Fall Final Four and TVG Finals in spotlight as last major stakes night of year

With something still left to play for in some divisions, here is how I see the big races shaping up on Saturday at The Meadowlands.

by Brett Sturman

BETWEEN THE LINES

with BRETT STURMAN

Race 4 – Valley Victory final

FAST AS THE WIND has improved notably in recent weeks for Alagna and Dunn and looks like the one to beat in this compact but competitive final for 2-year-old colt trotters. His second-place finish in the Breeders Crown final three back was amazing considering the impossible trip, and he since followed that up with a well-earned sweep in the recent Kindergarten races, including last week with the big money on the line. COACH K HANOVER had every chance two back to get to #1 and couldn't, last week that same rival was able to pass him late up the inside. PRETENDER loomed last out when he was impeded by #4 in the stretch and broke in an incident that I don't think connections were so happy about; intriguing play provided he offers similar odds as last week. SLAY closed well from last up the inside to pass all but one in the Matron at Dover. THREEPOINTBLUECHIP was the winner of that Matron race in springing the mild upset on the front end and it came on the barn change from McGinnis to King.

Picks: Fast as the Wind, Pretender, Threepointbluechip

Race 5 – TVG Mares Pace final

GIA'S SURREAL has gone a couple of big miles here earlier in the season and now returns off back-to-back wins in the preferred at Woodbine Mohawk. This has been a career year for driver James MacDonald, and he retains the drive; upset call. ROCKNIFICENT is going to end up being favored for the first time this year over LYONS SENTINEL, and rightfully so. Breeders Crown winner and has won three in a row and it seemed unthinkable a month ago, but if she were to end the year with a win in this race, she would get support for divisional honors. LYONS SENTINEL was so good for so long this year but hasn't been at her best in recent starts; had no excuse in last at Dover when she pounced on a hot pace but was caught by others. PEAKY SNEAKY has definitely been better in the fall but I still think it's a tough task in asking her to win this race; bound to be up close throughout from the rail. WATCH ME NOW N had the length of the stretch to get to Peaky Sneaky last out and couldn't; isn't done any favors from the post draw. Still waiting for signs of life to return for KEEP ROCKIN A.

Picks: Gia's Surreal, Rocknificent, Peaky Sneaky

Race 6 – Goldsmith Maid final

MISSWALNER FASHION has won her last three Meadowlands races by over 12 lengths and might be the "now" horse. She didn't let Breeders Crown elimination winner Lilbitalexis even get close last week en route to a career best win; might be good enough to beat the more accomplished fillies. VENERABLE is a miscue away from potentially looking at Horse of Year honors but rebounded nicely at Dover last out in the Matron in a field she couldn't lose to. Obviously deserves heavy favoritism but I think she can be beat. JOVIALITY S has been going strong since the summer and that was a typical big money driver that Sears delivered in the Breeders Crown to reach against Raised By Lindy in a difficult trip in the slop from post 10. JIGGY JOG S was cooked in that opening panel in the Breeders Crown and has been battle tested. PALERMO HANOVER has surprised on multiple occasions this year; takes back and rallies.

Picks: Misswalner Fashion, Venerable, Joviality S

Race 7 – TVG Mares Trot final

A Breeders Crown win remained elusive for ATLANTA and that's too bad. She did what she could in that race when racing first-over off a :57.2 walk to the half, but the leader held strong. It's back to the rail now off a good qualifier and will win if on her game. A ton of credit to FELICITYSHAGWELL S in that Crown upset, and I don't think it was a fluke. She was loaded with trot in her elimination behind Atlanta the week prior and another aggressive steer will be coming; can repeat. I love when the 3-year-olds give it a try against older, and such is the case with BELLA BELLINI. She took the Crown two back when Altar broke in the stretch and that would have been a great matchup to see otherwise. She crushed last out in the Matron at Dover but would need to be a super filly to win from post 10 against the likes of these. WHEN DOVESCRY had no shot in the Crown and has raced off the pace in her last pair; I think Miller has to push her early here in a race she certainly figures in. RAMONA HILL took action in her last race and is another that was a victim of the pace; remains winless in 6 starts this year.

Picks: Atlanta, Felicityshagwell S, Ramona Hill

Race 8 – Governors Cup final

HAMMERING HANK has been awesome in his last pair and has been extremely well regarded going back to the Breeders Crown when he was bet down to 3-5 favoritism in his elimination over eventual elimination and final winner, Monte Miki. He won as pleased against many of these last week in the Kindergarten final; a talented colt. LOUKES PERRY showed speed in his Crown elimination and was shuffled; looks like there could be real potential here. MARKET BASED proved better than FOUREVER BOY in that four-horse Matron field last out; I was surprised the latter was favored in that race. EARLY ACTION was no match for #4 for last week but still figures for a share despite that and the outside post; always is in the mix. MAC'S MARVEL has outraced his odds in his last pair; heading in the right direction for Harder.

Picks: Hammering Hank, Loukes Perry, Market Based

Race 9 – TVG Open Trot final

The complexion of this race has changed somewhat by both

Breeders Crown winners Ecurie D Dk and Jujubee opting to rest, following their respective frenetic schedules. FORBIDDEN TRADE was hard used when brushing to the front past Ecurie D Dk in the Breeders Crown and then took immediate pressure; slated to pick up Dube for live connections. BACK OF THE NECK is deceptively good and should have never been 62-1 in the Breeders Crown; the winner of the Dayton Derby can win this. This is arguably a class drop for AMIGO VOLO; doesn't seem much worse than anyone else. BEADS would have beaten these earlier in the year but he was overrun last week by Dunbar Hall and didn't hold second by much either; I guess I'd be surprised. CHIN CHIN HALL is an interesting player from the rail; excelled here in September against comparable. READY FOR MONI can land a share.

Picks: Forbidden Trade, Back of the Neck, Chin Chin Hall

Race 10 – Three Diamonds final

NIKI HILL looks to put an exclamation point on her season and a win in the Three Diamonds would push her 2-year-old earnings north of $900,000. They were never going to get to her last week and she'll be in a position to control the race however Dunn wants. TREACHEROUS DRAGON took another crack at Niki Hill in the Kindergarten final but was no match late; I think connections would probably be happy running second to that rival again coming out of post 10. SMUGGLE TINA took aim two back against DON'T FENCE ME IN; the latter showed speed last out before tiring in the stretch. ALWAYS GONNA B YOU makes her second start for Holloway and brushed on debut here before tiring; could set her up for more now. JOYRIDE HANOVER has only missed the board once in 10 starts; playable at what should be a big price.

Picks: Niki Hill, Always Gonna B You, Treacherous Dragon

Race 11 – TVG Open Pace Final

Though probably to a smaller extent, there exist similarities between OCEAN ROCK and ALLYWAG HANOVER in the TVG Open Pace as there are to Rocknificent and Lyon's Sentinel in the Mares Pace from race 5, above. The division still likely belongs to Allywag Hanover, but another Ocean Rock win to go along with his recent Breeders Crown triumph over that rival could make things interesting. Save for the Allerage where Ocean Rock was parked to the half in :51.3, he hasn't lost since August 28. He was totally overlooked in the Breeders Crown and shouldn't have been; will get more respect now. There was no disgrace in Allywag Hanover getting beat in the Breeders Crown, but he wasn't as strong last out in the Potomac Pace at Rosecroft when he was never going to get to the winner and was just able to hang on for second. ENAVANT was sneaky good in his Breeders Crown elimination and then most recently won the Potomac Pace with total authority. CATTLEWASH was getting there late in the Breeders Crown and just missed; always playable if the price is there. CATCH THE FIRE steps back up; his best has shown that it would be good enough.

