Middle market softer than hoped during second session of SHSC Timonium auction

SHSC president and CEO Pete Spears said buyers either, “really wanted a horse or they weren’t as enthusiastic.”

November 3 to November 7, 2020 - Timonium, MD

Standardbred Horse Sales Company (SHSC) president and CEO Pete Spears said his hopes that the middle market of the company’s yearling sale in at the Maryland State Fairgrounds in Timonium, MD would hold up well didn’t come to fruition during Wednesday’s (Nov. 4) second of three yearling sessions.

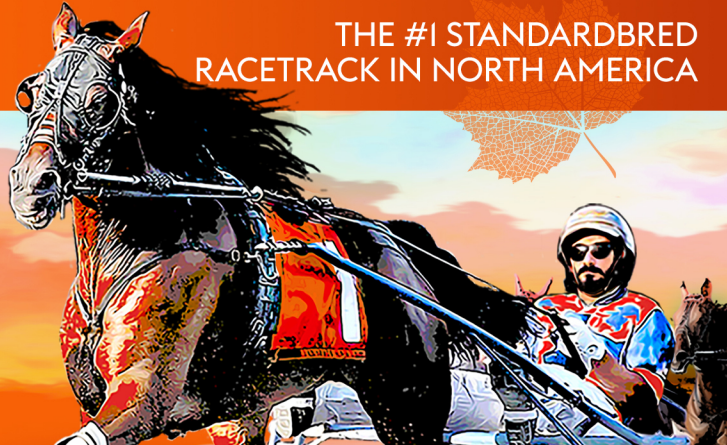

“Basically, the high end is still in demand, but despite my favorable impressions of the middle market yesterday, I thought the middle market was soft for much of the day,”

Spears said. “Though, it seemed to pick up somewhat in the last part of the session.”

Wednesday’s second session grossed $10,386,000 for 291 yearlings sold, producing an average of $35,691 and a median of $25,000. The gross was down more than $3 million (23 per cent) and the average was down 20 per cent from 2019’s second session which grossed $13,425,000 and averaged $44,750. In 2018, the second session grossed $12,091,000 and averaged $39,904.

Cumulatively, the 2020 sale has so far grossed $23,199,000, down nearly $9.5 million (29 per cent) from the two-day total in 2019. The average through two days is down 25 per cent from $69,769 to $52,133.

Through two sessions, 39 yearlings have sold for $100,000 or more.

Keep in mind, this is a pandemic year and most major sales are down from very strong 2019 auctions, so SHSC is following that trend, but being off nearly 30 per cent in gross, so far, is concerning.

"Consignor comments were also that the middle market was very weak and that people were getting some very, very good buys," Spears said. "Even the buyers were saying that the middle market was weak, as well. Either they really wanted a horse or they weren't as enthusiastic... it was really one or the other. That was a common observation."

The very first yearling sold Wednesday topped the session. Trainer Tony Alagna, agent, signed for Hip #160 Nautical Hanover, a Captaintreacherous colt out of Naughty Marietta, for the price of $180,000. The colt was bred and consigned by Hanover Shoe Farms, which sold seven of the top eight yearlings on Wednesday, including the top three. Hip #410 Ivory Hanover, a Bettors Delight filly out of I'm Sassy, sold for $170,000 to John Floren. Hip #178 Peerless Hanover, a Cantab Hall filly out of Perfect Chance, sold to Trond Smedshammer for $150,000.

For the day, Hanover yearlings grossed $3,515,000 for 79 yearlings sold. Through the first two sessions, Hanover has a huge lead among consignors with $10,276,000 in gross sales, which amounts to 44 per cent of the entire sale's gross. Hanover is leading the consignor list by nearly $8 million over Concord Stud ($2,479,000). Preferred Equine is third with $2,097,000 in gross sales through two days.

By average, with three or more yearlings sold, Diamond Creek tops the sale with an average of $79,500 for eight years. Twinbrook Farms is second with an average of $71,750 for four yearlings and Hanover is third with an average of $68,053 for 151 yearlings sold.

Serge Godin's Determination continues to lead all buyers with $1,479,000 in purchases. Godin has bought 10 yearlings at the sale. Burke Racing Stable has paid $800,000, total, for 14 yearlings to rank second among buyers. David McDuffee is third with $765,000 spent on two yearlings on day one, including the current sale topper Hip #86 Delilah Hanover, which sold for $440,000.

The final session of the yearling sale starts today at 10 a.m.

Heather Vitale covers 2nd session of SHSC auction

Heather Vitale covers the 2nd Session of the 82nd Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling sale in Timonium, MD and talks to Diamond Creek about Bettors Wish and Dale Welk about setting up a sale in a new location.

by Dave Briggs

Heather Vitale covers Wednesday's (Nov. 4) Second Session of Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling auction, including interviews with Shaun Laungani of Diamond Creek Farm about the addition of stallion Bettors Wish, sale operations manager Dale Welk about setting up the SHSC sale in a new location and Trond Smedshammer about his top Wednesday purchase.

You can watch the video on our YouTube page and on our Facebook page.

Many thanks to the connections of Green Manalishi who begins his stallion career in 2021 standing at Tara Hills Stud in Port Perry, Ontario. Green Manalishi is the sponsor of all six HRU Timonium videos.

