Consignors predicting a strong sale in Harrisburg

Despite economic woes, the horse racing economy still offers plenty of reasons for people to be bullish.

Organizers of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company are primed for a big week in Harrisburg.

STANDBRED HORSE
SALE COMPANY

2022 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG

Last year, buyers were so thrilled the Standardbred Horse Sales Company sale returned to its traditional home at the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex (PFSC) that they drove the yearling sale to new records for average ($54,653) and median ($32,000), and a near-record $42,465,500 in gross sales.

The year prior, the SHSC had to find a temporary home in Timonium, MD due to the PFSC being closed during the COVID-19 pandemic.

"I think being away for a year made people appreciate Harrisburg. I think people were focusing on the negatives at Harrisburg and then it took a year to not be there for people to realize that there's a lot of positives there," said Hanover Shoe Farms' executive vice-president Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky. "It's under a roof so it's not weather dependant. It's a very, very easy place to see horses. You can get from one consignment to another in a couple of steps, so for that amount of yearlings it's fairly easy to see a large amount of horses in a short amount of time. You don't spend a lot of time walking.

"Harrisburg has a really strong catalogue for pacers and it really has something for everybody. Also, the area, there's very good restaurants in Harrisburg and it's a nice city. I think, like in most things in life, you take things for granted and then when you risk losing them you realize that there are much more pluses than you realized.

Preferred's David Reid said, "There's no doubt that when they were forced to move to Timonium due to the COVID situation, I think people found the indoor to be more accommodating in November than they did the outdoors at Timonium."

This year's sale – the 84th edition – begins Monday (Nov. 7) and runs through Friday (Nov. 11). The first three days are devoted to selling yearlings. The last two days are reserved for the mixed sale.

But let's focus on just the yearlings for now.

With 777 yearlings sold, 2021's sale just missed the all-time-record gross of $42,784,000 in 2007 when almost 300 more yearlings were sold. Nonetheless, 2021's yearling sale became the third in SHSC history to break $40 million with a gross of $42,465,500 (up 5 per cent from 2019's record cumulative gross of $40,736,000).

"The overall sale was just wonderful," SHSC president and director of operations Dale Welk a year ago after the yearling portion concluded. "It's amazing and I can't thank the buyers, bidders and consignors and everyone enough. It was just an amazing sale – we're over $40 million."

This year's SHSC catalog is as strong as ever.

"There should be no excuse for someone not wanting to come," Reid said. "They have online bidding and they have everything available to the customers and I'm expecting them to have a good week here."

Despite global economic concerns, Blue Chip Farm owner Tom Grossman said, "the market is normally ahead of consensus and has built in a lot of the negatives already. As we speak, the Fed is meeting so I can look stupid for saying all this stuff, but I would say that pretty much the worst case is built in."

Reid said, "I don't think the current political or economic situation with the currency is going to help (the SHSC sale). But people are resilient and hopefully that won't impact too many of the buyers."

Spring Haven's Senena Esty said the SHSC sale provides, "a captive audience. That's the only game in town. Hopefully, people will stop and see us."

Hanover's Dr. Jablonsky is bullish on the industry.

"Regardless of what's going on with the economy in general, which isn't good, I think right now there's so much money to be raced for and there's so many places to race, there's so many good stallions that give you a chance to have a top horse that I think in our little bubble... in our little capsule, there's a lot of positivity," she said.

All American's Rob Tribbett said he thinks the sale will be strong.

"It's a great place to see everyone. Dale Welk does a great job moving that event along and we're so appreciative for the job they do over there," Tribbett said.

"We just had our last (major) thoroughbred sale of the year that was 1,600 horses over four days and it was okay. I think the biggest difference between the two breeds is in the standardbred business you have the opportunity for racing on all levels that is very strong. The supply of horses, the demand for horses is larger. That sale kind of got a little flat with the last 1,600 horses to be sold.

"At Harrisburg, as opposed to being the last group of horses to be sold, this is your last chance to get a yearling. As we talked about in Lexington, yearlings are where racehorses come from. A lot of people do understand that in our business it's very difficult to buy a racehorse, but you can definitely go to Harrisburg and buy a yearling.

"The one thing about Harrisburg is that it's kind of a one-stop shop over three days. A lot of horses are going to get sold and if you're someone that's willing to put the work in, there's definitely value because there are so many horses there selling in such a short period of time."

Reid said, "If the market follows Lexington, I really see all categories holding up very well in my personal opinion."

The 2022 Lexington Selected Yearling Sale set 16 records, including new standards for gross ($65,289,000), average ($73,690), median ($46,500) and number of yearlings sold for $100,000 or more (196). The gross exceeded the previous record ($56,692,500 in 2021) by more than $8.5 million.

Looking back at last year's SHSC yearling auction, the leading owner by both gross purchases ($1,695,000) and average ($282,500) was Determination from Montreal which took home six yearlings.

The leading consignor by gross was Hanover Shoe Farms with total sales of $13,156,000 for 199 sold. Concord Stud led the consignors by average with $109,932 for 59 sold.

The leading sire by gross was Captaintreacherous with $4,430,000 in total sales for 39 sold. Walner led the sires in average with $172,737 for 19 sold.

Reid said it is a great time in standardbred breeding due to the depth of the sires.

"Going back to the Lexington sale, during the summer I kept saying, right from the time we started looking in the spring time until we finalized our list for the sale, I said it was one of the deepest catalogues we ever put together and that's because of the stallions.

"It's definitely the deepest sire representation, both pacers and trotters, that I have seen in a long time."

Looking back on the very first Harrisburg sale in 1939

by Bob Heyden

The first Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction was held Nov. 2 and 3, 1939 at the brand new Pennsylvania State Farm Show Arena.

The sale started at 10 a.m. sharp and hip numbers 17 through 112 were sold on Nov. 2. Hip numbers 113-216 were sold on Nov. 3.

The average sale price was $960.

The first 16 hip numbers were stallions:

1. Mr McElwyn
2. Peter The Brewer
3. Guy McKinney
4. Calumet Chuck
5. Red Ace
6. Sandy Flash
7. Abbedale
8. His Majesty
9. Dillon Axworthy
10. Scotland
11. Guy Abbey
12. Real Frisco
13. Peter Volo (who died on Nov. 7, 1936)
14. Guy Axworthy (who died on July 3, 1933)

15. Guy Day

16. All Worthy

The first yearling sold was Hip #26 Tabb Hanover (Peter The Brewer—Bertha Hanover)

The first 21 yearlings were all Hanovers.

No personal checks were accepted — only currency or Bankers Check On New York.

Here's a sampling of some of the owners comments throughout catalog #1:

"Farm-Hitched Only"

"Won a GOODLY amount of his starts last year"

"Most Pleasing way of going"

"Usually pleasant going to drive"

"Mahogany Bay"

"Model Of Deportment"

"He won't ask for any favors when you ask him to race."

"Sound-Unblemished-Unspoiled"

"Should prove of rare value as a matron"

THE 2022 SHSC AUCTION

This year, there are 68 sires represented in the yearling section.

Only four were Horse Of The Year themselves— Always B Miki, Chapter Seven, McWicked and Muscle Hill.

How amazing is Bettors Delight? Consider:

He has 50 in the sale at Harrisburg — 26 colts and 24 fillies.

All other sires that have produced at least one Horse of the Year have a combined 18 yearlings to sell — Kadabra with 10, Andover Hall with six and Swan For All with 2 each.

Twenty-two of the trotting sires raced in the Hambletonian, but just two won it — Muscle Hill (15) and Royalty For Life (1).

What The Hill has but one in the sale at Harrisburg — Hip 373 Myth. I wonder if he was not disqualified from the 2017 Hambletonian if he would have had more? Or even plenty more?

TALES FROM THE CURMUDGEON

with MURRAY BROWN

The incredible talent of the indispensable Conny Svensson

by Murray Brown

I'm now in the third year of writing this column. During the stint I've tried to cover most, if not all types of personages in the sport, including drivers, trainers, grooms, owners, racetrack executives, veterinarians, officials and perhaps some others that do not come immediately to mind.

I'm fairly certain that Conny Svensson is my first farrier. He might not be the very best one ever, but he is certainly near the top of that list.

Svensson began shoeing horses more out of necessity than ability. He lived on an island in Sweden called Gotland. There was a small racetrack there. He and his father would usually have a trotter or two that they would work with in their spare time. Svensson was then a bricklayer. There were no blacksmiths on the island. One might be found occasionally at the small racetrack there. He began doing some of his own work. He enjoyed the work and took an evening course in horseshoeing at the only school of its type then in Sweden in Axevalla. He worked there for a couple of years. He was contacted by Jan

Dave Briggs

Standardbred Horse Sale

Thursday, November 10 & Friday, November 11, 2300 N. Cameron St., Harrisburg, PA
Sale sessions begin at 11:00 AM.

Nordin, who asked if he was interested in coming to the United States to work for the Nordin Stables, at the time one of the most successful in North America. Jan's father Soren wanted a horseshoer he could communicate with in Swedish. Conny and his wife Anneli soon embarked to the United States, Conny to become the Nordin Stable's horseshoer and Anneli to become a caretaker in the stable. The Nordins were shortly afterwards hired by the Biazuzzi stable one of the major stables in Italy. They left the U.S. to set up shop in Italy. Moving from the United States held no interest for the Svenssons. They remained stateside and went to work for Norwegian horseman Per Henriksen. Conny recalls that among the first horses Anneli took care of was the Breeders Crown winning filly Expressway Hanover.

Jimmy Takter had been working for the Nordins while Conny was there. Takter went on his own and asked Conny to come and work with him. It is now 30 years later and Svensson is still working with the Takter family. When he went to join Takter he was to shoe horses and be a second trainer in the growing stable.

You've been with Jimmy for 30 years. That's a lifetime in the horse business as well as most others.