Picks: Enavant, Ocean Rock, Cattlewash

EUROPEAN REPORT

with THOMAS HEDLUND

Walner's brother the favorite in Saturday's Uppfödningslöpning

by Thomas Hedlund

The $315,000 Uppfödningslöpning for 2-year-olds is on Jägersro's race card this Saturday (Nov. 20) and a very interesting trotter has charmed the Swedish harness racing fans during the fall. Riina Rekilä's Tetrack Wania (Muscle Hill—Random Destiny) will enter the Saturday's race as heavy favorite and the 2-year-old half-brother of Walner has showed abilities that most probably will make him hard to stop at Jägersro.

Riina Rekilä will drive the horse, as in most of the horse's starts so far, even though Tetrack Wania was sold to German owners after the elimination win at Jägersro two weeks ago.

"I see no reason to move the horse from Riina, although, of course, I would like to have him on my own farm outside Berlin. Riina knows the horse best and the start in the final of the Uppfödningslöpningen will be his last start for this year and I find no reason to move Tetrack Wania from his usual environment," said the new owner Karin Walter-Mommert to Danish website www.travservice.dk.

Gocciadoro tops in Montegiorgio

Alessandro Gocciadoro-trained Global Trustworthy (Muscle Hill) was best when the final of the $175,000 Gran Premio Palio dei Comuni was held in Montegiorgio, Italy on Sunday (Nov. 14).

Elimination winner Night Brodde seemed to have the race under control in the lead, but from second over, Global Trustworthy finished strongly and disarmed brave first over Akela Pal Ferm shortly before the wire. Global Trustworthy won in 1:54.2.

Face Time Bourbon faces 16 in Paris

Seventeen trotters will gather around the black track of Vincennes on Sunday (Nov. 21) when the first out of four "B-races" ahead of Prix d'Amérique is on the schedule.

The $125,000 Prix de Bretagne over Prix d'Amérique-distance 2,700 meters (1.6 miles) is traditionally the first race on the road towards the big battle in Paris at the end of January and world champion Face Time Bourbon (Ready Cash), who is coming off a nice victory in Italian Lotteria in Naples, doesn't really need to win the race on Sunday, but he is by far the most merited trotter in the field and it will probably be tough to stop him from entering the winner's circle at Vincennes.

Three horses will secure their spot in Prix d'Amérique, respectively, and an interesting factor in the race is that Italian champion Zacon Gio is now trained by Jean-Michel Bazire.

The next B-race is scheduled in Paris on Dec. 12, when the $125,000 Prix du Bourbonnais will be held.

Qualification races for Prix d'Amérique:

- Nov. 21 – $125,000 Prix de Bretagne
Dec. 12 – $125,000 Prix du Bourbonnais
Dec. 26 – $225,000 Criterium Continental (4-year-olds, the winner secures a spot in PdA)
Dec. 26 – $113,000 Prix Tenor de Baune (5-year-olds, the winner secures a spot in PdA)
Jan. 2 – $125,000 Prix de Bourgogne
Jan. 16 – $125,000 Prix de Belgique
Jan. 30 – $1,131,000 Prix d'Amérique

Ampia Mede Sm impressed in Paris

Friday (Nov. 12) night's big headline at Vincennes was the impressive win by Fabrice Souloy-trained Ampia Mede Sm (Ganymede) in $115,000 Prix Marcel Laurent.

The 5-year-old mare has been impressive in several starts for her new trainer and in Prix Marcel Laurent (open for 4- and 5-year-olds) driver Franck Nivard found a position in fifth over. With a half mile to go, the duo attacked three wide and landed outside of leader Ganay de Banville, who was defeated in mid-stretch and Ampia Mede Sm came home in mile rate 1:53.2 over 1.3 miles.

The victory in Prix Marcel Laurent was the Italian bred trotter's sixth consecutive win in France.

Dutch trained best in The Netherlands

The $75,000 Prijs der Giganten at Victoria Park in The Netherlands was on the schedule on Friday (Nov. 12) and Dutch trained Mister F Daag (Conway Hall) managed to disarm strong opponent Vernissage Grif over the home stretch.

Driver Robin Bakker sat behind Paul Hagoort trained Mister F Daag and from post 1 behind the gate, Mister F Daag was sent to the lead. First choice Vernissage Grif was pushed to the lead after 600 meters and Bakker could wait with the attack from the pocket since first over trotter Feydou Seven was beaten with a quarter of a mile to go.

Mister F Daag bested leader Vernissage Grif shortly ahead of the wire and won in a stakes record of 1:55 over 1.3 miles.

GRASSROOTS PERSPECTIVE

with CHRIS LOMON

Koltin Noble hopes he can make racing his career, but he's working on a strong backup plan

by Chris Lomon

Koltin Noble is ready for take-off

The driver from Ohio is a young man with a plan. Or in this instance, plans.

"I love racing and I hope I can do it for a career, but I'm in an alternative school for aviation maintenance," said the 17-year-old Noble, whose standardbred family includes his late grandfather, Hall of Fame driver Sam "Chip" Noble. "I wanted something stable just in case this doesn't work out. I've always been interested in aviation. My grandfather, Chip, had his pilot's license, and his brother is a private pilot. I've always loved planes and wanted to be around them. So, when I had an opportunity to do something with aviation, I jumped at it. My family has been in the sport for a long time, and they have been supportive of me, but they want me to look at other options too. They just really want me to do what I want to do."

These days, his runway, so to speak, is at various racetracks throughout the Buckeye State.

courtesy Koltin Noble

Chip Noble's grandson Koltin Noble in action.

So far, his time, albeit short, in the race bike, has gone well.

His one and only drive from 2020 yielded a second-place finish. This year, he's recorded two wins, four seconds and a third from 11 starts.

"Being out there, it just makes me happy. There isn't much I'd trade for it. I do remember my first drive. I wouldn't say I was nervous, but I also wouldn't say I wasn't. I was fine once I got in the race bike. Every time I'm in the race bike, the feeling is the same. It's a big rush and it always makes me happy."

Noble's biggest successes to date have come courtesy of Ubuntu, a 4-year-old gelded son of Pet Rock, who delivered Noble with his milestone first win.

"It came at Eaton (a half-mile Ohio track)," he said. "I tried to leave out of there with the horse. I wouldn't say I got stung going to the quarter, but I struck front and never looked back. I really like Ubuntu, the horse of my dad's that I've been driving this year. It took a while to figure him out. He's quirky. He's easy to drive, but he's a little wavy. He'll only do what he has to do."

Not that Noble is bothered by those mannerisms.

He's already developed an appreciation for the different skill sets each horse brings to the racetrack.

"That's a really great thing for a young driver. The different they are, the better it is. All that does is teach you more about the sport and what it takes to be successful. I feel like I can drive in different ways. I don't have to just be on the front or in the two-hole. I feel confident coming from the off the pace and I'm just as confident racing on the lead. I think being able to feel comfortable driving wherever you find yourself is a really helpful skill."

Noble has also leaned on some of the encouraging words he's heard along the way, whether they come from family, friends, fellow drivers or horsepeople.

"Love what you do. That's what I've been told by lots of people. And that's exactly what driving is for me. I truly enjoy it. People also talked about being open to learn, to listen to people who want to help you and to pay attention to anything that could help me. You don't know everything and one of the best ways you can move your career along is to educate yourself with as much knowledge as possible. You can always learn something every day."

And that's his mission each time Noble puts his wheels on the racetrack.

With the year soon coming to an end, he's happy with what he's achieved so far, but eager to chase more wins.

"This year, the goal was to just get out there. I didn't really set too many high expectations for myself. I felt lucky to even be there. Going forward, I'll probably start to set more goals for myself, whether that happens to be wins, purse money or state-wise, meaning where I'm racing. So, I guess short-term goals for racing are to just break in as a driver somewhere, whether it's 10 horses a week or 20, that would be a goal within a year. Long term, I'd like to make it somewhere and be in the top three in the standings. I think it really comes down to that I just want to do well."

Whether that happens to be in aviation school or piloting pacers and trotters, Noble is happy with where he's at in life.

