Harrisburg yearling sale up strongly in gross and average as $250,000 bid tops Day 2

Three $200,000+ yearlings top Day 2 of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling sale. Through two days, the average of $59,110 and the gross of nearly $28 million are both well ahead of last year's sale.

Ken Jacobs (with trainer Linda Toscano in Lexington in 2017) bought the Day 2 sale topper for $250,000.

Trainer Linda Toscano may be a self-professed "bargain player," but that doesn't mean she's not thrilled to have Rodeo Blue Chip coming to her barn. Tuesday, the Blue Chips Farm-bred and sold colt topped the second session of the Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling sale at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg, PA after owner Ken Jacobs made the $250,000 winning bid.

Toscano said the horse was on their radar screen because his dam, Lotsa Motzah, is a sister to both Sunfire Bluechip ($1.5 million) and Heston Blue Chip ($1.78 million). Jacobs previously owned Heston Blue Chip and Toscano trained. An extra attraction is Rodeo Blue Chip is a Sweet Lou colt.

"The Sweet Lous have been good and we really like the Sweet Lous and (Rodeo Blue Chip) really stood well. He's got a lot of chrome, but I guess that goes with the Sweet Lous. He's got white on his face and white everywhere else.

"I'm a girl. I like greys and I like white, but at the same time the old adage is that plain is better. I think we've got to throw that out when it comes to Sweet Lou because he's going to reinvent the wheel. (Rodeo Blue Chip) stands well. He's just a great-looking colt. He moves well. Ken loved him. I loved him."

Jacobs left the sale immediately after purchasing Rodeo Blue Chip, partly to avoid temptation, Toscano said.

"He did buy a couple of others while he was here, just because he can't help himself. You can't take Ken shopping without Ken coming home with a shopping bag," Toscano said, laughing.

Toscano said she thinks she has eight yearlings from the Harrisburg sale coming to her barn, so far.

"I'm tickled with the group I got this year. I got some beautiful horses and I think we've got both New York and Pennsylvania covered and we've got a pretty nice balance of trotters and pacers. I'm really excited," she said.

Whether she gets anymore today in the third and final yearling session will depend on the prices.

"I'm a bargain player. Fortunately, I've been blessed this year to have a little extra money, so we've been able to reach out a little bit and get some, but from here on in I'm the gatekeeper. I've looked at a lot of horses and if I see a bargain, I try to buy it. I look for myself and I look for groups that go together," she said.

Last year, the two highest priced yearlings from Day 2 were sold by Blue Chip – $180,000 Quatrain Blue Chip and $150,000 Quarter Blue Chip.

This year, three yearlings topped $200,000 on Day 2 – Rodeo Blue Chip; hip 360 Third Shift, a Chapter

For the second year in a row, the Blue Chip Farms crew sold the Day 2 sale topper.

Seven colt out of Overnight Command purchased by Ake Svanstedt for $235,000 out of the Winbak Farm consignment and hip 460 Hilly Holbrook, a Muscle Hill filly out of Winky Dink that fetched $235,000 from the Andy Miller Stable out of the Concord Stud Farm consignment.

“There were several consignors that preferred to sell on the Tuesday, so that’s why they were today. That’s fine and you can kind of mix them in,” said sales company president and CEO Pete Spears.

After a gangbusters opening session Monday, the numbers softened a bit Tuesday. In all, 303 yearlings fetched $12,095,000 in total, for an average of $39,917. The gross was down 8.2 per cent from the $13,175,000 reached on Day 2 in 2017. This year’s average was off 3.4 per cent from the 2017 average of $41,301.

Still, thanks to Monday’s strong session, through two days the sale has grossed $27,997,000 (up 10.3 per cent from the two-day 2017 gross of $25,384,000) from 473 sold for an average of $59,190 that is up 12.6 per cent from the two-day average of $52,555 reached a year ago.

Hanover tops $10 million

Hanover Shoe Farms continues to have an outstanding sale and has already topped $10 million in gross sales through two days at Harrisburg with 80 more yearlings set to sell in today's third session.

Hanover sold 66 yearlings for $7,086,000 in total on Monday and 88 yearlings for $3,525,000 on Tuesday for a total of $10,611,00 from 154 sold for an average of $68,903.

Concord Stud Farm, agent, continues to have an outstanding sale, as well, grossing $4,653,000 from 47 yearlings for an average of $99,000 that was second only to the Fair Winds Farm Inc.'s average of $111,833 for 12 yearlings sold. Preferred Equine Marketing, agent, is third in gross with $2,608,000 in sales (averaging $54,333 for 48 sold).

Svanstedt leading buyer

Trainer Ake Svanstedt was both the leading buyer on Day 2 – spending $582,000, total, on six yearlings – he's also the leading buyer through two days after spending $1,122,000, total, on 10 yearlings.

Day 1's leading buyer, Myron Bell, is now in second overall with $900,000 spent, in all, on four yearlings. He topped Day 1 by spending $750,000 to bring home two yearlings.