Each night, Vitale and Re will prepare a video summary of each sale session that will be available for viewing that night – or the next morning along with a new edition of HRU.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Gocciadoro is king in $303,500 Orsi Mangelli

by Thomas Hedlund

The dominance of Alessandro Gocciadoro in Italian harness racing business is close to total. Few other trainers present horses in the big races like Gocciadoro and when the classic 3-year-old race the $303,500 Orsi Mangelli was held in Turin on Sunday afternoon, he claimed both eliminations and won the final.

Gocciadoro opted to take elimination winner Bubble Effe as his drive in the final, but the Nesta Effe offspring broke stride in the last part of the race. Instead, leader Bepi Bi (Donato Hanover), paired with Federico Esposito, took a safe wire-to-wire victory in 1:55.2.

Holger Ehlert trained horses grabbed the spots behind the winner. Derby winner Bleeft Dipa finished strongly from third over as runner up while Bonneville Gifont finished third.

Orsi Mangelli winner Bepi Bi (Donato Hanover) has a well-known half-brother in International Trot winner Twister Bi (Varenne), who had a great career for trainer Jerry Riordan in Europe.

The Bank has an interesting offspring in 2-year-old filly Caramel Club in Italy. Caramel Club claimed her fifth consecutive win in $180,000 Gran Premio Anact in Turin, Sunday and she was superior from the lead in 1:59.3.

In the $180,000 Gran Premio Anact for colts, Varenne son Cris Mail won in 2:00.1.

Breeders Crown finals set for Sunday in Sweden

Sunday (Nov. 8) is the last big stakes card in Sweden for 2020. Four divisions of the $360,000 Breeders Crown are on the race card in Eskilstuna and, traditionally, this racing day closes the season for most of the well merited talents that participate in the four races.

ALN

Finnish star Mascate Match makes an interesting start Sunday in the Swedish Breeders Crown before she will be sold at a sale in Finland on Dec. 30.

The 4-year-old mares initiates the day and as we've earlier told, Finnish star Mascate Match makes an interesting start before she will be sold at a sale in Finland on Dec. 30. The Muscle Mass daughter has won 13 out of 14 starts this season and from post 2 she'll be the one to beat. The purse for her (and American-bred Golden Tricks) is $180,000 in the race since they are bred outside of Sweden, which leads to that they can't get the "Premiechansningen". Premiechansningen is a chance for horses to earn twice the first price in several stakes races in Sweden, so basically, the purse in all Breeders Crown finals is $180,000.

Matron hopeful Mysweetboymax holds special place in owners' hearts

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

When colt Mysweetboymax races in today's (Nov. 5) $193,000 Matron Stakes for 2-year-old male pacers at Dover Downs, he carries not only his owners' hopes for a win but their memories of a dear friend.

Bred and owned by the father-and-son team of Robert Horowitz and Brandon Horowitz, Mysweetboymax is named in memory of Max Liroff, the best friend of one of Robert's other sons, Casey. Max died two years ago at the age of 25 following a battle with cancer.

"He fought the battle like none other, but was just dealt a terrible blow," Robert Horowitz said. "He was the sweetest, nicest kid in the world. I knew him from the day he wore diapers. He was a wonderful person. When it came time to name this horse, this was something we wanted to do."

Mysweetboymax, by Sweet Lou out of Faster Faster, has won three of 10 races this season and hit the board a total of six times. In July, he finished in a dead heat for win with eventual undefeated Breeders Crown champion Perfect Sting. In his most recent starts, both at Harrah's Philadelphia, Mysweetboymax won a division of the Liberty Bell and was second in a division of the Simpson Memorial.

"He was a little immature and we kind of brought him along slowly," Horowitz said. "He's been getting better every week. We felt like this would be an opportunity for him. You never know. You have to be in it to win it."

Mysweetboymax will start in today's Matron from post six and is 12-1 on the morning line. The colt is trained by Sam DePinto.

"He's very handy, he makes no mistakes, and he loves his job," Horowitz said about Mysweetboymax. "The horse just loves what he does. He shows up and tries every week. He can race any way he has Matron hopeful Mysweetboymax was named for Max Liroff, who died two years ago at the age of 25 following a battle with cancer.

to. He's a pushbutton horse to drive. He can leave, come off the pace; that kind of horse is nice as a 2-year-old.

"This is a very competitive race, but we feel like he's in a good spot and will give a good account of himself. He's never disappointed."

Southwind Gendry, the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes champion who is coming off a third-place finish by a head in the Breeders Crown, is the 5-2 favorite in the Matron for colt-and-gelding pacers. The field also includes Metro Pace winner Exploit and Breeders Crown finalists Bayfield Beach and Literl Lad Hanover.

There also are Matron Stakes for 2-year-old male trotters and 2-year-old female pacers and trotters. Massachusetts Sire Stakes champion Incommunicado is the 3-5 favorite in the colt-and-gelding trot, Bluegrass division winner Pub Crawl is the 5-2 choice in the filly trot, and Breeders Crown finalist Continualou is the 2-1 favorite in the filly pace.

Racing begins at 4:30 p.m. (EST) today at Dover Downs.