He also feels fortunate to have found a common bond between the two callings.

"I don't have any hobbies outside of horses and planes. Those are my two biggest passions. They are both big adrenaline rushes. The acceleration part of both is really exciting. When you are getting ready for take-off, when you are speeding down the runway, that's a huge rush. And when you line your horse up on the gate and start to pick up speed, it's a similar type of feeling."

Love what you do, right?

"That's the big thing that truly matters. I'm really having a great time being able to drive, being able to push myself and trying to get better each and every day. I wake up each morning and I feel happy."

David Aiken hoping to claim his second Inter Dominion title in 36 years

The highly-respected horseman is hoping to build on his record of 15 Inter Dominion finalists when he and son, Josh, take four horses from their Nagambie base in Victoria to NSW for this year's event which starts on Nov. 27.

by Adam Hamilton

The Inter Dominion is the biggest event Down Under and it was love at first sight for highly-respected horseman David Aiken.

Wind the clock back to 1985 where the champion of the time, Preux Chevalier, won the Melbourne Inter Dominion final at Moonee Valley in front of almost 45,000 fans. It's the biggest modern-day crowd Moonee Valley has housed and remember, this is the racetrack which still plays host to one of the world's great thoroughbred races, the Cox Plate.

Aiken was a relative "whipper snapper" when he took his pacer Toby Duane down for the Inter Dominion, consisting of three compulsory rounds of qualifying heats into a final – all run in the space of just two weeks.

Stuart McCormick

David Aiken said of his four Inter Dominion hopefuls, he thinks Max Delight (shown winning the Victoria Cup at Bendigo with Chris Alford in the sulky) is his best chance.

"Imagine what a buzz it was making the final at my first attempt and then running fifth," Aiken said. "The Inter Dominion was everything you dreamed of as a trotter at the time and still is the ultimate to me."

"I'll never forget the feeling of going out on the track with Toby Duane for that final. The horses were welcomed like rock stars and then there was a pause and they introduced Gammalite. He was having his last start and he was not only a champion, but a real people's horse. I heard the crowd erupt and I was way over in the back straight."

Gammalite won 94 races, including becoming the first back-to-back Inter Dominion winner, and banked a staggering $1,386,480 (AUD) way back in the early to mid 1980s.

Aiken went so close to winning his first Inter Dominion nine years later when he trained and drove North American pacer Ultra Jet to run second to Weona Warrior at Harold Park in Sydney.

"He went great. It took a stunning drive from the man they call the Inter Dominion 'King', Brian Hancock, to beat us that night. He was a wonderful horse, Ultra Jet," Aiken said.

"I had some good contacts in the U.S. and am still really close to many of the top trainers over there now and that helped me when it came to Ultra Jet's owner Steve Finklestein picking a trainer Down Under."

"I've got so much to thank Ultra Jet for, he started a lifelong friendship for me with Steve. I've still got horses for him now. Just recently I trained Leonidas for him over here before he went across and started doing so well in the States."

Aiken had to wait 30 years from his first attempt with Toby Duane to finally win his first Inter Dominion final.

"After Ultra Jet, I thought, 'Gee I'm getting close now,' but it wasn't as easy as that ... but that's the great thing about the Inter Dominion, I guess," he said. "When I finally did (win) with Lennytheshark (2015 in Perth), it was so incredibly special, made even more so by having most of my family across there with me."

"Lennytheshark was a great horse. I've had some really good ones, but he's the best. He was so talented, so versatile and so brave."

Aiken said he is hoping to build on his Inter Dominion record of 15 finalists and that one win when he and son, Josh, take four horses from their Nagambie base in Victoria to NSW for this year's Inter Dominion, starting at Menangle on Nov. 27.

The series moves from Menangle to Bathurst on Dec. 1, then to Newcastle on Dec. 5 before the Grand Finals (for pacers and trotters) back at Menangle on Dec. 11.

Leading his charge is recent upset Victoria Cup winner Max Delight, but he'll be supported in the pacing division by Malcolms Rhythm and Sirletic. The Aikens are also taking talented mare Aldebaran Crescent up for the trotting series.

"None of mine are top seeds, but they are good enough to put themselves in the right spot and win good races with the right run. They've shown that," he said.

"I'd lean to Max Delight. He's beaten King Of Swing in the Victoria Cup recently and King is a clear favorite to win the Inter Dominion final."

Josh Aiken chipped-in to disagree: "Nah, I think Malcolms Rhythm is our best hope. He'll thrive on four runs in a fortnight and when they get to the 3,009 metres of the final, he'll love every step of it."

But the last word belongs to David Aiken: "Josh might be a bit biased there. He's going to drive Malcolms Rhythm through the series."

Given David Aiken's many friends in the U.S., he won't be short of people cheering if he can get one or more through the Grand Finals.

#BETONHARNESS

HOW MUCH DID YOU BET TODAY?

Pelling and Nifty together again

by Bob Heyden

If Test Of Faith is named Horse of the Year and either Bella Bellini or Venerable is runner-up – or vice versa – it will be trainers Brett Pelling (Test Of Faith) and Nifty Norman (Bella Bellini, Venerable) right at the top, just like they were in their final year working together in 2005 with Horse of the Year Rocknroll Hanover. They were a dominant and inseparable pair from 1988-2005 winning more races and money in that span than any others at the Meadowlands.

If Test Of Faith is named HOY that will mean her driver David Miller will have had a HOY in three straight decades – No Pan Intended in 2003 and Always B Miki in 2016, prior.

If Test Of Faith prevails it will make some history not done in 45 years. It would mark two consecutive HOY winners sired by a 20-something stallion. Art Major sired Test Of Faith. Last year's HOY Tall Dark Stranger was sired by Bettors Delight. Both are 22. The last time two 20-something sires had the HOY consecutively was in 1975 and 1976. Stars Pride was 28 when he had Savoir in 1975 and Bye Bye Byrd was 21 when he had Keystone Ore in 1976.

If the two sophomore fillies (Test Of Faith and Bella Bellini) do indeed go 1-2 it will be Deja Vu from exactly 20 years ago when Bunny Lake and Syrinx Hanover filled out the top two spots – a pacing sophomore filly (Bunny Lake) over the trotting counterpart in 2021.

One more HOY note for 2021, none of the following outstanding sires has produced a Horse of the Year: Artsplace, Western Hanover, Muscle Hill, Somebeachsomewhere, Nevele Pride, Captaintreacherous and Chapter Seven.

Pelling on '21

Brett Pelling on his 2021 season: "I want to stay around 300 starts a year. I am comfortable there. We have had a great year with likely two divisional winners and maybe Horse of the Year. My earnings per start is number one in North America. That is the number I am most happy about."

Jujubee's pep talk

Jujubee is heading to North Carolina for the winter at Chris Coyle's Olive Branch Farm. Among his neighbors there will be Sam Bowie's Hot Mess Express.

"He wasn't eating well the week of the Breeders Crown," said Jujubee's trainer Greg Wright, Jr. "I had a pep talk with him telling him ONE MORE TIME! I think it worked."

Odd Harrisburg stats

Here's a couple of odd stats out of this year's Standardbred Horse Sale Company auction in Harrisburg, PA: Archangel was the only sire with two Super Final winners in Canada, yet had just one yearling in the sale.

Jujubee is the outstanding sophomore trotting colt of 2021, yet his sire Creatine had no yearlings in the sale.

Creatine, the horse nobody wanted

It didn't start out well. Creatine, a foal of 2010, arrived in Donny Richards' barn in Maine in bad shape later in his yearling season about to turn 2. Now in his 80s, a legend in Maine revered by many, Richards remembers it all.

"He came in and we put him in the end stall. Chris Bowden – Adam's brother – brought him in for Diamond Creek. He didn't look very good... not at all. His right hind was sagging bad. It turned out he had an infection down lower in that area that was affecting him something awful. I only knew him as 'that Andover Hall'."

