The yearling sold as Hip 711, named Twin B Edge, about 200 yearlings into the day. Sired by former Coleman trainee Betting Line, the colt consigned by Twinbrook Farms joined several other yearlings purchased by Coleman also sired by one of her stable's past stars.

"I'm pretty sure that was number nine," Coleman said. "And there's one more coming that I want. I said I would support him, he's just an unreal sire. Everything about him – his conformation, his speed, his breeding, his manners – so I stood by my word and loaded up on Betting Lines.

"Most of them that I bought look a lot like him," Coleman also said. "(Twin B Edge) would be the smaller one that I bought... he's very long. He's got a long barrel, but he's a bit shorter than I would normally like, but I don't mind that as long as they are long in the barrel. It's a very good pedigree and he was raised at a good place.

"He looks just like his dad, probably more than any of them that I bought."

Soon after Twin B Edge broke the six-digit threshold for the day, Jim Glass purchased the Chapter Seven colt Vali Hanover for $100,000.

"He was a great mover in the paddock," Glass said. "We liked his conformation. We just really liked the colt. Great, athletic-looking colt. We were ready. We did our homework, we knew he was a nice colt and other horsemen would see that, too, so we were ready to go."

Towards the tail of the sale, Myron Bell and Tony Alagna took the spot as the day's highest bidders when acquiring Keystone Catalyst, Hip 809 consigned by Vieux Carre Farms, for $120,000. The Betting Line colt comes from a broodmare sharing the maternal family of Bedroomconfessions, which also raced for Bell and Alagna.

"It's a family we believe strongly in," Alagna said. "We're very invested in the family with Bedroomconfessions and a lot of those horses, so when we saw him at the farm we wanted to take a shot."

FABULOUS FIGURES

Combining all three of this year's sessions, 833 yearlings sold for a total gross of $40,736,000, an average of $48,903. The average smashed the all-time record for the Harrisburg yearling sale average by 14.6 per cent over the previous

In 2018, 830 yearlings grossed $35,420,000, total.

In 2017, 851 yearlings grossed $33,628,500, total, for an average of $39,516

This year marked just the second time the yearling sale topped $40 million. The record for yearling sale gross came in 2007 when 1,048 yearlings – 215 more than sold this year – brought $42,784,000 in all (average of $40,824).

Sixty-nine yearlings sold for $100,000 or more, up from 54 in 2018, 53 in 2017 and 56 in 2016.

Wednesday's session grossed $8,084,000 for 365 yearlings sold, an average of $22,148, which was up 6.6 per cent over last year's same session average of $20,793. The gross was up 8.9 per cent from last year's third session total of $7,423,000 for 357 yearlings were sold.

horses, even though it's done.”

For the sport's leading consignor, Hanover Shoe Farms, the sale proved equally as lucrative. Hanover grossed $14,371,000 for 233 yearlings sold, an average of $61,678. That total is almost $8.5 million more than the second leading consignor, Concord Stud, which had total sales of $5,914,000 for 69 yearlings sold, an average of $85,710

“We're over $14 million for Harrisburg alone,” said Russell Williams, president of Hanover Shoe Farms. “Our best in Harrisburg was $11-something (million), close to $12 million, so we're up two million-and-something. I'm very happy. We can build a lot of fences with that.”

The success of the yearling sale at Harrisburg followed growth also at this year's Lexington Selected Sale, which posted records for gross ($46,480,000) and average ($60,997). The median rose from $35,000 in 2018 to $40,000 this year. About the only stat that was down from the 2018 sale was the number of yearlings sold for $100,000 or more (121 this year compared to 124 last year).

“There's a lot more money circulating in the whole economy, so we're just getting our share of that,” Williams said. “I think, though, that when we've seen difficult years in recent past, it was due to specific problems that have resolved themselves. We don't have all the same problems that we used to have, so there is reason for optimism.

