Money driving 3-year-olds to breeding shed, but is that good for the game?

Ron Burke and Harvey Fried explain why retiring a star after its 3-year-old season makes the most financial sense for them. But Jeff Gural is adamant it will be a contributing factor in the death of the sport.

With so many high profile 3-year-olds retiring recently, it begs the question, why now?

That answer could be attributed, at least in part, to how successful yearling sales have been over the last few years.

“The breeding end is stronger than the racing end,” said trainer/owner/breeder Ron Burke. “I don’t understand how it’s so strong, but I don’t want to knock it.”

Burke’s 3-year-old colt trotter T C I, as well as rivals Karl and Sig Sauer, have retired to stud as has Meadowlands Pace champ Legendary Hanover, soon to be joined by Little Brown Jug champ Captain Albano.

“Nobody wanted to race T C I more than me,” Burke said. “I feel like I could show that he is the best of those horses, there’s no

“ Nobody wanted to race T C I more than me. I feel like I could show that he is the best of those horses, there’s no doubt in my mind. But, do you know what it’s going to cost me to show that? My owners aren’t into just pumping up my ego, they’re interested in making money and in Ohio, he’s going to be warmly welcomed. He’ll take in over a million dollars easy as a stud. We decided to syndicate [T C I] on a Monday morning and we decided how many shares we’d sell. Three of us calling, we didn’t use an agent, we had it done in like 25 minutes. So, where is the gain for us [in racing]? Believe me, I was trying to come up with where the gain was, trying to show them because I wanted to race.”

Patricia Stable's Harvey Fried co-owns both Sig Sauer and Captain Albano.

"Sig Sauer is definitely done," Fried told HRU on Saturday (Nov. 9). "In fact, his semen is being tested as we talk. 'Albano' has one race left in the Progress at Dover and he's done.

"[Sig Sauer] actually came out of that last race [a win in the Breeders Crown final] with a chip fracture in his left leg, so he probably could not come back as a 4-year-old anyway. And Albano, it just becomes a matter of semantics and money... and we're prepared to accept the one year that they would lose [due to the Gural Rule] for the benefit of the long haul right now.

"Again, that's always been the problem in our industry, the 4-year-old racing is very difficult. There's just not a lot of money to do it. I also owned Pebble Beach and we did the same thing with him, you know, we stopped him, too. And so, you give up the one year and that's pretty much how you do it."

The Meadowlands' Stallion Restriction Condition, better known as the "Gural Rule," bans the first crop of stallions that did not race at 4, from competing in specific Meadowlands races as 2- and 3-year-olds. However, exemptions to the SRC can and have been granted in the past should specific conditions be met, such as an injury/condition that prevents a horse from continuing to compete or would make it dangerous to do so.

It's unclear at this point how many might file for an exemption, and although Burke said he doesn't think he will, you never know.

"I could make the case and I don't know if any vet would feel comfortable saying I was incorrect, you know what I mean?" Burke said of T C I, without going into specifics.

Fried said he was not surprised that so many top 3-year-olds are retiring.

"Only because the cost to keep horses between training the horse, insuring the horse, the vet work, is outrageous," Fried said. "So, you start to analyze, 'How much is this costing me to keep going and how much could I make?' I mean, that's kind of really what it breaks down to.

"The cost to keep horses between training the horse, insuring the horse, the vet work, is outrageous. So, you start to analyze, 'How much is this costing me to keep going and how much could I make?' I mean, that's kind of really what it breaks down to."

~ Harvey Fried

"Listen, 'Albano' is going to Blue Chip, 'Sig' is going to Hanover; I mean, you can't get better than those.

Sig is being done through Dr. J's [Dr. Bridgette Jablonsky] syndicate. And it's been so unbelievable the response to him, that [Dr. J] actually is not promising anybody more than one share of the horse. We only have 60 and she's been asked about 54 already and he hasn't even hit the market yet.

"But, you know, he's going to Hanover; he's a Muscle Hill and they have no more Muscle Hills there, and he's a big, strong, strapping guy. I think he could possibly win the 3-Year-Old Trotter of the Year. I think he should, quite frankly. He's won the Kentucky Futurity, he's won the Breeders Crown, he's beaten Karl three times. Whatever it is, it is, and I'll accept whatever it is, but I think he should be the 3-Year-Old Trotter of the Year."

This mass exodus of top sophomore trotters is certainly partly, if not solely, responsible for Greg Luther spending a record

“ I am very disappointed [so many horses are not coming back to race at 4]. It seems no one recognizes how quickly the sport is dying because the purses are great and the high end is strong. I feel like a fool investing almost $200,000 to get us on national TV and not having support from the industry. ”

~ Jeff Gural

$1.85 million at the recent Harrisburg sale for Canadian Trotting Classic champ Amazing Catch.

“They are all gone [to stud], so you can really make a lot of money next year,” Luther told HRU after winning the auction.

When asked what he thought about so many not coming back for their 4-year-old season, The Meadowlands president/chief executive officer Jeff Gural said, “I am very disappointed. It seems no one recognizes how quickly the sport is dying because the purses are great and the high end is strong.

“I feel like a fool investing almost $200,000 to get us on national TV and not having support from the industry.”

In particular, Gural pointed out the lack of support from some top breeders.

“When I was asked at the last minute by [former SBOANJ president] Tommy Luchento to find a way to keep [The Big M] open when the Governor was planning to announce its closure at the end of the week, I honestly thought the industry would be supportive.

“Same goes for my efforts to put the chemists out of business. I assumed the honest trainers would appreciate the costly effort.

“Only good thing is I have two 3-year-olds coming back and this will help them be competitive in the Maturity and Graduate.

“I love the industry and have been lucky the last few years with Ake and Sarah [Svanstedt] and Nifty [Norman] and Andy and Julie [Miller] and won a Breeders Crown a few years ago with Linda [Toscano], so it takes my mind off of my other problems.”

Burke sees value in being a sponsor at The Meadowlands.

“We all are in this together... but we all should do it together, and the thing is when you do that you get a seat at the table, too,” Burke said. “Jeff is way more open to ideas from me because I am a sponsor of what he’s trying to do.

“I even told Jason [Settlemoir], sometimes I feel like I’m now paying for the opportunity to race, but I get where they’re coming from. Listen, when you have a little skin in the game, you’re a lot more interested in what goes on.”

Burke also said he understands why Gural cares so much about wanting 3-year-olds to come back at 4.

“I get it, we’ve got to do what’s best for the game, but you know what? It isn’t like we’re going to be short of horses,” Burke said. “Somebody will come out of nowhere next year. And then we have geldings Chapercraz and Bythemissal, so we’re still going to do it.

“But, you know, my question is, do we need this Final Four at the end of the year for these 2-year-olds anymore? Or should that money be allocated to aged horses? I mean, that’s the straight facts. Give them more opportunity to race. Try racing a trotting mare or pacing mare at 4 anymore, it’s almost become impossible. When you have Twin B Joe Fresh it’s great, but the rest of us, literally, just lost money.

Burke said bringing back the mare division of the Graduate would be a good start.

“It was great; Why did that go away?” Burke said. “Because, Jeff made a financial decision. The same thing we are doing... I appreciate everything he’s done for the game and I get where he’s coming from and [I think] in his heart in the end he gets where we’re all coming from, too.

“Everybody has to make what they, in the end, think is best for them and the business and it’s not always the same.”

Determination not afraid to spend to get top yearlings at Harrisburg

by Matthew Lomon

There was no shortage of Canadian content at this year's Standardbred Horse Sales Company auction in Harrisburg, PA as buyers from the Great White North were not shy about opening their check books.

As a whole, Canadian buyers accounted for $7,679,000 or 20 per cent of the total yearling sale gross of $37,091,000.

Ontario, the nation's most populous province, was also well-represented.

Shoppers from Ontario spent $4,779,000, or 13 per cent of the total gross, over the three-day yearling sale.

Ontario-sired yearlings were a hot commodity for buyers, as well.

Some 142 Ontario eligibles sold for a grand total of $5,357,000, good for an average of $37,725 per yearling.

Québec-based powerhouse Determination, which paced all yearling purchasers with a total of $1,905,000 spread across 13 horses, showed a particular interest in its border buddy's youngsters.

Racing primarily on the Woodbine Mohawk Park Circuit, the prominent North American operation acquired six Ontario-sired yearlings.

Of that half-dozen, four ranked within the five most expensive Ontario-eligible yearlings sold.

That group of premium neophytes includes Hip #458 Taven On the Green, a Green Manalishi S colt purchased for $225,000, a pair of Bettors Delight colts in Hip #98 Ceylon Spice and Hip #277 Studio Boss for $200,000 apiece, and Hip #2 Bettor Story, a Bettors Delight filly bought for $150,000.

Ontario-based trainer Luc Blais, the man responsible for reigning in prized yearlings on behalf of Québécois mogul Serge Godin's Determination, is encouraged by the prospects of this year's crop of Ontario eligibles.

"We are very happy with what we got, that's for sure," Blais said. "We bought three Bettors Delight, two Muscle Mass fillies, and one Green Manalishi [S]."

But as Blais noted, demand was by no means in short supply.

"It was tough to buy Ontario this year with the way the market is right now," Blais said. "It's a good circuit, and everybody wants a piece of it."

The Ontario program has long been integral to Determination's success.

And that was not going to change, despite added pressure from greater competition.

"Our farm is 10 minutes from Mohawk, and that's obviously a great place to be," Blais said. "In the past, we've had lots of

"In the past, we've had lots of success with Ontario-breds. It's an excellent place to race young horses. Sometimes they make the Grand Circuit – we had a few like that. All the best horses we had, like Forbidden Trade and Emoticon Hanover, were from Ontario."

success with Ontario-breds. It's an excellent place to race young horses.