"One day Chris asked me if I wanted him. He's yours if you want him, he said. No thanks. I wouldn't even take him as a gift. I said, 'I would rather train him and charge you a training bill than own him myself.' I continued to work with him and jog him. Mostly on the sand track. I had to build up his back hind end. In all the time I spent with him he never made a break. I never timed him at all the first four months."

"One day, I took a watch and he went in 2:20. First time I ever timed him. It must have been around April. Next time it was around 2:12. I still didn't know his name at this point."

"I took him to the track one day and he worked in 2:02 and I came back and told one of the guys in the barn what he had just done. 'You better double check. I think your stopwatch is busted' was what I heard. But someone ELSE was timing him too and got him in 2:01.4. Now I knew for sure that he was all right – and I knew his name, too."

"We didn't have a trainer in mind for him because nobody ever thought he would turn out like this. So we called Bob Stewart and he took him. He called soon after and told us he was better than anything he had. He was entered at the Red Mile soon after and I was just hoping he would get a piece of it, it was a stake."

He WON! Mike Lachance drove him and was very impressed.”

Did you ever think this colt would go on and win the Kentucky Futurity, the Breeders Crown and $2.1 million?

“No. Certainly not early on. But we knew that he would hold his own and he turned out to be a great one – one who sired Jujubee this year.”

Welcome back, Ambassador

Ambassador Hanover will race at 4. Nobody was more unlucky than he in the Breeders Crown.

Dunn deal?

Can Dexter Dunn make it three for three, as in three full seasons in North America and three Driver of the Year titles?

The one

Trainer Jack Darling bought one yearling at Harrisburg, the sister to his current standout Bulldog Hanover.

Pinske's 17

Team Pinske bought seven in Pennsylvania and will go south with 17 babies heading into 2022 overall.

Oh, brother

When Ocean Rock crossed the wire first in the Breeders Crown, it gave brothers Rockin Image and Rockin Amadeus each a Breeders Crown credit. The 2015 Crown winner Freaky Feet Pete is the richest son of Rockin Image.

Tetrack turns 40

Tim Tetrack turns 40 on Nov. 22. Eight of the top 10 money seasons in the sport's history belong to him.

A lot can change in 15 years

What can change in a measly decade and a half? In Hall Of Famer Joe DeFrank's world quite a bit. In 1965 at Freehold, he was the race secretary and the track announced claiming races from $800 to $3,500 would be held. Fifteen years later, he was the man behind the very first $1 million dollar race won by Niatross and the first $2 million event taken by Land Grant just three weeks apart in the summer of 1980.

Ryder's parade of pacing fillies

Chris Ryder has had a parade of great pacing fillies. Niki Hill added to Party Girl Hill from just last year on top of all-time greats I Luv The Nitelife and Put On A Show. And don't forget the single-season, million-dollar winner Cathedra Dot Com (2001). Ryder also had Mystical Sunshine, a trotting lady that won consecutive Breeders Crowns.

James MacDonald on 2021: “It’s been a terrific year”

by Ken Weingartner / USTA media relations manager

James MacDonald is enjoying a career year and hopes to keep the good times rolling when he visits The Meadowlands for Saturday’s (Nov. 20) stakes-laden card featuring TVG Series championships for pacers and trotters as well as the Fall Four for 2-year-olds.

MacDonald is the leading driver in Canada, where he is No. 1 in both purses and wins, with C$6.39 million and 248, respectively. He holds a C$1.5 million advantage over second-place Sylvain Filion in earnings and 17-win edge over Colin Kelly as he attempts to become only the third driver to top Canada in both categories in a dozen years.

His earnings are already a lifetime high by more than a million dollars and his victory total is the third best in his 13-year career. His triumphs include the Maple Leaf Trot with Lindy The Great, the Battle of Waterloo with Betterhavemymoney, a Matron Stakes with Threepointbluechip, and Champlain Stakes with Silver Label and Adare Castle. In addition, he won three Ontario Sire Stakes Super Finals and 18 Ontario Sire Stakes Gold divisions.

“As things have kind of slowed down a bit, I’ve had a little more time to reflect on it, and it’s been a dream come true,” the 35-year-old MacDonald said about his campaign. “I always kind of set goals for myself, but in the back of my head, there is always the ultimate goal – you want to be the top driver in Canada. You want to make the most money, win the most stakes races.

“This year, I’ve been able to drive some really great horses and for so many great owners and trainers. Every time I go behind the gate, it seems like I’ve got a good shot to win. I’m really thankful for the great year I’ve had, for sure.

“Any of these guys up here if they get the right horses to drive are going to do well and win lots of races. When you’re hot like this, you win the ones you’re supposed to, but then you fall into some other ones that maybe you normally wouldn’t because your confidence is so high. It’s just like a hockey player or a baseball player; when you’re feeling it, you’re feeling it. Even if I’ve had a bad night, the next night has been amazing. I’ve been able to avoid the big slump.

On Saturday, MacDonald will drive Threepointbluechip in the $413,600 Valley Victory Stakes for 2-year-old male trotters and Gia’s Surreal in the $175,000 TVG Series championship for female pacers.

Threepointbluechip, owned by TheStable.ca group co-founded by MacDonald’s brother Anthony, heads to the Valley Victory off his triumph as a $20,000 supplemental entry in the Matron at Dover Downs. The colt, racing for trainer Jim King Jr. in the U.S., won by a half-length over Slay in a career-best-equaling 1:55.

A son of Walner out of Dunk The Donato, Threepointbluechip is a half-brother to millionaire world-record-holder Plunge Blue

Dave Landry

Leading Canadian driver James MacDonald.

Chip. He has won three of six races and $103,845 since beginning his career in late August.

“Anthony did such a great job with this horse,” MacDonald said. “He always kind of looked the part, but he was real immature. He was physically ready to qualify in June, but mentally he wasn’t there. He made breaks, and even when he stayed trotting, he was looking for ways out of it. Anthony gave him some more time and brought him back and it’s really paying off for him. Now, every time he’s on the track his ears are up and he wants to go. I expect good things from him.”

The six-horse Valley Victory field also includes Kindergarten Classic Series winner and Breeders Crown runner-up Fast As The Wind.

In the TVG Series championship for female pacers, MacDonald will drive Gia’s Surreal for trainer/co-owner Jim Graham against a group that includes Breeders Crown champ Rocknificent and multiple Grand Circuit stakes winner Lyons Sentinel.

Gia’s Surreal, by So Surreal out of Nancy Irene, has won seven of 28 races this year and $226,264. She is owned by Graham, Edward Peron, Lee Winters, and Thomas Mariano. MacDonald took over as the mare’s driver after Bob McClure suffered a broken arm in an accident earlier this month.

MacDonald and Gia’s Surreal teamed for back-to-back wins in the fillies-and-mares preferred at Woodbine Mohawk Park in their most recent outings. Earlier this season, the 5-year-old finished second to Rocknificent in the Allerage Farms Mare Pace and third behind Lyons Sentinel and Rocknificent in the Milton Stakes.

“I would much rather be going to drive Threepointbluechip and watching my buddy Bob drive her, but I’m happy to fill in while he’s out and hopefully he’s back in no time,” MacDonald said. “She’s just a good mare. She’s coming in brave. We’ll see what happens.

“I’m just happy to be there competing on the biggest stage and hopefully I can have some luck and finish the year off with a bang.”

Overall, Saturday’s stakes action at the Big M features six horses ranked in the sport’s Top 10: Niki Hill, Bella Bellini, Lyons Sentinel, Venerable, Allywag Hanover, and Atlanta. Three-year-old Bella Bellini, a Breeders Crown champion, is facing older foes in the TVG Series final for female trotters.

Other Breeders Crown winners in action will be Felicityshagwell S, Joviality S, Niki Hill, Ocean Rock, and Rocknificent.

