taking the $110,000 Crossroads of America for sophomore trotting fillies.

Leaving from the outside post 6 as the 3-5 favorite, Miller wasted no time getting Sister Mary Maude to the front through an opening quarter of :26.3. With the second-choice, Danger (Robert Taylor), on the Miller helmet, Sister Mary Maude led to the half in :55.2 before beginning to open up at three-quarters in 1:24.4. From there, Sister Mary Maude asserted her dominance in the lane, trotting clear to a four-length victory in 1:53. Danger would dead-heat for the place position with 26-1 shot, Bonn (Jordan Ross).

The New York bred daughter of Crazy Wow—Perfect Mass has won four of 15 on the season, hitting the board in all but one of those efforts for owners Burke Racing Stable, William Switala, James Martin and Weaver Brusceci. The effort was a career best for Sister Mary Maude who sports seasonal earnings of $376,477 and career earning just shy of a half-million.

Like Miller, Roy tacked on the $100,000 USS Indianapolis Memorial for 3-year-old pacing fillies to his haul, scoring with Odds On Platinum.

Leaving from the rail, Roy hustled Odds On Platinum into the first turn, leading to a scorching first-quarter of :25.4 to the inside of Seaside Diva (Chris Page). Seaside Diva crossed over to the lead on the backstretch, leading to the half in :54.3 before being challenged by stablemate Pass Line (Dave Miller) to three-quarters in 1:23.3. Odds On Platinum waited patiently for the passing lane in the stretch before surging to the lead, crossing the wire first by 1¼ lengths in 1:51.1. Teelatini (Trace Tetrick) closed from last at the top of the stretch to be second, Lets Go Endofaera (John De Long) navigated stretch traffic to be third.

Dr. Ian Moore trains Odds On Platinum who has won seven of 19 this year, with a bankroll of $548,720 for owners Let It Ride Stables and Odds On Racing. The royally bred daughter of Bettor's Delight—American Jewel went over $820,000 in career earnings following her ninth lifetime victory.

Earlier on the card, Little Rocket Man paced to his 13th victory of the season, taking the $21,000 open pace in 1:50.1 on the front-end as one of four wins on the night for Dave Miller. Ken Rucker trains the 67-time career winner for owners Russ Beeman and Boomer Freeman who sports a career bankroll of $1.66 million.

It's Academic, Take All Comers win in MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series

It's Academic improved to two-for-two in the inaugural MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series at MGM Yonkers Raceway with a 1:53.4 triumph in the first of two $75,000 splits on Friday night (Nov. 1). Take All Comers took the other division.

Driven by Yannick Gingras, It's Academic tipped out of third coming to the 28 second opening quarter and forged his way around Ari Ferrari J (Jason Bartlett) on the second turn to take over the top spot. From there, It's Academic kept command through a :57.1 half and a 1:25.4 three-quarters, then used a 28 second final kicker to defeat Ari Ferrari J by 2½ lengths. Gaines Hanover (Pat Lachance) got third.

A 7-year-old Uncle Peter stallion trained by Ron Burke and owned by Brad Grant, It's Academic won for the 34th time in his career and has now earned $2,677,823. The Dan Patch Award winner for top older male trotter a year ago, It's Academic paid $2.80 to win as the 2-5 favorite and was atop a $4.50 exacta and an $11.20 trifecta.

In the other section Take All Comers (Jordan Stratton) led through fractions of :27.3, :57 and 1:25, then repelled pocket-sitter and round one victor Chapercraz (Gingras) after he tipped out of the 2-hole on the final bend to prevail by a length in 1:54.1. Chapercraz wound up second from a gaining Delayed Hanover (Bartlett).

Trained by Jim Campbell, Take All Comers was bred by owner Runthetable Stables with Chelsea Batelli. The victorious 6-year-old Creatine gelding made his 18th appearance in the winner's circle, has put away $925,741 and returned $6.90 to win as the 2-1 co-second choice. He led a $17 exacta and a $159 trifecta.

The MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series prelims will conclude next Friday (Nov. 8), and the $250,000 final is set for Nov. 15. The third leg and the final will be conducted at the distance of a mile and a sixteenth.