"Sometimes they make the Grand Circuit – we had a few like that. All the best horses we had, like Forbidden Trade and Emoticon Hanover, were from Ontario."

Like Blais reminds, sticking to the formula that produced elite talents in Hambletonian winner Forbidden Trade (68: 26-9-9 with over $2.3 million banked) and Emoticon Hanover (74: 27-16-13 with more than $2 million earned) is the wise move.

While that's more difficult some years than others, the lifelong horseman has become somewhat of a Harrisburg Sale savant over the years.

Based on Blais' calculations, he's been a regular at the sale for about three decades. In that time, the Campbellville, ON-based conditioner has learned that no matter how much money he had to invest, he would always find something he liked.

And that's come in handy for an outfit that relies on the Pennsylvania sale more than any other.

"It looks like it's easy, but it's not easy having a budget sometimes," Blais said with a laugh. "You want the best. I know we want the best, but nothing is for sure.

"Sometimes it can be tough because we don't buy a lot. We try to be selective. And that's not always easy because you'll find two, three horses you like equally, and you just need to make a choice on the one you feel the strongest about.

"But that's a good problem to have, and I always enjoy my time at the sale."

Part of what makes the Harrisburg sale so memorable for Blais is that it truly is a team effort.

And working alongside the distinguished Godin, a member of the Order of Canada and Ordre national du Québec, to bring the right horses into the Determination family has been equally as delightful.

"Serge is very active in the sale process," Blais said. "He knows everything that we buy. He came a day before the sale for a tour of the horses we had our eyes on.

"He's been in the game for at least 40 years. He checks the pedigree and the day before the sale, we check all the horses we picked, not just I picked, and we make a list and go from there."

Although Determination needed to shell out a pretty penny for this year's roster of Ontario-sired yearlings, Blais is confident in where the industry is headed.

"I know the market is very high right now, but I think that's a good sign," he said. "I hope that's why it's tough to buy horses.

"If you have more people wanting the same horse or horses, I think that means there's an increase in overall interest in the game."

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Late season developments have made sophomore divisional races close

Between the Breeders Crown and stakes races that have followed, some divisional honors will come down to the wire.

by Brett Sturman

My thoughts on the year-end awards in the sophomore divisions.

3-YEAR-OLD COLT TROT DIVISION

Immediately following the Hambletonian in which career-to-date phenom Karl made good on the highest of early-season expectations, it didn't seem like the season-ending leader of this division would ever be in doubt. But as mid-summer turned to late summer and then fall, the division took a different turn, and it now looks as if Sig Sauer will have accomplished enough to earn the distinction of 3-Year-Old Colt Trotter of the Year.

I hate to say it because of what Karl accomplished in winning the Hambletonian and how brilliant of a 2-year-old he was last year, but he lacked his best punch in the final couple months of his career. Since that Hambletonian win, which was his final notable win of the year, Karl was able to string together three wins in preliminary Kentucky Sire Stake legs but came up a neck short in the $400,000 final, before then concluding the season by finishing fifth in the Kentucky Futurity and sixth-placed-fifth in his Breeders Crown elimination.

On the other hand, Sig Sauer has come on to close out the year with massive back-to-back wins the Kentucky Futurity (over Karl) in a season's best time of 1:49.3 being the only sophomore trotter to trot in under 1:50 this year, and then just got up over T C I in the Breeders Crown final. While Karl did beat Sig Sauer in the Hambletonian, Sig Sauer beat Karl in the Stanley Dancer a couple weeks prior. Throw in the $300,000 Earl Beal that Sig Sauer won at Pocono in August, and it can be said with a degree of comfort that he went out and earned the divisional title.

3-YEAR-OLD COLT PACE DIVISION

It was painfully difficult to separate the top pair in this division with another one not far behind, but I'll just get right out with it. I think Nijinsky is the most deserving and would be my pick, but I could see the USHWA voters siding with Captain Albano. There really isn't a wrong answer either.

I've mentioned before in this column a bias where wins in Canada get sometimes overlooked, and Nijinsky's most high-profile win came early in the season to boot, but his North America Cup win shouldn't be forgotten. Nor should his Simcoe win at Woodbine Mohawk Park from September when he prevailed in a slugfest against chief rival Legendary Hanover. Nijinsky was runner-up in the Meadowlands Pace final after having won his Pace elimination the week prior in a time of 1:47.3, good for the third-fastest time of any 3-year-old pacer this year. After another solid runner-up finish, this time in the Breeders Crown, Nijinsky won another open stake two weeks ago in the Monument Circle at Hoosier. With 11 wins from 15 starts and another three races where he was second, he's proved himself worthy of the divisional honor.

An equally strong case could be made for Captain Albano. His resume includes wins in the Max Hempt, the Adios and the Little Brown Jug where he won both heats on the same day (over Nijinsky). He further proved his versatility by not only conquering Delaware, OH and then the five-eighths mile tracks in Pennsylvania, but he showed he can win on the mile track too when he won his Breeders Crown elimination at The Meadowlands in 1:48.1. He would have been a no-brainer for the division if he won the Crown final, but he took pressure throughout on the lead as the 3-5 favorite and finished third behind Mirage Hanover and Nijinsky; I would have loved to have seen at least one major win in a final come on the big track. But to his credit, he bounced back when seen next out in the Matron at Dover and turned the tables on Mirage Hanover and that should count for something.

Interestingly, had Mirage Hanover won that race as he was expected to do so, a late season case could have been made for him too. Catching fire with Dunn and winning the Tattersalls, Breeders Crown elimination and then final, and then capping it off with a win in the Matron would have made things interesting. A mention also to Legendary Hanover who won both the Meadowlands Pace and the Cane Pace, but it looks like it'll be between Nijinsky and Captain Albano for the division.

3-YEAR-OLD FILLY TROT DIVISION

Where a sudden late-season charge may wind up being successful is in the case of Allegiant. Always a filly with talent going back to the earliest days as a 2-year-old last year, a recent change in barns has brought back out the best in her. In the span of less than the last month, she won her Breeders Crown elimination and then the Breeders Crown final, with rival R Melina second-best both times. I don't know if the Breeders Crown alone would have been enough to propel her to the division's top, but Allegiant followed up those wins with, once again, another win over R Melina which came last week in the Matron. She's clearly been the best horse to finish the season, and probably the best horse in the division overall when factoring in a win in the $100,000 Moni Maker at Scioto from the summer.

R Melina, with a string of solid second-place finishes as above, saw her signature win of the year come in one of the year's best races, her take-no-prisoners win of 1:50.1 in the Kentucky

Filly Futurity. She raced well in many of the year's other big dances and owns a win from the Del Miller Memorial in June at The Meadowlands; I just think that Allegiant beating her three straight times to close out the year tilts the division in her favor.

3-YEAR-OLD FILLY PACE DIVISION

My Girl EJ was victorious in the Breeders Crown just as she was last year, but this time around she should be safe to capture her first Dan Patch award as the best pacing filly in her division. It's been a contentious and hard-fought year for this group and despite the ups and downs, My Girl EJ also has wins in her Breeders Crown elimination, Juliette elimination, the Adioo Volo final and a divisional-best 1:48.1 win in her division of the Glen Garnsey last month. The hiccup when finishing third last out as the beaten favorite in the Matron shouldn't cost her.

Honorable mentions can be given to Rocket Deo who in addition to finishing one place ahead of My Girl EJ in that Matron race last out, won her division of the Glen Garnsey as well the Shady Daisy and her Bluegrass division. Direction closed out the year by winning the Matron after a close-up third in the Breeders Crown final; KYSS-final champ has had a decent year. It's A Love Thing was consistently strong for the second consecutive year in her career.

Aussie's Swayzee and Just Believe reign on New Zealand Cup Day

by Adam Hamilton

It must be one of the most audacious and remarkable feature races wins in the history of harness racing.

What mighty Aussie stayer Swayzee did in the lead-up to and in last Tuesday's $1 million New Zealand Cup itself beggars belief.

Less than four days before the greatest staying race in his part of the world, Swayzee raced and won in a different country.

Last Friday night he had a seven-hour road trip from Menangle near Sydney to the country town of Young where he won the $60,000 Cherry City Cup. The race carried far greater importance given it was the second leg of a five race NSW Country Cup series, which carries a $1 million bonus if a horse can win all five.

Swayzee has won the first two.

About 30 hours after the Young race, Swayzee boarded a four-hour flight from Sydney to Auckland, went through a quarantine process and a few hours on the tarmac before another two-hour flight from Auckland to Christchurch.

The gelding arrived in Christchurch around 10 p.m. Sunday, just 43 hours before he was sent out a commanding $2.20 favorite (for a $1 bet) in the grueling 3,200m New Zealand Cup.

Just as he did last year, Swayzee worked around the field to take the lead inside the first lap, but driver Cam Hart was driving him vigorously rounding the final bend, with main danger Dont Stop Dreaming under a hold and stalking him.

Just when it seemed Swayzee's extraordinary build-up would take its toll and Dont Stop Dreaming zoomed through the sprint lane (passing lane) to get at least a head in front with 100 meters to go, Swayzee dug deep.

"I actually wasn't that worried," Hart said. "He was sort of loafing and it wasn't until the horse charged at him when he picked up again and felt great. I knew he'd fight back, that's what he does. That's why he's so great."

Swayzee won by a neck and became the first Aussie-trained pacer to win successive NZ Cups.

For context, only two Aussie-trained pacers have won the New Zealand Cup since 1987. That's Arden Rooney in 2015 and Swayzee the past two years.

It's some feat.

All this from a horse who wasn't even in the Cup field until eight days before the race.