“We've got some new problems, but I think we can solve them and be stronger for it, so I'm quite optimistic.”

TOP BUYERS AND SIRES

The Burke Racing Stable LLC led all buyers with $1,747,000 spent, total, on 17 yearlings, followed by Ake Svanstedt with $1,518,000 spent, in all, on 12 yearlings. Courant Inc. ($1,189,00 for seven), Dana Parham ($1,089,000 for eight) and Coleman ($1,075,000 for 11) all spent seven figures.

Muscle Hill and Somebeachsomewhere were the respective trotting and pacing sire kings again this year. Progeny of Muscle Hill fetched $4,753,000 in all for 31 yearlings and the trotting superstar also led all stallions in average with $153,323. Somebeachsomewhere offspring grossed $4,208,000 in all, an average of $97,680.

End of an Era

After 30 years in business together, Preferred Equine will handle today's emotional dispersal of White Birch Farms' exquisite broodmare band.

by Dave Briggs

After three decades of doing business together, David Reid said the dispersal of White Birch Farms' exquisite broodmare band, during today's opening session of Standardbred Horse Sales Company's mixed sale, is as bittersweet as it gets.

Reid's Preferred Equine Marketing will sell 30 stellar White Birch broodmares – 23 in-foal and seven not – including the dams of Captaintreacherous, Bee A Magician, Stay Hungry, Darlinonthebeach and many more.

"I'd rather not have dispersals. White Birch has been a client of ours for over 30 years, really established by (Preferred's) Geoff Stein and (White Birch founder) Joe Parisi. With Geoff's passing and Joe's passing and, even going back to Joe, it used to be Joe and Marie Parisi... Marie was a lovely lady and when she passed, I think it affected the whole family, obviously. Then Joe, Sr. and, unfortunately, Michael Parisi died. It's been three-and-a-half years (since Michael died). And then (farm manager) Steve Williams (died)... it's very bittersweet."

That said, it presents a tremendous opportunity for breeders interested in top-notch stock.

"Their offerings, they speak for themselves," Reid said. "There are seven millionaires in the group themselves, individually, there are Horses of the Year, Pacers of the Year. They bred Captaintreacherous. They bred Bee A Magician and numerous, numerous horses. I wish we weren't selling them, but it's for the Estate of Michael Parisi and the estate has to be dissolved and things are moving forward.

"It goes on somewhere else. There's no doubt, with the quality of their horses, that they are going to continue on for some other major breeders and you'll see two or three years down the road, these mares that are being sold, their offspring are going to be selling very well for someone else."

Reid said White Birch sold 15 yearlings at Lexington, "and I think they averaged $130,000. It's a well-established nursery. You know, Darlinonthebeach, she went toe-to-toe with Pure Country. (She's) in foal to Always B Miki, who's first crop has been very well-received. She's young. Unfortunately, you just can't get those type of horses unless it's a dispersal."

Breeders Crown champion Amigo Volo aims to add Matron to resume

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

After delivering the Pinske family its first Breeders Crown trophy, Amigo Volo will look to continue his stakes-winning ways in today's $181,600 Matron for 2-year-old male trotters at Dover Downs. Amigo Volo is the 2-5 morning-line favorite in a field of six.

The race is one of four Matrons for 2-year-olds. Papi Rob Hanover is the 2-5 favorite in the $186,000 division for male pacers and Lyons Sentinel is the 6-5 choice in the $176,400 event for female pacers. The $147,600 Matron for female trotters attracted a four-horse field and will go as a non-betting race 15 minutes prior to the regular card beginning at 4:30 p.m. (EST).

Amigo Volo has won three of his past four races and five of 10 overall this season. He has earned $514,696 for owners Pinske Stables and Florida's David J. Miller. The gelding is trained by Richard “Nifty” Norman and will have Dexter Dunn in the sulky today.