"I look upon Jimmy as being like a brother to me. Our families are very close. He and Christina are godparents to our daughter. The same relationship has now risen through another generation. I now do Jimmy's daughter Nancy's work. Nancy's stable and that of the Melander brothers Marcus and Matthias are about all of the work I do now. That amounts to more than 100 horses. That's more than enough to keep me busy."

Let's talk about some of the favorite horses that you've shod.

"When you talk about favorites it comes down to two — Moni Maker, a great world renowned trotter and Captain Primeau a wonderful overnight racehorse that I and Anneli bred, raised and owned through his career. Captain Primeau has won 47 races for us, most of them at The Meadowlands. He also earned just about $400,000."

Let's hear about Moni Maker.

"What can I say about Moni Maker that hasn't been said multiple times before? If you looked at her, you saw a big, beautiful mare. She was indeed big and strong, but she didn't have the best feet. She had four different feet, which fortunately operated as they were supposed to. But that didn't mean that they didn't need attention. When she was in Europe Jimmy would fly me over to tend to those feet. I shod her in seven different countries — the United States, Canada, France, Italy, Sweden, Norway and Denmark."

“I believe that most lameness in horses begins in the feet. That is one of the main advantages I have had in working with Jimmy Takter. There are not that many things that I am sure about. One of them is that I believe that Jimmy is the greatest diagnostician of lameness in horses with who I’ve ever been around. He has the unique ability to spot coming physical problems and respond to them than nobody else that I’ve known has. He is able to nip physical problems in the bud, well before and often much well before they can become irreversible.”

~ Conny Svensson

You trained with Jimmy for a while. Had you ever thought of becoming a trainer/driver?

“I’ve trained and driven occasionally, but never to any great extent. I just didn’t have the necessary talent to do it full time. I thought it best to stick with something that I thought that I was proficient at. Another factor was that Jimmy’s stable was increasing. As it grew, I just didn’t have the time to both train and shoe.”

The job of being a horseshoer has to be very demanding on the body, especially on the back.

“Yes it can be. I did have some back problems which required surgery. I guess I got lucky in choosing the right surgeon. I’ve had no further problems since then. As I’ve gotten older I’ve learned to limit myself”

You work primarily with two Swedish stables that of the Taktors and the Melanders. Do you believe that there are any particular reasons why Swedes in general and they in particular have been so successful?

“Two main reasons. The first is that they work hard, very hard. But there are others who might work just as hard without a corresponding amount of success. The second is that for the most part harness racing is all that they’ve ever known. In addition, they’ve had great teachers, people from whom they’ve learned great lessons in their trade. Jimmy’s father Bo William was a great horseman. When Jimmy decided to become a horseman – as though there was ever any doubt – he went to work for someone who some people believe was the greatest horseman ever, Soren Nordin. For Jimmy’s daughter Nancy the situation was pretty much the same. In addition to all the cumulative knowledge she gained through her father’s experience, she also learned so very much by being at his side and working for and with him. It was pretty much the same sort of situation with Marcus and Matthias Melander. Their uncle Stefan is one of Sweden’s greatest horsemen. When they packed up and came to the United States, they went to work for Jimmy Takter and of course benefitted from all of his knowledge. Another advantage the Swedish horsemen have is that they learned their craft

“What can I say about Moni Maker that hasn’t been said multiple times before? If you looked at her, you saw a big, beautiful mare. She was indeed big and strong, but she didn’t have the best feet. She had four different feet. which fortunately operated as they were supposed to. But that didn’t mean that they didn’t need attention. When she was in Europe Jimmy would fly me over to tend to those feet. I shod her in seven different countries – the United States, Canada, France, Italy, Sweden, Norway and Denmark.”

~ Conny Svensson

working mostly with local horses. Speaking in generalities, the horses in Sweden were and to a great degree still are less natural than their North American counterparts. Working with them was more challenging than working with those that we have here. In relative terms, it was much easier being a farrier here than in Europe.”

You’ve now been in the United States for 30 years. What if any differences have you experienced through all the years?

“The biggest difference is in the horses themselves. Today’s horses are so much more natural. They have purely natural gaits. It is much easier to be a horseshoer today than it was back then. So many of them have good feet. One of the first lessons one learns when dealing with horses is that most lameness derives from the feet. There is great truth to that saying, ‘no foot, no horse.’ Carrying it one step further, there is a difference, but not a whole lot of difference involved between shoeing trotters and pacers.”

What do you consider your number one priority as a horseshoer?

“Not only number one, but also number two, three and four. That is to help the horse stay sound and healthy. As I’ve said above, I believe that most lameness in horses begins in the feet. That is one of the main advantages I have had in working with Jimmy Takter. There are not that many things that I am sure about. One of them is that I believe that Jimmy is the greatest diagnostician of lameness in horses with who I’ve ever been around. He has the unique ability to spot coming physical problems and respond to them than nobody else that I’ve known has. He is able to nip physical problems in the bud, well before and often much well before they can become irreversible.”

You are now 58 years old. Your work is very demanding on the body. Has it become more difficult? Does it make you to look forward to retiring in the foreseeable future?

“The answers are no and no. If anything it has become easier. It isn’t harder to do. That is due to the nature of the horses in that they are so natural today. As far as retiring, it hasn’t entered my mind. I love what I do. I look forward to going to work each day. Why would I possibly want that to end?”

Hanover Shoe Farms hoping record-breaking Lexington results continue in Harrisburg

by Dave Briggs

A little over a month ago, Hanover Shoe Farms set a Lexington Selected Yearling Sale all-time record for consignor average of $194,174. The farm's executive vice-president Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky said she hopes that carries over into the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearlings auction that begins Monday in Harrisburg, PA.

"We did take 23 very good yearlings to Lexington, but we have very, very good yearlings for Harrisburg," Jablonsky said. "The interest has been very good. We've had lots of people every day since we started showing, so I think there are still people that need yearlings and we still have very good ones left."

In particular, Jablonsky said she has two fillies — one a pacer and one a trotter — that she loves.

"The pacer is Hip 153 (Time Out Hanover) and she's a Stay Hungry sister to Tickertape Hanover, who was probably my favorite colt last year. This is just a beautiful, beautiful eye-catching filly with just a great disposition. We've had her in the paddock almost every day and sometimes twice a day and she never puts on a bad show. She's always good-gaited and very, very smart. To me, she's just the complete package and just a really nice filly. One of the nicest pacing fillies I think you'll see.

"Hip 38 (Date Night Hanover). She might be as pretty a trotting filly as I've seen in years. She's a Chapter Seven out of Don't Wait Up. She's a sister to Delayed Hanover. That family is just exploding right now... The pedigree is deep — it's Trixton's family, Venerate's family. It's one of the best trotting filly families in the business, but, beyond all that, the filly is beautiful. Just gorgeous. She really, I don't think, can be faulted. She trots beautifully in the paddock. She's dual-eligible and I think she's a real superstar, I really do.

Bee A Magician ($4.1 million)

ontarioracing.com

"She's very similar to the Stay Hungry filly, there's not much you cannot like about them. I hope she does well and I think she'll be well-received. Like I said, I can't see too many people looking at her and not liking her. It's almost impossible."

Jablonsky also mentioned the following yearlings:

Hip 7 Amethyst Hanover: American Jewel's "nice, big, strong Bettors Delight filly. It's the first time she's been bred to Bettors Delight or anything other than the Somebeachsomewhere line. The Somebeachsomewhere line is great, but this is a change for her and it's a beautiful Bettors Delight filly."

Hip 119 Pennteller Hanover: "is a Chapter Seven out of Possess The Magic. He's beautiful, big, dark, just a beautiful colt. If you look at the pedigree closely, you'll see it's a big sire upgrade for the mare. Previously, for some reason, for a mare of her stature, she hasn't been bred accordingly. I'm not insulting the other stallions she's been bred to, but that's the facts. So, it's a Chapter Seven out of her that looks to me like something really, really interesting."

Beyond being proud beyond belief to be the breeder of the world's fastest standardbred and presumptive Horse of the Year Bulldog Hanover, Jablonsky said Hanover takes as much pride in being the breeder of a number of the top free-for-all pacers: Allywag Hanover, Abuckabett Hanover, Rockyroad Hanover and Linedrive Hanover, to name a few.

"There was a time when those five were the five dominant free-for-allers back at the Meadowlands, before Tattoo Artist came in the mix and Rockyroad, I think, got hurt," Jablonsky said. "There were a couple of races where they were the top four in world record time. I think that is a big boost to us. I'm proud of the numbers that start. I'm proud of the earnings. We may be able to break the (all-time breeder) earnings record again this year, which would be amazing, so I think it all helps. I think the broodmare band is steadily getting better and better and the stallion roster is terrific. I think we're just kind of riding the wave right now."

As for the next generation, Jablonsky said she "couldn't be happier with the two first-crop stallions, Stay Hungry and International Moni. Stay Hungry really has done very well. He had horses come out at the very beginning with horses pacing in :50 with last quarters in :25. He's really shown up and really held his own with the big boys, Captain and Always B Miki.

"International Moni, I think... did a fantastic job. He stood for $5,000 and he didn't get a great book of mares. For him to do what he did, I think, is really, really special. For me, I wasn't looking for them to be ready early, because, being a Love You, a lot of them are big, heavy horses and I thought they might be better later on, but he came out of the box swinging from the baby races on. He's been terrific and captured both the Massachusetts Sires Stakes Finals for 2-year-olds. He had good horses racing in Kentucky and he's holding his own in Pennsylvania. He's really done a terrific job.

"Somehow, and I never know why this happens, but this second crop of yearlings we have are much, much nicer than the first crop. I'm excited to sell those.

"The Greenshoes, as well. I couldn't be happier with the way they were received in Lexington. People love them and they are acting just like he was. They are correct and they are being bought by the right people, being put in the right hands. With the mare he breed and the people that are training them, he has every reason in the world to be a good sire."