"It was last Monday (Nov. 4) when he worked so well, I rang Mick [Boots, owner] and said I wanted him to back me and that I thought we could take Swayzee back and win the Cup again," trainer Jason Grimson said. "He just worked so well. He felt like he'd come on again from the Victoria Cup win [Oct. 12], which I thought was the best of his career.

"He seemed in such a great place and, at the same time, there was a lot of doubt about Leap To Fame going over [for the Cup]."

Boots paid a $28,000 late entry and just a few days later, Leap To Fame, was scratched with what connections think is a lingering virus.

"There is no right or wrong in this game," Grimson said. "It just goes to show you can win a Young Cup on Friday and come here

"Yeah, [winning this year's New Zealand Cup is] the best. Just to come back and win it again, it sort of ices [Swayzee's] place in history. It was unbelievable. I just love this horse. I have always had confidence in this horse and whenever he is in a dog-fight, he puts in for me."

Just Believe (Greg Sugars)
winning the $400,000 Group 1
Dominion Trot.

“It was unbelievable. I just love this horse. I have always had confidence in this horse and whenever he is in a dog-fight, he puts in for me.”

Swayzee will now have a break and bypass the upcoming Inter Dominion series in NSW to prepare for the third leg of the NSW Carnival of Cups at Tamworth on Jan. 17. The fourth leg is Albury on Feb. 14 with the final leg at Penrith on March 14.

“Yes, [the Group 1 Dominion Trot is] a really special one, that’s the top of the tree. Coming to New Zealand and winning the inaugural TAB Trot at Cambridge [with Just Believe] was a really special thing to me, it meant a lot, but winning this here, at Addington on this day and in front of this crowd, it’s the best.” and win an New Zealand Cup. As soon as I saw him Monday morning, I thought we were on.

“He handled the travel better than he did the previous year when he came across a lot earlier. I took him for a jog at the beach and to dip in the water, he felt great.”

And that’s exactly how Swayzee raced.

“He was awesome today,” Grimson said. “To fight back like that in strong wind and win was a mighty effort.”

Hart, one of Australia’s top young drivers, said the win topped last year’s Cup as his career highlight.

“Yeah, it’s the best,” he said. “Just to come back and win it again, it sort of ices the horse’s place in history.

It will be a major shock if he doesn’t win them all.

As great as Swayzee was, he wasn’t the best horse to win in front of a packed Addington crowd on Cup Day.

That was champion Aussie trotter Just Believe, who thrashed his rivals and landed the 10th Group 1 win of his stellar career in the $400,000 Group 1 Dominion Trot (3,200 meters).

Incredibly, Just Believe has gone to another level since his daunting three-race Swedish raid in the middle of last year.

The rising 9-year-old has raced 21 times since returning to Australia for 19 wins and two seconds.

The Dominion win took his earnings to $2,015,845.

Just Believe is rapidly closing in on Lyell Creek’s Down Under record as the richest all-time earning trotter with $2,256,724.

Driver and co-trainer Greg Sugars described the win as the biggest of his career.

“Yes, that’s a really special one, that’s the top of the tree,” he said. “Coming to NZ and winning the inaugural TAB Trot at Cambridge was a really special thing to me, it meant a lot, but winning this here, at Addington on this day and in front of this crowd, it’s the best.

“He just felt amazing today. He was cruising down the back and really put them away when I asked him to, then I let him cruise to the line.”

Just Believe was scheduled to back-up in the $100,000 New Zealand Trotting free-for-all today (Nov. 15) before returning to Australia to prepare for an assault on a third successive Inter Dominion title in New South Wales, which starts on November 29.

No trotter has won three Inter Dominion finals.

Stars shine despite rain on Illinois' Night of Champions

by Neil Milbert

Rain that intensified as the night wore on marred Saturday's (Nov. 9) $1,577,437 main event in Illinois racing but the gloomy conditions didn't stop the state's best standardbreds from playing starring roles on the Night of Champions program at Hawthorne Race Course.

The richest of the 12 races for Illinois-breds was the $226,545 Incredible Finale for 2-year-old male pacers and Cash Money Twenty, a gelding trained by Steve Searle and driven by Casey Leonard, went to the winner's circle for the 11th time in a 12-race career in which his lone loss was a second-place finish.

In the Incredible Finale, which played out the way it looked on paper, Dialogue came in second with Kyle Wilfong at the reins and Battlin Bob was third with Travis Seekman in the sulky.

Cash Money Twenty, who went off at 1-9, won by a head in 1:52.1 on a track that was still labeled fast before being designated as sloppy for the next four races that concluded the card. Battlin Bob took charge early and posted fractional times of :28.1, :57 and 1:24.3 in building a five-length lead by the three-quarter call while Cash Money Twenty and Dialogue were racing three-wide.

In the stretch, Battlin Bob faded and for Cash Money Twenty and Dialogue the race became a fight to the finish-line.

"Dialogue has been a nice horse all year and I figured him to be my No. 1 competitor and he proved to be," Leonard said.

Leonard drove two other winners: Lou's My Number, who took the richest trotting race, the $144,637 Fox Valley Flan in 1:56.4, which set the track record for a 2-year-old filly, and Whiskey Lou, who recorded her 13th triumph in 14 outings this year in the $109,658 Beulah Dygert Memorial for 3-year-old filly trotters.

Whiskey Lou's four-length margin of victory over Peekaboo Sal while playing the role of 1-5 favorite equaled the second widest of the night and it came on a sloppy surface in 1:56.2. Trained by Curt Grummel for owner/breeder Randy Witt, she was one of four winners on the card by the state's leading sire, Lou's Legacy.

"The first time I drove her I said, 'She feels like she would go through a brick wall for you,'" Leonard said. "Curt does a great job of pointing her for these races. I didn't know this race would shake out but I knew I'd be moving toward the front and could do it any way I wanted. Once I got there the outcome was never in question."

Whiskey Lou took command on the turn for home and went on to win easily.

Lou's My Number also is a daughter of Lou's Legacy. Trained by her co-owner and co-breeder Steve Searle, the record-breaker in the state's most lucrative trotting race began her career on the county fair circuit.

"It's kind of a different path than we normally take but it shows where we're at [economically in Illinois]," Leonard said. "I hadn't gone to a county fair in 15 years; it was a new kind of experience."

Lou's My Number went off at 7-1 in the field of eight. Going into the first turn Kays In Charge broke stride and Lou's My Number took a lead that she held into the stretch.

"We had pretty mild fractions and I knew it was going to be a sprint for home," Leonard said. "Kyle Wilfong's filly [What A Legacy] stuck her head in front of me [in mid-stretch] but once she got by me her gait changed dramatically; she ran [just before the wire] and that made us the winner [by 1¼ lengths]."

It was the third victory of a 10-race career in which Lou's My Number never has been worse than third.

Marcus Miller was another driver who took three trips to the winner's circle, two with his father, trainer, Erv Miller, and the other with Grummel.

Marcus' most lucrative conquest came with Gorgeous Big Guy, the 1-5 choice in the $155,244 Robert F. Carey, Jr. Memorial for 3-year-old colt and gelding pacers.

"It played out exactly the way I wanted it," Marcus said after Gorgeous Big Guy won for the 11th time in 12 races this year for Erv Miller after finishing second by a head two races earlier. "I put him out front and it was up to him. There's nobody around here that can keep up. His biggest attribute is that he tries hard; he loves to beat them."

Gorgeous Big Guy won this race by three-quarters-of-a-length over Guitar Man in 1:51.3.

Earlier Louise's Legacy took trainer, co-owner and co-breeder Erv and his son to the winner's circle with a half-length victory over Frontier Macho as the 6-5 favorite in the $132,858 Kadabra for 2-year-old male trotters.

"The track was pretty firm [for the Kadabra, which was the second race]," Marcus said. "A lot of horses were making breaks around him. I just had to keep him out of trouble. Once I got him to the last turn it was pretty much over."

Louise's Legacy won in 1:56.4, giving him an 11-race resume consisting of four wins, four places and three shows.

Marcus and Grummel had only three horses to beat when they won the $80,000 Carl Becker Memorial for older mares with 2-5 favorite Marvelous Mystery. The 4-year-old mare bested 6-year-old Loulita by one length in 1:55.4 in a race in which daughters of Lou's Legacy were 1-2.

"I hadn't driven her since Springfield [on Sept. 12]," Marcus said. "She's easy to drive and she tries hard. I was confident."

That confidence manifested itself when Marvelous Mystery took the lead from Loulita in the opening quarter and held it the rest of the way en route to her third victory in seven starts this year.

In the $134,744 Erwin F. Dygert Memorial for 3-year-old male trotters, Erv had Wilfong driving Tru Cash and son Marcus at the reins of the favorite Jewels For Champ.

Dispatched at 3-1, Tru Cash took advantages of traffic problems encountered by opponents and delivered a 2¼-length victory over Amy and Kyle Husted's horse, Shady Maple Alstar. Tru Cash went the distance in 1:56.3 on a sloppy track to win for the third time in a 14-race 2024 campaign in which he has finished worse than third only once.

"Tru Cash was a nice pick up; I'd never driven him before," Wilfong said.

Little Chipper took an early lead and maintained it through three quarters. He tired in the lane and Shady Maple Alstar and Lous Private Eye were unable to find racing room to capitalize.

Instead Wilfong had a clear path down the lane.

"By the time he got to the last turn he was fifth over," Wilfong said. "So, I went to the rail in the stretch. I got a little room and he just exploded."

The second richest race on the program was the $224,623 Incredible Tillie for 2-year-old filly pacers and 1-5 favorite Thebeautifulthings won by four lengths in 1:52.3 for trainer Amy Husted and her driver husband Kyle Husted.

