Harrisburg yearling sale smashes all-time average record

The Standardbred Horse Sales Company's yearling sale concluded Wednesday with an average of $42,675 that is 4.5 per cent higher than the previous record set in 2007 and 8 per cent higher than the average of $39,516 at last year's yearling sale.

The Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale concluded Wednesday with an all-time record for average of $42,675.

Despite an uneven final session on Wednesday, the Standardbred Horse Sales Company yearling sale concluded with an all-time record for average of $42,675 that surpassed the previous record of $40,824 (set in 2007) by 4.5 per cent (though 218 more horses sold in 2017).

Through three sessions at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show Complex in Harrisburg, PA, 830 yearlings sold for a total gross of $35,420,000 this year.

The average was up 8 per cent and the gross was up 5.3 per cent from 2017 when 851 yearlings grossed $33,628,500 in total to average $39,516. Officially, the gross was up nearly $1.8 million from last year.

Winbak Farm (showing yearlings under the watchful eye of yearling manager Jimmy Ladwig (right)) bred the Wednesday session topper, a Chapter Seven colt out of Tantalizing Donna that sold to Stroy Inc. for $157,000.

“It was a fantastic sale reflecting confidence in the industry and the economy especially on the high end,” said sale president and CEO Pete Spears.

This year’s median of $25,000 was down from 2017’s median of $27,000.

“The lower market could be improved by additional opportunities in NW1/NW2 classes nationally,” Spears said.

Wednesday’s session grossed $7,423,000 for 357 yearlings sold, an average of $20,793, which was down 7.1 per cent over last year’s same session average of $22,387. The gross was down 10 per cent from last year’s third session total of $8,238,500, though this year 11 fewer yearlings were sold.

Fifty-four yearlings sold for $100,000 or more, up from 53

in 2017, but down from 56 in 2016

The key to increased numbers overall is due to Monday’s terrific opening session which outpaced 2017’s opening session by 29 per cent in gross and 24 per cent in average. (full story here)

Winbak-bred Chapter Seven colt tops Wednesday’s session

For the third year in a row a Chapter Seven colt topped the third session. This year, it was hip 806, a colt out of Tantalizing Donna that was purchased by Stroy Inc. for $157,000. The colt was bred and consigned by Winbak Farm.

was hip 705 Sports Style, a Sportswriter colt out of Nothing But Style purchased for $100,000 by Adriano Sorella of Guelph, ON out of the Spring Haven Farm consignment.

Sorella had incredible success this year and last racing Sportswriter colt Jimmy Freight, a winner of $793,544 that sports a mark of 1:48.3. He is both the fastest and richest son of Sportswriter.

"I absolutely loved (Sports Style) from the day I saw him," Sorella said. "He had so many Sportswriter and Jimmy Freight features I knew I had to have him at whatever the price."

"He reminded me so much of Sportswriter, not just in person, but also on his video. I got him checked out and thought he would be an easy $100,000 to $120,000 colt. He looks well-built and I like that. Having the fastest, richest Sportswriter ever with Jimmy Freight, it's hard to pass up one like this."

Sorella purchased three yearlings in Harrisburg and is in on a couple of others.

"I bought hip 160 for $100,000, a Bettors Delight colt, this hip 705 Sportswriter colt for $100,000 and also an Artspeak filly, hip 793, for $12,000. I bought a few fillies as I think it would make sense to have some mares for Jimmy Freight to

Hanover leads consignors with $12 million

Hanover Shoe Farms grossed $12,097,000 from 230 yearlings sold to average $52,596. The farm grossed some $2.5 million more than it did in 2017 when it sold $9,585,500 worth of yearlings at the sale.

The farm’s 2018 yearling total just at Harrisburg was $7.26 million more than the second leading consignor, Concord Stud Farm ($4,838,000, average of $86,393). Preferred Equine Marketing was third on the gross sales list with $3,474,000 earned from 86 yearlings, an average of $40,395.

Concord Stud Farm was second by average among consignors behind only Fair Winds Farm which averaged Owner Adriano Sorella purchased the second highest priced yearling sold Wednesday when he bought Sportswriter colt Sports Style for $100,000.

$95,667 for 15 yearlings (gross sales of $1,435,000).

Svanstedt tops buyers

Trainer Ake Svanstedt was the yearling sale’s leading buyer, spending $1,196,000, total, on 12 yearlings. He was followed by Myron Bell, agent, who spent $900,000 to collar four horses.