Laungani pumped about Diamond Creek's SHSC consignment

by James Platz

Diamond Creek Farm management has a lot to be excited about heading into this year's Harrisburg sale. The farm will feature a consignment consisting of 24 yearlings and more than 70 entries in the mixed portion of the sale. Of equal importance, progeny from Diamond Creek's roster of top-flight stallions are spread throughout the catalog.

"It's super exciting. Our stallions had an amazing Breeders Crown, so there's a lot to look forward to," said Shaun Laungani, Diamond Creek vice-president and director of bloodstock services. "Seeing some more of the first crop of Captain Crunch trade hands will be exciting. Seeing a select group, I think maybe there's eight Downbytheseasides and one who is sister to Sylvia Hanover that Hanover is selling, will be exciting. Sweet Lou, just phenomenal. Always B Miki, phenomenal Breeders Crown results. We expect really strong averages for all of our acing studs. Bettor's Wish, his first crop that he bred while still in training, is going to have some nice representatives as well. Probably the most excited to see the stallions and see them succeeding."

The Diamond Creek yearling consignment includes 15 pacers with three by Bettor's Wish, a pair by Captain Crunch, and five by Always B Miki. There are 14 in total sired by Bettor's Wish selling this week at Harrisburg.

"We're happy to represent that first crop of Bettor's Wish with the Ryders, who are sending their homebred to the sale, Hip 350. A really, really nice colt built very similar to Bettor's Wish. Everybody's excited to show him off as a representation of the stallion," Laungani said.

Belmar is the first foal from Art Major mare Major Frost, a five-time winner with just shy of $80,000 on her card. She is a sister to Shoreview ($508,732) and Apothic ($112,639), and the third dam, Cool World, produced the great Eternal Camnation. Chris Ryder and Robert Mondillo own the colt.

A contingent of 36 yearlings represents Always B Miki, fresh off adding two new Breeders Crown champions in Sylvia Hanover and Grace Hill. Of the Diamond Creek lot, two Miki babies are consigned on behalf of Anthony Perretti and his associates.

"One of the VIP clients this coming week will be the group of Anthony Perretti, Joe Davino and Brad Shackman, who are sending the largest group of yearlings to the sale that they have in some time," said Laungani. "They're back working at Harrisburg for the first time in a while. I know they're very excited about that and they've got a really nice, solid group to offer."

Hip 487, Crowd Strike, is a dual-eligible Always B Miki filly from Perrett, Davino and Shackman. She joins Hip 253, Lazarus colt Lazar Sharp, second foal from a half-sister to O'Brien Award winner Sintra, as well as Hip 64, Geocentric, a Sweet Lou filly from the family of two-time Dan Patch Award winner See You At Peelers.

"This was a mare that we sold that was bought in foal to this filly. It's the See You At Peelers family. The previous foal to this one, the third foal, Horizontal, just raced in the Breeders Crown final at two," said Laungani. "This is a Sweet Lou filly. I encourage everyone to watch the video. She's very flashy. She has the Sweet Lou blaze, and she's just so light on her feet. You just have to watch and see. She's basically dead sexy, that's the only way to describe how she moves. She's just got a beautiful gait."

There are two other yearlings raised at Perretti Farm that will pass through the sale ring. Hip 65, Belle Brielle, an American Ideal filly consigned on behalf of Joe and Laurie Davino, and Hip 92, Miki In Luv, a filly out of a half-sister to millionaire Rockyroad Hanover, consigned for Perretti, Davino, Shackman and Drennan Stable LLC.

VALUE PICK

If you're looking for a sleeper, Laungani said that Hip 497, Cantab's Joy, may be worth a look. Her pedigree page shows a Kadabra mare with two winners from three foals, including one in 1:55, but what may garner more attention is her video.

"I don't know that anybody would pick her out of the catalog. We videoed her in the paddock. Adam has probably videoed 1,000 or more yearlings to this point, and this filly was so fast he had to say she was in the top three ever, if not the highest. Just incredible speed and anyone can see that in the video," he said.

Diamond Creek will sell seven yearlings on the first day, and of their consignment, six of the 24 are first foals with eight second foals.

"It's probably a function of the people we're working with. Not new breeders, but breeders that are in expansion mode," Laungani said.

On the mixed side, Diamond Creek will offer the largest consignment they have ever brought to auction. Included in the roster are stallion shares, racehorses and broodmares. The total more than doubles the 32 horses the farm sold in last year's mixed portion of the sale, where they averaged a little over $58,000.

"We have some nice yearlings to sell, and this will be our largest mixed sale consignment that we've ever taken. We have over 60 head. We're selling for more people than we ever have, and there's a bigger variety of everything, pregnant mares to racehorses," Laungani said.

Winbak high on offspring from its young stallions

by Dave Briggs

Winbak Farms yearling manager Jimmy Ladwig said he's impressed with what he's seen from the offspring of a number of the farm's young stallions, particularly Courtly Choice, who stands in New York and McWicked, who stands in Ontario.

"Since I have been looking at the weanlings, I was high on them," Ladwig said of Courtly Choice. "I thought his weanlings looked great and then they grew into good-looking yearlings and they just kept blossoming throughout the year. Our Lexington yearlings looked great and our Harrisburg yearlings look great. He was well-received out of Lexington, we thought, but it was hard not to like them because they were great-looking horses."

"I like the McWicked, too. I was high on them as weanlings and they just grew up as nice yearlings. And we're selling one really nice Jimmy Freight (in Harrisburg), Hip 590 (Cowboy Cargo)."

Winbak will sell 93 yearlings at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company sale.

Ladwig pointed out "a couple of nice Bettors Delights selling on the first day" – Hip 13 Ashers Basher and Hip 53 Astarwasborn.

"We also have a nice American Ideal filly out of Stonebridge Kisses (Hip 141, Bridge Of Love). Nice filly. And Hip 272 (Desperate Dream) is a Boston Red Rocks and a half sister to Desperate Man... I like her a lot."

Ladwig said he has a very good reason for loving Hip 734 Ur Very Sassy, a Roll With Joe filly out of Wild Retreat.

"That's my own personal horse," he said.

He also pointed out a "a nice Resolve filly selling later, Hip 763 (Melissas Day)."

"We've got some nice Roll With Joes, American Ideal, a lot of nice horses. It's hard to pick just one."

Depth and diversity reflected in Preferred's yearling consignment

by Dave Briggs

David Reid is always careful not to highlight particular yearlings his Preferred Equine is selling at any sale because he represents so many clients. But when it comes to this year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA, he said he's tremendously pleased with the overall depth of Preferred's offerings.

"It's probably one of the deepest consignments we've had in years at Harrisburg," Reid said.

"I'm very happy coming into the sale, both from a pedigree and individual point of view... We have a tremendous consignment across the board in all categories and we're especially deep in pacing fillies.

"In our pacing consignment, we have Sweet Lous, Stay Hungrys, Captaintreacherous – all the main sires, both colts and fillies.

"We have trotters by Greenshoe, Walner, Muscle Hill and Chapter Seven to lead the way for our strong trotting consignment."

Preferred's diversity also extends to jurisdictions.

"In my consignment, we have a very strong representation from New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Ontario. We don't have many Ohio-breds, but those four jurisdictions are very strong in my opinion," Reid said.

2022 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG

Concord Stud hoping to repeat last year's lofty Harrisburg numbers

by James Platz

Last year at Harrisburg, Concord Stud Farm sold the sale topper for $750,000 and finished with an average that exceeded $100,000. These are lofty numbers to attempt to match this week, but Julie Meirs is confident that the Cream Ridge, NJ nursery's consignment has quality, and a little variety for everyone. It certainly doesn't hurt to have a trio of trotters that are siblings to some of this season's best performers.

"No pressure," Meirs said, laughing. "We've got a great consignment top to bottom. We've got a little bit of everything. Something for everybody at all price points."

Leading the consignment is Hip 101, Monticello, a Chapter Seven brother to the great trotting mare and triple millionaire Atlanta. Last fall, In Italian, a full-sister to Monticello, topped the sale. The filly has won twice this season, including a New York Sire Stakes leg,

"He's much more correct than Atlanta was when she was a yearling. A little bit bigger than she was as well. He's a Chapter Seven, so he's not huge, but he is bigger than she was, and he's more correct than she was," said Meirs. "I'm excited to see what he is able to do. Last year it was exciting to sell that one. I don't know where we're going to be with this one."

Bred by Stefan Balazsi's Order By Stable, Monticello is one of 13 yearlings the Swedish breeder will sell at Harrisburg.

"We had a discussion about it, and for him, he split his consignment straight down the middle; 50 per cent went to Lexington and 50 per cent went to Harrisburg, so we had 13 at each sale," Meirs said.

Another that should attract high interest is Jinx Blackout, Hip 18 in the catalog. The Walner filly is a sibling to Hambletonian champion Cool Papa Bell, now a millionaire. The yearling is out of Muscle Hill mare Blk Thai Optional.

Four hips after Monticello sells, Concord will offer Superior Stats, a full-brother to Mohawk Million winner Oh Well. The freshman is a four-time winner in 2022, with $740,118 on his card and a mark of 1:53.1. Last year he brought $530,000 at Harrisburg, consigned under the name Lord Bridgerton. Superior Stats is the second foal from Cantab Hall mare Fine Tuned Lady.

In Or Out, Hip 43, may not have a notable sibling to count in her pedigree, but the Captaintreacherous filly has the look and comes from a productive family. She is the third foal from a sister to millionaire Bedroomconfessions, dam of Boudoir Hanover. In Or Out is Pennsylvania, Kentucky and New Jersey Standardbred Development Fund eligible.

"She is a standout individual. She's A Captaintreacherous filly and you get the wow when she's on the floor. She grabs your attention," Meirs said.