Thebeautifulthings stalked the pace set by Wildcat Abby for three quarters before making a powerful move in the stretch in equaling the night's biggest winning margin. Wildcat Abby salvaged second.

Thebeautifulthings' past performance sheet is a beautiful thing to behold; eight impressive wins in nine starts.

Wyatt Avanatti was in the bike for trainer and co-owner Searle when 11-1 longshot Fox Valley Tessa scored the night's biggest upset, kicking back payoffs of $25.60, $18 and $9 when she won for the second time in 11 starts this year in the $180,701 Plum Peachy for 3-year-old filly pacers.

Fox Valley Tessa bided her time before coming from behind to close strongly and win by 1¾ lengths on a sloppy surface.

Perennial Night of Champions champion He'zzz A Wise Sky had Wilfong back in the sulky when the 7-year-old horse won the $60,000 Phil Langley Memorial for older pacers for trainer John Filomeno and Triple Zzz Stable.

He defeated last year's Carey Memorial winner Fox Valley Landen by 1¼ lengths in 1:50.3. Fox Valley Langley was third and six-time Night of Champions winner Fox Valley Gemini was fourth in this summit conference of the state's most accomplished horses.

Both the winner and the second-place horse were sent off at 9-5.

"He's so fast and he's so gutsy," Wilfong said after He'zzz A Wise Sky won for the eighth time in 29 outings this year and for the 56th time in his 131-race career. "He can lay down those fast fractions and hold on at the end. He's remarkable."

In the Langley, he took the lead from Fox Valley Landen on the backstretch, slowed down on the turn for him and then accelerated in the stretch.

Wilfong's other triumphs came with Scorecard Dandy in the $60,000 Tony Maurello Memorial for older pacing mares and Niko Man in the $60,000 Plesac for older male trotters.

According to Wilfong, Scorecard Dandy "had to work hard to get to the front [in the opening quarter] but after she got there and had it her way there was no catching her."

Bombay Park was second – three lengths back of the winner – and Fox Valley Leah was third.

Trained by Gregory Kane, the 6-year-old winner was clocked in 1:51.2 as she won for the fourth time in 23 races this year.

Niko Man is a 4-year-old gelding trained by Ken Rucker. Living up to the expectations of bettors who made him the 1-5 favorite he won by 3½ lengths in 1:54 on a sloppy track. Lous Lancelot was second and Lousdobb came in third.

Last year's Illinois Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old male trotter Goomster broke stride at the start and wound up last in the six-horse race.

The triumph was Niko Man's ninth in 24 races this year. He came from the middle of the field to make the lead after three quarters and drew off.

Wilfong said: "I got position early; when I called on him, he did the job like the professional he is."

Finish lines: The Illinois Harness Horsemen's Association has announced the names of the individuals and horses that will be inducted into the organization's Hall of Fame on March 1 at its annual banquet in Springfield. They are Terry Leonard, Freddie Patton, Jr., Bill Wright, Tom Tetrick (posthumous), Mucho Sleazy, Fox Valley Tribal and King Johnny. Also to be honored are Tom and LeeAnn Shinn, recipients of the Lifetime Achievement Award.

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Time for B-race number one

by Thomas Hedlund

The French winter meeting in Paris is running in high speed and it's already time for the first B-race, which offers four spots in January's Prix d'Amérique at Vincennes.

And in Sunday's (Nov. 17) $125,000 Prix de Bretagne over 2,700 meters, some of the very best French trotters are missing, due to different reasons. Horsy Dream and Idao de Tillard dominated many of the biggest races in Europe earlier this season, but they are both waiting for better days. Idao de Tillard was sick (throat problems) in his last performance at Vincennes and trainer Thierry Duvaldestin has announced that his horse will be aimed towards the $125,000 Prix du Bourbonnais on Dec. 8.

There are obviously some well merited trotters entering Sunday's race at Vincennes and it looks like Swedish top trotters San Moteur and Don Fanucci Zet will battle against strong French horses like Just A Gigolo, Emeraude de Bais, Hooker Berry and Hussard du Landret.

Four spots in the Prix d'Amérique are at stake and the probable favorite in the first B-race is San Moteur, who qualified for the 2024 Prix d'Amérique, but got sick and had to stay in his barn.

GOCCIADORO - WHO ELSE?

Montegiorgio, located on Italy's east coast played host to the traditional $140,000 Gran Premio Palio de Comuni on Sunday (Nov. 10) night and as so many times before when it comes to big races in general and Italian big races in particular, Alessandro Gocciadoro dominated the event.

Gocciadoro steered Dany Capar (Exploit Caf) to victory in one of three elimination heats and he also sat in the bike behind the same horse in the final later that same night.

Dany Capar hit the lead, which meant that Gocciadoro had great control of the final and as it turned out, the only threat was pocket horse Akela Pal Ferm, who finished quickly in the open stretch on the half mile track. But Akela Pal Ferm never got seriously close to the leading winner and Dany Capar captured his biggest trophy so far in his career in 1:56.

CREDITWINNER DAUGHTER BEST IN DENMARK

Charlottenlund in Copenhagen, Denmark gathered the best 2-year-old trotters in the country when the $95,000 Dansk Uppfödningslöpning was on Sunday's (Nov 10) race card and it ended with success for American sire Credit Winner.

Denmark's long time champion trainer and driver Steen Juul served his Lets Go Ostedantik (Credit Winner) a ground saving trip in second over and Juul could wait with the attack until 350 meters remained in the race. Lets Go Ostedantik finished well and disarmed the inside horses mid-stretch and she also showed bravery when she held quick finisher Lee Marwin behind her at the wire.

Lets Go Ostedantik has started her career showing promise with four wins in six attempts and Sunday's triumph was made in a mile rate of 2:02.2 over 1.3 miles.

JUSHUA TREE GETS CLOSER TO THE BIG GRAND PRIX

Nicolas Bazire (his father Jean-Michel has handed over all horses in the stable to Nicolas) trainee Jushua Tree (Bold Eagle) was named as one of the biggest favorites before the 2024 Prix d'Amérique, but the horse's connections opted to wait one year before battling among older trotters in France's biggest race. And in Saturday's (Nov. 9) $125,000 Prix Marcel Laurent for 4- and 5-year-old trotters, Bazire's star showed that he very well might be in the right condition for PdA 2025.

Jean-Michel sat in the bike behind Jushua Tree and after an initial kilometer outside of leader Dimitri Ferm, Jean-Michel asked for some more power and he got the right answer from Jushua Tree, who overtook the lead in the uphill part of Vincennes' track and he later jogged to a safe win in a mile rate of 1:54 over 1.3 miles.

Replay here.

Italian Derby winner Dimitri Ferm looked for racing room as runner up and bronze medal went to Jazzman Debailleul.

Earlier the same day at Vincennes, the $100,000 Prix du Languedoc was held and Eric Raffin sat behind It's A Dollarmaker (Saxo de Vandel), who was pushed to the lead with a mile remaining in the 2,850 meter long race. It's A Dollarmaker and Raffin then made it difficult for the favorites further back in the field and Sébastien Guarato's horse in front could sprint to safe win in a mile rate of 1:56 over 1.7 miles.

HOHNECK IN WOLVEGA

The purse is not so high, but still, the $70,000 Prijs Der Giganten in Wolvega, The Netherlands, is by tradition a prestigious and sprightly contribution to the European Grand Circuit. The race was held on Friday (Nov. 8) night and it's pretty clear that Philippe Allaire's Hohneck (Royal Dream) masters five-eighths-mile tracks very well. Hohneck won, as known, 2023 Elitloppet at Solvalla and he has shown several times that the long and demanding track of Vincennes is just too much for him as he gets older.

In Wolvega, Hohneck had to go the dirty job outside of leader Hades de Vandel during the last remaining kilometer, but that didn't bother him and Hohneck left the opponents at the home stretch and hit the wire as a winner in a new stakes record 1:54.3 over 1.3 miles.

Replay here.

Global Duhbe finished second ahead of Hades de Vandel.

Hohneck's trainer Allaire can look forward to an exciting weekend in Italy this week. On Sunday (Nov. 17), 2-year-old trotters will battle for $220,000 in the Finale Anact Stakes Plus, where Gabriele Gelormini will steer Allaire's Ginostrabliggi (Muscle Hill), who won a qualification for the Anact Stakes in 1:55.3, the fastest time ever by a 2-year-old horse in Europe.

THE END OF THE SEASON IS NEAR

Sweden's stakes season is coming to an end, but first, four divisions of the $320,000 Breeders Crown will be held in Eskilstuna.

Trainer Daniel Wäjersten had a great show when the eliminations were held at Solvalla on Nov. 3. Wäjersten had 11 horses trying to reach the finals and he succeeded with 10 of them. Ten contenders Saturday makes Wäjersten the dominant trainer – and driver – in the four divisions and among his 10 horses, Kriteriet winner Bullet The Bluesky and Oaks winner Vivillion are seen.

Bullet The Bluesky will most probably be the favorite in the 3-year-old colt and gelding division, while the 3-year-old fillies' event looks to be more open with a probable favorite from Roger Walmann's stable; S.G.Empress.

Wäjersten has a strong weapon in the 4-year-old colt and gelding division as his Kuiper impressed a lot in his elimination, but in the same race another Daniel, Redén, has Epic Kronos, who has developed to be the king of the crop since Derby Winner Fame And Glory faces problems with health.

Norwegian trained Daim Brodda (Thor Borg) solved her task impressively in her elimination for 4-year-old mares and this event includes some really interesting trotters and the outcome is open.

Entries list for Saturday's Eskilstuna here.