Nearly two weeks ago, Amigo Volo captured the Breeders Crown by 4-1/4 lengths over Rome Pays Off in 1:54.3 at Woodbine Mohawk Park. It gave Pinske Stables (Marlys Pinske and her son Karl) and Miller their first victory in the series. The Pinskes had double-digit starters in Breeders Crown finals, and two second-place finishes, before breaking through.

The triumph was additionally sweet because Karl’s son Carter has worked this year for Norman’s stable and worked closely with Amigo Volo, even getting his first training win with the horse during the Grand Circuit meet at Lexington’s Red Mile.

“It’s pretty special,” Carter Pinske said. “We’ve been close, had a lot of great horses over the years and won other big races, but it’s nice to win this one at the end of the year.

“My dad and I have kind of changed with Nifty to go after the end-of-the-year money instead of racing so tough at the beginning of the year. After a few years of working toward that, it’s finally taking shape and working that way. That’s always the goal, to get to the Breeders Crown, and it’s special.”

The Crown triumph also came 15 months after the passing of owner/trainer Tim Pinske, Marlys’ husband.

“I’m thinking he had a little bit to do with it,” Carter said. Amigo Volo, by Father Patrick out of Margarita Momma, was purchased for $42,000 at last year’s Lexington Selected Sale. He is a full brother to Reign Of Honor, who won last year’s Kindergarten Classic Series championship for Norman’s stable.

“He’s been an awesome horse to be around,” Pinske said about Amigo Volo, who had world-record performances on five-eighth and one-mile ovals this season. “Every day he trained, you’d either be really mad at him or really excited about him. But he would always make up for it with his personality. He’s got such a good personality. He’d let you know where he was all the time. He just likes being around people.