ICYMI: Kindergarten finals won by Niki Hill, Hammering Hank, Misswalner Fashion and Fast As The Wind

In the hangover from the star campaign of Party Girl Hill, the duo of owner Tom Hill and trainer Chris Ryder continue to ride their second wave of pacing filly power with the Always B Miki debutante Niki Hill, who strode to a 1:50.4 win in taking the $220,110 Kindergarten Classic Final for 2-year-old pacing fillies on Saturday (Nov. 13) at The Meadowlands.

Dont Fence Me In dashed for the lead from post 9 with Find Happiness securing the pocket and Treacherous Dragon racing third before pulling off the pylons and swooping for the lead into a :27.3 first quarter. Niki Hill tracked Treacherous Dragon's move up the backside and cleared command before a :55.2 half while cruising uncontested around the final turn.

By three-quarters in 1:23.4, Treacherous Dragon mounted a bid from the pocket after Niki Hill. But with a few whip taps from driver Dexter Dunn, Niki Hill stayed to task and kept Treacherous Dragon behind to win by 1-1/2 lengths under wraps in the end. Hood Party gained ground from a minor first-over bid to take third from Dont Fence Me In, who settled for fourth.

"We got lucky," trainer Chris Ryder said after the race on having another prominent pacing filly just one year after Party Girl Hill. "[We] did a little bit of homework and stumbled across her – she was right in front of me actually a half a dozen times. I always say usually what you're looking for is right in front of you, but we managed to get the right one and it's a thrill.

"There's always something they can't do, but she's doing everything we're asking of her. There's a bit of pressure when you're supposed to win, but all the credit goes to her. She's just terrific. When you're training horses and racing a lot of horses, you know a lot of things can go wrong. But terrific horses overcome problems, and she's done that so far."

Winning her eighth race from nine starts, Niki Hill has banked $732,866 through her season, which includes victories in the $395,395 Shes A Great Lady at Woodbine Mohawk Park and the $600,000 Breeders Crown Final two weeks ago at The Meadowlands. Niki Hill has one more start this year in the Three Diamonds on Saturday (Nov. 20) at The Meadowlands.

Sent the 1-5 favorite, Niki Hill paid $2.40 to win.

Hammering Hank pounds out Kindergarten Classic final victory

Thundering to the top approaching the half, Hammering Hank

and driver Dexter Dunn won the $238,700 Kindergarten Classic Final for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings Saturday night (Nov. 13) at The Meadowlands in 1:51.1.

PJ Lou and JD fired from the outside with Early Action holding third and Hammering Hank fourth over Camouflage Money. Early Action took to the outside at the :28 first panel and got the lead as Hammering Hank stepped away from the pylons, shooting by Early Action to take command of the field.

The half went in :55.2 as Hammering Hank secured the lead over Early Action. Camouflage Money moved to race first over, followed by Captainryanmichael, but those two stalled wide of PJ Lou as Mad Max Hanover sprung into gear at three-quarters in 1:23.3.

Meanwhile on the front, there was no challenge for the lead late. Hammering Hank rolled home in hand to a lifetime-best 1:51.1 to get his eighth win from 10 starts. Early Action gave futile pursuit to settle for second with PJ Lou holding third and Mad Max Hanover rallying for fourth.

This was Dexter Dunn's third win in four Kindergarten Classic Finals on the evening.

Brett Pelling trains the son of Captaintreacherous who has now earned $238,683. 3 Brothers Stables, Pelling Racing and Rojan Stables own Hammering Hank.

Dexter Dunn said Hammering Hank gave him, "the impression that when you ask him to do what you want, he'll do it. Once we got away fourth, we were first over probably before the half, so we made a move and sprung home great."

"He's been like that from the get go when he was young," Brett Pelling said. "When we were training in sets and even when we were going our 2:30 miles. You would look across and he was always right there and effortless—and effortless speed is real speed. We knew he would just carry on with it."

"Brett's done a great job with him," Dunn said. "He's turned into a great, versatile horse and his high speed obviously helps him a lot. He's done it both ways now."

Off the 4-5 favorite, Hammering Hank paid $3.80 to win.

as Lookin Chic refused to trot and Palmero Hanover broke. Valentina Blu went straight for the front but was in second quickly as Misswalner Fashion grabbed the top and glided into a :28.1 first quarter. Little Pink Lies sat third and favorite Lilbitalexis rolled along in fourth.

Misswalner Fashion stayed in command going to the half in :57 while Lilbitalexis came first over, giving cover to Brickhouse Babe. Neither made up much ground as Misswalner Fashion began to draw off, clocking three-quarters ahead by three lengths in 1:24.3.

The daughter of Walner continued to dictate the mile in deep stretch, maintaining her three-length advantage while Valentina Blu chased in second and Primadonna Deo made a late rush to the center of the track to take third from Brickhouse Babe.

Misswalner Fashion collected her fifth win in eight starts under the supervision of trainer Jim Campbell. Jules Siegel and Judith M. Peres own Misswalner Fashion, whose earnings rose to $211,638. She paid $5.60 to win.

After the race, Tim Tetrick emphasized his confidence in the “really nice filly.” He said she “felt great cruising right along like she was doing no work. I knew [Lilbitalexis] would have to come first up so I let [my filly] trot pretty good around the turn and she finished up good. It was a “big mile for the young filly.”

Trainer Campbell said Misswalner Fashion likes The Meadowlands, but she surprised him racing at The Red Mile. “She made a break the first week and then raced kind of dull the second week and that surprised me but I’m glad she picked tonight.”

She was a late starter this season but “It wasn’t by design,” Campbell said. “She baby raced early. We were going to race her in the first leg of the sires stakes but she came up sick. We weren’t going to try to rush her back. We just took our time with her. It worked out okay. She finishes with a nice year and hopefully she’ll come back and be a good filly for us next year.”

Fast As The Wind breezes through to Kindergarten Crown

Driver Dexter Dunn may have been locked for life with Fast As The Wind around the final turn, but just enough room opened at the pylons for the 3-2 favorite to skim through and nail the 3-2 second choice Coach K Hanover at the line of the $300,960 Kindergarten Classic Final for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings on Saturday (Nov. 13) at The Meadowlands.

Fast As The Wind fired off the wings from post 9 for the front but settled for the pocket as Ake Svanstedt and Coach K Hanover clicked the first quarter in :27.2. Robertsin raced third up the backside with Pretender slightly gapped in fourth to a :56.1 half.

With action dormant through the first half, Pretender pulled out of fourth to the final turn and blitzed Coach K Hanover to three-quarters and pinned Fast As The Wind to the pegs in the process. Pretender stayed to Coach K Hanover's side through three-quarters in 1:25.4 despite losing ground overland, but off the turn Pretender surged after Coach K Hanover while Fast As The Wind needed clearance.

“[Ake Svanstedt] pretty quickly put me back in the two-hole there didn’t he,” Dexter Dunn said after the race. “I actually went to move onto Andy [McCarthy driving Pretender]’s back coming off the three-quarters there and Ake [Svanstedt]’s one kicked pretty hard when he saw me do that. So I thought I was going to lose a couple lengths if I had to go around Andy’s horse and I took my chance and he got up just in time.”

Luck for Dunn came at the misfortune of Andy McCarthy, whose colt lost stride as he hit the wheel of Coach K Hanover while the tempo-setter drifted off the pylons. The developed opening gave Fast As The Wind a wide enough lane to scoot into competition late and land a head in front of Coach K Hanover at the end of a 1:55 mile. Pretender’s break in stride fell as interference by Coach K Hanover, prompting the judges to disqualify him from second to fifth. Robertsin was elevated from third to second with Ken’s Walner assuming third and Pretender taking fourth.

“[Ake Svanstedt] had a glance around, I don’t know if he wasn’t happy on the front with his one,” Dunn said after the race. “But as soon as I came off his helmet, he went on a bit so we dove back in there. Fast As The Wind is just so versatile – you use him off the gate, he’ll drop in a hole, relaxes and does his best at the end of the mile.”