GINGRAS AND HANOVER HAVE HOPES IN SWEDISH BC

Ron Burke will soon train one of the contenders in the Swedish $320,000 Breeders Crown for 4-year-old colts and geldings. Last Saturday (Nov. 9), Timo Nurmos trained Antognoni (Father Patrick) was purchased by Yannick Gingras and Mark Weaver for approximately $100,000 and Ron Burke will be the new trainer for Antognoni, according to sulkysport.se.

Antognoni (Father Patrick–Bouncing Bax) has six wins in 19 attempts and holds a record of 1:53.4.

Gates Hanover (Walner–Good Common Cents) had a great 2-year-old season for Åke Svanstedt in 2022, but the sophomore season never really happened due to an injury. Since April this year, the Walner son has been trained by Daniel Redén and after four starts in 2024, Gates Hanover can be the big upset in the Breeders Crown for 4-year-old colts and geldings.

On Distance Day (July 12) at Truro Raceway, Top Of Her Trade (Todd Trites) lowered the North American standard for a quarter-mile sprint on a half-mile track to :26.1

Nova Scotia

Truro Raceway 2024 meet recorded its second-highest handle in 25 years

by Melissa Keith

Truro Raceway marked the end of its 2024 meet on Sunday (Nov. 3). In its second year with Steve Fitzsimmons as general manager, the Bible Hill, NS racetrack recorded its second-highest handle of the last 25 years: $572,729 for 194 live races, averaging $2,952.21 per race.

“We have had our best two wagering seasons back-to-back in the past 25 years in 2023 and 2024,” Fitzsimmons told HRU on Friday (Nov. 8).

“We were down slightly over last year’s numbers, but up more than 100 per cent over two years ago and before that. We overhauled our broadcast, made our wagering menu far more competitive and have put a strong focus on event marketing for the majority of our race cards, and the public has responded to it.”

Fans and bettors turned out for Distance Day, witnessing one North American and two Canadian records rewritten on July 12. Top Of Her Trade (Todd Trites) lowered the North American standard for a quarter-mile sprint on a half-mile track to :26.1, while Fifth Estate (Ernie Laffin) established a new Canadian three-quarter mile record of 1:24.4 for pacers on a half.

Truro Raceway celebrated Harness the Hope Day with the Achieve Financial Atlantic Women’s Driver’s Challenge. Local driver Clare MacDonald, North America’s winningest active reinswoman, edged out Ontario Women’s Driving champion Natasha Day by two points in the well-attended July 21 tournament.

Fitzsimmons called the Sept. 15 Remembering Sackville Downs Day the undisputed highlight of the season. He said the tribute to the beloved suburban Halifax, NS track drew Truro Raceway’s largest on-track crowd in 25 years.

“We were pleased that so many fans and horsepeople traveled to be part of the event and see people they haven’t seen in a long time,” he said. “It was a day that had a little something for everyone. We had a wonderful committee help plan that event out and it showed.”

The grandstand received positive reviews after extensive renovations were completed this year.

“We now have our simulcasting lounge open in the grandstand five days a week, Thursday to Monday, and it will be open all year long,” said Fitzsimmons. “The Rustic Table Restaurant has been an incredible addition and it will continue to be open Thursday through Sunday throughout the fall and winter.”

There is still work ahead to improve the sustainability of Truro Raceway, which first opened in 1865.

“We scheduled 20 2024 race cards, because that is all our financial resources and support we receive from the province of Nova Scotia could sustain,” said Fitzsimmons. “We’ve been having some high-level conversations about the need for more support of our industry, which offers strong return on investment in spin-offs.”

He said the Diamond Classic slot race for 2-year-old pacers did not draw sufficient entries this year, but will return in 2025.

Fitzsimmons concluded that there is cause for optimism at Truro Raceway, despite a few naysayers.

“I believe there is even more upside on the wagering side that we’ll see in the coming years,” he said.

Cheers! Champagne Problems rolls to Kindergarten score

by Jay Bergman for the Hambletonian Society

Champagne Problems had some issues on the final turn, but driver Dexter Dunn steered the favorite clear of traffic and the Tactical Landing—Miss Caviar filly rolled home powerfully to capture the $243,400 Kindergarten Series final for female freshman trotters at The Meadowlands on Saturday night (Nov. 9) in a 1:53.2 mile.

Dunn had the 3-5 favorite leaving from post 7, but she had company to her inside at the outset with Voguish and Todd McCarthy gaining the front into the first turn and forcing Myonlylove into the pocket behind her. McCarthy parked the favorite past the :29.1 opening quarter before yielding the front.

My Honor and driver Åke Svanstedt were parked nearly to the race's midpoint, but they eventually passed Champagne Problems before the :57.2 half-mile marker. The complexion of the race changed in an instant as Voguish made an all-out brush form third past the half to secure the lead and hopefully leave the favorite and the other eight rivals in the dust.

With Voguish going past the three-quarters in 1:25.2, she left R Dutchess and Corey Callahan uncovered. But when Sonmar Pond couldn't keep up with that cover, an opening came for Dunn, and he was able to steer Champagne Problems off the pylons and angle wide coming into the homestretch.

Voguish tried to maintain her advantage, but by mid-stretch, it was apparent that Champagne Problems had her collared, with Dunn having pulled the earplugs and gotten the response he expected winning by 1¾ lengths. The Nancy Takter-trained filly won quite handily with R Dutchess getting up late for the second spot. Voguish was active most of the mile and weakened late to finish third. R Charm rallied from the back for fourth.

For Champagne Problems, this was her seventh win in 11 starts in her first year on the racetrack. The victory propelled her career earnings to more than a half-million dollars and gave her free entry into the Goldsmith Maid final. Owned by Rojan Stables, Family Business, Patrick Hoopes and Caviart Farms, Champagne Problems returned $3.20 as the public choice.

"She put her head down and did her job," said Takter, relieved that Champagne Problems was able to get a clear lane in the homestretch.

As for another race (the Goldsmith Maid on Nov. 30) before the stakes season ends, Takter said, "As long as she's healthy, we will be there."

Maryland marvelous in Kindergarten Colt Trot final

by Ray Cotolo for Meadowlands media relations

Odds-on favorite and millionaire Maryland stayed resolute under an intense far-turn blitz and emerged a 1:53.4 winner in the $173,300 Kindergarten Series final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Saturday (Nov. 9) at The Meadowlands.

Leaving from post 2, driver Dexter Dunn floated Maryland into a gap to race fourth to a :28.2 first quarter and waited to make his move. With the tempo slowing to the backside, Dunn pulled from the pylons and punched forward to seize the lead after a :58.1 half.

Monserrate, tracking Maryland's sweep, stayed aggressive on the rim and pushed to eye Maryland through the turn. The pair motored in lockstep past three-quarters in 1:26.2 and stayed sparring on the spin for home. Monserrate downed Maryland by a head early stretch, but Dunn simply raised the whip and held snug lines on his charge in the battle to the finish. Maryland repelled Monserrate and edged away to a half-length win with Durante Hanover, off a ground-saving trip, finishing third and Uno closing from near last for fourth.

"He fights horses off; he's a real racehorse," Dunn said after the race. "He showed his quality in his last two starts — the Breeders Crown — and tonight: a will to win. It's a great quality to have in a champion horse.

"Dave [Miller]'s horse [Monserrate] put up a great fight. My fella, he knew how to win and he wanted to win. I just wanted to get around that last turn safely, but he showed why he's a champion trotting colt this year."

A colt by Chapter Seven out of the Father Patrick mare Crucial, Maryland competes for owners Courant Inc., PCW Racing, Holly Lane Stud East Ltd. and S. Stewart R. Thorn Stable. He has now won six races from nine starts and banked $1,227,696, placing him shy of T C I's single-season earnings record for 2-year-old trotting colts as well as near the all-time earnings record for a trotting 2-year-old set by Snow White back in 2007 when she accrued $1,252,646.

Sent off as the 1-9 favorite, Maryland paid $2.20 to win.

KINDERGARTEN CONSOLATIONS: In the $55,000 Kindergarten consolation for 2-year-old colt and gelding trotters, Net Weight made his third lifetime start a winning one, coming from off the pace to gun down 1-5 favorite Yannick G Kemp as the 2-1 second choice in 1:56.4. The son of Muscle Hill—Air Quote Hanover was driven by Johnathan Ahle and trained by Noel Daley.

Papi's Rocket nipped 2-5 public choice Railroad Station in the $47,700 Kindergarten consolation for 2-year-old colts and geldings on the pace. The 6-5 second choice, a son of Papi Rob Hanover—Real Touch, was piloted by Yannick Gingras and trained by Ron Burke.

A LITTLE MORE: Dave Miller led the driver colony with three winners on the card... Burke led the conditioners with a training triple... There is one huge night of racing left on The Big M's 2024 calendar, as an estimated $2.65 million will be up for grabs on Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night on Saturday (Nov. 30)... All-source handle totaled $2,633,487 on the 14-race program.

New Jersey

Papis Pistol takes aim in Kindergarten conquest

by James Witherite for Meadowlands media relations

Following a lifetime-best 1:49.3 score in his final Kindergarten Series preliminary a week prior, Papis Pistol proved every bit as dominant in Saturday's (Nov. 9) $148,500 Kindergarten final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings at The Meadowlands with a facile 1:50.3 victory.

Driver Andy Miller was content to let the Papi Rob Hanover–Bang Bang colt settle just off the front flight in the race's early stages, floating into a 4-hole tuck as Tom Horn (driven by David Miller) led early before yielding to Manolete (Scott Zeron) just beyond a :27 first quarter. Papis Pistol got the green light from Miller with five-eighths to go, and he brushed authoritatively to the fore approaching the :55.3 half and maintained an uncontested lead through the far turn.

"I was letting him settle a little bit, and then I moved him up the backside," said Miller of his early strategy. "He just cruised along; he was well within himself finishing, too."