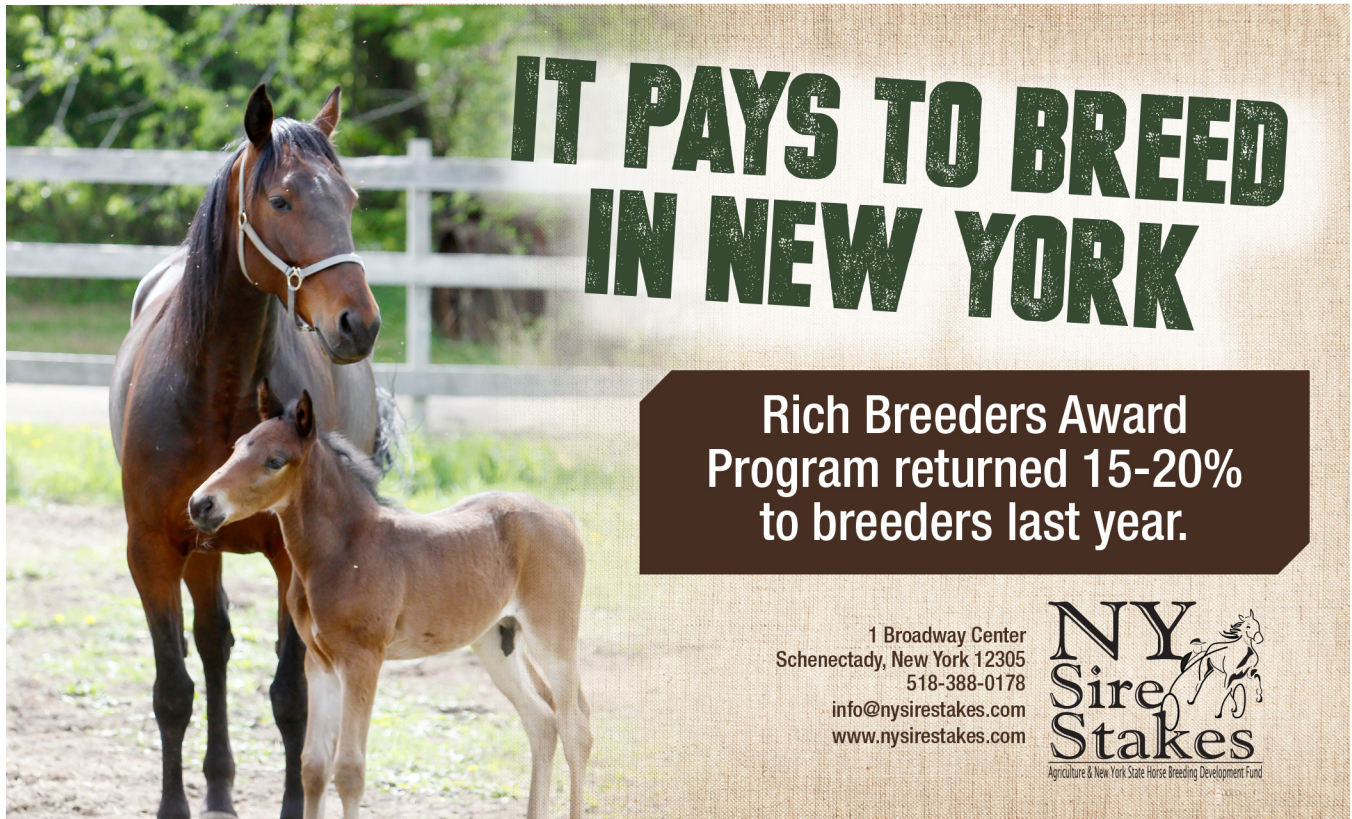

“As far as being ready, Nifty said he’s no different than he was in July,” Pinske said. “He’s jumping around in the paddock. He’s got a good attitude that way.”

Following the Matron, Amigo Volo is eligible to the Valley Victory Stakes at The Meadowlands. The connections will take a wait-and-see approach about that race.

“It’s been a long season, he’s been everywhere, and we want a 3-year-old too,” Pinske said. “We’ll see how he races and talk about it after.”

Three time world record holder Six Pack to stand at Deo Volente Farms

The owners of Six Pack – Svanstedt, Inc. Little E LLC, Knutsson Trotting, Stall Kalmar, Inc. and L Berg, Inc. – have announced the retirement of Six Pack (Muscle Mass–Pleasing Lady–Cantab Hall) after his final race in the TVG at the Meadowlands on Nov. 23 to stand stud at Deo Volente Farms in Flemington, NJ.

Trainer Ake Svanstedt who conditioned Six Pack for his entire career said, “Six Pack is an incredibly powerful horse bundled with speed and intelligence.”

He also went on to say “a natural talent in his freshman season that developed into a multiple world champion as a 3 and 4 year old. He had a flawless gait that made him equally formidable over the half mile track as well as the mile track.”

Co-owner Tristan Sjoberg said, “It was apparent early on to me that he was a very special horse. He was a true professional on the track and always fought to the wire. Winning two legs of the Triple Crown and coming back as a 4-year-old and setting a world record against aged horses just goes to show what a tough horse he is.”

Sjoberg also added, “he will certainly imprint that on his offspring. Attitude and intelligence are two characteristics I always look for in a stallion.”

Some of Six Pack’s notable victories as he accumulated close to $2 million in career earnings include:

- The Stanley Dancer (1:50.0) world record
- The Kentucky Futurity (1:49.1) world record
- The Allerage Open Trot as a 4-year-old (1:49.2) world record
- The Yonkers Trot
- The Empire Breeders Classic
- The Matron and

Six Pack (Ake Svanstedt, winning the first heat of the 2018 Kentucky Futurity) will race in the TVG on Nov. 23 and then begin his stallion career at Deo Volente Farm in New Jersey.

- Several divisions of the New York Sire Stakes as a 2-year-old and 3-year-old.

Six Pack was named the Dan Patch 3-Year-Old Trotting Colt of the Year in 2018.