Last year, Concord led all consignors in average with 59 horses selling for an average of $109,932. The farm was the only consignor to top six figures. This year the roster totals 68 yearlings, with 31 selling on Monday.

"We are heavy Monday this year. We've got a significant number selling Monday, but we've got great horses on Wednesday as well. We just don't have the high end where you're just coming and looking on Monday and you're going to leave," explained Meirs.

A high percentage of the yearlings sold under the Concord banner are products of the farm. Meirs said that intimate knowledge of each horse plays to their advantage.

"Most of our consignment has been raised on the farm. We have a handful that aren't raised there, but come and get their finishing touches put on at the farm. A couple meet us at the sale," she stated. "But for most of the consignment, we've been part of their life from day one. They took their first breath at Concord Farm and we really know them in and out and can help the buyer find what they're looking for."

Just as the extensive knowledge of the consignment is key, so also are long-established relationships with buyers.

"This isn't a huge business. Clients come back year after year, and we've got a lot of people that come and say, 'Show me what you think I want to see.' Since they've been coming year after year, we can get a good handle on what it is they are looking for and what they want to look at. I think that's important," Meirs noted.

The Concord consignment consists of yearlings representing 30 different sires from six different jurisdictions. When Meirs says they have something for everyone, she means it.

"That's something that we consider when we determine who we breed our mares to. We really try to make sure that within the Concord-owned horses, we are not too heavy with one jurisdiction," she said. "We like to spread it around and make sure we are really hitting everything if we can. When it comes time for the sales, we have something for everywhere."

2022 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG

Northwood Bloodstock yearlings have critical updates

by Debbie Little

Just as it did in Lexington, Bob Boni's Northwood Bloodstock consignment in Harrisburg offers diversity.

"I think when you go to a sale like Harrisburg, if you look through the catalog, there should be something for everybody," said Boni.

Northwood will offer around 70 yearlings at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's (SHSC) auction in Harrisburg, over twice as many as they sold in Lexington.

Boni thinks that buyers at the SHSC, which starts on Monday (Nov. 7), need to do their homework and check for updates.

Since The Black Book went to press in mid-September, there could be plenty of updates that should be considered.

"What I've done for years is I've put an indicator on their halter tag that there's an update," said Boni. "Obviously, I can't write the update on the tag, but that should give them reason to ask.

"Once they're in the sales ring, it's almost too late. I'm sure they'll make that announcement, but I'd say for the most part, the vast majority of people that are interested have already kind of made their decision and they may not be looking at that time or they may not be paying enough attention."

Boni first saw an indicator many years ago at a thoroughbred sale and recognized its importance.

"It's a little red dot that we put on the halter number," said Boni. "And we have a sign that says, 'Red dot means important update' and that should give people reason to ask."

Dave Landry

Northwood Bloodstock's Bob Boni.

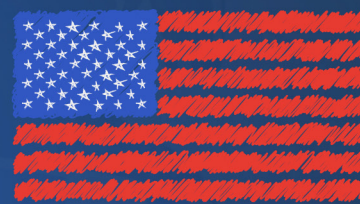

So, Boni suggests if you see red, stop, you may just learn something vitally important.

As an example, Boni pointed out Hip 340 Rock Climber, a son of Muscle Hill out of Lass A Rope.

"The interesting aspect here is since the catalog was printed, his brother, Volume Eight, has got a record of 1:52.1," said Boni. "He's won four out of six starts and he's made almost $100,000 and

RESULTS & REPLAYS

US & CANADIAN RESULTS/REPLAYS AVAILABLE IN EACH ONLINE EDITION

www.harnessracingupdate.com

he's obviously a pretty good colt. If you just look in the catalog, Volume Eight has a record of 1:59.4 and he made $1,000."

Another example given is a son of Bar Hopping.

"Number 357 Manager Mister is a pretty nice colt and there's a pretty big update," said Boni. "His 3-year-old sister has made over $200,000 now and the 2-year-old [sister] has a record of 1:57.4 on a half-mile track."

Boni also pointed out some first-crop yearlings by Captain Crunch, Greenshoe and Six Pack.

"I've got a nice Captain Crunch filly that's selling in the first session: Better Crunch, Number 15," said Boni. "First foal [out of Better Said]."

"I've got a very, very nice Captain Crunch colt [Hip 97 Mccrunch] and he's just been terrific. He's a Captain Crunch out of Mccgibson. He's a brother to a Breeders Crown winner, Boston Red Rocks, and his 2-year-old sister, Mcseaside, has made almost $300,000 this year. So, this is a colt that I think should get a significant amount of attention. He's a pretty interesting prospect."

Boni doesn't like to zero in on what he thinks his yearlings will bring. He believes that it's up to the buyers to decide that. Instead, he likes to point out why horses should have a significant amount of appeal.

"This colt [Hip 97 Mccrunch] would be a perfect example," said Boni. "What's he going to bring? I can't sit here and give you that kind of number right now, but I think that anybody looking for a good pacing colt, first crop, Pennsylvania eligible, this would be a colt that they should have some interest in."

Greenshoe yearlings sold well in Lexington and Boni expects interest in them to be high in Harrisburg as well.

"I've got two Greenshoe colts in the first session, Number 4 [Arguendo] and Number 14 [Gryngolet]," said Boni. "I've seen them. They're both very, very nice horses."

Boni thinks his Six Pack colt, Hip 301 Bluebird Pyramid, is very interesting.

"It's the first Six Pack from the mare [Goosebump Hanover] and since the cataloging her 3-year-old trotting filly, Bluebird Dove, has now got earnings of over $200,000 and she also set a world record at Delaware. She won in 1:52.2, so that's a half-mile track world record for 3-year-old trotting fillies. And this is the first crop of Six Pack and she's had three foals, and two of them are stakes winners, so this should be one of the more interesting Six Packs to sell."

Northwood has yearlings selling on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at Harrisburg, a sale Boni always looks forward to.

"I like it there," said Boni. "I think it's a very customer friendly sale to get around with all the horses under one roof."

"If you can't find it in Harrisburg, you're not going to find it anywhere."

Spring Haven's Senena Esty optimistic about the farm's yearlings

by Dave Briggs

Spring Haven Farm represents a number of clients, but for simplicity, farm owner Senena Esty starts with a few consignment highlights from the farm's own yearlings selling at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale.

"These are ones that I raised that my husband and I own," she said. "The first one is Seven Summers (Hip 156) and she is the first foal from Tu Eres Mi Corazon, which means 'You are my heart.' It's a really current family and there's a lot going on. This is the first foal. The video is like a dream. She's from the family of Fourth Dimension, Valentina Blu, Heart On Fire. It's a Chapter Seven filly and conformationally she's very correct and she videoed like a dream.

"My favorite pacing colt is a Captain Crunch colt. His name is Captain Chief (Hip 233). He's just a big, black beauty. He's a large colt, one of the largest Captain Crunches that I've seen. He's very correct and I thought he videoed very well. The 2-year-old is racing, also.

"And I've got to mention my sister, Stephanie, she has an extra special Ontario-bred, McWicked that is from Somebeachsomewhere immediate family. This is a first foal and he's a colt. He's a very, very nice, outstanding colt. [Wicked Games, Hip 332]"

From its clients, Spring Haven is selling: "A really nice Chapter Seven colt. That colt's name is Seven Grits (Hip 86). He videoed very well, great family. (Jonas Schlabach) just raises really good trotters.

"I would be remiss if I didn't mention a Downbytheseaside. (Hip 313 Seaside Hottie) is out of Hot Lemonade... Great conformation, video like gangbusters. She's really a nice filly.

"I've got another McWicked filly from a big, young Somebeach mare. Her name is McWicked Beach (Hip 827). She's got it going on, great extension.

"And a really good Bettors Delight. She's a fancy filly. Bigger than average for the Bettors fillies that I've sold in the past. She's Wine Delight (Hip 929). It's a young mare and I think she's only had one other foal."

Esty said she feels optimistic coming into the sale.

"I think coming off of Lexington, which was such a strong, robust sale, we're obviously a 'glass-is-half-full-kind-of-people' here, so we're very optimistic. We've got what people want, so hopefully they are going to like them as well. I think the market is going to continue strong.

"There's just a lot of good feeling going into this sale. We're super excited to see everyone and show off our kids."

Family-run Twinbrook excited about its latest Harrisburg consignment

by Chris Lomon

Located in Embro, ON, Twinbrook Farms is a family owned and operated standardbred breeding farm. Husband and wife team Rob and Tammy McNiven, and their daughter Jenna, oversee the 130-acre property that is home to nearly 100 horses. Bringing the 'Twin B' prefix to the North American standardbred scene, Twinbrook continues to be guided by its mandate of providing quality yearlings to the public.

Rob and Tammy are still highly involved in the operation of the farm, but Jenna has recently stepped to the fore and oversees the business, including Twinbrook's 32-yearling consignment at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's (SHSC) yearling auction that begins Monday (Nov. 7) in Harrisburg, PA. Twinbrook has long sold most of its yearlings in Harrisburg.

those two sales. It spills over. Absolutely. When the racehorse people have good years, it spills over to the breeders having a good year, and so on. It's just a very good, well-oiled wheel for the industry."

"I know we've said over the last year or two that we are retiring and that our daughter Jenna is taking over," said Tammy. "We're doing this because of her. She absolutely loves it. To be able to do it well, you have to have the skills and the backing to go forward. We're still there every day. We work in the barn every day and I do all the bookwork, but Jenna is the hands-on person. If you look at the horses the past three or four years, it's phenomenal what she's done. She's a great horseperson."

As are both of her parents, who have played an integral part in Twinbrook's success story.

"We've really upped our broodmare band over the last 5-7 years, and I believe we are one of the top broodmare bands in all of Ontario and that really reflects on the offspring we have to sell," said Tammy. "It's a pleasure. It's not an embarrassment to take anyone out of the stall. Everyone is a great-looking animal, they stand well, and they all come from very good families. We're very proud of all that."