After hitting three-quarters in 1:23.1 without a threat in sight and the first-over Attaboychet stalled off the home turn, Papis Pistol kicked clear of Manolete in upper stretch and widened his lead to three lengths at the winning post while in hand. Manolete, sent off as the 3-1 second choice, was a no-match second to the 1-5 favorite; early leader Tom Horn finished third.

"I think [Zeron, with Manolete] was willing to take the best trip and take a shot at me in the lane," Miller said. "But my horse was really strong... I was letting him pace through there. Nobody was getting to my wheel, so I let him go where he was comfortable."

Sam DePinto trains Papis Pistol for Shannon DePinto, Chris Arvanitis and Anthony Perretti. Now a four-time winner from 13 starts, Papis Pistol increased his career earnings to $155,821 with the Kindergarten championship. He paid $2.60 to win.

Rodeo Drive Deo scurries late to win Kindergarten Filly Pace

by Frank Cotolo for Meadowlands media relations

With a four-wide sweep in the stretch, Rodeo Drive Deo – with David Miller at the reins – won the $165,000 Kindergarten Series Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies in 1:50.3 at The Meadowlands on Saturday (Nov. 9).

Strong favorite Rodeo Drive Deo sat cold off the gate as Shes A Streaker and Duration dashed for the early lead. Behind them Youllfindout broke stride and Chakra took over the third spot. Rodeo Drive Deo was fifth in line through the :27.3 first panel while Champagne Room soon rolled out of fourth and brushed to the lead entering the backstretch.

Chakra left the cones aiming to take the lead, but hung, while second-choice Champagne Room showed muscle at the :54.3 half and dismissed all the early competition. Shes A Streaker tried to move boldly with a three-wide move at three quarters in 1:22.2 and Rodeo Drive Deo loomed widest of all from a third-over trip. Full of pace, Rodeo Drive Deo had enough to easily go by her peers and win by two lengths at the beam. Simply Perfect followed the winner to be second and Duration got third. Ronstadt stayed at the pylons and zipped through for fourth.

Rodeo Drive Deo is a daughter of Captainteacherous from the Bettors Delight mare Miss L.A. She won her fourth race from 10 starts and has now earned $312,632 for owners Burke Racing Stable, Weaver Brusceci LLC, Beasty LLC, J and T Silva and Purnel and Libby.

After the race co-owner Jerry Silva said, "I think that she's got the speed and the physical ability to become a great 3-year-old. That's what I'm looking for."

Asked if he was confident about the filly's chances to win her Kindergarten final, Silva said, "You're never confident in a race until you win it. When you win it, you celebrate. That's the way it is. That's the business. I didn't expect her to come from where she came back from. If they have it in them, they make it happen. If they don't have it in them, they just don't have it."

Cool Cat Racing and Deo Volente Farms LLC bred the filly. She paid $3.20 to win.

Faze upsets in Matron filly pace

by James Witherite, editor, Hoof Beats magazine

After winning the Kentucky Golden Rod Series final and finishing third behind Papi Grad in her first Grand Circuit assignment, Faze captured the biggest win of her career to date when she nabbed Rose up the open stretch in the $133,100 Matron Stakes for 2-year-old pacing fillies, held Wednesday (Nov. 13) at Bally's Dover.

Faze and driver Tim Tetrick asserted themselves early, dueling through the first turn with 2-5 favorite Rose (driven by Yannick Gingras) before yielding for the pocket at the end of a :26.4 first quarter. Rose and Faze continued one-two through a :56.1 half before Pilar Hanover mounted a first-over push into second up the backstretch and forced a :28.2 third sectional.

On the final turn, Rose shrugged off Pilar Hanover's challenge, but Faze, poised to pounce up the open stretch turning for home, rallied to collar the favorite up the inside in the final yards to win by a neck in 1:53.1. Lyons Benz (Corey Callahan) finished a ground-saving third, beaten 1¼ lengths.

Nancy Takter trains Faze, who competes as a homebred for Diamond Creek Racing, Farhi Standardbreds and Spreydon Racing. The Sweet Lou—Darlinonthebeach filly has won four of seven career starts, has earned $120,650. As the 7-2 second choice, she returned $9.00 to win.

LUNA LOVEGOOD STROLLS TO MATRON TRIUMPH

After falling short in the finals of the Kentucky Sire Stakes Championship Series and Breeders Crown, Holly Lane Stud East Ltd's Luna Lovegood put it all together in Monday's (Nov. 11) $116,100 Matron Stakes for 2-year-old trotting fillies at Bally's Dover, coasting to a 1:53.2 win over Kendra.

Dexter Dunn floated Luna Lovegood forward from the outside in the compact field of four, and the pair used the entire first turn to advance at the flank of early leader Kendra (driven by Todd McCarthy) before clearing to the lead after a :28.3 first quarter. Once on top, Luna Lovegood remained unchallenged through middle splits of :57.2 and 1:25 before only facing a mild threat from Kendra off the home turn. Luna Lovegood kept to her task through the lane under the mildest of encouragement from Dunn, using a :28.2 final quarter to keep Kendra 1¼ lengths at bay.

Halfadozen (Daniel Dubé) finished third, another 17 lengths behind.

Marcus Melander trains Luna Lovegood, a daughter of Gimpanzee—Southwind Venus with five wins and $246,650 in career earnings from nine starts. As the prohibitive 1-20 favorite, she paid $2.10 to win.

Delaware SIRE STAKES REPORT

'Peyton' wins sixth straight in DSBF filly pace

by Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund

Donna Messick's homebred Little Miss Peyton rolled to her sixth consecutive win, posting a 1:55.1 score in the second of three $20,000 first-round Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund events for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Wednesday (Nov. 13) at Bally's Dover.

Little Miss Peyton and driver Corey Callahan tracked a :28 first-quarter duel between Mornin Merle (driven by Pat Berry) and Im Won Last Wiser (Montrell Teague) before brushing from third to the lead with a circuit to go. After being strung out a bit through a :56.2 half, the Papa Ray—Armbro Cashmere filly rated a :30 third sectional and began to pull away from her six rivals midway on the far turn. Little Miss Peyton handily defeated Mornin Merle by a widening four lengths; Immaculate Inning (Tim Tetrick) circled the stalled cover of Im Won Last Wiser to narrowly claim third.

Les Givens trains Little Miss Peyton, who has won six of her nine career starts and banked $104,062. She paid $2.10 to win.

Givens completed a DSBF double when Bella Artiste and driver Jim Morand scored in a lifetime best 1:55 in the third division. The Badlands Hanover—Arts Bid filly clicked off splits of :28.1, :56 and 1:25.3 before evading pocket rival Tilted Crown (Russell Foster) by 1½ lengths. Banana Cabana (Tony Morgan) finished third.

Nanticoke Racing, Arthur Feeney and Chad Tate campaign Bella Artiste, a four-time winner from nine starts who paid $2.20.

Valentina Station and trainer/driver Eddie Dennis kicked off the DSBF proceedings with a 1:57.1 win in the first division, reeling in Sweet Samsara (David Rearic) by a neck. Proper Lady (Carlo Polisenio) was third.

A daughter of Badlands Hanover—Village Artist, Valentina Station posted her second win in eight starts for owners Rodney Wyatt and Kevin Peck. She returned $2.20 to win.

MELVIN G WINS FIFTH STRAIGHT IN DSBF PRELIM

Sent off the overwhelming 1-20 favorite, Melvin G rolled to a lifetime-best 1:57.2 score — his fifth win in a row — in the second of two $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund (DSBF) first-round preliminary divisions for 2-year-old male trotters on Tuesday (Nov. 12) at Bally's Dover.

In line to Jim Morand, Melvin G pushed forward from post 7 at race's outset and easily cleared Chex Check (driven by Tony Morgan) before completing a :28.3 first quarter. Once in control, the E L Platinum—Jersey Punk gelding maintained an uncontested lead throughout the mile, leading by as many as 4½ lengths through middle splits of :57.4 and 1:27.3 and maintaining a 2¾-length advantage over Chex Check at the winning post. Yale (Art Stafford, Jr.) rallied from far back to finish third.

Les Givens trains Melvin G, a five-time winner from eight starts with $97,437 in earnings, for Legacy Racing of Delaware and Nanticoke Racing. He paid $2.10 to win.

In the first division, Wolfpack Cheddar and driver Corey Callahan evaded Bucky Highway (Pat Berry) by three lengths to break his maiden in 2:00.2. Delaware Xactly (Ross Wolfenden) finished third.

Nick Callahan trains the Anders Bluestone—Filly Cheese Stake gelding, who paid $2.40 to win, for Stuart Chambers Racing, BCJM Inc. and Divine Horse Racing.

LADY BURG BACK ON TRACK WITH DSBF PRELIM SCORE

After gait issues derailed her over the half-mile Harrington Raceway oval, Lady Burg got her bearings back by way of a lifetime-best 2:00.1 win in the second of two $20,000 Delaware Standardbred Breeders' Fund first-round preliminary events for 2-year-old trotting fillies held Monday (Nov. 11) at Bally's Dover.

With trainer Traci Berry making the call to add hobbles to Lady Burg and usual driver Pat Berry at the lines, the filly left enough from the pole position to secure the pocket behind 17-1 shot Indiana Star (driven by Tony Morgan) through a :28.4 opening quarter before angling off the pegs and brushing to the fore with a circuit to go. After rating soft middle fractions of 1:00 and 1:30, the E L Platinum—Comical Dream filly edged away gradually off the home turn to evade a three-wide rally from Marino Bluestone (Jim Morand) by 2½ lengths. Indiana Star, who gapped the pocket turning for home, narrowly held third over Kat's Fancy.

Now a three-time winner from five starts, Lady Burg competes as a homebred for J. Craparotta and P. Berry Racing LLC. She paid $2.80 to win.