Fast As The Wind, a colt by Cantab Hall conditioned by Tony Alagna, now owns four wins from 14 starts and has banked $361,274 for owners Leblanc And Kribbs, Joe Sbrocco and Joe Barbera, the last of whom shared his excitement for entering The Meadowlands winner’s circle.

“It’s a very tricky ground over here,” Barbera said, “but every once in a while you get to touch it. This is sacred ground and you’ve got to appreciate it because it’s hard to get here.”

Fast As The Wind returned $5 to win.

Enavant captures $100,000 Potomac Pace at Rosecroft Raceway

by Pete Medhurst for Rosecroft Raceway

Having done everything you possibly can without winning a race would describe Enavant's last three months. Having not won since Aug. 21, Enavant picked a great time to break through as he scored a 1:48 victory on Sunday (Nov. 14) in the $100,000 Potomac Pace at Rosecroft Raceway.

Enavant was second in the Mohawk Gold Cup to the favorite Allywag Hanover and Sunday night turned the tables on him with a change of tactics as his driver Dan Dube pressed on parked to the first quarter in :26. Clearing Allywag Hanover at the three-eighths pole, Enavant kept on through fractions of :53.2 and 1:20.3 and drew away to a 2-3/4 length victory. Allywag Hanover (Todd McCarthy) held for second, while Jack's Legend N (Dexter Dunn) was third.

It was the 16th win in 25 lifetime starts for the 5-year-old son of Somebeachsomewhere—Lady Be Great and his 1:48 equaled the track older gelding record with last year's Potomac winner

Maryland

Leonidas A, who finished sixth this year.

"He was good. I left out of there and kept going; he was strong," Dube said.

Enavant has been rallying from way back in his recent outings, but the change of tactics worked out well for trainer Luc Blais and the gelding owned by Determination and Guy Corbeil.

Yannick Gingras and Covered Bridge won the $25,000 Henry Sacks Memorial Pace in 1:50, powering out of the pocket to beat a game Sugartown (Dube) and Rocktavius (Jason Thompson).

Tim Tetrick won the $12,000 Open Handicap with JJ Flynn, wire-to-wire in 1:50.3 over Shim (Russell Foster) and Starship (Jonathan Roberts).

Roger Plante drove four winners on the Sunday night card, while Foster won twice. Trainers Ken Scholtzhauer, John Wagner, Brian Tomlinson and Timmy Offutt won twice.

Perfect Sting to stand in New Jersey

Perfect Sting, the undefeated Dan Patch champion at 2 and Breeders Champion at both 2 and 3, will enter stud in 2022 and stand at Deo Volente Farms in Flemington, NJ. His initial fee has been set at $10,000.

Syndication is underway for the promising young stallion, who is owned by George Segal's Brittany Farms and partner Marty Granoff's Val D'Or Farms. Perfect Sting's stud career will be managed by Brittany Stallion Management, which, many might recall, managed the careers of two of the greatest sires of the modern era, Valley Victory and Artsplace.

Perfect Sting becomes the fifth stallion on Deo Volente's growing roster. The farm, headed by Mike Gulotta, is widely recognized as one of the industry's showplace facilities. Its natural beauty and state-of-the-art amenities make it a premier destination for those breeding in the Garden State.

Horses sired by New Jersey stallions will have increased money-making opportunities in 2022 and beyond. In addition to a 20 percent increase in New Jersey Sire Stakes purses, an additional $2-million plus – from Meadowlands gaming revenue – will revive the New Jersey Classics, with those going for purses up to $300,000.

In making today's announcement, Brittany manager Art Zubrod said Perfect Sting's move to a stud career follows a plan mapped out some time ago.

"Perfect Sting was literally bred to be a stallion," Zubrod said. "He's by the sport's fastest pacer ever, Always B Miki (1:46), and from the fastest 3-year-old pacing filly ever, Shebestingin. Her mark is 1:47.

"Even very early on, just looking at his physique and overall presence, we knew this was a special horse... a striking dark bay with what we hoped had a bright future, and that certainly played out beautifully."

Perfect Sting retires to stud with career earnings of $1,808,147 and was never off the board his entire career. In 26 starts he posted 17 wins, 8 seconds and 1 third.

He personified the "perfect" in his name during his 2-year-old season.

He paced to his 1:49.2 mark – a North American season's record – winning a Kentucky Sire Stakes. He went on to win the KYSS Final and back-to-back Grand Circuit stakes at the Red Mile before becoming the sport's first-ever undefeated 2-year-old to win the Breeders Crown.

He was a near-unanimous selection in being voted the Dan Patch Award for 2-Year-Old Male Pacer of the Year.

This year at 3 he lowered his career race record to 1:48.1 and finished first or second in the $1,000,000 North America Cup, $700,000 Meadowlands Pace, Little Brown Jug, Tattersalls Pace, Cane Pace and Hempt Memorial.

His tour de force performance came in the elimination and final of this year's Breeders Crown. He not only won those races in emphatic fashion and beat the best in his division, but became the first male pacer to win both the 2 and 3-year-old Crowns since 1998.

Those interested in breeding to Perfect Sting – or joining what's expected to be a syndicate of North America's leading breeders – are asked to contact Art Zubrod at (859) 873-3878 or email art@britfarms.com.

Century Farroh to stand at Seelster Farms

Seelster Farms welcomes Breeders Crown winner and Canadian Horse of the Year, Century Farroh, to its 2022 stallion line-up.

Canadian born and bred by Century Spring Farms of Gorrie, ON, the Mach Three – Beachy Girl horse was a multiple stakes winner at 2 including the OSS Grassroots Final elim and final in 1:53s, but it wasn't until his three-year-old season that Century Farroh really began to shine.

At 3, he won the Somebeachsomewhere, the North American Cup Consolation, and the Simcoe at Woodbine Mohawk Park, along with the Jennas Beach Boy and Dan Patch Stake at Hoosier Park, all the while winning five consecutive OSS Gold legs at home at Mohawk and Georgian Downs.

Century Farroh handled the jump to aged competition with ease placing in nearly all open competition events including the Graduate, the William Haughton, the Sam McKee, the Canadian Pacing Derby, Dayton Pacing Derby, and winning the Dan Patch at Hoosier Park; while finally topping off his four-year-old season with a win in the Breeders Crown Final.

Winning consecutive O'Brien Awards as three-year-old pacing colt and aged pacer of the year; the Ian Moore trainee paced several "bridesmaid" miles at four in 1:47.3 and 1:47.4 and finishes his racing career with over $1.5 million.

Winnerup tops record-breaking Blooded Horse Fall Sale at $80,000

The 74th Annual Fall Blooded Horse Sale held Nov 16 in Springfield, OH broke all records for a single-day sale, grossing just over $4 million and averaging $10,752 for the 372 horses that went through the ring.

Winnerup, from the powerful Burke Racing Stable LLC consignment, was the sale topper at $80,000. Ohio owner/trainer Herman Hagerman signed the ticket for the handsome 5-year-old son of Credit Winner that sports a record of 1:52.1 and earnings of $333,015.

The Burke Racing Stable consignment also included the upper-class pacer East Beach, who went to Bill MacKenzie of New Jersey for $57,000, and the ultra-consistent 3-year-old pacer A Fearsome Hanover, a $50,000 purchase by Bob Cacamese of Maryland. Another top seller from the “Burke Brigade” was Free Thinker, a stakes-winning daughter of Western Vintage with earnings of $80,000 this year. She was hammered down to Roy Murphy of Ohio for $40,000.

Indiana open trotter Emma Town Bud was purchased by Michael Spaccarelli of New York for $52,000. The handsome 4-year-old son of Big Stick Lindy with earnings of $244,000 was consigned by Summit Pacing Acres.