The McNivens are also buoyed by what they are seeing in the standardbred industry in recent times.

There has been a noticeable sense of optimism at recent yearling sales, said Tammy.

"After being in Lexington and seeing that sale, as well as being in London and part of that sale, it's absolutely encouraging going into Harrisburg. Everyone seems so excited about the new first-crop sires and to own racehorses. There is a really good momentum and there was a really good vibe around

Claus Andersen
Twinbrook's
Tammy McNiven
with her grandson
Kingston Henry.

McNiven said she is excited about Twinbrook's yearling offering in Harrisburg.

"We have 32. Sixteen of them are ours, bred by Twinbrook, a few of them we've raised for clients and then there are a few that we'll meet at the sale, newbies for us. They are clients from the past and they always send us nice, quality horses."

Here are some of Tammy's top picks, along with a few value options, at Harrisburg:

"Of course, one that stands out is a Bettors Delight sister to Twin B Joe Fresh. Her name is Twin B Roulette (Hip 58). We didn't breed Twin B Joe Fresh, but we bought her mother for $21,000 out of the Harrisburg Sale and raised Twin B Joe Fresh here in Ontario and sold her to Chris Ryder last year for $65,000. All of her credentials are amazing. A New York Sires Stakes champion, a Kentucky champion, and I believe she's the only filly to have two sub-:49 miles at 2. This is why we do what we do. Brittany picked out the mating, we raised the horse, and the rest is history. I can't tell you she looks like Joe Fresh or is like Joe Fresh because I can't see her heart. But she's a nicely put-together filly and I think people will like her. She's a nice, athletic-looking filly.

"We have a Captain Crunch colt, and his name is Twin B Defender (Hip 157). From what we have seen from the Captain Crunch's – we have three – they are really nice-looking horses. I think he's going to be very well received at the sale this fall. It's hard to pick just a few because we have 16. It's like asking, 'Who is your favorite child?' It's hard to play favorites."

VALUE PICKS

"There's a Stay Hungry colt, who is out of a sister to Always A Virgin. His name is Twin B Hungergames (Hip 523). The dam has had three fillies, and nothing has worked out. But this is the first colt, and he is absolutely stunning. If he was on the floor, people would stop and say, 'Who is this guy?' He just looks the whole part. I think he's going to be a sleeper just because of the pedigree. The mare unfortunately died this year, foaling this colt, so this is the last one out of the mare.

"We also have a nice Captain Crunch Colt. His name is Twin B Cerealkillr (Hip 812). The mare is getting a little long in the tooth, but everything she has had has made the races. Like I said earlier, the Captain Crunch yearlings really have a nice look to them. They are really nice and big and athletic. We quite like them."

"I really, really like our Well Said filly, Twin B Amazon (Hip 765). Well Said is not in everyone's marketplace. The big trainers won't be looking at Well Said because he's been around a long time. But he still has really great racehorses. This filly, I just love her. There is just something about her. She goes all day out in the paddock and she exercises herself. She's a real athlete. Someone is going to get a nice buy with her."

Tribbett touts All American's Best Day from SHSC consignment

by Dave Briggs

All American Harnessbred has 33 yearlings to sell at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's auction that begins Monday (Nov. 7) in Harrisburg, PA and Rob Tribbett said, "It's a really good group. There's something for everybody. There's Ontario-breds, Pennsylvania-breds, New York-breds, trotters and pacers."

As for singling out some top prospects, Tribbett said, "There's one that I think is really worth mentioning... We raised a lot of good horses on the farm, but Hip 122 (Best Day), he's a full brother to Stag Party and a half-brother to Save America and a three-quarter brother to Hen Party.

"When we do the yearling videos out in the field, the first moments they start moving you really get an idea of what kind of horse they are. He was such a great mover to complement his pedigree. Physically, he's much more like Hen Party or Save America than Stag Party. Stag was a first foal, so he's a little bit bigger than them, but I think he's just a standout on paper, in the field, but also physically, as well."

Tribbett also placed the spotlight on Hip 116 Likeitusedtobe.

"That's a Walner colt. What Walner has done in his first few crops is remarkable. That mare's first foal was unable to be trained, because it was hurt as a yearling, so it's really kind of a first foal. In the first and second dams, you've got millionaires. This is another horse that really moves good and it's really a standout colt," Tribbett said.

VALUE PICK

As for an "under-the-radar pick" Tribbett point to Hip 508 Man Of The Town.

"It's another Walner colt. It's from the pedigree of San Pail and that horse is just really physically a standout. When people see him, they are really going to like him," Tribbett said.

Carter Duer's Peninsula offering "nice individuals from the industry's leading bloodlines"

by James Platz

Carter Duer and his Peninsula Farm will present a 10-horse yearling consignment at Harrisburg this week. The veteran breeder says that his offering may be light on firepower, but it still boasts some nice individuals from the industry's leading bloodlines.

"I do think I have three or four very nice horses. Maybe five. It may not end up that way when I come back home," Duer said. "I've got two or three trotting colts that seem to be pretty nice. Whether they are or not I don't know, we'll let the public decide that I guess."

Duer admits he is apprehensive after last month's Lexington sale. The five yearling sessions produced record numbers, but Peninsula's consignment didn't fare as well as he had hoped. In addition, those on hand for the Lexington sale did not spend as much time reviewing the farm's Harrisburg offerings.

"Normally I sell my Harrisburg horses (in Lexington). By that I mean they get sold here because they are looked at here and people, if it's something they really want, it carries on," Duer said. "This year, for some unknown reason, we didn't get people coming and looking at the Harrisburg horses, and I don't know why. These didn't get much exposure."

The Peninsula Farm consignment consists of three pacers and seven trotters. Duer believes his top prospect is Samwise The Brave, cataloged as Hip 151 and selling near the end of Monday's session. The Pennsylvania and Kentucky eligible colt is from the first crop of Greenshoe and is the first foal of O'Brien Award-winning mare The Ice Dutchess.

"He's a pretty nice horse. How he'll sell, I don't know," he said, "You can't criticize his mother. This is her first foal. He's one of the best ones I've had in a few years."

Greenshoe's first crop was well-received at Lexington, with the stallion topping all trotting sires in average at $130,792.

Memoryn imagination, Hip 54, sells earlier in Monday's session. The Father Patrick colt is the first foal from Trixton mare Fellowship Of Two, a daughter of the great trotting filly turned top producing mare, Solveig. The yearling is Pennsylvania and Kentucky eligible.

"The Father Patrick colt out of a first foal daughter of Solveig is a very nice colt. It's kind of the same with him. Haven't had much play on him. He's got a great pedigree, looks good, and shows well," offered Duer.

Three Twenty, another Monday offering cataloged as Hip 130, is a Muscle Hill colt eligible to the Keystone and Bluegrass programs. Out of Yankee Glide mare Sheer Glide, he is a full-brother to a pair of winners. The dam is a sibling to Flex The Muscle, a 34-time winner with $957,210 on his card.

"I've got a nice Muscle Hill colt. He's the third foal, the first two raced. He's an exceptional colt," Duer said.

Belle Meade, Hip 208, sells Tuesday for Duer. The homebred International Moni filly is the first living foal from Trixton mare Behold The Dream, and is eligible to Pennsylvania and Kentucky. The family includes Dan Patch, O'Brien and Nova Award winner Pampered Princess.

"I've got an International Moni filly that I really like that belongs to me," Duer said. "She's the first foal from a Trixton mare. She's pretty nice."

The trio of pacers are sired by three of the industry's young and up-and-coming sires.

"I have a Downbytheseaside, and they seem to be very fashionable now. I have a very nice Lazarus filly that's out of a very good producing family. She's very nice," Duer suggested. "I've got a Captain Crunch, which we didn't raise here. He has a nice film and he's a good-looking colt. I would think that they will sell pretty decent."

Mary Of Bethany, selling as Hip 81, is a Lazarus filly out of the 100 per cent producing mare, Just Like Kate. The filly, eligible to the New Jersey and Kentucky programs, is a sister to Wearinmysixshooter, a Captaintreacherous filly that has earned $281,156.

Downbytheseaside colt Valleryan Sea sells late in Monday's session, cataloged as Hip 160. The Ohio and Kentucky eligible yearling is out of Valerya, who has produced a winner from two previous foals. The dam is a sister to the great producer Benear, mother of Limelight Beach and Manhattan Beach.

Mornin Captain, a colt from the first crop of Captain Crunch, will sell as Hip 218. The May foal is a brother to winner Funkymunkymaga. The yearling is out of Breezy De Vie, sister to Little Brown Jug elimination winner and final runner-up Fast N First.

Walnridge's Richard Meirs excited about the prospects for Captain Crunch, Tactical Landing and many more

by James Platz

Walnridge Farm's Richard Meirs, VDM, is very happy with the group of yearlings he is bringing to Harrisburg. The farm will offer 28 pacers and trotters eligible to the programs in Ontario, Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, and sired by some of the sport's hottest young sires.

"The horses have really come together well. They are showing extremely well, they videoed incredibly well. I'm excited, especially for these young stallions. I'm excited to have them going with me to the sale barn. It's going to be fun," said Meirs. "I'm really, really fortunate to have some outstanding Captain Crunch colts. I have a super bunch of Huntsvilles. I'm extremely high on my Tactical Landings. I'm very happy with the group of babies I've got to go."

The breeder and veterinarian has especially close ties to Captain Crunch and Tactical Landing, and the Walnridge consignment reflects that. Cataloged are a pair of Captain Crunch colts, Captain Delight (Hip 275) and Salty Dog (Hip 359), as well as filly Cry Havoc (Hip 883).