The first DSBF split saw 1-2 favorite Song Master and driver Cody Polisenio click off splits of :28.2, :59 and 1:30.1 before withstanding a late charge from Holly Lou (Allan Davis) by a diminishing neck in a career best 2:01.1. Royal Toni (Kim Vincent) finished third after gapping the pocket on the final turn.

Carlo Polisenio trains Song Master, a Glidemaster—Cicada's Song filly with two wins in six starts, for owner/breeder Jane Dunavant. She returned $3 to win.

MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series prelims in the books

Three winners came from a pair of $75,000 divisions of the final preliminary round of the MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series on Friday (Nov. 8) at MGM Yonkers Raceway as Ari Ferrari J took the first split and then Take All Comers and Delayed Hanover dead-heated for the victory in the second flight. Both of the sections were held at the distance of a mile and sixteenth.

Driven by Jason Bartlett, Ari Ferrari J cut the :27.2 quarter in his race, but It's Academic (Yannick Gingras), who was trying to improve to three-for-three in the event, was out and on the move from third before that marker and took charge on the second turn. From there, It's Academic kept the top spot through a :56.3 half and a 1:26.3 three-quarters, but Ari Ferrari J was right on Gingras' helmet the whole way, and Bartlett would send him to the outside on the final bend.

It's Academic clung to a narrow advantage as they passed the mile marker in 1:55.2, but Ari Ferrari J had the momentum and was able to wear down It's Academic to the finish line, defeating him by a half-length in 2:02.2. Ghostly Casper (Pat Lachance) wound up third after an unsuccessful first-over move out of third prior to three-quarters.

The winner of the Bob Miecuna Invitational Trot at Yonkers earlier this year, Ari Ferrari J, a 4-year-old son of Walner bred by M Biasuzzi Stable Inc., is trained by Tony Alagna for owner Ken Jacobs. Ari Ferrari J is a 13-time victor from 44 starts, has earned $1,115,431 and paid $7.90 to win as the 5-2 second choice. The exacta was $11.40 and the trifecta was worth $27.60.

In the other MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series clash, Take All Comers (Jordan Stratton) led the way through fractions of :26.4, :56.4 and 1:25.1 with Delayed Hanover (Bartlett) in the pocket and Chapercraz (Gingras) positioned third. Gingras fired Chapercraz first-over on the way to three-quarters, but he was stymied by Take All Comers on the last turn and into the lane.

While Take All Comers was able to fend off Chapercraz, he did come off the pylons in the stretch, and that gave Bartlett room to pounce with Delayed Hanover. Once he had the space, Delayed Hanover had enough time and trot to get up and tie Take All Comers for top honors, with Chapercraz three-quarters-of-a-length back in third. The time of 2:01 flat was just two-fifths-of-a-second off Arch Madness' track record.

Trained by Jim Campbell, Take All Comers was bred by owner Runthetable Stables with Chelsea Batelli. The victorious 6-year-old Creatine gelding made his 19th appearance in the winner's circle, has put away $953,886 and returned $2.50 to win as the favorite. Take All Comers led a $13.40 exacta and a $34 trifecta.

A 6-year-old Southwind Frank stallion, Delayed Hanover, who was sent off at 16-1, is trained by John McDermott for owner Reid Wissner. He has a summary of 20-13-15 from 83 outings, has banked $746,042 and paid $10 to win. With Delayed Hanover on top, he keyed a $35.40 exacta and a $93.00 trifecta.

Tonight's (Nov. 15) program at MGM Yonkers Raceway will feature the $250,000 MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series final. As was the case this week, the final will be contested at a mile and a sixteenth.

NEW FACES EMERGE WITH VICTORIES IN MGM GRAND PRIX PACING SERIES

There were no repeaters from round 1 in the second leg of the MGM Grand Prix Pacing Series on Monday night (Nov. 11) at MGM Yonkers Raceway as Adam Twelve, American Dealer N and Desperate Man got the job done in the trio of $50,000 splits.

In the first division Adam Twelve, with Jason Bartlett in the bike, led through fractions of :27.1, :56.4 and 1:24.2 on his way to a one-length victory in 1:51.3. Act Fast (Yannick Gingras) was second from the pocket and Rocknroll Runa A (Larry Stalbaum) was game from first-over and wound up in the third position.

Per Engblom trains Adam Twelve, a 4-year-old gelding by Luck Be Withyou, for owners Nicholas Callahan, Yorwollahan Racing Team, Gregory Godbout and Robert Aerenson. This was his 17th career victory; he has now earned $350,637 and he paid $3.80 to win as the favorite. He keyed a $20.80 exacta and an $83.50 trifecta.

Typhoon Banner N (George Brennan) was on top at the :27.1 quarter, :57.2 half and 1:24.3 three-quarters in the next section. Behind him, favored Seven Colors (Jason Bartlett) had to go three-wide from second-over coming off the third turn to get around the stalled cover of Dunkin' (Jim Marohn, Jr.), which gave American Dealer N (Anthony Napolitano) room to get to the outside from the pocket on the final bend.

Through the lane Typhoon Banner N was game, but American Dealer N was able to wear him down and also held off several closers to score by a neck in 1:53. Typhoon Banner N was the runner-up and Seven Colors finished in the third position.

A 7-year-old American Ideal stallion, American Dealer N is trained by Linda Toscano for owners Enviro Stables Ltd. and Ken Jacobs. He made his 32nd appearance in the winner's circle, has banked $810,076 and returned $21.40 to win as a 9-1 offering. He was atop a $164.50 exacta and a $536 trifecta.

The three opening round victors – Coaches Corner, El Rey and Nandolo N – all drew in the final flight, and Coaches Corner (Bartlett) led the way early before he was passed by El Rey (David Miller) beyond the 27 second quarter-mile marker. Hot on El Rey's heels was Desperate Man (Matt Kakaley) and Desperate Man became the third leader en route to the :54.2 half-mile station.

Going to the 1:22.2 three-quarters, Coaches Corner swung out first-over from the third spot, but Desperate Man was determined on the front-end and hit the wire three-quarters of a length ahead of Coaches Corner in a 1:50.4 mile. El Rey was the third-place finisher.

Desperate Man is a 6-year-old gelded son of Shadow Play, and Hunter Oakes is the trainer for owner Kathy Cecchin. Desperate Man posted the 27th triumph of his life and has now put away $1,476,274. He paid $7.10 to win as a 5-2 offering and led a $14 exacta and a $21.40 trifecta.

With two legs now complete, the MGM Grand Prix Pacing Series is on a break until round 3 on Dec. 9. The $250,000 final is on Dec. 16, and leg 3 and the final will be at the distance of a mile and a sixteenth.

Tonight (November 15), Yonkers will host the $250,000 MGM Grand Prix Trotting Series final. That race is the eighth of 10 dashes on the program and will go a mile and a sixteenth.

Here's how the field will line up: 1-Bestfriend Volo, 2-Ghostly Casper, 3-Delayed Hanover, 4-Ari Ferrari J, 5-Take All Comers, 6-It's Academic, 7-Chapercraz, 8-Pappardelle.

MGM Yonkers Raceway is operating on a Monday through Friday live racing schedule with post time each night at 7 p.m. (EST).

Five million reasons to check out The Big M Saturday feature

It would be hard to find a stronger field of horses anywhere to rival those that will get in behind the gate Saturday (Nov. 16) night at The Meadowlands in the featured $40,000 preferred handicap for trotters, in which, several of the competitors will be prepping for the Nov. 30 FanDuel Championships Open Trot.

Of the seven horses in the field, five have lifetime bank accounts that are in excess of $1 million, topped by the leading horse in the older trotting division this season – and current eighth-ranked horse in the weekly Hambletonian Society/Breeders

Crown Standardbred Poll – Winner's Bet, who will start out at 2-1 on the morning-line from post 4 in the 10th race.

The Nancy Takter trainee is in the midst of a stakes streak having taken the Hill Memorial, Caesars and Breeders Crown in his last three starts. Dexter Dunn, who guided six Breeders Crown winners three weeks ago at The Big M to give him the inside track on a fifth Dan Patch Driver of the Year Award in the last six years, will be in the sulky. He currently sits atop the North American money-earnings drivers' list with $15.6 million.

Periculum (5-2) is the leading money-winning horse in the older male trotting divisions this year, having hit the board in 12 of 15 seasonal starts, with his big victory coming in the Maple Leaf Trot. The Marcus Melander student, who will leave from post 7, will be driven by defending Dan Patch Driver of the Year Scott Zeron.

Steele Memorial winner M-M's Dream, off a third-place finish in the Breeders Crown Mare Trot, will start out at 5-1 from post 1 for driver Dave Miller and trainer Ron Burke. Oh Well (6-1, post 5, Todd McCarthy, Melander), the 2022 Mohawk Million champion, and Hillextotic (8-1, post 6, Yannick Gingras, Todd Luther), the 2023 Dayton Derby winner, round out the field's quintet of seven-figure standouts.

2-YEAR-OLDS ON PARADE: In addition to the dash with the five millionaires, there will also be three divisions of the New Jersey Garden State for trotters and two divisions of the Home Grown for pacers on Saturday's card. Purses for the five dashes for 2-year-olds total $258,000. Two of the races will be non-wagering events and take place before the betting card. Post time is 5 p.m.

ONE MORE HUGE NIGHT: The Meadowlands is known for its big-event programs, and with the Breeders Crown added to the mix this year, The Big M has already played host to Meadowlands Pace Night, Hambletonian Day and the Crown.

The last of the "Fab 2024" takes place on Saturday (Nov. 30), on Fall Final Four/FanDuel Championships Night.