On Monday night (Nov. 4), the companion MGM Grand Prix Pacing Series will commence with a trio of $75,000 flights in races 5, 7 and 9. Entrants include MGM Borgata Pacing Series champion Hellabalou, Breeders Crown Open Pace third-place finisher El Rey, Breeders Crown Open Pace runner-up Seven Colors, Coaches Corner, who was second in the MGM Borgata Pacing Series final, Dan Patch Stakes winner Dunkin' and Verdun, who has won six-straight editions of the local open pace for 3- to 5-year-olds.

Leg two of the MGM Grand Prix Pacing Series is scheduled for Nov. 11, and then the event takes a break until round three on Dec. 9. The $250,000 final is on Dec. 16, and like in the MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series, leg three and the final are a mile and a sixteenth.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is currently operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EDT).

Badlands Hanover retires

Badlands Hanover, p, 2, 1:50z ($754,772), has been retired from standing at Winbak Farm of Delaware.

"Badlands Hanover is one of my favorite stallions that we have ever stood," said Joe Thomson, Winbak Farm owner. "His offspring won many stakes and helped pay the bills for many."

The world champion son of Western Hanover is the No. 1 pacing sire for Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund final winners.

At 2, Badlands Hanover won the Breeders Crown elimination and final, Niatross Pace, Bluegrass Stakes, Keystone Classic, Pennsylvania Sire Stakes leg and Governors Cup elimination. He was second in the Woodrow Wilson Pace elimination (third in final). At 3, he won a leg of the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes. He was second in the Jug preview, Adios Stakes elimination and Meadowlands Pace elimination. At 4, he won the Governor's Cup elimination and final.

During his racing career, he was trained by Joe Holloway and Jeffrey Smith.

“Badlands Hanover retired as the fastest 2-year-old pacer ever,” said Jack Burke, Winbak Farm general manager. “He set a world record winning the Breeders Crown final at Colonial.”

The first Badlands Hanover foals were born in 2001. Badlands Hanover stood his first Delaware season in 2001 where he stood at Winbak Farm of Delaware, he moved to Winbak Farm of Canada in 2009, and later returned to Winbak Farm of Delaware in 2018.

“We would like to give a special thank you to everyone who supported Badlands Hanover during his career,” said Thomson. “He had many fans but was probably most loved by John Celli, who owned him while he was racing and while he stood at stud until 2018 when Celli passed away.”

As a sire, Badlands Hanover averages $82,492 earnings per starter. He is the sire of 860 race winners in North America and 263 who earned $100,000 or more. Badlands Hanover offspring have earned $84,162,955 in North America. He is the sire of three millionaires in North America, including Tug River Princess, p, 1:49.3 ($1,830,155), Badlands Nitro, p, 3, 1:50f ($1,597,638), and Mr Wiggles, p, 3, 1:49.1f ($1,171,484). Tug River Princess is the richest pacer ever in the Delaware Standardbred Breeders Fund in 22 years.

Recent standouts include Bad Boy Too, p, 1:51f -’24 ($260,838), SlipinSidewayz, p, 3, 1:56.4h -’24 ($116,347), Shocking Truth, p, 3, 1:55.4h -’24 ($112,186), and Primo Maschio, p, 2, 1:54.1h -’24 ($109,170).

Badlands Hanover has sired multiple stallions including Badlands Nitro, Mr Wiggles and Delmarvalous, p, 3, 1:48.2 ($899,123), who all sired stakes winners. Mr Wiggles is the sire of Harness Racing Hall of Fame inductee, Wiggle It Jiggleit, p, 1:47.2 ($3,945,839).

As a broodmare sire, Badlands Hanover is the sire of the dams of Limelight Beach, p, 3, 1:49.1 ($1,333,790), Semi Tough, p, 1:49.4 ($1,260,000), Manhattan Beach, p, 3, 1:49.2f ($863,983), Nike Franco N, p, 1:48 ($839,454), Carolina Beach, p, 1:49.1f ($806,980), and 2024 Ohio Sire Stakes final winner, Odds On Hialeah, p, 2, 1:51.4h -’24 ($324,750).

“Winbak Farm’s broodmare band includes 13 Badlands Hanover daughters,” said Thomson. “They are highlighted by Fit N Bad, who is the dam of O’Brien Award winner, Laura’s Love.”

Badlands Hanover will continue to reside at Winbak Farm of Delaware.

“Badlands Hanover will live a life of leisure,” said Burke. “He will have the best of care during his retirement and continue to be one of the most loved horses at Winbak Farm.”