"I bred and raised Captain Crunch myself. These individuals are really athletic. They get over the ground incredibly well. They're very, very well conformed. As far as their conformation is concerned, they're flawless. I'm extremely excited for his future," Meirs said.

At Lexington, babies from the first crop of Captain Crunch averaged $62,000.

On the trotting side, Walnridge has cataloged 10 trotters, six of which are sired by Tactical Landing, with five colts and a filly. Meirs is part of the stallion's syndicate.

"I spent a lot of time with the horse. Ironically, I pre-purchased him for the sale, his stallion rights. It's just an honor to have his babies in the barn. They're very athletic. They are super smart. I really like them a lot," he said.

Queens Landing, Hip 243, is the lone Tactical Landing filly. She is the second foal from Yankee Glide mare Cool Cates, a full-sister to O'Brien Award winner Il Villaggio. Of the five colts, four are from mares with previous winners to their credit. Royal Beluga, Hip 479, is the fifth foal from Tactical Caviar, full-sister to world champions Triumphant Caviar and Centurion ATM. Tactfully Put, Hip 138, is a brother to New York Sire Stakes leg runner-up Seven On The Rocks.

Also featured this week is a trio of Huntsville babies – two colts and one filly – that Meirs considers notable. Tipsy Chick, Hip 722, is a filly from a Four Starzzz Shark mare with two winners from two previous foals. Colt Pop It, Hip 118, is a first day entry that is the first living foal from the 22-time winner Pop The Tags. The mare is a full-sister to Metro elimination winner Wind me Up. Crisper, Hip 491, is a half-brother to a pair of six-figure earners.

The consignment is spread across four racing jurisdictions, with some horses possessing dual eligibility. Meirs said the diversification is by design.

"I have a very nice group of very loyal clients. We discuss the breeding programs. I try to encourage diversity in the programs," he said. "As everybody knows, these programs being propped up by casino revenue and sports betting revenue and appropriated revenue are volatile. Not to mention the volatility of the world economy and even an occasional virus that shows up and throws a big wrench into our market. So, I try to encourage my clients to spread out their investments and that's why there is the diversity that exists."

Not only diverse in the programs where they participate, but the stallions selected. The Walnridge consignment includes yearlings sired by All Bets Off, Always B Miki, American Ideal, Betting Line, Bettor's Delight, Credit Winner, E L Titan, Lazarus, McWicked, Six Pack, Sportswriter and Stay Hungry.

Last year, Walnridge sold 26 yearlings at Harrisburg, averaging $59,231. Meirs likes selling at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex and feels it works best for him due to the demands of his veterinary practice and export business.

"Harrisburg is a little bit more meat and potatoes kind of sale. In my opinion, the Lexington sale is either a real big high or sort of a medium to low, and there's not much in the middle. I think a lot of good horses are sold at Harrisburg, and I think they're sold reasonably," he said. "I wouldn't go anywhere else because I like the people that run the show and I like the way it's done."

Hunterton's Steve Stewart on picking the right horses for Harrisburg

by James Platz

Steve Stewart's Hunterton Sales Agency brings a roster of 54 yearlings to the 84th edition of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's Harrisburg sale. The Kentucky-based operation arrives in the Keystone State a month removed from their strongest showing to date at Lexington, where the consignment grossed over $9 million. Stewart said there is strategy behind what the farm brings to sell in Harrisburg.

"I feel that there is more Canadian participation at Harrisburg than there is at Lexington, and I think that has always been the case. So, if we have a Muscle Mass or whatever, we will tend to go to Harrisburg. Same thing with New York bred," he said.

Stewart said another factor at play is whether the foal needs more time to grow and mature. He noted that foals born in late May, for instance, can benefit from the extra month before walking into the sale ring.

"That month can make a big difference. The way I look at it is, all yearlings are teenagers. If we agree with that, teenagers are 13 to 19 years old. Consequently, you can get pretty close to that in months. You can equate months in yearlings to years in humans," Stewart continued.

In his analogy, a teenager can develop and mature greatly between the ages of 15 and 18. In only a few months, a yearling can also change drastically.

"I think you see that with horses. It's amazing how often you'll hear a trainer say, 'That yearling I bought from you, you can't believe how much it has changed.' I'm not talking about in April they'll say that. They'll tell you in December when you're talking to them," he said. "There can be advantageous change."

The Hunterton consignment is divided up between 11 pacing colts and eight fillies. Trotting colts number 19 in the group, with 16 fillies slated to sell. A quartet of babies will sell Monday for Stewart, starting with Walner filly Lavender, cataloged as Hip 21.

"She's a good sized filly and, like most Walners, very athletic," Stewart said.

Dave Landry
Hunterton's Steve and Cindy Stewart.

Lavender is out of S J's Photo mare Bone A Fide, a $300,000 winner in her career. From five previous foals, she has produced three winners led by Pennsylvania Stallion Series Final winner Bon A Fide Babe.

Also selling on Monday is Captain Crunch colt Leiter, Hip 95 in the book. The third foal from near $500,000 winner Major Dancer, the bay is Kentucky and Pennsylvania eligible, and a sibling to two winners, including Stay Hungry freshman Zanatta, a winner of $176,727.

Added Stewart: "He is a very nice Captain Crunch colt that is a brother to a pretty good two year old this year that was in the Breeders Crown."

Second day offerings include Hip 201, Finite, an Ontario and Kentucky eligible son of Resolve. Dam Awesome Chrissy is a sister to millionaire Charmed Life and has produced winners from four of her previous five foals, led by six-time winner Awesome Trix ($258,161).

"He's a very nice colt, extremely nice colt. He took a very good video," stated Stewart. "The mare has produced very well."

Selling near the end of Day Two is Tactical Landing filly Allegiant, Hip 496. The New Jersey and Kentucky eligible yearling is out of Yankee Glide mare Too Good For You, producer of 10 winners from 12 living foals. Her Muscle Mass freshman The Hazleton has been on a tear lately.

"The two year old just won four of the last five starts," said the consignor. "He came on late this year and just won the final of the Harvest Series at Woodbine on the Friday night of Breeders Crown."

Stewart highlighted three pacers from the group selling on Tuesday. Jimmy Freight colt Jimmy Jets, Hip 278, is the first foal from O'Brien Award winner Exhilarated, herself a winner of $525,000 on the track. Entrench, Hip 386, is a Huntsville colt out of Badlands Hanover mare Ooh Shesa Badlands. Her mother is O'Brien Award winner Ooh's 'N Aah's. Entrench is New York and Kentucky eligible. Fellow Huntsville colt Affairs Of State, Hip 473, is also dually-eligible. His full-brother, River Ness, captured multiple legs of New York Sire Stakes action and possesses earnings of $267,681.

Hunterton is offering 17 Ontario-bred yearlings, with seven by Muscle Mass and four sired by Kadabra.

After the record-breaking Lexington sale, Stewart expects the upward trend to carry on in Harrisburg.

"I anticipate this sale to be very good," he said.

STANDBRED HORSE
SALE COMPANY

2022 SHSC YEARLING SALE AT HARRISBURG

Grossman said Blue Chip has a “consistent and solid group through the middle”

by Dave Briggs

Blue Chip Farm owner Tom Grossman doesn't want to BS anyone about the 45 yearlings it is selling at the Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction that begins Monday in Harrisburg, PA.

“To be honest, I think I'm missing the sales topper. It just didn't line up that way, but I have a very, very consistent and solid group through the middle,” he said.

“We have three or four Courtly Choices, each one better than the next. I'm excited about them. I think that stallion really has a lot of his father, Art Major, in him and they are all extremely attractive, correct horses and I think they'll sell well.

“Similarly, E L Titan has been much better than people realize or thought and I have two exceptional ones, particularly Hip 200 (Valkyrie Blue Chip), an E L Titan filly out of Aurova Hanover. That mare has had three foals and I've all had very valid excuses. I was involved in all of them and I think that's a sleeper, for sure.

“On the more obvious side, I have two Walner fillies (Hip 303 Valhalla Blue Chip and Hip 294 Volcanic Blue Chip) that are very different, but really, really nice individuals. There's not a lot of Walners in Harrisburg, because most of them sold in Kentucky.

“Volcanic Blue Chip is out of Thisladysdynamite and that's the family of Plunge Blue Chip. She's a really stunning individual and much nicer than the first one.

“And, as always, I have four or five very solid Bettors Delights with pedigrees. None of them step out of the barn and you say, 'Holy cow,' but none of them you would be shocked if they were the best horse in the country, either.”

Grossman said it's part of Bettors Delight's strange legacy. Despite being the leading pacing sire in the history of the sport, physically many of his yearlings lack the initial “wow factor.

“But I think 20 years later that people are figuring it out. I thought his horses sold better in Lexington than they ever have before anywhere. I think through the first three or four days that he averaged $100,000, which he's never done. Obviously, the market is better as well, but he's never done that.”

Blue Chip owner Tom Grossman.

As for new sires, Grossman is convinced “people are going to be very happy with Courtly Choice. It seems like people are much more positive on the International Monis, which we bred to and are happy about and have one particularly good individual... that's Hip 379 (Vortex Blue Chip) and that's a stunning individual.”

Annelee Soderberg – owner/breeder

by Victoria Howard

Born into a “horse family” in beautiful Sweden, when an offer came to visit a friend in Dallas and see America, Annelee Widegren didn’t have to be asked twice.

Her love for horses started very early. For her sixth birthday she was given a present that every little girl dreams of: her own pony. One year later, young Annelee got her first horse.

“I helped my dad in the stable as much as my parents would allow. From the very beginning, I fell madly in love with harness racing and standardbreds.

“While helping out in my dad’s stable, I actually drove in a couple of races. My best placement was a second. Although I loved it, I didn’t want driving or training horses as my full time job.

“My brother, Dan Widegren, is still a trainer in Halmstad, Sweden.

“Back in Sweden the ‘family horse’ was Coro (Iran Scott–Jeannette Fortuna) who my dad trained and drove, winning some really nice races.”