Here are the eight major events that will take place that evening (with estimated purses that total $2.65 million):

- $400,000 Governor's Cup (2YOC&GP)
- $400,000 Three Diamonds (2YOFP)
- $400,000 Valley Victory (2YOC>)
- $400,000 Goldsmith Maid (2YOFT)
- $350,000 FanDuel Open Pace
- $350,000 FanDuel Open Trot
- $175,000 FanDuel Open Mare Pace
- $175,000 FanDuel Open Mare Trot

Dexter Dunn is the heavy favorite for Driver of the Year. But who is going to be the Trainer of the Year? It's wide open, which makes Nov. 30 even more compelling as a big day by a number of trainers could make their case to take home the TOTY hardware.

Similarly, Twin B Joe Fresh, who, by the way, is in the fourth qualifier Saturday afternoon at The Meadowlands, presumably to get ready to defend her FanDuel Open Mare Pace title, seems to have locked up Horse of the Year honors, but many of the other divisional honors in the sport could be decided on the final night of November.

BIG FIELDS, BIG OPPORTUNITIES: There are many reasons that The Meadowlands is the destination for horseplayers around the world every weekend. The extra attention to the players is why The Big M has been the No. 1 track in standardbred racing for almost half a century.

This weekend, the mile oval will offer players 130 betting interests tonight and 129 more on Saturday, for an average field size of 9.25 starters per race.

The Meadowlands is known for big fields. With 10 horses on the gate and a mile track, the chance exists for players of all bankroll sizes to make big scores.

Big-track excitement. Big fields. Big pools. Low takeouts. Low minimums. Add it all up and the chance for large payoffs are there.

BIG PAYDAYS: Those with winning tickets Friday (Nov. 8) in the 20-cent Pick-5 were smiling all the way to the windows as they collected $1,106.70 despite a sequence that saw two winning favorites and just one winner that went off at odds of over 9-2.

Later that night, there was just one shrewd player that took down the 20-cent Survivor Pick-7. With a ticket that only needed the first four winners, that payoff was a handsome $4,202.78.

Flying Tiger didn't shock players when he won the 14th race as the 4-5 favorite, but did top an eyebrow-raising payout in the 10-cent Hi-5 of $6,526.99. The odds of the horses finishing second through fifth were 29-1, 12-1, 41-1 and 23-1, respectively.

On Saturday, the Pick-5 returned $1,205.88 as a 28-1 shot in the first was followed by four winners who went off at 5-2 or less.

Fifty-cent Pick-4 bettors got both ends of the payout spectrum, as the Early edition of the wager returned a measly $3.65, while the Late P4 was a totally different kettle of fish, returning $1,902.50.

GIVE TO A GREAT CAUSE: It's time for the annual Toys for Tots drive at The Meadowlands.

Beginning Friday (Nov. 29), all are welcome to donate new, unwrapped toys for kids in need every day until Friday (Dec. 13), when the United States Marines Toys for Tots reception takes place.

SEE THE PAST MASTERS: Come and see a great classic rock and roll show as The Past Masters perform live in Trackside on Saturday (Dec. 7).

Come enjoy live music, horse racing and food and drink specials.

The music begins at 7 p.m. and the show is free to attend.

THE SKED: Racing continues at The Meadowlands every Friday and Saturday. Post time for the first race is 6:20 p.m., but before that, check out the live pregame show with news, notes and selections from the Sam McKee Memorial Broadcast Set at 5:45 p.m.

Catch The Big M's "A"-team of Jessica Otten and Dave Little all weekend long. Joining the team, providing interviews from the back paddock, will be Jenna Otten, the handicapper and analyst from Ohio's Scioto Downs.

WATCH IT: The Meadowlands is not only the most popular nighttime signal in harness racing, but in all of horse racing, regardless of breed.

For those who want to watch and wager on Big M dashes, it's hard to imagine their local simulcast or Off-Track Betting venue wouldn't offer it. But in case they don't or you'd rather stay at home, check out your favorite ADW (advance deposit wagering site), such as racing.fanduel.com. Another way to view the action is to go to the Roberts Television Network (rtn.tv) site.

FA-REEE! To show appreciation to its loyal fan base, The Meadowlands offers free programs on every race of every race card on its website.

Nominations for Caretaker of the Year now accepted

Nominations are now being accepted for the 2024 Caretaker of the Year. The award, sponsored by Art Zubrod and Leah Cheverie's Fair Island Farm in conjunction with the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA), recognizes the unsung heroes of the sport: The caretakers who maintain the health and welfare of the horses on a daily basis.

Any caretaker working for any stable or farm in North America is eligible to be honored as the Fair Island Farm Caretaker of the Year. All that is needed to nominate is an email or letter that consists of 200 WORDS MINIMUM from an individual or group detailing the skills and special qualities of the caretaker.

The Fair Island Farm Caretaker of the Year will receive a cash prize of $2,500 as well as transportation costs to the USHWA Dan Patch Awards Banquet, presented by Caesars Entertainment, in Orlando, FL on Sunday night (Feb. 23, 2025), where he or she will be recognized and presented with a trophy. The winner will also enjoy a two-night stay at Rosen Centre, host hotel for the USHWA activities, as well as two complimentary dinner tickets. All nominated caretakers will receive a certificate recognizing their accomplishments.

"Leah and I are honored to continue the tradition of recognizing caretakers and the hard work they do on a daily basis," said Zubrod. "And it is especially gratifying to honor one most-deserving person as the Caretaker of the Year."

Initially titled the Groom of the Year Award when first presented in 1982, the honor was instituted as a result of a suggestion made by Delvin Miller at the annual Harness Tracks of America meeting when he received HTA's Stanley F. Bergstein Messenger Award. Previously sponsored annually by HTA and Hanover Shoe Farms, the tradition was continued in 2015 by MGM Northfield Park and USHWA, with Fair Island Farm coming on board in 2019.

"The U.S. Harness Writers Association is once again pleased to be able to honor the Caretaker of the Year in our Dan Patch Awards presentation," said USHWA president Michael Carter. "Great thanks to Art and Leah for their sponsorship of this award through their Fair Island Farm. The caretakers are so important to this sport and it is especially gratifying to be able to work with Fair Island Farm in the recognition of these outstanding individuals."

The winner will be chosen by an eight-person selection committee comprised of USHWA members, all of whom are former caretakers: Tim Bojarski (chair), Kim Rinker, Tom Charters, Moira Fanning, Jessica Hallett, Dean Hoffman, Mary McDermott and Shawn Wiles.

All nomination letters and emails must be received and/or postmarked by Friday (Dec. 6, 2024), and sent to chairman Bojarski at a159star@gmail.com or mailed to Tim Bojarski, 7523 Maple Road, Akron, NY 14001.

U.S. Harness Writers Association

Barry Lefkowitz named as USHWA's Member of the Year

Barry Lefkowitz, past president of the U.S. Harness Writers Association (USHWA) and its present chair of the board, with a strong history of service to the Association, especially in the financial realm, and still working hard on future improvements, has been selected as the USHWA's Member of the Year (also known as "USHWAn of the Year") through a poll of former award winners.

Lefkowitz was first exposed to the sport at Monticello Raceway at age 9, and it was a "Catskills Connection" that helped establish him in the sport: Andy Furman got him to write for local papers in the Brooklyn area, and Communicators Hall of Famer Allen Finkelson facilitated his first racetrack hiring in the sport, at Jackson Raceway in outstate Michigan. Lefkowitz has also worked for Scioto Downs, Windsor Raceway, Batavia Downs (as general manager), and perhaps most notably at Roosevelt Raceway, where he oversaw the massive effort to stage the prestigious Roosevelt International Trot, "down to dealing with Customs and having the track cleared when the quarantined foreign horses worked out."

After graduating Kingsborough Community College and attending Brooklyn College before entering racing, Lefkowitz eventually turned to the insurance business as his profession, and is still successful in that endeavor. His strong sense of finances, of streamlining expenses and "reaching out" to produce additional funds, is what he thinks has been his major contribution to USHWA, as the Association's finances have enjoyed an unprecedented boom period. He helped initiate these actions when Association treasurer; Lefkowitz is one of only a few persons to hold five different officer positions in USHWA. He has been a member of USHWA for 30 years, and has served as director for 17 of those years; besides his board participation, he has represented the New York City, Ohio, Western New York, and Delaware Valley chapters as their director.

A major project Lefkowitz has taken charge of is nearing completion: the compilation of all the annual divisional racehorse winners and Trotter/Pacer/Horse of the Year, along with their trainers and drivers, back to the first elections in 1947. A labor of over two years, the assembled data will be used to blend the champions of yesteryear with the stars of today.

Lefkowitz will be honored at USHWA's Dan Patch Awards banquet, presented by Caesars Entertainment, to be held Sunday (Feb. 23, 2025) at the Rosen Centre in Orlando, FL. Sponsorship information for the banquet can be obtained from Shawn Wiles at swiles@rwcatskills.com; advertising in the souvenir journal can be arranged through Kim Rinker at trottrink@aol.com. More information about the banquet, including tickets and associated USHWA meetings that weekend will soon be available at www.usharnesswriters.com; this site already has a link for room reservations within its story of Caesars Entertainment presenting the Dan Patch Awards banquet.

The United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) is the leading group of communicators about the standardbred horse. USHWA conducts the official annual balloting for the sport's most prestigious honors: induction to the Hall of Fame and Communicators Hall of Fame, along with the selection of the Horse of the Year, Trotter and Pacer of the Year, and the leading divisional horses of each season. Each year USHWA hosts the Dan Patch Awards banquet, honoring the best and brightest performers in North American harness racing. This banquet is the Association's principal source of funding, and with generous financial support from the harness racing and breeding industry, USHWA is able to host the banquet at a world-class facility in a world-class manner.