Broodmares and potential broodmares were in high demand with the young Art Major daughter Member Berry p,2,1:55.2 topping that category on a $50,000 bid from Midwind Farms of Ohio. Emerald Highlands consigned the attractive half-sister to Breeders Crown winner Reflect With Me. Midwind Farms also signed the ticket for Captainandtelly for $36,000, a competitive Captaintreacherous filly from the same consignment.

Spring Haven Farm did a super-human job offering over 80 personal and agent horses at the one-day venue. Known for their quality yearlings and broodmares, the aisles were packed with potential buyers. The consignment was led by the producing Cantab Hall matron Meadowbranch Jill. In foal to Muscle Hill, Marvin Kuhns of Pennsylvania won the bidding war at $42,000. Randy Haines of Cool Winds Farm jumped in the fray and came out the winner on the impressive Somewhere Sweet p,2,1:51.1f ($356,309) in foal to Sweet Lou for $35,000. Next from Spring Haven was a stunning black Andover Hall daughter Hallmark Session, in foal to What The Hill, that was purchased by Vanessa Schockemoehl of Germany for $35,000. Schockemoehl was also the successful bidder on Marion Mardi Gras – a Cantab Hall half-sister to Hambletonian winner Marion Marauder – for $30,000 from the Ruddick Stables consignment.

The sale opened with 100 black-type yearlings eligible to a variety of state-funded programs. First-crop sire Enterprise, by Chapter Seven, was responsible for the top two, with Richard Owings of Ohio signing the ticket for $28,000 on the beautiful filly Royalentertainment from Rose Run Farm and David Ratchford of Nova Scotia winning the bid at $25,000 for the stunning colt Beach Friend, consigned by Dublin Valley Farm.

Also of note was the especially handsome Stay Hungry colt Dark As Night, consigned by Ruddick Stables and sold to Erv Miller of New Jersey for $22,000, and the Swan For All colt No More Tickets from the Spring Haven Farm consignment. He went to Byron Hooley of Indiana for $21,000.

McNair sweeps SBOA finals

Sophomore fillies squared off in the SBOA Stakes on Saturday night (Nov. 13) at Woodbine Mohawk Park to put a wrap on the 2021 Woodbine standardbred stakes season.

The SBOA for Ontario sired 3-year-old fillies saw full fields of 10 battle in a pair $144,825 finals.

Twin B Sunkissed prevailed in an exciting three across finish to win the filly pace final for driver Doug McNair and trainer Richard Moreau. The daughter of Sunshine Beach got a two-hole trip behind Voelz Delight, angling out in the lane and reaching the wire first to hold off a rallying Bet On Becky by a head and Voelz Delight by half a length. (replay here)

"She's pretty handy I think," said McNair of Twin B Sunkissed. "She floated off the gate pretty good and got good positioning and we followed the horse we kind of thought would take us the distance and she did."

After posting a :27 opener, Twin B Sunkissed followed Voelz Delight through fractions of :55.3 and 1:24.2. The Moreau trainee stopped the clock in 1:53.4.

Twin B Sunkissed was purchased in late October by Ecurie Csl and 9174 7998 Quebec Inc. and has now won two of three starts in the Moreau barn. Her latest victory improves her three-year-old totals to four wins and $186,643 earned in 15 starts, while boosting her career numbers to five wins and $312,755 earned in 26 outings.

A $2 win ticket on Twin B Sunkissed returned $14.40.

McNair completed the SBOA sweep just two races later, guiding Ontario Sires Stakes Super Final champion Up And Ready to a strong three-length victory in the filly trot final. The John Bax trainee cleared to the lead entering the backstretch and never looked back, putting away a rival at three-quarters and edging away to win in 1:56.3. (replay here)

"She's just been getting real good here near the end of the year," said McNair of Up And Ready. "Little bit of money on the line and she got to gather it all up, so I was happy for all the connections, Marvin Katz, and Al Libfeld was here tonight, so it was just a great race."

Up And Ready reached the half in :58.2 before being confronted by Wee Jill on the far turn, holding a length advantage at three-quarters in 1:27.3. The daughter of Kadabra was clearly the best, putting aside all challengers and cruising home in :29 over a 'Good' track for the victory.

Hp Mama B rallied for second, while Midnight Miracle edged Wee Jill for third.

Up And Ready late season success gives her three wins and $361,682 earned for her three-year-old season. The Bax trainee now sits with career totals of four wins and $552,434 earned for owners Al Libfeld, Marvin and Lynn Katz, and Sam Goldband.

A $2 win ticket on Up And Ready returned $3.40.

Hanover Shoe Farms wins the Mary Lib Miller Award

The Keystone Chapter of the United States Harness Writers Association (USHWA) have announced their annual awards for outstanding accomplishments by Pennsylvania or Pennsylvania-connected interests, both in 2021 and for some over a longer period of time.

The Mary Lib Miller Award is named after the gracious and helpful wife of "Mr. Harness Racing," Hall of Famer Delvin Miller of The Meadows and Adios fame, and this year it has been awarded to the Standardbred industry's leading nursery, Hanover Shoe Farms in southcentral Pennsylvania.

Hanover has been the leading money-winning breeder in every year since Standardbred records began to be kept in 1949, and in this, its 74th consecutive year as #1, it seems likely to top the second-best production year ever, the $31.6M the farm's offspring earned in 2018 – a figure which has been exceeded only by Hanover's own record $34.0M total of 2019.

It has stood and continues to stand a mix of established and classic stallions – its current roster includes Andover Hall, Cantab Hall, Greenshoe, Papi Rob Hanover, and Tall Dark Stranger – and it is noted for its "aftercare" life arrangements for horses after their breeding careers are over. Overseen by some of the legendary names in the business – Sheppard, Simpson, Williams, Spears – Hanover is indeed the best of its type the sport offers.

Keystone president Heather Wilder has given a Presidential Award to Dr. John Egloff, patriarch of Vieux Carré Farms in Gettysburg (Vieux Carré is French for "old square," a nod to the native Louisiana of the doctor and his wife Judy). Dr. Egloff started in harness racing as a farm veterinarian, then decided to run his own operation with the opening of Vieux Carré in 1978.

Champions born and raised at Vieux Carré including Always B Miki, champion racehorse (1:46) and sire; Pine Chip, the fastest trotter ever (T1:51) at the time (1994); and no fewer than seven Breeders Crown champions in all. Dr. Egloff serves on several national influential boards within the sport, and he is a member of the Pennsylvania State Harness Racing Commission.

The 3-year-old Creatine trotting colt Jujubee was voted the Pennsylvania Sire Stakes Horse of the Year. Trained by Greg Wright Jr. for owner/trainer Jon Erdner, Jujubee was top point-earner in his Sire Stakes preliminaries with two wins and two seconds, then won handily in his Championship in 1:51.4, a stakes record. The sophomore also posted the highest money total among all 2021 PASS competitors, earning $219,416 in the program. Jujubee would also win twice in sub-1:50 time, taking his mark with a 1:49.3 in the Kentucky Futurity, and then ending his campaign with a Breeders Crown victory, and sport a seasonal bankroll of $948,791.

The Schadel Family of father Todd, mother Christine, and son Cody has won the Outstanding Fair Stable award after winning at a high rate throughout the year, with Todd the winningest trainer and driver and 19-year-old Cody finishing ninth in the drivers' ranks in his first full season of competition. Christine is a partner in many of the horses coming out of the barn; she owns many with Todd, and some with other partners.

Seth Dowling, a multitalented worker for the Pennsylvania Horse Racing Association (the state's marketing arm for racing), has been selected as the Keystone chapter's Member of the Year. Seth has been a trainer, but these days he is well-known for his work on the Pennsylvania fair circuit, serving as photographer for several years, and this season serving as a one-man production crew in sending out the fair races live, handling the camera work and the production board in real time.