Fast forward to 1983.

“In 1983 my friend and I travelled to the United States. We spent Christmas in Texas before leaving for a warmer state – Florida.

“At that time, Florida had a booming racetrack located in south Florida called Pompano Park Racetrack, The Winter Capital of Harness Racing and of course I wanted to see it.

“My father, Emil Widegren, a trainer and driver, was friends with several trainers stabled at Pompano Park – one being Hakan Wallner. Hakan immediately offered me a job at Continental Farms grooming horses and that was the start and beginning of a long career with standardbreds.

"I was blessed to have lived the best of both worlds – Sweden in the summer and Florida during the winter months. In 1990, I moved permanently to Florida and have remained here ever since.

"While I was in Florida I had my own racehorse named Petrolianna that was racing in Sweden. I named Petrolianna in honor of the horse I groomed at Wallner/Lindstedt Stable in Florida, who just happens to be the dam of Lindy Lane.

"I also worked for the Jerry Silverman stable, but when they shipped north, I remained in Florida.

"It was also in 1983 that I met a man named Perry Soderberg for the first time. Perry was working for Stanley Dancer and later he was a trainer at the Team Nordin stable."

Unbeknownst to Annelee at that time, Perry would one day become her husband (almost 40 years later) and change her life in a good way.

Perry is one of the sport's elite bloodstock agents who works exclusively for some of harness racing's top owners, such as Al Libfield, Sam Goldband, George Segal and Marvin Katz.

Several of Perry's personal "selections" have won the Hambletonian, Breeders Crown and many other stake races in the United States. He has also hand-picked approximately 60 yearlings that later became successful stallions, such as Father Patrick, Bar Hopping, Captaintreacherous, Muscle Massive and Western Vintage, and others.

"Marrying Perry brought a lot of changes. We live and work side-by-side 24/7, and that is the only way we want it.

"Coming back into the horse business introduced me to a lot of forever friends that have the same passion and interest that I have. My husband is a true expert and very thorough. I have never met anyone who has so much knowledge as he has.

"We work together as a team, however, he will always be the expert and I learn something from him new every day.

"Perry is also on a year-round basis working all aspects of the Libfield/Katz breeding and racing operation; including mating recommendations for their extensive broodmare band.

"When Perry picks out yearlings he looks at conformation, all over athleticism in the paddock, and of course pedigree. He has an extensive alternative equine veterinarian education that includes practicing acupuncture, chiropractor, and laser therapy on equine athletes. That education, along with the knowledge of the structure, has shown to have a lot of use when evaluating the yearlings.

"My husband says that I have that 'special eye and feel' for the horses that cannot be taught or learned, but is part of your gene."

Perry said Annelee is an indispensable part of his life and work.

"Since Annelee came into my life, things have changed in so many ways – both privately and professionally. In addition to being dedicated, effective and talented, she is a social star, which anybody that ever met her can attest to. She is a very talented horsewoman who has quickly picked up on my line of work.

"In addition, she makes sure our work schedule runs smoothly and also photographs and video films yearlings and foals for our clients. She has a great eye for horses that shines through every day. That is a talent she not only was born with, but also benefited from growing up around horsemen."

As for horses particularly special to Annelee, she said Petrolianna and Coro have a special place in her heart.

"Our best horse and also my favorite is Rattle My Cage, who I own with my husband. He is a strikingly beautiful 4-year-old (Love You) colt. Can you tell that I love him?"

The Soderbergs own horses that are trained by another superstar team – Ake and Sarah Svanstedt.

"Harness racing has many good trainers that eat, live and breathe horse racing. I admire their dedication and it is a true elite group out there," Annelee said.

"We have had our racehorses trained by several trainers that were all true professionals. Today, Perry and I have three very interesting horses in training with the Svanstedts; they are Rattle My Cage, Pure Hope S and a new colt Bryant Bros S.

"Presently, we have eight broodmares in foal living in Kentucky at Kentuckiana Farm, and four weanlings, along with one stallion: Western Vintage.

"We also own shares of several stallions."

In recent years, Sweden has imported fantastic American modern bloodlines, while adding French bloodlines as well to our sport.

"The mix of breed seems to click and I believe both Swedish and American racing and breeding has benefited significantly, given the recent standouts we've been watching. I may not yet be an expert on picking out young horses, but hopefully I'm getting better, and my husband's track record speaks for itself."

Mister bad example

by Trey Nosrac

*I'm very well acquainted with the seven deadly sins
I keep a busy schedule, trying to fit them in
I'm proud to be a glutton, and I don't have time for sloth
I'm greedy, and I'm angry, and I don't care who I cross.*
Song by Warren Zevon

Using me as a constructive example for anything is problematic, akin to considering the Big Lebowski for a wardrobe consultant or meeting with Keith Richards for diction tips. However, I am a participant in each challenging area of the sport of harness horse racing – gambling (moderate), ownership (one stakes hopeful per year), as a breeder (two mare maximum per year), seller, buyer, etc.

Step into my mind for a few thoughts about the future.

My previous two seasons in the harness racing game have been a lot of fun. No, my fiscal fortunes did not change. Red ink continued to flow at an alarming rate, young prospects struggled, and my online wagering account found multiple deposits and zero withdrawals.

So, what's to like about these recent seasons with the trotters and pacers? What made them different?

Trey leaned into the aspects of the game that give him pleasure (yearling sales, breeding, young horses, stakes racing) and leaned away from the elements that do not (overnight racing, winter racing, claiming racing, and gambling). I took a winter break except for a few visits to training centers. These breaks and the concentration on the stakes portion of the sport revived my interest.

A troubling example is that my gambling on harness races waned due to the oncoming tsunami of other sporting wagers. Yesterday, $100 of old-fashioned horse racing gambling money just trotted off to a futures wager on Major League Baseball. Tomorrow, another chunk of my change will go on a football game over/under bet. I feel sad about gambling down other alleys, but rudimentary math shows the takeout in horseracing is, and will continue to be, a horseshoe around our neck.

But weren't the recent yearling sales, with serious money following hundreds of hammer clacks, a total blast? Weren't the previous stakes racing seasons great fun? Bulldog Hanover was jaw-dropping fun. The weather was excellent for most of our big days. Was it just me, or were the months between the first 2-year-old qualifiers until the Harrisburg Sale exhilarating?

Statistics, economics, business, and data crunching are not my fortes, but the thoughts and feelings of participants of my ilk could be helpful if we want to bend the curve of our future. The fundamental question is: if gambling on horses is aging, changing, saturated, and heading out the door, would it not make sense to latch on to the segments of our sport that excite people enough that they spend gobs of money playing in the world of hopes and dreams?

Perhaps bending the curve in my new direction would involve an off-season where racetracks stockpile casino revenue during a more condensed racing season. Stockpiled funds now earmarked for winter purses could enhance breeding programs with deeper layers and increased purse pools.

Perhaps bending the curve would involve cycling out our veteran horses (faster horses) for young stakes performers or state non-winners of various numbers of races or earnings (slower horses).

Perhaps to bend the curve, stakes racing, and the annual yearling sales, already the fun portion of our cycle should be accented even more.

Perhaps breeding farm owners and operators, who are well-versed in longer-range planning, should have more influence in operating our sport.

Many people in our industry have a niche – overnight racing, harness racing administration, dealing with casinos, gambling, training horses, etc. When you operate daily in a specific area, it is easy to become myopic and fail to see the big picture. The farther back you stand, the better design we will have.

A good redesign starting point is to keep the parts people seem to enjoy while gently deemphasizing aspects that are, or will be, struggling. If the lack of gambling dollar power is an iceberg in plain sight for our harness boat, we need to do more than fiddle.

Bending any curve is daunting. Global warming, political divisions, mutant viruses, robot worker forces, obesity, etc., all seem impossible. Huge problems feel immune to change. They may be. But the world, including the microscopic world of harness racing, is like the Titanic. A few degrees right or left can make the difference between smooth sailing and disaster.

Bythemissal, King Of The North conquer in stakes action at Harrah's Hoosier Park

by Jacob Rheinheimer

Less than a week removed from the Breeders Crown at Woodbine Mohawk Park, Harrah's Hoosier Park played host to Grand Circuit action for the sport's top sophomores on Friday (Nov. 4) highlighted by the $200,000 Monument Circle for 3-year-old pacing colts. Making his way back to the states following a third-place effort in the Breeders Crown final, Bythemissal looked to overcome outside post nine, a fierce homestretch headwind, and nine of the best sophomore pacers in the game to add yet another trophy to the collection of a stellar three-year-old campaign.

Driver Chris Page managed to was able to navigate the outside post from the outset, landing the 1-5 favorite in the fifth position in the early stages of the mile as Birthday and David Miller sent his Ron Burke stablemate to the lead through an opening quarter of :26.4. Page gave Bythemissal his cue up the backstretch, sending the Little Brown Jug champion first over and engaging his stable mate on the front end through a half of :54.2. Bythemissal forged clear to the lead entering the far turn by a length and a half, taking the field to three quarters in 1:21.3 before turning for home and bracing for the 20 mile per hour head winds in the stretch.

In the lane, Bythemissal felt the pressure of a two-pronged attack as stablemate, Birthday rallied up the passing lane, as well as a hard charging Ponda Warrior from second over with Mark MacDonald. The trio slugged it out right down to the wire, exchanging blows down the longest stretch in the sport, but it would be Bythemissal who valiantly fended off the challengers, digging deep in the stretch with a :28 final quarter to score by a half-length in 1:49.3 over Birthday and Ponda Warrior, respectively.

"He's a horse that just knows how to win," Page said. "I got away close enough and I thought the fractions set up pretty well for me to make a move up the backstretch. This horse has never been passed yet in the lane so I felt pretty confident if I could get him to the lead he would be tough to beat. I hopped on this horse when he was just winning a non-winners of two this spring, it's been pretty special to go from there to winning the Jug and the Adios. All the credit goes to Ron Burke and the incredible job he's done keeping this horse so good all year long."