Despite not buying a yearling on Tuesday, Determination Stable still sits third overall with $662,000 spent, in total, on four yearlings.

Muscle Hill still king

Despite having just two yearlings sell Tuesday, superstar trotting stallion Muscle Hill continued to dominate the sire averages through two days with an average of $178,938 for 16 sold. Father Patrick is averaging $119,000 through two days with 12 sold. The top pacing sire is Captaintreacherous with an average of $84,146 for 41 sold.

Today, 371 horses are scheduled to sell in the third and final yearlings session before making way for mixed sale sessions on Thursday and Friday.

Today's final yearling session begins at 10 a.m.

Verlin Yoder (shown in the winner's circle after winning the Breeders Crown for 2-year-old trotting fillies with Woodside Charm) established career highs of 31 wins and $1.38 million in purses as a trainer to go with a career-best $1.15 million as a driver in 2018.

Yoder enjoying career-best campaign in 2018

by Ken Weingartner, USTA Media Relations Manager

Verlin Yoder raced the best horse of his career this season, the undefeated Breeders Crown champion Woodside Charm, but the filly was not alone in helping the 45-year-old owner/trainer/driver to the best season of his career.

Yoder established highs of 31 wins and $1.38 million in purses as a trainer to go with a career-best $1.15 million as a driver. His 26 victories in the sulky were two shy of his career mark of 28 set last season. And while 2-year-old female trotter Woodside Charm contributed $521,658 in purses to this year's totals, Yoder still would have surpassed his previous highs of $571,162 as a trainer and $571,903 as a driver without her.

"We just had the right horses in the right classes," Yoder said. "It worked out great."

Yoder had three Indiana Sire Stakes champions: 2-year-old male trotter It's A Herbie, 2-year-old female trotter Kissesforall, and 4-year-old female trotter Compelling. Three-year-old male trotter Katkin American finished second to Fiftydallarbillion in his Indiana Sire Stakes final.

Those four horses combined for 18 wins, hitting the board 43 times in 50 starts, and $749,440.

Compelling, claimed by Yoder last year, came back from a suspensory injury to find success. Katkin American was unraced at 2, but showed potential last winter while training with Yoder's millionaire trotter Natural Herbie. Driven by Yoder's son James, Katkin American was a Hoosier Park track-record-setter and finished worse than second only once in 12 starts.

"I knew we had some decent ones coming out of Florida," said Yoder, who lives in the Sunshine State during the offseason and returns to Indiana to race. "We knew (Katkin American) was pretty nice. It was nice to have him and watch my son do well with him."

"The Herbie colt, about the middle of March he showed me he had some real talent. We just took our time with him. He's a big growthy colt and I stuck to my guns and kept on trying to teach him. Every start, he got smarter about things. I was really excited about him."

"Compelling was a very nice addition. I was going for a Hail Mary (when I claimed her last year) because I was kind of soft in the 3-year-old fillies. I took the gamble of keeping her and rehabbing her. I tried to do all the right things and she came back a hundred percent. It was the middle of February and the boys kept on telling me they're going to read about her. The farther we got down, the stronger she got."

And then there was Woodside Charm, who on Oct. 27 capped a 7-for-7 campaign with her win in the Breeders Crown final for 2-year-old female trotters at The Downs at Mohegan Sun Pocono. It was Yoder's first trip to the Breeders Crown. (full story here) She joined Manchego as the only 2-year-old filly trotters to be undefeated Breeders Crown champions.

"The way she did it is what impressed me about her," Yoder said about the filly's season. "She went to so many tracks and shipped all over, and every time I went to a different track she adjusted. She let me do what I had to do.

"She's a fast, smart horse."

Woodside Charm won her Breeders Crown final by 1-3/4 lengths over Simon Allard-driven When Dovescry, covering the mile distance in 1:54.1 on a cold rainy night.

"I was going up the backside and she was cruising and I'm thinking, 'Man, it can't be this easy,'" Yoder said. "I thought I better grab into her a little bit to make sure I had plenty left. Then when Simon pulled, I was waiting on him, I squawked at her and she was gone.

"You're pinching yourself in the race. And then when you get done and get home and start thinking about what you did in the last couple weeks, it's pretty amazing.

"It takes a lot of focus and a lot of hard work to pull something like that off. The biggest thing is staying focused on your work. To stay focused and do your job every day, and stay religious about it, that's the tough part. You set up a plan to lead to one direction. I wouldn't say that I'm proud of myself, but I was happy with myself to stay focused."

Yoder also credited his wife, Rachel, with being instrumental to the stable's success.

"This was the first year that my wife was able to help me in Indiana and it made a big difference," Yoder said. "We've always been a team, but the boys always went to school and she had to be in Florida and I was always trying to do it myself. When you have somebody that thinks the same way that you do and it's a team, it just works better."

Yoder is already resettled in Florida, giving his horses some time off and contemplating next season.

"Things went right; we did the right things and stuck to the plan," Yoder said. "Now we have to go back through the motions again. Hopefully we come back and do all right again."