Jeff Gural said, “We chose New Jersey because we believe horsemen want to race their 2-year-olds on a mile track, with the top drivers available, and the Meadowlands is a great surface which provides the opportunity to get their racing careers off on the right foot.

“New Jersey sired horses will have the opportunity to race more often and for significantly larger purses thanks to both the $100 million purse appropriation in New Jersey as well as the legalization of sports betting.”

Michael J. Gulotta, CEO of Deo Volente Farms said, “We are thrilled to have a stallion of Six Pack’s stature at Deo Volente Farms. An announcement like this is proof that New Jersey is retaking its place of preeminence in the standardbred racing world. This is thanks to the vision of New Jersey legislative leaders Senate President Sweeney and Assembly Speaker Coughlin as well as Governor Phil Murphy who have shown tremendous support of the racing and breeding industry in our state.”

Deo Volente Farms will have an information table at the Harrisburg sale today and Friday to provide more information and details of the Six Pack Syndication.

Brittany Farms introduces enhanced website

Brittany Farms, which launched one of the harness racing industry’s first websites nearly three decades ago, announces a newly redesigned site unveiled just this week.

The website, with the same domain name—www.britfarms.com—incorporates much of the look of the acclaimed previous site, but offers modern enhancements that makes it more compatible and easily viewed across all devices and platforms – desktops, iPads and cellphones alike.

The new site was designed and coordinated by Greg Schuler Interactive and implemented by the team at ELink Design in Lexington, KY.

“We were often told that our ‘old’ website was one of the industry’s finest and best looking, so it wasn’t an easy decision to say ‘go ahead and redo it,’” said farm manager Art Zubrod.

“But tech moves forward, and after seeing all the improvements, both visible and in the content management system that drives it all, I’m thrilled with how it looks and operates.”

Along with the yearling, broodmare, and stallion information that's long been a staple, the new site offers reformatted, up-to-date farm news and a historically useful "Hall of Fame" and "Millionaires Row," among other pertinent sections.

"A company's website is often the main channel of communication between it and potential customers, and we're pleased to make that connection better than ever," Zubrod said.

Midwest Mixed Sale entries online featuring Cornerstone Stock Farm dispersal

The Midwest Auction Company is pleased to announce that entries for the 2019 Midwest Mixed Sale, to be held Nov. 29 in Shipshewana, IN are now online. Entries may be viewed at www.MidwestAuctionCo.com. Catalogs are planned to be mailed later this week. The sale will once again take place at the Michiana Event Center and will start at 11am on the Friday after Thanksgiving.

This year's edition features an especially strong group of in foal broodmares, highlighted by the complete dispersal of all Cornerstone Stock Farm breeding stock. Entries in that 15 horse dispersal include SKIPPIN BY p,1:49.4f $882,254, carrying her first, a Downbytheseaside, NOVASCOTIA HANOVER p,3,1:51.1f $512,486 in foal to Always A Virgin, SHAKY HANOVER p,1:51.2f $508,189 in foal to Always A Virgin, ANDI'S ALANA 3,1:55 $528,749 in foal to Muscle Massive, RILEY CHARACTER p,1:51.4f carrying a Yankee Cruiser full sibling to Baron Remy p,1:50.3h $561,607, as well as weanlings by What The Hill, Uncle Peter and Rockin Image. The broodmare section of the sale also features a full sister to BETTOR'S WISH p,3,1:47.4 $1,561,000 carrying her first foal, a Stay Hungry.

The racehorse entries feature many lightly-raced 2-year-olds, including the talented Indiana-sired freshman DUDE INCLUDED 2,1:57.2 $94,360, as well as a nice group of three year olds fitting many conditions, again featuring reduction consignments from Jack Myers Racing and the LeWayne Miller Stable.

The Midwest Benefit dinner and fundraiser will be held immediately after the auction on Friday evening, featuring breedings to many stallions and the Michiana Classic Yearling Sale will be held on Saturday.