King Of The North (Mark MacDonald) winning the $200,000 Carl Erskine on Friday at Harrah's Hoosier Park in 1:52.2.

It was the 13th victory of the season in 16 seasonal starts for the Ron Burke trained Bythemissal who is yet to miss the board in his career. Owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Eric Good, Rich Lombardo Racing LLC and Weaver Brussemi LLC, the gelded son of 2017 Monument Circle winner Downbytheseaside has banked $1,164,688 on the season making him the third richest standardbred of 2022 thus far behind only world champion, Bulldog Hanover and the North America Cup winner Pebble Beach.

In the co-feature of the evening, the $200,000 Carl Erskine for 3-year-old trotting colts, King Of The North would prove he still had plenty left in the tank following his stakes record Breeders Crown victory with a decisive 1:52.2 score. Leaving from post for as the heavy 1-5 favorite in the scratched down field of nine, driver Mark MacDonald put King Of The North into play early, landing the pocket position as Delgado and Sam Widger cut the opening fraction of :26.2. MacDonald wouldn't sit for long, pulling the right line on King Of The North as soon as the trotters hit the backstretch, quickly taking command through a half in :54.3. The 2021 Dan Patch Award winner kept the field at bay on the far turn, maintaining his lead through three-quarters in 1:23.1.

King Of The North turned for home two lengths clear of the field, and continued to shrug off the challengers in the lane, trotting away by three lengths on the wire behind the power of a :29.1 final quarter. Delgado and Widger held impressively for second at 114-1, with a hard-charging Dover In Motion and Ricky Macomber Jr. rallying from the backfield to pick up third.

"He's really been good all year long," driver Mark MacDonald said. "He's never gone a bad race, and even when he has, he's had a reason. He's got such a great attitude, he's just the perfect horse to be around in the barn and he's great on the track, we're really happy it's all come together here late in the season with him."

It was the third victory of the season for King Of The North, with all three of those victories coming in his last three tries of his 16 start sophomore campaign. With the victory, King Of The North has gone over half million in earnings in 2022 and banked $1,130,867 lifetime for trainer Ray Schnittker who bred and co-owns the gelding as part of the Schnittker Ward partnership along with Arden Homestead Stable, NolaMaura Racing LLC and Steven Arnold. The royally bred colt is part of the first crop of trotting sensation Walner, and out of the two-time Dan Patch Award winning Donato Hanover mare, Check Me Out. King Of The North heads to Dover Downs next week for the Matron Stakes, before potentially taking on older foes in the TVG Final at The Meadowlands in late November.

Not to be outdone by their male counterparts, a pair of $100,000 stakes for the sophomore fillies would be contested on the evening. In the $110,000 Crossroads of America, the incomparable Indiana champion, M-M's Dream put an exclamation point on a near perfect season with a gutsy front end score. Hall of Fame driver David Miller hopped in the sulky this week to guide the two-time Indiana Sire Stakes champion, guiding the filly into the fourth position from post seven through the opening panel as Jordan Ross and longshot Jusmakinyalook set the opening pace of :27.4. Miller mashed the gas pedal up the backstretch, giving M-M's Dream her marching orders with a bold first over move to take command at the half in :56.2. The field of talented fillies bunched up on the far turn as M-M's Dream braced from a challenge from the new Harrah's Hoosier Park track record holder for trotting fillies, Cash Infusion and Atlee Bender engaged the leader at three-quarters in 1:25.

The two fillies engaged in a slugfest of epic proportions down the quarter-mile stretch, neither filly wanting to give an inch as they went nose to nose down the lane. M-M's Dream appeared to be defeated as Cash Infusion put her nose up front, but would re-rally late in the lane behind a gutsy :28.3 final quarter to forge back ahead by a quarter length at the wire in 1:53.3. Cash Infusion was valiant in defeat finishing second, Ohio Sire Stakes Champion, Gabbysn C Note and Chris Page rallied for third.

Trained by Henry Graber Jr., it was the 12th victory in 13 starts in 2022 for M-M's Dream, and career win 18 in 21 lifetime starts. Owned by Eleven Star Stables, Hillside Stables and Frank Baldachino, M-M's Dream has earned $496,550 on the season and gone over three-quarters of a million dollars for her career. Bred by Mervin Miller, M-M's Dream is a daughter of Swan For All out of the Classic Photo mare, Trading Places.

A compact but talented field of seven 3-year-old pacing fillies headlined the $100,000 USS Indianapolis Memorial, where Sea Silk would give driver Chris Page the sweep of the sophomore pacing stakes and return to winner's circle with a dominant score. Taking advantage of her inside position from the rail, Page put Sea Silk into the perfect pocket position as John De Long sent Patsville to the front through an opening quarter of :26.4. Patsville remained unchallenged on the lead through a half of :55 before leading the field onto the far turn and to three-quarter in 1:23 with Sea Silk looming on her back.

In the stretch, Sea Silk launched her bid from the pocket, quickly engaging the leader before powering two-lengths clear in the stretch with a :27.2 final quarter into the wind to score in 1:50.3. Patsville and De Long held for the second position, with Sea Silk's fellow Ron Burke stablemate, Galleria Hanover and Yannick Gingras nabbing the show spot.

It was the eighth win on the season for the two-time Ohio Sire Stakes Champion and millionaire daughter of Downbytheseaside. Owned by Burke Racing Stable LLC, Weaver Brussemi LLC, Knox Services Inc., and Hatfield Stables, Sea Silk is a winner of 17 of 25 lifetime starts and rapidly approaching her second consecutive half-million dollar season with $476,975 earned in 2022. Sea Silk was bred by Steiner Stock Farm of Ohio and is out of the Bettor's Delight mare, Silk Purse.

FINES & SUSPENSIONS

THIS WEEK'S FINES AND SUSPENSIONS

HRU is providing links to publicly-available fines and suspension lists for convenience.

Readers are reminded that because a person's name appears on the list does not necessarily mean they are guilty of an offense. Many times, cases are not finalized and many of the accused are still entitled to due process.

Also, please note, for context, the first link is to the Association of Racing Commissioners International's classification system of drug penalties to give readers a sense of the difference between a Class 1 and a Class 4 positive.

Otten takes seat on Big M set

For someone who started out working for her trainer dad as a teenager, good things have certainly come fast and furiously ever since for Jessica Otten.

The 25-year-old Otten, who is the national face of harness racing having just completed covering the Breeders Crown at Woodbine Mohawk Park for Fox Sports 2, took on another big gig at The Meadowlands on Friday night (Nov. 4), sitting alongside Dave Little as one-half of the new TV team on the track's nightly simulcast presentation.

"I was actually really nervous to sit in this chair," said Otten. "Nervous for what people would say or think, because I don't want people to think I am here to replace Dave Brower [who died unexpectedly last month]. Because there is no replacing Dave Brower.

"I still have my marketing and social media responsibilities at the track, so sitting on set, looking over the program every night will be more work. I'll also be handling the scheduling and formats and getting people where they need to be when they need to be there, so it's going to be a challenge. I put in a lot of hours here, so there will be a lot of adjusting. I'm a perfectionist, and there were things – both big and small – Brower did that we took for granted. We want to continue to do those things well, while I make some subtle changes to the TV show and the way we do things. I am looking forward to the challenges ahead of me."

Otten got off to a good start in the co-host chair, tabbing Thndrfmthethron N ($9.00) in the first race and Svengali ($5.00) in the second for the daily double ($28.40). Otten made it three winners from her first four races in the hot seat when she had Whimsical Journey ($10.60) in the fourth and finished off the evening with five winners when Hughie Junior N ($13.20) took the 10th and Romantic Warrior ($3.40) the 13th.

"We are still hurting from Dave Brower's passing," said Big M chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemyre. "But all of us here at The Meadowlands are happy moving forward that we will have Jessica down on the set every night. Her expertise as a horseman and handicapper will be a great addition to the team."

A LITTLE MORE: Todd McCarthy and Corey Callahan led the driver colony with three winners apiece... Vinny Ginsburg recorded his first-ever Meadowlands win as a trainer when You Beda Rock scored at odds of 38-1 with Ginsburg in the bike in the fifth race to cap a 20-cent Pick-5 that came back $1,730.92 despite none of the other four winners going at off odds of 4-1 or less... All-source wagering totaled $2,451,530.

Burke wins seven, sweeps co-features

Even by his lofty standards, Friday (Nov. 4) at Hollywood Casino at The Meadows was a remarkable day for trainer Ron Burke: seven wins, including a sweep of the day's $15,400 co-features with Seeyou At Thebeach and In Rock We Trust. Burke lost only one race in which his horse or horses went to post.

Ronnie Wrenn, Jr. piloted five of Burke's winners while Dave Palone steered the other two.

Wrenn and Palone finished the 13-race card with six wins and three wins, respectively.

Seeyou At Thebeach moved powerfully first up from third to pass his stablemate, Market Based, in deep stretch and down him by x in a career-best 1:49.4. Chief Mate shot the Lightning Lane for show. Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brussemi LLC, J&T Silva – Purnel & Libby and Kitefield Stable campaign the 5-year-old Somebeachsomewhere – Persistent gelding, who now boasts a career bankroll of $308,248.

In Rock We Trust was forced to go three wide for the early lead by his stablemate, Youmakemyheartsing, and had just enough to hold off the late rally of Cliffhanger, edging him by x in 1:52.2. Youmakemyheartsing saved show.

Burke Racing Stable and Weaver Brussemi LLC own In Rock We Trust, an 8-year-old Rock N Roll Heaven – Sweet Lady Lee gelding who triumphed for the ninth time this year and boosted his lifetime earnings to $214,745.