Sam Beegle and Rachel Olszewski of the Pennsylvania Harness Horsemen's Association have been instrumental in working with Keystone USHWA to allow our awards to be presented at the annual end-of-the-year awards banquet, which will take place this year on Saturday, Jan. 22, 2022 at the Omni Bedford Springs Resort. The writers will also be producing a souvenir journal which will honor both its own award winners and all of the top horses and horsemen racing on the Pennsylvania fair circuit. More news about the banquet (reservations, tickets) and advertising in the souvenir journal will be available shortly.

New York Sire Stakes holds virtual banquet

United States Trotting Association District 8 announces the winners of its 2021 year-end awards. Ahundreddollarbill was named the district's Horse of the Year. George Ducharme has been named Trainer of the Year; Pari-Mutuel Driver of the Year goes to Jason Bartlett; County Fair Driver of the Year is Kyle Cummings and Horse of the Year goes to Ahundreddollarbill.

Ducharme had 22 starters and 90 starts this season with NYSS and Excelsior Series earnings of $364,914. The leading money-winning trainer at Vernon Downs this year, overall he has posted the third highest earnings of his career this season - $1.5 million.

A resident of Goshen, NY, Bartlett earned more than a million dollars traveling the Sire Stakes circuit this summer, while also posting more than $5.3 million at his home track of Yonkers. Bartlett is on pace to post his largest number of starts in a decade in 2021.

With 50 starts on the circuit, Cummings brought 26 home for the win. On his home circuit in Western New York, Cummings has already doubled his seasonal earnings from last year and directing horses to more than $600,000 in purses so far this season.

Ahundreddollarbill, owned by District 8's Crawford Farms Racing and James Crawford IV, earned the top honor of the evening. The son of Chapter Seven won four NYSS legs, the Empire Breeders Classic and the Canadian Trotting Classic on his way to $633,000 in seasonal earnings with eight wins in 13 starts.

The awardees were recognized during the joint NYSS and USTA District 8 virtual banquet held Sunday, Nov. 14 on Facebook Live. The evening honored champion horses, trainers, drivers, owners and breeders of the NYSS, the Excelsior Series, the New York County Fair Series and the USTA divisional champions.

One more huge Saturday on tap at The Big M

The stars will be out and shining brightly Saturday night at The Meadowlands, as the final circle-worthy date on the harness racing calendar for the year 2021 will feature many of the game's top performers during a power-packed 14-race card on "Fall Final Four/TVG Finals Night". Post time for the first race is 6:20 p.m.

Plenty will be on the line as divisional honors and – quite possibly – Horse of the Year could be won or lost as four events for 2-year-olds and four others for 3-years-old and older will be contested on the program for horses of each sex and gait.

The great eight are:

- Race 4 – $413,600 Valley Victory for 2-year-old trotting colts and geldings: Kindergarten winner Fast As The Wind searches for his third straight victory. He missed by just a half-length from post 10 to winner Rebuff in the Breeders Crown on Oct. 29.
- Race 5 – $175,000 TVG Mares Pace: Rocknificent and Lyons Sentinel, the best two older pacing mares in training who finished 1-2 in the Breeders Crown, renew their rivalry.
- Race 6 – $479,450 Goldsmith Maid for 2-year-old trotting fillies: Two weeks after going off stride and failing to qualify for the Breeders Crown Final, Venerable dominated her foes in the Matron to win for the ninth time this year in 10 tries.
- Race 7 – $175,000 TVG Mares Trot: Bella Bellini, the Hambletonian Oaks and Breeders Crown champion, takes on a big challenge as the 3-year-old takes on the likes of older standouts Felicityshagwell S, the Breeders Crown champion, and Atlanta, the co-fastest trotting mare in history (1:49) who recently ran her lifetime earnings past the $3-million mark.
- Race 8 – $386,600 Governor's Cup for 2-year-old pacing colts and geldings: Hammering Hank hit it out of the park in the Kindergarten to up his stats to eight wins from just 10 starts.
- Race 9 – $350,000 TVG Open Trot: A remarkably wide-open event features Beads, who was second after displaying speed a week ago in a conditioned event, taking on Amigo Volo, second a week ago to a fast-closing When Dovescry in another conditioned race.
- Race 10 – $359,450 Three Diamonds for 2-year-old pacing fillies: Niki Hill has been nothing short of a superstar all season long, as her record of eight wins from nine starts, which includes victories in the She's A Great Lady, Breeders Crown and Kindergarten, prove.
- Race 11 – $350,000 TVG Open Pace: Despite failing to win the Breeders Crown and Potomac in his last two, Allywag Hanover is hanging on to the lead in the division by a thread. Looking to overtake him is the horse who nailed him in the Crown, Ocean Rock, who has taken the Dayton Derby, Hoosier Park Pacing Derby and Ewart during his superb 2021 season.

Purses for the eight stakes events total $2,689,100.

"The Meadowlands is proud to present these classic races on a mile track," said track chief operating officer and general manager Jason Settlemyer. "If the Breeders Crown was any indication, the racing fans and horseplayers will likely see some of the greatest performances of the year at The Meadowlands this Saturday night."

THAT'S A HALF-DOZEN, COUSIN: The Hambletonian Society/Breeders Crown Standardbred Poll weekly Top 10 that came out Tuesday (Nov. 16) morning revealed that six of the horses listed will be at The Big M Saturday. Here is the poll from top to bottom, with horses racing at The Meadowlands Saturday bearing an asterisk (*): Test Of Faith, Jujubee, *Niki Hill, *Bella Bellini, *Lyons Sentinel, *Venerable, *Allywag Hanover, Perfect Sting, Ecurie D DK, *Atlanta.

SATURDAY NIGHT SPECIALS: Plenty of The Meadowlands' popular wagers that sport a low 15 per cent takeout will be available on the Saturday night card. They are:

- Race 1: 20-cent Pick-5
- Race 4: 20-cent TVG All-Stakes Survivor Pick-7
- Race 6: 50-cent Early Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 8: 20-cent Pick-6
- Race 10: 50-cent Late Pick-4 ($50,000 guaranteed pool)
- Race 14: 10-cent non-jackpot Pentafecta/Hi-5

DON'T MISS THE SHOW: Racing continues at The Meadowlands through the end of the year with the usual Friday-Saturday schedule, with one exception, as there will be no live racing on Dec. 24 or Dec. 25.

The Big M's live in-house simulcast presentation gets underway on live race nights at 5:47 p.m. with the first race at 6:20 p.m.

GET SOCIAL: Everything Meadowlands is available by going on Twitter. You can check in with the Big M team for early changes, racing information and staff selections by going to @themedowlands or #playbigm.

On race nights, stay in touch with Jessica Otten (@JessicaOtten1), Dave Brower (@eedoogie), Dave Little (@DaveLittleBigM), Ken Warkentin (@kenvoiceover), Shades Demsky (@ShadesOnRacing) and Edison Hatter (@Edison_1999_).

COME OUT AND PLAY: It's always best when watching and wagering on the action at The Meadowlands to come out and be there in person, but for those who either live too far away or can't make it out to the races for any reason, they can still experience the best harness racing in the world several ways.

An affordable way to view not only the action at The Big M, but virtually all harness and Thoroughbred tracks, is to get a subscription to the Roberts Television Network. For more information, go to www.rtn.tv.

There are a handful of Advance-Deposit Wagering spots where one can wager on Meadowlands races, one such site where you can make bets and watch the action live is the Television Games Network. For more information, go to tv.com.

FREE PROGRAMS? YES! Talk about a great deal! Free program pages for every race of every Meadowlands race card are always available. Just go to playmeadowlands.com to access the no-cost past performances.

WHO DOES BROWER LIKE? For expert selections and analysis of every Big M card, check out track oddsmaker Dave Brower's race reviews.

For Brower's input, which is generally available 48 hours before every card, go to playmeadowlands.com, then click on the "handicapping" tab and go to "race reviews".