Though, a slightly concerning statistic is that $701,000 worth of horses were marked as “not sold” to out-page the $695,000, total, spent by the Burke Racing Stable LLC on 11 yearlings.

Spring Haven Farm bred and sold the Sportswriter colt that fetched $100,000 Wednesday.

Captaintreacherous was next with $3,568,000 (44 yearlings), followed by Muscle Hill at $2,863,000. Muscle Hill was, far and away, the top sire by average with his 16 yearlings fetching, on average, $178,938. The only other sire with a six-figure average was Father Patrick who averaged $119,000 for 12 yearlings.

Pacing colts led all segments with 226 grossing $11,179,000 for an average of $49,465. Trotting fillies were next with 177 grossing $8,357,000 in total, an average of $47,215. Pacing fillies were next at $8,254,000 for 242 sold ($34,107 average). Trotting colts grossed $7,634,000 for 185 sold, averaging $41,265.

Stay Hungry (Doug McNair) winning the Cane Pace at the Meadowlands. The pacer will stand his first year at stud in 2019 at Hanover Shoe Farms for a fee of $6,000.

Stay Hungry to stand at Hanover in 2019

Hanover Shoe Farms, along with Brad Grant and Wendy Samelman, are pleased to announce that 2017 2-year-old colt pacer of the year, Stay Hungry, will join their stallion roster in 2019.

A son of super sire Somebeachsomewhere out of the 2 million-dollar winning mare My Little Dragon, Stay Hungry won the Breeders Crown as a 2-year-old on way to his award-winning season. This year at 3, he won the first two legs of harness racing's Triple Crown while taking a record of 1:47.3 and amassing over $1.3 million dollars in career earnings. Called by trainer Tony Alagna – trainer of super sire Captaintreacherous and Promising stallion Artspeak – the most correct yearling he ever purchased, Stay Hungry will stand in Pennsylvania for an introductory stud fee of $6,000. Shares are available in this promising stallion. Please contact Jim Simpson (717) 637-8931 for further information.

Artie's Ideal will race today in the Matron at Dover Downs.

Artie's Ideal seeks first Grand Circuit score in Matron

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

Erv Miller thinks Artie's Ideal has his best days ahead of him. Miller hopes that includes today when the colt visits Dover Downs for the $213,000 Matron Stakes for 2-year-old male pacers.

Artie's Ideal was a two-time winner on the New York Sire Stakes circuit and finished third in the series championship before trying the Grand Circuit for the first time at Lexington's Red Mile. The colt was second to Workin Ona Mystery in a division of the Bluegrass Stakes, pacing a :26.1 final quarter-mile, before a seventh-place finish in a division of the International Stallion Stakes.

After a three-week respite, Artie's Ideal qualified in 1:54.2 at Harrah's Philadelphia on Oct. 30 to prep for the Matron. He won the qualifier by 10-1/2 lengths.

"He was a real green colt getting started and he's just been getting better all the way through," said Miller, who trains Artie's Ideal for owner Bay Pond Racing Stable. "He had a little setback the second week at Lexington, his blood was a little messed up, but as far as getting more mature he's gotten better every time we went to the gate.

"He qualified really well at (Philly) and I look for him to put in a good effort."

Artie's Ideal and driver Marcus Miller, Erv's son, will start the Matron from post four. He is 10-1 on the morning line.

Metro Pace runner-up Semi Tough, with Matt Kakaley driving for trainer Ron Burke, is the 5-2 favorite.

"He got the four hole, that's a good spot, and if things work out for him he should be right there," Miller said.

Dover Downs host the four Matrons for 2-year-old trotters and pacers today. Racing begins at 4:15 p.m. (EST) with a non-betting race, the Matron for colt and gelding trotters, followed by the regular card at 4:30 p.m. Breeders Crown runner-up When Dovescry is the 5-2 morning-line favorite in the $177,800 filly trot and Breeders Crown finalist Queen Of The Pride is 5-2 in the $179,100 filly pace.

Artie's Ideal is a son of American Ideal out of Midnight Art. The colt has earned $114,508 in nine starts and is Midnight Art's third six-figure-earner. The family also includes Grand Circuit winners Good News Lady and Ideal News.

Miller said the colt was immature physically to begin the season, but has developed nicely.

"I think he's going to be a nice colt," Miller said. "He's easy to drive, an easy trainer. He handles well. You can tell he's got a great attitude. He's so handy and he's a smart little horse. I really look forward to next year with him."

Artie's Ideal is eligible to the Governor's Cup later this month at the Meadowlands, but the Matron could be his final start of the year.

"We'll go off how he races," Miller said.
